

Japan Withdraws Recognition Of Chinese Govt.

Tokyo Leaders Look Forward To A New Regime With Which They Would 'Cooperate'

TOKYO, Jan. 15 (Sunday) (AP)—Japan today announced withdrawal of recognition of the Chinese government.

The announcement said Japan looked forward to the establishment and growth of a new Chinese regime with which, it declared, it would cooperate gladly.

The government's statement was issued as the result of decisions taken last Tuesday in the fifth imperial conference in Japanese history.

Emperor Hirohito on that occasion presided over a meeting of the highest army, navy and political leaders of the empire.

Complete accord between the Japanese cabinet and high military and naval authorities to pursue the Chinese conflict to Japan's proclaimed objective—pacification of Eastern Asia—had been announced earlier.

The announcement was issued by the chief secretary of the cabinet following a day of conferences and an extraordinary cabinet session on the policy of a statement outlining the government's China policy.

Activity within the cabinet and the imperial military headquarters was marked by appearance of 24 retired warriors who came to the war office and endorsed the decision, which developed from an imperial conference with the emperor.

The Japanese decision, explained to the one-time leaders by Lieutenant General Yoshitaro Kawamoto of the military affairs bureau, was reported to be in effect.

"The Japanese government, for the permanent peace of east Asia, has hitherto been conducting pacific operations against the anti-Japanese government of China on the one hand and endeavoring, on the other hand, to give that government a chance for self-reflection at awakening from its general point of view.

"From general circumstances, however, the Japanese government is compelled to conclude that China shows no signs of reconsideration, and the Japanese government therefore must proceed with resolute enforcement of its established policy for attainment of its ultimate goal."

United States Consul Stuart Allen reported there was "considerable disorder" in the city.

French Govt. Crisis Yet Unsettled

Bonnet Encounters Opposition From Socialist Bloc

PARIS, Jan. 15 (AP)—The People's Front tonight split anew over financier-Diplomat Georges Bonnet's efforts to give France a new government.

Meeting Today

The socialist group in the chamber of deputies voted unanimously to refuse to participate in or support a Bonnet cabinet after the radical socialist premier-designate offered socialist posts in his prospective ministry.

The premier-designate, after receiving a formal letter from Serol on the socialist stand, said he would meet with radical socialist deputies tomorrow to ask their advice whether he should abandon efforts to form a government or try to create a cabinet without the socialists.

Serol in his letter informed Bonnet officially the socialists neither would participate in nor support a cabinet of his because of "the present political situation in the chamber in which you had an important role."

The former ambassador to Washington formally accepted President Albert Lebrun's cabinet mandate as successor to Camille Chautemps.

Own Party Approves

Bonnet's own party, the radical-socialists, approved his assumption of the task provided he form another People's Front government.

Communists, socialists and the more conservative radical-socialists composed the People's Front.

His principal problem was to win support of socialists who demanded a socialist premier since they have the largest single parliamentary representation.

Bonnet, finance minister in the retiring Chautemps government, earlier had appeared confident he could overcome the socialist opposition and weld a cabinet capable of dealing with France's labor and monetary troubles which contributed largely to resignation of the Chautemps government early Friday.

He declared he would press efforts for a code of social peace to pacify labor.

Choice Of Stanley Reed For Court Post Brings Favorable Reaction

COURT SKIRMISHES LOST, LEGAL LIQUOR'S DAYS ARE TERMINATED

Legal liquor was on its way out of Howard county today as a result of victory for dry forces in the final outcome of election litigation in the 70th district court.

Although Friday midnight was to have been the last date for selling all alcoholic beverages here, under order of the commissioners court, local and state agents agreed in conference Saturday morning to permit liquor concerns and beer dispensaries to dispose of stocks during the day.

Beer sales by holders of supplementary permits were to continue unquestioned by officers through today, but Monday morning sale of any alcoholic beverages will be taboo.

Dealers lost their last chance to forestall enforcement of the commissioners court order Friday when Judge Charles L. Klapproth successfully held Dec. 10 liquor election valid and denied a supersedeas bond which would have stayed execution of the law pending outcome of the contest in the appellate courts.

Following an hour's argument by M. C. Lawrence and W. M. Taylor, contestants' counsel, and County Attorney W. S. Morrison and M. H. Morrison, retained by dry forces, counsel for contestants, Judge Klapproth refused the request for bond, declaring that "this court does not intend to make a farce of the laws made by the legislature."

The court previously had asserted in upholding the December election, which showed a dry majority of 118 votes, that he was convinced the vote of the electorate was clear and that he had no desire to interfere with enforcement of the prohibition order.

"If you get the supersedeas bond," the court said to Lawrence, "you will have to get it up stairs (appellate court)."

L. E. Morris, district director for the liquor control board, said he was advised late Friday night from Austin that the county would be considered dry unless the appellate courts set the ruling aside. Morris said his agents would proceed accordingly in the enforcement of the law.

The sheriff's department and County Attorney Morrison joined in the declaration for enforcement of dry laws, effective here for the first time since March, 1936 when all liquors became legal. Beer was legalized here in September, 1936.

Some 37 establishments, including more than a score package stores, are affected by the change. The others are beer vendors of varying type from roadside cafes. Wets had asserted during the election campaign that 400 persons were employed by liquor interests in the county.

Continued operation of two wholesale houses here to serve wet counties in the area was considered probable. There was no available estimate as to the value of stocks remaining on hand.

Meanwhile, counsel for contestants in the election suit planned to carry it to the district court of civil appeals at Eastland in hopes of a reversal.

And while legal liquor gasped its last breath during the weekend, wet forces grabbed at a final straw in circulating petitions asking for a vote on all alcoholic beverages within the corporate limits. County Attorney Morrison, expressing doubt that this or any other liquor election within a year would be legal, said that the attorney general's department had been asked for an opinion on the law governing the case.

Demand Heard For Public Hearings

Solicitor General Named By FD For Advancement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—A clear majority of administration supporters of the supreme court appeared assured today when President Roosevelt nominated Solicitor General Stanley Reed, veteran defender of new deal enactments, to succeed retiring Justice George Sutherland.

Want Public Hearings

Senators, who must pass upon the nomination, generally applauded the selection of the Kentucky lawyer and dairyman, even some bitter foes of the president's defeated bill to reorganize the high tribunal joined in expressing approval.

But there were numerous demands that public hearings be conducted before the senate votes on the appointment, in view of the public furor caused by belated

Russia Stops All Payments In Italy

Nations In Squabble Over Soviet Delivery Of Oil

MOSCOW, Jan. 15 (AP)—Russia today suspended all commercial payments to Italy in what diplomatic circles said was a disagreement over delivery of Soviet oil to the Italian navy.

The government charged the Italian navy had failed to meet fuel bills owed the Soviet, that Russian ships were being detained in Italian ports and Italian firms had suspended payments to Russia.

Diplomatic circles said the Italian naval ministry had declined to pay for oil supplied by Russia on the ground deliveries had been less than promised under a contract between the two governments.

(Italy, allied with Germany and Japan in an anti-communist pact, officially denied defaulting "in any way" on payments due Russia and asserted news of Russia's action "came as a complete surprise.")

(Russian sources in Rome said a note had been handed to the Italian government some time ago by the Russian embassy protesting Italy's non-payments but no answer was received.)

(These sources said Russian war vessels being built in Italy have been paid for and cancellation of the payments did not involve them.)

The Soviet Union also instructed its trade delegation to Italy and other trading organizations to hold up payments to Italian firms, including bills due third persons.

Pravda, official communist party newspaper, declared the Italian navy ministry refused to pay for fuel and oil delivered to it in September.

Hubbard Russell of Los Angeles was named president succeeding Albert K. Mitchell of Albert, N. M., and San Francisco was chosen as the 1938 convention city.

REVIEWING THE BIG SPRING WEEK

BY JOE PICKLE

For prophetic profundity, an elderly gentleman taking in the liquor contest trial Friday should be in line for some sort of an award. Said he as testimony wore on: "Eat, drink and be merry, for to-morrow we may be dry."

Whatever else may happen in the higher court, it is settled fact that the drys came through with as much a victory Friday as they did on December 10. Things might happen before the suit is finally settled, but in the interim, the county remains legally dry. The court left little doubt that such was his intention by declaring that he was convinced the majority voice had spoken in December.

Heretofore girls have been given the advantage of acquiring most of the fine points of polish and domesticity in high school courses. Now the local high school is to offer a course in social problems for boys. The basis for the course was given a stamp of approval by many parents signing questionnaires about the course. An overwhelming majority sanctioned teaching such things as choice and care of clothes, proper home etiquette, principals of personal appearance, use of income, etc. However, most of them emphatically turned thumbs down on a unit on the approach for a successful married life and a few were dubious about teaching the boys to

Dates Fixed For Rodeo

Three-Day Show To Be Staged On July 2, 3, 4

Fifth annual edition of the Big Spring rodeo and cowboy reunion will be held this year on July 2, 3 and 4.

Those dates were fixed by directors of the reunion association at a brief business meeting Friday night. The board also called the annual meeting of stockholders for January 31, at which time officers will be named and other business transacted.

Reunion officials, acting early this year in fixing dates for the annual celebration, hope to publicize the event over the state and attract a larger crowd than ever. Attendance last year for three days approximated 28,000. The show this year will have choice days—Saturday, Sunday and Monday with the last day a holiday—and officials hope to build for a bigger mob than ever before.

Legion Post To Campaign For Members

Plans For Drive To Be Mapped At Meeting Monday

Big Spring's young American Legion post is planning on its first "big push" for members Tuesday.

Final preparations for the enlistment campaign will be made in a meeting at 3 p. m. in the Settles hotel Monday. R. R. McEwen, post commander, said that all charter members and especially the executive committee have been urged to participate in the party.

Efforts will be made to contact every eligible man in Big Spring and Howard county, said McEwen, in an attempt to raise the post membership to 100 or 150 members.

As a climax of the drive, which will continue for a week, a buffet supper and objective meeting will be held in the hotel Jan. 26, and eligible veterans not seen by workers are invited to attend the affair and place membership.

Objectives

In a session Friday evening, charter members of the Big Spring post expressed the belief that they "owed it to Big Spring and the county to create an active legion post." Among the objectives suggested were sponsoring of Junior athletics, provision of a community center, participation in civic affairs, protection of veteran's rights, assisting of ex-service men in securing employment on works projects.

On the executive committee are McEwen, Cliff Wiley, vice-commander, J. F. Laney, adjutant, Joe Ogden, finance officer, J. Y. Robb, Carl Blomsheld, E. V. Spence, Dr. M. H. Bennett, G. C. Dunham, Bob Winn and J. E. Friend. Dunham and Ben Stout are in charge of refreshments for the Jan. 26 meeting. Thirty charter members comprise the local legion post, which completed organization three weeks ago.

Scout Leaders To Convene Tuesday

Convocation of more than 100 volunteer Boy Scout workers of the Buffalo Trail council in the annual meeting here Tuesday was announced Saturday by Charles Paxton, Sweetwater, area president.

Representatives from all of the six districts of the 15 county council are expected to take part in the only area meeting for scouts during the year.

L. E. Denning, Dallas, president of the Lone Star Gas company, and chairman of Region No. 8, which embraces all of Texas and parts of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arkansas, will deliver the main address of the meeting at the banquet session Tuesday evening. Another high spot will be the presentation of the Silver Beaver award to some outstanding scoutmaster of the council.

Registration will start at 2:30 p. m. and President Paxton will conduct the opening assembly 15 minutes later. At 3 p. m. scouts dissolve into four groups, one for scoutmasters, with Paul E. Jette, Wink, chairman; another for troop committeemen with E. L. Langley, Sweetwater, presiding; a third for council and district scouters with Carl S. Blomsheld, Big Spring, conducting; and the other for cubmasters and committeemen with Thomas E. Pierce, Big Spring, in charge.

Summary of committee and district reports, election of officers, report of discussion groups, adoption of resolutions, and a social hour will follow.

Tax Revisions Planned For Future Use

Treasury Official OK's Some Immediate Changes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—The treasury's chief tax expert told a congressional committee today further extensive tax law revisions might be proposed "at some later date."

Roswell Magill, treasury undersecretary, made that assertion to a house ways and means committee at initial public hearings on a subcommittee's recommendations for changing the tax system.

He said additional revision might touch on such matters as:

Personal tax exemptions, repeal of all "temporary" manufacturers' excise taxes, lightening the relationship between federal and state taxes, and taxing interest on future issues of federal, state and municipal securities.

Recommendations OK'd

Magill endorsed the subcommittee's recommendations, which involved modification of the undistributed profits and capital gains levies and proposals "will affect many important improvements in the existing revenue system" and "relieve some of the most serious inequities," Magill said.

But in seeking speed, so that taxpayers might be informed as early as possible of tax liabilities and contemplated relief, he said the subcommittee had to concentrate on correcting the "most striking inequities" and pass over a number of subjects.

"For these reasons it has not been practicable to engage in a wholesale reform of the entire revenue system," he said.

The undersecretary advocated retention, at least in principle, of both the capital gains and undistributed profits levies.

"There was no convincing evidence," he said, "that the operation of the undistributed profits tax or of the tax on capital gains had been a major factor in the business recession."

SIGNAL LIGHTS TO BE SUSPENDED AND STANDARDS MOVED

Two projects are in line for the city's attention this week, the completion of base work on the Bell street paving job and the installation of traffic signals and lights.

About a block and a half of alleyway must be placed on Bell street before the project is left to compact. Eight signal lights are to be installed and center posts removed from the automatic traffic lights now in operation.

No Newspaper In Portland

Printers Strike And Three Plants Suspend Publication

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15 (AP)—Printers on Portland's three daily newspapers, the Oregonian, Oregon Journal, and News-Telegram, walked out on strike today, throwing out of work 8,704 full and part-time employees and leaving the city without a regular newspaper for the first time in its history.

The walkout occurred promptly at 1 p. m., ten minutes after the executive council of the Multnomah Typographical Union notified publishers that a strike would be called.

The strike order came after more than a month of negotiation over a working contract for 1938.

Previously publishers had announced that if printers walked out they would close their plants. The strike will throw out of work 345 printers, 963 other full-time employees and 6,978 part-time employees of the three newspapers.

The controversy turned on the refusal of the union to submit its differences to arbitration and the refusal of the publishers to cut the work day one-half hour.

The publishers offered the printers $9 daily for day work and $9.50 nightly for night work, an increase of 45 cents daily for each shift, and a 1-1/2 hour day and a five-day week.

The union was satisfied with the wage offer but demanded a 7-hour day. Last week the union voted to strike upon call of the executive council.

The publishers presented two proposals for settlement and the printers rejected both plans.

Local Schools End Semester

Seventh Graders' Promotion Exercises Monday Eve

Big Spring schools end the first semester's work Monday and plunge immediately into the last half of the school year without the customary breathing spell for mid-term examinations.

Virtually the only distinguishing event of the change will be promotion exercises for seventh graders who go into high school Tuesday.

Sixty-one boys and girls are due to receive certificates of promotion in a program at the municipal auditorium Monday at 7:45 p. m.

Largely due to the new system of instruction local schools are employing as one of five exploratory schools in the state, usual "final" exams were not given. Several teachers, however, did hold period tests for their classes where the need arose.

One New Course

One new course—in social problems for boys—will be added with the start of the second semester. Only change in the faculty will be the transfer of Eloise Haley from Central ward to high school with promotion of the seventh graders.

FASTING CHURCHMAN ASKS TO BE LET ALONE IN HIS SEARCH FOR A 'NEW WAY OF LIFE'

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 15 (AP)—Dean Zeruel Harding Noe reiterated today his belief he should be left alone to continue his search for a "new way of life."

The dean of St. Mary's Episcopal cathedral made these points clear: 1. He has made no public claims concerning his fasting and prayer in search of immortality. He is not thinking in terms of fasting but in terms of working out a philosophy of life.

2. He does not feel concerned about the opinions of others, either in the medical profession or the clergy, respecting his attempt to work out a program to which he has given many years of study, especially since he feels others have no real idea of what he is doing.

3. He does not intend to tell his story until he has worked it out and tested it.

4. He is working out his program from a purely personal standpoint. He is not asking any one to agree that he is right. He feels the knowledge he has of science, the human body, physics and biochemistry, together with his close communion with God and his knowledge of God's work on earth, has man of faith, to go ahead without interruptions from those who do not understand.

"I have given out nothing to the press beyond one brief statement to the effect that I am sure that with the help of an all-sufficient and all-sustaining God, in whom I trust with an absolute faith, I can prove that man can, here and now, put on the fullness of the godhead bodily," the clergyman said.

"Since what I am doing is beyond the comprehension of so many, since my approach to what I am doing is an entirely new one, there is no occasion for me to defend or argue my faith and my program."

Those who know the dean well say that he subsisted all of last year on oranges alone—as far as "outer, artificial food is concerned," but that his main food "came from the Father's life within, the substance of life which he has taken and transmuted into creative strength." They say, too, that he has partaken of neither food nor water since January 3.

WOMAN REAL ESTATE DEALER IS SHOT BY ANOTHER

DETROIT, Jan. 15 (AP)—Three hours after Mrs. Edith Mae Cummings, 49-year-old Detroit real estate dealer, was shot to death in a rural ravine today, Mrs. Julia Barker, also a real estate dealer, surrendered and claimed, Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea said, that she shot Mrs. Cummings in self-defense.

Both women were reputed millionaires during Detroit's pre-depression real estate boom. They also were co-defendants in an indictment returned recently in Fayette county, Kentucky, charging conspiracy in connection with a $46,000 transaction involving land that was "going to be bought by Henry Ford."

Charles H. Priebe, a friend of both women, said Mrs. Barker blamed Mrs. Cummings for involving her in the land deal.

HOOPER SUGGESTS A POLICY FOR PEACE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15 (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover today suggested an eight-point peace policy for America, based on moral force, economic remedies and a determination to face the realities in a disordered world.

He asserted "our government in 1938" destroyed "an unparalleled opportunity to have brought some measure of economic peace" to the world in the world economic conference.

CRIMINAL CASES SET THIS WEEK

Criminal docket will be opened in 70th district court Monday as the current term rocks into its third week.

District Attorney Cecil Collinsge ready on four cases. Two are against James "Smookey" Davidson for theft and burglary. Another is against F. J. Franks, and the other against an out-of-county resident giving the name of J. Alford.

Two criminal cases have been settled this term on pleas of guilty. Avery Anson was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary for car theft, and Byron Heffner was fined $50 and cost, sentenced to five days in jail and had his drivers license suspended for six months for driving while intoxicated.

THUGS AND DRUNKARDS IN THE MERCHANT MARINE, IS CHARGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—An American shipmaster, who said he was "liable to have a bullet in my back" if his name got out, told senate committees in testimony made public today discipline had broken down completely in the American merchant marine.

His charges were made before the senate commerce and labor committees, which are considering amendments to the merchant marine act.

The shipmaster, whose name was kept secret, said "40-sheeps are infested with thugs, thieves, gamblers, dope runners, drunkards, and racketeers of all descriptions."

He said these constituted one of three types of seaman.

"The second type is the man whose only aim is to cheat the ship-out of an honest day's work, whether it be for his safety or not—constantly complaining and demanding overtime pay for almost anything he does," the witness continued.

"The third type is the old type of seaman, he is a sailor, steward, or fireman. It is this pitifully small group which keeps our ships running in any semblance of order at all."

The shipmaster attributed conditions to the increase of "rank and file unions," which include both officers and crew, and termed unions "degenerate systems 'the same as the Soviet'."

Top-Ranking Comedy, 'The Awful Truth' Heads Program At Ritz Today And Monday

Irene Dunne And Cary Grant Are Co-Starred

What the reviewers say is one of the most entertaining pictures to come out of Hollywood in many months, and one that has been included on most lists of the "ten best" productions of 1937 is the chief item on the Ritz theatre's program for today and Monday.

It's a smart comedy called "The Awful Truth," and co-stars Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, both of whom have proved themselves able exponents of comedy. She will be remembered favorably for the title role in "Theodora Goes Wild," he for able work in the comedy, "Trooper."

"The Awful Truth" was shown Saturday—midnight—to separate audiences of women and men. Both groups got a tremendous kick out of the story. Jointly at the Ritz for the next two days, they can enjoy a story that states for the most part on the screwball side of screen fare.

The film is based on the stage success in which Ina Claire starred. It depicts the marital misfortunes of the Warners, husband and wife played by the two principals. Wealthy and very much in love with each other, they nevertheless come to grief in the divorce courts when misunderstandings are amplified with disastrous results.

At this point in the story Mr. Smith makes his entrance. Mr. Smith is their wife-hairer terror, played by Skippy, seen as Asta in "After the Thin Man." Irene wants him, but so does Cary. By a ruse Irene wins custody of the animal but the court permits Cary to visit him once a month.

One of these visits to Mr. Smith Cary meets Ralph Bellamy, an Oklahoma oil tycoon who is courting Irene. Cary, himself, is running around with a cabaret entertainer but wants a reconciliation with his wife. Falling this, Cary soon announces his engagement to a wealthy social butterfly. It is then Miss Dunne realizes her love for her ex-camp and sets out to nail him this time for good.

Posing as Cary's sister, Irene attends a swank engagement dinner party, pretends to be drunk, and elicits such ill-breeding that in the resulting uproar she and her "brother" are virtually thrown out.

This mutual difficulty serves to bring a reunion that adds nicely to the gaiety of the whole affair.

In addition to Bellamy, the supporting cast includes Joyce Compton, Cecil Cunningham, Alexander D'Arcy, Robert Allen, Esther Dale and Robert Warwick.

HE TAKES HER FOR A RIDE

Cary Grant and Irene Dunne seem to be having a lot of fun on this wild ride. The customers are promised a lot of fun, too, in the Dunne-Grant comedy, "The Awful Truth." A story, lightly done, of marital rifts and reunions, the picture is at the Ritz today and Monday.

Joan Blondell, Pat O'Brien Co-Starred

Appear At Queen In Drama Of Newspaper Adventures

Two stars accustomed to working in such swiftly paced pictures — Pat O'Brien and Joan Blondell — are teamed in "Back In Circulation," a stirring comedy-drama of newspaper life which is offered today and Monday at the Queen.

The plot of the story revolves around the death of a millionaire, discovered by a tabloid newspaper editor (Pat) to have occurred under mysterious circumstances.

The editor, aided by his keen woman reporter (Joan), amasses a damning amount of circumstantial evidence against the widow, and through his printed stories she is brought to trial.

Tried and convicted of murder, her silence and demeanor convinces the girl reporter that the widow is innocent, but ready to go to her doom, shielding someone else.

With the aid of a physician (John Littel) who is in love with the condemned woman, the reporter is enabled to gain an explanation, breaking through the widow's screen of silence to prove the solution of the mystery.

The narrative is swift and suspenseful, with a remarkable performance by Joan Blondell as the girl reporter. Humorous twits and breezy comedy is interwoven between Pat O'Brien as the newspaper editor and his star reporter, with O'Brien in a lusty and spirited characterization.

Margaret Lindsay as the widow acts her role with complete sincerity and John Littel as her lover is very effective. The direction of Ray Enright injected speed and action to the story.

The production background presents an authentic news room of a metropolitan newspaper; a brilliant night club; a conservative yet elegant millionaire's home; a swanky bachelor's apartment; a court room, jail and prison scenes. From small town and suburban atmosphere to the hustle and bustle of city streets with a thrilling train wreck, the production covers a wide range.

IN DRAMA OF NEWSPAPERDOM

Pat O'Brien and Joan Blondell match wits as newspaper workers, in a swiftly-moving drama of metropolitan press life, "Back In Circulation." The picture is the Queen's feature for Sunday and Monday.

Sonja Henie's New Film At The Lyric

With Tyrone Power In Gay Romance, 'Thin Ice'

A gay musical of shimmering settings, spectacular production spectacles, and of fun and romance is "Thin Ice," given a return showing locally with screenings today and Monday at the Lyric. It is the second starring vehicle of twinkling Sonja Henie, who is teamed with young Tyrone Power. Miss Henie is exciting again as she displays acting charm and dazzling skill on skates.

A delightful comedy of mistaken identity affording many hilarious situations, "Thin Ice" concerns the romance of a beautiful skating star who falls in love with a man she believes to be a reporter but who, in reality, is a prince.

Sonja is a skating instructor at a resort hotel in the Swiss Alps. To that place come dignitaries of two nations to settle a neutrality pact. Tyrone, as the prince of one of these countries, comes to the party, but ducks out for political reasons, registers under an assumed name at a nearby lodge. There he meets the girl and romance develops as the two spend hours together skating and skiing. The village soon learns the young man's identity, but Sonja still thinks he is a newspaperman. The ultimate revelation provides an amusing climax to the story, and everybody is satisfied.

Three elaborate skating numbers with hundreds of girls in remarkable ice-revels intersperse the romantic story. Miss Henie executes many skating routines more difficult than she has exhibited before. The supporting cast includes Arthur Treacher, Raymond Walburn, Joan Davis, Sig Rumann, Alan Hale, Leah Ray, Melville Cooper, Maurice Cass and George Givot.

Air Travelers Interviewed In New KBST Program; Kiddies Revue Returns To Saturday Schedule

Something new in the way of radio entertainment is now being aired by KBST. It's a program called "Airline Interviews," in which passengers aboard the east-bound American Airlines plane which stops here daily are interviewed. Broadcast by remote control from the municipal airport, the program is handled by Announcer Frank McIntyre, who queries the air travelers on sundry topics. The feature is on the air daily except Sunday at 4:30 p. m. and promises to be one of KBST's popular arrangements.

KBST is glad to announce, for the benefit of many listeners who follow the two, that Smoky and Baschal are back on the air. The Range Ramblers attracted a large fan following during their previous broadcast series, and now may be heard each weekday at 11:45 a. m.

Introduction of the Airline Interviews program has brought a change in broadcast time of some local artists. Frances Stamper will in the future be heard on Mondays at 4:45 p. m. The voice of Wanda McQuain will be heard on Tuesdays at the same hour. Wednesday at 4:45 is the hour for Jane Marie Tingie's "Melodies In Miniature," and Junior Hubbard is the local entertainer heard on Thursdays at the same time.

Big Spring's youngest set is back on the air.

KBST is renewing its popular feature of last winter, the Kiddies Revue, and this program will be aired each Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Talents of local children are given recognition, and the kiddies step before the microphones without hesitation and offer a program in quite professional manner. Joe Robert Myers is again the master of ceremonies, introducing the various juvenile singers, readers, pianists, accordionists.

A popular transcription feature of the National Broadcasting company, titled "The Dance Hour," will be in the future heard each week day afternoon at 2:30. This program offers up the sparkling arrangements of those master musicians, the Rhythm Makers.

KBST listeners are invited to tune in at 8 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for the smart dance music of Xavier Cugat. This NBC transcription offering presents the latest dance tunes in the program "Music by Cugat."

Benefit Party Planned For Tuesday By Women Of Christian Church

A benefit 42 party will be held at the home of Mrs. T. E. Baker at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday by members of Circle One of the Women's Christian Council of the First Christian church.

Proceeds will go into the fund toward church repair.

The public is invited to make reservations for tables for games.

BIRTHDAY BALL TO BE ADVERTISED IN TALKS OVER KBST

Radio station KBST is lending its facilities toward promotion of the Birthday Balls for the president, slated January 29 as a fund raising affair for the campaign against infantile paralysis.

Beginning Monday, the station is providing time each day until the 28th for speakers who will discuss plans for the Birthday celebration. These brief talks will be heard at 11:30 a. m. and 6:15 p. m. each day, with local men and women appearing.

Monday morning at 11:30, the series will be opened with a talk by Grover Dunham, chairman of the local committee. V. A. Merrick,

BANK PRESIDENT OF ARP BURIED

ARP, Tex., Jan. 15 (AP)—Funeral services were held here today for L. S. Sartain, 68, president of the Arp State bank since 1927.

Sartain, a native of Arp, died Thursday night.

He was survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Cecil Boles of Houston and Miss Grace Sartain of Arp, and a son, F. I. Sartain of Arp.

The committee member, will talk at 6:15. Names of other speakers will be announced later.

Would Force Economies In Govt.

Byrd Proposes Compulsory 10 Per. Cut In Expenditures

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va) proposed to congress today that it compel the executive branch of the government to make a 10 per cent reduction in all regular expenditures.

Byrd made the proposal in a minority report on the administration's government reorganization bill, approved last year by a majority of a special senate committee. He said he would introduce an amendment requiring that the economies be made when the proposed reorganization is carried out.

Byrd declared there is "urgent need for reorganization of the federal government for both economy and efficiency." He criticized the administration as "not promising substantial economies and as giving too much power to the president."

"It should not be difficult to reduce ordinary expenses of the government at least 10 per cent under the powers granted in this bill," he said.

"It would appear that a reorganization bill such as this, which creates new departments, bureaus and officials, gives little promise of economy and simplification except by the abolition of agencies and elimination of personnel and appalling waste and duplication."

The Virginian said the investigation of his own special committee had "disclosed waste, overlapping activities and excessive overhead cost, making immediate reform imperative if the course of continuing deficits and rising taxes is to be altered."

NEWS NOTES FROM THE OIL FIELD COMMUNITIES

C. M. Jones is reported to be recovering in Marlin where he has been for the past month under treatment for pneumonia. Mr. Jones was stricken in December and was taken to an Odessa hospital. Later he entered the Bule-Allen hospital in Marlin.

Connie Scuddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Scuddy, has been very ill suffering from a cold.

The Ladies Bible class met at the Church of Christ Thursday afternoon for the regular Bible study. Minister Hobbs was unable to teach the lesson due to illness of his daughter in Abilene. Mrs. Rippey brought the afternoon devotional. Those present were Mrs. J. J. Patterson, Miss M. Long, Mrs. Hal Cox, Mrs. C. Cox, Mrs. C. E. Chaitin, Mrs. W. E. Lunsford, Mrs.

Ralph Yarborough In Contest For Atty. General

HOUSTON, Jan. 15 — "The best platform is performance rather than promise," declared District Judge Ralph Yarborough of Austin today in announcing definitely that he will be a candidate for attorney general. He spent the day in Houston conferring with a large number of friends concerning the race.

"My campaign will be an aggressive one and I will carry my candidacy to the people," Yarborough said. "I have a record of public service, including four years as assistant attorney general. I will stand on my record and I will insist that my opponents stand on theirs."

Yarborough was born in Henderson county 35 years ago, worked in the oil fields and wheat fields of the Panhandle, attended Sam Houston State Teachers college and the University of Texas law school, taught one-room schools, practiced law in El Paso and has lived in Austin the past six years. As assistant attorney general, he conducted a number of cases involving vast amounts and two years ago he was elected district judge, carrying every box in the district.

Machiavelli developed the principle that the ruler of a state is justified in resorting to any measures that will maintain his power.

CORPUS PORT TO BE HELPED BY CANAL

CORPUS CHRISTI, Jan. 15 (AP)—Considerable tonnage will move from Port Lavaca and Port O'Connor to the Port of Corpus Christi by barge on completion of that section of the intracoastal canal on which $70,000 was allotted today by the secretary of war.

Practicability of the project was demonstrated today when two barges left the port on a return trip to Port Lavaca after delivering 2,800 tons of petroleum products to Corpus Christi for storage.

Minimum depth of the section on which funds were allotted today is four feet with dredging necessary only on that part from Harbor Island up the coast to Port Lavaca.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE
Room 1, Settles Hotel
"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 16.
The Golden Text is: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... In him was life; and the life was the light of men" (John 1:14).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings... For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light" (Psalms 36:7, 9).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (page 289).

Regular services at St. Mary's will be resumed on Jan. 23.

Hub Rutherford Asks Reelection As Commissioner

H. H. "Hub" Rutherford, county commissioner of precinct No. 3, announced Saturday that he would ask a second term to the office. Rutherford, a long time resident of the county and of precinct No. 3, announced his candidacy subject to action of the democratic primaries. He reaffirmed his stand for a progressive administration of county affairs and said he favored those things of benefit to town and county and which at the same time are in keeping with the county's position. Rutherford thanked voters for their support and influence in the past campaign and asked serious consideration for his second term.

Official estimates show that farmers produce from 100 to 250 pounds of straw, stalks or husks for every 100 pounds of grain.

Big Spring Attorney Announces As Candidate For District Judge

CLYDE E. THOMAS

Clyde E. Thomas, long-time resident of Big Spring, attorney and former public official, Saturday made formal announcement of his candidacy for judge of the 70th judicial district. In a statement issued, he expressed appreciation to those who took an interest in his behalf in the election of four years ago. Thomas ran second to Judge Charles L. Klapproth, incumbent. "My opponent," said Thomas, "in that election was and is a splendid fellow, and well known throughout the district, and under the circumstances, I was well pleased with the number of votes I received, with three in the race." "I am now 50 years of age, and have had a very varied and wide experience in the practice of law. This practice has not been confined just to the trial courts; I have continually, for the past fifteen years, a good practice in the appellate court, the courts of civil appeals, the supreme court of Texas, and in the United States circuit court of appeals. Experience in actual trial work in civil cases, together with appellate work in taking care of the record, is necessary for efficient, speedy and just administration of the district court." Thomas organized and was the secretary-treasurer for eleven years of the Big Spring National Farm Loan association; during that time, he loaned more than a million dollars, and personally handled the collections in the sum of more than fifty thousand dollars per annum. His efficient and honest rendition of this service, elicited from the Federal Land Bank at Houston on two occasions the offer of the position of first assistant to the general attorney of the bank. Thomas was mayor of Big Spring for two terms, and during his administration, the first sewer system was completed, the first pavement was laid, the ornamental lighting system was installed, and he was the first in town to advocate the manager system of city government, and it was during his second administration as mayor, and under his supervision, that the present charter was written, and the present form of city government was installed.

"In case I am elected as your District Judge," he said, "I will, of course, give my undivided time and attention to the duties of the office; I will do my best to handle the office with speed and dispatch, therefore, economy; with my experience, I believe I can handle the office economically, with fairness and rightness in all of my decisions."

"When I was your prosecuting attorney years ago, I did my best to enforce the law, and not one of my convictions was reversed by the higher court." "I am a candidate from the whole district; that is, I am not appealing to sectionalism or to the vote of any one county, though I do hope that Big Spring county will give me that splendid majority it has always given me in the past."

Police Station Robbed
ERISBANE (UP)—When a prisoner on remand escaped from the police station at Erisbane, the whole of the small town's police force was mobilized to hunt for him. They didn't find the prisoner, but when they returned to the police station they found that it had been robbed. The burglar had taken $100.

Model Locomotive Built

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART

Jack Dean, who three seasons ago hit the headlines of the St. Louis, Mo., blades by signing a contract with Rogers Hornsby's St. Louis Browns, who failed to stick with San Antonio due to inexperience and who finally ended up in the Evangeline league, didn't do so badly in throwing the old horse-hide last season.

Playing with Jeanette, the Big Spring boy won seven games and lost nine for an average of .438. He took part in 30 games, pitched 156 innings, allowed 115 runs, gave up 178 hits, issued 62 bases on balls, whiffed 67, balked once, cut loose with seven wide pitches and gave up 92 earned runs.

With the willow, the right-handed former Big Spring High school football and basketball star had to take a back seat to the other pitchers of that circuit. He batted only .131, swinging the hickory 58 times in 29 games, making four runs, nine hits, a triple, nine total bases and striking out 15 times.

He's been signed by the Jeanette club again for the coming season.

Floyd Burnett, mentor of the Garner basketball team, didn't like that story on Able's progress as a West Texas basketball power at all. He's issued an invitation to Howard Miller, Eagle coach, to have their two clubs meet and earnestly believes that the Hill Billies could take the powerful Taylor county club into camp.

He says the only difference between his Gopher outfit of a year ago (the one that slipped into the final round of the state playoff) and his current charges is height.

Promoter Ray Simmons seems to be doing a handside business on the Herald-Cosden Golden Gloves boxing tournament here. So many entrants are filing notice that they will be here opening night that the meeting may have to be carried over a fourth day.

Present plans now are to present the first one next Friday night and then follow up with a show Wednesday, January 28. The finals were due to come off Wednesday, February 2, but another show may be sandwiched in between for Monday, January 31.

Roy Skile is assisting Kid Whittington and Earl Scott in training the local hopefuls. He should be remembered by the Big Spring fight fans, because he's fought them all in his time.

He kaymed Tony Herrera when that little El Paso Mexican was at the top and he had it out with Benny Leonard, almost flooring the greatest lightweight champion that ever lived.

Wanted: Two good fight judges. Ray Simmons is looking around for judging material which isn't as much in evidence as are the scrappers. Any one who has had any experience at deciding the winners are requested to contact the desk.

Big Spring's first boxing tourney might be an incentive toward forming a local athletic club and working toward greater things next season.

GG Fighters Enter The Final Week Of Training For Friday's Show

Trainer Scott Sends Locals Thru Drills

Womack, Wallace Look Good In Friday Sparring Rounds

By HANK HART

Action in the form of flying fists was the by-word at the Crawford training quarters of the Herald-Cosden Golden Gloves boxing contestants Friday night as some 30 boys went through the instructions given by Trainer Earl "Scotty" Scott.

The entire local delegation was due to congregate with Scott again Monday to enter the final week of practice that should work them into fighting trim for the preliminaries, scheduled to open up next Friday evening, 7:30 o'clock, on the stage of the municipal auditorium.

Scott allowed several mitt slingers to don the gloves for actual contact and the brief flurries of the ambitious youngsters were so dazzling that they brought repeated roars from a large crowd that had gathered to watch the sessions.

Fast Scrapping Red Womack looked especially good in his bout with O. T. Teague. The little feather stamped himself as a boy to watch next Friday night by scoring time and again over a willing but badly outclassed opponent.

Scott, himself, laced on the gloves to give the dangerous J. C. Wallace, middleweight favorite, a good workout. Wallace continued to spar with his "killing" instinct and his puzzling attack.

Virtually all the youngsters went a round or two under the watchful eye of Scott and the other two trainers, Kid Whittington and Roy Skile.

From Kermit came word that ten boys of that city had entered serious training for a fling at the honors here and would show up Friday morning for the preliminaries.

Whole Team Jodie Diester, Kermit, a 20-year-old welter, forwarded his entry slip to the GG editor and predicted that at least nine townsmen would follow him for the battles.

Midland supplied a flyweight by the name of Delmar Yoakum who is training in Midland. More are expected from that city.

Diester and Yoakum entered Friday evening along with Ellis Read, lightweight; Jack Tingle, middle; J. C. Lynn, feather; and Clarence Sheffield, welter, all of Big Spring. Tingle, Sheffield and Read took part in the Friday night workouts while Lynn announced that he would report Monday evening.

Entrants are expected from San Angelo and Lamesa by Tuesday of next week. All boys who intend to enter are requested to contact either Promoter Ray Simmons or the Herald's GG editor as soon as possible.

The lads had very little time to condition themselves for this tourney but a year's work might bring out some real champions.

Christians Lose To Texas Steers

Win Is Second Of Season For Graymen

TCU Drops Deeper In Celelar, Steers Cop By 39-18 Tally

FORT WORTH, Jan. 15 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns cut down the helpless TCU Horned Frogs 39-18 here tonight.

The Purple team put up a poor exhibition and was no match for the hustling Steers at any point in the proceedings.

Led by Willie Tate, the John Tarleton graduate, the Orange wore the films due to be shown at 9:30 o'clock. J. Y. Robb, manager of the Ritz, donated use of the theatre for the purpose.

"Speeding To Championships," "Gypsies For A Day," "Trail of Jack Piner" and "Safety At Sixty" were the films due to be shown and requires about 90 minutes.

President Cecil Thixton of the local club said that a free motorcycle and baseball game and other riding events would take place today with riders from San Angelo, Lubbock and McCombs joining the local "jockeys" for the events.

Playing a slow, deliberate game the Steers took advantage of their opportunities and dribbled in time after time for easy crigs. It was just a question of how big the score would be as the befuddled Frogs watched the Steers whiz by.

Tate and Tommy Neims, a soph guard, led the scoring, Tate with 12 points and Neims 13. Woodrow Duckworth, a soph from Vernon, was the only Frog who could hit the side of the gym. He made eight points.

Playing with the all-stars will be Gaynell Tinsley, Lon Evans, Bill Lee, Primo Miller, Pat Coffey, Joe Routh, all-American guard and a group of other athletes who distinguished themselves both in college and professional football.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—The United States Lawn Tennis association moved today to curb excessive payments to amateurs under the heading of traveling expenses, a practice Chairman Louis J. Carruthers of the amateur rule committee said had led to numerous abuses.

The association reelected President Holcombe Ward of New York and other officers. It approved a 1938 Davis Cup challenge round to the Germantown Cricket club of Philadelphia and appropriated $11,641 for Junior Davis Cup teams and other junior development.

The new rule on traveling expenses prohibits lump sum or round figure payments to amateurs and provides that "such payments shall cover only expenses actually incurred."

Clubs or sub-associations are required to submit detailed reports of payments for traveling and living expenses of players within 10 days after tournaments or exhibitions.

CYCLISTS MOVE INTO TOWN FOR ACTIVITIES

Tremaine Set To Meet Dick Sampson

Riders from throughout West Texas began gathering here Saturday afternoon for the Lone Star Motorcycle club's program of activities which began with a barbecue Sunday morning at 1 a. m.

A free picture show to every Big Spring resident who wishes to attend was scheduled to be presented at the Ritz theatre this morning at 9:30 o'clock. J. Y. Robb, manager of the Ritz, donated use of the theatre for the purpose.

"Speeding To Championships," "Gypsies For A Day," "Trail of Jack Piner" and "Safety At Sixty" were the films due to be shown and requires about 90 minutes.

President Cecil Thixton of the local club said that a free motorcycle and baseball game and other riding events would take place today with riders from San Angelo, Lubbock and McCombs joining the local "jockeys" for the events.

Playing a slow, deliberate game the Steers took advantage of their opportunities and dribbled in time after time for easy crigs. It was just a question of how big the score would be as the befuddled Frogs watched the Steers whiz by.

Tate and Tommy Neims, a soph guard, led the scoring, Tate with 12 points and Neims 13. Woodrow Duckworth, a soph from Vernon, was the only Frog who could hit the side of the gym. He made eight points.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—The United States Lawn Tennis association moved today to curb excessive payments to amateurs under the heading of traveling expenses, a practice Chairman Louis J. Carruthers of the amateur rule committee said had led to numerous abuses.

The association reelected President Holcombe Ward of New York and other officers. It approved a 1938 Davis Cup challenge round to the Germantown Cricket club of Philadelphia and appropriated $11,641 for Junior Davis Cup teams and other junior development.

The new rule on traveling expenses prohibits lump sum or round figure payments to amateurs and provides that "such payments shall cover only expenses actually incurred."

Clubs or sub-associations are required to submit detailed reports of payments for traveling and living expenses of players within 10 days after tournaments or exhibitions.

Double Main Event Featured At BS Athletic Club

To remould the faith of those patrons whose lust for blood wasn't satisfied last week, the Big Spring Athletic club is billing next Tuesday a double main event whereby Richard Sampson and Andy Tremaine will tangle in what should be the feature.

Sampson exploded a rocking right to Tremaine's chin last week as the Tucson grider was being clamped uncomfortably in a double nelson by Gene Blakely and the newcomer hasn't forgotten it yet by any means. The unexpected wallop came after both Sampson and Tremaine's partner, Bob Cummings, had been eliminated in a four-man team show.

Sampson's blow was as beautiful as it was effective but he wasted no time in getting out of circulation once he delivered. He scattered for his dressing room while Blakely dropped on Andy for the count and didn't come out until everybody but the janitor had vacated.

Tremaine is a log artist and will get better opportunity to display his wares now that he doesn't have to reckon with more than one opponent.

The limit will be 90 minutes with the decision going to the growner who cops the first two falls.

The other main event finds Cummings opposing Beany Wilson. This one is billed at 45 minutes, best two-out-of-three falls.

GARDEN CITY, Jan. 15—The basketball teams of Garden City and Big Lake split two games here Friday night, the visitors winning the boys' battle, 18-17, on a late rally and the Garden City fans copping their game, 35-24.

Such is the edict of B. M. Earlbert, Sr., donor of the famed mascot. "If Bill the Eighth doesn't click next year and win for the navy, I'm going to recall him and send 'em Bill the Ninth. Bill is a fine two-year-old and has some good blood, but if he doesn't bring the navy some luck he'll be using that good blood to improve some West Texas goat flocks rather than decorating the landscape at Annapolis."

Bill, The 8th, Must Win Or Else For Sailors In '38

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 15 (AP)—Bill the Eighth, the Angora goat mascot of the navy football team, will be brought back to West Texas pastures if the midshipmen don't whip West Point, traditional rivals, in their 1938 grid classic.

Such is the edict of B. M. Earlbert, Sr., donor of the famed mascot. "If Bill the Eighth doesn't click next year and win for the navy, I'm going to recall him and send 'em Bill the Ninth. Bill is a fine two-year-old and has some good blood, but if he doesn't bring the navy some luck he'll be using that good blood to improve some West Texas goat flocks rather than decorating the landscape at Annapolis."

AMATEUR GRID LOOP FORMED

GALVESTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Ten, possibly eleven, independent amateur football teams of South Texas will band together into a league for the 1938 season—the first circuit of its kind in Texas.

John Burgess, manager of the Little Hurrican football team of Galveston, said managers of teams at San Antonio, Beaumont, Houston, Pelican, Texas City and Alvin would meet here in March to formulate plans.

The teams would play a ten-game schedule, five at home and five abroad, with a three-weeks layoff to play mid-season games with junior college and college freshmen teams, Burgess said. Championship would be won after a Sheehynew playoff.

No player, said Burgess, could receive money for his services.

MONDAY FINISHES BIG WINTER SEASON FOR STATE NIMRODS

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (AP)—The setting of tomorrow's sun will end the last of Texas' big fall and winter hunting seasons, that on small game, with J. Tucker, executive secretary of the state game department, said today hunting generally was the best in many years. From the business man's viewpoint it was equally successful, he said, with an estimated 500,000 nimrods spending around $25,000,000 on purchases incident to their excursions in search of game.

Since September 1, Texans have bagged away at mourning and white-winged doves, white-tail and mule deer, wild turkeys, ducks, geese and the Bob White in succession.

After tomorrow sportsmen will turn to the rod and reel for a few weeks more of recreation before the general closed season on bass, high-crappie and musky opens effective March 1. In many counties special laws differing from the general laws govern fishing.

During the state's best deer season in five years or more, Tucker estimated about 30,000 bucks were killed legally. Turkey gobbler shooting also was splendid over most of the turkey range, but in some parts drought conditions had considerably reduced the supply. The deer and turkey seasons closed Dec. 31.

Meanwhile, the migratory waterfowl season had opened Nov. 27. Thousands of ducks and geese, more abundant than in several years because of stringent federal restrictions, flock over Texas lakes and streams and concentrated along the Gulf coast. The supply was so great game department officials predicted federal restrictions would be lifted somewhat in the near future, at least to the extent of allowing use of live decoys, and provision of a longer period of shooting than the established 30 days. The season closed December 31.

The quality season opened Dec. 1. Rainy weather cut down hunting considerably but the take was declared to be fair when hunters were able to venture forth.

HUBBELL SIGNS FOR GIANTS

Hurler First Terryman In Agreement

By BILL BONI
NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—The signed contract of Carl Owen Hubbell arrived in the New York Giants offices today from Oklahoma.

Even the fact that this year, with salary estimated at $24,000, he will be the highest-paid pitcher in baseball made no difference to the mild man from Meeker. He just looked at the contract, which gives him an increase of about $1,500, nodded his head and scrawled his name wherever an "x" indicated "sign here."

This is the third time in a row that King Carl has been the first of Bill Terry's hirings to accept terms.

On his record deserves to be the big league's top-salaried pitcher. His 22 victories and eight defeats for .738 led the National League last season.

In addition, at the start of the year he won eight straight to run his consecutive-victory streak, begun in 1936, to 24. That topped by four Rube Marquard's performance in 1911-1912. Marquard's string of nineteen straight triumphs in 1912 still is the record for one season.

Hub's showing—he pitched a beautiful six-hitter to give the Giants their lone World Series victory over the Yankees—combined with the activities of two of baseball's stormier petrels to make him top man among the pitchers this season.

Disney Dean, after an indifferent year, already has gone on record as refusing to be cut from $25,000, highest 1937 pitching pay, to $10,000 by the St. Louis Cardinals. The Yanks' Lefty Gomez, his wages sliced after a poor year in 1936, probably will return to the $20,000 class after a fine comeback that helped the American leaguers to the world championship. But his salary figure isn't expected to match Hubbell's.

Hubbell signs contracts with the same free-and-easy motion with which he baffles opposing hitters—and at least once his signing was equally baffling.

That was the year the late Charles A. Stoneham sent him a blank contract and told him to write his own ticket. Hubbell filled in what he thought was a proper figure.

Stoneham was shocked—but only by Hub's modesty. He tore up the contract and made out another himself for $1,500 more than King Carlos had deemed sufficient.

The champions of the eight teams that will compete for the tournament honors will be given a handsome 16-inch trophy while runners-up and consolation winners will each be awarded with 10-inch trophies.

To eight members of a squad chosen as an all-tournament squad will be given gold medals while an additional one will go to the girl selected as the best sport.

The tournament will begin Friday afternoon.

DALLAS, Jan. 15 (AP)—Sale of Luther (Red) Harvel, veteran outfielder, to the Monroe, La., club of the Cotton States league was announced today by Bob Tarleton, business manager of the Dallas Steers, of the Texas league.

Harvel is to become manager of the Monroe club, Tarleton said.

League To Begin Functioning Soon

Three teams representing Big Spring high school and a Moore quintet have been banded together in a basketball league. Ben Daniel announced Saturday and will play through a month or more of schedule.

First game will be played the latter part of this week. All games will take place in the Moore gym.

Loop Deal Is Still In Air

O'Neal Heads Group Seeking To Take Galvez Franchise

SHREVEPORT, La., Jan. 15 (AP)—Henry A. O'Neal, chairman of a citizens committee appointed to raise funds for the purchase of the Galveston, Texas League, baseball franchise for Shreveport, said he will announce a decision tomorrow on the verbal option this city holds to buy the Buccaneers.

O'Neal, president of the chamber of commerce, said there will be no meeting of the committee but individual members will report to him on the sale of stock. If a sum sufficient to purchase the franchise, erect a grandstand and install lights, is subscribed, O'Neal will notify J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Texas League, that Shreveport is ready to close the deal.

The committee was handicapped today in its stock solicitations due to business interest enjoying a half-holiday and many persons known to be interested in the purchase of the Texas League franchise being out of the city.

USCC Hits Administration For Its Attacks On Big Business

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States reprimanded the administration today for "the recent tendency to assail business and blame it for the recession."

"This tendency 'has not proved conducive to the co-operative spirit so essential to confidence and recovery,' the chamber said.

"Soiling and name-calling do not make for team-play between business and government. They don't put men to work."

"Business, on its part, has shown a discreet restraint in not aggravating the situation by replying to the attacks in the same tenor," the organization of business men added.

The administration is "groping for a way out of the business decline and in examining suggestions for a new type of planning legislation, patterned 'somewhat after the NRA concept,' the chamber said.

Business men will trek in increasing numbers to the White House next week to discuss recovery methods.

Wednesday 50 business leaders who belong to the president's business advisory council are scheduled to go to the executive mansion.

This conference is expected generally to cover such topics as industrial planning, installment selling, monopoly, utilities, housing and labor policies.

The president has indicated he is seeking a method of industrial planning which would enable business men to gear their activities closer to the nation's needs and thus minimize the economic cycle of boom and depression. Part of the proposal may be to limit high pressure salesmanship and restrict installment financing.

One of the methods under consideration would permit business to co-operate in studying markets and production needs without fear of prosecution under the anti-trust laws unless they fixed prices or eliminated competition.

The meeting Wednesday will bring to the White House one of the largest groups of business men ever to convene there at one time.

If a kitten reaches the age of two or three months without any experience with mice, it will not show a mousing instinct later.

Plans Under Way For Garden City Tourney; Forsan To Defend Title

GARDEN CITY, Jan. 15—Plans were underway here to make the fifth annual Garden City invitational basketball tournament, scheduled Jan. 25-29, the greatest in the five-year history of the meeting.

The tourney will be open to both boys' and girls' teams and Supt. N. P. Taylor of the Garden City schools predicted that 12 or more boys' quintets would play and expected as many as eight girls' teams to participate.

Forsan is the defending champion in the boys' meeting, having won the title two years running while Elbow's girls, who copied the title in their division last season, will not be on hand to defend their laurels.

In the meeting's five year history, Lakewood and Sterling City have each won one boys' title along with Forsan while Garden City, Clear Point and Coahoma were declared kingpins in girls' play.

Taylor announced that the drawing for places would be held at 4 p. m., Jan. 24 and all entries must be in by that time.

Schools which were forwarded entry blanks included Klondike, Westbrook, Forsan, Coahoma, Courtney, Garner, Ackery, Stanton, Midland, Lakeview, Odessa, Rankin, Big Lake, Barnhart, Merton, San Angelo, Eola, Cristoval, Water Valley and Sterling City.

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON SCHOOL TOPICS

FORT WORTH, Jan. 15 (AP)—In an effort to co-ordinate the efforts of all educational agencies, the executive committee of the Texas State Teachers association agreed today to the formulation of an advisory council of representatives from eight educational societies to aid it in forming its legislative program.

The council would consist of a representative from the teachers association, the state department of education, the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Association of Texas Colleges, the state board of education, the Texas Association of Classroom Teachers, the County Superintendents association and the Association of Independent School Districts.

COLLIN COUNTY MAN MAY SEEK POST ON RR. COMMISSION

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (AP)—Friends of O. C. "Red" Christie, farmer and business man of Allen, Collin county, said today they expected him to make formal announcement soon of his candidacy for state railroad commissioner.

Christie, 43, was tax assessor of Hardeman county for four years. He has been a leader in the state organization of Young Democrats. Commissioner C. V. Terrell is expected to seek renomination. Other announced or prospective candidates include highway Commissioner John Wood, Richard A. Tullis of San Antonio and Robert A. Stuart of Fort Worth, former state senator.

SHORT SHORTS ON SPORTSDOM

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (AP)—The athletic committee of the University of Texas Ex-Students association will meet here next Saturday to discuss with Dana K. Bible its program of inducing promising athletes to come to the university for their education. The committee consists of representatives from each of the 15 districts into which the state has been divided.

John A. McCurdy, secretary of the ex-students' association, said the organization was attempting to accomplish these three objectives in its athletic program:

1. Education of Texans generally, through its district organizations, to the "so-called Big game," which places emphasis on the education of young men who participate in athletics, rather than "training football players" and which provides for no financial offers to athletes but does help athletes work their way through school.

2. Contacting prospective university students through its district and county committees.

3. Raising of money to augment the university athletic council work fund.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—Bobby Blegs of Chicago won to the final of the Nautilus tennis tournament today and will meet Wayne Sabn of Hollywood, Calif., tomorrow.

Young Blegs, the country's top-ranking player while Don Budge is abroad, crushed Edward T. Cooke of Portland, Ore., ranked lowest at No. 25, in the semi-finals today, 6-3, 6-0, 6-4.

The doubles also reached the final stage. Blegs and Sabn defeated the Miami University team of George Pero and Bill Hardie 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Wilmer Hines of Hollywood and Kovacs won a long duel with Cooke and Martin Buxby of Miami, 7-8, 7-5, 6-1, 4-4, 6-1. The doubles final also will be played tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—Don Lash, Indiana's durable track star, failed in his attempt to beat Paavo Nurmi's international record for 3,000 meters but turned in a remarkable performance over the flat boards to win the two-mile run at the 69th regiment indoor track and field meet today.

Running over a ten-lap and near circular track, Lash hit the 3,000 meter mark in 8:33.6 and then went on to cover the two miles in 9:11. While falling by several seconds in attempt to match Nurmi's 3,000 meter world mark of 8:26.4 and the American citizens performance of 8:27.4 set by Archie San Roman last week, Lash's race was a great exhibition in view of the shape and size of the track.

PALESTINE, Jan. 15 (AP)—Bobby Goff, manager of the Palestine Pale of the East Texas league in 1934-36 and pilot of the Lafayette club of the Evangeline league last season, has signed a contract to manage the Johnstown, Pa., club of the Middle Atlantic league, it was learned here today.

WACO, Jan. 15 (AP)—The district 21 committee of the Texas Inter-scholastic league at a meeting here today decided to turn down the applications of Mexico and Ennis for membership in its district.

The schools plan to carry their cases to the state league committee.

LA FERIA, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Fort Isabel Texans won the seventh annual Rio Grande Valley High School basketball tournament, sponsored by the La FERIA Lettermen's club, by defeating the Raymondville Bearkats, 23 to 21, here today. Eighteen quintets participated.

LUBBOCK, Jan. 15 (AP)—University of New Mexico's Lobos turned the tables on Texas Tech tonight to win, 41 to 31, and break even in the two-game Border conference series.

Texas Tech, returning to the style to which it had been accustomed before the two preceding games, played careless ball and had poor aim for the baskets. On the previous night they had canned 23 field goals and four free shots for 50 points to beat the Lobos by the same margin exercised tonight by New Mexico.

Big Navy Building Program Approved For Russia

MOSCOW, Jan. 15 (AP)—The supreme Soviet, Russia's new parliament, today cheered announcement of a broadened naval program and empowered its Presidium, permanent presiding committee, to proclaim martial law or a state of war in national emergencies.

The war emergency measure and four other amendments to the Soviet Union's new constitution were adopted by a unanimous show of hands after Stanislav Kozlov, a member of the political bureau of the communist party, warned:

"War is being prepared against us in the West and East."

Viascheslav M. Molotoff, Soviet premier, announced Russia planned to build bigger warships in a hastened naval program.

Molotoff made the disclosure in explanation of the recent establishment of a commissariat of naval affairs separate from the defense commissariat.

"The tremendous naval construction" of capitalist countries, he declared was a reminder that "our country is large, its shores are washed by many seas and we must have a strong, powerful fleet."

U.S., Britain May Join In Naval Race

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—High authorities said tonight the United States and Great Britain were preparing to disregard London naval treaty limitations on the size of battleships if reports were confirmed that Japan was building larger dreadnaughts.

This disclosure came while President Roosevelt was drafting a special message to congress recommending expanded naval construction.

One of the principal considerations receiving his attention, it was reported authoritatively, was the possibility that the United States might be forced to build bigger—well as more—battleships if it is to retain naval superiority over Japan.

France also was reported to be considering the construction of capital ships in excess of treaty limits as a result of Italy's battleship building activities.

Trade Pacts Defended

Senator Addresses Livestock Growers Of Nation

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 15 (AP)—United States Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) defended the administration's reciprocal trade treaty policy today before the American National Livestock association, one of the most militant opponents of the policy.

Addressing the association's forty-first annual convention, at which its leaders have demanded the administration protect domestic markets from foreign products, O'Mahoney declared:

"Under no reciprocal trade agreement is it possible to lift the barriers and permit a flood of livestock from other nations into this country.

O'Mahoney declared the stockmen must take a national viewpoint toward the greatest problem now confronting the nation—providing security to the country's industrial millions.

"You must put to rest in industry these millions to whom you hope to sell your meat," he said. "But you can't do that, unless you open the doors to export trade so that industry can be revived."

DEEPER PAY SAND ENCOUNTERED IN LOVING COUNTY

New Well In Bennett Field Of Yoakum Co. Develops Heavier Production; Pipeline Planned

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 15.—Discovery by Barnett Petroleum Corp. No. 1-A Johnson in west central Loving county of a Delaware sand pay approximately 140 feet deeper than in the Kyle Delaware pool 2 1/2 miles to the southeast was the outstanding oil development in West Texas this week. Oil from 3,844 to 3,846 feet, the total depth, rose to the top in 24 hours and sloped over in a series of small heads. It tested 40.1 gravity corrected, slightly higher than the crude produced by five wells in the Kyle field.

Next in interest, although rated only an encouraging showing, was the coring of sand from 7,078-83 feet slightly saturated with oil and carrying gas in Stanley A. Thompson's No. 1 Elsinore Cattle Co. south central Pecos county wildcat

The Slaughter and Duggan pools have no outlets and the oil is acid for fuel in drilling or is trucked to small refineries or to the Humble pipe line station in the Bennett field. The Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Co., composed of The Texas Co., Cities Service, Sinclair-Prairie and Tide Water Associated, has a 10-inch trunk line leading southeast from Crane county to Tidewater. Honolulu Oil Co., this week staked two locations in the Slaughter pool, each offsetting a producer.

Double the number of locations staked in West Texas last week were listed this week, 45 being field tests and three for wildcats in 10 counties compared with 19 for field tests and five for wildcats in 10 counties during the preceding week. Extra costly test locations for field tests with 14; the three wildcats staked were in Ward county.

Producers
Forty-three producers and six dry holes were completed in 11 counties compared with 35 producers and two failures in 13 counties the week before. Ector was first in the number of completed wells with 19. Dusters were one each in Andrews, Borden, Crane, Howard, Martin and Ward counties.

Barnett No. 1-A Johnson in Loving county headed immediately before it began swabbing to the bottom of the casing at 2,715 feet, in which it recovered 16 barrels of oil. It was probable that pipe would be run to a point in the Delaware line after the hole was cleaned out and tubing then inserted in an effort to develop production without shooting. Wells in the Kyle pool obtain pay at or slightly below the contact of the Delaware line and sand and are completed by shooting.

New Producer Indicated In Chalk Area

Tests Abandoned In Borden And Martin Counties

Another producer for the Chalk extension pool in southeastern Howard county was indicated Friday by the showing of Humble No. 5 Dought, which had 1,900 feet of oil in the hole at 2,975 feet.

The test, located 600 feet from the west and 330 feet from the north lines of section 115-29, W&NW, had shows, with minor breaks, from 2,953 feet. Operators planned to drill to 3,005 feet and treat with acid. The well is a quarter of a mile southeast of the Noble No. 1 Chalk, discovery well in the southwest corner of section 94-28, W&NW.

While Continental was plugging its wildcat No. 1 Clayton & Johnson in Borden county, another wildcat was being abandoned in Martin county as pipe was pulled from the Harris-Anderson Corp. No. 1 Robertson. Location of the test, which had small oil shows before drilling into sulphur water, below 4,178 feet, is in section 35-35, T&P.

Drills Ahead
Continental No. 5-C Chalk, section 140-29, and Continental No. 4 GIBreath, section 4-22-2a, T&P, Howard county, were testing Friday. Continental No. 17-A Settles, section 5-22-2a, T&P, elected to pass up pay stratum at 2,000 feet and drilled in lime at 2,836 feet. Its No. B-2 Settles, 2,200 feet from the north and 440 feet from the west lines of section 100-29, W&NW, was rigging up with rotary.

Between the Chalk extension and the Snyder pools, the Johnson and Bruce No. 2-A Hyman, section 89-29, W&NW, deepened from 2,906 to 2,940 feet and shot, was cleaning out.

In the Snyder area the Sun No. 1 Snyder, section 25-30-1a, T&P, was cleaning out, 40 feet off bottom. Total depth is 2,800 feet. The well was shot three weeks ago with 640 quarts with gravel tamp, and considerable savings have been noted. The company's No. 2 test drilled ahead to 2,530 feet.

Eastern Outpost
Cosden No. 1 O'Daniel, eastern outpost to the pool, drilled to 2,090 feet. It is located in the northeast quarter of section 34-30-1a, T&P, Magnolia No. 3 O'Daniel, 1,650 feet from the north and 330 feet from the west lines of the same section, drilled to 2,230 feet.

Moore Bros. No. 1-A Snyder, 2-310 feet from the west and 990 feet from the south lines of section 29-30-1a, T&P, westernmost test in the field, drilled to 470 feet. Iron Mountain No. 4 Snyder, 380 feet from the south and 2,310 feet from the east lines of the section, drilled to 1,666 feet and set eight and a quarter inch string. It's No. 3 Snyder, 990 feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of section 28, was at 1,985 feet. Moore Bros. No. 3 TXL, 990 feet from the east and 330 feet from the north line of section 35-30-1a, T&P, was past 2,410 feet in lime.

Locations
Locations for the week included Iron Mountain No. 6 Snyder, 330 feet from the south and 990 feet from the east lines, and the Iron Mountain No. 7 Snyder, 330 feet from the south and 1,650 feet from the east lines of section 28-30-1a, T&P, and Magnolia No. 23 Dora Roberts, 1,650 feet from the south and 990 feet from the west lines of section 136-29, W&NW.

A deepening test in the Howard-Glascock area was Continental No. 6-4 Clay, section 139-29, W&NW. The hole is to be carried from its present depth of 1,837 feet to 3,000 feet.

OIL RICHES TO EX-SLAVES

Oil has been discovered on the farm of George Washington and Katie Walker, aged former slaves, who live near Great Bend, Kas. The negro couple (above) settled in the section nearly 60 years ago. The well filled with oil after the pigs were drilled and gave promise of being a good producer.

Fisher Test Given Shot And Acid Treatment

ABILENE, Jan. 15.—In the Rotan field of Fisher county, the Sunray Oil company No. 7 Robinson, north-west edge duster in section 172-2-H&TC survey, this week was plugged back from water at 3,872 feet to a present depth of 3,587, shot with 120 quarts and given a 2,000- to 3,587. It was cleaning out. It was cleaning out.

Near Sylvester in southeastern Fisher county, Bond Oil Corporation No. 1 Bertram estate set eight-inch casing at 2,883 feet for an upper water shut-off, but drilled into another shale fall in the Noodle Creek lime at 2,851 feet, was under-reaming to a total depth of 2,971 before deepening for the Fisher county pay zone. It is in section 43, Bastrop County School Lands.

Callahan county's ordovician prospects were heightened by completion of the Woodley Petroleum company No. 1 Jack M. Flores at company estimates of 50 barrels per day, showing no water. It was being placed on the pump after a two-stage acidization of 3,000 gal-

HOUSTON HAS BEST BUILDING WEEK

Development Picks Up In Abilene Area

Contract Let For 20 Wells In Jones County Field

ABILENE, Jan. 15.—Announcement that Iron Mountain Oil company of Fort Worth had let contract to Groover & Ross of Albany for the drilling of 20 wells, addition of two new producers for the Avoca field and staking of two locations in that general area during the week presented a forecast of intensive development for this territory during 1938.

Iron Mountain, co-discoverer of the Avoca field with Humble Oil & Refining company, has the working interest in much of the field's proven acreage.

The pool's eighth producer was gauged at 1,150 barrels per day. Humble No. 2 J. W. Hellums, on the north side of production flowing through two-inch tubing natural from Palo Pinto lime at 3,213-24 feet. Located 330 feet from the north and 3,084 feet from the east line of the south half of section 190-BBB&C survey, it is a diagonal southwest offset to the Olson north extension.

Let's Free Oil
Iron Mountain and Humble No. 3 Jones & Stamey, west outpost located 1,145 feet from the No. 3 Jones & Stamey, topped Palo Pinto lime at 3,180 feet, 31 feet higher structurally than the Olander discovery well of the field, and drilled into free oil at 3,164 feet. It was killed immediately, five-inch casing run and cemented at the lime top. Plugs were to be drilled this weekend. Location is 1,035 feet west and 330 feet from the south lines of the northwest quarter of section 190-BBB&C survey.

New location is a south offset, the same companies' No. 3 Carl Olander, 330 feet from the west line and 1,025 feet from the west line of the southwest quarter of the same section. It will be spudded as soon as its offset is completed.

Danciger Oil & Refineries, Inc. entered the Avoca play, letting contract to E. B. Roberts company of Abilene for its first Palo Pinto attempt as a north offset to the Owens-Snebold et al No. 1 Haterius. The Danciger No. 3 J. B. McCown has pits and cellar 330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 158-BBB&C survey, Shackelford county. It is nearly a quarter mile south of the No. 1 McCown, drilled as a dry hole in the King road, yet the Ivy pool was discovered 2-3-38 ago.

Owens-Snebold et al No. 1 Haterius, deep discovery five miles northeast of Avoca, production showing as a possible extension to the field, was a water shut-off. A squeeze job was used from bottom of the six-inch pipe at 3,182 to 3,211 feet, total depth of the well being 3,319 feet. Water had shown about 22 barrels daily with an estimated 300 to 400 barrels of oil natural. The test is in the northern corner of section 163-BBB&C survey.

To the northeast six miles, operators were having trouble locating ten-inch casing to shut off a flow of 700,000 feet of gas per day in the Forest Development Corporation and P. S. Kendrick No. 1 T. C. Hendrick, projected Palo Pinto wildcat which struck Cook sand at 1,804 feet. It is half a mile south of the Haskell county line in section 1, AB&M survey.

Southwestern Shackelford's last Palo Pinto project, the Hugh Klein, Jr. et al No. 3 Davis' Walker, section 55-14-T&P, found a hole full of water in sand at 3,185 feet, below the expected lime pay, and ran five-inch casing to test the Strawn series.

Oil rose 1,000 feet in three hours when plugs were drilled in the Dale Smith and Bert Fields No. 1. C. L. Carter et al, quarter-mile outpost extension to the Lewis pool of Jones county, and operators were cleaning out on bottom well. 1,500 feet of oil in the hole before running tubing to test. It had been given a 20-quart shot of nitro in upper Bluff Creek sand at 1,375-6 feet. Location is in section 27-15-T&P survey.

Court

than Reed's. Commending the chief executive's choice, Senator Burke (D-Neb.), a leader of the fight against the court bill, told reporters:

"I would place Mr. Reed in the same class in which I place myself—a progressive-conservative. He has all the qualifications to make an outstanding judge."

Has Defended New Deal

The 53-year-old nominee has defended administration measures forcefully before the supreme court. He has contended in public addresses that the flexibility of the constitution makes it "as adequate for the problems of today as it has been adequate to meet the difficulties of the past."

Administration men count on the nomination to assure Roosevelt measures generally the support of at least five of the court's nine members in the future. Four present members of the court—Justices Brandeis, Cardozo, Stone and Black—have favored most administration enactments in the past.

Chief Justice Charles Hughes and Justice Roberts also have upheld Roosevelt measures in a number of instances.

Justice Sutherland, a member of the court group which had voted most often against the new deal, has announced his retirement, effective Tuesday. If confirmed, Reed therefore could take his place on the court immediately after that date.

Third Appointment?

Since Justice Cardozo is gravely ill of a heart ailment, some persons in the capital believe he also will retire shortly and that the president thus will have an opportunity to make a third appointment. This would go a long way toward giving him the number of appointments he sought by his court reformation bill. At the time that measure was proposed, it would have permitted the president to name six additional justices in event that incumbents past 70 years of age refused to retire.

Reed, a democrat, never has held a judicial position. He has practiced law for many years, however, first privately in Kentucky and in the federal service since 1929, when Herbert Hoover appointed him counsel for the farm board.

The Secret Of Rose's Success: He Glorifies Wholesomeness

By CHARLES NORMAN AP Feature Service Writer NEW YORK—You are backstage in a big Broadway night club.

You watch the chorines go through their paces—blondes, brunettes, redheads, they prance like colts. One, two, three, tum-tum—lightly their feet patter over the stage as the lines break and swirl to the wings.

The tide of girls sweeps past two men talking together. The shorter one is wearing a grey double-breasted suit with black stripes. The jacket is open, revealing a sweater. A light green felt hat tilts backward on his head and a cigarette juts at an angle from his mouth, as if it were a cigar. You recognize Billy Rose, the impresario. He looks young for a fellow who has put on "colossal" shows in Fort Worth, Cleveland, New York. You decide to ask him how old he is—among other things.

Billy Rose turns, says "hello" and shakes hands. You follow him up winding stairs to his office.

Like Beginners

"That was Arthur Garfield Hays you were talking to, wasn't it?" I ask.

"He's my lawyer," says Rose, "because I play chess with him. He handles my business because he can beat me."

He sits down behind a desk full of glitter.

"Shoot," he says. "How do you pick your girls—for the chorus, I mean?" I ask.

"I glorify wholesomeness," he says, not batting an eye. "I often pass up a pretty girl because she looks a little tired, a little blasé. I look for girls to whom the theater is still a novelty, exciting.

"Of course, I observe the regular things—straight features, good teeth, good limbs, a ready smile. But if a girl looks tired and interesting, she's not interesting to me. I have found there are dividends in wholesomeness."

Works Hard

Billy Rose used to be a songwriter—remember "Barney Google" and "Without a Song"? There were hundreds more. He did the words. They're still bringing returns—$18,000 a year, he says, from the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. With the opening of the French Casino under his management, he completes a circle on Broadway. It was in 1934 that he started the Casino de Paris, a restaurant-theater. Now he's back in the restaurant-theater business.

"There's no glamor at the stage door of a motion picture cathedral," he says. "You can't make a date with the girl in reel seven. I believe in flesh-and-blood entertainment. I'm backing up my belief with a fistful of thousand dollar bills."

Not only money but hard work goes into his shows. Eighteen hours is an average day at the theater for him while a show is in rehearsal. After it's put on he stays in bed.

"Did he think he had something the late Ziegfeld didn't have?" "The girl-show formula," he replies, "doesn't change. Ziegfeld remains unsurpassed. The only thing I spend more on a show. He spent $200,000—I've spent $500,000. It doesn't mean my shows are better—they're just bigger. That's my credo—make it novel and then do it bigger than anybody else."

An "Old Kid"

"I owe a lot to John Murray Anderson, my director, and Carlton Winckler, my stage director. You see, these daffy projects of mine are only possible with tremendous technical help."

Mr. Rose was getting voluble, and at this point your correspondent nearly put an end to the conversation by saying:

"What about Fanny Brice and Eleanor Holm Jarrett?" "No comment," said Rose, clamping down on his cigarette.

And the future? "I'm an old kid at 37," he says. "By 40 I ought to be washed up. It's a silly business for a man over 40. After that? Maybe it will be a world's fair on wheels."

A LINE OF WHOLESOMENESS Rose Inspects Part of the Chorus in His New Show ed by actually seeing the work strung out over little less than a quarter mile front. Some thought it odd that the power plant spaces less far west of the main buildings, but this is explained by Dr. George McMahan, superintendent. It is the result of planning the Big Spring state hospital for systematic growth, so that the ultimate project will be balanced and proportional.

In this line, it is interesting to note that Dr. McMahan impressed on a service club last week that this was not an asylum, but a hospital—a hospital for mentally ill. Treatment, he said, is administered with the view of correcting the illness, just as other hospitals seek to overcome infirmities. In token of this principle, a beauty parlor will be one of the things included in the hospital. Women inmates will be served regularly, because psychiatrists have learned m-lady feels better when she looks better.

Lovers of good, clean sport are in for a real treat starting Friday when the district Golden Gloves amateur boxing contests open. Around two score boys, of varying weights and ages, will be competing for the right to go to the state meet. There's no money involved for their part, purely the love of mixing it. There will be more action in the municipal auditorium during the eliminations than in a year's state of professional punching and bone bending.

Athletics have arrived as integral parts of modern education, but often the tendency is toward over emphasis. For this reason, it is refreshing to note that the school board saw fit to send the debate teams to Austin for some real training and constructive practice. Funds can be raised for a football training session, but not many people would contribute toward a similar course on the intellectual side. It is well to stress the mental as well as the physical in scholastic activities. It has been wisely said that there is no slump in the market for brains.

Chamber of commerce directors are bent on promoting some sort of building program for people who desire to own their homes. The chamber's interest primarily is in solving a housing situation. If the town is to grow, it must have places for its people to live. But there is a sounder reason for the chamber's plan than the mere furnishing of more houses. It is the provision of homes for those now renting out of necessity. Home

Poll Payments Picking Up

Receipts Issued To Date To Nearly 2,000 Voters

Howard county voters Saturday began to respond to appeals to pay poll taxes, and in the largest single day's business to date the total was boosted to 1,947 receipts.

The tax collector's office announced that 321 persons paid their poll taxes Saturday.

Persons entitled to an exemption were cautioned to secure their certificates of exemption prior to Feb. 1. They cannot be legally issued for 1938 after that date.

All persons who were 21 years of age on or after January 1, 1937 and who will become 21 years of age during 1938 are entitled to an exemption. Those who become 21 during this year must be 21 at the time they cast a vote in any particular election. Regardless of whether those entitled to exemptions reside in town or country, they must have the certificates to vote.

Only those who were 60 years of age before Jan. 1, 1937 are entitled to an "over" or permanent exemption certificates. They must have the certificates to vote in town, and are encouraged to get them even in the rural areas.

Voters who resided in another county on Jan. 1, 1937, are advised by officials to pay their poll tax in that county and have it transferred here as soon as possible.

The former Chinese commander Han Fu-Chu, was reported to have been court-martialed and executed on Chiang's orders for "dereliction of duty," charged with having retired his army of 150,000 men virtually intact before the Japanese advance.

The Kuomint (semi-official news agency) said Chinese forces again had taken strategic Taining in southern Shantung, which has changed hands several times within the past week, and had advanced 30 miles toward Yenchow.

It said another Chinese column was moving northward along the Tientsin-Pukow railroad and that Japanese were pouring in troops to bolster their lines against an overpowering Chinese counter-offensive.

AGRICULTURE GROUP CONCLUDES SESSION

HOUSTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Texas agricultural workers today adjourned their eleventh annual convention after selecting Fort Worth as the 1938 convention city and electing L. P. Merrill of Fort Worth to the presidency.

E. R. Alexander of College Station warned the 250 delegates at the convention that cotton is gloomed as a money crop in the United States if present world conditions continue. He pointed to the sharp drop in cotton exports in 1936-37 and said bilateral trade agreements between other nations, the price difference between American, Egyptian and Indian cotton and an increased production of cotton in South America and the Far East as threats to American cotton.

The newly formed Texas council of agriculture with Eugene Butler of Dallas as chairman, passed a resolution asking congress to take its time in writing a farm bill even if it becomes necessary to continue this year under the present law.

Boys To Learn Social Niceties In New Course Offered At School

High school boys are to be offered assistance in meeting social problems through a course to be offered Tuesday at the outset of the second semester.

The course, to be taught by Florence McAllister, will deal with practical social problems in the home and in society.

The course, based on results of a questionnaire checked by parents, will offer advice to boys on how to enjoy full value for money spent on clothing, care and repair of clothing, choice of clothing for color and design.

Planning, preparation and serving of simple meals will also be touched as well as suggestions for choosing proper food combinations at home and when eating out.

A touch of social etiquette at home, on the street, at social affairs and elsewhere is to be given students in the class.

Personal appearance will be stressed along with the value of cleanliness, careful habits of work in home. Help will be given in planning entertainment for himself, family, and guests in keeping with family income.

The instructor will have a word or two on use of the boys' income—and with an eye to the future—some instruction in the care and development of children will be offered. Formation of ideals of conduct in relation to his present family will be encouraged.

Majority of the parents checking the questionnaire frowned on seeking an approach to a successful married life. Perhaps mother and father feel they know a little more about this problem than modern theorists who write the books.

T&P TO OFFER NEW SERVICE TO WEST

As a result of hearings conducted here and at points west during 1937, the Texas and Pacific railroad will offer a new daily merchandise service between El Paso and Big Spring, effective Monday.

Merchandise leaving El Paso at 10 p. m. will arrive in Big Spring at 9 a. m. the next morning. Deliveries begin at Monahan where the T&P motor transport meets the train at 4:45 a. m. and starts distribution eastward to Big Spring. It is a service similar to that offered by the company eastward from Big Spring.

The company received new equipment for the schedule last week, according to J. G. Tucker, traveling freight agent for the T&P.

Easy Come, Easy Go, For These Stray Cats

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 15 (AP)—The stray felines which waxed fat off the bounty of a winter paid dearly today for their period of easy living, but a favored ex-alley cat looked forward to a long life of luxury.

When Miss Annie Hansche, the benefactress, lived, she fed not only the favored ex-alley cat but also the strays attracted to her yard by the irresistible appeal of food.

Miss Hansche died and left $5,000 to Lily, the ex-alley cat, and provided that Lily's future custodian should receive $50 monthly compensation.

Lily went to a dog and cat hospital, and a future of cream, hamburger and always a warm place to sleep.

The stray cats continued to visit Miss Hansche's yard. But there was no more food, no more Lily. They lingered, expectantly but fatally overlong.

Today the humane society gathered them up and marked them for destruction.

League Dates Are Fixed

Student Contests Run From Feb. 8 To March 25

Various meet dates of the Howard county inter-scholastic league were fixed here Saturday at a meeting of the executive committee.

Herchel Summerlin, Midway, president of the league, said that first activity would be the senior boys basketball tournament with a first game on Feb. 8. A second and final game will be played Feb. 11, either at Foran or Coahoma. Senior girls basketball dates were set for Feb. 15 on two games and Feb. 18 on the finals, with the games either at Foran or Coahoma.

Moore invited the junior boys and girls tournament to be held Feb. 18. All other athletic events—track and field—will be held at Midway March 25.

Choral club singing and one act play competition will be staged here March 25, possibly at the municipal auditorium, and declamation is here on March 24. All other literary events are set for March 25 at Midway.

Three events, not heretofore included in the county league program, have been added this year, said Summerlin. They are typing art, and rhythm band.

In the Saturday meeting, Lawrence Brown resigned as director of debate and Norman C. Malechek, Foran, was named to succeed her.

A bare announcement of Wilkins' safe return today to Aklavik with his pilot, Air Commodore Herbert Hollick-Kenyon, was received here.

The ground breaking ceremony at the state hospital site Thursday occurred almost beside the point where the tract had previously been purchased in numerous places as such holes were drilled and office desks raised. But for opening the way of many Big Spring people to health and happiness, a lot of it is in respect to such widespread work as from reading accounts of a real appreciation of the hospital building program is gain-

Representatives Of Ninth District Music Clubs To Gather Here Friday And Saturday

Six Towns To Send Delegates To First District Meeting

Representatives of the nine senior, junior and juvenile music clubs that comprise the Ninth District of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs will gather here Friday and Saturday of this week to take part in the first meeting of this district since its organization.

Towns expected to be represented are Monahans, Barstow, Pecos, Midland, Van Horn and Big Spring. There are six senior clubs, two junior and one juvenile organization in the district that extends from Big Spring to El Paso.

The district was organized last August by Miss Inez Rudy, state president, at a meeting in Pecos. Distance between the towns included in the fifth and sixth districts and the size of the district culminated in the new body.

Officers elected at this time were Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser, Big Spring, president; Mrs. Tom Skevington, Barstow, vice-president and extension chairman; Mrs. Blanche Harwell, Monahans, secretary; Charles E. Walker, Monahans, treasurer; and Mrs. E. H. Wood, Big Spring, auditor and publicity chairman.

Mrs. Herman Williams of Pecos is district junior counselor and is responsible for the organization of the junior clubs in Big Spring and Barstow and the juvenile club here.

In addition to the business sessions, entertainments are being planned by the local club, which will act as hostess to the visiting groups.

The session is to open officially Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Settles hotel No. One club room when the board of directors of the district will gather for dinner and business discussion.

Expected to attend this affair are Miss Inez Rudy, Bowie, state president, Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser, district president, Mrs. Tom Skevington, Barstow, Mrs. Blanche Harwell, Monahans, Charles E. Walker, Monahans, Mrs. G. H. Wood, Big Spring, executives, Board members include Mrs. Herman Williams, junior counselor, Mrs. G. C. Schurman, district program director, Mrs. Lee Cornelius, educational chairman, Midland, and Mrs. Marion Slack, department of church music chairman, Pecos. Guests will be Mrs. J. H. Kirkpatrick, president of the Music Study club of Big Spring, and other members of the executive board of the host club.

Week Is Filled With Post-Holiday Talk And Cramming For Finals

By NANCY PHILLIPS
LUBBOCK, Jan. 15—The holidays are over and everybody is back in the swing of things getting ready for the dreaded final exams. The first day after the New Year classes were unusually quiet and professors thoughtfully raised the windows for the students sleeping off their holiday fun. One professor complained that he had seen a greater expanse of open mouths and closed eyes that day than he had last year at the same time. That's a bad sign.

The conversation for a week was invariably the same. "Howdy! When did you get in? Have a nice Christmas? Did you have a good time celebrating? What all did you eat?" Of course everybody was all their presents if they could and most of them tried to. As the modern version of the old saying goes, "Now is the time for all good students to cram and pray to aid their grades." This is no idle statement as term notebooks fall due. Typewriters become valuable, cherished objects to be guarded with your life, and old magazines are noisy with sounds of typewriters pounding far into the night—coffee has become the favorite beverage and the "coffee nerves" one reads about is a horrible reality.

These are all preliminaries to "Dead Week," the week before exams, which begins Monday. Oh, the misery of it all. But such is

Variations To Feature Concert

Operatic Numbers To Be Grouped With Folk Songs

A program of music that includes compositions for the opera to clever folk songs has been announced for the concert Wednesday evening that will present Miss Mae Gilbert Reese, pianist, and Miss Rose Paider, mezzo-soprano. The concert is one included in the Musical Arts series being sponsored here this season by the Music Study club.

Rose Paider, a native of Iowa, came to Hollywood one year ago and since that time has appeared in many important cities of Southern California. Her voice is said to be rich, warm and velvety with a lovely intimate manner and winning personality. After a tour of Texas and the Southwest during the remainder of the 1938 season, she will be heard on several radio broadcasts.

Miss Reese' part on the program is heavier than that of Miss Paider, and although she is more prominently noted for her interpretations of Chopin and Liszt, the program does not include any of Chopin's work, and only one set by Liszt.

The program follows:
Sonata op. 57 (Appassionata) Beethoven

Royce Satterwhite, Mrs. C. Williams Wed In Abilene

Royce E. Satterwhite and Mrs. Carl Williams were married in Abilene Saturday by the Rev. C. A. Bickley, presiding elder of the Abilene district. There were no attendants.

Mrs. Satterwhite is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Henson of Lubbock and is well known in Big Spring having moved here seven years ago.

Since the death of her former husband two years ago she has been operating the Big Spring Blacksmith and Welding shop on Runnels street.

For her wedding ensemble Mrs. Satterwhite wore a black wool crepe suit with harmonizing accessories.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. W. Satterwhite who makes her home in Big Spring. For several years he made his home in Amarillo and Hereford where he was employed by a furniture and undertaking establishment and later by a wholesale grocery company. For the past two years he has been farming in the Center Point community.

The couple will continue the operation of the shop and will also farm. They will make their home here at 810 Johnson street.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Roy Miller, vice president of the Intra-Coastal Canal association, announced today the secretary of war had approved a $970,000 allotment for the construction of a canal between Port O'Connor on Matagorda bay and Corpus Christi, Texas. The money became available immediately, Miller said, and bids for dredging of a nine-foot depth channel with a 100-foot base width probably would be advertised within a month. He said the allotment would be expended almost entirely in Calhoun and Aransas counties, little work being needed in the remaining distance between Port O'Connor and Corpus Christi because the waterway had sufficient natural depth.

DALLAS CHOSEN FOR TEACHERS' MEET

FORT WORTH, Jan. 15 (AP)—Dallas was selected today as the 1938 convention city of the Texas State Teachers association. El Paso, Austin, Amarillo and Fort Worth had also extended invitations.

NEW CALL TO WAR ON PARALYSIS

A fine example of results achieved when characteristic American aggressiveness is mobilized for a drive at a single goal...

The nation has been rallied around the cause of honoring its president while it contributes to the drive on this disease.

The time approaches again for America to contribute to the cause. The president's birthday will be celebrated on Saturday, January 23...

The Foundation devoted to the fight on infantile paralysis plans an attack on four fronts: scientific research; epidemic; first aid; proper care...

A share of the money raised to-day is used at home. Funds provided in recent years have done great good in providing treatment for young folk of this community...

There is no better way to honor the president of this nation than to contribute to the improvement of human lives.

WHEN EVERYBODY 'BEATS THE RAP'

Edgar Hoover, chief of the federal department of investigation, under whose direction the organization has reached a high efficiency...

He illustrates by the case of a young citizen who commits a traffic violation and is summoned to court. He begins a campaign to beat the rap.

Mr. Hoover said he recalled the case of one man who in order to avoid paying a two-dollar fine, spent everything from influence to plain bribery...

Mr. Hoover, we cannot blame the criminal who believes in his right to hire a shyster lawyer or to buy a member of a jury to get out of a sentence for having committed a major crime.

Perhaps we make a mistake in punishing those who are sometimes loath to receive greater crimes or to punish them with inadequate sentences.

There is much, perhaps everything at this time, to be said for keeping our hands free. Then let us keep them free.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

By Walter Lippmann (Mr. Lippmann's column is published as an informational and news feature. His views are personal and are not to be construed as necessarily reflecting the editorial opinion of The Herald-Editor's Note).

AN AWKWARD ENTANGLEMENT

At any moment the United States government may find itself in an exceedingly embarrassing position. Quite unintentionally, of course, Congress has under the recent neutrality act delegated to foreign governments the legal power to make some of the most vital decisions of American foreign policy.

Lippmann war on China, and by that declaration compel the President to put into effect the provisions of the neutrality act.

Now, it has been the view of the President that our national interests would not be served by applying the neutrality law to the Sino-Japanese conflict. Relying on a loophole in the letter of the act, the President has, therefore, not invoked its more stringent provisions.

Whether it was right or not may perhaps be debatable, though the preponderant informed opinion in this country has agreed with the President. But at least the decision was an American decision.

This freedom of decision has been possible, however, only because Japan and China, each for reasons of its own, has thus far preferred to wage a savage war without a legal declaration of war.

Obviously, it was never the intention of Congress to delegate to any foreign power so essential a part of American sovereignty. The theory of the neutrality act, like that of the recently defeated Ludlow resolution, is that nobody, not even the government chosen by the American people, is to be trusted with the conduct of foreign policy.

Few who had a hand in writing the neutrality act anticipated any such curious practical result. As a matter of fact, the neutrality act was written by men who were thinking not about the Pacific and the Far East but about Europe and the Atlantic Ocean.

But in fact they have brought about some of the most awkward entanglements imaginable. Starting from the premise that the United States must remain isolated and free of all foreign connections, the law in fact delegates to the imperial government in Tokio the decision of what our policy shall be in respect to the Chinese war.

This is not the way to protect our interests and to preserve our own peace in the world as it is today. If we are to maintain our independence of action, accepting no commitments under the League of Nations or other treaties of collective security, then in the name of common sense let us disentangle ourselves from a law which commits us to take a course contrary to our interests whenever the Japanese government chooses to 'declare' war. Granted that we do not want our foreign policy made in Geneva, we certainly do not want it made in Tokio, Berlin, Rome, Moscow, or Nanking.

There is much, perhaps everything at this time, to be said for keeping our hands free. Then let us keep them free.

DARE TO DREAM

BY ALICE MARIE DODGE

Chapter 36 'I LOVE YOU' Claire and Jewel came into Nelda's room in their pajamas to hold a post mortem of the party.

Jack handed her the letter. She took it and started to raise her cup to her lips. The cup paused in mid-air and her eyes grew round.

Between her sobs she told them that her brother was dead. Then she handed the letter to Nelda.

She glanced swiftly at him. He seemed different, as if some transition had taken place in his spirit.

"I'm going back to med school, Sis." Although he said it nonchalantly, there was a depth of emotion behind the words.

"Buddy!" Her voice caught and her heart soared with relief. She hugged him rapturously.

"I suppose you worried about me, too?" "Of course."

"You needn't any longer." She glanced swiftly at him. He seemed different, as if some transition had taken place in his spirit.
