All athletes of the Dunbar High School were honored last Thursday evening, March 20, at Vann's Catering Service by their coaches, faculty, principal and school administration for a job well done this year. Jess Stiles, assistant coach at Texas Tech University, was speaker.

Stiles encouraged all athletes, whether they be large or small, to establish confidence in whatever you may undertake in life. "Sports will help you to develop yourself off and on the playing field", he said. He told the more than 200 persons present that confidence, courage and faith will help you to be a winner.

"I see great evidence of young fellows who are winners at this banquet tonight, just keep up the good work," he continued.

Special awards were presented to members of the basketball and football teams as well as recognition to the coaching staff at Dunbar by Louis Kelly, head football coach. "Without these men, we wouldn't be able to do a

Fifth Annual "Black Week" Set for April 1 Through 6th

The Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU) will present its fifth annual "Black Week" on the campus of Texas Tech University April 1st through 6th. With a theme of "Free At Last", a week of many events, both educational and entertaining, will be made available to students of Texas Tech and the Lubbock community.

A special "Kick Off Ceremony" will be held in the Mesa Room of the University Center Tuesday afternoon, April 1, at 12:30 p.m. with Victor Hackett, president, delivering the annual address.

One of the highlights of the week long of black awareness will be a debate between Dr. William Shockley of Stanford University vs Dr. Richard Goldsby of Yale University, concerning "the inferiority of blacks due to their genetic make". "This debate should prove to be controversial and interesting," admits Hackett.

This debate will be held at 8 p.m. in the Ballroom of the University Center. Admission will be 75 cents in advance and $1.00 at the door.

A "Black Bicentennial" will be held Wednesday evening, April 2, at 8:15 p.m. in the Agricultural Auditorium. This program will be presented by the students of Estacado High School.

Thursday afternoon, April 3, a "Black Muslim Program" will take place at 5 p.m. in Mesa Room of University Center. Local ministers of the Nation of Islam will be special guest.

Harold M. Chatman, secretary of the East Lubbock Business Association (ELBA) will be featured speaker at 5 p.m. Friday, April 4, in the Mesa Room of University Center. His topic will be: "Black Capitalism."

On the same evening, the well known "Black Poets", Eric Strong and James McCormick, will have a special presentation in the Business Administration's Lecture Hall 202 at 8 p.m.

Good eats will be a part of this year's activities. A "Soul Food Dinner" will take place at Bethel A.M.E. Church at 5 p.m. Saturday, April 5.

An evening of entertainment will take place at the Red Raider Inn on Saturday evening, April 5, at 10:00 p.m. when the Royal Temps and Cold Fire will be featured artists. Admission for this affair is $1.50 per person.

A Gospel Presentation will start off Sunday's activities, April 6, at the New Hope Baptist Church, 2002 Birch Avenue, at 3:30 p.m. This program will feature the Community Christian Church Choir, Black Voices, and the Lubbock Federation of Choirs Mass Choir.

Topping off the week long program will be political activist, Georgia State Senator, Julian Bond. Senator Bond is the first black to be nominated for a Presidential ticket in 1968. He is founder of SNCC and the director of the Southern Election Fund.

The Senator will speak on "The Role of Black In Politics". "We feel as though the Lubbock community should hear what is happening in black politics in America," said Leonard Childress, chairman of the Black Week committee.

Historical Collection to be Subject of Library Lunch Bunch Next Tuesday

On April 1, the Lunch Bunch group, meeting at the George and Helen Mahon Library at 12:15 p.m., will hear William C. Griggs, speak about the Lubbock County Historical Collection.

Mr. Griggs is Chairman of the Lubbock County Historical Survey Committee and Program Manager for the History of Engineering, at Texas Tech University. He will speak on the Lubbock County Historical Collection, its purpose and plans for the future. Some slides of the collection will be shown.

At the present time an interesting group of articles from the farm machinery collection are on display at the library, 1306 Ninth Street.

The public is invited to join the group, bringing a sack lunch, if desired. Coffee is furnished by the library. The program concludes at 12:45 p.m.

"If we keep on having this many people coming to our annual anniversary programs, we're going to have to find a larger place," said A.L. Smith, president of the Federation of Choirs. His statement came last Sunday afternoon at the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church where over 1,000 persons came to witness the annual affair.

Under the direction of Levi Lenley, the large audience expressed their complete approval of the affair. "We are glad to have a young man with such talent and experience to help us this year," said Mrs. Desma Moore, past directress and chairperson of the annual program.

The two and one half hour program got underway when the gigantic choir, approximately 100 men and women dressed in white and black, marched in singing "What A Fellowship."

Director Lenley, a well experienced musician, got the program underway when he used his hands and expressions to direct the choir to sing "One God, One Faith, One Baptism". The Mass Choir, during this selection as well as all of them, had good timing and their voices blended in with the musicians at the piano and organ.

Other selections sung and applauded with shouts of approval were "Steal Away To Jesus", with Ms. Carla Snell as soloist; "I Heard Of A City Called Heaven," by Sister Rosanna Harris.

"God's Way Is The Best For all", and "He's Promised Not To Leave Me" with Sisters Nettie Edwards and Mae Pearl Jackson singing a duet closed out the first half of the program.

"Yield Not To Temptation", "Rock of Ages", "If Everybody Was Like Jesus" were among those selections before the benediction. A special request by Sister Mae Pearl Jackson, "Too Close", brought the house down after Director Lenley soloed "Yield Not To Temptation".

Sister C. Deal did a splendid job singing "God Is Real." Sister O.M. Spencer led the solo for "Rock of Ages".

Host church for the annual anniversary was the Rising Star Baptist Church, Rev. J.T. Ward, pastor. Rev. Ward, who extended the privilege of the church, expressed his sincere appreciation for all churches, patrons and friends for being present at the affair.

Rev. Wilson Baldwin, former President A.L. Smith of the Federation of Choirs is shown above welcoming the more than 1,000 persons who attended the 21st Anniversary of the organization last Sunday afternoon, March 23, at the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church. "If we keep growing like this, we are going to have to find a larger place," said Mr. Smith.

Raymond Bogus, Dunbar Graduate, Named to College Who's Who Recently

Good (Holy) Friday

For Christians Good Friday is an especially nostalgic, or sad, day. It is the day Jesus was crucified, according to the records. And whether one belongs to this or that church, or any church, it is one of the major days of history.

Even for those who doubt the miracles, the life of Jesus is greatly admired, and his teachings generally respected and admired. For those millions of faithful, Good Friday, or Holy Friday (which seems a better name for it), is a painful day of faithful observance.

It is shortly followed by the glorious Christian Easter, of course, when Jesus, according to St. Matthew's gospel, rose from his grave and ascended into heaven.

That gives Good Friday (the AngloSaxons called it Long Friday) a happy outcome, one upon which the world of Christians has long based its faith. The Easter weekend is, therefore, a logical, appropriate time to recall and study the life and teachings of Jesus.

Easter, 1975

Easter, the principal ecclesiastical event of the year, gets its name from Eostre, a Teutonic goddess, whose festival was celebrated in the spring. Her name was given to the Christian festival, as it was she, according to legend, who opened the portals of Valhalla to receive the White God and Sun God, representing purity and light.

The Christian observance, this year on the 30th, is a symbol of the Resurrection, and intertwined with many religious customs and observances, some dating back hundreds of years before the time of Jesus Christ.

The Easter egg became associated with Easter because eggs were forbidden to be eaten during Lent and on Easter Sunday they were traditionally served. The Easter egg, though, dates back to the Egyptians and Persians, and also the Greeks and Romans, who ate eggs annually in spring festivals.

In any event, it's appropriate that Easter comes in the spring, when the renewal of life is so apparent. Sunrise services in our churches—an observance of recent origin in most churches—symbolize the Resurrection at sunrise. This practice is observed in practically all churches today as a symbol of hope, inspiration and faith.

Not All Bad

Black Americans have much to be thankful for in America today, just as white Americans. While no one versed in facts and American history would deny injustices and discriminations and worse in past years (and some still exists), it can also be said that special considerations and advantages are now enjoyed by many blacks, and that a great democratic nation has earnestly sought to right past wrongs, has moved vigorously in the right direction in recent decades.

The danger in continually embittering any American race or group is that martyrs are created, and martyrs' actions often stem from emotional hatred and bitterness which distorts their idea of their own best interests and those of all Americans. Therefore, the tone from moralists, politicians, social workers and all Americans working to improve race relations should be one of regret for past injustice but pride in recent progress and hope for more, combined with appreciation of the blessings blacks now enjoy.

Blacks now enjoy many special privileges over and above those of the majority race. They are often favored in job openings. They are favored—and even sought—for many professorships. As students they can often gain entrance at colleges and universities over better qualified white applicants. They often receive special or lenient treatment jobs.

In the old Cotton Belt they often enjoy the benefits of practically all public money for education—the public schools are virtually their own. What this means is that whites whose children have moved to private schools support the public school system and pay additionally for private schools.

There are, of course, still injustices. But the climate today is a far cry from that of a few years ago. And history shows few examples of a large minority race within any nation achieving such rapid progress as has been the case with blacks in the United States in recent years. All Americans, then, have much to be thankful for, not just citizens of the majority race. A balanced prospective includes this good part of the story.

As I See It

by T.J. Patterson

With all the problems seen in the economic arena this day and time, not much has been said about the unions. In reading an article from a national publication last week, it was rather interesting to see that unions are feeling the recession almost as badly as business.

Reasons being that membership is falling, dues income off, recruiting is a disaster. The article also made known that employees of unions are laid off and service to members of unions are trimmed back, and others.

It is believed that there will be union mergers to keep their strength up. This is expected to be found in the small unions as well as some of the big ones too.

As I See It, the tax rebate checks from Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will probably come a little early. Perhaps the first checks will start going out in late April to people who have already filed their 1974 returns.

Thought Of The Week: "On your way up in life, watch who you pass up; on your way down you might have to spend a night with a fellow you passed while going up", Rev. A.L. Davis, pastor of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church.

After seeing over 1,000 persons in attendance at the 21st Anniversary of the Federation of Choirs last Sunday afternoon at the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church, I would agree with Brother A.L. Smith, president, that if this type of crowd keeps coming out each year, a larger place will be necessary.

Lon Nol is Responsible For Cambodia's Downfall
by Jack Anderson with Joe Spear
(From United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Washington—Administration spokesmen have suggested that Congress will be to blame if the Communists take over Cambodia. An emergency appropriation of over $200 million, the spokesmen have indicated, would save the Lon Nol regime.

The secret military reports from Cambodia tell a different story. They tell of heroic fighting by some Cambodian army units. But for the most part, the military campaign has been mismanaged, the supplies have been mishandled and too many military commanders have been more interested in lining their own pockets than in saving the country.

The Lon Nol regime, in short, has brought about its own downfall.

For example, the army is desperately short of troops to man the barricades guarding the capital city of Phnom Penh. Yet the city is full of young men, subject to the draft, who simply have bought their way out of the army.

Some are phantom soldiers, who are carried on the army rolls but who have paid off their commanders to let them stay home. Others paid bribes to avoid the draft in the first place.

The truth is that it would take more than a financial transfusion from the United States to save Lon Nol.

Nevertheless, the Pentagon is pushing ahead, without congressional approval, with plans to pump still more millions into Cambodia. A few days ago, the brass hats suddenly announced they had been "overcharging" Cambodia for weapons. They waved the magic wand and, presto, they "found" another $21.5 million for the Lon Nol regime.

Juggling the books is not the only way the Pentagon has "found" funds for the war in Southeast Asia. For years, the military men have relied on an ancient piece of legislation called the "feed and forage" law. It dates back to 1820. Its original purpose was to protect soldiers in remote areas from running out of food and supplies before Congress could appropriate funds for them.

Thus, the "feed and forage" law allows the Pentagon to contract for certain items before they have the money. Congress comes along afterward and automatically approves the transaction. This has been used for a variety of purposes that have nothing to do with "feed and forage."

Nearly $150 million in "feed and forage" funds, in fact, went to support the war in Southeast Asia.

Fuel Refunds? In past reports, we have exposed how some oil companies have jacked up the price of fuel oil. The increases have been passed on to the consumers who heat their homes with oil. The price-gouging is also responsible

The officers, staff, director, musicians, and participants are to be congratulated on a splendid program Sunday afternoon. When we see programs as this, it gives one hope that people can work together for the same cause.

There's no doubt about it, the entire city of Lubbock should see and hear this Mass Choir. This writer hopes that this will become a reality one day in the future. Brother Levi Lenley, director of this year's program, is a well experienced musician, and his team of musicians did their thing to the highest.

We can't overlook the effort of the 100 men and women who used their voices to make the program a success. Chairperson, Mrs. Desma Moore, past director of the affair, is to be congratulated for her fine programming.

All in all, last Sunday afternoon was a beautiful one for me. It is apparent that those present felt the same way. It was a true experience that God is in the midst of his children.

If you get an opportunity this Saturday afternoon, March 29, at 12:30 p.m., tune in on Channel 11, KCBD-TV, and watch my show, "What's Going On?" You'll enjoy listening to the Dunbar Acappella Choir and the Black Voices of Texas Tech University. Both groups are tremendous.

Representatives of the Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU), Leonard Childress and Chris Thomas, will appear and talk about the upcoming "Black Week" on the campus of Texas Tech, April 1st through 6th.

Speaking of Dunbar High School, the choir won the sweepstakes last week at a meet in Plainview, Texas and became the first time in the history of Dunbar for such an honor. Ms. Charlotte Greeson and her young people are to be congratulated for a job well done.

Check these young people out on Saturday afternoon at 12:30 p.m., Channel 11, KCBD-TV. You'll be glad that you did. What beautiful young people.

For Your Information: The almost 40 per cent of the total black elderly population who live in the "below low-income" level suffer severely from high energy prices, according to a study of the effect of the energy crisis on the low and moderate income elderly being prepared for the Federal Energy Administration.

for higher electric bills, since most utility companies operate their power plants on fuel oil.

We have described the price-gouging schemes in the past. Most of them are complicated, involving phony invoices and dummy corporations.

We are now pleased to report that the Federal Energy Administration intends to recover the illegal profits and to see that refunds are made to the customers.

Meanwhile, the FEA will order price rollbacks as fast as they can prove there has been price gouging. The first rollbacks, according to our FEA sources, can be expected in a few weeks. But it may take years to complete the investigations of some of the price manipulating.

The FEA will insist that past overcharges be refunded. These refunds will go to the electric and fuel-oil companies that bought the overpriced oil. It will take action by the state utility commissions to pass these overcharges back to the consumers.

Wasteful Watchdogs: The Federal Reserve Board is the nation's money manager. Its governors have been doing a lot of preaching about the evils of inflation. They have tried to stop others from overspending by tightening credit. Only recently have they started to ease up.

They are far less careful, however, about their own spending habits. In 1973, for example, the Federal Reserve Board contributed $159,579 of public money to its employees' private recreation clubs. This was nearly double the amount that was spend on recreation the previous year.

Unlike other government agencies, the Federal Reserve Board doesn't have to ask Congress for money. Its budget comes out of the revenue that the board generates from treasury bond sales. There is no tight watch, therefore, on what the board spends. And for the last few years, the spending has increased.

Rep. Wright Patman, the old Texas watchdog, wants the General Accounting Office to audit Federal Reserve expenditures. And Congress is in a mood to crack down on the Fed.

Religious Debate: Madalyn Murray O'Hair, the famous atheist who won a Supreme Court decision banning prayer from public schools, has thrown down the gauntlet to evangelist Billy Graham. She challenged him to a televised debate on their respective philosophies. Mrs. O'Hair told us a few days ago that Rev. Graham has the matter "under advisement."

Rejoinder: John D. deButts, the genial chairman of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., has a ready retort for those who would censure Ma Bell's monopoly on the phone business. "Those who would equate competition with motherhood and chicken soup," he says, "forget about Ma Barker and botulism."

Energy Boost: The last two chiefs of the Federal Energy Administration have at least two things in common. Both of them work 15 hours a day and both are caffeine addicts. Former energy czar John Sawhill took his in the form of diet colas, which had to be on hand whenever he touched down in a new city. The new FEA administrator, Frank Zarb, consumes coffee from his first appointment, at 6:00 a.m., right through the rest of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Joe Evans are proud parents of a son, born Friday morning, March 21, at 7:26 a.m. at Methodist Hospital. Both mother and son are fine, and are at home at 2402 East 29th Street. The little Antrown Deshone is the first for his parents, and also the first grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Melton. The father is a senior student at Langston University at Langston, Oklahoma. He arrived home a few hours before the delivery. He is here for the spring break.

Mr. C.F. Cooke, Jr., his children, and Dr. F.L. Lovings, left last Friday morning for Albuquerque, New Mexico to attend a workshop. Mrs. Cooke flew to meet them there last Friday after school was out. All reported a lovely and educational experience in Albuquerque. They returned Sunday afternoon.

Frank Lee Melton and his grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Jackson, spent last weekend at Corsicana, Texas visiting relatives.

Charles Lewis Melton, who is now an assistant tennis coach at Prairie View College, where he has finished pre-medical requirements, and has been accepted for an interview here this week concerning acceptance in the Medical School at Texas Tech University. He arrived here Tuesday.

Mrs. Lovie Jean Cunningham and son, Ricky, left Saturday noon for Albuquerque, New Mexico for a visit with their husband and father, Salone Cunningham, who is a patient at the V.A. Hospital. They returned home Sunday evening and reported he was better after a few days of unusual upset. He was cheerful and happy to see his family.

Mrs. Mary Sue Robertson and Mrs. Laverne Fulbright of Crosbyton, Texas were visitors here last weekend. Mrs. Robertson has an appointment with her optometrist this week.

He has been using a wheel chair in his hospital room, and around in the corridor.

Mrs. Marie Hibbler, who has been a patient at Methodist Hospital, has been removed to the Medical Center and seems to be recuperating satisfactorily at last report.

Mrs. Callie Cato, Mrs. Susie Moore, along with others of the community, are in various rest homes. Mr. Clem Virden is resting fairly good at home.

Welton Jordan, son of Mrs. Della Jordan, is critically ill at Methodist Hospital. He has suffered a stroke and is reportedly in a coma, semi-paralyzed.

Mrs. Jessie Hemanes was reported on the sick list last week, and was unable to attend church. Mr. Bull Davis is yet on the shut in list.

Memory works wonders with the truth.

After April 1st Deadline Motorists Face Question, "Are You Plated or Belated?"

That's the question motorists may be facing after midnight April 1st, deadline for motor vehicle registration in Texas. After that time, law enforcement agencies have been instructed to stop motorists not displaying the 1975 plates to remind them of their licensing responsibilities.

Since February 1, county tax offices and selected substations throughout the state have been conducting registration business as usual. Early reports indicate the annual procedure, required of the state's 9.2 million motor vehicle owners, is running smoothly. However, many registrants traditionally wait until the "last minute" to react, resulting in longer lines and necessary delays.

According to a Highway Department spokesman, public response to the new five-year license plate, being issued for the first time in Texas, has been good. In fact, motorists have shown an uncommon interest in the "label" their motor vehicle will wear through 1979.

In lieu of annual replacement, motorists will be issued an adhesive type sticker beginning in 1976, that will update their plate for another year of driving. The sticker will be placed in the debossed upper left corner of the plate. The following year, the tag will be stuck in the upper right corner to cover the debossed "75", and alternate for the ensuing years. Once in place, the tags cannot be easily removed without deterioration, a part of the plan to discourage vandalism or theft.

County tax offices will continue to issue annual plates to certain classes of motor vehicles. These include radio operators, dealers, government officials and those passenger cars displaying "personalized" plates.

Remember the registration deadline is midnight April 1st.

Those who make promises and keep them are worth watching.

Black Study Programs in Many of Nation's Colleges Now in Jeopardy

Cambridge, Mass. — (NBNS) —Six years ago, many colleges and universities across the country moved swiftly to implement black studies programs that were demanded by the black student population.

Today, a number of these programs are out of existence, some are tottering, and others are seethed in controversy.

At Harvard University, the pinnacle of Ivy Leagues, for example, brewing internal disension blew up last week when Professor Ewart Guinier, chairman of the Afro-American Studies Department released a statement charging that President Derek Bok and Dean Henry Rosovsky of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences were trying to enforce a "slavocratic" view to deprive the black studies department of control over appointments.

Prof. Guinier said President Bok had given up to "forces supporting white supremacy within Harvard" and had sought to "kill" the department by removing research funds and a long projected and awaited W.E.B. DuBois Institute from it. The institute is to conduct research in black issues—past and present.

Responding in a joint statement, President Bok and the Dean said, "We very much regret Professor Guinier's intemperate statement," adding that efforts were "underway to strengthen the department" in accordance with guidelines suggested by a 1973 review committee headed by Judge Wade H. McCree, a black member of the United States Court of Appeals in Detroit and a former Harvard overseer.

Dr. Guinier, 65, in his 19 page statement to Harvard overseer committee, had raised the issue about tenured faculty for the Afro-American Studies Department.

The two administrators maintained that new appointment of tenured faculty for the department were "under active consideration" in procedures approved by the elected Faculty Council.

The university, they said, "has appointed an advisory committee to develop the DuBois Institute under the chairmanship of Andrew Brimmer." Brimmer, who is black and a former member of the Federal Reserve Board, is a visiting professor.

Dr. Guinier's concern is far reaching. He said he had served notice that he would take the 1976 spring term on a paid sabbatical and would wish to give up the chairmanship not later than then.

He dubbed Rosovsky's plan "patently absurd." He had asked various departments to nominate candidates who might hold joint appointments with the Afro American assignments—a practice used in the comparative literature department—or single appointments.

Dr. Guinier, who is the department's only tenured faculty member, noted that 300 students took courses in the department last fall and 500 this term. He estimated that Harvard had "fewer than 500" blacks and out of more than 15,000 students, with black freshmen down from peak of 99 in 1969 to 70 last September.

Musicians Appear at Estacado High Recently

Here are a proud group of young men, and one lovely young lady who call themselves T.N.T. (which means "Tain't Nothing To It). This group appeared Friday evening, March 14, at the Estacado High School Talent Show where they came in first. If you ask those who have heard them, they would tell you that they are the greatest.

T.N.T. has been playing together for eight months. They practice five hours daily, six days a week. They all love music and say: "This keeps us off the streets, and it keeps us busy from sitting around and not doing anything."

This group has also appeared at the Dunbar High School, and are students from three different schools. Three are from Dunbar, Larry and Jimmy Sampson, brothers; and Bobby Ray Taylor, all singers. Two from Estacado, Joseph Lee and Isaac Brown; and six from Alderson Junior High School, Coquese Bracy, Larry Perryman, Freddie Pride, Melvin Hobdy, Lewis Caraway, and Jim McFarland.

People in West Texas are very proud of this sensational young group and hope they will continue to be successful.

Services Conducted Saturday for Mrs. Katie Grays Snell

By her first marriage, she was the mother of three children. Later years, she moved to Waxahachie, Texas where she met and married Joe Earl Snell, who preceded her in death, and again was blessed with three children.

The family moved to Lubbock in 1936 and made their home here until death. Mr. Snell succumbed to an extended illness July 16, 1974, eight months prior to the death of Mrs. Snell.

Soon after moving to Lubbock, Mrs. Snell united with the New Hope Baptist Church under the pastorage of the late Rev. R.E. Jones, and remained a faithful, devoted servant of God until her health prevented her activities.

Many lives have been enriched by knowing Mrs. Snell. Her Christian influences were felt in her home and neighborhood. She was known and loved by many.

Rev. A.L. Dunn, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, officiated the services and was assisted by Rev. C.J. Tisdale, Rev. A.W. Wilson and Rev. E.J. Odom.

Survivors includes three daughters, Mrs. Juanita Summers of Denver, Colorado; Mrs. Joan Y. Ervin and Mrs. Luella S. Hall, both of Lubbock; two sons, Carl Jones of Chicago, Illinois and Joe E. Snell, Jr. of Lubbock; a devoted son-in-law, Clarence L. Ervin, Sr.;

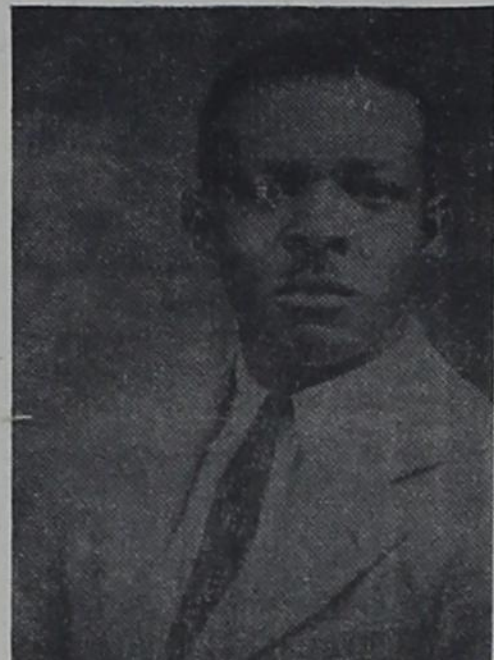

a daughter, Mrs. Alberta McBrier, preceeded her in death; four sisters, Mrs. Ethel Bowens of Chicago, Mrs. Juanita Cummings of Waxahachie, Texas; Mrs. Vera Pugh of Philadelphia, Pa.; and Mrs. Luxie Scott of White Plains, N.Y.; eighteen grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Interment was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery with South Plains Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Honorary pallbearers were the Brotherhood of New Hope Baptist Church and flower bearers were the granddaughters.

Rites Read for Bennie E. Smith

Final rites were read Monday afternoon, March 24, at 2:00 p.m. at the Mount Gilead Baptist Church for Mr. Bennie Earnest Smith, a longtime resident of Lubbock, with Rev. S.R. Roberts, pastor, officiating. Rev. A.W.

Wilson and Rev. A.L. Dunn assisted Rev. Roberts.

Interment was held in Peaceful Gardens Cemetery under the direction of South Plains Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith was born to Ben and Birtina Robinson on July 19, 1903 in Williamson County, Texas. He received his education at Blackshear High School of Taylor, Texas, and graduated from Bishop College in Marshall, Texas.

After graduation from Bishop, he taught for thirteen years at Blackshear High School in Taylor, and was a principal for one year at Slaton, Texas.

He united with the Mt. Avery Baptist Church of Taylor at an early age. In 1934, Mr. Smith came to Lubbock and united with New Hope Baptist Church. In later years, he moved his membership to Mount Gilead Baptist Church.

Mr. Smith died in Methodist Hospital on March 19 after a brief illness.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Pride of Lubbock No. 328 and Men's Civic Club.

He leaves to mourn a wife, Mrs. Clarabel R. Smith; a mother, Mrs. B.L. Rabb; a daughter, Ms. Patricia Estena Smith; a son, Richard Alphonsa Smith; three brothers, John H. Smith, Granville Smith, both of Tulsa Oklahoma, and Eura Lee "George" Smith of Oklahoma City; three nephews, four nieces, one devoted cousin, Mrs. Zella Mae Rose; one foster sister, Mrs. Artie M. Washington of Winslow, Arizona, a host of other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were the Pride of Lubbock Masonic Lodge No. 328. Honorary bearers were Alfred Caviel, D.C. Fair Jr., George Scott, Charles W. Johnson, Grover C. Colvin, Albert Lincoln, Roy Roberts, Charles Brown, Leslie Cross and Harold M. Chatman and members of the Men's Civic Club.

Dept. of Justice Files Against Houston Firm

The Department of Justice filed a civil suit last week charging a Houston, Texas, property management firm and its principal owner with refusing to rent to black persons in all-white and mostly white apartment complexes.

Attorney General Edward H. Levi said the housing discrimination suit was filed in U.S. District Court in Houston.

The defendants are Shindler Cummins Property Management, Inc. (SCPM), which manages more than 4,000 apartment units in the Houston area, and Fred Rizk, of Houston, who holds a principal ownership interest in SCPM and owns 4,000 apartment units in the area.

The suit said the defendants also applied more stringent requirements to blacks than to whites in determining qualifications for renting apartments.

It said these practices violate the Fair Housing Act of 1968.

Assistant Attorney General J. Stanley Pottinger, head of the Civil Rights Division, said the suit asked the court to prohibit the defendants from violating the Act and from perpetuating or promoting racial segregation in housing.

The suit also asked that SCPM and Rizk be required to take steps to correct the effects of their alleged past discriminatory practices.

Final rites were conducted last Saturday morning, March 29, at 11 a.m. at New Hope Baptist Church for Mrs. Katie Grays Snell, a longtime resident of Lubbock, who passed away Monday morning, March 17, enroute to the hospital. She had endured a lingering illness for many months.

She was born September 18, 1897 in Brazoria County, Texas to the parentage of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Grays. Mrs. Snell accepted Christ at an early age, and became a member of the Baptist Church.

Cake Decorating Can Be Fun, Convenient

Today fashion is flourishing in the kitchen, and one popular culinary art is cake decorating.

For special occasions many homemakers wish to serve attractive, appetizing desserts which are easy to prepare. Aware of these needs, the Kraft Kitchens created a very special Spring Flower Cake which suits the lifestyles of modern homemakers.

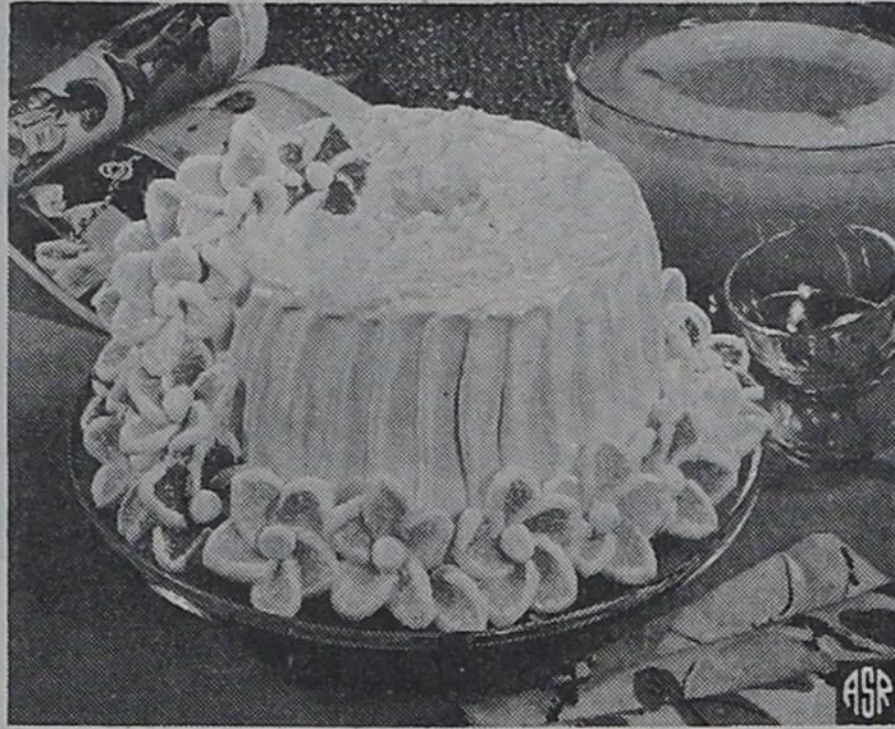

Begin by purchasing a moist, tender angel food cake from your bakery or grocery. To economize, buy it on special and freeze until you're ready to frost with smooth and fluffy Angel Mallow Frosting, tinted according to your preference. This frosting is easy to make using marshmallow creme, and is excellent to work with.

The sprightly daisies cut from Jets and miniature marshmallows are inexpensive and fun to make. Dipped in a colored sugar of your choice, they add the custom touch to this dessert.

Spring Flower Cake is sweet and satisfying, yet light enough to complement warm weather meals. It's pretty party fare too. Serve it for a tea or shower with Golden Punch, a fruit juice-ginger ale mixture accented with a frozen fruit salad ring.

Though Spring Flower Cake was designed to welcome fair weather, the idea needn't pass on to your files for next year when this season ends. Angel Mallow Frosting is a recipe as versatile as it is delicious. It adapts well to a variety of cakes.

Convenience cake decorating can be a never-ending hobby, because there is a constant flow of birthdays, anniversaries, graduations and other occasions which call for a special celebration—and a special cake.

Spring Flower Cake

1 10-inch angel food cake
Angel Mallow Frosting
Marshmallow Daisies

Frost sides and top of cake with Angel Mallow Frosting. Decorate with Marshmallow Daisies.

Food coloring

Combine sugar, egg whites and water in double boiler; beat with electric or rotary beater over boiling water until soft peaks form. Add marshmallow creme; beat to stiff peaks. Remove from heat; beat in vanilla. Tint frosting with food coloring.

Marshmallow Daisies

For each Marshmallow Daisy, dip scissors in water. Cut across the flat side of a Jets Marshmallow to form petals. Each marshmallow makes 4 petals. Arrange 5 petals on waxed paper in a flower design, slightly overlapping tips. Dip inside of daisy into colored sugar to coat cut sides of petals. Cut a miniature marshmallow in half and press, cut side down, in center of each daisy. For each leaf, cut as for single petal. Dip in green colored sugar to coat one side.

Work Incentive Program (WIN) Facts

Legislative Authority: The Work Incentive Program (WIN) was established by Congress under a 1967 amendment to the Social Security Act. The Talmadge Amendment in 1971 to Part C, IV of the Social Security Act, effective 7-1-75, specifies that all applicants for AFDC benefits are required to register for work or training unless exempt; that emphasis in the Work Incentive Program be on employment, on-the-job training, public service employment, and continual exposure of WIN participants to job market information. Funding for this program is 90 percent from the Department of Labor and 10 percent from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. The purpose of this program is to assist Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) recipients to leave welfare rolls through jobs and become self-supporting. A Work Incentive Program Office is open in Lubbock to serve the employers of Lubbock County, Hale County, and Terry County.

Employment Preparation Orientation: Participants are given orientation to the world of work through discussion of attitudes, appearance, work habits, motivation, etc.

Direct Job Entry: Participants may be placed directly on jobs they are qualified to fulfill at the time they enter the WIN Program. Employers are entitled to 20 percent tax rebate on participants first year wages.

On The Job Training: This training is given by private and public employers under contract to the WIN Program. The private employer is reimbursed at a rate equal to 50 percent of all wages paid to the participant while in training. Training time ranges from 8 to 44 weeks depending upon the complexity of the job. Employers are entitled to a 20 percent tax credit on wages paid to participants during their first year of employment. On-the-job training may be with a private or public service employer. When a WIN participant is placed in on-the-job training with a public service employer, the total wages during the training period are borne by the WIN Program. Maximum training periods are not to exceed 9 months.

Basic Education and GED: This part of the Program is sub-contracted through the Texas Education Agency to the Lubbock Independent School District which conducts the various classes.

Vocational Training: This part of the Program is contracted by the Texas Education Agency with various training facilities, including a variety of occupations.

Sports of The Times

by Joe Kelly

So Indiana and North Carolina didn't make it to the NCAA finals and another prediction went down the drain. It does prove one thing: only the uncertain is a sure thing.

Maybe it proves more than that. It might just be another indication that, on a given day or night, almost any top team in the nation can beat another, that perhaps there isn't that much spread in basketball from one section to another and that college games are on the level, although there never was much about.

At any rate, there are a couple of outstanding matchups this week in the semi-finals when Syracuse and Kentucky, two teams not expected to make it this far, clash in one game and UCLA and Louisville collide in the other battle.

UCLA pretty much was expected to get this far, even though the Bruins are not quite as strong this year. Louisville also was not expected to gain this rung.

Fortunately basketball fans in this area will see both the semi-finals Saturday and, on Monday night, the championship game. It should be great basketball.

An all-Kentucky finals is entirely possible. Kentucky should have the momentum and desire to go with an impressive record. But don't count Syracuse out. The Orangemen weren't given a chance, but here they are after beating nationally ranked teams like LaSalle, North Carolina and Kansas State.

Louisville, which has lost only two games all season, carries a glittering record into the semi-finals, with wins over Rutgers, Cincinnati and Maryland.

UCLA has three losses, beat a good Michigan team, edged Montana and then dominated Arizona State. It might be worth nothing that John Wooden's Bruins changed their style against the Sun Devils and may have a surprise up their sleeves.

The Uclans, of course, have the most tournament experience of the four semi-finalists. Kentucky has the prestige of past tournaments. Louisville comes from a hotbed of basketball, while Syracuse has tradition in its section of the country.

These should be three excellent games and the team with the fewest turnovers and best defense should win. Hot shooting, of course, won't hurt any of the teams.

Spring football training starts soon at Tech and Steve Sloan already has his problems. Unless they change their minds, center Jim Frasure and tackle Jim Kitzpatrick won't be on hand. They are red shirts foregoing their fifth year.

The word coming here is that one of the new assistant coaches was a terror during the off-season conditioning drills. Finally, the two vets—and maybe some others—decided it wasn't worth it.

The loss of these two experienced players is no help. An outstanding 6-5, 240-pound prospect from Snyder quit a long time ago and, even without experience, players of his heft are needed.

Sloan apparently got the situation straightened out with a few words in the right direction, but it may have hurt player morale. Spring training could be interesting. Hate to see a new coach start with problems not of his doing.

Recently, in driving through the Hayton-Aspermont area, I started becoming conscious of the wild life. What really brought it to a head was, while driving up State 70 from Rotan, I saw a deer on the road side of a line fence.

As I neared, he gracefully leaped over the fence and loped out of sight. I thought that maybe I had been seeing things, until I talked with a rancher at Jayton.

As soon as I told him about the deer, he named the rancher on whose property the deer grazed and allowed as to how there were a few head of deer in the area.

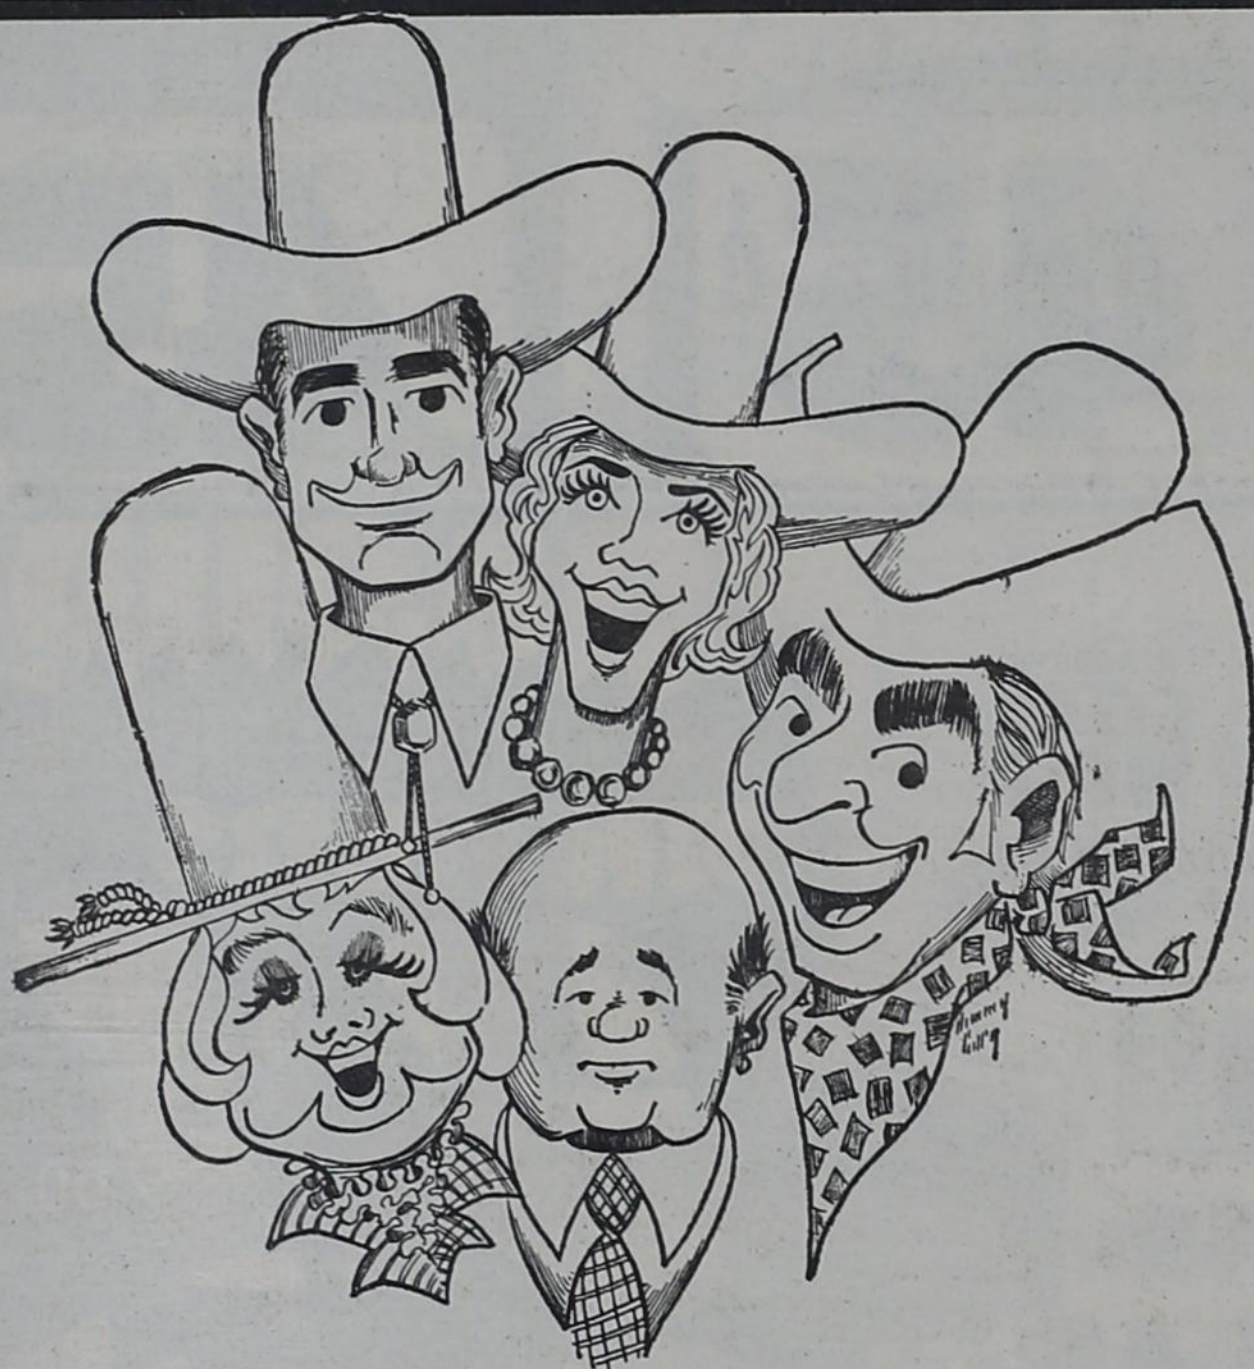

I frankly didn't know there were deer in the area. It's not uncommon to see a coyote run across the road and, at times, coyote carcasses are strung from fences in the area. I counted nearly 100 back in December.

The rancher said that, contrary to what some others said, he wasn't convinced that coyotes didn't attack cattle. He thought that they did and his further remark that the coyotes were packing up had him worried for his cattle.

But that's quite an area for wildlife. I've seen tremendously big owls, prairie dogs, roadrunners, quail and other wildlife in the area. Wonder if we really know all the wildlife that is virtually in our backyard?

NEIGHBOR-SAVERS Are the Guys in the White Hats!

You can just be pretty proud of it, when you join Bank of the West's NEIGHBOR-SAVER Club. Of course, we pay you for it. But - what does your money DO? Why it goes to help a neighbor build a new room on his house. Or another who runs a store, to buy merchandise when he can save your money. Or another to buy materials for his manufacturing business. Or maybe it just helps a neighbor to pay a raft of hospital-doctor bills.

Anyway you slice it, it SAVES a NEIGHBOR! Usually MANY neighbors. It makes jobs in Lubbock; Tex. but all the time; you get PAID for it! As little as $100 a month, for example, 16,034.56 in only 10 years. Maybe just in time for college. We think all this is a lot of fun. You will too. Why not start the fun NOW?

Ali to Donate Fight Money After Win Over Chuck Wepner

United Nations, N.Y. — (NBNS) — Muhammad Ali, the champ of the boxing world, has embarked on another philanthropic mission. He said he will give 50 cents of every ticket sold to watch his March 24 title fight against Chuck Wepner on closed circuit television to the drought stricken Sahelian region in Africa.

The money, which is expected to hit the $500,000 mark, will be divided evenly between the United Nations and AFRICARE, the relief agency working in countries bordering the Sahara.

More than 100,000 persons have died and an estimated 8 million are in imminent danger—facing starvation deaths—by the drought that is crippling Gambia, Chad, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Senegal and Upper Volta.

Ali's humanitarian efforts are not new. One month ago he announced that he would donate all his profits from future bouts to minority groups, especially to Blacks, Spanish speaking and American Indians.

He said that his proposed donation to Africa is just a drop in the bucket, no more than a grain of sand.

At a news conference to which he had driven from his training camp at Deer Lake, Pa., Ali said that billions are needed for Africa, but it is up to the big powers, to President Ford, Secretary Kissinger and other big powers to help.

"They should tell the farmers that it is against the law to destroy food," the champ said.

Ali used the forum to drive home the point in a two line poem. He offered:

"Wars of nations are fought to change maps.
But Wars on poverty are fought to map changes."

Kodak's Dr. W. Cooper Named to Board Of Washington and Jefferson College

The Black Beat

By The Centerpiece

Al Green is back with a new release, he calls it "Love" on the Hi label. in six weeks, title "I Love You Baby."

Eddie Kendrick is back again talking about the "Shoe Shine Boy." It's on Tamla record, a California Motown sound.

Young lady sounding like the past Supremes, her name is Polly Brown, She calls it - "Up In A Puff Of Smoke"

Bobby Wilson and manager Vernon Bullock have a hunger that's getting stronger, day light, night and day, I'm getting "Deeper and Deeper" in love with you. I'm always thinking of you. It's from the Buddah group. Back from "Hey Girl, Here Is Where The Love Is."

Buddah Records is the latest Soul talent, they've got a whole group, and they are all coming at you. As a matter of fact Buddah has more Black talent recording for them than any other. We Say Right On.

Aretha Franklin will have another number one record

The Dramatics have left Stax Records, and all new releases will be on ABC Dunhill Records. Stax Records are having their problems. I recall a plea from a couple of Black organizations to all Blacks to help support the Stax cause, since it is an all Black Company. And very few if anything in this system is all Black. They say CBS is doing a number to Stax Record Company. But if Stax Records depended on Blacks to support it's cause, they can forget it. For some reason (which I still can't understand) we are still not of an understanding mind. Don't like what I said. Write me in care of this newspaper. As I stated, you won't respond. Until the next round, keep partying.

Peace Be With You and Love Forever

High School Drop-Outs May Enroll In VA Program

Veterans and military service personnel who dropped out of high school will benefit from recent GI Bill increases when they enroll in "catch up" training programs, Jack Coker, VA Regional Director, reported today.

Educational allowances averaging 23 percent higher are now payable to Vietnam-era veterans who take advantage of a unique provision permitting them to complete high school or refresher courses and not have the payments charged against their basic GI Bill entitlement. Nearly 650,000 educationally disadvantaged veterans have used the GI Bill of whom 390,000 have used "free" time, according to Coker.

A single veteran enrolled in the program full time receives $270

The Red Experience: A bellringer recently described ethnic experiences and cultures in the great Southwest thusly: "If you are white, you are right; if you are brown, hang around; if you are red, you are dead; if you are black, get back." Perhaps humorously put but the phrase contains much truth.

As Nene Foxhall put it recently: "The American Indian in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Mississippi, California and many other parts of the nation, is caught. He is caught between a fierce determination to cling to his identity and culture, and the necessity to survive in a country which seems every day to demand that he give them up." Perhaps the largest concentration of Red Men in an American City in the Southwest is found in Dallas, where there are more than ten thousand, representing more than 52 tribes. They have left behind the almost certain poverty of reservations and rural areas of the Southwest. One estimate puts the number of Indians in the North Texas area at about 22,000. Federal figures are lower. Most of these "Red Men" hope to leave behind a life characterized by an average lifespan of 44 years, an infant mortality rate three times the national average and a suicide rate 10 times the national average. According to Foxhall, they come to the city looking for better jobs, education for their children and a chance just to survive.

"Instead many find a strange and sprawling city, completely alien to their culture, ill-prepared for city life, confusion and loneliness. They find a way of life they don't understand and few people who understand them."

Many of the Indians have come to Dallas and other cities in the Southwest under the auspices of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Relocation Program, begun in 1957, with Dallas a key relocation city. Mrs. LaDonna Harris, Comanche wife of Sen. Fred Harris of Oklahoma, has often pointed out the grave needs of Indians in the areas of education, medical attention, housing and employment. Leroy Mason, a Comanche leader in Dallas says the American public is educated from books and movies about Indians. "Hollywood may be our worst enemy", he adds. "Yet despite cultural differences, Indians all aspire for the Great American Dream: they just look at it differently", Mason concludes.

For Whom the Bells Toll: Happy birthday greetings (March 23) to my best girl friend and companion for nearly thirty years, my wife Mary. How did she ever put up with me for that long, we'll never know....Charlie Pride, the black country singing star is now in Pompano Beach, California working out in spring training with the Texas Rangers baseball club....Copies of "The Texas Country Editor" (hard hitting editorials of H.M. Baggarly of the Tulia Herald newspaper are being placed in libraries by this department. One can get a look at national political events and personalities during the tenure of Presidents Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson. Compiled by Eugene W. Jones, Nuff said "To help relocate and preserve the home of a Black Editor and diplomat of the 19th century, the Iowa State Bicentennial Commission recently contributed ten thousand dollars to the "Links" organization of black women which is raising fifty thousand for the purpose. He is Alexander Clark, founder of the Chicago Conservator in the 1880's and was named to the U.S. diplomatic staff in Liberia by President Benjamin Harrison in 1890.

West Texas Schools Face U.S. Court Probe: In spite of the small proportion of blacks enrolled as well as browns in many West Texas schools, U.S. Dist. Court Judge John H. Pratt has ordered the federal government to investigate for possible violations of federal civil rights laws a number of school districts in Texas, including cities and towns like Amarillo, Cleburne, El Paso, Hereford, Morton, Pampa, Pecos, Barstow, San Antonio, Vernon, Monahams-Wickett-Pyote, Plainview, Brownwood and Sweetwater, all in West Texas. It is also reported that some of these districts in West Texas do not report any black teachers on the faculty, although black students are enrolled. We are in the midst of a personal survey of most of the communities named above and will publish the results of our visits, here in this column soon.

Lubbock Next? A bellringer reports that U.S. District Judge William W. Justice has ordered Lufkin, Texas, reapportioned into six single member city commission wards to achieve equality for minority citizens in municipal elections. Justice accepted a plan by black plaintiffs and declared the present at-large system void.

THE EXPLORING COOK

by MURIEL JANSEN

PEARL BAILEY COOKBOOK NOW IN PAPERBACK

With hard cover cook-books so expensive, it gives me extra pleasure to write about the paperback edition of "Pearl's Kitchen." (New York: Pocket Book, 1974, $1.50.) I have read it from cover to cover and enjoyed every word. Pearl Bailey, delightful woman, dedicates her book with these words: "To Humanity, who has so surrounded me with 'love,' my cup runneth over—Love returned, Pearl." What a beautiful beginning for any book.

In the first chapter entitled "Mama Looking Over My Shoulder" Pearl Bailey writes about the way Mama raised the family and reminisces about her mother's Sunday morning fried chicken. The chickens were picked up early in the morning, freshly killed and cooked soon after in the big familiar skillet. They were, according to Pearl, crisp on the outside, tender and moist on the inside and cooked to the bone.

Instead of including a recipe from "Pearl's Kitchen," for this column I share my own fried chicken recipe with you—one developed in the Mazola corn oil kitchens. And with it, I urge all my readers to think about entering the 1975 National Chicken Cooking Contest. Look for the entry blanks in your local supermarket, or write to me (Muriel Jansen, Best Foods, A Division of CPC International Inc., Englewood Cliffs, N.J. 07632) and I will send you all you need to know in order to enter the contest. Maybe one of you will be the winner of a July trip to San Antonio, Texas where you will cook chicken and compete for one of the big cash prizes. The grand prize is $10,000, but there are other prizes, too. I'll tell you all about them if you will write to me. Entries must be in by April 1, 1975, and the way time flies, April is just around the corner.

HERB FRIED CHICKEN

- 1/2 cup flour
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon Accent flavor enhancer
 - 2 teaspoons finely crushed rosemary leaves or other dried herb leaves
 - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in parts
 - Water
 - 1 pint Mazola corn oil
- Mix together flour, salt, flavor enhancer, herb and pepper. Moisten chicken with water and coat with flour mixture; shake off excess. Dry on wire rack 1/2 hour. Heat corn oil in deep skillet over medium heat. Add chicken and fry, turning once, about 30 minutes or until golden brown and fork tender. Drain on absorbent paper.

Bethel A.M.E. Church

Services were well attended last Sunday morning, Palm Sunday. Rev. Wilson Baldwin of Midland, a former resident of Lubbock, filled the pulpit. His subject was: "This Man Jesus, Do You Know Him?" "Many of us are blind about the Man Jesus, it's time that we got acquainted with Him." Senior Choir Number Two was responsible for music of the morning.

Mrs. Wilson Baldwin, wife of Rev. Baldwin, was present during the church services. Rev. Baldwin is a brother of Mrs. Dorothy Nash.

Mrs. Katie Rollison, who recently underwent an operation, thanked everyone for their prayers and visits during her illness. Mrs. Lovie Jean Cunningham traveled to Albuquerque, New Mexico to visit with her husband, Brother Salone Cunningham.

Brother J.H. Wilson's daughter is recuperating from an operation last week. Brother Miles Neal is doing nicely after an accident in his business establishment recently which left him with a broken hip.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut in members and friends of our community. Brother Leon Bunton, Jr. entered the hospital last Sunday.

The annual Easter Egg hunt will be held Saturday afternoon, March 29, at 3 p.m. All persons who would like to contribute eggs to the hunt, please have them at the church by 1:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

The Easter Program will be held Sunday evening, March 30, at 7:00 p.m. Easter practice will be Thursday and Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. For any additional information, contact Mrs. A.W. Wilson, sponsor.

Birthdays this week include Mrs. Lula Gentry and Mrs. Gladys Thompson.

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church

Friday, March 28, Good Friday, our church will be observing it in a worship service at 7:30 p.m. Come out and worship the Lord on Good Friday.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut in members.

Triumph Baptist Church

Slaton—If you don't have a church home, feel free to worship with us.

The spirit was really uplifted this past Sunday beginning with Sunday School. The lesson was "We Have A Faith". There were several very good high points.

Greater St. James Baptist Sponsors Baby Rally

The Senior Missionary Society and the Nancy Circle of the Greater St. James Baptist Church sponsored six babies in the second annual "Baby of the Year" rally.

In 1974, little Marlin Celestene Lethridge was crowned the "Baby of the Year". She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lethridge.

Another "Baby of the Year" was crowned Sunday afternoon, March 16. This baby was little Marshall Ray Hollins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Ray Hollins.

This year's rally was a great success. Members of both organizations expressed their sincere appreciation for those who participated.

A special Easter program will be held Sunday evening, March 30, at 7:30 p.m. The public is

Marlin Celestene Lethridge invited to come out and enjoy this Marshall Ray Hollins evening.

There was a beautiful crowd at the 11 a.m. service. Devotion was led by Bro. Jefferson and Bro. Scott. The junior choir sang two songs. The youth choir followed with three numbers, then the altar prayer. Rev. Brown delivered the morning message. His topic was "Waiting To Be Gracious" Isa. 30:18. The senior choir was responsible for the music of the hour.

Sister Pearlle Franklin is asking everyone who is going to donate eggs for Easter, to have them at the cafeteria at the church at 5 p.m. Friday, March 28. And the Easter Egg hunt will be at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the corner of Jean and New Mexico Streets. This is a citywide Easter Egg hunt and the Easter program will be at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. Sis. Franklin is asking all the parents to come out to see their children appear on this program.

Senior Mission Number One is having a mission program the 5th Sunday, March 30 at 3:00 p.m. Sis. Riggins is president.

Triumph Baptist Church is located at 1255 E. Geneva, Slaton, Texas. Rev. M.A. Brown is pastor.

Twentieth & Birch Street Church of Christ

It was strange to see some people getting on skates for the first time and going miles per hour, while others (your preacher) couldn't even stand up in them sometimes. We had our falls, but it was fun.

The Adult's Wednesday evening class has started a series of studies which are designed to prepare one for effective personal work. These studies will help us to refute much of the errors of Denominationalism. We are looking forward to a great class. Remember what Paul told Timothy: "Study to show thy self approved unto God." II Timothy 2:15.

Last Sunday marked the beginning of the service of Brothers J.W. Carroll and J.D. Hollins as deacons of the church. These men have shown great leadership qualities in the past, and are expected to use their new "office" with much wisdom and great faith.

Sick and shut in members include Sisters Cora Lawson, Catherine Hamilton, Cora Clayton, Rosella Jackson, Maleone, Henderson and Truett Haynes.

Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church

Members of the Eunice Circle will meet tonight (Thursday) in the home of Sister Katie Parks, 3610 Aspen Avenue, at seven. Members of the Esther Circle will meet in the home of Sister Lillian Metters, 1113 East 14th Street, Friday afternoon at five.

Successful meetings were reported for the members of the Dorcas and Queen of Sheba Circles who met in the homes of Sister Mattie M. Smith and Sister Alberta Horton.

Prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening at seven. The church and family that prays together, stays together. The only hope we have is in Jesus.

Remember our church anniversary begins the first Sunday in April through the second Sunday in April.

Let us pray for and visit our sick and shut in members. Those on the sick list includes Sister Lillie Hall and Sister Dolly Howard, both are recuperating at home. Rev. Samuel Swisher is still a patient at Edward's Rest Home.

Mount Gilead Baptist Church

"Mount Gilead Baptist Church, the friendly church where the soul and spirit meet. The church where everybody is somebody. The church extends to members and public a cordial and clarion call to worship with us each week." The Junior Ushers are having their Easter program on Sunday evening, March 30, at 7 p.m. They are asking your support, both spiritually and financially. They are also asking that all persons who are to be part of the program on next Sunday to meet for their final rehearsal Saturday, March 29, at 3:30 p.m. at the church.

Let us continue to remember our sick and shut in as well as the berieved families.

Mt. Olive Baptist Church

Snyder—The Sunday School was called to order by the Supt. Sis. Bertha Willis. High points were given by Sis. D. Lewis and enjoyed by all.

The message was delivered by the Pastor, Rev. F. Nelson. His subject was "Serving God With Little Things". Scripture reading Matt. 21:1-6.

The music for the morning service was provided by both the junior and senior choirs. Assisting the junior choir at the piano was Sis. P. White and Sis. R. Lewis at the organ. Assisting the senior choir was Sis. T. Lewis at the organ.

The message and music was most uplifting.

Earning Extra Money This Summer

Are you one of the millions who will have a long vacation this summer? One month? Two months? Perhaps three or more?

Regardless of its length, your vacation this year can be rewarding in more ways than one. It can be exciting, educational, and full of fun. And you can earn as much money as you have time to invest.

Yes, more than 100 direct selling companies who are members of the Direct Selling Association (DSA) can help make your vacation more profitable. They are looking for school teachers, college professors, mature students and others who have the whole or part of the summer off. They are looking for people who need extra income . . . for household expenses, college tuition, buying a home, new furniture or retirement.

The choice of what, where and when to sell is yours. The amount of money you make is your choice, too. It all depends on the time you can devote to selling and how energetic you are. You may even enjoy personal selling so much you'll want to continue it on a part-time basis once you're back on the job.

Discover for yourself how easily, how pleasantly and how profitably you can sell products to your friends, neighbors and fellow workers.

If you are interested in finding which firms offer you this opportunity, write DSA for a free copy of "Who's Who In Direct Selling" which lists DSA's 100 plus member companies at: Direct Selling Association, Department M5, 1730 M Street, N. W., Suite 610, Washington, D. C. 20036.

Enclose a self addressed, stamped business-size envelope for quickest response.

After receiving your copy of "Who's Who" simply contact those companies selling products which interest you. They'll show you how to make this summer exciting, educational and profitable.

good job", he said. He went on to add, "This is one of the best coaching staffs in the country, we don't always agree, but we pat each other on the back and work it out together."

Mel High was chosen as the Most Valuable Football player last season. This award, which was presented by Ray Boyd of KLBK-TV, is presented annually to the young man who best exemplifies himself on the football team. This individual is chosen by the members of the Panther football team. High, a 185 pound running back, gained 1000 yards last season.

Tommy Williams, another senior, was chosen by his teammates as the Most Valuable Basketball Player. Coach Joe McWilliams said: "The fellows felt as though Tommy came through when we needed the extra punch."

Other awards went to Randy Howell for the highest grade point average (4.0) last fall semester. The "Fighting Hard Award", made possible by Len Chew an ex-Panther standout, went to two fighting Panthers for their hard and determined work on the football team. Those players were Freddie Evans and Ronnie Stiggers. Coach Kelly made known "Both of these fellows, Freddie and Ronnie, don't weigh 215 pounds together, but they worked real hard."

A special recognition was given to the members of the Dunbar Panther Cheerleaders for a job well done this year. Each young lady received a small token of appreciation for their efforts. Those cheerleaders recognized were Nelda Flores, Teresa Foster, Daphane Hall, Linda Howard, Avis Patterson, Earnice Patton, Billie Jo Petty and Debra Waites.

Linda Howard was also introduced as the "Basketball Team Sweetheart". She is also head cheerleader.

Virgil Johnson, activities director at Dunbar, served as master of ceremonies. Invocation was given by H.N. Adams. Closing remarks were given by Roy Roberts, principal. Mr. Roberts thanked the parents, students and faculty for a job well done at the banquet as well as their involvement at Dunbar High School.

The Panjammers presented the audience with two selections: "You Got A Friend", and "Where Is The Lord". Special applause was given to the Dunbar Choir for winning the Sweepstakes Trophy last week at Plainview, under the direction of Charlotte Greeson.

"We didn't finish third, we didn't finish second, we finished first," said Johnson as he made known of the victory of the choir.

Lubbock Independent School District officials present at the banquet included Ed Irons, superintendent; Pete Ragus, athletic director; Harold Glascock, assistant superintendent; and Gilbert Weaver, assistant principal at Dunbar. A former principal of Dunbar, George Scott, was also present. A former head football coach, Damon Hill, was also introduced.
