NOSIN... With Polly

No one seems to depend on his brain anymore. What with all these new-fangled electronic brains and government bureaus set up to do our thinking for us, seems brains in the ordinary run-of-the-mill Americans are fast becoming unused and obsolete anyway...

I never once doubted that love was highly coveted by almost all human beings, and highly essential to happiness, but I hadn't given love credit for perhaps playing a direct part in an adolescent's eating habits.

THE ORDINARY HOUSEWIFE and mother, is a gal of multiple duties, so multiplied are her duties that she works from sun up to way past sun down to finally fall into bed literally exhausted but with as much to do tomorrow as was her lot today.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who lovingly sprays Medi-quick on the lad's bee sting and places a clean bandage expertly on his sore toe, for she has within her hands a most precious gift from God, a youngster.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who coo's, cleans, washes, mops, irons, doctors, and teaches for today she can build a foundation, tomorrow it is too late.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who can sweetly kiss away a tear from a young child's face and miraculously replace it with a smile, for it is truly her hour of glory.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who takes the time during her busy day world to teach the true values of life, discouraging the idea that money and position is the only gauge for determining success.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who serves as a model rather than a master, for her job will be less trying.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who can take the company of green snakes, horned toads, and mice with little calamity, for she shall be termed a friend indeed.

IMPORTANT IS SHE who can implant the image and greatness of God within the young minds of those about her, that they may see God's handiwork in a blossom, his greatness within the stars, his beauty in the falling snow

CITY OFFICIALS SAY... No Tax Penalty Reductions Allowed

City officials voted Monday night when they met in a regular semi-monthly session at the City Hall, to allow no reduction in penalties on any delinquent taxes under any circumstances.

The vote came following a lengthy discussion of the delinquent tax problem in the city, when Dad Chesney made a motion for the city attorney to proceed with delinquent tax suits now pending and to allow no reduction in any of the accrued penalties.

City Secretary Rubye Anderson requested permission for she and her assistant, Mrs. Betty McAlpine to attend the annual tax school in Amarillo on August 26.

In honoring a request by school superintendent Bill Mann to spray for mosquitoes at the school, city dads agreed to spray the school campus if the school would pay the cost of the dust used and the city employees time while doing the job.

Before adjourning, the city dads had a lengthy discussion on ways and means of paving the streets of Earth. There was no decision reached, and the paving was tabled for the time being.

Those present for the meeting were E. C. Kelley, Mayor; Rubye Anderson, City Secretary; Andy Stroebel, city attorney; Richard Stockstill, Dad Chesney, Neil Pounds and Eldon Parish, councilmen; Raymond Cole, electrical inspector; Alvin Pittman, city marshal; Sammy McGuire, city water superintendent; Bob McCaskill and Ross Middleton.

WOLVERINES BUILD LEG MUSCLES getting ready for the forthcoming football season. Fans this year will see a ball club that takes to the air and passes the ball, much more than in past seasons.

40 Boys Report for Practice Monday

The 1966 Wolverines hit the practice field at 8 a. m. Monday for their first practice session of the season.

Head Coach Danny Smith, said Monday that he would put his squad through two a-day workouts at 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m., with the exception of Wednesday when the workout would be at 5 p. m., until school starts August 29.

The Wolverines will open the 1966 season campaign here with a game with Amherst on September 9 at 8 p. m.

Coach Smith said there were 40 boys who showed up for practice, Monday, 25 for the varsity team and 15 for the B team.

These included nine seniors, seven juniors, and nine among the sophomores and freshmen classes.

Of this group, he has 7 lettermen back from last year's team, which posted a record of 8 wins and 2 losses. Of this group there are three starting seniors.

Returning lettermen from last year include Logan Armstrong, Terry Parish, Doug Messer, James Thomas, Tommy Barlow, Jose Triana, and Jimmy Stockstill.

Coach Smith said he had two good men coming up from last year's good B team. They are two seniors, Steve Larkin and Danny Kelley.

Smith said he had a good staff working with the squad. They are back field coach, Earl McKinley and Marvin Sanders, Jr., line coach, Terry Bell and Dallas Clinch will be working with the B team.

"The squad has the best attitude I have found in a squad yet," Smith said. "Even though they don't have too much experience, and we don't have very much speed, we have a fine attitude and are determined to give the game our best."

He explained Springlake-Earth fans would see an entirely different kind of ball club this year than they had ever seen before. He said, "We are going to throw that ball this year. We may be intercepted everytime we throw, but we're going to play ball in the air. We think we have some good passers and we're sure gonna give them some practice."

Springlake-Earth will again be in District 3-A this season. The Wolverines will play six non-district games. Our four district games will be with Farwell, Kress, Bovina, and Sudan.

District coaches in pre-season polls have picked Springlake-Earth to finish 4th place in the district, according to Smith, who is much more optimistic about the possibilities of his club than the coaches who polled the votes.

Smith said if fans will watch this new team and their new plays, he feels they will enjoy the forthcoming season.

PARTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Been and Carrie returned Saturday from a weeks vacation at Estes Park, Colorado, while in Colorado, they visited Santa Land near Pike's Peak.

Austin--The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department reports its water-borne warden force has reached maximum status for the summer with delivery of fast new patrol boats.

Fourteen of the speedy craft, specially designed for use on the larger lakes as well as the small waterways, are now serving the water recreation mind-

The Department said the full patrol complement will be utilized throughout the peak summer period, policing the heavy boat traffic, generally serving the public and hereafter stressing law enforcement. It was noted that some adjustments in the mobile force have been necessitated to handle traffic on some of the more popular lakes.

The Department is serving with other agencies in helping enforce the new state water safety code.

Field reports to date indicate the water sport enthusiasts are cooperating to a marked degree but some major accidents do occur.

One such incident occurred on Lake Austin, Two boats pulling skiers were moving along parallel to each other, with one slightly ahead of the other. The trailing boat lost its skier. The pilot swerved sharply to retrieve him and cut squarely into the path of the lead boat's skier.

He crashed into the side of the boat, ripping a great hole and suffering multiple fractures. In trying to rescue the injured man and lift him into the first boat, four men got all their weight on one side and capized it. Finally, the badly hurt skier was taken to an ambulance but not before he suffered greatly from the loss of blood and shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Clayton and family left last Thursday for a few days vacation at Tres Ritos, N. M.

EDITORIAL - AMENDMENTS IN BRIEF

A long list of Constitutional Amendments will face Texans when they go to the polls in November to vote in the general election.

The Texas Constitution saw little amending until recently when demands reached the attention of legislature in securing special amendments. Along with many amendments the legislature has deemed necessary to modernize the document. Every voter should familiarize himself with the 16 amendments that will be on the ballot in November.

The following is a summary of the 16 amendments:

AMENDMENT NO. I provides that all land owned by natural persons and designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

AMENDMENT NO. II would authorize creation of airport authorities composed of one or more counties.

AMENDMENT NO. III would withdraw Arlington State College from participating in the Permanent University Fund.

AMENDMENT NO. IV increases the permissible term of office for directors of conservation and reclamation districts from two to six years and validating present statutory terms of office for such officials.

AMENDMENT NO. V would authorize the legislature to provide for a system of retirement, disability and death benefits for county officials and employees and others.

AMENDMENT NO. VI provides for payment of assistance to survivors of law enforcement officers, custodial personnel of the Texas Department of Corrections and full-paid firemen.

AMENDMENT NO. VII would repeal the Constitutional provision requiring a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting and requiring the legislature to provide for annual registration of all voters.

AMENDMENT NO. VIII would authorize the legislature to enact laws permitting persons to vote for state officers and for president and vice president of the United States without having fulfilled residence requirements to vote for other officers, as well as laws permitting former residents of the state, for a certain period, to vote absentee for president and vice president.

AMENDMENT NO. IX increases to five the number of judges on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and lengthens the term of that court.

AMENDMENT NO. X provides that taxes or bonds previously voted in any independent school district or in any junior college district shall not be abrogated, cancelled or invalidated by any change in boundaries and authorizing the continuance of the levy after such change without further election.

AMENDMENT NO. XI would authorize the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds by the Texas Water Development Board upon two-thirds vote of the legislature and expanding the uses to which money in the Texas Water Development Fund may be put.

AMENDMENT NO. XII provides the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts.

AMENDMENT NO. XIII would authorize the legislature to provide for consolidating the functions of government within a county having 1,200,000 or more inhabitants and to provide for intergovernmental contracts between political subdivisions of the county.

AMENDMENT NO. XIV would allow members of the armed forces to vote in Texas upon satisfying the residence requirements applicable to Texans in general.

AMENDMENT NO. XV authorizes the channeling of funds from private and federal sources through the state for use by privately owned or local agencies in establishing and equipping facilities to assist the handicapped in becoming gainfully employed.

AMENDMENT NO. XVI established the date on which newly elected members of the legislature qualify to take office.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Oden and family were in Lubbock Saturday on business.

Danny Simon of Tulsa, Okla., arrived Thursday night for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Middleton and Phil. Simon is a nephew to Mrs. Middleton.

Record High For Coverage By Insurance

Residents of Lamb County began the current year with more protection in the form of life insurance than ever before. Their coverage, per family, has reached an all-time high.

Total holdings of life insurance in the local area are now placed at more than $85,218,000.

The facts and figures on the number of policy holders and on the amount of insurance in force are from data compiled for the forthcoming Life Insurance Fact Book and from other studies. They are detailed for the United States as a whole and for every state.

They show that the American people have over $900 billion in such insurance and that the trillion-dollar mark is well within sight. At the present rate, it will be attained in 1967.

In the State of Texas, according to the figures, the amount in force totals $44,440,000,000.

For most families in the state, there is a direct relationship between their income and their insurance holdings. In the average family, the amount of insurance owned is equal to 25 months income, after taxes, it is found.

Applying this ratio to Lamb County residents and to their average income level, the estimated amount of life insurance locally is $12,200 per family.

It is more than elsewhere in the West South Central States, the average being $11,900. For the 6,950 local households, the grand total is $85,218,000. Most of it is in the form of ordinary life insurance. Group insurance is second in point of volume.

Are You A Defensive Driver?

In the era of steadily increasing auto accidents with their consequent deaths and injuries, the safety experts have coined a new phrase to help survive in traffic--"defensive driving."

What is defensive driving? Basically, it is keeping full control of your car at all times, so that you can avoid an accident no matter what the other fellow does.

Some of the fundamentals of defensive driving are outlined in TODAY'S HEALTH, the magazine of the American Medical Association.

Eight Weeks in Hawaii

BY JILL MCCORD

Eight weeks in Hawaii was two marvelous months stuffed full of people, places, and events. Hawaii, herself, is magical in setting. The greenness of the grass, trees, and vines are splashed with the red, pink, yellow, and whites of hibiscus plumeria, shower trees and orchids. Coconut palms tower majestically over the beautiful foliage.

The people, like the land, are colorful. The University of Hawaii campus is a meeting place for all students all over the world. I met students from Japan, Canada, India, Five Islands, and Plainview, Texas. My English composed of local people had backgrounds of the Chinese, Japanese, Hawaiian, Korean and Filipino.

The places also kept in color with the people and the land. One Saturday my roommate and I wandered through the streets of Chinatown, into the aint shops with the strong odor of dried fish. Waikiki is also an interesting place to stroll. The gay international market place boasts of shops the world over. Kalakawa Avenue, the main street of Waikiki, is transformed at night into a circus of people and light. Anytime of day, however, it is interesting for tourists to watch.

Leaving Oahu to visit Hawaii and Kauai you find Hawaii and nature the same. On Hawaii there are the volcanic craters and lava beds. On Kauai sits the beautiful fern grove and Waimea Canyon, the Grand Canyon of the Pacific. Back on Oahu, I got to see Pearl Harbor and the National Cemetery of the Pacific. These places were very meaningful but to me, Hawaii is Hanalei Bay, it's sheltered waters ranging from deep blue to turquoise.

The beauties of the island are found in their music and the hula. Besides wandering through Ala Moana Center, the world's largest shopping center and going to the beach, many other events filled my summer. I was privileged to hear some of the finest music anywhere. I heard Martin Denny at the Kahala Hilton, Arthur Lyman at the Reef, Ed Kenney at the Royal Hawaiian, Don Ho at Duke Kahanamooke's, and the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra at the Waikiki Shell. I also enjoyed a Japanese movie.

The foods of the island are as numerous as her races. The fresh papaya and pineapple are among my favorites. Mango pie, guava sherbet and fresh coconut ice cream I acquired a taste for. Some of the Hawaiian foods I had were lau lau, mahimahi, and poke. Japanese foods I had were tempura and teriyaki. I had curry from India and Gau Gie, wun tun from China. I also had octopus that I caught myself!

The best thing about the people and Hawaii is their friendliness and relaxed informality. The beautiful lei and warm aloha personifies Hawaii.

Wise Shopping Makes Food A Bargain

College Station--Almost everyone talks about food prices and the weather. You as a consumer can do something about food prices, although the weather problem is not quite that simple, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

You can receive more for your food dollar if you make wiser choices. Careful planning and shopping can give your food budget more mileage, she emphasizes.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests these steps to smart shopping: Keep alert to what your favorite market is featuring. Watch and study food advertisements, and plan your menus to include as many "specials" as possible. Try to remember the regular prices so you'll know if the special is really a good buy.

Buy featured foods in quantity if you can use them and if storage space allows.

When planning menus for the family, keep their nutritional needs as well as likes in mind. Make a shopping list to cut down on impulse buying. Take the time to shop around in your favorite store. Every week there are new and different food items from which you can choose.

Figure the real cost, or cost-per-serving, for the true cost of the food item. The cost per pound or unit of an item is often misleading if you do not check the number of servings. Meat, for example, which has a large amount of bone at a lower price per pound, will often cost more per pound.

When selecting convenience foods, consider time and cost. Some cost the same or slightly more, and others cost less than those with no convenience.

Locally grown fresh vegetable supplies have slacked off a bit due to hot weather. However, some local items of good quality continue to come to market to supplement those from other growing areas. Best values include Bell peppers, southern peas, cucumbers, okra, carrots, squash, eggplant, tomatoes, radishes, lettuce and green onions. Frozen vegetables are among "specials" of the week.

Among good fruit choices are watermelons, cantaloupes and honey dew melons, peaches, plums, grapes, pineapples and bananas. Fruit cocktail is being featured in a number of stores.

Best beef values include round steaks and roasts, ground beef, short ribs and chuck roasts and steaks. Pork is a featured item in some stores, and fryers are good buys.

Boys Ranch Rodeo Set For September 4-5

Excitement and the desire to win are running high as the elimination rides bring the 22nd annual Boys Ranch Rodeo near, and over Labor Day almost 100 boys will be doing their best for awards and honors.

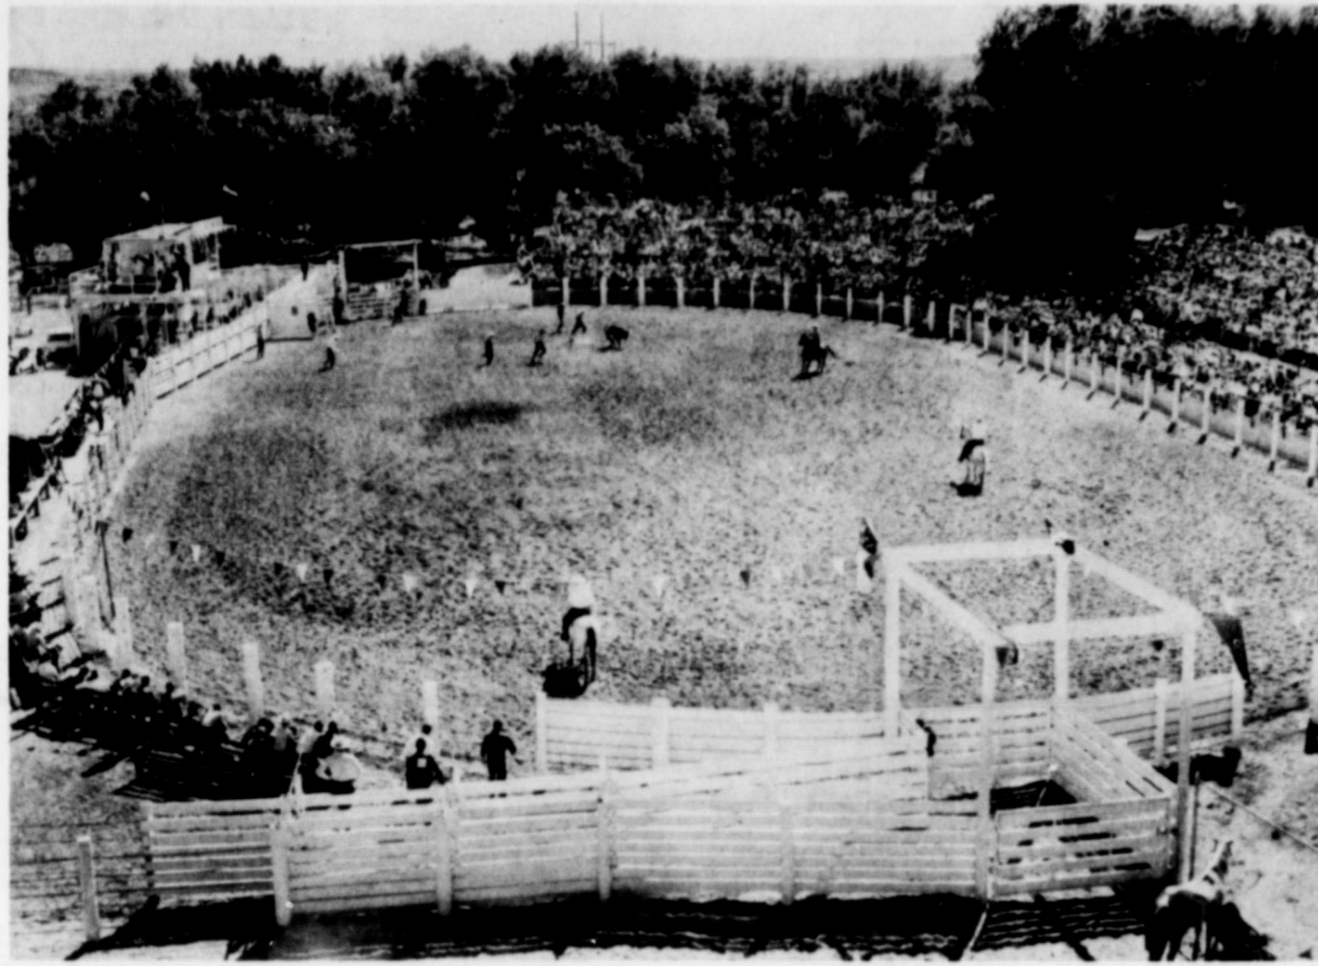

Most of the 364 boys who are now living at the Ranch came from large cities where they never had an opportunity to see a horse before, much less the professional broncs and Brahma bulls which will be used in their rodeo.

Their adaptation to horses and cattle comes quickly, mainly because horses and animals are so much a part of their ranch life. Many of their chores involve horseback riding. For the younger Ranchers, part of the summer program includes riding, and many boys buy livestock of their own for agricultural projects with the small salaries they earn from chores.

Because the boys become actual modern-day wranglers it is possible for them to put on their annual rodeo, using professional rodeo stock.

The climax of the two-day rodeo will be presentation of the Junior and Senior All-Round Cowboys awards, two of the highest honors that can be earned. The popular "stick-horse" race for the four to six-year-olds will also be a featured event, and giant-size barbecued beef sandwiches will be available at the concession stands.

Tickets may be purchased in advance for either performance, September 4 and 5, from the Boys Ranch office, Box 1890, Amarillo, or at the arena. Reserved box seats are $2.50, general admission is $1.50, and childrens and servicemen's tickets are 75¢. Performances will begin at 2 p. m. both Sunday and Monday.

THE ARENA AT CAL FARLEY'S BOYS RANCH will be the scene of the 22nd annual Labor Day rodeo, Sunday, September 4 and Monday, September 5. All 346 boys who are now making their home at the Ranch will have a part in the rodeo, which is the only one of its kind in the nation. Tickets are available in advance from the Boys Ranch Office, Box 1890, Amarillo.

Varsity Squad To Be Honored With Cookout

The approximately 36 members of the local varsity squad will be honored Thursday at 7:30 p. m. with a hamburger cookout on the back lawn of the M. H. Been home.

Local cheerleaders Linda Jordan, Pansy Been, Linda Packard, Jan Hedges, Becky Parish, and LaCretia Washington will be hostesses for the occasion. They will be assisted by Mrs. Bob Armstrong, Mrs. Eldon Parish, Mrs. Roy Byers, Mrs. J. A. Littleton, Jr., and Mrs. Duch Been.

PARTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. David Ramos, pastor of the Spanish American Mission in Earth, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell and family of Oklahoma City were recent guests in the W. W. Powell home.

Summer Can Be A Time Of Danger

Summer can be a time of danger for you and your youngster.

As the season draws to a close, many families are looking forward to a camping trip before school starts, a visit to a relative's farm, or just a weekend away from the city.

Even the most city-pent adult knows that bees and their relatives, hornets, are to be avoided. But some very young children might not know. Be sure to tell them.

"Some persons are so sensitive to bee stings that they may die from only one sting unless a doctor treats them quickly," warns World Book Encyclopedia.

It isn't usual, but it does happen. In mild reactions, all that may develop after the initial pain is a large local swelling which may last several days and itch very intensely.

In moderately sensitive persons, a sting by a bee, wasp, yellow jacket, or hornet may cause wide-spread swellings or hives, wheezing, faintness, dizziness, vomiting, abdominal cramps, or diarrhea. There also may be some shortness of breath, nasal discharge or stuffiness in the nose, and some tightness in the throat. Occasionally, there may be aching and swelling of the joints, and a bruised appearance may develop at some part of the body distant from the sting.

The highly allergic person can sustain one sting which can produce shock and prove fatal within minutes. Fortunately, these extreme reactions are rare.

The mechanism of allergic reactions to insect stings is not completely understood, but frequently, the degree of sensitivity in the allergic individual increases with each succeeding sting.

In other words, if you once were stung by a bee and suffered little more than localized pain and swelling, your next bee sting may have more serious consequences.

Suntan lotion attracts bees and other insects, and so do perfumes, hair spray, hair tonic, and many other cosmetics. Don't dress your children in floppy clothing in which insects might become caught, and don't dress that way yourself. Bright-colored clothing, flowery prints, and black clothing should be avoided. On the other hand, light colors, such as white, green, tan, and khaki, are believed neither to attract nor to antagonize bees. Children should be taught not to pick up toys without checking first to make sure that no insects are on them. Public trash baskets should be avoided.

If you are stung by a honey-bee, scrape the stinger off immediately. World Book advises. This can be done with one quick scrape of the fingernail; this merely squeezes more venom into the wound.

If you or your child should be stung by a bee or other stinging insect, a trip to a doctor is a wise precaution no matter how mild the reaction. The best way to avoid stings is to keep away from stinging insects, and see that your children keep away, too.

Lumber Grades Are Important For Each Specific Use

COLLEGE STATION-- Ever been confused about grades of softwood lumber and what grade is best for certain jobs around the home?

If you have, Bill Smith, Texas A&M University Extension forester, has an explanation. He points out that grade marking is done to provide the builder with the proper lumber for specific uses.

"If you select the right grade for each job, considerable money can be saved in construction," says Smith. Select softwood lumber comes in four grades A, B, C, and D. Grades A and B are suitable for natural finishes. Grade A is virtually free of defects and is generally used to produce fine finish items, paneling, flooring and siding.

Grade B is clear. It is allowed minor defects and blemishes such as planing skips, small spots of stain, minor seasoning checks, and in some woods minute pitch areas, very small knots and so on.

Grades A and B may be sold separately, but they are usually sold together as B and better lumber.

"When buying lumber for home construction look for the grade mark and specify dry lumber," points out Smith.

Texas FB Citizenship Seminar

By Melody Brock, Lamb County Representative to the Seminar.

Melody Brock

Tuesday morning, August 9, I left with about 18 other high school juniors and seniors from the Lubbock area to attend the 1966 Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar at Waco. The seminar was held on the campus of Baylor University, with the students attending staying in the dorms. There were around 365 students from all over the state of Texas, with each one being sponsored by his local Farm Bureau.

Tuesday night, following registration and dinner, we listened to a lecture given by W. C. Wedemeyer, of the Texas Farm Bureau on "Farm Bureau, Your Host", which was followed by a get acquainted party.

Other than Mr. Wedemeyer, we had 4 main speakers. They were: (1) Dr. Clifton L. Genus, President of Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas. He is head of the Department of History and Social Sciences, and one of the foremost historians in the United States today. He lectured on "Understanding and Preserving our Heritage," "Moral Foundation of Freedom" and "Pyramid of Freedom."

(2) W. Cleon Skousen, another lecturer, is the noted author of "The Naked Communist" (each of the conferees received a copy of the book autographed by Mr. Skousen) and other books based on his experiences as an agent of the FBI and Chief of Police of Salt Lake City, Utah. He is recognized today as a leading authority on methods used by Communists to infiltrate our American society. He presented 3 lectures on "The History, Strategy, and Tactics of the Communist Party."

(3) Dr. C. L. Kay, Vice President, Public Affairs, Lubbock Christian College. He is the recipient of many awards for his work in Americanism and is recognized as an outstanding lecturer on the American way of life and the present trends that are jeopardizing the very foundation of our American Heritage. The two lectures he gave were "Freedom is On Trial", and "The Battle Ahead."

(4) Herbert A. Philbrick, former counterparty for the FBI is now a noted author and lecturer. The television show, "I Led Three Lives" is based on Mr. Philbrick's experiences as a counterparty for the FBI. Today, he is a foremost authority on the activities of subversive groups in the United States. His two lectures were entitled, "I Led Three Lives" and "What the Communists Plan for Americans Today."

Following daily lectures, we had free time for recreation. We were given a tour of the campus, and saw many films in connection with the lectures. The Texas Farm Bureau also gave each of us a packet containing additional material on the subjects of the lectures.

As we left the campus Saturday morning, each of us knew that in those three short days, we had gained much knowledge about this great country we live in, the threat of this country, and our responsibilities to it.

Russell Haberer Wins Clovis Golf Tourney

CLOVIS--Russell Haberer captured nearly all the honors Monday in a pro-partner golf event at Colonial Park Golf Course in Clovis.

Haberer carded a 66 to take low amateur honors. He captured a foursome, and each captain combined his low ball score with each member in his foursome, so Haberer tied himself for first place.

Haberer and Whitey Bryant of Clovis had a low ball 62. Haberer also teamed with another foursome member, Jim Vantschel of Clovis, for a low ball 62.

Host pro Ray Hardy led the professionals with a 70. John Van Dyke of Clovis visited his sister, Mrs. Ann McNeil recently.

Bob Price Speaks In Olton Monday

Bob Price, candidate for Congress, spoke in Olton Monday night in the PCA building to a group of farmers, ranchers, and businessmen.

Excerpts from his speech indicate Federal policies are a prime cause of growing inflation, in the opinion of Bob Price. He pointed to "the administration of laws and not the laws themselves as the major reason for upward price adjustments." Price said, "The 1966 agriculture law was basically sound and could have increased farm and ranch net income while generally holding the line on prices to the consumer. In applying the new program the Secretary of Agriculture has favored big business over the local producer and the consumer."

Price, candidate for Congress from the 18th Congressional District of Texas, stressed the importance of "steps in the law that could restore parts of the free market system in farm and ranch products." He said the 1966 act will permit the free market to function better than it has in years if left alone.

"The farm problem lies with administrative meddling. The Secretary of Agriculture ordered the dumping of wheat from government surplus; the fixing of prices on domestic hides; and arranged with the Defense Department to purchase great quantities of food items as substitutes for its customary use of beef products. The President personally appealed to housewives to buy lower grade foods in order to bring about lower prices. Proof that government controls are inflationary is seen at every hand. The food grower is paying less; the housewife is paying more; and the cost of living is advancing at the fastest rate in years. The administration must give private enterprise markets a chance to operate."

Cotton Durable Press Shirts May Challenge Blends in Spring

"If cotton durable press makes a strong showing this fall in dress shirts, it may seriously challenge the polyester-cotton blends for supremacy by spring, 1967."

So says the Daily News Record, bible of the U. S. textile and apparel industries. The Daily News Record says two recent developments have drawn sharp lines for a collision course between all-cotton and blends in dress shirts.

In cotton's favor is the first of the developments, Improved finishing techniques which have made progress in overcoming some of the objections to durable press dress shirts, such as inadequate abrasion resistance and coarseness of hand.

On the other side of the picture is substantial price cuts in polyester-cotton fabrics which have narrowed or even eliminated the price advantage of cotton.

a big way by spring. We've got a win ticket on cotton.

Sunnyside Float Places First in Dimmitt Parade

The Sunnyside Float won the first place trophy in the community division of the parade in downtown Dimmitt Saturday marking the 75th anniversary of Castro County.

The float was mounted on a 1924 "Model T" Ford Truck and showed household supplies of yesteryear, and a plow or two. The truck belonging to Buford Haydon, bore the caption, "Moving to a Moving Community--25-Sunnyside."

The truck was driven by Weldon Bradley, who came to the community in a similar way as a small boy with his parents in 1926. He was accompanied by Mrs. Bradley and their grandson, Kent Bradley. In 1925 the old Sunnyside School which was "Axtell" and "Rouch" schools combined since 1912, was replaced by a new brick building. The school enrollment was almost tripled the next year. Twenty-eight pupils were enrolled in 1924-25, the last year in the old building. The enrollment for 1925-26 was 71.

Dorothy Morgan, Terry Holtman, Marsha Addudell, John Ward, Ruben Flores, Noeme Flores, Leon O'Valle, Jr., Dale Gallman and Bettie Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Houston from Lubbock visited friends and relatives in the area Sunday.

Ray Axtell and Mrs. Milton Ott are the only present residents who attended "Axtell" school. There are none living here who attended "Rouch" school, and Mr. E. R. Sadler and Mrs. Alton Loudder are the only ones who attended Sunnyside School in the old building. Hubert Lilley is the only present resident who attended "Abbott" school, the third one room school house in the community. Several attended the Sunnyside School in the new brick building.

Another significant event for the community was the erection of the Sunnyside Baptist church building. The church was organized in 1921 with ten charter members, but they met in the school house until it was torn down to build the new one. None of the ten charter members still live in the community. Mrs. John Turner of Dimmitt was one of the ten. Howard Bridges has been a member longer than any other present resident. E. R. Sadler joined three years later. Before 1921, most residents of the community worshipped together at the congregational church at Old Springlake, 3 miles South of the Ott residence.
