UP TO STALIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. (AP).—The next move in the Moscow-Washington debate over how to end the cold war is now clearing up to the Kremlin, diplomatic authorities agreed today. Two possible major lines of Soviet counter action were foreseen here: 1. A new blast at the United States for rejecting Premier Stalin's so-called "peace" statements of last Sunday. This might be coupled with the familiar Russian argument that while Moscow seeks an improvement in East-West relations the United States is maneuvering toward war. 2. Some specific proposal for a settlement of one or more outstanding issues along the lines laid down by President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

Next Move To End Cold War Now Rests With Kremlin

At his news conference yesterday, Mr. Truman declared that the United States would not go outside the framework of the United Nations to enter into talks with Russia or other powers on the world situation. Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said in response to questions today that Mr. Truman's statement had not precluded further meetings of the Big Four Council. Ross added that he knew of no plans at present for a big settlement of one or more outstanding issues along the lines laid down by President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

Paris Designer Says Sackcloth Is Fashionable

PARIS, Feb. 4 (AP)—Women can even wear sackcloth and be fashionable this Spring. Without lashes of course.

Although there is nothing revolutionary about "look '49," Jacques Fath has come up with a new idea in materials. Among the dresses he showed here last night was a full skirted strapless cocktail dress of sackcloth.

It was not the sackcloth of Biblical days—dark cloth of goat's or camel's hair—worn as a sign of penance with ashes on the forehead. It was cotton sackcloth and what's more the bodice was heavily encrusted with gold and sequin embroidery.

The dress had a gold serpent-skin belt and was topped with a white waffle pique bellhop jacket.

Another little full coolie coat studded with almond nutshells and raffia embroidery. Rita Hayward, who attended the show with Aly Khan, described both numbers as "unusual but very smart." She showed a marked preference for the coat.

Fath said "I brought back this taste for simplicity from my recent visits to the United States."

Last night's show rounded off the opening day of the fashion showings. In coming weeks, about 20 "big name" designers will unveil their spring creations to foreign buyers, the press and society.

Judge Says French Love Making Not Wanted In Movie Capital

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4 (AP)—Love, like Einstein, is relative. It depends on where you make it, concluded Claude Marsan, self-styled French expert on the subject, as he settled down today to 90 days in an American jail.

The 39-year-old Frenchman, convicted of giving an indecent performance, has time to ponder the lecture which he received from Municipal Judge Harold W. Schweitzer on being sentenced.

"Many persons consider that we have a low moral standard in Los Angeles, that Hollywood and immorality are synonymous," said the judge yesterday, adding in effect—not so.

"Our moral standards are as high in Los Angeles, including Hollywood, as they are anywhere else in the United States, and we will not tolerate having you and your kind tamping therewith."

The judge told Marsan—who had given a full, frank lecture and demonstration of his technique in court—that "portions of your performance were so lewd and obscene that . . . no doctor . . . would discuss such matters, even with married persons."

Marsan's red-haired assistant, Barbara Weir, 24, drew a 30-day term, but the judge suspended it, put her on probation for two years and fined her $50.

Tap Slick Forger With Many Names

County Attorney Elton Gilliland was wondering aloud today if any local party had carried on any kind of business involving cash receipts with George L. Yeargin, George S. English or L. W. Yeargin. Bill Bryson, George D. West or John M. Noll, David Leonard Paradise, Roy McClain or John W. Jarnigan.

They're all one and the same person, Gilliland found out, and the man's real name, as far as local authorities and the state is concerned is George L. Yeargin.

The man, arrested in Henryetta earlier in the week, was returned here Thursday to face several charges of forgery. He admittedly had used all those names on worthless checks. One local business house was stung to the tune of $200 for accepting his checks, another for $75.

Gilliland expressed doubt that the law had heard the last of his exploits as a forger yet.

Big Spring Town Hall Association To Present Knickerbocker Quartet

Big Spring Town Hall Association members will have an opportunity Tuesday night to hear a musical program, presented by the Knickerbocker Quartet at the municipal auditorium.

Quartet members, are Roberta Holmer, contralto, Donald Gramm, bass baritone, Gloria Yates, pianist-composer and lyric soprano and Hollis Johnson, tenor.

Gloria Yates is another prodigy who has had a hard time deciding between a career as a singer and a pianist. A graduate of the University of Oklahoma, she received her mater's degree from the American Conservatory in Chicago. She was recently engaged by the Schuberts for their series of operettas at the Chicago Civic Opera, and has also been appearing with Donald Gramm in a series of duo concerts, both singing and playing.

Hollis Johnson has been the featured soloist with Oscar Straus in a series of concerts, the Bach Festival in St. Paul and the St. Paul Symphony. Jonson teaches voice at Macalester College at St. Paul and also conducts the Macalester College Chorus and the Macalester Radio Singers who have annual coast-to-coast broadcasts over the Mutual Network from the twin cities. The beautiful quality of his tenor voice and his artistry are the perfect compliment for the other three members of the Knickerbocker Quartet.

Longhorns Invade Broncho Gym For Conference Test

Midland Plays Birds Tonight

Odessa's Bronchos try to ambush the Big Spring Steers, making a belated surge to climb into the District 21B basketball playoffs, in a game at Odessa tonight. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

It's do or die for the Longhorns this evening, as least as far as the conference race goes. One more reversal would just about eliminate them from the conference playoffs, unless Midland comes apart at the seams.

The Big Springers own a 4-4 won and lost record in competition. The Midlanders mark stands at 5-5, which means most of their campaigning is behind them.

The Longhorns tie into the Bobcats in a makeup game here Monday night and return the bout in Angelo the following Friday. Should they miss the playoffs, that could wind up the season for Johnny Malaise's troops.

Malaise has worked out a very busy program for his youngsters. A shot at the title will be riding on every pitch.

The locals edged Odessa, 31-24, last time out but the Hooses have come a long way, too, since that time. The presence of Manning, Sharp, and Patterson in the Odessa lineup make it something with which to reckon.

Midland and Abilene tangle tonight in another 3AA game at Midland that could go a long way toward deciding Big Spring's finish in the league. If Midland wins, Big Spring will be faced with the job of coping all their remaining district games to finish ahead of the Bulldogs in the league standings.

In another 3AA outing, the league leading Lamesa Tornados clash with San Angelo in Angelo.

Abilene's Eagles buried the Angelo Cats under a 45-29 score at Abilene Thursday night. Glen Darling and Hub Ingraham were the standouts in the Abilene victory.

Looking 'Em Over

by Tommy Hart

Basketball will never become a major sport with the American people, despite the fact that it is patronized better than any other game, until its playing courts are standardized.

Until that happens, until the time all courts are made the same length, all backboards of the same material and all lighting systems arranged similarly, the home team will always have the advantage, sometimes by as many as ten points.

True, great ball clubs can overcome all those handicaps and pour it on the home quintet but, when all things are considered about even, the resident club can usually be counted upon to win.

Regrettably, there hasn't been enough agitation among the coaches, and the fans, for court standardization. Until the game is revolutionized in that way, the sport will continue to be as unpredictable as it has been since it got its start in the 19th century.

LOCAL PREPSTERS AMAZING FOLLOWERS
Had anyone told Coach Johnny Malaise, the Big Spring high school basketball mentor, his Steers would be able to register a dozen wins this season, Malaise probably would have frozen them with an icy stare.

However, the Bovines have carved out the astonishing record of 17 victories in 22 starts and still have at least four games to play. By any standard, they've had a very successful season, even if they miss the district playoffs.

Andrews has been the favorite victim of the locals. The Mustangs have lost three times in three outings to the Herd. Snyder and Colorado City fell twice each. Other wins were chalked up over Abilene, Sweetwater, Odessa, McCamey, Lamesa, Midland, Denver City, Throckmorton, Goldthwaite, and Eula.

The Big Springers took championship laurels in one tournament (at Odessa) and consolation laurels in another (at Brownwood). Midland beat them twice in district play. Lamesa bumped them early in the season. Abilene bounced them recently in Abilene. Outside of those losses, only Brownwood has been able to nudge the locals.

LOCALS RESUME LONG HAUL THIS EVENING
Tonight, the Steers invade Odessa, seeking to remain in the fight for the playoffs. The locals have their work cut out for them all the way down to the wire. Three of their four games come on the road, and against the toughest sort of competition.

W. D. Berry, who saw Lamar JC chill San Angelo's Rams in Angelo the other night, says Bill Moody of the Lamar club is just about the finest basketball player he ever saw in action.

CROWDS INCREASE AT LAST TWO LONGHORN GAMES
Cash intake at the last two Big Spring high school games has shown a sharp increase the last two contests. Against Midland ten days ago, the Bovines lured $107 in customers through the turnstiles. The Lamesa "gate" amounted to $154. The locals would probably do much better financially if he had a gym which could accommodate large crowds. As it is, many people do not attend because they do not think they can get a seat.

Lloyd Mangrum Has 1-Stroke Lead At Tucson

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 4. (AP)—Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, who made $5 for each competitive stroke in 1948, starts today's second round of the $10,000 Tucson Open Golf Tourney with a one-stroke lead.

Tough breaks on the greens couldn't stop the winner of the recent Los Angeles Open from carding a six under par 64 in the first round yesterday.

He needed every stroke to forge to the front. Fifty five of the field of 138 equalled or smashed par 70 for the flat El Rio layout.

Just a stroke off the pace are Chick Harbert, Detroit; Eric Monti, Santa Monica, Calif.; and Johnny Bulla, Pittsburgh, Pa. Monti's approaches were deadly. He required only 18 putts.

Pre-tourney favorites ran into trouble. Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., twice winner of the event, is back in a tie for 33rd position with a one under par 69. Defending champion Skip Alexander, Southern Pines, N. C., carded 70. Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., finished with 73 after being in continual trouble.

Skee Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., and Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., led the 16 amateurs and most of the pros with cards of 66.

Mangrum isn't complaining about yesterday's sub-par performance. "It was one of the best rounds I've played for some time," he said.

But a gallery of a couple of hundred saw him encounter the following trouble: (1) miss a four foot putt on the first green; (2) miss an eight footer on the second; (3) have a nine footer rim the cup on the 9th; (4) his drive end behind a stump for his only trouble of the day on the 17th; and (5) have a long putt for an eagle three on the 18th touch the side of the hole but fall to drop home.

Play continues tomorrow and Sunday.

Billies Defeat Sterling City

KNOTT, Feb. 4.—Knott's Hill Billies chalked up their second District 21B basketball victory of the week here Thursday night, trouncing the Sterling City Eagles, 49-13.

The Billies had walloped Stanton, 36-17, only last Tuesday. Bob Beall was the big gun in the Knott attack Thursday with 18 points.

The Billies have now won five times in eight district outings. They beat Sterling City twice, Forsan, Garden City and Stanton once each. Coahoma edged the Billies twice and Forsan once.

In another game here Thursday, the Knott girls won a 37-29 decision from Sterling with Nina Shortes scoring 23 of the points.

Baylor, Texas Back To Play

By The Associated Press
Southwest Conference basketball teams' return to action this weekend with two of the leaders in the championship race—Baylor and Texas—having games.

Texas clashes with Texas A&M at College Station tomorrow night while Baylor is entertaining Arkansas at Waco.

Rice, the other leader, has no games this week.

These three quintets are in a virtual tie for the top.

Texas Christian and Southern Methodist, tied for the bottom in the standings, get together at Dallas tonight.

Stanton Loses To Bulldogs In Buff Gym

STANTON, Feb. 4.—Stanton's Bulldogs tried to put Coahoma's Bulldogs in a "deep freeze" but the visitors solved the defense well enough to register a 31-17 victory and maintain their perfect District 21B record.

Gene Douglass stayed with the Coahoma ace, Edwin Dickson, like a leech, limiting him to five points, but Jackie Wolf and Bill Bennett took up the slack for the winners.

Wolf hit the hoop for 11 points while Bennett had nine. Ed Kountz was high for Stanton with seven.

The Stanton reserves beat the Coahoma B string, 31-26, while the resident girls' team edged the Coahoma fems, 18-13. R. J. Echols tallied eight points for Coahoma in the B contest.

The Coahoma 'Dogs return home tonight to test the Sterling City Eagles in the Canine gymnasium. The result will count in 21B standings.

Williams Will Get Only 7 1/2 Percent Of Gate In Bolanos Fight April 21

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP)—Ike Williams, fighter of the year in 1948, will defend his lightweight title at Los Angeles against the No. 1 contender—Enrique Bolanos—for only 7 1/2 per cent of the gate to help the Costello Junior Foundation.

The 15-round bout, scheduled for Los Angeles' Wrigley Field, April 21, was closed yesterday when Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Williams' manager, accepted the virtually unprecedented low percentage.

Only in wartime when champions such as Joe Louis came out of service to donate their entire purses to war relief funds have champions fought for less.

Normally Ike would get between 40 and 50 per cent for risking his crown against such a highly rated foe.

When it was explained to Palermo that California regulations governing charity affairs permit only 25 per cent for expenses, he readily agreed to take as low as 12 1/2 per cent. Palermo said he was unable to get Bolanos' manager to agree to the same figure so the champ finally took the low man's slice of 7 1/2 per cent.

Bolanos, the Mexico City challenger who lost a split decision to Ike last May will get 17 1/2 per cent.

Lou Costello and Bud Abbott, the comedians, will promote the show for the benefit of the Lou Costello, Jr., Foundation. Costello, the round half of the team, says the foundation is broke and that a "for sale" sign has been posted on the premises, pending payment of an $80,000 mortgage.

The Foundation provides recreation facilities for as many as 10,000 youngsters in the Los Angeles area, according to Costello. It was founded after the death of Costello's one-year-old son a few years ago.

In championship fights it usually is customary for the titleholder to get 40 per cent with the challenger receiving 20 per cent. Sometimes the split is as low as 50-10. Hence, Palermo's action in signing for only 7 1/2 per cent is a genuine sacrifice for charity.

GAME AT 8 O'CLOCK

Clarendon Jaycees Guests Of HCJC Quint Tonight

Clarendon Junior college's basketball team, representing one of the oldest schools in the state, met tonight to do battle with Howard County Junior college at Steer gym. Starting time of the game is 8 o'clock.

The Hawks will be slightly favored to edge the Clarendon troupe, perhaps only because they will be playing on their home court. The Clarendon team has been campaigning against Western Zone conference teams with about as much success as the Hawks.

Coach Harold Davis' Big Springers, who split two games recently with Odessa's Wranglers, will probably start Capt. Delmar Turner, Co-Capt. Don Clark, Horace Rankin, Bill Fletcher and John Lewis. Gil Barnett and Paul Deatherage will see their share of action.

Fletcher is the team's leading scorer but Rankin is closing in on him fast. The former showed a return to form in the recent Odessa game here and may be entirely over his ankle injury. If he is, Clarendon can prepare for trouble.

LINE WEAKNESSES FACE TU COACH

By LOU J. MAYSEL
AUSTIN, Feb. 4. (AP)—Potential weaknesses at right end and the tackle face Coach Blair Cherry when the Texas Longhorns start their 30-day spring football training Monday.

Graduation losses were severe in the line where right guard Errol Fry is the only returning starter. Adequate lettermen reserves will step into starting roles at all except the right end post.

In the backfield, Cherry finds himself with an experienced quarterback, Paul Campbell, and with only two losses from his first two backfield quartets.

Cherry has been vacationing in Mexico but is expected to return today. He has long made it known that Texas will go in for the two-team system with different units for offense and defensive play if personnel permits.

Finding that personnel among the numerous good prospects from last year's exceptional freshman aggregation will consume much of the spring session.

Cherry has frequently made drastic shifts of positions in the past two years; however, his assistants say he plans none now but is considering some shifts if the results of spring training require them.

Byron Townsend of Odessa and Paul Williams of Lufkin are the only sophomore backs who stand a chance of working into the first or second team.

Townsend is expected to more than replace Byron Gillory as the team's top broken field runner from the left halfback position where he will team with Billy Pyle and Perry Samuels.

Williams is rated as an "outstanding prospect" by his freshman coach, Buddy Jungmichel, who says he can play any position; however, he will probably stay at fullback to back up Ray Borneman.

Bubba Shands and Randall Bill return at right halfback, and Clay Allen will be Campbell's substitute at quarterback where he is expected to see a lot of service this year.

The only freshmen likely to make starting assignments are

CHICKEN-PICKINS

John (Red) Adams at right end where the top three varsity men graduated, and June Davis, a line-backing specialist from Denton. Experience will give lettermen Gene Vykukal and Ken Jackson the starting nod at tackle, but their replacements will be ex-freshmen—Bill Wilson, Sam Houston (Houston) and Jim Lanford, Carizo Springs.

Besides Fry, Danny Wolfe and Bud McFadin return at the guards, and the high calibre of sophomores-to-be Jim Pakenham, Longview, and Howard Hurt, Borger, make the Longhorns almost invulnerable here.

Center is perhaps the strongest position where Dick Rowan will be backed by letterman Al Miller and two high-grade newcomers, Joe Arnold, Corpus Christi, and Don Menasco, Longview.

Understanding Of The Atomic Potential Basic To Its Use

Recently in Minneapolis, a group of scientists and newspapermen gathered at the University of Minnesota to discuss the means by which people could be brought to an understanding of nuclear fission.

They met agreement on at least one point, namely that the people of the world must understand relation of nuclear fission and its importations. Scientists were worried, particularly that the people in general thought only in terms of bombs when the word atom was used. They were used to talking in precise words and terms because there can be no tolerance for error in anything so minutely accurate as splitting the atom.

Newsmen pointed out that the scientist should discard their attitude of preferring not to talk on the grounds that occasional stories were way off base. If the majority plugs in the right direction, people will begin to understand the relation of nuclear physics to things they know, feel and understand, they said.

Scientists reported there was no justification whatever to terror with which the average person regards atomic laboratories. In fact that pointed to some of the possibilities of atomic energy. One is the use of radio active isotopes, which serve as "tracers." Already science is well on the way to ascertaining precisely how much fertilizer is needed for crops and what state it is needed. They have made some interesting progress on ions that may be passed from one generation to another, for radioactive phosphorus given an expectant mouse showed up to a degree in four generations of mice. On this basis, although progress is yet insufficient for sound conclusions, scientists regard the isotopes or "tags" as the greatest means of research since the microscope.

In the field of power they felt that in a matter of a few years the first stationary and soon thereafter the first ship atomic power plants would be in operation. Within 20 years, perhaps, atomic power and its by-products would begin to have a terrific impact on the world, they thought.

And what is the source of all this power? It starts with the atom, a particle so small that if a hole far smaller than a pin point were placed in a radio vacuum tube, permitting one million atoms of gas per second to enter, it would require 100 million years to fill the tube. But the atom is a mighty giant compared to the electrons which whirl in circles about its central core like planets around the sun. And these are big in relation to the core or nucleus, which is composed of protons and neutrons, bound with a force transcending gravity of electricity. It is this core or neutron which is being split. If it is ever shattered, the amount of energy released is incalculable.

And so that gives an idea how far most of us have to go in learning about this unimaginable force. Whether we live to enjoy its possibilities, say the scientists, depends on what we understand about it.

Video Catching On So Fast That Anti-Car Acts Indicated

Charles Guy, Lubbock publisher, writes from New York that television is no longer a plaything. It has pushed conventional radio into a back seat. Video has arrived so suddenly that as yet the matter of talent for it has not been solved.

When will it come to West Texas? Guy guesses not under five years and possibly 10. He speculates that successful operation of a station in these remote areas will await network connections. The cost for a place the size of Big Spring may be prohibitive unless some main station spaced auxiliary transmitters.

An interesting sidelight to his observations is the move now afoot in several legislatures to ban the installation of video sets in automobiles. If it's catching on as Guy says, this wouldn't be a bad idea. Some would be fools enough to try to watch the program and forget the road.

Stalin's Maneuver Evokes Clear-Cut American Policy

An AP Newsfeature PREMIER STALIN'S SECOND UNOFFICIAL bid for a "peace" talk with President Truman (in Communist territory) has met sharp rejection.

However, the maneuver has evoked a clear-cut declaration of American policy which should clear the air. That is all to the good.

The general publics of non-Communist countries were anxious to learn what Stalin had in mind. The immediate reaction in western capitals and among close observers was that the generalissimo was engaged in a propaganda game. As this column has previously pointed out, they figures he was making a peace offensive to lull the western world into a feeling of security and so soften the increasingly effective drive against the Reds.

IN SHORT IT LOOKED AS THOUGH the Bolshevik chief was decidedly worried. This idea was strengthened when Stalin came through with his second unofficial bid.

It is an interesting sidelight that the premier specified Russia, Poland, or Czechoslovakia as the meeting place. He did this on the ground that his doctors wouldn't permit him to travel so far afield as Washington.

The second bid has brought a double-barreled reaction in Washington. One is from the White House and the other is from America's new secretary of state, Dean Acheson. Both were clear cut and concise.

President Truman is willing to see Stalin in Washington, but has no intention of going abroad for a meeting. That's that.

ACHESON IN A PRESS CONFERENCE declared in substance that Stalin had raised no real issue for Soviet-American settlement. Said he:

"You will notice that the purpose of the meeting has to do with arrangements... for issuing a declaration which is already the subject of solemn treaty commitments."

The secretary further laid down this edict: The United States won't discuss with Russia or any other country alone any issues which involve other nations as well. He added that the President isn't interested in meeting Stalin for the purpose of issuing a declaration of "peace" because the U. S. A. already is pledged to peace in the United Nations charter.

Negotiations On Austrian Peace Treaty Will Be True Barometer Of Cold War

WASHINGTON. — February 7 has been marked on the State Department calendar with a red circle. This is the date the diplomats are going to watch to see whether the Russians really want to get along with the U. S. A.

On that date the United States, France, and Britain begin negotiations with Russia for an Austrian peace treaty, and the State Department has decided to let these negotiations serve as a barometer of the cold war.

So far the Russians have been talking peace but acting tough. While Togliatti in Italy and Communist leaders in France have been announcing that Russia can get along with the West, and while Stalin has said he would be willing to meet Truman, actually there has been not the slightest change in Russian policy.

But when the big powers sit down to negotiate an Austrian peace treaty, the State Department thinks Russia will have a chance to show whether she really means what she says. If Russian delegates are reasonable regarding Austria, Secretary of State Acheson is preparing to propose a meeting in New York of the big four foreign ministers—Russia, Britain, France, and the U. S.—about April 5, when the United Nations holds a special assembly session.

NOTE—Other U. S. observers don't agree with the State Department that Austria is a good barometer of the cold war. They point out that, since Yugoslavia broke away from the Iron Curtain, Russia has no reason to be tough in Austria. It was Tito's influence that previously toughened up Russian policy with Austria.

President Truman is happy as a schoolboy over the world-wide reception given to his plan to build up backward areas. After White House aides showed him stacks of newspaper clippings, the President remarked: "This idea is so good I should have thought of it a couple of years ago." Secretary of State Dean Acheson has agreed to name a woman as ambassador to one of the top European countries... the story on what happened to the Gallup polls, the predictors, and the newspapers during the late election has just been published by Morris Ernst—"The People Know Best."

Healthy reading for newspapermen... after the real estate job by demanded an investigation of New York City's Rent Advisory Board, Chairman Joseph McGoldrick wired the Senate Banking and Currency Committee welcoming such a probe. But he added—that the investigation should also include the real estate lobby.

The State Department has just received an awkward cable from American Consul General Angus Ward in Mukden, China. Consul Ward cabled that American citizens, American property and American diplomats in Communist-held northern China are receiving remarkably good treatment at the hands of Chinese Communists. In fact, Ward cabled that one of the leading Communist generals of the north had visited the consulate that day to pay his respects.

His visitor seemed much impressed, particularly by an exhibit of the U. S. Information Service which featured news distilled into Chinese, telling America's story to the Chinese people. "Now, Mr. Consul," the Chinese Communist general said, "I am delighted that you Americans believe in the freedom of the press. I think this is a very fine exhibit. We believe in freedom of the press, too."

Consul Ward smiled happily. Then he stopped smiling. "Since we all believe in the freedom of the press," continued the Chinese Communist general, "I have a few documents and articles that I'd like to put up with your exhibits so that the people can see both sides of the story. That would only be freedom of the press. I know you will be glad to do it."

Consul Ward had no answer. He engaged in some polite double-talk, then hastily wired the State Department for instructions.

The Republicans who wangled the Lincoln Day dinner invitation for Governor Dewey were Michigan's Congressman George Dondero, chairman of the Lincoln Day Committee, and his close friend, GOP National Chairman Hugh Scott. Other Republicans are irked because Dewey was invited... not a word has been said about it, but 200 American fighter planes have been sent to Italy from Germany; also nearly 1,000 tons of U. S. ammunition have gone to the Italian army. General Clay decided on the shipments after one of his aides conferred with the Italian chief of staff in Rome... the U. S. A. has started secret negotiations with Panama to secure new American bases. Panama canceled its bases agreement last year, at which time U. S. troops promptly pulled out. Now Panamanians are offering new bases in return for a loan. Army-Navy, in turn, want to set up radar equipment in Panama—outside the Canal Zone to warn against enemy airplanes.

Real motive behind Argentine Dictator Peron's new decree restricting the movements of tourists in that country is that, Russia's Joe Stalin, Gen. Harry Vaughan's friend wants to keep foreigners out of his private world.

From the Peronist point of view, it's a two-way disadvantage now to have outsiders coming into totalitarian Argentina. For one thing, even the casually observant tourist can't help seeing that the much-ballyhooed five-year plan is getting exactly nowhere.

Between the Regime's "inability" to import machinery and supplies from the U. S. (although it spent some $150 million on armaments bought from us last year) and the marked decline in worker productivity, Peron's grandiose plans for industrialization have been 85 per cent abandoned. And almost any visitor is bound to realize it.

Then, too, the foreigner coming into Argentina these days can make himself a small fortune by bringing in a few small U. S. luxury items (wrist watches, fountain pens, electric shavers, etc.). Starved for such imported consumer goods, and jittery about the value of his own money, the currency-poor Argentine will pay fabulous prices for them.

As a result, many an American tourist in Buenos Aires recently has covered the cost of his entire trip with almost no effort.

Women Could Do Chores Back In Ancient Past

Less than a week ago one of our co-workers representing the fairer sex had something to say here about a situation that we like to regard as the encroachment of woman upon man's part of the world, and it is heartening to note that one of the country's metropolitan journals was devoting space to the same topic at practically the same time but from a different aspect.

The writer in the "big city" paper voiced alarm, not over the types of employment that women have associated themselves with, but what he called the appalling amount of "woman's work" now being done by men.

As examples he cited recent instances where men captured high honors in competitive events which required that they exhibit culinary prowess, the "new" chores men find themselves confronted with as a result of widespread popularity of the "serve-yourself" laundries, and several others. The real hair-raising example, however, involved some governor who permitted himself to be photographed while in the act of wiping dishes. That picture, the writer asserted, was a staggering blow to manhood throughout the world.

Maybe the gravity of the situation was exaggerated, but it all helps to throw new light on one side of the question that perhaps has not been fully explored. At least it is presumed that such is the case, because apparently the general topic has not suffered a recession in popularity for centuries.

By resorting to limited research we were able to trace it back to about 1575 A. D. In a deceptively volume of uncertain origin we found it suggested that a woman indirectly produced "Midsummer Night's Dream." The argument for that theory was that William Shakespeare's mother overruled her husband in an argument and permitted young William to deliver a pair of gloves to the Earl of Leicester while Queen Elizabeth was visiting the Earl's domain. While there, William, a mere lad of some 11 years, glimpsed some fancy celebrations in honor of the queen that were to stand him on good stead in later years as he touched his pen to parchment.—WACIL McNAIR

Stalin's Interview Heads World For Real Showdown

STALIN'S INTERVIEW 30-30 FRI EDIT

With Stalin's interview it is now certain that matters are coming to a head and that a diplomatic showdown in Europe during the next few months is in the making. The issues are grave and the stakes are high. No one who realizes them will wish to see the matter dealt with hurriedly in a press conference or in an off-the-record briefing.

Thus it would be a blunder of the first magnitude—one which would weaken seriously our whole position, to slam the door in Stalin's face. For then we would present ourselves to the world as the great power which had refused to explore all the possibilities of peace.

It would be as great a blunder to act as if the time had come for Mr. Truman to start packing his bags for a meeting with Stalin. For that would convince our allies, and the Russians as well, that we had not understood how thorny are the problems which have to be worked out before even a modus vivendi can be reached.

The showdown, which is coming, will turn upon whether the Marshall plan, the North Atlantic Security Pact, and the Council of Europe are to be treated as a coalition for war or as the framework for a European settlement. The issue is plainest in the Security Pact, and most specifically at the two points where the U. S. S. R. has reacted over the week-end—first in its Russian note to Norway and immediately thereafter in Stalin's reference to the Berlin blockade and the Western German State.

The original members of the North Atlantic Security Pact are Britain, France, the Benelux countries in Western Europe, Canada, and the United States in North America. Limited to these countries, the Pact could not be challenged by the Soviet Union and its allies. They are themselves bound together by a network of sixteen treaties, of which the first was between the U. S. S. R. and Czechoslovakia in 1943 and the latest between the U. S. S. R. and Finland published on April 6, 1948.

The crucial fact about this Soviet network of bilateral treaties and the North Atlantic Multilateral Treaty is that the two systems do not meet. Between them lies a borderland of nations which are not now included in either system—namely the three Scandinavian countries, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Italy.

The two systems can be regarded as defensive as long as neither expands into this neutral borderland which separates them. We should certainly regard a Russian proposal for a military alliance with any country in the borderland as deeply disturbing. We must not expect the Russians to be complacent about a similar proposal on our part, and it would be folly to imagine that they will not react strongly if such proposals are carried out.

The case of Italy is probably the least serious. For Italy is in contact with the Soviet orbit only on the Yugoslav frontier, and as long as Titoism is able to survive, no serious military consequences are likely to follow from Italy's inclusion in the Atlantic system. Switzerland, of course, not enter any alliance, and presumably no one will have the heart to inflict upon Austria, if it is liberated by a peace treaty, the burden of an alliance.

The serious cases are Scandinavia and Germany. In regard to Scandinavia, the State Department and the Pentagon have—it is now quite plain—used very bad judgment. Their desire to include Norway and Denmark in our strategic arrangements has divided the Scandinavian countries among themselves, has subjected them to serious internal strains, has jeopardized the precarious but relatively independent position of Finland, and has exposed Norway to a most embarrassing diplomatic pressure by the Soviet Union.

But the crucial case is Germany. Here, it must be said, our attitude is ambiguous and contradictory. The official position, reiterated in the security board provision of the recent Ruhr agreement, is that we propose to keep Germany disarmed and demilitarized. But it would be disingenuous to pretend that there is not a powerful current of opinion in this country, in Great Britain, in Germany, and even in France that, without the recreation of a German army and German war industry under German command, German manpower and the German industrial potential may eventually be integrated with the North Atlantic system.

That is where and why the proposed Western German State, in its essence a puppet State of the Western military occupation, has such potent diplomatic importance. No doubt many of those who have sponsored the idea of this German government honestly think it is designed, only to assist German government economic recovery within the Marshall plan. But this innocent view if confined almost entirely to Americans. It is certainly not held by the Germans who know quite well that in a divided and warlike Europe, a government without an army is a contradiction in terms, and that a government, created by an alien military occupation, must either rebel against the occupation or become allied with it.

Missing Man Of The Year Is Lad Who Plays Pranks

NEW YORK. —THERE'S A FELLOW missing from the contemporary scene.

But there's some doubt if very many people miss him much. The fellow I'm talking about is the big ha-ha man of yesterday—the practical joker.

He was some prankster. At the office he'd leave a faked summons from the boss in your typewriter. He'd have his girl friend write a mash letter to your home signed "with all my love, Molly." He was the fellow who anonymously advised 30 different life insurance salesmen you wanted to buy a policy. And he saw that they all called on you at the same hour.

IN THE OLD DAYS HE CARRIED A loaded cigar in his pocket. He also had some kitchen matches to give you the hoofoo. If a bum asked him for a coin to buy a cup of coffee, the practical joker always managed to have a Canadian dime ready to drop into his hand. When he threw a party, he slipped you a glass with a hole near the top—so the drink dripped all over your new suit.

Well, somewhere along the way that kind of nonsense went out. There was no widespread rebellion among the victims of the practical jokers. But somehow his jokes, by and large, just quit being funny.

The trouble with the practical joker was that he usually put somebody on the pan. And a generation that has weathered a major depression and two world wars probably just got tired of seeing anybody on the pan. It ceased to be funny.

LIFE BECAME TOO PRACTICAL FOR impractical practical jokes.

The world has grown up too much to enjoy the cruel and hurtful practical jokes of the past. When the last practical joker is buried, it would be pleasant to put him under a nice tombstone bearing this epitaph:

"Having a wonderful time. Wish you were here."

Nobody would begrudge him this last laugh—as long as we were sure it was his last one.

No Hits, No Runs, Score To Date For 'Uncle Joe' Stalin

WASHINGTON. —JOSEPH STALIN'S answers in the past few days—to questions about war, peace, and meeting President Truman—are about as unsensational as saying he's against sin.

The only unusual thing about what he said was the way in which he chose to say it.

It Stalin had been anxious to patch up the split, and wanted to make a move in that direction, he easily could have done it in the way nations usually do business.

He could have called in the American and other western ambassadors, who have their embassies in Moscow for dealing with Russia, and told them what he had on his mind.

Instead, he by-passed them and piped out to the world a few statements in the form of answers to questions sent him by a newsman, Kingsbury Smith of the International News Service. Why?

NO ONE CAN ANSWER PRECISELY.

Food In Small Town Much Cheaper Now

By The Associated Press
The fellow in the small town finds that food costs less today than it did a year ago.
The price drop isn't much. It isn't even as large as in the big cities. But it's enough to mean something when you have to eat every day.
In a survey of 16 small cities, ranging in population from 10,000 to 25,000, the Associated Press found price tags on seven representative food items down 8.2 per cent from last year. A similar survey last week of big cities showed a decline of 9.7 per cent.
In the food survey the items used were a loaf of bread, a dozen best eggs, a pound of top grade butter, a quart of milk, a pound of pork loin, a pound of leg of lamb and a pound of chopped steak. Prices were those at retail.
A total of the seven food items showed they were highest in Helena—$4.07. It was the only city where the total was above $4.00. Cheapest place to live, as far as food products were concerned, was Sterling, Ill., in the heart of the corn-belt. The total was $2.93—more than $1.00 under Helena.
The survey included Greenville, Tex., where the total cost of the food items was $3.53. A year ago it was $3.75.

California Gets Chicago Flowers
CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—California is getting flowers—green-house variety—from Chicago this winter.
Chicago wholesale florists were asked to send flowers after cold weather destroyed much of California's flowers, grown there in open fields.
Tulips, daffodils, irises, jonquils, lilies and other varieties are being shipped in large quantities by air, said M. W. Stevenson, district traffic and sales manager of United Air Lines.

Pontiac 49-ers Put On Display; Two New Series Being Offered

The 1949 Pontiacs have gone on display, and the local dealer, Marvin Wood, is inviting the public to view cars which represent the "new look" in motordom.
Pontiac is offering two new series. The Chieftain is a new design, and the Streamliner series is an advanced rendering of the flowing design. The Torpedo line has been discontinued.
Approach pattern of both Chieftain and Streamliner from gleaming Indian head hood ornament to massive, wrap-around bumper is a design triumph of suave yet rugged elegance accentuated by Pontiac's traditional Silver Streak, stylized for 1949 but still serving to make Pontiac the world's best identified motorcar. Grills of both series have a magnificent and unique simplicity: A single chrome bar, so heavy as to simulate a second bumper, spans the entire front above the ten modernistic

Opinion Sought In School Case

AUSTIN, Feb. 4. (AP)—A federal court opinion on whether Del Rio is discriminating against its Latin-American students is being sought here in an attempt to block threatened withdrawal of Del Rio school accreditation.

Brian Montague, attorney for Del Rio school officials, yesterday filed application to intervene in a case in which Judge Ben H. Rice last year ordered an end to Latin-American discrimination and segregation in four Central Texas school districts.
The petition alleged that Del Rio school officials last Aug. 16 had given Latin-American students their choice of elementary schools. After registering in Anglo-American schools, some Latin-American students later transferred of their own accord to the Latin-American school, it claimed.
State Supt. L. A. Woods ordered that all pupils of the same grade be placed in the same building, threatening withdrawal of accreditation for failure to comply, the petition complained.
If the court finds Del Rio's policy not a violation of its anti-segregation judgment, the school officials ask an injunction to keep Woods from withdrawing the schools' accreditation.
The application was set for hearing Feb. 10.

U. S. Renews China Lease

SHANGHAI, Feb. 4. (AP)—Vice Adm. Oscar C. Badger, here to meet Adm. DeWitt C. Ramsey, Pacific Fleet commander, revealed today the Navy had renewed for six months its lease on a Tsingtao Hotel.
The lease renewal was taken to mean that the Navy was not pulling out of Communist-ruled Tsingtao, North China's most important anchorage.
Badger said he would bring his flagship, the Eldorado, to Shanghai shortly and that his Western Pacific fleet headquarters would move with the ship. This did not mean, he insisted, that his headquarters would shift permanently to Shanghai from Tsingtao.
Ramsey and Badger will fly to Tsingtao Sunday for conferences which many feel may determine how long the U. S. Navy and Marines will remain in China.

MISTER, WHICH WAY TO EASY STREET?

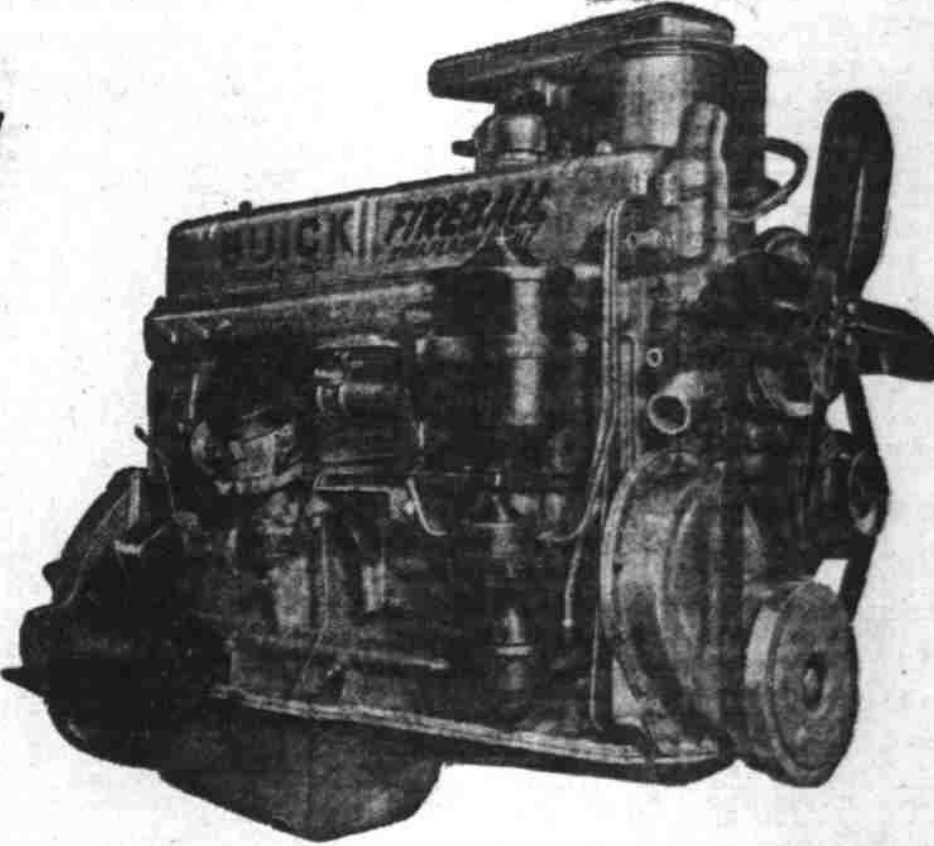

WELL, THERE ARE A COUPLE of short cuts, but a lot of them pass through bad neighborhoods, and it's awfully easy to get lost.
But there's one route that's good and straight, and leads right where you want to go.
Here's how to get on it...
If you're employed by a firm, you can sign up on your company's Payroll Savings Plan. They'll see that you pile up bonds just as fast as you like.
You'll be surprised how easy and painless an operation it is—and you'll be amazed how soon you'll find yourself going along in the right direction.
Or, if you're not on a payroll, your bank has the equally simple Bond-A-Month Plan, that brings you a bond every month, charging the cost to your account.
Then, in just ten years, when your bonds pay you back four dollars for every three, you'll know that Easy Street isn't very far away. You can't miss it.
What's that? Oh... you're welcome.

POWER PLANT

that uses its Head!

THIS is the husky thrill-producer you find filling the bonnet of any 1949 Buick.

Look it over and you'll observe, among other things, that it is a valve-in-head straight-eight.

In simple language, this means that years ago Buick engineers lifted the valves from the side of the cylinder and put them on top—with some immediate advantages.

Such an engine "breathes" better. Gets a full, even charge on every intake—exhausts spent gases more easily—enjoys extra power, life and gaily.

And in such engines, compression ratios are relatively easy to establish. To step them up, the head is merely brought closer to the piston—no extra problems are presented getting fuel in and exhaust out.

Thus Buick power can—and has—kept pace with progress in fuels. Compression ratios suit gasolines actually available—and there's no waiting for tomorrow's gasolines to get full performance.

There are other things to notice about this engine.

It's a Fireball power plant—uses a special and exclusive type of piston that gets more good out of each fuel charge.

And it speaks with soft, new quiet. Self-setting valve lifters automatically keep valves properly seated, ending tappet noises for good.

With gasolines getting better, the swing to valve-in-head design will undoubtedly grow stronger. But that is what Buick has had all along—a power plant that uses its head to give extra lift and thrill.

That's enough reason to see your Buick dealer now, with or without a car to trade, to get your order in.

BUICK alone has all these features

- Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE • FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area
- SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRIFLEX COIL SPRINGING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Cruiser-Line VENTIPORTS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods

Paving Problem Still Lingers On

Fair weather has not solved all of Big Spring's paving problems, officials reported this morning.

Progress on two major units embraced by the contract have been virtually stymied due to reluctance of homesteaded property owners to sign for paving. Largest unit involves Owens street, from 11th place to 18th, or a total of seven blocks. Although only four "skips" were left there after the contractor's representative completed his canvass, all are 140 feet in length, which leaves the status of that project questionable. A similar difficulty exists on 18th street where a unit has been planned between Gollad and Owens.

At least four other units depend upon successful completion of Owens street, officials said. They are 12th, 15th, 16th and 17th streets, which involve projects which would connect with the Owens street improvements.

ABC Club Picks Pete Green

W. D. (Pete) Green, police chief, was elevated to the presidency of the American Business club Friday.

He will succeed Ralph Wyatt, who submitted his resignation unexpectedly upon receiving word of his transfer to Lubbock with the Hemphill-Wells company. Wyatt expressed regrets of having to lay aside his duties connected with preparation for the national ABC convention in the spring.

Speaker for the day was Stanley Cameron, coordinator of vocational education for the Big Spring high school. Purpose of vocational training is to help individuals to adjust themselves to and prepare themselves for holding regular jobs, he said.

Industry is lending more cooperation in job training and now job experience programs may be had in almost any part of the nation. Vocational training can peculiarly serve the 98 per cent of people who end their formal education somewhere from the fifth grade short of college, he said.

Green announced a meeting of the board of governors in his office for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. Club practice is due to begin Wednesday for the basketball game the ABC has booked with the "Redheads."

Scoutmasters To Plan Anniversary

Plans for local observance of National Boy Scout Week headed the agenda at a Scoutmasters roundtable meeting last night.

Leslie Snow, district Scout commissioner presided at the session. The Scoutmasters also discussed preliminary plans for the annual Scout Round-Up, scheduled for April 21-23, and a summer camping program for local troops.

Attending were Arthur Leonard and Glenn Napper, Troop No. 4; Arnold Seydler, Troop No. 3; Eddie Hickson and Keith Bailey, Troop No. 9; Noble Kennemur, Troop No. 19; and George Melear, past commissioner and institutional representative for the Lions club.

WAGE BILLS

one of 12 that turned down the civil service proposal. The new proposals, however, would repeal sections in the original bills which allowed cities to vote on acceptance.

Whitney said Mayor G. W. Dabney advised this morning that he felt that Big Spring should be represented at the hearing on Tuesday.

Commissioner Jack Y. Smith told the Herald that he definitely opposed the bills. He said he would attend the hearing if a local delegation is organized.

Dr. C. W. Deats, another commissioner, said he was not familiar with the full text of the bills, but he is opposed to the principles involved.

"I don't believe anyone in San Antonio or anywhere else should tell us how to run things in Big Spring," Dr. Deats declared.

The new wage bill was introduced by Senator Walter Tynan of San Antonio, while the civil service bill was presented by Senator Kyle Vick, Waco.

Salaries for policemen and firemen in Big Spring would not be affected, since the minimum provided in the wage bill is $205 per month. Big Spring firemen and policemen draw $209 per month. However, the proposed schedule of maximum hours would cost the city about $10,000 a year, Whitney estimated.

Leftover veal may be served in a curry sauce and accompanied by the usual curry condiments: hard-cooked egg, chutney, relish, chopped peanuts, coconut.

Video Is Drawing Interest In France

PARIS—France is taking to television. By the end of the year four different transmitters will be operating in the country.

It hasn't reached the point where television receivers are being installed to attract crowds in sidewalk cafes or as an added attraction to a "Can Can" show. But 10,000 sets are registered in Paris. Officials believe that there are many more unregistered sets.

Radio sets in France are registered and each owner has to pay a tax of about two dollars a year. Although it has been customary with radio to let taxes pay for programs and keep the airways free of commercials, Radio-television Television is considering selling time to sponsors.

What Is Back Of Car Wrecks

CHICAGO—Are you troubled with anachoresophobia? If you do a lot of driving you probably are, Dr. W. A. Eggert, chief psychologist for Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Company, says this tongue twister—meaning reluctance to back up—contributes to thousands of automobile accidents each year.

In analyzing claims paid by the company on commercial vehicles in nine major industries, Dr. Eggert found that improper backing caused 25 per cent of the accidents—more than any other two driving errors combined.

Next in line were inattention, 13 per cent; and speeding, 10 per cent.

"Most of us today are in such a hurry that we resent the idea of backing up," said Dr. Eggert, "and unless we are trained drivers, we tend to think about where we are going next—even while backing—instead of concentrating on the job at hand."

Jeff Owen Drives Army Jeep In Japan

Private Jefferson V. Owens, of Big Spring is serving a tour of overseas service with the occupation forces of Japan. There he is presently assigned as a jeep driver with the 675th Glider Field Artillery Battalion.

Private Owens entered the army June 10, 1947 and after receiving basic training at Fort Ord, California was sent to the Airborne Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia. There six weeks later he successfully completed the required parachute jumps to win the coveted silver wings of the qualified paratrooper.

Ceylon Seeking More Tourists

COLOMBO, Ceylon—Ceylon, youngest of Britain's dominions, is out to sell itself as "the playground of southeast Asia". The idea is to boost annual tourist revenues in three years from the present six million rupees to 60 million rupees (nearly $20 million).

The program calls for a large advertising campaign, provision of more accommodations for tourists, a clean-up of hawkers and dishonest dealers in gems and, in general, efforts to find tourists, wherever they may be.

American Legion tangles with Stanton in the opener, at 8 p. m. Texas Electric Service meets Grapette; and at 9 p. m., Ackerly contests Forsan. Both Western Geophysical and Safeway drew byes.

Jackets Polish Off McMurry

By The Associated Press

Howard Payne's Yellow Jackets loom as the top threat to defending champion Abilene Christian College in the Texas Conference basketball race.

The Yellow Jackets last night polished off McMurry, 53-46.

ACC, unbeaten in conference play this year, takes on Austin College tonight in a tilt at Sherman.

Melt yellow cheese (cut into cubes or grated) in condensed tomato soup and serve over sliced hard-cooked egg and toast for a Sunday night supper dish.

Children will enjoy an inflatable, four-foot clown toy made of plastic. It can be used for boxing, wrestling, tackling or in the water. It returns to an upright position when it is pushed and inflates and deflates like a tire.

MODERN BULLDOZERS START WORK IN BLIZZARD AREA

OMAHA, Feb. 4. (AP)—The chips were down today in the greatest mass bulldozer operation in history. Nearly 1,000 pieces of heavy equipment—bulldozers, snowplows, graders and weasels—were slugging it out with drifts in the mid-west blizzard area.

They were also engaged in a race with time.

Residents of the stricken section indicated that until thousands of miles of roads, and a way to countless feedlots and hay stacks were opened, each day would have its cost in dead cattle and perhaps human lives.

Behind the relief effort was an impressive team made up of the army, air force and navy working side by side.

Also in the partnership were the National Guard, Red Cross, state and federal governments and ordinary citizens doing everything from answering telephones to flying airplanes on mercy missions.

The Fifth Army and its deputy tions snowbound, Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, co-ordinated the entire effort.

Air Force planes were flying the haylift and its helicopters were making relief flights.

The Navy announced that a team of naval reservists was being flown to the North Platte area to handle communications for the operation. Earlier, Navy radio equipment had been moved into western Nebraska to help form a Fifth Army communications network.

Soviet Press Says Truman Rejects Talks

MOSCOW, Feb. 4. (AP)—The Soviet press said in headlines today Truman "rejects peace talks."

This was the first comment here on the President's statement in answer to a news conference question on Stalin's proposal to meet Truman.

The story was carried by all the newspapers under the same headline. The story itself was a dispatch from New York by the official Soviet News Agency Tass.

The story covered Secretary of State Dean Acheson's statement Wednesday by saying "Acheson spoke negatively, both of a peace pact and on other questions," brought up in Stalin's recent question and answer statements.

"Several hours after this, President Truman had a press conference at which he supported the opinion of Acheson," Tass said.

Tass said it was thought the "negative attitude of Truman is explained by the fact that the peace pact runs counter to aggressive plans for organizing the Atlantic alliance."

In Berlin, the official Russian military administration newspaper said President Truman was being hypocritical in saying the U. S. would not enter peace talks outside the United Nations.

Russian Air Force Fliers Delighted To Reach America

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass., Feb. 4. (AP)—Two Russian Air Force officers who escaped from the Soviet Union by plane landed here today — delighted to reach America.

They had a message for American Communists.

Speaking through an interpreter, the fliers, Peter Pirogov and Anatole Barsov, said:

"Instead of making all their noise they should volunteer to go to Russia for one month. They would be glad to return here and resign from the Communist Party."

They expressed the belief that Premier Stalin offered to meet President Truman because the cold war "had gotten to a point where it might become serious. Stalin doesn't want war this soon anyway."

Another Claimant To Fields' Estate

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4. (AP)—Stating he is the late W. C. Fields' son, William R. F. Morris has joined the queue of claimants for shares of the comic's $771,428 estate.

Fields, says a document filed in superior court yesterday, acknowledged Morris as his son "in writing" and "in the presence of a competent witness."

Baylor Medical School To Work With VA

FINANCIAL WORRIES BAR REKINDLING OLD ROMANCE

BRISTOW, Okla., Feb. 4. (AP)—The 65-year-old bride of Bristow and the husband she found after 42 years have decided to go their separate ways—at least for the present.

Mrs. Ella Mershon said today it seemed best because neither she nor Barkeley Burris, 72, had much financial means.

But she hopes—as Burris expressed it as he left by train for Plainview, Tex., that "something may turn up" to help them.

"We talked it all over," said Mrs. Mershon. "I want to do everything in my power to help him. But I am a widow without much means and he is a Texas state pensioner. He would lose his $50 a month if he moved to Oklahoma."

"He said as he left today 'I hate to go back without you.' But I didn't see any other way. I talked with the postmaster at Plainview and he said they all liked Mr. Burris and would help care for him."

"Mr. Burris said rent was awful high down there. He was awful nervous. But I fixed a nice lunch. And perhaps later on we will talk it over again. I'm awful sorry about this but under the circumstances it seems the only thing."

Earlier this week, Mrs. Mershon said she thought she would marry Burris. However, under Okla-

COULDN'T QUITE SEE THIS FUTURE

BALTIMORE, Feb. 4. (AP)—A 23-year-old gypsy fortune teller came up with a new wrinkle in future gazing — but was pinched by it.

Not finding any bumps on a customer's head, she read the wrinkles on his forehead.

The customer turned out to be a member of the vice squad. She was found guilty in police court yesterday of illegal fortune telling.

Rancher Taken To Task For Haylift Blast

ELY, Nev., Feb. 4. (AP)—The rancher who called the Nevada haylift "more dramatic than effective" was taken to task today by storm-battered stockmen here, as fresh snow halted the feed-ferrying Air Force planes. It was the first halt since the operation began Jan. 24.

Officials of the United Stockmen's Assn. of eastern Nevada publicly demanded that William B. Wright, wealthy Elko County rancher who belittled the haylift, either retract his criticism or make a personal investigation.

Wright, past president of the American National Livestock Assn., said earlier this week that the stockmen in the Ely area were "gambling" by leaving cattle and sheep in open ranges all winter. He said they should have been prepared for the wind and snow that have marooned more than 200,000 head of stock.

Stalin Receives Bid To Visit Truman's Town

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Feb. 4. (AP)—Soviet Prime Minister Stalin is going to get a surprise invitation when he checks in at the Kremlin today! An invitation to meet President Truman in the home of an ordinary American citizen.

The invitation was called by James W. Stobaugh, 53, an employee of Western Union Telegraph Co. It read, in part:

"May I respectfully invite you to meet with President Truman in my home at 1228 Cedar Ave., Independence, Mo., a typical American home in the most typical of all American communities?"

"Here in this home town of our honored President, away from glitter and pomp where the only armed force in evidence is the traffic patrol on the highway, I believe any and all differences may be solved."

Stobaugh said he sent a telegram to President Truman quoting his message to Stalin and adding: "We trust the invitation will also receive your sympathetic consideration."

Confidentially, Stobaugh says he doesn't think the invitations will be accepted. The cable cost him $16.12.

All Farmers Not Healthy

CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—A farmers union official today debunked the popular belief that "all farmers are healthy."

Mrs. Gladys T. Edwards, Denver, educational director of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union said "it isn't so" in an address to the fourth annual national conference on rural health.

"No one who deals with rural America can overlook the fact that the unevenness of income levels on the farm ties to an unevenness in medical care," she said.

"The fact that the country doctor has little to work with and puts in hours which are killing to him... has caused doctors to move into the cities..."
