Boy Scout Hike Ends

The Boy Scouts of Troop 419, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Charles E. Brown and Assistant Scoutmaster Roy Anderson, completed their first monthly hike.

This hike consisted of ten miles going and ten miles coming. It took in the area of the Brazos River and its surrounding sites. The scouts had an opportunity to explore and study bird and plant life on the upper Brazos.

The boys were given an opportunity to tour the Lubbock Packing Co. Sheep Ranch, enabling them to capture in their minds exactly how sheep

The "Tonettes" of Dunbar Jr-Sr High School, were first place winners in the Annual Rythmn & Blues Talent Show held on last Friday night. This show was sponsored by the Ebony Club.

They captured the eyes of the judges with their version of "Sentimental Reason". The Tonettes have only been together for approximately three months. The names of the Tonettes are Sandra Johnson, Wilma Williams, Sandra Moore, and Kathrine Woodard.

Little Miss Sandra Ann Hutchinson, 5th grader at Phyllis Wheatley Elementary School, was second place winner. Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Hutchinson, 2915 Birch Ave.

Third place winners were the "Verdicts", a male vocal group from Odessa, Texas.

Mrs. Medeiros is a graduate of Huston-Tilinston College of Austin. She received her Masters Degree in Cosmetology in Washington, D. C. Her classes will consist of hair cutting, facial make up, coloring and cold wave selling.

The clinic session will be held at the Messiah Presbyterian social center and is open to all licensed Beauticians.

Crowned New Hope Queen

Sunday, March 31st, ended a gayla affair for the W.M.U. of New Hope Baptist Church, with Vessie Ball being named and crowned queen for the year.

"Hats Off" to Mrs. Ball and members of the M.E. Calvin Circle that sponsored her. This circle was organized October 1962 in the home of Mrs. Alene Matthews with five ladies present and since then the group has grown to 16 members and Mrs. Ball is the proud, untiring President. This group of young women sponsored Revend David Hill and members of the New Hope Baptist Church in Amarillo, Texas on Sunday, March 10th. If you missed that service you missed the treat of your life.

Boys Club Week Successful

The South Plains Lions Branch of the Lubbock Boys Clubs celebrated National Boys Club Week March 31 through April 6.

A dinner was given to present awards to the boys who have been outstanding in club activities. The awards are given on the basis of attendance, co-operation, participation, attitude, scholastic standing, civic service, family relationship, and Christian living. The boys receive-ing sports awards are also judged as a team player.

The awards were given in baseball, basketball, swimming, library, shop, game room and special activities. The overall award is called the "Outstanding Boy Award".

James Ellis received the "Outstanding Boy Award". The other awards were presented to Earnest Skief (baseball), Ronald Hereford (basket-

If you plan to attend college, now is the time to start preparing. It is never too early, but it can be too late.

Make a list of the colleges you think you might be interested in, and discuss it with your guidance counselor and your parents for help in narrowing the list down to the schools that would suit you best. Then, if possible, make plans to visit some of them.

In order to get an interview appointment, write the Office of Admissions at least two to three weeks in advance.

Here are some important facts to remember in choosing a college:

1. Think ahead about the kind of education you want and share your ideas with your interviewer.

2. Interviewers un-Continued on Page 3

Dunbar News...

By Barbara Gentry
Dunbar Correspondent

In the midst of an exotic wonderland, Dunbar students danced to music of the Dunbar Combo Thursday night at this year's junior-senior promenade. "South Pacific Isle" was the theme of this year's frolic. Between dances the frolickers feasted on Tropic Island punch and hors d'oeuvres. Sophomore attendants Joyce Hamilton, Bille Eddins, Barbara Stubblefield, Emmitt Dedrick, Buford Fulcher, Ruthie Wade, Quincy White and Charles Sterling dressed in...
