BLACKS IN THE NEWS

"LOVES BEING A MASON"

James P. Burrell

After completing his job hosting the more than 400 delegates to the eleventh annual Western Regional meeting of the Masons last week, our Black in the news this week, James P. Burrell, was happy with the outcome of this meeting. "You know, I like working in the lodge and love humanity."

A Mason for 37 years, Mr. Burrell is the leader of the local lodge and is a special deputy of two districts. "I never get tired of working for an organization like the Prince Hall Lodge," he said.

SCOTT RUNS FOR CITY COUNCIL IN THE CITY OF ABILENE

Not only will Lubbock citizens be voting for a city councilman on Saturday, April 1st, but in Abilene, they will be doing the same.

One of those persons running for such position is Leo F. Scott, a resident of that city for over 16 years. He is also a graduate of Texas Southern University at Houston with a B.S. degree in Pharmacy. At present time, he is Chief Pharmacist of Abilene State School since 1961.

"I have harbored a desire for several years to run for City Council. My tenure on the Planning and Zoning Board and a genuine concern for good representative city government gives me experience and insight, qualifying me to serve on the City Lodge," he said. At present time, he is a local businessman. He takes pride in his two establishments. He is the owner of the Downbeat Record and Tape Shop and Unique Bar-B-Que, 1701 Parkway Drive. "We have the best bar-b-que in town, and is always willing to be able to cater the public," smiles Burrell.

"We need more young Black business men and women in the community. They can make it if they really get in there and work hard at it. There are just so many opportu-ties for them," he said. "I knew we needed an eating place in east Lubbock, and we went right to work and developed the Unique Bar-B-Que business. We have good food, and enjoy doing what we are doing," he said.

A native of Robinson County, he moved to Lubbock in 1953 from Spur. He retired from the American State Bank after being there nine years. "Now, I'm on my own, and I'm really happy about the opportunity to be able to make a contribution to the business community in Lubbock," he says.

"You know, next year, we are really going to have a great meeting in our city. It will be held at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center, and hundreds of Masons will be on hand," he said.

A member of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church, Burrell is married to Mrs. Clarice Burrell, who has been an employee of Methodist Hospital for nearly twenty years. They have a daughter, Ms. Elizabeth Ann Crowder, an employee of USDA; three sons, Charles, manager of the Nunn Electric Warehouse; William James, employee of Frito Lay; and Don, a young man in the investment market.

Mr. Burrell has severed on several committees in the city of Lubbock. Among them include the Human Relations Committee.

With this distinguished citizen of our community, we can see why the Prince Hall Masons are on the move in Lubbock.

"CREDIT UNION NEEDED FOR MASONS," SAYS CLAYBORN IN MEETING HERE

"It's high time that the brothers of the lodge do something about developing a credit union in this district," said Dr. I. H. Clayborn, Most Worthy Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas and Jurisdiction, in their eleventh annual Western Regional meeting last Saturday at the Hilton Inn.

"We've just got to get involved in these kinds of economic development programs, because we're not

As publishers and editors of this newspaper, we feel it is our duty and obligation to endorse Joan Y. Ervin for Place One on the Lubbock Independent School Board of Trustees on Saturday, April 1st. She must be re-elected and we encourage all citizens of Lubbock to join us in this effort.

As a Black owned business in the community and for the sake of unity and goodwill throughout the city of Lubbock, she must be re-elected for another term.

At this time, with the situation of the city, this experienced, dedicated and knowledgeable Black sister needs to regain her position on the school board. She is very much aware of the present litigation the school system faces, and understands the problems facing our school system. This is the way it is, and there is no other choice than Joan Y. Ervin. We strongly endorse her and support her in this bid for re-election. We are not just endorsing her because she happens to be Black, but because she is highly qualified for this position.

Since the whole issue of desegregation is centered around the minorities, especially Blacks and Browns, there needs to be someone on the board who is sensitive to the needs of Blacks and other minorities as well as other children. With a workable, sensible, and mature approach to our problems, someone like Mrs. Ervin is needed. We feel as though she understands the present circumstances. We, as well as other citizens of Lubbock, have no other choice. The removal of Mrs. Ervin from her present position on the school board, at this time, would cause negative results to the upcoming desegregation program.

ERVIN NEEDS TO BE RE-ELECTED

Therefore, with all sincerity, we strongly pray that Lubbock will stay with a proven winner as Mrs. Joan Y. Ervin. We urge everyone to vote Saturday, April 1st, for Sister Ervin.

It's a must that she be re-elected to the Lubbock Independent School Board of Trustees in our community.

The Political Association of Lubbock Mexican Americans (PALMA) today announced its slate of endorsements at a news conference held for the Lubbock Media. Tomas Garza, President, said that the Association was endorsing in an effort to recognize those candidates who were most empathetic and committed to working toward alleviating the needs present within the Chicano community.

PALMA was formed by prominent persons within the Chicano community to support and endorse viable candidates. PALMA has an approximate membership of 75 persons representing all facets of the Chicano community. It has sponsored various candidate's forums in the Chicano neighborhoods in which the majority of the candidates for School Board and City Council have appeared to present their views on issues confronting Chicanos.

The slate of candidates which was officially endorsed was: for Mayor — Robert Kizer; for City Council Place One — Alan Henry; for City Council Place Three — Maria Luisa Mercado. In the School Board race PALMA endorsed: for place one — Joan Y. Ervin; for place three — Claudia Dollins. PALMA is expected to hold candidate's forums in the following months for candidates in the May Primaries.

Special music of the morning was given by the Lubbock Community Choir, members of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church.

Alan Henry, city councilman, gave a welcome to the city, while T.J. Patterson gave greetings. Response to these remarks, Mrs. Margaret

WESTBROOK UPSET OVER BLACKS WANTING TO SELL VOTES TO HIM

John Hill Westbrook

"I am a serious candidate for the Lt. Governor's office in the great state of Texas," says John Hill Westbrook, the first Black to run for the second highest post in the state.

"I paid my $1,500 filing fee on time, and I'm running to win," he said.

The first Black to play in the Southwest Conference at Baylor University, he has made many miles letting the citizens of Texas know that he is for real.

He says: "We have hit many road blocks on our path, but there is a great chance we can win." A minister of one of the largest Black churches in Tyler, he says: "The Mexican American's seem to be all for us, the white population is listening and by some indication, we will get quite a few of their votes."

He went to say that the Blacks are trying to take advantage of what he is doing in the state. "The Black population is (not all) playing a game with us. They want us to buy their votes. One group, he wouldn't reveal, asked for $16,000 for their endorsement."

"Other various groups (Black) are asking for major contributions just for recognition, and as of today we cannot meet these demands."

Westbrook says very seriously, "We can win but we need the buck of the Black votes. We will accept any input for Blacks in Lubbock."

He is expected to be in the city of Lubbock in mid April.

Lubbockites will be going to the polls Saturday, April 1st, to elect a mayor, two city councilmen, and two school board members. This election will find the city and school having the election on the same day.

As of 5 p.m. Tuesday, 302 persons had voted absentee in the city election; and only 198 had voted in the school board election.

Persons seeking places on the Lubbock Independent District Trustee election are: Place One, Bill Warren, John Ray, Jr., Joan Y. Ervin, and Lynn Stafford.

For Place Two on the school board are Robert E. Lowery, Donna Mildred, Brad Crawford, Claudia Dollins, and Edith S. O'Brien.

Voters will have an opportunity to choose one of four candidates vying for the mayor's position. They are Robert Kizer, Dirk West, James G. Marshall, and Leland Kelly.

For Place One on the city council, which has developed to be a hot race, Alan Henry and Mike Stevens are working for this position.

Place Three on the city council has brought four persons seeking this position which was vacated by Henry who is running for Place One. They are Maria Luisa Mercado, Glad Norman, M. J. Aderton, and Bob Schmidt.

Place One on the school board has an incumbent, Ms. Ervin, who has been in this position for eight years.

Place Two on the school board has no incumbent, and the results of this election will have a new person in the capacity of school board member.

West, who has been the city councilman in Place One, is expected to be challenged by Kizer. Not much activity has been seen in the camps of Marshall, city of Lubbock critic over the years; and Kelly who is a Texas Tech student.

Mercedo, her first time in politics, is expected to be felt with her votes from the Mexican-American and Black communities as she bids for this post. On the other hand, Aderton, retired businessman, is expected to be felt with her votes from the Mexican-American and Black communities as she bids for this post.

SENIOR CITIZENS

The Texas Tech Programs for Older Texans is "recruiting" senior citizens in east Lubbock.

"In this outreach effort, we hope to find lonely, isolated senior citizens who could really benefit from our program," explained Dr. Joe Williford, T-POT Project Director.

Williford said that special outreach workers will be going door-to-door in east Lubbock, locating persons 60 and over and explaining the various facets of the T-POT program to them. The east Lubbock emphasis is part of the T-POT goal to familiarize elderly persons with services available to older citizens in Lubbock.

A similar outreach effort was recently completed in the Arnett-Benson area.

Williford said the outreach workers can be identified by T-POT badges that bear their names. They also carry brochures and pamphlets about the Texas Tech Programs for Older Texans. Persons with questions about the program or outreach workers, may call T-POT headquarters at Texas Tech University 742-3924.

Funded by federal monies, T-POT serves nutritious noon meals Monday through Friday at eight centers located in Lubbock. The centers are open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily and serve as a hub of activities for senior citizens.

Officer William H. Britt was a happy fellow last Sunday. He was telling the whole city his mother, Mrs. Thelma Britt of Newark, N.J., an aunt, Mrs. Janie Mae Gissender of Ozark, Alabama; and a brother, Willie Fred Britt of Ozark, were with his family on Easter. Not only did he attend morning worship services at Bethel, but he made the Federation of Choirs. How about that Brother Britt?

VOTERS.... pected to receive a good portion of the votes casted. Not much activity has been seen in the Black community from Norman or Schmitt. In Place 2 of the school board race, although Crawford has been quite visible in the media, O'Brien and Dollins are expected to finish with him. Perhaps the hottest race is Henry vs Stevens.

HELP NEEDED!

The Concerned Neighbors and Friends of Mrs. Willie Mae Reed, 1824 East 1st Place, are setting up a trust fund to help aid her. Mrs. Reed was in a car accident in October, 1977 and still remains in the intensive care unit of Methodist Hospital. She is paralyzed from the neck down to her feet.

The ICU can only keep patients for a certain period of time which means that Mrs. Reed will be moved to a private convalescent home until recovery.

Most homes do not have the equipment that the hospital has and it is necessary for Mrs. Reed to have this life-supporting machine which requires at least $12,000 before she has use of it.

Donations are being made from neighbors, friends, churches, and others.

Before the accident, Mrs. Reed was an active member of the Church of the Living God in which she was the president of Mission, the Sunday School teacher, and a choir member. She has a husband and three children, and many friends and relatives who appreciate any donations.

For information about donations, please contact Mr. C. Taylor at 762-2735 or make donations to the American State Bank in care of Mrs. Willie Mae Reed.

ASSAULT BY LADY

LARRY NEAL, 216 Cherry Ave., reported to the Lubbock Police Department that he had a problem one night last week. He said that he had been at a cafe in the 900 block of Avenue C with some friends when it started.

According to the police report, the 19 year old man was walking outside of the establishment with a lady friend.

He said he asked her if she would be his date for the evening. Without paying any attention to the lady, who said yes, the lady stabbed him in the chest for no apparent reason.

After stabbing the young fellow, the lady ran down Avenue C.

He was brought to West Texas Hospital where he was treated for a stab wound.

He told police they had no argument, and didn't know why the lady stabbed him.

The report didn't reveal whether or not Neal would file charges against the lady friend.

ATTEMPTED MURDER

PAM SUE ROLLISON, 2111 East 29th St., reported to Lubbock police that she was coming home from work one night last week when someone took advantage of her.

She said as she was driving in the 1700 block of East 1st St. a car pulled up with two subjects in it. One of the men in the car motioned at her. After this gesture, he pointed a pistol and fired two shots. After doing this, the pair fled toward Quirt Ave.

Police observed that at least one bullet hole was in the right rear of the passenger window. The bullet did not penetrate the glass on the opposite side of the car.

Police believes a .22 or .25 caliber pistol was used. Approximately $100 worth of damage was done to the car.

BOYFRIEND ASSAULTS GIRLFRIEND

A 19 year old Black sister reported to Lubbock police that her boyfriend came by her apartment about 2 a.m. Sunday morning and took advantage of her. She told police that he accused her of having someone in the apartment with her, and let him out the back door. She told police that she didn't have anyone in the apartment.

The police report made known that the young lover hit her across the head several times. After getting away from the young man, she went into the bathroom and he followed her. She fell into the bathtub and he kicked her with his boots.

He told her to call the police, but she wouldn't do so. She indicated to police that he would have shot her if he had a gun.

The upset young lady told police that she will file charges this week.

You know, love is strange thing. It will be of interest, that is, to see if the sister will file any charges. We hope she will.

ASSAULT

DANNY JACKSON, 237 Cherry Ave., reported to Lubbock police that he was in his front yard minding his own business when he received a call to come over to a friend's house on East 4th St.

He said he hurried over to the friend's house. When he got to the residence, he was met with some bad happenings. The friend asked him if he had been talking about his mother. Jackson told the fellow he didn't know what he was talking about.

At this time, he was attacked by the fellow. Jackson was hit several times over the head.

As soon as he could get away, Jackson did just that!! He ran home after receiving a swollen nose and several cuts on his face.

He said he would file charges this week.

MAE SIMMONS BURGLARIZED AGAIN!!

SANNA JEAN CUNNINGHAM, 2410 East 28th St., who is an employee at Mae Simmons Community Center, reported that the center had been burglarized. Entry was apparently gained by knocking an 8 x 2 steel panel out of its molding.

THEFT

MILTON GORDAN, 1716 East Damouth Ave., reported to Lubbock police that persons unknown had taken his wheel covers from his car.

"DIGEST ENCOURAGES GOOD CITIZENSHIP PROGRAM"

The Lubbock Digest takes as one of its many projects, a "Good Citizenship Program." We hope to present this proposal to the Lubbock Independent School Board of Trustees in the very near future. We feel as though this type of a program will provide positive steps in building good citizenship.

The plan, as we see it, is for all young men and women who are or will reach their 18th birthday by high school graduation. Each will be presented a "Voter Registration Certificate", along with their high school diploma, upon graduation from high school.

This would be a non-political, non-partisan endeavor which would enhance Lubbock's record for fair play. These young people, Dunbar, Estacado, Coronado, Lubbock High and Monterey, would display concern and care as they move along life's way with their "Voter's Certificate". They would have made a positive step in good citizenship as young adults.

No matter where they would go across the area, state or nation, they will show the goodwill of Lubbock and have a good foundation as productive citizens.

The "Lubbock Digest", your weekly newspaper, is very much concerned about this issue and will do all we can to push such a program. We firmly believe our young people should be taught responsibility, and they should be encouraged to be good productive citizens. We feel, without taking anything from our dear beloved senior citizens, there should be emphasis placed on our young adults as far as caring for them and making special provisions. These young people are our future leaders. Let's lead them in the right direction!

The "Lubbock Digest" hopes to involve our future leaders in our upcoming seminar on business and economic development. More will be said about this effort in the next few weeks.

Another point as to building good citizens is the very young learning respect for their elders. To us, it is very depressing to hear some child, not yet cured of diaper rash, calling a 45 or 50 year old man or woman by his or her first name. It is not old fashioned to hear a young person refer to their elders as "Sir" or "Mam", or "Thank You, Sir." Nothing wrong with saying "Please" to situations. As parents and concerned citizens, we need to work on this matter of good citizenship. We believe by getting back to the old way of raising our kids, they will be in better hands.

Even with this good citizenship program, with the cooperation of the Lubbock Public Schools, many of these negative obstacles would be overcome. It would even encourage our children not to spend so much time watching those "TV" shows; rather encourage them to sit with their books in hand and learn something which will make them productive citizens. All this time, watching "TV", is only hurting our Black kids.

Anyway, in the very near future, we will take our proposal to the School Board of Trustees and hope to be able to award such a valuable document to all seniors in the Lubbock Public Schools who will graduate in months to come.

We believe in good citizenship, and we want to do what we can to make our city a much better place in which to live for all of our citizens. We don't believe there is a better way to start than with our young high school graduates from all five high schools in our city.

We will be looking forward to making good citizenship a fact of life in Lubbock, and helping our young citizens.

Lubbock is such a great city in which to live and bring up our children. If you have input to our "Good Citizenship Program," let us hear from you. After all, this is our city and our schools.

REPRESENTATIVE WILLIAM CLAY ON THE BROADCAST INDUSTRY

Part III of Four Parts

Here the Congressional Black Caucus Communications Sub-Committee Chairman, Representative Clay of Missouri, reminds us of the gross inequities in minority employment in the communications industry.

"Let us look at current black employment in the broadcast industry. Based upon 1976 F.C.C. data, there are approximately 125,275 jobs in the broadcast media; 3.2 percent of these positions are held by black women, and 4.6 percent are held by black men. Where the true decisions are made, the dearth of black people is obvious. Of a total of 25,096 management jobs, only 1.2 percent are held by black women, and only 2.4 percent are held by black men. Of the 36,105 jobs in the industry classified as professional, only 2.3 percent of the employees are black females and only 5.2 percent are black males. In the area of sales, the training ground for future managers, there are 13,931 positions; only .9 percent of these jobs are held by black women, and only 3.0 percent are occupied by black men. If sales remains the key stepping stone to management, the outlook for black people in such positions in the future, looks bleak. Given the minimal black employment within major media occupations, is there any question that black people are underrepresented and inaccurately represented, on our television programs today? With only a modicum of blacks in decision making capacities in the industry, findings such as those of the Civil Rights Commission in "Window Dressing on the Set: Women and Minorities in the Media," are inevitable. This dismal picture must be altered."

If you wish to give immediate support to Mr. Clay in changing this pattern, please write to him at Room 2264, Rayburn Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

You may write to your Congressman and Senators at: Congressional Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515 or Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510. Please congratulate them for their important work and let them know where Black America stands on critical issues.

WORDS OF LIFE
Biblical Inspiration For The Week

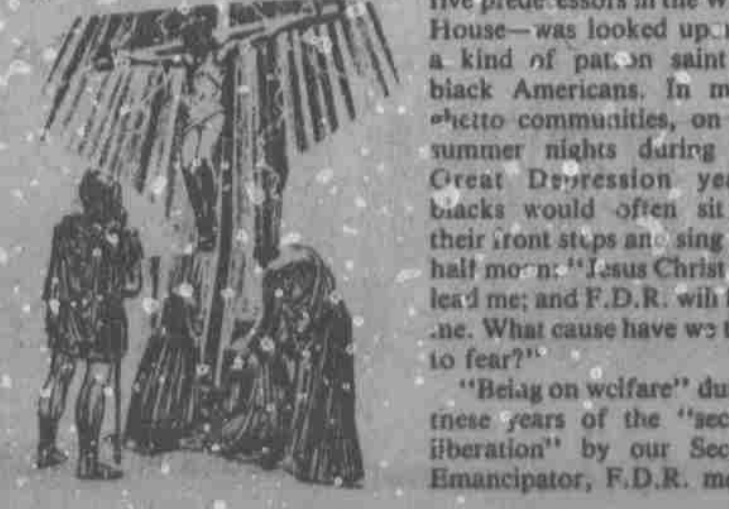

"My judgement is just" — John 5:30

1. We are not free agents. We are being measured. We are being "weighed in life's balance" every day. Do you measure up? What weight do you bring to bear upon the issues of life which need "the stubborn ounces of our weight" which only we can spare?

2. God is our judge. God has made each of us for a high purpose. Hence, God counts on us to do His will in all this.

When we fall in any expectation of us, God's will for His world is strained; for the weight is placed on others. Are you placing the wrong kind of weight on God? His "just" plan calls for you to measure up and to carry your just weight.

3. God's world is a world of order. God's ways and judgments are just and true because in the plan and economy of God "nothing is ever lost." The fragments of fractured lives will be brought together. Jesus, the Carpenter, will "make things right." The Great Designer's "plumbline" has been set so that, when the winds of life are settled, God's will and word ultimately prevail. God's word and God's judgments are just!

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

By Dr. Nathaniel Wright, Jr.
Human Rights Activist

PERNICIOUS WELFARE

One of the most serious and pernicious barriers to black-white communications, respect and understanding is the problem of public welfare or relief.

The fact that blacks have been considered and dealt with to a large extent as outsiders or as "guests" has encouraged the placing of disproportionate numbers of black Americans off of the employment possibility roster and onto the welfare rolls.

Added to this is the recognition that blacks, deeply sensing that America has owed them something which it has not repaid, somehow have concluded—perhaps by a large majority—that what America has owed blacks is welfare.

A part of the readily apparent logic which could have led in this direction is the fact that, for a period of a decade, prior to our entry into World War II, the major problem for blacks was getting enough money on which to survive. Welfare became a significant part of our racial history during the 1930's.

Further, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt—at least by comparison with his five predecessors in the White House—was looked upon as a kind of patron saint by black Americans. In many ghetto communities, on hot summer nights during the Great Depression years, blacks would often sit on their front steps and sing in a half-moan: "Jesus Christ will lead me; and F.D.R. will feed me. What cause have we then to fear?"

"Belief on welfare" during these years of the "second liberation" by our Second Emancipator, F.D.R. meant that "all was well." What more, indeed, during those bleak years could black folks expect? We felt that we had, at long last, a friend in the White House; and we had food to eat in the midst of a national and world-wide depression. During World War II, even when labor was becoming a precious commodity, if not an endangered species, it took a threatened black "March On Washington" to get F.D.R. to consent to issuing a Fair Employment Practices executive order.

The need to issue such an order was especially revealing. So deeply ingrained was the national feeling that blacks were outsiders or aliens in America that even a war emergency could not bring blacks reasonably onto the nation's employment roster.

Partially, doubtless, as a consequence of the continued frustration of blacks everywhere seeking their rightful chance to enter America's economic "inner circle" (or world of work), blacks were thrown back into dependence upon at least the security afforded by Public Welfare.

At work in concert, in erecting barriers to grateful or self-sustaining employment by black Americans, were the inherited feelings of prospective employers and the aggressive resistance of white workers.

White workers, from the South had (they) been given an acknowledged preferential treatment. The racial traditions of the South had demanded such a difference. But in the North, "worker interests" were not protected by employers; employees had to organize for the protection and advancement of their own rights. The white trade unions derived most of their late 19th century and early 20th century strength from recent white European immigrants. These immigrants served as leaders of union locals; and they provided the manpower whereby the unions could bring an employer's operations, where necessary, under their control.

The primary interest of the American trade union movement was—and remains even to this day—the protection of the interests of those European immigrant groups who have formed the bulwark of their ranks. In this historical or long-standing way, the trade union movement—except most notably for the once all-black Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters under A. Philip Randolph's leadership—has been a major barrier to black entry equitably into most of the nation's areas of employment.

What we have noted here has been a constellation of highly unfortunate circumstances at work which have pre-disposed blacks toward the seeking of welfare in contrast to work. But none of these circumstances could be said to be crucial. What black people themselves must reckon with is the tragic, if not exceedingly dangerous, fact that blacks today make up nearly 50 percent of the nation's relief roster. This makes us appear to be the nation's (i.e., the white man's) economic burden of the Twentieth Century... and perhaps for centuries to come.

BLACK POETRY

THE FANTASY

That old and utter fear:
A remarried woman introduces her daughter who carries the last name of her first husband and I became aware that for too long women have scrambled like thieves to steal the name of a man to legitimize a child and shut the mouths of those who would scream bastard.

Frightened creatures have tricked themselves out in tight skirts and trinkles to protect the shame at the heart of their fancy by marrying a man they could not love merely to birth that fantasy and love it without cringing.

—Philip M. Royster

Here the black poet sings the plaintive song of the black male "emasculated by the system."

(Black poets, who may wish exposure to our reading public, may send copies of their poetry—for editing and with permission to use—in groups of 12 poems or more to Media Resources, Box 157, Selkirk, N.Y. 12158. Poetry should normally appear within 12 to 20 weeks. Because of staff limitations no copies are returned.)

Media Reviews:

THIN EDGE OF JUSTICE

A review of Call The Final Witness by Melvyn Bernard Zerman (Harper and Row, Publishers, N.Y.), 195 pages, hard cover—$8.95.

Melvyn Bernard Zerman is—or was—not a writer. Like most ordinary middle American white adults, he faced the possibility of doing jury duty. When he was finally called, again like most prospective jurors, he was un-ency.

Further, as with most "guilty verdict" cases at least, most of the defendants would be expected to be black. In this case, this normal American practice held true. On trial for a murder of which he was finally and all-too-thinly acquitted, was a black youth called Ricky Mathes, age sixteen.

The evidence against Ricky was highly circumstantial... and racially perceived, albeit unconsciously.

The marvelous aspect of Zerman's story of the actions and reactions of the jury, recreated from finely detailed notes, is that for once we can get inside of a jury room and see first-hand just how important it is to "call the final witness."

Three cheers to Harper and Row for releasing this much-needed story. And a warm word of the deepest thanks to Melvyn Zerman, a quiet hero whose words help bring us just a bit closer to justice in our land.

CAREER WOMAN

"ONE NEEDS AMBITION AND CONFIDENCE TO SUCCEED"

Cynthia Gatewood

Our Career Woman of the week is an expert at listening to people's problems. She is Cynthia Gatewood, repair clerk for Southwestern Bell, and her job involves answering customer calls for telephone repair service.

It might seem that hearing complaints all day would ruin a person's disposition, but Gatewood says she has overcome that problem. "The employees at Bell are really close and they help you forget any unpleasant phone calls," Gatewood said. "I like helping people solve their problems and most of the customers are very courteous."

Gatewood began working for the phone company in October, 1976. "I work because I want to work and because I like my job," Gatewood said. "It is a very chal-

Acts 4:32-35

32 Now the company of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had everything in common. 33 And with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. 34 There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of what was sold, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 35 and laid it at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each as any had need.

Acts 5:1-11

1 But a man named Ananias with his wife Sapphira sold a piece of property, 2 and with his wife's knowledge he kept back some of the proceeds, and brought only a part and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back part of the proceeds of the land? 4 While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? How is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God." 5 When Ananias heard these words, he fell down and died. And great fear came upon all who heard of it. 6 The young men rose and wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him. 7 After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." 9 But Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Hark, the feet of those that have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11 And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all who heard of these things.

MEMORY SELECTION:

With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. Acts 4:33.

Church of God in Christ

Our church services opened last Sunday which was Easter. The Power of the Resurrected Christ. We had a glorious time all day. The Easter program was held at 3 p.m. We had a beautiful program and style show. The children were styling from Amarillo, Plainview, Hale Center, and all the way from Denver, Colorado.

Evening worship opened with prayer and testimony service. The Holy Ghost filled the place.

Our Revival has got underway with a young man of God with a message from God for your deliverance. He is Evangelist William Watson of Lubbock. He is a dynamic preacher. He will be preaching each night at 8 p.m. His message was "The Power of His Resurrected Body." (Phil. 3:10-11) He preached with power from high. The Holy Ghost fire was burning. At altar call, approximately 50 souls or more were at the altar crying to God. They were repenting, getting healed, and most of all, Black soliders were returning home. We are expecting a miracle from God in this meeting. The power of God is in action. There was spiritual singing. Even small children were crying out to God.

We welcome our many, many visitors from Hale Center, Plainview, Amarillo, and Denver, Colorado. Also present were Elder Fitzew and family. He is a great organist from Lubbock.

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

1. Our bodies are important. God is concerned with our bodies, with how we care for them, and use them. Indeed, the manner in which we will heal you. He is still in the healing business. What ever your desire, come out and be with us. To the titheers, keep on tithing. The Lord will truly bless you. Also the many who are contributing to the Building Fund.

eat, sleep, work, play and do anything with and to our bodies reflects our respect for an important gift from God.

2. Our bodies are temples. A temple is a sacred place. It is something set apart and of special honor. Our bodies are temples, places where God's spirit moves and performs its saving work. Is your body always kept worthy of being a residence for God's spirit?

3. Our bodies house and shelter God's life. It is God's divine breath which gives life to our bodies. Every joy that our bodies bring is a joy from and of God. Our pain draws us into the growth process, the growing pains of the universe. We reverence our bodies even in death because they have been the best vessels or temples which God has had available to do His work and to show forth His glory.

Lubbock needs a City Councilman who will take ACTION throughout his term and not just during the election campaign

Lubbock needs Mike Stevens

As a Man of ACTION, Mike Stevens will represent the citizens of Lubbock on important civic issues.

ACTION . . . to help control your rising utility costs.
ACTION . . . on taxes and massive reevaluation of your property.
ACTION . . . on traffic safety problems and congestion.
ACTION . . . to protect your home and family from crime.

The citizens of Lubbock have been subjected to 5 murders, 6 rapes, 61 assaults, 27 armed robberies, 81 car thefts, and 313 burglaries during the month of February alone. In one month Lubbockites suffered $568,413.00 in property losses to crime. Based on steadily growing statistics, crime in our city will reach an incredible high unless something is done to stop it—and done NOW. Mike Stevens is calling for the creation of a Crime Prevention Unit for the Lubbock Police Department to interface with the community needs, and bridge the gap between public demand and Police Department demands.

Truly an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

These are the Issues

1) I am in favor of eliminating the crime in our city through a strong and efficient police force and in having swift punishment for the guilty. But in order to insure that only the guilty are punished, I am in favor of the city applying to the National Legal Aid and Defender Association (NLADA) for a public defender program which will insure an adequate defense for the poor. To simply rely upon court-appointed attorneys who may be inexperienced in criminal law or who may be too busy to devote sufficient time to a case is discrimination against a poor citizen. Justice, which requires a diligent defense, should not depend upon the wealth of the defendant.

2) I believe that there should be an end to the automatic passthrough which has allowed our utility bills to skyrocket. The utility increase is devastating to everyone, but especially on people with fixed income. The council should review all proposed utility increases. The problem, however, is much more complex than the other candidates realize. People, like your grandparents, who are on fixed income, cannot afford constant increased utility rates in any amount. Therefore, I am in favor of guaranteeing all utilities for people on fixed income to be adjusted only when there is an "actual" increase in their income.

MARIA LUISA MERCADO

CITY COUNCIL PLACE 3

3) I feel the quality of housing in the city can be improved by strictly enforcing the Uniform Housing Code, however, we must guard against rent increases by the landlord. Violation of the Uniform Housing Code should not be a basis for increasing the rent of innocent tenants. I would appoint a Special Commission or give authority to the present Housing Standards Commission to evaluate rent increases arising out of required improvements due to housing code violations on a case by case basis. Without the commission's approval a landlord would not be able to raise a tenant's rent by passing on the cost of the housing violation onto the innocent tenant.

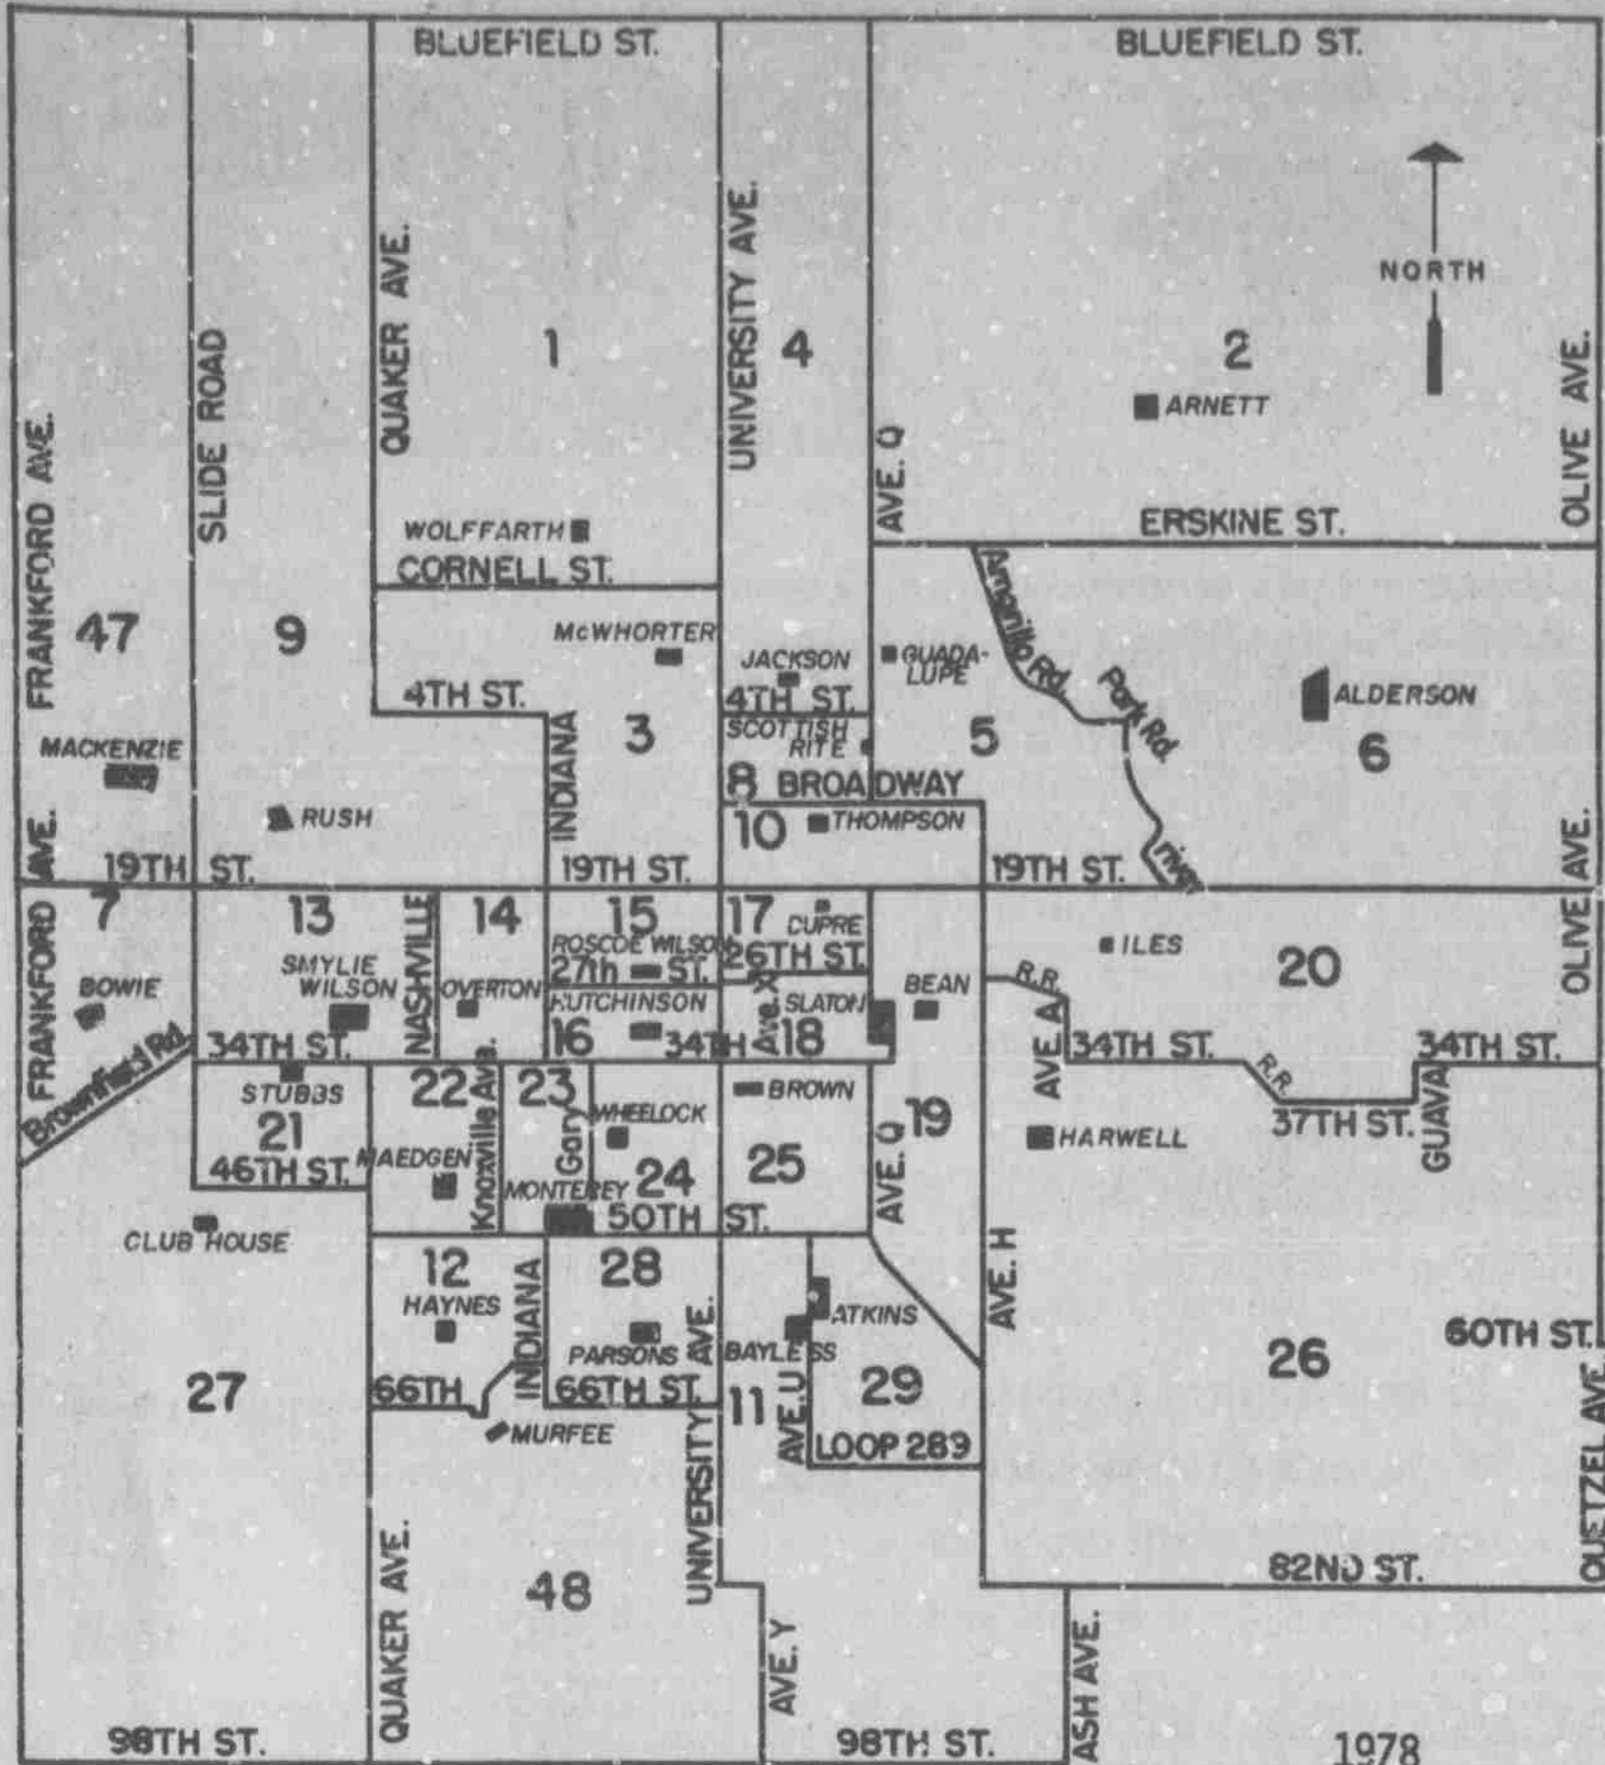

4) Our city has spent millions of dollars on our Convention Center complex. All of us appreciate the center because we can draw conventions to our city which brings additional customers for our local businesses. However, a serious problem exists in our city that will deter many large conventions from seriously considering Lubbock as a convention site. It is the problem of discrimination in our local night clubs. I call on the Human Relations Commission to investigate this problem and advise the City Council on a solution to this archaic policy.

FOCUS ON THE NEUTRON BOMB AND IMPLICATIONS CONCERNING ITS USE

(For Classroom and Group Discussion)

All of the scientific evidence and studies have led to the conclusion or are based on the fact that the neutron bomb is a barbaric weapon of mass destruction. A study published by "Time" Magazine states that all those within the radius of the bomb will die at once whereas those outside it, will suffer under an intense degree of radiation finally causing death.

An official publication of the Atomic Energy Commission and of the Department of Defense, the title of which is "The Effect of Nuclear Weapons," describes some of these effects on human beings.

In addition to the immediate mass destruction of human life, it produces various consequent effects leading to a painful death. The American report describes the horror arising from the use of nuclear weapons: "Individuals were found to exhibit varying degrees of shock possibly within a few hours. This was accompanied, or followed shortly, by nausea and vomiting, and then by diarrhea during the first day or two after exposure; subsequently there was a development of fever. The diarrhea was frequent and severe in character, being watery at first and tending to become bloody later... Although there was no pain in the first few days, patients experienced a feeling of discomfort or uneasiness (malaise), accompanied by marked depression and bodily fatigue. The early stages of the severe radiation sickness may or may not be followed by a so-called latent period of 2 or 3 days during which the patient is free from the symptoms although profound changes are taking place in the body. This period, if it occurs, is succeeded by reappearance of the same symptoms and active illness, accompanied by delirium or coma, in many cases terminating in death usually within two weeks."

"Among other symptoms which have been observed are secondary infection and a tendency to spontaneous internal bleeding towards the end of the first week. At the same time, swelling inflammation of the throat is not uncommon. Loss of hair, mainly from the head, may occur by the end of the second week... a decrease in size and degenerative changes in the testes and ovaries; ulceration of the tonsils and of the mucous membrane of the large intestine... characteristic increase in the body temperature (fever)... continuing until the day of death."

Key Questions:

1. What are three main issues in this article?
2. What does this article suggest that you can do about our world situation?
3. How many words did you look up in the dictionary? (If we do not use a dictionary daily, and for every word whose full meanings we may not know, we cannot grow individually and assure the best use of our resources for group freedom and a better America.)

KIZER

Lubbock needs a mayor who will serve the people of Lubbock, NOT his boss at the utility company.

Saturday, April 1st.

Elect
Robert D. Kizer
Mayor

He will help us face the future seriously.
"Lubbock deserves a mayor who will serve our city in a business-like, professional manner."
Robert Kizer will give our city the serious, unbiased leadership we will need to face the critical issues before us and insure continued growth and prosperity.

- Robert Kizer will work for Lubbock citizens to:
- curb rising utility rates
- control the rising rate of crime which is engulfing the city
- control the staggering revaluations by changing the static sixty percent valuation to a decreasing percentage which will stay in line with inflation, but will not raise property taxes at its present devastating rate
- create affirmative plans for the growth and well-being of Lubbock.

Rev. Roy Paschell Davis

Webster's dictionary defines SIN as: the breaking of a religious or moral act.

SIN originated in the Angelic World.

SIN is a moral evil.

SIN is the result of a free, but evil choice of man.

SIN is taken seriously by God at all times.

I believe SIN is one of the saddest, but also one of the most common phenomena of human life; it is an act that is committed by us all, everyday.

We must BELIEVE and UNDERSTAND perfectly that God IS NOT the Creator of SIN; there is no evil in God.

SIN, in the human race, began with the transgression of Eve and Adam in the Garden of Eden; therefore, it was a perfectly voluntary act on the part of man.

SIN is not only a transgression of the law, but an attack on God, the Lawgiver. Remember, it is only natural, since God is against SIN. He visits the sinner with punishment.

With the anointment of God's power and understanding, I believe that this article will be helpful. This article is to be taken with complete understanding and consideration on the reader's part. The main object is to bring to focus to the reader's mind exactly what he is doing, and how and why! He is committing this unrighteous act against God.

The scale is for you to use mentally, laying all unrighteous acts that you're doing on the left, all righteous acts on the right. You be the judge of the tilt of the scale.

The 70 years on the left represents the kind of life you're living NOW. For God or for self!

The word eternity on the right represents the eternal state (life) you'll have after death. This eternal state depends on what type of life you're driving NOW.

Remember, I am no judge. The judging is God's, but my duty is to tell you what's right to the best of my ability.

Our GIANTS Speak...

The Hon. H. P. Cheatham on "Amicable Race Relations in 1900"

"Prosperity to a nation is most secure when all elements and classes of that nation are at peace, one with the other. Christianity reaches the height of its sacred mission when the spirit of cooperation and brotherly love is most conspicuously in evidence. National prestige and the influence of a people in the councils of the world are invincible when the contributing forces of the land are happy and united. The problems of civilization are solved when wars are silenced and 'rumors of wars' are heard no more.

America, as we have come to call the land of our birth, has not grown to her present proud proportions upon 'flowery beds of esse.' Her strong place among the powers of the earth has not been gained without resort to martial strife. But, it is a gratifying fact, that up to this hour every struggle against outside foes has made American people stronger from within, and every victory, in our long, unbroken line of successful campaigns, has bred a warmer spirit of homogeneity and knit us together in closer bonds as a national unit. Foreign foes offer our country no danger today. Our army and navy are without peers upon the globe, and, despite our marvelous sketch of coast line, we have nothing to fear from foreign invasion.

The disease that threatens us most is from within. If salvation be needed, we must pray to be 'saved from ourselves.' To 'make clean our hearts'—to face in proper spirit the duty that lies before us—should be the earnest supplication of every true American citizen. A spirit of unity is our urgent need at the opening of the 20th century.

Thanks to the wise economic policies of those entrusted with the reins of legislation and government, our country is enjoying a period of unexampled commercial prosperity. Business is booming, money is easy, crops are abundant and labor is receiving a fair return for energy expended. But, in our mad rush for the material things of life are we not forgetting the spiritual wants of the citizen, are we not neglecting the moral qualities that make nations enduring and the principles that must live when cities decay and dynasties cease to be? In fine are we not veering too far from the altruism of our father, in the apparent subordination of human rights to the acquisition of power and of wealth? This dangerous ambition breeds in our midst socialism and industrial unrest, exemplified in strikes and lockouts. It fosters anarchy—a spirit of lawlessness, from which but a few weeks ago the nation suffered the loss of a beloved chief magistrate. It stirs up racial antagonisms, and defies the ameliorating influences of Christian brotherhood. All difficulties surrounding our labor problems, however, are easy of solution, for while capital and mechanical industry may be frequently at war for one reason or another, the outbreaks are merely sporadic and short-lived. They are invariably adjusted, from time to time, either through arbitration or equitable concessions. Capital and industry are of one color, and the complications are purely superficial. The one contention that 'passeth all understanding' and which defies the skill of the ethnologist, the psychologist, and all who deal with the ancestral or philosophical aspects of mankind, is the 'race problem.'

The Hon. H. P. Cheatham Men who attain to real leadership and those who lift as they climb; broad in mental resource, generous, and strong in manly impulse, they forget self and become the embodiment of principles that make genuine progress and win the hearts of their comrades by the compelling force of character and personal magnetism.

Such a man as pictured above is Henry Plummer Cheatham, one of the most successful forces in the public life of the twentieth century Negro. His career has been visited by success because he has richly deserved it. Mr. Cheatham was born in Henderson, N.C., some forty-odd years ago. He was educated in the public schools of his county and at Shaw University, of his native state. He was a promising youth, and with prophetic spirit laid deep the foundation upon which a brilliant character was to be built. His first public office was that of registrar of deeds in his native county. So conspicuous was his work and so worthily did he impress himself upon the judgment of the people, Mr. Cheatham was nominated and elected to the Fifty-first Congress, and was again chosen to sit in the Fifty-second Congress. When President McKinley reached the White House, one of his earliest appointments was that of Mr. Cheatham to be Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia, a post which soon came to be regarded as carrying the insignia of leadership in the political council the 'race problem.'

Lubbock needs a City Councilman who will take ACTION throughout his term and not just during the election campaign

Lubbock needs Mike Stevens

As a Man of ACTION, Mike Stevens will represent the citizens of Lubbock on important civic issues.

- ACTION . . . to help control your rising utility costs.
- ACTION . . . on taxes and massive reevaluation of your property.
- ACTION . . . on traffic safety problems and congestion.
- ACTION . . . to protect your home and family from crime.

The citizens of Lubbock have been subjected to 5 murders, 6 rapes, 61 assaults, 27 armed robberies, 81 car thefts, and 313 burglaries during the month of February alone. In one month Lubbockites suffered $568,413.00 in property losses to crime. Based on steadily growing statistics, crime in our city will reach an incredible high unless something is done to stop it—and done NOW. Mike Stevens is calling for the creation of a Crime Prevention Unit for the Lubbock Police Department to interface with the community needs, and bridge the gap between public demand and Police Department demands.

Truly an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Across The Nation

News From Home Folks

This feature is a news compilation from more than 100 black-owned and oriented newspapers across the nation. It deals with what blacks, who are all-too-often little recognized, are doing to promote full participation in American life by black Americans. It is thus a substitute from all of our readers to unsung heroes... and is designed to be a challenge for all of us to keep on doing our very best.

That many more black youths need to elect fields in business and the sciences rather than in the far lower paying fields of education and social work has long been evident to many who are concerned about the black economic future.

It is against this background that we are especially pleased to congratulate a pioneering black American in science whose story of most recent success is reported by the Tulsa, Oklahoma, Eagle. The Eagle notes:

A black American scientist, Edwin L. Cooper, Ph.D. recently received an American Cancer Society-Eleanor Roosevelt International Cancer Fellowship to study in Switzerland. Dr. Cooper, 40, received a grant of $21,705 for a year's work at the Swiss Institute for Experimental Research.

Dr. Cooper, one of the world's foremost authorities on the evolution of the immune response in animals, is a Full Professor of Anatomy at the University of California at Los Angeles. Immunity is the body's resistance mechanism against disease or the invasion of foreign substances.

A native of Houston, Texas, and graduate of Texas Southern University, Dr. Cooper points out that animal life systems, e.g., respiratory, digestive, circulatory and nervous, developed from a common set of natural environmental conditions at the dawn of evolution. Dr.

Cooper's work is done with earthworms, and his study of the evolution of their immunity may shed some light on human cancer.

Financed by the American Cancer Society, the fellowship program is administered by the International Union Against Cancer (UICC) in Geneva, Switzerland. The program enables outstanding scientists from around the world to work in leading institutions in many countries. When they return home they continue their research and teaching responsibilities, thus sharing the benefits of knowledge gained during their work abroad.

The author of more than 100 scientific papers on the subject, Dr. Cooper is Founding Editor of the International Journal of Developmental and Comparative Immunology, and is presently writing a textbook on the subject.

He is working already in Switzerland with Dr. Jean-Charles Cerottini of the Swiss Institute. He is married and he and his wife, Helene, have a son and a daughter.

Dorsey Miller, a proud Floridian of whom all black Americans should also be proud, has received a national honor marking him as a distinguished and pioneering black who has stood tall among the nation's younger giant.

The Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Westside Gazette tells the following proud story of unusual achievement:

Dorsey C. Miller, one of the outstanding young men of the Broward community and one of its black leaders, was recently selected as an Outstanding Young Man in America for 1977 by the United States Jaycees.

Miller is married. He and his wife, Betty, are expecting their second child this month.

Since graduating from Morehouse College in 1965, Miller has been actively involved in the area of civil rights and is a leader in the field of education in the state. He received his master's degree from the University of Florida and will be re-entering Florida Atlantic University this month to continue work toward his doctorate.

Presently employed by the State Department of Education, he serves as the regional coordinator for migrant education. In this position, he is administratively responsible for a program which provides services to migrant children in an 8-county area in South Florida. The program employs over 600 people with a budget of approximately $6 million.

In addition to his work with the migrants, Miller is actively involved in community affairs in Broward County. He serves on the board of directors of the following organizations: Broward County Urban League, Big Brother and Big Sisters of Broward County, Kiwanis Club of Central Broward, where he is chairman of the board; and is a member of the ESSA Advisory Board of Broward County Human Relations Division.

Additionally, he is president of the Pan Hellenic Council of Broward; a member of the New Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Pride of Fort Lauderdale Elks Lodge #652, NAACP, Morehouse Investment Association, and is immediate past state representative of Omega for the State of Florida. He presently serves as the Director of achievement for the Seventh District of Omega.

Relatedly, our readers salute Charles C. Bookert, M.D., named president of the National Medical Association (NMA) at that organization's 82nd Annual Convention and Scientific Assembly in Los Angeles.

Bookert, M.D., was named President of the National Medical Association (NMA) at that organization's 82nd Annual Convention and Scientific Assembly in Los Angeles.

Although his most recent post with the NMA was President-Elect, Dr. Bookert has also served as the Association's First Vice President, Vice Speaker and Speaker of the House as well as Chairman and member of the Board of Trustees.

Well regarded for his work in medicine and education, the Clairton physician is on the staff of the Family Practice Department of McKeesport Hospital. President of the Gateway Medical Group, Dr. Bookert is a member of the Allegheny County Comprehensive Health Care Committee and the Board of Directors of the Allegheny County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

In 1976, Dr. Bookert was elected to the Board of Directors of the newly-formed Health Systems Agency. His past responsibilities include presidency of the McKeesport Academy of Medicine and the Keystone Medical Society. The recipient of honors from civic groups, industry and medical organizations, Dr. Bookert graduated from Morris-Brown College and Meharry Medical College.

The Health Systems Agency congratulates Dr. Bookert on his new appointment.

Our readers may wish to send congratulatory messages of encouragement to the papers which report happenings of interest or concern to us. Such messages may be sent to the publishers, editors or other persons by simply addressing them, using the name of the paper, c/o Black Resources, Inc., 410 Central park West, PH C, New York, N.Y. 10025.

Prayer Poem

The hymn, "There's A Witness In God's Mercy," tells as eloquent a story as any of the calm and compassionate justice of God.

We must be grateful eternally to F.W. Faber for his immortal words written for our admonition and encouragement in 1862.

There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior;

There is healing in his blood.

There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.
For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind...

Worship God in church this week. Keep God's will to keep holy the Sabbath Day. Put first things first; then your life may follow a pattern of justice and order.
