

Toll Road Plan Over State Is New Proposal

AUSTIN (U-P) A state-wide toll road plan developed in the Legislature today as an answer to the state's traffic-jammed highways. The Senate's Highway Committee held up action on a bill to authorize a Dallas-Fort Worth toll turnpike while a substitute state-wide bill is prepared. Public hearing on the new plan was set for Feb. 24 at 9:30 a.m. Meanwhile, a proposed $600-per-year pay boost for every Texas teacher was over its first legislative hurdle. The Senate's Education Committee voiced unanimous approval for the bill last night while more than 1,000 teachers who packed a public hearing applauded. Tentative agreement on the state-wide toll road plan was told the Senate Highway Committee by Dallas attorney John D. McCall and Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce spokesman Charles G. Cotten. Cotten said they had found "friendly interest" in an overall bill for the state instead of a local bill for the Dallas-Fort Worth area alone. "We are happy to go along with it," he said. McCall said interested persons had worked out a plan last night. It would set up a state-wide commission with first priority given to the Dallas-Fort Worth project. A delegation which called on Gov. Shivers reported he approved of the plan. The teachers' pay raise hearing was the first to pack the galleries this session.

Soviet Legation In Israel Hit

TEL AVIV, Israel (U-P) - Israeli police announced today they have arrested several persons in connection with the bombing of the Soviet legation here last night. Five persons, including the wife of the Soviet minister, were injured in the explosion. It was believed in reprisal for recent anti-Zionist charges by Communist officials in Moscow and the satellite capitals. Names of those arrested were not announced. The attackers were believed to have cut a hole in the wire fence surrounding the legation grounds in the center of Tel Aviv and to have thrown the explosive through the window of a ground floor office. The Israeli press joined the government today in condemning the bombing. Terming it a "dastardly outrage," the government expressed its regrets to the Russian envoy and his staff and promised "swift justice" to those responsible.

Norther Blows Into Texas With Showers

By The Associated Press A rain producing norther with sub-freezing temperatures churned toward the heart of Texas Tuesday. Widespread thunderstorms and showers were forecast for the drought-weary state. Stockraisers took precautions with livestock. The Air Force moved planes to safer territory. At mid-morning, the massive south moving cold front stretched from just east of Wichita Falls and Abilene down through the Pecos Valley. Rain, fog and mist cloaked the area ahead of it. Behind, thunderstorms boomed, howling winds whipped up dust and temperatures skidded. Before noon, rain already was falling at Mineral Wells, Abilene, Big Spring, College Station, Waco, Dallas, Corpus Christi, San Antonio, Palacios, Victoria, Childress, Tyler and Wichita Falls. Lubbock reported clouds of blowing dust. Dalhart, behind the cold wave, had a morning low of 22 degrees. Amarillo had 24, Lubbock 22. Light hail pelted Tye, a little community west of Abilene. No snow was reported. Childress reported freezing drizzle. The front was expected to move through the Dallas-Fort Worth area about 1:30 p.m. Rainfall totals for 24 hours end-

Not a word of opposition was voiced to the bill authorized by Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., Paris. "I don't think salary is everything," Aikin told the committee. "If we paid $10,000 a year we'd not have all perfect teachers. But better salaries than we're paying now are necessary." He noted teachers have had no salary increase since 1949. Applause rang through the crowded chamber when he said the state would bear the entire cost of the raise—estimated at $2 to $5 million dollars—without any additional local assistance. Gov. Shivers had proposed that local levels should bear more of school financing. Leaders of associations of school administrators, parents and teachers spoke for the bill. A teacher and a school board member were also in the parade of proponents. "We aren't asking the salary of a doctor or lawyer," said Mrs. Rae Files Still of Waxahachie, a teacher and former member of the House. "But we think a teacher's salary should be the average of Texas employees. It's now 6.4 per cent below the average." Aikin told the committee his bill would do just one thing—"It increases teacher salaries $600 across the board." "There has been no increase in teachers' salaries in Texas since 1949. The cost of living has consistently gone up," since he said. Better salaries are mandatory, he said, to assure the best teachers. R. L. Proffer, Denton, former state senator and now president of the Texas State Teachers Assn., declared teachers colleges cannot furnish enough teachers for Texas schools without improved salaries. Willie, Kocurek, a businessman member of Austin's School Board, told the committee, "There's a time and place for minimumization—and I don't believe it's in education." "No teacher should be put into a school room who cannot maintain a decent standard of living and an average family life," advised H. W. Stillwell, superintendent of Tarkana schools. During the day both House and Senate met only briefly and then cleared the way for the teachers hearing and other important committee work. A state representative said "Every top, known, bragging Communist left Texas two days before the Communist control bill took effect." And the legislator, Rep. Marshall Bell, San Antonio, added: "Good riddance of bad rubbish." Bell made the statement in asking for strengthening of the Communist Control Bill passed in 1951. He asked for provisions for a search warrant to seize Communist records.

Dozen Men 'Named' In Jelke Vice Case

NEW YORK (U-P) - Red-haired Pat Ward has named "at least a dozen" men who patronized cafe society's call girls in the "closed door" vice trial of oleo heir Minot F. (Mickey) Jelke. This was disclosed to newsmen today by Asst. Dist. Atty. Anthony J. Liebler as he stepped from the second day's session of the trial briefly for a smoke. Names of the men were kept secret under a controversial order by General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente banning press and public from the courtroom. Newsmen approached Liebler as he walked from the courtroom and asked how many men had been named so far by Miss Ward, one of the chief prosecution witnesses, who was on the witness stand for the second day. "At least a dozen," Liebler said. Pat Ward's attorney bitterly assailed the press earlier today. Waving his walking stick as he arrived at the Courthouse with the 19-year-old Miss Ward, J. Roland Sala told newsmen: "Everything is distorted that this little girl says." The press, Sala continued, has been "lying" and "implicably cruel." "You people can't take defeat," he shouted. This appeared to be a reference to the decision yesterday of General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente to bar the press and public from the courtroom during presentation of the prosecution case. When reporters put questions to Miss Ward, Sala repeatedly cried: "Don't answer that." She answered one question, however. "Pat, do you think we've been distorting everything you've said," a reporter asked. She hesitated and replied: "Yes, definitely, I believe so." Miss Ward, the prosecution says, will name names of men who patronized cafe society vice circles.

Shivers Defends Solon Over Part In Clemency Aid

AUSTIN (U-P) - Gov. Shivers today stood behind the state senator who admitted a brief part in a convicts' clemency request that brought accusations of fee splitting. Shivers said he had found nothing illegal or improper in the action of the Senator, George Parkhouse, Dallas. Statements to the press pyramidized yesterday after a press report that a State Bar Grievance Committee had written a letter of reprimand to a Dallas lawyer for obtaining fees to get pardons for Texas prison inmates and splitting those fees with "a man on the public payroll." Shivers asked for more information on that man on the public payroll and added that if he were a state employe or official, "I propose to see that all the facts are turned over to the grand jury for action." Then Parkhouse issued a statement saying he knew the Dallas lawyer under reprimand and he had tried to help the lawyer last summer in a clemency matter for three convicts. "There was, however, no fee splitting," Parkhouse declared. He added that the only money involved was that he received expenses for a trip to Austin July 30, 1952, "to call the attention of the Board of pardons and Paroles to the request of these people for clemency."

Rain, Cold Weather Is The Forecast

Drizzle and occasional showers this afternoon, with possible freezing drizzle or rain tonight, high-light the Tuesday weather forecast. The U. S. Weather Bureau station at Webb AFB didn't expect enough rainfall to do much good in the area, however. Only a trace of moisture had been registered up to noon. It'll be much colder tonight, with a low of 24 degrees predicted. Mercury is expected to climb back up to 36 Wednesday. High today 58, low tonight 24, high tomorrow 34. Weather outlook is about the same for the area east of here, but no moisture was expected to the west. Abilene, Wichita Falls and Childress reported drizzles and thundershowers this morning. Lubbock had no rain and wind was blowing from the north-northeast at 20 to 25 miles per hour. It was dusty at Wink.

Final Arguments Start Today In Parsons Trial

By ARNO ADAMS WICHITA FALLS (U-P) - Closing arguments began today in the bitter Mary Jean Parsons bridegroom murder trial and the jury was expected to take over by mid-afternoon. The pretty Tulsa heiress shot her husband to death early a year ago. The state contends she did it in anger and malice and was guilty of murder. The defense has tried to prove she was insane and therefore innocent. The 22-year-old blonde—wearing a blue skirt, white blouse and red tie—sat impassively as Dist. Judge Arthur Tipps read an 11-page charge to the jury, explaining technical points of law involved in each side's contentions. Her somberly clad mother, Mrs. Burner Fleeger, Tulsa, wept softly. Mrs. Fleeger had turned sharply and snapped "mind your own business" at a photographer who took a picture of the defendant and her parents as they walked up the steps into the Courthouse. A capacity crowd flocked to the Courthouse despite a steady rain. Judge Tipps said each side could have two hours to sum up its case. Time out for a noon recess would end the arguments and send the jury into isolation about mid-afternoon for its verdict. Jack Fant, 34, assistant El Paso district attorney, opening the state's arguments, told the jury there were three main issues: (1) whether Mrs. Parsons was guilty of murder with malice, (2) whether she was sane or insane at the time of the killing, and (3) whether she is now sane or insane. Testimony ended yesterday on an explosive note when the state used the Tulsa, Okla., socialite's wealthy father, Burner Fleeger, as a surprise rebuttal witness. Fleeger admitted he, his wife and their blonde daughter had returned from an extended vacation in Hawaii and on the Gulf Coast a short while before the trial opened Jan. 26. Previous defense testimony had the 22-year-old former University of Oklahoma coed in a private mental hospital at

No Decision Made Yet On Blockade Of China

Dulles Set To Talk To Senate Probers

WASHINGTON (U-P) - Secretary of State Dulles told senators today President Eisenhower has made no decision on a possible blockade of Red China or other action in the Far East. Dulles, who testified at a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was quoted by two senators as having told the group that any discussion of a blockade is "premature." Sens. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) and Fulbright (D-Ark.) said they got the impression from Dulles that the whole Far Eastern situation is wide open for any action the President may want to take in the future. By JACK BELL AND ERNEST B. VACCARO WASHINGTON (U-P) - Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) demanded today a speed-up in "actual delivery of the military hardware" to the Chinese Nationalists and said it would make a greater impression on the Communists than speculation over changed Seventh Fleet orders. Wiley told reporters he planned to take the matter up directly with Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, at Bradley's appearance before a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Wiley is chairman of the committee. Earlier, the committee arranged to meet with Secretary of State Dulles in a session which shaped up in advance as a test of the Eisenhower administration's promise of a bipartisan foreign policy. Dulles' appearance was arranged to give him opportunity to report on conditions in Europe as he found them on a 10-day inspection trip. But Democrats talked of broadening the questioning, if time permitted, to ask what moves are contemplated in the Far East beyond President Eisenhower's order to the Seventh Fleet to permit possible Nationalist attacks on the Red China mainland. In any event, Dulles will be called upon tomorrow to give this information, if he chooses, to a Far Eastern subcommittee. There was renewed speculation whether the President is planning any move to establish a blockade of the Chinese coast. Dulles faced almost certain questioning on this point. The amount of Democratic cooperation with the Republican on foreign policy moves seemed likely to hinge to a large extent on how far Dulles was willing to take the senators into his confidence. Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.), a committee member, said he thinks congressional committees should be informed of any change in the direction of foreign policy. Humphrey said, for instance, that he wondered if Eisenhower's Seventh Fleet announcement was "a headline story without any real military policy at all." "Was it a psychological offensive

UN Tanks Blast Enemy As Van Fleet Departs

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN SEOUL (U-P) - Gen. James A. Van Fleet bade this dramatic farewell to his U. S. Eighth Army troops today. "We have faith that President Eisenhower will find a way to bring peace to Korea as well as to the rest of the world." The retiring commander spoke against the backdrop of the roar of heavy Allied tanks blasting away at Communist targets on the Central Korean Front. Van Fleet tomorrow will surrender command of the Eighth Army to Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor. Last night 16 American Superforts staged a daring night raid within sight of Antung, a MIG stronghold just across the Yalu. No Red jets were encountered. Van Fleet told his soldiers the Reds cried for a truce in the summer of 1951 because "they were defeated and knew it." At the front, fighting dwindled to brief patrol clashes and one light Communist thrust. Snow fell all across the 155-mile battlefield. The mercury hit 8 to 10 degrees above zero. The Superforts unloaded 160 tons of explosives on more than 300 buildings and a key rail yard. This yard is a link on the main line connecting Manchuria with the Communist battlefield in Korea. Eighth Army headquarters reported Allied ground forces inflicted 1,896 Communist casualties in the first week of this month, compared with 2,370 for the last week of January. Headquarters said the Reds sustained 1,104 killed, 783 wounded and 9 taken prisoner.

Farm Leaders Warn Ike On Price Fixing

By DON WHITEHEAD WASHINGTON (U-P) - Leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation today cautioned President Eisenhower against trying to solve the nation's farm problems by price fixing. They said they expressed this view to Eisenhower at a White House meeting which federation President Allan B. Kline described as "most satisfactory." Kline said the federal officials also told the President they were in agreement on the policies he had outlined in his state of the union message. The meeting was an open move by Eisenhower to cement good relations with the powerful federation which had been snubbed by the Truman administration in bitter disputes over farm policies. Kline and 24 other leaders in the federation laid before the President the policies which had been endorsed by the federation. Kline told reporters: "We had a good conversation and there was good agreement on the points made. He didn't say specifically he agreed with all our points but we certainly had a very pleasant conversation." Kline said Eisenhower was "very much concerned" over the drop in farm prices. Then he added the President had noted with humor, "There is a lot of talk blaming my administration for the current situation." Kline went on to say: "We gave the President a warning against the price fixing approach to the farm situation. A lot of people think that price fixing is the answer to the farmer's problems. But we don't think that's the proper approach because price fixing in itself doesn't get to the basic cause of the troubles." The meeting came against a background of sagging farm prices which some Democrats contend could be halted by quick action on the part of the Eisenhower administration. The bureau and its leaders split with the Truman administration over major farm policies, including the level of price supports. The bureau supports a flexible system of price supports which would range from 75 to 90 per cent of parity depending on the level of production.

Prowlers Are Noticed

Prowlers and window peepers were noticed in the 500 block of Runnels Monday night, but they were gone when police investigated. One resident of the neighborhood reported someone attempted to break into a house, and later was seen peeping through a window. The incident occurred about midnight.

Dimes Drive Nets $9,175 At Present

March of Dimes contributions to the Howard-Glasscock polo chapter have mounted to more than $9,000, Troy Harrell, campaign chairman, announced today. The total is $9,175.79. Harrell said he hopes contributions yet to be made will push the figure to $10,000. Persons who have not been contacted for donations are urged to mail checks to Ira Thurman, chapter treasurer, at the First National Bank, said the chairman. He indicated several substantial gifts still are expected, and that some additional MOD funds are due from Garden City and Forsan.

House Hearing On T-H Changes Underway Today

By NORMAN WALKER WASHINGTON (U-P) - Congress launches hearings today into proposed changes in the Taft-Hartley labor law, giving first consideration to a plan to outlaw industry-wide bargaining. Chairman McConnell (R-Pa) of the House Labor Committee called on Rep. Lucas (D-Tex) as the committee's first witness in hearings expected to run for several months. Congress members are being heard first. Lucas wants the industry-wide bargaining ban. Revision of the Taft-Hartley law, now more than five years old, is one of the promises made by President Eisenhower. But he has not yet spelled out any proposals. Senate Labor Committee hearings have been charted to start during the first week of March. Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) already has submitted a batch of amendments, but organized labor isn't very happy with them. Taft has carefully pointed out his proposals do not bear administering the present law. Taft has not looked with favor on the industry-wide bargaining ban plugged by Rep. Lucas. Amendments similar to Taft's current ones were approved by the Senate several years ago but died in the House. Eisenhower has authorized Secretary of Labor Darin, former president of the AFL, Plumbers Union, to establish an advisory committee made up of public, labor and industry representatives. The President said he wanted this group to help the Labor Department "play a significant role in the planning of America's economic future." Durkin, it is understood, plans to have this committee draft changing the Taft-Hartley Act. Its membership has not been disclosed, but it was learned that John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, has been invited to be a labor member. Lewis has been probably the most bitter critic of Taft-Hartley. Lucas, the House committee's first witness, is sponsoring amendments to forbid any union from bargaining with two or more competing employers. He said this would stop "monopoly bargaining," but would still allow a union to bargain for all plants in a single company.

Martin Co. Chamber Banquet Is April 28

Wheeler, president. Plans for the event are now under way and Wheeler has named Cecil Bridges as chairman of the steering committee. Bridges said he will name, a little later, the committees on house arrangements, ticket sales, program, food, decorations and reception. A guest speaker has not yet been decided upon, he said.

Sullivan, Dabney Haven't Decided On Future Plans

Mayor G. W. Dabney and City Commissioner Willard Sullivan, whose terms expire in April, haven't decided whether they'll seek re-election. Commissioner Sullivan said he wants to give the matter more thought before making up his mind whether to retire or request another term. Mayor Dabney said he has "no comment" to make now. "It'll be some time before I've decided what to do," he stated. No others have announced as candidates for the two commission seats either. City Secretary C. R. McClenny reported. Deadline for filing is Mar. 7—30 days prior to the city election on April 7. Absentee voting will start Mar. 18 and cease on April 2.

Contracts Made For Care Of Braceros

STANTON, Feb. 10 - Contracts are being made in four-county area looking toward medical care of braceros, Margaret A. Rea, registered nurse, said today. She is visiting in various counties and making contacts with doctors and hospitals. Miss Rea cleared up one point of possible misunderstanding resulting from a news story last week in announcing that arrangements were being made by an underwriter for bracero care. Patients will be treated in hospitals most convenient to them, and their employers said Miss Rea. The story had stated that all patients would be brought initially to Stanton for hospitalizing. Miss Rea, who has offices at the

Contracts Made For Care Of Braceros

Martin County Memorial Hospital, explained that the patients welfare was of first concern. Secondly, it would be impossible for one ambulance to cover the area and bring patients to a single point. "Our task is to aid the farmer and the bracero," she said. "If a patient became ill at O'Donnell, it would be folly to try to bring him here first of all." Visits have been made at Seminole and Lamesa and hospitals and doctors have been most gracious, she explained. Contracts will be made in Big Spring and Midland as soon as possible. The bracero insurance agreement is operative in Howard, Martin, Midland and Dawson Counties.

Rearing Triplets Can Be Trying Experience

By ADELAIDE KERR
NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—Mrs. Rocco Paladino, mother of triplets 20 months old, suddenly realized it was much too quiet in her Bronx apartment.

She dropped the sweater and dashed from the hall. Rocky had peeled the cover from the best lampshade, rammed it on his head and was swiveling in a happy haze in front of the mirror. John had detached the hose of the washing machine and was happily flooding the kitchen floor. Anne was decorating the living room with pink bath powder.

Before Mrs. Paladino could act her other three children burst in from school, Marie crying loudly that Joseph hit her with a snowball.

"I did not hit her on the appendix," roared Joseph. "Isn't the appendix down here. I hit her up there."

With one swift ripple of gestures and words, she separated Rocky from the lampshade, Johnny from the hose, Anne from the powder, Marie from her tears and Joseph from his rage. Then she turned on the radio to somebody singing "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning!"

"Once I used to sit down in the kitchen and bawl my eyes out after times like that," says Mrs. Paladino. "I still do sometimes, but not nearly so much. I learned from some other mothers in the Triplet Mothers Association what some of them have to handle and I don't feel like a martyr any more."

"I've had a lot of tips from the other mothers that have helped me. One of them taught me, when things go haywire, turn on some radio music. It helps soothe everybody."

Many of the 250 mothers who belong to the Triplet Mothers Association could say "Amen to that. Rearing triplets has problems and pressures which only another parent in the same vice of circumstances can understand."

Card System To Handle Braceros Being Proposed

SAN ANGELO (AP)—A new "white card" system for handling Mexican farm workers has been proposed by Texas farming and ranching interests.

The American Agricultural Council, represented by Jim Griffin of Mission, yesterday urged a simplified card system, also supported by Joe Montague, attorney for the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Assn.

A meeting of about 50 men from Texas and New Mexico proposed the plan. The group had been called here to study the alien farm labor problem.

Under the plan, Griffin said, cards would be issued workers at various points in Mexico and the workers would be allowed to move with relative freedom in U. S. areas wanting imported workers. Annual surveys, he said, could be made to determine the number of cards to be issued.

Griffin said such a plan was dropped by federal officials when a trial indicated it "drastically reduced the number of federal employees needed."

Representatives of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Texas Employment Commission, West Texas Chamber of Commerce and other agriculture and labor groups attended the meeting.

Montague spoke also in support of the Agriculture Department taking over the Mexican workers problems. They are now handled by the Labor Department.

New Oil Discovery Found In Jim Wells

HOUSTON (AP)—A new oil discovery in the Lower Frio Sand has been reported in Jim Wells County five miles southeast of Alice by Houston operator L. D. Roberts. The well is the 2 Nina Adams Estate. It flowed 144 barrels through a small choke from 4,987 to 5,018 feet. The well is in the Los Presnos Grant, A 281.

The South Texas Oil Co., Corpus Christi has 146 acres under lease offsetting the discovery to the south. It has made plans to stake a location.

C-City Council Okays Sale Of Water To Firm

COLORADO CITY — The Colorado City council voted Monday to supply the Sun Oil Company at Silver with 4,500 gallons of water per hour as long as water from Lake Colorado City was available.

Company officials were not present at the meeting and the matter was brought before the council by City Manager Roy Dozier, who said that the city "would like to sell the water."

Councilman Walter Grubbs asked Dozier if water was sufficient for domestic use and new commercial users. "It would be foolish," he added, "to tie on another water user if we don't have it to sell." Grubbs stated however, that he favored the sale of the water if the city could supply it without hastening a water shortage.

"If it doesn't rain at all," Dozier said, "we can supply everybody in Colorado City from wells." Seven more feet of lake water can be used, pointed out Councilman L. J. Taylor, before the Texas Electric Company, owners of the lake, could invoke terms of its contract with the city to prohibit the further use of water.

Dozier expressed doubt that the utility company would halt the use of water at the elevation given in the contract.

"I'll rely on your statement that we've got plenty of water," said Grubbs, "and offer a motion to supply the Sun Oil Company with water."

The motion passed with no opposition. Sun Oil will take the water through a six-inch line, formerly used to run crude oil to the railroad loading racks south of Colorado City. The oil company will pay 16 cents per thousand gallons in quantity use.

Councilmen accepted an offer by Junior Sadler, VFW commander, for the VFW to develop the lakeside park as a VFW project. Election for selection of four councilmen was called for April 7. Terms expiring are Mayor Leonard Henderson, Buck Geer, R. B. Baker, and L. J. Taylor.

Widening of streets near churches was discussed and Dozier was asked for cost estimates; an appropriation up to $500 for trees and shrubs around the sewage plant was approved; Worth Porter was given exclusive concession rights at the lake park for a minimum of $600 per annum.

3 Million Members Is Goal Of AFL Teamsters Union

By ROWLAND EVANS JR. MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Stocky, balding Dave Beck today set a membership target of three million for his big AFL Teamsters Union.

The 57-year-old boss of the teamsters took over his union's presidency late last year from Daniel Tobin. Both Beck and Tobin are here at the Monte Carlo Hotel for an organizational strategy meeting with the teamsters' Executive Council. Main targets set for expanding the teamsters' membership include filling stations, garages and the taxicab industry.

The teamsters meeting follows the midwinter session of the AFL Executive Council. AFL President George Meany announced yesterday the council had "wound up" and told newsmen the AFL would demand about 20 changes in the Taft-Hartley labor law, the last piece of business before the council.

Beck said today his union, generally believed to be the biggest of all labor unions in the nation, has a well-stocked treasury of 28 million dollars to spend in the drive.

Beck gave the present membership of his union as 1 1/4 million, the bulk of it composed of truck drivers.

Wrong Panel Is Called So County Court Dismisses

The February term of Howard County Court folded up this morning just about as quick as it started. When court was convened at 10 a.m. by Judge E. H. Weaver, it was found that the wrong jury panel had been called. Court dismissed at 10:20. The jury panel was dismissed after motion was made by defense attorney George Thomas. Judge Weaver said a new panel will have to be called before cases can be tried. The 24 men called for jury service this morning were selected for the past term of court. All jury panels are kept in the county clerk's office in sealed envelopes, and the panel was marked next up for service. Since the envelopes are sealed, there was no way to know it was the wrong panel until the envelope was opened. It was not then noticed. County Attorney Hartman Hooser was ready for trial today on eight cases. Seven were charges of driving while intoxicated, 2nd offense. One was a charge of driving without a license.

Ochoa Assured He'll Not Be Extradited

MEXICO CITY (AP)—George Ochoa must be tried on charges of falsifying a birth certificate but Federal Judge Clotario Margalli has ruled he cannot be tried now on charges that he murdered two men in Laredo, Tex., in 1949. The Mexican judge assured Ochoa, one-time border country playboy, that he would not be extradited to Texas to face the murder charges. But yesterday he closed the door on any possibility of Ochoa going free soon. Ochoa, fighting extradition, claimed he was a Mexican citizen, born in Reynosa. A birth certificate was produced as evidence and it is this document Mexican authorities believe is spurious. The former Laredo customs broker is charged in Laredo with the slaying of Henry Whittenberg Jr., McAllen, Tex., and James Lindsay, McKensie, Tenn., both of whom were shot in a Laredo hotel on the night of July 31, 1949. Both men, Texas authorities have said, knew Ochoa's beautiful wife, but did not know each other. Judge Margalli yesterday failed to stop for all time any attempt to try Ochoa in Mexico in the slayings. Margalli said he wanted more proof from Texas officials regarding the murders.

SHERMAN HAS WALKOUT

Brief Dallas Phone Strike Over Today

By The Associated Press Dallas telephone workers went back to their jobs Tuesday, ending a brief walkout that snarled long distance communications. Between 1,200 and 2,000 workers left Southwestern Bell exchanges in Dallas at noon Monday. But a full crew of 50 reported for the midnight shift, and a company spokesman said all workers were back on the job Tuesday morning. A walkout of about 30 workers of the Texas Telephone Co. had tied up phone communications in Sherman for about an hour and a half Monday. All workers were at their posts Tuesday. A fuss over a former employee hired again by Southwestern Bell caused the Dallas trouble, both sides said. A Southwestern Bell spokesman said company and union negotiators met Monday night and would meet again Tuesday. He said he did not know why the employees returned to work. "All we know is they're back," he said. Union comment was not available Tuesday morning. The 30 Sherman workers—local and long distance operators—walked off the job in what also was reported to be a disagreement about an employee. E. H. Danner, president of Texas Telephone Co., said the union asked several days ago that a service assistant employee be relieved of her duties. It wasn't known why. Danner said the operators returned to work with the understanding that R. W. Staley, union representative from Dallas, would go to Sherman to discuss the situation with company officials. Union officials said Monday the Dallas walkout was "a spontaneous movement by the workers" and was not a called strike. Southwestern Bell Division Manager Ray Acker said it was a revolt against rehiring the former employee "and completely unnecessary and unjustified." Grievance procedures had not been exhausted, Acker said. T. E. Webb, Texas director for the CIO Communication Workers of America, said the union felt rehiring of the employee involved had "violated the spirit of the contract." Acker said, "The strike is the result of the company's action last December in re-engaging an employee who after an absence of three months was placed in the position which she had held for almost five years." Supervisory employees were assigned immediately to switchboards Monday when the Dallas walkout began but calls quickly fell behind.

Tax Case Of Ex-Galveston Police Chief Set For Jury

AUSTIN (AP)—A jury was expected to get the Fred Ford tax evasion case today after the former Galveston police chief's lawyers used only 12 minutes to present his defense. Arguments were set to begin in the case when court opened today. The federal court jury yesterday heard three character witnesses testify in Ford's behalf after listening since last Thursday to a parade of state witnesses tell how much money Ford spent. The prosecution closed its case shortly after noon yesterday after a Galveston house of prostitution "madam" testified she made payoffs to the island city's police department while Ford was chief. The woman, Mrs. Margaret Lera, testified she operated the house and made regular $100 monthly payments from 1945 to June 1947. She testified necessity of the payoffs ceased when Ford's term ended. Another witness, realtor E. C. Clawson, said Ford bought an $18,000 home between Dec. 7, 1946, and March 7, 1947, by making four cash payments. U. S. Atty. Charles Herring has concentrated on Ford's spending during 1947 when the government claims the former police official received $30,000 but reported only $1,507.10. The three witnesses who testified as to Ford's character were Edward Schreiber, merchant; James W. McIlwain, auto dealer, and R. C. Jahn, insurance agent, all of Galveston. Earlier, the government put Mrs. Helen Luhn, Lake Jackson, La., on the stand. She testified she had gone out frequently with Ford on dates during 1945, and 1946 and 1947. He said nobody charged them at clubs. "The drinks were on the house because of his position," she explained. Asked if they gambled at the clubs, she said yes and added: "Some times we won, sometimes we lost. We probably came out even." In all, the government says Ford failed to report $41,000 income during the period including 1945, 1946 and 1947. He was Galveston police chief during the period.

PARSONS

(Continued from Page 1) Dallas since shortly after the shooting except for court appearances. Mrs. Parsons shot to death Army Lt. Richard O. Parsons, 24, Pleasantville, N. Y., in their El Paso apartment Feb. 16, 1952. After a jury found her sane, the case was moved here for trial. Throughout the lengthy proceedings, the battery of defense attorneys hinged their case on insanity. They contended Mrs. Parsons went insane at the time of the shooting and did not know right from wrong. The prosecution maintained she was a "spoiled brat" and murdered her husband of six weeks in cold blood. Six new witnesses, plus the father, were used by Dist. Atty. Will Clayton, El Paso, in the attempt to knock down the defense story. A seventh witness—reportedly a woman who was in Hawaii at the time Mary Jean and her parents were on the vacation—was not used. Disclosure of the Fleeger flying trip to the islands over the Christmas-New Year period came as a bomb shell to the packed courtroom. Defense attorneys protested vigorously and repeatedly, and at one time Fleeger turned to Judge Arthur Tipps and asked if he had to answer the questions. The father, obviously flustered under the steady questioning by the El Paso prosecutor, brought out these facts: He, Mrs. Fleeger and Mary Jean left Dallas Nov. 18, 1952, and visited the Gulf Coast area around Mobile, Ala. Shortly before Christmas, they left Mobile and flew from San Francisco to Hawaii. On Dec. 19, 1952, they registered at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu, returning by plane to Los Angeles Jan. 12, 1953—two weeks before the trial opened. Fleeger said Mary Jean then returned to Timberlawn, a private mental sanitarium in Dallas. "I arranged the entire trip and it was my suggestion," the short, balding father said. "She had been in the hospital about 10 months—and doctors didn't allow us to see her except for a couple of hours on Sundays. "The doctors felt and I felt she needed some sunshine and perhaps some ocean water." Joe Parrish, El Paso Times photographer, and two photographs published in the Times May 28, 1952, after the sanity hearing also figured in the rebuttal. Parrish, in identifying the "before and after pictures," said one was taken of Mary Jean about 30 minutes before the El Paso jury declared her sane, and the second was taken about five to 15 minutes following the verdict. The pictures were introduced in an effort to show that she had the emotions of a "legally sane" person. Only twice during the trial has she changed from her air of apparent disinterest. Once she began weeping softly, and court was given a five-minute recess; another time she went to her mother's side after Mrs. Fleeger had collapsed in sobs on the witness stand.

Sentence Is Given In Defrauding Case

Elton O. Grant received two sentences of 30-days each in county court today on charges of defrauding with worthless checks. County Judge R. H. Weaver said the terms would run consecutively, meaning Grant will be in jail 60 days. Grant was arrested in South Texas and transferred here by sheriff's deputies Sunday. Grant pleaded guilty in court today, but he told Judge Weaver that he could not remember writing all the checks. He said he was close to "alcoholic insanity" at the time.

County Dads Discuss New Sheriff's Auto

Howard County Commissioners were in overtime session this morning considering the purchase of a new automobile for the sheriff's department. A special built police type Ford has already been ordered, but Sheriff Jess Slaughter made application for a second automobile. Commissioners were opening bids today. Those present included Earl Hill, Pete Thomas, Arthur Stallings and Ralph Proctor. Old automobiles will be traded in on the new ones, they said. Since the Ford will be some time in delivery, commissioners said a new car is needed now.

Big Spring police knew of no guitar being stolen here recently.

Jayhawks, Amarillo College Mix In Badger Lair Tonight

HC Will Gun For 19th Win

The HCJC Jayhawks 'go for broke' tonight. They'll be in Amarillo where they test the championship mettle of Bob Carter's JC Badgers in an important West Zone cage clash. Game time is 8 o'clock.

A win would just about give them their third straight Zone crown and a trip to the Texas Junior College Conference tournament at Denton.

A loss would cut them down to size in Zone play. It wouldn't eliminate them from zone competition, but by any means, but would make their task infinitely more complex.

The Hawks may have a tiger by the tail in this one. The Badgers are fighting mad after getting knocked off by an upstart Clarendon outfit last week.

The locals will be battling a big jinx. They've never beaten Amarillo in Amarillo and they've taken care time northward in the past.

The locals won't be at full strength. Casey Jones suffered an ankle injury against McMurry last week and can't go at full speed. He'll probably see action against the Badgers, however.

HCJC will be seeking its 19th win of the season in this one. They've won three zone outings in as many starts.

The Hawks will stay over to play Clarendon in Clarendon Wednesday night. The Bulldogs pose no easy problem, as witness the upset in Amarillo.

Big Tom Boyd, 6-foot-8 of him, will lead the Badgers against HC. Others in the Amarillo lineup include Bobby Hudson, perhaps the club's best all-around performer; Morris Estess, Bill Orr, Luke Dorough, Bo Oliver, Don Rasco, Sleek Ellis and Red Meyers.

Coach Harold Davis of the locals will go with his regular lineup, which has Charley Warren, Dallas Williams, Bobby Maines and Ricketts Gilmore, in addition to Jones, Don Stevens will spell Jones.

There'll be a B string game, beginning at 6:15 pm.

Amarillo Mentor
Coach of the Amarillo Badgers, who host the HCJC Jayhawks in an important West Zone basketball game tonight, is Bob Carter (above.)

Phillips Tire Company's crack basketball team moved nearer the YMCA Industrial League crown by trouncing the Dibrell's Sporting Goods quintet, 44-36, here Monday night.

Bob Parkin paced the Tiremen to victory, stuffing 21 points through the hoop. Frank Hardesty led Dibrell's with 18.

In other games, the Independents upset Toby's Medics, 35-33, and Coca-Cola sped to a 49-32 decision over the Knott Hill Billies.

Martin led the Independents with 19 points. For the losers, Deffio waxed warmest with nine points.

Floyd Martin and D. A. Miller counted 27 points between them in leading Coca-Cola to victory. Bobby Beall collected 15 for Knott.

Chicago Fight Fans Buzzing

By JACK HAND

CHICAGO (AP)—Cuban Kid Gavilan, a confident 12-5 favorite, is looking past tomorrow's writer title defense against Chuck Davay to an excursion into the middleweight ranks.

In the camp of unbeaten Davey, the Michigan State graduate with the near-perfect record of 37 wins and two draws in 39 pro fights, things are tense. Nerves are growing more taut. Handsome Chuck is on edge.

This sprawling metropolis boils with fight fever. Cab drivers sing Davey's praise. Professional bettors respect Gavilan's proven class. An advance sale of $210,000 is reported by the International Boxing Club's Trumair Gibson, keeper of the Chicago Stadium treasury. TV salesmen offer a $25.00 rights fee for free at 10:00 p.m. EST, on the CBS network.

The gym work is finished. Gavilan belted over spar mate Al Niansyan with a left to the body yesterday in his final workout at the Midwest.

A. C. Davey, already under the 147-pound class limit, took a hike through Lincoln Park.

Otis Douglass New Baltimore Coach

BALTIMORE (AP)—Newest addition to the staff of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League is Otis Douglass, former Philadelphia Eagles tackle and coach at Drexel and Arkansas.

Don Kalkett, Colts general manager, announced Douglass joined the organization yesterday as a coach and will also see duty as a trainer and scout. Douglass played college football at William and Mary.

Chandler Harper Wins Top Laurels In El Paso Meet

EL PASO (AP)—All the golfers on the winter tour had departed today with Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., taking first money of $2,000 in the $10,000 El Paso Open along with him to San Antonio where he will play in the $10,000 Texas Open.

Harper won an 18-hole playoff yesterday from Ted Kroil of New Hartford, N. Y. Kroil got second money of $1,400.

As the golfers departed, the El Paso Country Club was debating whether to hold a tournament next year. A profit was made from this year's event but it was filled with controversy as some of the top players withdrew in protest over the condition of the course.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The pass interference rule change in football isn't nearly as radical as it was first reported, according to Fritz Crisler. Crisler should know. He is chairman of the football rules committee of the NCAA, which outlawed two-platoon ball and doctored other statutes at a recent meeting in Washington.

According to Crisler, the only change in the regulation calls for an automatic first down in every case of interference on the part of the defensive team.

First reports indicated a new rule penalizing the defensive team only as many yards as the offensive team needed to make a first down.

As it stands now, the new rule will penalize the defensive interferer by giving the offensive team the ball and a first down at the spot of the foul. Last fall, a first down was not awarded on the same infraction unless the necessary yardage was gained.

TENNESSEE TO BE NO BOWL PRIZE THIS YEAR

Tennessee probably won't be a bowl prize next fall, even should it win all its football games.

Bob Maynard, who books the schedule for the Vols, is observing an old policy in lining up a card with a breather every now and then.

The Tennesseans will probably play Wofford, among others, next fall.

Purdue and Army will replace Washington and Lee and SMU on Duke's 1953 grid schedule, by the way.

When Pamps upped and signed Ted Pawelek as its 1953 baseball manager, it improved Big Spring's chances of signing a veteran the Broncs have been seeking.

The fellow was an applicant for the Pamps job.

Tony York, who is a cousin to the ex-Big Springer, Peppy Blount, will manage Crowley in the Evangelical League the coming season.

Bill Sharman, who's a nephew to Our Town's Mrs. Billy Power, had himself quite a night for the Boston Celtics in a National Basketball Association game played recently.

Playing against Syracuse, Bill—who was born in Abilene—hit 13 field goals in 18 attempts and six of eight free tosses at the Celtics raced to a 105-92 win.

Sharman is the same lad who will go to spring baseball drills with the Brooklyn Dodgers. He used to play with the Fort Worth Cats.

Spot Collins intends to launch spring football drills at Vernon about two weeks from yesterday.

Collins' biggest job will be to find a replacement for Ramon Towry, a great all-around back, who almost led the Lions to a District I-AAA championship in 1952.

DEL MAR, WHARTON RUNNING BEHIND VICTORIA

Both Del Mar and Wharton, which competed in the Howard College Basketball Tournament here the first of the year, are running behind in the South Texas Conference race. Victoria JC is the top rated outfit down there.

Del Mar's chances to get anywhere diminished recently when one of the Viking regulars, Hollis Neese, became scholastically ineligible. Neese had beaten out Arlie O'Bryant, who won all-tournament honors here, for a regular berth on the team.

Yearling Teams Lose Two Tilts

Colorado City Junior High School basketball teams succeeded in taking two out of three games from local quintets here Monday evening.

The Eighth Grade Yearlings of Big Spring salvaged something from the invasion, winning a 49-30 decision over the Wolf Cubs. In that one, Marvin Wooten scored 11 points, B. Bice ten and Buddy Martin nine for Big Spring.

The Big Spring Ninth Graders played one of their best games but lost a 40-35 verdict. Charles Johnson had 12 points and Charley Saunders ten for Big Spring in that one.

Colorado City's Seventh Graders copped a 23-20 decision in the first game. Wes Grigby led Big Spring with nine points.

Did Bevo Save Rio Grande College?

RIO GRANDE, O. (AP)—Clarence (Bevo) Francis, basketball's point-making phenomenon from Rio Grande College, may boost the little southern Ohio school over the financial barrier that threatened to close its doors.

Last fall the college could boast only 94 students—and President Charles E. Davis admitted this year might be the last.

But after 30 consecutive victories and the fabulous Francis' 50-point per game average, Davis says "the outlook for Rio Grande College is very encouraging."

Rio Grande won its 30th game last night against Cedarville College, 104-48, with Bevo's 51 points boosting his season's total to 1,513.

"We have had many requests for information about the school and the request for applications exceeded the number we had all of last year," Davis says.

VERNON STEPHENS
... From Sox To Tex

Vern Stephens To Wear White Sox Toggery

BOSTON (AP)—The era of the Boston Red Sox' famous "friendly left field fence" faded into baseball history today with the departure of slugger Vern Stephens.

The chunky infielder was traded to the Chicago White Sox yesterday in exchange for pitchers Marv Grissom, Hector (Skinny) Brown and Bill Kennedy. No cash was involved.

Only Don DiMaggio remains of the long-ball hitting Red Sox lineup that earned the name of "The Sockers." He alone is left from the 1946 American League pennant winners.

Boston fans who loved to watch their heroes bang the ball off the short (315 feet) left field wall have seen the sluggers disappear in the last 18 months.

Bobby Doerr, team captain, heavy hitter and clutch slugger, retired after the 1951 season.

Ted Williams was recalled last May as a U. S. Marine Corps pilot and now is in Korea. He'll be 35 in October and whether he'll don Red Sox fannels again is anybody's guess.

Last season Johnny Pesky, a consistent if not lengthy hitter, was traded to Detroit along with Walt Dropo—a slugging first baseman.

Boston General Manager Joe Cronin said of the deal:

"The White Sox are shooting for the pennant. Having traded Ed Robinson to the Athletics for Ferris Fain, they needed a long-ball hitter in their lineup."

"They've been angling for Stephens for some time but only yesterday did they offer what we considered sufficient talent for him in the way of pitching."

Cronin said the Red Sox needed burlers "with major league experience."

Olson Is Sought For London Go

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A middleweight championship bout in London for coronation week is the goal of English Promoter Jack Solomons, who conferred here yesterday with the ranking American contender, Carl (Bobo) Olson of San Francisco.

Solomons would match Olson against Randy Turpin, former titleholder, for June 9, and says he is sure the match would be recognized for the world championship. Turpin was set to box Ray Robinson before Robinson retired.

The meeting here yesterday between Solomons and Olson's manager, Sid Flaherty, produced nothing tangible except that Solomons scotched Flaherty's proposal for a two-bout "series" between Turpin and Olson, the first bout to be in San Francisco, and other in London.

Mangrum and Demaret Lead Linksters To San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Just about everybody who's top-flight in professional golf was in the field today as a $4,000 pro-amateur was staged as a forerunner of the $10,000 Texas Open.

Lloyd Mangrum, the year's leading money-winner; Julius Boros, National Open champion; Jim Turnesa, National PGA titlist; Tommy Bolt, Jimmy Demaret and Chandler Harper, tournament winners along the winter tour, and most of the other shotmakers of note moved into San Antonio to make this Texas Open the classiest ever.

The Open starts Thursday but there will be qualifying rounds today by 165 non-exempt players. There will get places in the Open. There are 110 exempt players.

Demaret was the star yesterday as he laid down a seven-under-par

Engineers To Sub For Sul Ross In Forsan Battle

FORSAN — The Sul Ross B team will not be able to make it here for its game with the HCJC Jayhawks the night of Tuesday, Feb. 17, but the sponsoring organization, the Forsan Service Club, has a better attraction to offer.

The Hawks instead will meet the rugged Rotary Engineers, which tangled with the famed Harlem Globetrotters in Odessa recently.

Among those playing with the Engineers are Bennie Rutherford, Rogers, ex-Amarillo College star and later a standout at Texas Western; Eldon Hopkins, Leland Huffman and others.

The Engineers boast one of the best won-lost records in West Texas and should give the Hawks a real test.

The game is being played for the March of Dimes, with all proceeds being turned over to the local drive. Tickets for the contest are being sold by members of the Forsan Service Club and at local business houses. They are selling for $1 adult and 25 cents children.

Forsan and Garden City high school teams will play a preliminary game, starting at about 7:15 p. m.

TEXAS IS FAVORED

Longhorns, Cadets Collide Tonight

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

The University of Texas Longhorns will try to regain a share of the Southwest Conference basketball lead Tuesday night against their traditional foe, Texas A&M's Cadets.

The second-place Longhorns, tied with a 4-2 record with TCU, will be favored over the four-time loser Aggies.

In another game, leading Baylor invades Dallas for a game with Southern Methodist, loser of all six of its conference starts. A loss by the Bears, not outside the realm of possibility, and a win for Texas would put the Steers in firm control of the leadership.

Monday night, the Arkansas Razorbacks—pre-season favorites to finish high in the standings—skidded out of conference contention when Rice's Owls whipped them, 70-45, in the Owls' easiest loop win of the season.

Defending Champion Texas Christian, at the same time, was walloping Abilene Christian College of the Texas Conference, 68-49, in a non-conference setto.

The Owls trailed through most of the first quarter against Arkansas, but with two minutes left, Gene Schwinger, Monte Robicheaux, and Buzzy Bryan sent them into a 16-15 lead. The Porkers lost their eyes in the second period, hitting only two of 19 field goal attempts, while the Owls rolled on to a 32-31 half-time lead.

Schwinger was high-point man in the tussle with 24 tallies garnered with seven field goals and 10 charities.

Henry Ohlen and Ray Warren teamed to whip ACC at Abilene. Warren sank 23 points and Ohlen shot in 22. Between them, they controlled both backboards until they left the game late in the final quarter.

ACC kept within six points of the Frogs until the third quarter when the Christians began pulling away, chiefly on free throws.

It's Seton Hall Again In Poll

NEW YORK (AP)—Undefeated Seton Hall, riding the crest of a 22-game winning streak, was voted top basketball team in the land today for the fourth straight week.

The Pirates from South Orange, N. J., stretching their reign as No. 1 team to the longest by any team this season, were picked as tops by 32 of the 75 sportswriters and broadcasters in the poll. On the usual basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second and so forth, Seton Hall totaled 596 points.

Also for the fourth week in succession, Indiana stormed in behind Seton Hall with Washington again taking third. Indiana, which whipped Wisconsin, 66-48, last night for the Hoosiers' 10th straight in the Big Ten, was voted first on nine ballots and had 504 points. Washington had 10 firsts and 485 points.

La Salle held fourth place this week, one jump ahead of Illinois, which trounced Michigan last night, 92-62.

Steers Invade Mustang Gym

The Big Spring High School Steers take on a basketball toughie this evening, invading Sweetwater for a go at the resident Mustangs. Game time is 8 o'clock.

B teams of the two schools will square away at 6:15 p. m.

Big Spring is winless in seven conference starts and the decided underdog in this one. Sweetwater is fighting for the conference lead and needs the win to remain in the race. The Ponies have won three of six conference starts.

In other conference action, Vernon goes to Plainview and Lamesa hosts Snyder.

Before entering the service in March 1952, Pfc. Berry was active in high school and college sports. A 1948 graduate, he lettered in basketball and football at Big Spring High School.

Texas Ranks 26th In Salary To Teachers

AUSTIN. — There seems to be little doubt here that teachers will be granted some kind of salary increase.

The hullabaloo boils down to how much the increases will be, and how they will be paid.

With this in mind, it is pertinent to note how those states which pay more than Texas manage to do so.

Most of these 25 states which pay more than Texas have tax structures quite different from our own. On their law books are levies which Texas have heretofore been reluctant to employ — state sales taxes, state income taxes, both permitting municipal sales taxes, and assorted levies on such operations as soft drink sales, pari-mutuel betting, and even gambling permits.

According to a file prepared by the Texas Legislative Council based upon the 1952 edition of Commerce Clearing House's "Tax Systems," many states which do not have a sales tax as such have one which in effect is the same.

The National Education Association ranks Texas 26th in average salaries paid classroom teachers in 1951-52. The Texas average is $2,900.

New York is first, with $4,500. New York's tax structure allows cities to collect sales taxes, and the state itself levies personal and corporation income taxes, as well as deriving money from horse race betting and tolls on highway use.

After New York, the states rank as follows in the amounts they pay their teachers: California, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Michigan, Washington, Arizona, Massachusetts, Oregon, Illinois, New Mexico, Indiana, Rhode Island, Nevada, Montana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Wisconsin, Utah, Louisiana, Florida, Oklahoma, and Iowa.

Of these 25 states, 16 have some form of sales tax, four permit cities to levy sales taxes. Fourteen follow the federal government's practice of skimming off some of your income, and 15 collect income taxes on corporate earnings.

While Texas ranks 26th in the average salary it pays teachers, it ranks fourth in the total aid to schools, according to the latest available statistics.

This means that while the Texas teacher nets less than her sisters in 25 other states, the State of Texas is contributing more state aid to education than all the states of the union except California, Pennsylvania and Michigan.

And on a per capita basis, Texas ranks 10th in state aid to education, giving more, for instance, than New York and almost as much as California.

This can only mean that in many of the 25 states which are paying their teachers more than we do local school districts are doing a better job of picking up the check than Texas districts are doing.

Pentagon Aides Worried About Blockade Help

By C. YATES MCDANIEL
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The possibility that a China blockade might fail if it did not have the full support of this nation's allies worries some Pentagon officials as much as the chance that it might extend the Korean War.

Even officials who have steadfastly opposed the blockade idea, currently gaining increasing support in Congress, agree that it should be militarily effective if imposed by the U. S. Navy, the largest in the world.

But those who favor a blockade agree that international complications could doom such an action to partial failure.

At the heart of these complications are two problems: By tradition and trade practices, China is tied with other Asia states. The coast of China is not 100 per cent Chinese.

There is the case of Ceylon, a member of the British Commonwealth. Ceylon has a long-term agreement with Red China, calling for exchange of Ceylon rubber for Chinese rice.

If the U. S. should intercept shipments of rubber from Ceylon to China, the Communists could be expected to halt exports of rice to Ceylon. The question would then arise: Who would pay Ceylon for the seized rubber, and who would supply her with the rice she needs?

An even more difficult problem is that presented by the British crown colony of Hong Kong on the coast of South China.

Hong Kong is a middleman's port. Formerly much of the trade arriving there was trans-shipped for movement into other Chinese ports.

Goods shipped to Hong Kong normally were consigned to some British or British-approved firm, and would therefore be difficult to intercept before reaching Hong Kong.

The tightest naval blockade of China probably could not plug this gap unless the British wanted it plugged. This is true because the mainland section of the colony is the terminus of a branch railroad which connects with the Chinese rail system.

Aerial Quartet Is Injured In A Fall

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Four women aerialists, billed as human butterflies, plunged 30 feet to the ground yesterday when a cable holding them aloft snapped like a match. All escaped with minor injuries.

Equipped with big, fanning butterfly wings, the circus performers dropped with a peculiar slowness as the wings acted like parachutes to slow their descent.

The injured: Dolly Green, 16, South Gate, Calif.; Ora Egleman, 20, Watonga, Okla.; Dorothy Pina, 26, Tampa, Fla.; and Elaine Miller, 20, Los Angeles.

Oregon Felon Riot Is Over; Bomb Blasts Wash. Prison

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — A short-lived rebellion was put down at the State Prison last night and five guards seized as hostages were released unharmed.

Warden Virgil J. O'Malley said no prison property was damaged.

The five unarmed guards were seized as they entered the segregation cell block to serve evening meals. One of the rebellious convicts—all segregated for continued violation of prison rules—was armed with an improvised knife.

The guards were pushed into a cell and held there. Then the convicts released five prisoners in the adjoining isolation section. Ten convicts in isolation refused to join the rebellion.

Some 50 guards, armed with rifles and tear gas guns, surrounded the cell block. Convicts in other sections of the 1,500-inmate prison, locked up for the night, remained calm throughout the disturbance.

The prisoners called O'Malley to the cell door and presented their demands:

1. Extension of their exercise period from the present 2½ hours to three hours.
2. Regular sentences for time re-

Wind Rips Freight Cars From Tracks

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — An east wind, siphoning down the steep narrow canyons of the Wasatch Mountains, blew freight cars from their track, whipped several trailers from their towing units and did other widespread damage in Northern Utah yesterday.

There were no injuries in the train derailment, but an Idaho couple was injured when a truck-trailer unit was torn from its cab directly in the path of their auto.

Thirteen empty cars of a north-bound Union Pacific train were derailed at Kayville, midway between Salt Lake City and Ogden.

The winds were officially clocked at 70 miles per hour at Hill Air Force Base near Ogden and probably reached higher velocities near canyon mouths.

Hoover Is Improved

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover was reported "much improved" in St. Francis Hospital today after a mild attack of influenza. His physician insisted on a couple more days of rest.

Nominees Revealed For Academy Awards

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Final campaigning began today for the 25th annual Academy Awards, highlighted by a tight race between two stage actresses and three movie stars.

Two leading nominees for the best actress Oscar were Shirley Booth, the humdrum housewife of "Come Back, Little Sheba," and Julie Harris, the eager adolescent of "The Member of the Wedding."

They opposed Joan Crawford, the terror-stricken playwright in "Sudden Fear"; Bette Davis, the fading actress of "The Star"; and Susan Hayward, who portrayed singer Jane Froman in "With a Song in My Heart."

Certain to figure in the campaign was the argument that the stage actresses had the advantage of playing their roles hundreds of times in the theater. Still, Miss Booth appeared to be the favorite.

Gary Cooper, veteran of 25 years in the movies, was favored for leading man honors over a field of four relative newcomers. He was cited for his role as the dutiful sheriff in "High Noon." Opposing him are Marlon Brando, the Mexican revolutionary in "Viva Zapata!"; Kirk Douglas, ruthless film producer in "The Bad and the Beautiful"; Jose Ferrer as the artist Toulouse-Lautrec in "Moulin Rouge"; and versatile Alec Guinness in "The Lavender Hill Mob."

Nominated for the best picture award were: "The Greatest Show on Earth," "High Noon," "Ivanhoe," "Moulin Rouge" and "The Quiet Man."

Other major nominations were: Best supporting actor — Richard Burton in "My Cousin Rachel"; Arthur Hunnicutt in "The Big Sky"; Victor McLaglen in "The Quiet Man"; Jack Palance in "Sudden Fear"; Anthony Quinn in "Viva Zapata!"

Best supporting actress—Gloria Grahame in "The Bad and the Beautiful"; Jean Hagen in "Singin' in the Rain"; Colette Marchand in "Moulin Rouge"; Terry Moore in "Come Back, Little Sheba"; Thelma Ritter in "With a Song in My Heart."

Best directing—Joseph L. Mankiewicz for "Five Fingers"; Cecil B. de Mille for "The Greatest Show on Earth"; Fred Zinnemann for "High Noon"; John Huston for "Moulin Rouge"; John Ford for "The Quiet Man."

Truman Popular In His Last Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — As President Truman was preparing to leave office he got letters saying he was "so right it's almost uncanny" and that his administration was "the poorest excuse for government in history."

He got letters asking for loans of money and for help in getting named homecoming queen. He got suggestions for a piano - playing partner and for a match for daughter Margaret.

And he got, in his last three months in the White House, 6,647 letters telling him what a good

Steps Taken To Halt Spread Of Bollworm

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Representatives of nine cotton producing states decided yesterday to string a series of border patrol stations around the eastern half of Texas to prevent the northward and eastward spread of the pink bollworm.

Fifteen stations will be operated on a 24-hour basis to prevent tourists and cotton pickers from carrying the pink bollworm from infested areas of Texas into Louisiana, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Taking part in the meeting were representatives from Texas, Louisiana.

Most wines are of a type which do not improve with age.
