around muleshoe

Beginning September 1 House Bill 70 allows a Texas driver to take a Texas Education Agency state certified 8-hour driving safety course every year to dismiss most moving traffic tickets.

In 1981 it became mandatory for judges to allow a ticketed driver to take a driving safety course every two years. Since then traffic deaths on Texas highways have decreased by more than 50 percent.

By allowing a ticketed driver to take the 8-hour course every year the Texas legislature hopes to reduce driving related deaths even further.

Following the meeting, the parents will be invited to tour the new library facilities.

Parents of the senior class at Muleshoe High School will sponsor a dance after the football game on Sept. 6, from 10:30 to 12:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

He is the son of Carolyn J. Martin of Farwell.

The airman is a 1986 graduate of Farwell High School.

Robert Montgomery, president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, announced Thursday afternoon that they had hired Carolyn Johnson as the new CofC manager effective September 3.

"Carolyn brings extensive experience in public relations to the position," said Montgomery. "Before moving to Muleshoe, she was owner of ZIP (Zesty Inspirational Presentations) in Austin. Through ZIP, she contracted to conduct programs and training seminars for associations, corporations, and educational institutions. One such program was a years' contract as a coordinator for a Drug and Delinquency Program funded through the Governor's office."

For four years she was co-owner of The Summit, a Dallas based consulting firm she conceived, funded, promoted and operated. While at The Summit, she averaged over 200 presentations per year as well as co-authoring and producing a tape series entitled, "Don't Ask Me--I Just Work Here!"

Mrs. Johnson has had experience in education, serving as a consultant with the U.S. Office of Education. She has worked as an instructor for Professional Development on the college level and as a teacher in secondary schools. She was associated with the world famous Dale Carnegie Course where she worked in public relations and held a unique position as one of the few female instructors for the course.

She has appeared as a guest on radio and TV talk shows and is a free-lance writer who has seen publication of her articles in national magazines.

Mrs. Johnson graduated from East Texas State University in 1975, with a Bachelor of Science degree. She comes to Muleshoe with her husband, Roald (Buck) Johnson, who is the assistant superintendent of operations at Muleshoe I.S.D.

In announcing her employment, Montgomery stated that the board of directors is very excited about Mrs. Johnsons association and are looking forward to working with her for the betterment of Muleshoe.

Panhandle Cities Benefit From Grants

Nearly 60 jobs will be created in the Panhandle cities of Memphis and Olton through recent awards from the Texas Capital Fund, administered by the Texas Department of Commerce.

These grants bring the total amount awarded by the fund during the 1990 program year to more than $4.6 million and the total number of jobs created or retained to 1,250.

The City of Memphis will be using a $200,000 award from the Texas Capital Fund to finance the purchase of equipment by CR-PL, Limited Partnership, a manufacturer of enameled cast iron "small ware" plumbing fixtures. Funds for the award will be made available upon completion of negotiations between the City of Memphis and the Department of Commerce. The CR-PL project will result in the creation of 34 jobs.

The City of Olton has been given a $231,908 award from the Texas Capital Fund to provide a loan for the start-up of Runningwater Draw Care Center, Inc. (RDCC). RDCC will construct and operate a nursing home facility and needs working capital financing. This project will result in the creation of 23 jobs. Funds for the award will be made available upon completion of negotiations between Olton and Commerce.

The Texas Capital Fund is designed to help create new permanent jobs or retain existing jobs, and provides assistance to eligible cities and counties for loans or infrastructure improvements as an economic development tool.

Money for this fund is allocated from the federal government through the Community Development Block Grant Program. Commerce administers the fund through its Texas Community Development Program.

For more information, please contact Armando Ruiz, Coordinator, Business Finance Services, Texas Department of Commerce, 512-320-9649.

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (SB 1) the tax rate for last year provides $ 7,549.00 per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (SB 351) that same rate now provides $ 8,075.00 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.72 for county education districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The board of trustees of the Three Way I.S.D. School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of $.57 that will provide $ 7,323.00 per student in state and local revenues.

Lisa Hamilton, Lee Exchange Vows

Lisa Diane Hamilton and Jorby Wade Lee of Portales were married at the 16th and D Church of Christ on July 13 at 7 p.m. Lisa is the daughter of Charles and Margaret Hamilton of Muleshoe. Jorby's parents are LaVerne and Ray Burnett of Causey, New Mexico. Grandparents of the bride are Mae and Ocie Morgan of Lubbock and Louisa Hamilton of Voorhees, New Jersey. Jorby is the grandson of Maye Phillips of Causey, New Mexico and the late J.O. Phillips.

Curtis Shelburne, minister at the 16th and D church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Guests were registered by Kathleen Patterson Spring of Bovina formerly of Muleshoe. The guest registry table was covered with a long black satin cloth with a white lace overlay. The bride's book, a black plume pen, and a vase of red roses were decorations for the table. The bulletin board in the entry way was decorated with pictures of the bride and groom as children framed with black net ruffles and white ribbon with a bow at the top of each picture. A garland of braided black and white crepe paper and black and white paper wedding bells were draped across the top of the lighted bulletin board. An arrangement of black and white flowers sat in the middle with programs of the order of the wedding at either side. These programs had a keepsake picture of the bride and groom on the front and on the back was a poem taken from Corinthians 13 and a brief thank you for attending from the bride and groom.

The church was decorated with a white arch entwined with maple ivy and white flowers. A large black and white bow at the top and smaller black and white bows on either side. At each side of the arch was a spiral candelabra decorated with maple ivy and black and white bows. The candles were alternating black and white. The unity candle stood just in front of the pews. It was decorated with a black and white bow and maple ivy and ficus leaves. The unity candle itself, designed by the mother of the bride, consisted of a black pillar candle with white frosting and a picture of the bride and groom on the front and the wedding invitation on the back. The parents candles were black. The mothers carried the parents candles in and placed them in the holder as they were escorted in. The windows of the church were decorated with black and white bud vases with black and white flowers.

Matron of honor was Dayna Williams, sister of the bride, who resides with her husband in Pirmesans, Germany, where he is stationed with the U.S. Army. Bridesmaids were Becky Black, of Canyon, formerly of Muleshoe, and Jessie Holmes of Muleshoe. Flower girl was Amber Lee, niece of the groom, of Portales, New Mexico. Jearl Lee served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Scott Phillips, cousin of the groom, of Portales, N.M. and Tim Strickland, nephew of the groom, of Lubbock. Candlelighters were James Phillips, cousin of the groom, of Portales, N.M. and Nicole Phillips, also cousin of the groom, from Rogers, N.M. Ushers were Don Paul Spring of Bovina, Gregory Fuller of Portales, N.M., and James Phillips, cousin of the groom, of Portales, N.M.

The groom and minister entered down the aisle of the church together, and the groom gave the mother of the bride a red rose as he entered. The other attendants entered afterwards in pairs. Then the bride entered on the arm of her father, as the Wedding March was played by the bride at the piano by pre-recording. Her dress was an Alicyn design made by her mother of white satin and radiant Rashed lace. The bodice had a drop waist of the radiant lace over satin. Short puff sleeves were accented with satin roses and leaves on each. A large bow with a satin rose in the center accented the back, which featured a bustle just below knee level, with a satin rose where the bustle met the front of the skirt, flowing into a chapel length train. She carried a bouquet of white lilies of various sizes and black roses, with a large lace bow and black and white ribbon and pearl streamers. She chose a waist length veil of four tiers of net illusion and pouf, attached to a pearl hand band that came to a V in front of the forehead, with pearl and white florals spray on the left side coming just below the ear. She also wore white short fingerless gloves of the same radiant lace as the dress bodice. In keeping with tradition, for something old, she wore dove earrings which had belonged to the groom's great great grandmother; something new was her dress; something borrowed was a black and white garter from her father; something blue was a blue bow on her white lace garter.

The matron of honor's dress was black satin long bodice shorter on the left side with black and white satin ruffles for the skirt. A bow of black satin with white satin rose center was on the right side at the bottom of the bodice. Her dress had short sleeves with a white satin rose and leaves on each sleeve. She carried a large black lilly flanked with white lace and a white lace bow with black and white ribbon streamers. All of the dresses and bouquets were made by the bride's mother.

The bridesmaids dresses were deep v backed bodice of black satin. The skirt back rounded up to the waist with a white skirt underneath and a black satin bow with white satin rose center. Sleeves of black satin were open at outside, coming up to the shoulder to form a bow, with white satin roses and leaves at shoulders. Bouquets were the same as the matron of honor: large black lilies with white lace and a white lace bow with black and white ribbon streamers.

The flower girl's dress was black satin long waisted with white and black satin ruffles for the skirt. Tiny black satin bows and white satin roses were at each side. The carried a white satin and lace covered basket with black floral frou frous at each side at the base of the handle. It was filled with black and white satin petals.

The bride's mother chose a black and white print dress of rayon with ruffles on the skirt that came to a deep v in front and back. The groom's mother wore a black and white knit dress with a straight skirt. They each wore corsages of black and white roses and lillies.

"Walk on Faith" was played after the father presented the bride. Following a prayer, "Doubly Good to You" was played and as the unity candle was lit by the couple, "Rockin Years" was played. All music was by tape recording.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the 16th and D Church of Christ Fellowship Hall. Members of the House Party were Clara Harbin, Janie Hughes, Rhonda Eagle, Juana Shelburne, Linda Latham. Serving at the bride's table were Linda Madera and Kathryn Anstat of Clovis, N.M. Milissa Lee, sister-in-law of the groom from Portales, N.M. and Jaime Lee, niece of the groom from Idaho, served at the groom's table.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length white satin cloth with a lace overlay. The cake sat at one end on a round mirror. Gathered net was around the edge of the cake. The bottom layer was a large cake; white pillars divided the two sections of the cake, which was decorated with white roses tipped with black, white bells, doves, and tiny black bows. The top had a bride and groom sitting under an arch on a swing, kissing. It was decorated with net illusion and flowers with a tiny black bow and bell on the top. The cake was made by the groom's mother. Candy coated peanuts, black and white flower mints, and white punch finished the refreshments. The centerpiece was the bride's and matron of honor's bouquets uniquely arranged around a "Precious Moments" bride and groom. The groom's table was covered with a floor length black satin cloth with a short white eyelet overlay. Large black satin bows gathered the cloth at each front corner. Coffee was served from a silver coffee service. The groom's cake was a round flat white cake decorated with white roses accented with black and featured a bride carrying a groom. Black and white napkins with the names of the bride and groom and date of the wedding with outlines of a bride and groom were on both tables.

After a trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Arizona, including Phoenix and Grand Canyon, the couple will make their home at Portales, N.M.

The bride was a 1987 honor graduate of Muleshoe High School. She attended Texas Tech and graduated from South Plains School of Cosmetology at Levelland in 1989. She is currently employed by Volita's Beauty Salon in Portales and teaches piano in Muleshoe.

The groom graduated from Dora High School in Dora, New Mexico in 1985 and from U.T.I. at Phoenix, AZ. in 1986. He is currently employed by Newt and Butch Construction Company in Clovis, N.M.

Out of town guests for the wedding were the bride's great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Durham of Nash, Texas; Bill Durham, cousin of the bride of Austin; and Jimmy Durham, uncle of the bride of Houston; special friends from Paris, Texas, Weldon and Sharon Houchins. The groom's great aunt Bill Phillips from Picayune, MS., formerly of Muleshoe and a cousin LaDean Rowe of Lubbock also attended.

After the rehearsal on July 12, the wedding party was treated to a Mexican Feast hosted by the groom's parents and prepared by the groom's mother.

MULESHOE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (SB 1) the tax rate for last year provides $3,980.00 per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (S.B. 351) that same rate now provides $4,574.00 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.70 for County Education Districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The board of trustees of the Muleshoe Independent School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of $.39 that will provide $4,574.00 per student in state and local revenue.

AUGUST ANNIVERSARY--Mr. and Mrs. Dan Atkins celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with their children in Austin August 25. Hosting the event were their children, Mr. and Mrs. George Richter and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Atkins and family, Nikki, Danny, Gene and Casey. Also hosting was their granddaughter Gena Lively and her husband Aubrey. Daniel Atkins and Ruby Landers were married August 25, 1941 in Anadarko, Oklahoma. They have two great grandchildren. (Guest Photo)

Information on decorating with sheets and preparing a low-sodium seasoning blend will be the featured topics on "Creative Living" on Tuesday, September 3 at 12 noon and Saturday, September 7 at 2 p.m. (All times are Mountain). "Creative Living" airs on public broadcasting station, KENW-TV from Eastern New Mexico University.

Deborah Durham, representative of Wamsutta-Pacific Home Products, will demonstrate five easy-to-make decorating projects made from sheets. These include a Wrap and Tie sofa, a quilt and cut throw, a braided rag rug, a wrapped and pleated frame, and some lace organizer trays. Sheets have so many pluses that make them ideal for decorating your home. Their colors and patterns are designed to coordinate with one another, and their size makes them a good choice for drapes and tablecloths. Ms. Durham is from New York City.

Ona Scandurra, representative of the American Spice Trade Association in New York, will make suggestions about ways to cut down on salt and sodium in the diet. One way is to replace the salt in your salt shaker with low-sodium seasoning blend--which she will demonstrate.

On Tuesday, September 3 at 9:30 p.m. and on Thursday, September 5 at 12 noon, "Creative Living" will present information on making a southwest pillow and hosting an Icelandic hors d'oeuvre party.

Shirley Brabson, co-owner of the Quilt Works in Albuquerque, N.M., will demonstrate how to make an authentic southwest pillow with machine applique.

Jennifer Lang, professional chef and food journalist, is representing ICY Vodka and will show how to set up an Icelandic hors d'oeuvres party--complete with an authentic herring table. Ms. Lang is from New York City.

"Creative Living" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show is carried on more than 100 PBS stations in the United States, Canada, Guam and Puerto Rico and is distributed by Pacific Mountain Network, Denver, Co. Viewers can request copies of materials offered on the show by sending one 29 cent stamp for each handout requested. Send the stamps, along with your name, address and booklets requested to: "Creative Living" Requests, KENW-TV Station 52, Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, N.M. 88130.

Senior Citizens News

By Olive Cox, Secretary

On Monday, August 26 the Muleshoe Senior Citizens met at the old depot for their regular covered dish luncheon. The invocation was by Rev. Curtis Shelburne. There were 21 present (17 members, 3 visitors and 1 new member, Zida Mae Black. We all enjoyed a delicious lunch, and good fellowship.

Odessa Shanks, program chairman, introduced Rev. Shelburne, our guest speaker. He spoke to us from Psalms 121:1-2, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help, my help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth."

We enjoyed the good message. And then 5 of the Muleshoe Singers sang "O, What a Time," "Oh, How It Rained," and "Somebody Touched Jesus." Opal Robison played one song, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Katie Roubinek, president, had charge of the business meeting. The previous minutes were read and approved. The birthday song was sung to Margaret Collins and Bertie Thompson. Get well cards were sent to Eva Ashford, Mildred Head and Joe Simmacher. Olive Cox gave a report on the annual Senior Citizens Jamboree at Lubbock. Seven of us attended the jamboree. The meeting was closed with prayer by J.C. Shanks.

Soil Village

Conservation tillage is the maintaining of crop residue on topsoil to prevent wind and/or water erosion. The forces of nature, especially wind in Bailey County, will move topsoil unprotected by residue or a cover crop. Crop residue left in the field will prevent soil movement. Added benefits of crop residue is less tillage, reducing fuel, labor and maintenance costs also soil compaction.

Soil compaction from heavy machinery restricts root growth and will possibly lower crop yields.

Conservation tillage will increase the moisture holding ability of the soil by absorbing more of the runoff from rains and trapping snow in the residue. The more the soil is turned over the more moisture is lost through evaporation.

Conservation tillage can make double cropping easier due to time saved by eliminating some tillage steps.

For more information go by the Soil Conservation Service, 105 East Avenue D in Muleshoe.

New Law Requires Proof Of Financial Responsibility

Beginning September 1, Texans will be required to show proof of financial responsibility before they can get a driver license, renew a license or have their motor vehicle inspected according to DPS Director Col. Joe E. Milner.

"This may seem like an inconvenience to law-abiding Texans, but in the long run, this new law should help protect all motorists by increasing the number of persons who have the legally-required auto liability insurance," Milner said.

Texas motorists have been required since 1981 to have auto liability insurance, but only about 75 percent of the state's drivers have valid policies in force.

Also effective September 1, the fine for not having liability

Care, Upkeep Discussed At Cemetery Meet

The second annual Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery Association was held Friday, August 20 at the meeting room of the Muleshoe State Bank.

An open discussion was held on the care, upkeep and conditions of the cemetery as a whole. Information was given on the resurfacing of the roads--the removal of the dead trees--Removal of the sand which had blown in on the cemetery lots and the drilling of the new well.

The terms of two directors had expired--one, J.R. Johnson was reelected; Danny Noble was also elected to the board.

Anyone having problems or questions concerning the cemetery, feel free to go by the office at 232 Main or called 272-5727 and we will do our best to help you, said a spokesperson for the association.

"At the present time we have someone who is raising the markers or headstones for those who so desire." "Just call the office and we will make the arrangements.

insurance will be increased from $75 to $175-$350. Repeat offenders will have to pay $350 to $1,000 and face the possibility of having their vehicle impounded for 180 days.

"Starting September 1, anyone wishing to renew his driver license, get a license for the first time or needing to get a motor vehicle inspected will be required to show proof of financial responsibility at our Driver License offices or Motor Vehicle Inspection Stations," Milner said. "For most Texans, it will be a simple matter of showing a wallet card issued by their insurance company."

The new law also requires a person to have proof of financial responsibility before obtaining vehicle license plates.

Bill and Elnita Key were taken to the Lubbock International airport August 4 by their son Sid to go see Louie and Debbie, son of Sid, who lives in Tacoma. The plane was on time. They were there to meet us.

Louie and Debbie just recently moved into the home they had built, located on Brown's Point overlooking Puget Sound. They showed us several places of interest, also the place where we used to live in Seattle.

A nice surprise, Merry Key brought our great granddaughter to see us from North Pole, Alaska. Kevin had a hunting trip already planned.

Jean Houghton came and got Elnita to go to Sunday School and church with her at the First Baptist Church of Federal Way, a former pastor was there, Vernon and Audrey Chambless. He is the S.S. teacher. The pastor of the church is Mike Leima. A friend Edith Woody from Forks, Wa. came Tuesday and got us to go home with her and showed us many beautiful places, trees, flowers are pretty. The fatherwest point in U.S. Pacific ocean on Highway 101 Neah Bay in the Makuh Indian Reservation. Forks is the logging capitol of the world. Edith owns the Edie's Jewelry Apparel at Forks.

A sad thing happened near Edith's home. Two young men, 17 and 19 shot at an old building which had dynamite and it blew up, shook the whole area, broke windows, etc. One was killed and the other was critical.

Edith took us back Friday to Tacoma and same day Louie and Debbie came in from fishing trip to Valdez, Alaska. Louie Celebrated his 31st birthday. Went fishing on his Mom and stepdad's boat. They came back with a lot of big silver and pink salmon. They had an encounter with a big gray whale, no one got hurt. They sent a chestful back with us. They were still frozen hard when we got home.

Good things must end and had to be at Sea-tack by 6 a.m. Louie drove us and we checked luggage.

We flew one route going and another route coming back and it was clear. We got a good look at Mt. St. Helens, Mt. Adams, Mt. Hood and others, the Continental divide, Colorado, Snake Red River, etc. on the plane from Dallas to Lubbock.

Miss Texas was on it. All the planes were full. It is good to be back in Texas.

Sid was waiting for us.

Bacterial Pneumonia Vaccine May Prolong Life In Aids Victims

A bacterial pneumonia vaccine is a precautionary measure for many, but it may prolong life for those infected with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) who have not yet been diagnosed with AIDS.

"HIV-positive patients who had a relatively normal count of more than 500 CD4 cells, responded favorably to the vaccine and produced the necessary antibodies," said Dr. Daniel Musher, chief of the infectious disease section at the Houston VAMC and professor of medicine and microbiology and immunology at Baylor College of Medicine. "Unfortunately, those with fewer than 500 CD4 cells showed little or no antibody response."

Musher and Dr. Maria Rodriguez studied 47 men between the ages of 20 and 60. Of this group, 11 had AIDS, 11 had AIDS-related complex, and 25 were HIV-infected, but had no AIDS symptoms. The participants' CD4 cell counts were studied before and after vaccination.

Bacterial pneumonia is seen in larger numbers among HIV-infected persons. Since the level of antibodies decreases as AIDS progresses, Musher recommends that all infected persons get vaccinated at the time HIV is detected. Individuals at high risk for contracting HIV should be vaccinated before the virus is detected.

The common bacterial pneumonia vaccine is effective for five years. However, once the CD4 cell count falls below 500, new vaccination methods may be necessary.

"We need to determine the frequency and dosage of the vaccine required to produce antibodies in a patient whose CD4 count is below normal," Musher said.

Musher's study was funded by the Department of Veterans Affairs and participants included Baylor College of Medicine, the Harris County Hospital District and the Memorial Southwest Medical Center.

Twelve Kiwanians, three honorary Kiwanians and five guests met August 30 at the Dairy Queen for breakfast. Our honorary Kiwanians were Stacy Morris, Jon Keith Turner and Robby Clapp. Our guests from out of town were Ben Pumphrey, Charlie Barron, Carl Williams and Mel Kunkel. Mel Kunkel is our new Lt. Gov. of Division 33. These gentlemen are all from the Amarillo Golden K Club. We welcome our guests as they have to get up pretty early to leave Amarillo and get to Muleshoe before 6:30. Our other guest was Tony Scolley, son-in-law of J.O. Parker. Tony, people may tell you it is, but it is not a mark against you to be J.O.'s son-in-law.

President Glen Morris called the meeting to order. Larry Parker, after he got the good out of his mouth, led the club in the pledge to our flag. Hugh Young gave the invocation. Jon Keith Turner who has been looking for a friend all week forgot the friendship coin and left it at home. Jon Keith, you either did not find a friend or you are getting so old you are forgetting things. Jon Keith said he would give the coin to his Dad, so Keith will now have to remember and bring the coin next week. Jon Keith, we will see if we cannot get you into a memory course in school.

J.O. Parker was in charge of the program. J.O. also brought his son-in-law Tony along to help him. J.O. and Tony told of some of their training on rope rescue. J.O. said that the first time he took this rope rescue training at A&M he thought that he would never use this type of rescue here at Muleshoe. No caves, no cliffs, etc. He had only been home from school about two months when they had to get a gentleman out of a fertilizer bin. J.O. and Tony told and showed video of different kinds of rope rescue. It was very interesting. Yours truly would like to say a big thank you to all of our fire department, EMS and police department for all of the training they go through and their desire to save people when they are needed. Here is hoping that I never need any of you, but if I do, I will sure be happy to see your smiling faces. Thanks, J.O. and Tony for a wonderful program.

Attention: all Kiwanians-Installation Banquet will be 7 p.m. October 1 at the Bailey County Coliseum. Make plans to be there.

Also, I would like to see every Kiwanian at the flag warehouse, Monday morning 6:30 a.m. to put out flags for Labor Day September 1.

Teachers Retirement Strong

The Texas Teachers Retirement System is among the best in the United States. It is strong, actuarial sound and able to serve retired teachers for many years to come. I have introduced in the Seante a constitutional amendment that would improve the way the current system is managed and guarantee that actuarial soundness continues in the future.

This amendment would force the state to use the system's actuarial soundness as the criterion on which the state's contribution level is based.

Let me explain. Currently, whenever the Legislature reviews the amount the state should contribute to the TRS, a political battle brews over the level of participation. Reasonable discussion over what amount actually is needed to achieve system soundness gets lost in the roar of the crowd. Good, solid fiscal planning is forced out of the process. Basing such decisions on political expediency rather than financial considerations is not fair to members. (It's also not fair to taxpayers who often are asked to contribute more than necessary to keep the system healthy.)

My proposed amendment would spell out in the Texas Constitution that the state shall contribute to TRS at rates necessary to maintain actuarial soundness. This standard would guarantee that TRS will stay in the good actuarial shape it is in today. One reason the system is in good condition today is because of exceptionally good investment performance.

Without this new constitutional standard, if investment performance turns around, the Legislature could conceivably allow the system to get into trouble by not increasing the state's contribution level to offset fund losses. Ideally, the contribution rate would vary as needed. If this variation bothers you, keep in mind that the Legislature has changed the contribution rate seven times in the past 10 years due to budget pressures. Educators should be comforted by the fact the amendment preserves the 6 percent floor already in the Constitution; however, a 10 percent ceiling would be removed.

The initial reaction of many teachers has been to oppose any change in the Teacher Retirement System. I totally understand their desire to keep their system in the excellent condition it is in today. However, I would urge them to consider the long term benefits of the actuarial-soundness standard I am proposing. The excellent investment performance of the system will not always continue. The true test of the Legislature to keep the system sound will occur when investment performance turns around and there no longer are bountiful actuarial gains from which to vote benefit increases. At that time, it is definitely in the best interest of teachers to have a standard in the Constitution to ensure that the Legislature will keep this system actuarially sound.

I know there's concern among educators that this constitutional amendment somehow would endanger their retirement benefits. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Wood Attends Regional Meeting In Memphis, Tenn.

Hal Wood, of C&H Equipment, attended a regional meeting of Case IH dealers in Memphis, Tenn. The Southern Region dealers previewed the new 7150 MAGNUM tractor which will be available to farmers later this year.

"No other two-wheel drive tractor currently on the market can match the 215 PTO horsepower of the 7150," Wood says. "It offers the popular features of the MANUM line--such as an 18-speed powershift transmission and Mechanical Front Drive--along with several product enhancements; all in a larger package. Tread settings, lift capacity and higher horsepower make the 7150 an ideal tractor for row-crop as well as many other applications."

Also during the meeting Wood reviewed other products in the Case International line and attended various dealer business sessions.

Saturday evening the residents' families and our special volunteer hosted an ice cream, cake and cobbler party in the Day Room. After the residents had finished eating their evening meal they came down to the Day Room for homemade ice cream, cherry pie, fresh peach cobbler and "pa Paws" chocolate cake. Our thanks to Elsie Kendall, Joyline Costen, Retha Knowles, Pat Clements and Lona Embry for bringing food and helping serve. Special guests for the occasion were Terry Kendall and Darla, son and daughter of Guy Kendall.

Construction work is well under way on the west side of the Healthcare Center. This is to expand our parking area and side walks leading into the west door. The money for the project is from the Christmas card project. Thank you, Muleshoe.

Tuesday morning Wanda Griffin and Clara Sudduth made a presentation and demonstration on the Legend of the Sand Dollar. After the program Wanda presented the Healthcare Center with a beautiful shadow box containing a sand dollar and sea shells.

Wednesday morning Lona Embry and Nancy Kidd exercised with the residents. After a "hard work out," Lona gave a thimble for the group to view then Lona showed and made a presentation on her pewter thimble collection.

Tuesday afternoon Bonnie Green, Lula Maye Shanks, Beth Watson, Laverne James came to shampoo and set the ladies' hair.

Wednesday afternoon Glenda and Jonesa Jennings came for a fun time of song, music and "stories."

Conner Burford's family hosted a birthday party in his honor Saturday afternoon. Family, friends and Healthcare Center friends came by his room to wish him a happy birthday. Each was served delicious birthday cake.

News From Bob Bullock

By Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock

In Texas in both general law and tax law, corporations have long enjoyed special treatment not available to partnerships and businesses owned by sole proprietors. There are important economic reasons for these legal and taxation distinctions, and those reasons are as valid today-- and as critical to business--as they were in 1907 when the Texas corporate franchise tax was first adopted.

The franchise tax is the price corporations pay for those valuable privileges and protections. The economic value of that special treatment has nothing to do with the fact that the franchise tax today is in bad need of reform and revision, thanks to a changing economy and a slew of court decisions.

But as the Legislature undertakes corporate franchise tax reform, there are some who advocate extension of the corporate tax to non-corporate business entities--a move that would render the tax inequitable and harm existing partnerships, family-owned businesses and sole proprietorships.

Partnerships and proprietorships are neither economically nor legally equivalent to corporations and it would be wrong to tax them as such.

Status as a corporation erases personal liabilities of corporate executives and stockholders from debt and other corporate actions. The corporation itself enjoys status under law as a person, separate and apart from its shareholders. It has the constitutional rights of a person in court, and a corporation exists continuously even if its "ownership" changes.

Indeed, the protections afforded corporations are known as the "corporate shield," a thing of economic value and legal privilege.

None of these special treatments are available to sole proprietors, family-owned businesses and partnerships. Corporate leaders often say these protections are critical in making business decisions, and the Legislature is frequently asked in the name of economic development to expand and strengthen the limits on corporate liabilities.

But many corporate leaders who push hard for stronger corporation protections are now the same ones who say that in taxation there should be no difference between the privileged corporations and the businesses which enjoy none of the fruits of corporate law.

A corporate tax applied to non-corporate businesses would actually be the same as an income tax on Texans in business for themselves. Even the federal tax system has always honored the difference between corporations and partnerships and proprietorships.

For many beneficial reasons, the corporate shield is vital to the economic well-being of Texas industry, but the price of the shield should not be assessed on business which does not enjoy the protection of that shield.

The corporation franchise tax must be rewritten, but it must be revised in step and spirit with the scope of all other corporate protective laws, and not be made worse by building in arbitrary and unfair taxation of non-corporate businesses.

"All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the Lord laid on him the iniquity of us all."

NOTICE OF COMPARABLE TAX RATES AND REVENUES

The legislature has enacted a statute on school funding to comply with a court mandate enforcing the state constitution. Under prior statutes (SB 1) the tax rate for last year provides $ 5,018.00 per student in state and local revenues. Under this statute (SB 351) that same rate now provides $ 5,263.00 per student in state and local revenues.

State law only requires a minimum tax rate of $.725 for county education districts. State law does not require a school district to adopt additional taxes. Neither does state law require a school district to adopt a tax rate that maximizes the receipt of state funds.

The board of trustees of the Lazbuddie School District hereby gives notice that it is considering the adoption of a tax rate of .35 that will provide $ 5,413.00 per student in state and local revenues.

A practice meet is slated for August 31 at Clovis. The first meet is on the 7th of September at Brownfield. District is at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock, on October 19. The regional meet is scheduled for November 9. The state cross-country meet will be held November 16 at Georgetown.

The teams are coached by Kyle Cranford, a runner himself who has subbed 2:30 in the marathon. Cranford has a runner's mentality and knows what it takes to succeed. He has invaluable knowledge on the intricacies of training, and wants the best from every runner.

In order to avoid any misconceptions, it is necessary to understand the basics of cross-country. First of all, the race itself is three miles long for the boys, and the distance for girls is two miles. The teams are comprised of seven runners, and the first five finishers are included in the point tally. The team with the lowest score wins the meet. Therefore, the objective is to place as "low" as possible individually, in order to help the team in the overall standings. For example, at district last year, the guys had placings of 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th and 9th. With all of the individual scores compiled, we had a total of 21. To achieve success, teams need at least five fast runners, preferably seven for "insurance." Serving Saturday detention, a bad race, a failing report card, an injury, or a host of other mishaps could destroy a team lacking in depth.

The Muleshoe teams have an air of preeminence, particularly the guys. At the moment, the boys' team consists of Adrian Pineda, Andy Crawford, Ricky Diaz, Eric Cisneros, Corley Hutton, Shawn Wheeler, Brian Field, Jesus Flores, Mason Conklin, James Acosta, Chad Freeman, and Russell Black. This batch has state aspirations because they reflect a unique blend of talent and determination.

The girls' team looks much stronger than last year; in fact, they have a good shot at a district title if they remain tenacious. The team includes the following: Monica Clemmons, Rebecca Green, Gloria Mendoza, Shane Shuster, Erin Kelley, Keetha Glover, Rachel Toscano, and Julie Gilleland. Expect success from this group, for they have looked strong in the preseason.

The cross-country teams are thankful for the continual support of our parents and of our friends.

for a Better Tomorrow

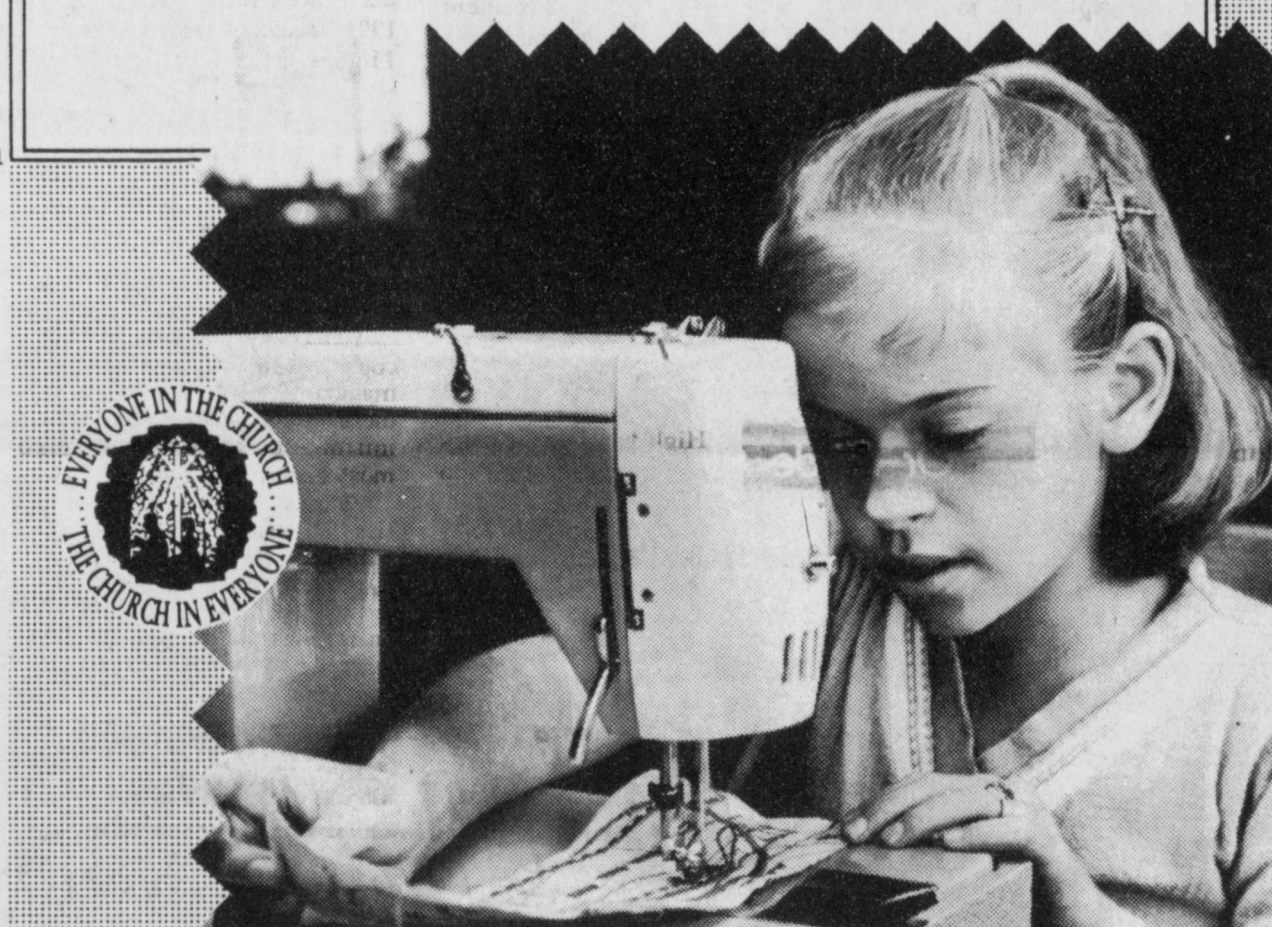

Working, learning to sew... Now, something simple is being prepared and soon her own dresses, and in the future, clothing for her own family. Training is important in the lives of our children.

Spiritual training is a must in the lives of our young ones.

"Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

LOUISA'S LETTER

I am a widow, thirty years old and have a little girl of five. Since my husband died, I have been working as a secretary and my mother takes care of my daughter. I live with my parents.

I met a man that I have fallen in love with about six months ago and he has asked me to marry him. But he shocked me when he told me he wanted me to leave my daughter
with her grandparents and the two of us have a home of our own.
What do you think of such an attitude?

--L.G.--III.

Answer:
I think this man's love for you is a selfish
one. If he truly loved you, he would understand that no mother could be happy to give up her child to someone else.

Unless he changes in this feeling of possession, I think you would be wise in giving him up. But try having them together as much as possible, for most little girls are quite attractive. He may not know what joy they bring to a home.

Louisa.
