How's your HOUSEPOWER?

Got a house with plenty of electric "get up and go?" Or, do the appliances in your house lag like a nag when you turn on the switch? The really modern house is as alert as a finely trained thoroughbred.

That's because it's got 3-wire electric service, large enough wire, at least 100-ampere capacity and plenty of convenience outlets. If lights dim when appliances are turned on, toaster is slow to toast or TV picture "shrinks," then it's time to . . .

CALL A QUALIFIED ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR FOR A FREE SURVEY OF WIRING IN YOUR HOME.

Last Chance

TO ENTER THE $100,000 HOUSEPOWER CONTEST!

Here's a chance to be a winner in the 200 prize, $10,000 HOUSEPOWER CONTEST. All you have to do is get an official entry blank at any Southwestern Public Service Company office. Read it, fill it out and mail it to the HOUSEPOWER CONTEST. 200 prizes will be given away to this month's winners and every winner stands a chance to win the grand $10,000 prize. Enter this week.

"Empathy means the ability to enter other people's thoughts, feelings, emotions," says David Harold Fink in his book "For People Under Pressure." "If the power of empathy were to be developed in children systematically and deliberately there could be no juvenile delinquency. No adult delinquency. No adult delinquency either. How could anyone rob a store if he were to put himself in the owner's place?"

Exactly. But this is not a new thought, although empathy is a comparatively new word.

Several thousand years ago, the Lord told Moses to say unto the children of Israel, "... thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" — in other words, practice empathy. And He also commanded through Moses, "... lay up these my words in your heart, and teach them your children."

So actually Mr. Fink's excellent advice is merely a restatement in modern terms of two of the oldest commandments of the Bible. Every day psychologists and psychiatrists are more and more discovering that the Bible is their most comprehensive and reliable textbook. Maybe it would

It is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. (Matthew 10: 20)

When I was still a young boy I heard a preacher speak about Smuel and how God had spoken to him, I went home so much impressed with the sermon that I resolved to hear God speak to me.

That night I knelt beside my bed and asked Him to speak to me, for I longed to hear His voice and advice. I stayed in that position for a long time but heard nothing. Finally, I decided to go to sleep. I had not lost hope; I said to myself, "Maybe God will speak to me at another time in another manner."

Many years have passed since that night. Now I can look back and say that God has spoken to me, I have heard His voice many times in many different ways, He has guided my life.

True, God does not speak to us when we decide we want Him to, but He will come to our aid when we seek Him diligently and in sincerity and truth.

The Cleavinger children are visiting with the Carlis Bills in Lovington, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hawkins were in Amarillo Sunday and attended the formal opening of the State Life Insurance Building.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee for Thy guidance. Thou hast always been with us and ready to speak to us. Sometimes we've not listened to Thee or sensed that Thou wert speaking to us. Help us to hear and heed Thy voice that we may live in the spirit of the Master. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

By faith we hear God speak to us; by Christ's love in us we try to do His will.

Seeing Is Believing

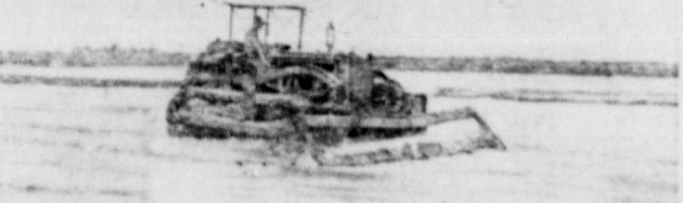

WATCH THE BIRDIE—Assuming an air of nonchalance, Julius, a chimpanzee from the Detroit zoo, gets nudged by Tarzan, a brother chimp. With the help of a Detroit News' photographer, Thel Burget, the chimps have become quite adept with the camera act.

SCOOP! BEAR TREES MAN—Tourists driving near Cliff-dell, Wash., take a quick second-look when they see this scene. It looks like the real thing, but actually it's the skin of a long-dead bear, nipping at a straw-filled trousers and shirt.

MIDGET MALES DOUBLE UP FOR BIG MAIL—Since the "Big Top" of Ringling Bros and Barnum and Bailey circus recently folded, these two midgets are probably looking for work. Could be that Prince Paul and Lauro Marales are making sure their employment applications get in the mail box.

SEA OF MUD—An unusual sight near Agua Dulce, Tex., is this International TD-14A crawler tractor, spreading a "sea of mud," which results from salt water pits. After the tractor, equipped with the special mud-spreader, has done its leveling job, the mud dries and the earth is returned to its original condition.

Sam A. Thomas

Sam A. Thomas New Agricultural Mgr. For S. W. Pub Svc Co.

Sam A. Thomas has been named manager of agricultural development for the Southwestern Public Service Co. Mr. Thomas will be headquartered at the company's Amarillo office. He will be responsible for coordinating the company's program for bringing more of the benefits and efficiency of electricity to farm production and rural homes with all interested agricultural agencies in the company's 45,000 square mile service area. Special attention will be given to working with County

Agents, Home Demonstration Agents, 4-H and Future Farmer groups, and school and college agriculture teachers.

A native West Texan, Mr. Thomas has been with the production department of the electric light and power co. since 1952. He is a graduate of West Texas State College, taking his degree in agriculture. Prior to joining Southwestern Public Service, he taught agriculture for more than six years in the Wheeler County Vocational School at Mobeetie, Texas. He is a major in the Air Force Reserve.

In announcing the new appointment, W. L. Pearson, industrial manager for the Public Service Co. said: "Agriculture is still the dominant element in the economy of our service area. Electricity can increase farm production, lower production costs and bring more comfort and convenience to rural homes. Sam Thomas has spent all his life in this region, and brings to his new position a knowledge of electricity, and the part it can play in a more modern and productive farm and farm home which will be of great value to many people in our service area."

Turkey barbeque was the center of attraction Saturday night at the Phillip Jones north of Springlake where an outdoor supper was enjoyed.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burrow Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Price, the Wren Vineyard's of Littlefield and Jim Kimbrough's of Lubbock.
