

Radio Warning May Have Gone To Wrong Plane

Traffic Controller Testifies In Probe Of Worst Air Crash

BULLETIN WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Erick Rios Broudeux, Bolivian pilot of the P-38 which crashed into an Eastern Air Lines plane killing 55 persons, told investigators he had reported trouble before he started his landing descent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—Officials investigating the air crash which killed 55 here last week weighed the possibility today that a frantic radio effort to prevent the disaster might have been transmitted to the wrong plane.

Glenn Tigner, 21, a National Airport traffic controller, conceded yesterday that his shouted warnings to the Bolivian pilot of a P-38 fighter plane might have gone out on the wrong channel—to be heard, instead, in the Eastern Airlines transport which the fighter ramméd moments later.

An inquiry panel set up by the Civil Aeronautics Board expected today to hear the views of Erick Rios Broudeux, director of Bolivian aviation, who was at the controls of the ill-fated P-38.

Rios Broudeux offered a detailed statement to investigators Monday at the Alexandria, Va., hospital where he is being treated for severe injuries suffered in the crash.

Maj. German Pol, another Bolivian aviation official, was one of the witnesses at yesterday's opening hearing.

Pol, who witnessed the collision from his parked automobile at the airport, said it appeared to him that the Eastern Airline DC-4 had swerved into the fighter.

As for the P-38, Pol testified that his government had turned down the plane three times prior to the fatal test flight—on one occasion because the radio was not working properly.

The Bolivian official said Rios Broudeux had indicated before the takeoff that the radio was working. But he added that Rios passed on a request to the control tower to instruct him by lights if his radio failed.

Quirino Lead Mounting In Isle Election

MANILA, Nov. 10. (AP)—President Elpidio Quirino's lead over two opponents mounted slowly today as tardy returns filtered in from Tuesday's presidential election.

Unofficial returns at dusk gave Quirino 1,123,940 votes. Trailing him was Jose Laurel, favored by leftists and critics of United States and Philippines policy, with 901,833. Jose Avelino, third party candidate, had 249,813.

The official count from the commission on elections lagged. At nightfall with reports from only 213 of the Philippines 1,212 municipalities, the official returns stood at: Quirino 525,383; Laurel 263,479; Avelino 105,364.

Forty eight hours after the election Quirino was not inclined to issue a victory statement. Nor was Nationalist Candidate Laurel in a mood to concede defeat.

Oldtimers who have watched the slow pace of election returns in these islands since 1935, when it became a commonwealth, had one answer: Once the treaty is established government poll officials who are on a daily pay system like to stretch out their jobs at five to 15 pesos ($2.50 to $7.50) a day as long as possible.

The Nationalist Party had another explanation. In a statement tonight Veteran Party President Eulogio Rodriguez said: "We still hope that excluding illegal votes our candidates will emerge victorious."

Local Option Vote In Justice Precinct No. 4 Announced

Final and complete figures from voting in the local option election of justice precinct No. 4 on Tuesday today showed 111 favoring prohibition, 11 against.

The precinct, which includes the voting boxes of Moore, Center Point, Gay Hill, Morris, Knott and Soash, had petitioned for the local option vote on Oct. 16. The precinct was created the forepart of 1948 and includes the north-central and northwest parts of the county. The last box to report was Gay Hill, which showed a vote of 13 to 5 in favor of prohibiting sale of alcoholic beverages in the area.

There have been no permits for sales in the area prior to the election.

HEY, SENORES, YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO FIGHT THE BULL—The ultimate victim gets a temporary respite as toradors Luis Miguel Dominguin (right) of Spain and Rovira of Peru scrap in a Lima bullring. Dominguin has just been slapped by his fellow performer for a fancied insult after the Spanish bullfighter had tossed his cape in front of the charging bull to prevent what he thought was a threatened goring of his ring companion. Rovira interpreted the gesture as questioning his valor and the slapping followed. Dominguin, whose turn it was to be matador, went on to win the final decision by killing the bull amid the plaudits of the crowd. (AP Wirephoto.)

DEMO SETBACK SEEN

GOP Makes Light Of Election Results

By The Associated Press Labor organizations joined Democrats today in praising Tuesday's election results as a major victory for President Truman's program.

But Republicans, who lost important campaigns in New York State and elsewhere, disagreed on the significance of their setback.

Both the CIO Political Action Committee and the AFL's political organization issued statements calling the Tuesday balloting a clear sign that the nation's voters haven't changed their minds about Mr. Truman's proposals since electing him President in 1948.

A top Republican, Harold E. Stassen, also recalled last year. The results of this week's elections, he said, "re-emphasized the very serious nature of our defeat in 1948."

But New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Mr. Truman's GOP opponent in 1948, saw things in a different light. Dewey backed the losing candidate in the New York Senate election which saw former Democratic Gov. Herbert H. Lehman defeat Sen. John Foster Dulles.

"The result of the senatorial election," said Dewey, "is a setback and not a gain for the policies of the national administration, since Sen. Dulles ran well ahead of local tickets all over the state."

Stassen, in his talk at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington yesterday, said the Republican Party must "rebuild."

This should be accomplished, he added, not by throwing anyone out of the party, but rather by urging the older members to "move over and make room" for younger people.

ack Kroll, director of the CIO Political Action Committee, summed up the election results this way:

"I think it is reasonable to expect that members of Congress at the next session will keep in front of them the Nov. 9 returns and push forward the fair deal program of health legislation, repeal of Taft-Hartley, broadened social security coverage, civil rights legislation, and other matters necessary for the security and welfare of the people."

INTRODUCING COMMUNITY CHEST AGENCIES

Boy Scout Troop No. 1 Of Big Spring Is Oldest Unit Of Its Kind In Texas

Persons interested in doing something constructive for youth should find an effective and convenient method in the Community Chest.

One of the agencies which hopes to meet its 1950 budget through the Chest campaign has been "doing something" for youngsters for 40 years with a reputation that is universally regarded above challenge.

That, of course, would be the Boy Scouts of America, an organization that figures prominently in the history of Big Spring and Howard county. By way of reference, it might be pointed out that Troop No. 1 in Big Spring is the oldest Boy Scout unit in Texas.

Fortunately, the Boy Scout philosophy of character building and citizenship training is well enough known that it requires no selling. The Scout program can justify itself, however, on a strict dollars and cents basis. For example, a police department in one city started a experiment designed to prove that it was easier and less expensive to prevent than to solve crimes. In one experiment a Boy Scout troop was established at a housing project where frequent complaints had been made. By the time the Scout unit gained momentum, juvenile complaints in that neighborhood had dropped as much as 90 per cent.

Scout leaders in the Buffalo Trail Council, which embraces Big Spring, believe this area is in a position to offer the best program in history for its boys. The district committee is rolling up its sleeves, determining to expand and strengthen scouting in this vicinity. A successful Community Chest campaign will insure a Boy Scout program that boys of Big Spring and Howard county want in 1950.

Mine Workers Obey Leader, Return To Pits

Much Grumbling Over Suspension Heard In Fields

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10. (AP)—Thousands of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers followed the orders of their boss today. They dug coal.

The unpredictable Lewis ordered his 378,000 soft coal miners east of the Mississippi to go back to the pits until midnight, Nov. 30. They had been idle eight weeks.

Lewis is still trying to get a contract to replace the one which expired last June 30.

And some of Lewis' members say they don't like the idea of going back to work until the contract issue is settled. But, as always, they're following Lewis' orders.

"Why go back for just three weeks?" was the general reaction among a sober-faced group of miners at nearby Bridgeville when they learned of Lewis' dramatic move.

"We might as well stay out till we get something," said one UMW member.

"After the 30th, we'll be at it (on strike) again," another miner declared grimly.

At Russellton, near Pittsburgh, about 95 per cent of the striking miners were hunting when Lewis' orders came. One fellow, his gun on his shoulder and a rabbit in his hand, said he'd be glad to work.

"I'm tired of just loafing around," he said.

Within a few hours after Lewis' order, his representatives in the field delivered official word to local officials. Some mine locals scheduled meetings immediately—others planned them today.

Joseph Mautino, president of Local 4426 at Harmarville, Pa., said his men would meet today.

Cotton Trucks Are New Sight For Garden City People

GARDEN CITY, Nov. 10.—Residents, undisturbed by big transports with sheep and cattle bulging from the cracks, have been blinking their eyes over a new sight during the past fortnight.

Cotton trucks, a prosaic sight in the table land to the north, have been shuttling through here at an increasing rate. The tempo picked up perceptibly last week.

Until last year, Glascock raised little cotton. It had never had a gin of its own. But with the breaking of ranch sod in the St. Lawrence community in the southern extremity of the county, a modern gin plant arose.

This week the Paymaster gin there had turned 878 bales of cotton. The past week daily turnout averaged 65 bales. Earlier, it had been estimated the gin would process 2,000 bales for the season, but now it appears this figure may be exceeded.

The traffic through Garden City is moving south from Howard county. Some cotton has been brought from as far as north of Big Spring where producers were in a hurry to have their cotton processed.

Since there are no storage facilities at St. Lawrence, the baled cotton is being trucked to Big Spring and Ballinger.

Bulgaria Charges Border Atrocities

Cotton Gins Of County Still Behind Backlog

Howard county cotton gins were still operating far behind a substantial backlog today as the harvest moved forward at a rapid clip.

The Texas Employment Commission's latest survey of gins showed that 31,124 bales had been ginned in the county as of the first of the week.

At least 90 per cent of the county's cotton crop is open, the TEC estimated, but apparently not more than about 62 percent has been harvested, based on the TEC total yield estimate of 50,000 bales.

Mitchell county gins were approaching the 25,000 mark, according to the latest TEC survey, while reports from Martin county earlier in the week disclosed that ginning figures there had exceeded 30,000 bales.

No domestic cotton harvest crews arrived in Martin and Mitchell counties last week, and only three crews averaging 12 members each, were reported in Howard county. Martin county farmers put several hundred additional Mexican nationals to work in cotton fields, however.

TEC estimates were that Howard county still needed about 880 harvest workers, while Mitchell county had openings for 825 and Martin county needed about 600.

$1,320.65 Mark Hit By Iron Lung Fund

The VFW Iron Lung Fund had reached $1,320.65 Thursday.

When the TRECO club, the employees organization of the Refinery Engineering company, closed out their fund here this week, they donated the residue of $64.37 to the iron lung fund.

The Mary Martha Sunday school class of the First Baptist church gave $10 as did the B. & P.W. club. Aurora Etheridge added $5 to the total.

The VFW and Jaycees are joint sponsors of the effort to raise funds for a second public service respirator for the community. Checks should be made payable to the VFW Iron Lung Fund and may be left at the Herald of Pancho's News Stand.

City Postoffice Will Be Closed On Armistice Day

While virtually all other lines of activity will continue as usual here Friday, the U. S. postoffice will be closed for the day.

Under postal regulations, Friday (Armistice Day) is classed as a legal holiday. Activities, except for the boxing of first class mail and special deliveries, will be halted for the day.

Banks here are foregoing the Armistice legal holiday due to the press of business attending a record cotton harvest.

Business houses observed May 31 as the holiday honoring the dead of all wars. Schools also are passing up Nov. 11, which, before World War II was a traditional holiday.

Next general holiday will be Nov. 24, Thanksgiving.

U. S. Steel Offer To Union Rumored

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10. (AP)—CIO United Steel workers and giant United States Steel opened peace talks on a legal level today which might end the most costly strike in American history.

Rumors flooded his steel capital that industry leader U. S. Steel is making an offer to put its 170,000 workers back in the mills across the country.

There was no official comment from either Big Steel or Union President Philip Murray. But a meeting of lawyers for both sides during the morning made it plain they were exploring the possibilities of a settlement.

Chief Negotiator John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel vice president, stood by as did union authorities. Steelworker teams were on hand for a time but were told to go home and report back late today.

Big Steel and the union heads were expected to get together before the day is out. Lending credence to prospects of a break was a union call for meeting of its powerful wage policy committee tomorrow—possibly to consider a settlement.

A peace pact with U. S. Steel would mean virtual end to the costly 41-day strike by the steelworkers for free insurance and pensions as recommended by a presidential board.

U. S. Steel is the only one of the four top producers still holding out. It led industry's fight against footing the welfare bill.

U. S. Mediators Told To Wait Until Monday

Ching Hopping Mad As Wire Received From Mine Czar

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—John L. Lewis failed to show up today for a coal peace conference called by the government. Instead, he sent a terse wire saying he would see the federal mediators on Monday.

It amounted to a sharp slap in the face to Cyrus Ching, federal mediation chief. It left him, too, pretty much in the position of the parson when the bride-to-be doesn't show up for the wedding.

Ching was there, fuming. The soft coal operators were there, fuming. But no Lewis.

Ching was plainly turned up. First, he fired a telegram to United Mine Workers headquarters asking Lewis for "clarification." But he didn't even know whether Lewis would see it.

Then Ching delivered a report to the White House himself.

While he was traveling there, President Truman was holding his regular Thursday news conference. The Lewis-Ching situation had not come to light and the questions to Mr. Truman did not deal with it.

The President was asked what might be the administration's next move in the coal situation.

He wouldn't say about that. Nor would the President comment on Lewis' order of yesterday sending the coal miners back to work for three weeks.

Dismantling Of German Industry May Be Stopped

PARIS, Nov. 10. (AP)—The West's big three foreign ministers were reported today to have agreed that most dismantling of German industry should stop.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman also were said by informed sources to have moved closer toward allowing the new West German Republic to join the Council of Europe.

Conditions for discontinuing the dismantling of German plants had yet to be worked out in the big three talks that opened yesterday. Britain still insists that such potential war industries as synthetic rubber and synthetic oil should be torn down, one source said.

The ministers reported "satisfactory progress" in yesterday's talks and expected to wind up tonight or early tomorrow morning with a definite announcement of agreement.

Diplomatic sources said they had reached accord in principle, at least on way to give western Germany an international voice for the first time since the war's end, possibly still existing between the western allies and the former enemy country.

Broad policy revisions were being studied, apparently to counter Russia's exchange of diplomats with the Soviet-sponsored eastern German government and the possibility that Red Army troops might be withdrawn from east Germany.

Pardon Plea Of Lifer Rejected

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 10. (AP)—Life-terminer Frank Grandstaff's music—which won him six days of prison—couldn't get him out of prison for good.

The Tennessee Board of Pardons and Paroles turned down yesterday the 47-year-old convict's plea that it recommend a pardon for him.

Grandstaff put in his request after receiving a furlough last month to go to Big Spring. There he heard a performance of "Big Spring," a cantata he composed in prison.

Grandstaff told the board last week a Big Spring taxicab company had offered him a job if the governor would pardon him. The board can only recommend pardons.

But Priestley Miller, secretary of the board, said it had denied Grandstaff's request. The board can't consider any more pardons.

He said he had denied Grandstaff's request. The board can't consider any more pardons.

MOVING DAY ARRIVES FOR MICE USED IN CANCER EXPERIMENTS

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10 (AP)—Last night was moving day for a pack of noise-hating, germs-sensitive mice.

While most of this city's residents slept, a cargo of 3,000 specially-bred mice was moved 10 miles from the Lankenau Hospital to a new $2 million cancer research institute.

Two similar moves will take an other 7,000 rodents to their new home tomorrow and Saturday.

The mice—used in cancer experiments—required out-of-the-ordinary shipment methods because of their extreme sensitivity to noise and germs. A big bang or a few microbes might cause their death.

The tiny migrants first were placed in pre-heated stainless steel cages. The cages then were wrapped in sterilized blankets and placed in trucks which had been cleaned with live steam.

The trip was made at night to eliminate as much of the noise factor as possible.

At the new cancer center, the mice barracks were kept at a constant 80-degree temperature.

Scientists explained they considered the mice worth all the trouble because of the time and effort involved in their breeding and care.

DEPARTMENT KEPT ON JUMP

Garbage Collection Is City Headache

Big Spring residents are consigning waste materials to the garbage heap at a rate of nearly five pounds per person each day.

This startling revelation is substantiated by actual records kept by the city. They are records of a complex operation that continues virtually on a round-the-clock schedule keeping men and equipment moving every week-day in the year, except Christmas and part of Christmas Eve.

R. V. Foresyth, city street superintendent who has jurisdiction over collectors of garbage, calls the garbage department one of his chief headaches.

"A few years ago it was nothing but a sideline, but now the garbage collecting business goes on for about 22 hours a day," Foresyth observed.

A day's collection often runs as high as 162 cubic yards, and they are solid. The tabulation is made after the garbage has been compressed by the packer-type trucks, which reduce the volume to less than half of its original size.

A cubic yard of packed garbage weighs approximately 600 pounds, which would mean a daily take of over 46 tons on the busier days. Heaviest loads are usually encountered early in the week.

Foresyth keeps the records and also receives complaints, etc., at his office in the city warehouse.

"Those complaints really come in when something happens to throw the crew off schedule," he disclosed.

Some people, of course, may feel that their garbage collection assessment entitles them to a few complaints. Assessments made by the city do not cover all the cost of garbage collecting, however.

It costs an average of about 72 cents per cubic yard to collect the garbage and dispose of it at the city dump grounds. Statistics show that over one cubic yard per customer is collected each month and the assessment for a one-family residence is 65-cents per month. The city has two packer-type garbage trucks, and each operates for two shifts a day. Sometimes that means 22 hours a day for each truck, since they are halted between shifts only for a two-hour servicing. Each truck carries a driver and two loaders when it is in operation.

Complications set in when anything happens to keep one of the packer trucks off the job, even for a few hours. When such a problem arises an open truck is assigned as substitute, but it always fights a losing battle. That's because the open truck can't compress its load, thereby requiring frequent trips to the dump grounds.

Foresyth estimates that at least 3,500 garbage cans are in use here. He made a survey several months ago before the city required all customers to use regulation garbage cans. At that time the total count was 3,180, but many of them were 55-gallon drums. Many of the drums have been replaced by two or more regulations cans.

The garbage collecting crews make their residential routes twice a week, while business routes are made every day.

Demands for garbage collecting service are increasing almost daily. New customers are added to the list at a rate of 25 or 30 per month.

TRAIN DELAY IS SHOCKING
TOKYO, Nov. 10 (AP)—Taisei No. 28, was en route to Utsunomiya today for trial in the slaying of her husband.
At a way station she leaped from her police guards, stripped off her clothing and plunged naked into the crowd at the station.
Her screams and efforts to elude police delayed the train for half an hour.
Passengers and police were shocked, not so much by her actions, but by her act.
It is an unpardonable offense in Japan to delay a train.

Korean Government Gets U. S. Goods
SEOUL, Nov. 10 (AP)—The Korean assembly has approved an agreement with the United States whereby the new republic will take over some $7 million to $9 million worth of goods stored in South Korea.
The goods were put in storage when North Koreans turned off the power last year in a dispute over payment. The United States wanted to pay the goods to Russian authorities in the north. The Russians refused payment, saying it should be given to the Communist North Korean regime which the United States does not recognize.
By releasing the goods to South Korea, the United States frees itself of the power debt. South Korea has been authorized to sell the goods and hold the proceeds to pay for the power at some future date.

Mrs. Taft Thinks Letters Ineffective
CLEVELAND, Nov. 10 (AP)—How much good does it do to write a letter to your senator in Washington?
Regrettably, Sen. Robert A. Taft's wife, Martha, says she feels many such letters are "rather ineffective"—particularly in the populous states like Ohio.
The Ohio Republican senator, she told Cleveland members of the American Assn. of University Women last night, receives an average of 500 letters a day and cannot possibly read them all.
"The letters which do a particularly good job of expressing viewpoint are passed on to him by his staff," she said. "The others, of course, are tabulated as to the numbers of writers on either side of any question."

Price Means Lot To British Baldies
LONDON, Nov. 10 (AP)—Some bald-headed Brits are so sensitive they even turn down bargain prices currently being offered by London's barbers.
The barbers, figuring there's not quite so much work to be done by quietly knocking sixpence (seven cents) off the bill if the customer's head is bare on top. A regular haircut costs two shillings (28 cents).
One men's hairdresser in the financial district disclosed that some of the more vain baldpates have indignantly insisted upon paying the full price.

COUPLE HEADS FOR GUADALCANAL TO LAY WREATH ON SON'S WATERY GRAVE

MEMPHIS, Nov. 10. (AP) — An elderly Kentucky couple is heading for Guadalcanal to toss a wreath on the watery grave of their son, who went down with the Cruiser Juneau in 1942.

David Wallen, 50, and his wife stopped over here yesterday before resuming the long bus ride to San Francisco. They don't know how they'll cross the Pacific to Guadalcanal.

"We'll get there," Wallen said "with the Lord's help."

Wallen originally started the trek afoot, trudging out of Corbin, Ky., carrying the aluminum wreath on his back. He walked as far as Cookeville, Tenn., and then decided things had gone wrong—too much publicity.

He caught a bus back to Corbin and conferred with Mrs. Wallen. Now they're both going—but no more walking.

WATCH THAT HEADGEAR

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 10. (AP) — You'd better hang on to your hat around here, and not because of the wind.

L. B. Smith, city carpenter, told Sheriff Hammett Vance a man grabbed his hat off his head and fled yesterday. Smith said the hat had $45 in the flap.

O. H. Loftin of Electra reported Monday that a grab-and-run thief made off with his hat and the $45 in the band as he stood on an Electra street corner.

Parking Meters, Hike In Traffic Busy City Police, Corp. Court

The installation of parking meters here in 1947 and the increase in automotive traffic since the close of World War II have had a hand in more than doubling activities of the Big Spring police department and corporation court as far as traffic offenses are concerned.

Both the number of traffic tickets issued by local police and the size of fines levied against offenders have been increasing during the past five years, a check of corporation court records shows.

Though the number of traffic violations was less during September and October of this year than for the same period in 1948, it almost equals the combined total for corresponding months in the other three years since 1945. Traffic fines assessed in the two months amounted to $945. A total of 539 tickets were given motorists.

Only 214 tickets were issued during September and October, 1945. Fines for that period totalled $315.

In 1946, a total of 113 traffic tickets were given during the two fall months, while fines amounted to $219.50 for traffic violations. Totals for the same period in 1947 were 337 tickets and $546.50 in fines.

September and October traffic offenses climbed to 780 in 1948, while fines amounted to $1496.

All increase in the size of fines was noticeable on the 1947, 1948 and 1949 records. Prior to that time, fines for speeding usually were about $5. In 1947, speeding fines of $15 were common, ranging up to $45 in 1948. This year, the average levy for that offense was about $25, with a high of $75 entered on the corporation court docket.

The 1947 increase in tickets issued was due largely to the installation of parking meters in the business section. Comparatively, few overtime parking tickets were issued prior to their installation, but 293 were given in September and October of that year.

Overtime tickets issued during the same two months of 1948 numbered 798. In the 1949 period, 472 were issued in the corresponding two months.

Principal traffic violations, other than for overparking, for the last five years have been speeding, reckless driving, running red light, turning right on red without stopping, running stop signs, making prohibited left turns.

Usual fine for overtime parking has been common for turning right without stopping for a red light, and $10 fines are not unusual for disregarding stop signs and red lights.

Prohibited left turns have been drawing $2 levies for the last two months. Reckless driving assessments range from $5 upward, depending on circumstances.

Though few pedestrian tickets have been issued, patrolmen complain that sidewalk traffic overflows to the street while waiting for signals to change. They also lament the disregard motorists show for "no left turn" signs at three downtown intersections.

Bette Davis, Hubby Kiss And Make Up

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 10. (AP) — Bette Davis and William Grant Sherry are back together again.

However, the 41-year-old actress decided to leave her divorce suit on file — just in case. But her publicity agent said she will "postpone any further action in her divorce in the hope of solving their marriage difficulties."

The Academy Award winner filed her surprise suit against 34-year-old Sherry last Oct. 1, charging extreme cruelty and asking custody of their two-year-old daughter, Barbara. She also obtained an order restraining her third husband from harming her.

Sherry blamed his "severe temper" for the whole trouble and has sought psychiatric help to rid himself of it.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 10. (AP) — Six hours after a stove flared and burned her from the knees up, Mrs. W. A. Tucker, 55, died yesterday.

On hearing of the tragedy, her daughter, Miss Jess Tucker, 50, collapsed and was taken to a hospital.

Mrs. Tucker was alone in her home. Firemen said they believed she struck a match to light the stove after an earlier fire went out and did not realize gas was escaping.

THIS BATH IS EXPENSIVE

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Nov. 10. (AP) — A hot bath may cost Fred Disselkran $500.

He hid $500 in an envelope in the water heater at his home while he went fishing. Back from the fishing trip, he lit the heater to take a bath. A few minutes later, he recalled hiding the money. He opened the heater and found only charred remains of the currency.

A bank advised him yesterday to send the remains to the U. S. Treasury in Washington. Bank official said government experts might rule in his favor and send him new bills to replace the charred fragments.

Clam Chowder Can Be Dynamitel

If Smiley Roberts is a friend of yours, like he is mine, and if you want to keep his friendship, like I do, don't ever let him hear you say that good clam chowder can be made without cream.

In New England, where Smiley comes from, friendships have been broken over tomatoes versus cream in clam chowder. Experts say that south of Boston the tomato reigns supreme, but north of Boston it's cream—or else!

Iran To Ask Stronger Military Backing From United States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—Iran's 30-year-old ruler is expected to press for stronger military backing from the United States on his forthcoming state visit to America. American officials said today the subject is almost certain to arise in talks President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson will have with Mohammad Reza Shas Pahlavi.

The Shah is to arrive next Wednesday.

With the arms and other assistance already extended, the United States has made plain its interest in strengthening Iran, both in a military and economic way. Like Turkey, the country is squarely in the path of any Soviet Russian attempt to expand southward.

Officials indicated the Shah and his advisers will get a sympathetic hearing, but there has been no hint of anything else.

Iran has a share in the new $1,314,000,000 military assistance program for western European and other non-Communist nations. Of this $27,640,000 is earmarked for military assistance for Iran, the Philippines and Korea.

Two American advisory missions have been on the scene in Iran for the last five years, advising the 115,000-man army and the smaller force of gendarmes. Iran also has been supplied with substantial quantities of American war surplus equipment.

Iranian officials contend that despite its small army Iran is an emergency might be potentially as useful as Turkey, to which the United States has given substantially greater military support. It has a population of 17 million, nearly as large as Turkey's, and is immensely rich in oil resources.

The Shah also is expected to be preoccupied with Iran's new seven-year $650 million enterprise to raise the country's living standards. Oil royalties are expected to pay for the bulk of the cost, but there may be requests for loans from the world bank and the American Export-Import Bank.

The Shah will travel from Tehran in Mr. Truman's plane, the Independence. His visit is similar in many respects to that recently concluded by Prime Minister Nehru of India.

Like Nehru, the Shah has never visited the United States. His plans call for a 23-day transcontinental tour on which he will devote considerable time to American industries and to irrigation projects in the Southwest.

Texas City Suit Arguments End

HOUSTON, Nov. 10. (U.P.)—The arguments are over in the long drawn-out Texas City disaster damage suits, but the lawyers and the judge still have a lot of writing and reading to do.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs—some 3,000 people are seeking damages from the government in the combined suits—must submit their final briefs by Dec. 1. The government has until Dec. 15 to reply with its final brief.

The trial began April 24. Its record includes an estimated 25,000 pages of court reporter transcripts. There are more than 40 volumes of exhibits.

The lawyers wound up their arguments yesterday. The disaster occurred April 16, 1947, when the French freighter Grandcamp blew up, setting off a chain of explosions and fires that killed more than 300 people.

The plaintiffs claim the Grandcamp explosion was a blast of ammonium nitrate fertilizer in the ship's cargo. They claim the government didn't put out proper instructions on handling the compound, which was made in government ordnance plants.

Top Schoolboy Games Slated For Tomorrow

By The Associated Press
Sunset plays Crozier Tech tonight in a game that may sew up the Dallas District championship of the Texas schoolboy football City Conference.

It is one of four games for the night in a crucial week-end. If Sunset wins and Adamson upsets Woodrow Wilson Saturday night, the former will clinch the title.

Other games tonight have Fort Worth Tech playing Amon Carter-Riverside in the Fort Worth district, Sam Houston meeting Stephen F. Austin in the Houston District and Brackenridge playing Burbank in the San Antonio District. The only important one is the Brackenridge-Burbank "tit. Brackenridge could lose a chance at the district title if defeated.

Tomorrow night Lubbock will be at Odessa in the feature game of the state for the week. While it will not mathematically clinch the District 3 title in Class A for the winner it will establish an overwhelming favorite for it. Lubbock is regarded as the top team of the state.

Paris plays at Gainesville in another headliner. The championship of District 7 Class AA is on the line.

There will be 42 games in the state tomorrow and tomorrow night with six Saturday.

Ted Atkinson, Steve Brooks, Logan Batcheller, Benny Civitello and Doug Dodson are some of the top jockeys who will ride at Hialeah this winter.

Youngster Loses In Fight Against Cancer

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 10. (U.P.)—An eight-months battle against cancer has come to an end for Bobby Byers.

The four-year-old youngster, who touched a nation's heart with a plea for mail, died in Good Samaritan Hospital last night. He slipped into a coma early in the afternoon and never regained consciousness.

Blond, and once chubby, Bobby's condition first became known last June after an operation. Prior to that he had only complained of being tired, but finally told his mother

"Mommy I hurt."
He was placed in bed and one of his greatest joys in life was to wait for the postman.

"Mommy did the mailman leave anything for me today?" He would ask his mother.

News stories of Bobby's wish soon brought responses from all parts of a sympathetic nation and some foreign countries. Mail came by the truckload. More than 200,000 pieces had been received when the grateful parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Byers of Phoenix, stopped counting.

Expressing their thanks, the Byers had to ask that no more be sent. The packages, toys and messages were creating a minor crisis in the Post Office Department. The branch nearest their home had to reroute the mail through the central office.

Bobby was given only 10 days to live after the operation, but, not knowing he was to die he held his own and passed his days much as before. He played with his toys and his dog, and when he didn't hurt too much would tell his mother "only sissies cry."

Bobby slipped steadily during the last two months, despite the lift he received from his mail. The letters were read to him a few at a time.

When taken to the hospital today his condition was immediately pronounced critical. His parents were at the bedside when his fight came to an end.

Members of the Big Spring Graduate Nurses study club convened in the dining room of the Malone-Hogan hospital for a round-table discussion concerning the new structure plan and the proposed district for this area Wednesday evening.

Easy To Make

Good lines in a jumper, so simply cut that it has four principal seams. Big patch pockets stamp it with one of the season's most important details; and the very becoming blouse is included in the pattern.

with the idea of changing the name of the American Nurses association to the American Nursing association. This plan would mean the inclusion into the Nurses association of all practical nurses, all nurses, and all other persons interested in or majoring in the nursing profession.

Concerning the proposed new district, the club is striving to establish and maintain another district with headquarters closer to Big Spring, now in District 15.

Announcement was made that the annual silver tea honoring the Texas Graduate Nurses association will be held in the Settles Hotel Sunday, December 4, at 3 p. m.

Green and white, the bride's chosen colors, were used throughout the decorations. Arrangements of white chrysanthemums were placed at vantage points throughout the entertaining rooms.

Covered with a lace cloth over green, the refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of ivy trimmed with green and white. Silver and crystal appointments completed the table arrangements.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS By Mildred Young

Maybe you're smarter than you think. President Truman's Commission on High Education estimated in 1947 that at least one youth in three could and should go through college. Yet only one in six is in college or any advanced school. To some, at least, it seems that half of our young people are being deprived of their full rights to life, liberty and pursuit of happiness.

But we not only have problems concerning the uneducated, it seems that our educated are not so educated. It is said by some that the astounding ignorance of our people, as shown by Army tests, is because people can't read. Surveys show that hardly one person out of ten can read as well as his intelligence indicates.

We seem to be smarter than we think. So it seems logical that we should take advantage of some of this over-supply of "brains."

First of all, it seems that we need a nation-wide campaign in the interest of education. A good time to start might be right now during American Education Week. Anyway, the educated and uneducated alike seem to need reminding of the importance of real education. Second, we might try finding out why the adults and children around us can't read. Maybe the whole method of teaching reading needs revising. Third, because of our own experience, we think a lot more attention should be paid to the eyes of the reader.

Mrs. Ray Smith Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Ray Smith entertained the members of the Stitch a Bit club at their regular meeting in her home, 701 E. 13th, Wednesday afternoon.

Sewing comprised the entertainment. Refreshments were served. Various arrangements of chrysanthemums and ivy were used to decorate the reception rooms.

Attending were Mrs. Tip Anderson, Sr., Mrs. G. G. Morehead, Mrs. John Knox, Mrs. Ross Boykin, Mrs. J. D. Jones and Mrs. Smith, the hostess.

Child Study Club Meets In Cooper Home Wednesday For Book Reviews

Book Reviews were the program features when the Child Study Club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Earl Cooper. Mrs. Zolite Boykin served as assistant hostess. Mrs. Joe Pickle presided.

First of the reviews was entitled, "Your Child and God" written by Robbin Trent and presented by Mrs. S. Marie Haynes.

Barbara Olsen, bride-elect of Delbert Stanley, was complimented with a gift tea in the home of Mrs. Joe Hamby, 602 E. 18th, Tuesday evening.

The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Olsen, 208 Harding. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. J. M. Stanley, also of Big Spring.

Nuptial rites will be solemnized in the East Fourth Baptist church Saturday, Nov. 19, with the Rev. James S. Parks as officiant. The ceremony will be informal.

Those in the reception line included the honoree, Miss Olsen; the hostess, Mrs. Hamby; Mrs. J. B. Olsen, mother of the bride-to-be; and Mrs. J. M. Stanley, mother of the intended bridegroom.

Miss Olsen was attired in a black satin dinner dress, fashioned with long fitted sleeves and moid bodice. Miniature covered buttons were arranged down the front of the dress to the waistline. The skirt was full and flaring. She chose black accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Varied arrangements of multi-colored chrysanthemums were placed at vantage points in the reception rooms. A large mantle arrangement of yellow lilies completed the decorative theme.

The refreshment table was laid with a Japanese lace cloth and centered with a large floral selection, flanked by four miniature wedding couples under an archway of bells and tulle. Lighted yellow tapers illuminated the crystal and silver refreshment service.

Yellow napkins inscribed in brown with "Barbara and Delbert" completed the setting.

Nela Bettegott cut the cake and Mrs. LaVerne Rogers attended the punch service.

Maxine White presided at the guest register. Mrs. Maxine Ryan and Lillie Lindsey displayed the gifts.

Approximately 50 persons attended the affair.

ed by Mrs. S. Marie Haynes. The speaker stated that the book was an aid in answering the questions of children concerning such ideas as who is God and where is heaven. She stated that the parent should begin at birth to make questions easy for the child. Mrs. Haynes emphasized the idea that a child cannot be well rounded without knowledge of God and that he must build his concept of God by his surroundings, the love of parents, friends and the type of toys he possesses. She said that Bible stories can be adapted for children, but that they should be chosen carefully. In conclusion, Mrs. Haynes stated that children should be taught to say thanks instead of saying petition prayers alone.

Mrs. F. W. Thompson discussed the book, "Our Little Child Faces Life" by Mary Clemens Odell. She stated that the book deals with a child's religion in relation to fear, sex and death. Mrs. Thompson said that parents should teach the child something of death before he must face it. She added that fall is a good season of the year to explain something of death to the child. Mrs. Thompson said that the child should be told that death is a natural thing and that the dead person is beginning a new and happier life. In conclusion, she stated that a child's concept of God depends on the conduct and attitude of his own parents.

Those present were Mrs. Ross Boykin, Mrs. Zolite Boykin, Mrs. Don Coffee, Mrs. Earl Cooper, Mrs. E. W. Denny, Mrs. Tom Guin, Mrs. Matt Harrington, Mrs. Charles Holderbaum, Mrs. Marie Haynes, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. Harry King, Mrs. W. D. McNair, Mrs. Joe Pickle, Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. R. W. Thompson.

She was taken to several medical doctors, including a brain specialist, who diagnosed the condition was a result of tumors on the eye nerves, and that she should return home and prepare for the worst. She was paralyzed from the waist down.

She was then taken to Chiropractic Clinic where a Neuro-clometer and X-Ray analysis revealed a subluxation (partial dislocation or misalignment) of the first two vertebrae. Corrective adjustments were given. Her eyesight has improved and she is now able to walk as well as ever.

Return Of Miners To Pit Is Bit Of Good Strategy And Dramatics

Ordering of the mine workers into the pits immediately for a three-week period comes as somewhat of a surprise and certainly as fresh evidence of John L. Lewis' flair for dramatics and nose for strategy.

Mr. Lewis wasn't "a-hint" the door when the brains were distributed. He took occasion to point out that the back-to-work movement until Nov. 30 was "another contribution of major magnitude to enhance the remote possibility of agreement being reached."

In this statement he deftly puts his organization in a generous light, hedges against the possibility of continued deadlock. If an agreement is reached, the return to work can be credited with playing its part; if not, then Mr. Lewis can say in effect: "I told you so."

While the inference is plain that he would like to do a lot more talking with the operators, he did not pull down the bars and throw them away. Between now and Nov. 30, officers and scale representatives of the union will "participate in such wage conferences as may eventuate in conformity with recognized policy," he said.

Aside from these matters of face and caution, there were other reasons why Mr. Lewis took the unexpected action. One doubtless was that he sniffed a wave of mounting revolt from some of the locals. Another was the absence of paychecks for 51 days. Still another was a gradual crumbling of the line on the steel front. And finally, there was some evidence of resentment over Mr. Lewis' offer to give heavy financial aid to the steel workers when the miners' welfare fund was in bad shape. Thus a period of truce seemed appropriate as well as expedient.

Annexation Of Territory Will Serve General Public Interest

City commissioners are taking steps to annex 22 blocks to the municipal territory.

The annexation will be proper and on a sound basis. Territory involved in the Brown addition in the western end of the city, north of Third street, and the Lakeview addition, just west of the Brown area. With the exception of 10 blocks, the Brown addition already is in the corporate limits. The Lakeview tract is adjacent for practical purposes.

Residents in the proposed new municipal sector already are serviced by city facilities. There is no point of cleavage where one might discern the end of the city lines as it now stands.

There will be few problems involved that did not already exist before proposal of annexation. The people there have a close community of interest with the corporation, as evidenced by the presentation of a petition signed by a majority of the residents included in the area.

Because the step will serve the public interest of all concerned, and not simply because it might add numbers to the city's population figure, the action is proper.

Vishinsky's Riddle May Have Common-Sense Explanation

RUSSIAN DIPLOMACY OFTEN adopts the Sphinx-like characteristic of speaking in riddles, and so it is with Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky's intriguing pronouncement about sleeping Russo-American friendship.

What Mr. Vishinsky actually said to reporters in Washington on the anniversary of the Red revolution was that the common feeling of friendship between Russia and the United States had fallen asleep but that someday it would awaken.

THAT'S REALLY A BEAUTIFUL POETIC expression—and it's mighty interesting. The trouble is that, after the cryptic fashion of the Sphinx, the foreign minister doesn't give us the all-important information as to what he believes it is that will awaken friendship. That leaves it up to us to supply the answer, and so your columnist will undertake to fill in the missing link.

The sleeping friendship will be awakened when we reach that happy day in which neither country is interfering in the private affairs of the other. That is to say in blunt language, the awakening is dependent on each side minding its own dog-gone business.

Ipo facto this would mean an end to Moscow's world-revolution for the spread of communism, and to the cold war which has grown out of the revolution.

ALMOST A YEAR AGO (DEC. 27, 1948) President Truman made the statement in an extemporaneous speech at Kansas City that "certain leaders" in Russia were "exceedingly eager" to reach an agreement with the United States to end the "cold war." At the same time he accused the Soviets of violating "sacred" agreements and said the Moscow government "has a system of morals that are not moral."

The chief executive didn't say who "certain leaders" in Moscow were. Diplomatic authorities in Washington thought he might have had Premier Stalin in mind. Another Russian regarded in Washington as possibly desiring an understanding was Maxim Litvinov. He was known to be more friendly to the West than many of his associates, but long has been living in obscurity.

'Color Question' Has America On Defensive All Over World

WASHINGTON.—A 1949 trip around the world discloses an America on the defensive on the color question in virtually every country visited.

What she does to the American Negro is well advertised. What she does for him and the extent to which his battles are fought by influential Americans South and North are not well known.

Even where the mitigating facts are known they are not considered an excuse. After all, the portion of the globe not occupied and little dominated these days by the white race is comparatively small. And other people of color have made the American Negro's cause their own to a degree startling to the traveler.

Acres of type are devoted to Paul Robeson, his outcries and his riots. The testimony given by Jackie Robinson in answer to him may be printed but it is but one interview as Robinson is making his living playing baseball while Robeson's life is dedicated to making Communist propaganda. Obviously the Communist happily do their bit to spread Robeson's story and the Japanese made their wartime contribution also when they were crying "Asia for the Asiatics," a slogan that has not lost all its appeal.

But one cannot answer Communist or Japanese propaganda when a Harvard-educated Chinese tells of being barred from a Kansas City hotel or a Pakistani official is described as having been ejected from a New York restaurant. America pays for these experiences.

GOP Bickering Is Real Reason Why Kemper Resigned As Party Treasurer

WASHINGTON.—Resignation of isolationist insurance man

James Kemper as treasurer of the GOP national committee was dressed up in a high-sounding smoke-screen about foreign policy in order to cover up a bitter personal GOP feud. Actually, his resignation was handed in one hour after Guy Gabrielson of New Jersey became the new national chairman last August, but it was agreed to delay the announcement until the political horizon was calmer.

Kemper's exit puts the spotlight on some red faces and raw nerves inside the GOP committee, which probably will be smoothed over now that he is out. Although Kemper talked big about lack of funds in the GOP treasury, real fact is that he was never much of a money-raiser. The best GOP money-raiser was the man Kemper and Dewey ousted as GOP national finance chairman after the 1948 convention—Walter Hope.

Hope, an able New York lawyer, learned of his resignation by reading it in the morning papers. Hope left in the treasury a surplus of $800,000 after the Philadelphia convention.

He was replaced by bourbon prince Harold Talbot, eager as a piglet to the Court of St. James, whose family had almost ordered their clothes for their presentation to the king—when they heard the news of Dewey's defeat. Between January 1949 and August 4, when GOP Chairman Hugh Scott resigned, Talbot had raised the magnificent sum of $71,000, while Scott and Kemper were spending money at the rate of $80,000 a month.

Talbot's main excuse was that he couldn't collect funds because of the Omaha GOP fight. And when it became apparent that Guy Gabrielson was to be the new chairman, Talbot began a quiet campaign against him, which culminated in a lunch at which he and Gabrielson patched up their differences. That same night, however, Talbot dined with an oil executive who reported back to the new GOP chairman that Talbot had begun his attack all over again.

As a result of all this, GOP finances today are in terrible shape. However, with Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts now in charge of the national finance committee, they are improving. Johnny Hanes, onetime Democrat and member of the Roosevelt administration, has been appointed vice-chairman, and some of the big contributors already have promised to kick in.

MERRY-GO-ROUND
Some folks were surprised when Sen. "Wild Bill" Langer, Republican, praised President Truman, Democrat. But it was this same President who appointed Langer's nephew, Morgan Ford, as judge of the United States Customs Court in New York. Ford was an insurance man in North Dakota, a long way from New York.

Air Secretary Stuart Symington staged a private poker party for President Truman and cronies last week. The now vanished 70 air groups were not discussed—not even the 58 air groups which have also vanished. . . . Colliers Magazine hits the purge of the left-wing CIO unions right on the nose in its advance article by Sam Slavsky. The man responsible for injecting New pep into Colliers is Louis Ruppel, one of FDR's old newspaper pals.

U. S. STEEL VS. U. S. While the U. S. Steel Corp. was using its influence against a settlement of the strike, it was also trying to increase its tremendous hold on the steel industry through the U. S. government.

Its latest proposed acquisition is a government wartime shipyard at Orange, Tex., which it plans to convert into a factory for making steel pipe for the oil industry. The shipyard was purchased by U. S. Steel's wholly owned subsidiary, Consolidated Steel, upon whose property the yard was built. Then alert Herbert Bergson, head of the Justice Department's antitrust division, ruled that this would increase U. S. Steel's monopoly position and would be against the best interests of the U. S. A.

However, this didn't please Rep. J. M. Coccins and other Texas politicians who thereupon pushed a resolution through both houses of Congress authorizing the shipyard facilities to be sold to U. S. Steel.

Once before, congressional and White House pressure was used to increase U. S. Steel's hold on the industry. After the war, when the government advertised its Geneva, Utah, steel plant for sale, once again the Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder, a good friend of U. S. Steel President Ben Fairless, was given credit for talking to the White House.

At any rate, President Truman personally directed Attorney General Tom Clark to overrule his antitrust division and decree that there was no objection to selling the government's Utah steel plant to U. S. Steel.

Thus the steel corporation has been in the fortunate position of being able to thumb its nose at President Truman's fact-finding board and at the same time get President Truman's help in tightening its monopoly hold of the steel industry.

NEWS CAPSULES
Undersecretary of state—Kindly Jim Webb has informed President Truman he wants to resign as undersecretary of state. Webb hasn't liked the sophisticated rough-and-tumble game of diplomacy, wants to get back into private life. The President asked Jim to remain on until after the important atomic energy talks with Britain and Canada are over, then he will look for another man. Meanwhile Webb is on the list of possibilities for the presidency of the University of North Carolina through Sperry Gyroscope is itching to get him back.

Air traffic tickets—CAA Chief Del Rentzel has called in Navy and Air Force leaders to iron out air traffic problems in the hope of preventing future disasters. The CAA is in charge of patrolling the airways, and can hand out traffic tickets for air violations. But it is up to the Navy and Air Force to punish their own fliers. One problem, therefore, is to make sure military pilots are properly punished for reckless flying. Another problem is the close proximity of military and civilian fields. Busy fields, such as Washington's national airport, are forced to hold up traffic several times a month, while some military pilot on a training mission hunts for his bearings.

Esther William's Figure Thrives On Motherhood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 10 (AP)—I am pleased to report today that Esther Williams' figure is even better since she had a baby.

Yep, it's true. What effects this news will have on the national birth rate is a question. It may help push the U. S. toward the 300,000,000 population mark Mr. Truman has been talking about.

I happened to observe the movie mermaid's figure on the set of "Duchess of Idaho." Strictly from a reporter's viewpoint, you understand. It seemed to me the chassis was as classy as ever. I do not classier.

I asked if there hadn't been some improvement in the topography.

"It's strange," she admitted, "but I seem to have lost an inch from my hips. None of my dresses fit anymore."

The vital statistics? "I'm still 36," she said, indicating the general vicinity of her bust. "36 1/2 in the waist and 35 in the hips. I used to be 36 in the hips and 26 in the waist. I should be able to take off that half-inch with no trouble."

But wait a little minute, added Esther. She doesn't want to convey the impression that her frame magically improved after motherhood.

Pardon Me, Stranger, But You Look Just Like An Old Friend

Recently, when it was rumored that King George had been seen entering the Mayo Clinic, I immediately thought of a friend of mine who is a dead ringer for His Majesty. Last year he visited England in company with his wife, a British girl, and on his return he told me that his resemblance to the king had been a source of much embarrassment to him during his stay. People on the street stopped and stared, crowds collected about him whenever he halted before a shop window, and flunkies flapped to do his bidding.

It so happens that neither King George nor my friend ever has been a patient at the Mayo Clinic, and it is evident that the King has a second double. Perhaps he even has a dozen, for resemblances between people are rather more common than is generally supposed.

At the university, the girl who sat next to me looked exactly like Ida Lupino, my favorite actress. Indeed, she often was mistaken for the film star. Once an acquaintance of hers, who had just seen Miss Lupino on the screen for the first time, came out of the theater in a daze, and had to be assured by telegraph that the actress was not the girl he had known. All of us constantly are meeting people who look familiar, but turn out to be complete strangers. Personally, I should not like to count up the number of times I have yelled a greeting to a passerby, only to be rewarded with a blank stare or a scowl. There are few things more humiliating, and the titters of those around one do not help matters.

When a man is in love, every girl he meets on the street looks like his beloved, even though the resemblance may exist only in his mind. This can have unpleasant consequences, for the girl who finds herself accosted by a strange man sometimes does not wait to ask a few questions before she calls a cop. Perhaps it is thus that many a perfectly innocent man has acquired the reputation of a wolf.

There is a fascination in the study of human resemblances. I have a theory that two persons who resemble each other physically are very likely to have the same interests and tastes. We know that this is true in the case of identical twins, who can be told apart only by their thumb-prints, and it is probable that similar sympathies can be found in "doubles" who are not related by blood.

However, it goes almost without saying that no human being is the exact duplicate of another. Always there is a slight difference, even if it be no more than a thumb-print, which marks the individual. I incidentally, nothing is so wonderful as Nature's strong insistence upon individuality. Just as no two persons are alike at all points, so we shall look in vain for any animal, leaf or snowflake that is not unique in some respect.

To my mind, one of the surest proofs of immortality is this invincible individuality. If the universe were mechanistic in its origin, as certain scientists claim, we should expect to find a great deal of duplication throughout Nature, since this would be inevitable under the operation of non-intelligent forces. As it is, we are obliged to conclude that there is an intelligent purpose behind the universe and every living thing in it—a purpose which persists beyond the grave.—R. G. MACREADY.

1950 Vote Will Tell Better How People Like 'Fair Deal'

WASHINGTON, (AP)—IN SPITE OF THE Democrats' enthusiasm over their victory in the New York Senate election Tuesday, the congressional elections of 1950 will tell better how the people feel about President Truman's "Fair Deal."

There are two ways of looking at the election results in New York where Democrat Herbert H. Lehman won the Senate election over Republican John Foster Dulles:

1. That it was a victory for the "Fair Deal" program of Mr. Truman, since Lehman campaigned on that and backed most of the program all the way.

2. Or, that the New York voters, who had previously elected Lehman to four terms as governor, liked him better than they did Dulles, whom they never had elected to anything.

LEHMAN WAS DEFEATED THREE years ago when he ran for the Senate against Irving Ives, a Republican. Ives was swept into office in 1946 when all over the country the tide was Republican, and Republicans, for the first time since 1932, won control of Congress.

But in this off-year election there was no national struggle that would have influenced the voters to mark their ballots all Republican or all Democratic.

This time it was a cold-cut choice—(A) Between Lehman and Dulles or (B) Between the "Fair Deal" arguments of Lehman and the warnings against it uttered by Dulles.

At any rate, the voters ignored Dulles' last minute talk, on the night before election, that the goal of the Democrats would mean "state socialism and an end to liberty."

BUT EXACTLY WHAT THE PEOPLE want will show up a lot more clearly in the November elections of 1950 when they have to choose a whole new House of 433 Representatives, and one-third of the 96 senators.

The Democrats now control both houses of Congress. But the Republicans and southern Democrats, who balk at a lot of Mr. Truman's "Fair Deal" program, together outnumber the Democrats who might call themselves "Fair Dealers."

Between next January, when the present Congress begins its final year's work, and next November, when the elections are held, the Truman Democrats and the Republicans will have a chance to make the "Fair Deal" issue pretty sharp.

And if a big chunk of Mr. Truman's program is stifled in Congress, the voters next November will be able to show whether they want "Fair Deal" congressmen or not.

THAT WILL BE A BITTER AND BETTER test than the Lehman-Dulles fight. As this was written, Lehman was running around 200,000 votes ahead of Dulles. This raises an interesting question about the 1948 presidential vote in New York state.

Last year Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for President, won New York state from President Truman by about 61,000 votes.

But Henry Wallace, running for President on the Progressive Party ticket, captured 509,000 votes. Democrats said at the time that, if Wallace hadn't run, Truman would have carried New York, that a big share of the Wallace votes—if Wallace hadn't been running—would have gone to the Democrats, not the Republicans.

World's Best Canasta Player Wins Fame By Holding Hands

NEW YORK, (AP)—OSWALD JACOBY IS a big, bear-like man who has won fame by holding hands.

Not lady hands—card hands. Right now Ossie is looking for somebody to give $5,000 to. Anybody. That is, anybody who can beat him at the new pastebord epidemic—canasta.

Some nine months ago he spent a dozen hours playing this pastime and decided he knew enough about it to write a book. He did. And his "How To Win at Canasta" has sold over 300,000 copies.

BUT A NUMBER OF OTHER PEOPLE also wrote books on canasta. After reading their books—and re-reading his book—Jacoby decided he was the best canasta player in the world.

"I'm willing to pay $5,000 to anyone who can beat me," he announced. "There may be a couple of unknown guys in Oshkosh who can do it, but I doubt it. And I'm sure there is no other canasta author who's not if they play the way they write."

He has reason for self-confidence. This 46-year-old, grizzled, gray, 6-foot-two-inch Texan is a fine ma hemetician. He began playing bridge at the age of 7. Since 1939 he has won the Vanderbilt Cup, the Kentucky Derby of tournament bridge, six times.

Precociously runs in his tribe.

"MY FATHER ENTERED COLLEGE at 14, I entered at 15 and my son at 16," he said, smiling. "I guess the family is petering out."

Jacoby says there is no card game that can be played perfectly, and that if someone invented a machine that could—"a good player could beat it because he could predict what the machine would do."

His tip to amateurs: To play any card game well you have to avoid patterns.

Why is he so good? "There are card players with better memories than mine, but none is as good a mathematician. I also have a fast mind. I'm unreadable—so far at least—and I can outguess other people."

JACOBY FEELS THAT CANASTA ISN'T a brief craze like Mah-jongg but will stay popular a long time.

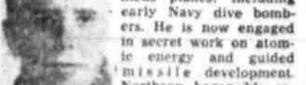

"It has already hit the sale of bridge supplies," he said. "It is much easier to play than bridge, but harder to play well. It has more psychology, fewer rules and more common sense."

What is the best of all card games. "Poker!" said Ossie positively. "There is no doubt of it—poker."

UN Sets Debate On Big Five Peace Pact

By A. I. GOLDBERG
AP Staff

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 10. — The United Nations moved today to ward full-scale debate on Russia's demand for a big five pact to preserve world peace.

Russia's charge that Britain and the U. S. are warmongers lies at the base of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's proposal for a peace pact signed by Russia, Britain, the United States, France and China.

It foreshadowed a new peak in strained East-West relations, following several days of accelerated drum-beating against what the Russians call "Anglo-American aggression."

The 59-nation political committee gets into debate on the peace pact proposal today if it clears its decks of the prewar Italian colonies problem. It is expected to come up tomorrow at the latest.

When Vishinsky, early in this general assembly session, fought to get his peace pact proposal on the program, he made a three-fold statement:

1. The United Nations should vote to prohibit atomic weapons.

2. Britain and the United States are engaging in acts that are leading to a new war.

3. The big five should sign a peace pact.

A United States delegate immediately called it "an olive branch surrounded with poisonous thorns" and labeled it "phony propaganda."

Russia's atomic proposals are already being debated in the special political committee, which resumes its atomic debate this afternoon, after a recess since yesterday morning.

Formally, the Russian atomic proposals are for simultaneous outlawing of atomic weapons and putting into effect an atomic energy control statute.

Sweden Producing New Jet Fighter

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Nov. 10. — Sweden was reported today to have begun regular production of a new arrow-shaped jet fighter plane which can fly more than 600 miles per hour.

The new plane, which has been designed to form the backbone of Sweden's Air Force, is said to be faster than any other aircraft presently built in numbers in western Europe.

The newspaper Dagens Nyheter said the new single-seated fighter with swept-back wings and a pressurized cabin, is being built by the Saab Aircraft Co. in an underground factory blasted into the rock at Linköping, 120 miles south-west of Stockholm.

It has been unofficially reported that 500 of the new planes — called the Saab-29 — have been ordered for the Swedish Air Force for delivery between 1950 and 1954.

Pravda published 16 similar messages from other foreign governments along with the American note.

Kirk addressed his message to Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, for transmittal to N. M. Shvernik, president of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet. The message said:

"On the occasion of the national holiday of the Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics, my government has requested me to transmit to you that the people of the United States send their best wishes to the people of the Soviet Union."

Lila Leeds Faces California Ban

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10. — If Lila Leeds, who figured in the Robert Mitchum marijuana case, leaves California for a night club engagement, she can't return for five years.

This was a condition of probation imposed yesterday in superior court after her arrest on a reckless driving charge. The blonde bit actress, aged 21, wept a little as Superior Judge Clement D. Nye criticized her.

Judge Nye made it plain he did not originate the idea of banning her from California but that she voluntarily offered to stay out of the state for the term of her probation.

Earlier she was granted probation on a marijuana conspiracy charge after 60 days in jail. She was before the judge for probation violation on the reckless driving charge.

Heavenly Desserts For Earthly Meals For Your Family's Table

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

If your family and friends do not know you are a heavenly baker, here's a heavenly new one for them—a meringue that's just a little different. The difference lies in the tiny flakes of rolled oats that are added to make a chewy, crisp texture. The meringue can be filled with whipped cream and frozen raspberries or with a whipped gelatin mixture if you like, and fresh or canned fruit added. Here's the recipe:

HEAVENLY MERINGUE

Ingredients: For Base—4 eggs whites, ½ teaspoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 cup sugar, ½ cup quick rolled oats (uncooked). For Filling—1 pint heavy cream (whipped and sweetened), 2 cups sweetened fresh or frozen raspberries, strawberries, or peaches.

Method: Add vinegar, vanilla, and salt to egg whites and beat to a stiff foam. Add sugar gradually, about a tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until mixture stands in shiny peaks. Lightly fold in rolled oats. Place in a round or greased unglazed paper on a baking sheet. Using a spatula, hollow out the center and build up the sides to resemble a pie shell. Bake in a very slow (275 F.) oven for 45 minutes to 1 hour. Cool for a few minutes then remove from paper. Cool thoroughly and fill with sweetened whipped cream into which fresh or frozen raspberries, strawberries or peaches have been added.

And more good news for dessert-lovers! A jewel of a cookbook called "Favorite Desserts" has recently come out, (published by the Chicago Home Economics in Business Group, Box 453, Chicago 90, Illinois, price $1.50 plus 15 cents for handling when ordered by mail.) It contains more than 300 recipes, including luscious cakes, frostings, cookies, frozen desserts, fruit desserts, pies, pudding, dessert sauces, and refrigerator desserts. Most important of all, because this cookbook was compiled by many of the country's leading home economists, you can be sure its recipes are absolutely reliable. Each contributor had to submit her favorite dessert, and there really are some delectable treasures here. Many of them are perfect for family dinners, others are worthy of holiday entertainment, and still others are worthy of holiday entertainment, and still others are just the thing for that shower luncheon or that bridge club meeting.

PASSES CHECK WITH 'X' MARK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. — Local police are looking for a man who has succeeded in passing bad checks all over town despite a formidable handicap: He can't write. The check-passer is described as being about 75 years old, six feet tall, and clad in faded blue overalls. Equipped with a social security card as identification, he has been ambulating into stores and offering down payments — by check — on merchandise. The checks invariably are for much more than the amount of the down payment. He signs them with an "X."

Cereal Quick Breads Quicken Family Interest Without Burden To Budget

Have you ever wished for a really easy way to add to your reputation as a cook, produce variety in the menu, and yet not burden the budget? And would you like a new answer to that often-heard question, "What are we having for dinner tonight?"

Well, there is an easy way to do all this, within the bounds of economy. Plan to serve some new cereal quick breads. If there's a food which is everyone's favorite, it's home-baked bread. And quick breads don't require hours of mixing and kneading and baking. They are easy and economical.

These two cereal quick breads, designed for a place of honor in your file of favorites, are made with rolled oats and brown granular wheat cereal. The cereals contribute their good grain flavors and interesting textures to the breads and also provide extra nutritional value—protein, the vitamins of the B complex, important minerals and carbohydrate.

These breads are wonderful to serve at all meals, from breakfast through dinner, and they are good, too, for lunch box sandwiches and afternoon snacks. Wheat Cereal Brown Bread, with brown granular wheat cereal as a principal ingredient, is the first of these cereal breads you'll want to try.

Wheat Cereal Brown Bread*
1 cup brown granular wheat cereal
1 cup buttermilk or sour milk
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
¼ cup sugar
2-3 cup seedless raisins
1 egg, well-beaten
3 tablespoons melted fat
Mix cereal and buttermilk; let stand for 30 minutes. Sift together flour, salt, baking powder, soda, and sugar. Add raisins; blend. Stir egg and melted fat into cereal mixture; add all at once to dry ingredients. Stir just enough to mix well. Pour into a greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Bake in a moderate oven (350-375 F.) for 45 minutes, until golden brown. Serve warm or cold. YIELD: 1 loaf.

Oaten Bread is a moist, fruit-filled bread which will become a family favorite:
Oaten Bread*
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
¼ cup sugar
2½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon soda
1 cup rolled oats
1½ cups buttermilk or sour milk
2 tablespoons melted fat
1 cup diced, drained, cooked prunes
¼ cup chopped nut meats

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, and salt. Add combine buttermilk with slightly rolled oats and mix thoroughly. Combine buttermilk with slightly cooled fat. (To make sweet milk sour, add 1 tablespoon of vinegar and ¼ cup of sweet milk.) Add to the flour mixture with prunes and nuts, stirring just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. (Batter should be lumpy.) Put into greased loaf pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Place halves of prunes and whole nut meats on top. Bake in a moderate oven (350-375 F.) for 1 hour or until done. Cool on rack. YIELD: 1 loaf.

People Can Ask Silly Questions About Autos

By WACIL McNAIR
 "Will it hurt my car to run it without gasoline?" the little old lady asked suspiciously.
 "No Ma'm. Anything you can get your car to do without gas is perfectly all right," the startled mechanic answered.
 People can ask a lot of silly questions about automobiles — people who know nothing about machinery, that is.

Not knowing anything about automobiles, except that it costs money to operate one, it seemed appropriate that a newspaper reporter ask some of the fool questions that might pop into any layman's mind. By way of amusement, information, or whatever other value there might be, the results will be passed along here, principally to either benefit or further confuse others not gifted with mechanical knowledge.

 ASK FOR THIS BRAND—IT'S QUALITY

Naturally, the questions were directed to a mechanic.
 Question No. 1: Just what is this seasonal motor tune-up rack—er, that is, business that you fellows preach in the fall and spring.
 The answer was such that no more time remained for other questions that day.
 The result: We are convinced that repair shop and service station operators are not resorting to leg pulling when they recommend that vehicles be prepared for various seasons of the year.
 Perhaps you are interested in some of the things that went into a convincing explanation. In the interest of brevity, only the part that concerns the autumn season, which is current, will be discussed here.
 Might as well start with dead batteries, since they are plagues to many car owners during the winter seasons.
 Of course there is always a chance that the battery is worn out, but then maybe it is a new battery that goes dead for no apparent reason. But there is a reason somewhere—perhaps improperly adjusted distributor points, faulty spark plugs, a dragging starter that saps the battery's strength.

Such gremlins are found and corrected during a motor tune-up. But, how did they get that way in the first place?
 Well, that is an easy one. There is wear and tear on a car anytime the engine is started and if the average car owner will think it over, he probably will agree that while he had his vacation his car was working overtime. The little cold weather gremlins seldom show themselves during the summer, but they have a habit of popping up suddenly the first morning that Jack Forst makes a call.

Those little glass bowls on fuel pumps, carburetors, etc., also need cleaning, especially to remove any water that has collected. But do not accuse your gasoline dealer of watering his stock on account of water in the gas lines of your car. Fuel tanks and lines have a habit of "sweating" during the colder months, and those little bowls catch the moisture and keep it out of the carburetor. If the little bowls are already full when winter starts the overflow goes on to the carburetor.
 The light begins to shine on this business: a few dozen "little things" can stop a great big automobile.
 That's the purpose of these motor tune-ups, they say—or it might be defined as an ounce of prevention.
 "Not having fingers, where does a car wear its rings?" would have been the next question, but the hour was late and a long answer was indicated.

HOURLY PARKING PRICED AT $50
 VAN NUYS, Calif., Nov. 10. (AP)—Leonard Colleen, a $50 poorer today because he tried to save a woman's parking meter inspector, in municipal court yesterday.
 Colleen told a woman he'd show her how to beat the meter and banged it with his hand until it showed an hour's free parking. Smith called police. Colleen pleaded guilty to a charge of meter-tampering.
 The fine was $50.

Herd, Bulldogs Have At It In 8 p.m. Game At Midland

Sterling Seeks Title Friday

Spotlight in District Eight six-man football activity Friday will be on Sterling City where George Tillerson's Eagles play the improved Rankin Red Devils in a night game.

A victory by the Devils would ensnarl the race, since the Rankin Buffaloes are only a game behind the Flock and should be able to cop the remainder of their contests without too much trouble.

Sterling is a slight favorite in Friday's game but will have to be on top its game to nudge Rankin.

In other games, Courtney goes to Forsan for a night engagement with Frank Honeycutt's Browns while Merton was booked to play in Christoval today and Water Valley in Garden City on Friday.

Paint Rock, other member of the league is idle this week.

NAMED PGA GOLFER OF YEAR—That broad smile on the face of Stammin' Sammy Snead is genuine. He had just been told of his selection as golfer of the year in a PGA conducted nationwide poll. Jones Advances On Top Quintet

Truman Jones Motor company gained a lap on Douglas in Men's Bowling league play here last night, throttling Seagram's in three games while Douglas was nosing out Atlantic Refinery by a 2-1 count.

In other matches, Toddle Inn nudged Couden, 2-1, the same margin by which Leo Hanson's huddled Nathan's Jewelry store.

J. D. Robertson of Nathan's dominated individual scoring with a 211-551.

Locals Gunning For 4th Win

Those ancient football rivals, the Big Spring Steers and the Midland Bulldogs, stage their own donnybrook on the Midland greensward beginning at 8 o'clock this evening.

There's little at stake in the adventure save a further deflation of prestige for the losers. The team which raises its hand in victory in this one ordinarily counts its entire season a success, no matter what the outcome of their other starts.

New captains man the bridges and chart the course of each ship of state this year. The remarkable Tugboat Jones, who has known better times than he has experienced this season, is guiding the destinies of the Midland club. Carl Coleman is the local squire.

The Bulldogs won their first conference game last week when they scrambled Brownfield, weak sister of District 3AA, by a 26-7 count. Previously they had been ambushed and all but scalded by Odessa, losing 55-7.

The Big Springers have fared similarly in 5AA. They upset the Brownwood Lions, 14-13, only to lose to San Angelo, 45-7.

Outside of the Brownfield win, the Bulldogs have succeeded in shaking up only one triumph. That was a 14-0 decision yielded by the Plainview Bulldogs, which earlier had waylaid Big Spring, 7-0.

All things considered, the teams will enter the skirmish even-Steppen. Big Spring has come home in front three times in seven starts.

Outside of their conquest of Brownwood, the Herd has skinned past Brownfield, 19-12, and trounced Cisco, 29-8.

There isn't too much difference in the weights, although Midland might hold a slight advantage in the line. The Bulldog primary is anchored by Alfred Baze, a 210-pound tackle. He's helped along by such strapping youngsters as Bob Woods, 175-pound tackle; Jimmie O'Neal, a 180-pound center; and Bob Woods, 175, a center.

The Midland can expect to see a lot of passes thrown by the Big Springers. Joachas Coleman and Bert Brewer have been working Robert Cobb at the quarterback slot all week and Robin is noted chiefly for his ability to toss the pigskin.

Floyd Martin, Amos Jones, Billy Tubb and Howard Washburn will be available for ball carrying duties.

Cecil Stephens, who gave the Longhorns a lot of trouble last year, spearheads the Bulldog offensive. He's given assistance by Reed Gilmore, Jack Burris and L. C. Thomas, among others.

Both teams will be going all out to win this one. There's no doubt about that.

Starting lineups (and weights): MIDLAND—Harry Smith (152) and Dwane Bush (160), ends; Bob Woods (175) and Alfred Baze (210) tackles; Dalton Byerly (174) and Jack Mobley (153) guards; Jimmie O'Neal (180) center; Reed Gilmore (145), Jack Burris (151), L. C. Thomas (157), and Cecil Stephens (150), backs.

BIG SPRING — Howard Jones (153) and Aubrey Armstrong (155), ends; Dick Laaswell (193) and Paul Fortenberry (160), tackles; Red Cunningham (215) and J. W. Drake (145), guards; Lee Axtens (170) center; Floyd Martin (180), Amos Jones (155), Carroll Cannon (153) and Billy Tubb (150), backs.

Arkansas Coach John Barnhill said it's "very questionable" whether his injured fullback, Leon Campbell, will be able to play against the Mustangs. His regulars stopped SMU running plays cold yesterday, but the B team clicked time and again on Mustang passes.

Rowland Piles Up Mileage

ABILENE, Nov. 10 (U) — Mighty Brad Rowland of McMurry has run his total yardage for the season to 1432 in eight games—an average of 179. It is one of the greatest one-man offensive shows in college football.

Rowland leads the Texas Conference in rushing, punting and scoring also.

He has carried the ball 131 times for 1133 yards and passed 25 times, gaining 299 yards that way. He has averaged 38.0 yards on his punting in 29 kicks. And he is the nation's leading scorer with 108 points.

Floyd Sampson, McMurry fullback, is second in rushing with 822 yards on 105 carries. Al Langford of Howard Payne is second in total offense with 1217 yards on 181 plays. Billy Jay of Howard Payne is second in punting with 27.3 on 25 kicks.

Langford is the passing leader with 1048 yards on 72 completions in 138 throws. Dan Harmon of Austin College is second in passing with 463 yards on 32 connections in 87 throws.

Mack Thompson of Austin College tops in pass-receiving with 22 catches for 294 yards. Frank Barnett of Howard Payne is second with 19 for 330.

In team offense, McMurry leads with 2466 yards in eight games. Howard Payne is second with 2036 in nine.

The average length of life in the United States is now 67 years.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Larry Friddy, the one-time Sweetwater high school mentor, might have been happier had he not withdrawn his application for the local coaching post last spring. (He was considered first in line at one time.) Friddy is supposed to be having his troubles at Gainesville, despite the fact that his team has the inside track on the league's title. There's dissension in the ranks, according to the story.

San Angelo football coaches are censuring themselves for letting a torrid grade school grid prospect by the name of Frye slip through their hands.

The boy's pop, a railroad employe, moved from Angelo to Brownwood recently after the boy had spent most of his life in the Concho City.

The youngster is supposed to be setting the woods afire in a football way down in the Brown county metropolis.

Brad Rowland of McMurry and Eddie LeBaron, College of Pacific's great quarterback, are two lads considered certain choices for the Little All-America football team selected annually.

A third could be Connie Callahan of Morningside college, Nebraska, who picked up 1,347 yards in his first eight games. Of that total, 962 paces were acquired by rushing.

Morningside plays an 11-game schedule, which gives Callahan a good chance of leading the nation in total offense this year.

In his first seven games this year, Rowland scored more points than he did in his first two seasons combined. The pair of TD's he counted against Sul Ross last week ran his point aggregate to 108 for the year.

Some of the HCJC Jayhawks who played against Cisco's Wranglers last week are of the opinion that the contest was the roughest in which they have participated this year. That is some statement, considering the fact that the Weatherford game here two weeks ago almost wound up in a free-for-all.

More than 200 yards in penalties were stepped off against the Cisco and HCJC teams in their outing.

Ollie Matson, the big Negro boy from Texas playing halfback for San Francisco university, who this column has mentioned before, can cover one hundred yards in 9.8 seconds and the 440 in 47.1. Anyone will tell you that's moving.

Ollie weighs 201 pounds and stands 6-2.

NAMING ALL-STAR BACKS TO BE TOUGH

How would you like to have the job of naming the All-Southwest conference football backfield this year? It may prove an easier task than picking the All-American secondary.

Here's the lads you'd have to consider: Doak Walker and Kyle Rote, SMU; Lindy Berry, TCU; Bob Smith, Texas A & M; Randall Clay and Ray Borneman, Texas; Bobby Lantrip and Tobin Rote, Rice; Adrian Burk, Baylor; and Muscles Campbell, Arkansas.

LAST YEAR'S BOWL TEAMS HAVING TROUBLES

The 1949 bowl teams are taking quite a beating along most fronts. Oklahoma remains unbeaten and California has yet to take its lumps but the others are getting kicked around.

North Carolina, which was throttled by Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl, has been beaten twice and is in for a third licking Saturday at the hands of Notre Dame. The Tarheels must also play Virginia and Duke before the campaign is out.

SMU, the Cotton Bowl kingpin, has lost once and been tied once in six outings and isn't out of the woods yet. Oregon, the team the Ponies conquered in Dallas last New Year's Day, has experienced four defeats to date.

The Orange Bowl principals are having their troubles, too. Texas has dropped three decisions while Georgia has lost on five occasions. Football fortunes have a way of changing rapidly.

Speck Franklin Leads Dogies To 20-0 Victory Over Snyder B Aggregation

SNYDER, Nov. 10 — Charles Speck Franklin led the Big Spring high school football reserves to their second straight victory over Snyder's B team and their fourth triumph of the campaign here Wednesday night.

Franklin dashed 60 yards for one score, set up another TD with a 60-yard gallop and passed to Ross Word for the third as the Shortorns rolled to a 20-0 triumph.

Franklin reeled off his scoring dash in the first period and Donald Mack Richardson booted the point to give the Dogies a 7-0 advantage.

Snyder fought them on relatively even terms until the third while Franklin juggled the ball down to the enemy four-yard line. Richardson ultimately carried it over from the one. Donald Mack also kicked the extra point on a placement boot to make it 14-0.

In the fourth period, Franklin's scoring pass to the rangy Word covered 45 yards.

Big Spring threatened in the second when Autry Burk blocked a Snyder punt and the Dogies recovered on the foe's ten but penalties set the Big Springers back and they were never able to get across.

Burk, Word and Allen Holmes all showed to advantage on defense while Ray Adams shared the offensive spotlight with Franklin and Richardson.

Snyder managed to get inside the Big Springers' 30-yard stripe only once.

FLORIDA HAS 8 At Least 20 Bowl Games In South

ATLANTA, Nov. 10 (U)—This isn't a boom year for Dixie football bowls, but neither is it a bust. It's what you might call a season when the fittest are surviving.

At least 20 bowls will operate. Five or more oldtimers have gone out of business, and three others are listed as "maybe" propositions.

No doubt there are six or eight other "classics," some defunct and some operating. Sprinkled along minor crossroads of southern football.

Florida is the leading bowl state because of pleasant weather and a natural love for promoting. A minimum of eight games will be played in Florida, which is a drop of two from preceding years.

Texas is next with at least five in operation and one which apparently isn't definitely set. Houston's big Old Bowl won't function.

Louisiana has three games for sure; Tennessee at least two, maybe three, and Alabama and Arkansas one each. Two Alabama bowls are no more. One Mississippi game hasn't been officially announced.

Here are some of the bowls and their vital statistics:

Dixie's big four show no signs of financial sickness and games will be played Jan. 2.

The Sugar in New Orleans will draw $2,000 fans and pay more than $120,000 per team — no announcement yet which teams are considered.

Dallas's Cotton will attract 15,000 fans and pay about the same. The Southwest Conference championship team will be host.

The Orange in Miami will be a 64,538-seat sellout. Each team gets $75,000. No ideas yet who the teams will be.

Jacksonville's Gator seats 40,000 and pays between $45,000 and $60,000. Teams won't be announced for at least another two weeks.

Among smaller games the Shrine Cigar Bowl in Tampa has space for 18,000 customers. The Jan. 2 game is for charity and teams get only expenses and entertainment.

Senior college players will receive part of the gate at Jacksonville's Senior Bowl-Jan. 7. This new bowl seats 40,000. Orlando's Tangerine Bowl will be played Jan. 2.

Miami also has the Orange Blossom (Negro) game Dec. 10 and the big Shrine North-South All-Star meeting Dec. 26. Both are played in Orange Bowl Stadium.

Jacksonville's Flower now is known as the Sunshine. Miami's Coconut and Orlando's Abiles won't operate.

The Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas, is 14 years old, seats 16,000, pays about $12,000 per team and will be played Jan. 2. Senior college may be invited for the Galveston, Texas, Cleander Jan. 2. Capacity is 14,000 and the payoff is unknown. Last year each team received $4,000.

Largest fatality is Birmingham's Dixie Bowl which drew about 20,000 each of two years in operation. Birmingham's Negro Vulcan Bowl also is out of business.

Whether Memphis, Tenn., will have one, none or several bowls is vague. If a bowl crops up it may be called the "bowl of the south" instead of the Delta, as last year. Two other Tennessee games are among sureshots for Thanksgiving Day — the Pitt-Burley Bowl at Johnson City and the Smoky Mountain at Bristol. Emory and Henry will host the Burley.

All Conference Teams Active

All District 5AA football teams will see action this weekend.

The spotlight will be on two games both of which will have bearing on the conference race. Sweetwater invades San Angelo Friday for an afternoon engagement while Abilene travels to Brownwood for a day bout.

Big Spring, fifth member of the conference, plays Midland in Midland tonight in a non-conference contest.

Both Brownwood and Sweetwater face elimination in their games unless they win.

Dates For Installing New CAA Equipment Announced Today

Tentative dates for installing new Civil Aeronautics Authority airways communications equipment at the new airport terminal building have been set, H. W. Whitney, city manager, said this morning.

The CAA now plans to start the installation of equipment on Nov. 15 and will probably complete the work by Dec. 15, airways communications officials have notified Whitney. The dates are subject to change, they warned.

The city manager said the moving of airlines and other offices to the new terminal would probably be coordinated with the opening of the new CAA offices here, putting the new structure in use about the middle of December. Additional street paving and the construction of walks at the terminal should be completed by that time, he said.

An application has been filed with the CAA for additional fee aid in the paving and outside improvement work, but no reply to the request has been received, the city manager stated.

Market Strong In Livestock Sale Here

The market continued strong, surprisingly so in some lines, at the regular Wednesday sale at the Big Spring Livestock Auction company.

Bulls brought up to $18.00, fat cows from 14.00 to 16.00 and butcher cows from 10.00 to 13.00. Medium calves inspired bids from 17.00 to 20.00. A choice bunch of stocker calves were headed through the ring. Of that group, steers brought up to 24.25 while heifers went for 23.00.

Cows beside calves sold for 14.00 to 18.00 and hogs for 18.00.

A. E. Cooper, manager, said he estimated the run at 100 hogs and anywhere from 900 to 1,000 cattle.

Dr. Templin Tells City Lions Parents Are Too Indulgent

Parents tend to be too indulgent of their children, Dr. Lucinda Templin, El Paso, told Lions club members Wednesday.

Devoted to what she called a one-woman crusade to impress parents with their responsibilities toward their offspring, Dr. Templin cited examples of how parents often attempt at hard practical lessons of life.

In her philosophy of education, she placed book learning near the bottom of the list. Responsibilities of homemaking, and thought it worthwhile contributions to society, stood high on her list of objectives for education.

Dr. Templin, who is principal of the Radford School for Girls, viewed the field of education for girls as needing emphasis upon training for homemaking. She took a dim look at much of the present-day superficialities connected with extracurricular activities. Girls, she felt, should be taught the necessities of economics.

In general, Dr. Templin rated modern parents below their predecessors in measuring up to homemaking responsibilities.

While here, Dr. Templin was guest speaker at the Howard County Junior College and the Rotary club.

Brief parade scenes show a band, the queen float, and also Gov. Governor Shivers, Grandstaff and others on the parade viewing stand.

Cotton Farmers Of County, Wives To Vote On Quotas

Howard county cotton farmers and their wives will participate in a referendum, which will be conducted by the local AAA office Dec. 15, at which time it will decide what cotton quotas will be in effect in 1950.

The cotton quota is distinguished from the allotment in that it fashions any penalty that might go in to effect relative to future crops. The allotment, according to Gabe Hammock, county administrator, is simply a distribution of the acreage and will already be in effect at that time.

Eligible persons can cast their votes either by mail or by calling at the AAA office here. Results will be tabulated and a report sent forward to College Station.

Three UE Officials Run Out Of Pulaski

PULASKI, Va., Nov. 10. (AP)—Three officials of the left-wing United Electrical Workers Union were chased out of Pulaski last night by former UEW members who considered them "too leftist."

UEW International Representative Henry Rhine and two companions, Frank Connelly and Gene Derrickson, were forced to board an outbound train by some 50 men employed at the local plant of the Radio Corp. of America.

Workers at the RCA plant early this week seceded from the UEW after the union had been "purged" from the CIO. The workers now are affiliated with the CIO-sponsored International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers.

Rhine, Connelly, and Derrickson had come here to discuss contract relations with RCA representatives. Although the local union had shifted allegiance, Rhine contended that the UEW contract with the plant was still valid.

Max Miller, district representative of the new CIO union, said he and "a number" of other members decided the UEW trio must leave town because of their "too leftist" political views. He indicated the union feared they would stir up trouble.

There was no violence as Rhine and his two associates were escorted from their hotel to the railroad station, where they boarded a train bound for Washington. Police stood on guard against any outbreak.

Rhine told reporters that RCA had sought to mislead its workers by placing "paid agents" in their ranks who flailed the UEW with "the false cry of communism."

MEYERS SEEKS FREEDOM ON WRIT IN 1946 KIDNAP-MURDER CASE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10. (AP)—Attorneys for Nicholas Meyers, held on suspicion of kidnaping and murdering a little girl three years ago, say they will seek his freedom on a habeas corpus writ.

Meyers was booked Monday in the case of six-year-old Rochelle Gluskoter, whose bleached skeleton was found in the desert 18 months after her abduction in 1946.

Sam Houston Allen and Edward Mosk, attorneys for Meyers, say they will ask his freedom "unless some immediate action is taken by authorities."

Noris Stensland, chief of detectives in the sheriff's office, declared, "we will resist by all legal means the release of Meyers on a writ."

However, Stensland said yesterday the district attorney's office told him that evidence so far is insufficient for a complaint.

Meyers, arrested at the pool hall he operates, has denied all allegations.

His arrest followed a tip from a woman who saw the car in which little Rochelle disappeared. Investigators said the license plates on Meyers' car tallied with those on the alleged kidnap vehicle. California has used the same plates since the war.

HELD IN KIDNAPING CASE—Nicholas Meyers, 40, sits in county jail in Los Angeles, Calif., after his arrest for questioning in the 1946 kidnaping and slaying of Rochelle Gluskoter, 6. The Sheriff's office said he will be booked on suspicion of kidnaping and suspicion of murder, the first such booking in the history of the case. (AP Wirephoto.)
