Twenty-Eight Graduate

Mrs. L. S. Graves

Mrs. L. S. Graves, Directress of the Mary & Mac School, presented 28 diplomas to those pre-grade students advancing to the first grade level next school year. This program was held on May 30th in the school auditorium.

The theme for this year's graduation was entitled "A Trip to Mother Goose Land". Each student had an opportunity to recite and pantomime a nursery rhyme taken from the files of Mother Goose Land. The audience was able to capture in their minds some of the learning accomplished by a student at Mary & Mac.

Students receiving diplomas were the following:

tern part of Lubbock. These incidents appear to be the work of a person or persons who have no moral traits whatsoever.

Many people of this community believe if there were more security placed in this area between the hours of 9:00 pm and 4:00 am this type of activity would not exist.

One family stated "If there was an hourly patrol made by our patrolmen it would be of great help in this problem."

Since this type of activity has begun to take place quite consistently the question was brought up; If we had enough patrolmen in this area to accommodate any type of activity which may occur?

"Around the Hub City"

By: Thomas J. Patterson

Now that school is out once again let us as motorist drive a little more careful around the Hub city. Children will be playing in the streets. Remember the children of today are tomorrow's adults, so let's not destroy them.

The Missionary Board of the New Bethel AME Church will journey to Midland this weekend for a Missionsry workshop. Good luck to all of our teachers who are going to summer school this year. If your journey will take you to the University or

New York of Texas Tech we will still be looking forward to your return in September.

Mr. James Roy Lewis, advertising manager of the Manhattan Heights Times, has gone to Austin for two weeks. On his vacation he is expecting to see the Colt .45's.

Twenty members of the present at the bi-monthly City Wide Mission were meeting on Tuesday, May 29th at the home of Mrs. Minnie Jones, 1512 East 24th. Mr. Burt McCutcheon delivered a magnificent speech to those present.

Mrs. Sarah Crawford, 1803 Avenue B, will be hostess to the next meeting on Tuesday June 11.

O my God, my God, hear me I pray thee, out of my heart I pray thee Father, and my soul prays to thee. All Holy Father deliver me and my people from slavery. Deliver us from the hands of the evil ones, for there is no end to the suffering and killing of my people. We are deprived from a free life. O God, deliver us that our children children may be free. Lift us, O God and make us all one in thee.

And the Lord God heard the prayers of our forefathers. Just look all around you and you can see His blessings. Thank God you do not wear a ball and chain. Thank God that your children are born free and not a slave to be sold. Just in a few days God has done these things for a 1,000 years is but a day with God. Now man is no longer a slave to man, but a slave to SIN, and God is not pleased with sin. Come out of your sin and inherit the righteousness of God. For you can not run in, talk in, lie in, sit in or look in, you must be born by the holy ghost, the will of God for all man kind. Amen, Amen.
