Black Mayors Not Represented on Conference Panels at Recent U.S. Conference of Mayors

San Francisco—(NBNS)—Black mayors, with one exception, were noticeably missing from key committees and panels here at the 41st annual United States Conference of Mayors meeting.

Gary's Mayor Richard Hatcher, who serves as co-chairman of the conference's Legislative Action Committee, was the only black to serve in a key post during the convention.

And his appointment to the post following the convention "goes only part of the way" in solving the disappointment of black officials, Hatcher told reporters.

The organization's new president, Norfolk Mayor Roy Martin said he would remedy the situation as soon as possible, since there was minimal representation of blacks on committees and the conference program.

At the same time, Hatcher told of his disappointment that the conference watered down its concern for the fate of the cities under the President's revenue sharing plan.

"The conference did not even look at the whole question of the President's budget," he said. "My position is that it is a budget the cities cannot live with. It portends the destruction of cities, and all that has been done to save cities."

During the week long meeting, the conference of mayors clearly showed its opposition to the President's Better Communities Act.

The resolution "puts this conference squarely in opposition to the present form of the Better Communities Act," said San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto, the newly elected vice president of the organization.

"The idea (Communities Act) is good," said Norfolk's Martin, "but the formula is terrible." He pointed out that his city and many others would lose substantial funding while "affluent suburbs would get funds they've never had before."

Under the communities bill, some $2.3 billion would be divided up between 1,300 communities, including 93 urban counties. Only about two-thirds of that number now receive $2.1 billion.

The conference recommended the following changes be made in the Act:

- A provision be added to assure that cities now involved in urban development programs not have their funding reduced when the new communities are added to the program.

- That cities be required to file applications for federal money and a requirement that the federal government assure that the local governments use it for slum clearance, low income housing and community development.

then Acting Director Howard Phillips, that the money should go to community programs, rather than a propaganda project.

Calling the Jaycees proposed project "indefensible at a time when scarce resources should be applied directly to aiding community programs now starved for funds," Jordan said this was "in light of social service cuts and abandonment of constructive OEO community projects."

He said the action of OEO which gives the group of businessmen money to provide information about self-help programs that have been successful merely adds "insult to injuries already inflicted on poor people."

Justice Sues 3 Mobile Home Parks

Shreveport, La.—(NBNS)—The Justice Department has accused the owner of three mobile home parks with refusing to rent to blacks.

The consent decree, which permanently stops the defendants from racial discrimination at the home parks and requires them to post lists of vacancies in rental offices, involved the mobile home parks located in Monroe, La.

School Board Disobeying Court Order, U.S. Contends

Birmingham, Ala.—(NBNS)—The Jefferson County School Board has been charged with disobeying a federal court desegregation order by the U.S. Justice Department.

The suit, which accuses the board of permitting white students to attend a school outside their assigned area, said the board has failed to present a desegregation plan for two areas of Wenonah and Brighton as ordered by a federal court last year.

The Jefferson County system, which

"GET YOUR STUFF TOGETHER"—Probably should be the theme for Green-Fair Manor Apartments. The above slogan was found on a door in one of the apartments of the 236 unit complex last week. It is about time for Green-Fair Manor and the Lubbock Housing Authority Board to get itself together. In order to have Soul, Peace and Black Power, we need to get our minds together, now. surrounds the city of Birmingham, has an enrollment of more than 63,000 students.

Attica Inmates Fail in Judge's Dismissal

Buffalo—(NBNS)—Attica inmates, who were indicted in connection with the 1971 riot, have asked that State Supreme Court Justice Carmen F. Ball be taken off the case, but the judge turned the plea down.

Now lawyers for the men say they will appeal the decision since they believe the judge has a "disrespect for constitutional rights and human dignity."

Ramsey Clark to Defend Attica Inmate

Buffalo—(NBNS)—Former U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark was accepted last week as a defense attorney for 21 year old Charles Parnasilice of Syracuse, one of the inmates accused of killing a guard during the 1971 Attica prison riots.

White Couple Wins Right to Black Kids

Ellenville, N.Y.—(NBNS)—A white couple has been allowed to keep two black children, who they want to adopt, despite efforts of the local welfare agency.

The children have been with the John Morrows for 18 months now. Last year the children's mother died and the parents asked to adopt the two children. The identity of the father is unknown.

Last week, a social worker took the youngsters out of class and advised them they would be sent to another home the following day.

The Morrows then planned a demonstration to protest the seizure of the kids. And the NAACP agreed to help, along with several members of the county legislature. The couple have no children of their own.

But the county social service commissioner, Bernhardt Kramer, reversed his social worker's decision when he learned of it.

"I looked into it, and I decided the children are to remain in the Morrow home," he said. "I also told her (Mrs. Morros) she can submit a petition to adopt the children."

Mrs. Morrow and her husband, John, who is a department store salesman, said they couldn't believe the assistance people gave them.

Conyers Calls for House Watergate Panel Query

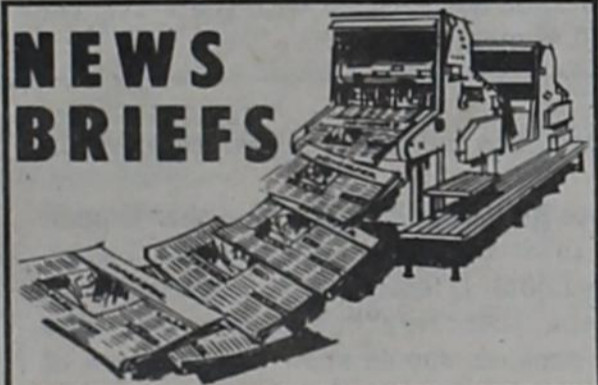

New York—(NBNS)—A veteran black Congressman has called on the House of Representatives to establish its own committee to investigate the Watergate and procedures for Presidential impeachment.

Making it clear that he was not calling for the impeachment of the President, U.S. Rep. John Conyers, Democrat of Michigan, said he believed the House should prepare for the possibility of an impeachment with the formation of the committee he recommended.

Last year, along with five other Congressmen, Conyers introduced a resolution of impeachment against President at the time of increased bombing in Southeast Asia. At the time, he said that the President was guilty of conducting a war in Southeast Asia without consent of the Congress, as required by the Constitution.

In pointing out that only the Congress can subpoena a President, Conyers told reporters at a news conference that the House has the power "and more importantly, the responsibility, to determine whether or not the President has been guilty of any wrongdoing."

"It is time that the House began to face the fact that it alone must resolve this issue for the American people. In saying this, I am not necessarily suggesting that impeachment proceedings be instituted now," he concluded.

Black Massachusetts Corrections Official Ousted by Governor

Boston—(NBNS)—Massachusetts Correction Commissioner John O. Boone was ousted from his post last week by Gov. Francis Sargent who called the black prison official a "symbol of major failure."

The 17-month tenure of the commissioner, an advocate of prison reform, was marked by walkouts and strikes by the guards, rioting and demonstrations by the prisoners, and the murders of six inmates.

According to black state legislators, Boone was the victim of racism and political pressure put upon the Governor by guards and others who criticized the manner in which Boone conducted the prison system. One legislator said guards had pledged that "a nigger would not run the State Corrections Department."

Jordan Blasts OEO Grant to Jaycees

New York—(NBNS)—National Urban League Director Vernon Jordan, Jr. has blasted the federal Office of Economic Opportunity for its consideration of a $3 million grant to the U.S. Jaycees to help publicize its programs.

OEO recently admitted that it was considering a grant to the Jaycees "to disseminate success stories of self-help groups at the poverty level."

But Jordan protested, in a telegram to

Sickle Cell Refusal Not Good!!

Although Sickle Cell Anemia is not the number one killer of blacks in America, it should have at least been considered from a more positive point of view by the South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG) recently when the Community Action Board asked for SPAG's help in underwriting a program. Perhaps the local effort on the part of CAB had some bugs in it, but these should have been worked out since there was a great concern in the black community that such a proposal be given serious consideration.

It is hard for this newspaper to understand why members of SPAG, persons who are elected by people of the South Plains area, would submit a letter to Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) urging a denial of such funds for the sickle cell fight—a sum of about $241,000.

Sickle cell anemia is a disease which attacks the red blood cells and reduces their oxygen carrying ability thereby causing damage to other organs of the body. Although this disease is quite prevalent in the black community, anglos have been known to be carriers of the same malady.

Blacks have no representation on the SPAG board. Perhaps this fact should be brought to the attention of the members of the organization. It seems that the largest minority race of people in America is forever having problems working within the system. SPAG most certainly should realize that blacks are concerned about what is happening on the South Plains area when a specific problem affects them directly.

This newspaper can still remember when a large percentage of the whites in the area wanted the new teaching hospital, and hospital district, and sent a delegation "over" to ask the black community's help in getting the job done. And now we can't get the favor returned.

Black Elected Officials In United States Tells Story

According to a study prepared by the Office of Research, Joint Center for Political Studies of Washington, D.C., there are 2,621 black elected officials in the United States. The study shows those blacks elected at the federal, (Senators and Representatives), state, (state executives, Senators, State Representatives), county, (Commissioners, Supervisors, Councilmen and other county officials), and municipal, (Mayors, vice mayors, mayors pro tem, Councilmen, Aldermen, Commissioners and other local officials), along with law enforcement, (Chiefs of Police, Constables, Marshals, Sheriffs, Justice of the Peace and other local law enforcement officials), along with those elected to such posts as members of boards of education, State and College Boards; and local school boards.

Texas, which is fifth in population of blacks in the United States, according to the 1970 census, is ranked 13th with only 101 black elected officials in the United States. The top five states with black elected officials are Michigan, 179 officials; New York, with 164 elected officials; Mississippi, 152 elected officials; Alabama, 149 elected officials and Arkansas, with 141 elected officials.

Those five states show twenty-five black mayors. This tells a story on how those states are able to have input into the welfare of black citizens. There are 176 blacks elected to fill positions as councilmen, aldermen and commissioners in those same five states.

Texas, on the other hand, has only three elected black mayors with only 38 blacks elected to other city offices. There is one black elected to the U.S. Congress and no state senators—and only eight state representatives. There are 46 elected to the local school boards in the state and only two serving on a state or college board.

Although there is some representation in Texas, West Texas is almost completely left out in the dark as far as representation is concerned. These figures tell a story as to why there are problems in our state and why there will continue to be problems until there is representation of black people from throughout the great state of Texas.

If these figures tell us nothing more—they should point out in bold letters that it is time for us in the black community of Texas to wake up.

JACK ANDERSON'S WEEKLY SPECIAL

COMMUNIST PRIORITY: NEW U.S. PRISONERS

by Jack Anderson

(Copyright, 1973, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Washington—I have seen secret intelligence reports which claim the Communists have made it their number one priority to capture American prisoners in Cambodia and Laos.

Besides American pilots, the Communists would also like to capture American advisers on the ground. According to the intelligence reports, an estimated 300 American advisers are guiding the Meo, Lao and Thai guerrillas operating behind Communist lines in Laos.

Their remote mountain camps are supplied by two CIA airlines, Air America and Continental, which employ another 500 American crewmen. The Air Force also operates nearly 200 bombing missions daily over Cambodia.

The secret intelligence reports warn that the Communists are making an extra effort to shoot down American planes and capture American guerrilla leaders.

Their aim, apparently, is to compile another prisoner of war list to use for bargaining purposes. Before the end of the summer, the sensitive POW issue may be raised all over again.

Burning the Taxpayers: The taxpayers are being burned by the U.S. Forest Service's policies on renting aircraft to fight forest fires.

The government spends more than $3 million a year just to have 80 helicopters and 60 World War II vintage bombers "stand by" in case of fire. The planes are leased from private companies to carry chemicals when a blaze breaks out. Once they take off, the cost goes up.

Meanwhile, the armed services have more than enough planes at the ready which could do the same job for only a fraction of the cost. With America out of the Vietnam War, helicopters are in particularly heavy supply.

The taxpayers, nevertheless, are still asked to pay out millions to the private contractors who actually offer little in the way of service. Near Reno, Nevada, for example, the Lear/Avia company gets $43,000 a year just to guarantee that one of its "Bell Jet Ranger" choppers will be available to the Forest Service for two hours a day during the 10-month-long forest fire season. A second helicopter is on stand-by.

But the Forest Service, behind its smokescreen of bureaucratic inefficiency, just keeps paying out the taxpayers' dollars.

Pollution Windfall: The Nixon Administration is trying to give some of the worst industrial polluters in the country a million dollar windfall and stick the taxpayers with the bill.

The beneficiary of the million is the National Industrial Pollution Control Council. It is the front for about 60 corporate bigwigs, who constitute an all-star cast of polluters. The council was established to advise the government on environmental issues.

Senator Lee Metcalf of Montana has charged, however, that the council's real purpose is to enhance the corporate images, create an illusion of action and impede government officials who are really trying to enforce the antipollution laws.

As I See It

by T. J. Patterson

As members of the largest minority race in America, we should all be concerned about what is going on in our community. Last week this newspaper had pictures and a column on the Green-Fair Manor Apartments in East Lubbock. I don't know how you feel about this situation, but I think it's a terrible mess and we should all be concerned about it.

Green-Fair Manor has 236 units and over 80 percent occupancy. Yet, the conditions there are rather unbelievable. It won't do any good to attempt to erase the symptoms of this complex, but rather there needs to be something done about what has caused this situation to be the way it is in the first place.

The Lubbock City Council and Mayor are responsible for appointing a Lubbock Housing Authority Board, which is charged with the responsibility of seeing that the Public Housing program in Lubbock is run correctly. In the past, this board has apparently be unconcerned about the situation in the Green-Fair Manor area—or surely something would have already been done to correct some of the problems.

Also in the past, the management of this complex hasn't been as it should have been. Therefore the tenants have been able to get by with things which lead to deplorable conditions in the complex. A great percentage of those people residing in Green-Fair Manor are on the welfare rolls and their normal household expenditures are very high in relation to their income.

Several residents of Green-Fair Manor have approached this writer about our coverage last week. They agreed that something should be done about the conditions. I only hope that the powers that be will do their part to see that something is done immediately.

Really, we as black people, should see to it that something is done about the conditions which are affecting a great number of people in our community. It is ridiculous of us to sit back and do nothing. Every minister, regardless of the denomination, should preach

"No, that doesn't mean you can ORDER money here!"

The council gets free offices and a staff of 13 from the government. Last year, it also got $323,000 from the Treasury. Now the White House wants to up the tab to more than a million dollars.

A week ago, Michigan Rep. John Dingell managed to knock out the appropriation on a point of order. But the corporation lobbyists are working in the back rooms to have the money put back during secret meetings of the Senate and House conference committee.

It is worth noting that the Commerce Department has killed a request to put public and environmental representatives on the council's board.

Off The Shelves: The Pentagon is asking for $35 billion for new weapons next year. But some of the weapons are the same ones Congress stopped the Pentagon from building two years ago, because of outrageous cost overruns.

For example, there is the "Main Battle Tank". The tank was conceived in 1964 and billed by the Army as the best tank on earth. After spending nearly $235 million, however, the Congress forced the Pentagon to drop the tank in 1971, because it had become too expensive and too complex.

Yet, in 1973, here it is again in the Pentagon budget—this time called the XM-1, and once again being proclaimed the best.

Then there is the Cheyenne helicopter. It was designed to be an antitank weapon which could double as an air support for ground troops. But after six years and $40 million, the project was shelved last year.

This didn't discourage the Pentagon brass hats. They just dusted it off, gave it a jazzy new name and pushed it in front of the Congress again. Now, it's called the "Advanced Attack Helicopter", but the name change isn't likely to save the taxpayers any money.

The new tank and helicopter, most likely, will join the Pentagon's cost overrun hall of fame with the F-111, the C-5A and the B-70 bomber.

from the pulpit about this ugly thing which exists in East Lubbock.

It's time for us to quit letting things like this happen while we continue to sit about and let it continue. I don't know how you feel, but I feel that we can really do something without just fighting symptoms. The Green-Fair Manor problem should show us, members of the East Lubbock community, exactly where we stand in the city. It should show us how far behind we are in a city where there are many more opportunities than people to take advantage of them right now. It also should make us in the East Lubbock community want to get out and get our part, in an honorable and constructive manner.

I'm sure a lot has been said about the article in last week's West Texas Times. I only hope, that with all of our reader's help, we will see some positive steps taken by the necessary powers to clean up a situation that has gotten completely out of hand. I would also hope that some people in important places decides to look over this situation and decide whether this type of outcome was what taxpayer's money was supposed to have been wasted on.

But no matter what people in high places say about the Green-Fair Manor problem, we must still start at home (in Lubbock) in trying to correct our problems and "getting our own thing straight". Presently only God knows what will happen. I only hope that there are those still around who will do their part to help us out of our local problems.

What has already happened is past history. What happens tomorrow, and all of the rest of the tomorrows is what really matters in this situation. Let's do something about our problems now, so we will all be proud to live in Lubbock the rest of our tomorrows. Let's all get involved and help put this problem back in its proper perspective. The outcome of the Green-Fair Manor problem in the immediate future should set a pattern for many of the problems which will face our city in the years to come.

Police Beat

House Burglary

David Cannon, 1739 East Cornell Avenue, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone unknown broke into his house by way of a bathroom window while he was away one day last week.

It was learned that a sizeable amount of items were taken from the house. Items taken were two portable radio-players, a wrist watch, seven record albums, a jar of pennies, an auto timing light, a Dwell meter, and a small tool box containing an assortment of tools.

Theft Over $5.00, Under $50.00

Dave Henderson, 2612 East Auburn Avenue, reported to the Lubbock Police Department one day last week that persons unknown did remove from his unlocked pickup, while it was parked in his driveway at his home, a .22 caliber pistol from under the front seat of the vehicle.

Henderson valued his pistol at $30.

Assault Over Boyfriend

If you ask Gennie Brooks, 806 Fig Avenue, she will tell you that boyfriends will get you into a lot of trouble. As was her misfortune one day last week.

Gennie told Lubbock police that she was dragged out of her house at 806 Fig, by four ladies who took her to the country and beat her up. She reported that all the ladies had a pistol.

She also said the fight was over a boyfriend. She told police the ladies were all involved "with a drug traffic and were possibly pillied up at the time." Gennie also reported that the ladies hung around the Colonial Motel.

She received a cut on the head, eye and arm. She was taken to St. Mary's Hospital for treatment. Gennie said she would file charges this week.

House Burglary

Rena Washington, 507 46th St., reported to the Lubbock Police Department that persons unknown took the cardboard off a front door window to her house and opened the door of the house and took a television set. The set was valued at approximately $50.

Although there was nothing else missing from the house, the television set was in the front room. The cardboard had been placed in the door glass because the window had been broken out.

Car Burglary

Sylvester Menefee, 1515 Avenue C, Apt. #15, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that while his car was parked in the front of his apartment one night last week, someone unknown to him entered and removed 13 stereo tapes, which was valued at $5 each; and one stereo player, valued at $46.

It was reported that five minutes after police left, Menefee found his tapes and stereo player in another apartment.

A lady in the apartment reported that a 15 or 16 year old youth had stolen the items and brought them to her apartment and gave them to her small son so he could sell them the next day.

We see youngsters are making tops out of sacks, colorful printed feed sacks and flour sacks with the printing intact.

around the hub city

Mr. and Mrs. Kinnie B. Bly and two children, Anthony and Marshel, of Fort Worth, spent last week in the home of Mrs. Etta Moseley, 2403 Birch Avenue. They are cousins to Mrs. Moseley. While in the Hub City, they had an opportunity to do some fishing at White River and brought back a nice catch. Mrs. Moseley is a lover of fishing. After many wonderful times together, a bar-b-que was held in the Moseley backyard. The Bly family enjoys visiting in the Hub City each Summer.

Mrs. Betty L. Miller and daughter, Regina, returned from visiting her parents in Cincinnati, Ohio. She also visited her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Green; and her sister, Mrs. Annetta Fannon. Her two children will return later this summer from Cincinnati.

Mrs. Leaner Goldstien left early Sunday morning for Hobbs, New Mexico due to the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Cowins, who had been ill quite some time. Arrangements are pending at this time. Mrs. Goldstien left immediately.

Mrs. Celestine Kyle caught her thumb in the car door and it locked, fortunately, her daughter, Mrs. Berry, was there and released it immediately. It was quite painful.

Clarence Ervin has returned from McKinney, Texas, where he

Sixteenth Annual Eastern Little League Banquet Attended by More than 100 Here

The sixteenth annual Eastern Little League banquet was held last Wednesday evening at Plains Co-op Oil Mill with D.M. McElroy, director of Continuing Education and KTXT-TV at Texas Tech, as guest speaker.

He encouraged the young Eastern Little Leaguers to continue doing a splendid job on the field as well as off.

Dick Walker, parks and recreation department of the City of Lubbock, reported to the more than 100 young fellows that the grass will be green and a new pitcher's mound will be built by the time they play the tournament at Eastern Little League Park.

This annual affair, which has been hosted by the Plains Co-op Oil Mill since its beginning, had special guest, Tom Brown, manager of Farmer's Compress flight Friday afternoon for Dallas to spend the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Ruby Jay. She returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Simmons of Fort Worth and son, Shawn, spent a day here last week with his brother, Harold, and family. Mrs. Harold Simmons was at the bedside of her mother who is ill.

Co-op; and Dick McClung, office manager of Plains Co-op Oil Mill. Each expressed their appreciation for being present at such a splendid affair for young baseballers in Eastern Little League.

Dr. F.L. Lovings, president of Eastern Little League, expressed his appreciation to those who were responsible for the annual banquet. He also announced the upcoming tournament which will be held at Eastern Little League on July 16 and 17.

Dr. Lovings announced, by consent of all managers, the first place winner of the league was the Giants, who have captured the title for four consecutive years. The Giants are coached by C. Wells and H. Avery.

Other team managers and coaches, by team, are Barons, Bobby Brandon, manager; Rudy Foster, coach. Indians, Almo Sedberry, manager; George Smothers, coach. Oilers, A. Houston, manager; V. Goins, coach. Grays, Charles Sedberry, manager; and Monarchs, Alex Atkins, manager; Nathan Wheeler, coach.

George Woods, chairman of the board, acted as master of ceremonies; James Fuller gave the invocation. Miss Gloria Clark, who was accompanied by Penny Sparks, sang "Yesterday". The entire group sang "Take Me Out To The Ball Game."

Sports of The Times

by Joe Kelly

Saranac Lake, N.Y.—Well, momma and me, we made it! We reached London, Ont., Canada, Saturday night, after leaving Lubbock late Friday evening. The first thing I did was to ask the clerk at the Holiday Inn if Canadian TV was carrying the All America game.

CBC was carrying it and, although we missed the kickoff, we saw all but about eight minutes of the game. It was beautiful and cool, no need for an air conditioner, so we ordered dinner in the room and watched the game.

Pardon me if I swell with pride, but that crowd looked tremendous. We were both thrilled to see so many people bathed in sunshine. Chris Schenkel and Bud Wilkinson were most gracious in their mention of Lubbock and Texas Tech throughout the game.

As for the game itself, there's really no need for comment. If you saw it, you know how the West came from behind and took charge of things. The running game started working to perfection and, with a few good breaks, the East gradually fell behind and out of it.

We set the alarm for 6 a.m.—that would be 5 a.m. in Lubbock—and set sail. We crossed over into New York about 1 p.m. and reached Saranac Lake about an hour later.

We went right to the Swiss Marina—which was Gardner's a year ago this time and, prior to that, Moody's—and they said that we could launch our boat right there. That saved a lot of time.

Then it was simply a matter of loading the boat. While my wife went shopping for food supplies, I took the camp stuff up to Pine Pond landing. After carrying it through the swampy area and stashing it under a fallen fir, I toted the pack basket and tent into Pine Pond.

After getting a bucket of water, I turned around and went back to get my wife. Between us, we got the bulk of the camping stuff into the Pond, got the tent up, rebuilt the fireplace, fixed dinner and fell into bed.

I hadn't done everything that I wanted to do the first day, but we sure had made a dent in it. It was a pleasure just smelling the hot sun on the pine needles, looking across the pond at Ampersand Mountain and feeling the fresh, cool breeze.

As we sat by the fire after supper, it slowly grew dark. I heard a noise and looked over at the table. It was just in time to save a cake that we had brought from home. A raccoon had smelled it and was on the verge of stealing it.

We let the coon have some cheesies and cut him a piece of cake, which was a mistake, because that encouraged him to come back. He has, each night, and Tuesday night he did his best to tear through the canvas of our tent. He was persistent, but finally gave up about 2 a.m.

There's little wildlife so far. A few chipmunks scurry around, along with some wood mice. We hear woodpeckers and many other birds, but they are not in evidence the way they have been in the past. One Blue Jay so far, which is strange, because they usually come out early.

It's taken me two days to get the camp comfortable—tarps up over the eating table and over the fireplace, wood cut, fireplace made heat reflective, a hanger pole for pots and pans, etc.

The weather has held perfectly. It was crystal clear Monday and hazy yesterday and today, but no rain. It rained Sunday, although it missed the pond and we never got wet. We're ready for it if it comes, which we hope it doesn't.

Fish have been jumping in the pond every evening and in Oseetah, or Miller, Pond, where we dock the boat. After finishing this stint, we're going to head back, grab our bass rods and go after some fish.

Tomorrow we'll head for Cold Brook two miles away and go after brook trout. It promises to be interesting, because my wife never has done any brook fishing. As a result, she'll probably catch more fish than I do!

The Roundup: Was startled driving from Windsor, Ont., to London to see a truck with "WTS" on the side. Sure, I thought it meant West Texas State. It didn't. In smaller words it said: "Windsor Trucking and Storage". . . . Saw a TIME-DC truck in Canada, too, which caused us to honk madly and wave. . . . Few Texas cars on the road. While I was sleeping, my wife said a Texas car passed us with much honking and waving. . . . No problem getting gas, either. We drove all night Friday. Saturday morning, just west of St. Louis, we were rationed to $3.00 worth. Later, in Illinois, we were rationed to 10 gallons. Otherwise, we could get a fillup anywhere. What's more, there were stations open all night all the way. . . . Surprisingly, saw few state police until we got to Canada, then they were thick. No trouble with customs, either. Pays to have an honest face!

FIRE HAZARD IN COMMUNITY—An old outdoor privy and a shack, surrounded by dried weeds, is one of many fire hazards in East Lubbock, as can be seen in this photograph. This structure is found at 2403 Globe Avenue. Although the lot does not belong to Urban Renewal, the owner should be made to cut the weeds (according to a City Ordinance) and remove the unsanitary facilities. (Staff Photo)

Waxahachie Man Dies Here Saturday

Jack Edward Johnson, 57, of Waxahachie, Texas, was found dead last Saturday morning in a bedroom of the Barkley Lott family, 1314 East 16th Street, here in Lubbock.

Justice of the Peace F.H. Bolen entered a verdict of death by natural causes.

He had been in Lubbock visiting at the home of the Lott family.

His body was taken to South Plains Funeral Home, and later was transferred to the Community Funeral Home in Waxahachie.

June Leaves Pleasant Memories Here

The Johnson-Gibbs family reunion honoring the late Mr. Dock Johnson, John M. Scott, Mrs. Josephine Gibbs, parents and grandparents, was held at Bear Creek Park, Houston, Texas.

There was more than 100 in attendance. The eldest person was Mr. Ezekiel Gibbs, age 85.

Many a remark, said in haste and forgotten by the speaker, remains in the heart of the listener for years.
