

Donkey Softball Game Saturday At 8p.m.

The big Donkey Ball Game between the Earth and Spring-lake Lions Clubs promises to be the major entertainment of the year in Earth.

The game is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Earth Rodeo Arena.

Advance ticket prices are $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12 years of age. Prices at the gate will be $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for children.

RULES FOR DONKEY SOFTBALL

(As originated by Ralph Godfrey)

In this game all players except the pitcher and catcher are provided with donkeys. The pitcher and catcher will stay on the ground inside the white lane marked off as the pitcher's and catcher's box, and they must keep one foot in or on the white line while making a play. The pitcher and catcher are not permitted to field a batted ball, but must leave it on the ground until someone on a donkey has first handled the ball. After someone with a donkey has picked up the ball, and gotten back on his donkey, he may then toss or hand the ball to the pitcher or catcher and from then on until the player is either safe or put out the pitcher and catcher may assist in the play by tossing the ball over to the base or tagging the runner if he comes close enough. There are no strike-outs or walks in this game. When the batter gets a fair hit he must get on the donkey that will be waiting for him at home plate and ride around the bases in their proper order, if he and the donkey can agree on which is the proper order. The base running donkey must have one foot on or inside the white circle representing the base and the runner must be on the donkey's back, in some manner or other, long enough for the umpire to declare him safe. After he has been pronounced safe he may dismount, hold the donkey on the base, or sit on the donkey or go on around to the next base, whichever he and the donkey decide to do. Force-outs and tag-outs are the same as in regular ball, but you must tag the man and not the donkey. If the runner is on the ground leading his donkey, or trying to get back on, then the player with the ball may dismount and tag him out, however, both players must hold to the reins of their donkeys. You can't turn loose the reins to make an out or to keep from being put out. A player is allowed to dismount to pick up the ball, stop a grounder, or to catch a fly, but must hold to the reins and take the donkey with him wherever he goes, and don't forget to get back on the donkey before throwing the ball. A fly ball caught by a player on the ground is not an out, but if he is on the donkey the batter is automatically out. We count all runs that are scored before the third out. We play five to seven innings or approximately one hour and a half.

NOSIN... With Polly

Frequently, folks criticize editors for "not telling it like it is," to quote their expression.

One editor in Indiana recently got tired of the criticism. He had been a kind old gentleman and had always tried to make his stories more decent than folks deserved. So he finally got his fill and decided to tell it as it was without fancying it up. So the next issue of the paper carried the following items.

1. "John Cole, local grocer-man, is doing a poor business for a good reason. His prices are high, his store is dirty and his clerks are insolent. How can he expect much?"

2. "The Rev. Bob Jones preached Sunday night of 'Charity.' He'll need all the charity he can get from his congregation because his sermon was so poor."

3. "Dave Conkey died at his home here Tuesday night. The doctor called it heart failure, but those who know him say whiskey killed him."

4. "Married----Miss Sylvia Rhodes and James T. Colvin, were married last Sunday at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Gordon. The bride is a very ordinary small town girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jackrabbit and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up-to-date loafer. He has been living off the 'old man' at home all his life and is not worth a dime. A dim future for the couple is predicted."

5. "Died--Aged 56 years, six months and 13 days. The deceased was a mild-mannered pirate who came here in the night with another man's wife and joined the church at the first chance. He owed us several dollars for this paper, was indebted to most everyone else in town, but you could hear him praying six blocks away. He died singing 'Jesus Paid It All' and we think he is right because the deceased never paid anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos casket and his friends threw palm leaf fans in his grave because he'll probably need them."

After this issue containing the above items, the Indiana editor was beseeched by his readers to start lying again.

We were quite unaware that drinking booze, beer or any alcoholic beverage could be done legally, on any street, alley, parking lot or public place within a dry county, by anyone, young, old, middle-aged or whatever age.

We were also unaware that our county seat town was having any problems of this kind, until we read the paper which described the big mess that was being made in Littlefield, by the youth they said, with beer and whiskey bottles broken all over the place night after night.

Some adults in Littlefield seem to think the mess they make is the BIG issue. Concern that the youth are drinking seemed to be secondary to some. This reasoning from adults is very elementary in my opinion.

One Littlefield law official said that each time a law offi-

School Begins Today, Classes Open At 8:30

School bells will ring out Thursday (today) August 21 marking the first day of regular classroom study.

Students who have spent the summer in a leisurely fashion will find themselves harnessed to fall into the routine of studying as the new fall session of the '75-'76 school year begins.

According to Bob May, high school principal, classes are scheduled to begin at 8:30 a. m. and dismiss for the day at 3:55 p. m. May stated, "There will be seven 55 minute class periods daily in high school. The pre-enrollment figure for high school, May said Wednesday morning, was 202.

The faculty at Springlake-Earth is complete, and according to Mr. May, the local faculty is in his opinion a good group of educators. He stated, "Springlake-Earth school is the best Class A school in the Panhandle, as far as I know." He further stated, "We now have a fine athletic and music program. In fact, the whole program is a sound quality program."

In discussing school personnel, May said, "I feel our superintendent is one of the best in the country, and we have 28 fine certified teachers, and many good teachers aids."

May was real enthusiastic about the over-all appearance of the campus. He said the landscaping of the school ground was beautiful. The grass and plants had been well treated this summer. The play ground equipment had been painted. Many rooms re-touched or re-decorated. The gymnasium floor had been redone.

May was also proud of the new cement walks in front of the stadium built there this summer. So that spectators would no longer find it necessary to walk through the mud to get to the football stadium.

He said, "We received many compliments on our school campus from teachers attending the in-service meeting. He said it looked more like a college campus than a public school ground."

May indicated that he expected Springlake-Earth would have a fine year, and he was ready to meet the challenges of this new school term.

800 County Pioneers Invited To Reunion August 26

BY JOELLA LOVVORN

More than 800 Lamb County pioneers have been invited to gather Tuesday afternoon, August 26, at the new county Agriculture and Community Center, located on South Hall Avenue in Littlefield, for the 20th annual Lamb County Pioneer Reunion.

Pioneers and their guests will begin registration at 2 p. m. in the front lobby of the new building, and a canopy will be set up outside to provide a shade for those standing in line.

A huge barbecue, brief entertaining program, and lots of reminiscing through visitation have been promised the old-timers.

Persons who have lived in the county at least 25 years, or who were residents of the county that long ago, are eligible to become a member of the organization.

Persons who are more than 70 years old will be served in the barbecue line first, when serving begins at 6 p. m., and the serving will continue through those who are younger, with children served last.

This year, tickets for the barbecue will be sold as persons line up for serving, and tickets are $2 per plate.

Herbert Dunn of Littlefield and his committee members will be in charge of the registration. A committee headed by the treasurer, Bill Jeffries, and comprised of Gladys Yolner and Kathryn Pierce, will collect the $2 serving fee.

All persons over 12 years old are to be registered, and persons must have been registered to be served.

This year's barbecue is being catered by the Hilltop Barbecue of Lubbock. Security State Bank of Littlefield is providing the beef and the Lamb County Locker is providing the beef processing. The Lubbock firm will barbecue the beef and provide the trimmings for the meal.

Prizes will be given to the oldest woman present, the oldest man present, the pioneer who travels the farthest distance, and the pioneer who has lived in the county the longest period of time. Also to be recognized will be the oldest married couple present.

If a person has received a prize in one of these categories in the past, he or she will be honored, but the person next in line will receive the prize.

Gold ribbons will be worn by persons living in the county 50 years or more, and blue ribbons will be issued to those residing in the county 40 years or more. W. B. Dickenson of Olton is president of the Pioneer Association this year, and will preside over the business session and other portions of the festivities.

During the business session, new officers for the upcoming year will be elected. Serving on the nominating committee to name a prospective slate of new officers are Fred Lichte, F. E. Yolner and Ray Smith.

Louis Hair of Olton, program chairman, is planning a brief program of singing, music and other talent.

In charge of the hospitality committee is Mrs. Bonnie Haberer of Lubbock; in charge of the building, tables and chairs is Buddy Logsdon; and Mrs. Emily Peterman is in charge of securing the gifts for those to be honored.

V. M. 'Pete' Peterman was chairman of the beef committee, and selected the steer from Sudan Livestock and Feeding in behalf of Security State Bank.

Other committee chairmen include, Joella Lovvorn and Nilah Rogers, publicity; F. E. Yolner, purchasing; and Mrs. L. E. Slate, scrapbook custodian.

Fire Department Extinguishes Fire On Morris Farm

The Earth Volunteer Fire Department extinguished a fire on the Bill Morris farm three miles north of Earth, Wednesday about 10 a. m.

Little damage was done, but according to Morris, without the aid of a fine fire department much damage could have occurred.

He said the fire broke out when his farm workers were filling up an old '58 Chevrolet pickup with butane. The truck was attached to the filler hose leading from a thousand gallon butane tank. The men told Morris they saw a spark come from the battery cable, which evidently shorted out, causing the spark that set off the flame.

When the flame broke out one of the men rushed to the house to tell Morris of the trouble. Morris called the Earth Volunteer Fire Department. He said they were there within the shortest possible time and drove right up to the butane tank, which in his opinion was quite dangerous, and extinguished the flame like professionals.

Morris said he had lots of equipment and machinery in a near by barn and also in a big box car. He felt that the fine performance by the local fire department saved the out buildings and equipment.

Lubbock Buys More Bailey Land For Water Wellfield

The purchase of 531 acres in the water-rich Bailey County Sandhills was completed by the City of Lubbock Friday following "hush-hush" negotiations.

The acquisition will permit economical expansion of Lubbock's well field, the city's secondary source of water, because it is adjacent to 75,000 acres of water rights held by the city since the mid 1950s.

Lubbock Mayor Roy Bass signed the purchase contract about 4 p. m. Friday. The city will pay the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Angel of Littlefield, $225 per acre for the tract.

Council members had met in closed session Thursday to discuss the land offer. During a special meeting at 1 p. m. Friday, the council authorized Bass to sign the sales contract "at the agreed price," but there was no explanation of the action until the purchases had been completed three hours later.

Sam Wahl, director of public works for the city, said ownership of this property will permit the city to drill at least seven wells without costly extension of the main water collection line in the wellfield.

The Angel property, lies immediately south of Lubbock's reservoir and pump station.

Lubbock's next wells can be drilled there, forestalling the expense of the westward pipeline at least five years, Wahl said.

City officials estimate there is more than 7,700 acre feet of recoverable water beneath the Angel property. Initial pumping could produce 5 million to 6 million gallons of water daily during peak days of consumption for at least seven years, diminishing to 3.5 mgd thereafter.

Lubbock's year-around water supply comes from Lake Meredith north of Amarillo, but during the summer as water consumption increases, water from the Bailey County Sandhills supplements the lake supply.

Four years ago, consultants recommended that Lubbock acquire water rights in Lamb and Bailey Counties, east of the existing well field. It was estimated that addition could supply up to 40 million gallons a day to Lubbock.

Since that recommendation was made, however, large farming operations have converted the sandhills into highly irrigated grain fields and the eastern Sandhills is no longer available for domestic water supply.

Don Randolph Named Booster Club President

The Wolverine Booster Club met Tuesday night in the school cafeteria with a large crowd attending.

A financial report was given on the Food and General Accounts.

He said that on many cases when kids were picked up, the parents came right down and got them off "scott free."

What I would like to know is, where are the old fashioned parents who taught their children RESPECT FOR THEMSELVES AND FOR OTHERS, who applied the razor strap to their back parts if laws they themselves had laid down for their kids to live by, were broken. Law officials didn't figure into the discipline picture in those days. PARENTS WERE PARENTS. They cared, they loved and they showed their love by doling out discipline when ever needed.

Instead of punishment for misbehaving, or instead of providing chores to keep hands and mind occupied, some parents today say, the kids have to have something to keep them entertained. Some say, "well acholol is better than dope." By that same token, giving a child a rattlesnake to play with is perhaps less poisonous than a cobra, (but why either?)

There must be many things in this country that is entertaining without being harmful. Somehow we have failed to point this out, or set the example, or otherwise failed to use peach tree tea at appropriate intervals in life.

Two adults in the Littlefield meeting indicated they would clean up the mess the kids made, or were willing to place containers handy for the kids to dispose of their bottles. This in my opinion is a very poor way

City Receives Tax Rebate For Period Ending In July

Austin--Comptroller Bob Bullock issued city sales tax rebates Friday worth $19.9 million and announced a new plan to give cities their proportionate share of any partial collection from delinquents.

In the past, money from delinquents was applied first to the state's claim and only after that was totally paid off did the city get its money.

"It was wrong for the cities to be playing second fiddle," Bullock said. "In more than 800 cities the five per cent sales tax is a four-and-one split, so that's exactly how we are going to rebate it."

Bullock said he doesn't look for the new plan to bring significantly more money to cities but "it will get them their share a lot faster than when they had to bring up the rear."

The city of Earth received $1,333,190 city sales and use tax allocation for the period ending August 1.

Funeral Services Monday For Anna Banks

Services for Miss Anna Banks, 93, of Springlake, were held at 3 p. m. Monday in the Springlake Church of Christ with Bill Reese, minister of the Earth Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in Littlefield Cemetery under direction of Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home in Earth.

Miss Banks died at 11:45 p. m. Friday at Littlefield Hospital of natural causes. She had been a patient there for two days.

She was a member of the Springlake Church of Christ and was a Lamb County resident for 43 years. She was a native of Missouri.

Survivors include four nephews, Arnold Banks, Lubbock; Joe Banks, Plano; Dwight Banks, Hereford and Kenneth of Laguna Beach, California; five nieces, Mrs. Pansy Dent, Earth; Mrs. Maggie Banks, Springlake; Mrs. Edith Wood, Carleton; Mrs. Hazel Banks, Inglewood, California and Mrs. Clea Martin of Fullerton, California.

Pallbearers included Floyd Crawford, Carl Perkins, Less Watson and Jimmy Banks of Springlake. Also Glen McClusky and Leon Dent of Earth.

to teach youth responsibility for their behavior. Neither does it show love.

There is a law book that has the answers to any act committed anywhere or anytime. It seems it is high time we all seek the answer there. Instead of saying "I think this is right" or "I think this is the way," what we think doesn't matter it's what the Bible says about it that really counts.

It might possible be that our youth need the kind of love that is GENTLE YET STERN and sober, given them by God fearing and God loving parents who will lay down some laws of their own, if this is not the case then seems we need to have laws that will give law officials the right to govern any unlawful act.

No Injuries In Two Vehicle Wreck Monday In Earth

No injuries were sustained in a truck-pickup wreck which occurred at 4:55 p. m. Monday on Highway 70 inside the city limits of Earth.

The two involved in the wreck were Billy Wayne Whitehurst of Texline, Texas, a part time welder for the ranch was driver of a 49 model 1 1/2 ton Ford truck and Bob Taylor of Portales was driving a 69 model 1/2 ton Dodge pickup.

The accident occurred as Taylor, accompanied by wife and daughter, were driving east down Highway 70. As they approached H. S. Sanders Lumber, Whitehurst pulled out of the lumber yard driveway into the lane of through traffic.

City Marshal Alvin Pittman investigated the wreck. He said approximately $300 damage was done to the pickup and approximately $50 to the Ford truck.

Whitehurst was issued a ticket for failure to yield right of way to through traffic.

Murder Charges Filed In Infants Death

Murder charges were filed in Littlefield recently against Terrell Earl Myers, 23, of Amherst in the death of a 7 1/2 month-old infant, James Franklin White III, son of Irene White of Amherst and James White, Jr., of Austin.

The infant was dead on arrival about 11:15 p. m. August 9 at Littlefield Hospital and Clinic. Justice of Peace Stanley Doss said late Sunday the autopsy showed the child died of a pulmonary inefficiency, internal hemorrhaging and shock.

Orr, Johnson Wedding Vows Exchanged August August 16

Miss Lisa Susan Orr and Gilmer Brooks Johnson, III were united in marriage Saturday, August 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Plainview.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Orr of Springlake and the groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Gilmer Brooks Johnson, II of Plainview.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Dr. Charles McLeod, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Plainview.

The nuptial scene was framed by brass candelabras, holding long white tapers and white wrought iron candelabras of Gothic styling enhanced by long white tapers and tropical foliage.

The bride given in marriage by her father was dressed in a Victorian styled gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace. The molded bodice featured rows of tiny tucks and bands of chantilly lace.

Her high wedding band neckline was edged in lace ruffles, complimented by long slender candlestick sleeves accented with lace cuffs. The A-line skirt swept to a chapel train and was beautifully edged with lace. A Victorian capulet held her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion in place.

She carried a traditional cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Bill Webb presented the "Lord's Prayer," "23rd Psalm," and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" at the organ.

The maid of honor, Miss Paige Gaston and bridesmaid, Miss Shelly Gaston wore identical floor length gowns of apricot knit, fashioned with long sleeves, buttoned at the wide banded, ruffled cuffs. Tiny self ruffles accented the Empire styling and high collars. They wore picture hats trimmed in apricot tulle with brown velvet streamers. Their cascade bouquets were formed with daisy pom poms.

Miss Melinda Wilson of Hart, served as flower girl. She was gowned in similar attire and carried a basket of daisy pom poms.

David Johnson served the groom as best man.

The groomsmen, Randy Norman of Phoenix, Arizona and Charles Couch, also served as ushers.

David Orr of Jal, New Mexico

MRS. GILMER BROOKS JOHNSON III (nee Lisa Susan Orr)

was ringbearer for the groom.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride's table was covered with satin and featured net overlay. It was centered with a nine branched candelabra and garlanded with white and apricot flowers.

Mrs. Carolyn Brandt of Houston and Mrs. Glenn Wilson of Hart assisted at the reception. Miss LaGlenda Wilson of Hart registered guests and Miss Gwendolyn Wilson distributed rice bags.

For their wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a pale apricot knit suit with white accessories.

After September 1, the couple will be at home at Belton, Texas where they will be attending Mary Hardin Baylor University.

The bride attended Wayland Baptist College for two years and is transferring to Mary Hardin Baylor where she will be a junior.

"Pinafores and jumpers take the head of the dress class. And the butcher apron will be a new look this fall," this specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

Sportswear stay popular with the two-piece denim look in plain and patchwork for jeans and shirtjackets as a favorite.

"Fall colors are loden, forest and olive greens, and earth tones and rusts, Burgundies and plum, camel and gray will be fashionable too."

Turning to fabrics, the specialist noted that corduroy in prints and solids, and flannels with suede trim are the favorites.

This is to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all of the Earth Volunteer Fire Dept. for their work and skill in extinguishing, what could have been a costly and dangerous fire.

I am sure that many people in this small community do not realize and appreciate this service as they should or they just take it for granted and don't realize what they can really do.

I am sure that the professionals in any large town could not have done a better job.

I for one feel much safer and can rest more easily knowing that we have men of this caliber and courage in charge of our Volunteer Fire Department.

Thanks Again

Bureau Advises Local Leaders Of Deadline For 1980 Census Tract Program

Already well into the planning phases for the 1980 census, the Census Bureau is trying to make certain that all eligible areas are included in the 1980 census tract program.

Although all metro areas (Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas or SMSA's) in the country are included, certain other areas are being encouraged by the Bureau to submit tract plans. These other areas are:

Cities of 40,000 or more according to latest census data, and the county or counties in which they're located.

Counties with 100,000 or more, according to the latest data, if at least 50 percent of the population is urban.

The Bureau, part of the U. S. Department of Commerce, advises county and city government officials, professional planners, civic and community leaders, university faculty members and other interested persons in such previously untraced areas that tract plans must be submitted to the Bureau by December 31, this year, in order for the areas to be included in the 1980 census tract program.

Tract statistics are of great value to these officials and other leaders because they make possible fine grain socioeconomic analysis of neighborhoods in metropolitan areas.

Census tracts are small, permanently established, geographical areas into which large cities and their environs are divided for statistical purposes. Following a decennial census the Bureau publishes a wealth of population and housing data for each of these small geographic divisions.

Data from the 1980 census will be published for all tracts within officially designated SMSA's. However, data will also be made available for areas that do not meet the minimum criteria for SMSA's. Such data will be available as computer printouts.

Areas that do not qualify for the tract program but need data covering small subdivisions still qualify for the Bureau's enumeration district (ED) program. The data for ED's also will be available in the form of computer printouts. ED's are subdivisions assigned to one enumerator (census taker) when a population census is taken. ED's average 800 to 1200 in population.

For more information concerning census tracts or ED's write: Geography Division U. S. Bureau of the Census Washington, D. C. 20233

Field Day To Spotlight Cotton Varieties, And Greenbug Resistant Sorghums

Two top money makers in the South Plains agricultural spectrum, cotton and grain sorghum, will be featured here Tuesday, September 9, as the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station kicks off its 66th Annual Field Day.

Some 120 varieties of cotton in irrigated, dryland and special glandless field tests are set for exhibition, reports Dr. Earl Minton, field day committee chairman.

originators, Dr. Jerry Johnson, TAES sorghum breeder, Dr. Levon Ray, cotton geneticist, is scheduled to present the cotton variety portion of the field day program.

Field day activities begin at 1:00 p.m., with field tours continuing until 5:00. Tours via tractor-pulled trailers will leave the Experiment Station headquarters every 15 minutes throughout the afternoon.

Says Ray, visitors will be able to view 61 varieties of irrigated cotton, 44 varieties on dryland and a special field test evaluating the performance of 16

WASHINGTON-The Department of the Treasury has placed on sale U. S. Individual Retirement Bonds. They are specifically designed for investment by persons who lack coverage by any other retirement plan. The Bonds are issued pursuant to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

They are sold at face value in denominations of $50, $100 and $500. Interest accrues at the rate of six percent per year, compounded semiannually, and is payable upon redemption. Individual Retirement Bonds may be purchased from any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch, or directly from the Treasury Department. They may be registered in either single ownership or beneficiary form, in the glandless cotton varieties. Varieties are evaluated under conditions of severe verticillium wilt and in narrow row plantings, notes the researcher. Information gathered on lint and seed yields, fiber properties ginturnout and other characteristics will help producers in selecting a cotton variety for next season.

"Our field day tour will not only afford a first hand opportunity to compare cotton varieties growing side by side, but also to discuss important attributes of varieties including several new varieties just coming on the market," says Ray.

Discussing the genetics of the greenbug resistance hybrids, Johnson says, not only do the resistant hybrids have fewer greenbugs than the hybrids presently on the market, but they are able to tolerate larger numbers before sustaining leaf injury from a toxin injected by the insect.

In 1974 tests resistant hybrids produced 5500 pounds per acre. Grain yield of susceptible hybrids was reduced by almost 50 percent, from 5500 pounds to 2600 pounds where the insects were not controlled, the TAES scientist reports.

Johnson will also be on hand to demonstrate the greenbug resistant sorghum varieties at the Experiment Station at Halfway's Field Day scheduled two days after the Lubbock event, on September 11. Halfway field day activities begin at 1:00 p.m., running until 5:00. The Halfway center is located 14 miles west of Plainview on Highway 70.

The 275-acre Lubbock station, which houses TAES and Extension staffs, USDA-ARS personnel and the agricultural meteorologist of the National Weather Service, is located 7 1/2 miles north of the city on Highway 87, just north of the Lubbock Regional Airport.

Another Federal Agency is moving closer to the farm. This time it's the Environmental Protection Agency. EPA officials are now sifting through the chemical analysis of nearly 35-thousand pesticides to decide which ones will require a government restriction. Those chemicals classed as restricted may be applied only by persons certified. Although the starting date for the certification requirement is more than a year away (October, 1976), many farm operators are all ready checking the requirements for certification. The establishment of two levels of certification will make things easier for most ag producers. To be certified as a private applicator (applying pesticides on your own land) boils down basically to being able to read and follow instructions. Commercial certification will involve passing a written test which will cover chemical formulas, equipment specifications and EPA rules and regulations.

Emergency Loans Available - To Stockmen

Livestock producers facing financial problems due to current low market prices should take a close look at the Emergency Livestock Credit Act of 1974.

Just over a year old, the Act provides for emergency financial help to the producer whose business has a good chance of success if it can survive the current liquidity crisis.

"Recent changes have been made in the Act that make it more palatable to both the borrower and lender," points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, project leader in farm management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

These changes are as follows: 1. A "line of credit" is permitted, whereas the original Act permitted only a single loan.

2. Anyone with a "substantial operation" in breeding, raising, fattening or marketing is eligible (one who devotes at least 25 per cent of his time to, derives at least 25 per cent of his income from, or has at least 25 per cent of his capital invested in livestock operations). 3. The Act is extended until December 31, 1976.

4. The loan period can be extended to seven years, with possible renewal for three years.

5. The guarantee by the Farmers Home Administration is increased from 80 per cent of loss to 90 per cent of the loan principal and interest.

6. The line of credit has been increased from the previous $250,000 to $350,000 per loan.

7. Secondary financing of the guaranteed portion of loans may now be made by the Federal Financing Bank, thus increasing the marketability of the securities to the lender.

8. The total authorization under the Act was reduced from $2 billion to $1.5 billion.

Under the original Act, almost 400 Texas lenders filled 624 guaranteed loans in 163 counties as of June 18, 1975. Total guarantee was for $70,739,290 an average of $113,364 per loan.

Many cattlemen can use this type of financing, and the situation will probably continue into 1976, contends the economist. Therefore, the recent changes in the Emergency Livestock Credit Act should help them protect their operations from financial disaster in the coming months.

Hayenga advises stockmen to contact their local Farmers Home Administration office for particular details.

Labor Force Census Here In Mid-August

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment and unemployment in this area during mid-August. Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Dallas announced today.

In addition to the usual questions on current employment, the August survey will have additional questions about the use of food stamps in 1975.

The survey is conducted monthly by the Bureau for the U. S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of about 60,000 households throughout the entire United States. The employment and unemployment statistics which are based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, the June survey indicated that unemployment declined in June, and employment was about unchanged. The unemployment rate dropped 8.6 percent in June from 9.2

Boys Ranch Rodeo Scheduled

It will soon be rodeo time at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch where 370 boys have been getting ready for the nationally-known contest between pint-size cowboys and bucking stock.

It is a Labor Day week-end celebration and approximately 10,000 people are expected to drive to the Ranch over the two-day period, August 31 and September 1. More than 150 boys will be riding the calves, steers, Brahma bulls and broncs in the Boys Ranch Rodeo Arena, competing for trophies and belt buckles. Even the 3 to 6-year olds will be awarded prizes for riding their stick horses around the barrels. Older boys will be riding professional rodeo stock under R. C. A. rules.

The rodeo is also a homecoming for the approximately 3,000 boys who have lived at the Ranch since it was started by Cal Farley in 1939. They are members of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association and some travel long distances to watch a kind of rodeo in which they, too, were once contestants.

An added attraction will be Texas-size bar-be-que beef plates that will be prepared and sold by the boys for only $1.50. Reserve box seat tickets at $2.50 are on sale at the Boys Ranch Office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo. General admission will be $1.50 for adult and 75¢ for children. Performances are scheduled for 2:30 each afternoon. Proceeds are used for the operation and expansion of the Ranch.

percent in May. Total employment remained steady at 84.8 million. Since last September total employment has fallen by nearly 2 million.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

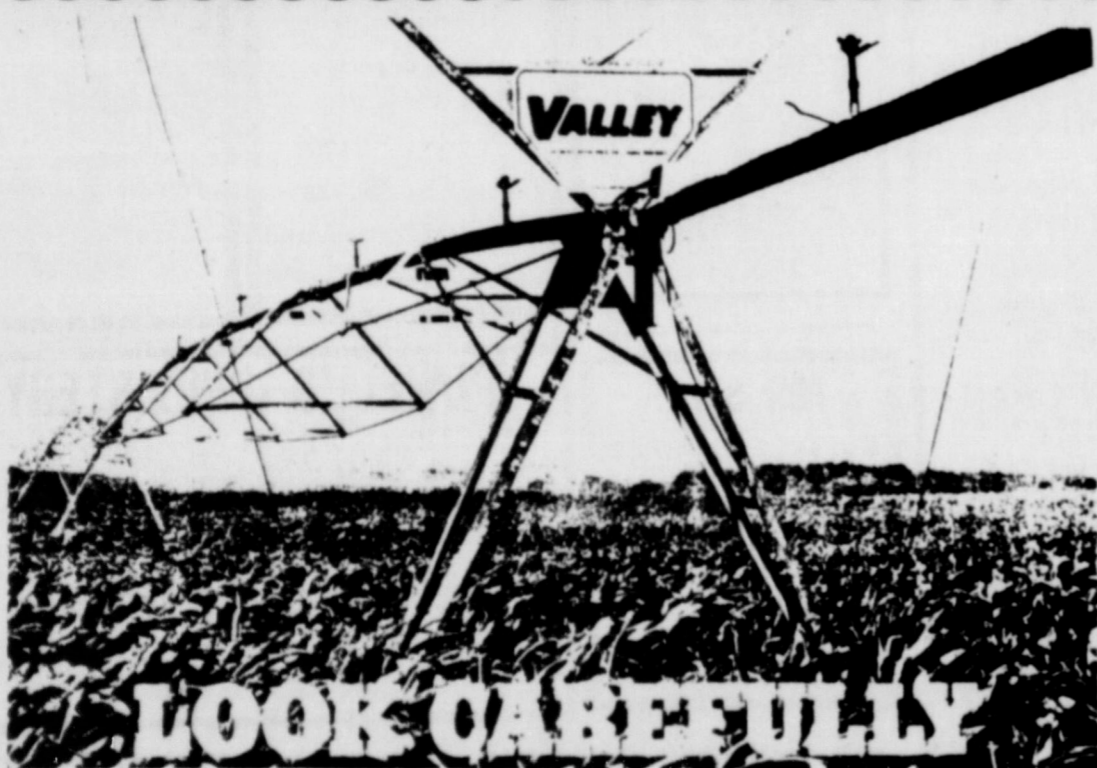

The interviewer who will visit households in this area is Rosemary McNeese of Amherst.
