

Proper Storage Can Cut Tractor Fuel Bill

COLLEGE STATION, June— Savings of 10 percent or more in fuel bills can be made by most farm tractor operators if they give attention to proper fuel storage and fuel system adjustments, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer.

Evaporation during the hot summer months takes a toll of fuel in storage. Partially filled tanks exposed to the sun may lose three to four per cent of their contents within a month. Shaded tanks lose one percent or less. Over a period of three months unshaded tanks may lose up to 15 percent but those in the shade only 6 percent.

Painting storage tanks with aluminum or white paint will aid in cutting evaporation losses says the engineer, because the light colors reflect the sunlight. Too, he adds, a small storage tank filled every two weeks will cut the storage period and the losses from the evaporation which climbed with long storage.

Studies of defoliant mixtures using amino triazole are indicating that the amount of other defoliant in the mixture can be considerably reduced when incorporated with three-fourths pound an acre amino triazole.

The USDA's meat inspection service is observing its 50th birthday. The purple stamp of inspection or approval has become a symbol for wholesomeness in meats that provide a pattern for the entire world.

Extension foods and nutrition specialists say that men over 50 generally need more foods rich in vitamin C than do women of about the same age. Both groups probably need more protein and iron and less fat than most get in their daily diet.

County Agricultural Agents in Hale and Washington Counties are credited with developing a hay marketing program between Alfalfa growers in Hale county and dairy farmers in Washington county.

"DRIVING THROUGH THE YEARS"

The story of the Motor Car

THE COMFORTABLE RIDE - YESTERDAY AND TODAY

Autos faced the problem of comfortable riding from the beginning. First there were poor roads and the typical 'carriage' frame giving no comfort at all.

As engines and car bodies developed, riding comfort was sought. Solid rims were replaced by rubber tires, then with pneumatic tires.

With better roads, better tires, and better springs (but still carriage-type springs) riding got smoother.

It wasn't until the late twenties with hard surfaced roads, the new balloon type tire, better frame construction, that cars started on their way to real comfort.

...reached finally in the million dollar ride as exemplified in BUICK'S coil-spring, x-frame ride.

DOSE HYGIENE HISTORY

Women in Elizabethan times did not realize the value of washing or cleaning the face at frequent intervals. Many suffered from ugly skin blemishes. Modern women make use of crepe, complexion because of skin care.

The first American settlers got plenty of healthy exercise in the outdoors just by doing their daily work. Many modern men who spend working days at offices, must plan their exercise through walk-end and after work recreation.

Early American children were not encouraged to play their teeth until after their "second" teeth had grown. Dentists today say a child would be taught to brush his teeth at the age of two. Modern babies for children are treated with an anti-bacterial that destroys oral cavity germs that fall or settle on brushes.

By following the rules of good hygiene, American families are the healthiest in the world.

Beverly Bearden, Elmo Haska Exchange Vows

Miss Beverly Jean Bearden recently became the bride of Elmo Haska in a ceremony performed at the First Baptist Church in Olton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bearden, formerly of Springlake and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Haska.

Rev. John Lewis read the vows before decorations of baskets of pink and white carnations and gladioli backed by jade green palms and white sand-bra.

Harold D. Carson organist, offered traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Owen Jones as she sang "An Sweet Mystery of Life," "I Love Thee", and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in an original model gown of white imported French lace and Nylon tulle over net and satin designed with a high neckline framed with bands of applique lace. From a fitted bodice stemmed a magnificent skirt of tulle, net and satin swept into a short graceful train at the back. Her veil of silk illusion was fastened to a tara of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a white orchid showered with stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Mrs. James Alfred, sister of the bridegroom was matron of honor & bridesmaids were Misses Mary Phillips Helen Orsbourn and Helen Matlock of Springlake cousin of the bride.

The attendants wore identical dresses of pink crystalite with a shantung weave.

Brother of the bride, Royce Bearden, was best man and ushers were Donald Taylor, Floyd Light and Leroy Measles of Tulia. Measles and Light also lighted

HOMEMAKING

Last night A.D. (after diabetes), I tried my hand at figuring out a magazine picture puzzle—the kind that shows things photographed under a microscope and then blown up so you can't tell what they are. One really threw me! It looked like a magnified portion of a chewed up toothpick, but then again, it didn't. "Hey genius," I yelled to Bill. "Come here and help me out."

He studied the picture, identified it as a close-up of a fly leg, and retreated back to his paper saying, "I'm not really a genius dear—just quietly clever you know."

Bill got a chance to prove it a minute later when I looked up the answer and his "fly leg" turned out to be a strand of corn fiber from a broom!

"Well Mr. Quietly Clever."

He went right on reading, "By the way honey," he drawled, "speaking of brooms, why don't you go into the kitchen and check ours?"

I waited cautiously for the punch line.

"I mean it. Since a broom is one of the most important household tools we have, it ought to be in tip-top shape."

Before I could think up a witty rejoinder, he continued.

"Here's what you do. Check out the broom's fibers and see if they're curled. If not, proceed to item two, which is the broom's stitching. Make sure the binding is firm so the fibers are kept in shape. Then, on to a peek at the sweeping edge to find out if the edges are rounded from wear. Worn bristles mean a tired back for the sweeper. Final test: sweep up a bit and see if the results are all they should be. You can get into a rut sweeping day after day, and not notice that the old broom isn't doing the job it used to. Check on it tomorrow, will you kid? Could make a 50 per cent difference in efficiency."

I didn't have the heart to tell Mr. Quietly Clever that I knew he was getting all this practical information from the paper. I had read the article before he got home, and a new broom was already in the kitchen. I'll let him be clever, and I'll just be quiet!

Guests in the Edward Jones home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helf and John of the Big Square Community.

Jones-Breggs Vows Read In Double Ring Ceremony

Nuptial vows were solemnized on Sunday June 19, at 3 p. m. for Miss Noretta James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. James of the Big Square Community, and Don Keith Breggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Briggs of Muleshoe. Rev. Bruce Matthews read the double ring ceremony in the new Methodist Church at Lubbock.

Vows were read before a setting of baskets of pink and white gladioli, palm trees and an archway centered with white satin wedding bells tied with white satin bows.

Miss La Von Copley presented traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Rosetta Sims, niece of the bride as she sang "He" and "Always".

Mrs. George Jesko of Muleshoe sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore an aqua waltz length dress of cotton satin. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Oran Sims of Muleshoe and Mrs. Garland Kennedy of Amarillo, both sisters of the bride.

Joe Briggs served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Harold White and Albert Clark.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace over net and satin.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and guests were honored with a reception in fellowship hall of the church.

After the wedding trip the couple will be at home in Ft. Worth where he is employed as a Structures Engineer at Convair Aircraft Plant in Ft. Worth.

NOTICE

VOWS READ FOR MISS BILLIE ANN PENCE JACKIE C. TIDWELL

Mrs. Jackie C. Tidwell

Miss Billie Ann Pence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Dutton of the Pleasant Valley Community, became the bride of Jackie Carral Tidwell, son of Mrs. Ann Tidwell of Muleshoe, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Rev. E. K. Shepherd read the double ring ceremony before an arch of candelabra garlanded with greenery and blue daisies. Baskets of gladioli completed the setting with tapers and blue daisies marking the bridal aisle.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Karoline Towns, organist, who also accompanied Jimmy Wilkerson as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayers".

The bride given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an original gown of white embroidered Swiss organdy over net and tulle. Fashioned along princess lines, the portrait neckline was enhanced with white satin bows which formed tiny sleeves complemented by pointed gauntlets. The full skirt of organdy tiers with scalloped edges, extended into a short train.

Her veil of silk illusion was joined to a tiara type cap of looped iridescent braid holding organza blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with white gardenias and white roses.

Bridal Attendants

Miss Diane Yarbrough of Rowell, N. M. cousin of the bridegroom, attended as Maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Betty Shanks, Quineil Elliot, Pat Inman, Alva Lee Shafner and Sharon Wilemon of Lubbock.

Candles were lighted by Miss Robert Elliot and Miss Janelle McGuire and flower girl was Vickie Lawson of Lubbock niece of the bridegroom.

The attendants were attired in identical floor length dresses of crystallette over taffeta in a soft pastel blue. The long tulle bodies were designed with portrait necklines framed by draped berthas that tie in bows at the center backs. They wore simulated hats of matching tulle dotted with seed pearls and carried single long stemmed red roses.

Jack Jones served as best man and ushers were Stanley Fox, John Charles Gmbreath, Bo Bryant, G. R. Howell of Ft. Worth and Eddie Wilt. Ring bearers were Betty Harbin and Donnia Thomas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in which the brides table was laid with tulle over taffeta and complimented with the attendants flowers and a three tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride chose a two-piece suit of gray and blue pure silk twed with pale yellow accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Tidwell are both graduates of Muleshoe High School and he is presently an instructor in the U. S. Air Force stationed at Frances E. Warren A. F. B. Cheyenne, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Art McFatter and children are new residents of Springlake this week. They moved from Earth Monday.

Gene Brownd and Bill Morris fished at Possum Kingdom last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood returned home Monday night from several days vacation at Yellow Stone Park.

Mrs. R. S. Cole and children and Connie Glascock were at Muleshoe swimming Tuesday afternoon.

John Glascock of Elida, N. M. is here for a few days visit with his brother Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Glascock.
