Earth Springlake Christmas Musical Will Be Presented December 20

An evening of Christmas music will be presented by members of the choirs of Earth Methodist, Earth Baptist and Springlake Baptist Churches on Sunday, December 16, at the High School Auditorium at 7:45 p. m.

The massed choir will be composed of 60 voices and directed by Ted Rowan and accompanied by Mrs. Earl Parish. Familiar Christmas music, arrangements from Mendelssohn and the magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah" will be sung. The audience will be asked to join in singing some of the familiar songs so that everyone may enter into the true spirit celebrating Christ's birthday.

A free-will offering will be taken to begin a fund to purchase a new piano for the school auditorium. Arrangements have been made with Bill Mann for proper storage when the piano is not in use.

The program for the musicale is as follows:

Processional.

JOAN DAWSON

JANE McCORD

Local Students Are Named For Regional Honors

Jane McCord and Joan Dawson were among 109 high school musicians who were named to the honor band roster at the regional competitions at Texas Tech Saturday. The two Springlake students will play in the area try-outs in Lubbock January 13. Tech Band Director Dean Killian was in charge of the contests in which approximately 220 students participated. Jane, a senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCord, has been a member of the Springlake Band for 6 years. She is a member of the F.H.A., secretary of the Student Council and has won a number of medals as twirler for the Wolverine Band.

Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dawson, Springlake, has been a member of the band for 2 years. An eighth grade student, Joan has played the oboe four years and is currently taking lessons from Robert Humiston, assistant professor of music at Tech. She has won first in the solo division the past two years in Interscholastic League competition. In the Saturday contest Joan was selected as 1st chair oboist and Jane won 2nd chair flutist.

THE LIONS ROAR

The Earth Lions Club met Tuesday at noon in the Earth Community Room with Lion Boss Rex Clayton presiding.

A business meeting was held and minor items of business were discussed.

Eight members of the Springlake School Band presented a musical program.

Teachers Visiting Area Schools To Observe Methods

Members of the Springlake PTA are currently substituting for the faculty staff in their respective classrooms.

Teachers have made arrangements with school authorities in various area schools with the purpose of visiting classrooms to observe teaching methods and to exchange ideas.

Among the teachers visiting classrooms in area schools were Mrs. Bill Morris with Mrs. C. L. Berry as substitute, Clarence Hamilton with Mrs. Ed Dawson as substitute and Danny Smith with Ted Rowan, substitute.

Adrian Food Store Reopens Tuesday

The Adrian Food Store reopened Tuesday for business following remodeling of the interior and re-stocking of merchandise.

A devastating fire November 16 caused heavy damage to the interior and roof, and resulted in major stock damage.

A new floor of light beige tile has been installed, approximately 25x60 feet.

The interior features walls of yellow, blue and pink and an all-new market section which is larger and more convenient than the original.

A new heating and lighting system has also been installed and modern new vegetable cases are to be added in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Adrian, owners, invite all old and new customers to drop by.

Between 40 and 50 per cent of Maerica's farmers produce less than $1,000 worth of food each year.

COTTON STRIPPER AT WORK. Farm hands are busily engaged as the cotton crop on the Pete O'Hair farm is being harvested. A bumper crop is expected in the area although slowed by a week of rainy weather.

Earth Team Wins Over Tulia

The Earth Pump and Machine basketball team won over Tulia Monday night 55-51 in a game played at the Springlake School gym.

High point scorer for the Earth team was Jimmy Castleberry with 16. Joe Ellis scored 12 points.

High point for Tulia was Dennis Love with 14 points.

The next game for the team will be Thursday, December 13 (tonight) at Amherst.

Earth News-Sun Will Be Closed For Holidays

The Earth News-Sun will be closed from December 22 through December 30, in order that the staff may enjoy a Christmas vacation.

Everyone is asked to call their news in early and to get their advertising copy in ahead of time.

We are presently working on a large Christmas issue for December 20. The New Year's issue will be printed by December 21 which will be mailed out on December 27.

COTTON TRAILERS FILL THE GIN LOTS. All gins in the area are working around the clock to take care of the overflow of cotton which began coming in last week when the weather permitted farmers to resume the harvest which was halted due to a lengthy spell of unfavorable weather.

Santa Claus To Appear Saturday

Calling All Boys and Girls! Santa Claus will make a personal appearance this Saturday from 11 a. m. to 7 p. m. at Wayne Jackson's Gulf Station.

There will be free candy and gum for all the kids.

Come by and talk to Santa and let him know what you would like to have for Christmas, as he needs to have his list ready in time for Christmas.

Judging Will Be Held

The judging of homes participating in the Christmas lighting contest will be held December 20.

Prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded to the winners. No entry is necessary as judges will canvas the city.

Everyone is asked to turn on all Christmas lights that night for this annual event sponsored by the Earth Chamber of Commerce.

Winners Of Door Prizes Announced

Door prize winners of the annual "Christmas on Parade" held Saturday at the Earth Community Room have been announced.

Prizes of Christmas decorations were won by: Gladys Laing first prize; Henrietta Armstrong, second and Ruth Borum, third.

The event was sponsored by the Earth Chapter No. 870 Order of the Eastern Star and presented by the Earth Floral and Gift Shop.

Over 75 persons registered.

Old Landmark Is Moved From Area

An old familiar landmark has been moved from Earth to Muleshoe.

The old home east of Earth which was known to many old-timers here as the Hewitt place was bought by Aaron Truelock to be used as a rent house.

Mrs. N. Ray Kelley who lived in the house in 1924 and again in the 40s says the home was built about 1913 with the Watts family being the first occupants.

There are but few such landmarks remaining in the area due to rapid expansion of homes and farm land. The Hewitt place was one of the oldest.

Mrs. R. Rudd Is Bookkeeper At Earth Coop Gin

Mrs. Raymond Rudd began a new job last week as bookkeeper for Earth Coop Gin No. 2.

Mrs. Rudd is a former employee of the gin and has recently resigned from the Springlake School lunchroom staff, where she was employed for 5 years.

She has four children, Mrs. Jack Rylant, Jr., Donna Kay, a freshman and twin sons, Elbert and Delbert who are in the sixth grade.

Mr. Rudd is employed at Winders Fertilizer Co.

Springlake Wins Three Games Out Of Seven

In a triple-header basketball schedule Friday night, the Springlake teams came out on the losing side with only one victory.

The varsity girls, paced by Carolyn Gregory scoring 38 points, defeated the Muleshoe team by a score of 50-44.

The freshman girls lost to Dimmitt in a close game of 25-23.

The Springlake varsity boys were swamped by Muleshoe with a 58-36 score.

Two Springlake Junior High teams proved fast and efficient.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing Of Christmas Parcels

Postmaster Harold D. Miller wishes to remind each of you to mail all of your Christmas mail early enough to allow an extra few days for delivery of your mail during the Christmas mailing period.

Packages and Christmas cards should be in the mail this week to insure delivery by Christmas. Also wish to take this means of wishing each of you a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year; and wish to thank each of you for your fine cooperation in the mailing that has been done.

Athletic Banquet Held Saturday

The Annual Springlake Athletic Banquet was held Saturday December 8 in the school cafeteria with about 125 attending.

Janet Cooper was Mistress of Ceremonies and the invocation was given by Dale Dent. The welcome was presented by Barbara Barlow with Steve Holt giving the response. Coach Jodie Mahan commented on sportsmanship.

A delicious dinner of fried chicken, cooked by the lunchroom staff, was served by the 8th grade girls.

Bill Mann introduced the guest speaker, Jo Rector, Tackle Coach of WTSC.

Entertainment was furnished by Dean Mathes, Comedian and Cliff Harden, singer, both being students from Wayland College.

The introduction of seniors followed with Coach Mahan introducing the football, track, and girls' basketball senior team members, Danny Smith, coach introduced the boys basketball senior team members. Dean Foshee, band director, introduced senior band members and Miss Margaret Womble introduced senior Pep Club Girls.

Those presented with gifts by Diana Glasscock were Dale Dent and Steve Holt, team captains. Mrs. Cecil Slover and Miss Margaret Womble, Pep Squad sponsors and Dale received a miniature award for Pep Squad King.

Alice Jaquess, accompanied by pianist Jane McCord led the singing of the school song.

News Of Interest To Women

Brotherhood Hosted by WMU Monday Evening

The Brotherhood members met Monday night for their regular meeting at the church to hear "The Lottie Moon Christmas Story" presented by the WMU. The program was opened with the group singing "Joy to the World" led by Bill Clayton and accompanied by the Brotherhood pianist, Steve Sanderson. Mrs. Dorothy Washington, WMU prayer chairman, read the calendar of prayer. She pointed out each country the missionary was serving in by having a map of the country on the globe. Then another song was sung. Mrs. Betty Matlock and Mrs. Thelma McClanahan were the narrators of the program. A revolving color wheel shone on Mrs. Herbert Miller, who represented Miss Lottie Moon, seated at a desk. She was dressed in her 1888 dress. An old fashioned light was placed on the desk beside a Bible and letter writing materials. The narrators stood on either side of a table with a lovely Christmas centerpiece, arranged by Mrs. Bonnie Green. A challenge to the group was brought by Dorothy Washington after a very impressive program. Herbert Miller gave the closing prayer. Others present were Earl Parish, Les Watson, Ernest Green, Arnold Washington, James Sanderson, and James Washington, Brotherhood president.

Sorority Sponsors Style Show Friday

A style show was held Friday evening in the Springlake Community Building, sponsored by the Psi Nu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Kelley's of Olton furnished the clothing and the jewelry was by courtesy of Sara Coventry. Door prizes of Sara Coventry jewelry was won by Wyona Boone, Jackie Martin and Juanita Cunningham. Costumes of sportswear, sleepwear, casual dress and formal attire were modeled by Norma Cearley, Rickie Taylor, Beth Cook, Bobby Simmons and Linda Jones.

Band Boosters Meet Thursday

The Springlake Band Boosters met December 6 in the school band hall for the regular monthly business session.

Additional new uniforms and instruments for the band were discussed and supervisors for band trips were selected. Dean Foshee, band director, reported on the overall picture of the school band program and read a letter of commendation received from Ted J. Crager, band director for WTS on the band's performance and winning of the first division rating. About 20 persons were present.

J.T. Fennell of Sulphur, Oklahoma was honored on his 88th birthday, Sunday, November 25 with a birthday dinner in his home.

He is the father of R. K. Fennell of Earth. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fennell of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Recil Fennell of Muleshoe, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thames, Amarillo, Mrs. Edith Delay, Sulphur, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Carnez Johnson and sons, LaDon and Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Walker and daughters, Laquita and Billie all of Pauls Valley Oklahoma, Jerri and Rhonda Whitney and Vernon Dyson of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fennell of Sulphur.

The Earth Volunteer Fire Department was kept busy the earlier part of the week answering calls to local gin fires.

Three blazes, causing minor damage, occurred within a 24 hour period beginning Sunday night at 9:15 when a minor blaze occurred in a burr hopper at the Farmers Coop Gin No. 2. The burning and smoldering burrs were quickly extinguished. A second blaze in the hopper flared up at 11 a.m. Monday, again with little damage. The third fire occurred at 8:45 p.m. Monday at the Kimbell Gin when burrs were set ablaze in the hopper, by cause not yet determined.

Springlake's determined Wolverines, trailing by one point at the half, came back in the second half for a 51-48 victory over the Muleshoe Mules.

It was one of the most exciting games of the season. Dale Dent netted 20 points for Springlake. The Springlake varsity girls won over the Mullettes 52-45, paced by Carolyn Gregory scoring 22 points. Dana Chappell had 16 for Muleshoe.

In the boys freshman game, the local squad eased out the Mules and won by a close score of 48-47.
