Increased Driver Education Bill Introduced In Legislature

The Department of Public Safety has now issued the statistics of Texas traffic death and destruction for 1962: No. of wrecks; 360,000; Killed; 2,421; Injured; 144,943; Economic Loss; $387,843,000. Our greatest hope to reduce such appalling figures lies in teaching our beginning drivers how to drive today's cars in today's traffic--safely. This can be done and is being done in high school Driver Education courses, presently financed in Texas locally or paid for by students themselves. High School Driver Education is one of the significant elements in the National Action Program for Traffic Safety--a blueprint prepared for effective reduction of traffic accidents by States, communities and individuals.

Driver Education not only reduces teen-age accidents, but it prepares our young drivers for a lifetime of safe, law-abiding, accident-free driving. Last year the course Standards were revised upward again by the Texas Education Agency, in a continuing effort to assure a sound, effectual Driver Education Program for Texas.

As evidence of the effectiveness of Driver Education, we quote the Hale-Aiken Study of Public School Education, which recently made a grassroots study--223 Texas Counties reported that they do want a Driver Education program and that they do want State aid for the program.

But because of the problem of financing, we are now reaching only 1/3 of our students in 1/2 of our schools with this training.

A bill has been introduced in this Legislature (h. b. 276 by George Hinson of Mineola and Terry Townsend of Brady; s. b. 38 by Senator Murray Watson of Mart) to make it possible for Texas to increase and improve its Driver Education program. The bill provides that the State shall help local school districts pay Driver Education teachers' salaries in the same proportion in which it helps pay other teachers' salaries. If we can get enough teachers paid, we can develop a statewide Driver Education program in Texas, as has been done in 20 other States.

The bill is now under consideration by a Subcommittee of the Education Committee of the House of Representatives.

AMA Reveals Warts Contagious And Caused By A Virus Infection

Do you have warts? If so, you have a lot of company. Many people, particularly children, have warts. Sometimes they hang on for years. Often they just go away after awhile, for no known reason. Usually a wart is nothing to worry about.

A wart is a virus infection of the outer layer of skin, says Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association. The ordinary wart is a benign tumor that does not turn into cancer.

Warts can turn up anywhere on the body, but are most common on the hands, fingers and soles of the feet. Girls are four or five times more likely to have warts than boys, but in adults the incidence is about the same for both sexes. Warts are contagious and are started by contact with the virus that causes them.

The plantar warts (those on the soles of the feet) cause the most trouble. These are most common in adolescents and adults with moist feet. Plantar warts occur most often at points of pressure and sometimes can be confused with painful calluses. They can be most uncomfortable or, even making walking painful.

Physicians generally use either an electric needle or a freezing process to remove warts. Either process will work and the choice is up to the individual doctor.

For some unknown reason, warts sometimes can be "charmed" away by suggestion. Mark Twain readers still recall the stumpwater and dead cat remedies of Tom Sawyer. If the patient firmly believes the remedy will cure warts, sometimes it will. Sometimes the physician will destroy the largest wart and then find that the smaller ones go away without further treatment.

If a wart is so located that it is constantly irritated and causes discomfort, such as a facial wart that gets in the way of shaving, or is unsightly, it is advisable to have it removed.

Most of the non-prescription remedies contain acid. These could cause harmful burns if the patient did not follow directions carefully.

If you have a wart that is located in an irritating spot or is causing an unsightly appearance, consult your doctor and follow his advice on whether it should be removed and what removal procedure to follow.

- * Extends grazing periods
- * Increases seed production yields

Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives consistently high forage yields on fall seeded small grain, pastures and seed grasses when moisture and other plant foods are favorable.

An acre of small grain or improved pasture can be made to produce as much beef or dairy products as an acre of most any other crop. But this high protein, meat and milk producing forage requires plenty of nitrogen. Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia replaces nitrogen removed from the soil by harvest and grazing. And this high nitrogen fertilizer (82%) helps your pastures and small grains get the full benefit of other essential elements in the soil.

SHS Brings Home 3 Second Places And 1 Third At District

The District Volleyball Tournament was held Tuesday at Farwell. Springlake was well represented with 4 teams from high school and 2 from Junior high.

The girls' varsity volleyball team was the first Springlake team to play against the Kress Kangaroos. The Wolverettes overthrew the Kangaroos after playing only two games. In the first game, SHS won 15 to Kress' 2, and the second game Springlake won 15 to 7.

The second games were against the Farwell Steers. Farwell hit out Springlake 15 to 13. The Green and Gold came back at Farwell with a 15 to 6 victory in the second game.

The final game with the blue and white team was a close one. But Farwell came out the victor and won district with the score 15 to Springlake 12.

The Wolverettes brought home a 2nd place victory and each team member received a red ribbon.

Team members are as follows: Carolyn Gregory, Bethie Dent, Julia Jones, Ilene Angeley, Barbara Barlow, Pruda Kay Sanders, Peggy Upchurch, Brenda Townseld, Beverly Kelley, Janice Layman and Managers Betty Cody and Janice Cowley.

The Boys Varsity volleyball team weren't quite as lucky as the Wolverettes. Springlake fought hard and gave the other teams a good battle.

Kress and Springlake tangled in the first games. They played three games before the victory was won by Kress. The first score was SHS 12 and the Kangaroos 15. The Green and Gold team came out with the victory in the second game with the score 15 to 13. Kress was victor, however, in the third game, which gave them the set.

The second set of games was played against Farwell. The Wolverines were victorious in the first game 15 to 12. The second game was taken by Farwell 15 to 13. Springlake just couldn't quite beat Farwell in the third game. The score was Farwell 15 and Springlake 10 points.

The boys came out for 3rd place honors.

Springlake Freshman girls did all right for themselves. They won 2 out of 3 sets, winning second place at the tournament.

Kress was the freshman Wolverettes' first opponent. The Little Green and Gold team played only two games with Kress, winning both games. The score in the first game was Springlake 15, Kress 2 and the second score was Springlake 15 and Kress 10.

In the second set, Springlake wasn't so lucky. The little Wolverettes played the freshman Farwell girls, and were defeated 15 to 10, but in the second game, the Wolverettes decided to give the Steers a run for their money. Springlake won 15 to 8. The Steers won the third game over Springlake 15 to 10, giving Farwell the victory.

The third set was played against Kress again. Since they had beat the Kangaroos once, they figured they could do it again. But the Kangaroos put up a little resistance. Springlake won the first game 15 to 2, but the second game was taken by Kress, after the 15 minute time limit was up, by a score of 11 to 7. The Wolverettes didn't seem to like the idea of Kress beating them, so in the third game, the Little Springlake team won 16-14.

Playing for the freshman girls were Diana Gregory, Dwala Boone, Helen Phillips, Donna Rudd, Patsy Robbins, Donna Gover, Alicia Washington, Mary Lu Acevedo, Diana Jackson, Alene Powell, Carolyn Kelley and Paula Thompson.

The Freshman boys team did all right for themselves, also. They played 2 sets of games and winning one set gave them second place honors.

The team lost their first set to Kress. The score was Kress 16, Springlake 15 in the first game, and Kress 15, Springlake

Springlake Track Team Places 3rd In Plains Meet

Andrews with 120 2/3 points won first place with Seagraves coming in second with 92 points. Springlake scored 87 4/5 points.

The Wolverine cindermen rated as follows: 440-yard relay, 2nd; 100 yard dash, Sanders, 1st with 10.1 (ties old record set by Horton of Tatum in 1962); 220 yard dash, Sanders 1st with 23.1; Mile relay, Springlake 2nd; Broad Jump, tie, Sanders of Springlake & Simpson of Tatum with 18'10". Three records tumbled and two others were tied at the meet.

Members of the 6th grade class enjoyed a trip to the sandhills on two busses, Friday after school for an outing.

A number of parents and the 6th grade teachers sponsored the party.

After arriving at the sandhills near Muleshoe, the group was served refreshments of potato chips, pops, hot dogs and cookies. Following refreshments, they took off to the sand to have fun digging and rolling each other down the hills.

They enjoyed getting the chance to roll Mr. Rinker and Mr. Holman, 6th grade teachers, in the sand.

Approximately 90 6th graders enjoyed the party.

Boy Scout News...

Twenty-eight Cub Scouts, four den chiefs and 6 Boy Scouts attended the Circus and performed during the third event of the Circus. All the boys and den mothers and Cubmaster participated in the Grand Entry. Following the performance by the local Cubs, the boys and leaders enjoyed the remainder of the show. Nineteen parents made the trip by bus along with the group of Scouts, and several made the trip by car.

The Cubs are indebted to James Lackey and Wilson Lewis for going down earlier in the afternoon and erecting the White House building that was the center of the Cub ring during their performance of "Presidents on Parade". All attending report an enjoyable evening.

Boys are reminded to turn in the remainder of their Circus ticket money to their den mothers at the earliest possible time, so that settlement can be made of the tickets. All unsold tickets are to be turned in too. Boys eligible for a Circus for selling all ten tickets

"Texas-Today's Fun-tier" Now Ready For Distribution

AUSTIN, Texas Tourists unfamiliar with Texas are expected to get an eye-opening look at the state as the result of a colorful new travel brochure released today by the Texas Highway Department.

The 32-page booklet, "Texas--Today's Fun-tier," is one of several devices used by the State Highway Department to assist Texas in winning a fair share of the burgeoning national travel market.

"Texas realized $471 million will receive their award at the next pack meeting. Regular den meetings are being resumed this week.

Cub Scout Roundtable will be held in Littlefield at the First Methodist Church in Crescent Park Addition of town at 8:00 p. m. April 8.

The theme will be the Cub Scout Circus on a local level. Any persons interested in the Cub Scout program are invited to attend the meetings held every second Monday night in Littlefield.

from tourism in 1962, an increase of $31 million over 1961," explained D. C. Greer, state highway engineer. "But the potential is far greater.

"Before our state can command this potential, however, we must overcome some unfortunate misconceptions about Texas. This new brochure is dedicated to this end."

One of the most prevalent misunderstandings is that Texas is all a vast desert, arid and highly uninviting as a vacation land. The new brochure, coupled with the state's first series of travel posters and the holiday-oriented 1963 highway map, punctures this idea.

Together they emphasize Texas as a land of infinite variety with its roots in gaiety and excitement. The concept is embodied in the theme that yesterday's frontier has yielded to "today's fun-tier."

The new line was adopted by the Highway Department's Travel Division after scores of suggestions had been studied and re-studied.

By the same token the promotion campaign was built around findings gleaned from a nationwide survey.

The study asked prospective visitors what they would least expect to find in Texas. They stressed lakes and rivers, mountains, forests and greenery, beaches and water sports, tall buildings and a cultural atmosphere.

Taking its cue from the replies, the new brochure is filled with 76 full color pictures, most of them devoted to those features the state is not expected to possess yet which it offers in abundance. A case in point are numerous shots of water and water sports, emphasis not out of place since Texas has more inland water than any state except Alaska.

Care has been taken to give equal representation to all parts of the state. As a guide to the uninitiated, the brochure divides Texas into six regions with double page spreads devoted to each.

Another portion discusses the variety of attractions common to the entire state or to more than one region; historical shrines, fine foods, superb accommodations, metropolitan bustle, wide open spaces, international flavor, amusement parks and sports.

There is also a section dealing with hunting and fishing information, highway safety and the extensive tourist services provided by the Highway Department through its mail operation and its eight Tourist Bureaus.

Enclosing the 9 by 12 inch brochure is a bright panoramic cover painted by a Texas artist in an imaginative tapestry woven about the "Today's Fun-tier" theme.

The new book, six months in preparation, will complement the existing "Texas" brochure which the Highway Department brought out in October, 1960. Since its introduction nearly 700,000 copies have been printed and distributed throughout the world.

Like the earlier book, the new publication will be sent on request to persons contemplating Texas visits. Although designed primarily for the out-of-state resident, Texans too are likely to find something new about their state from its pages.

"We have every confidence that tools such as this brochure and its companion pieces will help dispel the gross misconceptions many people have about Texas," said Greer. "And when they find we have something more to offer than desert wasteland, there is every likelihood our tourist industry will attain the stature we expect of it."

lowing from this area; V. D. Coker, Earth, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones, Hart, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. LaFrance, Olton and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Sampler, also of Olton.

The 3-day session ended March 20 and was highlighted by addresses by Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City; Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman; Assistant Secretary of State W. Averell Harriman; E. W. Biesheuvel, President of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers; Michel Gorday, Chief Foreign Correspondent of France-Solir, Paris; and Assistant Agriculture Secretary John A. Baker.

Delegates and visitors mixed business and pleasure. They went on sightseeing tours, visited the United Nations building and attended Broadway shows.

President John F. Kennedy's greetings to the convention were conveyed via a tape recording made in the White House. "The Farmers Union," he said, "has given freely of its talented people to foster and assist in carrying our supply management policies which, as you know, have already trimmed the over-supply of food and fiber which have hung over the market depressing farmers' income."

President James C. Patton, in his annual report, called this the "decision-making" era of agriculture and stressed the crucial nature of decisions to be made. One of these, he said, was the decision farmers would make on the 1964 Wheat Program in the wheat referendum late this Spring. He repeated his plea for a World Food Policy. He asked for

The Resurrection

SAINT JOHN
King James Version

The Arrest of Jesus

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: that the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

Peter in the High Priest's Palace

AND Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, for it was cold; and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

Peter Denies Jesus

AND Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter then denied again; and immediately the cock crew.

Jesus before Pilate

THEN led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

The King of the Jews

THEN Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

Pilate's Verdict

AND when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Pilate Delivers Jesus To Be Crucified

AND from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

AND they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews; for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

Soldiers Cast Lots for Jesus' Coat

THEN the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, And for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

Jesus' Care for His Mother

NOW there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

It is Finished

AFTER this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

Jesus' Side Pierced

THE Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was a high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another Scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

The Burial of Jesus

AND after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

The Empty Sepulchre

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, and the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Lord

BUT Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

THEN the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he showed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

My Lord and My God

AND after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

Highlights and Sidelights

FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Those who are actually concerned the most seem to be paying the least attention to proposed legislation which would require the pooling of oil and gas drilling units in Texas to conform with spacing patterns for fields as set up by the Railroad Commission.

That is the opinion of Jim Clark, well-known Texas oil historian, author and columnist. Mr. Clark was commenting on House Bill 510, pending in the Texas Legislature, which would provide for the pooling by law of acreage into drilling units. He thinks such a law has long been needed in Texas. Twenty-six of the 29 states with some oil and gas production have pooling statutes.

"By eliminating unnecessary wells and cutting costs per barrel of oil produced, the domestic industry can more effectively meet the competition of foreign crude," Mr. Clark said. He pointed out that imported oil is priced at about half the prevailing cost of United States crude.

"The situation is being complicated even more by the Soviet Union, which is dumping oil on the world market in large quantities," Mr. Clark continued. Their strategy is designed to take advantage of high American crude prices. Their goal obviously, is the United States domestic oil industry which they regard as the backbone of America's energy-based economy.

Opponents of the pooling measure charge that it would mean additional regulation and too much power for the Texas Railroad Commission, which would administer it. "The alternative, however, is federal control which would be far more restrictive, with the base of regulatory power moved from Austin to Washington," Mr. Clark believes.

Opponents also contend the proposed law would slow down drilling in Texas and cost many workers their jobs. "The opposite is true," says Mr. Clark. "Drilling Texas is falling off rapidly as money turns to other states where 'per well allowances' are larger because unnecessary wells are not permitted. The enactment of HB 510 would encourage drilling. Money being spent on unnecessary wells would be diverted to 'wildcat' exploration. This would mean that millions of acres owned by farmers and ranchers, school districts and State institutions would be tested, and many new fields brought in."

Most important of all is the "moral issue" involved in HB 510. Says Mr. Clark: "At present, small-tract operators are permitted to drain other tracts. This is similar to a small farmer being permitted to confiscate part of an adjoining farmer's crop to assure himself of a profit."

"Recent court decisions prohibit the drilling of many small tracts, but they offer the small tract owner little protection. He would be protected by a fair pooling law, such as HB 510 would provide. At the same time, adjoining owners would be protected from confiscatory drainage of their oil and gas."

"ARE YOU READY?"... Topic of speech delivered by Ralph Duncan at the Earth Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night at the Earth Community Room. Guests thoroughly enjoyed the very inspiring talk.

IS THIS WASTE NECESSARY?... Uncontrolled irrigation water from many farms in the area is now running wildly down bar ditches and blocking dirt road intersections, causing hazards to those having to cross the water filled approaches. This careless waste, in the future, may result in dry-land farming.

2. You buy or sell. Look out for flaws in the papers before you go into debt, part with money, or sign anything involving big expenditures or long term obligations.

3. You enter into other contracts. Promises, spoken or written, bind you if they call for a "consideration", something of value in return.

4. Someone threatens your rights. The law exists to defend them but with some rights you must take action yourself for them to work for you. When you can bring your lawyer "live" facts (e.g. unsigned contracts, vexing tax returns you haven't filed), he can do much more for you, and at a smaller cost than when you bring him "cold" facts (mistakes you have made which threaten trouble).

But above all, get both live and cold facts to him at once. Fortime may run out in many such situations. Your lawyer may be able to do something for you today, which he cannot do tomorrow.

Tell your lawyer what you want. Tell him the facts, good or bad and then keep him informed all along. He is sworn to keep what you tell in confidence, and he cannot serve you well without full knowledge.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law with out the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Tax Deadline For Many Texas Cities Approaching

April and May 1 are important deadlines for Texans to render their property to various taxing agencies. State laws require all real and personal property to be rendered for taxes on or before prescribed dates. Those who fail to comply can blame only themselves for the money loss they may consequently suffer.

Some Texas cities set their own tax deadlines. These are the cities of more than 5,000 population which have incorporated under the "Home Rule" provisions of our statutes. All other cities are governed by the general laws of Texas.

In towns operating under the general laws property must be rendered for taxes between January 1 and April 1 each year. A number of home rule cities set up the same requirements in their ordinances, while others prescribe different periods. For state and county tax purposes, property must be rendered to the County Tax Assessor by April 30, and homestead exemptions must be claimed by the same time.

In some localities a third taxing unit is involved—the independent school district. In other places school taxes are collected by the city or county. In addition, some localities have water, irrigation or levee districts which assess and collect taxes. Make inquiry as to where these various taxes are assessed, and as to applicable deadlines for rendition.

What property must be rendered for taxes? If Texas laws were strictly enforced, we would be required to render to all taxing units nearly every piece of real and personal property which we own, down to the very clothing on our backs. An exception is the constitutional exemption of $250 worth of household furniture. However, no taxing unit carries its requirements this far, and it will be necessary to inquire of each tax assessor when rendering your property whether specific types of property are ordinarily rendered in that area. Some cities and counties collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, television sets and other personal items, while others ignore practically all personal property. Business and professional men are generally required to render all merchandise, furnishings, fixtures,

Return Systems Being Installed To Save Irrigation

Irrigation farmers still have time enough before planting crops to make provisions for retaining irrigation "tailwater" on their farms.

A spokesman for the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District says that literally hundreds of systems have been installed throughout the area this winter for re-circulating irrigation "tailwater" from the bottom of the farm fields, to higher points where the water can be used.

Tom McFarland, Manager of the Water District, stated that the District's staff, in cooperation with Texas Water Commission personnel, has just recently completed measuring water levels in hundreds of observation wells throughout grow crops that in turn can be sold to produce income. Also, there have been hundreds of pumps installed at wet-weather lakes for use in salvaging both irrigation water and rain water that runs from the cropland.

If you are interested in seeing some of these waste preventing installations, but do not know where to start looking McFarland states that if you will call your Water-District office in Lubbock, they will be more than happy to show you what some of your fellow irrigators are doing to help conserve their water.

McFarland said that all should keep in mind that water is probably our most precious natural resource, and as such it should be used as wisely as possible.

Chairmen for the day-long meeting are Ed Jacobson, president Texas Weed Control Association and Fred Dines, chairman of the Farm and Ranch Council of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce who are co-sponsors of the Conference.

Experts will discuss latest procedures for an expected 250 guests meeting in morning and afternoon sessions.

"Moisture Loss Due to Weeds" will be discussed by Ronald G. Davis and Joe L. Pafford of the Southwestern Great Plains Field Station. E. D. Robinson, Range Scientist, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Spur, will speak on "Control of Woody Plants on Range Land." His speech will be followed by instruction on "How to Form a Weed Control District" by Douglas Dege, Supervisor of the Floyd County Noxious Weed Control District.

Spring Insect

Texas farmers may be living in the modern era, but many of his problems are as old as history. And about this time each year, the farmer starts planning his ageless battle with a familiar enemy--the crop pest.

Fortunately, the chemical industry can furnish effective implements in this unending war. But their real utility is no better than the way they are used. Chemical control of insects and weeds can be a boon or a bust, depending upon methods and time of application. Just as irrigation can be wasteful or beneficial, so can crop spraying or dusting.

It is to the Texas farmer's advantage to follow an organized method of crop treatment for the best insect control, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. The best plan will be to contact your county agent and follow the recommendations developed for your area by the Texas Extension Service.

Much effectiveness of spraying is nullified by poor timing. Treatment on a "guess basis" often catches harmful insects in the pupa stage when insecticides have little or no effect. It may also do away with some of the useful type insects.

A word of caution about chemical preparations, however! Although the chemical industry has taken every precaution to make them safe as possible, some of them can be harmful if misused.

Read and study the manufacturers' recommended measures of use. They are printed on every container--and are meant to be followed.

Also, if you use a commercial applying company, make certain you know their company's reputation and whether or not it has complied with Texas laws administered for your protection by the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Alice Martin visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Thommarson.

How Much Space Is Needed To Stop A Car

How much space is needed for a car to stop? A lot more than you might think, according to the Texas Safety Association.

A dime--or even a dollar--is not quite enough, even under the best of conditions.

Stopping distance is the sum of reaction and braking distances, and these depend on several variables.

Reaction distance is how far you go while you make a decision and get your foot to the brake. It varies with speed.

Reaction time for most drivers is about three-quarters of a second. In that time, a vehicle moving at 20 miles an hour travels 22 feet; at 50 miles an hour it goes 55 feet. At a given speed, the distance is the same regardless of the type of vehicle, condition of roadway or state of weather.

Braking distance is how far you go once the brakes are applied. This varies with speed and type of vehicle, as well as with condition of road, brakes, and so on.

The National Safety Council reports that for a passenger car on level, dry pavement, braking distance at 20 miles an hour averages 25 feet, while at 50 miles an hour it is 188 feet. This means that the car's total stopping distance at 20 miles an hour is 47 feet, and at 50, it is 243 feet.

The stopping distances are greater for trucks and vary with their size. At 20 miles an hour a light two-axle truck needs about 52 feet, while a heavy three-axle truck or combination needs 72 feet.

These stopping distances are averages. Precise stopping distances cannot be determined because of such obvious variables, as roadway & brake conditions, and less obvious ones, such as the weight and physical strength of the driver in applying pressure to the brake pedal.

More important than the braking distance is perception time. This can be zero, as when the driver is watching the tail lights of the car ahead when the brake lights go on. It can be several seconds if the driver is watching something to one side and does not see at once a situation in the roadway which requires him to stop.

Knowing that reaction distance at 30 miles an hour is 33 feet does not mean that that is a safe distance to keep from the car in front, the Association warns.

Don't depend on reaction time to get you out of trouble. You can't see every emergency as soon as it arises. Drive in such a way that you don't need your reaction time and braking distance to avoid an accident.

Control of Thrips,

Untreated plant at four weeks

Di-Syston treated plant at four weeks

Di-Syston Treated Plants Are Stronger, Straighter... Produce More Squares Earlier

West Texas and New Mexico cotton growers now have a new way to control thrip damage and early-season stunting... with Di-Syston granular insecticide. Di-Syston is placed in the soil with the seed or side dressed after planting. The chemical is then absorbed by the growing roots and carried to all parts of the plant through the sap stream—as soon as the plant emerges. No part of the plant is unprotected—even tender new growth as it is formed.

The result? With Di-Syston, your early cotton grows faster, has stronger, straighter stems, more vigorous foliage. Squares form earlier and the plant produces more of them. Many growers in the Lubbock area have reported full season control of thrip with just the one application. You get higher yields because of the good Di-Syston start. This year, get your crop off to a good start with Di-Syston. Complete instructions for use are printed on the label on every package. Use Di-Syston.

Everyone Should Make Out A Will

What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by the law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire estate between them.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
—(Matt. 3:17).

From the true depths of our being we know ourselves to be the sons of God, and as sons we realize we should express all that is good. We should long for the approval of our family, our neighbors, and especially that of God.
