Clayton remarked on the chang-es and progress which is taking place in the Springlake area, once known as Punkin Center.

Mr. Benesch presented an hon-orable recognition certificate to Willis C. White who became postmaster in 1928 and retired in 1959 after 31 years of dedicated and amselfish service to the postoffice department. Mr. White was asked to give a brief history of Springlake in which he told of his First Springlake post office being tocated one half mile northeast of the cemetery and was established in 1998. The first mail was de-livered on July 4 of that year.

Congressmin George Mahon was unable to attend due to a heavy work schedule, but he wrote sev eral letters in honor of the occasion which were read to those at semling by R. L. "Sport" Byers.

A flag, which previously had flown over the Nation's capital July 9, and also over the U. S. Postoffice Department was presented to James Winder by Byers who filled in for Mahon.
