

Terry Bridge Memorial Fund Reaches $2500

A total of $2500 has been donated to the Terry Bridge memorial fund, to be used to construct a recreational area, located directly north of the Springlake First Baptist Church. Robert Bridge was killed recently in an automobile accident. He was a member of the First Baptist Church and an outstanding athlete at Springlake Earth, and Texas Tech.

According to Delvin Walden, finance chairman, construction will be started as soon as a company is secured to do the work.

One of the first things to be done is to get the area fenced off and a lighting system up. A combination tennis, volleyball, and basketball court will be built first and as funds are available playground equipment for smaller children will be provided. Also, facilities for croquet and horse shoe pitching are planned.

Members of the Recreation Project Committee are Robert Bridge, chairman, Mrs. Myrtle Clayton, Mrs. Ernest Goforth, Monty Watson, Hollis Cain and James Busby.

Delvin Walden is chairman of the Finance Committee. Other members are Mrs. V. O. Busby, Mrs. J. R. Banks, Donnie Clayton, Charles Winder, and Sammy Parish.

Corpus Christi Or Bust

The Springlake-Earth band will board chartered buses Friday, April 27, at 4:00 a.m. and travel to Corpus Christie where they will participate in the "Buckaneers' Music Festival" to be held in that city. The local band, under the direction of Tom SoRelle, will perform at 8:30 Saturday morning. They will be competing with bands from other class A schools.

"Our first concern is winning outstanding Band," states Mr. SoRelle, "but we do plan to do some site seeing and just have a great time."

The students plan to return to Earth at approximately 7 p.m. Monday, April 30. On the way home they will spend the night in San Antonio.

It is an honor to be afforded the opportunity to make this

'DON'T RUSH ME, BOB. THE MORE I COMPARE THE LESS YOU'LL PAY'

Today's intensely competitive marketing climate provides consumers with unparalleled opportunities to get their dollar's worth—if they know how to shop.

During Consumer Information Week (April 30-May 5), sponsored by the Council of Better Business Bureaus and local stores and companies, you will be urged to: "Get Your Money's Worth... Get the Facts." Check points suggested are: Read the label; understand the guarantee; shop price and quality; know the cost of credit; and read the contract before signing.

This sort of constructive consumerism will provide shoppers with the information needed to make intelligent, carefully considered buying decisions. Put these check points to work when you shop and then you, too, can be an informed consumer and make unnecessary the many proposed consumer "protection" schemes which will restrict freedom of choice and the benefits of competition.

trip and a lot of hard work has gone into it. "The band students have been great in their enthusiasm and ability to raise the needed money for this trip. They have raised, on various projects, $1,700," states Mr. SoRelle. "Also, we have had excellent backing from the Band Boosters who furnished the remainder of the money, and from the people in the Springlake-Earth community who supported us in all our projects," concludes Mr. SoRelle.

Three Car Collision Occurs At Intersection 303-70

A three car collision occurred at intersection 303-70 Friday, April 20, at 5 p.m. involving a 65 Ford, driven by Claud J. Blackburn, Shallwater, going south on 303, who pulled in the path of a 69 Buick, driven by Jeff Skipworth, who was west bound on highway 70. Following the impact of the two cars, the Ford continued to skid for 200 feet crashing into a 1971 Chevrolet pickup belonging to Raybern Ort of Rt. 2, Earth. Jeff Skipworth and his father, Jimmy, a passenger in the car, both of Rt. 4, Muleshoe, were taken to West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe. Blackburn and his wife, Lorene, a passenger in the car, were rushed to the Highland Hospital in Lubbock. Mrs. Blackburn was released, but Blackburn, who was thrown from the car, is still in serious condition. Both cars were totaled and the truck sustained $25 or $30 of damage. Investigating officer, Weldon Parson, reported that a ticket was issued to Blackburn for failure to yield right of way.

Horse Killed In Accident Friday

A trailer hauling two horses, pulled by a 1971 Chevrolet pickup, driven by Billy Ray Garner, jackknifed and overturned, killing one horse at 6:15 Friday evening, April 20. The accident occurred five miles west of Earth on Highway 70. Garner, who was traveling east, said the trailer began to swerve and then jackknifed and broke loose. The truck received $300 of damage. According to Weldon Parson, investigating officer, no tickets were issued. The truck, trailer and horses belonged to Habel Cattle Co.

Although employment of the handicapped has improved greatly, there is still much to be done. Among the blind of working age only one-third are employed. Barely half of all the paraplegics are working. Merely one-quarter of the epileptics in the country, and only one out of seven with cerebral palsy are employed.

In the past 25 years there has been a growing acceptance by business of hiring the handicapped. Not only the physically handicapped but the mentally retarded and those who have been mentally ill are finding work they can do. Society has come to realize that all handicapped people deserve a chance to work, and many companies are giving them opportunities never before available.

Such companies as Eastman Kodak, Boeing, Olin, Cone Mills, IBM, General Electric and Western Electric are among the many which have been successfully employing the handicapped. There are thousands of others — both large and small.

At the recent Congress of American Industry of the National Association of Manufacturers, the President's committee on Employment of the Handicapped presented Jeno's, Inc., with the 1972 Employer of the Year Award. In citing the Duluth (Minn.) company, it was

MOTHER'S DAY IS SUNDAY MAY THIRTEENTH

A DISHWASHER WILL LIBERATE YOU... FROM THE CLOCK-A dishwasher saves the housewife an average of 728 hours a year (average family of four) according to recent studies. That's two hours a day. But time-saving isn't the only reason Frigidaire Dishmobiles are called the "Liberators."

FROM THE MESS-The best part: less mess. A dishwasher can hide an average day's dirty dishes, hold them all day and wash them all at once. Once-a-day capacity (for most families) is a time-saver, of course it's a mess saver, too.

FROM THE BOTHER-Why bother with the old suds-up-to-the-elbows-three-times-a-day-every-day routine? The bottles of lotions to soothe skin that shouldn't be subjected to harsh detergents in the first place. The scrubbing and scouring and scowling and dreading the end of a dinner party and hating the sight of a sink full of dirty dishes?

With the Frigidaire Dishmobile it's a new kind of life, Liberation. The liberation that you can indulge in three times a day... every day.

Troop Discusses Easter

The various ways in which other countries celebrate Easter were discussed when Brownie Troop 101 met Tuesday, April 16, in the community building.

Tracy Lackey led the Brownie Promise and Kelly Criswell led the Brownie Smile Song at the beginning of the meeting. During the program, the girls discussed several foreign countries and how they observe the Easter holiday. For example, in Israel, a sunrise service is held at the gravesides; in France, they don't have an Easter Bunny, but say that the church bell flies to Italy to get the eggs; in Japan, there is no Easter Bunny, but Easter eggs are elaborately decorated and this process sometimes takes several days. In our own Washington, D.C., an egg hunt is held on the White House Lawn.

Following the program, the Brownies took a nature hike looking for signs of spring. They found flowers, tree blooms, weeds, and a grasshopper.

When they returned from the hike, Mrs. Randolph said that they would have to hunt for their refreshments. She had hidden eggs for them to find.

Angela Layman led the singing grace and the girls divided the eggs and had Kool Aid, dip and chips to eat with them. Clean up time was held after refreshments, and then the girls played baseball, using a basketball.

Those present were Delores Rozalesi, Dina Heard, Angela Layman, Amy Gonzales, Elma Gauna, Joy Parish, Vonda Stephens, Kelly Criswell, Tracy Lackey, Darcy Randolph, and leaders, Mrs. Don Randolph and Mrs. Dennis Criswell.

Troop 101 Learns To Cook

Learning to cook can be a delightful experience as any member of Girl Scout Troop #101 will gladly relate. Twelve members of the troop met after school Tuesday in the Community Building in Earth and prepared a delicious breakfast. The troop divided into three groups. One group prepared sausage, another group cooked eggs and the third made toast poured orange juice and set the table.

Tracy Lackey led the group in singing grace, followed by the entire troop participating in eating a delicious breakfast, even if it were in the afternoon.

After eating the troop did K.P. duties. Some washing and drying dishes, others sweeping and tidying up the room.

The group settled down to make plans for attending the Play Day at Loveland. Those attending are required to bring a sack lunch and a drink. They will leave from the Community building at 9 a.m.

Those present were: Delores Rozalesi, Dina Heard, Angela Layman, Velinda Thomas, Amy Gonzales, Joy Parish, Vonda Stephens, Tracy Lackey, Kelley Criswell, Glenda James, Darcy Randolph, Tammy Lands and Meri Hausman, and their leaders Mrs. Carol Criswell, Mrs. Gayland Stephens and Mrs. Don Randolph.

Vitamin E Controversy Continues

Contrary to advertisements, there's little foundation for claiming vitamin E a miracle cure-all, one authority said this week.

"Although this nutrient is essential for good health, it isn't everything it's promoted as being," Karen Kreipke, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, contended.

"Studies and clinical trials fail to link vitamin E with 'curing' heart disease, cystic fibrosis, blood disorders, leg ulcers, diabetes and miscarriages," she emphasized. "Actually, very little is known about the vitamin.

"It functions in the body as an antioxidant and helps red blood cells live as long as they should.

"Small amounts of the vitamin are stored in various body organs, muscle and fat tissues. A fat-soluble vitamin, it requires presence of fat and bile salts for absorption.

"There's little chance that a person eating a well-balanced diet will lack vitamin E since most common foods contain modest amounts," Miss Kreipke added.

"Estimated adult daily requirement is 25-30 International Units—the average U.S. diet furnishes 2-66 I.U. daily.

"Best food sources are leafy vegetables, whole-grain food products and fats—especially vegetable oils," the specialist concluded.

by MARY LEE THOMPSON

Americans may be able to obtain their caloric needs easily, but they're apt to fall short of their nutrient needs. According to a 10-state survey a significant proportion of the population is malnourished or risking the development of nutritional problems.

The survey, conducted under contract with the federal government, was one of the most comprehensive studies of the nutritional status of low income people ever attempted. It involved more than 40,000 people with 50 per cent 16 years of age or under; 30 per cent from 17 to 44, and the rest 45 or older.

Evidence of the malnutrition was most commonly found among the black, less commonly among Spanish Americans, and least among white persons. Males showed more evidence of malnutrition than females, and adolescents had the highest prevalence of unsatisfactory nutritional status.

In general, the nutrients most often found lacking were iron, vitamin A, riboflavin, protein and low intakes of vitamin C. Dr. Philip L. White, secretary of the Council of Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association, says this is no indictment of our food supply but rather an indictment of our food habits.

He believes that indifference to sound nutritional principles is common to all income groups and is more of a factor than ignorance.

next meeting on May 7, will be held in the home of Mrs. Gayland Stephens.

Young Men Must Register With Selective Service

Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, the State Director of Selective Service for Texas, has issued a statement reminding young men of their responsibility under Federal Law to register with Selective Service.

The recent nationwide announcement that the draft has ended has misled some of our young men into thinking they no longer are required by law to register with Selective Service. This is incorrect!

The State Director pointed out the fact that Selective Service is being reorganized into a stand-by operation to keep draft machinery operative and ready in case of a national emergency that requires the drafting of young men again in the future. He pointed out that although inductions have ended--the Selective Service System continues to operate and the law continues to require each young man to register with Selective Service within 30 days before or after his 18th birthday.

Failure to register makes a young man subject to prosecution under Federal Law with a severe penalty upon conviction.

During the reorganization of the System into a stand-by basis, registration may be completed at any one of the 63 Selective Service System Area Offices that will remain open in Texas--or at points in every Texas County where volunteer workers will assist the young man in the simple steps of registration.

The registrars for Local Board No. four in the area is Ward M. Cooksey, principle of Springlake-Earth High School. The Local Board, Office is located at 117 East Ave., D in Muleshoe.

Railroad Denies Blame In Crash With School Bus

A third-party suit has been filed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Co., denying blame for the Feb. 6 collision of a train and school bus that took seven lives.

Two suits seeking total damages of $1,900,666 have been filed against the railroad and the school bus driver, Artiss Ray Johnson, 28.

The new suit, filed Wednesday, claims that the railroad was not negligent, that Johnson was not qualified to drive a school bus, and the Littlefield Independent School District was negligent in hiring him for that job.

Johnson was issued a citation for failure to possess a chauffeur's license after the collision.

He held a commercial license, not sufficient for bus driving, but had to take the test four times to pass it.

The collision took place as the pupils were on their way home, four blocks from the Littlefield business district.

The bus carried 29 persons, and 17, including Johnson, suffered non-fatal injuries.

Tech Schedules Registration

Distribution of registration materials for the first 1973 summer session at Texas Tech University will begin at 1 p.m. April 23 and continue through April 27, according to announcement by D.N. Peterson, registrar.

Distribution will be from the second floor Conference Room of West Hall from 1 to 6 p.m. each day.

He said address labels with the student's permanent legal address have been prepared for mailing fall 1973 registration materials and those students who have address changes or wish to have their fall registration materials mailed to an address other than the permanent legal address should report to West Hall between 1 and 6 p.m. on any day of the week of April 23-27.

Fall 1973 registration materials will be mailed beginning Aug. 1 and the mailing should be completed by Aug 15, he said.

The first summer session registration begins at 1 p.m. June 4 and continues through June 5. The second summer session registration begins at 8 a.m. July 16 and continues through 6 p.m. that same day.

Registration for both summer sessions will be in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

PIONEER SEEDS

We're proud our seeds have earned the trust of farmers like these...

M. G. Kellar recorded a yield of 7500 pounds with Pioneer brand 828. A top-yielding sorghum with plenty of water and fertilizer, Pioneer 828 will be planted again next year by M. G. Kellar, Rt. 2, Box 25, Earth, Texas.

Phillip Habers was pleased with Pioneer 3369A, he plans to increase acres planted in it from 67 to 300 this year. A yield of 190 bu. made 3369A a favorite for Phillip Habers, Box 17, Earth, Texas.

Because we were the first company to commercially produce hybrid corn and with 17 years of work on sorghum, we know a lot more about hybrids and how to make crosses that really yield. We've had longer to test and re-test our varieties. We've stuck with some of our early crosses, and we keep developing new ones to fit every growing condition imaginable.

For the Southern Panhandle and Plains area we recommend these sorghum, corn and forage hybrids...

Pioneer brand 846—excellent drought resistance—consistent high yields—MDM and smut resistant—medium maturity.

Pioneer brand 820—good yielder under stress—outstanding with plenty of water and fertility—MDM resistant—full season.

Pioneer brand 8417—new yellow endosperm sorghum—champion yielder in medium maturity class—large open heads—does well on all types of land.

Pioneer brand 3369A—a corn with outstanding seedling vigor—tolerant to blight—good roots and stalks—good ear retention—heavy grain yield.

Pioneer brand 3306—excellent for grain or silage—drought resistant—single cross—well-suited to narrow rows.

Pioneer brand 988—sorghum sudangrass hybrid for pasture, greenchop, hay or haylage—ready to cut or graze in a little more than a month—regrows again and again all summer with adequate moisture and fertilizer.

When you choose a hybrid for your land, choose one from the company that started it all...

RECESS AT BAIRFIELD SCHOOL--Recess at a turn of the century school was not much different from recess today as children play under the supervision of a watchful teacher. School Marm, Mrs. William A. Thompson, a teacher at Dnbar High School, watches as children in period costumes play a game of "London Bridges" by the one-room Bairfield School House at the Ranch Headquarters of the Museum at Texas Tech University. The school has been restored and furnished authentically to represent the one-room ranch schools of the pioneer era of West Texas. Donated by Charles E. Bairfield, who began his education in the building in 1907 on his father's ranch near Clarendon, the Bairfield School was dedicated Saturday, April 7, at the Ranch Headquarters. (Tech Photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jones of Holdenville, Oklahoma, are hospitalized in the Baptist Memorial Clinic in Oklahoma City, suffering from severe burns.

The couple were burned Saturday night during a storm warning period when they went down to inspect the cellar for possible snakes and spiders, before waking their two young children to go to the cellar. As the two entered the cellar carrying a lighted lantern, an accumulation of butane gas had somehow collected in the cellar causing an explosion.

The two were rushed to Oklahoma City where Mr. Jones remains in the Intensive Care Unit suffering from burns covering 90% of his body. Sixty-five percent of his body is said to have third degree burns. Mrs. Jones was burned about her face, neck, hands and arms, but is doing as well as can be expected. Mrs. Jones is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Middleton of Earth.

DOCTORS DON'T ALWAYS AGREE ON COMMON COLD

Many physicians are of the opinion that there is no special diet to help a patient to either overcome the common cold, or prevent it.

Cod liver oil, citrus fruits and their juices, alcoholic beverages and other food and drink long regarded for their salutary effects have struck out, according to some medical studies and texts cited by the authors of an article written for pharmacists.

It's Time To Renew Notary Commissions

Secretary of State Mark W. White, Jr. announced that all presently commissioned Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term which begins June 1, 1973 and ends June 1, 1975, must pay the required fee and file a new oath and bond with the County Clerk between May 1, 1973 and May 15, 1973, inclusive.

Secretary of State White further stated that any person not now a Notary Public who desires appointment for the beginning of the new term on June 1, 1973, should apply to the County Clerk before May 14, 1973. The required application forms may be obtained from the County Clerk.

Mr. White emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State inasmuch as the law specifically requires that the County Clerk approve Notary Bonds and forward copies of the application to the Secretary of State.

use are advised against, too.

According to the National Therapeutic Disease Index, the nose drops most often recommended are Neo-Synephrine in appropriate strengths for infants, children or adults. It is unwise to use medications for infants intended for adults. It is also unwise to use nose drops more than two or three times daily, unless the physician gives instructions to the contrary.

Some physicians advocate rest in bed in a well-ventilated room as good supportive treatment for the common cold. Others disagree. The well-known Common Cold Research Unit in Salisbury, England suggests bed rest only for a severe cold.

Silage Comparison Tests Begin At Westhoma Farms

Supervised planting was completed Tuesday, April 17, on a 30-acre corn silage demonstration field at Westhoma Farms near Earth. Corn hybrids from three seed companies are being compared in side-by-side demonstrations of high and low populations on 30 and 40-inch rows. Sprinkler irrigation will be used.

Planting was supervised by Jim Higdon, Agronomy Services Director of Pioneer Hi-Bred Co.

Pioneer brand 3306 will be compared to DeKalb XL72A and Weathermaster EPX II at various plant populations. Doug Lewis, farm manager and representative from other companies were also involved in planting.

The demonstration field is part of Pioneer's program to give farmers a firsthand look at how various hybrids will perform under local soil and weather conditions. Hybrids are clearly marked and area farmers are encouraged to watch the progress of the comparisons throughout the season.

Results of this and other demonstrations conducted by Pioneer Hi-Bred Company will be available from the Company at harvest.

What To Do If You're First At Accident Scene

The scene: A highway accident where serious injury has occurred. You are the first and only other person on the spot.

The question: What do you do until the ambulance or rescue squad arrives?

It's a chilling thought, but it's a situation in which anyone could find himself. The best answer, of course, is to be prepared by a training course, but even rudimentary knowledge of what to do—and what not to do—may give you courage to face up to the situation. And it could make a life-saving difference.

If there is fire or imminent danger of fire your first move is obvious; remove the victim from further danger. Otherwise don't move the victim yourself. You may only add to his injuries.

Now it is wisest to approach the injured person as though he is in a life or death situation. Send someone else to summon help but don't go yourself until you have made sure the victim is breathing, until any bleeding is under control, and until you have treated him for shock.

1. Breathing. If the person has stopped breathing, turn him on his back, quickly clear his throat and mouth, tilt his head back and lift his lower jaw from beneath and behind. Start mouth-to-mouth resuscitation immediately.

With an adult, open your mouth wide and place it tightly over the person's mouth. Pinch his nostril shut. Blow into his mouth. Remove your mouth to listen for the return outflow of air. Continue blowing about 12 times a minute until regular breathing is restored. If there is no exchange of air, turn the person on his side and strike him sharply between the shoulder blades several times to dislodge any obstruction in the air passage.

With a child, place your mouth over both nose and mouth. Blow less vigorously, using shallower breaths, about 20 times a minute.

2. Bleeding. Exert direct pressure over the wound area, using the cleanest material available or even your bare hand if nothing is available. The cleaner the cloth the better for preventing infection, but it is obviously better to run the risk of infection than to let the person bleed to death for the want of a sterile pad.

Pressure should be applied evenly over the entire area, if possible in such a way as to bring the edges of the wound together. Properly applied, this even pressure squeezes broken blood vessels closed and helps clots form.

If blood soaks through the dressing, do not remove it. Put additional layers of cloth over it. After bleeding has been controlled, wrap with a strip of material and tie snugly and firmly but not so tightly that circulation is stopped. Use of tourniquets is strongly discouraged, and is seldom required unless all else fails in a life-threatening situation.

3. Shock. In the situation with which you are coping, you should assume shock is present and treat for it. It can cause death if not treated promptly even though the injury itself may not be that severe. Have the victim lie down. Elevate feet and legs 12 inches or more—except in the case of head or chest injury or difficulty in breathing, elevate his head and chest rather than feet. He should be kept warm but not

FAN IT . . . DON'T CAP IT!

COMPETITION

It is increasingly apparent that the best answers to many of our social and economic problems will not be found in new government programs, but in stimulating business competition and growth.

For example, better railroads and other forms of mass transportation competing with the automobile will be better than the over-regulation we have had by well-meaning, but not omniscient commissions and bureaus.

Food and other products will have stable prices only when government controls and quotas are modified to allow maximum production to boost supplies and to encourage more active sales competition in the marketplace.

The growing energy crisis results from government over-regulation of existing sources and the opposition which has slowed the development of nuclear power and delayed its emergence as a truly competitive means of obtaining energy.

The public has always benefited most when the profit and loss market system functions freely and when government regulation is limited to assuring fair play.

The fastest growing tree is the Eucalyptus saligna, which has been known to grow 45 feet in two years in central Africa. (Bamboo grows even faster but is technically a wood grass, not a tree.)

hot. Keep him quiet and give reassurance.

By now you have dealt with the most severe problems and can wait for the trained emergency attendants to take over.

The procedures you have used come from information given students in the Medical Self-Help Training course administered by HEW's Division of Emergency Medical Services, a component of Health Services and Mental Health Administration.

PVT. GALEN D. BOCK

FT. ORD, CALIF., April-- Army Private Galen D. Bock, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Bock of Earth, recently completed the first phase of training under the modern volunteer Army program at Ft. Ord, California.

The program combines basic and advanced individual training (AIT) into an average 16-week program, depending on the AIT the soldier receives after completing basic. Decentralized instruction at the unit level and a reduction of formations and inspections give the soldier more time to train and increased off-duty time. Fewer restrictions on off-duty travel and improved living facilities are other benefits of the program.
