twelve months has been a real pleasure for me. One that I anticipated with enthusiasm during my year of serving you as president-elect under president E.S. Morgan."

Mr. Charles Brown, Principal of Ella Iles Elementary School Lubbock, was president elect for 1963-64, and will fill the position of president of the West Texas District Teachers Association for 1964-65.

During the Luncheon program, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Dr. Lee Wilborn, Assistant Commissioner of Education, Texas Education Agency, addressed several hundred West Texas teachers.

Dr. Lee Stated, "Thirty years from now we are going to be living in a nuclear solar stage. The greatest contribution to this stage will be done by the boys and girls of today, and these boys and girls are in your classroom."

He went on to add, "This is a new world of reading. Any person can be taught to read at any age--Today even 4 year olds learn to read." Several teachers received the Service Award

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Last week was Public School week here in the State of Texas. As citizens in this great state we owe a great deal to our teachers. Many programs were designed during this week to promote the conception that education is the essential tool in the world today.

Here are a few ideas from an address delivered to the Principal, Faculty, and Student Body at Ella Iles Elementary School last Wed., by Mr. Harry Stokley, Jr.

For his topic Mr. Stokley chose "The Importance of Education in the Development of Respon-for people teaching over twenty years in West Texas. Those receiving the award from Lubbock were Mrs. C.B. Smith, 22 years; Mrs. J.L. Bonner, 28 years; Mr. Damon Hill, 28 years; Mrs. M.K. Lusk, 27 years; Mrs. Leola Thorton, 29 years; and the senior member, Mrs. W.M. Cox, 34 years.

"Education was defined as a process of existing now, projecting as looking into the future, at the expense of every bit of knowledge man has ever known, all for the purpose of coping with our environment which involves social, physical, spiritual, and mental factors."

"Citizenship implies allegiance, the working for the advancement of basic ideals. It implies initiative and the acceptance of responsibility. It implies that the individual is a part of something much larger than he, but that each part or person must contribute for the well being of all."

"Each individual possesses some talent which when exercised will contribute to mankind. The more one contributes the more one will in turn be enriched."

"The world's rapidly changing and in turn, it is making new demands upon us. Youth must prepare to meet these demands because the world of tomorrow is theirs."

"Youth must learn early to think for themselves because people who can not think are being will welcome a brief question and answer period.

It is with great hope that each of YOU will come out and share this eventful challenge to all of us.

This special program is sponsored by the Ebony Club, Louis Walton, president.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Johnson and daughter were called to Jacksonville, Texas on the weekend due to the death of Mrs. Johnson's stepfather. Both, Mr. & Mrs. Johnson, are members of the Lubbock Public School System.

Health Services Program Set

The Public Health Unit of Lubbock is sponsoring "Plan Parenthood" meetings every Tuesday at 1:00pm in Messiah Presbyterian Annex, 1616 Ave B. The purpose of these meetings is to discuss birth control. All persons regardless of their status are invited to attend these meetings.

Five student council officers attended the Lone Star State Association of Student Councils Convention last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at Charlton Pollard High School, Beaumont. "The Student and the Changing Education Scene," was the theme of the meeting.

Delegates are Michael Menafee, Madlyn Travenia, Joyce Hamilton, Mary Lawson and Earnest Stevenson. Earnest is vice president of the state organization. Mrs. M. K. Lusk, sponsor, accompanied them.

In observance of Texas Public Schools Week, Dunbar had two assembly programs. On March 2, Dr. J.A. Chatman spoke from the subject, "Focus On A Better Public School." March 5, the assembly program featured a series of skits, by students from the school's various departments, reflecting the modern curriculum of the school system. Theme of the program was "The New Curriculum Our Stage." Open house was observed then. Parents had a chance to visit classrooms, see their children in action, and view their work.

"Turke's Law" is the theme for Dunbar's 1964 exchange assembly which was presented March 5 at Monterey High School. The cast of characters in the world in which he lives rather than being ignorant and at the mercy of exploiters."

perior performance during the Lubbock Public Schools Stage Band Festival which was held at Monterey High School, Feb. 15. Participants were Edward Lester, Dorothy Sowell, Carol Wells, Rosie Hicks, Robert Pillow, reeds; Lorenzo Bryant, Clarkie Gamble, Mary Lawson, Burnett Anderson, Ollie Hill, Bonnie Cox, Austin Garrett, James Page, Tommie Knowles, brass; Sandra Alford, Patricia Moore, David Wilson, Chester Griffin, rhythm.

Mrs. Lila Griffin's eighth grade English classes are studying myths, legends, and tall tales. "Flights of Fancy--Myths--Legends" and "Mythical Characters on Parade" are the headings for bulletin board displays in her room. One board has colored construction paper bearing the names of stories. The other one has cigar boxes covered with paints, aluminum foil, construction paper, and glitter. Pictures of mythical characters with explanation are on them.

cluded Chester Griffin, Rose Gamble, Sandra Strong, L.V. Moore, Joe Henderson, Bobby Holmes, George Thompson, Billie Eddins, Charlotte Love, Camellia Crawford, and Bertha Felder. Supporting the cast were the Basettes, the Rosettes, featuring Rosie Hicks; the Downtown Boys, the Tonettes and the Dunbar Choraliers. Julia Buntun and Mae Sterling were in charge of hairstyles and makeup. Student directors were Patricia Glaspie, Wanda Williams, and Mary Lawson.

Monday 18 members of the Dunbar High School Stage Band received certificates of merit for su-

A closeup report on the Prairie View Interscholastic League of Texas State Basketball Tournament as I saw it Feb. 28 & 29, at the Prairie View Gym.

In class AA Midland opened with a win over Waxahachie 89 to 61, Hutchins of Dallas beat Mt. Pleasant 72 to 61 and Woodville defeated Seguin 100 to 68. The other game saw Dangerfield down Navasota 86 to 72.

Midland then beat Hutchins 89 to 65 to reach the finals against Dangerfield who defeated Woodville 80 to 60.

Dangerfield won the State Class AA by downing Midland 57 to 55. The score was tied 55 all and Midland had the ball with 49 seconds and Shearrod shot a 20 footer and missed and Midland fouled and Dangerfield made the free throws and that was it.

In AAA Kirkpatrick of Fort Worth in the 1st round beat Bryan 58 to 53, Carthage lost to Galena Park of Houston 76 to 60. Kirkpatrick beat Galena Park 65 to 61 to win the State in AAA.

In class AAAA Kashmere Garden of Houston beat Marshall 68 to 46, in a close one Charlton Pollard of Beaumont edged I.M. Terrell of Ft. Worth (last year's champ) 56 to 54, and in the finals Charlton-Pollard eked out Kashmere Garden 58 to 55 for the 4-A State Championship.

SICK & SHUT-INS

Mrs. Edwina Woods is a patient at Methodist Hospital. Her son, George of Los Angeles, was here at her bedside.

Mrs. Martha Davis is also a patient at St Mary's Hospital. She is recuperating nicely at the present time.

Mrs. Carrie Sanders is on the sick list at her home, 211 Globe Ave.

Mr. S. Moore remains quite ill at his home at 2109 Elm Ave.

Rev. & Mrs. A.W. Wilson are attending Founder's Day this week, at Quinn College, at Waco, Texas. While there Rev Wilson will report a donation of $50.00 to the Library Fund. He will return this weekend.
