Those people "Beautiful in Heart" find strength to bloom forth through the rough. Just as a lovely snow white water lily that emerges forth through the murky waters of a muddy pond to bring beauty to the world. Carol Pounds bearing her suffering with dignity, smiling on month after month in agonizing pain courageously holding on to life, her head just above the cold waters of death, she blossomed forth showing true beauty, gentleness, love and compassion for all.

Truly Carol was in love with life, not just content to exist, but to have her life count for something. This was evident long before she realized cancer had spread throughout her body and that treatments seemed only to give her time not a cure.

She did not want to die, because her family was so dear to her. She wanted time to rear her two youngsters to adulthood and was willing to bear the pain just to have one more day to be with them.

However, Carol faced death months ago as pain engulfed her body. Putting self aside she smiled through heartache and pain busily trying to teach her two lovely children the true values of life, love, compassion, responsibility and sharing. She and Neil working together taught the children more of life, love, thoughtfulness and understanding in these past months than many adults ever grasp.

Yes, the entire Earth-Springlake area is engulfed with sorrow and a hush has fallen over this little West Texas community as each go about their chores, as occasionally they brush away tears at the loss of this smiling frail little mother who won the hearts, as did every member of the Pounds family, when they moved to Earth 7 1/2 years ago. But we realize that Thursday as the sun began to set with the splendor of colorful golden hues across the sky, at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, October 16, in the Church of Christ in Earth.

Leonard Harper, minister for the Earth Church of Christ, officiated. Mrs. Pounds died Thursday, October 14 at 5:30 p. m. in the High Plains Baptist Hospital where she had been a patient for the past three days. Carol, who loved living, fought courageously for many years to win her bout with cancer but had steadily grown worse throughout the past year.

Mildred Goforth Takes Weekly Contest

First place in the sixth week's football guessing game was awarded to Mildred Goforth, who entered the contest for the first time last week. The Springlake resident had eight games chosen correctly to receive 80 points plus a bonus of 25 points to make a grand total of 105 points. Pretty good for the first try - yes!

Terry Riddle and Marvin Ben Jr. both scored sixty points in the weekly contest to tie for second place.

Ross Middleton flipped a coin in the presence of Marvin Ben Jr. to break the tie and second place honors were awarded to Terry Riddle as Ben called the wrong side of the coin.

Riddle now has a 400 point total on his season score and Ben who took third place has 450 points.

The bank stayed open Monday until 5:30 to give students and teachers an additional chance to view the many beautiful hand made items which are on display.

The entire staff at the bank urges everyone to come in today and tomorrow, the last two days of the show, and see such things as tables, candles, plaques, knick-knacks, dolls, vases, floral arrangements, and the many, many, more fabulous works of art.

Services Held Saturday For Mrs. Carol Pounds

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Neil (Carol) Pounds, 34, at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, October 16, in the Church of Christ in Earth.

Leonard Harper, minister for the Earth Church of Christ, officiated.

Mrs. Pounds died Thursday, October 14 at 5:30 p. m. in the High Plains Baptist Hospital where she had been a patient for the past three days.

Carol, who loved living, fought courageously for many years to win her bout with cancer but had steadily grown worse throughout the past year.

The Pounds family had resided in Earth for the past 7 1/2 years, with the exception of a six months period when they lived in Brownwood. Mrs. Pounds had aided her husband in the Pounds Pharmacy and snack bar in Earth until the cancer which she thought she had whipped, showed up again and she retired from the store.

Mrs. Pounds was an active member of the Church of Christ here and was also active in helping in school activities that her children were involved in. She met and made friends wherever she went and left behind a host of friends and loved ones to miss her warm smile.

Mrs. Pounds was born May 8, 1937 at Friona and married Neil Pounds on December 15, 1956 in Friona where they resided until they moved to Earth.

Carol was a nurse and while in Earth she helped many persons, giving shots, and lending a helping hand wherever possible.

Survivors, include her husband, Neil; one daughter, Beth and one son, Britt, both of the home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Blackburn of Friona; a grandmother, Mrs. T. E. Blackburn of Friona; one sister, Mrs. Donnie Smith of Amarillo and two brothers, Rex Blackburn and Keith Blackburn, both of Friona.

Palbearers were Jerry Kelley, Doug Parish, Kenny Hamilton, Cullen Hay, Ronald Cleavinger, Bill Freeman, Troy Lay-

Booster Club To Buy Equipment

The Wolverine Booster Club decided to purchase a new blocking sled for the football team when they met at the school Tuesday night.

In the near future the club will begin filming some B team and some junior high team football games.

It was reported that there were only twelve cars who joined the car caravan to Vega last week. Disappointment was expressed by members of the organization because of the apparent lack of enthusiasm shown in the caravan which was formed to help boost the spirit of our team.

The twelve members present saw a film of the Vega-Wolverine game and heard a scouts report of Farwell's squad from coaches Earl Ramsey and Keith Locke.

Autograph Party To Honor Sunnyside Author

An autograph party is set for Thursday, October 28, from 2 until 5 p. m. in the Dimmitt Library, to honor Mrs. Ernestine (Louder) Bowden the author of the book "This Land We Hold".

The event will be hosted by friends of the library, and will be a kick-off for the sales of this new book relating the down to earth story of the early day pioneers who settled the community of Sunnyside.

Ernestine Louder Bowden has spent fifteen years doing research work for her book, "This Land We Hold" gathering data from around the area.

She first decided to write a book to give Sunnyside its own identification after hearing her beloved community always referred to being located 14 miles south of Dimmitt.

At one time a school was located at Sunnyside and the school district included eight sections within its borders.

The book contains eight chapters, each one dealing with the history of different happenings in the community. One chapter is dedicated to relating the experiences following the deadly tornado that soaked into their community on April 12, 1960, killing three and injuring several of their populous.

The book carries a tremendous number of pictures of the old times, who built the community into the lovely place it is today. Much love, sweat and tears went into the building of this plains country.

Ernestine Louder Bowden, indicates in her book "for one to live in the wide open spaces of the staked plains, they must come to love the first cool nother of fall, and feel the fresh plowed soil, and smell of rain on a hot summer day, and the warmth of a fire of a cold, lonely winter's night."

The book carries the names of many families in the area and will be a valuable gift to pass down to the generations to come.

The book goes on sale during the party for only $12.95 - be sure to get your volume of "This Land We Hold".

Mrs. Bowden is a news correspondent for the Earth News-Sun and Castro County News in Dimmitt.

SUNNYSIDE AUTHOR-Ernestine Louder Bowden autographs one of the first volumes sold, as the purchaser, Mrs. Polly Middleton looks on. One thousand issues were printed in the first press run.

Tornadoes In The Fall?

Many Earthites and residents of the surrounding area were seen scurrying to basements and cellars about 9 p. m. Sunday night when the weather a-lert siren was sounded as numerous tornadoes were spotted in the immediate area.

Earlier that day winds and rain began pelting homes and fields and farmers who were harvesting grain were forced to discontinue working because trucks could not get into or out of the fields.

Deputy Sheriff E. E. Burris reported that he was extremely busy from four o'clock Sunday until 2 a. m. Monday morning watching clouds and surveying damages from hail and tornadoes.

Burris estimated property damages will amount to 250 or 300 thousand dollars at the very least.

One of the largest tornadoes reported Sunday night touched down near the feed pens at Olton and furrowed a three mile path about 100 yards wide through Castro county where a concentration of twisters danced around the Hart community.

The second large twister touched down eight miles southwest of Hart and ran in a three mile wide path toward the northeast for 7 1/2 miles.

Two miles east of Springlake a tornado struck the Walter Farris residence tearing off the roof, knocking out windows, and overturning equipment and uprooting trees in the yard. Mr. Farris was in a trailer house and Mrs. Farris was in the house when the storm struck but neither one was injured.

Burris also stated that two homes located three and one half miles west of Olton had roofs torn off, but there were no injuries. The first house was occupied by the Brent Burrow family and the second home which belongs to a California resident was vacant.

The third home he described as demolished was that of the Danny Cure family, who live in the Bill Hankins house 3 1/2 miles northwest of Olton. The Cure family was watching television when their home was destroyed. Although only a few of the inside walls of the home were left standing members of the family were quite shook up, though none of them were injured.

On a farm located south of Circle a well house was blown away and on another farm in that vicinity ten cotton trailers valued at $400. each were destroyed.

Burris said there were many more reports of damage but there was only one injury reported. This was to Brenda Nelson, 18, of Hart. She was admitted to a Dimmitt hospital and was reported to be in satisfactory condition and "improving rapidly" late Monday night from facial lacerations.

She had been an occupant in the farm home of Larry Brown when a twister destroyed the home 5 miles northwest of Hart at 9:30 p. m. Sunday.

The deputy sheriff said that while enroute to Springlake at 9:30 p. m. Sunday, the car in which he and his wife were traveling was blown off the road into a bar ditch. The couple sat there for 45 minutes with water running through the floor board of the car before a passer-by was able to pull their car out of the ditch.

Burris stated damage to crops may run very high near Hart and Olton, and some in the Springlake area.

Dub Martens, who farms northeast of Springlake lost his cotton crop due to hail damage.

Martens had a truck loaded with corn, parked at the Tex-Hart, Inc. grain facilities in Hart. When a tornado struck the elevator the truck was heavily damaged by flying debris. Damages at the elevator were estimated to run at least as high as $75,000. A 100 by 200 foot storage barn holding five million pounds of milt and some corn "exploded" sending the grain back into the fields where a large amount of it had been harvested. Another barn on the premises was damaged also. The trailer on the truck was leased from Dutch Been.

Larry Tunnell, who farms west of Earth reportedly received about 3 inches of rain and heavy hail damage. Estimates were that Tunnell lost 400 to 500 pounds of grain to the acre during the storm but the amount of acreage was not certain. Also leaves on cotton plants were beaten off by the hail at the farm.

Phillip Haberer, who farms in the Dodd community received 1 1/2 inches of rain and a considerable amount of wind damage to crops.

Two inches of rain was recorded on the J. A. Littleton Jr. farm. Hail and wind damage on the farm was reported to be slight.

After talking with other people who are engaged in various phases of the farm industry we learned that some of them feel we have not been badly hurt by the week-end weather. They stated that the hail had served as a defoliating agent, by knocking leaves off of cotton plants, but these persons also said that bolls were mature enough that they may not have been damaged. If the cold and rainy weather continues these same persons that feel crops are a sight so far believe crops on area farms could be hurt.

New 4-H Club Members Recognized

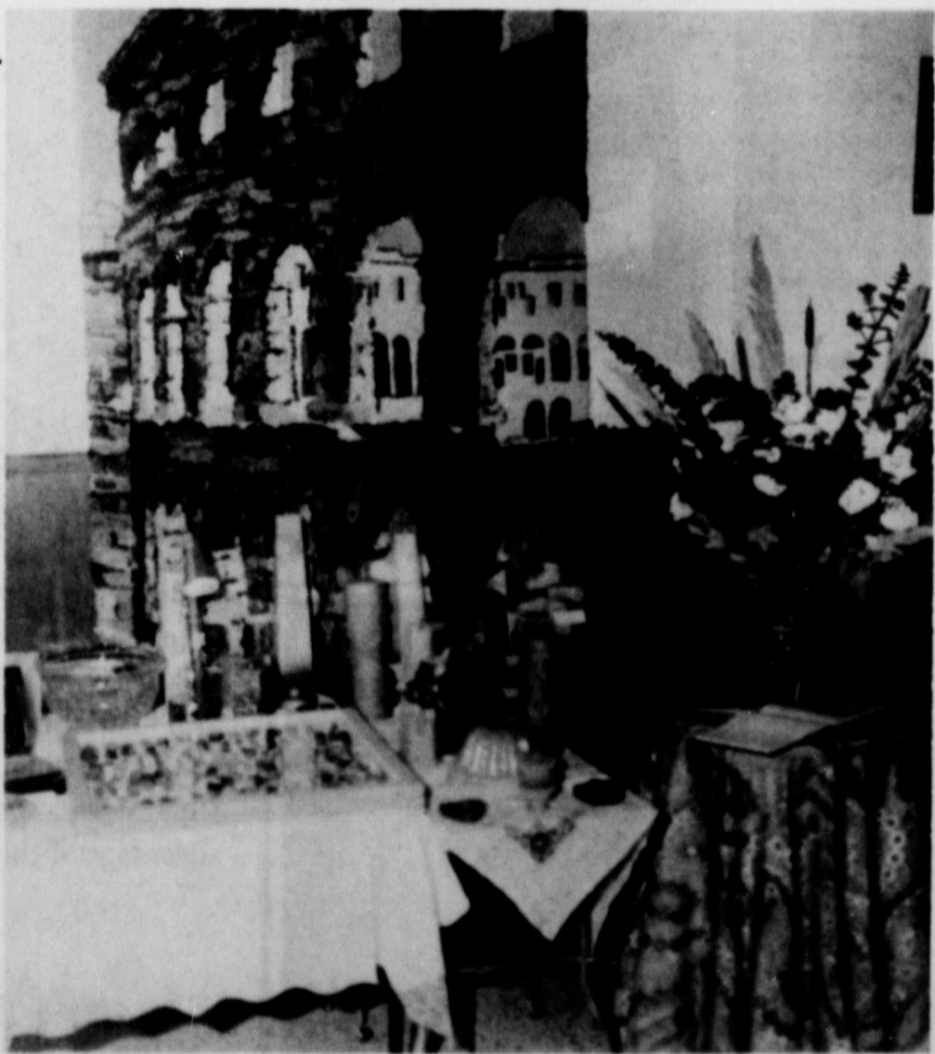

Three new members were recognized when the local 4-H Club met Wednesday, September 14. The new members are Beth Pounds, Britt Pounds, and Brene Belew. Cindy Dent gave a council delegate report to the twenty-three 4-H members and ten adults who were present for the meeting.

Teresa Lively gave the inspirational.

A film on dog care and training was shown to the group.

Following the film program, Cindy Dent had charge of recreation.

It was announced that Gil Lamb will be a guest speaker at the next club meeting. Refreshments of muffins and soft drinks were provided by Mrs. Leon Dent and Mrs. O. K. Parish.

TALENT GALORE-Can be seen at the Citizens State Bank where handcraft work made by talented people in the area is being exhibited. Banker Macky McCarty and staff members at the Friendly Bank invites everyone in the area to drop by and inspect the crafts display.

The Heavy Load

By DAVID HARTMAN

There comes a time when some things in life become too heavy for us to carry. What are we supposed to do when this happens? Ignore it thinking it will disappear? Act as if nothing is wrong and go on? Acknowledge the load is heavy and ask someone to help carry it?

We ignore the rough spots in life. However, this is not to our advantage. The real strength of steel can only be proven by having to endure the stress of pressures applied to it. So it is with your life. You never know your real strength until you must endure the pressures that come your way.

Are you filled with resentment because of difficulty in your family? Or because death came to your house? Have you or are you plagued with financial failure? Is your health failing you? What are you benefitting if you attempt to ignore these burdens? Really to ignore them is to weaken your ability to wrestle with them.

There is a second thing you can do. You can put a big smile on your face and act as if nothing is wrong; things couldn't be better. I have seen people put on this kind of front for the benefit of the public and inside they were weeping with hurt. Deep inside they felt that no one really cared for them and their problems.

All too often this is true. We don't care about their problems and problems of other people. I read this little statement the other day and I want to pass it on to you: "The best way to forget your problem is to help someone solve his." This brief statement doesn't hold all the answers by any means but it has merit. It can help because it at least gets our minds off ourselves. Now ask yourself--be honest in your answer--"Am I genuinely interested in helping to carry the burdens of other people?" If not, why? If you are not interested in other people's burdens could it be that is the reason you feel so alone with yours?

Sometimes putting on the front only increases the already too heavy load.

The third thing you can do is acknowledge the load is heavy and ask someone to help you carry it. The question is who? Got a friend. A real friend-- someone with whom you can trust the deepest secrets and feelings of your life. Someone who listens readily, talks little, and advises even less.

No person can do a nobler deed than to help a friend through the rough spots in life.

Debaters Go To Lubbock

Three members of the Springlake-Earth high school debate team gained lots of good experience when they were spectators at Texas Tech Invitational Debate Tournament held in Lubbock Saturday.

Dennis Criswell, a speech instructor at S-E high school, was one of many judges for the tournament.

Fifty-four colleges and universities had debate teams entered in the tournament. Their topic was entitled "Resolve More Rigid Controls Placed on Government Agencies Gathering Public Information on U. S. Citizens."

Southwestern Oklahoma College debate team was declared the winner of the competition. Attending from Earth were: Criss Dent, Pat Cleavinger, Jo Ann Coker, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Criswell.

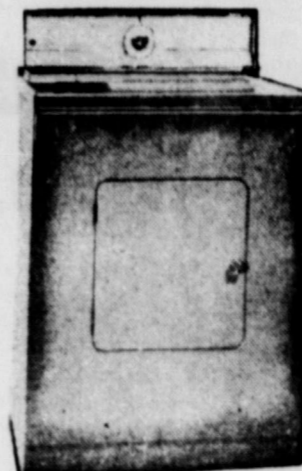

Did you know that overdressed babies are more apt to become chilled than babies who are properly clothed? That's because consistent overdressing throws baby's built-in "thermostat" out of kilter and his body loses its ability to adjust naturally to temperature changes.

Let The Bible Speak

By

Death is a real joy. It is the time when one can join Christ (Philp. 1:23), truly gain (Philp. 1:21), possess a building from God (II Cor. 5:1), and "be at home with the Lord" (II Cor. 5:8). The children of God "desire a better country, i.e. a heavenly... for He (God) hath prepared for them a city" (Heb. 11:16). To the Christian, death is just the door he must pass through to enter the heavenly country. As earthly mothers and fathers long and look for their children to return home, so does the spiritual Father long and look for His children to come home. No wonder; "precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of his saints" (Ps. 116:15). How beautiful, challenging, and comforting it is to die a saint, a child of God. Are you God's child? Can you approach death with a joyful, hopeful attitude? Let us help you in gaining further knowledge concerning your future and final state. The Springlake church is offering to every reader of this column a free Bible Correspondence Course which may be studied in the privacy of your own home and/or a free Home Bible Study via beautiful color slides of the Bible, shown in the privacy of your own home by a concerned Christian. If you are interested in either these or if you have a religious question you would like discussed, please submit your requests to: Church of Christ Box 175, Springlake, Texas, 79082.

Vega Takes Lead

Vega's defense forced four turnovers in an outstanding performance and the Longhorn's offense contributed a touchdown early in the game and a field goal late in the game to defeat the Wolverines 10-0 and take the district lead.

Hard-running halfback Dickie Robinson, who gained almost three times as much rushing yardage as S-E gained on the ground, sparked a 60-yard scoring march on the Horns' first possession, but after that the Wolverines defense was almost equally stingy.

Brent May carried over on a two yard plunge for the game's only touchdown which climaxed an 11-play drive. Tim Ward successfully converted the extra point attempt to give the hometown fans a pleasant 7:00 cushion with the game just 4:50 second old.

The Wolverines then marched 67 yards in 13 plays on their first possession only to fumble the ball away at the Vega three, a late which was to be repeated two more times in crucial situations. A fourth costly mistake occurred in the late fourth period when James Cresap intercepted an S-E pass at the Springlake 46.

The theft resulted in a 44 yard drive to S-E's four before bogging down, and Ward sealed the Wolverine's fate with a 22 yard field goal.

The Wolverines had another good chance to score in a situation set up by one of two Vega lost fumbles. Cresap fumbled a third period punt losing at his own thirty, but four plays later S-E quarterback Mike Cleavinger hobbled away a pitchout at the Vega 24 on a crucial fourth down and three play.

Vega, sparked by Robinson's diving and twisting for 140 yard on 29 carries, amassed 191 yards rushing and nine through the air for 200 yards total offense, while the losers managed 85 yards total offense.

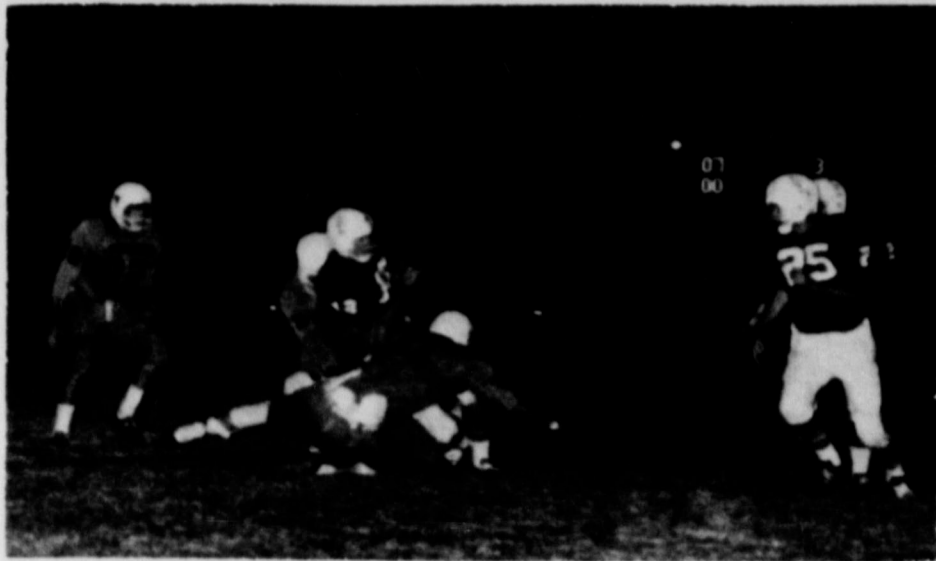

S-E's Greg Slover was his team's leading ground gainer

Yards came hard for S-E how with 45 yards on 13 carries, ever as alert Vega defenders spilled Wolverine ball carriers eight times for 44 yards in losses.

The Wolverine's defense gave a solid account of itself, but found the Horns' wishbone offense to be versatile and too well executed to contain consistently.

Robinson, a 170 pound senior, picked up much of his yardage on second and third efforts, often giving Vega continued ball control. The Longhorns ran 65 plays to S-E's 55 and led in first downs 12-8.

The Wolverine's Hoyt Glasscock picked off one errant pass and recovered one fumble in the first half which kept Vega with bad field position most of the first two periods. Glasscock's interception stopped a drive at the S-E 23.

MIKE CLEAVINGER No. 12- and the Wolverines had their problems Friday night as the Vega Longhorns came out winner 10-0 to take the district lead.

PTA Learns To Fight Dirty

Could you defend yourself if someone attacked you? If you were one of the 22 persons present at the S-E Parents Teachers Association meeting Monday night, October 18, you probably could.

The audience sat spell-bound as Chester E. Fant of Qanah, a safety education officer with the Texas Department of Public Safety, demonstrated tactics he termed as dirty fighting.

The safety expert stated that like seat belts in a car, he hoped that no one would find it necessary to use the protection tactics, but the knowledge of them might save someone's life.

Before Fant showed a fifteen minute instructive film on various ways to ward off attackers, he discussed many other things one could do in such tense situations.

While talking about driving in town and also in rural areas he reminded everyone to be sure to check oil, water, gas, tires, and batteries on the vehicles they intend to drive before starting anywhere.

Pointed out as a very important factor was the fact that if you are being followed DO NOT go home. If you do your follower may come back later. The thing to do is to drive into a large, well-lighted gas station, fire station, police headquarters, or some other similar place.

Too numerous to name, Fant demonstrated ways and means of self protection in almost every imaginable place such as in cars, parked and moving, walking on city streets, and in homes, both town and rural.

The officer discussed and displayed many defense weapons, both homemade and made in a factory. Some of the weapons are simple and are found in every home such as a can of hair spray that can be sprayed in an intruder's eyes to temporarily blind him while the victim escapes.

The humorous guest speaker was very patient as he answered questions and handed out reading material to be taken home.

Fant did stress the importance of citizens backing law enforcement agencies.

During a business session at the P. T. A. meeting Monday night Mrs. David Hardman read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved.

Mrs. Norman Ellis was appointed to be a delegate to the State P. T. A. Convention slated for November 16, 17, 18 and 19 in Dallas. Other P. T. A. members from Springlake-Earth indicated that they might also attend the convention.

Jo Eddy Riley attended a district workshop at Ralls last week. They attended all three workshops which were entitled "Who Says You Can't Be Different", "Who Says You Can't Communicate", and "Who Says You Can't Have a Voice in Leadership".

Mrs. Jo Eddy Riley announced that a Bi-County Council meeting will be held Tuesday, November 9, at Otton, Bill Clayton will be the guest speaker and he will discuss legislation pertaining to schools, teachers, students and so forth.

School record books were distributed for P. T. A. members to sell. The books which are reasonably priced at $1.25 contains sections for each grade from kindergarten through the senior year.

After Mrs. Larry Husmann, P. T. A. President, adjourned the meeting, refreshments of cookies, punch, and coffee were served to those who were present.

The best way to meet people and get the feeling and atmosphere of a new place is to spend only half the day sightseeing — and the other half doing "as the Romans do" for amusement and relaxation.

Eighth Dumps Vega 12 - 0

The hard fighting eighth grade football squad at Springlake - Earth Junior High School dumped the eighth grade squad from Vega 12-0, when they met them here at Earth Thursday, October 14.

Brad Barton scored all 12 points for the home team.

He ran 15 yards to make the first six points, and ran 45 yard to gain the next six points. The seventh and eighth grade S-E teams will play Farwell teams here today as with the B. team.

TROOP 614 HAS SCHOOL

Scoutmaster Travis Jaquess gave a school of instruction on the correct handling of an ax when Boy Scout Troop 614 met Tuesday, October 19, at the scout hut in Earth.

The six scouts who were present had a contest following the instruction program to see who could handle an ax properly while making tent stakes.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1971 shows a total of 66 accidents resulting in five persons killed and 94 persons injured.

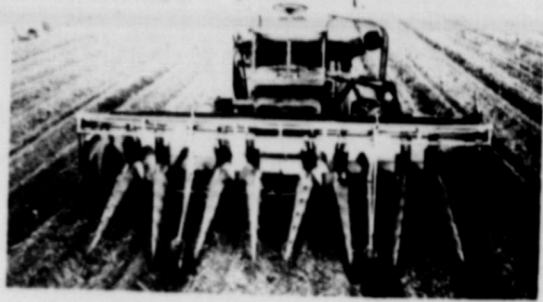

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for September, 1971, shows a total of 499 accidents resulting in 33 persons killed and 268 persons injured. This was 82 less accidents, eight more fatalities, and 132 more injured than during August.

The 33 traffic deaths for the month of September, 1971, occurred in the following count-

Don't leave your profit in the field

Roll-A-Cone

Pick the profit off the ground with the time-tested combine attachment.

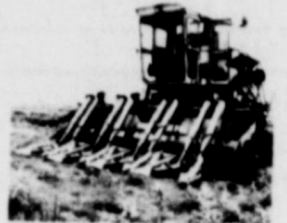

Use the superior design cone principle of the Roll-A-Cone Combine attachment to harvest the irregular, leaning, tangled, fallen or flat grain sorghum. Get more bushels per acre in less time. The Roll-A-Cone gets far better results than other gathering methods. It is simple to install and operate. You haven't harvested all your grain unless you've used the Roll-A-Cone.

Universal Corn Header

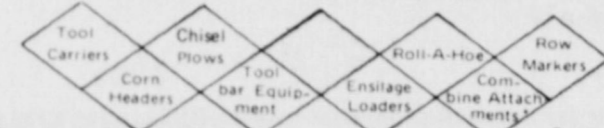

Now corn and milo farmers, for the first time ever, can harvest both crops with one inexpensive attachment.

Costs about half as much as other corn headers. Cuts any size row 20" to 40".

Crops need not be standing to do a good job. Positive chain drive prevents stops from clogging. Picks up fallen crops.

Why go to the field with less than the best...

People Are Confused Between Measles And German Measles

Doctors are increasingly worried over what seems to be a general confusion among the public about measles and German measles. They are two distinct diseases caused by two different viruses. Measles, or rubella, is perhaps the most underrated of all childhood diseases. Measles can kill or, more often leave a lifelong legacy of brain damage or deafness. Since encephalitis occurs in a small but significant number of measles cases, and permanent disability occurs in a fair proportion of these, this year's upsurge will sentence several thousand children to some sort of brain damage. Rubella most frequently strikes preschoolers.

Until 1963, measles was virtually unstoppable. Today, one dose of measles vaccine given to children 12 months or older offers almost 100 percent protection. It's the best odds a parent can find anywhere in child health care these days.

German measles, or rubella, is less contagious and occurs more frequently among young adults. Women stricken with rubella during the first three months of pregnancy run a great risk of bearing retarded or handicapped children.

Sometimes called German measles (though it has no relation whatever to the other variety), rubella is one of the mildest infectious diseases of childhood. Many youngsters actually go through rubella without knowing they have it. But when the virus is transmitted to the pregnant mother the results can be devastating. Following the 1964-65 rubella epidemic, an estimated 20,000 babies were born with severe birth defects.

With another epidemic predicted for 1972 or 1973, the only way to prevent an equally large harvest of deaf, blind and mentally retarded infants is immunization of children between 12 months of age and puberty. The epidemic is expected because rubella outbreaks historically run in cycles of seven to ten years.

Separate immunization shots are available for both rubella and measles. Unfortunately most mothers are unaware of this and assume that a single shot protects children against all types of measles. This misconception leaves the children open to infection by one or the other of the viruses.

Mrs. Pat Washington returned home Monday following surgery Wednesday at Doctors Hospital in Plainview.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Dunham and children were luncheon guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Henson Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Pate left Friday afternoon for League City, which is near Houston, to visit her daughter Mrs. Fred Whitehead for an indefinite period of time.

the AMAZON

The thunderous flow of South America's amazing Amazon River, which drains a third of that vast continent, is greater than that of the Mississippi, the Nile and the Yangtze Rivers combined.

The Amazon macaw, an amazing bird, and star performer in a cast of hundreds of thousands of South American tree top performers including monkeys, sloths, parrots, butterflies and dazzling color-drenched birds, is tough as well as amazingly beautiful. Its beak is powerful enough to crack a wild Brazil nut with a single click while in flight!

Although the Amazon River region has been called a "green hell" by explorers who lacked comfortable vehicles, expert guides and air conditioning, there is incredible beauty everywhere. Today American vacationers can "explore" the Amazon in complete comfort by air and foot along either 1,000 miles or 2,500 miles of its length on special tours - with time included to visit some of South America's fascinating capital cities, too.

These are the Green Hell Tours, offered by Varig Brazilian Airlines. South America's largest airline. You too can be enchanted by the beauty and savage charm of the world's richest wildlife and visit the villages of Amazonian Indians in the heart of the jungle - between visits to Brasilia, Bogota and Rio. Cubs Have Prevention Program

A program on fire prevention and safety was presented to Cub Scouts in Den 3 when they met Wednesday, October 13, for a regular meeting. Kyle Kelley, denner, called the roll and each scout present answered with a rule on safety or fire prevention. Assistant denner, Greg Geissler, collected the weekly dues. The "Bear Book" was used as the boys studied what people should do if their homes caught on fire, if they saw someone whose clothing was on fire, or if their clothing was on fire. Air, fuel and oxygen are the three things that are needed to start a fire. After learning this the scouts conducted various
