Russians Slay Nazis In Crimea

By The Associated Press
Adolf Hitler's Crimean armies were reported today to have lost 20,000 killed in a six-day battle at the approaches of Sevastopol, long-besieged Russian naval base, and Soviet dispatches listed an additional 13,900 German slain on other battlefields during the Christmas holidays.

With the steam-roller red army counteroffensive sweeping on unchecked, advices reaching London said the Russians had recaptured the strategic Oka river city of Kaluga, 110 miles southwest of Moscow. Kaluga is 65 miles northeast of Tula, where the Germans for weeks attempted to break through to Moscow.

Free French Retain Hold On Islands

ST. PIERRE, St. Pierre-Et-Miquelon, Dec. 26. (AP)—Free French seamen went about the business of organizing this barren Atlantic outpost today as a little but loyal ally of anti-axis powers which seemed reluctant to accept its services.

They were supported by 98 percent of the voters from the cod-fishing population of about 3,500 on the islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, 15 miles off Newfoundland.

The voters chose Free French rule—as against that of Vichy—in a plebiscite yesterday, one day after Vice Admiral Emilio Musler, commander of the Free French naval forces, had steam-rolled to seize the islands for Gen. Charles de Gaulle's forces.

Only ten opposing votes were cast. (The United States government was reliably reported to be endeavoring to restore the status quo of the islands in conformity with an agreement made recently with French authorities in Martinique to keep France's western Atlantic islands out of the war line-up.)

(The purpose of the Martinique agreement was to keep the Vichy government from moving farther toward the axis. The U. S. state department yesterday characterized the seizure as "an arbitrary action contrary to the agreement of all parties concerned and certainly without the prior knowledge or consent in any sense of the United States government.")

Burglar Snatches Sadler's Guns

AUSTIN, Dec. 26 (AP)—Railroad Commissioner Jerry Sadler today reported an unwelcome Christmas guest. It was a burglar who, disdaining silverware and jewelry, got off with a prized rifle and two pistols.

Bombs Dropped On Undefended City

MANILA, Dec. 26. (AP)—A two-way Japanese assault on Manila has intensified, with an artillery fight northwest of the capital and a tank battle to the southeast where Japanese pressure was increased and casualties were heavy, an army communique declared late today.

The war bulletin was the last issued from the United States armed forces of the Far East headquarters here before all staff officers left Manila, declared officially to be an open city to spare its residents further bombardment.

Japanese aerial activity over the city continued through most of the day, however, with one siren-sounded alarm after another.

The Japanese bombers appeared to be striking beyond the city itself at military bases nearby. Suburban Nichols air field was one of their objectives.

The army communique described aerial activity over the capital during the preceding 16 hours as "very brisk."

All soldiers and sailors had been moved from Manila by this afternoon in accordance with the announcement that the city was not defended. Anti-aircraft batteries were dismantled and unmovable military stores destroyed.

For the first time since the war started no tanks or other motorized equipment moved through the city streets.

The final war bulletin from the Manila headquarters said "there has been very heavy pressure by the enemy on the southeastern front" where the Japanese were attacking toward Manila from their Lamun Bay beachheads 55 to 75 miles from the capital.

"Tank battling on that front," the communique said, "has resulted in heavy casualties on both sides."

It repeated an earlier war bulletin that enemy action on the northern front, some 110 miles from Manila, was largely "heavy and concentrated artillery fire."

Despite the strength of the Japanese attacks the army declared the fighting was "going well" in all sectors and Francis B. Sayre, United States high commissioner, pledged that "we will fight to the last man."

Young Japs Fight With Poor Arms

By CLARK LEE
MANILA, Dec. 26 (AP)—Masses of Japanese troops — some of them boys of 15 to 18 years old and poorly equipped with .35 calibre guns — are dying in attacks on the Lingayen front as if simply accepting the inevitable.

An American officer who commands one of the beach defenses told me there was "no hysterical exultation" in the charge on the shore last Monday, when the major invasion began.

"They didn't charge, but crouched forward just a little bit," lifting their knees high in a sort of imitation goose step," he said.

"They kept coming forward in pairs, one directly behind the other. They were coming on to die and many of them did."

"They times one of our heavy machine-gun or rifle bullets killed two men at once."

"When hit, they just threw up their hands and fell backward as if accepting an inevitable fate."

"Some were poor quality khaki; others were in half uniforms and half civilian clothing."

The invaders carried .35 calibre rifles and about one-fourth of them had .35 calibre sub-machine guns."

The commander of the landing section said the .35 calibre bullet would not kill a man unless it struck a vital spot.

The battle in the Lingayen area started at 2 a. m. with an artillery duel between Japanese warships and American shore guns.

Opposing the Japanese were Americans and young Filipino troops who are being welded into a first class fighting force.

I spent four days in and around the fighting front, including a two-day hike over mountain trails after the Japanese cut the main road southward, forcing me to abandon and burn my automobile.

Part of the Japanese forces turned southward, and by Wednesday night, they had reached Pozorrubio and Binlunan on the main highway to Manila.

Townpeople spent a whole night putting it up, bringing their Yuletide display up to date.

PLENTY OF SILLY THINGS TOOK PLACE DURING OLD 1941, TOO

BY RAY PEACOCK
AP Feature Service Writer

Historians probably will skip over these facts, but 1941 was the year in which an Illinois convict asked transfer to a prison honor farm so that he could escape, Axel Witt of Racine complained he hadn't had a tax bill in 11 years, and a rookie at Fort Bliss requested "extension of my A.W.O.L."

It also was the year in which a Chicago man asked the missing persons bureau to search for his mother who left home one day in 1884 and which a horse in Copia, S. C., became uninvolved at the sight of a mule-drawn buggy and staged a sensational runaway.

Nothing was too foolish, preposterous, odd or ironical for 1941. The town of Orfordville, Wis., voted against sale of beer but approved sale of hard liquor. The stock of Faller Timber, Pa., by bringing them a son after 11 previous trips with daughters. Resourceful Jerry Adams of Lincoln, Neb., pruned a lemon tree by holding an angry alligator up to the branches. Steepjack L. T. Hill fell from a 100-foot church tower at Ellsworth, Wis., but needed neither the doctor nor undertaker at whose feet he landed.

A Kansas City sporting goods dealer was advised he legally could sell shotguns to minors, but not shotguns or cap pistols. Ten girls showed up at the Kansas City union station to kiss Tom Sawyer goodbye when he went into the Navy. John Paul Jones, 21, of Troy, N. Y., also joined the Navy.

A New York liquor store proprietor cashed a check signed by J. K. Null-a-void. A South Bend woman divorced the husband who previously had been her stepfather and father-in-law.

When $175 was stolen from Warden Edward Powell of the Camden (N.J.) county prison farm, he concluded "It was an outside job." Five girls from Bari Carroll's Vanities were invited to a Des Moines

Rodent Scampers Away As He Shoots Off Toe

FORT WORTH.—Fireman G. W. Ennis, a brave man, would rush into blazing infernos in the line of duty, but it's all right with him if he never has another encounter with a rat.

Ennis spied a huge rat in his garage one morning as he started to work. He went to the house and came back with his shotgun. Back in the garage he sighted the rat and blazed away.

When the smoke cleared, Ennis discovered he had shot away the tip of his right toe. He was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Fireman Ennis doesn't know what happened to the rat.

Burglar's Hunger Strike Broken By Psychology

PHILADELPHIA.—Jack Marks, confessed perpetrator of five burglaries, was doing all right with his hunger strike until police "punctured" his resistance.

Marks was taken to a hospital where a physician gave him a hypodermic of calcium gluconate. Immediately the prisoner began to eat ravenously, believing the drug had forced him to break his fast. Then he learned that all calcium gluconate could do was make him a little warm.

Downtown Stroller

The morning after the day before. Nobody got up this morning that we could see except a very few. GLADYS SMITH, bundled to the ears, was en route to work when we saw her . . .

R. B. BLISS was hot-footing it downtown and Mrs. T. A. ROBERTS skimmed by in her car. We could see no point in being out either but things being like they are we went to work . . .

Santa Claus got in a predicament at the BILL TATE household. Young TOMMY wrote the gentleman and asked him for a wagon and then his grandparents went ahead and got him one anyway. Seems the TATE family had to wire Santa not to bring that other wagon so TOMMY could enjoy the rest of the presents . . .

Since JACK PLATT of Lamesa is in officers training school for the navy at Alameda, Calif., he couldn't get home for the holiday. So Mrs. PLATT came here for her Christmas to be with the SKINNY PHILLIPSES . . .

The Texas Federation of Women's clubs has come out with a six-point program for every club to follow with regard to national defense. The six points include conservation of paper, envelopes, cardboard and newspapers. Also conservation of tin, saving of waste items, aid to Red Cross, systematic purchase of defense bonds and an alert attitude toward any subversive activities. Mrs. J. W. WALKER, Ft. Worth, drew up the program . . .

If the ladies follow this program to the letter the government will be getting a lot of that well-known cooperation . . .

Eighteen Cage Open Non-Stop Meet Today

Eight Clubs To Have Shot At Unbeaten
Title After First Round

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 26 (AP)—The all-college basketball tournament, in which the teams don't quit playing when they lose, opened today and before they put the cat out tonight, quintets from 18 colleges and universities will have been seen.

The four-day court marathon began narrowing down its field of probable winners with the first preliminary tilt this morning. For, although the losers keep right on playing through the final day in this dribble derby designed to furnish early season experience, the champion will emerge next Tuesday night without a single defeat to mar its record.

Before this sixth annual meet comes to an end, approximately 37 games will have been played. The tournament goes on tonight and tomorrow. The cages rest Sunday and resume play Monday and Tuesday.

Only eight teams will be left in the running after tonight's program which features two games in particular:

At 7:45 p. m., Coach Glen Rose's Arkansas University Razorbacks, almost perennial champions of the Southwest conference, root it out with Coach Tom Scott's wicked Warrensburg, Mo. Mules, co-titlists of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Immediately afterward, at 9 p. m., the idols of Oklahoma, Coach Henry Isa's Oklahoma A.-M. Cowboys, are favored in a game with the Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University.

Riddle Tries Hand At Cage Coaching

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 26 (AP)—The coach's bench of a semi-pro basketball team can get mighty hot, but Elmer Riddle, the Cincinnati Reds' pitcher-of-the-year, thinks it's still a snap compared to major league hurling.

Riddle, a red hot basketball enthusiast and still quite some shakes as a player, is trying his hand at managing and coaching a Columbus bottling company (Nehi) team. So far the boys have played 200 ball—quite a way behind Riddle's individual performance in the pitcher's box last summer when he won 19 and lost four—but Riddle thinks they'll pick up.

"Coaching basketball is a snap compared to pitching in the big leagues," he says. "My boys are veterans and know the fine points of the game. My main worry is substitutions at the strategic time. In baseball you have to figure out the weakness of each batter. In basketball you usually can stop a team by bottling up one or two players."

Riddle has been associated with the team four years, and played as a forward for three seasons. Last year, fearing injury of an arm which probably is worth $250,000, he quit active participation, but he couldn't stay away from the hardwood.

If This Guy Tackles Like He Tackles Milk — Wow!

BLOOMING, Miss., Dec. 26 (AP)—Ernie Blandin, 250-pound Tulane tackle, has set a milk consuming record among the Eastern all-stars in practice here. In a luncheon contest with John Rokisky, tall Duquesne end, Blandin put down 11 half-pints. His opponent stopped at six.

Rose Bowl Foes Refuse To Accept Underdog Role

DURHAM, N. C., Dec. 26. (AP)—A rosy confidence prevailed at the two Rose Bowl football camps today as Duke and Oregon State players tucked away their Christmas presents and resumed drills for the transplanted classic to be played here before 55,000 fans on New Year's Day.

Although twice beaten Oregon State is on the short end of 2-to-1 odds in Durham, both Coach Lon Stiner and Captain Martin Chaves refuse to accept the underdog role.

"I don't know anything about Duke's team, but I do know something about my boys," said Stiner. "Nobody managed to score more than two touchdowns against us in 1941 and we don't intend to start the new year on the wrong foot."

Chaves, who will enter the U. S. air corps shortly after the game, was even more outspoken.

"We feel," he said, "that a lot of people around here are going to be mighty surprised. Ever since we hit North Carolina last Wednesday, people have been telling us about how tough Duke is supposed to be.

"Alright — so they talk. But what are we supposed to be? Pushovers? We've met tough teams before and we were tougher than most of them.

"We figure Duke has a fine team.

Cat's Out Of The Bag— Delicate Dell Predicts Tulsa Over Tech Raiders

EL PASO, Dec. 26. (AP)—The cat's out of the bag—it's Tulsa University over Tech in the Sun Bowl (Sun Bowl) game on New Year's Day. Maybe that comes under the heading of aid and comfort to the enemy, same being Henry Franks of Tulsa, and maybe it comes in the column for counter-propaganda—because no less an authority than Dell Morgan, coach of the Tech Red Raiders, contributes that forecast for the New Year's Day meeting between his boys and the Golden Hurricane of Tulsa.

Whatever else it may be, it is news. Because Delicate Dell has a reputation as a forecaster, although generally he runs counter to putting his boys on the short end of a deal.

"Texas Tech 6, Tulsa 13," was Dell's concise prediction.

"Tech," he added in response to inquiry, "is as ready as possible with both starting guards out of the game."

Whether Dell is needing himself or Franks, it becomes necessary to look at the record of Morgan's forecasts. For instance, when Tech played Oklahoma A. and M. this season, Dell guessed the Raiders would win by a couple of touchdowns. They did, 16 to 6. There have been other examples of canny Morgan forecasting.

The Sun Bowl clash pits two of the west's greatest eleven, and in football it cannot be overlooked in consideration of other larger and more spectacular of the day's bowl tilts.

The Raiders from Lubbock won nine games this season, losing only to Miami University. In offense and defense, Tech ranked at or near the nation's top. The Raiders are masters of the "T" formation, they are fast with at least seven 11-second backs, they are big, and they like to pass.

Tulsa is champion of the Missouri Valley conference, and the Hurricane is ranked as one of the nation's best power teams. Reports from Tulsa tell of heavy drilling against Tech speed and deception, and its "T."

Vulcan Bowl Tilt
Due To Clear Up
Negro Grid Title

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 26 (AP)—Birmingham's Vulcan Bowl game New Year's Day between Morris Brown of Atlanta and Langston University of Oklahoma should aid materially in clearing up the claimants to the national negro football championship.

Morris Brown's Wolverines have won 16 straight games during the past two seasons, are undepicted champions of the southern intercollegiate conference, were recognized as national title-holders last year, and have been placed at the head of the class for both years by the Dickinson rating system.

In addition, the Wolverines handed North Carolina college, colored intercollegiate athletic association champion, its only defeat of the season.

Langston finished second to Prairie View in the fast Southwest athletic conference, and the two battled for a tie in their regular season game.

Mitchell Ginnings
Pass 30,000 Bales

COLORADO CITY, Dec. 26 (Sp1) Without benefit of whatever increases there had been in ginnings at Westbrook and Buford, Mitchell county's cotton harvest total had moved past the coveted 30,000-bale mark by Tuesday afternoon.

Total for the county at that time, with Westbrook and Buford receipts counted the same as last week, was 30,038 bales.

Colorado City gins had received 11,098 bales, Lorraine 10,355 bales. Westbrook's receipts were counted as 8,610 bales, Buford as 2,980 bales.

Pro Tennis Aces Start Grand Tour

Budge, Perry, Kovacs,
Riggs To Include 80
Cities On Schedule

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—Four strictly professional tennis players and an amateur promoter will set out tonight to prospect for gold in their tennis hills.

There is every indication that the four players — Don Budge, Fred Perry, Bobby Riggs and Frank Kovacs — will make out all right. Alexis Thompson, wealthy young New York sportsman who operates a thriving drug business and a major league pro football club, has promised them $100,000 for the tour and there is no doubt about his ability to pay.

Thompson may come out with a profit, too. He insists he went into the thing to make money, and he has arranged a schedule on which he expects that it will be hard to lose much.

There aren't any long trips between exhibitions and in most of the 80 cities where the troupe will perform between now and next May Thompson will collect guarantees that run well above expenses.

The tour probably is the nearest thing to the desired open championship that yet has been devised. Riggs and Kovacs were ranked 1-2 in amateur tennis for 1941 and Budge and Perry are the top pros.

For tonight's opener at Madison Square Garden Budge will oppose Kovacs, the "magnificent screwball" whose antics on and off the courts have provided excellent publicity material for the tour.

Riggs and Perry clash in the second singles match and the newcomers play the veterans in doubles.

Lookin' 'em Over

By Jack Douglas

Charlie Wheelchel, Big Spring's pitching ace during the 1941 season of the West Texas-New Mexico baseball league, is one of the Californians who are in the thick of blackouts, etc., on the West Coast.

Charlie is located at Harbor City, near Long Beach. Charlie wasn't quite in the army draft age but is doing his part in the shipyards along the Pacific.

Hank Poltras is another Big Spring Bomber who is currently taking part in the hurry and bustle of West Coast defense work.

Hank, at last account was employed in the shipbuilding yards, turning into good account his off-season trade, mechanic. Hank's one of those who is due to join Bomber Pete Zmitrovich in the fighting forces.

Al Zigelman, Bomber catcher, was working with Wheelchel in the shipyards, but is one of those scheduled for military service before too long — if not already.

Willard Ramedell, Big Spring knuckler ball maestro, has declared he's getting ready to take off for the eastern baseball circuit come spring. Willard's married and has two boys, putting him far down the list of prospective soldiers.

Right now, Ramedell has one of those white collar jobs at a local oil mill.

Hayden Greer, keeping in trim with a fast brand of roustabouting near Fortsnan will likely go into baseball competition next season, since he's in the 3-A draft classification.

Howard Green, Abilene sports scribe, holds forth the better points of Hardin Simmons to Gallop'n' Gus White, Lamesa's stellar grid performer. Seems as though a bang-up riding academy and all the essentials are part of the H-SU plant — a big thing in the eyes of the Lamesa polo-football combination. Also, Gus' uncle was one of the Cowboys' baseball stars.

There's just one hitch in the prospect of Gus going to Hardin-Simmons — he's Texas Aggie bound, at last account.

Ted Schroder Seeded No. 1
In Sugar Bowl Net Meet

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26 (AP)—Ted Schroder, national doubles champion, has been seeded No. 1 in the Sugar Bowl tennis tournament opening Saturday. Wayne Sabin is second, Gardner Mulloy third and Bryan "Bixy" Grant fourth. Seventeen are to compete.

Lubang Island is chief of the island cluster commanding shipping routes to Manila.

Mid-west 11's To Hold Edge During War, --- Crowley

RAY ST. LOUIS, Miss., Dec. 26 (AP)—Coach Jim Crowley of Fordham's Sugar Bowl team believes football's glory road will be blocked to eastern teams for the duration of the war, and Midwestern clubs—with big squads that can stand more pruning by Uncle Sam—will dominate the grid scene.

"We'll have football," said the coach whose team is training here for its New Year's Day engagement with Missouri. "But some of us will be hurt."

He pointed out that more than a dozen of his players already had signed up with the navy air corps and were awaiting call. Several others are within the draft age.

"That makes a big difference in a squad of 40," he continued. "It looks like this year is our last year near the top for a while."

"The teams that will feel the draft least are the big state universities of the Middle West. They have squads of 80 or more and can afford to lose a few men. Those states are thickly populated and the people are loyal to their states. A fellow from Minnesota who goes to play for Michigan might as well not plan to return home."

"Notre Dame also should still be outstanding. They can call out 250 good football players."

"It will be tough on the East, where small squads are the rule. I don't suppose the squads here in the South are as big as those of the Middle West."

Scribes Consider -- Increased Grid Scoring Was Top Trend Of Year

NEW YORK, Dec. 26. (AP)—A year ago the football fathers wrote into the code book two new rules, both designed to step up scoring and answer the offense's call for help.

The two rules, one calling for unlimited substitutions and the other permitting fourth down passes inside the 20-yard line without danger of the ball going back to 20 if the ball power as shown by the few unbeaten major schools. Also mentioned were such football trends as general increase in attendance; the Syracuse Y-formation with its reverse center; quieting of demands for reforms in conduct of the sport; accuracy of passing and more aerials in college competition; faster game as the result of the new rules; more good backs; increased interest in night games; coaches master minding from the bench via the new substitution rule; steady decline of field goals, especially drop kicking; use of more power plays to score; development of defensive and offensive specialists; the decline of Pacific coast football and increased interest despite it; rise of Southern teams and good showings of Big Nine and Southwest averages.

The only other developments that received the consideration of more than one writer were, the increased interest in bowling, especially among women and children; the number of athletes joining up with Uncle Sam with the resultant talk of permitting freshmen to participate in varsity sports; growth of winter sports, particularly skiing; continued interest in night football and the increased interest in participant sports such as golf and bowling.

Singapore grew with commerce that resulted from the opening of the Suez Canal.

S'West-Big Ten All-Star Clash Is Proposed

TEMPLE, Tex., Dec. 26 (AP)—Noble Doss, University of Texas football player, said today a football game had been proposed between stars of the Southwest conference and the Big Ten but that it all was still in the formative state.

"The announcement that a game was proposed between Texas and Minnesota players who had finished their eligibility was a mistake," Doss, who expects to serve as an agent in obtaining players from the Southwest, added. "This would not be allowed by the two universities. We could not play under the name of the University of Texas."

Doss said Houston interests were backing the game and it would be several days before anything definite was decided.

Players would receive a share of the gate receipts, Doss said. Those taking part would be boys who had finished their football eligibility in the Southwest conference.

among women and children; the number of athletes joining up with Uncle Sam with the resultant talk of permitting freshmen to participate in varsity sports; growth of winter sports, particularly skiing; continued interest in night football and the increased interest in participant sports such as golf and bowling.

America Exhibits Economic Might In Industrial Revival

Ending Record Year, Oil Industry Expects Another

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 25 (AP)—The oil industry is ending a record breaking year and plunging forward into what is expected to be another.

After the first World war, the late Lord Curzon declared: "The allies floated to victory on a sea of oil."

The United States, biggest crude oil producer in the world, again is readying its industry to meet war demands. Petroleum Coordinator Ickes has set up a system of production rates for each oil producing state to meet "the mounting war demands for petroleum with better balanced production."

Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, in a recent interstate oil compact commission meeting called for an increase of 1,000,000 barrels daily in crude oil production to fuel the war effort. To stimulate increased drilling, he advocated a gradual price increase in crude prices to $1.60 a barrel, a figure he described as "parity with other basic commodities."

The demand for petroleum products during the year has increased steadily. For the period ending Dec. 20, the Oil and Gas Journal reported the total United States production as 1,323,525,275 barrels, compared with 1,204,422,429 barrels for the same period in 1940, a gain of almost 80,000,000 barrels.

The daily production for the nation for the week ended Dec. 20 was estimated at 4,300,575 barrels, but Thompson warned that consumption could pass the 5,000,000 barrel a day mark with the expansion of the war effort.

Probably the biggest news of the year in the industry was the appointment of Secretary of Interior Ickes as petroleum coordinator May 31.

Following a tanker diversion from the coastal trade to British use, the coordinator warned that a gasoline shortage was impending along the Atlantic seaboard. But gasoline sales went up in that area and in the rest of the nation. A pipe line from Texas to New York was projected, but steel priorities were refused. Oil companies turned to tank car movement of gasoline and filling stations were closed early.

Return of some of the diverted tankers was effected and late in October the shortage was declared by Ickes to have been "virtually erased."

What effect the changed status of an America at war will make in the east coast situation remains to be seen. Some oil men believed that should heavy losses of coastwise tankers occur, the Texas-New York pipe line project might be revived.

In the closing weeks of the year, the war reached the average motorists although most of them failed to notice it. To conserve tear-ethyl lead, the octane rating of premium and standard grades of gasoline was lowered two to seven points.

"The gasoline they're getting now still is as good or better than the average motor needs, however," commented one refinery man.

A stepup was in order of 100 octane fuel production for warplanes. The United States is the largest producer of such super fuel for aviation uses, a fuel that is equivalent to adding 25 per cent to performance, compared to warplanes powered with ordinary aviation gasoline.

Time purchases of automobiles by consumers call for use constantly of one and a half billion dollars of credit, says the census bureau. Average sized loans on new cars are $723, and on used cars, $445.

Defense Work Fills Plants During 1941

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
AP General Financial Editor.

NEW YORK—The economic might of America begins a new year swiftly forming itself into a modern military phalanx of puissance to span oceans, envelop continents, and strike with a cyclonic force never before made by man. A $85,000,000,000 defense program, which had grown swiftly, often uncertainly, during a year and a half, overnight began a $150,000,000,000 victory campaign on Dec. 8 a few hours after bombs fell on Pearl Harbor.

It is a national effort to stagger the imagination, an effort that must be reckoned in astronomical figures—six times the United States' military cost of World War I.

But America is accustomed to stagger the imagination. War today is a contest of mystically complex machines, from huge blast furnaces to tiny precision instruments accurate to a millionth of an inch, of operators and workers of high and varied skills, of initiative, imagination and endurance. It calls for the utmost performance of a whole people, growers of corn, miners of coal, molders of metal, drivers of trucks, research workers, managers and administrators, as well as soldiers and generals.

What is the military potential of America? This nation, genius of mass production and technology, generator of half the world's mechanical horsepower, builder of three quarters of its motor cars, producer of two-thirds of its petroleum, and two-fifths of its steel, all this with only one-seventeenth of the world's people, will indelibly record the answer in history.

America's military preparation, begun seriously with the shock of the fall of France, hurled forward through the early months of 1941, accompanied by periods of uncertainty and bitter controversy, but the bombs falling over Pearl Harbor unified the nation over night.

Labor conflicts were hastily patched up, and the National Association of Manufacturers, in recent years one of the most vocal critics of the government, wired President Roosevelt:

"Industry will build two battle-ships for every one that sinks. . . . It will blacken the sky with planes. . . ."

Wall Street accepted war with far less financial disturbance than has frequently resulted from purely domestic troubles in the past several years.

And industrial and financial America realized full well that it meant grueling and grinding work, crushing taxation, severe curtailment or stoppage of much civilian activity, going without many things of everyday life once thought essential, sweeping regimentation.

Out of the efforts of the past year and a half, the nation had already required a sort of framework for wartime economy. Much of the trying period of blueprint drawing, tooling up, trying and testing, was past.

Already, airplane production has been reaching a point where the entire estimated plane force of Japan could be duplicated in two months, and a time not many months distant could be seen when American and British plane output would be three or four times that of the entire Axis powers. Already ships are being built better and faster than in World War I.

But still only a beginning has been made. Actual expenditures for arms thus far are only $15,000,000,000. In 1942, we must spend much more, in 1943, perhaps as much as $80,000,000,000. Today, we are expending about 20 per cent of our national effort on arms, and to match the intensity of the efforts of our enemies, must increase it to 50, perhaps 60 per cent.

With our superior potential, is such an effort necessary? Definitely yes, say our top strategists, if we are to catch up with our enemies, who have been preparing for years.

Can we stand an expenditure of $80,000,000,000 annually? The basic facts are these: Our national income is now running, says the Department of Commerce, at the rate of $85,000,000,000 annually, more than 14 per cent above 1929. It has been rising rapidly, has more than doubled since 1923. The rate of increase may be curtailed, as more rigid price controls are applied—essential in a period of such activity to keep costs from going out of sight—and as civilian industry is curtailed. But if the figure rises to $120,000,000,000 in 1943 then such an expenditure as proposed would take 50 per cent. That would seem to be possible on the basis of experience in other lands.

Civilian Defense Needs You

Youth Raises Cain, But Fails To Get In Army

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24 (AP)—Gall McCaughey tried his darndest to get into the army today, but failed despite his vigorous protests because he is one quarter of an inch shy of the required five feet in height.

"Oh, nuts," he told Lt. W. W. Widdowson, the doctor at the army recruiting station here. "What's a quarter of an inch between friends? Come on, gimme a break. Pass me."

"I can't do that," replied the lieutenant. "Army rules are army rules. You're only 4 ft. 11 3/4 inches."

"But those Japs aren't a heck of a lot bigger than me," wailed the 15-year-old kid from Newportville, Pa. "Who's the boss around here?"

He barged into the office of Lt. Col. Frederick Schoenfeld before the doctor could stop him.

"Look kid," said the colonel. "Go upstairs and try to get into the navy."

"Nuts," cracked McCaughey. "I was up there three times. And three times I got thrown out."

The "kid" turned away. "Ah, gee," he said. "What the h—, I think I'll try to get in the merchant marine—if they'll take me."

Schools Inspected In Martin County

STANTON, Dec. 20 (Sp1)—E. F. White, ex-official county superintendent, and E. H. Boulter, Lubbock, deputy state superintendent, completed their visits to schools of Martin county last week as Boulter approved teachers' aid of $2,548 and transportation aid of $11,888.

The deputy suggested to school heads that they pursue as economic an administrative course as possible during the period of emergency.

Brother Of Local Woman Is Lost

Mrs. Clarence Allen, 503 Washington Bldg., has received word that her brother, Raymond Garrison of California, is reported missing by the navy department.

Garrison was stationed on the battleship Arizona, sunk in the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Defense Course Opens At Stanton

STANTON, Dec. 20 (Sp1)—Sixteen out-of-school youth were enrolled here this week as the defense course in auto and tractor mechanics was launched with Bill Ehrbridge as instructor.

Initial work included the overhauling of a tractor and an automobile in addition to odd-job repair work. Martin county farmers may have their cars or tractors overhauled by the class by paying for parts.

Object of the course is to train farm youth in the care, operation and repair of motorized machinery. Pinch of the war program will make it increasingly difficult to secure new machinery and parts, hence the launching of the training program here.

Negroes Held In Probe Of Knifing, Shooting Escapades

Three negroes were being held by officers Monday in connection with the knifing and shooting of four others Saturday night.

Jimmie Turner and Charles Henry Fisher were in a local hospital for treatment of knife wounds and a negro was being held in connection with the cutting affair.

Two negroes, alleged by officers to have plotted off a ceiling shooting exhibition with pistols by shooting wildly into a crowded room, were held for questioning. Messie Smith and T. J. Smith were in a hospital for gunshot wounds in an arm and hip.

Ginnings Reach 43,000 Bales

Approximately 43,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Howard county this year, an estimate Saturday evening showed.

Big Spring gins had turned out a total of 19,835, and their output is usually about 45 percent of that for the entire county.

A flurry of ginnings had the local gins handling 100 bales per day or better during the past week, but ginnings expected the movement to slow down again after Christmas. It is estimated that one to three thousand more bales will be ginned.

Judge Collings Speaks Before Martin Teachers

STANTON, Dec. 20 (Sp1)—District Judge Cecil C. Collings, Big Spring, delivered the principal address when the Flower Grove school entertained the Martin County Teachers' association and county trustees.

A one-act play, "Ladies Alone," was presented by the speech I class and the group sang Christmas carols. Welcome to the association was given by Connie Douglas and Mrs. Nolan M. Robnett, court-responded. G. F. Bass introduced the chief speaker. The Flower Grove school closed out its activities before the holidays with a Christmas tree program Friday evening with the primary grades furnishing the program.

Students Participate In Skating Party

STANTON, Dec. 20 (Sp1)—Room mothers of the sophomore class of the Stanton high school entertained Thursday evening with a skating party at the school gym.

Room mothers who were hostesses were Mrs. Clayton Burnam, Mrs. Morris Zimmerman, and Mrs. Frank Dyson. Refreshments were served to Francis Burnam, Dorothy Renfro, Zylphia Rose Neely, Dorothy Davis, Jennie Morris, Roger Southall, Thomas Morris, Barbara Embell, Marguerite King, Cuida Church, Hardin Zimmerman, Layman Baker, J. B. Zingle, Welland Atchison, Cleland Atchison, Frank Dyson, Jr., Sue Zimmerman, and Mr. Cox, the sponsor.

Ex-University Of Texas Teacher Dies

WEATHERFORD, Dec. 22 (AP)—Major William Tillery Andrews, University of Texas teacher, died suddenly today at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. Andrews.

He arrived here Saturday to spend the holidays.

Born in Parker county, Major Andrews graduated from the University of Texas and served through the first World War. He remained in the army until 1932 when he was placed on the officers' reserve list. He had taught at the university for four years.

It's Everybody's Responsibility, Do Your Part

Christmas is past, and with it the climax to one of—if not the busiest autumn seasons we have ever known. And now that the peak of the rush is past, we have time to do some clear thinking about what might be ahead.

Of course, none of us know that 1942 has ahead in good and bad tidings, what sort of a year it will be for business, what it will hold for us in sacrifice and sorrow. But we do know that it will be a year with new and peculiar problems, for we are at war.

Shortly the public probably will be invited to participate in the civilian defense training program. To some these inticative plans may seem far-fetched. We must remember, however, that all of air raid precautions was discounted and ridiculed a few months ago. Since then folks on coastal points have known what it means to hear an alarm scream.

In all probability attacks may be a long time ever getting this far inland—and indeed, we all are determined that they shall never get far in any part of our homeland. But it is against the remotest of possibilities that the civilian defense program is designed.

We must be ready for anything. The quicker and the more thoroughly we do get ready for any eventuality, the stronger we will be. If this spirit is followed throughout the nation, the less likely we will ever be called upon to throw our full resources into the civilian defense program because we will be a stronger, more united and more determined people.

It is the duty of every person to inquire about a place in the civilian defense program when the proper time comes. It may be that not everyone who offers his services should be called for, and having been called, try to do his or her best level best to perform the task right.

Annual production of razors in United States factories includes 10,450,000 safety razors, 747,500 dry-shavers, 75,000 straight-edge and others, according to census bureau figures. Yearly production of safety razor blades amounts to nearly two billion (1,950,770,246).

Man About Manhattan—Bravery Is Born And Bred Into Young Men Of United States

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—I see the kids coming out of the recruiting stations, their eyes lit by an inner light, their heads adorned with a sort of spiritual cockade as they get ready, cheerfully, for the dirty business at hand.

I see the older men on the street corners, in the restaurants and on the subways and ferryboats, dangerously determined, their eyes touched by a cold anger as they privately and collectively re-assess their articles of faith and prepare for the things that are ahead.

And I think, "This is good. This is pretty swell. It's the way it ought to be. I haven't seen anybody who was afraid, not even when the first air raid warnings came. But then, when you think about it, what other reaction would be possible of men whose granddaddies were the Bowery boys and the Texas panhandlers and the Georgia planters and the Pennsylvania farmers who saw Shilo and who were at Gettysburg and Cold Harbor?"

Times change, and wars with them, but not the mettle of the men who come out of the Kansas wheatfields or the Virginia valleys.

I'll show you what I mean. I'll take you back to a day at Kenansaw Mountain, where you can see it plain, where something old and courtly existed on both sides and still remains in the kids of today who are ready to go to war with a shout.

On Kenansaw Mountain that day the Confederates were heavily entrenched. When the Federals came against them, they came with their battleflags. The big guns on both sides began to chew at the opposing forces. And then something happened that I am going to let Stanley F. Horn describe for you. Mr. Horn is a Tennessean and a historian. He lives on Golf Club Lane, in Nashville. On page 336 of his great biography of "The Army of Tennessee," he says:

"To add to the terrors of the battle, the woods caught fire and some of the Federal wounded were burned horribly as they lay helplessly exposed to the twin dangers of incineration and death from the cross fire of the opposing armies. Colonel W. H. Martin, of the 1st Arkansas, Cleburn's division, appalled at their chastly plight, tied a handkerchief to a ramrod, and, leaping to the parapet, offered a truce.

"We won't fire a gun until you get them away," he yelled to the foemen huddled behind the protecting rocks and fallen trees only a few yards away, "but be quick! The Federals, of course, gladly accepted the chance to save their wounded from the fire, and before the truce was ended a Federal major, in appreciation of Colonel Martin's generous gesture, presented him his brace of fine pistols."

I ask you now, have we anything to fear when our armed forces are manned by the sons of men like that?

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—Disney Plans Interesting Productions For Next Year

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—They're trying to make France's Jean Gabin a "one-take" artist in "Moon Tide"—because Jean's newly acquired English is best the first time, progressively worse in the repeats. . . .

Disney's list of things-to-do includes "Peter Pan" and "Bambi" and "Uncle Remus" but not "Til Eulenspiegel" which he wanted to do also. There's a reason: rights to "Eulenspiegel" are held in Nazi Germany. Disney's agents reported back that a condition of sale would be that no "non-Aryan" artists should be associated with the production. Disney cabled: "Tell them to forget it. This is America."

Jack Carson plays a cop in "Arsenic and Old Lace." For a month he had been passing a certain motorcycle officer on Ventura Boulevard on his way to work. Carson is usually careful of his speed, but the other day he was late. His motorcycle pal with whom he daily exchanged a friendly salute, gave chase.

"Listen, officer," said Jack. "I've observed the speed laws all my life. You know something about that. But today I'm late to work, see? And I'm going to speed, see? And if you want to give me a ticket, get on that bike and follow."

I'm telling about it merely because I like to believe a little in miracles. Our Mr. Carson got away with it!

It was on the set of "Out of the Frying Pan" and for a minute I thought Stirling Hayden was back in our midst. E. H. Griffith, the director who started Hayden in "Virginia," had this lad in tow also—Jim Brown. Jim is 21, out of Waco, Tex., and Baylor University. He was playing here in the Pacific Southwest tennis tournament when Henry Willson, agent, took him over to Paramount. By coincidence or otherwise, it was about the time Stirling Hayden left our town to go back to the sea again. Paramount signed him.

After seeing "Lefty's" test, I was struck more by his Robert Cummings quality—a sort of lightness combined with sincerity—than by the Hayden angle. . . . "Lefty" is a long-hair, the kind that tempts barbers to throw out nets. . . . "I've got to be," he says. "My head's too small to stand a real haircut. . . ."

Department of Practically Utter Confusion: Miss Ann Gillie, who will be 15 in February, is playing a romantic leading role in "Tough As They Come." It's at Universal, the same studio at which, in Deanna Durbin's "Nice Girl," a few months back, she played a 12-year-old. When she was 13, she played an 18-year-old debutante in "My Love Came Back," but in "Mr. Dynamite" she was 12 again.

This all puts Ann in a tough way. "When I'm called to studios for interviews for parts, I never know whether to act my age or to try to guess what they want. Sometimes I'm confused. I've cultivated two voice registers to fit the age limits usually required of me. Sometimes I forget and talk like a 12-year-old when I should be using the speech and tone pitch of 15. . . ."

Boom Comes To Alaska

By SAM JACKSON

AP Feature Service Write.

JUNEAU, Alaska—The situation in the Pacific created a boom in Alaska which rivaled the great gold rush of the nineties even before war broke out.

The Army and Navy striving to make up lost time in creation of strategic bases, shipped men and materials northward this year in a volume unequalled since the heyday of Klondike.

The number of armed forces in Alaska is a military secret. But figures disclosed by the federal employment service indicate that civilian workmen, plus their families and persons moving in for collateral business enterprises, almost equal the 18,000 men who went over Chilkoot Pass in the greatest previous boom—that of 1898.

This does not sound big in the United States proper, but it must be remembered that Alaska's population in 1940 was only 71,911. The largest town in the territory, Juneau, has only 5,748 people.

An example of the snowballing boom is the Saxton family of Anchorage. Saxton senior built a skating rink. Then he sent for his wife. Five daughters and a future son-in-law came too. Such migration as this does not show up in employment figures.

Big Order

The navy is building three major bases at Dutch Harbor, Kodiak and Sitka. The army has several major developments including a base at Anchorage and Fairbanks. In addition to these there are many smaller projects, largely airfields. The Civil Aeronautics Authority has its hand in on some of them.

The land to be protected by these, counting peninsula and islands, sprawls nearly as far and wide as the United States itself. The net area is 584,000 square miles, about one-fifth of the mother country's.

Money To Burn

Wages on these projects have been high compared with those in the states. Rush conditions have allowed much extra work at time-and-a-half or double time. An electrician recently exhibited a $305 check for a week's work.

At one remote airfield the minimum wage for expert mechanics was $5 for eight hours. At another field a welder was offered exactly double his current earnings at Juneau.

The great Alaska Juneau gold mine stated in its financial report that a slump in production was caused by workmen being lured away to highly paid defense work.

Tapering Off

The territorial employment service nevertheless has warned hopeful workmen not to rush north. Distance between the scattered outposts of civilization are great and both travel and living are expensive. Furthermore, the service says, hours are being stabilized and the big overtime pay is diminishing.

Added to the defense jackpot of 1941 has been another golden shower—a salmon fishing season in southeastern Alaska of unprecedented richness. Indians with a puffing little outboard motor have made $3,000 to $5,000 in a few weeks work in some cases. The Scandinavians who own the larger boats have found themselves on easy street. And the golden harvest has been shared by the rank and file of cannery workers.

A Change of View

The average well-informed resident wishes his countrymen "outside" would do just one thing—stop looking at the globe sideways and look at it from the top. The school-taught geography, it is contended, shows Alaska to be way up near the North Pole and shows Japan and potential enemies in Europe to be far across the ocean.

Look at the world from the top—with the North Pole in the middle of the picture and you'll see how close "Uncle Sam's attic" is to both Japan and the coast of occupied Norway. Russians have flown over the North Pole to Alaska and even continued non-stop to California. In fact, some Alaskans refer to the Arctic ocean as the "Mediterranean of the future."

Auto Crash Fatal To Two

Belle Phillips, 29, Big Spring, and J. J. (Bud) Mahoney, 34, Lorraine, were injured fatally in a car-truck crash 12 miles east of Monahans at 6:45 a. m. Tuesday.

Cortis (Corky) Mahoney, 31, Houston, brother of the dead man, and Meryle Burgamy, 27, Big Spring, were hurt. Mahoney perhaps critically. Both were in a Monahans hospital.

Investigations indicated that the car in which the four were riding plowed into the rear of a truck which it was attempting to pass just as an approaching car loomed ahead.

Mahoney succumbed while en route to a hospital and Miss Phillips died at 8:35 a. m.

Reports from Monahans indicated that the local party had been visiting with Mike Moore, formerly of Big Spring, and was en route home at the time of the crash.

Miss Phillips, an employee of the Youth Beauty shop, had made her home here for several years, although her legal residence was in Tuscola. A brother, Herman, was to arrive in Monahans to take the body back to Tuscola for burial, said Walter Harwell, Monahans undertaker.

Her mother, Mrs. C. F. Phillips, Tuscola, a brother, Herman Phillips and a sister, Mrs. Boyd Carter, Tuscola, and an uncle, W. L. Fawell, stopped here Tuesday noon while en route to Monahans.

Mahoney's body was to be taken to Lorraine where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mahoney, reside. For many years he was a resident of Coahoma, was a telephone linesman there before going to work for the Sinclair Oil Co. Until recently he had been stationed by that company in Mississippi but was being transferred to another state. Among survivors was a sister in Monahans, whom he probably had visited.

Locals Clout Lamesa Polo Crew, 9-2

Big Spring's polo team had a field day at Lamesa's expense yesterday, blasting out a 9 to 2 victory in a contest that had the locals scoring from all angles of the Lamesa grounds.

Top point of the game came when Dr. M. H. Bennett, Big Spring's number one man, sent a long snail neatly between the posts. Gus White, Jr., came through with a scoring spree on his own hook.

Although definite arrangements will not be made until Tuesday, the Big Springers are booked to vie with a Lamesa club the day before Christmas, taking part in a double header polo show. Next Sunday, the local riders are scheduled to again journey to Lamesa.

Big Spring's lineup yesterday included Bennett, 1; Lewis, 2; White, 3; Rip Smith, 4. On the Lamesa roster were Clarence Schaborn, Jr., 1; Sol Cleveland, 2; Byron Fulkerson, 3; John Dublin, Jr., 4.

Ocean Island is half way between Australia and the Hawaiian Islands.

Here's How Men Acted In Hawaii

HONOLULU, Dec. 23 (AP)—Graphic first hand narratives of what happened at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7 were told with dramatic coolness today by three naval officers who had leading parts in the titanic defense of giant warships against a sky full of Japanese planes that pounced on them suddenly "from out of nowhere."

These are some highlights of the stories they told: Divebombers, contested only by anti-aircraft fire, pulled out of their dives as low as 500 feet and dropped bombs that ripped men's uniforms from their bodies with blasts that "reached like stiff wind through foliage."

Men shielded ammunition with their bodies when the heat from many fires became perilously intense. During the early morning attack, a Marine said to an officer: "Full this piece of metal out of my back." It was a bomb splinter so hot the officer had to use a rag to remove it. The Marine returned to his machine gun and remained on duty until late that afternoon.

One captain, horribly wounded, refused to leave the bridge of his ship and commanded the burning vessel until he died. Then the other officers who had remained with him swung hand over hand on a rope to another ship.

A lieutenant commander who took charge of his ship after the executive officer was knocked overboard by a blast, said, "We were just finishing breakfast at 7:35 when the alarm sounded over the loud speaker: "Japanese planes are attacking us. To your battle stations."

"I went toward the bridge. The captain was just ahead of me. Very heavy explosions were soon shaking the ship and she started taking a list. Communications were disrupted and we established a messenger service. X X X

"Bombs were coming down. The captain groaned and said, 'I've been hit.' He staggered a few seconds and dropped to his knees. I asked, 'Where are you hit?' and he said, 'In the stomach.' I saw he was mortally wounded but sent for the pharmacist to give first aid.

"By this time fires had broken out in various parts of the ship. I was concerned for the safety of the magazine and had some plugged and some flooded. "Searching parties were organized and the wounded were put into small boats. Practically all of the wounded were taken off."

"I was anxious to get the captain to a hospital and get a stretcher and lines. The captain emphatically refused. He said he wanted to stay where he was. "There were huge oil fires in the water and it was a dangerous situation for surface ships."

"All this time the ship was subjected to aerial torpeding, heavy dive bombing and also to high horizontal bombing and machine gun strafing. "We were under constant attack until 9:15 in the morning. There must have been a total of 70 planes."

"The aerial torpedoes were most effective. The pilots came in very close—about 30 or 40 feet above the water—and were very skillful. They didn't care much, just so they got their attack in, but I didn't see a single so-called suicide pilot deliberately fly into the ship."

Here 'n There

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Halley consider the letter they received Monday a mighty fine Christmas present. It was from their son, Robert, on a cruiser which was stationed at Pearl Harbor. Robert, who was graduated from Annapolis in February, has been at Hawaii for about 10 months. In a letter posted Dec. 10, he wrote that he was all right.

Two young men—possibly much younger in spirit than their years would indicate—were instructed to report to city court Monday after officers had picked them up for riding around the downtown district on motorcycles and firing Roman candles indiscriminately.

And then there is the pair of brethren of the road who had to be told that a local church was no flop house. They had tried to bed down for the night in a church building; before police explained that this was not to be.

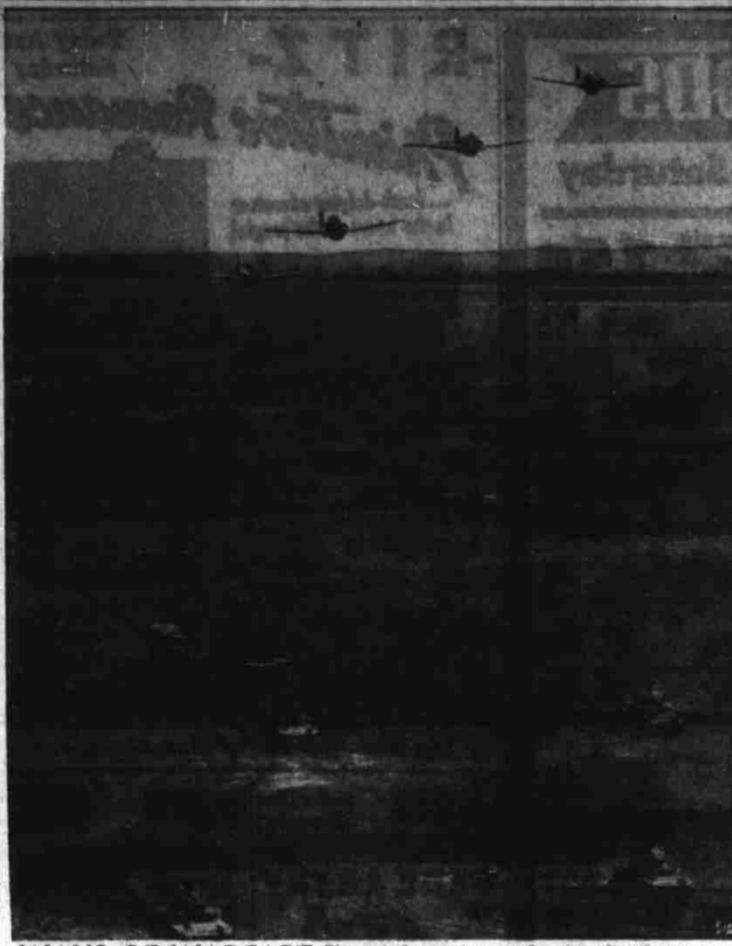

Young men who might not otherwise qualify for selective service but who are "physically fit, have good hearing, keen minds, decisive personalities, and character and loyalty beyond question" may find opportunities for service good with the U. S. Border Patrol. By taking civil service examinations, they might qualify for some jobs that pay $2,000 a year.

Irby Cox To Make Tour Of District In BTU Program

Irby Cox, educational director for the First Baptist church, is one of a party of five leaders who will make a tour of this district in January on a B. T. U. training program.

Others in the party are due to be Chester Quarles, Nashville, Tenn., the Rev. W. C. Harrison, Odessa, district missionary, Clara May, Wilson, and Mrs. Irby Cox.

Schedule for the tour includes a session in the Mitchell-Scurry association on Jan. 13 at Snyder; at Lamesa on Jan. 20, at Big Spring (East Fourth Baptist church) on Jan. 21, at Monahans on Jan. 22, and at Balmorhea for the Big Bend association on Jan. 23.

WAYS OF WARFARE Planes, tanks, scout cars and motorcycles advance over the Nazi panzer onslaughts—those swift-stabbing attacks coordinating planes and combat cars. In March Chief of Staff Marshall envisaged 10 armored divisions; now there are five with more soon to be formed. After war began, draft law was changed; overseas ban was lifted; service is now "for the duration" plus six months; Congress planned registration of men 18 to 64, widening of draft limits.

Knott HD Club Given Annual Yule Party

KNOTT, Dec. 23 (AP)—Mrs. R. N. Adams was hostess to the Knott Home Demonstration club for its annual Christmas party last week.

The rooms were decorated with Christmas colors and a beautiful tree was laden with gifts for each member present.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. O. R. Smith, Mrs. O. B. Gaskins, Mrs. Herschel Smith, Mrs. Paul Adams, Mrs. J. B. Sample, Mrs. W. A. Burchell, Mrs. Roy Phillips, Mrs. D. L. Knightstep, Mrs. E. O. Sanderson, Mrs. R. T. Johnson, Mrs. R. H. Unger, Mrs. Curtis Hill, Mrs. Robert Brown and the hostess, Mrs. Adams.

Doris Roman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roman, who has been attending school at Lubbock at Texas Tech, is spending the holidays with them.

Bert Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mathis, who has been in a training school at Fort Worth, is spending several days here with his parents here before going to California where he has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Burchell visited her aunt and family, the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Daniels of Anson Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barbee and Mrs. Jerral, Derral and Charles, spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gramam of Ackerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson left Sunday afternoon for a two-day business trip to Merkel and Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roman are expecting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Reid, of Lawn to spend the holidays with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Burchell and children, Margaret, R. D. Landon, Edward, W. A. Jr., and Walton, are planning to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Burchell of Carlsbad, N. M.

Visitors over the weekend of Mrs. J. B. Sample were her sisters, Mrs. Haskell Caffey, Mrs. Sam Caffey of Anson and Mrs. Jesse Arnett and two sons and two daughters of Midland, and Mrs. John Scott of Stanton.

The junior class sponsored and presented a play Friday evening at the Garner gym, "Aunt Tillie Goes To Town." A good crowd showed appreciation of the presentation of the comedy with Mrs. W. C. Hadley as director.

The Baptist church will be host to the workers conference of the West Texas district of Baptists when it meets in its regular first Thursday meeting on January 1st. The program will be in charge of the Rev. Sidney Cox of Abilene.

Typical of those volunteering for service in the U. S. Navy through the local recruiting office is Marcus E. Woods, 21-year-old son of Mrs. Maude Woods. Marcus has been employed at the Fashion cleaners and was active in the First Christian church as president of the youth fellowship group. He was to leave Monday evening. (Bradshaw Photo).

Funeral Held For Victim Of Wreck

Funeral for Mary Kate Patterson, 17, one of two victims in a car-truck mishap 12 miles east of here Saturday night, was held at 3 p. m. Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Patterson.

Body of Elizabeth Caroline Walker, 30, was shipped Sunday evening to Fort Worth, from which it was to be taken overland to Denton for burial beside the grave of her mother.

Rites for Miss Patterson, a first year student at Texas State College for Women at Denton and a graduate this year of the Big Spring high school, were in charge of the Rev. R. Elmer Dunham, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist church. Burial was in the city cemetery.

Funeralbearers were Howard Schwabenbach, Lane Hudson, Otis Grafe, Jr., Tabor Rowe, Jack Murdoch, and J. L. Wood, Jr.

A member of a pioneer family, Miss Patterson was survived by her parents; one sister, Mrs. Reg Jarvis, Toledo, Ohio; and three brothers, Morris Patterson and Murray Patterson, Big Spring and Malcolm Patterson, Odessa. Aunts include Mrs. G. A. Brown, Miss Mattie Leatherwood, Mrs. H. N. Read, Coahoma, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Lamesa, and Mrs. W. C. Campbell, Eastland; and uncles include P. C. Leatherwood, Sr., and R. C. Patterson, Denton.

Miss Walker was dictionian at Breckenridge Hall at TSCW and was anxious here to spend the Christmas holidays with her former roommate, Dorothy Driver.

Survivors included her father, F. A. Walker, Fort Worth; one sister, Mrs. Lee Corbin, Mt. Pleasant; and two brothers, Harry Walker, Paris, and Bobby Walker, Fort Worth. Eberly Funeral home was in charge of arrangements for Miss Patterson and Miss Walker.

Bill Inkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Inkman, also injured in the mishap, was reported doing satisfactorily at the Big Spring Hospital.

More Added To War Fund

Red Cross emergency war relief funds rose another notch Monday to $7,199.52, J. B. Collins, chairman of the special drive, announced at noon.

The total was boosted by receipt of $578 brought in by N. P. Taylor from Garden City. Taylor said that the workers under Berry Duff, Glasscock county agent, were continuing the drive and that possibly more funds would be forthcoming.

Good response from Foran and from Chalk was reported by Collins. Previously the returns from these communities had been reported jointly.

The chairman had hopes that the ultimate result of the drive would show $7,500, more than $2,000 over the $5,500 quota for the Howard and Glasscock counties chapter.

All Recruiting Stations Accept Ensign Candidates

HOUSTON, Dec. 24—The operations of 23 U. S. navy recruiting stations throughout the state of Texas were speeded up this week to handle thousands of applicants from college seniors and juniors who may now enlist in class V-7—the reserve officers' training program—of the naval reserves.

In announcing the opening of this class to qualified college juniors and seniors, Eighth Naval district headquarters also revealed that the minimum age requirement for this branch of the service has been reduced from 20 to 19 years.

Under this new plan, senior and junior students may be accepted into Class V-7 provided they submit a certificate from the registrar of the school attended that upon graduation they will have completed the degree requirements.

Preliminary applications for enlistment in this class may now be made at any of the following navy recruiting stations in Texas: Houston, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Crockett, El Paso, Galveston, Harlingen, Lufkin, San Antonio, Uvalde, Victoria.

Fort Worth, Dallas, Longview, Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, Lubbock, Paris, San Angelo, Waco, Wichita Falls.

College men who are enlisted under this new plan will be continued on inactive duty until completion of studies necessary for their degree. After graduation, these men will be ordered to active duty, given 30 days elementary training and then sent to a reserve midshipman school for final instructions in naval science and tactics. Upon graduation from these schools, they will be commissioned ensigns in the naval reserve and sent to sea with the fleet.

Educational qualifications for acceptance into class V-7 include the possession of one of these degrees, or being actively engaged in studying toward one of them: bachelor of arts, any engineering degree, bachelor of science, of education, of philosophy, of business administration, of journalism, of commercial science, or of law.

Last Electric Co-op Line To Be Energized

Last of the 40-mile extension of the Caprock Electric Cooperative in Midland county was energized Thursday, O. B. Bryan, superintendent, said here Saturday.

The extension serves 64 consumers, including 23 class-A dairies. Meanwhile, the co-op offices here are flooded with requests for connection to the original line, according to the superintendent. The number on the 173-mile line has increased from 317 to 400 this year and Bryan has 14 applications on his desk, each wanting to have current by Christmas if possible.

Staking of lines for the "B" section of the cooperative is being held up pending word from the district field representative, although tentative shipping data for the materials has been set for Feb. 1.

Last week superintendents in district 5, which includes most of West Texas and a part of New Mexico, went on record as favoring a continued program for REA so long as it does not interfere with national defense. If and when that point is reached, they pledged to do all they could for national defense, even to the stripping of lines from their pole.

More children were born in July and August than in any other month during 1940, according to the census bureau. Infant deaths were highest in December and January, however, and maternal deaths touched their peak in March.

provided that, in the latter case, the applicant's law course was preceded by at least two years of pre-law work at an accredited institution. At least two one-semester courses in mathematics of college grade must be included in any degree.

Interested and qualified candidates who are unable to call at a navy recruiting station, may obtain full details by writing the Director of Naval Reserve Personnel, Eighth Naval District, New Orleans, La.

enemy," he continued and with mention of Russian victories, the audience again applauded at length. Maxim Litvinoff, the Russian ambassador, sat unmoving. For the first time since the war began, Churchill declared, the British had been able to fight the axis forces with equal weapons in Africa.

"For the first time," he said, "we have made the Hun feel the sharp edge of the tools with which he had subjugated Europe."

He noted that the axis had about 150,000 men in Africa, one-third of them German. The British had set out to destroy this army, he said, adding:

"I have every reason to believe this aim will be fully accomplished."

Here And There

Even the men in the service are having a part in the American Red Cross annual roll call. Pvt. Enrique V. Parras, Big Spring, is one of the 269 men of company B, 77th Infantry Training Battalion at Camp Roberts, Calif., which tacked up a 100 per cent record of enrollment.

Somewhere in the shuffle of getting out Christmas copy, we seemed to have overlooked the fact that about 40 young people of the East Fourth Baptist church who joined to furnish Christmas carols to a number of shut-ins.

John T. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Moore, has reported to Kelly Field to begin flight instruction under the army air corps enlisted men's training program. He has been stationed at the 7th school squadron at Goodfellow Field in San Angelo and now will receive the same instruction as an aviation cadet during the seven-and-a-half month course ahead. He probably will graduate with a rank of staff sergeant and a base pay of $108 per month. John T. is a 1940 graduate of the high school here.

Another little interesting service squib: Kelly Field had given "messes" to the basic flying school at Sherman. In this case, however, he happened to be Pvt. Warren L. Measles of the 379th school squadron, who was transferred.

Dr. Rhode Heads Mitchell Scouters

COLORADO CITY, Dec. 26 (SpI)—Dr. W. S. Rhode has been re-elected chairman of the Lone Wolf (Mitchell county) Boy Scout district.

Roy Davis Cole was elected vice-chairman, with Dr. W. B. May as commissioner.

Corps Commander Praises Soldiers Training In Texas

By the Associated Press

Soldiers training in Texas have shown the right spirit and have in the past year rapidly approached the high standard expected of them by their commanding officers.

Major General George V. Strong, commander of the VIII army corps issued holiday greetings to his officers and men, saying:

"x x x I wish to express my appreciation of the splendid effort and wholehearted enthusiasm which has been displayed by you during the past year in our effort to create a trained military force."

"During the coming year you will be called upon to face increasingly difficult duties. I am confident that the same high morale, the same devotion to duty, the same enthusiasm which marked your forceful, aggressive, intelligent performance of duty in the past year will produce results which will continue the VIII army corps in its enviable position as one of the outstanding organizations of the army."

Six Dallas youths enlisting for the navy accepted offers of Christmas leave until this week-end, when they will report for transfer to naval training stations; but 26 others refused the offer and left immediately.

"I've stalled around here two weeks now. Let's get going," one commented.

"Nope," said another. "I'd just have to buy presents for four gals. You can ship me out tonight."

Other war developments:

Plans were being perfected at Grew Field, Tampa, Fla., headquarters of the third interceptor command for gulf coast region air raid warnings. Maj. Gen. Richard Donovan, commanding the eighth corps area with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston said:

"Approximately 1,500 men heretofore released from the Texas national guard are eligible to volunteer for recall to active federal service. Adj. Gen. J. Watt Page declared at Austin:

"Each enlisted man," he added, "on volunteering for recall to active duty, will be required to sign a certificate that he is voluntarily consenting to his call or order to active federal service, and married men will be required further to certify that their families will be able to support themselves during their period of active service."

Army authorities investigated the second fatality in two days at Brayton Flying Service school, Cuero, where Sergeant William C. Bruening, 21, of Schenectady, N. Y., died in a training plane crash yesterday.

Private James Campbell, 20, of Longmont, Colo., was killed when his plane fell near the Cuero field Monday.

Earl Edward Versteeg of McMinnville, Ore., cadet at the naval air station at Corpus Christi, died when his fighter plane fell 13 miles from the base yesterday, navy officials announced.

Mitchell Nears Red Cross Goal

COLORADO CITY, Dec. 26 (SpI)—It was goal to go for Mitchell county this week in raising its $2,700 quota for the special Red Cross war fund.

Donations early in the week had amounted to around $2,500. There were two $100 donations, one by the City National Bank, one by the Col-Tex Refining company. There were also two $50 donations, one by Mrs. C. H. Earnest, the other by the Continental Oil and Cotton company. There were over two dozen $25 donations.

The soybean first came to American farms in 1898 as an agricultural crop. Introduced in the United States in 1894, from the Orient, it was grown only in gardens as a curiosity. Today, soybean production is nearly 100,000,000 bushels a year and factories produce soybean oil, cake and meal with an annual output of $43,946,000, according to the census bureau.

If all of the 25,000,000 homes in the United States were situated on 20-foot lots on both sides of one Main street, the thoroughfare would have to be about 100,000 miles long—sufficient to girdle the earth four times around the equator; or stretch almost 24 times across the country, says the census.

Abandoned Tramway To Become Skiers' Tow

RAWLINS, Wyo. — Equipment idle at an abandoned mine for 30 years this winter will come into use once more, but for sport, not business.

Back at the turn of the century an aerial tramway at a thriving mountain copper mine near Dillon carried ore from the mine to a smelter. Then the workings played out and the mine closed.

The rusted ore tramway has been repaired and is to be utilized as a chair tow for skiers at a new ski course in the Medicine Bow National Forest.

Pearl Employees Get 10 Pct. Bonus

Every employe of the Pearl Brewery received his usual 10 per cent of his annual earnings' bonus.

This bonus was equivalent to practically five weeks and two days salary checks for each employe. Each year the Pearl Brewery has presented bonus to its employes at Christmas time.

"The management of the Pearl Brewery feels," said E. B. McGinnis, vice-president and general manager of the Pearl Brewery of San Antonio, "that each employe does his or her work in ratio to his or her salary in making the Pearl brewery continuously successful; in adding in increasing the production, distribution, and sales of Pearl beer; therefore, it is with pleasure we give each employe a bonus amounting to 10 per cent of his or her annual earnings. While this check is equivalent to a little more than 5 weekly pay checks for each employe, we feel the pleasure that will be derived by the employe and his family from this extra bonus will be the employe's reward for his untiring services during the year."

The 1941 sales for Pearl beer were the greatest in the brewery's more than half a century history, month for month.

Thief Returns Motor Car With Added Fuel Supply

PHILADELPHIA — Considering the possibility of gasless Sundays, it was a rather peculiar thief who took John Pierce's motor car.

Pierce reported to authorities one day that his machine was missing from where he had parked it near his home.

The next day he again called police to inform them that the automobile had been returned—to the same spot—but the tank was filled with gasoline instead of nearly empty as it had been when it was taken.

The population of the Straits Settlements including Singapore, Penang Island, Malacca and Labuan, totals 1,406,120.
