

'Around the Hub City'

"Around the Hub City" had an opportunity of talking to the chairman of the Debutante committee for the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority last week, and it was quite a pleasure to get the news "first hand" from the organization. It appears, from our talk, that this is going to be a lavish affair... better than the initial one in 1964, at least these are the expectations.

There will be a special attraction to this year's ball, a special "King and Queen" contest will held, featuring the little people, boys and girls between three and five years of age. This affair will come in December at Bethel A. M. E. Church. It should be a beautiful success.

It appears as though a local radio station is forever broadcasting that their frequency and a daily newspaper are the only means that Lubbock has for its EDITORIALS. Of course, the West Texas Times disagrees with them. We are only a weekly, but yet, we, too, like these other two news medias, are responsible for informing a rather large market here in the "Hub City" and the South Plains...

It will be a beautiful site on tomorrow night, Friday, when the Lubbock chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority presents its annual "RED and WHITE BALL" at the American Legion Hall in Yellowhouse Canyon. This affair is a little early this year, but the people of Lubbock will surely welcome such a lovely affair.

Let's get one thing straight before we make any plans for the lovely ball. The invitation says FORMAL. Let's keep it that way. It does not mean that you can come MERELY DRESSED UP and expect to get in. Ladies, this means that you will have dig out your formal attire, short or long, and please NO SUITS OR DRESSES for the affair. Men, the same applies to you, either you will have to rent or purchase a TUX. Yes, TUX...not a black or blue suit. "AROUND THE HUB CITY" will be there, of course, and observing the proper dress of each of you and dancing.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy Mayes, 1010 East 28th Street, apt. B, left here Monday by automobile for a fall vacation. Fort Worth, Corsicana, Mexia, Giddings, and Ledbetter are only a few of the cities that they will visit. They are expected to return to the "Hub City" on Monday after spending a glorious week with friends and relatives.

The man on Avenue "A" is saying that some persons talk simply because they think sound is more manageable than silence.

The Eastridge Agency is on the move...and may we add to a very beautiful site to move into. The new location of the agency is located at 1801 East Broadway.

Edward Deo and R.J. Givens cordially invites each of you to come by and see them and look over there new location. By the way, OPEN HOUSE will be featured soon. Tell Deo and Givens that "AROUND THE HUB CITY" sent you by.

Three students of Mary & Mac, Robert Lee Walker, Robert Franklin, and Lincoln Lewis, were chosen from their school to be among the students to be presented tonight at the Youth Appreciation program which is sponsored by the Monterey Optimists clubs.

Students To Be Honored Here Tonight

Couple Plans November Vows

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson has announced the engagement of their daughter, Willie Mae Wilson, to Alford Lee Hervey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hervey, Route 6 Lubbock.

The couple will marry Sunday, November 20th, in the chapel of the Bethel A. M. E. Church with the Reverend A. W. Wilson, pastor, officiating.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Dunbar High School and has attended Texas Tech for a semester.

Hervey, also a Dunbar graduate and a former student of Texas Tech, is employed at Globe Discount City.

Mrs. Sharon Jackson, 2205 Quirt Avenue, apt 5, is shown above holding her darling of a son, Michael, five weeks old, a future Lubbockite.

Michael is the son of Henry James Jackson, a former student of Dunbar high school and veteran of the U.S. Army. Jackson is employed at the Ralston Purina company here.

Approximately sixty junior high school students will be honored tonight, Thursday, by the Monterey Optimist Club during an observance of Youth Appreciation Week, which began Sunday.

In a City Council meeting last Thursday, Mayor W. D. Rogers, Jr., designated the special week in a proclamation.

The Monterey Optimist Club president, Carson Smith, will present framed certificates of appreciation in observance of the special fete at 7:30 p.m. at St. John Methodist Church.

The six outstanding students from each of the ten schools were chosen on the basis of good citizenship in the home, school and community as well as on the basis of leadership qualities, moral and spiritual qualities, academic achievement, personality and personal appearance.

Students who are to be honored from the E. C. Struggs Junior High School include Lee Ernest Bagley, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bagley, 2432 East 29th Street; Anniece Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lawson, 1804 East 26th Street, both seventh graders; and two eighth graders, Jackelon Outland, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Eugene Dill, 2802 East 30th Street, and Edward Newsome, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newsome, Sr., 2111 East 30th Street.

Special guests at the program will include the parents of the students and principals, teachers and counselors from the schools.

Featured speaker will be Tom Wilson, former Texas Tech quarterback and now an assistant coach at the college.

C. A. Farley, Posey Elementary School principal, is chairman of the Youth Appreciation Week observance, which was instituted ten years ago by Optimist International.

Optimists say the reason for the observance is to counter-balance the attention given to the small percentage of nation's youth who flaunt the law.

Surprise Birthday Party Given

A surprise birthday party was given to Kenneth Wallace honoring his 15th birthday, October 29.

Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Willie Wallace, Sr., 2708 East 2nd Place, attends Alderson Junior High School where he is an active member of the football team...and we may add...a very good one at that.

He attends the Mount Gilead Baptist Church where he sings in the Youth Choir.

Many of his school friends attended the gala affair. Some of those attending included June Long, Dianne Cam, Gloria Hall, Arther Marie Jackson, Alice Mayes, Emma Glenn, Lee Ruth Washington, Mary Mayes, Emma Glenn, James Skief, Johnny Page, Mrs. Eliza Perryman, 76, 902 Quirt Avenue, was dead on arrival Monday morning at the St. Mary of the Plains hospital. She had become ill at her home.

Survivors include her husband, Burnell Perryman, Sr., of the home; seven sons, Charles, A. G., Burrell, Jr., and Willy Perryman of Lubbock; Samuel and Jimmy Perryman, both of Phoenix, Ariz., and Ezell Perryman, Oakland, California, and two daughters, Mrs. Bertha Lee Jones, Smithville, Texas, and Mrs. Eliza Locke, of Lubbock.

Jesse Dukes, Tommy Carl Beaver, Gerald Nathan McDouglas, and Issac Phillips.

Boy did they have a great time surprising Kenneth.

His aunt, Maria Anderson, and grandmother, Evelyn Anderson, were hostess of the party.

"FULL EQUALITY"

We hear so much about "Core" and "Full Equality" these days, but just what does "Full Equality" mean?, how shall we define it?

We accept the principle proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence that "All Men Are Created Equal". Yet their physical and mental powers are by no means uniform. Indeed, such differences often exert a significant influence on whether an individual achieves happiness and a successful life.

Citizens, of course, are equal in the eyes of the law—in the treatment in-so-far as all the relationships of individuals to one another are concerned. Society should be "just", yes, and, to the extent that law regulates or restrains or limits human behavior, the rules ought to be applied equally.

But, having conceded this, we still have not clarified the meaning of "Full Equality" or "a just society" in everyday life of the American people.

For in many respects we have always had "Full Equality" and a full sense of a "just society." People of every race and color and creed and ethnic origin have participated in it.

Negroes have attained "Full Equality" as they have made successes in business and in various professions and occupations. Was it education alone that helped them? Or was it recognition in a "just society" of their individual capacity, character and personality?

It is often asserted that lack of a high-school or college education among Negroes has barred them from being accepted as part of "a just society" but have you ever stopped to think that many among the whites have also had little schooling. Good character and congeniality, moreover, are not necessarily attributes of every educated or wealthy person.

"Full Equality" can never be accorded artificially to the shiftless and the lazy, the dishonest and the irresponsible no matter what color, for the punishments meted out by government and by society itself inevitably will segregate the good people from the bad. Morality Knows No Color Line.

Millions of Negroes today are discouraged by what some of their misguided and well-educated brethren—whites, as well as Negroes, are doing unwittingly to produce an unhappy life in America. Riots have been provoked and violence incited in city after city.

"Freedom of Association"—a Constitutional right—is being assailed. "Demonstrations" are directed at judges who maintain their membership in a private club confined to persons of one color. But we seem to have forgotten that some of the most respected of our fraternal organizations have always limited their membership to persons of a particular religious faith.

Government itself also becomes enmeshed in contradictions. Lately we have heard much about the theory of "equal opportunity". Governmental spokesmen have pleaded for it. Committees have been set up in states and cities to confer about it with employers. Businessmen have been urged to employ more Negroes.

To hire Negroes just for the sake of achieving a "racial balance" is to disregard efficiency. To reject a white person of superior ability in favor of a Negro applicant who is not qualified, or to reject a Negro of superior ability in favor of a white person who is not qualified, does not mean "Full Equality", it means discrimination. Only when the capability, character and personality are the sole yardstick of measurement will the meaning of "Full Equality" be thoroughly appreciated in "a just society."

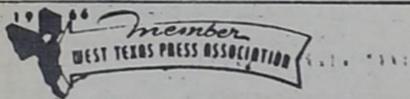

The personal prejudices of individuals will not be amended or reversed by violence or by physical force or by governmental coercion or decree.

The power of persuasion, on the other hand, is unlimited. But how can the process of reason be applied? And how can a better understanding of the correct meaning of "Full Equality" be attained?

Guidance will come from the tenets of our religious thinking. Since ancient days we have been taught that man has a duty to his fellow-man. No government can, by mere formal enactments, reach into the heart and mind of a citizen and cause him to associate with someone he hasn't learned to like. Only a man's conscience will tell him whether he is prejudiced by race or is selective by the everyday test of congeniality.

Many Negroes—unsung and unnoticed—are capable of acts of human brotherhood which equal those performed by persons of any other race or color.

Millions of people irrespective of color, have found a mutuality of understanding in one another, even in the era of discriminatory laws in the past. "Full Equality" has been enjoyed by individuals who have proved worthy of each other's friendship and esteem.

OPEN LETTER TO THE READERS OF THE "TIMES"

Dear Reader;

I was just thinking, how nice it would be if each one of you readers of The Manhattan Heights and West Texas Times would take the time to write a short letter of thanks to our publisher, Mr. Norman L. Williamson for being interested enough in us to publish the only newspaper on the South Plains dedicated to informing the Negro citizens of West Texas.

We realize that a city as large as Lubbock is large enough to have and support a Negro newspaper, and we should have one. So let's all get behind the "Times" and make it one of the most outstanding Negro newspapers in the country. It can be done you know, and we can put it over.

The mail should be addressed to Mr. Norman L. Williamson, Publisher; The Manhattan Heights Times; P. O. Box 225, Lubbock, Texas; 79408.

I'll be looking for those letters, so don't let me down.

Sincerely,
 The Editor

THEFT OF PANTS
Leon Brown, 311 16th Street, told police that he was sleeping in his place of business, because for the past several weeks his place had been looted by robbers, but this time he was going to catch the lotter (boy was he surprised) when he awoke and found out that he was robbed of his PANTS.
He went on to add that he happened to fall asleep and when he awoke he discovered that his pants were gone. According to Brown, they were lying on the chair in the room in which he was sleeping. The burglary did not hit it lucky, because all the pants contained was his driver's license. The pants were valued at $15.
For security reasons, Brown had placed a box in front of the door, but this didn't work, the looter slipped in and out of his web.

CUTTING
A young lady in East Lubbock told police that she and her husband had an argument one night last week. She said that in order to prevent any trouble she started over to her sister's house, but some how the angry husband stopped her not far from her house and another argument began. The lady, who was riding in a car, was ordered out of the car. She got out and another argument began. At this point, the man took out his pocket knife and cut her twice across the arm (rather deep) and struck her a minor blow in the arm pit. She was taken to a local hospital by Jamison's.

DUNBAR HIGH SCHOOL LOOTED
The principal of Dunbar, George Scott, Jr., told police that a janitor advised him that the cafeteria had been broken into one night last week. The janitor discovered it the following morning as he was opening up. It was learned that the looter entered the cafeteria and pried open three soda pop machines and took approximately $2.00 worth of nickles. Also several items of nickles goodies were taken.

BATTERY TAKEN WITHOUT ASKING
How about this one?
Rev. M. T. Reed, 2304 Cedar Avenue, reported to the police department that someone had enough nerve to open the front hood of his 1964 model car and remove his battery which was valued at $20.
The car was parked in his front yard.
It appears as though people will do anything for adventure and MONEY...

"I WAS ONLY SLEEPY..... HONESTLY"
Mrs. Hilton, 1701 Avenue D, told police that a man had crawled in the window of trailer house that she owns and had gone to sleep. The man who was quickly arrested-told police that he was only "SLEEPY"... honestly.
She said that the man did not live there and had broken in. She went on to say that she would file charges. He was arrested for investigation of a house burglary and vagrancy by no visible means of support.

Mom - Dads Club Meets

The regular meeting of the Mom and Dad's club was held last Monday evening with the vice president, Mrs. Thelma Evans, filling for the president, presiding over the meeting.
Coach James Hillyer spoke briefly over the game at Fort Worth last Saturday night where the Dunbar Panthers defeated Kirkpatrick 13-6.

He told the members that the entire squad played a splendid game.

The entire team was given the title of "Team of the Week", instead of the usual nomination of "Back and Lineman of the Week" since each player contributed a great deal toward the Saturday night's victory.

On Saturday night, at half-time, in the contest between the Panthers and Carver of Midland, the members of our organization, along with their son or Panther, will be presented.

The Christmas Bows, a project of our club, are now being sold. They only cost a dollar ($1.00), and anyone desiring a box may contact any member of our organization.

Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, Mrs. Bessie Cox, and Mrs. Addie Sterling were the ladies responsible for refreshments at the meeting.

Don't miss the game Saturday night.... and, of course, don't miss the meeting on Monday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Dunbar high school.

APARTHEID LINKS
Johannesburg--NPI--South Africa and Rhodesia are planning a joint railroad tieup between their two countries, to speed oil and other essential supplies cut off because of Rhodesia's unilateral declaration of independence with the white minority in full power. The link, 40 miles long, would tie West Nicholson, Rhodesia, with South Africa's North Transvaal town of Messina, to form a 1,600 mile direct line from Salisbury to Capetown.

WAR CONTINUES
Luanda---NPI---The fight to wrest Angola from the clutches of its colonial master, Portugal, is reportedly continuing on three fronts--the far northern enclave of Cabinda; along the northern border of Congo-Kinshasha; and in the eastern area of Cozombo. Six months ago, it was said the five-year old guerrilla action had been confined to a small mountainous triangle in the north. Now, however, a new offensive seems to have been mounted.

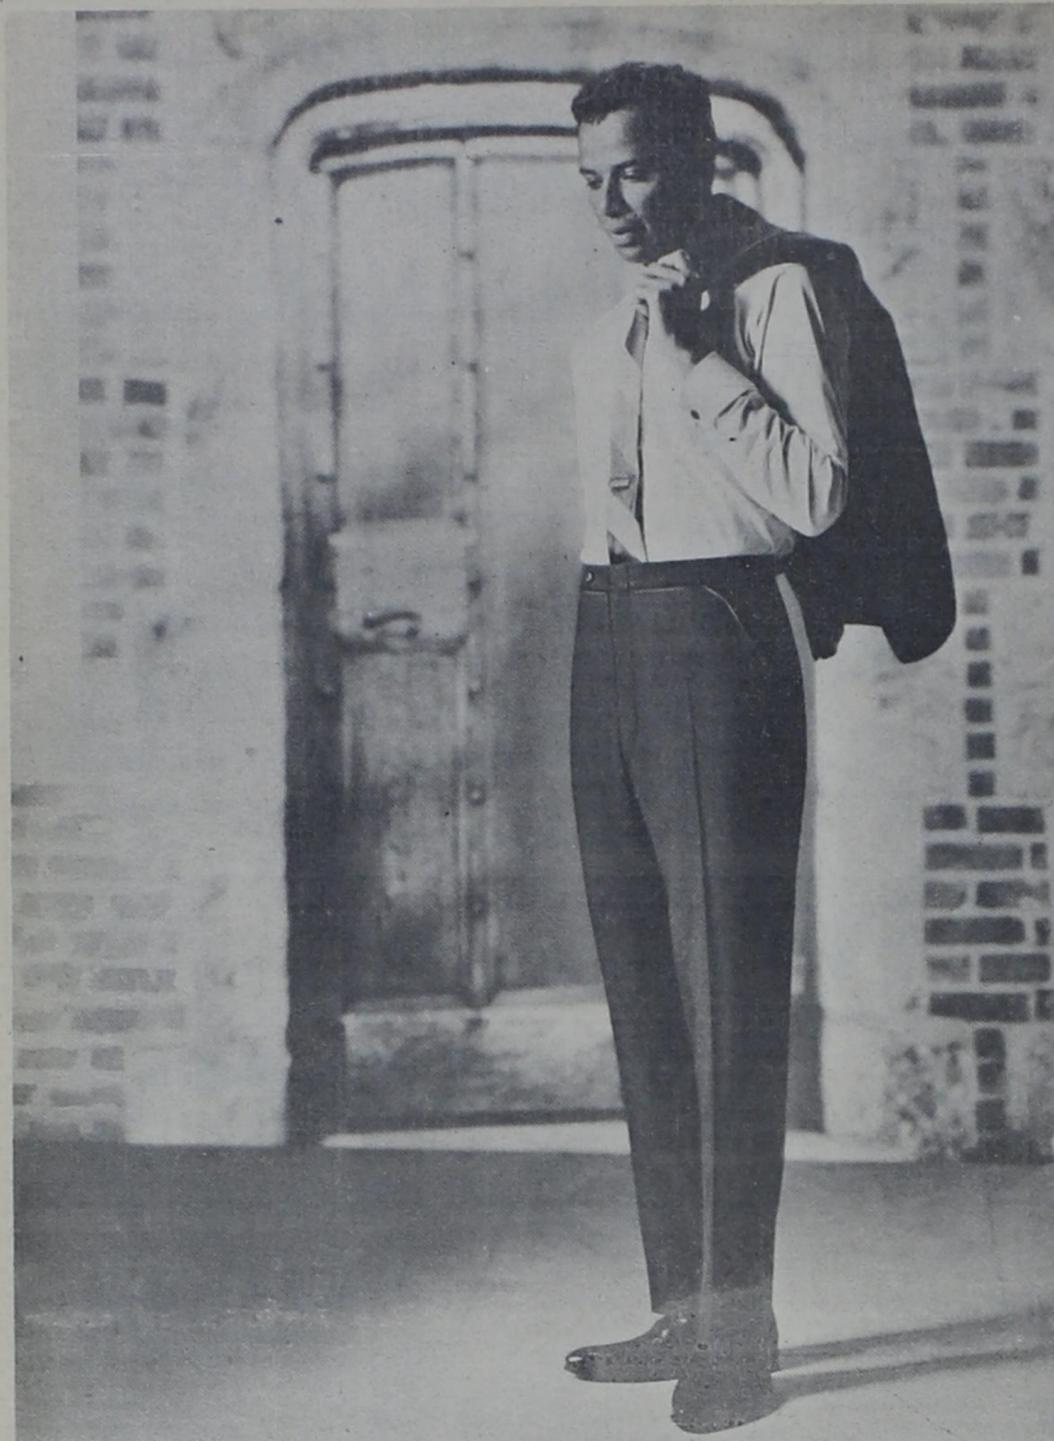

DEATH OF A LEGION
Madrid--NPI--Like its neighboring (French) counterpart, the Spanish Foreign Legion is fast dwindling into limbo, as its veteran fighters drop out, and their places remain vacant. Founded in 1919 as the Tercio Extranjero, the legion has done no fighting since 1958.

Great opportunities come to all, but many do not know they have met them. The only preparation to take advantage of them is single fidelity to what each day brings.

Negro Candidates Win Two Major Victories; 'Backlash' Losses Heavy

New York--NPI--Negro candidates won at least two major victories in the election upsets registered last week across the country. But the losses resulting from "backlash" triumphs for racist candidates far outweighed the gains.

In the major election victories, the nation got its first Negro U.S. Senator in the North and the first Negro sheriff in Alabama since Reconstruction. However, it also saw the defeat of a civilian-dominated police review board in New York, the overwhelming victory of Mrs. George Wallace as governor of Alabama, and an election tossup in Georgia between an out-and-out racist and an arch-conservative.

At the same time, a bid for political control by the "Black Panther" block in Alabama appeared to have fizzled.

The smashing victory of Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke in a race for U.S. Senator from that state was itself a mixed blessing.

Brooke is the first Negro to win a seat in the U.S. Senate since Reconstruction days. His Democratic opponent, Gov. Endicott Peabody, however has been far more active in promoting open housing and other civil rights causes.

Gov. Peabody's mother is remembered as a participant in recent rights marches in the South, during which she was jailed.

In electing Brooke, the state's 98 per cent white voters, oddly, may have been expressing a "backlash" sentiment of their own, preferring Brooke's lukewarm stand on civil rights--and especially the emotional issue of open housing--to Gov. Peabody's background in these areas.

In Alabama's Macon County, Korean war veteran Lucius D. Amerson defeated two white opponents by a 2-1 margin to become the first Negro sheriff in the state since Reconstruction.

In other election gains, all six Negro Congressmen were returned to their seats as predicted. All were backed by strong Democratic organizations and represented primarily Negro districts, thus encountering little "white backlash" opposition.

Re-elected were Reps. William L. Dawson, Chicago; John Conyers and Charles C. Diggs, both of Detroit; Robert Nix, of Philadelphia; Augustus Hawkins, Los Angeles; and Adam Clayton Powell, New York.

Rev. Powell's re-election came amid a cloud of doubt as to whether he would be allowed to serve his term.

An order for Powell's arrest has been issued by the New York Supreme Court, and a court suit has been filed challenging Powell's residency in his district. Powell has remained out of New York to avoid being arrested in a defamation case that has been dragging through the state's courts for several years.

His whereabouts, meanwhile, were not known.

Several gains were made by Negro winners in Illinois legislature races.

Richard Newhouse was elected in the state's 24th Senatorial district; Cecil Partee, 26th; Charlie Chew, 29th; and Fred Smith, 22nd.

In the House, Isaac Sims won in the 19th district; Otis G. Collins, 21st; Corneal A. Davis, J. Y. Carter, and Genoa S. Washington 22nd; Calvin J. Smith, 24th; Harold Washington, Owen D. Pelt, and J. Horace Gardner, 26th; Lewis A. H. Caldwell, Raymond W. Ewell, and Elwood Graham, 29th; and Kenneth Hall, 56th.

Hall is the first Negro representative in the Illinois House from East St. Louis.

At the time, Archibald J. Carey, Jr., was elected to the Cook County Circuit court. The election of Earl E. Strayhorn remained in doubt.

Glenn T. Johnson won an associate judgeship on the court.

At the same time, Negro candidates suffered election defeats.

In Michigan, Negro Republican George Washington lost his bid for secretary of state, despite a GOP landslide that defeated civil rights backer G. Mennen Williams, a former governor seeking election to the U.S. Senate.

In Minnesota, Stephen Maxwell was defeated in his bid for a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

The Negro Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi lost in its effort to unseat U.S. Sen. James O. Eastland and Reps. Thomas Abernethy and John Bell Williams, all Democrats.

In other election setbacks, Sen. Strom Thurmond won reelection as a Republican in South Carolina's first major two-party battle of this century. Sen. Thurmond, a former Democrat, is remembered as a leader of the State's Rights party.

In Virginia, Harry F. Byrd, Jr., a staunch conservative like his father, easily won a U.S. Senate seat, thus keeping the Byrd dynasty in power.

In three states, the "white backlash" put racial conservatives in governors' seats.

In California, Ronald Reagan,

Race Rioting, Shootings, Gang Slayings, Continue Despite Cold Weather

Ossining, N.Y.--NPI--Racial rioting, shootings, and gang slayings continued to plague the nation--both North and South--despite wintry weather that was supposed to cool tempers off, but didn't.

In Ossining, 400 Negro teenagers rampaged through the downtown streets, smashing two store windows, stomping a policeman unconscious, and injuring six other policeman.

The riot had some racial overtones, Mayor Richard B. Purdue said.

The trouble began when a group of teenage boys and girls started down the city's main street, throwing eggs and stones. A group of youngsters left a recreation center to join them.

Meeting in the street, the two groups joined in smashing a liquor store window and the windows of a five-and-dime store. Patrolman Mario Palmietto suffered a concussion when he tried to stop the young rioters.

The trouble ended when five youths were arrested on charges of assault and battery.

In Clearwater, Fla., hundreds of Negroes threw bottles and rocks through windows and shot out street lights in a spree of vandalism and rioting.

They threw paint on sides of buildings, smashed store windows and street lights, fired rifles into the air, and set trash fires in the streets.

Police Chief Willard Booth was hit in the stomach by a rock, but was not injured seriously. The youths threw rocks at any car driven by a white person.

In Chicago, gang violence continued to plague the Southside. Theresa Cole, 4, was shot dead during a gang dispute when a stray bullet fatally wounded her in her apartment.

An unidentified man, age 48, was fatally shot in the eye as he stepped out of a Southside drug store. A group of eight or nine youths firing guns from the roof of a nearby garage was blamed in the shooting.

Meanwhile, four gang youths were arrested on charges of firing into Scott Elementary school from an apartment across from the school. In arresting them, police found an arsenal of zip guns, hunting knives, and other weapons.

A different story was told in Biloxi, Miss., where racial harmony was being promoted by an enlightened mayor, Daniel Guice, and a population determined not to allow the mob attacks on Negroes of 1960 to be repeated in the city.

All of the city facilities, including its schools, are integrated, and three Negro policemen serve on its police force.

"We're so far ahead of any other city in Mississippi, it's incomparable," said Dr. Gilbert Mason, local NAACP leader, who was beaten during the city's 1960 racial troubles.

supported modified open housing and accused Mahoney of appealing to race hatred.

In Selma, Ala., racial moderate Wilson Baker defeated arch-segregationist James G. Clark in the Dallas County sheriff's race.

In Illinois, Mayor Robert Sabonjian of Waukegan, who openly courted the "white backlash" vote, was defeated in his write-in campaign for U.S. Senator. Sabonjian has blamed the NAACP for racial outbreaks in his city.

a Republican, won over his Democratic opponent, incumbent Gov. Pat Brown. Reagan, who has urged repeal of the state's open housing ordinance, won easily over Brown.

In Alabama, Mrs. Lurlean Wallace trounced Rep. James D. Martin, a Republican, to become the first woman governor in 30 years. Her husband, George Wallace, was the man behind the throne, who was barred from succeeding himself as governor, has made no bones about the fact that his wife will be a stand-in for him.

The segregationist plans to use his wife's victory, or his per say, as a springboard for his 1968 presidential plans.

In Georgia, it was a tossup between a racist and an arch-segregationist for governor, as neither Lester Maddox, a Democrat, nor Bo Calloway, a Republican, got a majority of the votes.

There was a strong possibility that the state could wind up with two governors--maybe three--as the state legislature prepared to decide on the state's governorship but was possibly blocked from doing so by a court suit challenging the mal-apportioned body's right to do so.

Meanwhile, incumbent Gov. Carl E. Sanders said he would remain as a caretaker governor until the question is settled.

In New York City, voters abolished the city's controversial civilian review board established by Mayor John V. Lindsay to weigh complaints of police brutality.

The backlash didn't win all the way, however.

In Maryland, Baltimore contractor George P. Mahoney lost the governor's race despite his slogan, "Your home is your castle--protect it." He lost to Republican Spiro T. Agnew, who

Dunbar Stops Fort Worth, 13-6

The fighting Dunbar Panthers added another notch to their ledger last Saturday night at Fort Worth by scoring twice in the first half and outlasted Kirkpatrick, who scored only once, to win a close district tilt, 13-6, and running their season record to a rather comfortable 8-1.

Willie Rogers set up the first tally on an eleven yard scamper to their opponent's one-yard line, and the field general for the Panthers, Paul Daniels, sneaked over on the very next play and also added the PAT.

Taking command at the end of the first quarter, 7-0, the Panthers scored again in the second period when speedy Lafayette Lyles rambled thirteen yards for a touchdown, but the point after failed; yet the Panthers went into their dressing room at half-time leading 13-0.

The crew from Kirkpatrick were unable to score until the final period when Greg Carey intercepted a Panther pass and ran it thirty yards to midfield and they were able to drive fifty-yards for the touchdown. The point after attempt failed. Dunbar led and went on to win 13-6.

The fighting eleven from the Maroon and White land threatened once again before the gun went off, but a penalty set the Panthers back and they never recovered.

Kirkpatrick threatened to tie the score in the final minute of play, but Wayne Davis intercepted a pass and ran it 26 yards to the Dunbar 30 and the Panthers ran out the clock.

Looking at the statistics of the game, Kirkpatrick had the edge in the contest, getting the most first downs, 10-8, and the most yards gained, 257-224.

Dunbar hit three of seven passes and Kirkpatrick connected on seven of 14 with both teams intercepting one. Dunbar punted five times for a 43 yard average and Kirkpatrick booted seven times, averaging 28 per try. The Panthers were penalized four times for sixty yards and Kirkpatrick was stuck 15 yards on only one violation.

Wichita Falls Leopards, who defeated the Panthers in district play earlier, defeated Midland Carver last Saturday night at Midland by score of 30-12, thus clinching the district play title.

If, and there is always one, the Panthers had defeated the Leopards in their meet, and the Leopards would have lost at Midland, then they (Panthers) would have been in good shape for the district title.

Neither the less, the Panthers will take on the Hornets of Midland Saturday night, in the closing game of the season, at Lowery Field. The Panthers will have an opportunity of finishing with nine wins against one defeat...judging from the game last Saturday which featured Wichita Falls and Midland, the Panthers shouldn't have any trouble.

The Panthers will win 21-6.

Thank You

We wish to thank our many

Ex-Panther Playing With SF Rams

Ralph Hodge, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hodge, Sr., 1304 East 17th Street, is now attending San Francisco City College and has been selected as a guard on the San Francisco Rams, a semi-professional football team.

He is a 1962 graduate of the Paul L. Dunbar High School here, where he was very active in football and basketball.

Hodge is happily married to the former Marie Franklin, and they recently became the parents of a baby boy.

The ability to run fancy and a lucky fall saved the life of a Slaton man from an execution last Sunday night.

It went like this, so he claims, two men, apparently from Slaton, took him from his residence to a canyon north of Slaton.

In talking to a deputy sheriff here in Lubbock early Monday morning, he told him that they were going to kill him because he wasn't treating his wife right. "They had already taken her to her house when they got me," he continued to add.

At the canyon, according to the nervous man, "I jerked loose as one of the assailants was placing a clip in a rifle."

At this point he said that he ran fast then fell, as shots rang out, and rolled down a cliff.

That was the last he saw of the pair, he told the deputy. He was advised to see the district attorney, but apparently as late as Monday night, no charges were filed.

TOGETHER AGAIN

Cairo--NPI--Once again Syria and the United Arab Republic are talking unification. The basis for their oneness of operation is to "defeat the offensive being launched by reaction in cooperation with imperialism and Zionism." Syria and UAR split in 1961 when Syrian officers revolted against what was called "three years of Egyptian domination."

BIAS IN BERMUDA

Hamilton---NPI---Bermuda's constitutional conference, called to determine whether the Caribbean island dependency on Great Britain will follow other Caribbean neighbors--Jamaica, Guyana, Trinidad-Tobago, and Barbados--into independence, got off on the wrong foot last week when charges were made that representatives of the constituency were deliberately chosen on a racial basis. The charges came from the island's Progressive Labor Party delegation, which also took the occasion to denounce social services and electoral laws.

"Serving In An Unfriendly World"

JEREMIAH 29:1-7, 10-14

1. These are the words of the letter which Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the elders of the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2. This was after King Jeconiah, and the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.

3. The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah, the son of Shapan and Gemariah, the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedediah, king of Judah sent, to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. It said;

4. "Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Isarel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile, from Jerusalem to Babylon.

5. "Build houses and live in them; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters, multiply there, and do not decrease.

7. "But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare."

Jeremiah 29:10-14

10. "For thus says the Lord: When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place.

11. "For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

12. "Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you.

13. "You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart,

14. "I will be found by you, says the Lord, and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have driven you, says the Lord, and I will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile."

MARK OF BEAUTY
Khartoum--NPI--It's a mark of beauty for Nubans of central Sudan to have their bodies covered with decorative welts. For women, the scarring starts at age 7-8, and continues throughout most of their adult life. Men too go in for the decorations in much more elaborate style—with the principle areas being their chests, backs and limbs.
