workers involved, the Blood Bank requires that all prospective donors sign a form which they will mail to Earth. This assures them that there are at least 45 people willing to donate their blood.

The unit will be able to accommodate nine people every 15 minutes and five people during the noon hour to allow their workers to go to lunch.

The donors will be listed alphabetically thus eliminating any waiting period. The donor will be able to know the time he needs to be at the mobile unit.

The forms to be signed will be handed out at church services Sunday, at the Lions Club meetings, or you may pick up a form at the Earth News office.

Marker Dedicated at Springlake Earth School

Approximately 500 people, including students, attended the dedication ceremony Friday, October 13 when an official state marker was placed in front of the original Springlake school building to pay tribute to the foresight, planning and wisdom of the William E. Halsell family. The Halsell family provided the land where the one-room Springlake school was originally constructed in 1908. The school became an independent district in 1924. In 1964, Earth was officially added to the name of the school.

The beautiful campus now includes thirteen buildings plus a well equipped playground, tennis courts, and a football and track stadium.

The dedication address was given by Dist. Judge Pat Boone, Jr., who reviewed the history of the Springlake-Earth School as well as the development of the area since 1879 when the land was first sold for private ownership.

The enlarged school opened in 1925 in a new $30,000 brick building on the site purchased from J.F. Kelley. At that time, E.C. Martin was superintendent. Trustees included Otis Brown, M.E. Cleavinger, Earl Hewitt, Arthur Edwards, George Linville, H.M. Packard, all deceased, and W.C. White who participated in the market unveiling ceremonies.

Band and football were organized at Springlake-Earth in 1928.

Mrs. J.L. Hinson, a Lamb County pioneer who established the Springlake-Earth Parent-Teachers Association in the 1920's, introduced special guests including White, the only living member of the first board of trustees.

She also introduced members of the present board of trustees, members of the original S-EHS band, and first graduates.

Included among special guests for the dedication of the marker, which is the first one in Lamb County north of the sandhills, was Mrs. Charles Woodburn of Amarillo, member of the State Historical Survey Committee and several members of area county survey committees.

Mrs. Marshall Kelley of Earth was commended for her efforts as a member of the county's historical survey committee, in making the historical marker possible.

Also participating on the afternoon program were Superintendent W.L. Mann, High School Principal Ward Godsey, Lamb County Judge Truitt Sides, the Rev. David Hartman and Leslie Watson.

Special music was provided by the high school band under direction of Tom SoKelle and by choral director Wayne Anderson.

The marker was unveiled by Mrs. Kelley, White and Jerry Kelley, president of the board of trustees.

"Acres for Wildlife" Established

A group of men from Castro and Lamb Counties are working on a project to establish more wildlife in our area through a program called "Acres for Wildlife".

Through this program they hope to inform more people about what wildlife game needs to thrive in our area.

Dr. Bruce E. Cowgill of Nebraska, founder of the program, was aware of the dwindling suitable habitat for wildlife in the wake of mechanized harvesting, fall plowing, pesticides and mechanical weed control.

Because of his concern to do something, the birth of an idea mushroomed into what is now known as "Acres For Wildlife."

Now in its second full year of operation, the program has spread to six other states and saved thousands of acres of wildlife habitat.

Richard Newman, who is with the Lamb County ASCS office, reports that the response from a questionnaire sent to Lamb County farmers is very favorable. The questionnaire asked if farmers would be interested in a habitat improvement program in connection with a pheasant release program.

More than 50% of the land in Lamb County responded, yes.

The pheasant population in north Lamb County and Castro County is increasing but a better year-round habitat is needed for game birds to thrive in our area.

Pheasants in this area face many problems, mainly inadequate cover for nesting, protection from the elements, and predators, and a chance to hatch their young.

Marginal acres, lake bottoms, fence rows, and north-south bar ditches are especially good wildlife covers.

This year it is allowable to leave wheat on set aside acres all year as long as it is not harvested.

The land in our area is so highly alloted that it is difficult to get acres for wildlife cover habitat.

To avoid the stigma of "dirty farmer", signs are placed on the cover plot that farmers set aside, to mark them so people will know what they are. The farmers agree not to mow, graze, burn, or spray the parcel with pesticides that are harmful to wildlife.

Beyond that, the land-owner maintains full control of his property and can even choose to allow hunting.

The basis for the project is to keep it simple and free of government control. The group hopes that through this program Lamb and Castro Counties will become the Southern most pheasant hunting area in the Southwest.

The Lamb County Soil and Water Conservation District is going into the program as a long term project. They have set up $500 to be spent on the pheasant stocking or habitat development program this year. They plan to carry the program on for 4 or 5 years.

The directors have located several sources of birds and are going to act as a clearing house for orders from farmers, ranchers, or other interested persons in Lamb County.

Area men working with this project are Joe Blevins, Soil Conservation Service; Richard Newman, ASCS; David Springer, Castro County Soil Conservation Service; David Adams, Castro ASCS; Ed Dawson, District Director Lamb County Soil Conservation; Hershell Wilson, Robert Gossett, Donnie Clayton and Robert Fewin, Texas Forestry Service of Lubbock.

More and more people are wising up to the low cost of electric heat

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

Soybean Picture Good! But Watch Harvesting

The soybean picture across Texas looks good as the crop moves toward maturity. Some 210,000 acres are expected to be harvested this year and recent prices are up near the $3.40 per bushel level. Per acre yields should be in the 27 or 28 bushel range.

"This could mean some good profits from the 1972 crop," points out R. J. Hodges, agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "However, the harvest operation is critical and each year losses are high."

The Texas A&M University specialist notes that harvest losses generally average about three bushels of soybeans per acre. "Proper harvesting could cut these losses by at least two-thirds. At current prices, that's almost $7 an acre."

The first step in getting off to a good harvest is to check the moisture content of the beans, points out Hodges. When the moisture level reaches 13 percent, it's time to start combining. As the moisture content decreases, shattering losses increase.

"Careful operation of the combine is the key to cutting harvest losses. Go slow and keep the cutterbar close to the ground."

The agronomist recommends a ground speed of 2 1/2 to 3 miles per hour. Reel speed should be slightly greater than the combine's ground speed. The reel should run deep enough in the beans to control the stalks and should be 6 to 12 inches ahead of the cutterbar.

"Harvesting during the early morning when the straw is damp from dew can reduce shatter losses," explains Hodges. "Under such conditions, the combine's cylinder speed should be increased (800 rpm's for a 22-inch cylinder).

Slower cylinder speeds will reduce the number of cracked beans. The agronomist suggests a close check of the operator's manual to determine settings for the cylinder speed and concave spacing.

"Once the harvesting operation starts, a close field check is important to determine losses," suggests Hodges. "A loss of four beans per square foot is equal to about one bushel per acre. Of course, it's important to check pre-harvest losses."

For extra profits from your soybean crop this year, the agronomist advises adjusting the combine properly, checking the moisture level of the crop, and then beginning the harvest operation at a slow pace. "A little extra time spent in the field can mean more dollars at the marketplace."

Census Survey To Ask About Employment And Education

The survey on employment and unemployment, taken monthly by the Bureau of the Census, in October will include questions on school enrollment and college or professional degrees received in the past year, Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Data Collection Center in Dallas, announced today.

A sample of households in this area, part of the 50,000 national sample representing a cross section of all households, will be interviewed the week of October 16-20.

The labor force information, which is collected for the U.S. Department of Labor, provides a continuing measure of the economic health of the country. The August survey showed that there were 86.9 million employed, up from 86.5 million in July, a substantial rise, but unemployment was basically unchanged. The unemployment rate was 5.6 percent, compared with 5.5 percent in both June and July and about 6 percent a year ago.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law, and results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Robert Gossett Speaks To 4-H Club

The local 4-H club met Monday evening in the show barn, Kent Lewis, presided over the business meeting.

The club motto and pledge were led by Dawn Bauscum. She also gave the inspiration. Robert Gossett, vice-president of Citizens State Bank, gave an interesting program on money management.

Two new members were added to the local 4-H Chapter. They are Cary Sawyer and Amelia Roman.

Kent Lewis urged any member who is having a problem with his project or livestock to call on one of the adult leaders or the county agents.

Brent Been was in charge of the recreation.

Refreshments were served by Dina Hampton and Velinda Cook to twenty-four members and seven adult leaders.

Millions of deprived children need your help. Don't close your mind to the problem because it seems too big or hopeless. Open your heart and think about the many ways in which you can help. Don't give up; give something; your time, your talents, your money. Help UNICEF to give the world's children a better chance for a good life.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dallas, Texas

October 16, 1972

Dear Polly and Ross,

Well, I see that the grand and glorious day finally arrived!

Take it from me I know just how sweet and precious those little girls can be. There is just something about them that makes hearts melt. I know you agree with me.

Right now my sweet 13 month is doing everything she can think of to keep me from typing this letter. But I love her anyway.

Please tell the new Mamma and Daddy congratulations for me. I know just how proud they are.

I pray that the child will bring happiness and joy to all those who love her so much.

I also want to thank you so much for the pleasure we get out of the newspaper. We look forward to it every week. Keep up the good work.

Once again, congratulations on that beautiful granddaughter. Don't spoil her too much.

Love,
Vicki Clayton Nichols

Harlingen, Texas
October 16, 1972

Dearest Ross and Polly,

I have searched the paper for weeks looking for news of your newest blessing—your new grandchild. It was with great joy for you that I read today about the arrival Keri Denise has made into the world. I am sure she is just as sweet as you said and I do wish I could see her.

How are things going at the newspaper? Who is working there now? We surely miss you.

We are going just great, although I feel like a widow. The man that owns the gin where Dick works here is associated with a gin in Leachville, Arkansas (close to Leanni's hometown I believe) and following an excellent season here they asked Dick to run the gin in Arkansas. Dick has been gone a month now and will be gone at least four more weeks. If it weren't for my job, church, and school activities, I really would be lonesome.

I read with a very heavy heart about Dee Stiles. My prayers will certainly be with Dee and his family. I plan to call or write Linda Pat, but I have no idea what I will say. What can one say at such a time? How is Linda Pat holding up?

If the Lord is willing, we will see you next summer, but do write if you can. May God bless!

Love,
Maurine

Dear Christian Friends:

I want to take this opportunity of expressing our heartfelt gratitude to you on behalf of the First Baptist Church and myself.

Sunday night after you had returned to your own church and home, we experienced a glorious service. God had spoken to so many of our people. They wanted to share with us. Some, like Coach Rollie Rink-er, explaining that he was tried of trying, and from now on he was trusting Christ to be Lord of his life. Others, like J.N. Marks, who explained he had lived 38 years, but last Saturday night was the first time he and his wife had ever prayed together in real genuine prayer time. Others who said, "It is the sweetest experience in my life." Others explaining, "I only got to know my fellow Christians in the small group during this weekend." I could go on relating how one business man explained he would begin his business day now with his employees gathered for prayer. These only are a few of the multitudes of people who experienced, in a new dynamic, the fullness of God's Spirit, the realities of the living Christ.

Thank you for coming to Plainview and being one of the team of 147 in our Lay Witness Mission.

God bless you and yours in every way and always.

Yours in Christ,

AMERICAN GRAIN AND CATTLE INC.

A COMPLETE NEW CONCEPT OF COOPERATIVES FOR FARMERS

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE IN AGRICULTURAL MARKETING . . . in fact it's past time. The present agricultural marketing system has only worked at the local and national level to the advantage of the huge international grain corporations; not for the farmer.

AMERICAN GRAIN AND CATTLE, INC., a new Marketing Association, through its integrated Grain Producer-Cattle Feeding program will feed part of your grain through feedlots for more grain profit. For instance, a two cents (2c) per pound profit per finished animal should bring you fifty cents (50c) per cwt. for your milo.

IN ADDITION YOU WILL SHARE IN THE PROFITS of fat cattle, feedlots, and grain handling locations. This is a well rounded program with plenty of capital to producers of grain and cattle . . . A FARM PROGRAM FOR FARMERS.

DON'T BE LEFT OUT. Bring your present crop to American Grain. One price for in and out handling and storage — eight cents (8c) per cwt. Check your storage and handling cost anywhere else. Are their prices competitive? Any grain stored at this rate may be transferred to the new grain and cattle feeding program.

CALL OR COME BY AMERICAN for further details and help make this the greatest program in America for farmers.

And you can't keep a good idea down. All over the world people are working together, to make life better for themselves and others.

In our own country, millions share ownership in cooperatives of all sorts—from city apartment co-ops to rural electric co-ops.

So what makes a co-op different? This: it serves the people who own it at cost. Each consumer-owner has a voice in running the co-op; one member, one vote.

October is Co-op Month. All over the country, the people of America's cooperatives are committed to working together for a better tomorrow. We are proud to help carry out this pledge.

Coaching the junior-sophomores were Bart Barnett and David Duintello. Quarterback on the winning team was Debbie Engleking. The losing team quarterback was Malanie Davison. A good crowd was out to see this annual football game. All the players on both teams were Super. Birthday Greetings go to Robert Pruitt, Cassandra Cargile, Frank Hinson, Kent Vaughn, Darla Jan Spitzer, Opal Graves. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith on their wedding anniversary October 20. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ivy, Chanse, Cris and Sheryl attended the Disney On Parade in Lubbock Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dale Seaton visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Blackburn and family at Shallowater. The Blackburns are former Lazbuddie residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stockard had the misfortune of losing their house by fire recently. People in the Lazbuddie community are giving the Stockards a shower Thursday the 19th in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church. The time will be from 3 to 5. If you are unable to attend the shower but wish to help the couple you may leave gifts at the Lazbuddie store or see the pastor of the church.

Members and friends of the Methodist Church, Lazbuddie, entertained several guests from

9 YEARS AGO

Monday, October 14, at 7:30 p. m. the Lazbuddie FHA Chapter held their monthly meeting in the school auditorium. Mariana Gammon presided. Twila Gallman read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. The members answered with the name of a flower. Pat Chitwood gave the financial report. The Chapter agreed to sell dust cloths for the next money raising project. Chapter members then elected grandparents to be honored through the year and at Christmas time. Grandparents chosen were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Jennings, M. Gammon and Mrs. McCurdy. The Christmas card committee elected are: Sherry Robinson, Anna Gaston, and Carol Ann Miller. The members also decided to choose a freshman girl each year to be honored who will be working toward her Junior degree and Chapter degree. Mrs. Ralph Douglas was guest speaker and spoke on Child Welfare. Toni Smith, Carolyn Morris and Marsha Adudell served refreshments of cookies and punch.

OCTOBER 18, NINE YEARS AGO
Cassandra Cargile was honored in the home of her parents with a party on her 9th birthday. Her grandmother, Mrs. Don Cargile and Mrs. Charlie Watson, also Mrs. Dan McDonald and children and were among those present for the occasion. After Cassandra blew out the nine candles the group couldn't find out what wish she made. After gifts were opened Mrs. Cargile served refreshments.

mission is directly related to the eating of dirt by young children. Infective eggs containing larvae can be transferred from contaminated soil to the mouth.

The eggs reach the soil in body wastes from infected cats and dogs. Eggs require several weeks of incubation to become infective. After the eggs have been ingested or transferred to the mouth of a child, the eggs hatch in the intestine, the larvae penetrate the intestinal wall and migrate to the liver and lungs by way of the lymphatic and circulatory systems. From the lungs, larvae are spread by the body's blood or lymph circulation to various organs, causing damage by

Zoonoses Can Spread to Man

Today we are going to discuss zoonoses. Before you jump to conclusions, let me quickly point out that a zoonosis is not some kind of exotic animal found in the wilds of Africa. Literally translated from its Greek origins, the word means "animal disease." It is used by health officers to refer to any disease that can be interchanged between animals and man under natural conditions.

The State Health Department has long operated a zoonoses control program. There are many infectious diseases found in animals, that under the proper circumstances and setting, can easily be spread to man. The most common contact is with the ordinary house pet.

You're probably heard about the dangers of rabies from infected wild animals or pets. Plague, typhus, encephalitis, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, and the like, are the diseases most commonly known by the public. Much has been written and said about these dramatic diseases. But what about some of the other chronic, but usually milder diseases also transmissible from animals?

Of this group, visceral larva migrans is one of the most common, and one with which the State Health Department is very concerned. Visceral larva migrans is a chronic disease caused by the migration of certain nematode larvae from the body wastes of animals into the organs and tissues of its human victims.

This disease causes an inflammation of the inner eye, enlargement of the liver, various changes in blood chemistry, and a localized acute inflammation of the lung (known to some as "benign pneumonia.") Symptoms may persist for as long as a year.

The disease occurs worldwide, but has received the most attention in the United States. It occurs sporadically. A youngster in one family may come down, while no other children in the block will get sick. Most victims are children from one to four years old. It is easy to see why this would be true since the reservoir of this disease is usually the dog or the cat common to most households. The mode of trans-

Local Members To Attend PTA Workshop

Jack Paul, one of America's outstanding young speakers, will speak at the morning session.

Mrs. Marvin Armstrong, first vice president of the State PTA will be the luncheon speaker. Seventy-eight different units representing nine counties will attend.

Corn Yield Up

Area farmers report an increase in the corn yield last year. An increase of 10 to 20% per cent is reported. This increase has made local farmers very happy. They hope that the grain will also be up.

If the weather will continue to be warm and dry and the farmers harvest the good ton crops, we'll all have smiles on our faces.

ABSENTEE VOTING NOW IN PROGRESS

Did you know that the annual income of the United Nations Children's Fund is less than the amount spent on world armaments in two hours?

Three out of four children live in underdeveloped countries, where mortality rates among one to four-year-olds are about 40 times higher than in the developed countries. UNICEF means help and hope for those children.

Every time your pulse beats, three new babies are born into the world. Only one of these is delivered by a trained attendant. UNICEF helps by training and equipping more midwives in the developing countries.

PTA Present Migrant Program

The Springlake-Earth PTA will meet Tuesday, October 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The program will be "An Overview of the Migrant Program" presented by Mrs. Sheila McFadin and Agustin Duron, Jr., who work for the Education Service Center at Lubbock.

The Texas Child Migrant Program is based on the belief that the school system is to provide educational opportunities for all children. The program also aids the children of migrant families by helping pupils to achieve the educational level of their group by overcoming language and transient disadvantages.

The consultant staff serve primarily in the area of teacher-in-service, classroom visitations, program development and community awareness.

Mrs. Sheila McFadin is a native of Weslaco and has taught 8 years in Texas and New Mexico in elementary and secondary schools. She is a graduate of Pan American University and completed graduate studies at Eastern New Mexico. She joined the Education Service Center staff in August, 1972.

Agustin Duron, Jr., is a native of Del Rio, Texas. He has had 15 years teaching experience in elementary and junior high in Texas. He is a graduate of Sul Ross University and joined the Education Service Center staff in January, 1972.

All people in the S-E communities are invited to attend. Questions concerning the Migrant Program will be answered.

Refreshments will be served.

"Orderly Marketing" Of Grain Is Encouraged

"Orderly marketing" works. By spreading the sales of grain throughout the year, farmers are able to take advantage of the highs in the market, and average these with what they sell during the lower price season.

Grain Sorghum Producers Association encouraged farmers in 1971 to practice "orderly marketing." A majority of farmers followed this advice. As soon as they started this practice, the market price decline stopped and prices have remained fairly stable since. Now that market prices are higher, farmers are reaping the benefits.

There is much concern at the present time whether or not to sell while market prices are high, or to hold for even higher prices. No one will ever be able to sell all his grain on the peak market every year. Conditions and attitudes change from one year to the next, so the peak seasons do not always come at the same time each year.

"We believe that following the practice of distributing the sale of grain throughout the year will help to average out the highs and lows. This way farmers will not be hurt too badly by selling at the wrong time," stated Elbert Harp, GSPA executive director.

GSPA encourages "ORDERLY MARKETING"—selling some grain at harvest time, but scattering the bulk of the sales throughout the entire year. This is why we continue to work for a decent government loan program that will allow farmers the advantage of holding their grain until they can reap the benefits of market price increases.

Mike Stockard Home Burns

On October 6, while Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stockard were enjoying the football game between the S-E Wolverines and Sudan, unaware to them, their house burned to the ground. The Stockards lost everything they had. The cause of the fire is unknown.

There will be a shower for them today from 3 to 5 p.m. (Thursday, October 19) in the Baptist Fellowship Hall in Lazbuddie.

Let's show this young couple that the communities of Lazbuddie, Earth and Springlake do care for their people and are anxious to do everything they can for them.

If you cannot attend the shower, gifts can be left any time at the Lazbuddie Store or Earth Dry Goods.

DON'T BE A POLITICAL DROP-OUT

ELECTION DAY: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

"Don't be a political drop-out!" This is a slogan being used throughout the country to put a different emphasis on the trite but true theme being trumpeted by both political parties: Vote Tuesday, November 7.

One reason our democracy has thrived is that our political party system narrows the voter's choice on election day. Political candidates and their supporters have spent much time and effort to persuade each one of us that their programs will be best for America.

All that they ask is that we take the trouble to vote. This means obtaining an absentee ballot if we expect not to be able to vote at the polls on Tuesday, November 7 because we are on a trip or ill. However, most of us will be able to get to our polling place if we plan ahead—which means we should learn how we can vote, where we can vote, when we can vote, and then plan our day so that we will vote.

Since the last election, when only 55% of the citizens went to the polls, the electorate has been enlarged with young people over 18 years old and residency requirements have been eased for Presidential balloting.

In 1968, more than 7½ million registered voters did not vote and in 1970 that figure climbed to 16 million. Surely we can do better than that.

Don't be a political drop-out!

DURING THE HOMECOMING PEP RALLY... the audience was led in a cheer by special cheerleaders, 1 to r, Sue Smith, Brenda Bullard and Bill Anderson.
