BLACKS IN THE NEWS

DR. L. S. GRAVES GIVES ALL SHE HAS

A Black in the news this week is a lady who wanted to do something for young people in the community in 1952. She believes that education is a mountain, and you must climb it. The lady who gives everything she has for young people is Dr. Lucille S. Graves, a native of Waxahachie, Texas.

A graduate from Butler College in Tyler, Texas, Dr. Graves wants to give all she has for the young people of the community. One morning in September, 1952, she woke up thinking about what she could do for the young people of Lubbock. This is when the idea of a private school became a reality. The Mary & Mac Private School was born.

CELEBRATES SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Last Friday, October 21st, was the birthday of Chantell Denise Jay. She was six years of age. She is a first grade student at Ella Iles Elementary School.

On Saturday evening, she enjoyed a wonderful birthday party with her little friends. Chantell received many useful gifts. Games were played and refreshments were served.

to offer young people more opportunities in education," she says. "Many people said this dream I had could not work in the city of Lubbock, but I didn't stop there," she smiles. If you hear her talk, she'll let you know that anything worthwhile takes a lot of hard work.

Dr. Graves, who received her PhD in Humanities in 1976 from the Inter-Baptist Theological Center of Houston, is very active in the community. Among the many activities she is involved includes a member of the advisory committee for the Small Business Administration, a member of the City-County Library committee, member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and Human Relations Commission.

She also works with the Girl Scouts and did receive her 20 year pin recently. She is one of the organizers of the New Light Baptist Church, and serves in a district office for the church.

Dr. Graves also finds time to work at the Democratic Precinct on election day here.

At the present time, there are 125 young people attending Mary & Mac, grades first through eleventh. The schools employs four people. "I am very happy to have my two children working with me," she makes known.

Mary & Mac has an unusual way of seeing that the students are brought to school each day. "We pick up the students with our bus each day," she says. According to the educator, this is a way we show the parents and relatives that we are very concerned about the young people who attend our school.

Mary & Mac also has a Parent Teachers Association. "We are proud of all they are doing for the school."

"LITTLE MISS FASHIONETTA" ON TAP HERE NEXT MONTH

Eta Delta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority will present "Little Miss Fashionetta" on Friday, Nov. 18, at 8 p. m. at the Mae Simmons Community Center.

This is a fund raising project for community service.

The public is invited to attend. For further information please contact Margaret Randle at 799-3014 or Lillian Jones at 744-8338.

25 YEARS OF SERVICE AT METHODIST

LILLIAN SMITH, L.V.N. at Methodist Hospital, recently completed 25 years of service with the hospital. She was a member of the staff establishing the division of psychiatry in 1953. To show their appreciation, her co-workers honored her with gifts and a luncheon. Above, Dr. John T. Miller pins a corsage on the honoree during her special day.

She is the wife of A.L. Smith. They reside at 2807 Teak Avenue. They are also members of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church, Rev. A.L. Davis, pastor.

Junior League Sponsors Public Seminar Here

November 3 and 4 have been scheduled for a unique public seminar in juvenile justice to be held at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. Through a grant from the Texas Committee for the Humanities and Public Policy, the Junior League of Lubbock will sponsor "Juvenile Justice: The Human Dimension." This seminar is designed for persons who make and implement public policy as well as for the general public. It is an opportunity for those who are interested in the quality of the juvenile justice system to consider the impact of the choices available to us and to reflect on the value and humanness of our decisions.

Law enforcement officers, judges and corrections directors will give their thoughts, their experiences, their insights into the systems that affect the young criminal offender. Add to this the knowledge of scholars in the fields of history, law, anthropology, philosophy, English, sociology and religion who will contribute their ideas to this phase of society's dilemma, and one begins to see the potential for these discussions. This seminar will bring together representatives of all branches of the system and a variety of service agencies. The Seminar will begin Thursday evening, Nov. 3, at 5, with registration at the Center. There is no charge for attendance at the Seminar since it is being made possible by a grant from the Texas Committee for the Humanities and Public Policy.

The Thursday evening session will consist of dinner and overview presentations concerning the courts, corrections, law enforcement.

Friday's session will be a full day schedule, from 9 to 4:30, highlighted by an opening address by William Lucas, and a noon address by Warren Rhodes.

Speakers for the seminar will come from across the nation to insure the scope and success of the seminar.

Robert F. Leonard will give the law enforcement overview. He is the current president of the National Association of District Attorneys as well as a prosecuting attorney for Flint, Michigan.

The correction overview will be given by Allen F. Broed of Washington, D.C.

CIC TO VISIT

Students in Lubbock will receive additional information on institutions of higher learning when a representative from the College Information Center comes to the area on Nov. 1st through 4th. The field representative will visit high schools in the area.

The representative will discuss with the students their academic interests and proposed career field, distribute material on each school they represent and encourage admission to the college which best fits their career choice.

The CIC program is particularly geared toward Mexican-Americans and other non-blacks with the intent of creating a multi-ethnic environment on six predominantly black liberal arts colleges in Texas.

The colleges represented by the CIC representative are Bishop (Dallas), Huston-Tillotson (Austin), Jarvis Christian (Hawkins), Paul Quinn (Waco), Texas (Tyler), and Wiley (Marshall).

It was learned that the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, using certain principles of the law, has handed down their decision. "It is only practical to wait and see what the Supreme Court will do," says black had to live in certain geographic areas which have placed them (blacks) in such a dire economic situation that it is impossible and impracticable for them to move.

Lubbock residents will still have to wait a little while longer for the outcome of the suit filed against the City of Lubbock by local attorney Gene Gaines. Last Friday, the Lubbock Digest learned that the case was taken off the docket for Nov. 7 after Willis Taylor, who is the legal counsel in the case, and Federal Judge Halbert O. Woodard, U.S. District Judge, met to make the decision.

"I didn't know what was happening, nor did I know the case would be postponed," says Gaines, plaintiff in the case. "However, I think it is a very good decision," he continued.

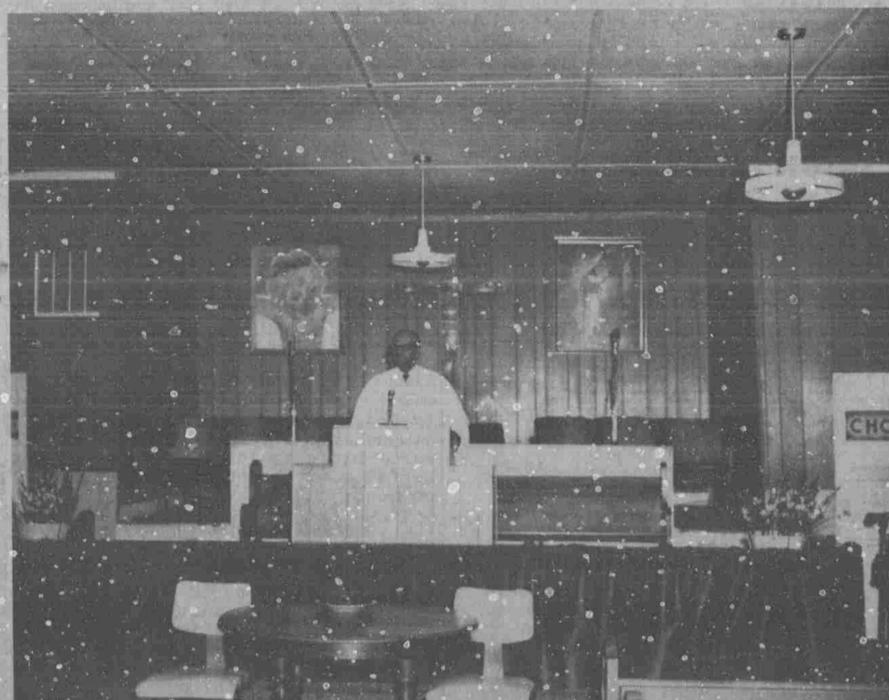

This decision is believed to have been made as to the "Wise vs Lipscomb Case" which has been referred to the Supreme Court. The City of Dallas has made an application for certiorari. This was done because the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, New Orleans, La., made a ruling which was adverse to the City of Dallas. City officials in Dallas, not being satisfied, made the appeal.

United States District Court of Texas, Federal Judge Halbert O. Woodard, U.S. District Judge.

The suit was filed, according to Gaines, because the "at large" system of electing councilmen and the de facto segregated geographical areas demonstrate present efforts of past discriminatory practices by the city council.

Gaines told the Lubbock Digest last week that this is so because in the past

MINISTER OF LANDMARK CHURCH HERE

Dr. Jim Loud, pastor of the Saint Paul Baptist Church, 1802 Avenue B, is shown standing behind the pulpit of this House of Worship. This facility, according to the City of Lubbock, has been designated as a landmark. Dr. Loud and members invite their many friends to attend worship services with them each week. At one time, this was the church used by Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, now located at 2202 Southeast Drive.

EDITORIALS

"IT OUGHT TO BE A LAW"

After what happened to an officer of the court, Gene Gaines--local attorney here--last Friday, it ought to be a law for elected officials to take advantage of an attorney who is defending the rights of a client.

Justice of the Peace Charles Smith, in our opinion, was out of place when he had Mr. Gaines thrown into the Lubbock County Jail, because he was defending the rights of his client. For several hours, Mr. Gaines was held at the county jail. We disagree with this type of justice because of three reasons.

For one, we learned that all of this came about because Mr. Gaines attempted to post bail for his client, and that Mr. Smith refused to accept the bond posted by Mr. Gaines. According to Vernon's Annotated Texas Statute, Article 237p-3, Section 14, the sheriff of the county has the apparent right to see who can serve bond, not the Justice of the Peace as was the apparent case here last week.

The Article says: "The sheriff of any county has the sole responsibility of receiving and approving bail bonds for the purpose of gaining the release of a named principal held in custody by any authority in his county upon accusation of an offense of which the county or district court has jurisdiction."

Second, after Mr. Gaines was arrested, he should have been given the right to have been released upon his own personal recognizance, and not have been arrested. This is vividly pointed out in Vernon's Annotated Texas Statute also. Article 1911a, Section 2(c) says the following:

It firmly states: "Provided, however, an officer of a court held in contempt by a trial court, shall, upon proper motion filed in the offended court, be released upon his own personal recognizance pending a determination of his guilt or innocence by a judge of a district court, other than the offended court. Said judge to be appointed for that purpose by the presiding judge of the Administrative Judicial District wherein the alleged contempt occurred."

Mr. Gaines was reportedly taken to the Lubbock County Jail before a writ of habeas corpus was filed by Lubbock attorney A.W. Salayars in Judge Robert Wright's 137th District Court.

Third, since there were no other persons present in the Justice of the Peace's chambers, but Mr. Gaines and Mr. Smith, who is to say who was in contempt. It is our opinion that Mr. Gaines was doing his duty of representing a client who had apparently hired him for the sole purpose of defending this situation.

There ought to be a law on how an officer of the court is treated in the Justice of the Peace court. Over reacting in this type of a situation is not good for the court system nor the great city and county of Lubbock.

We hope, for God's sake, that these kinds of embarrassing situations will be curtailed in the future. At the same time, we hope our readers will become aware of these kinds of situations when it comes to taking advantage of anyone's human rights.

"LET'S BE GOOD TRICK OR TREATERS"

Monday evening, Oct. 31, is Halloween. Many of our little ones will be out running around the community shouting: "Trick or Treat." Let's give these kids a break when they Senator Edward W. Brooke was critical of President Carter's basic welfare reform statement, which he said, lacked specifics and which indicated that reform would be delayed for at least another four to five years.

In outlining his own proposals, Brooke said that the dissolution of families, encouraged by the present system, must be eliminated. "In most cases, two parent families are not eligible for one of our major assistance programs, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, regardless of their lack of income or lack of employment," Brooke said. And he added that in 1975, 1/2 of all families with children with incomes of less than $4,000 had only one parent.

He also said that there must be an end to the anti-work aspects of the present programs, citing estimates which have calculated that a family's total welfare benefits can be reduced by as much as 85 cents for each dollar earned. And he said that:

—There must be more manpower training programs initiated specifically by private businesses. These programs must prepare low-skill individuals for jobs truly relevant to the job market, not short term jobs with no prospects, the Senator said.

—Welfare benefits must be more adequate. Brooke said benefits provide as little as $720 a year in AFDC aid for a family of four in Mississippi.

—Welfare reform must include greater federalization of our welfare costs. Brooke said greater federalization would help eliminate the enormous assistance discrepancies currently prevalent in state and local funding for the poor.

BLACK EVENTS QUIZ

- 1) The desperation seems to be growing in Zimbabwe (or Rhodesia). What answers for reconciliation do you feel there are between blacks and blacks and between blacks and whites in this country where majority rule may be both a bane and an immense blessing?
- 2) The report that a group of nationally prominent black artists, actors and intellectuals was being invited to Uganda by Ugandan authorities suggests many possibilities. What good or what trouble could flow from a group of black American citizens visiting Uganda now under Ugandan government auspices? Would such persons face a strategically important opportunity? Or would they be largely misused?
- 3) What significance would you attach to South African Prime Minister John Vorster's accusation that current U.S. policy toward South Africa is a payoff to black Americans? Should the U.S.A. be more involved or less in sanctions against South Africa? (As far as the U.S.A. has gone, it has not gone as far as United Nations' approved sanctions suggest or "mandate.")
- 4) Should blacks and other minorities choose between favoring adoption and abortion? Or can the two programs be sponsored with equanimity? What can be done to encourage greater adoption by blacks? How do you feel about the prospect of larger numbers of blacks being adopted by white families? Please explain with concrete points or examples.
- 5) What should the nation's armed forces do to guarantee, if possible, less strife between blacks and whites in the armed forces? (After all, it is an external enemy that our armed forces are supposed to fight... and not each other!)
- 6) What role should black Americans be playing in the achievement of uniform penal codes throughout the country? Some feel that there has never been a more propitious time for securing uniform crime codes for every state. What can we do to support our prisoners who are working positively for this purpose? What specifically do you plan to do this week, if possible?
- 7) Are the slowly simmering urban racial tensions an ominous or a hopeful sign so far as positive racial adjustments in our country are concerned? Please explain.

come to our houses. At the same time, let's be careful in our driving as we go to and from our destination.

In past years, many innocent young kids have been taken advantage of by older people with dangerous type tricks. Among these have included giving these young people bad candy, razor blade apples, and other things. Let's not be guilty of this in our community.

These little kids are our adults of tomorrow and we need to do all we can to help them and not harm them. All of us over age 15 years can remember one night in our lives we enjoyed putting on the false face and having fun with our parents, relatives and friends. These kids in 1977 need the same kind of an opportunity as many of us had.

Be careful with our driving, and give the kids a really big time with a lot of positive goodies. Show them that we love them with the way we treat them. You know, "Trick or Treat" can be a lot of fun if we still want it to be.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN, LITTLE PEOPLE!

BLACK EMPOWERMENT

GALLUP'S GALL

Effrontery to black Americans is certainly no new phenomenon in our nation's ongoing life. But recently revealed gall of the Gallup Poll in its sampling of opinion on alleged "reverse discrimination" reflects cause for deeply serious concern on the part of all who are committed to truth and fair play.

Specifically, the Gallup pollsters devised a thoroughly anti-black and equally deceptive polling device which came to the conclusion that 83 percent of the American public opposes "reverse bias plans" allegedly being considered by the federal government.

One national daily, in announcing the poll's results, pontificated: "Ability rather than preferential treatment favored on hiring and college admission."

Obviously, from the poll itself and from this type of headline, black Americans would seem to have no prospects for equitable restitution of benefits or opportunities denied in the past; and the basic principles of justice, as we have seen them develop in American life, would appear to hold out little hope for long benighted black Americans.

But such is only what appears on the surface, reflecting what the all too flippancy pollsters and many other sophisticated and effective bigots would want the American public to believe.

The poll itself was both tricky and deceptive. For example, neither black Americans nor the courts have ever asked for "reverse discrimination." This is an emotion-laden and derogatory term designed doubtless both consciously and unconsciously to distort the issues and to dismiss or defeat all earnest efforts for an equitable redistribution or re-slicing of the "opportunity pie" in jobs and education.

When one listens to the exact wording of the question put by Gallup to those interviewed, one would wonder why only 83 percent opposed "reverse discrimination." Indeed, if what the pollsters had to say was even remotely just, one would have expected an almost 100 percent opposition to the issue as posed.

Listen, then, carefully to this clever, spurious and thoroughly crushing wording by the Gallup Poll directors: "Some people say that to make up for past discrimination, women and members of minority groups should be given preferential treatment in getting jobs and places in college. Others say that ability, as determined by test scores, should be the main consideration. Which point of view comes closest to how you feel on this matter?"

Let's now translate what the Gallup people have perverted and turn it into much more nearly the truth. The question might thus read: "It is now being held by our courts and by those advocating what is technically called the "equity and restitution" principle in law that unfair past preferences and their consequences should be held in check and, where reasonably possible, compensated for. Others say that so-called objective "ability," as detected in an admittedly narrow or even biased fashion by many or most current testing devices, should be the primary consideration in hiring, regardless of the social or human costs and regardless also of the considerations of past discrimination and the present good of our nation as a whole. Which point of view comes closest to how you feel on this matter?"

The spirit of the two forms of questioning are, quite obviously, worlds apart.

The Gallup Poll version is prejudiced or biased in its language. It is limited, perhaps, even deliberately, in its conception of both our inherited principles of law and our requirements for promoting or maintaining the public good.

One may speculate on many sinister—and possibly realistic—reasons for such a destructive and distorted approach to so serious an issue in our nation's public policy development. But it should be more than sufficient to observe that emotive language which results in misdefinitions of issues should be seen as beneath the dignity of any ethical or responsible public opinion firm.

What the Gallup Poll has done to injure the rightful job and educational prospects for black Americans is enormous. That such behavior is to be expected from the uneducated and from the insecure should be expected. It should also be seen as likely on the part of those largely unfamiliar with our inherited system of law—which had a valued place for the principle of equity and restitution. Beyond this, our whole ethical tradition speaks always of the primacy of the larger good, as opposed to the narrowly partisan or the inherited preferential or disproportionate advantage of those possessed of long-standing power.

What black Americans must, therefore, be prepared for in an age when even former friends fear obviously needed change is an unconscious and pervasive assault upon perhaps all black aspirations, especially as they relate to any aspect of change.

But for far more than simple vigilance is called for. Black: must, perhaps foremost, be mindful that we are a people under siege and attack. With this in mind, we must do more than defend ourselves; we must aggressively and devastatingly take a positive leadership role in defining our own goals and in setting our own priorities. In this, we must be alert to the clever tactics of subversion by misinterpretation and misrepresentation of our just cause by supposedly "fair-minded friends" like those who run and direct the Gallup Poll.

With friends like the Gallup Polls, what need have blacks for enemies? The answer is not that of damning Gallup but that of speaking, defining and acting most insightfully and cooperatively for ourselves.

POLICE HAPPENINGS

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

A young Lubbock woman reported to the Lubbock police that she was at the Crowd Pleaser, 2700 East 37th Street, one night last week when she began having trouble with her ex-boyfriend about their relationship.

When she left the club with another male companion, the ex-boyfriend followed them. As they were driving, their car was shot at with a shotgun.

They didn't believe their car was hit. "I will file charges against this man this week," she told police.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

JESSIE WILLIAMS, 318 Beech Ave. reported to Lubbock police that while he was working in a paint shop one day last week, he got into an argument with one of his working companions. He said that the man grabbed him and hit him in the head with a solid iron bar, approximately a foot long.

The police report indicated that he was hit on the forehead, causing a one inch gash. It required 4 stitches.

He told police that he does intend to file charges against the man, but he doesn't know the man's last name.

Both men are painter helpers in the same shop.

BURGLARY OF VEHICLE

JOE BROWN, Rt. 2, Box 230, Slaton, reported that someone gained entry to his unlocked car one day last week.

Taken from the car were a tape deck, thirteen tapes, a U. S. Marine Corps jacket, and a C.B. antenna.

These items were valued at $367.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

JIMMY MITCHELL, 3906 East Bates Ave., reported to Lubbock police that he went to a man's house one day last week. When he got there, according to the police report, the man accused him of taking $90 from him.

At this time, the man got an air rifle and kept talking to him about him taking his money. Mitchell kept telling the man that he didn't take his money.

Mitchell left the man's house. The man fired the air rifle at him. A pellet from the rifle hit Mitchell in the left cheek. He was taken to the Methodist Hospital for treatment.

HOUSE BURGLARY

JOHNNIE MACKKEY, 61, 3505 East Bates Ave., reported to Lubbock police that persons unknown did break into his house at 719 Ave. B, and removed some of his valuables without his permission.

Taken from the house were an 8-track tape player and $25 in change.

Entry was apparently gained by breaking the window on the north side of the house.

The window damage was believed to be $5.00.

OBSEQUIES

Mrs. Bessie Boyd

Final rites were read for Mrs. Bessie Boyd last Saturday afternoon at the Ford Memorial Church of God in Christ with Bishop J.E. Alexander and Rev. F.L. Clark officiating.

Burial was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the direction of Sedberry Funeral Chapel.

A patient in the Colonial Nursing Home for several years, Mrs. Boyd was 82 years old.

A native of Waco, she was a resident of Lubbock for 47 years.

Survivors include her son, Arlandas Etheley, Jr. of Brooklyn, N.Y.; eight grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Arlandas Etheley, Darrell Etheley, Marvin Mitchell, Arlandas Mitchell, David Giddens and Glen Hayes.

IN MEMORY

October 26th was the happiest moment in the lives of Mrs. Juanita Simmons and Mrs. Maunita Terrell. It was their birthdays. They, twin sisters, got a joy out of sending birthday greetings to all they knew who had a birthday in October. They are very much missed.

They were sisters of Ruby Jay.

YOU AND THE STARS

by Sylvia Hairton

November 1-7

The following is a special feature of You And The Stars which examines those sections of the current astrological chart of this nation which I feel may affect blacks and minorities.

Perhaps you may not agree with my conclusions, but I hope you will agree that this aspect of You And The Stars does make it especially for Black America.

Jupiter is now moving through the sector of wealth of the National chart which means increasing economic strength. I believe that a slow but steady rate of economic recovery will insure the continuation of great sociological advancement for all previously or currently oppressed people in this country.

Neptune's transit through Sagittarius will certainly bring sociological change.

Pluto is in Libra which is another change aspect. This aspect, I believe, accounts for the tearing down of the barriers that have stood in the way of justice and equity.

Transiting Uranus is Scorpio which, I believe, accounts for definite change in concepts relating to the brotherhood of man.

We are living in a period of transition during which wrongs must be made right. We have to remember that all change meets resistance, but resistance has to be worn down by patient and quiet persistence. All in all, I am quite optimistic about the future as far as human rights are concerned.

Next week I will continue to look at those aspects of the National chart that will probably affect black Americans.

ARIES - March 21-April 20 You are in a strong Martian period now, with your ruling planet exerting double strength while transiting the sign Scorpio which also comes under its rulership.

Try to correct any mistakes you have made previously. You could be very attracted to someone—this could be either a business or career contact.

TAURUS - April 21-May 20 A rampant Bull can be unstoppable. The extent of your success will depend upon how far you already have advanced. During this period you will gain the forceful drive that you have needed to reach your objectives and reap real profits.

GEMINI - May 21-June 20 This is a period when you gain most by concentrating on matters concerning the home and family relationships. For a short time during this period, your spirits may be low, as a situation may arise calling for careful handling. Your usual flights of fancy will not work to your advantage now.

CANCER - June 21-July 22 If you have followed a careful plan and course of action thus far, you will be able to cope with any problems that may arise where family or associates are concerned. Those who share your home may require extra attention now as you may become very much caught up in their projects or interests. Projects concerning your residence may also be emphasized, such as a residential move, redecorating or property acquisition.

LEO - July 23-August 22 For some time now, the last two years in general, Leos have added responsibility and obligations that could have interfered with your usual image or natural desire for self-expression, as Saturn in your Sun sign has brought hard work and accentuation on your ambitions. However, beginning with this period, this trend is about to exit your chart. You can look forward to ambition fulfillment, followed by action, with attainment as a climax, in that order, and you can stay with it from then on. Enjoy the new cycle that's about to come your way.

VIRGO - August 23-September 22 Projecting your best qualities and having charming manners will get you everywhere, during this period when Venus lines up with Uranus in good aspect to your Sun.

You benefit through contacts now, and any increase in income is most likely to come through your own efforts. The accent is on work rather than getting a windfall out of the blue. Do not change jobs now as this is not the time.

You are about to enter a two year period of brand new challenges when Saturn enters Virgo for the first time in twenty-eight years.

LIBRA - September 23-October 22

This is a good period for your health and emotions:

Mrs. Mary Beaty has returned from Denver, Colorado where she attended a workshop pertaining to the Opportunities Industrialization Centers of America. She was one of 40 workers in attendance, and the only one representing the Lubbock Opportunities Industrialization Center, LOIC. She reported a fruitful workshop.

George Scott, assistant dean in the Office of Student Affairs at Texas Tech University, has just returned from Washington, D.C. where he attended two day conference with the American Association of School Administration. He is a member of the Minority Affairs Committee. He reported a splendid meeting.

Mrs. Geneva Jackson of Los Angeles, California is spending a few weeks with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott. She has had an opportunity to attend church services at Bethel A.M.E and Greater Saint Luke Baptist Churches. She is expected to visit relatives in Houston before returning home.

Prof. E.C. Struggs is doing well after returning home from the hospital. He was in good spirits when friends visited him last weekend.

Douglas "Toot" Sedberry, a former resident of Lubbock and now a resident of Houston, was here last weekend. He stopped by the Struggs and shared a story of him opening the door for Prof. E. C. Struggs when he first came to Lubbock to teach.

It was good to see the large number of Black students in attendance at the Lubbock Public Schools College Career Night at Estacado High School last Monday evening. There were some sixty college representatives present to answer questions for the young students in attendance.

Minnie Skief of Dallas, Texas visited with her father last weekend. She was accompanied by Mary Ann Jones, who also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison

Lubbock City-County Library Will Offer Computer Literature Service

Beginning this week in Lubbock, the Lubbock City-County Library will offer a computer based literature search service. This service is an automated method of scanning indexes for journal articles on a particular subject. In some cases, the indexes cover books, dissertations, grants, patents, news services, and corporate reports as well as journal articles.

Such computer-aided searching has several advantages over the manual searching of printed indexes. First, it is possible to search in any one of more than sixty indexes, some of which may not be readily available in printed form. Second, searches which might require hundreds of hours of searching

Black Cat's BEBOP FABLES

Across The Nation

News From Home Folks

The Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Homewood-Brighton News tells of an heroic figure whose disciplined devotion to the right causes, regardless of popularity, has taken him to new heights. The News reports:

The Pennsylvania House of Representatives, in an historic move, has unanimously elected Pittsburgh's K. Leroy Irvis to the position of Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Irvis is the first Black ever elected to be the presiding officer of a state law making body.

Irvis, who is acclaimed as the most effective orator in the House of Representatives, has been elected representative since 1958. The former school teacher earned his law degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1954 and was elected Phi Beta Kappa at that institution. He graduated summa cum laude from New York State Teachers College and received a master's degree from the University of New York.

Mr. Irvis has served on many community boards during his public career including the Urban League of Pittsburgh and the Allegheny County Port Authority.

During his acceptance speech, Rep. Irvis made the point that he is in good health and also made a disclosure of his personal finances. His district stretches from Downtown Pittsburgh through the Hill District to Oakland. After his nomination was seconded by members of both parties, Representative Ben Wilson, Republican, Bucks County, proposed closing the nominations in order that the election would be unanimous. Mr. Irvis was elected with the unanimous good wishes of the 197 members present.

We are grateful to the Bilalain News for this report on a distinctive figure whom many readers across the nation have begun to miss. Sam Muwakkil writes:

Amiri Baraka said he has not deserted the "black movement" by becoming an exponent of communism. He contends that those who allege he has lost his allegiance to Bilalians are merely tools of "bourgeois culture" who are attempting to confuse the masses.

"It suits the bourgeoisie—they always try to confuse socialist ideology with domination by whites and abandoning the black liberation struggle," he told Bilalain News.

Although Baraka is openly espousing "Marxism-Leninism-Mao-Tse-tung" thought, his brand of communism contains a strong dose of "black nationalism."

"We see ourselves as revolutionary nationalists. We don't believe the black nation will ever be liberated until capitalism is smashed... this system of monopoly capitalism must be utterly laid waste."

"We are oppressed by national oppression or racism and capitalism. Racism is a tool of capitalism; it aids in the super-exploitation of black people," Baraka stated.

"But if we are foolish enough to say white people are the cause of our oppression... what that does is cover up the fact that there is only a small handful of those whites—the ruling class—who are actually in power and they are exploiting every last white person," he said.

Baraka peppers his conversation with Marxist clichés and terminology, much in the way a physicist might speak in physicist jargon, but coming from him it sounds odd.

For in the past, anti-Marxists utilized much of Baraka's 1960's work to attack communism as detrimental to Bilalians. "Marx's dirty Lenin," a sardonic phrase that poetically denounced Marxism, was a Baraka original. He was one of the most fervently anti-Marxist Bilalain intellectuals on the scene.

"At the time—the '60s in New York," Baraka explained, "most of the people who were running what was passing for socialist doctrine were rejected as being outright chauvinist and racist themselves.

"We were not able to see the forest for the trees. Most of the people who professed socialism were strange cats... most of the blacks too," he recounted.

"MUSICAL VERSION OF ROOTS"

The Angelic Choir of the Mount Gilead Baptist Church, Rev. A.L. Patrick, pastor, has everything set for their Fifth Annual Concert which will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend. Their theme, "Musical Version of Roots," will take us back into time in song, decor, and dress. A full singing program will take place. "Don't miss this program," says Sister Vinia Thompson, choir sponsor.

in cities and towns where there is ONE electric company (a monopoly) electric deposits are required for "hook-up."

For example: minimum deposit is $15 and electric customers number 60,000 — that means $900,000 is out of circulation. Because you have competing electric companies in Lubbock — you pay no deposit for "hook-up."

Think about it.

English Muffins take on a new look as a loaf of bread. This yeast-raised bread has all the flavor of English Muffins with the convenience of baking it in loaf pans.

English Muffins are a special treat in many homes. The open texture catches pools of Margarine and preserves, making delicious breakfast bread. The accompanying recipe for English Muffin Bread is exactly the same as for muffins but it saves the time of cutting each muffin and cooking on a griddle. This dough is shaped into a loaf and rolled in cornmeal before baking. The result: the convenience of freshly baked bread ready to slice for toast. It has the flavor and approximate texture of an English muffin.

ENGLISH MUFFIN BREAD

(Makes 2 loaves)

- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons Fleischmann's Margarine
- 1 cup warm water (105 F-115 F)
- 1 package Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
- 5 to 6 cups unsifted flour
- Corn Meal

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and Fleischmann's Margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle in Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Add enough additional flour to make soft dough. Turn out onto floured board; knead for about 2 minutes, or until dough is manageable and can be formed into a ball. (Dough may be slightly sticky.) Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch dough down; divide in half. Roll out on lightly floured board; shape into loaves. Roll each loaf in corn meal. Place in 2 greased 8-1/2 x 4-1/2 x 2-1/2-inch loaf pans. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake at 400 F. for 25 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking pans and cool on wire racks.

Bone deterioration — the first life-threatening sign of aging — begins when you are about 40, according to Stanley M. Garn, professor of nutrition and anthropology at the University of Michigan.

CAREER WOMAN

MAXINE McCORMICK RECEIVES PROMOTION

Maxine McCormick, an efficient cashier for the Universal Life Insurance Company for several years, was recently promoted to auditor. Maxine believes: "It is a challenge, as well as an honor" to be one of the six auditors for such a large company as the Universal in keeping the assets and liabilities of the District Offices in balance. She enjoys her work, and loves meeting the outstanding performers she has read about in the "Weekly Digest." This position also involves the training of District Office cashiers. Universal Life Insurance Company operates in the following areas: Arkansas, California, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and the District of Columbia. Maxine is looking forward to working in all of these states in the near future. Since she has been in training, her assignment was assisting in auditing here. She has had the opportunity to work in Fort Worth, Beaumont, Port Arthur, and Chattanooga. She attended a four day auditors conference at the Home Office in Memphis, Tennessee. Her next assignment will be on the Los Angeles and Compton, California Districts. She says to young people: "Opportunities are great today if only you will apply yourself. Set your goals, enjoy whatever career you choose, and above all, put God first." She continues: "You can take it or leave it, it's all up to you." A graduate of Dunbar High School, she has attended Huston-Tillotson and Draughton's Business College here. She is a member of MICHAEL PATTERSON, one of the Texas Tech Red Raiders punt return artist, has returned 15, to date, for 77 yards. Each return has been for an average of 5.1 yards. His longest this season was for 23 yards. The Wichita Falls native is majoring in Business Administration.

DUNBAR SLAPS BROWNFIELD, 21-12

by Dempsey Taylor

The Dunbar Panther-PAT was good by once. Dunbar was penalized eight times last Friday night on the cake for 70 yards; the Brownfield tailback Cub scored five times. No one Ernest White scored for 25 yards. Dunbar would trail with the PAT good. The Panthers will at half time, 6-0. The Cubs scored keep them in the but they did! a gain on an 80 race for the District 3-AAA championship. This district 3-AAA championship made the final title. score 21-12.

In looking at the statistics, one would note that the Cubs had the edge in first down with 16, and Dunbar 10. The Panthers were able to rush for 222 yards while Brownfield had 151. Neither team was

It looks as though Estacado and Dunbar are still in the District 3-AAA running for the championship, each with a 3 win and 1 lost record. Lake View of San Angelo is leading the pack with a 4 win and no loss record.

Estacado has fallen into the hands of Lake View; while Dunbar will play their last game of the season. It could very well be the deciding game on who will represent the district. That is, if Dunbar is able to win the remaining games.

At the same time, Synder is still in the race, and could come out playing a very important part in deciding who will win the championship. Anyway, the race is not over by any means and a lot could happen this week.

The Matadors will host Synder tonight, Thursday, at Lowery Field; while Dunbar will play Sweetwater on Saturday night at Lowery Field.

After receiving the kickoff in the second half, the Panthers, under the direction of quarterback Walter Alsbrook, moved 70 yards on six plays to score their first touchdown of the evening.

Runningback, Kenneth James, who had been stopped in first half, took a handoff from Alsbrook, on a second and 8 from the 39, and ran for the first TD of the evening. This put the Panthers out front, 7-6, when Robert Tolbert booted the point after.

Dunbar's second touchdown came on a 13-play march which they began on their 23. Alsbrook scored on a 4 yard run. The

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

PERSONALLY ACCOUNTABLE TO GOD

Luke 12:41-48

41 Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all?"

42 And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the proper time?"

43 Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing.

44 Truly I tell you, he will set him over all his possessions.

45 But if that servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the maidservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, 46 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will punish him, and put him with the unfaithful.

47 And that servant who knew his master's will, but did not make ready or act according to his will, shall receive a severe beating.

48 But he who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, shall receive a light beating. Every one to whom much is given, of him will much be required; and of him to whom men commit much they will demand the more.

James 5:1-6

1 I come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you.

2 Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days.

4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the harvesters have

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

"Live as free men."—1 Peter 2:16

1. Live! Most of us spend our time as though we were dead or asleep. "To live," St. Paul said, "is Christ." Again, "Likewise reckon you also to be dead indeed to sin but alive to God through Jesus..."

Life is relationship. It is the discovery and appropriation of our true possibilities in God.

2. Be free! An ancient Latin prayer used frequently even today contains the majestic phrase, "Whom to serve is to reign!" Freedom is not license. Freedom is an ordered life bound to the service of God's ultimate will and purpose.

3. Be manly! To be manly, in its rudimentary sense, does not mean to be like a man rather than like a woman. It means to realize our full human nature, our full being. It says in effect, "Don't be a half person. Be whole!"

"Live, (then), as free men!"

Prayer Poem

The decade of 1860-1870 was one of the greatest for hymn writing. In 1867 Bishop William Walsham Howe (1823-1897) wrote, "O Word of God Incarnate," which speaks pointedly to the Wisdom which is of God.

O Word of God incarnate,
O Wisdom from on high
O Truth, unchanged,
unchanging,
O Light of our dark sky:

reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.
5 You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

6 You have condemned, you have killed the righteous man; he does not resist you.

MEMORY SELECTION:

Every one to whom much is given, of him will much be required; and of him to whom men commit much they will demand more. Luke 12:48.

We praise thee for the radiance
That from the hallowed page,
A lantern to our footsteps,
Shines on from age to age.

O make thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
O teach thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till clouds and darkness
ended,
They see thee face to face.

Wisdom impels us to share in the company of God's people in the learning and the sharing of God's truth. The Church looks for your part.

We are to serve with the Triumph Baptist Church of Slaton in the anniversary of their pastor, Rev. M. A. Brown, on Wednesday, Nov. 2.

Mount Gilead Baptist

We are happy over the ordination of our member and friend, Brother Charles W. Johnson, last Sunday evening. Let us continue to pray for him and his family.

The W.M.U. will have its regular Fifth Sunday program on Sunday, Oct. 30, at 7:30.

The Angelic Choir

will have its annual concert on Sunday, Nov. 13, at 7.

Also on Nov. 13, we are programmed to go to Tahoka, Texas for the church anniversary of Rev. M.S. Brown, and members.

The Brotherhood program originally scheduled for Nov. 6 will be presented on Nov. 20 at 7. The message will be brought by Elder C.J. Johnson. Let us make note of this important change.

Let us continue to remember our sick and shut in members.

Greater St. Luke Baptist

Members of the Queen of Sheba, Sarah and Eunice Circles met in the home of Sisters Clara O'Neal, Madelyn Travenia, and Ellen Tillman this week.

Prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening at 7. If you wish to dwell in the house of many mansions, you must make your reservation in advance.

Mission Two, Junior Mission, Youth Choir, and the Brotherhood Union meet each Monday evening.

The Men's Chorus meets with the Brotherhood Union each Monday evening at 8.

Mission One Chorus practices Monday evenings at 8. We are getting ready for the Fifth Sunday program.

Let us pray for and visit our sick and shut in members. Those on the sick list this week are Sis. Roberta Cook, who remains in West Texas Hospital; and Mr. Claude Smith, the husband of Sis. Mattie Smith, is sick in West Texas Hospital.

Sisters Rowie Reed, Dolly Howard, and Ellen Tillman are still shut in.

Lyons Chapel Baptist

Let us not forget the O. D. Hollins Memorial Banquet which will be held at the South Park Inn on Friday evening, Nov. 11. Gene Freeling of Bishop College at Dallas, Texas will be our guest speaker.

Women's Day Services, sponsored by the Missionary Society, will be observed on Sunday, Oct. 30. President Hood will bring her annual address. All Mission Ladies are asked to be present and in your uniforms. Joint evening worship services will be held Sunday, Nov. 6. Let us continue to pray for the sick and shut in members of our church and community.

CETA is now taking applications for Homemaker Health Aides. All interested persons are asked to call 763-6493 or go by 1614 Ave. M.

Twentieth & Birch Church of Christ

Door-knocking will be held Saturday, Oct. 29, from 10 to noon. Let us make an effort to give a gospel tract to someone. It may determine where they will spend eternity. We'll meet at the church building at 9:45 a.m. No experience is necessary.

YOU AND THE STARS

you are out from under the frustrating trend of past months, as you begin a new personal cycle. Sparkling new relationships and social popularity is accentuated, and there is impact on your finances. Whatever your ambition, don't fail to follow up on new opportunities. Be perceptive to any and all chances that come your way.

SCORPIO—October 23-November 22. HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

This is a challenging period for you; this can mean that you are working on an important plan concerning your career, finances or a personal relationship, as romantic versal blazer in 1975. She has also received her fifth and tenth year service pins. She says: "Two very important persons have helped her to succeed in the past play a very important part in the present." They are her mother, Mrs. Catherine McCormick and her aunt, Mrs. Eula M. Joiner.

She is the proud mother of two sons, Ralph, a second grader at Iles; and John, a seventh grader at E. C. Struggs Junior High School.

matters are important to you this month. Many of you will be accessing the main areas of your life these days; evaluating what is worthwhile in your life and weeding out the unproductive. Friendships will be evaluated as well and old friends will find you much changed. This will be a busy period, and you are successful in whatever you attempt now.

AGITTARIUS—November 23-December 21

You are practically assured of great social activity and success during this period. In fact the only problem will be in the way of career or job demands, which could increase—especially after mid month, as Saturn the old "teacher" enters your work area. Some of you Archers will not like to hear this after the stress of recent months, but take heart: your ingenuity and your own ambidextrous way will assure you of business success.

CAPRICORN — December 22-January 19

You can make great strides now in pursuing career status and recognition, but you may not be in the mood for practical attainment, strange as that may sound for ambitious Capricorn. Your mood is for personal fulfillment and academic interests; you may want to travel now or study a new language, as the sector of your chart relating to these matters is influenced by your ruling planet, which enters this area by mid-month; all this makes your judgment at its best.

AQUARIUS — January 20-February 18

This is a less stressful period. If you have analyzed things well and are balanced in all factors, you should make out quite well. Your outlook is good and you're feeling carefree. For some time now you have been experiencing changes and perhaps upheavals in your life; you are now able to break through barriers of frustrations, and those who previously may have given you the cold shoulder will be willing to go along with you, and may even be eating out of your hand now.

PISCES — February 20-March 20

By now you have gained some of the recognition for which you have strived for so long. Great interest is on partnership matters now, as this area is doubly highlighted. You gain increased security where marriage or partnership relations are involved. You should have steady and amazingly easy progress during this period. Your co-ruling planet, Jupiter, will help you to finalize and attain your ambition during this period.

"LUBBOCK DIGEST" SUBSCRIPTION WINNERS

In last week's issue, a picture of two Black sisters was ran in order for us to be able to identify who they were. As of last Saturday morning, our office received six letters naming the two Lubbock women.

The name of the two Black sisters are Ms. Igie Scott and Ms. Clara Colquitt.

Since all of the letters were post-marked at the same time, all of the six readers will receive a one year subscription of the Lubbock Digest, your weekly newspaper.

Those persons who will receive the free subscription are LaGloria Lewis, Lurline Smith, Ruby J. Phenix, Johnnie Hayden, Vinia Williams, and W.H. Stevens.

The Lubbock Digest will do other community involvement attractions and features from time to time.

Outreach Breakfast Club Meets Here

The Outreach Breakfast Club met last Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in the home of Mrs. B. Swisher, 1501 East 1st St.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Dorothy Hood. Scripture was taken from II Cor. 9:6-8. The topic of discussion was "Sufficiency in All Things." Having sufficient faith in Christ and He will make everything possible, because God loves a cheerful giver.

"We should get involved and give more of our time, more love, and understanding for one another; and be a brother and sister in Christ," says Mrs. Hood.

A tasteful breakfast was served. Mrs. Lola B. Byrd was a special guest.

Next meeting will be held in Slaton, Texas with Mrs. J. White as hostess.

Media Reviews:

A CONTROVERSIAL HERO

A review of A Passion for Equality: George Wiley and the Movement, by Nick and Mary Kez, W.W. Norton Co., New York, 372 pages—$8.95

The W.W. Norton Publishing Company is to be prized by black Americans especially for its continual efforts to contribute to notable black causes.

This book, which is a tribute to the late Dr. George Wiley of the Welfare Rights Organization, fits this category of "books for a good cause." If for no other reason, A Passion for Equality is designed for a great cause to which George Wiley devoted his remarkable talents.

With the grating debate over the propriety of "welfare for blacks, riches for whites," many will question

In Grateful Appreciation

The Bryant, and Priestley Families

the rightness or centrality of George Wiley's cause. But none can question his dedication to human good as he, and so many others in his era, perceived it.

Written from a liberal noblesse oblige point of view and unconsciously paternalistic in locking blacks into a dangerous and possibly genocidal "segregated system of welfare," the book nonetheless tells a fine story of an heroic figure whose noble spirit transcends the perhaps transitory nature of his work.

CLIMBING

I climbed the highest mountain
And tumbled speedily to the earth.

I climbed the highest social class
And was scorned and ridiculed.

I climbed to be President
And was impeached and removed from office.

I climbed and accomplished beyond human capability
And was belittled.

I climbed to the clouds
And was stoned with hell.

I climbed to the stars
And was cast unto the earth.

I climbed up and knocked on a door
As I have never seen before.

And finally when the door opened

The beauty and glory was fulfilling.
I was received.

—Kathy Fittz
