Disorder Appears At Rising Star Baptist Church Here

'Around the Hub City'

It is indeed a blessing to see a new change made in the City's traffic program. At the corner of 19th and Avenue "A" a friendly Lubbock lady has been hired for assisting our young tots in crossing this perilous intersection. As many of you may know a young lad was the victim of this speedy traffic last May when he suffered a broken limb while enroute to school several blocks away. The hiring of this lady—who admits she has had complete cooperation from students and motorists—is certainly a remarkable feat to be accomplished.

Mr. A.C. Mosley, a long time resident of Lubbock, celebrated his 67th birthday on Labor Day. He has been in the "Hub City" since 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matillar of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Matillar's sister, Mrs. Leroy Parks of Colorado Springs, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sedberry, 3608 Ute. Mrs. Mildred Sedberry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matillar.

Mr. and Mrs. Matillar came to Lubbock in 1935 and made Lubbock their home until 1938. They are Texans and Dallas was their home. Mr. Matillar was employed at the Lubbock Auto Company at the time, but went to Dallas to work for Baukstone Oldsmobile.

CARD FOUND

A Social Security card with the account number of 464-84-6823 with the name of Allen Joe Jenkins typed in the blank. If you lost the card or you know the party to whom the card belongs then contact: T.J. Patterson, SH4-9714.

It has come to the attention of the West Texas Times that the Deacon Board of Rising Star Baptist Church has asked for the resignation of Rev. C.D. Collins who has served as pastor of the church for two years.

In a letter of resignation from the Deacons Rev. Collins was charged with failure to develop a program, inability to provide leadership, disregard for truth and facts, unable to work cooperatively with the Deacon Board and other Church officers, disregard and abuse of majority vote of the membership, and his action and attitude toward the choir, usher board, and the church in general.

The Deacons of the Rising Star Baptist Church who presented the letter of resignation with their signature were Ollie Jones, chairman; Sam Mitchell, Bob Phillips, W.T. Garrett, Sr., and Alonzo Robinson.

In view of their charges and a long and prayerful consideration, though it pained them deeply, but for the best interest of the Church, they asked for Rev. Collins' resignation immediately since for the last two months they were unable to reach an understanding.

Rev. Collins feels as though the charges are naive, unjust, and incorrect.

Picture Day For Dunbar Set For Next Monday

Annual and identification card pictures will be taken Monday, September 13th. Each student of grades 9, 10, and 11 who has not purchased an activity card is asked to pay $.25 to his homeroom teacher by this date. Seniors that haven't purchased cards will pay $.75 for their pictures. Senior purchasers of activity cards will pay only 50¢.

The small fee being assessed each student will pay for an identification card with a picture enclosed in a plastic pouch. It will also pay for two annual pictures. If an identification card is lost, students may get a replacement in the student activities room for 25¢.

For an additional 75¢ 9th, 10th, and 11th grades of students can get the above office packet and an additional 12 bill-fold size pictures. Seniors are being offered a special package which will include 8" X 10" picture in addition to several other sizes. All students are urged to be properly dressed and in school for this occasion.

Activity cards for the current school year are still being offered for sale by the Dunbar Student Council in the Student Activities Room. These cards, which may be purchased with or without an annual, offers the students of Dunbar a tremendous savings for all school activities.

If a student did not purchase an activity card and attended all school activities, the net cost to the child is in excess of $17.00. This would include all home football and basketball games, school socials, pay assemblies, the student directory, identification

There are only nine more days before the climax of a two week "Think Industry" trial campaign will conclude.

The campaign got underway on last Sunday, according to Co-chairmen George C. Wilson, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce president, and Retha R. Martin, chairman of the Chamber's industrial development committee.

The campaign, which is the biggest of all activities of the year, is designed to familiarize Lubbock residents with the organization's industrial development program, to inform them of what action to take when they have information vital to community industrial development, and to secure names of additional industrial prospects.

Wilson admits, "This ambitious project is of vital importance to the entire community and should certainly help improve."

"Every resident will have the opportunity to take part in this campaign", Martin added. He went on to say that more than 200,000 questionnaires will be distributed, so practically every resident in the City will receive one.

The questionnaires are postage-paid cards on which the Chamber requests a list of companies that might be industrial or warehousing prospects. They will be used as "stuffers" in mailings of City utility company bills. They will also go to supermarkets, civic club meetings, banks, Reese Air Force Base officers, Texas Tech faculty members, utility companies, and similar public places.

She is a 1959 graduate of Dunbar and a 1965 graduate of Langston University.

Bobbie is the mother of one daughter and is married to James Austin who is also a Dunbar graduate.

Mrs. Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Whitfield, 2202 Elm, is employed as secretary to principal George Scott, Jr..

She received her diploma from Dunbar in

MRS. BENNIE BAILEY

1961 and attended Texas Southern University at Houston for two years majoring in Office Administration. She was a student at Draughton's for five months and was employed temporarily by Veterans Administration as clerk-stenographer.

She is happily married to Fred Bailey, Jr. who is employed at Litchon Industries for 14 months. They are proud parents 19 month old boy, Gregory Dewayne.

Mrs. Bailey states, "I am very glad to be at Dunbar again as part of a growing school."

For generations there has been an ebb and flow of debate concerning the pros and cons of changing from our system of weights and measures, which is based on the inch, pound and gallon, to the metric system, which is based on the meter, gram and liter. Nothing at all conclusive has so far resulted. But now, due largely to the increase in trade between the nations, interest in the matter has reached a high-water mark. Indeed a thorough study is in the works designed to appraise "the desirability, practicability, and cost of a general conversion to use the metric system of weights and measures in the United States.

If we look back in our history books we'll find that our system of measurement came to us from the English--who in turn got it from the Egyptians and others--and now the English have announced that they plan to convert to the metric over the next ten years. The system grew in a haphazard fashion. A discussion of it by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States points out that much of it goes back to man's attempt to use his own body as a reference point. For example, the original inch was the distance three barleycorns placed end to end of the thumb. By way of contrast, the metric system was rationally developed and the result being that the units of length, mass and fluid capacity are all related to each other, and smaller or larger units of these basic measures are computed in units of ten, or on the decimal basis.

The practical meaning of this found in the metric system's simplicity. For instance, to change 3.7 kilograms to grams, the decimal point is moved three places to the right, and the answer, 3,700 grams, is immediately found. By way of contrast, as the Chamber also points out, to solve a similar problem by the English system is much more complicated. To convert 3 7/8 pounds to ounces requires multiplication of 3 7/8 by 16. One teacher of mathematics is quoted as saying that two years of elementary mathematics could be dropped from the high school program if the inch and pound system were replaced by the metric system.

The big problem is the cost that would be involved in a change over. Estimates vary widely, but it is certain that the bill would be extremely high. It is said, for example, that just to make necessary changes in the drawings alone used by machine tool industry would cost $18 million. The head of the engineering staff of a major auto company has said, "We would dissipate something between one-sixth and one-fifth of the total value of the company in the conversion to the metric system, and we would have accomplished nothing at the end of it."

It is argued that adoption of the system would offer great advantages to our producers in increasing world trade, inasmuch as most of the other advanced nations use it. This is disputed. Some think that the economic advantages would accrue mainly to European producers, who now use the system and have lower labor costs, instead of to us.

Well, in any event, much more, it seems certain, will be heard of this matter in the relatively near future, as the cases for and against are developed. As of now, know one really knows, we are a long way from anything resembling a general agreement.

 Charlie Hibbler, 1725 Avenue "A", yelled and wanted to talk to a police officer at 18th and Avenue "A" on last week-end. He was strongly drunk and talked incoherently as he told the police officer that a lady had taken $8.00 from his pillow while he was asleep. About this time the lady came out of the hotel and she told the officer that she did not get the $8.00, but she did get the $1.00 that he owed her. Both were brought to the police department for farther investigation concerning the matter.

CUT VICTIM

Police were called to a stabbing at 612 Avenue "F". Upon arriving and talking to the cut victim, Namon Chatmon, 701 Avenue "C", he told police that as he was getting out of the car at 612 Avenue "F" two men did attack him. Chatmon received a small cut under the right arm. He would not give any information on one of the men who cut him. He did identify a man by the name of Albert Ray Wilbon, 1509 East 14th Street, sometimes called "Slim". Wilbon was picked up by police in the 600 block of Avenue "F".

DISTURBANCE

There was a disturbance at 2607 Date Avenue on last week-end. William Lee Moore, 1813 East 25th Street, was standing on the curb when police arrived. He told them that he had just had some trouble with Jessie Jones, 2607 Date Avenue. Moore was intoxicated and could hardly speak.

FIGHTING AND ASSUALT

Helen Middleton, 505 14th Street, was beaten up on last week by a friend of hers. Police heard and saw a quart beer bottle being broken and beside this one another was broken. Shortly after the breaking of the last bottle another one came through the front window of the bedroom of the house. At this time the shade fell down and police saw Minor Kennard hit Middleton in the head with some object then she fell on the bed and jumped up and he hit her again and this time she jumped up with something in her hand. Minor then backed threw the door into the hall and Helen then reached down and picked up the window shade and threw it through the already broken window. Minor then ran back into the bedroom and Helen ran out the back door and around the side of the house to the street with Minor chasing her with a knife that he had in his right hand. Police turned lights on him and yelled but Minor broke and ran the other direction. He was lost in a chase on 15th and Avenue "E". Helen did suffer a half inch cut on her head. She said she would file charges.

WIFE SHOOT HUSBAND IN LEG

Jamison Ambulance was making a run when police investigated the matter. When they arrived at the scene a man by the name of Alfred Pallman, 2806 East 7th Street, came out of the house and said his wife, Jean Pallman, had shot him in the leg with a .22 caliber pistol. There was blood on the Jean said that Alfred did get after her with a knife and she ran into the garage and got her pistol and shot him. She said that she only intended to scare him. He said he would file charges as soon as possible.

The practical meaning of this found in the metric system's simplicity. For instance, to change 3.7 kilograms to grams, the decimal point is moved three places to the right, and the answer, 3,700 grams, is immediately found. By way of contrast, as the Chamber also points out, to solve a similar problem by the English system is much more complicated. To convert 3 7/8 pounds to ounces requires multiplication of 3 7/8 by 16. One teacher of mathematics is quoted as saying that two years of elementary mathematics could be dropped from the high school program if the inch and pound system were replaced by the metric system.

The big problem is the cost that would be involved in a change over. Estimates vary widely, but it is certain that the bill would be extremely high. It is said, for example, that just to make necessary changes in the drawings alone used by machine tool industry would cost $18 million. The head of the engineering staff of a major auto company has said, "We would dissipate something between one-sixth and one-fifth of the total value of the company in the conversion to the metric system, and we would have accomplished nothing at the end of it."

It is argued that adoption of the system would offer great advantages to our producers in increasing world trade, inasmuch as most of the other advanced nations use it. This is disputed. Some think that the economic advantages would accrue mainly to European producers, who now use the system and have lower labor costs, instead of to us.

Well, in any event, much more, it seems certain, will be heard of this matter in the relatively near future, as the cases for and against are developed. As of now, know one really knows, we are a long way from anything resembling a general agreement.

THEFT OF MONEY

Charlie Hibbler, 1725 Avenue "A", yelled and wanted to talk to a police officer at 18th and Avenue "A" on last week-end. He was strongly drunk and talked incoherently as he told the police officer that a lady had taken $8.00 from his pillow while he was asleep. About this time the lady came out of the hotel and she told the officer that she did not get the $8.00, but she did get the $1.00 that he owed her. Both were brought to the police department for farther investigation concerning the matter.

CUT VICTIM

Police were called to a stabbing at 612 Avenue "F". Upon arriving and talking to the cut victim, Namon Chatmon, 701 Avenue "C", he told police that as he was getting out of the car at 612 Avenue "F" two men did attack him. Chatmon received a small cut under the right arm. He would not give any information on one of the men who cut him. He did identify a man by the name of Albert Ray Wilbon, 1509 East 14th Street, sometimes called "Slim". Wilbon was picked up by police in the 600 block of Avenue "F".

DISTURBANCE

There was a disturbance at 2607 Date Avenue on last week-end. William Lee Moore, 1813 East 25th Street, was standing on the curb when police arrived. He told them that he had just had some trouble with Jessie Jones, 2607 Date Avenue. Moore was intoxicated and could hardly speak.

FIGHTING AND ASSAULT

Helen Middleton, 505 14th Street, was beaten up on last week by a friend of hers. Police heard and saw a quart beer bottle being broken and beside this one another was broken. Shortly after the breaking of the last bottle another one came through the front window of the bedroom of the house. At this time the shade fell down and police saw Minor Kennard hit Middleton in the head with some object then she fell on the bed and jumped up and he hit her again and this time she jumped up with something in her hand. Minor then backed threw the door into the hall and Helen then reached down and picked up the window shade and threw it through the already broken window. Minor then ran back into the bedroom and Helen ran out the back door and around the side of the house to the street with Minor chasing her with a knife that he had in his right hand. Police turned lights on him and yelled but Minor broke and ran the other direction. He was lost in a chase on 15th and Avenue "E". Helen did suffer a half inch cut on her head. She said she would file charges.

WIFE SHOOTS HUSBAND IN LEG

Jamison Ambulance was making a run when police investigated the matter. When they arrived at the scene a man by the name of Alfred Pallman, 2806 East 7th Street, came out of the house and said his wife, Jean Pallman, had shot him in the leg with a .22 caliber pistol. There was blood on the upper inside of his leg. Both parties said they had gotten into an argument on the job about another woman and were still arguing when they got home. Jean said that Alfred did get after her with a knife and she ran into the garage and got her pistol and shot him. She said that she only intended to scare him. He said he would file charges as soon as possible.

ZORA ANN CLEAVER

Three more graduates of Booker T. Washington High School are planning to enter college this year. They are Misses Zora Ann Cleaver, Jennifer Dunn, and Wilma Boston.

JENNIFER DUNN

Zora Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Cleaver, 818 Gerald, left for Prairie View A&M College last week-end. She plans to major in Elementary Education.

Jennifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Avery, 308 McLaughlin Street, left here also on last week for Prairie View. She plans to enter the Prairie View School of Nursing.

Wilma, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Boston, has decided to attend Bishop College at Dallas where she plans to major in Business Administration and minor in Secretarial Science. She resides at 1023 Chance. She also left on last week.

There have been many places I have gone to that I could probably with my parents, Rev. and Mrs. Kado Lang.

We traveled through states as Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, and New Mexico--and each one was so different--from farm lands to cattle feeding.

In Denver I was able to see the many people living there and in the state of Wyoming--noted for its assorted grains--there was one sign in particular that I observed in Medicine, Wyoming (I'll never forget it as long as I live). It read: "Research is a Key for Tomorrow."

Idaho is also a funny state where wheat and oats grow on top of high mountains and hay stacks stand tall as East Texas pine trees.

The state of Oregon is just great for tourists. We were able to travel for miles on the "Oregon Trail"--I happen to see a sign which read discovered 1843.

We visited for a short while in Vancouver, Washington and I later learned it was discovered in 1792 by George Vancouver. In this City we also stopped and visited our cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Thompson, and a host of relatives.

While visiting Canada I saw some of the most beautiful scenery that I have seen in my entire life.

Disorder Appears At Rising Star Baptist Church Here

'Around the Hub City'

It is indeed a blessing to see a new change made in the City's traffic program. At the corner of 19th and Avenue "A" a friendly Lubbock lady has been hired for assisting our young tots in crossing this perilous intersection. As many of you may know a young lad was the victim of this speedy traffic last May when he suffered a broken limb while enroute to school several blocks away. The hiring of this lady--who admits she has had complete cooperation from students and motorists--is certainly a remarkable feat to be accomplished.

Mr. A.C. Mosley, a long time resident of Lubbock, celebrated his 67th birthday on Labor Day. He has been in the "Hub City" since 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matillar of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Matillar's sister, Mrs. Leroy Parks of Colorado Springs, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sedberry, 3608 Ute. Mrs. Mildred Sedberry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matillar.

Mr. and Mrs. Matillar came to Lubbock in 1935 and made Lubbock their home until 1938. They are Texans and Dallas was their home. Mr. Matillar was employed at the Lubbock Auto Company at the time, but went to Dallas to work for Baukstone Oldsmobile.

CARD FOUND

A Social Security card with the account number of 464-84-6823 with the name of Allen Joe Jenkins typed in the blank. If you lost the card or you know the party to whom the card belongs then contact: T.J. Patterson, SH4-9714.

It has come to the attention of the West Texas Times that the Deacon Board of Rising Star Baptist Church has asked for the resignation of Rev. C.D. Collins who has served as pastor of the church for two years.

In a letter of resignation from the Deacons Rev. Collins was charged with failure to develop a program, inability to provide leadership, disregard for truth and facts, unable to work cooperatively with the Deacon Board and other Church officers, disregard and abuse of majority vote of the membership, and his action and attitude toward the choir, usher board, and the church in general.

The Deacons of the Rising Star Baptist Church who presented the letter of resignation with their signature were Ollie Jones, chairman; Sam Mitchell, Bob Phillips, W.T. Garrett, Sr., and Alonzo Robinson.

In view of their charges and a long and prayerful consideration, though it pained them deeply, but for the best interest of the Church, they asked for Rev. Collins' resignation immediately since for the last two months they were unable to reach an understanding.

Rev. Collins feels as though the charges are naive, unjust, and incorrect.

There are only nine more days before the climax of a two week "Think Industry" trial campaign will conclude.

The campaign got under-way on last Sunday, according to Co-chairmen George C. Wilson, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce president, and Retha R. Martin, chairman of the Chamber's industrial development committee.

The campaign, which is the biggest of all activities of the year, is designed to familiarize Lubbock residents with the organization's industrial development program, to inform them of what action to take when they have information vital to community industrial development, and to secure names of additional industrial prospects.

Wilson admits, "This ambitious project is of vital importance to the entire community and should certainly help improve."

"Every resident will have the opportunity to take part in this campaign", Martin added. He went on to say that more than 200,000 questionnaires will be distributed, so practically every resident in the City will receive one.

The questionnaires are postage-paid cards on which the Chamber requests a list of companies that might be industrial or warehousing prospects. They will be used as "stuffers" in mailings of City utility company bills. They will also go to supermarkets, civic club meetings, banks, Reese Air Force Base officers, Texas Tech faculty members, utility companies, and similar public places.

Dunbar Employs Ex Students

She is happily married to Fred Bailey, Jr. who is employed at Litton Industries for 14 months. They are proud parents 19 month old boy, Gregory Dewayne.

Mrs. Bailey states, "I am very glad to be at Dunbar again as part of a growing school."

There is a plea to all races of this City, because we are not a discriminatory organization.

So I am asking each citizen of this county to make this stand and join me within your heart in this.

Dear God give us the strength to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed.

Give us the courage to change the things that can and should be changed.

And give us the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other.

WILMA BOSTON

Three more graduates of Booker T. Washington High School are planning to enter college this year. They are Misses Zora Ann Cleaver, Jennifer Dunn, and Wilma Boston.

Zora Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Cleaver, 818 Gerald, left for Prairie View A&M College last week-end. She plans to major in Elementary Education.

Jennifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Avery, 308 McLaughlin Street, left here also on last week for Prairie View. She plans to enter the Prairie View School of Nursing.

Wilma, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Boston, has decided to attend Bishop College at Dallas where she plans to major in Business Administration and minor in Secretarial Science. She resides at 1023 Chance. She also left on last week.

There have been many places I have gone to that I could probably describe more vividly, but this trip is too indescribably to describe--for this trip to our Northern neighbor, Canada, was such a great one.

I took my vacation

with my parents, Rev. and Mrs. Kado Lang.

We traveled through states as Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, and New Mexico--and each one was so different--from farmlands to cattle feeding.

In Denver I was able to see the many people living there and in the state of Wyoming--noted for its assorted grains--there was one sign in particular that I observed in Medicine, Wyoming (I'll never forget it as long as I live). It read: "Research is a Key for Tomorrow."

Idaho is also a funny state where wheat and oats grow on top of high mountains and hay stacks stand tall as East Texas pine trees.

The state of Oregon is just great for tourists. We were able to travel for miles on the "Oregon Trail"--I happen to see a sign which read discovered 1843.

We visited for a short while in Vancouver, Washington and I later learned it was discovered in 1792 by George Vancouver. In this City we also stopped and visited our cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Thompson, and a host of relatives.

While visiting Canada I saw some of the most beautiful scenery that I have seen in my entire life.
