

Teen-Age Draft Measure Passed By House, 345-16

Tax Revenue Boosted By New Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—Senate and house conferees adopted a compromise version of the record-breaking tax bill today which the treasury estimated would increase annual federal revenue by $6,881,830,000 and which congressional leaders expected would be speedily accepted by both chambers next week and sent to the president.

The total amount of taxes called for by the bill in its final form represented an increase over both the senate and house versions—$65,600,000 in comparison with the senate bill and $593,300,000 above the house bill, by treasury computation.

The conferees in five days reached agreement on amendments and unceremoniously killed a proposal to establish a joint congressional committee to study the question of imposing on citizens a compulsory savings plan.

Previously they had accepted most of the major provisions of the bill as the senate passed it, including a 5 per cent "victory tax" on individual income above $12 a week and a combined rate of 40 per cent on normal and surtax earnings of corporations.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee pronounced the 601-page measure "an excellent tax bill, taken as a whole," but Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the house ways and means committee was less enthusiastic, commenting:

"It is all right. It was as good as we could do."

George said the committee was standing on its estimates that the measure would raise approximately $7,900,000,000 in direct new revenue, with an additional $1,750,000,000 to be collected from individual and corporate taxpayers and later returned to them in the form of current debt credits or post-war debentures.

This huge new total would be piled on top of about $17,000,000,000 now collected yearly.

In final day action, the conference committee adopted a senate provision granting post-war rebates to corporations of 10 per cent of the amount of excess profits tax they pay, linking this with an over-all limitation on taxation at the point where it reaches 80 per cent of the company's net income.

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK BY JOE PICKLE

If it is all possible, you should make it a point to take advantage of the open house event at the bombardier school today between 1 p. m. and 5 p. m.

Similar Action Due Quickly In Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—The house, performing what one member called "a disagreeable but necessary duty," passed today a bill making youths of eighteen and nineteen subject to the draft. The vote was 345 to 16.

The measure goes next to the senate. A similar bill was reported out by the senate military committee just yesterday and is scheduled for action next week. The step was recommended by President Roosevelt only five days ago.

It was estimated that 2,500,000 young men thus will be made available for building up the army to a planned strength of 7,500,000 in 1943. After the elimination of the physically ineligible and others, army officials estimated that some 1,500,000 of the 2,500,000 18 and 19-year-olds would be inducted.

The 16 recorded as voting against the bill were Reps. Barden (D-NC), Bates (D-KY), Burdick (R-ND), Boren (D-OK), Coffee (D-Tex), Cooley (D-NC), Doughton (D-NC), Fellows (R-Me), Martin J. Kennedy (D-NY), Larrabee (D-Ind), Moser (D-Pa), O'Mara (R-Min), Springer (D-Ia), Stengall (D-Ala), Tanagerovic (D-Mich), and Whelchel (D-Ga.).

The bill provides that those who are in high school or college may finish the present school year. But after next July, educational deferments would be forbidden.

It also contains a provision intended to defer the induction of married men as long as possible. It does this by laying down a policy that no married man with children may be inducted while the state in which he resides still has eligible single men or childless married men. Childless married men would receive the same preferential treatment as against single men.

Under the present system, quotas are assigned by draft board areas, consisting of a rural county or a section of the city. A monthly quota is assigned to each district. The quota must be filled, and if there are insufficient single men to meet it, the local draft board makes up the deficit from the married men on its list.

Selective service headquarters some time ago instructed state directors to follow the policy of calling all the single men in the state before inducting married men. The legislation would make the policy mandatory.

While some representatives stormed against drafting "boy scouts" and called for the induction first of all of the "swivel chair soldiers" and "red tape artists" in Washington, member after member, often with frank reluctance, announced his intention to vote for the measure.

Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) apparently vetoed the majority sentiment with an assertion that congress in the present situation can only follow the advice of the army.

"They have told us," he said, "that they need the dash and vigor and courage of youth in the army. They have told us that without these, we are not in a favorable position to win the war. On that basis, I will vote for this bill."

Opponents of the measure sought to amend it so that 19-year-olds but not 18-year-olds could be drafted. The move was defeated by a vote of 185 to 25. Another defeated amendment would have reduced the maximum draft age from 45 to 40.

One particularly nettlesome issue—a demand from some segments of the house that the army be forbidden to send men with less than 12 months' training into battle—was settled by a vote adopting procedure under which such amendment could be offered.

City Greet Army Airmen

In connection with the open house formality at the bombardier school from 1 to 5 p. m. today, Mayor Grover C. Dunham has taken a note of the occasion to voice a public and official welcome to all officers and men connected with the post.

"Since Colonel Sam Ellis has been kind enough to open the air base to Big Spring visitors Sunday," said the mayor, "this constitutes a manner of 'formal opening' of the military facility of which we are so proud. And in this connection, I feel it is proper to express to Colonel Ellis and the entire field personnel the sincerest greetings from every citizen of Big Spring. Already we have accepted these officers and men as our own, and we cherish their friendship. We look forward to continued pleasant relations, and I want to take occasion to voice this sentiment for all our people. We are grateful for the opportunity of inspecting the post Sunday afternoon, and I know a large crowd will take advantage of Colonel Ellis' invitation."

RAF Stages Big Daylight Aerial Raid

French Armament Works Blasted By Giant Bombers

LONDON, Sunday, Oct. 18. (AP) Adopting large-scale daylight raiding tactics for their own, the British sent a "large force" of their giant four-motored Lancasters in a smashing offensive at dusk yesterday against the big French Le Creusot armament works in what air ministry sources called the "heaviest daylight raid of the war."

Known as the "Krupps of France," the big 257-acre armament factory which makes guns of "very heavy calibre" for the Germans as well as nearly every other kind of heavy war material, was bombed for the first time in the war.

Even the Germans did not touch it when they carried through their 1940 invasion of France.

The large force of Lancasters—a designation usually reserved for several hundred planes—followed the pace set by America's flying fortresses which have demonstrated the possibility of daylight attack against German objectives on the continent.

In spite of the fact that they made the daring assault without the protection of fighting planes, the British said all but one of the huge aerial battleships returned from the raid. This was a lower ratio of loss than the British have usually encountered even in their night raids.

The communique said the attack was "pressed home with great determination" and was highly successful. It was an "extensive" attack, starting about 6 p. m. and lasting less than half an hour.

It also was the first long-daylight raid by British heavy bombers—about 300 miles there and back—since twice of the 10-gun 30-ton Lancasters attacked Augsburg, Germany, six months ago.

The communique did not say whether the bombers met fighter opposition.

Share-Ride Cars Due Recap Tires

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—Motorists regularly carrying passengers to and from work have been made eligible for recapped tires, the office of price administration announced today.

Any passenger tire recapping quota remaining unused in the closing days of the month will be available to participants in a group-ride or share-ride arrangement.

Land, Sea, Air Units Thrown Into New Battle In Solomons

Dies—George B. Longan, president of the Kansas City Star company and a director of the Associated Press, died of a heart ailment October 18.

Fight Developing No Indication As To The Outcome

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—All types of American arms in the Southwest Pacific were reported by the navy tonight to have been thrown into the vital but still-developing battle of the Solomon Islands.

The fight, a late communique made clear, has yet to reach the showdown stage and the outcome is still undecided.

The communique made virtually the first significant mention of American sea forces to appear in any navy statement on the battle, preliminary phases of which began six days ago.

"Our land, sea and air forces of the army, navy and marine corps are engaged in meeting a serious enemy assault, the outcome of which is still undecided" it was announced.

This indicated that a major clash of the American and Japanese navies might be in the making, with each fleet maneuvering for the best advantage and the right moment to strike in the dangerously narrow waters of the Solomons archipelago.

What American naval units actually are operating in the battle zone was of course not made known, but the Japanese have been reported to have a considerable force of battleships and all the necessary supporting vessels among the islands.

On land as on the sea, the communique said, there has so far been no full scale engagement between America's army-marine troops defending the strategic Guadalcanal air field and the heavily strengthened enemy forces concentrated on the jungle-covered northern hump of the island.

Because of this lack of unlimited battle activity, American losses so far have been minor, the navy said, but warned that "in a battle of this nature losses must be expected."

Japan's losses were raised by one cruiser damaged and one transport bombed and set afire while another transport was believed to have been damaged by near misses. In addition, destruction of eight enemy planes—three bombers and five fighters—was reported. The cruiser suffered a torpedo hit when naval aircraft made a night attack on enemy ships to the eastward of the Solomons.

About the time this American attack was in progress another group of Jap warships bombarded the American positions on Guadalcanal for about an hour. This was the eighth reported Japanese bombing or shelling of these defenses in six days.

Since some of the earlier attacks were officially described as heavy; it seemed certain that the airfield which is the strategic heart of the American-held area had suffered considerable damage.

But apparently, it was still in operation. The communique said that on the morning of October 16 "our aircraft from Guadalcanal attacked troop positions along the northwest coast of the island."

Presumably the dive bombers which attacked the enemy transports that afternoon also came from Guadalcanal although that was not specifically stated. The transports were operating in the area west of New Georgia island which lies northwest of Guadalcanal, and were escorted by destroyers. No hits were reported on the destroyers, however, the Navy saying only that "direct hits damaged and set fire to one transport and a second is believed to have been damaged by near misses."

Japan's ship losses for the entire Solomon campaign now stand at eight sunk, three probably sunk and 48 damaged—a total of 57. The eight planes reported shot down in the latest communique raised total Japanese plane losses to 291.

Against these, the American forces have had 10 ships sunk and several damaged. The total of American plane losses has not been disclosed.

Hero—Lt. (JG) Robert H. Benson (above), of San Francisco, received official credit for sinking five Jap aircraft carriers his father, Marine Major Albert E. Benson was informed. Lt. Benson sank one carrier in the battle of Midway and the other in the battle of the Solomons on Aug. 24.

Gas Rationing Registration Nov. 9-10-11

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17. (AP)—Machinery for gasoline rationing registration in the 284 counties of Texas was being set up today by the state Office of Price Administration.

The registration, it was disclosed, will take place over a three-day period—Nov. 9, 10 and 11—during which every motor vehicle will be registered for the basic gasoline ration it will receive after Nov. 23.

School houses will be used for the registration and school teachers will be called upon to act as registrars, as they did in the earlier sugar rationing registration.

What as the registration job will be, it is expected to be equal or surpassed by the later task that will fall upon newly appointed county gasoline rationing panels of passing upon applications for supplemental rations and carrying out other points of the mileage rationing program.

Many of the preliminaries of the registration and actual rationing process await the return of regional OPA fuel rationing officials, who have been meeting in Chicago to receive full instructions on the program.

Regional rationing officials at Dallas will conduct a three-day school next week to instruct state OPA officials. These in turn will hold at least 10 meetings at various points in Texas to pass on the instructions to county war price and rationing boards which will have the duty of actual administration of the program.

To speed the registration task, application forms for basic rationing Oct. 27. OPA officials announced, the exact dates depending upon the time shipments of the forms are received. They will be placed at such conveniently located places as service stations, the shops and garages, where car owners may pick them up and have them filled out when registration day arrives.

More Cadets Arrive Here

Another group of bombardier cadets—the second to be assigned to the Big Spring Army Air Force Bombardier School—were being processed Saturday preparatory to beginning their rigorous 12-week training program.

They arrived at the station at 4 a. m. Friday and by 10:30 a. m. had been checked in and fed. The remainder of the day was consumed in making assignments to quarters, mess, etc. and Saturday last of the preliminary training details were being ironed out.

By Monday they will be in their provision training groups and put to work on an intense ground school program which consumes about three weeks before the thrill of dropping the first bomb comes to cadets. From then on it is a question of how much training on the ground and in the air can be crowded into the remaining nine weeks.

Heavy Damage In Eastern Floods; Five Known Dead

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—Flood waters in river basins of three states ebbed slowly today, leaving behind deaths, multi-million dollar property destruction and high water records.

Five persons were known to have died in floods that washed over sections of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Red Cross workers and police checked reports of numerous missing persons with the possibility that some of them might later be listed among the dead.

Cities and towns along the Potomac and Rappahannock rivers, including the nation's capital, saw some of the highest water in the flood area.

Although the Potomac reached what the weather bureau said was an all-time record of 17.6 feet at Washington, 10.6 feet above flood stage, damage here was minor by comparison with some other communities. Emergency levees, added to permanent dikes, saved all but the immediate waterfront areas of Washington.

Fredericksburg, Va., 50 miles south on the Rappahannock river, suffered the worst damage. Red Cross workers said. There 1,500 persons were driven from homes and property loss was estimated by the Red Cross to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Gasoline Fires Add To Flood Damage

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 17. (AP)—Three large gasoline storage tanks caught fire and exploded tonight, adding a further menace to this Rappahannock river city already ravaged by a three-day flood.

Without electric power and its municipal water reservoir virtually empty, the city could do little to fight the flames. State police offered their assistance but local authorities said late tonight apparently no outside aid would be required.

Two of the tanks continued burning—not far from four others as yet not ignited. Residents of nearby areas were evacuated.

The explosions climaxed a series of gasoline and oil fires that started early Friday.

Boy, Oh Boy!

Now would you like to get a letter from Col. Sam L. Ellis, commandant of the Army Air Force Bombardier School in Big Spring, inviting you to be his special guest at open house ceremonies at the post this afternoon? Maybe you would be thrilled, too, just as was Bobby Joe Blum, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blum, when he pulled that big surprise out of the mail box. Bobby had written the colonel asking to be named mascot. Impressed by Bobby's patriotic attitude, Col. Ellis invited him to be his special guest at the open house. (Bobby Blum, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blum, was the mascot of the Army Air Force Bombardier School in Big Spring, Texas, for the year 1942.)

Reds Standing Firm Against Nazi Drive

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, Sunday, Oct. 18. (AP) The Russians said today the red army held firm again yesterday against the all-out German drive inside the rubble-strewn city of Stalingrad in which four Soviet withdrawals had been forced in the previous 60 hours.

The midnight Soviet communique said German tanks, carrying tommy-guns, broke through Russian lines at one front near a factory, but that all the tanks had been destroyed by the end of the day.

At another place within the city, the communique said, the Germans hurled large numbers of tanks, motorized infantry and planes against Russian positions but failed to gain. The intensity of the fighting was indicated by the heavy losses of German tanks, which the communique fixed at thirty.

The communique said eight additional enemy tanks were destroyed by the Red Air Force Friday on various sections of the front.

Northwest of Stalingrad, it was said, the Russians consolidated their positions and, in some sectors, carried out local attacks. At one point about a company of German infantry was wiped out and an ammunition dump blown up.

In the Mosdok area of the Caucasus the Germans launched two attacks against Russian positions after an artillery bombardment, but both attacks were repelled, the communique said. The Germans lost about 200 men in the engagements.

In the Kallin sector, northwest of Moscow, Russian guerrillas were said to have wrecked two German troop trains, killing 400 men.

The big battle, however, was in Stalingrad where the Germans were attacking with four infantry divisions and one tank division, some 75,000 men, seeking to tear the Russian defenses from their foundation along the volga and complete the occupation of the skeleton city.

The Russian position was more serious than at any time during the 64-day siege.

Yank Troops In Liberia

LONDON, Oct. 17. (AP)—United States troops have arrived in the negro republic of Liberia, a Reuters dispatch said today, and RAF patrols are using Liberia as a base for hunting naval submarines along the bulge of West Africa.

The dispatch did not say when the U.S. troops arrived, but it reported that President Roosevelt's representative left Monrovia yesterday after extensive discussions with President Edwin Barclay.

Liberia is about 750 miles from Dakar, while the Germans insist it is being threatened with an all-out invasion.

(The CBS listening post in New York quoted the British radio as saying Germans were evacuated from Liberia some weeks ago and that it is probable the German consul general and his staff will be asked to leave soon.)

U.S. troops were reported a month ago at Brazzaville, French Equatorial Africa, near Leopoldville, Belgian Congo. On Oct. 3 the German radio said about 20 ships carrying U.S. soldiers and war material arrived at Port Takoradi on the African gold coast. This report was without confirmation, however.

Trinity Again Is Out Of Its Banks

DALLAS, Oct. 17. (AP)—Swelled by heavy rains, the Trinity river is overflowing its banks for the seventh time this year and lowland residents have been warned to move to higher ground.

The present flood is not expected to be as serious as those preceding unless rains continue, Weathermen A. K. Henschel said.

Crosby, Astaire In Irving Berlin Film, 'Holiday Inn,' Current Feature At Ritz

Don't let it bother you that the next holiday is further away than you'd like it to be. There's a show with them than you ever dreamed you could have, headed this way in Irving Berlin's "Holiday Inn," which graces the Ritz screen today and Monday.

To judge by advance reports, this Paramount musical has everything. It has eleven new hit tunes written especially for the picture by the greatest song writer of our times—Irving Berlin! It has a cast headed by the most popular male money-and-dance combination in Hollywood as yet offered movie fans—Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire! In addition, it has Marjorie Reynolds, Virginia Dale and Walter Abel! It was produced and directed by one of the top movie musical makers—Mark Sandrich!

And there's a grand story, too. Crosby, Astaire and Virginia are a singing-dancing trio who work in a New York night club. Bing asks Virginia to marry him and she retires to her Connecticut farm where they can relax and enjoy every one of the fifteen holidays in a year. But Astaire convinces Virginia that she doesn't really want to bury herself on a farm; that she wants to marry him and keep on dancing.

Bing goes to Connecticut alone and finds that running a farm single-handed doesn't allow any time at all for celebrating holidays. He conceives the brilliant idea of turning his farm into an inn to be open only on holidays, which will give him the balance of the year to rest.

Working with him in the holiday shows is lovely Marjorie Reynolds who has tried for a long time to get a break in show business with her dancing.

The inn opens New Year's Eve and in the midst of festivities, Astaire arrives, the worse for drink. Virginia has run off with a Texas millionaire, deserting him at the altar, and, more important, leaving him without a dancing partner.

His efforts to steal Marjorie from Bing, and Bing's determination to keep him from doing so are said to be hilariously funny. Complications become acute when Virginia changes her mind and returns.

Reports have it that Bing does more warbling in this picture than he's ever done before in any one film. The songs represent the best work Irving Berlin has done in all his years of turning out smash hit melodies. "White Christmas" and "Be Careful, It's My Heart" are only two of the eleven everyone will be singing. Incidentally, there are two old Berlin favorites in the picture, too—"Lazy" and "Easter Parade."

Astaire, too, does more hoofing than ever before. He has eight whirlwind dance routines, dividing them equally between his two lovely new dancing partners—Marjorie Reynolds and Virginia Dale.

Crosby and Astaire together would seem to provide enough entertainment for half a dozen terrific pictures. Casting both of them in "Holiday Inn" to sing and dance to Irving Berlin's grand music, is a triple treat well worth looking forward to by all movie fans.

Terrell Couple See Sixth Son In Army
TERRELL, Oct. 17. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hightower of Terrell today saw their sixth son off to join the colors, when Melvin, their youngest boy, left for San Francisco.

The others are: J. T. Miami, Fla.; Frank Walls, Wash.; N. T. Camp, Berkeley, Abilene; Leslie, somewhere in Alaska; and Porter, the oldest and first to enlist, reported missing at Bataan Peninsula.

The Three R's—In this case the three R's stand for rhapsody, romance and rhythm—and there's plenty of each in "Holiday Inn," the top attraction at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. Bing Crosby, Virginia Dale, Fred Astaire and Marjorie Reynolds are the happy foursome in the production by Irving Berlin, who included some of his greatest song hits. Bing does the vocalizing, Astaire does the dancing, and all contribute to the romance and gaiety.

Don't Be Fooled—The guy in disguise is none other than Joe E. Brown, and the lady with him is Judy Canova, filmdom's top comedienne. Appearing together for the first time in "Joan Of Ozark," they contrive to bring forth some happy, howling moments. "Joan Of Ozark" is at the Lyric today and Monday.

Judy Canova, Joe E. Brown Co-Starred

Tuneful, colorful and mirthful are the adjectives by which Republic's new Judy Canova starrer, "Joan of Ozark," is described in advance publicity from the Lyric theatre, where the picture is featured today and Monday. With Joe E. Brown playing opposite her, the hilarious combination is pretty sure to be a laugh sensation.

The plot revolves around Judy's adventures after she inadvertently shoots down a pigeon bearing a message from a secret Nazi spy nest. She becomes a national heroine, and Philip Munson, head of the spy ring (with headquarters in the Club 76, which he operates, receives orders from the Gestapo to immediately liquidate Judy as an object lesson to all Americans who might try to emulate her.

When Cliff Little and Eddie McCabe, two brainy young ineffectual agents, burst into Munson's office with Marie Lamont, a dancing girl they are trying to promote, Munson conceives a scheme whereby the troublesome Judy Hull will be brought direct to him for liquidation, sparing him the hazardous trip to the Ozarks after her. He tees Messrs. Little and McCabe that if they will produce Miss Hull as an entertainer, he might be interested in making a deal.

Little and McCabe (Joe E. Brown and Eddie Foy, Jr.) go straightway to the Ozarks after Judy, but find, to their chagrin, that she is just a simple country girl and extremely averse to capitalizing on the service she has done for her country. In desperation they try to play on her patriotism by representing that they are actually G-Men and want to sign her as a "G-Woman" to ferret out spies which they claim lurk in the Club 76, (not knowing, of course, that the place actually is headquarters for a Nazi spy ring).

This complex situation launches Judy on a series of mirth-packed adventures.

R&R Circuit Sells Over $2,000,000 In War Bonds

Over $2,000,000 in war bonds and stamps were sold through theaters of the R&R circuit during the month of September, when show-houses of the nation took the lead in pushing the treasury's campaign.

Reports on the R&R effort was received this past week in Big Spring, where three R&R houses ranked high on a population basis with total sales of $34,146.15. The theatre distribution here played a large part in putting Howard county over the top with its bond quota in September.

Corpus Christi, with $627,518; Muskogee, Okla., with $431,485; and Little Rock, Ark., with $447,865, were some of the major sales points; but these were cities which had visiting movie stars to handle sales campaigns.

Famed Pianist Will Appear Here Thursday

Percy Grainger who immortalized "Country Gardens" and other folk tunes of all nations and who has been hailed by music critics as the "legitimate leader of the PERCY GRAINGER youth movement in music" is to appear at the Big Spring municipal auditorium Thursday evening, October 22.

Grainger, composer, pianist, and humorist has played in the leading concert halls of the world and has attracted wide attention because he never would confine his programs to Bach, Beethoven, and Brahms but chose to introduce works that he thought worthy whether they were Dett's "Juba Dance" or Faure's song, "Apres un Reve."

The recital by Grainger is the second of a series of concerts and lectures being sponsored by the local Lion's club. For a time it was feared that the programs could not be made available to Big Spring audiences because of so much time being directed toward the war effort. However, the club got busy, selected a group of hard workers to sell season tickets, and almost overnight made it possible for people in this community to hear and see celebrities of stage, screen, and radio at prices far below those usually charged in New York and other metropolitan cities.

Single admission tickets for Grainger's concert may be obtained at the chamber of commerce. Or, some season tickets for the remaining seven performances may be purchased for $4.40 from Dan Conley or Jack Y. Smith.

Fuehrer Expressed Contempt For Japan And Italy Before The War

(Copyright 1942, by The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 17. (AP)—Adolf Hitler, in a roaring speech to his generals nine days before war began, expressed the deepest contempt for the rulers of Italy and Japan and told his soldiers bluntly "our strength consists in our speed and in our brutality."

What was said at this notable meeting on the heights of Berchtesgaden was reported for the first time today by Louis Lochner, former chief of the Associated Press bureau in Berlin. Lochner's source was authentic. His information came from a German officer who risked his life to give it to him.

The date of Hitler's diatribe was Aug. 22, 1939.

Looking imperiously over his collection of glittering boots and cropped heads, the Fuehrer shouted out what he thought about "that nit-wit of a king" in Italy and "the treacherous scoundrel of a crown prince."

Unequivocally he expressed his distrust of Japan. "The emperor is a counterpart of the last czar," he said. Weak, cowardly, undecided. May he fall a victim to the revolution."

The non-aggression pact with Poland, the Fuehrer said with a candor inspired by the walls and faces of stone around him, was made only to gain time. The non-aggression agreement and economic pact with the Soviet Union? Another piece of paper. "We shall demolish the Soviet Union!" he yelled.

Then Hitler preached his crusade of terror. "Our strength consists in our speed and in our brutality. x x x Our war aim does not consist in reaching certain lines, but in the physical destruction of the enemy. x x x Be tough! Be without compassion!"

Lochner has had this story in his notebooks for several years. It would have been fruitless to have written it in Germany. Now that he is back in the United States, on leave and conducting a lecture tour, it is released a few days in advance of his book, "What About Germany?"

Defense is Pretense without HEALTH

If you are hearing much, these days, about National Defense. An important consideration is just this: Health is our first defense. No country is stronger than its citizenry. As individuals, it is your duty to get well and to keep well. How is your health? Consult a reputable Physician, if there's need to do so. And we hope, of course, that we may have the privilege of compounding his prescriptions.

Farm Vehicle Registration To Precede Gas Rationing

A committee headed by L. H. Thomas, chairman, was appointed Friday by the War Board, County Agent O. P. Griffin said, to assist with the farmer truck, pickup and trailer registration for certificates of necessity.

The board includes Thomas, Lee Warren, Ralph White, R. E. Martin and W. R. Puckett and alternates, J. H. Homan, Charles Craighton, Abe Grantham, Clyde Denton and will be known as the Howard County Transportation committee.

In connection with the gas rationing program, every truck, pickup and trailer is required to have a certificate of necessity issued from the ODT. Forms have been mailed from the ODT office to the farmers with registered trucks and pickups. After application has been made through the forms and approved, the certificates will be issued from the ODT in Detroit, Mich.

The certificate will be necessary to receive gas rationing card for gas and to obtain repair parts. In order to speed the work in order that all who can qualify may have the certificates before November 15th, the committee with the help of volunteer workers will be available on October 22, 23, 24 in all government agency offices in Big Spring to assist in filling out the forms for owners of trucks and pickups and those who transport agricultural products.

The office of the AAA, the base of the postoffice where the Farm Security and Soil Conservation offices are located, the Production Credit office, will be available in Big Spring. In Comahoma, an office will be set up in the American Legion hall on October 23 and 24 only.

There are 1,000 trucks and pickups registered in the county and there are an estimated 1,000 farm trailers in the area.

Only those who have received forms from the ODT will need to contact the transportation committee here, Griffin said.

Planes Fight Subs Off Of Big Convoy

A BRITISH PORT, Sunday, Oct. 18 (AP)—A large convoy has arrived safely from the United States after eluding a German submarine pack in a four-day hide-and-seek chase.

The air ministry news service said escort work of United States navy planes, the British navy, and the RAF coastal command were so effective that the pursuing U-boats were unable to close in for torpedo attacks.

Flying fortresses, Catalinas, Liberators and Hudsons, now playing an important part in Atlantic convoy operations provided effective air cover for the recently arrived ships.

The day after U-boats sighted the convoy Catalina flying boats operating from Iceland flew out over the ships but the submarines withheld torpedoes.

The following day, when the convoy approached its most dangerous waters, coastal command fortresses, Liberators and Hudsons joined the American planes.

Air reconnaissance showed that the U-boat pack had grown.

At dawn American Catalinas bombed two U-boats, sending the submarines into a crash dive before they could let go with torpedoes. Oil spread over the surface after one of these attacks, indicating a direct hit.

That afternoon a Liberator spotted two more submarines. They went back beneath the surface as the planes approached.

Later the same Liberator bombed another submarine and machine-gunned its conning tower as it submerged. A Hudson bombed another enemy craft and bubbles, oil and wreckage came up.

A fortress attacked a submarine and sent another into a crash dive. In the evening two American Catalinas each attacked a U-boat.

The next day only two submarines were sighted. A Hudson attacked one and the other dived before the pilot could get in range.

Twenty-four hours later the convoy was safe in British waters.

Give Last War's Cannons HELENA, Mont.—Eight World War I cannons now adorning the front lawn of the state capitol will have to go back into service for World War II. Gov. Sam C. Ford has announced they will be contributed to the scrap metal drive.

Firms Signing Up To Join In Rat Eradication

Preliminaries for a rat extermination campaign in the city are making progress, city authorities said Saturday. City Manager B. J. McDaniel reported that 32 business houses had been contacted, every one had paid for the poison in advance, and every one pledged full cooperation in the program.

While health officers are canvassing the business section, Parent Teacher leaders, with the aid of school children, will contact residences, asking each household to set out specially prepared poison on October 31. Poison for rats will be available at 25 cents, and for mice at 10 cents.

Henry Flueneke of the A&M extension service will be here the week of October 26 to direct the campaign. He will demonstrate use of the poison before all school groups.

Orders for rat poison to be distributed in the country on October 31, must be listed with the Neighborhood Leaders by the 27th of October, O. P. Griffin, county agent reminded Saturday, in order that the baits may be prepared in time.

School Excelling In Scrap Metal Collection May Name A Battleship

The school that collects the most poundage of scrap metal for its enrollment will be privileged to name a battleship, Anne Martin, Howard county superintendent of schools, said Saturday that she had been informed.

Furthermore, Miss Martin said, the three children in that school who do the greatest share of collecting the scrap will be awarded an all-expense-paid trip to the shipyard for the launching ceremonies.

The rural schools have done a splendid job in collecting scrap.

Miss Martin said. An inspection tour she made during the past few days has revealed tons of old farm machinery and other discarded metal piled high on the lawn of every school house. And Miss Martin added, the children and teachers have not taken the attitude that their job has been completed but are going after the collection of scrap day in and day out and have stated that they intend to keep at the work until every last ounce of the priceless metal is gathered.

WAAC Officers Seek Recruits In Big Spring

Two officers of the W.A.A.C were in Big Spring during the weekend seeking recruits for the women's branch of the U. S. army.

Lieut. Virginia S. Williams headed up the party and Lieut. Rose L. Smothers was assisting. Both are stationed at Lubbock, headquarters for the West Texas recruiting district, and may be reached through the office of Col. Marvin B. Durette, recruiting officer, for speaking engagements.

They were, said Lieut. Williams, particularly anxious to address women's clubs so that they could explain the advantages of enlistment in the W. A. A. C. Currently, a campaign is being waged to bring more Texas women into the organization.

Both the officers wore smartly tailored WAAC uniforms with light khaki shirts and dark caps to match suits. Lieut. Williams, from Milwaukee, Wis., was excited over having seen her first cotton when she was assigned to Texas. Lieut. Smothers hailed from Drumright, Okla., consequently this section of the country is pretty much home to her.

Chatter About The Bombardiers

Picked Up Around The BSAAFBS Squadron

365th Base Hdq. And Air Base Squadron

Staff Sergeant Pilot James C. Crim, taking his first furlough in two years, has left behind his lonesome friend, Mickey, the only canine known to the squadron who has won his wings. A spotted terrier, Mickey has been with Sgt. Crim throughout his long period of training and is finally getting acquainted with most of the men in the squadron, but is counting the days until his master returns. Occupying himself at present with the company of Pfc. Tommy Moreland, Mickey is learning the finer points of pocket billiards from Moreland.

Cans in the day room seem to be devoid of Staff Sergeant Charles Ferris' favorite tobacco. Ferris is now at the post hospital and friends are wondering if chewing in bed is allowed.

The newest attraction in Big Spring for Sgt. Henry Abrams may be found in the Crawford Coffee shop, which may explain his sudden dislike of G. I. coffee.

Congratulations are in order for Flying Staff Sergeants Rose and Bryson on their entering the society of the benedictines.

The title of "Kid Rumor" now goes to Pvt. Robert Feathers, who seems to dream them up and has a hot one every morning.

LOST: One glider. Finder please return to Staff Sgt. Kenneth Byrd. The stellar bowling team of the 365th squadron, led by Corporal Grace, has won three and lost three games. The team is urging the support of the entire squadron.

The squadron basketball team, still in its early stages, needs players. If you can play, Pfc. Tommy Moreland in the squadron day room will take your name and welcome you to the ranks.

813th Squadron
Captain James F. Hall, squadron adjutant, is nursing a sore finger of after a hectic series at Billy Simmons bowling lanes. . . Sgt. Powell, Cpl. Thorn, Pfc. Thorn and Pfc. Gerster are returning from furloughs. . . Staff Sgt. Boswell, former San Angeloan, is leaving for home on a long-awaited vacation. He is a crew chief on an AT-11. . . Pvt. Cam Cappello of New Jersey may be seen waiting for his wife at the local bus station. She wired three days ago that she would arrive within 24 hours. . . Squadron Commander Major Irby V. Tedder may be seen at the bowling alley almost any time after dark, striving to better his record. . . Master Sgt. Bill Hansen, assistant line chief, has a record hard to beat, having risen from buck private to master sergeant.

Congratulations to Capt. James Hall for his successful efforts in changing the area around the squadron from a barren waste into a cactus garden. Looks as good if not better than any area on the post. . . Basketball practice opened last Wednesday with a large turnout. The squadron boasts one of the best service teams in the Air Force. Lineup is bolstered by such stars as Staff Sgt. Blackie Howard, all round athlete from San Angelo; Pfc. Vince Henshaw, all-state forward from Chicago; and Cpl. Lee Maestas, all-state from Colorado. . . The league game should be interesting.

Enlisted strength of this organization is mounting all the time and the squadron is now operating with the usual efficiency. Most of the new recruits are a willing lot and are pitching in right beside the older men, realizing that within a few months they will be the older men of another outfit.

The bowling team is putting up a stiff fight for first place and without a doubt will emerge the winner. More power to the boys of the 814th, who are already known for their fine efficiency in "Keeping 'Em Flying." First Sgt. Ted W. Preston and Pfc. Ivey went before the officers' candidate school board last Tuesday.

815th Squadron
The 815th is quite proud of its line chief, Master Sgt. Edgar R. Johnson, who made the big town news. His picture appeared in both The Big Spring Herald and the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. Noted in the picture were the six stripes he has gained in his 16 years of service. The 815th played a minor role in the drama by furnishing the second principal, Pvt. Norman Johnson, son of the illustrious line chief.

Tech. Sgt. Rowland A. (Frank Buck) Bass, the big game hunter of this organization, is losing his reputation. As a dove hunter his exploits are considered questionable. Accompanied by Tech. Sgt. Wilber Rogers, he recently made a foray into the wilds of West Texas and returned with one kill—it was a dove.

Staff Sgt. Daniel H. Kaderka is taking a 3-day pass to recuperate from the excitement of becoming the father of a 6-1-2 and other necessities. A bunkmate had to send them to him. . . Cpl. Dean H. Holden, on furlough, writes from New York that he wishes someone would take care of his yellow rose in Texas. . . Sgt. Curtis Lee is in the dumps plenty over his bowling team's third place rating in the league.

817th Squadron
Sgt. Don Trupp, radio man, left Wednesday for a 10-day furlough to his home in Grand Island, Neb.

If a certain 6 foot 3 inch corporal must wear pajamas, the boys in the barracks wish he wouldn't wear such loud ones.

Cpl. Roy Fryman of Kentucky has been granted his first furlough after 15 months in the army.

Seven boys from this squadron spent last Sunday on various ranches near Big Spring. Although still weary and aching Monday morning, the boys were none the less enthusiastic in declaring they had a good time.

Master Sgt. Herbert A. Wood, Jr. has been transferred to the 816th squadron—a hard blow to the 817th but a good deal for the 816th.

Five boys from Big Spring and vicinity have recently changed addresses: Pvt. George R. Neill of 605 Main, Pvt. William P. McAnear of Gale route, Pvt. Wilner Gilmer of 106 West 16th, Pvt. Curtis M. Chaney of Garden City and Pvt. Lambert Keith of 605 West 3rd, Coahoma. The 817th squadron welcomes the boys.

818th Squadron
All eyes turned on Staff Sgt. Easter Thursday when a certain lass from West Virginia turned up all ready to visit the minister.

In order to supplement his meager earnings, Staff Sgt. George R. Walker is being married to Miss Bertie Young of San Antonio. He is looking forward eagerly to the extra earnings thereby acquired. The nuptials are being delayed by Staff Sgt. Gruver, who has the keys to the car in which the prospective Mrs. Walker's bridal gowns are locked.

Sgt. Glen N. McNeill has just returned from a furlough in Kansas, bitterly disillusioned by a catastrophe, still a secret to the rest of the boys. Upon his premature return, Mac could only say: "Let that be a lesson to me."

Those sentiments have not deterred Staff Sgt. Millard H. Walker from floating in a daze in anticipation of a sojourn in "Jojia." Where he hides his "R's" is a puzzle to his companions.

816th Squadron
Wedding bells are in the offing for First Sgt. Noel F. Miller, and there must be something in it when the top-kick gets the urge. . . Heard that Staff Sgt. Earl Benskin is mourning for his wife who is 3-4 away, but he says—come the 3-day pass time—he shall make efforts to bring her fourth.

Staff Sgt. E. H. Park, head man of the sporting world, says that the soft ball team is in good shape and ready for its first game. . . The grass planter, the boys that rarely get anything but a racking back, should be commended on the good job they're doing. There may be greener grass growing, but not in harder clay. . . Furloughs are in the wind. . . When Staff Sgt. Kenneth Dick caught a plane hop home the other day he was so excited he forgot to carry a uniform change

Draft Board Man Resigns In Protest

MARSHALL, Oct. 17 (AP) — Charging there is no question but that Texas is being "robbed" of men in comparison with other states, Marvin Turney, chairman of a draft board, resigned here today.

Turney said he resigned because he could no longer "carry out orders" of state headquarters. His resignation followed a call for "hundreds" of negroes from Harrison county for November. Turney charged the induction of the negroes should have been spread over several months to delay induction of white men.

Turney said he had sought unsuccessfully to have negro inductions spread over several months, but his letters to General J. Watt Page, state selective service director, he said, were ignored.

pinch on buses following imposition of the 35-mile-an-hour schedule. Even before this came buses were running in double sections crowded to the windows. Now the schedules are slowed and several trips eliminated. We just don't see how that's helping the situation.

Early this week another call will be answered by Howard county men. From just sheer guessing we would say that perhaps two score of the number going will be married men. Next month the call will be composed almost entirely of married men.

Farm production goals will be increased sharply next year. The government is demanding it. This being the case it is about time the people demanded of their representatives in congress that they do something about the farm labor situation if they expect these goals to be met. You can't wish a great crop into being you know.

Two reminders in parting—1) Better be renewing that drivers license at the highway patrol office here if you haven't already. Nov. 1 is the deadline. 2) Gather up your magazines (suitable for men) and leave them at Turney's Shoe shop. Boys on troop trains will appreciate more than you know.

friends with a sergeant stationed at the school and eventually got permission to get past the gate and to headquarters.

All he wanted to know was whom he was to see about this business. That, Capt. J. W. King, adjutant, advised, was a matter up to the commandant. So Bobby went home and wrote another letter.

Col. Sam L. Ellis is a busy man but when a boy's letter came across his desk, he was impressed. In a letter to the lad, he reiterated that army regulations did not permit assignment of official mascots and that he did not believe it desirable to have an unofficial one at this time.

But the colonel wouldn't let a fellow down.

"In view of your interest in our post and the Army Air Forces, I extend to you a special invitation to come to my office at 1:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 18... in order that I can personally arrange to have you shown through the post," he said.

When Bobby pulled that out of the mail box, he let out a yell. "Boy, oh boy! The colonel's guest!"

He was so excited he had to call on Dad to help make proper reply.

And you can lay any amount you want to that a 12-year-old youngster, who thinks the air corps is the greatest branch of service in the world and that bombardiers stand at the peak of the corps, will be just outside the commandant's door when the clock touches 1:30 p. m. today.

Formal Inspection At The Air School

Men at the Big Spring Army Air Forces Bombardier School Saturday morning stood formal inspection.

All companies stood in formation on the apron at the school area while Col. Sam L. Ellis, commandant, and members of his staff, made the inspection.

Army Men Get Recruits At Sweetwater

Lieutenant Lynch and Sergeant Turner of army recruiting spent Friday in Sweetwater on an enlistment drive and selected 17 men while there. This number, they said, represented only a small number of the men from that town seeking to enlist and they plan another recruiting visit in the near future.

The local office enlisted a total of 35 men the past week. Of 15 men signed up Friday and Saturday, nine of them are Big Spring boys. They are: Roxford E. Dobbins, William E. Ramsey, Jr., Jack Munn, Clayton H. Bates, Aubra W. McClusky, Herbert H. Hatch, Vernon A. Key, Edmund H. Finch and Yves Yanes, Jr.

Others enlisting include Floyd M. Leach, Colorado City; Rufus L. Nowell, Lamesa; William E. Schafer, Garden City; Homer V. Wyatt, Colorado City; Raymond D. Cramer, Coahoma; John R. Hopper, Stanton; Arthur L. Edwards, Lamesa; Calvin J. Sewell, Foran, and William G. Tunnell, Ackerly.

The local recruiting office is calling special attention to the fact that the deadline for enlistments in the air corps specialist division is October 31 and reminds all that wish to join this branch of the service to do so without delay.

The army is anxious that young men of 18 and 19 enlist now. Now is the time to be trained and take part in the battles of next year, they say.

Prophetic Subjects To Be Discussed By Evangelist

"Is this war Armageddon, the great war of all nations the Bible speaks of?" This is the question Evangelist R. E. Delafield will discuss in his address at the "Voice of Prophecy" auditorium at 406 E. 2nd street, half a block east of the municipal auditorium at 7:45 p. m. today.

Singing will be in charge of Evangelist D. W. Oflin of New Mexico. Delafield said crowds were good during the past week and that last Sunday night "practically all seats were taken."

He speaks at 8:45 p. m. today over KBBT on "Hitler's Dream of World Conquest Shattered by Bible Prophecy," the subject of his last Sunday's auditorium address. The talk immediately precedes the national "Voice of Prophecy" program with which Delafield is affiliated.

His subjects this week (7:45 p. m. daily) are Monday, "The Second Coming of Christ"; Tuesday, "What a Warning When the Stars Began to Fall"; Wednesday, "Will Men Live Today Live to See the Return of Christ?"; Thursday, "When Angels Preach from Mid-air Over Big Spring"; Friday, "Bridging the River of Death."

Abilene Christian Downs S'western

GEORGETOWN, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Abilene Christian College Wildcats swept to an 18 to 0 victory over the Southwestern University Pirates tonight.

The win gained on a muddy field in a steady downpour, established the Wildcats as definite contenders for the Texas conference championship.

During the first five minutes of play Abilene worked the ball deep into enemy territory and Jarrell, halfback, skidded around left end to score.

The second quarter went scoreless with both teams bogged in the muddy field, exchanging punts.

With the third period half over, the Wildcats took the ball on the Pirate 35 and Jarrell threw a long pass to Turner who tackled on the Pirate four. Abilene drove over the goal line in two plays.

Qualls, Christian end, intercepted a Pirate pass in the fourth and sprinted 40 yards for a touchdown.

Big Push On For Air Corps Specialists

Army recruiters pitched "camp" Saturday on the west side of the courthouse lawn to remind men that they have only two more weeks in which to enlist as air corps specialists.

Lieut. John A. Lynch, Big Spring Army Air Forces Bombardier School recruiting officer, and Sgt. Edwin R. Turner, U. S. Army recruiter here, had an army tent raised across from the post-office, where the recruiting station is maintained and announced that it would be used as a "temporary" recruiting place.

At the same time new emphasis was placed on the enlistment of 18 and 19-year-olds as specialists in the air corps as well as older men.

Deadline for specialist enlistments is Oct. 31 and to make sure of clearing in time, men were advised to enlist at the earliest possible moment. Needed are mechanics, radio men, instrument men (former watchmakers, etc.), technicians and other skilled hands.

While full details may be had at the recruiting station in the postoffice basement or the tent across the street, Lieut. Lynch will move over the territory to facilitate enlistment in other communities. His schedule for the week is as follows:

Tuesday—Stirling City from 9 a. m. to 12 noon; Garden City from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.; Wednesday—Snyder, 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., Camp Springs, 1:30 p. m. to 3 p. m., Rotan, 3:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.; Thursday—Colorado City, 9 a. m. to 12 noon, Loraine, 12:30 p. m. to 3 p. m., and Roscoe, 3:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Irish Smash Mighty Iowa Seahawks

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 17 (AP) — The mighty Iowa Seahawks — newest product of the coaching genius of Bernie Bierman — saw their four game winning streak brought to a dismal end today by a Notre Dame team that didn't know it was supposed to lose.

The scrappy Irish overturned the pre-flight school football machine, 28 to 0, before 30,000 spectators and to terminate the 21-game personal victory streak of Lt. Col. Bierman, former Minnesota grid mentor.

Notre Dame won with its coach, Frank Leahy, still ill in a Rochester, Minn., clinic, where he went nine days ago at a time when the Irish seemed headed for a mediocre season.

The game showed that the old flint that never enabled Bierman to beat Notre Dame in two attempts with his Golden Gophers is still alive.

Notre Dame called on all its departments for help in creating the sharpest upset of the year. It depended on Angelo Bertelli to throw a touchdown pass of 47 yards to Bob Livingston for the first score in the second period.

It demanded alertness, which Corwin Clait, supplied 45 seconds later by intercepting a Seahawk pass on the Iowa Naval 87 and sprinting for another touchdown.

And finally, the Irish beckoned the inviolated fullback, Jerry Cowhig, to the game in the second half and sophomore Jerry responded with two touchdowns, one in the third period and the other in the fourth.

A navy pilot put his plane down on a highway near Stanton but one wing was damaged slightly by a post. The craft was trucked to the Midland AAF Bombardier School for repairs.

Texans On The Losing Side Of Poll Tax Fight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP) — Texans used their votes and their voices to fight the poll tax abolition legislation, but their opposition availed nothing. The house overwhelmingly approved the bill. The vote on the measure was 283 to 84.

Only two Texans voted for it: Representatives Albert Thomas of Houston and Ewing Thomson of El Paso. Thirteen Texans voted against the bill, and five were listed as not voting. The twenty-first, Speaker Rayburn, votes only in case of a tie.

Representative Hutton W. Summers of Dallas, chairman of the house judiciary committee, led the futile battle against the bill. The odds were against him from the beginning, however, for 218 house members had signed the petition which forced the issue on to the floor. The strength of those fighting the bill lay almost entirely among the membership in the house of the eight states having poll tax laws—Texas, Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina and Virginia.

The legislation, which yet must be passed by the senate, would make it unlawful to demand poll tax receipts as a voting prerequisite in election of a president or members of congress.

Summers challenged the wisdom of the pending legislation on the grounds of its validity if enacted. He argued that it would tend to destroy the self respect and independence of the individual citizen.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 17 (AP)—Ambulance crews were due back in Albuquerque tonight with the bodies of nine officers and men killed when an army four-engine bomber crashed on North Baldy mountain Thursday night near the little cattle town of Magdalena.

Bridges To Be Added To The Scrap Heap

By The Associated Press
A blast that will be heard around the nation will climax Texas' scrap drive Sunday.

Third army engineers will blow up the old Red Bluff bridge over the Colorado river near Lometa and add 200,000 pounds to the Texas newspapers' goal of 254,000,000.

Ceremonies, beginning at 2:30 p. m., will be broadcast. The abandoned steel structure will be sold to the government by the joint owners, Lampass and San Saba counties, and engineers of Lieut. General Walter Krueger's third army will handle the demolition.

Tuesday the wildest bridge over the muddy Brazos, west of Calvert, will also be destroyed to add another 150,000 pounds, with the 357th engineers in charge.

Gov. Coke Stevenson and other dignitaries will attend Sunday's ceremonies.

Brotherhood Will Convene Monday

The East 4th St. Brotherhood will hold a dinner meeting Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock at the church to elect new officers. A. L. New is the newly elected president of the brotherhood.

The Rev. P. D. O'Brien will be toastmaster for the dinner and everyone is invited to attend.

Farm Labor Can Get Gas For Travel

Gas rationing will not affect the ability of cotton pickers to get ample fuel for travel, O. R. Rodden, United States Employment Service district manager, said Saturday as rain and fears of being caught far from home on ration day slowed picking activity.

Agricultural workers will be regarded as essential workers and will come in the group which will be able to get gasoline in quantities required for the performance of their work," announced Rodden.

He made the statement to allay the fears of some crews which were talking about heading south now to beat the rationing date on Nov. 22.

Showers, general over the area Friday night, practically halted pickings Saturday. Five Big Spring gins had a total of 8,715 for the season, which indicated between 11,500 and 12,000 bales for the season.

While rain reportedly did comparatively little damage to cotton, a survey of havoc from a Wednesday hailstorm in the Luther area ran estimates of cotton losses up to as high as 800 bales. Feed, too, was lost in the same belt which was completely defoliated. Ginners reported samples were making generally better returns with most going at 15-16ths or 21-22nds, which boosted the price to around 12.50-13.00. Lower grades were down to 17.00. Seed kept easing up, pointing toward a record. The base for the week was $20.70 per ton.

Picker placements in the district, reported the USSES office, were up over the same time a year ago, although principally because the harvest is earlier this season.

Saturday total placements stood at 12,500 harvest workers, about 1,500 over the same time last year. About half of the placements were in Dawson county with Howard ranking next, Martin trailing and Midland and Borden ranking next in order.

Help Wanted Calls Increase

Calls for help were increasing at the United States Employment Service office here Saturday said Otto Rodden district manager.

An acute shortage now exists in sales classifications with both men and women of any ages needed. Laborers were much in demand and there were railroad openings at good pay.

Other calls were for carpenters, welders and helpers, boilermakers and helpers, machinists, aircraft sheetmetal workers, file clerks and other stenographic classifications. Rodden said the need for aircraft sheet metal workers and welders was great and urged those who could register at the office for the free training in these fields.

"We have one of the best schools for this type of training in the southwest," he said, "and anyone who completes the course is certain of a job."

AMERICAN VICTORY MUST BE WON IN AMERICAN HOMES

It is true today, more than ever before in history, that war must be fought and won by nations as a whole. Behind the fighting forces, behind military strategy and the central government, there must stand, strong and determined, a united home front.

The woman who learns to sew for herself and her family . . . the woman who makes a serious study of food problems . . . who thrifflily manages the family income so there will be a surplus to invest in War Bonds and future security . . . that housewife is fighting the war like any soldier.

She stands guard over the family pay envelope, using every penny wisely, buying only the things her family must have, and making sure they are of sound, durable quality.

She turns instinctively to stores she can trust . . . stores that give her full value. She depends on stores like Penney's, whose avoidance of all unnecessary frills and price-increasing services, have always served her well.

Minnesota Back In The Groove As Nebraska Beaten

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 17 (AP)—Minnesota's Golden Gophers got back on the winning track today by beating Nebraska, 15 to 2, on a blocked kick, a 40-yard touchdown run in the first period and a 69-yard touchdown drive early in the third period.

Nebraska never had a chance after the Big Ten champions piled up nine points in seven minutes of play while Bill Daley, the Gopher halfback star, was riding the bench where he stayed all day because of injuries.

The scoring started when big Paul Mitchell, Minnesota tackle, crashed in to block Howard Debus' punt, sending the ball flying out of the end zone for a safety.

Tackle Vic Schleich sent the free kick booming down the field to Herb Hein, Gopher end, who came back to his 49 and a minute later Minnesota made it 9 to 0 on a 40-yard gallop by halfback Dick Luckemeyer. Bill Gernaas kicked the point.

Held under control in the second period, the Gophers swept to a second touchdown with the second half kickoff.

Duke Staggers Colgate, 34 To 0

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 17 (AP)—Duke's Blue Devils, undisturbed by a tedious all-night train ride, vanquished Colgate, 34 to 0, before a stunned crowd of 18,782 today to hand the Red Raiders their first setback of the season.

Arriving in Buffalo just a few hours before game time after being stranded temporarily in Richmond, Va., yesterday because of floods, the southerners found Colgate a comparatively easy mark as they registered five touchdowns, three in the final period.

Thus ended Colgate's victory string of three, and thus Duke regained its prestige after a specialty season's record of two defeats and one win.

Greenies Pasted By Georgia 40-0

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 17 (AP)—Handing Tulane its worst football beating in many years ought to be a tough job but it didn't look like it today as Georgia's unbeaten club roared over the Greenies, 40-0, before 18,000 sun-toasted customers.

Frankie Sinkwich was slinging in the groove that led to All-America rating in 1941 but when he wasn't there his exuberant buddies rolled right along anyway, with first one and then another lighting the touchdown rockets, Lamar Davis and Charlie Trippi making the fanciest fireworks.

Rams On Top In A Scoring Spree

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—The Fordham Rams rambled to a 23 to 14 victory over West Virginia University Mountaineers today in a rough and rowdy football frolic that had the 12,000 spectators at the Polo Grounds more confused than excited.

Although unable to stir up a sustained drive at any time, the Rams struck three sharp, unexpected blows in the first half to take a 20 to 0 lead. Then Fordham itself was staggered as West Virginia scored two touchdowns within the first five minutes of the final period.

FROGS TAG AGGIES 7-2; TEXAS WHIPS PORKERS

TCU Delivers In Pinch To Stay Unbeaten

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 17. (AP)—Texas Christian's Purple Frogs thundered on among the nation's unbeaten, untied teams today over the hull of once-mighty Texas A. and M.

The score was 7-2 and that just about tells the story of a gripping Southwest conference football game that had 14,000 fans limp at the finish.

Coming back to batter the Aggies from goal line to goal line in the last half, Texas Christian lived up to its reputation of giving out only when the chips are down. Against Arkansas it was like that, against U.C.L.A.—and now Texas A. and M.

Jim Woodfin, giant center, bobbed up to intercept Leo Daniels' pass on the Aggie 24 yard line of the third quarter. That was the payoff. Emery (ice water) Nix pitched a pass to Trotter Adams for five, then threw one down the middle to Bruce Alford who fought his way to the A. and M. seven-yard line. Van Hall on a reverse crashed right tackle for a touchdown and Clifton Patton added the extra point.

For two quarters the Aggies had outplayed TCU in a battle that never got inside the other's 40-yard line from scrimmage.

It was Daniels' kicking that kept the Frogs on the defensive most of the way. His fine punt down to the Frog 15-yard line led to an A. and M. safety midway of the first period.

On a reverse, Dean Bagley to Van Hall to Charley Conway, the latter fumbled the ball and it rolled over the goal line. Conway picked it up and attempted to run but was trapped by Bill Henderson, Aggie wingman.

The vicious-tackling Cadets jarred the ponderous Frogs to their shoe laces on every tackle and every block and at half-time it looked like A. and M. which had dropped two games out of three, was surging again onto the glory road they had known for three straight years.

But the Frogs came back with a rush, got A. and M. on the run and there never was any doubt which team would win after TCU had scored its touchdown.

The Frogs threatened to score several times in the final period, once advancing close enough for Patton to try for a field goal from the 12-yard line.

Navy Pre-Flighters Fall In Another Day Of Upsets

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 (AP)—The uninterrupted march of the navy pre-flight football powers through intercollegiate competition came to an abrupt end today in another dizzy series of results that like-wise saw Colgate Vanderbilt Duquesne and Tennessee all beaten for the first time.

Biggest shock of the day came at South Bend where Bernie Bierman's Iowa Pre-Flighters who had beaten Kansas, Northwestern, Minnesota and Michigan in a row, were soundly beaten by a Notre Dame outfit beaten by Georgia Tech and tied by Wisconsin. The score was 28 to 0.

Meanwhile, at Boston, Jimmy Crowley's North Carolina Pre-Flighters, unbeaten but tied once, dropped a 7-6 decision to Boston College's Eagles who star for the day was Don Currian, an end.

Colgate, hailed as one of the east's most potent aggregations, could do nothing right at Buffalo and took a terrific shelling from Duke's Blue Devils, 34-0. At the same time, Duquesne, which had run up a streak of 18 straight victories, bowed at Chapel Hill to North Carolina's unbeaten Tarheels, 13-0.

Vanderbilt's defeat by Mississippi State could not be classified as any upset but the 33-0 count the Mississippians rolled up was a distinct surprise. Tennessee put up just such a stalwart defense as most critics had figured but could not match Alabama's power and the Crimson Tide walked off with an 8-0 victory.

This left Alabama in a position to challenge Georgia's Bulldogs at the top of the Southeastern conference heap but Georgia apparently is ready for any rival if the 40 to 0 score it piled up on Tulane is any criterion.

Rolling along the unbeaten trail along with Georgia, Boston College, and Alabama were Ohio State, Wisconsin and Illinois in the mid-west, Army, Syracuse and Brown in the east Georgia Tech in the south, Texas Christian in the southwest and Washington in the far west.

Illinois, upset conqueror of Minnesota a week ago, fought off a

Ohio State Grabs Fourth Straight, Sinking Purdue

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17 (AP)—Ohio State University's gridiron juggernaut rolled to its fourth straight conquest of the campaign today, completely frustrating the Bollermakers of Purdue in every department.

The final score was Ohio State 28, Purdue 0. The Bollermakers, fresh from last week's 7-6 upset win over Northwestern, wound up the day without a single first down.

Ohio State, rated the No. 1 college squad in the country, piled up 22 first downs, 18 on the ground and four through the air, gained 301 yards via rushing, and connected on four of 10 passes for another 50-yard advance.

Scoring in every period, the battling Bucks clinched at least a share of the top spot in the Western conference for the week, and sent their sophomore fullback, Gene Fekete, out front in conference scoring with 23 points for two games.

The Findlay youth plunged over for Ohio's first two markers today, and booted an extra point for a total of 18. He counted 30 against Indiana, two weeks ago, and he has a four-game scoring total of 52.

The game was witnessed by 45,943 spectators to bring Ohio's home attendance to 175,181 for four games.

ter was even more sensational. Smith had wound up the blue-jackets on what had the makings of a touchdown surge. He unreared 23 yards, passed to Carl Mullenaux for 3 more, finally reaching the Wisconsin 3. From there he uncorked his arm for a pass to scoring land, but Wink stepped in. He snared the ball a yard behind the goal line, waded through a wave of the white clad sailors to midfield and behind a vanguard of blockers danced into pay-territory. The run goes into the records as 100 yards, but actually covered 101 or more.

The injured Pat Harder kicked the extra point after the first touchdown but missed the second. Center Bob Nelson of Baylor booted the sailors' point in the first period.

Wisconsin Sophs Contribute To Fifth Victory

CHICAGO, Oct. 17 (AP)—The massive sailors of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station stopped Wisconsin for two periods today before a couple of sophomores—Jack Wink and Elroy Hirsch—came to the rescue with two of the longest touchdown runs of the season—on the length of the field—to give the undefeated Badgers a 13 to 7 triumph.

It appeared that Bruce Smith, last year's all-America at Minnesota, might become another Wisconsin namesake after he passed to Nebraska's Fred Preston for a 65-yard touchdown play in the first period.

Then Hirsch and Wink pulled down the curtain on the blue-jackets' second defeat in four games this season and Wisconsin maintained its unbeaten record through five contests.

In the third period, Hirsch took the ball on the sailors' 29 after Wisconsin had lost 20 yards attempting to pass, slid around end, streaked down the field and panted into the end zone for his 61-yard touchdown.

Wink's sprint in the same quarter was even more sensational. Smith had wound up the blue-jackets on what had the makings of a touchdown surge. He unreared 23 yards, passed to Carl Mullenaux for 3 more, finally reaching the Wisconsin 3. From there he uncorked his arm for a pass to scoring land, but Wink stepped in. Longhorns Use Many Subs In 47-6 Triumph

LITTLE ROCK Ark., Oct. 17. (AP)—Roy McKay, the Junction jitterbug, took a delayed buck over center for 63 yards on the second play today to score and start a Texas avalanche that engulfed Texas touchdown avalanche that engulfed the decile Arkansas Razorbacks 47-6.

The Razorbacks got a slight measure of satisfaction out of the encounter, played before a bare 8,000 fans, by scoring the first touchdown of the season against the potent Longhorns in the waning minutes of the game.

Texas, using second and third stringers except for a few minutes of the first quarter, employed every known offensive play in trampling Arkansas except the "statue of liberty" and the hideout end.

McKay's romp at the outset took the steam out of Arkansas. From then on it wasn't even a brick scrimmage for the Longhorns, who methodically set out to avenge the 42-6 lacing the Razorbacks dealt them in the same stadium four years ago.

The Texas second stringers took over in the last four minutes of the first period and pushed the ball to the Arkansas four. On the first play of the second period Max Minor circled his left end for the marker. They started their next drive on their own 34 after taking an Arkansas punt and marched to the goal without losing the ball. Jackie Fields, McKay and Minor alternated in lugging the leather to the six where Minor went over right end for the counter.

Arkansas kicked to the Texas 10 to open the second half and the Longhorns again moved scoreward with Fields contributing a brace of 13 yard sprints and Minor dashes of 28 and 37 yards respectively. Raymond Jones scored the second touchdown, diving over center.

The Walton Roberts-to-Max Baumgardner passing combination figured largely in the next Texas touchdown. After an exchange of punts that found the ball on Arkansas 45, Roberts passed to Baumgardner for 10, Baumgardner lateralling to Don Fambrough who galloped 25 yards for the marker.

The Longhorns added two more in the final period. Fambrough intercepted an Arkansas pass on the Foraker 47, Roberts heaved to Baumgardner for 13, then ran it eight yards over tackle. Jones made it a first down on the 3 and then took a Roberts pass to score. A punt exchange ended up with Texas on the Arkansas 47. A couple of line plays were good for eight yards and Roberts took out over tackle on a 9-yard center that ended the Texas scoring for the day.

Steers, Lamesans Battle To 14-14 Tie In The Rain

Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes, encouraged by first minute breaks, battled to a 14-14 tie with the Big Spring Steers on a rain-soaked field Friday night in Lamesa. Two costly fumbles early in the game put the Mavericks behind, 14-0, but Big Spring's eleven rallied to even the count.

Quick kicks from the toe of Taylor, 185 pound back, put the Steers as a disadvantage throughout the game.

Taking advantage of a Steer fumble on the first play, Lamesa took the ball from Big Spring's 22 yard line, and marched down field for the first touchdown. Reeves and Taylor, Lamesa's stellar performers, moved the ball to the Steer 0 yard marker, and Taylor plunged over from that point for the score. Roberts' kick for extra point was squarely between the goal posts.

The Golden Tornadoes kicked off to the Steer 40 yard line, and again the wet pigskin slipped from the hands of a Steer player. Lamesa recovered. Not long afterwards, Lamesa's Tornadoes having marched to the Steer 27, the slippery ball eluded the hands of Reeves, and Big Spring took over. The Steers were held and Blount punted out to Lamesa's 20 yard line. Reeves and Taylor combined their talents to transfer the ball to their 42 before Reeves booted to the Mavericks' 27 yard stripe, ending the first quarter.

Blount returned the favor with a kick to Lamesa's 45, where the ball was run back to the Steer 43 yard marker. From that point the Golden Tornadoes, on a sustained drive, accounted for their second score. Again it was Reeves and Taylor who combined to move the ball in scoring position on the Steer 7. Taylor plunged over for the 7 for the tally. Roberts again kicked extra points, and the Tornadoes were in the lead 14-0.

Big Spring's first touchdown drive originated on their own 15 yard line, where Earnest Bostick slipped through right tackle and scampered 25 yards, then passed to Blount from the Steer 40. Blount shoveled in the pass, lateral to Stevenson, who in turn handed off the ball to Stewart, and the path was clear to the goal line. Stewart's kick for extra point was good. Lamesa 14-Big Spring 7. The half ended with the scoreboard reading thus.

The final score came in the middle of the third period with Earnest Bostick toting the ball 53 yards for the pay-off play. The Steers' drive started on their 50 yard stripe, and, with Stewart and Bostick delivering, the ball was moved to the Steer 47. It was there that Bostick started his beautiful run, which culminated in the Big Spring score. Stewart plunged over left tackle for the extra point, and the score was evened, 14-14.

Both teams were held scoreless in the final quarter. A drizzling rain made footing uncertain on the soaked field, and drove off all but a few faithful fans. A slippery pigskin also accounted for several fumbles during the melee.

Nothing has happened over the weekend to make the guessing boys back down on anything the've been saying about the district 3-AA race. In fact, the happenings strengthened the evidence that Odeesa, San Angelo and Sweetwater will be the power fighting it out for final honors.

The Bronchos repulsed the Abilene Eagles with surprising ease in Odeesa, 19-0, adding their third district win. The game was played on a muddy field, and Abilene's tricky offensive never did get going. On the other hand, the Bronchos used ground and aerial attacks for their tallies.

The Angelo Bobcats flashed their best game of the season in running over the hitherto unbeaten and untied Kerrville team, 33-0. It was no district game, but it stamped the Cats as a tough opponent. Sweetwater needed only five minutes to convince Colorado City. The Mustangs made two touchdowns to lead 13-0 when the game was called on account of heavy rain and Colorado conceded the contest.

Up at Lamesa, there was more rain, and Big Spring and the Lamesans slipped to a 14-14 deadlock. Midland had no game scheduled.

Army Defeats Columbia, 34-6

NEW YORK, Oct. 17. (AP)—Army's football machine, featuring a line that opened gaping holes for the backs and backs who opened the eyes of 30,000 partisan fans with spectacular gallops, completely crushed Columbia's hapless Lions at Baker field today, 34 to 6.

Twice in the first period the Cadets hit pay dirt, and twice more in the second. They added their final score in the third quarter then, with reserves taking over the burden, permitted the never-quitting Lions to punch across a lone touchdown in the final period.

Sturdy Hank Masur was brightest star in the Army touchdown parade, but he had ample help. Masur's performances included a 65-yard off-tackle gallop to the Columbia five-yard line in the first period, Paul Governall overhauling him and bringing him down by the nape of the neck, and a up-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

Corpus Knocks Out Ellington, 75-0

CORPUS CHRISTI, Oct. 17. (AP) Scoring practically at will by land and by air, the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station Comets today rolled to a 75 to 0 victory over the Ellington Field Bombers of Houston.

The Comets tallied a pair of touchdowns in each of the first two periods, added three in the third and four in the final stanza. Halfback George Franck led the naval air station scoring parade with three touchdowns. Pete Bachon accounted for two, and one each was made by Francis Mattingly, W. C. Green, Johnny Black, W. V. Jorgensen, Barron Ellis and J. Morrissey. Joe Senko place-kicked seven of his eight tries for extra point. Bill Stages made one of two, and B. Hinkman accounted for one.

Red Raiders Fall Before Baylor, 14-7

LUBBOCK, Oct. 16. (AP)—Striking with a substantial 34-yard drive in the first period and a lightning 90-yard run in the second period, the Baylor Bears defeated the Texas Tech Red Raiders here tonight, 14 to 7.

In the first period, the Bruins plowed 32 yards for first down on the Raiders 4-yard line. On the second down, Milton Crain went off left tackle and over for the first touchdown and Coleman kicked the point.

The remainder of the first period saw the Raiders pounding inside Baylor's 20-yard line but could never get over, once being stopped on the 6-yard line.

The Baylor juggernaut made it 14 to 0 in the second period on the most sensational play of the game. Kilt Kittrell took Peter Blanda's punt on Baylor's ten yard line and returned it 80 yards for a touchdown. Kittrell went down middle like a bullet and was only touched by three Red Raiders but none of the three could get a firm grasp on him.

The third was a scoreless period, but the fighting Raiders got a touchdown late in the fourth quarter. George Zoller, left tackle, blocked Kittrell's punt on Baylor's 22-yard line. Several players went after the loose, bouncing ball but it was Guard Jimmy Jay of the Red Raiders, who picked it up and galloped 16 yards for Tech's touchdown. Peter Blanda kicked the conversion.

BOSTON WINS AGAIN
 BOSTON, Oct. 17. (AP)—Unbeaten Boston College became the first eleven to defeat a naval pre-flight team, squeaking past the North Carolina Cloudbusters 7-6 before a throng of about 25,000 today at Fenway Park.

Mrs. Gordon Phillips and Mrs. J. R. Farmer, old rivals in the local Women's Golf Association tournament, will meet today at 2 p. m. on the Country Club links to decide the annual trophy title.

Mrs. Phillips, who holds two legs on the trophy, stroked her way to the finals Saturday by ousting Mrs. Blanton, 4-3. Mrs. Stalcup, like Mrs. Farmer, has been a constant challenger in the association's tournaments.

Bernice Jordan, who defeated Mrs. Bill Tate 3 up, will meet Mrs. Bill McCamy, who advanced by default from Mrs. Carl Blomfield, in the finals of the championship consolation.

Stella Flynn captured the first flight, getting by Shirley June Robbins, one up while Wanda Griffith was taking first flight consolation honors by a 1-up advantage. Prizes will be awarded to the champion and consolation winners at a tea following the matches this afternoon at the Country Club house.

Sooners Win First Game

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 17. (AP) Oklahoma's Sooners finally learned the secret of scoring today and applied the lesson so spiritedly they white-washed Kansas, 25 to 0, for the first Sooner victory of the football season. A slim crowd of 4,805 saw the game.

The loss was the fifth straight for the hapless Jayhawks who were further humiliated by the fact the red jerseyed Oklahomans pilfered Kansas' favorite weapon—the forward pass—to achieve or set up three of their four touchdowns.

Kansas held a slight edge in play during most of the first half, and it wasn't until late in the second period that Oklahoma got its scent of touchdown land.

Huel Hamm, flashy senior tailback, returned a boot by Ray Evans to the Kansas 47. Eddie Davis poked up 5 yards, and then Hamm pitched to halfback Bill Mattox for a gain of 22 yards to put the ball on the Jayhawks 19. A 5-yard penalty for delaying the game, and two slashes by Hamm and Mattox reached the six, and

EVERYBODY EVERY PAYDAY 10% OF WAGES IN WAR BONDS

Fair Enough!

IT'S LIKE PUTTING MONEY IN THE BANK!

5 REASONS WHY

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.
2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.
3. You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.
4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.
5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

"Listen, mister... I'm making pretty good wages these days, and so are about fifty million others. And we all think pretty much the same about the way we can help America win the war."

"Save 10% in War Bonds every payday? That's no sacrifice—it's a cinch! Like putting money in the bank."

"Take my wife, for instance. She says it's money we just wouldn't save, otherwise—dough that we just chuck away—with nothing to show for it later."

"But this is the real payoff—"

"The money we save in War Bonds is going to produce the planes, the tanks, the ships and the guns to make the Japs wish they'd never even seen Pearl Harbor! It's going to produce the bombs and the bullets to make their honorable 'harakiri' seem like a picnic."

"Do you think we people on the home front want to be left out? Don't you know that the workers, the stenos, the farmers, dentists—every last man and

Miss Laneous Notes

Things we could do without in this life!

People who drive by in your direction—and insist upon waving, but don't stop to pick you up.

Those who ask you a question about something that takes a few minutes to explain, and then start talking about something else in the middle of your reply.

Cheery conversationalists who want to start the day off talking to you about things that make you wake up your mind before you've had your breakfast coffee.

People who insist upon reading you articles from books, magazines or papers regardless of the fact that you've just pointed out that you've read the article.

Children who have foot races up and down the aisles at the picture shows on Sunday just as you come in "flying blind" from being in the sun and then in the dark.

Friends who drop in unexpectedly on Sunday afternoons when you are knee deep in lounging and the funny papers and having visions of a well-earned nap.

Chums who look with eagle eyes at your made over dress and ask if that isn't the same one you had last year. You both know it's the truth and that's what hurts.

Men who gripe about the war when they haven't done anything constructive for years and as yet haven't been touched by the flame of war.

Women who gripe about the war when the extent of their help has been to grudgingly spend a couple hours a week at the Red Cross, since everybody else seems to be doing it.

State Head Talks At District Music Club Meeting In Odessa

Mrs. G. H. Wood Presides During Meeting

ODESSA, Oct. 17. (Sp.)—Mrs. Bard Paul, Dallas, state president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, spoke before the annual convention of the 9th district of Texas Federation of Music Clubs Saturday noon at luncheon held at the county library clubroom.

Mrs. Paul spoke on war service work and the important part that the federation of music clubs could play in war times. Mrs. Paul pointed out that many clubwomen were questioning in their minds whether it was better to disband their music clubs for the duration and do total war work.

To this, Mrs. Paul spoke an emphatic "no" declaring that even the government had recognized the need of such clubs in maintaining civilian morale. Such parts are serving on victory signs during sale of war bonds, was a part the music clubs needed to play, she said.

"We must, however, change the character of the federation work and the character of our club work to meet changing conditions," Mrs. Paul warned.

Other facts brought out during the state president's speech were that the Texas clubs were leading other states in doing war service work and that the clubs were filling a real need in civilian war time lives.

Mrs. G. H. Wood, district president, presided at the district board of director's breakfast and also gave the greetings at the luncheon.

During the afternoon, Miss Roberta Gay, district junior counselor, presided during business sessions and reports.

Mrs. Bernard Lamun, district recording secretary, and Mrs. R. W. Thompson, district corresponding secretary along with Miss Elsie Willis and Mrs. Pat Kenney were others attending.

The meeting closed at 4:30 o'clock with a fine arts tea at the Paul Moss ranch complementing district and state officers, delegates and visitors.

Formal opening of the convention was given by the Rev. C. A. Johnson of the First Christian church of Odessa, the Odessa Music Study club president, Miss Eu Jean Smith, and Judge A. H. Dennison and Henderson Shuffler. Mrs. C. M. Linehan, gave the response. Mrs. Paul Moss, district vice president, presided at the noon luncheon.

Hollywood-- Guys Named Joe Don't Stay In Hotels Like This

(One of a series by Robbin Coons, Hollywood columnist, who is touring the country.)

By ROBBIN COONS
OUTSIDE NEW YORK--There's nothing so reassuring as a little fragment of certainty in these uncertain times...

"On your visits to New York," it begins, "why not follow the custom of so many distinguished Hollywood guests (huh?) by making your address the gracious and luxurious Swank?..."

"Arrangements at Swank," it assures, "are most versatile and are available en suite from one to five or more rooms with appointments which conform to your plans for living or entertaining..."

"Service is suave and thoughtful with no hint of commercialism in the regime..." (Now that's nice. They're in it for fun, huh? Art for art's sake, as M-G-M's lion always says...)

"Your comfort and privacy are given every consideration by a personal as well trained as your own staff of attendants..." Egad, what an outlook! Haven't the gentlemen heard? There's a war. Out our way the staff--all one of her--heard the call and is now happily riveting in an aircraft factory...

"Perhaps you feel"--this epistle fascinates me--"that this summer you should keep on the conservative side as regards tariffs. Here, too, Swank accords--with your patriotic objectives, for rates are never extravagant..."

Well, that's about all. Here I've been a patriot all my life and didn't know it. Put like every small-town Joe in the world I'm still not reassured. Especially when they call the had news a "tariff," especially when they don't define what they mean by extravagant. Extravagant for me -- or for that other "distinguished Hollywood guest" named Louis B. or Dietrich, or Gloria Giammar? They've got to make it clearer. That's why, with regret, I've got to pass up the gentleman's invitation. That's why, I guess, I'll be having that beer-bust, if any, in some quiet little flop-joint where they speak American you can understand. I think it'll be down in the Bowery, where reliable sources tell me there hasn't been a distinguished Hollywood guest in years, and where there's nothing horrifying or too, too ill-bred about calling a buck (dollar) by name.

Washington Daybook--

Could It Be That FDR Is Lauding The Press?

WASHINGTON -- The Capital In Wartime: One of the local writing journalists tells this one on himself. He had landed at the airport and was hustled into a city-bound cab with a young man in uniform...

By way of pleasantry, the capital newsmen opened the conversation with: "I have just returned from an experience I wouldn't take the world for. Rode down to Houston and back on a tanker. The trip down was pretty exciting, but coming back we didn't even have one escort ship. Say, there wasn't an inch of the way that we weren't figuring on getting blown out of the water and into a sea of flaming oil," the civilian said breathlessly.

The young man in uniform was all interest. He agreed that it must really have been something, that he too would have gotten a thrill out of such a trip. He inquired: "How did you happen to be taking it? Work for the government?" "Nope," said the civilian, "I'm a newspaperman." "Is that so," said the young fellow in uniform, sticking out his hand. "I'm a newspaperman myself. I'm with The Associated Press. Name's Clark Lee."

(Note: Clark Lee is the correspondent whose front-line reporting of the bloody battle of Bataan drew praise from the war department and whose escape from Corregidor and eye-witness accounts of battles in the Pacific have made some of the most thrilling reading to come from the many fronts.)

Washington newsmen and commentators haven't been able to figure out yet whether the president was praising to the skies or--what. In that tense press conference just after he returned from his secret trip, the president said there was a minority of writers and commentators in Washington who, like some members of congress... serve selfish sectional interests by giving out "sententious views."

Webster's International Dictionary: Sententious, adj. (1) Full of meaning and wisdom. Obs. (2) A terse and energetic in expression, pithy. B. Abounding in sayings, axioms and maxims, sometimes with derogatory implications. C. Marked by pompous formality. (8) Given to aphorisms.

In view of what went before, it's pretty safe to conclude that the president's statement used "sententious" in the sense that it was a saying, "with derogatory implications," but the boys are still wondering. Most of them prefer the obsolete definition.

The night before the opening of Washington's Stage Door Canteen for the service men, the promoters held a "pound party" preview. They planned it with little expectation of really stocking the shelves with coffee, sugar, cakes, etc. Admission was to be two pounds of food or $3 in cash.

When the doors opened, the lines blocked traffic in all directions. Before the bars went up at midnight, 12,000 persons had walked through the canteen.

A Promise for Tomorrow

Chapter 28 THE MAN IS MAD

Julie caught back a scream. "Because of course I couldn't permit that. Not at this hour of the night," the voice went on smoothly. "A young lady alone in these wild mountains!"

Didn't he know that Pete stood just inside the black shadow beside the car? How much of their whispered conversation had he overheard--if any?

"Why no," she dared, coolly. "No, I wasn't going anywhere. I just couldn't get to sleep, so I remembered I had aspirin here in my doctor's bag. I came to get it." She spoke loudly and it seemed her voice rang out across the silent farmyard. Pete couldn't fall to hear--to take warning. "Then let me help you." He took the bag in one hand and with the other, grasped her arm firmly, helped her out of the car, across the yard, into the house.

Walking beside him, trying desperately to control the trembling that shook her, Julie didn't dare look back, couldn't have seen anyway, probably, whether Pete got into the car unnoticed.

Inside the narrow hallway, Moun's flashlight stabbed a shaft of light up the steps. As she preceded him up the narrow flight, Julie knew real terror.

"Thank you so much," and tried to smile as she reached the door of her room.

"Not at all," a flicker of smile, a short bow.

She closed the door quickly behind her, leaned against it, her breath short as if she'd run miles. Then, even as she listened, horrified, she heard the key turn in the lock.

Automatically, she tried the knob. Then raced to the open window. She even, in her sudden panic, started to climb over the sill. Then common sense caught up with her again. Stupid. She couldn't slide down the t roof without rousing the whole household--to say nothing of breaking her neck in the process. There was no escape this way.

She went back to the door again. Prisoner, all right. Flattened against the door jamb, she heard voices from across the hall. Muffled sobbing, then quick steps. A door opened, shut with a bang. Then silence. Long, eerie, unbroken silence hovering like a pall over the darkened house.

Grave Danger As the moments crept by and still nothing happened, Julie went back to the window, strained to see through the dark. Was Pete's car still there? Or had he gotten away? Was he even now on his way for help? On the alert, her senses waited for sound, movement from the drive. When she fancied she heard a motor starting on the road below the river bridge, she could only hope it wasn't just her own wishful thinking.

She had the answer to part of her questions in a few moments. Just when the very silence itself seemed to shriek warning, footsteps sounded in the hall again. The key turned in a lock, and her door swung open, admitting the uncertain yellow light from the kerosene lamp Arnaldo held in his hand. A yellow light that touched his face, gave it grisly pallor.

"So sorry to disturb you, Doc--" for Hamilton," he said smoothly, closing the door behind him before he sat the lamp in a wall-bracket. "I assume, however, that you are still--not 'asleep'?"

Julie stood quietly erect, gathering courage, commanding well-disciplined nerves.

Arnaldo's lips curved into a grimace, a real challenge to her stout-hearted poise. "I understand that my wife has told you the whole story."

Still Julie only watched him, silently.

"It was very unfortunate that she chose to become confidential after all these years. I thought--that horrible smile again, "that I had trained her better than that."

Some of Julie's fear gave place to loathing. Quietly, in perfect control of herself now, she waited for this man to prove himself everything Dawn had said he was, and was cornered and desperate. And (the thought hit her ominously) a cornered rat is dangerous!

"Perhaps not." Julie's eyes met his unflinching. "Suppose you tell me."

"That would be ungalant of me." He laughed shortly. "I am 'distrust' that this should be my unpleasant duty -- and to such a charming young woman as yourself. But," he shrugged, "it's war."

It came to Julie swiftly now that the man was stalling for time. That he knew Pete had gone for help, or guessed so much, and was cornered and desperate. And (the thought hit her ominously) a cornered rat is dangerous!

"I'm afraid I don't understand you," Julie said, stalling now herself.

"I'm certain you do. It is very unfortunate that my wife's mental collapse should have come at this moment. She has given you information which is extremely dangerous for you to possess."

"Dawn's mental collapse," as you call it, merely helps me to understand why she is so frightened. You didn't really think that you could actually force her to join your bunch of gangsters, did you?"

The Open Threat The smile slid into a sneer. "She has joined forces with my government, Doctor Hamilton. She did that when she became my pallo."
