NOSIN' .. WITH POLLY

After more than seven long years of driving back and forth from Littlefield to work, finally are residents of Earth. When we woke up Monday morning without that mad rush to get ready, plus that distance drive, I can truthfully say I would all have taken to DRIPPING or SPRAYING that neighbors told us would have been enforced upon us as an action after moving to Earth across the sand hills. Anytime after finding out they didn't use insecticides, that they had something much better than that PURE IRRIGATION WATER. All I could say is I didn't mind, but why use it on me when it is so precious to crops.

Silver Tea Climaxes Girl Scout Week Sunday Afternoon

Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts all over the entire United States are celebrating this 43rd anniversary of the Girl Scouts organization this week.

Mrs. Juliette Goodon Low was the founder of the Girl Scouts in the United States starting in Savannah, Georgia on March 12, 1912.

Earth Scouts begin their anniversary celebration with a cookie sale from door to door, with all three troops participating in the sale.

The Scout week will come to a climax Sunday March 13, with a Juliette Low World Friendship tea to be held at the community building.

Brownie Troop 24 will be the hostesses at the silver gift tea, and every woman and daughter in the community is invited. The calling hours are 3:30 to 5:30 p. m.

The silver gift contributions derived from the Sunday afternoon tea will be used by Brownie troop 24 to buy material for work projects such as beadwork, leather craft, games and sports essential for a well rounded scouting program.

Leaders of each troop have had different activities for their troop this week. Mrs. Denton Talbert and Mrs. E. C. Kelley's troop 24 presented a health program Thursday afternoon. All the troop mothers were invited along with troop 23 and their leaders, to the continued play.

Troop leaders are making a plea for more adults to get interested in the Girl Scout work, as there are lots of new girls wanting to join the three troops already organized, and that there is not enough leaders to meet the demand.

D. E. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Angeley Return From Arkansas Tues.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Angeley and Mr. D. E. McCarty made a trip to Springdale to look over a new clinic in Springdale, and also to visit Dr. Hunter, who has been seriously ill.

McCarty and Angeley have been touring several clinics in order to pick up new ideas and to eliminate impractical points for Earth's Clinic.

Plans have been drawn up for Earth's new Clinic but due to new ideas in looking over other clinics, a few changes have been made in the original plans.

McCarty stated Wednesday that plans for the clinic were feasible, and yet something he felt that Earth could well be proud of.

Dr. Hunter is much improved and plans to be back in Earth Sunday if possible. Mrs. Hunter plans to move here as soon as the school term is over.

Living in Health

Lesson for March 28, 1955

ASCARIASIS is the name of a disease. It is caused by colonies of small round worms, parasites, named Ascaris. A Christian medical missionary who operates a hospital in Korea writes: "Reducing the number of people who have this debilitating parasite from 99% to 38% in one year, in our leper colony, is something to be proud of..."

Dr. Foreman

Doing, Not Drifting Christian living has many aspects. One of them is the importance of keeping a healthy body. Ascariasis seldom puts the patient to bed. Indeed the patient is seldom aware that anything is wrong with him, and yet his lack of ambition, his dullness of mind, his lack of dependability, may have their basis in his physical condition. So it is with all diseases, so it is with all physical inefficiency even when you can't quite call it a disease. It is a sin to be less healthy than you can be. It is assuming you can help it because your physical flabbiness leads to mental and moral and spiritual flabbiness too. This is not saying that every patient in a hospital is there because of his personal sin. But it is true that many of them are there precisely by their own fault. The point is, health of body is a Christian's responsibility, a duty he owes God, other men, and himself. And health of body will not come by chance, it will not come by drifting. It comes by doing. This is true of the whole Christian life, bottom to top. Paul says to his converts: "Every one of you should learn to control his body, keeping it pure and treating it with respect, and never regarding it as an instrument for self-gratification." (1 Thess. 4:4, Phillips translation.) Health begins in self-control comes only by working at it.

Purity is Positive

It is true that the New Testament warns against spiritual sins quite as much as against physical sins, if not more so. But it is also true that there are plain teachings about virtues and vices of the body itself. Drunkenness, sexual sins of various kinds, are always marked out as spiritual dangers. Blessed are the pure in heart, that is true. But those who are not pure in body are not pure in heart. Further, purity is not a negative thing. A virgin who had never touched a drop of liquor might yet not be pure. Repression of desire as the Bible knows and psychology on its own has also discovered, is never repression, with nothing to balance it may be a bad thing. A driver was being slow now he eliminated some distance on a certain route he took every week, and so saved three minutes on every trip. But he could not answer the question: "What do you do with those three minutes?" So purity of life means more than not squandering our energies and wasting our health, to drink or otherwise; it means using the energy we save, as God would have it used.

Who's in Charge Here?

The key question for health—physical, mental, and spiritual—is, "Who is in charge here?" Is your body in charge of your mind, or is it the other way around? But which mind is in charge here? Your lazy, sleazy, shifty mind, content with ignorance, asking only to be amused (for you have such a mind), or the mind that aspires to higher things (for you have such a mind too). You carry with you all your life the mind of the brute, the mind of the child, but you have the right to a mature mind, to be mature. Who is in charge here, the brute, the child, or you? Above all, who is in charge of you? If the true answer to that last question is God, then the true answers to the others will be easier.

RICE AND RED BEANS

A perfect foil for cornbread sticks and tossed green salad is this fast-fix casserole of fluffy rice and fat red beans.

- 2 cups (1 No. 303 can) kidney beans
3/4 cups tomato juice
1/2 cup chopped onions
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup uncooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup grated parmesan cheese

Drain beans, reserving liquid.

Add enough of the tomato juice to make 4 cups liquid. Cook onions in butter until tender. Add rice, salt, pepper, and tomato juice. Bring to rapid boil. Lower heat to simmer; cover. Cook about 30 minutes, without removing lid, until rice is tender.

Add beans and toss lightly with a fork. Heat thoroughly. Serve at once sprinkled with parmesan cheese. If mixture seems a little dry, add more tomato juice or water when adding the beans. Yield: six 1-cup servings.

Baby's First Smile Will Come At One Month

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

Newsfeatures

When will your baby smile? At birth the baby's brain is all but the nerve pathways are stretched up and all his actions are automatic, on a reflex level. But by the time he's a month old the tiny nerves are beginning to carry messages. The baby begins to do things on purpose. The first nerves to work are those closest to the brain—those that develop on a head-to-tail pattern.

The very first truly voluntary act a baby is to smile. He usually does it at about a month old. For a few days you notice twitches of his face twist a muscle as though he's feeling something that comes from his muscles of his face. Finally he finds the way and smiles at you, at life, at the things that's good. He smiles because he wants to, because he's good. He's not copying you or even blind babies smile.

Something that comes from your baby, that makes him express himself this way, always seemed quite significant to me that old Mother should have made this the purposeful thing a baby

Local Boys Arrive Overseas In Germany To Remain Stationed There Eighteen Months

Two local boys who entered the Armed Services last fall have been sent overseas and have arrived in Germany where they will be stationed for the next eighteen months.

Pvt. Dudley Roach and Pvt. Macky McCarty took their basic training at Ft. Bliss in El Paso, and was transferred to Camp Gordon, Georgia. Where they spent another eight weeks in training. McCarty trained as a dispatcher clerk and Roach was in the Signal Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Roach of Springlake stated that they had received a letter from their son, Dudley, saying that he had arrived in Germany, but had not been permanently stationed. (At present he is in the British sector of Berlin, Germany).

Pvt. McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McCarty, arrived in Germany two weeks ago and has been stationed at Neckarsulm, where he is training at a radar school. Pvt. McCarty has stated that he would be happy to receive letters from home town folks. So anyone desiring to write, should send letters to:

C. P. Martin Guest Speaker For XII Study Club Meeting

Members of the KTT Study club met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. James Sanderson with Mrs. Arnold Washington as co-hostess.

A brief business meeting was held prior to the program.

The speaker for the occasion was C. P. Martin, grade school principal of the Springlake school, who gave an informative talk on "Child, Teacher and Parent Relationship."

Refreshments of dainty tuna sandwiches, cookies, mints and lime punch were served from a table decorated with St. Patrick's Day theme.

Present were two new members, Mrs. Troy Lemley and Mrs. Earnest Baker and three guests, Mrs. Cecil Brown and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Martin and members, Mrs. Jimmy Banks, Mrs. Orion Bibby, Mrs. Bill Burrow, Mrs. James Busby, Mrs. Roy Byers, Mrs. Billy Clayton, Mrs. Bob Edmilton, Mrs. Edwin Jones, Mrs. Donald Kellef, Mrs. Tom McGill, Mrs. Alton McNamara, Mrs. James Packard, Mrs. Jess Watson, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Washington and honorary member, Mrs. W. T. Clayton.

The next meeting will be guest night and will be held in the home of Mrs. Tom McGill, Tuesday, March 22, with Mrs. Lorene McNamara bringing the program on "Beter Grooming."

Lamb County Spelling Bee To Be In Littlefield March 12

The Lamb County spelling bee will be held in the district court room at Littlefield March 12 at 2 p.m., according to Glenn Reeves, principal of Littlefield High school.

Spellers, from all schools in the county will compete in the bee, and the winner will represent the county in the district spelling bee in Lubbock. The winner of the Lubbock bee will be eligible to enter the national spelling bee in Washington, D. C.

The district bee will be held in Lubbock April 2 at 1:30 p.m. in O. L. Slaton Junior High auditorium. Mrs. Opal Dixon announced this week.

Judge E. A. Bills will call the words, and each school with a contestant in the contest will furnish a judge for the county event.

Spellers who are competing this week in Littlefield school spelling finals include Judy Merrifield and Ralph Maurer, of the 7th grade, and James Presley and Bill Wade of the 8th grade.

Dean Favers Wins Award For Essay On Soil Conservation

BY DEAN FAVER
WHAT CONSERVATION OF SOIL AND WATER MEANS TO ME

Soil and water conservation means a lot to me because I live on a farm and I plan to farm after I finish an agriculture course in college and when I do farm I want fertile soil to work with for by having fertile soil is the only way a farmer can survive on his farm.

Erosion does a lot of harm. An example is to be found in Georgia, where a gully which today stretches across two counties and measures from 125 to 200 feet deep and from 100 yards to 2 1/2 miles wide started less than 75 years ago under the eaves of a barn 10,000 acres including farms, roads, woods, barns, homes and churches have been lost. A simple terrace in the beginning could have stopped the whole thing.

When a farm is eroded the losses are many. Here are a few: Production and income are lowered resulting in unpainted and unrepaired buildings that are inadequate and not good enough. Also out of date clothing with its consequent loss of self respect and mental suffering, especially for children when they see others wearing new and stylish clothes.

Erosion and lack of water causes withdrawal from religious and social life and often means poor sanitation or none at all. Lack of conservation hurts the business world too. Dry goods merchants suffer. Implement dealers make fewer sales; grocers are able to sell to these poor farmers only the cheapest foods or if they do sell the more expensive things they sometimes fail to collect for them. Local bankers make fewer loans and lose on some that they do make. The county government collects less taxes and the schools fund becomes less with each succeeding year.

Now let us look what lack of conservation does to the nation.

three parts by Mrs. Jack Angeley, Mrs. Buzzy Jones and Mrs. Robert Duke.

Refreshments of custard angel food cake and punch were served by the hostess to members: Mrs. Oliver Tunnell, Mrs. Edd Dawson, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Calvin Wood, Mrs. Eugene Lee, Mrs. Marvin Ellis, Mrs. J. B. Williams, Mrs. Kenneth Cowley, Mrs. Duke, Mrs. Coker Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Glascock and Mrs. Angeley.

Sunbeams Begin Study of Panama

The Sunbeams of the Baptist Church met Monday at 4:15 p. m. to begin their new mission study on Panama. The book being taught with this study is entitled "Taboo of Panama." Mrs. Earl Parish, Counsellor, reports that a supper has been planned for next meeting, Tuesday, March 15, with mother of the Sunbeams as special guests.

Mrs. J. L. Hinson, who recently returned from Panama, will bring the program on Panama, showing pictures and objects that she acquired while at Panama.

All Sunbeams and their mothers are urged to attend this program. Thirty nine Sunbeams and four leaders were present for Tuesday's meeting.

Manufacturers of dry goods have less demand for their products; implement manufacturers do less business and by reason of small sales less total profit, they must charge more per article to stay in business. The same can be said of iron and steel foundries and practically all other businesses.

But conservation of soil and water will prevent these things continued prosperity and a high standard of living and so that is what conservation of soil and water means to me.

How to Make A Glamor Petticoat

By Dorothy Eoe
Associated Press Woman's Editor

Petticoat fever is a reliable sign of spring.

The new silhouettes call for new petticoats differently shaped than last year's styles. And in case you can't find a ready-made petticoat in just the style or color you want take a tip from experts at your local sewing center and make your own in matching or contrasting taffeta and net with can-can ruffles for a flirtatious touch.

You'll need about 2 1/8 yards of 40-inch rayon taffeta plus 5 yards of 7-inch net flounce 4 yards of 4 1/2 inch net flounce and 2 yards of 4 1/2 inch net flounce. This net flounce is available in various widths already ruffled and bound. However if you're interested in an unusual shade it's easy to make it your self using the ruffler attachment on your sewing machine to ruffle and stitch in one operation. Mercerized thread is most satisfactory for taffeta.

To make a pattern use a piece of paper about 40 inches square. Setting a compass on one corner of the paper draw a quarter circle. For a 24-inch waist draw your circle with a radius of 8 1/2 inches. Add a half inch radius for each two inches of waist measurement. For example on 8 3/4 inch radius will fit a 26-inch waist and so on.

For length measure two inches less than your skirt length. If your normal skirt length is 30 inches, measure along the straight edges of the paper 28 inches from waistline marking a measure 28 inches from the waistline at intervals marking each and connect the points at the bottom with an even curve. Cut out pattern.

Fold fabric crosswise. Pin pattern to fabric matching the straight edges to fold and selvages. Cut out. Your petticoat is in the form of a half circle with one seam.

To make waistband cut a strip 5 inches wide and 2 inches longer than your waist measurement trim of your selvages and seam together, leaving seam open 8 inches from the top. Press seam open and edge stitch along both sides of the 8 inch opening. Clip seam 1/4 inch at the opening, turn under 1/4 inch along opening and top stitch. Turn up a narrow hem at the bottom of the petticoat and finish with two lines of stitching.

Fold waistband strip in half lengthwise and stitch along top edge 7/8 inch down from the fold. Then fold again, so the folded edge stops 1/2 inch above the two raw edges. Stitch across both ends through all thicknesses, trim seams, turn to right side and press.

Pin the double row edge of the waistband to the right side of the skirt waist edge with row edges up. Baste and stitch. Clip along the curved edge, turn the waist band up and slip stitch loose fold of waistband to line of machine stitching.

Now pin the ruffles to the underside of the skirt. The first ruffle is pinned six inches from the hem. Still using the 7-inch ruffling, pin the next row two inches above the last row. Using the 4 1/2 inch flounce, pin two rows two inches apart. The 2 1/2 inch flounce is pinned 1 1/2 inches above the last row. Stitch together the ends of the ruffles, using two rows of stitching, and trim close to stitching line. Then stitch on the ruffles and press.

Because of the graduated rows of ruffles, you'll find your petticoat flares crisply, adding body to lightweight fabrics. A good wardrobe trick is to make several, in various colors to make a festive outfit of the simplest cotton dress.

Frozen Soups Get Warm Welcome

THERE'S WONDERFUL FLAVOR in an egg and shrimp curry when it is made with new frozen condensed soup.

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
LENTEN AND OTHER meals will benefit from some of the frozen soups now on the market. We have tried four of them. Fish chowder, cream potato, oyster stew and cream of shrimp, and there is no new food product that we are more enthusiastic about.

Although all four of these soups are delicious as is, we have found that they can be varied beautifully. In addition the oyster stew and the cream of shrimp varieties make out-of-this-world sauces for main dishes.

Our favorite way with the fish chowder is to prepare it according to the directions on the can, and just before serving to stir in dried crushed dill leaf. We mean dill leaf, not dill seed, and it can be added by pinches to suit your taste. With this flavor change the frozen chowder rivals the divine fish soup served at a well known Finnish restaurant in New York.

The cream of potato soup also benefits from dried crushed dill leaf. Another way to vary the flavor of and give color to the potato soup is to add minced parsley and finely grated raw carrot (separately or together) to it. The soup is also a wonderful vehicle for using up leftover cooked vegetables. If you keep a bottle of capers in your refrigerator for salad garnishing, you'll find a table spoon or so of the capers do well in the cream of potato soup. And you can make a wondrously pretty coral-colored soup from the cream of potato by adding canned pimento; a recipe for this version follows.

The oyster stew has a lovely delicate flavor just as it comes from the can with the addition of milk or light cream. But it also makes a fine main dish this way. Put the 10-ounce can of frozen condensed oyster stew in a saucepan and stir over low heat until melted. Then fish out the oysters with a slotted spoon and reserve. (You are going to thicken the liquid part of the stew and you don't want to toughen the oysters over the heat the sauce will need.) Now stir a couple of table spoons of flour together with a couple of table spoons of cold water until no lumps are left. Add the flour paste to the hot soup and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly. Add the reserved oysters and a cup or more flaked cooked fish fillets and reheat gently without boiling. Use a mild flavored white-meat fish — perch or flounder are fine — so the delicate taste of the original oyster stew won't be overpowered. Spoon the fish and oysters over crisp hot toast and sprinkle with paprika. Or press a hard-cooked egg through a small strainer over the fish for a garnish.

And finally the superb cream of shrimp. We used this soup recently as the base for a curry sauce for hard cooked eggs served over rice. As a luncheon dish this combination made a great hit with our guests. Three of us 'lapped it up! We are giving you this recipe with a very modest amount of curry — add more if you like your curry hot. With this dish we had a tossed green salad with a honey-fruit dressing. We don't as a rule like green salads with sweet dressings but because we did not of fer the usual chutney it was welcome with the curry. For dessert we had a filled and frosted cake. All in all a good company lunch. If you serve this curry dish during Lent, fruit and cheese may be substituted for the cake.

SLICED EGGS WITH CURRY-SHRIMP SAUCE

Ingredients: 1 can (10 oz.) frozen condensed cream of shrimp soup, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon curry powder, 3 hard boiled eggs, (sliced) 2 cups (about) cooked rice.

Method: Put soup, milk and curry powder in a saucepan over low heat; stir often until thoroughly heated. Arrange sliced eggs over rice and pour curry shrimp sauce over. Serve at once. Makes 3 servings.

Note: You will need to cook 2-3 cup raw rice in order to have the amount of cooked rice called for.

CORAL SOUP
Ingredients: 1 can (10 1/4 oz.) frozen condensed cream of potato soup, water, 2 table spoons of chopped pimento, minced chives or green onions. Makes 3 servings.

Texans In Washington

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — It appears Texans and New Mexicans may have buried the hatchet — the one they've used for decades to hatch at each other's federal-aid waterway projects. All was harmony when they sat around a conference table here to discuss solution of two urgent Pecos river problems. The river heads up in New Mexico. Above Carlsbad, there's presently a great loss of water where the flow spreads out over salt cedar flats, so they propose a 16-mile channel project. Across the state line in Texas, farmers who get irrigation water from the Red Bluff Reservoir on the Pecos are being hurt by pollution from salt springs below Carlsbad. An estimated 2 1/2 million dollars is needed to take care of both problems. Seated around the table in the Senate Public Works Committee room were the Texas Commissioner of the Pecos River Compact Commission J. C. Wilson of Pecos, and his legal advisor, Emory Rasmussen of Midland; the New Mexico Commissioner, John Bliss, several members of Congressional delegations from both states, and Interior Department officials who handled federal reclamation work. Sen. Anderson (D-NM) presided. From the beginning there was agreement the work should be done. The question was "who will pay for it?" The conference ended in agreement to work for passage of legislation authorizing federal financing of a major part, if not all of the cost. When the meeting was over, Anderson made his way through the milling throng and approached Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex) and the Freshman West Texas Democratic Congressman, J. T. Rutherford, Odessa. Anderson told Rutherford: "I want you to know I appreciate your attitude. There's no good reason why we can't work together here, and get things done for our states, instead of bickering and quarrelling." He then cited the cooperative attitude Daniel had taken in working with the New Mexico congressional delegation since the Texas entered the Senate two years ago. He and Daniel then recalled their team work on legislation last year which was mutually satisfactory to water users in both states. Texas' senior senator, Lyndon

Let Us Reason Together

By W. E. IRVINE

"Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their hearts, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?" Acts 2:37.

In the above reading we see a group of people who had been religious, believing in God through the law of Moses, but who have just been convinced they were sinning. In God's sight. After hearing the first gospel sermon under the new commission as given by Jesus, they were made to know they had been guilty of violating the law of the God in heaven whom they had believed they had been serving correctly. Now believing they had killed the man Jesus who was really the Christ for whom they had looked, even as Peter told them in the 36th verse, they were made to cry, "Men and brethren, what must we do?" They knew there was something for them to do in order to be cleansed of the guilt of sin. They now know and believe that this Jesus whom they crucified is the Christ.

What are some of the answers today we hear given to those who are in sin and want to know what to do to be saved? Perhaps answers like these are given: believe only in Jesus, and since you have already evidenced that by the fact you accepted the message of Peter, there is nothing more for you to do but live faithfully for Christ; or maybe this answer: fall down on your knees and pray for the direct operation of the holy spirit to work miraculously upon you.

Now, let us hear the answer of the apostle Peter who was speaking by inspiration of God. "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Acts 2:38. Is that the answer you were given when you asked, "What must I do?" These people believed and they were further told to repent and be baptized for remission of sins. Repent joined to baptism by the connecting conjunction and, if a man must repent to have remission of sins, he must also be baptized for the same reason. Think on these things.

Large Number Entries Made in South Plains Show by Lamb

A large group of Lamb County boys are among the several hundred FFA and 4-H lads to enter the 22nd annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show which will be held at the Fair grounds here March 14-15. General Superintendent Dave Sherrill has announced. Among the early entry blanks received by show officials were those from 33 barrows and 21 calves from Lamb County. An estimated 1,100 animals have been entered from throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. Austin E. Haney, Jr., assistant county agent, has announced that the Lamb County 4-H Club will have 11 calves in the show. Entering the animals are: Mike Eaton, Littlefield; Steve Eaton, Littlefield; Doyce Turner, Muleshoe; Royce Turner, Muleshoe; Bobby Manley, Littlefield; Kenneth Hutchins, Littlefield; Mike Burgess, Earth and Tommy Davis of Amherst. The Littlefield FFA Chapter will enter 16 barrows, and five calves. William Hall and James Pirkey, teachers, have announced. Boys showing the barrows will be: Walter Hill, Littlefield; Ronald Rogers, Littlefield; Max Barnett, Littlefield; Douglas Walden, Littlefield; Eddie Wallace, Sudan; Johnny Fields, Amherst; and Thomas Moss, Littlefield. The calves will be shown by Douglas Walden, Thomas Moss, Charles Durham, Don Tindal, and Glenn Blankenship, all of Star Rt. 2, Littlefield. Seven barrows will be shown by members of the Sudan FFA Chapter, teacher Edgar E. Chaney has said. The boys to display the animals are: Bobby Beale, Kenny Wells, Gene Bartley, James Gore, Jimmy Newman and Ronnie Fisher, all of Sudan. The Amherst FFA Chapter will have three calves shown by Bill B. Johnson, who has worked closely with Anderson, was at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., having a kidney stone removed. East Texas' Rep. John Dowdy's office was the scene of a get acquainted session for Texas congressmen and their secretaries. Mrs. Dowdy is on her husband's staff — a full time working secretary. She knew that a lot of the new Texas secretaries had not met one another or many of the older Texas secretaries and their bosses. So on a mid-week afternoon she held open house with coffee and cookies cup in the shape of a map of Texas.

Three Lamb County Girls Are Entered In Princes Contest

Three attractive young ladies from Lamb County have been entered in the Princess Contest to be held in conjunction with the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show which will be held in Lubbock March 14-16.

Betty Byars, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Byars, Rt. 1, Anton, has been entered in the contest by the Spade 4-H Club.

The attractive young high school sophomore has brown hair and brown eyes. Kenneth Hutchins is president of the sponsoring club.

Ann Adams, 16, daughter of Mrs. N. N. Frey, Star Rt. 2, Littlefield, has been entered in the contest by the Spade FFA Chapter. The attractive young high school junior has brown hair and brown eyes. Don Mouser is president of the sponsoring chapter.

Jo Ann Parrack, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parrack 1013 West 9th, Littlefield, has been entered in the contest by the Littlefield FFA Chapter. The attractive young high school senior has brown hair and hazel eyes. Eddie Wallace is president of the sponsoring chapter.

This is the third year such a contest has been conducted by the stock show committee. Two Princesses, one representing the 4-H clubs and one representing the FFA chapters will be selected at a judging program Saturday morning, March 12, in the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Building. The two lucky young ladies will be selected on the basis of beauty and appearance alone. Presidents of FFA chapters and 4-H clubs will be selected at random to serve as judges.

The two Princesses will then be outfitted in Western clothes and will serve as official hostesses during the three-day stock show. Throughout the program they will present ribbons and awards to the boys exhibiting prize winning livestock.

Each FFA chapter and 4-H club which has a boy entering livestock in the show is eligible to have a Princess contestant. Among the early entries in the two classifications were the following girls:

4-H Princess — Betty Byars, Spade 4-H Club; Doris Ann Fields, Muleshoe 4-H Club; Ophelia Powell, Crosbyton 4-H Club; Mary Darden, Slaton 4-H Club; Mary Darden, Lorenzo 4-H Club and Sammie Pittman, Gaines Co. 4-H Club.

FFA Princess—Sylvia Ral'sback, Roosevelt FFA; Lois Ann Collins,

4 Million Dollars Borrowed in Jan. By Texas Farmers

Texas farmers and ranchers borrowed in excess of 4 million dollars from the Federal Land Bank of Houston during the month of January.

These figures were revealed by Sterling C. Evans, president of the bank, in his report at the annual stockholder's meeting held in Houston February 23 and 24.

Of the 136 national farm loan associations operating in the state, 134 had one or more representatives in attendance.

Representing the National Farm Loan Association of Littlefield was H. L. Woody and W. H. McCown.

Land Bank loans totalling $28,260,450 were made during 1954, according to Evans, who informed the representatives that applications were now being received in the greatest numbers for 20 years. Reasons given for the increase were the 4 per cent interest rate maintained by the bank and the high operating costs along with drought conditions over much of the state. Dividends amounting to more than 2 million dollars were paid by the Bank during the past year, Evans reported.

4-H Clubs Are Big Business In Texas; Valued At $7,500,000

The estimated value of demonstrations in agriculture, home economics and related fields owned by Texas 4-H club members is $7,500,000. The 122,000 4-H members last year report the state 4-H leaders, conducted a grand total of 239,754 different demonstrations involving practically every phase of agricultural production and homemaking.

The state 4-H leaders in their annual report show that 4,318 local clubs conducted active programs during 1954. Also that 45,418 members received training in farm and home safety; 22,451 in soil and water conservation; 42,640 in citizenship; 13,940 in group recreation; more than 4,200 in music appreciation and 20,800 received training in some phase of judging.

The records also show that 4-H members are farmers and livestock producers. Their corn acreage last year exceeded 11,500 acres and one of their members, Doye Turner of Lamb county, set an all-time corn production record for the state of 201.3 bushels an acre. They planted over 14,000 acres of cotton; 4,700 acres of garden vegetables and carried out soil and water conservation practices on 26,614 acres.

They owned 573,128 chickens and turkeys; 6,123 dairy animals; 13,461 beef animals 31,466 swine; 12,112 sheep and almost 5,000 were enrolled in the tractor maintenance program.

They canned and preserved 380,015 quarts of food while an additional 301,208 pounds of food was preserved by freezing. The 36,744 enrolled in clothing work made 93,902 articles and 83,746 garments. More than 38,000 studied meal preparation and 7,411 were enrolled in junior leadership projects.

Demonstrations and activities are a mighty important part of the 4-H program but of even more value is the training members receive in character building. County extension agents and local volunteer leaders, are their teachers and their farms, ranches and homes the classroom where they learn to do by doing.

GREEN BEANS WITH APPLE

Vegetables too often are treated as "stepchildren" of the foods family. They do get credit for being "good for you," but too often the taste appeal of vegetable dishes does not get its due. Dress up your vegetable dishes so they have their share of eye and taste appeal, as well as bounteous nutrition values. This recipe for green beans with apple is a good place to start.

(Six Servings)

2 pound snap beans, OR
2 packages frozen cut green beans
3 tablespoons margarine
2 apples, cored and diced
1 cup light cream or top milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
Dash of mace

Cut fresh beans into 1-inch lengths and cook in 1/2 cup boiling water with 1 teaspoon salt until just tender, about 15 minutes. If frozen beans are used, follow cooking directions on box. Be careful not to overcook. While beans cook, melt margarine in skillet. Add diced apples and fry gently about 5 minutes, until just tender but not soft. (If apples have tender skins, do not pare.) Add cream or top milk, salt, pepper, and mace. Drain beans. Toss into apple mixture and heat thoroughly. This is good with chicken or ham.

For other tasty and nutritious kitchen-tested recipes, write the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 28, Memphis, Tenn., for your free copy of "Make It With Margarine," an attractive new booklet in two colors.
