Citizens Grievance Committee Makes Report to City Council Wednesday

Citizens Grievance Committee Chairman Virgil Johnson is shown presenting the six page report to the City Council yesterday in the Council Chambers. The report was termed "very objective" by councilmen.

The twelve man committee, Citizen's Grievance Committee, made its report to the City Council yesterday, with Virgil Johnson, chairman, reading the six page report, Councilman Lonnie Hollingsworth commented that the report was "very objective" as was echoed by the Mayor and other councilmen.

The council set Wednesday, September 29th, at noon, as a work session, at which time the Council and the committee could get together and work on some of the problems which the committee had found in the last 90 days. "We will take as long as we need to work out these problems," said Mayor James Granberry.

The West Texas Times will publish the entire committee report in next week's edition, Thursday, September 23rd, which is nearly a week before the council and committee go into work session.

The report was centered around five areas. Namely; Human Relations Commission, Police Relations with Minority Groups, Employment Practices, Rumor Control and Government Representation.

Clarence Solnick and Dr. Harvey Clemmons, both members of the committee, responded to several questions asked by the council. One question in particular centered around reducing the required height of policemen on the Lubbock Police force to 5 feet 6 inches. This is being done in Dallas, Texas, according to Mr. Solnick.

Mr. Johnson, an articulate spokesman, expressed the sincere concern of the Citizens Grievance Committee that something be done in regard to their findings after the series of meetings in various neighborhoods.

The committee was formed as a result of problems in East Lubbock early this summer. The committee began preparing their report last August 17th.

Dunbar Student Council Sets Fund For Collier Youth

The Dunbar Student Council voted last Friday to set up a memorial fund for Willie Ray Collier, the 16-year-old youth who was slain in an incident at the school last Thursday.

Roy Roberts, principal, announced that anyone wishing to contribute to it might do so by sending money or checks to the fund at American State Bank. Funds will be used to defray funeral and other expenses.

Speech and Hearing Clinic Set at Tech

The Speech and Hearing Clinic at Texas Tech announces a training program of interest to members of minority groups. Emphasis in training is in the areas of speech, hearing, and language disorders. Trainees are required to attend classes three days per week and are paid $5.00 for each day of training. Upon completion of the 15 week training, attempts are made by the department to place trainees in jobs such as teacher aides in the public school, the Lubbock State School or as nursery aides in community agencies. Interested persons should contact Jason O. Rodriguez or Mary Ann Mastroianni at the Speech and Hearing Clinic (742-2155 or 742-2146.)

Elementary School Language Program Underway Here

The Elementary School Language Program will continue at Christ the King Elementary School this year. Enrollment is now being taken for the classes in French, Spanish and German. This program, which began last year, is being expanded this year with separate sections of each language for 1st through 3rd graders and 4th through 6th graders. Each class meets once a week from 3:45 to 4:45 p.m. Most of the teachers for these classes are students at Texas Tech. The fee is $10.00 for the semester which ends at Christmas time. For enrollment or further information call Chetty Gibbons at 795-7067.

TSTI in Amarillo Sets Scholarship Fund

Amarillo—A revolving scholarship loan fund has been established to give financial help to those students interested in attending a two-year printing program at Texas State Technical Institute at Amarillo.

The fund was set up by members of the printing industry located in Panhandle and South Plains cities, said Ross Hester, owner of Caprock Business Forms, in Lubbock. Hester is a member of the TSTI Printing Program Advisory Committee. "The revolving loan

Last week will go down in the history of Lubbock, Texas as a "shocking" one. Perhaps a meeting last Saturday in the Council Chambers by Blacks and City Councilmen helped the situation in a positive manner. There is no question about it, Lubbock has its problems and representatives from two predominately Black organizations, the United Black Coalition and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the recently appointed Citizens Grievance Commission made it loud and clear about the Lubbock problem.

The tense situation came about last Thursday afternoon in the Hub City when a young Black, Willie Ray Collier, 16, of 2502-B Weber Avenue, was shot in the halls of Dunbar High School shortly before 2:40 p.m. Thursday. He was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital, a bullet lodged in his left chest.

Murder with malice charges were filed in juvenile court against a white youth, Jeff Carl Carver, 15, of 302 52nd Street, that same afternoon following the youth's surrender to juvenile probation authorities. Carver later implicated himself in the shooting incident.

Carver was transferred to the custody of the sheriff's department Thursday afternoon after Judge Robert C. Wright of 137th District Court issued a writ of immediate custody empowering the authorities to hold the youngster.

At the Saturday morning emergency meeting, the City Council cancelled the state of emergency and lifted a "dusk to dawn" curfew as tension appeared to have eased following two nights of disorder.

Black members of the community spoke about involvement of the Black community "when it comes to making decisions that reflect East Lubbock." The group also blamed the Thursday and Friday incidents in East Lubbock on "Poor communication" between City Hall and East Lubbock. Among those present who spoke to the council were: Eddie P. Richardson, president of the United Black Coalition; Virgil L. Johnson, chairman of the Citizen Grievance Commission; Rev. M.T. Reed, president of the local chapter NAACP and Harold Chatman, concerned citizen.

All in all, the group told the council, without biting their tongues, that they were tired of the armored tank, helicopters and over-reaction of policemen in the East Lubbock community.

Following their presentation Mayor Jim Granberry read a proclamation—which had been adopted and signed about half an hour earlier—lifting the state of emergency for the City of Lubbock and in effect bringing to end the "dusk to dawn" curfew.

The series of disorders erupted in the Hub City when a group of more than 100 youth began a protest march to the police station Thursday afternoon. Enroute to the station, an 18-year-old junior at Dunbar High School, James Walton, who joined the group in the 200 block of East 19th Street, was bitten by a dog of the K-9 unit. According to the youth, he said, "I noticed some brothers being chased by police and dogs (near Prof. E.C. Struggs Home). I wanted to know what was happening so I tried to find out. I had a stick in my hand and had thrown it away when a policeman came up and said 'You want to break out some windows?' I said no, but the dog leaped at me. It (dog) missed me the first time, but the second time he bit me just above the knee."

The young Black was taken to West Texas Hospital where he was later released after receiving several stitches.

When the group reached the police department, Quincy White, spokesman for the group, asked to see Tom Purdom, county attorney, Mayor James Granberry, District Attorney Blair Cherry and Police Chief J.T. Alley. The demands presented by the Blacks included: that they be allowed to talk with officials; that murder with malice charges be filed on the suspect; and that representatives of the group be allowed to personally see the suspect who was being held in custody. All of the demands were met by Lubbock authorities, with the final request being granted at about 8:15 p.m.

White and two others returned to the front of the police department at that time, informed the group that the suspect was in custody and that the group should return to their homes and neighborhoods.

Enroute back to East Lubbock was when vandalism and disorder began. Windows to some businesses in the East Lubbock community were broken. Only businesses owned and operated by whites were vandalized—while businesses next door, owned by blacks, were not disturbed.

A service station attendant was beaten at the Walt's Service Station, East 19th and Quirt Avenue, and a policeman suffered minor injuries from rock throwing during the service station incident. During the same evening, Thursday, the mayor issued a curfew to be in effect from 10:30 p.m. until 6:30 a.m. At approximately 12:20 a.m. a 27-year-old Lubbock police officer, Russell McKenzie, was wounded by a sniper in Southeast Lubbock.

The officer, who was shot in the neck, was gunned down only two hours after Mayor Granberry had declared a state of emergency and ordered a citywide curfew. Charges of assault with intent to murder a peace officer were filed early Friday morning against three suspects in connection with the shooting of McKenzie. Those charged with the shooting were R. J. Lincoln, Jr., 20; Travis O'Neal Lincoln, 18, and Joe Jordan, 23, who all gave their residence as 1704 East 29th Street.

District Attorney Blair Cherry, Jr., recommended that $100,000 bonds be set for the suspects. The

It's Time for Positive Leadership On Both Sides of the Question!

There's no doubt about it, this is one of Lubbock's darkest hours. It's time for positive leadership to prevail in this 75-square mile community. Last year, to be exact the first week in October, 1970, an editorial entitled: "The Whispering Grass" appeared in the Times, and made it clear that Lubbock has to use positive leadership in the '70's.

The delegation, composed of Blacks from East Lubbock, made it known also last Saturday morning in the City Council Chamber that the City of Lubbock must quit making decisions for the Black community when there is no representation from the Black community present. Aside from this, there is a sign of distrust with the present city administration.

The curfews were called without input of the Black community. It doesn't make good sense when we continue to forget that there are Black people who, too, are capable of making decisions which will benefit, not only the Black community, but the entire city of Lubbock.

It's regrettable that the incident happened last Thursday afternoon at Dunbar High School, but it's also good to see that there is leadership among the young Black community who were willing to "put the pieces together," as Principal Roy Roberts said.

For too many times the Black community has tried to communicate with the "powers that be" and nothing has been done about it. It appears as though they could care less about the input, as well as the leadership, from the Black community. It has been stated, from time to time, that there needs to be public relations (on a broader basis) with the City of Lubbock. This media, as well as other organizations, has made it clear that something must be done about the employment aspect within our political sub-divisions.

It's time for positive leadership to prevail in our community, on both sides of the Mason-Dixon Line. It's also time for the "powers that be" to know that they're not Black and they don't know what it's like to be Black, therefore they can't think Black.

We must realize too, that members of the Black community must be positive in all things that we do. We must continue to move forward to make things happen in a positive manner. This city belongs to all citizens in it, Black, White and Brown.

With positive leadership in the total city, the apathy and distrust toward the present administration could certainly be overcome. If we don't make an effort toward this end, then the "Whispering Grass" prophesy will continue to be a reality.

With positive leadership in the total city, we'll not continue to think of brick and mortar. We'll find ourselves being concerned about the image building of our total community and city.

Perhaps, now, the Charter Committee will get back to their job. Perhaps they will come up with something which will make it possible for total representation in the City Council Chamber.

There's no doubt about it, it's time for positive leadership. Right On!!

Let's Help the Collier Fund

The Dunbar High School Student Council has set up a memorial fund for Willie Ray Collier, the 16-year-old youth who was slain last Thursday afternoon at the school.

Let's all help this effort. It's a good one and is set up by the leadership of the student body of Dunbar. The Times encourages our readers and patrons to support such an effort.

From The Business Desk

Whew! Things may be returning to some state of normality—and believe me those of us around this office can certainly stand a few more days of "cooling it." What with checking out stories, running down rumors and trying to honestly find out what happened, when and why, we haven't had time to catch our breath since last Thursday morning about 7:00 a.m. Just to let our readers know how important the whole situation was to us, I cancelled two fishing trips, and I figured that would only happen when they "checked me out" the final time.

Seriously speaking, it seems like to me that—like the fellow trying to get the mule's attention—people are paying close attention at the present time. That was very evident in the reaction's of the people present at the City Hall Wednesday afternoon when the Citizen's Grievance Committee made its presentation. And with people trying to pay attention and trying to find means to help

my views

What Do We Do Next?

by Eddie P. Richardson

We have had a bad scene—no one will deny that. But we almost made a worse scene by an overplay of emotions. By this I mean that some people overplayed the scene and worked on people's emotions and sympathies to get the community stirred up, thereby putting themselves in a position, especially innocent people, to get their ears cracked unreasonably, while the persons who set the stage in the first place was at home watching to see if he made the 10:00 p.m. news cast.

City Manager Bill Black and Police Chief J.T. Alley and other supervisors in the city need to set up an immediate public relations, community relations and human relations type program for the police force. In My Views both sides, the police force responsible for effective law and order in this city, and the disillusioned people, who seek to gain their aims through unlawful means, are at fault for the bad scene we have witnessed here the past week.

Earlier this year a report came out of the Governor's Criminal Justice Council stating how members of the Lubbock Police Department had helped quiet a threatened riot in Lubbock's east side in June. What immediately came to my mind was, "What threatened riot!" We didn't have a threatened riot this summer—we had some emotionally upset people that wanted jobs, etc, and had their patience worn very thin.

The police department and news media need to refrain from over using the word "riot" when speaking of our community actions. As of yet, Tuesday afternoon, we have not had a riot and if everyone will use some common sense we will not have one. One thing that needs to cease as of now is the use of army tanks and helicopters to

Rev. Sullivan Makes Good Sense

Reverend Leon Sullivan, founder of the Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America and the first Black board member of General Motors, addressed the 72nd National Elks Convention in New Orleans recently and made good sense when he said that Mr. George Meany, President of the AFL-CIO, "should get his own runaway horses straight as the unions have contributed to the poverty of Black Americans by keeping them out of jobs and out of craft unions."

This is a good statement and looking locally we find this case being true for Black people in the total West Texas community.

It's true, the Black man can't be hurt anymore. Mr. Meany must realize that the Black man has nothing to hurt. We're found on welfare and below the poverty level and still don't have the opportunity to enter the union structure.

the situation, I think the time may have come when we stop "shouting at each other" and try to arrange a way to begin serious talk concerning many of the problems that created this situation here in Lubbock in the first place. I am especially impressed with the recommendations presented yesterday by the CGC.

Anyone who would find fault, or go out of their way to help implement many of the ideas in their report, would either be a moss-backed old codger still living in the 19th Century, or have a real reason for trying to cover up something. No one in good faith and with a clear conscious can say that this committee did not do a good job, and come up with some very positive and pertinent ideas to help solve the trouble.

Now, with no more further ado, let's get on with the job of rebuilding good community relations within the city of Lubbock. There are a great deal of opportunities available to every person here in Lubbock. And as I made reference earlier, we seem to have the mule's attention—even if it did take a very severe blow with the solid instrument. Now let's thank our stars that we didn't kill the mule while we were trying to gain his attention. Let's get to work, positively, to restore this community to what it should be.

antagonize tax paying citizens everytime someone gets uptight.

I do not mean to imply that we in East Lubbock should be without police protection. But I do mean to imply that we do not need, nor desire, over protection in one part of the city while the rest of the city goes almost completely without law enforcement. One smart and human movement on the part of city officials was to lift the one-sided curfew, and they are to be commended for their faith in the Black community. But in My Views, the city manager and police chief should make an extra effort to keep the members of the police force from using such terms as "Boy, Nigger, etc." This type of attitude on the part of any person really turns off Blacks—be they young and hot-headed, or older, middle-class taxpaying citizens.

Another move that helped to add fuel to an uneasy situation was the alleged report that many Blacks were told at the time of their arrest Saturday night, "Niggers run down to City Hall thinking they run something, but we'll show them who runs this city." If this is true, then someone had better get to work deciding what type of public relations they want portrayed.

We don't need bullshit. We need cooperation, harmony and a livable city for all citizens. This is the thing that must be accomplished—through effort on both sides.

The one fact that should be known is that the Black community is not split in its desires, aims and goals. The method and presentation certainly differs, but all Black people want the same thing, freedom, justice, equality, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Along with that, everyone in the Black community desires the security of a decent job to support families and in general be a part of the total city.

And in the same light, the Black person does not wish to always be considered the trouble spot in the city. When things go wrong, and the Black gets the blame, more times than not, there was a wrong on someone else's part that put him there in the first place. We wish to be a part of the decisions, solutions and answers, and not just the problem.

What do we in Lubbock do next to make all citizens equal in decisions—and responsibilities?

151 Arrested in Two Nights

A curfew, enacted by the City Council last Friday—from sundown to sunup—last Saturday, when there was no curfew, saw 151 Lubbock residents arrested.

Looking at a breakdown of those arrested, there were 102 Blacks; 33 Mexican-Americans and 16 whites taken into custody during the period of time.

There were 65 Blacks, 11 Mexican-Americans and 7 whites arrested Friday evening and night, while 37 Blacks, 22 Mexican-Americans and 9 whites were arrested Saturday evening and night. These figures were taken from the police blotter Sunday afternoon. Persons were arrested because of the curfew violation or liquor curfew violations.

Burglary

Richard Anderson, 1718 East Amherst Avenue, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone came into his house while he was away. Entry was apparently gained by tearing the screen loose from the window and tearing the glass from the window frame and reaching inside to unlock the door.

Taken from the house, after searching for valuables in the residence, was $17.00 from a billfold along with other items. Total value of items taken was $36.00.

Destruction of Private Property

I.D. McClish, 2618 Auburn Street, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone did throw a rock at his house one day last week.

It was learned that $5.00 worth of damage was done to the house.

Aggravated Assault

Albert T. Riley, 1214 7th St., reported to the Lubbock Police Department that he was going to the alley with some trash to empty when two men in a car jumped out and attacked him.

During the fight that followed, he was cut on the finger. He was taken to West Texas Hospital for treatment.

Around the hub city

Presiding Elder and Mrs. T.B. Reece and also Presiding Elder and Mrs. B.C. Brock were business visitors here last Thursday afternoon. They left the same evening after visiting with Pastor A.W. Wilson and his wife.

Mrs. Kado Lang is a patient at Methodist Hospital where she will undergo treatment.

Mrs. Ida White, a former resident of Slaton, arrived here Tuesday from Los Angeles, California for funeral services of her niece, little Dana Blue, who was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital last Sunday. Mrs. White will spend a few days here and at Slaton attending to business. She arrived via flight Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Rencher of Houston, Texas spent the week-end here visiting Mrs. Rencher's parents and family, Mr. and Mrs. A.W. Lincoln. The Renchers are newly-weds and are both employed at Houston. She is a music instructor at a junior high school there.

Mrs. A.W. Lincoln suffered minor injuries last week when her car was in collision with another automobile. She was treated at the hospital and released. Her mother, Mrs. Callie Davis, is recuperating very satisfactorily.

Mrs. Freddie Miller returned to her home in Fort Worth after a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Willie Lusk, Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelious Cole, Jr., and Eric Sean, of Los Angeles, California, visited in the home of her mother, Mrs. Nancy P. Scott. While in Texas they also visited with Mrs. Cole's sister, Miss Betty Eleen Scott at Denton, Texas.

Miss Scott is a junior in Texas Womens University. They also visited some of Mr. Cole's relatives at Carthage, Texas and Shreveport, La.

Mrs. Cole is the former Reeve Jean Scott.

Mrs. Bessie Mason was not feeling well last week-end.

Friends here of Mrs. Ellen of Amarillo, Texas were saddened to learn of her passing away last Saturday after a lengthy illness.

The three grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Bull Davis; Joda, Roy and Goy, left Sunday morning on an 8 a.m. flight for Los Angeles, California. They had been visiting here all summer. They called to report their safe arrival; their parents met them and drove on to Riverside, California, their home. The grand-parents miss them very much, but it was school bells for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Robertson and Mrs. Laverne Fulbright of Crosbyton, Texas visited friends here last Sunday afternoon.

The sick and shut-in list this week includes some who are much improved, including; W.H. Stephens; Maunita Terrell. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blue is home from the hospital and reportedly doing nicely. Jeffrey Austin, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Joiner, was treated by a doctor last week, but is better now.

The graphic arts industry is in need of hundreds of people who have a basic understanding of printing in a variety of specialized fields, he said. These include layout, design, artwork, press operation, camera (offset) operation or the operation of other types of equipment used in the graphic arts industry.

Enrollment in this semester's printing class at TSTI closes Friday, tomorrow, September 17th, said Hester.

"Any person needing financial help to enter the program can contact me or J.W. Sollis, Manager of Student Services at TSTI", he said.

Amarillo Women Enjoy Eastern Tour

Amarillo—Mesdames Essie Bradley and Thelma D. Mayes recently returned from an escorted New England and Eastern Canada tour. There were forty-one members in the group from six states.

Highlights of the tour were: a visit to historic Colonial Williamsburg, which has been restored to its eighteenth Century elegance; then over to Jamestown, site of the first permanent white settlement in America. The tour included the famous Raleigh Tavern, the interesting Capitol and the Governor's palace.

Continuing to the nation's Capital, the group visited the Capitol Building, the Bureau of Printing, and National Cemetery at Arlington where they saw the graves of President John F. and brother Robert Kennedy, along with other American greats.

On to New York City, where they spent the next three days at the very select New York Hilton Hotel. While there the two Amarillo ladies visited for a short time with Mohammed Ali. Other activities included visiting Helen Hayes' Theatre, Radio City Music Hall, China Town, the Empire State Building, Harlem, the Bronx, and a trip on the ferry to Boston, where they visited the campus of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Harvard and Radcliff Universities, the home of Paul Revere, the Old South Church and Bunker Hill Monument.

Then through the State of New Hampshire, where the night was spent at Loon Lodge, a ski resort high in the White Mountains. Then to Quebec, the only walled city on the North American Continent. The ladies commented on the fact that no Negroes live in Quebec; while on the other hand, between ten and fifteen thousand live in Montreal.

Ontario, along the St. Lawrence River, was most picturesque.

Two nights were spent at Niagra Falls, Canada, where they were able to view the falls through the windows of their Sherraton Brock Hotel. They reported that the flowers there ran a close second to the falls for beauty and splendor. The flowers there, as throughout the Providence, are not just planted at random but arranged with precision and artistry.

On leaving Niagra Falls, they crossed the Peace Bridge to return to the United States. Back in the states they toured Gettysburg, Virginia, and visited the Civil War Battlefield and Cemetery and saw the Eisenhower Farm. They on to the Great Smokies, where their bus ascended to the top, 5,048 feet above sea level, before entering the Shenandoah Valley, where they viewed the Great Natural Bridge of Virginia, one of the seven natural wonders of the world.

Final get-together for the group came at the Holiday Inn-Downtown in Birmingham, Alabama where the guide threw a party for the entire group. From there the members went their separate ways toward their homes.

A league is about three miles.

LEAVES FOR COLLEGE—Miss Linda Marie Lusk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lusk, Jr., left Wednesday via flight for New Orleans, La., where she is a senior psychology student at Dillard University.

Linda Marie was a member of the 1968 graduating class at Dunbar High School. She entered Dillard September of that year. She is a member of Bethel A.M.E. Church and served as musician for the youth choir and was quite active in her high school years, serving in many capacities and was recipient of many honors.

She attended summer school at Texas Tech University, taking three courses—two in history and one psychology, and her grades were two B's and an A. She also made the Dean's list at Dillard, the past semester. Linda's aunt, Mrs. Freddie Miller of Fort Worth, Texas, was here to help see her off to another school year.

Afro-American History Notes: "The Children of the South" by Margaret Anderson received its first printing in 1966 and was published by Farrar, Straus and Giroux. At that time Mrs. Anderson expressed the impartial viewpoint of a white teacher and counselor as well as an assistant principal, of what happens when black and white children are together for the first time in the schoolroom. A native Kentuckian, she was a graduate of Western Kentucky Teachers College, taking her master's degree at the University of Tennessee.

At that time Mrs. Anderson strikingly pointed out "It has been a long twelve years (17 years now) of turmoil—of angry passions and grudging change—since the Supreme Court decision of 1954 repudiated the doctrine of "separate by equal" schools. During that time a great deal of attention has been paid to the physical struggle to open the white public schools to black students, but very little has been paid to what happens once they are there, believes Mrs. Anderson.

This is an intensely human book, for Margaret Anderson is interested less in race relations and civil rights that she is, simply in children; their needs and capacities, their fears and desires. But she does set forth broad conclusions and general programs, and pin-points what must be done if we are to move from token desegregation to true integration.

Perhaps the most touching and fitting tribute paid to Mrs. Anderson's unforgettable book is that paid her by the late beloved and lamented editor of Atlanta (Georgia), Constitution who writes in the foreword:

"I can testify to the accuracy of Margaret Anderson's words. The Negro child, caught from birth in segregation, shut off from the nation's political, cultural, and values system, grew up almost inevitable, with a low estimate of his own possibilities. It was hard not to have a poor self-image when the child's mind could not conceive of being much more than what his parents were. Segregation deadened initiative, suppressed personal confidence. Many of these children—too many—came from homes where neither parent could read or write. These and other factors in the long years of segregation created a handicap that even today is not quite fully understood. End of quote from Ralph McGill.

The late, compassionate Editor McGill adds that parents of white children who still oppose desegregation of schools would profit enormously from this book. Much of the white South, victimized and psychologically distorted by generations of segregation, might obtain understanding by reading The Children of the South. Check your local library.

General Motors recent donation of $75,000 to the United Negro College Fund for 1971, brings its contributions over the years to nearly a million and a half dollars, it is reported.

Final Rites Read for Mrs. Ellen Henderson

Amarillo—Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Ellen Henderson, 72, of 1007 NW 18th, who dies last Thursday afternoon at Southwest Osteopathic Hospital after a lengthy illness, were pending at last report with Austin Funeral Home.

A native of Cameron, Mrs. Henderson moved to Amarillo 35 years ago. She has been employed as a domestic worker.

She served on the Stewardess Board and in the senior choir of Johnson Chapel A.M.E. Church.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Hattie Mae Moore of the home, Mrs. Robbie Johnson of 1104 N. Madison, Mrs. Edna Mae Manning of 1218 Pecan and Mrs. Ruby Donaldson of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Emma Bradley of 907 N. Washington; a brother, Jim Griffin of Brownwood; five grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Funeral Services Set In California for City Residents' Aunt

Funeral services will be held Friday, September 17, in Stockton, California for Mrs. Bell Zora Jones of 2308 Scribner. Mrs. Jones was an aunt of Mrs. Eurlean Phillips of 2802 Weber Drive here in Lubbock; and Mrs. Ella Mae Wallace of 2708 East 2nd Place.

Two Exhibitions Staged this Month at The Museum at Tech

September brings a new look at The Museum of Texas Tech University, with the introduction of two different exhibitions in the galleries.

Early Western range photographs, by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's veteran photographer, Frank Reeves, will be exhibited in the East gallery, September 18-October 10, sponsored by the Ranch Headquarters Association.

On loan from the Amon Carter Museum, the photos are a repeat of a successful exhibition of Reeves' work shown in the Museum's former location in 1965.

To announce the recent acquisition of works by Bess Hubbard, internationally known Lubbock artist, the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Association have gathered works from their collections and some on loan from the artist to show the public. A piece of sculpture recently added to the Women's Division collection, along with nine graphics by The Museum as a gift of Mrs. Helen DeVitt Jones, will form the core of the exhibit, which opens Sept. 19, and will be on view in the main gallery through October 17.

Three birds which cannot fly are the emu, kiwi and ostrich.

Mrs. Florence Collier, 70 years young, of 1708 East 24th Street, loves to crochet. She says that it is her hobby. Since March of this year, she admits, she has crocheted eight quilts.

The energetic lady says, "I have pieced eight quilts this year, and I started piecing quilts in March and am through with all eight. Most of them," she continued, "I made with my fingers."

I also love to take care of two babies, but I always find something for these 70-year-old fingers to do," she added.

"You know," she smiled, "I don't get tired of doing it."

This quartet will start in Dunbar's initial game of the 1971 season against Clovis Friday night.

Dunbar Opens This Week Against Clovis

by Dempsey Taylor

"Dunbar," said Coach Louis Kelly, "will rely more on straight ahead football this year." He continued, "we will definitely put more emphasis on ball control."

Last year the veteran Dunbar coach, in his first year as head coach, saw the Panthers wind up the season with a 5-5 record. After getting off to a poor start with a 1-4 record, the Panthers still were able to post a .500 record by seasons end.

Returning are 14 lettermen, five defensive and four offensive starters. A 155 pound senior who played most of last year on defense, Oree Matthews, will start as quarterback. Coach Kelly predicts that the success of the team rest with Matthews.

Starting at fullback will be Kenneth Burrows, with Gary Howard or William High at wingback. Henry Robinson will start at tailback. In the line, Jerry Linker will snap the ball, while Sirpless and Russell will be in the guard positions, and Morris and Daniels, tackles. Starting ends are expected to be Thomas Howard and Darnell Bailey.

Kelly feels that the Panthers are much stronger than at this time last year, "but" he added, "we won't know until the season ends how much we've improved, although we have lots of depth at all positions."

Coach Kelly says that Clovis has an outstanding team and will be playing its third game of the season when it meets Dunbar in their opening game of the season this Friday in Clovis.

Game time is 7:30 EDST.

Grambling Tramples Morgan State 31-13

In a benefit game before a crowd of 65,000 and a host of pro scouts at Yankee Stadium, with proceeds going to New York's Urban Leagues, this was the season's opener for both Southwestern Athletic Conference teams.

Coach Robinson's Tigers were first to strike pay dirt with a 27 yard heave from Reed to Smith, that covered 58 yards on their first play from scrimmage. Christopher then scored from three yards out for a 7-0 lead. The Tigers scored again late in the first period of play making the score 14 to 7. With only second before half time Calvin Lewis kicked a 45-yard field goal giving Grambling a 17-13 lead at half time. In the third and fourth quarters Grambling put together two more scores to win 31-13.

Morgan State scores came in the first and second quarters. Charles Smith was outstanding player of the game, running one score over and setting up two others and having seven receptions for a 187-yard total. Smith is a give-all type of athlete and is considered by pro scouts as a future play-for-pay star of the first caliber.

Since 1902 when President McKinley was assassinated, the U. S. Secret Service has been charged with guarding the President.

Coach Eddie Robinson Eddie Robinson tops As Football Coach

The coach of Grambling College is great. . . Over a span of three decades, Coach Eddie Robinson has been one of football's ranking strategic brains.

With zeal, dedication, intelligence and imagination, he has developed the Grambling Tigers into a pre-nial football power.

And he seems to improve his handicraft each year. In 29 seasons—with an excusable lapse here and there—he has forged a career of 195 victories, against only 73 defeats and 11 ties for a .719 winning percentage.

There's only one other man, Paul "Bear" Bryant of the University of Alabama with 199 victories, has scored more wins among active coaches.

Few coaches possess Robinson's drive, fire and commanding presence.

Robinson has a down-to-earthness that impresses people on their first meeting, and a strong, well-disciplined sense of loyalty which lines them up as friends.

He has reached the top in a profession "where the tides often run toward a man as fast as they change directions."

Robinson is recognized as a football teacher and recruiter with few peers. He has both the gift and experience for both jobs.

More than any other coach, he has changed the fact of college-division football.

In 1966, the Football Writers Association of America cited him as the "man who made the biggest contribution to college-division football the last 25 years."

To give some idea of his accomplishments and the imprint of his powerful personality, the Grambling mentor has never been matched in proficiency when it comes to developing players for professional football.

Over 100 ex-Tigers have mastered the intricacies of the play-for-pay game.

Forty-three—the biggest number from one school—were listed on pro rosters for the opening of summer camp for 1971.

The list includes such present and former stalwarts as Paul "Tank" Younger, Ernie Ladd, Willie Davis, Roosevelt Taylor, Willie Brown, Buch Buchanan, Clifton McNeil, Frank Cornish, Mike Howell, Nemiah Wilson, Garland Boyette, James Harris, Billy Newsome, Charlie Joiner, Willie Young Willie Williams, Essex Johnson, Alphonse Dotson, Robert Atkins and Henry Davis.

The man who came to Grambling in 1941 is tops. His record is unbelievable. He is widely respected as a humorist and has built a reputation as a fine public speaker. He's a graduate of Leland College, Baker, La., and holds the M.A. degree from the University of Iowa.

Great Black Athletes by Dempsey Taylor

The achievement of Black athletes were often not recorded. But present statics state we have 145 great Black athletes in football, 140 in baseball, 81 in basketball, 61 in boxing, 37 in track and field, and 44 in other miscellaneous sports.

One great thing about the Black athlete is, not only did he have to face and overcome the competitive obstacles to be a champion, but he also had to face and overcome obstacles his competitors did not, due to the color of his skin.

Each of these great guys made it, because they beat discrimination, along with having enough courage, patience, determination, self-denial, self discipline and stick-to-it to do the job.

The Times will carry an article each week on three of these great Black athletes in American sports.

David "Deacon" Jones

Born in Eaton, Florida, in 1939, "Deacon" Jones was the best lineman ever developed at South Carolina State. A 6-5, 250 pound bundle of athletic brilliance, he was considered the best defensive wingman in football. He's rough, tough, and razor sharp. Despite being double and triple-teamed, he manages to cut down ball carriers. Jones is the most renowned member of the Ram's famous Fearsome Foursome. He has been named to the NFL All-Star defensive team five times.

Cornell Green

Born in 1940, Cornell Green was one of the big cogs in the Cowboy's defense for 8 seasons. He is considered a sterling outside defensive back. All NFL in 1967 Cornell is a brilliant defender on pass patterns.

Lee May

Born in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1948, Lee is the younger brother of Carlos May of the Chicago White Sox. Playing with the Cincinnati Reds, Lee is a terrific hitter in the Red's offense. He does grand work at the initial sack. In '68 he hit 22 home runs, drove in 80 runs.

Shaving was originally a protective measure since long beards were easy for opponents in combat to seize.

Estacado Matadors Edge Plainview 10-7

by Dempsey Taylor

Coach Pete Murray's Estacado Matadors, who are ranked 9th in the state race for Class 3AAA, put together one touchdown and a field goal to edge Plainview 10-7. Larry Issac, Estacado's tailback had a fine night, scoring the touchdown and kicking the field goal. Estacado scored first and led at the half 7-0. The Bulldogs came back to score in the third quarter tying the game at 7-7. In the fourth quarter Issac kicked the field goal, putting the Matadors out front to stay.

Plainview's offensive line seemed to run the end-sweep at will and it wasn't until the fourth quarter that the Matadors were able to contain them.

Southern University Prospects Cloudy At the Present Time

by Bennie Thomas

Baton Rouge, La.—Southern University Head Football Coach Alva Tabor manages a faint smile when questioned about the prospects of the Jaguars defense for the 1971 season, but he instantly switches to a perplexed look and cautiously picks his phrases to queries about the offense.

And as far as the success story of the Jaguars for '71, which must be formed at the expense of ten rugged foes including the tough Southwestern Athletic Conference antagonists, the coach expresses mild optimism that his charges will improve over last year's 5-5-1 mark, but the contention is sprinkled with noticeable "ifs".

The "if" which looms largest in Coach Tabor's statements on the future of his Jaguars centered around a corps of freshmen running backs. "A lot of our success will depend on how fast our freshmen running backs come along and how much first year quality they display," Tabor said.

Tabor made no bones of the fact that he was depending heavily on the group of first year runners "who have very impressive high school credentials but who are of unknown quality for the college game."

The rave notices of the frosh pack destined to lug the leather for the Jaguars went to Randy Walker, Ft. Pierce, Fla. speedster; Anthony Wallace, a potential game-breaker from West Palm Beach, Fla.; Lyle Lattimer, Arcadia, Fla.; Edward Jordan, Popularville, Miss. and Danny Teate, Orange, Texas.

Quarterback will be an interesting position to watch this season at Southern. Howard Hall returns for his third year along with "Mighty-Mite" Jerome Bettis.

But during the spring game it was a Baton Rouge service returnee, Lawrence Laynes who caused eyebrows to flicker with his pinpoint passing accuracy and masterful acumen of overall operation of the team.

Coach Tabor didn't view quarterback as a critical area as he talked briefly of a pair of newcomers, of unknown quality but with glittering credentials, highly touted Woody Watson of Franklinton and Van Stewart of Baton Rouge.

Allen (Jubilee) Dunbar, one of the most exciting flankers to don a Jaguar uniform returns as offensive captain and is a prime candidate for All-American honors this fall.

And in the receiving department, tight ends Lee Drew Hudson and Jerry Broadnax are expected to operate at the tight end spots and wide receiver hopefuls Bobby Boxley and Randy Allen.

Massive fullback Eddie Richardson, a 245-pound cruncher who exhibited exceptional performances during the spring counts heavily among the returning turf chompers along with Harold Levins and Henry Brandon.

Defensively Coach Tabor lost via graduation All-American linebacker Isiah "Butch" Robertson who was a first round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams, end Darnell Smith, corner back James Elder who played J.D. Hill to a standstill in the Lubbock, Texas All-Star game this summer and free safety James Blackwell.

But Tabor still smiles pleasingly when talking of the Jaguars defensively and is quick to tell you that "we are sound defensively," despite the departure of so many blue-chippers.

Among the returnees at linebacker will be Paul Shivers and Warren Jordan, both veterans and Louis Brown who played behind Robertson in spots at middle linebacker last year while defensive captain James Osborne, William Blount, Roy Jones, Edgar Fullwood, Glenn Godfrey, Charles Gayles and Eugene Baker are listed among the mammoth returning linemen.

Slated to pick up the defensive secondary slack caused by the now departed Blackwell and Elder are McDonald Batiste, Willie McKelton, Ivory Joe Davis, Charlie Johnson, Wilburn Lofton and David Walker.

The two prospects at centre appears to be senior Thomas Smith and sophomore Horace Moody.

Tabor realistically points out that with the number of freshmen he will be forced to play this fall, "some mistakes will be made, however, once they get two or three games under their belts, they should be comfortable enough to do a fine job for us."

How I Earned My Doctors Degree

by Jodie C. Sanford

The general public tends to place a very high value on the Doctors degree. After all, that is the highest degree one can obtain. It does not harm my ego to state that I have three (3) Doctors degree. It is only fair to let the public know how I earned these degrees. I received the LLD, that is Doctor of Law; not because I knew law, but because I was president of a college and a fellow down in Alabama who had a school of Religion wanted me to sell him some college credits. People are funny.

To earn my PhD, Doctor of Philosophy, I enrolled through the mail in a two year course in "The Science of Mental Physics" at a fee of about $300.00. This course led me into, mentally speaking, a new and unique world. If I practice one-fifth of what I learned in this venture I could move mountains. I know the sceptic point of view about all of this. Never the less, just to give an example: I learned how to slow down the aging process. You can do likewise once you know that every cell in the human body renews itself about every 11 months. Check with your family doctor. Life is in the breath. Genesis (St. James Version) Ch. 2, verse 7.

"And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrills the breath of life and man became a living soul."

No matter what your philosophy of life is, that happened. Now if God is dead, who keeps breathing into the new born baby's nostrills the breath of life? So make your jokes about my "degree mill" but can you control the aging process in your own life. I can and do.

These two degrees are lost or are somewhere around the house. The most interesting, is the one that hangs on the wall just behind me as I write this article. I earned it in a very strange manner. It is the Doctor of Divinity. From "Four State University, Jefferson, Texas, conferred May 15, 1959, Dr. Walter Scott McNutt, president."

I met an old Black preacher, Black in thoughts; if you did not know him you would think he was a white man. Rev. George Washington Adams. When I met Rev. Adams our chemistry jelled. It was love at first sight. Rev. Adams adopted my son, Gary, who was about 5 years of age in 1958, and sometimes I think he adopted both of us because of his deep insight. He knew that I was a lost cause, but he had a chance with Gary. Rev. Adams, who is past 90, is pastor of a church in Gladewater, had that kind of insight.

The story begins when Gary and I paid a visit to Rev. Adams in Jefferson, Texas. He now lives in Longview, Texas. We talked about the life of a minister. The conversation led into the place of "Black Colleges." These visits were many, including week-end stays in his home. He would visit me in Crockett, at Mary Allen College, when he could get a driver.

One day as we sat talking in Rev. Adams' home he said, "Brother Sanford I have a white friend I want you to meet." Meeting his white friend was the last thing on my mind, but what choice did I have? We drove the few blocks to Dr. W.S. McNutt's home, one of those old historical types which you only see in story books. Of course everyone knows that Jefferson was at one time the capitol of Texas. In the house, and it can be viewed now, the second floor had seasons of windows. Any day in the year you could look north and see snow, look east and see a spring scene; look south and there is summer and look west, you guessed it, fall.

Effie Faye Adams, that is Doctor Adams, is down in Florida writing another book. She is the author of several. This news one is special. It is about the contribution Black men have made in Texas. Effie Faye, wanted to include at least one woman, Effie Parkinson Muckelroy of Henderson. Mrs. muckelroy refused. She suggested to Effie Faye that she write only about Black men. Brothers, that is a Big Sister.

Keep your eyes alert for Effie Faye Adams' new book, "Tall Black Texans." You see, Effie Faye is the daughter of my friend, Rev. George Washington Adams. She came to hear me preach in Gladewater in 1962. That is the last time I saw Effie Faye, but I earned my degree.

East Texas Visitors

Henderson—Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Martin were Labor Day guests of Mr. Martin's sister, Irene Martin. Mr. Martin, a native of Laneville, Texas, has been a resident of Dallas for almost 20 years, where he is employed by Sharp Hardware Store.

Mrs. Maeola Martin is the former Maeola Hightower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hightower of the Mt. Zion community in Cushing, Texas. She is also an employee of Sharp Hardware.

The Martins, who took a one year subscription to the West Texas Times, live at 2827 Burger St. in Dallas.

Stamp collecting puts a premium on poor printing since a blot, blur or misprint increases the value of a stamp to collectors.

Draft Board Info Available at Tyler

Tyler—Parents of draft age young men can secure general information with regards to the draft. A draft information board has been formed here in Tyler at the Unitarian Church on the New Troup Highway. The board was formed because it is believed that many young men do not know their rights when it comes to the draft laws.

Anyone seeking help about the draft may contact Jack Caraway or Lynn White at the church between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. Tuesday or 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Allie Witt Passes Away at 95

Henderson—Friday, September 3, 1971, Mrs. Allie Witt passed away in a local hospital here. She was born in 1876 in Panola County, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith.

She was married to Billy Witt in 1892 and to this union 15 children were born.

Sister Witt leaves to mourn five daughters, Bobbie Collin, of Longview; Hattie Holmes, of Nacogdoches; Cora Sirls of Kingsburg, California; Geneva Chatam and Mary Burton of Santa Rosa, California. Mrs. Witt resided with her son, Jack Witt, Jr., of Henderson, Texas. Other sons were Judge W. Witt of Fort Worth; A. J. Witt of Santa Rosa, California and Verdell Witt of Waco.

Survivors also include fifty-two grandchildren, one hundred and twenty-five great-grandchildren and ten great, great-grandchildren, along with other relatives and a host of friends.

Grandsons and great-grandsons served as pallbearers. Excelsior Court No. 97 Heroines of Jericho provided graveside services.

The funeral services were held at Arlem Grove Baptist Church. Southern Funeral Home of Henderson was in charge of all funeral arrangements.

Social Security Benefits More than Just Retirement

"I may never live to collect a dime from all this money I'm paying into social security." This is a statement often heard from young workers according to Lubbock social security manager John G. Hutton.

The fact is Hutton said, "the social security program provides for much more than just retirement payments. Disability and survivor's benefits are two very important areas of protection often overlooked by the young worker."

Disability payments can be made to a young worker and his dependents with as little as one and one-half years of work if he becomes disabled before age 24. These benefits continue as long as the worker remains disabled. Survivor's benefits may also be payable to the young worker's dependents with as little as one and one-half years of work under social security.

Payments can be made to the worker's children until they are age 18. Benefits can continue to age 22 for a full-time student. Payment can continue past age 22 if the child is disabled.

A widow is due payments as long as she has a child under 18, or a disabled child at home. Otherwise she must be age 60 or at least age 50 if she is totally disabled.

Most of today's young workers will live to collect their social security at retirement Hutton said. However, the young worker also can have peace of mind in knowing that he or his survivors will be able to collect on his social security should he become disabled or die before reaching retirement age.

Final Rites Read Tuesday for Willie Ray Collier in Slaton, Texas

Final rites for Willie Ray Carter, a 16-year-old Dunbar High School student, who was killed in the halls of Dunbar High School last Thursday, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Triumph Baptist Church in Slaton, Texas, with the Rev. M.A. Brown, pastor, officiating.

Burial was held in Englewood Cemetery with Jamison Funeral Home in charge of arrangement.

Collier was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital after the shooting on Thursday, September 9. Charges of murder with malice have been filed against Jeff Earl Carver, 15, of 302 52nd Street in connection with the incident.

Collier was a sophomore at Dunbar City Calm.

trio was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy and Friday bonds were set at $100,000 each.

At Dunbar High School on Friday, principal Roy Roberts reported that everything went well, "I was proud of the student body," he said. He said of the students, "They'll pick up the pieces and they'll all unite. I think we've got the student leadership to do it."

Supt. Ed Irons, who was at Dunbar on Friday, along with Dr. E.C. Leslie, assistant superintendent, said that he was happy with the student's behavior last Friday.

According to other news sources, a minor incident occurred at Dunbar High School on Friday. In checking, the West Texas Times learned that the "minor" incident occurred on Thursday, several hours prior to the hall killing of the Collier youth, in that one youngster cut another. The assailant was suspended by school officials for the remainder of the semester. This incident, which had no connection with the other, was handled by school officials.

In checking, the Times learned that a total of 151 persons were arrested during the two nights of curfew and on into Sunday morning. This included 102 Blacks, 33 Mexican-Americans and 16 whites.

Five persons, two men and three women, were charged with attempted murder in connection with an incident late Friday night in which at least two shots were fired at a police tank commanded by members of the Lubbock Police Department. Placed under $50,000 bonds each were L.C. Humphrey of 1706 E. Cornell, Willie Lee Johnson of 1819 E. 2nd Street Myrtle Lee Beatrice Johnson, Dorothy Faye Lewis and Cherry Ann Hightower, all of 1701 E. 15th Street.

Carver, who reportedly had been cut by Collier prior to the shooting incident, was still in County Jail in the juvenile detention section this week. On checking with County officials, the West Texas Times learned that Carver did in fact have a scratch on his right forearm, but no medical attention was required for the youngster.

bar and was a member of the St. James Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Henry James Collier, 9 months; a mother, Mrs. Autry Collier of 1502 B Weber Drive; a father, Chester Collier of 2505 Vanda Avenue; three brothers, Robert Collier, Larry Don Dobbins, of Lubbock; and Terry Wayne of Temple, Texas; four sisters, Mrs. Chestine Byrd, Vira Lois Collier, Vandora and Regene Dobbins; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Henry White of Alaton; eight aunts, six uncles, a stepfather, J.B. Brown, a brother-in-law, Kenneth Byrd, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers for the services Tuesday were Lee Andrew Dial, Tony Price, Sammy Evans, Larry Freeman, R.C. Woodard and Mike Filmore, all Dunbar Students.

Grand Jury Indicts Two in Last Week's Unrest Activities

The 140th District Court grand jury indicted only two youth on charges of assault with intent to murder a police officer, and returned six no bills to the others facing similar charges.

Those indicted were Joe Jordon, 23, and R.I. Lincoln, Jr., 20, both of the same address, 1704 East 29th Street. They are accused of wounding Lubbock policeman Russel McKenzie, 25, who was shot in the neck with a .22 caliber bullet last Thursday night.

Travis O'Neal Lincoln, 18, of 1704 East 29th Street, brother of one of the men indicted, had been charged in connection with the shooting last week, but was no-billed by the grand jury.

Five other persons, Willie Johnson, 27, of 1819 East 2nd; Myrtle Lee Beatrice Johnson, 27, of 1701 East 15th; Dorothy Faye Lewis, 19, of 1701 East 15th; Cherry Ann Hightower, 22, of 1701 East 15th; and Louis Charles Humphrey, 35, of 1706 East Cornell Street, were also no billed in regard to an attempted murder of a police officer during a separate shooting incident involving a police "tank" late Friday night.

All five had been arrested and placed under $50,000 bonds each.

Lubbock Man Arrested For Disorderly Conduct

Quincey Esther White, 24, of 1812 East 26th Street, was arrested Monday morning in his residence. He was presented a warrant, by two warrant officers of Municipal Court and a policeman, for disorderly conduct last Friday.

In an interview with a Times reporter Monday evening, White said that they (the officers) handcuffed him in his house after he had invited them inside. He also said that last Friday policemen used his yard as a means to arrest people in his area. "I asked them to leave (speaking of the officers) several times," he stated, "but they refused to leave."

"I called Mayor James Granberry twice about harrassment of the Lubbock Police Department," he continued. "Two young men were arrested on my porch last Friday," he stated. "I did ask them (the police) to get out of my yard," he added.

White was arrested at 9 a.m. Monday morning. He said he stayed in jail from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. when he was released to a bondsman. He said, "My bondsman beat me to the jail, but I remained in jail five hours, before they let me out."

"When I was arrested Monday morning, I was charged with one case, but as I got out they (police) had five charges against me," he made known. One was a ticket case which he said he paid $65.00 to cover the past ticket. Other charges included three disorderly conduct and one failure to appear.

Police said that White made verbal threats and used abusive and profane language against them on Monday morning.

$100,000 Bond Set Against City Youth

A $100,000 bond was set this week against R.C. Willard, 18, of 3602 Yucca Avenue, for robbery by assault in connection with the hijacking Thursday evening of a service station attendant at Walt's Service Station, East 19th Street and Quirt Avenue.

A charge of malicious destruction of private property over $50 was also filed against Tommy Bozeman, 19, of 1509 East Auburn Street. His bond was set at $10,000.

TAGGED McKENZIE RAIDERS—With a sign hung on the front reading "McKenzie Raiders", this is the tank used last week in East Lubbock to help control the unrest. The sign was seen on the front of the tank while it was parked in front of the Lubbock Police Department Sunday afternoon.

"NAACP Will Get Involved" States Local President

In a meeting of the Lubbock chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the president said that the chapter will get involved with the problems facing the local community.

Rev. M. T. Reed said, "We are aware of the tragedy; we will become involved. We can't remain out of it."

The meeting was held at Mount Vernon United Methodist Church. Other business, including the writing of a proposal to the Health, Education and Welfare Department in regard to the Emergency School Assistance Program (ESAP) was voted upon by the membership. The group present approved the motion to immediately involve itself in the ESAP proposal.

Family Reunion Staged

A family reunion was held in the home of Rev. and Sister H.K. Jefferson, 1822 E. Amherst, Friday, September 3rd, through Sunday, September 5th. Also hosting members of the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Melton of 2401 E. 29th Street.

Members of the family present included: Mrs. L.T. Jackson of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Richards of Lubbock; Mr. Frank Jefferson of Palestine, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Sams and family of Palestine; Mrs. Debra Atkins of Palestine; Mr. and Mrs. O.J. Jefferson, Jr., of Houston; Mr. Andy Larkins of Slaton and special guests Mr. and Mrs. Chilchers and Mrs. Sheffield and friends.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

By Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas—A major court decision last week left up in the air the question of how Texas is to achieve a valid apportionment act for both houses of its legislature before next year.

State Supreme Court agreed with an August 2 Austin district court finding that a House redistricting bill passed this year is unconstitutional because it unnecessarily split up 23 counties.

The decision left unanswered how the bill should be corrected or if it should be redone before 1973. Basic questions are these:

+ Should House reapportionment and state Senate redistricting (left untouched by the Legislature) be the subject of an emergency special session?

+ Should the five-member constitutional Legislative Redistricting Board take on the job, since no valid reapportionment was done by the Legislature in the first regular session after the 1970 census?

+ Should the Legislature forget about reapportionment before 1972 elections and wait until the 1970 census statistics are all complete and published?

Gov. Preston Smith and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin once more are on opposite sides of a controversy.

Smith says the Redistricting Board has the "duly constituted responsibility" under the constitution to redistrict, and a special legislative session on reapportionment would be unnecessarily costly.

Martin stated in a brief before the Supreme Court a special session "would seem the only correct possibility, but this, too, could become the subject of litigation."

A High Court ruling in another case challenging the Redistricting Board's authority may hold the key as to whether it can proceed, whether the Legislature must take over now or check the task until '73.

A note or urgency is injected into the issue by the fact the Board is directed by the constitution to do whatever it is going to do by late October. Furthermore, legislative candidates appear to face a November 7 deadline for establishing residence in the district they choose to represent.

Anti-Pollution Permit Used—Texas Air Control Board has put into operation a far-reaching construction permit system to help control and prevent air pollution.

Since August 30, any industry that will omit air contaminants into the atmosphere must get a Board permit before starting any construction. Similar permits are necessary to modify or change existing contaminant causing facilities.

Permits apply to specific, individual manufacturing processes, not entire industrial plants or complexes. Exceptions for minor contaminant-causing plans will be listed later. Applicants have 60 days after construction is completed to apply for operating permits.

Carport Sale Held

San Angelo—A carport sale, sponsored by the Silver Leaf Club, was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Brady, at 1415 N. Magadalen, last Saturday and Sunday. This sale was to help Mrs. Anthony whose young son fell from a tree about 10 months ago. He is now in Cripple Childrens Hospital in Dallas, Texas.

Lea Rebels Win First Game

San Angelo—The Lea Rebels beat the Ballinger Bear Cats 6-3, last Saturday, September 11, in their opening game of the season.

Randolph Center Community Action Council News

San Angelo—Three Neighborhood Council call meetings were held during the month of August. The meetings resulted in the organizing of the "Concerned Citizens for Carver School." It was decided that in view of the closing of Carver School by Federal Court order last year and the School Board's decision to delete busing funds for children in the Carver area, some definite action should be taken to solve these problems and hardships enforced on our own. The Executive Committee is made up of officers of the Neighborhood Council, Northwest Civic Progressive Organization and the concerned ministers of the community.

The Executive Committee met with the School Board and as a result buses were replaced for Carver children. However the issue is not closed as certain alternatives are yet to be resolved.

In other August action the Council held its regular meeting August 16, 1971. Mr. Ray Hudson, Executive Director of the Tom Green County CAC, brought information to the Council body about the status of the Neighborhood Center. Two trains of thought were to be considered. Does the community want the new neighborhood Center? If so, will the co-operation of the community be available if unity needed to request action from the City Commission?

The proposed new neighborhood center plans (blueprints) are now on display in the center offices. 22,000 square feet of space is to be utilized for Multi-Purpose Offices and Center; also Day Care Offices and Center, Medical, Dental and other Health facilities and offices plus storage and janitorial areas.

Mrs. Helen Dangerfield is the one responsible for the wonderful smell that come forth in Randolph Center. She capably prepares and supervises the preparation of the meals served daily as follows: Day Care, 40 daily and Meals on Wheels, 30 daily.

Adult Basic Education Classes Set in Angelo

San Angelo—A new year of Adult Basic Education (ABE) classes will begin early in October in San Angelo. Operated by the San Angelo Public School District under a federal program administered through the Texas Education Agency, ABE will be for the benefit of those who have never gone to school, those who dropped out or lack only a little education to receive their high school equivalent diploma. These classes are also for the benefit of anyone who does not speak English.

All classes and books are free and adults 18 years old or older may register. Registration for San Angelo night classes open October 5th at Edison Junior High School annex, 217 N. Oaks from 6:30 until 9:30 p.m. Daytime classes will be held in each of the three Community Action Council Neighborhood Centers. Tuesday and Friday classes will be held at Bradford Center, 817 Culwell; Tuesday and Thursday classes will be held at Rio Vista Center, 510 W. Avenue Z, which opens October 5th, and Monday and Thursday classes will be held at Randolph Center, 304 W. 12th Street, which will open October 4th. All class hours are from 8 a.m. until 12 noon.

the danger that, like some of the poverty programs of the '60's, this effort will shortly be damned and derided as another experiment which failed."

Hoiman said that the Coalition and other private groups have already met with Department of Labor officials in an attempt to assure that the expenditure of funds will be properly monitored, that artificial barriers to the employment of minorities and the poor will be eliminated, that connections between EEA and other manpower programs be established so that genuine job ladders can be created for those hired during the coming year, and that every effort be made to establish a "track record" which will insure the truly adequate public service program, a program for meeting the nation's human needs of a scale and kind which the private sector can not possibly be expected to provide.

He also urged local officials to "create jobs that develop new careers, that lead into continued training, career mobility and advancement."

CHURCH SERVICES

Bethel A.M.E. Church

Sunday School was well attended last Sunday morning with all teachers in their respective places. There were fifty-five persons on hand.

Rev. A.W. Wilson delivered another beautiful message. There were several visitors present at the service. Among our visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Melton, former residents of El Paso and now residing at 1902 1st Street.

Let us pray for and visit our sick and shut-in members. Mrs. Maunita Terrell is feeling better and hopes to be in church next Sunday. Mrs. Lola Tyler's sister is in intensive care in Midland, Texas. Pray for all our sick and bereaved families.

All choir members of No. 1 and No. 2: We will start rehearsal tonight at 8 p.m. in order that we may get ready for conference time.

Plans are still being made for the annual conference which will convene at our church, beginning September 29. There will be A.M.E. members from throughout the state of Texas.

New Hope Baptist Church

Our pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. A.L. Dunn, attended the National Baptist Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, last week. They reported a lovely convention.

Let us not forget this Special Men's Day program set for Sunday, September 19th. Let us look forward to making this a great day for the men's effort.

The B.M.&E. State Convention will be held in Houston, Texas, October 25th through 29th.

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church

The class leaders meet Monday evening. The members of the Finance Commission met Tuesday evening at the church.

We were happy to have the following visitors worshipping with us last week: Mrs. Myrtle Rochell, Lubbock; Mrs. J.B. Porter of Hubbard, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rutherford and son of Austin, Texas; Kevin M. McClarity of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Eudorn Connors of Dallas; Mrs. Dianne E. Jenkins of Upper Marlboro, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. See IKim of Soel Korea; Nowlin W. Willis, Jr., of Compton, California and Mrs. Theron Cole of Lubbock.

Jerusalem Temple Church Of God in Christ

The Missionary Society of our church is having a spiritual festival September 16th through 19th, 1971. There will be preaching, praying and singing. Saturday night services will feature favored singing groups from throughout the city. Sunday afternoon the Triangle Echos of Clovis, New Mexico will be special guests and Ella Blaylock of Fort Worth, Texas will deliver a dynamic message.

Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church

Bible Band meets at the church each Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. The members of the Esther Circle will meet tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 p.m. in the home of Sister Irbie Whitfield, 1503 East 13th Street.

The members of the A.L. Davis Circle met in the home of Sister Hazel Duson this week.

Sunday School and Baptist Training Union promotion will be held the fourth Sunday in September. Extensive plans are being made for this religious service.

The thought for the week: "Wisdom is knowing what to do; skill is knowing how to do it; virtue is in doing it well."

Let us pray for and visit our sick and shut-in. Sister Lillian Duty remains ill in Galveston, Texas and Brother Wilmar Wilson is ill in his home.

The Youth Federation of Choirs celebrated their first anniversary last Sunday afternoon at our church. It was a great program and young people did their "song thing."

Mount Gilead Baptist Church

The Mount Gilead Baptist Church, the friendly church, where the soul and spirit meet. "The church where everybody is somebody. The church extends to the members and public a cordial and clarion call to worship with us each week."

The Angelic Choir rendered a musical in Slaton, Texas, last Sunday at the Mount Olive Baptist Church, Rev. Peoples, pastor. Everyone was inspired greatly.

Our pastor, Rev. S.R. Roberts, motored to Cleveland, Ohio, last week for the National Baptist Convention. He has not returned to the Hub City yet.

The Mount Gilead Baptist Church expresses its sympathy to the family of Willie Collier, May God ever more bless and keep you.

The Angelic Choir would like to let the members of Mount Gilead know something new is happening. What? A Love Service. When? Sunday, September 19. Occasion? Honoring our Senior Choir of the church. Time? 7:30 p.m. Speaker for the program will be Rev. Adolphus Cleveland. The public is invited to attend.

Our church is invited to worship with the St. John Baptist Church, Rev. E.D. Toines, celebrating their church anniversary this month.

Christ Temple Church of God in Christ

Last Sunday afternoon, the Evangelist District Convocation was held at our church. The message was delivered by Bishop W. D. Haynes. Also present were Rev. Talley of Longview, Texas; Clouds of Joy of Odessa and a Levelland Choir.

Jenkins Chapel Church

The Jenkins Chapel Church School opened at the usual hour with Supt. Scott and teachers on time.

The high points of the lesson were given by Sister Edna Hambric who is teacher of the intermediates class.

The men's Bible class lost the banner to the women Bible class No. 3.

The song service was conducted by the family choir with music by Sister James Rowe. The morning sermon was brought by Rev. R.J. Dixon, His theme "Unclean, Un-

St. John Baptist Church

Sunday School was brought to order by Superintendent Osby at 9:45 a.m. Attendance was good with five teachers present. Our lesson for the day was "God Transcends Our Understanding." The lesson review and the high points were given by the pastor.

Morning service was very good. The pastor brought a wonderful message. His text was taken from St. Matthew 7:7-8.

Our pastor went to Snyder in the afternoon to participate in a service for Rev. Brown and his wife, but returned early enough to lead us in evening service, taking his text from St. Matthew 5:3-7.

Shiloh Baptist Church

Amarillo—Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m. with Supt. W.T. Grees in charge. The call to worship at 10:55 was made by the Church Choir with Ronald Sherwood at the piano.

Our pastor, Rev. Harkett, delivered the morning message from the 46th Psalms, "Thirst for God."

Circle No. 3 was happy to have Rev. Clayton to meet and bring the lesson for them Tuesday night. All circles reported having nice meetings last week. Let us pray for and visit our sick.

Please join in with us on Wednesday evenings for prayer meetings.

Thinking About God

God looked down from heaven upon the children of men to see if there were any that understand that did seek.

We may not be able to understand God, but we should be interested in learning more about Him. We are too superstitious and don't know our place. We should have courage to stand up and discover the divine will of God and Make peace.

Let us pray; Dear God, let principles guide us and let us see the results in our lives. Let us use honesty and grace. Let everyone know that Your Son died for all of us. Amen.
