Would you help Texas honor a Rural Hero?

If you know of anyone who has risked his own life to save the life of some other person, your nomination might win that person a trip to Dallas and a nice plaque on March 20, 1972. The Rural Heroism award is presented annually to some deserving person who has performed some act of exceptional bravery during a time of crisis. This rural safety program points up the continuing need for Improved safety conditions in our rural areas -- at work, at home and at play.

The award may go to a person credited with pulling another from a burning building saving a drowning person or any other such act of heroism during the past calendar year. Anyone knowing of such an act during 1971, is urged to submit a nomination for this import-

Nominations should include a narrative of the heroic incident, giving full details. It should include the names of all persons involved. If available, newspaper clippings and pictures should accompany the nomination. The award recipient will be chosen by a panel of judges, based on the material submitted. Deadline for entries is March

1, 1972. They should be math ed to: Rural Heroism Award Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P. O. Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703. ## Williams - Dear Exchange Vows

Freeda Jeannine Williams became the bride of Leland Dwight Dear in a 3 p. m. ceremony, Thursday, December 23rd at the Main Street Church of Christ in Olton with Douglas Lawyer officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Williams, Sr., of Olton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dear of Springlake. Double ring vows were pledged in an archway entwined with greenery and blue bows with wedding bells at the top. Candelabras with greenery flanked the archway.

Wedding selections were provided by the church choir. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a lace bodice featuring renaissance sleeves and victorian neckline and empire waistline. Her chapel length lace train fell from the waistline; her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was secured by a bow of beads and lace.

She carried a bouquet of carnations centered with an orchid. According to tradition, she borrowed a blue garter from her cousin, Mrs. Cathy Baker. Her dress was something
