PFC Ronnie and Vicki Butler from Killeen, Texas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crenshaw, over the New Year Holiday. They returned home New Year's Day accompanied by David Crenshaw, who is attending school at Paris, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Crenshaw left New Year's Day to visit her mother at Laramie, Texas.

He lived in the Kalamazoo area most of his life, served in the Army from 1959-62. He was employed by the Bechtel Corporation as a pipe fitter and was a member of Local 357 Pipe Fitters Union.

Boys and girls who are 4-H or FFA members who have stock that they are entering in the show, must have their entries turned in by January 24. Entry cards may be picked up at the Vocational Agriculture teachers offices or at the Bailey County Extension office in the courthouse.

Entry fees will be $2.00 for beef animals and $1.00 each for hogs or sheep.

Exhibitors may pick up rules and regulations at the County Agent's office.

This year the Bailey County Junior Livestock Show will not be participating in the United Fund Drive. Workers are out now getting donations for the show.

Tollfree Phone Line Enables Texans To Discuss Constitution

A statewide tollfree telephone line which enables Texans all over the state to ask questions and offer suggestions on constitutional revision will continue to operate during the 1974 Constitutional Convention.

The telephone number is 1-800-292-9600.

The Texas Constitutional Information Center was originally established by the Texas Constitutional Revision Commission as part of its charge to inform the public of its activities.

The telephone line has averaged a high volume of calls from citizens with questions about the constitutional revision process or the Commission's proposed new Constitution for Texas.

During the first month of its existence, between November 15 and December 15, the center received an average of 48 calls on each working day. The number of calls ranged from a low of 15 on the first day of operation to a high of 143.

The information center will continue to operate 24 hours a day. It will be manned by staff

Primeaux Is New Army Recruiter

SSG Michael D. Primeaux is the new U.S. Army Recruiter for Bailey County.

He will be in Muleshoe every Friday at the Law Enforcement Center from 10 a.m. until noon and at the Muleshoe Area Public Library from 1:30 until 2:30 p.m.

Sgt. Primeaux has an office in Plainview and those interested in joining the Army should contact him at 810 Broadway or call 296-9228. He will be the recruiter for Bailey, Lamb, Hale and Floyd Counties, replacing Sgt. Joe Ibarra from Clovis, N.M. Army recruiting will now be done out of Plain-during the daytime and calls at night will be recorded for answers later.

Information Center staff is equipped to answer many of the questions asked. Other questions will be referred to appropriate Convention research staff for written answers.

The Constitutional Revision Commission found the Information Center valuable in accurately answering citizen questions and receiving suggestions from those wishing to help with the Constitution.

Callers to date have included a broad cross-section of Texans--university professors interested in teaching material, lawyers trying to clear up technical questions, students writing papers on constitutional revision and a great number of citizens concerned about how a new constitution would affect their lives.

The Convention Information Center will be located in the Convention Public Information Office in the Capitol.

The number will continue to be 1-800-292-9600.

Boxing Tournament Set For Jan. 11-12

The Muleshoe Golden Gloves will be sponsoring a Boxing Tournament in Muleshoe involving two nights of fights, January 11-12. Fights will begin at 8 p.m. each night in the Mary DeShazo gym.

Participating in the tournament will be boxers from Amarillo, Lubbock, Hereford, Levelland and Muleshoe.

There will be two full nights of boxing action and some of the boxers from out of town have had considerable experience in the ring so they should have some good fights.

Trophies for the winners in each division will be awarded Saturday night.

Price of admission to the Tournament will be $2 for ring side seats, $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Time Change Goes Into Effect

On Sunday, January 6, (today) clocks were to be turned up one hour. Daylight Savings Time went back into effect here at 2 a.m.

Clocks were turned up an hour in an effort to conserve energy.

New school hours will also go into effect Monday morning. Classes will begin at 9:30 a.m. and close at 4:45 p.m.

Several businesses in Muleshoe have also announced new hours to go along with the time change.

Below Average Amount Of Moisture Recorded

1973 will go down on the record books as one of the drier years in the 50 year recorded moisture amounts. During the 12 months of 1973 only 14.79 inches of moisture was recorded. This compares to the 50 year average moisture of 17.07 inches.

The wettest year on record was 1941 when 43.52 inches of moisture was recorded. Many local citizens remember the "flood of '41" and how the water stood on the land for several months in the spring.

The driest year in the 50 year period was 1954 when only 7.75 inches of moisture was recorded for the whole year.

Snow Accumulations Reported Very Light

The Texas Panhandle and South Plains felt the full effect of winter this week as temperatures dropped below freezing and did not rise above freezing in 1974 until Friday.

Snow fell in the Muleshoe area Wednesday and Thursday, but accumulations did not amount to much.

The cold, freezing weather kept people off the highways for the holidays. Travel was not a problem in the immediate area, but north of here roads were snow packed and extremely hazardous. South of here ice storms were prevalent making roads very hazardous to the south.

The sub-freezing temperatures continued from Sunday through Friday in this area with thermometers staying below the freezing point for about five days.

County agent Spencer Tanksley reported that some cattle raisers had to feed hay to their livestock during the cold weather, but the majority had good grazing lands for their cattle. Crops were not damaged since all of the cotton is out now. There is still some stacked in ricks in the field, but most of the 1973 crop has been ginned at this time.

Temperatures warmed up Friday afternoon and finally climbed above freezing, but still did not reach the upper 30's all day.

Another cold front was expected to blow into the area late Sunday bringing another round of freezing temperatures and the possibility of some additional moisture in the form of snow.

Farmers in this area are in desperate need of some additional moisture so they can prepare their land for the next crop.

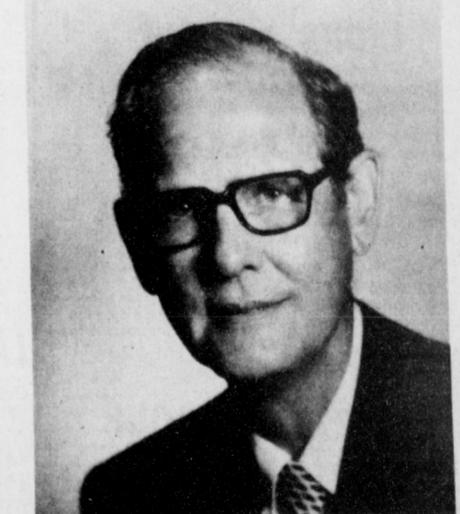

One Files For Election

Several Bailey County official's offices will be up for this year.

All of the officials will be running for four year terms. The first candidate to file was Edith Wilt who is filing for reelection as Bailey County Treasurer.

Mrs. Wilt, who has held the office for the past 18 years stated "I wish to take this means of announcing, to the people of Bailey County, that I am a candidate for re-election for the office of Bailey County Treasurer. I want to thank by constituents for their loyal support in the past and promise that every effort will be made to keep abreast of current trends pertaining to the office of County Treasurer. I will be grateful for your support and influence in the coming election, subject to the Democratic Primary." Any candidate must file with the County Democratic Chairman or the County Republican Chairman and pay the filing fee.

BANQUET TICKETS ON SALE . . . Annual Banquet tickets are now available at the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture office and at the ASCS office in Muleshoe. The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Charles Allen, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Houston. Tickets will be $5.00 per plate even though meal cost has increased considerably this year. The banquet will be held on Thursday, January 24, 1974, at 7:30 p.m. in the Muleshoe High School cafeteria. Everyone is urged to attend and support Muleshoe.

Representatives Of Synanon Visit In The Muleshoe Area

Two representatives of Synanon visited in Muleshoe last week. Mike Hakan, 22, and Pam Anderson, 22, visited at the Journal on Friday. The two are in this part of Texas for a week to 10 days and will be available for speaking engagements for civic clubs and organizations as well as being able to help anyone with a drug problem or speaking to individuals.

The two are staying at the Holiday Inn Parkway in Lubbock and can be reached by phone by calling 765-7401.

Six representatives from Synanon, the highly successful re-education center for drug addicts and alcoholics, will be in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico during the month of January.

What they are selling is not a tangible hard good or even a direct service, but a solution to one of the most dreaded social problems in the country today -- drug addiction.

The cost of the solution comes in many forms. One is the donation of beef on the hoof to feed to the approximately 1,600 men, women and children now living in Synanon. Last year local cattlemen donated 175 head of beef to help Synanon in fighting drug abuse and addiction. This year Synanon members will again be contacting cattle feeders, hoping to procure part of their yearly need of 500 head of beef.

Synanon is a non-profit, tax exempt organization founded in 1958. It is now nationally recognized for its work in rehabilitating drug addicts, alcoholics and people with similar character disorders.

Headquartered in California, Synanon offers help to people all over the country. Some 16,000 men and women have come to Synanon, and many are now leading responsible, productive lives.

Mike Hakan, 22, was born in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. By the time he was 18 he had run the gamut of drug abuse from glue sniffing to shooting heroin. Finally, Mike was arrested and facing a five year prison term. A North Carolina judge gave Mike a second chance, sending him to Synanon instead of prison. Today Mike lives on Synanon's ranch in Marin County, California, and works to help obtain Synanon's needs for food and equipment.

Pam Anderson, 22, is a native Californian. She experimented with drugs for a year and a half in the Berkeley, California community. Then at 17, she came to Synanon. Today she runs the Agricultural Department at the Synanon Ranch, including supervision of 55 acres of oat and hay production and landscaping of all the ranch buildings.

While in the Southwest, Synanon representatives will be contacting judges, probation officers, police officials and others to make known Synanon's availability to as many people as possible.

Anyone can enter Synanon free of charge as long as they have a sincere desire to work hard and help themselves. Those who are interested in participating in Synanon's program should contact Synanon Foundation, Inc., 1215 Clay Street, Oakland, California 94612. Telephone (415) 444-3624.

The Convention will open in the House of Representatives chamber at the state capitol January 8, with the 181 state legislators as delegates. Speaker Price Daniel Jr. is assured of election as presiding officer.

SUPERPORT PLANS CONTINUE — A Texas Offshore Terminal Commission member has recommended an onshore superport facility on Galveston Island.

The Commission staff earlier suggested a $400 million, state financed deepwater port 30 miles south of Freeport in the Gulf. Pete Miller of Galveston, the commission vice-chairman, put forward the alternative recommendation, with a cost pegged at between $400 million and $482 million.

Representatives of 13 oil companies said the Freeport project should be constructed and operated by private industry.

The Commission in Houston began a review of recommendations and was expected to continue here January 4 or January 7. Three public hearings are planned after the final report is adopted.

SPEEDLIMIT HEARING SLATED — A public hearing is set for January 8 on the new statewide speed limit authorized by the legislature in its recent special session.

Texas Highway Commission will conduct the hearing in the highway building auditorium, 11th and Brazos Streets, Austin. Written or oral testimony will be accepted from any interested person.

The new act gives the Commission authority to lower the speed limit for 15 months as a fuel-saving measure and to preserve federal aid. A 55 miles per hour limit is expected to be fixed.

Enforcement probably won't begin until late January or early February. Any order entered by the Commission will not take effect for eight days, during which the Governor will have an opportunity to review and veto if he chooses. About two weeks will be required to post new signs.

COURTS SPEAK — A federal district judge at Brownsville ordered the state to pay $131,248 to Platoro Ltd., an Indiana salvage firm, for recovery of treasure from Spanish galleons off Padre Island.

After 21 months, records of former House Speaker Gus Mutscher's conviction for conspiracy to accept a bribe in the Sharpstown scandals has reached the Court of Criminal Appeals.

A Houston district court enjoined Reichold Chemicals Inc. from violating Texas Water Quality Board rules and assessed civil penalties totalling $24,000.

LOAN APPROVED — U.S. Sen. John G. Tower announced approval of a $2.2 million Rural Electrification Administration loan to the Sam Houston Electric Cooperative in East Texas.

The loan, supplemented by National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation, will provide for 478 miles of distribution lines to serve 4,500 additional consumers and for improvements.

The Sam Houston Coop serves Polk, Angelina, Hardin, Jasper, Liberty, Montgomery, San Jacinto, Trinity, Tyler and Walker Counties.

INSURANCE CHANGES URGED — A management consulting firm has recommended changes in organization and procedures of the State Board of Insurance.

One of the key recommendations called for creation of a centralized complaints and information file.

The Booz, Allen and Hamilton study concluded better management of the existing staff could avoid need for payroll and space increases over the next three years. However, the consultants rated the Texas board among the top regulatory agencies of its type in the nation.

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. Briscoe named William H. Connor Jr. of Georgetown 26th district attorney, serving Williamson County. Connor succeeds J. R. Owen, who resigned, and will serve until the next general election.

Present Energy Crisis May Change Recreation Habits

COLLEGE STATION — Today's youth is going to get the opportunity to demonstrate how deep its commitment is to turn its back on a materialistic society in the months ahead, according to a well-known Texas A&M University leisure and recreation authority.

Dr. Leslie M. Reid, head of the A&M Department of Recreation and Parks, said that "as recently as the summer of 1972 young Americans seemed in total agreement that no odds were too great to campaign under the banner of ecology for preservation of natural beauty and to clean-up a soiled, polluted world."

Reid also is a researcher with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and an educator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"If you talked with college students, hard-core dropouts, commune members or just concerned youngsters," Reid said, "the message was essentially the same: We're being strangled in a plastic society. Who needs it?"

Reid added, "The recent interruption of oil imports from the Mid-East seems to indicate that much of the clamor for a clean environment at any cost may have been only a skin-deep commitment. Reversal of decisions on the Alaska Pipeline, on use of high-sulfur coals, planned development of oil shale, and approvals for additional oil drilling in the Santa Barbara Channel have raised hardly a ripple of opposition."

Reid noted, however, that "our crusading youth has no choice but to play the game; we are all deeply involved in a fundamental re-thinking of our basic way of life."

In any event, Reid pointed out we all may soon have a chance to experience exactly what life in a non-plastic society is like. It is becoming increasingly clear that the fuel shortage is much more severe than the inconvenience involving shortages in gasoline and fuel oil.

"There is serious concern whether enough basic petrochemicals exist for conversion to a galaxy of products. Toymakers, for example, depend heavily on oil for plastics. Photograph records, automobile anti-freeze, polyester fabrics, auto tires and farm fertilizers are other items expected to be in short supply.

"Firms dealing in production of plastic products are already experiencing shortages as all segments of our society compete more frantically for a share of the available supply of plastic resins.

"The leisure and recreation implication of all this," Reid said "is that as non-essential products increasingly lose out in cutbacks to manufacture bare essential industrial and health-maintenance items, people will be forced to reevaluate their leisure preferences.

"The prospect," Reid added, "is that travel for fun may be greatly reduced or eliminated, sports equipment may be no longer available, and replacement parts for expensive recreational equipment may be unobtainable."

Reid emphasized that this country badly needs a chance to analyze its recreation and leisure.

"Today, the leisure and recreation business is a multi-billion dollar a year industry. It deserves protection, yet this crisis is good in that it will make us take time to determine which activities are worthwhile and useful, and which ones are diversionary and destructive in nature.

"The oil crisis can definitely be instrumental in helping Americans focus their leisure tastes and activities in areas that will be uplifting to the individual, useful to society and in balance with our energy supply," Reid continued.

"The young 'plastic-haters' may well have glimpsed the right road for us all; it's up to them and us to rationally assess the leisure choices facing us today," The recreation authority said.

Look Back • Look Ahead

Looking back can be a happy pastime.

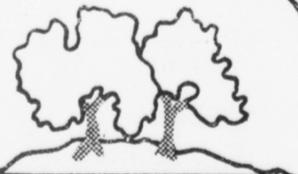

Happy, that is, if emphasis is on the successes rather than the failures.

Unfortunately we glory in success to such an extent that we tend to ignore, or forget, how much we could learn by reviewing our failures—and what caused them.

Your chamber of commerce has had its share of both. Take joy from success, take lessons from failure and do all you can to keep history from repeating itself.

Look ahead to 1974. It can be a great year.

The complete text of the House Bill 3 follows:

63rd LEGISLATURE — REGULAR SESSION Ch. 31

GOVERNMENTAL BODIES—OPEN MEETINGS

CHAPTER 31

H. B. No. 3

An Act relating to the requirement that meetings of governmental bodies be open to the public; providing penalties; amending Sections 1, 2, 3A, and 4, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252—17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. Section 1, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252—17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. As used in this Act:

(a) "Meeting" means any deliberation between a quorum of members of a governmental body at which any public business or public policy over which the governmental body has supervision or control is discussed or considered, or at which any formal action is taken. It shall not be construed that the intent of this definition is to prohibit the gathering of members of the governmental body in numbers of a quorum or more for social functions unrelated to the public business which is conducted by the body or for attendance of regional, state, or national conventions or workshops as long as no formal action is taken and there is no deliberation of public business which will appear on the agenda of the respective body.

(b) "Deliberation" means a verbal exchange between a quorum of members of a governmental body attempting to arrive at a decision on any public business.

(c) "Governmental body" means any board, commission, department, committee or agency within the executive or legislative department of the state, which is under the direction of one or more elected or appointed members; and every Commissioners Court and city council in the state, and every deliberative body having rule-making or quasi-judicial power and classified as a department, agency, or political subdivision of a county or city; and the board of trustees of every school district, and every county board of school trustees and county board of education; and the governing board of every special district heretofore or hereafter created by law.

(d) "Quorum," unless otherwise defined by constitution, charter, rule or law applicable to such governing body, means a majority of the governing body.

Sec. 2. Section 2, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252—17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Act or specifically permitted in the Constitution, every regular, special, or called meeting or session of every governmental body shall be open to the public; and no closed or executive meeting or session of any governmental body for any of the purposes for which closed or executive meetings or sessions are hereinafter authorized shall be held unless the governmental body has first been convened in open meeting or session for which notice has been given as hereinafter provided and during which open meeting or session the presiding officer has publicly announced that a closed or executive meeting or session will be held and identified the section or sections under this act authorizing the holding of such closed or executive session.

(b) In this Act, the Legislature is exercising its rule-making powers to prohibit secret meetings of the Legislature, its committees, or any other bodies associated with the Legislature, except as otherwise specifically permitted by the Constitution.

(c) A governmental body may exclude any witness or witnesses from a hearing during examination of another witness in the matter being investigated.

(d) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the deliberation of grand juries.

(e) Private consultations between a governmental body and its attorney are not permitted except in those instances in which the body seeks the attorney's advice with respect to pending or contemplated litigation, settlement offers, and matters where the duty of a public body's officer to his client, pursuant to the Code of Professional Responsibility of the State Bar of Texas, clearly conflicts with this Act.

(f) The public may be excluded from that portion of a meeting during which a discussion is had with respect to the purchase, exchange, lease, or value of real property, negotiated contracts for prospective gifts or donations to the state or the governmental body, when such discussion would have a detrimental effect on the negotiating position of the governmental body as between such body and a third person, firm or corporation.

(g) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require governmental bodies to hold meetings open to the public in cases involving the appointment, employment, evaluation, reassignment, duties, discipline, or dismissal of a public officer or employee or to hear complaints or charges against such officer or employee, unless such officer or employee requests a public hearing.

(h) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require school boards to hold meetings open to the public in cases involving discipline of public school children unless an open hearing is requested in writing by a parent or guardian of the child.

(i) All or any part of the proceedings in any public meeting of any governmental body as defined hereinabove may be recorded by any person in attendance by means of a tape recorder or any other means of sonic reproduction.

(j) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to require governing bodies to deliberate in open meetings regarding the deployment, or specific occasions for implementation, of security personnel or devices.

(k) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to allow a closed meeting of a governing body where such closed meeting is prohibited, or where open meetings are required, by charter.

(l) Whenever any deliberations or any portion of a meeting are closed to the public as permitted by this Act, no final action, decision, or vote with regard to any matter considered in the closed meeting shall be made except in a meeting which is open to the public and in compliance with the requirements of Section 3A of this Act.

GOVERNMENTAL BODIES — ACCESS TO INFORMATION BY PUBLIC

CHAPTER 424*

H. B. No. 6

An Act relating to the accessibility of information in the custody of certain governmental agencies and bodies; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

DECLARATION OF POLICY

Section 1. Pursuant to the fundamental philosophy of the American constitutional principle of representative government which holds to the principle that government is the servant of the people, and not the master of them, it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State of Texas that all persons are, unless otherwise expressly provided by law, at all times entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those who represent them as public officials and employees. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. Use Manure During Fertilizer Shortage

COLLEGE STATION ---- Commercial fertilizer may be in short supply in the coming months, but there's another source of fertilizer that could help relieve that shortage—manure.

"Manure is more cumbersome to handle and its nutrient content varies, but it can get the job done if the situation warrants," believes Dr. John Sweeten, agricultural engineer specializing in waste management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Manure contains essential plant nutrients such as nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, iron and zinc and is also valuable in improving the physical properties of some soils, points out the Texas A&M University System specialist, Consequently, manure use is increasing in such areas as the High Plains where large feedlots have an abundance of the material.

"Most feedlots are now selling all the manure they have and are at least covering the cost of handling it," points out Sweeten. "That's a switch from a few years ago when manure disposal was a real problem."

Most feedlot manure is being delivered for about $1-$1.50 per ton plus five cents per ton mile. This covers the cost to the feedlot for pen cleaning, stockpiling, transportation and field spreading. Farmers in sandy areas may be paying higher prices since manure can give maximum improvement to soil structure. Sweeten believes that attempts to place a dollar value upon manure bases on its nutrient content are sometimes misleading. Rather, it is better to look at increases in crop or forage production that can be obtained.

Some county Extension agents are cooperating with farmers in conducting demonstrations to determine the true benefit of manure on various crops and soils.

The engineer cites three studies in the Panhandle where corn silage and grain sorghum yield increases from manure were practically nil to as high as 125 per cent compared to plots receiving no fertilizer.

"Physical properties of manure should receive as much attention as nutrient content," points out the engineer. "Manure that undergoes composting in piles may be more desirable than freshly-scraped manure because it spreads more evenly and contains fewer viable weed seeds."

The moisture content can also have a profound influence on the value of manure. For instance, feedlot manure can contain 20 times more nitrogen per pound of material than liquid dairy manure diluted with cleaning water.

What is a generally recommended application rate for most cropland?

Sweeten contends that about 10 tons of feedlot manure can be applied per acre for most cropping situations without problems of soil salinity, forage nitrate accumulations, or water pollution. However, since only about half of the nitrogen in manure will be available to plants the first year, applications can be cut to five tons per acre in succeeding years without decreasing the total available nutrients.

"The best guide to application rates is to match fertilizer requirements for the particular crop and soil with an analysis of the manure, taking into account the limited availability of nutrients' the first year," advises Sweeten. County Extension agents can assist with determining fertilizer requirements.

ON DEFENSE

The Defense Department said recently the United States needs more satellites or land-based radar to plug gaps in a system designed to provide nearly instantaneous warning of enemy submarine-launched missile attack on this country.

Making plans for the future is often a way of escaping work in the present.

ON BICYCLE TRAILS

A bill calling for creation of more than 7,000 miles of bicycle trails in the United States has been introduced in the House. The trails would provide safe recreational space, focus attention on historic and scenic areas and reduce energy consumption.

TRADE & CHINA

A special congressional delegation, headed by Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, (D-Wash.), proposed that the United States end trade discrimination against China and grant it most favored nation trade status.

Publicity lies behind many sensational statements that appear in public print.

An investment in Your Future

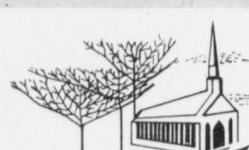

ATTEND CHURCH

FOUNDATION

Our nation is witnessing a building boom, such as has never before been seen. Every day new foundations are being dug and laid. Any builder will tell you that it takes a firm foundation to support today's skyscraper.

Our Lord, in His sermon on the mount, compared those that heed His word, to the wise man that built his house upon a rock, and those that did not heed His word to the foolish man that built his house upon sand and it was washed away.

Build your house upon a rock... Attend church regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is on dangerous ground this week, but that's his worry, not ours.

Dear editor:

Up to now I haven't had any fixed opinion about the tribulations of the Nixon Administration, but a statement by his Chief of Staff the other day has now convinced me that it's in deep trouble.

When Rose Mary Woods was trying to explain how she may have punched the wrong button on a recording machine and accidentally erased five minutes of an important 18-minute tape because she had to stop and answer the phone, she insisted that she had talked "not over five minutes," so couldn't possibly have damaged the rest of the 18-minute segment.

It was at this point that the Administration plunged into deep trouble. The Chief of Staff, Gen. Alexander Haig, pooh-poohed the idea that the telephone conversation lasted only five minutes.

"I'm not interested in the truth," "Some women," he said, "can talk on the phone an hour and think it's only five minutes." "I'm not interested in the truth of his statement, that's for the courts or Sam Ervin or somebody to decide, I'm interested in the reaction of women to it, which is simple: Gen. Haig has to go.

No woman talks for an hour on the phone. She may be on the phone for an hour, but the woman, it has to be a woman, on the other end is going to get in at least 30 minutes, not counting the time both are talking simultaneously.

You'd think a man with as important a job as Gen. Haig's would have learned long ago what the telephone company has known for years about women: you charge by the month, not by the minute, or nobody could afford to pay his bill. There are rough waters ahead.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

The Consumer Alert

By John L. Hill Attorney General

AUSTIN -- A lot of people would like to buy a little land and get away from it all, especially now with Christmas bills rolling in.

And everywhere we turn, tempting-sounding land deals are being offered.

Magazine ads and newspaper inserts feature big color spreads of tree-shaded lakes or sunsets on rugged mesas and urge us to buy land now for our retirement years.

Almost every day the mail or a telephone call brings an offer to spend a weekend free at a new resort, and not incidentally, an opportunity to invest in a lot at that same resort.

It's hard for a person who is really interested in purchasing land to know what's a legitimate deal and what's not.

Our Consumer Protection Division recently conducted an investigation of a land promotion in northern Mexico. Investors from Texas and other states were lured into buying land from a group that claimed to own property they were going to develop into a large resort. Actually there were no plans for development and the group didn't even own the land. It belonged to Mexican nationals.

A court-ordered temporary injunction will prevent the continued operation of those promoters until a final decision is reached by the judge.

Even so, what happens to investors, some of whom sink all their life savings into similar deals? Sometimes some restitution can be awarded them, sometimes not.

The best way to avoid such problems is to be aware of your rights and to exercise careful judgment. If you want to buy land for a home or as an investment, check the soundness of the deal. All land is not necessarily going to increase in value.

Find out exactly what facilities are going to be developed. If a promoter says he's planning a plush resort that will cater to every recreational interest, find out if that means he's going to put in an 18-hole golf course. It may be just a putting green. Will there be the olympic-sized pool he promises, or will the finished product be a children's wading pond?

Also, check for resale value of the land. Is there already an established market for lots in that tract? Or will the developer buy back your lot if you decide to sell later?

A popular way to sell land is by a "contract for deed." In this method, the seller retains the title to the property until the final payment is made. A prospective buyer should carefully check the following things before signing:

1. He should find out if the seller has clear title to the land;

2. He should check the seller's financial solvency; and

3. If satisfied that upon final payment he will have a clear title to the property, he should have the contract for deed notarized and recorded with the county clerk, along with the deed record.

Above all, don't succumb to high-pressure sales tactics when purchasing land. Be skeptical when someone urges you to buy immediately because "this offer will never again be offered at this low price."

The "bait and switch" tactic is something else to watch out for. If you go to see lots advertised for $3,000 and are told when you arrive that they've all been sold, but some $8,000 ones are still left, be wary.

This is deceptive advertising. If you're dubious about any in-state land deals, check with the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or with your local Better Business Bureau to make sure no complaints have been filed against the promoter.

Fort Worth Rodeo Set For January 25

Six of the nation's outstanding rodeo production companies will join to provide bucking stock for the Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo Jan. 25 through Feb. 3 under direction of Billy Minick of Fort Worth.

Minick Rodeo Company has contracted with Reg Kessler of Missoula, Mont., and Rosemary, Alberta, Canada; Wayne Vold of De Winton, Alberta; Elra Beutler and Son of Elk City, Okla.; Harry Vold of Fowler, Colo.; and Gay and Sons of Mesquite.

"The Fort Worth Rodeo attracts such a large number of cowboys that no one rodeo stock contractor has enough bucking stock to produce it," Minick said. "By adding stock from these companies with mine, people coming to the Fort Worth Rodeo will be seeing the best stock in the business."

"The size of the rodeo purse and the outstanding bucking horses and bulls always attract the top riders of the Rodeo Cowboys Association," Minick added. "We believe the stock will really give the contestants an opportunity to exhibit their skills and allow the best to win. . . but that's what professional rodeo is all about, plus a bit of luck."

Minick has included 60 head of the 1973 qualifying stock for the National Finals Rodeo, held recently in Oklahoma City. Among this group will be Moonshine, "Bareback Horse of the Year" owned by Kessler; Sam Bass, "Saddle Bronc of the Year" owned by Beutler and Son, and Mr. Bubble, "Bull of the Year" owned by Minick.

Other outstanding bucking animals nominated for the annual award which will be here include Minick's saddle bronc, Texas Sam, and his No. 9 bull, and bareback horses Necklace, owned by Wayne Vold, and Smokey, owned by Harry Vold.

Totally Minick will provide 250 bucking horses, 110 bulls, 150 roping calves, 100 horned Mexican doggin' steers, and 50 wild range mustangs for the Wild Horse Race.

Neal Gay of Mesquite will serve as rodeo manager, and Randy Spears of Dallas will be rodeo secretary. Other personnel include Sonny Valdez of Walsenburg, Colo., chute boss; Dan Taylor of Doole, Texas, and Reed Loughlin of White Wood, S.D., arena pick-up men; Berva Dawn Taylor of Doole and Barbara Day of Woodward, Okla., time-keepers.

Grand entry color bearers will be Mrs. Taylor with the American flag and Claudia Loughlin of White Wood, the Texas flag.

Before entering the rodeo production business six years ago, Minick was one of the champion bull riders of the nation. As a student in Fort Worth, he was the 1955 all-city high school rodeo champion, and in 1958 was Texas high school all-around champion cowboy.

Aside from rodeo, Minick is interested in golf. Following his graduation from Polytechnic High School, he attended Mc-

Fuel Allocations To Be On Yearly Basis

There's no way farmers can make expected 1974 production levels with a 1972 fuel allocation, warned officials of Grain Sorghum Producers Ass'n, and Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board.

Federal allocations of diesel fuel have placed farmers in the nation's third priority behind oil exploration and public surface transportation. The farmers are to receive month for month the same amount of fuel they purchased in 1972.

Temporary relief from the monthly fuel allocations was granted recently in order that farmers could complete the 1973 harvest. But excess fuel used in 60 day period starting Nov. 19 will be charges against each farmer's annual allocation.

"Producers first should complete harvest operations," said Jack King, research director for Lubbock, Tex, based commodity organizations GSPA and TGSPB.

"We recommend that under present conditions farmers should not prepare more land for '74 than they farmed in 1972," King continued. He noted that the federal reaction to the tight fuel situation is changing daily and farmers should be extremely careful with 1974 supplies.

Eibert Harp, executive director of GSPA and TGSPB, along with King and other members of the organizations' staff, has been working constantly on the fuel problem with government officials for weeks.

King spent a week in Washington recently and was instrumental in persuading government officials to release farmers temporarily from strict monthly allocations.

"Farmers who prepare more land for '74 crops than they farmed in '72 may run completely out of fuel before the year ends," King warned.

Neese University at Lake Charles, La., on a golf scholarship with plans of turning professional after college. However, his dream was short lived when he was taken into the Army after his freshman year at college.

After the Army, Minick returned to rodeo and became interested in production during the summers of 1967 and 1968. He joined his father-in-law, Harold Schafer of Bismarck, N.D., in the development of Ranchorama at Medora, N.D. Ranchorama, a top tourist attraction, provides an educational presentation of ranch work and professional rodeo.

Five years ago at Houston, Minick suffered a broken leg during the bull riding event. While recovering, he made purchase arrangements for the well-known Harry Knight Rodeo Company from Knight, who retired after more than 40 years of rodeo production.

Today, Minick's rodeo firm includes a ranch at Saginaw and rangeland at Medora. With over 250 head of bucking horses and 80 bucking bulls, he is kept quite busy traveling and keeping the animals in prime bucking shape.

Minick and his wife, Dianne, have three sons, Cheyenne Bill, 8, Cody Bill, 6, and Concho Bill, 3, and a daughter, Brandy, 5.

Poker Face On The Bench?

How neutral does a judge have to be in conducting a trial? That was the issue in The Case of the Smiling Judge. A man had been found guilty of assault, and his attorney appealed to a higher court on the following ground: "Just as one of the defense witnesses was telling his story, the judge broke into a smile. The implication was obvious: he thought the witness was lying. Although the judge told the jury not to be influenced by his smile, the damage had already been done. The jury got the message and brought in a verdict of guilty."

However, the appellate court refused to set aside the verdict. The court said the judge's smile was just too minor an element, in an otherwise fair trial, to make the entire proceedings null and void.

Of course, a trial judge is supposed to be as neutral as possible. Ideally, he should keep a poker face at all times, since his facial expressions may well speak as loudly as words.

But the law also recognizes that judges, being only human, cannot be in total control of their emotions. Thus, another appellate court decided it was "most natural" for a judge to grin when a man named Ananias was sworn in as a witness.

On the other hand, a verdict may indeed be overturned on appeal if the trial judge made his feelings too convincingly clear.

In another case, involving a deadly weapons charge, the judge kept referring to the accused as a "graduate of Sing Sing."

Again, the jury's guilty verdict was carried to a higher court on grounds of judicial misbehavior. This time, the verdict was thrown out. Criticizing the trial judge for letting his feelings get out-of-hand, the appellate court said:

"The function of the judge is to preserve the rights of both the people and the accused, not to insure victory or defeat for either (side)."
