Senior Citizen Center Should Be Named 'Corine E. Fair'

The City of Lubbock lost a dear friend last Sunday morning in the death of Mrs. Corine E. Fair. An active woman in civic affairs - everything from the local and state beautician profession to the Court of Calanthians - she worked hard to see that Black womanhood was seen in a positive prespective in this community.

Of more recent times, Mrs. Fair devoted her final years to the efforts of the Barbara Jordan Senior Citizens and the Outreach Prayer Breakfast where she served as vice president until her death. We can recall her untiring efforts to see that everything was done right for all concerned. Aside from those efforts and many, many more, Mrs. Fair was concerned about the political aspects of the Black community. She worked in these areas at the local and state levels. A Democrat, she will be missed at the Democratic voting precinct during election

A friend of the Southwest Digest, we would suggest that the newly constructed senior citizen center on Mac Simmons Park be named in her honor. In remembrance of her, this center should bear the name of Corine E. Fair. She loved this program, and she deserves this in her memory.

NOVEMBER 17 THRU NOVEMBER 23, 1983

"This is not a babysitting service for parents to loave their children," were remarks made by Ms. Joan Y. Ervin, chairperson of the Black Advisory Committee of the Lubbock Public Schools, last Saturday morning at Ella Iles Elementary School.

W.s. Ervin, speaking to bout lifty parents, told them this program is for any student who needs assistance in reading. "We don't care what color the child is, we want to help the child or children learn to read," she said.

"We will not be a disciplinary center for your children," she said. "We will work all we can with your child or children, but we will need your help. Please, Mom and Dad, don't use this time each Saturday to do your chores and forget about your child or children."

Dr. E. C. Leslie, superintendent, spoke to the group of parents briefly. He told them how great this effort was and their help is needed. "If this costinues, in five years we will feel the impact of such a program " said Dr.

Leslie. The reading program is designed to help those students who are reading below their grade level in

Why Is Jesse Really Running?

by Eddie P. Richardson

Split the vote, ego tripping, taking votes from former vice president Walter Mondale, and every other kind of excuse or reason why Jesse Jackson should not run for the President of the United States. But our answer is why not run? The charismatic Black Baptist preacher and leader and founder of Operation PUSH will enter certain presidential primaries in certain states as a Democrat. He does not expect towin the presidential nomination, but his running will give him and other leaders of the Black community more clout at the Democratic Convention, because historically Blacks has gotten very little except promises from the Demos and a lot less from the GOP. Their few promises were just as empty; plus they put a person in the White House that has established policies that hurt the Black Cause far more than any occupant in the past 30 years. Almost everyone is sick of the happenings or the attempted happenings under

At first glance may will think his move is silly and useless, but think about the ability to bargain with the political leadership with some degree of clout.

The victory in Chicago by Harold Washington, first Black Mayor of that City, and the many Black Mayors (288 to be exact) across the USA has changed the thinking of many Black leaders especially since they now know that their help must come from their own initiative and not be dependent upon the miceness of other folks which has proved to be of no value for fatoo long and the resuits came in such small dribbles as to not be worth the wait or the work. So through Jesse Jackson its a chance to have someone for real clout and gain some for real respect or that some Blacks will switch especially if the GOP brings George Bush or some other proven attractive candidate. This is a sensible move which is plenty smart and needs your cooperation to succeed and the results cannot but help us all everywhere in the USA!

Some highlights from The Hot Skillet in the Chicago Metro-News, by the Ax Man: "The candidacy or even threat of a candidacy by the Rev. Jesse Jackson can shake loose some profound commitments to the Black electrate, including the selection of a Black vice president or the promise to seriously consider one. The noice Jackson is making about running will rebound to the benefit of the Black community, the empty headed bleating of jealous hearted NAACP officials such as Ben Hooks notwithstanding.

Jackson has often described himself as a tree shaker, a role he has performed admirable. He has shaken Who can doubt that President Reagan's willingness to sign a bil' making Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday a national holiday is a direct result of Rev. Jackson's vote cousade in the states the Republicans barely won in 1980. In New York City, for instance, there are over 600,000 unregistered Blacks and nearly 400.000 in other parts of the state. In 1980, Reagan won the whole state by only 164,000 votes. Jackson's goal is to register at least 406,000 Blacks in New York

South Carolina is another state that in 1980 had, and still has a larger number of unregistered Blacks than the Fresident's margin of victory. So much so, that Republican Senator Strom Thurmond, known far and wide for his antebellum racist attitudes toward Blacks in years past, is now singing a different tune. Recognizing that Blacks hold the balance of power in his state. Thurmond is now one of the most feverent supporters of the MLK holiday bill. He, of course, claims to have been born again, a believer in justice for the downtrodden. But, we believe the old direhard segregationist just looked up and saw all those peaceful colored folk joining the Reverend's Southern Crusade.

The tree shaking Reverend had the same impact on Anheuser-Busch, the largest brewery in the world, and indirectly, other breweries which quickly started counting how many Black faces they had an in what counting how many Black faces they had and in what positions before Jackson started shaking their trees. The A: Man was told by top Black officers of a rival brewery that they were secretly rooting Jesse on his attack on the Goliath of the industry.

His poycott shook up some top executives at the rival companies who, in turn, looked down the corporate ladder and shook loose some law-level Blacks, outfitted them in three-piece business suits adn put "VP" on the doors to their newly acquire! office

If the Reverend can shake loose some well deserving brothers and sisters from their low-level corporate status; if he can shake the Republican Party up enough to have a fire-breeding, got religion racist like Thurmond now trying to learn the lyrics of "We Shall Overcome," why it's possible that anything can happen, maybe even the selection of a Black Vice President. Te honestly think the Reverend has about as much chance of getting the Democratic nomination for President as a mosquito has of impregnating an elephant. But, we also understand that that's not the important consideration at this point in history.

What's important is that somebody is out there just shaking them trees. Reverend, you shake'ein, we'll bake'em. Glory be, he Ax Man can almort hear good ol'boy Thurmond humming the Black National Anthem.

Right Ax Man, and you can bet your ax sharpner that the Reverend Jesse Jackson will make a difference in the 1984 Presidential election. Women, Blacks, Poor People and others will get history breaking consideration, concessions, positions as has never happened tafore in the history of this Republic. Our answer is RUN JESSE, RUN!!

A Damsel in Distress The Lady's Fight is Our Fight

Last year's top twenty-five professional football some mighty luscious fruits from some mighty groves. _____ rookie players salaries ranged from $101,500 -313,750 per year. For the 1983 season it soared from $173,333 one million dollars per season. There were no known sister getting these sacks full of money. Maybe that's why some women don't like Monday Night Football! I coubt it! But nevertheless, no women in sports entertainment or corporate business enjoy such a sensational reception as a rookie. In fact, evidence indicates a definite direction to poverty row as the female rollows the road to veteran player in the game of life!

The more the merrier is not working out for women in the work force. Women have tripled their numbers in the work force over the past 30 years. Forty-five and a half million in 1980 up from 16.7 million i 1947. But ever since 1955 their salaries have been going backward when based against men. Salaries of full time women workers in relation to men's have actually slipped to 59.7% down from 60.2% of men's earnings. Even worse off were women in management positions. Plummenting three full percentage points from 58% to 55%. While there are more women managers, up nearly double from 14.5% to 26.2%, it's clearly cheaper labor without consent. Such senior females are still luckier than those on the low age level. Lower paying jobs, such as clerical workers, are even worse off than at the top. In the past 20 years, women clerical workers according to the U.S. Commerce Department Census Bureau, have seen their salaries fall to only 60% from 68% of their male counterpart. A cut of 13% during the highest inflationary times in America. A slash just when women were starting to come on to their own in the work force. She may have come a long way for nothing! Whan a woman runs a family it really hurts in the purse. Overall, married couple families register a median weekly income of $854, while a female headed family averages $271, less than a third of the going rate. Black American families are for unate if they can. find 70% of these income figures.

Fair and equal salaries for all women would substantially increase the income in the Black American community, considering the disportionately higher percentage of Black American female head of households in Black America. Aiding a "damsel in distress has "not lost its charm" rather it's a 'de celebre' if not for chauvinist egoism, ethnic conomics.

Your Wife Is Not A Sparring Partner For The Brutal Fights Of Life

She's not a punching bag! Your home is not a boxing ring! Your wife is not a spairing partner for the brutal fights of life!

Walk through any court house on any Monday morning and you will see the blackeyes, bloody noses and busted lips of the weekend victims of the T.K.O.

Listen brotfer, don't use your wife or your lady as a punching bag. Don't turn your home into a boxing ring. I know the pressures of life can cause us to lash out and to strike out at the ones we love. I know the depressed economy often makes as want to crack down hard on the softest people in our lives. I know the frustrations of the long lev off or the short pay check often makes us long on temper and short on patience. I know we can't fight the world by fighting on wives. You slow it too.

Termination of Parental Rights

Marvin Rogers

In Texas, before a parent's rights can be terminated, the judge or jury must determine that termination is in the best interest of the child. The best interest of the child is a very elusive concept embracing many factors and is generally the primary concern of the trial judge.

The judge is going to place much more weight on what he conceives to be the child's best interest than on the bare feelings or emotions of the parents for the child which have not been expressed in concrete, practical, caring ways. It must appear that the best interest of the child will not be served by cutting him or her off from his or her parents.

The Texas Supreme Court has listed nine factors that may be taken into account in determing "best

1. The desire of the child;

2. The emotional and physical needs of the child now and in the future;

3. The emotional and physical danger to the child now and in the future;

4. The parental abilities of the person seeking custody; 5. The programs available to assist these individuals to promote the best interest of the child; 6. The plans for the child by these individuals or by the agency seeking custody;

7. The stability of the home or proposed placement; 8. The acts or omissions of the parents which may indicate that the existing parent-child relationship is not a proper one; and 9. Any excuse for the acts or omissions on the part of the parents. In addition to the question of best interest the judge or jury must find at least one of ten grounds before termination will be ordered. These deal with various types of abandonment, endangering the physical or emotional well-being of the child, failure to support the child financially in accordance with your ability, and failure to abide by public school laws.

These grounds along with the best interest factors provide the poor parents with guidelines to follow as best they can in order to prevent termination. Carefully nurture the bond between you and your child physically, emotionally, and mentally. If circumstances require you to place your child with another person for a period of time:

1. be specific about the length of time you will leave the child; 2. Be sure to return to take possession of the child at the agreed upon time;

3. Arrange to consistently financially support the child while you are away as your circumstances permit. (keep a record of your payments -- toys at Christmas and clothes on birthdays are not vry effective evidence.

4. Keep in weekly contact with the child or his or her custodian by personal visits, telephone calls or letters or postcards.

Never abuse the child physically or emotionally. Seek help from welfare early on if you see you are in need with your chili in regard to his or her health, nutrition, emotional, or social problems. Take advantage of programs to improve your parenting skills which welfare provides.

In other w rds, do all you can within your means to improve yourself as a parent and to strengthen the bond of love between you and your child. Do not let ter mination just happen. Make a real of fort to preserve your relationship. For parents who fail to do this, it may well be in the best interest of their child or children to be taken away from them.

Can you beat unemployment by beating your wife? Can you beat inflation by beating your partner? Can you test your problems, weakensses or short comings by beating your wife? We Il know the answer and the answer is no.

Personal Note: One of the most thrilling and challenging moments in the forty odd years that we have served in the pastoral ministry, was shared by members and friends in Pecos. Texas recently wher we paid off the indebtedness of Friendship Church and parsonage after a struggle of some fifteen years by the small congregation.

In addition to this thrill, was the opportunity to place an historical plaque honoring some of the pioneer builders of the congregation who have since gone to their heavenly reward. This $100,000 plant should be a joy forever for those who have labored to bring all this to past. Plans are underway already to place a Black History Library within its walls. More

We received a beautiful letter from Congressman Ron Coleman of the 16th U.S. Congressional District of Texas in which he tells why all Americans should rejoice and be glad that we will be honoring another great American: Martin Luther King. One of the advantages of Social Security is that you don't have to stop working completely when you get monthly Social Security retirement payments. If you want to add to your Social Security income by doing some part-time or temporary work you can. Because i' you're 65to 70, you can earn as much as $6,000 in 1983 without losing any of your benefits. If you're under 65. the amount you can earn and still get your full payment is $4,920 this year. For every $2 you earn over the exempt amount you lose $1 in benefits, However, if you're 70 or older, there's no limit on your earnings. You goo earn any amount and you'll still get your full Social Security payments. And, these additional earnings can mean higher benefits for you when they're added to your Social Security earnings record. If you have any questions, call any Social

If you get monthly Social Security checks, Social Security should have your correct address. So if you're planning to move, you should send them your new address and moving date. Even if you have direct deposit of your checks. Social Security must have your new address for their records so they can keep you informed of any changes in the law or other important announcements. You can call any Social Security office to report your change of address.

One of the changes made by the recent Social Security legislation is an increase in the tax cate starting next year. The tax rate for both employers and employees will be increased to 7 percent. However, a gradit of 3/10 of a percent will be allowed against the imployees' 1984 taxes. This means the Social Security tax rate for employees will be 6.7% for 1984, which is the same rate as this year's tax.

SEEK CULTURAL BOYCOTT OF BIAS MADE NATION.

ST. LOUIS, MO. - Randall Ro inson, executive director of the DecCee based TransAfrica organization, which is bent on establishing closer ties between Afro-Americans and their root land, told a wall to wall audience in the Wilshire Ebell Theatre that "apartheid should be treated like a virus; isolated and stamped out." The affair was sponsored by Media Forum, a group concernerd with building better images for tomorrow and was part of the ongoing drive of "Artists and Athletes to have all superstars shun South Africa and its self made state. It also focused a worded spotlight on Hollywood's alleged tacit contribution to apartheid in calling for a "Cultural Boycott of the Las Vegas style Sun (Sin) City entertainment complex setup in the so-termed independent Republic of Bophuthatswana." Even though "BOP" and Sun City are supposed to be independent and the Minister of Commerce and Industry, Solomon Rathebe, said with a straight face. with a Bible in place, that they "abhor apartheid and that theirs is non racial society with a democratic government," they have a white (strange) way of showing it. The contradictions are obvious. The Bophuthatswana military hierarcy is made-up almost exclusively of whites, and they are not even citizens. The top level management of Sun (Sin) City is also lily white and make their beds and take their boards in South Africa and not "BOP". The holding nail in the coffin is that the State of Bophuthatswana is recognized by no other nation than South Africa. It is not even acceptable to the United Nations nor the United States, despite the Reagan Administration's conciliatory "constructive engagement" policy toward South Africa. So in the words of Randall Robinson: when you're in BOP, you're in South Africa. And to unquote, the most hate aching nation in the world. According to Dumi Matabane, the DeeCee representative of the African National Council, whihe has been fighting apartheid for 72-yrs, Bophuthatswan's government is a sham. The place was founded by South Africa to keep it all white by creating a place where millions of black South Aficans could be relocated and deprived of their citizenship.

The Republic of Bophuthatswana was established within the borders of South Africa in '77. Minister Rathebe is quoted as saying that Sun City is playing the part of a catalyst as far as changing attitudes. The number of super class stars who have performed there since its opening in '79 must have the same feeling. The list includes Frank Sinatra, Liza Minneli, George Benson, Barry Manilow, Linda Ronstadt and Elton John, who was there in October, a mung others. Sammy Davis, Jr., has been offered big-bucks to peform there but is steadfast in his refusal. Actress Tyne Daly, TV's "Cagney & Lacey," spouse of Afro-American actor George Stanford Brown, has asked The Screen Actors Guild and The American Federation of Television & Radio Artists to follow the lead of the British Equity and refuse to allow the sale of TV shows to South Africa. In full vocal stride Min. Louis Farrakhar, of the Nation of Islam urged performers not to give "Their God-given gifts to the evil, wicked, powerbrokers of South Africa." He also warned them that while looking at he evils of apartheid they fail to see the dire effects of racism here in

RRC Tells Congress Federal Bus Act Isn't Working

Austin, Fex. - In written comments sent to Congress this week, the Relfroad Commission criticized the effects of federal bus legislation passed last year saying bus service has been reduced, the financial position of bus companies has worsened, and the regulatory process has been made more expensive and less meaningful.

The Commission told the House Subcommittee on Surjace Transportation that "the Bus Regulatory Reform Act of 1982 has falled to produce any of the benefits which its proponents have projected," and on the contrary, "has produced severe negative impacts on the states and their citizens."

The Commission statement also strongly criticized the Interstate Commerce Commission's enforcement of the act, charging "the ICC has played a shell game in which the rules are made up and changed along the vay, conceoled from the players, and applied in such a way to make the state role in bus regulation a farce. "For those states, such as the state of Texas, which take pride on responsive and responsible motor bus regulation, the ICC's actions are an insult to the regulatory process and the public," the Commissiom said.

Before passage of the federal act last fall, the Railroad Commission had regulated bus service in the state since 1927 under the Texas Motor Bus Act. The Commission would carefully consider impact on the public before granting or denying applications to change or discontinue bus service or raise rates. With the Bus Regulatory Reform Act. however, the situation changed dramatically for the worse. State commissions have been severely limited in their ability to Wock unjustified route increases. if such can be appealed to the 1CC which has the power to overrule.

According to the Rallroad Commission. the ICC has being doing just that with alarming frequency. "Deastle reductions in service to small towns have occurred during the first year since passage of the BRRA and even more arastic future reductions ar likely," the Commission pointed out.

"The nation's largest bus carrier proposed to discontinue all service to over 1,000 cities and iowns in several states, among them Oregon, California, Iowa, and Texas," tle Commission said. "A blanket affirmat'ons of such proposals were forthcoming from the LCC. other carriers have proposed discontinuance es in other areas."

In Texas, Greyhound Bus Lines, Inc. applied to the Railroad Commi. sion to carcel service to 58 cities, After Grey bound presented virtually no evidence to justify such a move, the Commission denied the application and Greyhound has appealed that decision to the ICC. Similare appeals by Greyhound from other states have been unheld.

"With this encouragement from the ICC," the Commission told the subcommittee, "motor bus companies can be expected to discontinue service throughout Yexas with impunity, without regard to whether ruch discontinuance is justified."

According to the Commission statement, the argument most often advanced by bess companies to justify their service cuts is that the service is not profitabale. When state regulatory bodies have sought financial data to substantiate the claims, however, the bus companies haven't byeen companies baven't been willing or able to produce it. Worse, the ICCQ hasn't insisted on the data cases.

cancellations or fare in its appellate review of applications are denied "In a recent decision by the state, the decision where the ICC granted a Reagan may grant the late Marcus Garvey a pardon. He was sent a personal request to do so by Jamaican Prime Minister, Edward P. G. Seaga. A native Jamaican, Garvey came to America in 1916 and stimulated pride in the hearts of the then called "Negro". He launched a "Back to Africa" movement. and a battle cry "Africa for Africans." He was convicted for mail fraud in '23. And given the max 5yrs, and a $1,000 fine. Both he and his followers assumed he had been framed. Pres. Coolidge commuted his sentence in '27 and he was deported to Jamaica. He resettled in England where he died in '40. He was 52. In making his request through Vice Prez. Bush, the Prime Minister said, "It cannot befit the memory of this great man whom the world acknowledged as the Father of black Nationalism, for which he is universally honored, that the record of his life continues to be tainted with this stain of dishonor."

DEAR YOLONDA: I'm 18, and I still live at home with my parents. The price I have to pay for room and board is babysitting. If I charged my mother a dollar for every hour I spend with my younger sisters and brother, I'd be a rich woman. I mean I cook for them, fix their lunch for school, I do my youngest sister's hair. I do everything. If i complain or say anything to my mother, I get yelled at.

What can I do? I never want to have children of my own. I spend too much time raising three children, already. Karen F

DEAR KAREN: YOU didn't say whether or not you were in school. If you are, you need to have a counselos appragch your mother to explain how demanding your studies are, and that you need time for yourself.

If you're working, explain your side to your mother. Then, offer to help pay a baby-itter once she finds one.

Your Wife you in jail for six months. Some judges will hit you with a $1,000 fine that will staver your mind and buckle your knees. The system of justice will beat you over the head with a criminal record that will leave a scar on your reputation that will last for the rest of your wie.

Why not go into z fight where everybody gets paid but you? Why should your criminal lawyer get paid when it's you in the ring? Why should your divorce lawyer get the prize money when you are the fighter? Why should the doctor get his cut when it was you who did the cutting? Can you really afford to beat your wife knowing that you will really get the beating?

You still have time to be saved by the bell. When you feel the pressure of the times building up in you, don't explode. Go to a neutral corner then talk it out in the center of the ring.

Don't use your wife as a sparring partner for the brutal fights of life. Marriage does not have to be knock down drag out fight. You don't have to spend 15 years in the ring hitting each other. Put down your gloves and try holding instead of hitting. Don't knock each other out, turn each other on.
