HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy

After all these months and years of procrastination sentiment seems at last to be crystallizing in both rural and urban sections of Howard county for calling of an election to vote on bonds for construction of state highways in Howard county.

Let us hope so. If we've got a bobby it's highways. No community or county or state can grow and prosper nowadays as it should without good roads.

While efforts are to be made in the coming session of the legislature to change the highway financing system so that homes and farms and other real estate will not have to be taxed to pave roads it should not be wise to vote on a bond issue on a basis of expecting to be repaid in a few years because of adoption of the constitutional amendment necessary before the state could vote bonds to repay counties.

The value of roads is a foregone conclusion. There is no argument on that score. The idea is: do we need better roads; can we pay for them and would it be an opportunity time to vote.

The answer we believe is yes in each case.

Why some definite move has not been made to call an election, we do not know. It is, apparently, a case of Alfonso and Gaston each waiting for the other to move. So long as that condition exists no body is going to move.

Why does the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce not convene immediately, make definite recommendations to the board and let that group call in representative citizens from every part of the county for a thorough discussion of the proposition?

ALL SPANISH ROMANCE SET IN BARCELONA

BARCELONA, Spain, Oct. 1 (AP)—An all-Spanish "royal" romance was believed today to be in the making here.

Rumors linked the names of the Prince of Asturias, 25-year-old Spanish heir, and the Princess Maria de Bourbon, 16-year-old Andalusian beauty, daughter of the Infante Carlos de Bourbon, captain general of Barcelona and the Princess Luisa Francisca of Orleans.

The prince, arriving in Barcelona yesterday, called upon Don Carlos, and although there was no announcement of the purpose of his visit, no surprise would be occasioned here shortly by his engagement to the Infanta Maria.

In Madrid Premier General Daza would not confirm or deny them either to confirm or to deny them. The princess' full name is Maria Della Esperanza Ramera Magis Rocio De Bourbon y Orleans. She was born June 14, 1914, in Seville, and is considered one of the most beautiful of the royal and near-royal women of Spain.

The prince, who suffers from hemophilia, a mild hereditary condition which leads to bleeding from the slightest skin abrasion or other lesion, is understood to be greatly improved in health recently due to a dietary treatment his physicians have been following. Nevertheless it is said King Alfonso would not insist upon still further improvement before he would permit his son to marry.

Three Youths Escape After Looting Bank

"Desperate and Hungry" Trio Obtain $1,500 at Salina, Okla.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 1 (AP)—Three young men who said they had not eaten for several days and were desperate, robbed the bank at Salina, Mayes county, of about $1,500 in cash today, and escaped in a Pontiac roadster bearing an Arizona license.

The robbers, unmasked, held up Tom Walkinshaw, cashier, and Hugh Walkinshaw, bookkeeper, and the cashier's father. They forced Miss Louise Griffith, clerk, the only other person in the bank, to show them the cash. They took only cash, leaving the checks. The robbers then locked the three bank employees in the vault and left in their car, disappearing to the east in a cloud of dust.

The imprisoned bank employees released themselves almost immediately. A citizens posse gave pursuit but soon abandoned the case.

QUEEN HELEN AND KING TO GET DIVORCE

VIENNA, Oct. 1 (AP)—Sorrowing, but determined not to grovel at the feet of the handsome King Carol Queen Helen of Rumania, was represented here today as intending to leave Rumania forever.

A Rumanian politician arriving from Bucharest said that after many years she had decided to comply with Carol's wishes and leave Michael, their bright faced son and former boy king, entirely to the care of his father.

Among the queen's immediate entourage it was expected that she soon would go to Germany and take up permanent residence near other members of the former Greek royal family, whom she denied a home in their native Greece, now a republic.

The Rumanian politician said Carol recently had remarked in the presence of many persons that the best Helen could do would be to leave Rumania of her own accord. The remark was reported to the queen who finally made up her mind that she must abandon her dream of raising her much-loved son and leave the country.

The Rumanian people have come to consider Queen Helen very affectionately, and have been touched with her self-sacrificing and dignified bearing, the politician said, adding that King Carol had been visibly exasperated at the thought he must forego the queen.

It is Carol now, rather than Helen, who is insistent that the divorce be effected during his absence in Paris remain valid, although Helen has never been less determined than at first to accept no compromising status from him. All hope of reconciliation is said to have passed.

Infantile Paralysis Spreads in 44 States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The autumn outbreak of infantile paralysis was shown to have spread in reports compiled today at the public health service.

FIND MYSTERY PLANE WRECKED

The wreckage of the "mystery plane" in which William J. McNulty (inset), wealthy salt manufacturer of Columbus, Ohio, left recently for an unannounced destination was found near Connetquot, Ohio, in Lake Erie. The bodies of McNulty and his pilot, Willard Parker, Cleveland, were not found.

Harlan Will Submit Case, Accept Term

AMHERST, Tex., Oct. 1 (AP)—O. P. Harlan, of Lubbock, scheduled to go to trial this afternoon in United States District Court here on an indictment charging irregularities in his conduct of the Standard farm loan association, will enter a plea of guilty, his attorneys have announced.

A statement by the attorneys said: "We shall submit the case directly to the court, and Mr. Harlan will accept whatever penalty that Judge James C. Wilson may elect to impose. He has requested that such a plea be entered for him, stating that since the indictment against him was returned upon records which he himself furnished the inspector, he now realizes that certain of his actions, while involving no financial gain to himself, were in violation of federal statutes. In view of this, and of his determination to lay before the court his whole procedure as secretary-treasurer of the Standard association, and in view of his reduced circumstances financially, he feels that nothing would be gained by a plea of guilty and a long and probably losing court fight."

"We will show that in the transactions complained of, instead of profiting financially, Mr. Harlan lost everything that he had."

Month's Postal Receipts Show Gain Over 1929

Postal receipts for September show a 1.75 per cent increase over those of September, 1929, and a 7.31 percent increase over August.

The total for the month was $4,140.25, compared with $4,065.29 in September, 1929.

REPORT 8,000 NATIVES DEAD

PEIPING, China, Oct. 1 (AP)—Advisers received here state that 8,000 persons have been massacred by an army of bandits at Lihgan, south of Kanu. The town was attacked four weeks ago following a lapse of months, and the bandits were said to have killed all of the inhabitants except some girls which they carried off.

FIREWORKS BLAST

CELAVA, Guanajuato, Mexico, Oct. 1 (AP)—Eleven persons were badly burned today as 8,000 skyrockets exploded in San Miguel Cathedral during celebration of the San Miguel's Saints day. The fireworks, which had been stored in the church for the celebration, were ignited by a skyrocket which exploded.

Duval Attacks T & P Plea

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 1 (AP)—J. C. Duval of Fort Worth, attorney for the Southland Bus Lines, charged before the Railroad Commission, sitting here today, that the Texas and Pacific Railway is seeking to destroy competition of motor bus lines through its application to reduce its passenger fares from 30 cents per mile to two cents per mile.

Radio Group To Make War On Stations

Pirates of Air To Be Prosecuted By Commission

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Federal Radio Commission has declared war on pirates of the air and with the cooperation of the justice department data on three score stations, most of which are suspected of being used by international smugglers and other lawless organizations.

Most of the illegal stations, radio supervisors have found, operate on short wave lengths with receivers fixed to receive messages only on a specified channel. The outlaw stations were found through the use of automobiles equipped for testing frequencies and power used.

Commissioner Harold A. Lafont believes when the monitoring radio station being erected at Grand Island, Nebraska, by the commerce department is placed in full operation, the detecting of the renegade stations will be expedited.

At present it requires about six months to trace an unlicensed station. When the "radio policeman" is completed at Grand Island, not only will the high and low frequencies of this country be subjected to minute scrutiny but the use of the radio facilities of the world will be recorded. A daily report of the actions of all the stations on earth will be submitted to the commission by the commerce department.

In bringing about enforcement of the federal radio laws, the commission selects violators and reports them to the justice department, whose agents undertake the gathering of evidence on which to seek conviction.

Only one violator has been prosecuted—George W. Fellows of St. Louis, an Englishman, who was deported—but the commission expects the filing of charges against others within the next few months.

The commission is aware some very intelligent radio engineers have been employed by owners of the illegal stations, but it expects the Grand Island Station to find them all.

Aviatrix And Mechanic Die In Air Crash

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 1 (AP)—Miss Bernice Jennings, young springfield aviatrix and Frisco Railroad telegrapher, was instantly killed and Fred Crane, mechanic at Springfield airport, was fatally injured today when Miss Jennings' plane crashed about 100 yards from the landing field. Crane died an hour after the accident.

Miss Jennings, who recently passed the private pilot license tests, was making her third trip up this morning when the plane's motor apparently died while she was attempting to turn, and nose-dived into a field.

Japan Ratifies Naval Treaty

TOKYO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Last faint doubts about Japan's adherence to the London naval treaty were removed today by the unanimous vote of the petty council advising Emperor Hirohito to ratify it.

Wielding a writing brush, the Emperor will attach his signature to the compact probably tomorrow. He will trace "Hirohito" in Japanese ideographs on a copy of the treaty and Count Makino, Lord Keeper of the party seal, will affix the gold symbol of the emperor, completing ratification.

By this action Japan becomes the second nation after the United States to ratify the treaty. The British government has approved it but the action of India and the Irish Free State must ratify the pact before King George affixes his signature. This is expected soon.

LEFTY GROVE

Mr. Robert Moses Grove, the Athletic southpaw, with the aid of home runs by Al Simmons and Mickey Cochrane, won the first World's Series game from the St. Louis Cardinals for the Philadelphia Athletics this afternoon, 5 to 0.

Even The Robbers Look With Scorn Upon Cotton Hose

It has got so now that even thieves look with scorn on cotton hose.

When robbers entered the Santa Fe passenger and freight depot they took quantity of silk hose, leaving the cotton ones for the owners. Blankets and electrical goods also were taken from the express room.

The safe door was knocked open at the freight depot, but no money was taken.

ASK INCREASE BRIDGE RATES

AUSTIN, Oct. 1 (AP)—Announcement of a hearing at the Dallas Chamber of Commerce October 15 on a petition to allow three Red River toll bridges to increase their rates for the period left to them to operate before free bridges across the river are completed was received here today.

The notice was sent out by Milo Fox, United States engineer at Galveston.

The Red River Bridge Company, operating the Denison bridge; the Gainesville Red River Bridge Company and the Terral Toll Bridge Company, joined by the Texas Highway Commission, petitioned the war department for a restoration of rates previously in effect.

Rates were lowered December 31, 1928, after the states of Oklahoma and Texas had joined in a complaint to the war department that the tolls were too high. The reduction was 50 percent from old rates which were based on a rate of 75 cents to $1.00 for automobiles.

At that time, the free bridges had not been planned. Since the state of Oklahoma and Texas passed the legislation necessary to construction of the free bridges and work has already been started or contracted for.

The bridge companies petitioned for a restoration of the old rates on the contention that for the few months remaining of their life they should be allowed to obtain a reasonable return upon their investment. The Oklahoma Highway Commission did not join in the bridge companies' request.

Georgia Democrats To Select Governor

ATLANTA, Oct. 1 (AP)—Georgia Democrats selected the next governor of the state today in a run-off primary, nomination being equivalent to election since no opposition ticket has been offered and the state is traditionally Democratic.

Extra Base Hits Off Burleigh Grimes Send Cards Down In First

Robert Moses Groves Gives Up Nine Hits, But Big Bats Come To Rescue

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1 (AP)—Setting a world's series record, the world's champion Athletics combed Burleigh Grimes for five hits, all for extra bases, and converted them all into runs to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 5 to 2 in the opening game of the championship battle today, before a crowd of 32,285 fans, including President Hoover.

Although the National Leaguers slammed Robert Moses Groves, southpaw ace of the A's for a total of nine safe hits, they were able to score in only one inning while the world's champions made every hit off Grimes count.

Home runs by Al Simmons and Mickey Cochrane, triples by George Haas and Jimmy Foxx, plus a rousing double by Jimmy Dykes, combined to start the Athletics off triumphantly in their fight to retain the world's baseball championship.

Georgia Mob Hangs Negro

Was Charged With Murder Of Chief Of Police

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., Oct. 1 (AP)—A motorcade of 45 or 50 masked men took John Will Clark, negro, from the county jail here early today and hanged him to the crossbeam of a telephone pole on the fair grounds a mile away.

Clark, charged with murder of Chief of Police Jenkins, was removed from the custody of the three deputy sheriffs on duty at about 1 o'clock and taken on his death ride in one of the automobiles of the motorcade. At dawn police reported finding the body hanging by a rope from the pole.

A previous effort to lynch Clark was made two weeks ago. National guardsmen were called out and he was then removed to Atlanta for safe keeping, but returned yesterday for trial.

The lynching party came to the jail in nine or ten automobiles. Ten of the men entered the jail office where the deputies were on duty, took the key to Clark's cell from Deputy A. J. McCoy, unlocked the cell, seized their prey, and departed.

"It was all over in five minutes," McCoy said. "We had no time to draw our guns, the men overpowering us as soon as they entered the office."

Clark was taken a few hours after his attorneys had appealed it to the higher courts for a change of venue on the grounds he could not obtain a fair trial here.

Chief Jenkins was killed on the night of September 5 in a scuffle with two negroes who had hailed their automobile in front of his home and whom the chief said were creating a disturbance. He was shot with his own gun. Clark at that time was an escaped convict. Officers said he confessed to killing Chief Jenkins but said the shooting was accidental during the scuffle.

ANGELO DANCE PROMOTERS TO FACE CHARGES

Was Charged With Murder Of Chief Of Police

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 1 (AP)—West Texas peace officers today were looking for the promoters of San Angelo's first dance marathon, W. F. Warns and W. F. Lockmiller, who are charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The complaint charges that Ina Deemer, 17, who appears younger, was given whiskey as a stimulant while on the dance floor. The girl said the alleged whiskey did not get her to sleep and out of the contest.

The contest started a week ago but ended abruptly yesterday when officers intercepted the promoters who were leaving town.

Lockmiller was overtaken several miles from the city and Warns was found in a hotel here. Five hundred dollars in prizes was to have been split among the last three couples on the floor. When the payoff came the last three couples received $50 each in return for their sore feet. The charges were filed after the two had left town. The contest was held at a dance hall several miles from the city.

Eastern Stars Fight Western Netters

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 1 (AP)—Tennis stars of the east opposed those of the far west today in the third round matches of the Pacific Coast tennis championships here.

Heading the list were Johnny Van Ryan, East Orange, N. J., fifth seeded player, and Edward Chandler, ranking Californian. Van Ryan reached the third round by easily winning from Ray Johnson, Berkeley, 6-0, 6-1, and from Joe Coughlin, San Francisco, 7-5, 6-3. Chandler was idle yesterday after winning Mrs. Helen Willis Moody was pit-

Professional Men Rate Higher In Car Crashes

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1 (AP)—The banker, doctor, and other professional men rate far higher in percentage of automobile accidents than the industrial worker it was brought out today in the National Safety Congress and Exposition.

Harold R. Gordon, executive secretary of the Health and Accident Underwriters conference, Chicago, has tabulated 15,000 automobile accidents into classes and discovered that members of the business and professional group have almost two accidents for each of the industrial group. In addition to a greater number of accidents for the professional man he is more often injured. On the other hand the industrial worker is more often seriously injured.

British Woman Swimmer Fails Channel Attempt

DOVER, Eng., Oct. 1 (AP)—Miss Mercedes Gleitze, British woman swimmer, has failed in a new attempt to swim the English Channel.

Entering the water at 8:45 p. m. last night she stayed in only about four hours, abandoning her efforts because of the intense cold.

In 1927 she claimed to have made the swim but there was some question as to the conditions of her feat and the channel swimming association decided not to recognize it. Previously she had attempted the swim seven times and had failed.

She formerly was a London stenographer. Her husband, Patrick Carey, went along with her in a boat during last night's effort.

DEATH AGAIN INTERVENES

Ferguson, the Winslow gardener, the dunk along the side streets of Georgetown thankful for the many shadows which darkened the doorways. Just as he reached the house corresponding in number to that given by Mrs. Lawrence to Elsa Chase, he heard Elsa's name pronounced. The voice came from the second story front window, which was opened a trifle. Suddenly a man slipped furtively out the front door and hurried down the walk.

WORLD'S SERIES WILL OPEN TODAY

Connie Mack Silent About Mound Choice For First Conflict

Lumbago Doesn't Bother Frankie Frisch, Who Assures Fandom He Will Be Among Those Present

BY BRIAN BELL, Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1 (AP).—The world's series came again to Philadelphia today with the annual guessing contest between Connie Mack and the fans featuring the pre-game activities. Everyone was trying to name the Athletics' starting pitcher against the St. Louis Cardinals, and only wise old Connie knew. Manager Mack had the last guess and promised to keep his own counsel until game time as he did last year when he came back to the thick of world's series fights after a long absence.

Manager Charles E. (Gabby) Street of the Cardinals has no secrets. He said "Frisch" in a loud voice and struck to his story. Not so C. McGillicuddy. The veteran mentor of the A's only smiled when asked who would fire the starting gun for the American League champions.

Robert Moses

Early speculation hinged about Robert Moses Grove, the tall, slim, left-hander with the "high hard one," it being taken for granted that the home team would put its best foot forward at the outset. And then the guessers recalled that a year ago Manager Mack engaged the fans, the Cubs and even the Athletics themselves, by nominating Howard Ehmke, who had pitched only 55 innings all season, to go out and try for victory in the all important game.

So the dope sheets were called for other available sharpshooters on the Philadelphia staff. The names of Eddie Reagins, who boasts a knuckleball of rare excellence, and Babe Walshberg, with his biting speed, and a sweeping curve when he has his stuff and feels right, were suggested as possible "surprises" up the sleeve of the crafty Mack. Even old Jack Quinn, a good cool-weather hurler with a spitter, was mentioned.

But Connie only smiled.

Frankie Out

There was a flurry of excitement among Cardinal supporters when it was found at the last practice session of the National Leaguers that Captain Frankie Frisch not only was among those taking a final workout, but was flat on his back, complaining back in his hotel bed, commencing treatment for lumbago.

Frisch hastened to reassure his friends by saying his indisposition while temporarily annoying was by no means serious and he would be at second base when the first big game started, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

"There's no chance of my being out," said the veteran of five world's series.

Regarded as the mainstay of his team's offense and defense, back trouble forcing Frisch from the lineup would have sent the Cardinals into the series with all the National League in mourning.

The day of the first game found every member of the Athletics in the best of condition. George (Mule) Haas, out for a part of the season with injuries, was pronounced fit and ready to play every game.

Just a Game

Players on both teams today nonchalantly talked of taking the games for the supreme championship in their stride. They said that today's opening contest was "just a ball game," out of the ordinary only because President Hoover had a reservation, with a number of his cabinet officers and other high officials of the government.

Presidents of the two leagues, John A. Heydler of the National and E. S. Barnard of the American, regarded the baseball battles as possible sanguinary struggles, stretching perhaps to the limit of seven games.

Texas Squads Invade North

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Carrying the hopes and aspirations of the Southwest, three football units tonight will click northward in the most ambitious invasion ever undertaken by schools of this section.

Joining forces, so to speak, for the time being, the Southern Methodist University Mustangs and Baylor University Bears will ride the same special train out of Dallas at 8 p. m., the Bruins' pullman being hooked to the Mustang special.

The two Southwest Conference rivals will work out together at St. Louis Thursday, splitting up only when the Pones continue over to South Bend for Saturday's heralded engagement with Notre Dame, and the Golden Bears continue on to Lafayette, Ind., and their bout with Purdue.

Thirty Texas Aggie grid warriors, accompanied by their 80-piece band and some 800 supporters, will make their independent way to Lincoln for Saturday's clash with the Nebraska University Cornhuskers. Leaving College Station in mid-afternoon today, the Farmers will halt at Corsicana for a brief workout and to collect additional fans making the trip. They will reach Lincoln Friday.

All three squads were reported in excellent shape today, without an injury to mar their chances.

"AMATEURS O. K."

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP).—Amateurs can compete in miniature tournaments without loss of standing providing they observe regulation amateur rules, the United States Golf Association has ruled.

The question was taken up with the U. S. G. A. by officials of the $10,000 National Open Miniature Golf tournament at the Chicago Stadium October 29.

CONNIE MACK HIS 50 YEARS IN BASEBALL

No. 15—Some Ideas On Greatness

Perhaps no manager in the history of baseball ever handled more and greater pitching talent than the master of the House of Mack.

Down through the years they have left indelible marks—the eccentric but brilliant Waddell, the taciturn Bender, the cool and dependable Plank, iron man Coombs, Bullet Joe Bush, Knuckle-ball Eddie Rommel, the modern strikeout king, Grove, and the hard-working Earnshaw.

Great as these have been, Mack unhesitatingly regards the late Christy Mathewson as the great pitcher of all time, a tribute to "Big Six" all the more remarkable because it comes from the most successful of American League managers.

"Taking everything into consideration, I should say Matty was the greatest, Mack once told me, turning over carefully in his mind the memories of a half century in the game. Seidman has Connie been willing to make comparisons, but he continued:

"Mathewson had a world of stuff, a great head and great heart. He was a winning pitcher, invariably at his best when the stakes were highest. His pitching against the Athletics in the 1905 world's series was the most marvelous individual exhibition I have ever seen. Six and eight years later he was still the toughest of them all to beat in a pinch. It took the greatest team I ever had to finally turn the tables on Matty after he had beaten us four straight games.

"There have been others nearly as great. It is difficult to rank them, but you can put Ed Walsh, Walter Johnson and Miner Brown among the greatest, along with four stars that I handled—Rube Waddell, Eddie Plank, Chief Bender and Jack Coombs. They were a wonderful combination.

"Grove started slowly, but he has developed into a really great left-hander. He has the control now that he lacked at first and he has tremendous speed.

"Bender was the greatest one-game pitcher I ever saw. When I told the chief to get ready for a big game, I knew I could count on him.

The greatest all-around player of all time? Ty Cobb, declared Mack without the slightest equivocation.

John McGraw had just named Hans Wagner for this position in baseball's Hall of Fame when I asked Mack for his opinion.

"I think McGraw would agree with me if he had seen Cobb as long as I have," replied Connie. "There was no doubt of Wagner's greatness or of the marvelous all-around ability of such players as Lajoie, Ed Collins, Speaker, Hornsby and Ruth, but to me Cobb is in a class by himself. He could do everything and do it superlatively. When he was in his prime we always figured Detroit in terms of Cobb, not as a team.

"Even now (in 1927), after 22 years in the big leagues, Cobb concedes little to any rival. He is one of the few players who always can be counted on to get from first to third on a single.

"Babe Ruth is like Cobb in this respect. The Babe has a great speed and is a greater all-around player than any other pitcher I have seen."

Coombs and Bob Grove. With the exception of Cobb and Speaker, who joined Mack at the end of their careers, all of those stars were in their prime as Athletics.

The great Napolean Lajoie played second base for Mack both before and after the height of his career with Cleveland. Jimmy Collins, once the king of third basemen, played for a time with the old As after leaving the Red Sox. Joe Judge, in his day the greatest of American League third basemen, was developed by Mack.

"They all knew and possessed affection for the "tail titter" who gave them a chance or a job or a "break," the man whose sole praise for himself after 30 years was:

"I was fortunate enough to have some wonderful ball players."

Eastland comes here Saturday. It will be recalled by some that Big Spring and Eastland were on quite too sweet terms when the season ended last year. It all came about over a hotel, or a couple of hotels. When the Steers started within the city limits of the Horned Frog village, they found themselves quartered in a hotel which wasn't the best hotel in town. And who ever heard of a high school football team this day and time not getting in the best hotel? We are compelled to admit we never have. So the Steers picked up bed and board and moved over to the lobby of the best hotel. That made Eastland mad and Eastland decided if the Steers wanted to stay in the best hotel they could pay for staying there. There were words, but finally after a great and most vociferous argument, the Eastland officials paid for the rooms. The worms won't do a right about face this year. The Steers will be quartered in the best hotel in all probability, and won't be received in the manner the Steers were in 1929. Eastland should appreciate that. Eastland probably won't.

We knew it was coming. Fans insist on knowing what was the matter with the Steer machine Monday and wherein the trouble consisted. They looked over that picture with 44 football men appearing, and they looked over that line picture with enough viewpoints to start a ranch, and they perused that backfield picture, which wasn't any slouch, even though we do say it, and they can't understand how come the Abilene Eagles sifted through them like they were playing in different counties. Would that we could answer the question intelligently. Would that we could, but we can't. There is something wrong. Somewhere there is a cog loose. The Abilene sweatshirts had no business going where they did in the manner they did. Several angles can be considered.

However, when Hoot Gibson gallops into town with his Mavericks Saturday afternoon things may show up differently. But on the general grounds they may or they may not show improvement. Only one thing is certain and that is the Mavericks are going to be plenty tough for the Stevens and Brown organization to handle. Gibson has seen the Steers in action twice this year. He looked on with much gusto at the Abilene contest. George Brown has viewed the Mavericks in a nocturnal struggle with the Lobos. Now that the scouting is over the two teams should be well acquainted with one another.

That elastic of all classic operas today at Philadelphia. It is the final time the National Game will play. After this the hot stove leagues will keep alive all that is left of baseball, while football grabs the limelight and removes the crowds from grandstands to stadiums. A few years ago they predicted football would soon smother baseball. For several reasons it won't. It isn't organized, it doesn't last long enough. You can't get a football seat for fifty cents and you can't go in your shirt sleeves. It isn't funny. It keeps baseball going. It's those blincher crowds that would rather see the Babe sock out than see Yale, Harvard, Princeton and the Army in one game on the square day.

The fellow named Cross over in the sheep country went to Abilene last Monday and got hooked. We did the hooking. Nonchalantly as a bird breaking a new bird seed, we gladly gave Mr. Cross a few points on the Ranger-San Angelo contest, warning him to be ready to pay off when the Steers migrate to the Concho village later on this month. It seems Mr. Cross has been informed that the Bobcats are some punkins this year. If it wasn't for three good reasons the Bobcats would be those reasons being Ranger, Cisco and Breckenridge.

Same Breeze In Oilbelt Race

The Big Four Keep Insisting On Grabbing Light

BY BOBBY CAMPBELL

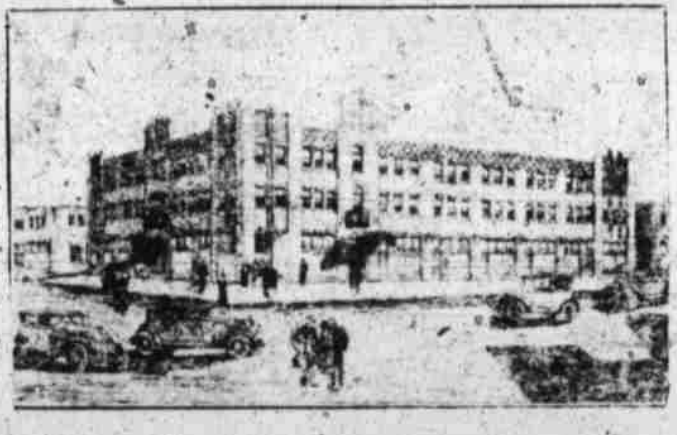

Like the old maid's outlook, it's just another year in the Oil Belt District of the Interscholastic League, if the games which have gone before mean anything. And they do. They mean a lot.

After having been blessed for over a week with a rare or so amount of the miracle of the ladder, the Big Spring Steers took a flop and slid back into the category known as the cellar organization.

There they found such acquaintances as the Eastland Mavericks, the Mineral Wells Mountaineers, the Sweetwater Mustangs, and of course, the Brownwood Lions.

And so it looks like another year for what is generally referred to as the Big Four. San Angelo may insist on making it the Big Five before Bill Blasett allows things to drop unheeded.

But there is no questioning the Four—Cisco, Ranger, Breckenridge, and Abilene, and the weakest of

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Salt Lake City, Utah
Kindly interpret the third verse of the fifth chapter of St. Matthew, which reads: "Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven."
Dr. Moffatt renders this beautiful: "Blessed are those who feel poor in spirit." The Biblical characters described in Isaiah 66:1 and in Psalm 138:8 and 9 were men who often lacked this world's goods and were persecuted for their staunch loyalty to righteous ends. Their constancy was due to their complete confidence in God as the sole source of strength and wisdom.

Such were the people, our Lord pronounced "blessed." Two beyond the wealth of earth and ennobled by the favor of their Maker. St. Paul speaks of them in II Corinthians 1:10 as "pauperes." Yet, a meekness of mind and a greatness of spirit, as well as a confidence in God, are all things St. Francis would wish for all. And while a glorious mendicant, the Saint of Assisi became how multifaceted he became. How multifaceted he became with values which have no purchase price. Through these various facets of heaven, the spiritual authority is maintained in earth. They are Christ's partners and the agents of His saving power.

Will this be the New Testament test of a truly religious person? The Old Testament also stresses it. No creedal orthodox however complete, can do duty for the life service and sacrifice which is lived in and through immediate fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ.

Berkley, Calif.
In what respects does the person of Jesus reveal God? I confess I do not so understand Jesus, yet I revere Him as the best of our kind.

We know the character and life of Jesus. He belongs to history and therefore to all men. What He was and what He taught are before us for our approval or disapproval. The verdict has long since been rendered and every succeeding generation adds to its emphasis. Jesus is the crown and flower of the human race.

But because He is confessedly that He is more. When we ascribe perfection, sinlessness and mediatorial sovereignty to Him we invest Him with the qualities of Deity. The doctrine about Christ is really a doctrine about God. In the striking phrase of Dr. Robert Norwood's book, Jesus is "The man who dared to be God."

If you would know what God is like, you must look on Christ, otherwise you can have no clear vision of the Deity. He is incarnated in that Divine Son who was the express image of His person. I do not think that an intelligent man can ponder the Four Gospels without admitting that Jesus could never have been what He is had He not possessed "the fullness of the Godhead bodily."

Pittsburgh, Pa.
What is your estimate of the late D. H. Lawrence as a man and a writer?

Perhaps it is not generally known that this greatly gifted author was born and brought up in British, Congregationalist. He referred to his early religious associations with appreciation and respect, mentioned some of the hymns he used to sing, declared they meant more to him than poetry, and had permanent values.

But the New Testament teaching about miracles repelled Lawrence's youthful mind, and he turned aside to find his own solutions of the mysteries of life. He was constitutionally antagonistic to the accepted order of things, whether in society or religion. Nevertheless he always believed there was a way out, a path to self-possession and self-control.

He offended good manners, tore down many restraints of custom, and attacked the existing order from the standpoint of sex. Here, as he supposed, the reformation was to begin, and he spent his life and his consuming energies in the effort to inaugurate it.

"Back to Nature" seems to have been his slogan, uttered by a soul flamingly alive and disdainful of the writings of past experience. The neo-paganism Lawrence advocated is older than the Greeks and Romans, and as cruel as the grave. Here he missed the mark, and became not a guide, but a melancholy instance of wasted powers.

Oklahoma City, Okla.
Is theology religion? Can I be religious even though I differ from you in matters of doctrinal belief?

Theology is as necessary to religion as speech is to thought. But theology is not religion. It simply voices in coherent and understandable ways that which essential religion creates.

For instance, you and I have an awareness of God. This is the central fortress of our position as believers. That awareness has shaped the spiritual experiences of the human race. It is so vivid and persistent that nothing can obliterate it. It incites in us the quest for God, which we accept Christ as God's designed likeness for mankind.

But another and a decisive factor follows: Those who with all their hearts recognize God in Christ are constrained to emulate their Lord's example and to do His will.

Lea-Mex First Development Company to Transport Buyers By Airplane.

Kay Thorsen of the Lea-Mex Development Company of New Hobbs, New Mexico, is at the Crawford Hotel this week arranging for a number of local people to travel to the new oil fields of southeastern New Mexico by airplane.

This Development company is the first of the kind in the United States to use airplanes for carrying customers from their homes to the scenes of new development.

Development is rapid business is carrying on night and day and values are showing property owners of New Hobbs enormous profits. The play is so fast and the distance of New Hobbs from other points so great that the Lea-Mex found it expedient to use airplanes in their business.

Appointment for the trip may be made by calling Mr. Thorsen at the Crawford Hotel, Big Spring.

Beryl Deposit Near Winnipeg

TORONTO, Oct. 1 (AP)—An international battle of financial interests loomed today for control of what is believed to be a large and valuable deposit of beryl, a valuable mineral from which is derived the metallic beryllium, about 100 miles north of Winnipeg, Man.

Dr. T. L. Walker, professor of mineralogy at the University of Toronto, who has just completed an inspection of the property, with W. P. Jacob, field scientist of the Beryllium Development Corporation of America, said he believed the showing of beryl on the Huggan River claim is the most promising he has seen anywhere in the world.

Beryllium is about half the weight of aluminum and three times as strong. Heretofore it has been known chiefly as a laboratory product because of its limited supply. Its cost of $200 a pound made it prohibitive for commercial purposes. Should the Manitoba find justify expectations the metal should be produced at $5 a pound.

Scientists pointed out it would be of great importance in the construction of airplanes and automobile bodies and as an alloy to iron, nickel and copper.

Efforts to obtain control of the deposits are being waged by British, American and German interests.

Reports here are that the Winnipeg River Mine Company, owners of the mine, are desirous of having British interests develop and control the product, but strongly backed interests in the United States, including one of the largest

Third Abilene Break Attempt Is Frustrated

ABILENE, Texas, Oct. 1 (AP)—Four men, one of them in jail charged with introducing the saw used by five men in a successful jail break earlier this week, almost escaped from the county stout house early today. T. A. Hackney, assistant chief of police, was driving down the alley by the jail, looking for two vagrants, when he saw a blanket rope drop from a second story window. He walked Sheriff H. T. O'Bar, and the men were put in other cells. Half a saw blade was taken from them. Bars had been sawed out and the men were ready to go.

One of the quartet was Bill Cox, charged with forgery, who escaped Sunday morning but was recaptured in a farm house near here the same day.

Half the states in the union and six foreign countries were represented in current registrations at Agnes Scott college, Decatur, Ga.

Another Knot In Barnett's Cash Worries

OKMULGEE, Okla., Oct. 1 (AP)—Another million dollar knot was placed in the tangled financial affairs of Jackson Barnett, elderly Creek Indian oil multimillionaire, with the filing today of a claim in the Okmulgee county court.

J. E. Walker, of St. Joseph, Mo., who describes himself as a former manual laborer, seeks the million dollars on the basis of a written promise he said Barnett made four years ago. The claim is directed against George Riley Hall, editor of the Henryetta Free Lance, who is Okmulgee county guardian for Barnett.

Persons in a position to know today said that Barnett, whose munificent gifts and other financial caprices have taken his estate into the highest courts of the United States, has little property in this county, his some-time home.

Walker filed with the claim the purported pledge, dated June 19, 1926, at Los Angeles, and allegedly signed with Jackson's thumb print. In it Jackson is represented as setting forth that he knew Walker when the latter "worked for day wages" and when Jackson himself had little; that Walker aided Barnett when the Indian was without funds and in need; and when he was ill and that he "hoped some day to be able to help" Walker. In 1911, it was stated, Walker was injured while employed in the construction of the Tulsa court house, and since has been unable to work.

"He wants to build a home in Los Angeles where I live," the alleged Barnett pledge sets out, continuing:

"It is my own desire and free will that I ask you to do please pay his order and charge me one million dollars out of my money which you have of mine. I would have given this to him long ago had it not been for my wife."

Barnett several years ago married the much more youthful Anna Laura Lowe, a white woman. The marriage without governmental efforts toward annulment.

"Nurse Without Country" Takes Citizen's Vows

LIMA, Ohio, Oct. 1 (AP)—A woman who refused to take oath to kill in defense of the United States was a citizen today after a court battle lasting a year and a half.

Twice Mrs. Carl Landis of Philadelphia, the nurse without a country, declined to swear that she would bear arms for the nation and was denied citizenship by Alien county courts.

Yesterday she took the oath of allegiance, still refusing her opposition to bearing arms, but swearing that she would serve as a nurse and shed her blood if necessary in time of war.

Common pleas Judge A. M. Rogers admitted the reservation and granted citizenship over the protest of Edward J. Kenney of Cincinnati, assistant district supervisor of natu. 11-1000.

Mrs. Landis formerly was superintendent of the Bluffton, O. hospital. She came from Alsace-Lorraine in 1910 and was married since she began her fight for citizenship.

Production Of Crude Reaches Large Average

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Petroleum was extracted during 1929 from 322,200 wells in the United States which gave an average daily yield per well of 8.4 barrels. These figures announced by the United States Bureau of Mines compared with a production of 7.8 barrels in 1928 from 327,800 wells.

The 1929 output rate varied from a little as a fifth of a barrel per day extracted from certain Ohio and Indiana borings to the top record of 161 barrels per day made by the average well in West Texas.

Pennsylvania, the state which first fostered petroleum production, was still the possessor of the largest number of oil wells last year, credited with 80,320 bores. However, Oklahoma's far fewer wells, numbering 67,180, were responsible for a gross petroleum production during the year valued at $264,650,000, or about nine times the Pennsylvania output. Texas with but 36,280 wells, was credited with a total petroleum output of $322,520,000. California's bare 10,520 wells operating during 1929 had an output worth $321,367,000. Californian production worked out an average of 75 barrels per day per well; Oklahoma's to 11.3 barrels, and the Texas figure was slightly under 23. These three states represented four-fifths of the national production of crude, which the bureau announced was worth $1,280,000,000.

Confederate Veterans Assembled For Reunion

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 1 (AP)—Gray-coated legions of Lee and Jackson were marshalled in phantom array today as the depleted line, the last of the boys of '61, gathered here for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of Texas. Sons of Confederate veterans also were here to open their annual meeting.

General J. H. Summers of Nacogdoches, state commander of the veterans, and General C. B. Woods of Wichita Falls, commander of the sons, were to preside at the respective sessions.

ADMIRAL DIES

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1 (AP)—Rear Admiral Albert Weston Grant, 74, pioneer commander of the United States submarine flotilla and head of the Atlantic fleet during the World War, died at the naval hospital here last night. He was born in East Benton, Maine, and graduated from the United States naval academy in 1877.

PROS GATHER FOR TOURNEY TEXAS GROUP

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Oct. 1 (AP)—Forty of Texas' leading professional golfers practiced here this morning for the annual tournament of the Texas Professional Golfers' Association to be held Thursday and Friday at the San Angelo Country Club.

The championship 72-hole medal competition will be preceded by amateur-professional low ball medal by this afternoon.

The professionals will compete for prizes totaling $700.

Jack Burke of Houston, in defending his title, is expected to be hard pressed by John Breidemus of San Antonio, secretary of the state association, who laid out the country club's 18-hole course here; by Ralph Guidahl of Dallas, Tom Lally of San Antonio and others.

The visiting professionals will be guests of the country club at a banquet on the roof garden of a local hotel tonight.

FISH HATCHERY

CARLSBAD, N. Mex., Oct. 1—A supervisor from the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries will visit Carlsbad early in October to inspect available sites for a location for the federal fish hatchery for which the last Congress appropriated the sum of $50,000 for a hatchery in New Mexico, according to a communication to the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce.

THIS IS A GOOD YEAR TO BUILD ECONOMICALLY

A profitable property from an old house

Many old houses have become too old-fashioned for comfort and too shabby to rent or sell. Yet they are too valuable to let go to ruin. Such houses can easily be made convenient and attractive. Improving the entrance, adding a pergola, re-designing windows, finishing the exterior with a light tinted stucco, converting unused attic space into sunny rooms and putting in a sanitary concrete basement have turned the old house shown above into a pleasing modern home.

If you're interested in turning an old residence or business building into an asset, ask your building material dealer, architect or contractor for suggestions on remodeling. You'll be surprised at how economically you can have the work done this year.

Atlas Cement is made at Waco — by Texas workers — of Texas materials. Along with other economical quality products, your building material dealer can quickly furnish you either Atlas portland cement (gray) or non-staining Atlas White portland cement. Ask for Atlas cements.

FISH DAMAGE WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. (AP)—Insofar as the effects of the drought on fish life have been determined by the federal hatcheries service the greatest damage has been done in Alabama, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana and Kansas. Henry O'Malley, chief of fisheries, said today water shortage was the cause of the most damage. In twelve states, which the bu-rean did not name, moderate damage was done, and in nineteen states inclusive of those named, efforts to salvage fish from dwindling water was officially undertaken.

Reports Indicate More Corn Than Thought CHICAGO, Oct. 1. (AP)—Unofficially crop estimates issued today indicated a decidedly larger yield of corn than of late has been looked for. The prospective yield of spring wheat was slightly enlarged as compared with a month ago, and was in line with general expectations. Nevertheless, all grain prices averaged higher early today, in opposition also to sharp downturns of wheat quotations at Liverpool.

Cooking School Note by Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig

In the cooking school I conducted under the auspices of The Herald recently, I stressed modern methods of cooking. Naturally, then, I use and recommend CRISCO—for it's a modern shortening. Mrs. Leona Rusk Ihrig.

Did George Washington name it for a real Sally Lunn?

WHO was Sally Lunn? Some say she was George Washington's housekeeper—who made a certain hot-bread that was so good he gave it her name. Others say that Sally once sold these famous tea-cakes on the streets of Bath, England. At any rate, you've heard of Sally Lunn's, but maybe you've never eaten the real one. Here it is, straight from Virginia. A descendant of the first president's family gave me this recipe, with this improvement: she specifies Crisco, a modern shortening that tastes so sweet you just know it's bound to improve the flavor of anything you make with it.

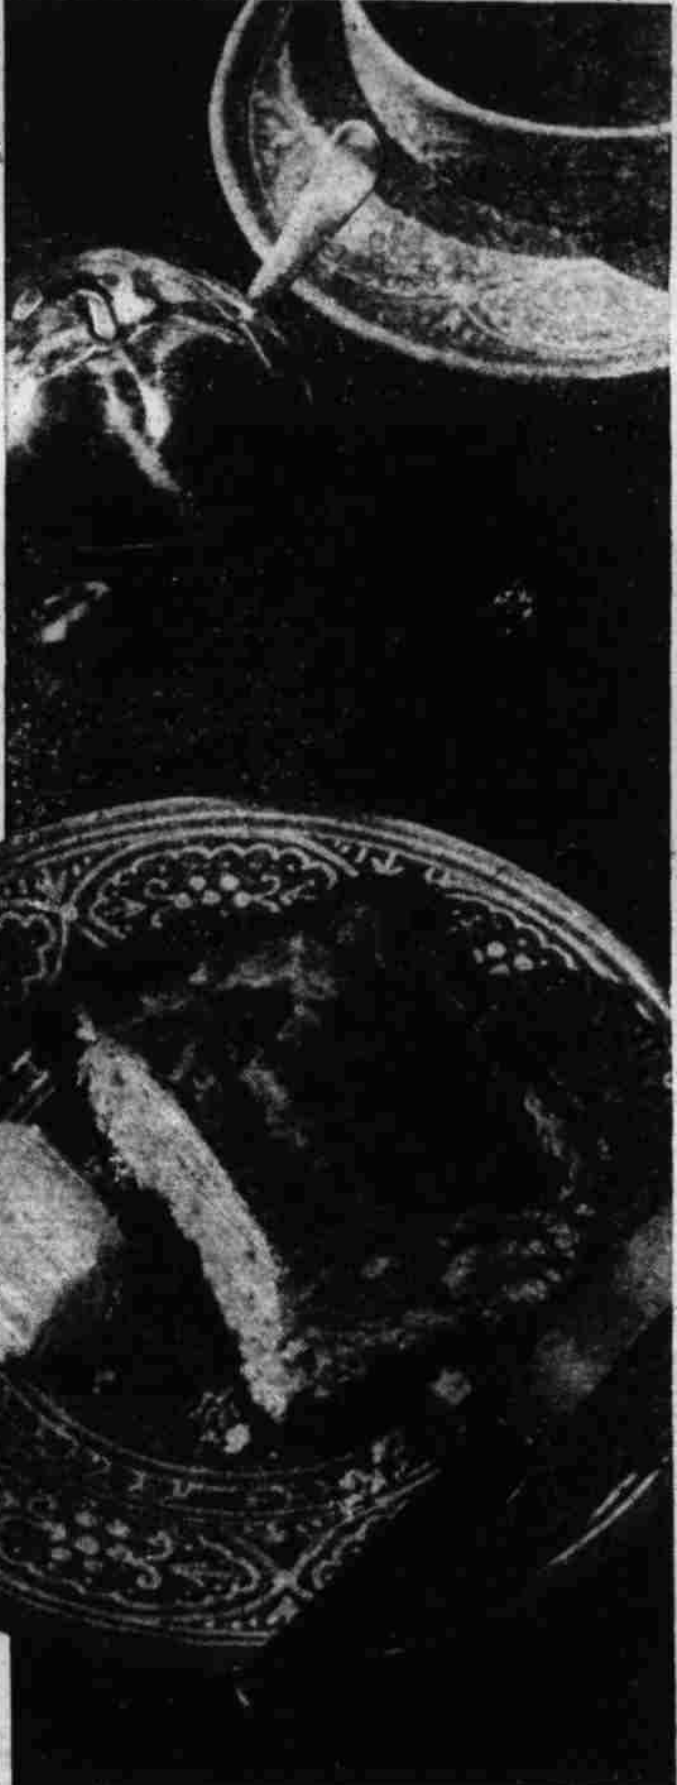

SALLY LUNNS 1/2 cup Crisco 1/2 cup sugar 2 eggs (beaten) 4 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon salt 2 cups flour 1/2 cup milk Cream Crisco and sugar together. Add beaten eggs and mix well. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk to the first mixture. Bake in a Criscoed shallow pan in hot oven (400° F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

HIGHLAND SCONES This is a Caledonian hot-bread with an American accent—speed! 2 cups bread flour 1/2 cup milk 2 eggs 1/2 teaspoon salt 3 tablespoons Crisco Jam or marmalade 2 tablespoons sugar 4 teaspoons baking powder Blend Crisco with sifted dry ingredients. (No long process of cutting hard fat into the flour—Crisco is of workable consistency.) Stir in milk and eggs. Spoon dough onto oiled paper dusted with flour. Pat with hand to 1/2 inch thickness. Spread jam or marmalade over half the dough, cover with other half and press gently together. Cut into squares and then crosswise to form triangles. Brush with milk to give a rich brown glaze, and bake in hot oven (450° F.) from 10 to 15 minutes. Serve while hot for tea or breakfast. (Omit sugar from recipe and spread dough with 1/4 cup grated American or pimiento cheese instead of jam or marmalade and you'll have a delectable scone to serve with salad.) WINIFRED S. CARTER

ALL MEASUREMENTS LEVEL. Recipes tested and approved by Good House-keeping Institute. Crisco is the registered trade-mark of a shortening manufactured by The Procter & Gamble Co.

In its new airtight can—as fresh and sweet as the day it was made. Image of a hand holding a can of Crisco.
