We have received many cute comments about our recent, big 68 page Anniversary Paper. However, one of the cutest things came recently from Mrs. Bonnie Haber.

The story goes, that she called her son and family (Ted and Irene) in Ames, Nebraska, and while conversing with Ted, she asked him how he liked the big paper? Ted asked kinda puzzled like, "What big paper?" She answered, "Our big 40th Anniversary Paper of course." He said, "I didn't get one." She said, "Well, I don't know why, you get the Earth paper don't you?" "Yes, every Sunday," came the reply. She asked if he had been to the Post Office. Sure enough he'd just come from there. She informed him then he should have surely seen it, it was 68 pages. He thought for a minute and said, "I got a big Sunday edition from Chicago or somewhere. I didn't even look it over, just threw it in the waste paper basket at the Post Office." But after her telling him how big it was, he jumped in the car and went back to the Post Office and in the waste paper basket, he found his Earth News-Sun. They took it home, and both Ted and Irene enjoyed reading about their family and friends, who were builders of Earth.

Our two, Polly Jr. and Phil went to Dallas last weekend to see the fair and of course take in the Texas-Oklahoma game.

Even though they are normally great pals, the way everyone in Dallas was keyed up Friday and Saturday night, it's a thousand wonders they hadn't just murdered each other before returning home, because when it comes to Texas and Oklahoma one is a full fledged Texan, having started to school in Texas in the second grade, and the other has never seemed to forget Okie land, "and has somehow continued through the years to call it the favored homeland."

However, they somehow managed to come home together, and each came in waving a large felt pennant. . . of course one was orange while the other was red.

To farther show my sons devotion to T. U., in my office, I have orange striped drapes and an orange rug. . . colors suggested of course by Phil, who also bought me an orange gown for Christmas last year. . . wonder what I'll get this year? One thing for sure, it will be ORANGE!!

The two best things to come out of this forthcoming election so far, in my estimation is that Lady Bird Johnson has been forced to patch up the roofs, and floors, and prop up the porches of those poor tenants on her farm land in Tennessee. . . As it became known that her own tenants were living in run down shacks, with holes in the roofs and floors. . . and the poor Johnsons with 9 million dollars, saying they wanted to stamp out poverty. . . Somehow, it just doesn't figure up. . . ACTION SPEAKS LOUDER THAN WORDS.

The second thing is, that the Russians may be forced to pay up, or at least make one payment on that 15 million dollar debt to the United Nations or have their voting privileges cancelled. . . This came about since Goldwater has campaigned, saying he believed they should pay up or forfeit their voting privileges.

The November issue of "Ford Times" carried the following, PICK ANY NAME- There's a Dime Box and Muleshoe, Circle Back and Baby Head, Fair Play and Necessity, Pancake and Paradise. All are towns in Texas. So are EARTH, Venus, Mars, Mercury and Saturn. In another category are China, Egypt, Erin, Holland, India, Ireland, Italy, Macedonia, Scotland and Turkey. There are many more intriguing names in Texas, as you might well expect from a state which has both Uncertain and Utopia within its borders!!!

Officials Get Confession From Burglar

Gilbert Aguirre, 17 year old Spanish-American youth confessed to the burglary of the Earth Oil and Gas Company, which he said took place shortly after 1:00 a. m. Monday.

The confession came before noon Wednesday, following his arrest Tuesday about 9:30 p. m. by Deputy Sheriff, Tom Finley and City Marshal Clarence Hazlett. The local law officials were acting on information that Aguirre, who had been in trouble before when he lived in Springlake, for a few months, had checked into the Earth Hotel at 9:30 p. m. Monday.

The youth made his confession to City Marshal, Hazlett and led him to the old shack located in the rear of the Earth Hotel where he recovered the $68.15 in cash, and two green stamp books taken from the station. He had hid it in a cigar box beneath the floor of the old building.

The youth, in giving his confession, said he checked into the Earth Hotel about 9:30 p. m. Monday. He gave the time as shortly past 1 a. m. when he crawled out the side window of his hotel room, so no one would see him leave, and crossed the street where he entered the station by breaking out the rear window, and climbing through. He said he separated the cash from the checks and left the checks in the cash box, placing it inside a desk, taking only the cash and stamps. He went on to say, he hid the money in a cigar box beneath the small shack in the rear of the Hotel, and climbed back into his room the way he had gone out.

He was transferred to the Lamb County Jail in Littlefield, Wednesday afternoon, where he will be tried in the County Court for theft and burglary when the court convenes.

The youth is thought to be from Colorado.

County Bale Count To October 9, Approximately 575

The cotton harvest is underway in Lamb County. Although the cotton production total is small, the first tabulation issued by the Texas Employment Commission listed 575 bales ginned by the approximately forty gins as of Friday, October 9.

This year's total is believed to be ahead of the same date last year. The first ginning survey by the Littlefield TEC office was not made until October 17, 1963, with a listing of 1,269 bales. On October 17, 1962, ginning totals were 3,510 bales.

The Olton area announced 300 bales have been ginned there. There is an acute shortage of cotton pullers. This is a major factor in the bale total reported on the 1964 crop. Wages for cotton pullers remain about the same as last year.

As was the case last year, a majority of farmers will machine pull their cotton. It is expected that ginning totals will remain light until after the first freeze, when machines will start harvesting the cotton.

Meanwhile, the county's 1964 cotton production estimate remains at 180,000 bales, making it the third largest cotton producing county on the plains.

Farmers are saying, "We need a frost about the first of November and we surely hope it stays dry until then."

There are some farmers who have started defoliating, while others are waiting to let nature take its course. Continued sunshine is keeping a rosy glow on the cotton potential, and bringing the grain harvest to a close.

Four Generations Gather For Pictures Recently

In the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCord, four generations were present recently for a photograph. They were, as follows: Mrs. Almer (McCool) Barton, Mrs. Mildred (Barton) Haley, Mrs. Barta (Haley) Been, and Carrie Dawn Been.

The A. C. Bartons moved here in 1920. Mrs. Barton was born and reared in Wise County, Texas near Boyd. She taught school previously to raising her family of three sons, Weldon, Ardis, and Melvin; and two daughters, Mildred, and Gladys, all of whom have college degrees.

Mildred (Barton) Haley was one year old when she was introduced to the Plains. Mildred and Edd have two children, Barta and Brad. She had taught school intermittently in the Springlake Schools for seventeen years, as well as in Muleshoe, Vega, and Lubbock schools.

Mildred and Edd lived in California when Edd was in the service. Barta (Haley) was born in California, and she and her parents moved here when she was two years old. She attended the Springlake Schools through Junior High, and Monterey High School in Lubbock, where she received her degree prior to entering Texas Tech.

Carrie Dawn Been, daughter of Barta and Marvin Been, now two years old was born in California, and moved to Earth when she was approximately three weeks old.

Four generations of lovely Bartons, Haleys, and Beens, of whom Earth is proud to claim as one of its outstanding families.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ellis left Tuesday morning to spend several days in Galveston.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. Dora Terry is her cousin, Mrs. Della Jones, of California.

One sixth of our population does not have a salable vocational skill, and the number of the unskilled jobs available is dropping rapidly. Communism finds a fertile field for development in this group which earns less than $100 monthly.

Some of the innovations in education which may assist in meeting this challenge are the ungraded primary with a readiness program departmentalization in the elementary school,

USDA Announces Opening Of Classing Offices

The seasonal Cotton Classing Offices at Brownfield and Lamesa will open on Monday, October 12th, according to W. K. Palmer, Officer-in-Charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Palmer also announced that Wilburn Reeves will be in charge of the Brownfield Office, and Joe Brevard will head the Lamesa office.

The Brownfield and Lamesa Offices are opening later this year because of the slow start in harvesting. Total samples classed this year at the Lubbock Office through Wednesday, October 7th was 10,600. This compares with 15,900 samples classed at the three offices by the same date last season. Harvesting has increased considerably the past week with 7,400 samples.

The quality of the cotton received at the Lubbock Office so far this year has been very good. Approximately 65 per cent of the cotton received graded Middling or better, and the average staple length was 31/32 inch. Micronaire readings also have been high with approximately 95 per cent being 3.5 and better.

Fiber strength tests, as indicated by Pressley readings in cooperation with the Texas Tech Fiber Laboratory, showed approximately 80 per cent of the cotton tested to be above average.

The USDA's agriculture marketing service reports that very few bales of new crop cotton has been sold, but prices being paid averaged about 50 points over CCC Loan Rates. Prices to farmers for cotton seed, in standard grades, were reported at 45 to 47 dollars per ton.

Many Infants Have Poor Pre-Natal Care

Modern medicine has done much to assure that today's babies get off to a good start in life. However, not all Texas babies have the opportunity for as safe and healthy a start as medical science can now provide, says Patsy Reynolds, Extension specialist in family life education.

A recent study by the Texas State Office for Mental Health Planning has revealed some startling statistics, she says.

There were 10,809 midwife deliveries made in Texas in 1962 the study reveals. In one county, more than 50 percent of the deliveries were made by midwives.

"Many of the mothers have complications in pregnancy or delivery which may result in damage to the child. We know that mental retardation is significantly higher where maternity care is frequently inadequate," Miss Reynolds says.

Lifetime care for one retarded child costs the state approximately $100,000, according to an estimate by Dr. Fred Crawford, Research Chief with the Office of Mental Health Planning.

"In terms of both dollars and cents and human misery, we can't afford mental retardation. Every citizen should watch for the report and recommendations of the Mental Health Planning committee. We must help people to recognize and understand the importance of adequate pre-natal care," the specialist says.

Cotton Farmers Can Fight Pink Bollworms, Boll Weevils

Now that the cotton harvest is nearing completion, farmers should begin thinking about accomplishing cultural practices which will reduce or prevent winter carry-over of pink bollworms and boll weevils.

In areas of the state where stalk destruction is recommended, this practice should be carried out immediately after harvest. In Northwest Texas low temperatures generally eliminate the need for fall stalk destruction to reduce pink bollworms. However, overwintering boll weevil populations can be reduced, especially if harvest is completed before frost and there is still green cotton in the area.

Late season infestations of these ravaging pests are developing in some areas of the state, report Weldon Newton and Philip Hamman, Extension entomologists. These "buildups" have been especially noticeable in the Colorado River area of South Central Texas. Stalk destruction not only reduces pink bollworm and boll weevil populations through mechanical destruction but also destroys feed supplies and breeding places, thereby greatly reducing the number which survive.

Early stalk destruction is both economical and effective. Stalk shredders are highly recommended since these machines kill 60 to 80 percent of the pink bollworm larvae while fall type shredder should be used if at all possible, says Newton and Hamman.

Furthermore, the residue should be plowed under to a depth of at least six inches within five days after shredding.

However, in the Trans-Pecos area stalks should be shredded and left on the surface where they are exposed to sun and warm temperatures. Fall cultural practices should be followed as usual. Land preparation and pre-irrigation should not

"Buy Now-Pay Later," Buy Words Worldwide

One of the greatest American contributions to the world are the words, "Buy now-pay later." These have become "buy words" in practically every country.

But the chances are, says the Texas Credit Union League of Dallas, that when it comes to consumer credit, Americans are among the most easily deceived in the world.

James M. Barry, managing director of the Texas League, claims this is true despite the fact we purchase more on credit than all the people of other countries combined.

For instance, Barry points out, there is the myth that six per cent is the usual interest rate on loans. Actually, he says this myth obscures typical charges of 8 to 42 per cent.

Many believe that monthly payments take one-eighth of the average family's income, according to Barry, who goes on to say, "That's average, but there are families paying out as much as 40 per cent on their debts."

In many cases low rates of perhaps four per cent are advertised, the credit union leader declares, but usually they are "add-on" or "discount" rates, and the true rate really is about eight per cent.

According to Barry, the answer to this problem is education in money matters and money management, in the schools, in the homes, and in the everyday business world.

A letter to our Congressman from JOE B. PHILLIPS

The Hon. George Mahon
Congressman, 19th District
1211 New House Office Building
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Congressman:

This is another letter to acquaint you with my views concerning issues in this year's Congressional Campaign. Whenever it is convenient, I would be delighted to discuss publicly our opinions in an open forum.

I am unalterably opposed to our government's aiding communistic countries which are openly dedicated to burying us as a nation. Selling wheat to the Russians, was in my opinion, a very serious mistake. By extending credit to the USSR to buy wheat, we have turned our backs on the patriots in Cuba who burned their crops in an effort to bring about a collapse of the communist government in their country.

It is my conviction that we must not give any foreign aid to those nations which are communist or communist dominated. In my opinion, we need to develop a realistic foreign policy to serve our interests and those of our allies. We need to help our friends, but we must stop aiding and abetting an enemy dedicated to our destruction.

Very truly yours,

JOE PHILLIPS

Ten Rural Accidents Occur In County During September

The Highway Patrol investigated ten rural traffic accidents in Lamb county during the month of September, according to Sergeant D. S. Lawson, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area. These wrecks accounted for one person killed, six persons injured and an estimated property damage of $5,845.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Lamb county from January through September show a total of 97 crashes resulting in 9 persons killed, 40 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $88,135.00. "Accidents go up when the sun goes down" is not just a mere slogan but the truth. Why? Because darkness hides danger. That is the reason traffic accidents increase during October's shorter days and longer nights. The Sergeant stated, "Sixty per cent of all Texas rural traffic deaths occurred during the hours of darkness last year. The driver who boasts that he can see as well in the dark or even better than he can during the sunlight just doesn't exist.

The hospitals and morgues will attest to this fact. We have news for the driver who still says he has "cat eyes" because science has now proved that even "Tabby" does not see as well after dark as she does in the daylight.

JOIN THE BATTLE OF THE BOLL WEEVIL

Every person, directly or indirectly connected with the cotton industry, should wage war on the boll weevil. Widespread infestation of the area would produce an economic disaster that is FRIGHTENING. The economic base of our HIGH PLAINS area could be eaten away by the boll weevil. HIGH PLAINS bankers urge YOUR support of the DIAPAUSE CONTROL PROGRAM to protect your income and that of every HIGH PLAINS resident.

JOIN THE BATTLE

THE ENEMY — BOLL WEEVILS... Invading the High Plains... if they succeed will cost about $30.00 per acre, every year, for control... Millions more in lost yields and quality, plus reduced value of investments.

BATTLE PLAN— ATTACK AND KILL WEEVILS IN FALL, before they hibernate (Diapause Control)... Spray every acre of infested cotton...

WAR CHEST — 50c A BALE FROM PRODUCERS, collected 100% at every compress... Supplemented by matching Federal funds.

PRODUCER'S CHOICE: 50c now or $50.00 later. For complete information, see your County Agent, ASC office, Vocational Agriculture teacher, or contact Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Classing Office Process 10,400 This Week

The Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture classed 10,400 samples during the week ending Friday, October 9th to bring the season's total to 14,900 bales, according to W. K. Palmer, chairman at Lubbock. During the previous week the Lubbock office received only 2,000 samples.

During the same period last year the Lubbock, Brownfield, and Lamesa offices had classed 23,400 samples.

This year's harvest has lagged behind the harvest of last year because of the two weeks of damp, foggy weather. The clear weather of the past week has enabled farmers to resume their harvesting and the volume of cotton received at the Lubbock office increased sharply this week. It is expected to continue to increase next week, and the Brownfield and Lamesa offices will begin operations on Monday, October 12.

The average grades for the cotton classed in the Lubbock Classing Office was down from the preceding week. Fifty-six percent was classed in the White grades, forty-two percent in the Light Spotted grades, and two percent in the Spotted grades. In the White grades, Middling was the predominant grade, accounting for thirty-five percent and strict low middling for sixteen percent. Middling Light Spotted category, making up thirty-three percent of the total classed during the week.

Staple length continued to average about 31/32 inch. Eighty-eight percent of the cotton classed last week was 15/16 inch and better, with twenty-six percent being 1 inch and better. Micronaire readings continue to be very good. Ninety-six percent of all cotton "milled" was in the range of 3.5 and better.

The USDA's Marketing Service reported very light trading in the new crop cotton. Prices quoted on the Lubbock Cotton Exchange was 28.75 cents for Middling 15/16, 29.35 cents for Middling 31/32 and 30.25 cents for Middling 1 inch. In the Light Spotted qualities Middling Light Spotted 15/16 was quoted at 27.85 cents, 31/32 at 28.30 cents and 1 inch at 28.85 cents.

Prices to farmers for cotton seed, in standard grades, was reported at $44 to $47 per ton.

"There is nothing wrong with a good political joke—unless it gets elected."

The Junior High football team is undefeated as of the first of the week. They will meet Hart here Thursday night at 7:30. They beat Hart there 14-8, scored over Vega 26-0 and beat Bovina 22-0.

Wolverines Victorious 45-8 Over Amherst

by Eldon Trotter

A week's rest seemed to put the Wolverines in a notion to play ball Friday night, as they used just about every scoring method possible, to roll over the Bulldogs of Amherst 45-8. The victory was the fourth in five games for the Wolverines, the best record for any team in Lamb County.

The young Amherst team is showing a lot of promise, and should shape up well in the next couple of years. This defeat was their third in five outings.

The Wolverines started the game with players being shifted to new positions, from the previous games. Doug Messer, the Sophomore quarterback was set up to move the club. Jerry Don Sanders, who has been playing at quarterback, was shifted to fullback, and Richard Mitchell, the fullback, was moved to right tackle position.

Early in the first quarter, Doug Messer handed off to Floyd Bennett, who found running room on the left side and went over from the six yard line for the first Springlake touchdown. Jerry Don Sanders kicked the extra point.

Moments later Doug Messer tried out his new fullback, Jerry Don Sanders, and sent him up the middle for 34 yards and the second touchdown for the Wolverines.

The extra point was good on a pass from Jerry Don Sanders to Floyd Bennett who had worked his way behind his defenders in the end zone.

Early in the second quarter, the Wolverines rolled all the way to the three yard line, only to lose the ball on a fumble.

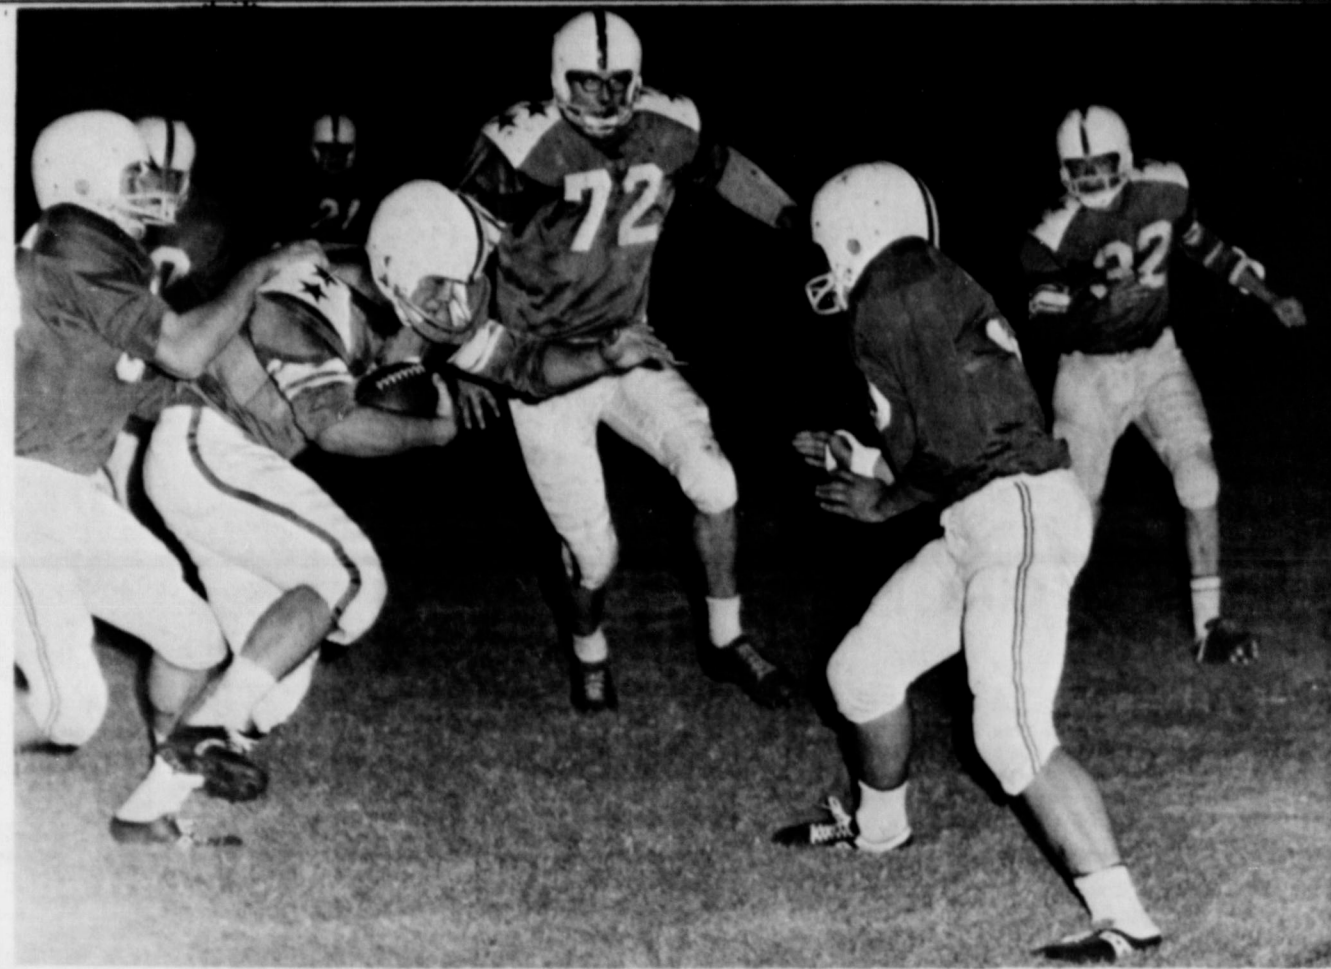

On the first play, Tommy Barlow, Pete Glasscock, and Ken Dawson, bulled their way through the line and hit quarterback, James McAdams with such force, it caused him to fumble, and Tommy Barlow recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Jerry Don Sanders tried to kick the extra point, only to have it blocked.

The Wolverines kicked off to Amherst, and Jerry Don sent the ball clear out of the end zone, with Amherst taking possession on the twenty yard line. Amherst was held to no gain, and forced to kick. Moments later, with the ball resting on the 30 yard line, Messer dropped back for a pass, and threw it perfect to Thomas Gregory, who took it on the run and went over standing up for the fourth touchdown of the night for the Wolverines.

This time Jerry Don Sanders kick was good and the Wolverines had a 28-0 lead.

Holding the bulldogs once more the Wolverines moved the ball to the Amherst 36 yard line and on fourth down, Jerry Don tried his luck at a field goal, and with Thomas Gregory holding, sent it through the uprights for a 3 pointer.

With two minutes and 17 seconds left in the second quarter, Doug Messer tried another pass to Thomas Gregory and found him behind his defenders, he made contact and carried the ball sixty yards for another Springlake touchdown, again Sanders kick was good and at halftime the Wolverines had a comfortable 38-0 lead.

JERRY DON SANDERS BRAKES loose and goes 34 yards for a touchdown. Ken Dawson made the key block on an unidentified Bulldog, while Pepe Glasscock took out the only player that has a chance to stop Sanders. No. 55, Leon Mixon and No. 80, Bob Campbell tried to brake up the play.

To start the third quarter off, the Wolverines lost no time, with Doug Messer handing off to Jerry Don Sanders, who went over from the eleven yard line for a touchdown. Once more, Sanders kick was good and Coach Mahon sent his second and third string boys in to play the rest of the game.

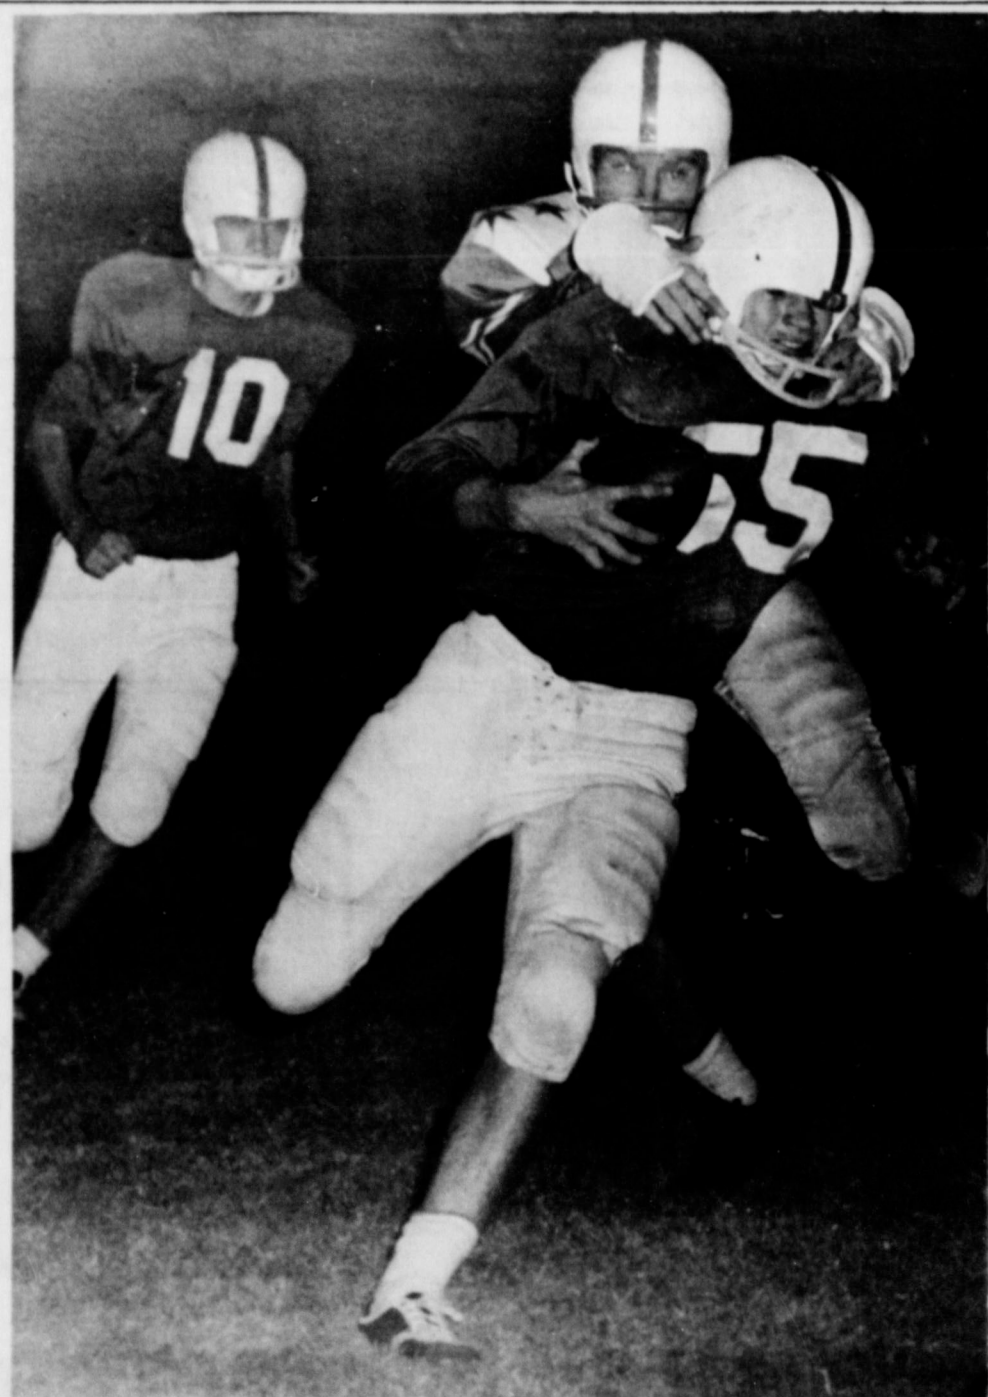

The rest of the third and the fourth quarter, the two teams settled down and really butted heads, with the Amherst Bulldogs managing to score with only 4 seconds left in the fourth quarter. Eddie Hedges, the little Junior halfback, took a hand off from James McAdams and went over from the two yard line. A pass from McAdams to Johnny Norwood was good and the game ended moments later with Springlake taking another victory, 45-8.

This week the Wolverines open district play, traveling to Sudan to tangle with the Hornets. From now on, these games really count, so lets all stay behind the Wolverines and see if we can come up as Champs of District 3-A. See you all in Sudan Friday night!!!

STARS OF THE WEEK

BACKFIELD

This honor goes to Jerry Don Sanders, who really demonstrated power after being moved to fullback position. Jerry Don was the big gun behind two of the Wolverines touchdowns. He kicked four extra points, passed for one, two point conversion and kicked a 36 yard field goal. On kick off, Jerry sent three kicks clear out of the playing field, giving the Amherst Bulldogs no chance to run with the ball. Jerry is only a junior and we hope to see a lot more out of this high spirited Wolverine before he graduates.

LINEMAN

This week the honor goes to "Red dog" John Patterson, the burley 190 pound Senior Co-Captain. John received this honor for work on offense as well as for his work as signal caller and line backer on defense. In the past three weeks the varsity has seen very little action, but since the Wolverines are getting down to district play, we all hope that we can see a lot of action from all our seniors. Good luck John, and keep up the good work.

Science Plays Major Role In Modern Day Agriculture

Science in agriculture has contributed much to our nation's ability to produce an abundance of food. Thus we have become a generally well fed nation of people who enjoy a variety of foods costing only one-fifth of our disposable income.

Yet many Americans fail to understand the important role that science plays in modern farming, says Reagan Brown, Extension sociologist, Texas A&M University. They also indicate a lack of knowledge about modern farming and reflect an awareness of the urban and industrial growth upon a highly productive agriculture.

Brown believes this lack of knowledge perhaps arises from the great variation in size and productivity of our farms. Over 90 percent of all farm products sold in our country are produced on 44 percent of our farms. Thus more than half the farms are so small and unproductive that they produce less than 10 percent of our food and fiber supply. Unfortunately, says the sociologist, these small and inefficient farms provide the image that many Americans have of farming.

This image, in turn, leads to a belief that recent advances in scientific knowledge have had no impact on farming, that farming is unscientific. Nothing could be further from the truth, Brown contends.

Science has enabled a single farm worker to produce enough food, fiber and tobacco to satisfy the demand of 30 people. Between 1950 and 1962, a span of 12 years, it made possible a fourth increase in livestock production per breeding unit, an increase of 2,000 pounds of milk produced per cow, and 38 more eggs per hen per year.

If the American farmer had disregarded recent scientific achievements and produced the 1957 agricultural production by methods available to him in 1939, the cost to the nation would have increased by 7.5 billion dollars.

Furthermore, so long as food production is limited by utilization of seven to 10 percent of the earth's surface, conversion by the animal of only 10 to 25 percent of its feed to human food, and fixation by the plant of no more than five percent of the radiant heat it receives, there will be a need for science in agricultural production, says Brown.

Mirror On Tractors Can Save Lives

A rear view mirror on your tractor can save lives on highways and will help you do more work in the field.

Beverly Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, believes every tractor should be equipped with a rear view mirror.

He cites a recent highway mishap to indicate how a mirror can prevent accidents. A tractor on the right side of the road had just passed the crest of a hill. A car approached, meeting the tractor. Another topped the hill behind the tractor at 50 to 60 miles an hour. A quick look by this driver and he could see two ways to go, both poor choices. He could try to pass the tractor on the left and take a chance on getting around him. Or, he could hit the dirt on the right of the tractor.

Well, the driver decided to try to gamble on passing the tractor. He made it around the tractor, scaring the approaching driver out of his wits, but he couldn't straighten up after getting around. After completely rolling over, the car came to rest right-side-up in the shallow road ditch. All four occupants could have been killed.

Pinch-Hit Gun Case

Unless protected by a good gun case, your rifle or shotgun can get badly scarred in a car while on the way to your hunting ground. If you have no case, try wrapping gun in your hunting coat, passing gun through both sleeves.

Barbed-wire Gadget

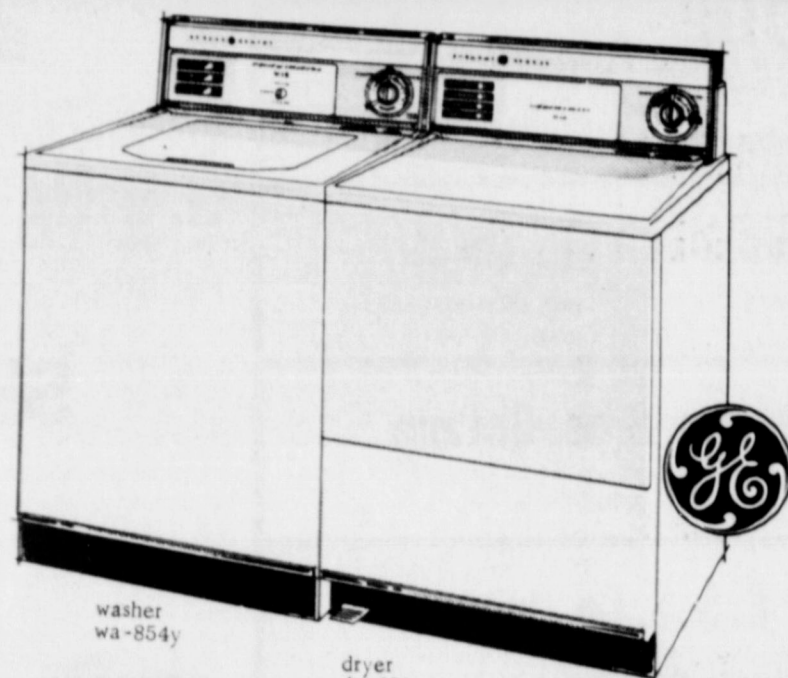

Best way to keep clothes and flesh from being torn as you crawl through a barbed-wire fence is to carry with you several metal "S" shaped picture hangers.

When you come to a barbed-wire fence, hook one end of "S" hanger to second wire and pull up to top wire and secure with other end of "S". Push down third wire and pass through.

Prevent Fall Increase Of Screwworms

Screwworms are on the move again in Texas, and with favorable, moist weather and ranching operations creating conditions ideal for the insect's development and migration, screwworm eradicators consider few areas of the state completely safe from the threat of outbreaks.

Since late September, when a 53 day screwworm-free period in Texas was ended, infestations have been reported in southern, western and northern sections of the state. How severe a buildup can be expected will depend largely on whether livestock producers use protective measures on their animals and report infestations to eradication headquarters so that emergency treatment can be started.

Although the buildup in infestations began several weeks later than during most years, shortening the time screwworms will be a major problem before cold weather limits their activities, damage can still be extensive and control high.

Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which cooperates with state and federal agencies in the program said the current buildup in cases presents a real challenge to the livestock industry.

Briscoe urged stockmen to take special precautions in handling their animals and to use preventive means that will protect against infestation. Samples of larvae collected from infested wounds should be sent to eradication headquarters for positive identification. Specimens should be collected from deep within the wound, because screwworm larvae and other blowfly larvae may inhabit the same wound.

Travis Jaquess A Devout Leader of Area Youth...

TRAVIS JAQUESS

When we are out of sympathy with the young, then I think our world is over.

We'll not pretend everyone is in accord with this statement. However, there is one in our community who is in complete agreement with it and lives it daily. That person is Travis Jaquess.

Travis, born in Madill, Oklahoma, came to the plains of Texas in 1926 when his family moved to seven miles north of Earth, where Travis grew to manhood, retaining some of the wonderful philosophy of life as believed by our earliest settlers. During World War II, Travis was a first aid man for the famed 36th Division, serving in Africa and taking part in the invasions of Italy and Southern France. He later served in Germany and Austria.

Now as most of us superstitious realists know, the number 13 is most unlucky and very unpopular. Not so with Travis. He considers it one of the best numbers ever derived by man. It was on a Friday the 13th that Travis left Germany for home, in truck 13, arriving home on the 13th, and, incidentally, his oldest daughter was born on the 13th. Any questions?

After serving honorably for 4 1/2 years in the army, Travis returned to Earth, and entered the laundry business, a position he maintained until he accepted the Maintenance Supervisor's job with the Springlake Schools seven years ago.

A Deacon in the First Baptist Church of Earth, Travis is also on the building committee and teaches a Sunday School class for ten year olds. It was through the Church that he first began his untiring work with young people, having charge of the RA's for twelve consecutive years.

About three years ago, a group of the local boys came to Travis to ask if he would take over the boy scouts. As he put it himself, "If adults had come, I might not have taken the job. However, I could not refuse those boys as sincere as they were. After all, I had never been a boy scout myself and everything I now know, I had to learn with the boys."

Beginning with approximately 20 boys, the group has now grown to 45. The first meetings were held in the Lion's building, then the old scout hut, and with money raised and promised, the scouts now have enough in their fund to have their donated building moved on the land adjoining the Earth swimming pool. The first year he was head scoutmaster, Travis took his boys to Camp Post, about 40 miles south of Lubbock. For the past two years, the scouts have gone to Tres Ritos, and plan on returning next summer. Travis, by the way, takes his own vacation time to sponsor the scouts on this trip.

Just a few examples of the fine work done by the scouts each year are serving during the Memorial Day services at both cemeteries, holding flag services at all football games, helping to dedicate the new Post Office at Springlake and helping clean up the city for the past two years.

Travis mentions with pride that four of his young scouts have attained the highest scouting rank possible, the coveted Eagle Scout. Jack Rylant, Jr., Arboth Rylant, Bobby Glasscock, and David Jaquess have reached this goal. David has also received the Palm Award which is given for earning five merit badges above the Eagle Scout requirements.

As we all should know, one of the many moral principles each scout learns is integrity. Travis' troops have learned this lesson well as is aptly proven by last summer's surprise appreciation night for all the help Travis has given the scouts.

Supposedly holding a Court of Honor, Travis was never so surprised as the scouts circled, and placed Travis in the center. Each and every scout gave a short talk extolling the good Travis had done for them individually. Then, still a surprise to Travis, each and every scout came by and presented their beloved scoutmaster with a gift they personally made.

Not only did he receive a gift from each scout, but the parents presented Travis with a reclining easy chair for his home. And after this much preparation, and with a scout in his own home, Travis knew nothing about it until the night of the meeting. If we all could learn a lesson on keeping quiet as this, it would be well.

The strength and safety of a community consist in the virtue and intelligence of its youth. If this be true, and so well it is, our community is very fortunate a man like Travis Jaquess has made this his home.

Cub Scout News...

Mrs. Harold Britton and Mrs. Hugh Alexander attended the Cub Scout Pow-Wow at Smylie Wilson Junior High School in Lubbock, October 10. Sessions of games, skits, ceremonies, and crafts were held. Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Alexander attended the craft's division. Approximately three hundred were present.

Den 6 met Wednesday at the Scout Hut with six boys attending, and one visitor, Mrs. Frank Kennedy.

Hal Wood led the opening flag ceremony. Boys painted neckerchief slides which they whitened the previous week. Clarke Kennedy served brownies and Cokes. The boys played the game, "ball-in-the-basket," then formed the living circle, and adjourned.

Den 9 met Monday with seven boys present. The mothers were guests. The boys made puppets, and had a puppet show for the visitors. Refreshments were served to the mothers; Mrs. W.B. Hucks, Mrs. Frank Aguirre, Mrs. John Aguirre, and Mrs. A.R. Stewart. Den mothers for Den 9 are Mrs. Jim Stephens, and Mrs. Billy Clayton.

There was a Cub Scout meeting for new parents, October 8, however very few parents attended. There are approximately forty-five interested prospective Cub Scouts, but there is a need for Den Mothers. Mr. Bunner, Cub Scout Master reports.
