"The New Sexual Morality" was the PTA subject matter Monday evening at the Springlake-Earth cafeteria and created a lot of arguments in agreement and disagreement with the new code of ethics which the younger generation appears to think a lot about. panel composed of Sammy Johnston, Mrs. Lena Locke M's Nancy Howard, Roberta Gaston and Johnny McNamara were given topics including drug effects on unborn childdren, venereal diseases, pre-martial sex, birth control pills for unmarried girls and last, abortion, Audience participation was invited. The first question brought before the panel was how they felt about an expectant mother who was on drugs. Members of the panel related factual information on what agony newborn babies would go through untII all drugs were eliminated from their systems, a process which often takes a period as long as three weeks.

The question asked about venereal disease was "Why is the problem dising?" A lot of the blame seems to go to ig-norance of the fact as to just what the signs are and also the fact that people still keep this matter in the dark and will not discuss such diseases.

Concerning pre-martial sex, the question of sex before marriage being right or wrong was asked. Viewpoints were given by both the panel and the audience. A member of the audience felt that the reason for a lot of the living together by students is caused by unhappy homes. They want to nd see how living together is before marriage so they will not make the same mistakes their parents made. A member of the panel said she felt pre-marital sex is not this important. She felt couples should learn to know each other during an engagement and keep sex for marriage

Cadettes Attend Friendship Workshop

Girl Scout Cadette Troop 178 of Earth attended an all day workshop in Tulia Saturday as guests of Tulia Cadette Troop

The theme of the workshop was International Friendship. The purpose of the workshop was to follow the "Magic Thread of Girl Scouting" in an International way, to ex-perience the fellowship of other sister scouts and to learn from the program consultants who were foreign born and others who have had the opportunity to travel across the

The first speaker was Paul Perterer of Austria, who is an AFS student at Tulia High School. He was assisted by his American "Mother", Mrs. Pappy Hulsey, who is also ac-tive in the People to People program and who gave a talk on this later in the day.

Paul held the interest of all attending by showing slides of his home and surrounding com-munity. He also answered questions from the group.

Mrs. Marie Harristhen showed slides of her tour of Europe and held a question and answer session. She also told how to apply for a passport and how to arrange for overseas travel. Mrs. Betty Schuster of Tulia, whose daughter is an AFS student in Belgium, told of her and her daughter's feelings about the AFS program.

The group took a break at this time for a delicious lunc's served by the Tulia troop. menu included Sloppy Joes. chips, pickles, iced tea and brownies.

After lunch, the workshop resumed with Mrs. Doris Black giving a program on countries where there are Girl Scouts Guides. She showed the uniform and other things in common, She also discussed the international events open to Senior Scouts and how to apply for these.

Mrs. Black also led the girls in an international Sing Along. Songs learned were "Our Chalet Song", "Our Cabana Song" and "The World Song," Introduced next by Mrs. Dorathy Barkley of Tul'a were Mrs. Kim Lawson of Korea, who has been an American resident for 10 years and who took her citizenship test last Wednesday: Mrs. Chris Osburn of Korea, who has been in America two years; and Mrs. Nit Williams of Thialand, who has been in America only three months.

They formed a panel and, assisted by Mrs. Barkley, answered questions from the girls, Most often asked were questions about dating, discipline, family life and reaction to A-

THE DALE CARNEGIE CUSTOMER RELATIONS COURSE IS COMING TO DIMMITT

This program is for every person who has products or service to sell. It will enable men and women to develop their skills and abilities in these ways:

Session I-Class members de relop a better understanding of themselves and people they deal with in everyday contact through an improved knowledge of good human relation principles. They will also begin to develop greater self confidence and a deeper belief in themselves and their own abilities.

Session 2-The development of a chronic and sustained enthusiasm within each person. The establishment of goals in life; business and personal. How to make the initial approach to customers.

Session 3-Trains the salesminded man or woman to more closely analyse people's wants and needs. They will learn how to ask the right questions and to listen.

Session 4-Class members will be coached in how to motivate their customer to buy and how to satisfy the customer's needs and wants.

Session 5-Class members learn what "buying signals" are and how to recognize them. What "trial closes" are and why and when they should be used.

A fast action program that will make a more Dynamic Dimmitt.
