
 * NOSIN... With Polly *

The 50th Anniversary of the city of Earth has definitely been set for Saturday, come rain or come sunshine. This doubtless was the ideal time anyway, especially to L. Z. Anglin, one of the town's Pioneers, who will be celebrating his birthday on that date. Nothing could be a better birthday present than to have the whole city of Earth and the area around, to celebrate your birthday with you. HAPPY BIRTHDAY L. Z.

NOSIN"

Mrs. Bill Surface, wife of the new band director had a shocking surprise when reading in the paper a few days ago, she discovered she and her husband, who have no children, was said to be the parents of two children.

The young couple have had a few questions to ask each other since that time. However, they can't quite conceive of just how the local news media would know they had two children before they themselves knew it. IT IS PRETTY TRICKY but somehow we managed to do all sorts of unusual things that that nature. Sorry folks, but glad you two have a sense of humor.

"NOSIN"

The United States Postal Agency announced today that beginning next year, Jan. 1, 1979, postal patrons will be able to buy butter, milk, eggs, fresh fruit and vegetables at their local post offices. "This is a significant breakthrough in the delivery of mail," said Postmaster General James Cash Nickel, who recently replaced E. T. Klassen, trailblazing executive who first applied the principle of free enterprise to the postal system. "We have drunk deep from the wellspring of the marketplace to put our ship on the road to a safe parking place on the profit landing strip." Nickel said there has been much water over the bridge since the postal agency first introduced merchandising into its operation in the early 1970's. It was a small part of the total picture at the start, but shifted into high gear in 1974 when post offices began to resemble drug stores as shelves went up to accommodate postal scales, stamp boxes and other small items, he added. "It was in 1975 that we really began highballing," said Nickel. "We bought early for the Christmas season and by mid-October had sold four million sleds, 11 million food blenders, six million hot combs.

The move into ready-to-wear was originally planned for 1976, Nickel revealed, but was delayed until early the following year when a class action suit was filed in behalf of 143,000, 000 citizens who had not received mail service for three months. "The suit was settled out of court when we agreed to give each of the 143,000,000 a free wooden fruit bowl and a five-piece screwdriver set." Adding food to the line will produce enough revenue to all the postal agency to reach its ultimate goal, according to the Postmaster General.

Our prediction estimates show that by 1981 we will be in a position to call for bids on the delivery of all mail and concentrate full-time on our merchandising operation," he said. "Sears and Safeway have both expressed an interest in bidding on the mail contract."

pearing in the News-Sun each week will again have 10 games listed, with a tiebreaker game heading the list. This game does not count in the weekly won-lost standings, but is used only to decide winners in case of the scores weekly and at the end of the season. 753 Students Enroll for '74-'75 Term

The '74-'75 school year is underway at Springlake-Earth and things are beginning to hum in the old familiar rhythm. By Monday noon of this week the enrollment figures in the local school was 753, according to Superintendent Bill Mann. He explained that the total may increase slightly within the next couple of weeks. This year's figure is 14 less than this time last year when 767 students had enrolled. This year's total, broken down, show 337 students in Kindergarten through the fifth grade, 189 students in grades six through eight, and 205 students in high school. There are 22 students enrolled in special Education classes. While today marks the second full week of school for students, it is a longer period of time for faculty members as they began their work, preparing for the school year several days earlier. The new school year got off to a muddy start for students as the past week was almost a full week of rain. In comparing the current enrollment figures with that of the end of school in May, '73 which was 777, we find the current enrollment is down only 10 from that date. Judging from the lack of hours

SoRelle Family Honored with Farewell Fellowship

Tom SoRelle, music director of the First Baptist Church in Earth, was honored along with his wife, Kathy and their two children, Sunday night following worship services.

The group assembled in the Fellowship Hall where a short program was prepared.

The program, narrated by Bill Anderson began with the date of his birth back in Jayton, Texas. As he narrated the life story of Tom SoRelle, he paused as the audience consisting of approximately 80 people joined in singing various songs, describing Tom's life as the narrator imagined it.

The songs included "Rockaby, Tommy," which they supposed his mother sang many times to him, as he grew up in a rural area, "Home on the Range" was thrown in to describe his life as a boy, "A Bicycle Built for Two" with the words appropriately changed, described his proposal to his wife.

As time went by SoRelle grew up, went to school and felt he must become a band leader.

The song "Tom SoRelle had a Band" was sung to the tune of Old MacDonald, with words describing the sounds of band instruments, instead of animals.

Rev. David Hartman thanked Tom for his service in directing the choir and presented him with a clarinet stuffed with money.

Following prayer, the group concluded the program with "Bless be the Tie."

During the fellowship session that followed an assortment of pies, cakes, punch, cookies and coffee were served.

Sunday night was SoRelle's last night to conduct the choir at the local church. He and his family have moved to Littlefield.

Wisian-Crossland Exchange Vows

In an impressive double ring ceremony at 2 O'clock in the afternoon on August 24, in the First United Methodist Church in Earth, Miss Vicki Jolene Wisian, Springlake, became the bride of Marty Crossland of Slaton. Rev. Edmund Robb performed the wedding ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Wisian, Sr. of Springlake and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crossland of Slaton.

The church altar was decorated with lovely candelabras containing 40 lighted long blue tapers. The altar rail was enhanced with large blue satin bows and entwined with Lily of the Valley interspersed with greenery.

Pianist, Marion Dawson played traditional wedding music accompanied by Mrs. Bob Belew on the organ. Soloist Wayne Anderson sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The lovely bride given in marriage by her father, was adorned in a Victorian Style gown of white organza enhanced with accents of peau d' arge lace. The fitted bodice was designed with a portrait neckline and a Bertha Collaret of scalloped lace ruffling, graced with tiny seed pearls.

Her long tapered sleeves repeated the scalloped lace ruffling with cuffs falling over her hands. The full circular skirt was sprinkled in beaded lace medallions and swept to a chapel train. The entire hemline was bordered in a circular flounce of self fabric attached with the lace scallops. A lace bonnet designed with decorative tiny seed pearls held the three tiered veil in place, each tier was edged in lace scallops.

The bride carried out the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue. She wore an old pearl necklace, given her by her mother and matching pearl earrings, a present from her grandmother. Something new was her bridal gown and veil. Something borrowed was a rainbow bible, belonging to her Rainbow big Sister, this she carried beneath her lovely bridal bouquet. Something blue was a blue garter, given her by Mrs. Ed. Hawkins, her aunt. Coelita Biles, Abilene, was maid of honor. Other attendants were; Le Ann Humphreys, Guthrie; Darlene Sulser, Abilene and Gina Wisian, sister of the bride, Springlake. The girls were dressed in floor length dresses designed with empire waistlines, enhanced with scooped necklines and a self tie at the back wastline.

Ushers were Elroy Wisian, Jr. brother of the bride, Michael Wisian, cousin of the bride, and Edward and Leslie Beachamp Lubbock, both cousins of the groom.

The bride's mother was attired in a floor length pink knit dress, complimented by white accessories and a pink corsage.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. The table was laid with a semi-sheer white dotted swiss floor length cloth over satin. Centering the table was a lovely arrangement of white roses flanked by long white tapers in royal blue candelabra.

The three tiered cake, iced in white featured blue roses and wedding bells. Blue punch, cake rose mints and nuts were served from crystal and silver appointments. Donna Wisian and Jeanie Putman assisted with the hospitalities.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a wine colored three piece knit pant suit, white accessories and a corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The bride is a '73 graduate of Springlake-Earth School and a Sophomore at Texas Tech University.

The groom is a '72 graduate of Roosevelt High School and is a Senior Student at Texas Tech University. He is currently employed at Builders Supply Company in Lubbock.

State winners accompanied by a faculty advisor will be the guests of General Mills next spring on an expense-paid educational tour, which will include Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Virginia. A special event of the tour is announcement of the All-American Family Leader of Tomorrow, who's scholarship will be increased to $5,000. '73-'74 School Budget Amended, $31,142⁰⁰ Increase

Members of the board of the S-E Independent school District met in a called meeting Friday morning. The meeting was called chiefly to amend the '73-'74 school budget. The budget was studied and amended. The original budget had been set at $685,782.00. The board amended the budget to cover the amount totaling $716,924.00.

Elementary school building, which he said cost $10,000.00. Another big expenditure was plant maintenance, due to "wee problems" the school had this past year. He further explained an additional expenditure, was a new pickup for the Agriculture department, other increases in the budget were caused by the upward salary increase in school personnel payments. The meeting was a brief one, to take care of current bills and amend the budget which was completed in a short time and the group adjourned.

Supt. Bill Mann explained the reason for the upswing in the budget was primarily caused by the cost of a new roof on the

GOSSIP

BY DAVID HARTMAN

The dictionary definition of gossip is "idle talk, especially about the affairs of others." My observation of the phenomenon is there is usually a malicious intent attached to it. When this occurs it gets close to character assassination.

What is it that is so attractive about gossip? Is it a feeling that I have special information about so and so that you don't have? Does it give one a special feeling of importance and thrill to have access to this information? Does it give one a sense of satisfaction to spread the faults, failures and mistakes of some to others?

Some folks feel they must tear others down in order to build themselves up. Their feeling of personal self-worth is very low.

Before you repeat anything ask yourself some questions. What are the facts? Will it make any difference or change anything if I knew the facts and repeated them? Would I want someone else to do me the same way? Is it necessary for this to go any further? Is it really any of my business or anyone else's for that matter?

James said, "Anyone who says he is a Christian but doesn't control his sharp tongue is just fooling himself and his religion isn't worth much." James 1:26, LIVING BIBLE

He further states, "So also the tongue is a small thing, but what enormous damage it can do. A great forest can be set on fire by one tiny spark. And the tongue is a flame of fire. It is full of wickedness, and poisons every part of the body. And the tongue is set on fire by hell itself, and can turn our whole lives into a blazing flame of destruction and disaster." (James 3:5-6, LIVING BIBLE)

Only God knows the reputations ruined by idle gossip. If you have been a party to the spreading of tales that are none of your business I strongly suggest you stop it! Now!

There are too many good things to be accomplished in life than to ruin the reputation of others.

Energy Crisis Affects Textile Manufacturers

Manufacturers of synthetic fibers face a complex problem resulting from the energy crisis and shortages of raw materials, according to one authority.

"Oil is the primary raw material for textiles and 65 percent of all fibers produced are man-made," Marilyn Brown, consumer education-clothing and textiles specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System, said this week.

Estimated for the future show synthetic fabrics will capture 70 per cent of the market by 1977, leaving cotton with about 28 per cent and wool with slightly over one per cent.

Price increases on apparel are a natural result of the growing man-made fiber market and the shortages of raw materials. The specialist noted that manufacturers "have been doing a juggling act in production in an effort to keep prices from breaking out of control."

But she indicated that the shortage of all fibers and the steady rise in fabric prices will cause manufacturers to turn over their cost increases to the consumer this fall.

PARTY LINE the Khiva Temple Hospital in Dallas for surgery. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lexie Branscum. He will then return to Branscum.

The Sunflower may be Desirable Oil Producing Crop

An old foe may turn into a new friend for High Plains farmers according to Dr. Doug Owen, High Plains Research Foundation Agronomist for oilseed research. For years considered only an undesirable weed, the sunflower has been domesticated and developed into a highly desirable oil producing crop. Plant breeders now have developed hybrids with high seed yielding potential and high oil content. The oil is especially valuable for its excellent nutrition qualities as well as its fine flavor and good cooking characteristics. The hull and residue left after the oil is extracted is used as cattle feed in the same manner as cottonseed hulls and meal.

The High Plains Research Foundation is in its second year of cultural studies with sunflowers from the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill. These studies include a variety test containing twenty experimental hybrids; a fertilizer test containing seven treatments of nitrogen and phosphorus in various rates and ratios; and a date-of-planting test having four planting dates beginning in April and ending the last week of July. Each date consists of five hybrids planted under dryland and irrigated conditions.

Tests conducted last year showed that both early (April) and late (July) plantings matured before frost and made satisfactory yields even after sustaining severe hail injury. Some of the earlier plantings in 1974 received severe hail in June and recovered to produce large well-filled seed heads.

A special attachment to the combine header is necessary to minimize harvesting losses but these are available and may be purchased at reasonable cost. Losses estimated as high as 25% occurred in 1973 using a combine without the special attachment.

Two insects are economically important. The sunflower head moth is fairly easily controlled by timely application of the recommended insecticide. There is no insecticide known to be effecting in controlling the carrot beetle, but damage from this insect may be limited to certain zones or areas. Large infestations of this insect can cause severe damage and loss, however, few insects have been detected in 1973 and 1974.

Research indicates that sunflowers are drought tolerant requiring less moisture than soybeans, sorghum, and corn; and apparently requiring less fertilizer than sorghum or corn thus costing less to produce. Yields ranging from two to three thousand pounds per acre have been obtained. "With prices at fifteen cents per pound these yield potentials make sunflowers a competitive crop for the High Plains, and the possibility of planting after wheat or hulled-out cotton may provide a valuable alternate crop for area farmers," stated Dr. Owen.

The sunflower research as well as many other research projects of interest to High Plains farmers and businessmen can be observed on the field tours from 1:30 to 5:00 on Thursday, September 12, 1974 during the 18th Annual Field Day and Open House.
