Billie Russell Promoted By Bell

Mrs. Billie Russell

Billie Russell, Southwestern Bell employee in Lubbock, has been promoted to assistant staff supervisor-employment recruiter for the telephone company. Russell assumed the newly established position November 1. "My job is, basically, to sell the company," Russell said. "I will address people at high school and college functions, telling them about Bell and encouraging them to apply for jobs. I will also be interviewing applicants." Russell, a Lubbock native and graduate of Dunbar High School, attended Texas Tech University, Indiana State Vocational College, and South Plains Junior College. She has been a Bell employee for 13 years, working as an operator, a supervisor and an acting group manager of operators, and in business services. "Since my husband, David, is in the Air Force, we've done quite a bit of traveling in our 13-year marriage. I've worked for Bell in Austin and Gary, Indiana, also. Not many companies will allow you to transfer at your request, keeping your same seniority and job, but this one has," Russell said. "Traveling will be a big part of her new job, as she will recruit in Amarillo, Midland, Odessa, Abilene and Austin as well as Lubbock, but Russell still saves time for David, a staff sergeant at Reese Air Force Base, and their 8-year-old son, John.

"I enjoy traveling and meeting new people, but my family and civic duties are also very important to me," Russell said. She is a member of Lubbock Toastmasters Club 384, YMAA, parliamentarian of Iles Elementary PTA, and secretary of Lyons Chapel Baptist Church. She also enjoys reading, bowling and community work. "I'm excited about my promotion. The job is people-oriented, and I love working with people," Russell said. "It will be a challenge, but I'm looking forward to telling everyone about our company's people, benefits, and great opportunities for advancement and success."

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church Celebrates 54th Church Anniversary In Lubbock, Texas

The Mount Vernon United Methodist Church, 2304 Cedar Avenue, will celebrate its 54th Church Anniversary on Sunday, November 11, 1979, at 3 p. m. The guest speaker will be Dr. I. B. Loud, pastor of St. Paul United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas. Rev. Nathaniel Johnson, pastor of Mount Vernon United Methodist Church, cordially invites all churches in the Lubbock area and the public to share in this service.

UPAL Will Meet Here

Members of the United Political Action League (UPAL) will meet Monday evening, November 12, at the Green Fair Maner Community Center at 8 p. m. This meeting is very important. It will involve the recent developments in the community. Dr. F. L. Lovings, president, is urging all members and concerned citizens to be in attendance.

"Funny Mortgage Burning" "IT'S A LIE"

A member of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, Mr. B. W. R. Whitfield, told the Lubbock Digest this week that the burning of the mortgage of the church was a "lie." He said: "The burning of the mortgage Sunday, October 21, was a funny mortgage," he said. "People need to know the truth about what happened," he said. Whitfield continued: "How can you have a mortgage burning when you don't have the original note, and the man who has the mortgage hasn't been found yet." "This was told to me by an officer of the church that the mortgage burned recently was a 'funny mortgage', and the people need to know," he said. "It's just a lie and people need to know what is really going on," declared Whitfield. Mr. Whitfield, former Superintendent of the Sunday School, has been a member of this church for 23 years. "I am telling the truth, and the church told a lie," he concluded.

All Citizens Invited To Attend Community Meeting On Tap November 13

In an attempt to inform citizens of the Black community what is going on in city, county, state, and national government. The Lubbock Digest has been sponsoring community meetings. There have been three meetings involving the city of Lubbock, with emphasis on the traffic situation at East 34th Street and Southeast Drive (formerly Railroad Avenue). Those meetings, involving several hundred residents of the Black community from all walks of life, resulted in a study by the city of Lubbock, to find the feasibility of either an overpass or underpass. This study is expected to be completed by early 1980. The City Council allocated $10,000 for this study.

At the first meeting in May, Black citizens voted against the construction of a crossing bar and light for this area. This new construction would have been in excess of $60,000. At the upcoming meeting on Tuesday evening, November 13, at 7:30 p. m., Lubbock County Judge Rod Shaw, County Commissioners Coy Biggs, and Jim Lancaster, and John T. Montford, Criminal District Attorney, are to

All Regional Honor Choir

Angela Richardson

Angela Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie P. Richardson, Jr., was named as a member of the All Regional Choir after competition on Saturday, November 3. She is a ninth grade student at Wilson Junior High School and is active in the orchestra and athletic events. She is also a representative of her room and vice president of the choir. In the competition which included students from Levelland, Plainview, Lakeview and other schools, there were twenty-five students from each section, including students who sang bass, tenor, alto and soprano. In her choir, there are from fifty to sixty young students where only six will be chose for the solo group - "The Sextet", including two altos, two second sopranos, two first sopranos. Angela tried out and made it. "I really love Wilson Junior High School," smiles Angela. She will tell you that it is a very nice school and she's glad to be a part of it. "At Wilson, they don't put me down because I'm black. They treat me like a person. I'm just like anyone else. It seems that it doesn't matter what color you are," she says. Her hobbies are singing, listening to music and practicing her instruments.

NAACP WILL MEET SATURDAY NIGHT

The members of the Lubbock Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) will meet Saturday night at Mae Simmons Community. Guest speakers will be Leo Quirino of the United States Bureau of Census will be guest speaker. The public is invited to attend.

Crowned Miss Homecoming

Ms. Shirley English Millner

Ms. Shirley English Millner was crowned "Miss Homecoming" in the 1979 Homecoming Coronation at Lowery Field last week. Ms. English was a 1969 graduate of Dunbar High School and is presently employed at Time D. C. as a collection agent. She is a proud mother of three children. She attended Texas Women University and majored in occupational therapy.

"A Dream Comes True"

Rev. and Mrs. S. R. Roberts, pastor emeritus of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, with many friends look on at the mortgage burning. The church also observed its sixty-second church anniversary. The theme for the program was "We Come This Far By Faith."

The program was conducted by Rev. A. L. Davis, pastor of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church. The services were held on Sunday afternoon, October 21. After twenty-seven years of untiring service as pastor of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, it was indeed a dream come true for Rev. and Mrs. Roberts to witness the mortgage burning. Many churches, their pastors, and friends of the city came and shared this glorious day with Mount Gilead.

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

Miss Karmesha Elayne Taylor, the lovely daughter of Mrs. Iris E. Taylor, was a recent visitor in the home of her paternal grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Alexander in San Angelo, Texas. She was highly elated with her visit, Mrs. Taylor motored to San Angelo to get her, because she was going to Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco with her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Iris Smith. While she was in Dallas, she visited with her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ponder, and her cousins, Bobby and Karla. The highlights of her trip came on her visit to her great grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Greenwood, in Waco. She is home now getting ready for her 3rd birthday December 20.

The West Texas District Board will continue with the Lyons Chapel Baptist Church November 13 through 15. All concerned people are ask to make plans to attend.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the New Hope Baptist Church on Tuesday, November 20.

at 7:30 p. m. The Baptist Ministers Union is sponsoring this program.

Let us not get the Black Let us not forget the Black Singers of Dallas, Texas who will be appearing here on Wednesday, November 22. Come and bring a friend.

Mrs. Callie Howard returned home last Saturday from Santa Anna, California. She was at the bedside of her baby son, Calvin, who had surgery. She reports he's doing fine.

Mrs. Daphne Newton was in a car wreck last Friday. Her injury, however, was not serious. This writer hopes her a speedy recovery.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast Club met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hood last Saturday morning at 9:45 a. m. with Mrs. C. E. Fair presiding over the meeting. Opening scripture, 1 Timothy 3, was read by Mrs. Twilla Moore. Prayer was led by Mrs. J. Dyer.

The morning lesson was taught by Mrs. Moore. The scripture was found in Acts 1-11 and Matthew 24:42-44 from the New International Version.

"Men of Galilee," they said why do you stand here looking into the sky? This some, Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the some way you have seen him go into heaven."

Thought of the Morning: "Watch! Think about it. Mrs. Moore, thanks for this lesson. We were helped by it. Keep up God's works. Mrs. Dyer sung beautifully as usual. Her song was entitled "Well Done."

Breakfast was served by people who love to prepare good food for people who like to eat. That's a real good reason to come. You are invited, because we ac concerned. Prayer requests were made and prayers by Sister Vivian Peoples and Sister Juanita Sowell.

Our sick list include Rev. B. J. Roberts, who is at home; Sister Ollie Johnson, Sister Catherine Jackson, a patient at Methodist Hospital; Mrs. Jefferson, Mrs. Valiee Hodge, a patient at Methodist Hospital; Mrs. Caro Wiseman, and Mrs. J. Savage.

Remember God loves you and we do to. We were overjoyed to have our president back with us for good on Saturday morning. We have truly enjoyed

POLICE HAPPENINGS AROUND LUBBOCK

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

J. T. ROBERSON, 3620 East 4th Street, reported to Lubbock police that his road grader was vandalized one night this week by some unknown persons. He told police that sand and gravel were poured into his gas tank and oil container. There was between $2000 and $3000 worth of damage done to the grader. He told police that the unknown persons let the air out of the tires on the road grader. A witness told police that he saw three young boys around the road grader and they were perhaps responsible for the damage.

BURGLARY OF HABITATION

ROSE ANN JONES, 1020 David Avenue, reported to Lubbock police that while she was gone from her residence one day this week, persons unknown did gain entry without her permission. Entry was believed to have been gained through a rear door. Once inside, the intruders went into the bedroom and dumped all of her clothes from the dresser draw on the floor. She didn't find anything missing from the house. She said she would file charges if she found out who was responsible for this act.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

EARLINE ADAMS, 2635 East Bates Avenue, reported to Lubbock police that someone unknown did pry open the back yard gate of her residence one day this week. She told police that after opening the back yard gate, her two dogs were let out. After looking in neighborhood, she found them and took them home. Missing from the yard was a $5 dog chain.

Across The Nation

News From Home Folks

This feature is a news compilation from more than 100 black-owned and oriented newspapers across the nation. It deals with what blacks, who are all-too-often little recognized, are doing to promote full participation in American life by black Americans. It is thus a salute from all of our readers to unsung heroes... and is designed to be a challenge for all of us to keep on doing our very best.

crucially important black "swing vote," which placed Mr. Carter, for example, in the White House. The Tulsa, Oklahoma Eagle tells of one partisan comment by a pro-Republican, the likes of which will become frequent, unless—as expected by many seasoned observers—the Republicans cannot get beyond the choice of a right wing "hard-liner" for party standard bearer. The Eagle reports: "All the Democrats offer economically," one of Tulsa's highest ranking black bureaucrats said in an interview this week, "is the perpetual cycle of welfare and economic oppression. "Republicans' economics are better," recently appointed Municipal Court Clerk Ronald Young contended.

"You've got to get into the mainstream of business, get into management and move up the corporate ladder by your own competence and hard work—not by any shady under-the-table deals." Concerning his recent appointment to the Court Clerk's job, Young told The Eagle that "I don't think I was a compromise for the blacks. It wasn't a racial issue. (Mayor) Jim (Inhofe) and I are close friends and he knew I would do a good job."

Young was named to the post following a confrontation in which presiding Municipal Judge Lawrence Yeagley accused former Clerk Elma Camp of incompetence and Ms. Camp accused Yeagley of "racism and sexism." She contended that the judge "could not deal with" a competent professional black woman.

That our often misigned, misunderstood and "biked and scorned" black churches have always been politically active was recognized recently by the Congressional Black Caucus. The Decatur, Illinois Voice tells the local story of such church-initiated action, affirming this historic and continuing role of the heroic black church:

The Social Action Committee of St. Peter's A.M.E. Church held a voters registration and voter education seminar in the church basement. Its purpose was to investigate all phases of registration and to get a better understanding of how to use the vote.

Three Maywood political activists, Bill Harper, J. Thomas and W. Lewis, were on hand to share their experiences with the local group. Bill Harper, who has served on the Maywood City Council for the past 5 years, said,

"If blacks in Decatur expect to have any political clout, you must first choose the direction that you intend to travel, whether or not you intend to go it alone or form coalitions with the power brokers."

Harper said, "Power is in the vote. Politicians won't worry about what your particular situations are until you prove that you can deliver some votes. It isn't necessary to be able to produce huge numbers of voters because a thousand or 2 votes can break a politician's back and the black community presents that marginal difference."

Harper also cautioned his listeners that "there is no glory nor is there any monetary gain in mustering people to vote; there is only self gratification. People will register and they will come out to vote but you must work at it. People expect you to notify them, they expect you to provide transportation and they expect you to inform them about candidates. If you will do this they will vote. And if you are committed and dedicated as much as you say you are, you will accept this responsibility."

Members of the local branch of the NAACP and members of the Centurian Club were in attendance. The seminar was orchestrated by Ron Burke, Production Manager at Borg Warner.

Fifteen years ago, black people in Maywood decided 'hat no one was going to give us any power so we had to unite our political effort to become a viable force in the community.

Prayer Poem

In 1938 John Hampton Gurney, who later became rector of the famous St. Mary's Church in Marylebone, London, wrote a famous hymn of forgiveness which has blessed the Church for more than a century and a half. Its words speak a healing message to countless hearts even in today's world.

Lord, as to they dear cross we flee,
And plead to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be.

And form our souls for heaven.

Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear.

Like thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brethren's grief to share.

Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as thine.

Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow thee to heaven!
— Amen

Do you forgive... always?
This is the one and only path for forgiveness for ourselves.

EVERETT LIFE INSURANCE

Prepared by the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters, the national society of life insurance professionals who have earned the C.L.U. designation by meeting high educational, ethical and experience requirements.

Q: I've recently switched jobs at a hefty increase in salary, but my new employer has a three-man operation and no group insurance. I was covered by a group insurance policy on my previous job. Can I cash that policy in?

A: Unfortunately, you can't. Typically, group life insurance is term coverage only, which doesn't have any cash value, and the protection stops when you leave your job. You may be able to take the insurance with you. However, you might have to pay a higher than standard premium, which may or may not be the best choice, depending on your insurability.

Tell It Like It Is

by T. J. Patterson

This writer would like for our many readers to know who was really responsible for the proposed installation of a traffic light at the corner of East 23rd Street and Avenue A. It is Harold M. Chatman, a local educator and civic worker, who worked untiringly to see that this would become a reality. Perhaps this man is not looking for any praise, but this writer feels as though we should know who put out the many hours of involvement.

In the local press about this matter, he was not given any credit that is due, so it should be done. As a concerned Black brother here, he is always willing to get involved into unpopular issues, and many times, he has been burned. Anyway, he hasn't given up yet! He says he'll continue to hang in there for what ever is right for the Black community. It wouldn't surprise this writer if he (Chatman) didn't seek political office in the very near future. What about the County Commissioner's post, Harold? If you haven't thought about it, as Eddie would put it, "Why Not?"

As a result of Kenneth May's comments in his daily article in the Avalanche-Journal, "One Man's Opinion" recently, the Black community of our city was very unhappy with his remarks about Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. His comments came after the concern of many Blacks that Quirt Avenue be named "Dr. Martin Luther King Boulevard."

Of course, this issue sparked some disapproval from some white here. Even one local white businessman disagreed with the renaming of Quirt Avenue because he would have to change his stationery and business cards about his particular business. Eddie P. Richardson, Jr., co-publisher and managing editor of the Lubbock Digest, stood before the City Council at that public hearing and said he would personally print new stationery and business cards for this man and pay for them from his pocket.

Anyway, back to Brother May. This newspaper was asked to extend a personal invitation to May to attend our community meeting next Tuesday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m. After calling May, he told this writer that he didn't want to appear to defend what he had written about "King of the Road." He did, however, agree to come out at another time and talk about what is going on in Lubbock. Only time will tell if he will keep this date.

This writer hopes there will be another large group of east Lubbock residents at the community meeting on Tuesday evening, November 13, at Mee Simmons Community Center. Special guest will include Lubbock County Judge Rod Shaw, County Commissioners Coy Biggs and Jim Lancaster, and the Criminal District Attorney John T. Montford.

Remember you are invited to come and take part in this forum. Without you, this will not be a successful meeting. These kinds of forums are needed in the Black community. We need to know what those elected officials are doing, why and how come. Come out and bring someone with you. This is your county, and you need to get involved and see to it that it is being ran the way you want it to be. After all, you are taxpayers and voters.

It is this writer's hope that all organizations, churches and many citizens will be on hand. Everyone should bring somebody with them. This is your forum, and the "Lubbock Digest" is only helping to get the word out. See you Tuesday night!

Speaking of voting! Did you know that only 47 person from east Lubbock voted in Voting Box 20 in the special amendment election last Tuesday. Sure, there were not enough publicity, but the word was given by this newspaper, via telephone, to advise some of you of the election. What happened??

It is a must that we start taking voting serious in Lubbock, Texas.

LEGISLATIVE ALERT

FOCUS ON SOUTH AFRICA:
INDIRECT FEDERAL SUPPORT FOR A FLAGRANT VIOLATOR OF HUMAN RIGHTS

(This is Part IV of an 8-part series calling attention to U.S. direct and indirect aid to foreign governments which violate human rights. Amnesty International and also the Coalition for a New Foreign and Military Policy—at 120 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002—offers further documentaries and guidelines on this issue as it relates to the American public.)

Black Americans are asked to please write to Congressional Black Caucus members and to locally elected federal representatives (in the U.S. House and Senate) opposing aid to human rights violators such as South Africa.)

South Africa is perhaps the only country in the world which by law denies human, political and economic rights to its citizens purely on the basis of race. Africans, Indians and Coloreds have over the years resisted the unjust and inhumane system of apartheid, but that system has only become more rigid and oppressive. Since June 16, 1976, when high school students began peaceful demonstrations in Soweto, more than 800 people have been shot in the streets, thousands have been arrested, and 17 have died in detention.

But the protests continue: against education for inferiority, against the "pass laws" which govern every movement of adult Africans, and against the entire system of "separate development" under which the regime would deny all African citizenship except in "bantustans" which cover a mere 13 percent of the land. We must remember that the real issue in South Africa is majority rule—replacement of a system based on racism by one based on genuine equality.

Extensive involvement of U.S. corporations enmeshes our government in support of apartheid: it finances trade through the Export-Import Bank, allows American companies credits on their income tax for taxes paid to the South African government, turns a blind eye to weapons and aircraft sales, and sells weapons-grade uranium to the minority regime. The Carter Administration hasn't even begun to dismantle these policies. Its statements of support for majority rule in southern Africa will be hollow and hypocritical unless and until it does.

You may write to your Congressman and Senators at: Congressional Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515 or Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510. Please congratulate them for their important work and let them know where Black America stands on crucial issues.

AN ANSWER TO WHITE LIBERALS:
EQUITY VS. EQUALITY AS A PROCESS

THIS WEEK WE EXAMINE

Just as 1954 became the year when the American public came to accept the government decision to end much of the nation's legalized segregation, so may the several years between 1978 and the early 1980's come to be seen as crucial years of serious, race-related public debate.

At issue in the nation's life today is whether or not the longstanding concern for "equality" is a realistic, workable and worthy goal for the welfare of black Americans. That there has been a steadfast, relentless and rigid adherence to equality—both as a process and as a goal—has been made especially clear in the recent debate over the "Sears Suit" which advances the need for "equitable opportunity" in the most resonating way. The major old-line civil rights groups have opposed this "upsetting of the apple cart" by the Sears, Roebuck Company through a kind of solid front. Thus far, these opponents seem to have been successful. But the issue of equality vs. equity has surfaced; and it can no longer be removed from the agenda of civil rights.

That "equal treatment" cannot achieve "equal ends" for groups starting from different points ought to be clear on its surface. Also, it ought to be clear that the commitment by blacks—and by their much-needed and invaluable friends and co-workers in the liberal white community—to the employment of equality as a means as well as an ultimate goal was apparently reasonable under the conditions of half a century ago.

At that time, blacks had to accept "half a loaf" if necessary, and they had to acquiesce in the white liberal perception of blacks as "altogether worthy children." But "new occasions teach new duties, and time makes (some) ancient good uncouth." Hence the black American community as a whole—and so also its leadership—should remain perpetually open to new insights and to new strategies which may be necessary to achieve the fullest possible participation by blacks in every benefit level of our nation's life.

In order to achieve "equality as an end product," some other means must be employed, other than equality itself. Thus, the altogether worthy slogan of the National Urban League, "To Be (—and presumably to become—) Equal," calls for other than "equal means" to become an accomplished reality.

Parity between unequals requires some equalizing differential. In our inherited system of law, this differential came to be known as the age-old principle of "equity and restitution." In order to bring about "equity of status" in employment, equitable opportunities—that is, opportunities with a built-in differential—would be required. This would call, on its face, for an adjustment in the title or name of EEOC, the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, to that of an Equitable Employment Opportunity Commission.

Equal employment opportunities later—that is, after a status of equality initially has been achieved—would seem to be appropriate at some time in the future. But our present focus would of necessity be upon the utilization of equitable means (or of equitable employment opportunity) to eventually bring about equal employment as a desired goal.

In so much of the presently emerging debate about an adjustment in our civil rights goals, there is an understandable uneasiness on the part of much of the black community and the leadership which is responsible to it. So many times in the past, our racial goals have been attacked by effective enemies of black people. Understandably there would be jitteriness.

Then, again, there has been an almost petulant and peevishly nit-picking response to the Sears Suit and its objectives by some from within the white liberal community. It should be evident to the most naive of persons that the paternalism which has persisted among white liberals is but the better or best face to the continuing inability in our nation's life for whites generally to see blacks—just yet—as full persons of equal adulthood and reality alongside white Americans.

Thus, processes agreeable to such a mind-set should at least be questioned. It is simply not consistent with general white, including white liberal, perceptions of who or what we as black Americans are for white Americans to be willing—at this immediate time—to aggressively set goals which inherently would bring about an equality in which they do not quite yet believe.

In this context, truly thoughtful white Americans—and there are legions in this category—ought to break ranks with those holding onto, unrealistic and outworn approaches which may have seemed appropriate to the exigencies of the past. So also must black Americans themselves—to whom their own full status of ultimate equality means more than to any others—be taking the needed initiatives to move to equity and to equitable opportunity as the only way to bring about the status of equality in the end.

TREATING THE MENTALLY ILL IN MALAYA

(For Classroom and Group Discussion)

It is well known that all science is tentative or uncertain. This is more true of "psychiatry" than of some other sciences.

In Malaya, "non-traditional" methods often prove as effective as do traditional approaches to mental illness, as seen in this three part article.

In Malaysia—as in most countries of the world—the doctor hardly has time to concern himself about the psychic origins of many illnesses, and the top-heavy doctor-patient relationship, generally speaking, permits only a scientific approach. Yet for a long time scientific medicine has acknowledged that on its own it is incapable of getting to the root of sickness.

The bomoh, on the other hand, says Professor Chen, lives in the village where he has inherited his skills from his forefathers, and where he is a respected and trusted person. He is personally acquainted with every one of his fellow-villagers and knows what goes on behind the scenes. He can make use of the knowledge that a healthy body needs a healthy spirit in a way that few doctors can. So long as belief in spirits is a fact of life, it is useless to inveigh against magic ritual. In any case, superstition is far from being confined only to developing countries—it maintains a clandestine hold even among the crews of moon-bound spaceships.

On the East coast of Malaysia I watched an exorcism of evil spirits carried out on a well-born but mentally disturbed young woman. The bomoh had staged a kind of theatrical production in which the woman's closest relatives and her fellow-villagers each had roles to play. It was noteworthy that the actors in this little play had to demonstrate warm affection for the patient. Embraces, friendly gestures and tender caresses were much in evidence. The play took on an increasingly frenetic character with dance-like movements, until those taking part fell into a trance and finally reached total physical exhaustion. The coaxing of the evil spirit which had caused the illness with an offering of food until it could be caught in a container and packed off on a "journey without return" down the river was mere a ritual appendage. The young woman was now considered to be cured. I heard that the bomoh had passed the whole of the previous day before the ceremony in the house of her family so as to "get in touch with the spirit." Only in its outward appearance does this treatment differ from what is accepted in the industrialized world as group therapy under expensive psychiatrists.

The bomoh also works extensively with taboos which are invested with magic powers. Certain foods are forbidden, the physical stresses on the patient are limited or specific rituals are used to soothe his nerves. This too is a very practical means—among simple people who know little of modern hygiene, appropriate diets or physiology—for exerting a favorable influence on the course of an illness.

The modern practice of medicine in Malaysia makes use of the bomoh as an assistant at childbirth, for instance, often in collaboration with a state-trained midwife. And nobody would wish to deny that the psychological attitude of the mother-to-be has great influence on the course of a "natural" childbirth. Individual bomohs are also entrusted with carrying out mass immunization and help the doctors with such tasks as smallpox vaccination.

Key Questions for World Scene:

1. What are three main issues raised in this article?
2. What does this article suggest that you can do about our world situation today?
3. How many words did you look up in the dictionary? (If we do not use a dictionary daily, and for every word whose full meanings we may not know, we cannot grow individually and assure the best use of our resources for group freedom and a better America.)

OUR GIANTS SPEAK

W.E.B. DUBOIS AND BOOKER T. WASHINGTON REVISITED

We are featuring a most important—and extremely lively and revealing—series on the parallels and differences in the lives of two of our greatest black Americans, Booker T. Washington and Dr. W.E.B. Du Bois.

These figures have become the subject of fresh concern in that their basic purposes are now seen by many scholars as far more close than believed in the past. This series will help inform our readers and you may be the judge as to the issues raised by the unprecedented contributions of these hitherto baffling heroes of our race.

We feature this week Part I of several dozen installments in the life of W.E.B. Du Bois and Booker T. Washington. The installments will cross-over from one figure to the other in groups of two in order to compare their lives more easily.

Part I of Two Parts on Booker T. Washington

I was born a slave on a plantation in Franklin County, Virginia. I am not quite sure of the exact place or exact date of my birth, but at any rate I suspect I must have been born somewhere and at some time. As nearly as I have been able to learn, I was born near a cross-roads postoffice called Hale's Ford, and the year was 1858 or 1859. I do not know the month or the day. The earliest impressions I can now recall are of the plantation and the slave quarters—the latter being the part of the plantation where the slaves had their cabins.

My life had its beginning in the midst of the most miserable, desolate, and discouraging surroundings. This was so, however, not because my owners were especially cruel, for they were not, as compared with many others. I was born in a typical log cabin, about fourteen by sixteen feet square. In this cabin I lived with my mother and a brother and sister till after the Civil War, when we were all declared free.

Of my ancestry I know almost nothing. In the slave quarters, and even later, I heard whispered conversations among the coloured people of the tortures which the slaves, including, no doubt, my ancestors on my mother's side, suffered in the middle passage of the slave ship while being conveyed from Africa to America. I have been unsuccessful in securing any information that would throw any accurate light upon the history of my family beyond my mother. She, I remember, had a half-brother and a half-sister. In the days of slavery not much attention was given to family history and family records—that is, black family records. My mother, I suppose, attracted the attention of a purchaser who was afterward my owner and hers. Her addition to the slave family attracted about as much attention as the purchase of a new horse or cow. Of my father I know even less than of my mother. I do not even know his name. I have heard reports to the effect that he was a white man who lived on one of the near-by plantations. Whoever he was, I never heard of his taking the least interest in me or providing in any way for my rearing. But I do not find special fault with him. He was simply another unfortunate victim of the institution which the Nation unhappily had engrafted upon it at that time.

Key Questions:

1. What peculiar problems does this episode reveal? Are they still present today?
2. How well were today's circumstances handled? Were there any "hidden agendas"?
3. What important lessons may be learned from today's episode? How would you have possibly handled them differently?

questions and answers

by Booth H. Robbins Field Representative Lubbock, Texas

Question:

A friend recently told me that some changes had been made in the SSI law on resources. Were changes also made in the income limits?

Answer:

No. The income limits under SSI have not changed. An individual is eligible for a Federal payment with countable income of less than $208.20 a month; a couple with income of less than $312.30 a month. For detailed information, call a social security office.

Question:

My husband died last month. Can I cash the social security check that arrived this month, or am I supposed to return it?

Answer:

Answer:

No benefits are payable for the month of death. For example, if the beneficiary died in October, the check dated November 2, (which is payment for October) should be returned unless the check is made out jointly to a husband and wife. In that case, the survivor should ask at a social security office whether to cash the check.

Question:

I've been told it takes a long time for SSI disability claims to be processed. I have very little cash and I'm afraid it will run out before my SSI payments. Can I get some financial help while I'm waiting?

Answer:

A claimant who is otherwise eligible and found presumptively disabled (or presumptively blind) can get payments for up to 3 months while it is being medically determined if he or she is disabled (or blind). These payments will not be considered an overpayment if it is finally determined that the claimant is not eligible. The people at the social security office can give you more information when you apply for SSI payments.

Question:

My daughter, who is severely handicapped, attends vocational training at a local institution. I've heard that people in public institutions aren't eligible for SSI payments. Does this rule apply to my daughter?

Answer:

Answer:

In general, a person who is an inmate of a public institution is not eligible for SSI payments. However, if a person is a resident of a public institution primarily for approved educational or vocational training, he or she may be eligible for SSI. For more information, contact any social security office.

Mistakes Kill Panthers

The Dunbar Panthers received the opening kick off and got good field position. They, the Panthers, began to rip the Matadors defense apart, and then, it happened! Tony Davis fumbled. Preston Davis recovered the fumble at the Estacado 33 yard-line. Gray tried White a couple of times to gain good field position and a first and ten. On the next play, Gray called on Greg Drones. Drones broke several Panther tackles at the line of scrimmage on his way to a 55 yard TD, to give the Matadors a 6-0 lead. Cade added the PAT.

Post 808 Panthers Finishes Season With Six Wins Here

The Post 808 Panthers finished their season last Sunday with a six and one record. Unfortunately, the Panthers lost to the Cowboys. The Lubbock Digest staff would like to congratulate the 808 Panthers and their sponsors. We, here at the Digest, would also like to give a special "thanks" to the coaching staff for their well spent time taken to teach and instill good character in these fine young men. Thanks to Arthur Jones, Kevin Gatewood, Ardee Hunt, Fulton Berry, Wayne Davis, and all the parents of the Panthers.

Gerald Richards

Ebony Express Bowling League

Gerald Richards was selected bowler of the Month of October for his super effort. Gerald bowled over his average 342 pins in his first year in a bowling league.

LaChars Glenn continued his hot streak of bowling by bowling his second straight 600 series. LaChars also took high game honors with a whopping 268 along with a 210 for a 653 series.

Ebony Express Bowlers had by far their best week of bowling. James Skief had another fine night with a 200 game and a 569 series. The Skief was next with a 545 series. Charles Planks 526. Neil Ray 525. Forice Moses had a nice 228 game with a 523 series. Bobby Taylor 513. Robert Johnson had a nice game of 203 with a 508 series. Charles Curry, another first year bowler, bowled his first 200 game bowling a nice 201.

The next EHS score was set up by a fierce tackle by Kenneth Davis on Fabian Garcia at the Dunbar 32 yard line. Preston Davis came up with another recovery for the Matadors. Nine plays later, Kevin White bowled his way into the endzone to make the score 13-0. Again Cade added the PAT. After a series of errors by both teams, the Matadors got back on track when Gray threw a screen pass to Greg Dones. Dones took the Gray pass to the Dunbar 9. Two plays later, Gray took the ball over from the one-yard line to make the score 20-0. Cade was successful again. It was 21-0. A Steven McGraw interception gave EHS the ball on their 16. George Ervin gave the Matadors good field position with a 28 yard run to the Dunbar 43 yard line. After Ervin's effort, it seemed as if the Matadors were practicing their passing game. Gray threw to all of his receivers, namely, Lyons, Rose and Cade. After passing drills, Gray then called on returning fullback Alvin Davis to take the Matadors six yards to the endzone to make the score 27-0. Again Cade did his job. It was 28-0. The finally score came when Gray threw a 28 yard strike to Preston Davis in the endzone. The final score was Estacado 35, Dunbar 0.

All Ages Can Do It
Although breast cancer is usually found in women of middle age and over, the American Cancer Society urges all women from high school age on to practice breast self-examination. The breast cancer death toll is high—an estimated 33,000 annually says the American Cancer Society. But it could change for the better if more women regularly practiced breast self-examination and consulted their doctors if they noticed any change.

A Monthly Date

Mark it on your calendar. Once a month—every month. BSE. Breast self-examination. Life-saving protection against one of woman's deadliest enemies—breast cancer. 95% of breast cancers are discovered by women themselves, and the earlier the detection and treatment, the greater the chances of cure. Ask your local Unit for our leaflet on breast self-examination. Then mark your calendar—BSE. Every month.

"Thank You, Lubbock" The Garnette Choral

The Garnette Choral Ensemble, under the direction of Garnette Lee, would like to "thank" special guest, Sister Theola Cooper of the Community Baptist Church, Rev. A. L. Dunn and the New Hope Baptist Church Choir, and other churches and friends of Lubbock who gave your support in many ways to our concert on Sunday, October 28, 1979.

It was successful in many ways and you made it so.

"Thank you", Lubbock.

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

Forgive, and you will be forgiven. —St. Luke 6:37

1. Unforgiveness makes us small. It keeps us uptight, as though all balled up in a knot. We do not expand through unforgiveness. Rather—we contract, as we shrink away from others whom we disdain, begrudge, or fear.

2. Forgiveness makes us large. It means straightening ourselves out; it means reaching out. Forgiveness involves seeing a larger picture of life than that within the small shadow of our own dislikes and likes. Forgiveness involves seeing ourselves in Creation's light as imperfect, and as needing the nourishing "give-and-take" which others have to share with and for us.

3. Forgiveness makes us forgiven. Implicit in the process of forgiving is the humility with which to see our own shortcomings and to be heartily sorry for our wrongs against others, which we can never redress on our own. To be forgiven by God means seeing our perpetual debt to others—and then asking God, in His mercy, to share His life in repayment of our debts to those who are his children.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Breaking Down Walls

EPHESIANS 2:11-22

MEMORY SELECTION: He is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility. Ephesians 2:14.

11 Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands

12 remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

13 But not in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near in the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility, 15 by abolishing in his flesh the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace.

16 and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end.

17 And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near;

18 for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

19 so then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 20 built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone.

21 in whom the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord;

22 in whom you also are built into it for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit

PLAINS COOPERATIVE OIL MILL

Arthur Harris ... is the second shift supervisor for the mill room. He has major responsibility in shipping and receiving. He maintains an adequate inventory of the various products produced by the mill and is responsible for their shipment upon the receipt of shipping orders. Arthur started as a first man in the warehouse, progressed to each working operator, until mill operator, made and held department in the mill food division, then to foreman of the mill room and to supervisor. He has been with the mill for 22 years.

The KITCHEN BEAT

In today's black American home, cooking is no longer the responsibility of one person. Because of busy and varied schedules, usually every member of the family at some time or another has to prepare personal meals or meals for other members of the family. The Kitchen Beat is designed to meet some needs of the various cooks in the modern black family.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE IS #1 HEALTH PROBLEM IN BLACK COMMUNITY

Twenty-six percent of black males and twenty-eight percent of black females have high blood pressure (hypertension). It is a symptomless disease, but a very serious one when left untreated. There's a simple test to measure blood pressure. Be sure to have yours checked regularly.

While the exact cause of hypertension is unknown, it is recognized that there is a relationship between it and high sodium intake. Thousands of people with high blood pressure have been placed on a low-sodium diet by their doctors.

Vegetables are an important part of everyone's diet because they provide essential vitamins and minerals and are usually very low in calories. But they can pose a problem to people placed on sodium-restricted diets. Most fresh vegetables are naturally low in sodium, but there are a few exceptions—artichokes and celery which have a high sodium content. Canned vegetables should also be avoided since salt is usually added during processing. There are special low-sodium canned vegetables on the market, however, which can be substituted.

When you can't use salt to season your vegetables, a flavorful sauce will perk them up. Another way to add rich taste to all foods is to cook with a salt-free margarine, such as Fleischmann's.

Mixed Vegetable Sauté

- Recipe Courtesy Fleischmann's
- 1 pound (about 1 quart) thinly sliced zucchini
  - 1 cup thinly sliced green pepper
  - 2 cloves garlic, minced
  - 2 tablespoons Fleischmann's Unsalted Margarine
  - 1 cup sliced mushrooms
  - 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Sauté zucchini, green pepper and garlic in margarine until zucchini is tender crisp, about 10 minutes. Add mushrooms and pepper; sauté about 5 minutes longer, until vegetables are done. Makes 8 servings.

Stuffed Cabbage Rolls

Recipe Courtesy Betty Crocker®
Brands Suggested by The Kitchen Beat

- 12 cabbage leaves*
- 1 pound hamburger
- 1/2 cup uncooked Minute Rice
- 1/2 medium onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)
- 1 can (4 ounces) Green Giant mushroom stems and pieces
- 1 teaspoon Morton® salt
- 1/8 teaspoon Spice Islands pepper

1/8 teaspoon Spice Islands garlic salt
1 can (15 ounces) Hunt's tomato sauce
1 teaspoon Domino sugar
1/2 teaspoon Minute Maid lemon juice
1 tablespoon Argo cornstarch
1 tablespoon water

Cover cabbage leaves with boiling water. Cover and let stand until leaves are limp, about 10 minutes. Remove leaves; drain.

Mix hamburger, rice, onion, mushrooms (with liquid), salt, pepper, garlic salt and 1/2 cup of tomato sauce. Place about 1/2 cup hamburger mixture at stem end of each leaf. Roll leaf around hamburger mixture, tucking in sides.

Place cabbage rolls seam sides down in ungreased square baking dish, 8x8x2 inches. Mix remaining tomato sauce, the sugar and lemon juice; pour over cabbage rolls. Cover and cook in 350° oven until the hamburger is done, about 45 minutes.

Mix cornstarch and 1 tablespoon water in saucepan. Stir in liquid from cabbage rolls. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Serve sauce with cabbage rolls. Garnish with parsley if desired. 4 or 5 servings.

*To separate leaves from cabbage head, remove core and cover cabbage with cold water. Let stand about 10 minutes; remove leaves.

Semi-Monthly Summary...

HISTORY-MAKING BLACK HAPPENINGS:

(For your continuing calendar of major black events. Please cut out this column and keep it in your own notebook. Please mark the date of each entry.)

International News...

South Africa — The Ministry of Information, which has been the Gestapo of sorts for South Africa, has come under intensified national scrutiny in South Africa itself. Because of newspaper disclosures of murder, intimidation and repression through the ministries of information and justice, new laws restricting the press have been set forth in South Africa. Below is reflected a wide range of press reaction to the proposed press restrictions:

Pro-government papers — Beeld, Johannesburg: "The clauses affecting the press give the impression the Government is more concerned with fighting the press than with combating misadministration." Rapport, Johannesburg: "As a friend, we want to ask the Government most strongly: take another look."

Other papers — Rand Daily Mail, Johannesburg: "It is bad enough that (an anti-rumor) bill should make it a crime for newspapers to publish evidence of bribery and corruption in the running of the country. But legal opinion is that it will also make it a crime to explore plain inefficiency." The Star, Johannesburg: "Public accountability is the very essence of a democracy... So it is with genuine alarm that South Africans of all races should view the rash of information-restricting legislation now before Parliament." Die Burger, Cape Town: "Deepest concern prevails over the manner in which the press is being curbed."

Israel — The Israeli government has stepped up its efforts to get black African nations which have severed diplomatic ties with Israel to renew their official ties.

Concurrently with this effort, the Israelis have begun to publicize what they have noted to be a $1 billion under-recovery trade by black African nations with the apartheid Republic of South Africa. The Israeli sources note that almost daily South African diamonds and other low-bulk items arrive in black African nations where deliberately misleading billings are used to mask the fact of brisk trading which contradicts the official political posture of these nations.

Israel's concern is that their own state is libelled and isolated for its dealings with South Africa, while the black nations who publicly censure Israel apparently go scot-free for the same activity.

National News...

Philadelphia, Pa. — The critical leadership to reduce black joblessness has been said to have moved from Washington, D.C., to the national headquarters of the Opportunities Industrialization Centers, located in this "city of brotherly love."

The Rev. Dr. Leon Sullivan, founder and national head of OIC, said: "The government is moving too slowly. We cannot wait. I am calling on OIC to launch an intensive nationwide program to find a million jobs to put a million unemployed young people to work before it is too late."

Young people and others trained for and placed in jobs by OIC presently pay more than $600 million in federal taxes each year. The OIC approach to job training and placement has been said to be the most cost-efficient in the nation. It has sought, but not received, federal support. Black Americans and others who are concerned with our staggeringly and perilously high black youth unemployment are asked to support the Opportunities Industrialization Centers which may be located through the local telephone directory.

Philadelphia, Pa. — The American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) of 1501 Cherry St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19102, has issued a background report entitled: "Nuclear South Africa" which should be of the greatest interest to all black Americans concerned with the future of apartheid South Africa's mounting influence in the world. Copies of the report may be secured at the address above.

The report concerns several immediately significant quotations. One is from Congressman Les Aspin, who states:

"With a plentiful supply of natural uranium and its own separation plant, South Africa can produce all the weapons grade uranium it wants.

OBSEQUIES

Rev. Tommy D. Lethridge, Sr.

Final rites will be held Friday morning, November 11, at 11 a. m. at the Community Baptist Church for Rev. Tommy D. Lethridge, Sr. with Rev. Tony Williams, pastor, officiating. Interment will be under the direction of South Plains Funeral Home.

Rev. Lethridge was born to Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Lethridge on November 25, 1919 in Courtney, Texas. At an early age, he confessed a hope in Christ and united with the Morning Star Baptist Church at Rosebud, Texas.

In 1942, he met and married Johnnie Mae Williams and to this union, six children were born.

He departed this life on Sunday, November 4, 1979.

He leaves to mourn a wife, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Lethridge of the home; two daughters, Mary Vivian Hollins and Linda Ruth Johnson, both of Dallas, Texas; four sons, Zebbie D. Lethridge, Tommy D. Lethridge, Jr., Marvin Lethridge, all of Lubbock, and Jesse Earl Lethridge of Easton, Pennsylvania, a sister, Mrs. Roxie Brooks of Dallas, Texas, a brother, Jimbo Lethridge of California; thirteen grandchildren, and one great grandchild, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Across The Nation

News From Home Folks

This feature is a news compilation from more than 100 black-owned and oriented newspapers in this nation. It deals with what blacks, who are all-too-often little recognized, are doing to promote full participation in American life by black Americans. It is thus a salute from all of our readers for unsung heroes... and is designed to be a challenge for all of us to keep on doing our very best.

The Sarasota, Florida, Bulletin provides us with a most provocative piece on school testing. It should be stimulating to all of our readers across the nation. We wish to thank the Bulletin for sharing with us this fine piece:

After reading the latest article in a local newspaper lambasting Booker Bay Haven and their scores on State Assessment and Functional Literacy tests, I find I cannot let that type of human degradation and nonsense go unchallenged! The way State test results are used is unfair, unjust, and in my opinion, is an unscrupulous attempt to victimize poor people!

Let's do some supposing: Suppose your child, you, your parents, etc. had always been environmentally, economically, and educationally "denied" in comparison with the rest of America!

Suppose your parents, because they were "denied" economic and educational opportunities had to work long hours for low wages simply to make "ends meet" and were too tired at day's end to donate time and energy to reading to you, helping you with homework, or broadening your horizons through travel because they simply couldn't afford it!

Suppose that through years of separation from the rest of society you had grown up within a "language structure" that was quite "foreign" to the "outside" community as was their language to you!

Suppose that upon entering school you were confronted with this "foreign" language not only in terms of speech, but also in terms of books that centered around a little white house with a picket fence and a "typical" American family happily loading the Ford station wagon for a three week vacation in Yellowstone National Park!

Suppose, then, with this background in mind, you were required to take a state assessment test geared to the middle class American student who had not been, economically, environmentally or educationally "denied" and the test was written in his language which was "foreign" to you!

Suppose, also, that upon reaching the 11th grade you were required to take a state functional literacy test and found that the test had nothing to do with "functioning" (doing) but rather was a multiple choice test that had to do with reading (a foreign language) and choosing what you might or might not do in a typical "middle class" American situation which you were never given the opportunity to experience!

Suppose, finally, that your test score was released to the newspaper by the State Department of Education!

Would you feel discriminated against? The state Functional Literacy Test which has received so much attention and caused so much concern (although prepared by the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey) is not "normed," its questions have not been "validated" by extensive field testing, and so is not standardized. Also its legality is being challenged in the courts (probably in terms of due process and discrimination!)

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Homewood-Brushton News tells of one commu-

A shot against cancer?

One day the earliest thing about cancer may be the needle that makes you immune to it.

The theory: build up the body's defense to fight off the disease naturally.

Already, scientists are working on mechanisms to make the body reject cancer. And the promise for the future is staggering.

Wouldn't you feel good knowing you contributed to the research?

Please contribute. Your dollars will help further all our cancer research.
