

iam Make-

Thacker'ay.

frigate ution escayes

enport, lowi.

somment tor

France.

war debu

abolished

om British

Klone.

disted in

ar wants

born

bA

his business men discussed tentatively.

novelist,

DR. L. M. Office: 8e Hall County Nation Phone 244

For Every Need Fire, Auto, Acc Insurance; Nota Blankenship's 610 Main

For R

$135

123

11.4

Modern 4-room u

ment, completely

S. 9th, Rr. D. C. 1

HE BUS!

TRIP EXCURS

. 30 Day Limit

sant Vacation

conomical! Safe!

BUS COM

everett, Agent

RINGS

Office Hours:

schnigg (right) of Austria was so seriously injured doctors schnigg (left) and injured his son, with whom he was returning to Vienna from a holiday trip. His condition made it possible that militant Prince Von Starhemberg would become chancellor.

urged him to relinquish his high post and which killed Mrs. Schu-

WASHINGTON, July 18 .--- E. Beach told him, "We had no long-W. O'Brien, Erie, Penn., official er use of our legislative records-of the Associated Gas and Elec- we were through with utility leg-lobby committee today that he R. P. Herron, bond salesman of was directed by U. E. Beach, man- Warren, Penn., who sent hundreds ager of the securities department of telegrams to members of Con-

of the Associated, Ithaca, N. Y., gress, said he "burned his records soon after the Senate lobby in- after O'Brien told him there wavestigation was ordered to dispose to be an investigation and he tric Company, testified before the Islation work."

of his records. Said he placed should clear his files.

in the present clash between the philosophies of life.

Under the terms of the order, Catholic prists who are religious propagandists.

G-Men Hustle Kidnap Chiseler Behind Bars

ter only if they change into Nazi of the country, saying he would ing her integrity, independence the location otherwise beautified. lead the troops into war. He ap- and sovereignty.

The Emperor said that Ethio- larged than the present house, will He called upon his subjects to pia did not desire hegemony, did be constructed at the gate, and unite and co-operate for defense not menace neighbors, but would the property will be fenced in.

> Notices for Bids For Conservation Material Delayed

Notices for bids on lumber and materials for the construction of four soil conservation buildings at the site of the Government 3-C camp to be constructed here had not been received this morning by George E. Hull, soil conservation supervisor

The notices were expected early this week, and bids were to have been received in about two weeks, Hull had announced. He was unable to explain the delay.

Auto Is Damaged by Blaze This Morning

A coupe, belonging to Charley Reynold, was badly damaged by fire at North Fifth and Montgom ery about 10 o'clock this morning The fire department was calle and effective work in extinguishing the blaze was done.

The Weather

WEST TEXAS-Local showers EAST TEXAS Showers

rust 9 Definitely Set as Day Old Settlers' Reunion, Fete as definitely set to- afternoon. A barbecue for the name his assistants for Memphis' an- county's long-time residents is be- Lyman E. Robbins, chairman ing entertainment features were W. R. Cabaness and Cicero Milam. at the call of F. Beginning this year. a permae, for the purpose old settlers gatherings will be kept, port will select two others to as-aport were in the and who will have a leading part man of the barbecue committee.

will begin in the tlers' program committee. He will reports, Secretary Clark stated.

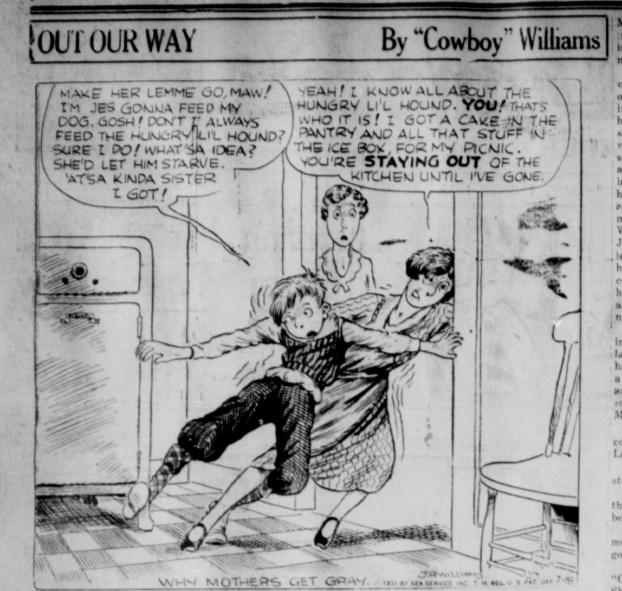

rs' Reunion and ing planned and several interest- general entertainment committee. will also serve on this committee ary of the Cham- nent record of proceedings of the the finance committee. Mr. Davenns for the celebra- at the suggestion of E. M. Ewen, sist him. venport, of Lake- who was instrumental last year in t of the old settlers, starting the annual observance M. J. Draper was named chair-in preparations for this year's G. W. Kesterson will serve with morning of August oted to the old set-general program for initial meeting were: f everyone in the E. M. Ewen, chairman old set-f everyone in the initial meeting were:

Struggling against going behind the bars, Alfred Otto Wagner (center), called the "No. seler" for his confessed efforts to obtain monny from the relatives of kidmap victime, i sance futile as the strong arms of the law at the Brooklyn, N. Y., federal building hasth ell. Wagner, recently released from Sing Sing prison on parele as a kidmaper, was trapped to college 17 of the law of the strong strapped of the strong strapped to the strong the strapped strapped to the strong strapped to the strong strapped to the strong strapped to the strapped from Sing Sing prison on parele as a kidmaper, was trapped father; and she thought, too, that "Perhaps not,"

BEGIN HERE TODAY Jo DARIEN, finishing her first old Aaron Marsh must have led a Marsh. "I alway reserve my opinmarine supply store. There she of money; and no wonder, as Derien?" ob of hostess at his inn at Crest delity.

PAGE TWO

th- -- gagement. She goes to Crest Lake. Marsh arose quickly and went forward er extended narrative which was smoke on the veranda?" warns her that many people con- to meet her.

word comes from Mrs. Marsh that know Mother had planned dinner drawn the old lady away from air. I m dinner is to be served in five min- so early."

Jo smiled. "I must apologize NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY for being late." CHAPTER XI

"Mother," Marsh said, leading As the Japanese boy padded Jo to the table, "I want to pre-softly down the hall after deliver- sent Jo Darien."

ing his message from the imperi- "How do you do, Miss Darien," ous Mrs. Marsh, Jo stood bewil- remarked Mrs. Marsh with the air dered, clutching her negligee of not caring in the least how Jo about her. Five minutes! And d'd, "We've already begun, as see. I like to have dinnel

Jo loughed, taking the chair

THE MEMPHIS (TEXAS) DEMOCRAT

Mrs. Marsh was wholly absorbed ner in peace.

Obviously Mrs. Marsh was exorbitantly concerned with her only son's pest and future. Real-izing this, Jo forgave her much of her animosity. She would be as suspicious of any strange young voman in whom Douglas had shown so much interest. After all, Douglas Marsh was all the old lady had now. Compared with him, her money meant nothing, and the memory of his father might be only a bitter memory. While Douglas ran on pleasantly, Jo watched Mrs. Marsh-and pitied her. But her pity did not blind her to the fact that the old lady could make it very unpleasant for her at Crest Lake, and that probably she would miss no opportunity to do so.

They had received their coffee in fragile demi-tasses when Douglas at last finished his yarn-it had been an amusing incident of a summer when he had his yacht anchored off Tahiti. And no sooner had he finished than Mrs. Marsh began.

"Douglas, you hadn't told me I could invite anyone to Crest Lake, but-" stood, Mother," he objected. "Understood or not, I invited the Montgomerys. They should be here tomorrow." He nodded. "Oh, yes. . . Remember, Jo, we saw Babs Mont-gomery at the Olympic Bowl?" Jo's mouth onened slightly. "Oh . . , those Montgomerys?" She hadn't meant to say it, and at the words Mrs. Marsh looked at her oddly, In a surprised tone she asked Jo if she knew the family "I only know the daughter." Jo explained. "She was a sorority said Mrs. sister of mine at school." "Oh," said the old lady, as if year in college, learns her father very harried life with such a ions about people until I've that explained a great deal. is out of work. Jo hunts a job woman. No wonder he bent all known them some time. You "She's an attractive and charm-

LAS MARSH who offers her the strayed a bit from the path of fi- sweetly. "I'm inclined to do the you to have the girl here, Doug-

Lake. Jo accepts and this causes But Jo was relieved to note At this point, perhaps fearful and of your own-" a quarrel with BRET PAUL to that even when his mother was of where the conversation be- "Yes, I'm sure it will," Marsh whom she is engaged. Jo breaks present there was no change in tween Jo and his mother might interrupted hastily. He offered Jo Marsh's attitude toward her. He lead, Marsh launched into a rath- a cigaret. "Would you like to entertaining , but pointless. Jo "Please go ahead," said Mrs sider his mother eccentric. Jo no "I'm sorry you were rushed. It could not help smiling to herself Marsh "I can't stand to be near sider his mother eccentric. Jo no 'I'm sorry you were rushed. It when she saw how neatly he had ciparet smoke even in the open sooner reaches her room than was my fault entirely. I didn't drawn the old lady away from air. I'm going up to my room, Outside, in the shadows of the know, you become more remark- opinions about / in her son's reminiscences, allow- e-randa. Marsh said, "You han- able to me with every minute." mother," Jo ad ing Jo to listen and eat her din- died her beautifully, Jo. You "You'd better reserve your (To Be

PUT ME ON A GULF DIET FOR JUST 3 WEEKS-AND I'LL OPEN YOUR EYES!

IF YOUR tank hasn't held Gulf gas lately, try it and see what it can do. Inside of 3 weeks, you'll check the findings made by 750 car owners who recently took up this offer. They tried That Good Gulf Gasoline in their cars 3 weeks-checked it for mileage, starting, pick-up, power, allaround performance.

7 out of 10 found Gulf better on one or more of these 3 points-many on all five!

Why? Gulf is 5 good gasolines in one! Controlled refining gives it not only 2 or 3-but all five qualities of a perfect gasoline.

Start your tank on a Gulf diet today. In 3 weeks you'll be a Good Gulf fan.

GULF REFINING COMPANY

Q. What parking hint can save you gasoline? You'll had the answer in this Gulf Booklet, plus 14 other valuable economy hints. Free-at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

the other and

Thursday

July 18, 193

Warrick retui

in Wellington T

here with he

Carter at

W. C. C

South

ay from the

the Offield Ap

enth street.

Lee and so

Canyon this

Roy Guthr Lynn, Mrs.

ding a six-w

OF THANK

o thank ou eighbors fo

symphany s udden death

band, fathe

Also the b ath comes in rust you will prayor.

and true fri

W. Davis.

Mrs. T. E. I

d Mrs. W. M.

nd Mrs. George

d Mrs. L. I. I

Grandchildren

KIDNE

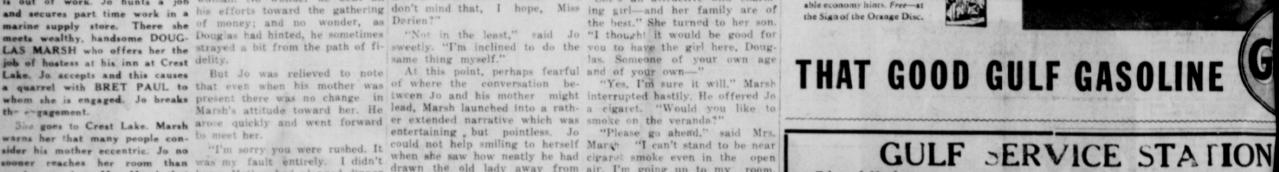

AS BOW

W. T. S. T. C.

of Claren week visiting hand Mrs. F. V. Cl

AN'S PILI

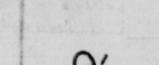

itate delicate tissues LS, the old reliable dope" or habit-form get DOAN'S PILL © 1934, Foster-M

I DON'T WANT TO

AW, HAVE A LUCKY.

TALK ABOUT IT ... AND THAT'S THAT.

same thing myself."

"Why, that's certainly under-

Dougles Marsh had said she would have plenty of time for a shower when I feel like having dinner." and to dress for dinner. Evidently his mother was a woman of sudden decisions, or-this seemed agree with that exactly. I think more likely to Jo-she had de-baying dinner at a stated time is bich Marsh drew out for her. "I eided to put Jo on the defensive ronsense." By making her late to the very "Nonsense?" repeated Mrs.

first dinner at Crest Lake. "Well. late or not." Jo teld Marsh, raising her eyebrows. 1 m afraid I don't know what herself. "I'm going to have my you mean." shower.'

Marsh winked surreptitiously at And when she felt clean and Jo, and plunged into the converrefreshed and had rubbed her action. "Would you like to start Bard young hode's whiteness to start a cafood cocktell, Jo?" At a nink glow she found that three his mention of her first name Jo minutes of the five were slready humanal to meet Mrs. Marsh's consumed. Piqued at the thought games with her own. The resultof having to rush so insensibly, lag sensation was not pleasant.

YOU

Jo went to the telephone and got , "Tell me. Miss Darien," went Penton at the desk downstairs on the old lady when her son had "Would you please tell Mrs. assiered for Jo. "Tell me some-Marsh that I'm sorry, but it will thing about yourself. Douglas has be 10 or 15 minutes before I mad, Ferhros he believed he was ean he down." .talling me something definite. But "I certainly will, Miss Darien." Douglas is always incoherent Something in Penton's voice told about good-looking young women To that he knew what was up. mand, as a matter of fact, I and that he was definitely with don't believe he knows much Har ogainst Mrs. Marsh's little about you himself." pior. .

But Jo did get downstairs in vor en enful moment Jo felt less than 10 minutes, radiant and like springing from the 'table, somebow not caring in the least telling Mrs. Marsh very definitewhat Mrs. Marsh thought. Penton ly that what she was and who greated her with an approving she was couldn't be, as yet, any of the old lady's business. But "Mrs. Marsh and her son are her common sense intervened ir in the dining room, Miss Darien." time to warn her that she had She modded pleasantly. "Thank everything to gain by being . . .

agreeable, nothing to gain with a show of temper

Except for the Marshes and a "Well," said Jo, trying hard to hovering waiter, the big dining keep the edge from her voice. "I room was deserted: and the was born and raised in Weston Marshes had taken a table in one where my father ran a hardware corner by one of the windows and implement store. He sold it which overlooked the lake. As Jo recently, and didn't make much crotsed the room she was painful- of a profit. I'm afraid. It was ly conscious that the old lady was necessary for me to find workwatching her every step of the oh, I could have gone home after way. But Jo in her turn, hiding the university closed but-"

her analytical gaze behind a "Then you are a university meaningless smile, examined Mrs. gills" inquired Mrs. Marsh. Marsh, too. She saw a thin, el. "You can hardly say that, realderly woman in a black dress ly. I've been there only one year, which was relieved only by a bit and I doubt if I can return." of white collar. Her mouth swan "Indexid" the know other plans. thin, like her body, and it was I apanonally a bad. Mrs Marsh, tightly set as if it could open only with a granar at her son. with effort. The white hair was "I've no plans at all beyond niled carefully and regally, and the sugment, Mrs. Marsh. For the her pale blue eyes were suspicious summer I bors to be here-proand cold. Indeed, she was so un viding, of course that I can do like her son that Jo was for a my job in sa'i factory fashion." morent taken aback. She thought Douglas langhed. "We haven't surla "ly that Douglas Marsh much fear about that, have we, must be almost wholly like his Mother?" I'm your best friend I am your Lucky Strik

When all else fails

7th and Noel

Try me 9:00 never let you WHEN ALL ELSE FAILS, IM YOUR BEST FRIEND, I AM YOUR LUCKY STRIKE. down IT'S THE TOBACCO THAT COUNTS There are no finer tobaccos than those used in Luckie

TZ RSDA'I ONI Everett Ha $10 RAISE" -alsowo Comedies ad Newsreel

ROOMS FR

LAC

TIMES TO OFF with I ula) Lugosi HE RAVEN -alsonedy and New

as Thea ay and Satur Wm. Hains in MARINES COMING"

Tom Mix in RACLE RIDE First Episode ckey Mouse a Newsreel

Conservative 1815. The America

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

C. March

By BLOSER

.

The mound battle between Chauncey Thompson of the Hard-contest called on account of darkness. ware ten and Williams of the Pill- duty this afternoon in an attempt week in Mineral Wells.

both moundsmen will return to D. A. Neeley are spending this

Mrs. W. C. Dickey and Mrs.

NOW is the Ideal Time for a Vacation

in Florida Climatic conditions are best at this time of the year. Smooth straight roads for motoring. Continued cool seaside breezes

Ads may be telephoned to The Democrat and will for later.

(Bart

mmander v

commander business m perishable needed. I let to the specificatio

the purch arrival bids will t

