AND JAPAN SURPRISE MEETING

Standley, Yamamoto Discuss Naval Problem

Admiral Standley, United States, and Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, Japanese, discussed the naval situation in a surprise conference at Washington, Dec. 28.

Standley understood that Yamamoto's instructions to the Japanese delegation to discuss the British a possible change in Japan's demands.

Standley's requested conference to cause the appearance of Japan's willingness to discuss the situation while the delegation refuses to discuss the situation.

Present at Annual Rotary-Student Lunch

Rotarians and college students gathered today for the annual students' luncheon at the Rotary club each year during the Christmas holidays.

A group of 53 included 30 Rotarians, five other visitors and members of the Rotary club.

Members of the Rotary club, including the visitors, were introduced, and Roy Fultz welcomed the group.

Dr. J. A. Odom of the professional committee introduced Dr. Dickey, who gave the well-known address.

Dickey stated that Rotarians are interested in the future of this community and expect you to take our interest in a few years.

Mary Hamilton sang two songs, "Roses of Picardy" and "The Airplane," accompanied by Miss Greene and Miss Reba.

Dr. Foxhall expressed the appreciation for the luncheon and said that Rotarians are interested in the future of this community and expect you to take our interest in a few years.

Students present were: Thomas Ewing, Secretary of the Treasury, born in Iowa admitted to the United States, born in Woodrow Wilson, historian, editor and President of the United States, born in Ohio.

TWO DAYS LEFT FOR SELLING OF CATTLE

Government To Stop Drouth Purchases Here Monday

Only two more days remain for stock raisers to sell drouth-stricken cattle to the government, with the warning issued from the office of County Agent James A. Jackson that purchases will positively cease Monday.

The county allotment of 4,000 head to be purchased by January 1 was reduced yesterday to 2,500 and present indications are that less than this number will be bought.

Buyers will be in Memphis tomorrow to clean-up all purchasing orders in this vicinity, and Monday will be subject to call to various parts of the county.

A comparatively small number of cattle have been purchased during the past week, and officials believe that when buying stops Monday the cattle situation in this county will be completely relieved for the winter.

Grandparents Sue For Children of Estranged Family

Cuero, Tex., Dec. 28.—Charles Cusack's contest with his estranged wife over custody of their children became more complicated when Mrs. Cusack's parents sued for custody of the three young boys.

Ever since Mrs. Cusack removed the children from Beverly Hills, Calif., and brought them to her parents' Cuero home for the holidays, Cusack has been trying to have the boys taken from her and given into his charge.

Cusack followed her here from the Pacific Coast. Cusack, member of a wealthy Chicago family, sought his wife's arrest for alleged violation of a court order restraining her from removing the children from California. He also swore out a warrant charging her with taking silver from his Beverly Hills home.

Memphis Merchants Are Told To File Wage Exception Petitions With NRA

TRAGEDY LIES IN WAKE OF HURRICANE

Destructive Fury Is Spent on New England Seacoast

A winter hurricane lashed the New England seacoast with destructive fury Thursday and swept over the White Mountains.

It was the last phase of a winter storm that had brought sub-zero temperatures, snow and high winds in a wide sweep across the northern states.

Tragic accompaniments were the deaths of three daughters of Harry Hammon, truck driver at Mishawaka, Ind., in flames in their one-room house. A pot of oil warming on the stove to thaw the car, boiled over.

Four other little sisters, two to 8 years old, drowned in icy Hughes river at Harrisville, W. V., when their rowboat capsized.

A mile-a-minute gale tore into New England. A woman died on the steps of her son's home in Wakefield, and a dockhand was swept into Boston harbor.

The rudderless freighter Emile Franconi with 35 aboard limped into port.

Mr. Van Huss stated that individual petitions for exception should be made to the NRA, setting forth reasons for such claims. (Continued on page 5)

If Memphis merchants feel that compliance with NRA codes work hardships on them, individual petitions for exception should be made to the National Recovery administration, Lyman Robbins, publisher of The Democrat, was advised late yesterday by Lotus A. Van Huss, secretary.

This information was in answer to a telegram sent by Mr. Robbins to Congressman Marvin Jones and forwarded to Donald Richberg of NRA recently.

Mr. Robbins stated that Memphis merchants have "done their best to pay clerks a fair wage", and asked, "Why is it necessary for man who says he is NRA official to come into our town and require various merchants to pay their clerks from $100 to $500 additional salaries?"

This question was asked after an NRA official visited here and demanded the payment of such salaries in compliance with NRA code scales.

Mr. Robbins pointed out that "Memphis merchants are faced with a 5,500 bale cotton crop against a normal yield of approximately 40,000 bales."

"Memphis merchants do not begrudge their employees the highest possible wages, but when volume drops, clerks themselves are willing to cooperate with merchants who are doing their best to survive present conditions and who look with confidence toward the future under our courageous President," Mr. Robbins added.

RUSSIA HOPES TO INCREASE U. S. TRADE

Soviet Determined To Force Through Industrial Plan

MOSCOW, Dec. 28.—Soviet Russia hopes for increased economic cooperation with the United States and France next year.

The assassination of Sergi Kiroff and revelation of terrorist plotting caused the government's determination to force through industrial plans and discount efforts to hinder its socialization drive.

Russia's differences with German Nazism and cancellation of German firm contracts hindered the Soviet foreign trade. Great Britain has succeeded Germany in Russian foreign trade.

The Russian-English relations are slightly strained and the Soviet is eager to scatter trade among friendlier powers.

MRS. LINDBERGH MAY BE WITNESS

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 28.—An authoritative source today said that Mrs. Anne Lindbergh will be called as an important prosecution witness in the trial of Bruno Hauptmann, which opens at Flemington next week.

It was announced that the state would not accept the offer of John Hughes Curtis, shipbuilder and convicted Lindbergh hoaxer, to testify against Hauptmann. It is understood that the defense is anxious to secure Curtis to testify in behalf of Hauptmann.

Allred and Wife Reported Better

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 28.—Improvement in the condition of Governor-Elect James V. Allred and his wife, both ill here with influenza, was reported today.

Neither was in a serious condition but their physician, Dr. Q. B. Lee, said they needed rest before resuming their activities. Visitors, including members of Mrs. Allred's family were excluded from Allred's room.

Two functions in Allred's honor were postponed indefinitely. A banquet had been planned for last night and homecoming festival for today at noon.

Hearing for Alsup Will Be Saturday

LEVELLAND, Dec. 28.—Examining trial for Ben C. Alsup, charged with murder in the slaying of his 11-year-old daughter, Martha Beulah, will be conducted before Justice of the Peace Paul Viaille at 9 a. m. Saturday.

County Attorney Weldon Johnson said he would ask for bond in a large amount, if Alsup sought to be freed on bail.

Sworn statements were made by Mrs. Alsup; a daughter, Rena, and a son, Bennie James. The daughter declared she struck a shotgun her father had leveled at her mother's back and that the charge hit Martha Beulah.

Camera Snaps Freighter at Moment It Plunges Beneath Waves, 17 Dying

Plunging beneath the waves after a mighty struggle with hurricane lashed seas, the British freighter Usworth is vividly pictured here as it went to its doom in mid-Atlantic, while 17 men died just as salvation seemed certain. The Jean Jadot, French ship, and the Cunard White Star steamship Ascania, standing by after the distress call, rescued 11 of the Usworth's crew. After several futile efforts, the Jadot's lifeboat took off 15 of the freighter's men, but the boat capsized, hurling the 15 and two of the Jadot's crew into the water, where all died, most of them choked by the heavy oil which had been pumped into the ocean to still the waves. This dramatic picture was snapped from the deck of the Ascania and rushed from Halifax to New York by plane.

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON

Lovable

BEGIN HERE TODAY ANN HOLLISTER, pretty and 20, breaks her engagement to TONY MICKLE, commercial artist, because of his drinking and general irresponsibility.

Ann and Peter, both heart-sick and disillusioned, meet in a restaurant. When Peter asks her to marry him, Ann agrees.

They are married that night and set out for Florida. They spend several weeks there happily until Peter is called home again because of business.

Eric was out looking for work, his father told Peter, abruptly opening the subject uppermost in his mind.

Eric's wife, a faded, work-worn woman, prematurely aged, sat near the fire, holding a small baby in her arms.

surprise to someone. Doing over the interior of the home he had purchased, Peter hadn't been able to resist buying the place because he had decided when he saw it that it looked as though it had been built for Ann.

"You will help me, won't you? It's unfair to be unfriendly when I've forgiven you for everything."

"When do you want me to go over the place?"

"Couldn't we drive out tomorrow afternoon?"

"I'm going to be busy until about four. Suppose I meet you there between four and five?"

"Aunt Louise and I will be there all afternoon. Come when you are ready. Peter, I let Aunt Louise take the car on home. I planned to take a taxi, but if you could drive me by on your way—"

Millicent saw them leave the building and get into Peter's car. This was a little raw, Millicent thought—Valeria going to Peter's office, pursuing him. She had only contempt for such tricks.

Millicent dropped in unexpectedly on Ann next morning and went straight to the point. "Ann, it might be well to watch Valeria. I saw her leave Peter's office yesterday and drive off with him. As a rule, I don't tattle. But Valeria is such an old hand at the game, I thought I should warn you."

"Thanks, Millicent," Ann said. "I'm afraid there's nothing I can do. Peter has a right to choose his own friends."

"Nonsense. Of course there's plenty you can do. Plenty any girl can do to put a stop to such things."

Millicent thought Ann had taken the news like a good sport. She respected her for it. Peter was lucky because Ann would never whine or nag.

"Don't worry too much, Peter's really not the double-crossing kind. But Valeria has a bag full of tricks. Keep your eyes open and if you don't like what you see, tell Peter so."

Ann had been dressing when Millicent came. She had selected a frock Peter liked, a dark woolen made with a high neck and wide belt. After Millicent left she put the dress back on its hanger and took down another. She had been silly!

The next few weeks were unusually quiet for Ann, with Peter's time so occupied. He was busy. It was only necessary to step inside the downtown quarters where typewriters were clattering, people coming and going, and the telephone ringing constantly to know that.

Ann thought of Sarah going about her work, and envied her. In the big apartment Ann had nothing at all to do. Everything was done by servants, quickly and efficiently. Ever since Millicent's dance, Peter had seemed a different person—rushing away each morning, quiet and thoughtful when he was at home.

More than once Ann had planned to talk to him about themselves and the solution of their problem. But something held her back. She had simply drifted, waiting. Waiting for something to happen—she did not know what.

On an impulse she called Sarah one day. "It's been such an age since I've seen you," Ann said. "That's what I've been thinking. Trying to high-hat me?"

"I don't know what's the matter. Maybe I'm developing spring fever."

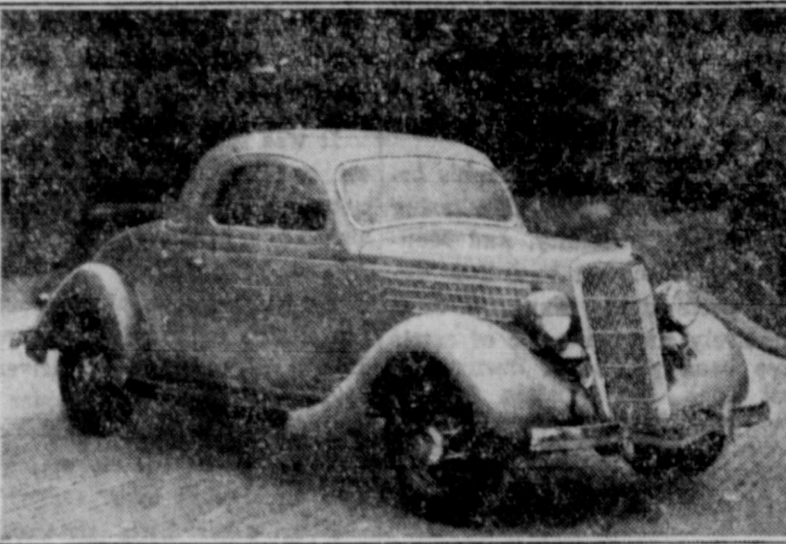

"What's on your mind?" "Sarah, have lunch with me downtown."

of happenings at the library. Suddenly she realized Ann was not listening. Sarah, following the direction of Ann's gaze, saw a smart-looking blond girl at a table in a corner. She recognized Valeria Bennett.

Valeria had seen Ann and bowed and smiled. She laid aside her cigarette and came to their table.

the collection of excess water in the oil and lessens formation of sludge. Dilution of oil by unburned gasoline is reduced. The continuous flow of air also exerts a cooling effect which tends to lengthen oil life and minimize engine wear.

Use of aircraft type copper-lead floating connecting rod bearings similar to those used in high-speed racing car and airplane engines where reliability under the most severe operating conditions is of paramount importance.

A new cast alloy camshaft.

Addition of a new system of improvements include:

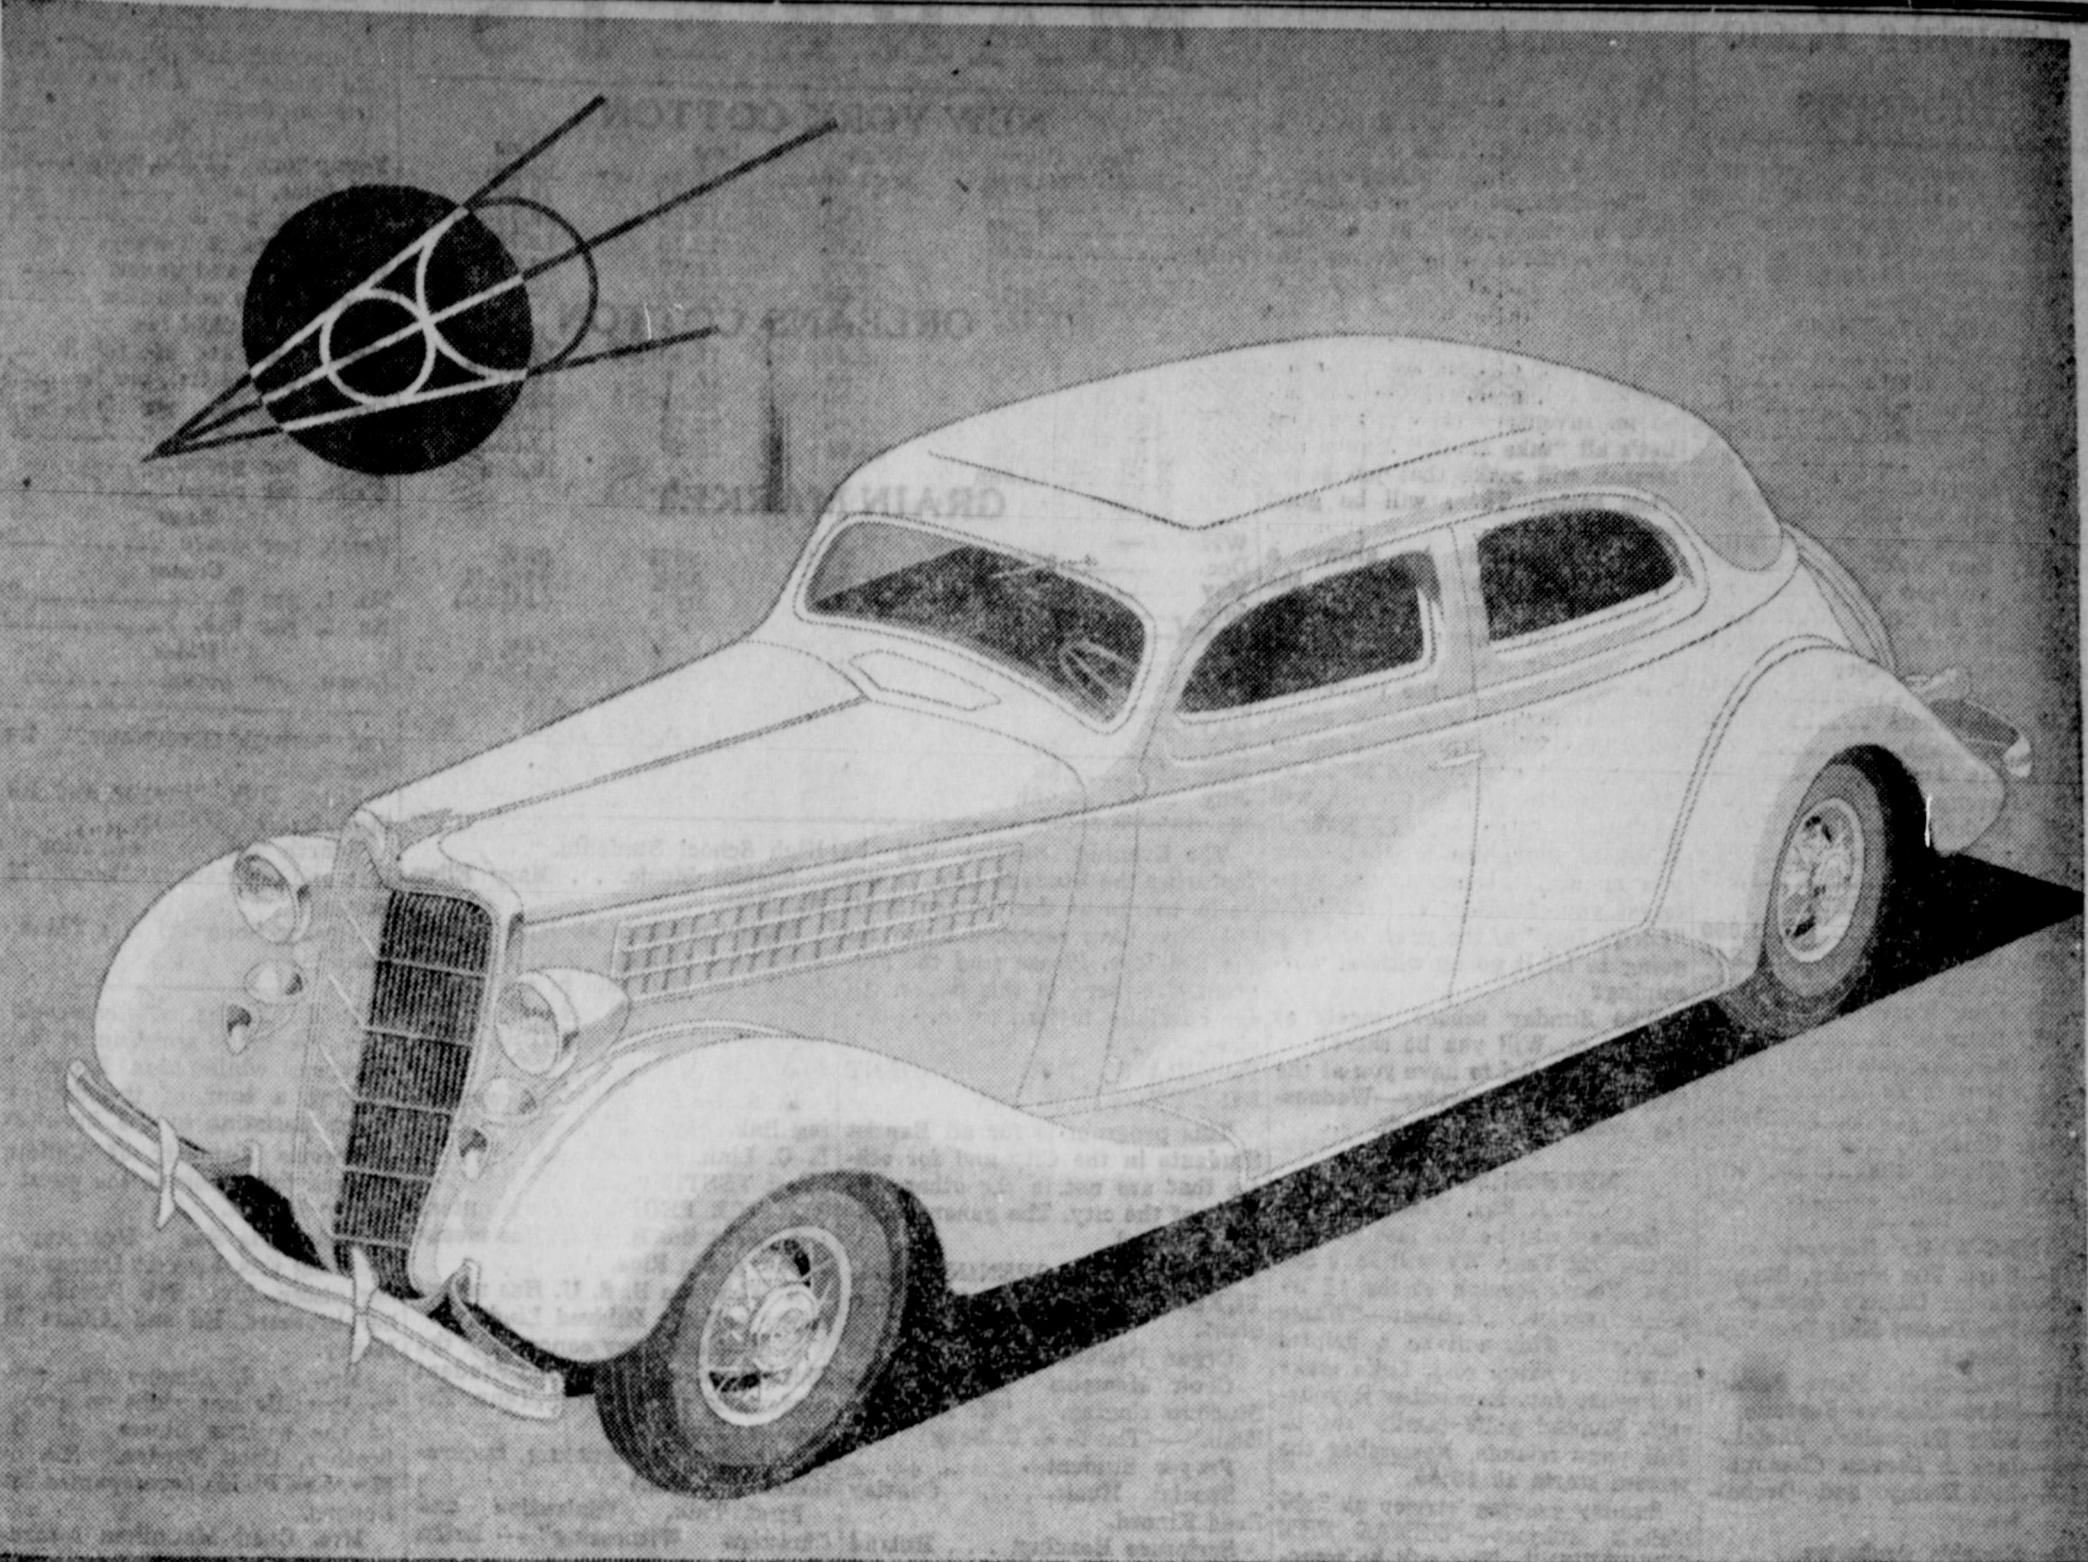

Newly designed, internal expanding mechanical type brakes, intended to give more effective braking control—with less pedal pressure—and embracing a new "floating wedge" as part of the design. This aids in equalizing pressure upon brakeshoes and in turn upon the drums. Additional drum ribs give a 40 per cent increase in cooling effect.

A new clutch of simplified design requiring less pedal pressure at starting and gear-changing speeds and with much softer action. At higher speeds the pressure is increased by centrifugal weight action to increase the power transmitting capacity of the clutch.

New, stronger, more rigid frame, heavier front and rear radius rods, wider rear wheel tread and a strengthened rear axle.

Nine body types are listed. The following are available with deluxe equipment; Phaeton, roadster, 3-window coupe, 5-window coupe, cabriolet, Tudor Sedan, Fordor sedan, Tudor touring sedan, Fordor touring sedan. The roadster and cabriolet are fitted with rumble seats.

The 5-window coupe, Tudor and Fordor sedans also are available without deluxe equipment.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1935

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 is the biggest and roomiest Ford car ever built. It is a strikingly handsome car, with modern lines and new, luxurious appointments.

But most important of all it is designed to give you smooth, easy riding over all kinds of roads—"a front-seat ride for back-seat riders."

This ease of riding is achieved by the use of three basic principles never before combined in a low-price car.

1. Correct distribution of car weight by moving engine and body forward eight and a half inches.
  2. New location of seats, with rear seat moved forward, toward the center of the car—away from the rear axle and away from the bumps.
  3. New spring suspension which permits the use of longer, more flexible springs and increases the spring-base to 123 inches.
- The result is Center-Poise—which not only gives you a new riding comfort but adds to the stability of the car and its ease of handling. You can take curves with greater safety.
- There are many new features in the Ford V-8 for 1935 which make the car still easier to drive.

INTRODUCED TOMORROW

A New Ford V-8 That Brings New Beauty, New Safety, and a New Kind of Riding Comfort Within Reach of Millions of People

New brakes give more power for stopping quickly with far less foot pressure on the pedal. A new easy-pressure clutch employs centrifugal force to increase efficiency at higher speeds. New steering mechanism makes the car still easier to handle.

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 retains the V-8 engine which has demonstrated its dependability and economy in the service of more than a million owners. There are refinements—including crankcase ventilation, cast alloy steel crankshaft and copper-lead floating connecting-rod bearings—but no change in basic design. You buy premium performance when you buy this Ford V-8—full 85 horsepower and capable of 80 miles an hour.

Other 1935 Ford features are Safety Glass throughout in all body types at no extra cost. New welded all-steel bodies. New wider rear doors. (Front doors hinged forward.) New lower double-channel X-type frame. (Makes it easier to get in and out of the car.)

Rich, modern body colors, including a new gun-metal finish of striking beauty on De Luxe body types. Luxurious new upholstery and appointments.

New, wider pillowed seats and softer seat cushions. (Front seats are 4 to 5 1/2 inches wider.) Clear-Vision Ventilation, with adjustable cowli ventilator and a windshield that opens. Combination fuel and oil gage and heat indicator on new, modern instrument board of the De Luxe body types.

The spring leaves are tapered for quiet as well as flexibility. Larger tires have a new, wider tread, specially designed for safety and comfort. Bodies are insulated for quiet and temperature.

We invite you to see this New Ford V-8 at the showrooms of Ford dealers. You will want to ride in it—to drive it yourself. You will find it a new experience in motoring.

Ford V-8 Prices Are Low

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Dr. John Angus MacMillan.
"What's Left On Our Shelves?" is to be the subject of a New Year's sermon—to be given at the 5 o'clock vesper service Sunday afternoon. Here's a topic the man of business—the man engaged in the business of both making a living and a life—should be interested in. Inventory time is upon us. Let's all "take stock." Maybe this sermon will make that job somewhat easier. There will be good music.

Unpaid debts are always a problem—a problem both to the honest debtor and the honest creditor. Bills have a way of mounting up and showing up to keep our noses to the proverbial grindstone. This is a fact about which the Bible has something to say. So will our sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, which will be titled, "Our Unpaid Debts." Whether your bills are bothering you or not, this sermon will interest you. Sunday is the last "Lord's Day" of the year. Are you going to let it go by without worshipping?

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. Will you be there? We'll be glad to have you at the "Church Nite" service—Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock.

METHODIST CHURCH
T. J. Rea, Pastor
Sunday will be the last Sunday in the Old Year. We will have our New Year's sermon at the 11 o'clock service. Subject—"Waste Basket." This will be a helpful sermon to every one. Let's make it a great day. Remember it yourself. Remind your family of it. Tell your friends. Remember the service starts at 10:55.
Sunday evening service at 7:00 o'clock. Subject—"DEMAS THE DESERTER." This will be something for all, both young and old. Do not miss either service. A hearty welcome for all. "Come be thou with us."

CHURCH OF CHRIST
John H. Banister, Minister
The order of our services are as follows:
Sunday—Bible Study, 9:45.
Preaching, 11:00, 7:00.
Monday—Men's meeting, 7:15.
Tuesday—Ladies' Bible class, 3:00.
Wednesday—Prayer meeting, 7:15.
Friday Night—Song Practice, 7:15.

GROCERY ANAGRAMS

Amusing-And-Profitable! 10 Big Free Prizes!

The Memphis Democrat Will Award

FREE! Basket of Groceries

And 10 tickets to the Ritz Theatre to see Laurel and Hardy in "BABES IN TOYLAND" Sunday and Monday.

IT'S EASY!! SIMPLY 'UNSCRAMBLE' THE ACCOMPANYING WELL KNOWN GROCERY ITEMS

Then Make A Sentence of Not More Than 30 Words Containing All of the Items In Today's List of Anagrams!

IT'S NOT HARD!—JUST TRY IT!

RULES:

- The letters in each of the accompanying ten anagrams when arranged properly will spell the names of ten well-known food and grocery items. You are invited to solve the anagrams, then arrange them in a sentence of not more than 30 words (you may use less if you wish), and try for one of the ten prizes.
- To the persons who send in the best entries in accordance with these rules. The Democrat will give a free basket of groceries and ten tickets to the Ritz Theatre. The basket of groceries will be offered as first prize, two tickets to the Ritz as second prize, and one ticket each to the next eight contestants.
- This offer is open to all except employees of The Democrat and their families. You pay nothing.
- Awards will be made on the basis of the most nearly correct list of anagrams and the cleverest sentence. Simply rearrange the letters in each anagram to spell the name of a food or grocery item. Then check the food and grocery ads in today's Democrat and place a cross mark in the square

If you find the item advertised. If item is NOT advertised make N mark.
Then arrange the ten grocery items found in the anagrams into a sentence of not more than thirty (30) words. You may use less if you wish.
5. All entries will be considered by committee appointed by the Democrat. Contestants agree to accept the decisions of the committee as final. Judgment will be based upon suitably words inserted, accuracy in checking correctness in arranging the sentence submitted and neatness. No special consideration will be given elaborate entries. In case of ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded to tying contestants.
6. All entries must be received at the Democrat office by four o'clock Saturday afternoon.
7. You need not purchase the Democrat to compete. You may use this handy blank submitted here, or you may submit your entry on a separate sheet of paper.
Winners will be announced in Sunday's Democrat.

HANDY ENTRY BLANK

In the blank space below I have rearranged the letters in the anagrams to spell the names of the grocery items which I think to be the solution of today's game. The ones checked with a cross mark thus X are advertised in today's Democrat.

ANAGRAM	SOLUTION
1. PRESAG	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. CNIHAPS	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. EVPSRESRE	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. IDHASESHORR	<input type="checkbox"/>

7. NEAIPLPEP	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. GBAEBAC	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. NONISO	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. GAASRATBU	<input type="checkbox"/>

I have used all of today's anagram solutions in the following sentence of not more than 30 words:

_____

My Name _____

I buy my groceries at _____

If awarded a prize, I want my order drawn on the store checked below:
(Place cross mark after name of store you want your order drawn on).

PALACE
"Housewife," the Warner Bros. picture which shows at the Palace Theatre today, is a dynamic love drama spiced with hilarious comedy, and with an especial appeal to women inasmuch as it shows, for the first time, how the wife inspires her husband to success.
It has an unusually strong and well balanced cast with George Brent, Bette Davis and Ann Dvorak forming the triangle in a unique domestic entanglement and John Halliday crashing in to complicate matters as the lover of the neglected wife.
Ruth Donnelly and Hobart Cavanaugh supply the comedy while Phil Regan, radio's "The Singing Cop," croons some catchy airs, playing his own role of a radio singer. Other important characters are portrayed by Robert Barrat, Joe Cawthorne, Willard Robertson, Ronnie Cosby and Lella Bennett.

RITZ
A fascinating picture of the most famous of the world's Chinatowns, Limehouse, full of thrills, melodrama, and oriental mystery, "Limehouse Blues" came to the Ritz Theatre, yesterday, with George Raft, Jean Parker and Anna May Wong in the leading roles.
Do not think of "Limehouse Blues" as unrelieved chills and suspense, however, for the tender love story, which forms the background for much of the action, is as lovely and enthralling a romance as we have seen in the films for a good many days.
In the minor and supporting roles Montague Love, Billy Bevan and Robert Lorraine render excellent and telling performances.
Direction is credited to Alexander Hall who, within the past year, has been responsible for two smash successes, "Little Miss Marker" and "The Pursuit of Happiness," and who adds to his directorial stature with "Limehouse Blues."

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Breedlove and son, Billy Sam, returned yesterday from a visit with relatives at Rule and Quanah. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Breedlove's niece, Miss Ernestine Brasher, of Quanah, for a visit here.
Mr and Mrs. S. S. Davis and daughter, Marjorie, and Miss Clara Steinman are in Dallas this week visiting relatives.

RELIEF, CASH BONUS AND NRA

THE three most important questions to come up in the next congress—or, at least, the ones that will draw the greatest amount of debating—will be relief, the cash bonus and NRA, according to Democratic leaders.

The relief question probably will head the list. This problem has so many angles that we may see three or four sides instead of only two. It involves the questions of direct relief or dole and work relief.

Unofficial estimates place the possible public works appropriations at six billion dollars, which is certain to bring forth much heated argument.

Even so, the amount spent may not be so important as the manner in which relief is handed out. President Roosevelt favors work relief only—and this seems not only to be the way that congress will go on the subject, but also the way it should go.

The most deplorable condition in the entire depression has been the attitude adopted by many on relief. They have come to believe that the government owes them upkeep, whether they work or remain idle. They have lost that self-respect that would make them seek independence from any type of charity. This condition should be remedied as quickly as possible before it has an opportunity to make greater inroads on the morale of this class of citizens.

Work relief apparently is a suitable answer. The receiver of assistance from the government must be given to understand that he must work for what he gets; that the government is not placing him on a dole, but merely providing him with a job so that he might become self-sustaining. And the great amount of constructive work that can be done, which will long outlive the original purpose, gives this type of relief a two-fold purpose.

Next are the cash bonus and NRA controversies. They are of importance, but they present old arguments between two sides—those for and those against.

WE'VE OUTLIVED OUR PIONEERING STAGE

WHETHER Uncle Sam will ever do anything with the gigantic blue print laid on his desk by the National Resources Board may be open to question. It is at least certain, however, that the whole thing is a neat if somewhat elaborate marker for the end of a long era in American history.

For the interesting thing about this program laid down by the president's advisors is the fact that it snips off time-honored American policies and customs in a dozen places.

In other words, it is a final, definite admission that the pioneering days are gone for good. No longer do the infinite resources of the land lie waiting the grasping hands of some valiant first-comer.

The program says bluntly that a man cannot do as he pleases with his own any longer; he must use what he possesses of forest, stream, and soil with at least one eye on the needs of his fellows and his descendants.

Thus we get an elaborate plan for the use of land. Something like 75,000,000 acres of submarginal land would be retired from use. Indian reservations, national and state parks, game refuges and forest preserves would be tremendously enlarged.

Homestead laws would be repealed, laws governing tenant farming would be revised, and subsistence housing projects would be tied in with a federally fostered decentralization of industry.

The use of our streams would be even more stringently regulated. Detailed studies of the possibilities inherent in water power, navigation, and flood control projects for nearly every sizable river basin in the nation would be made.

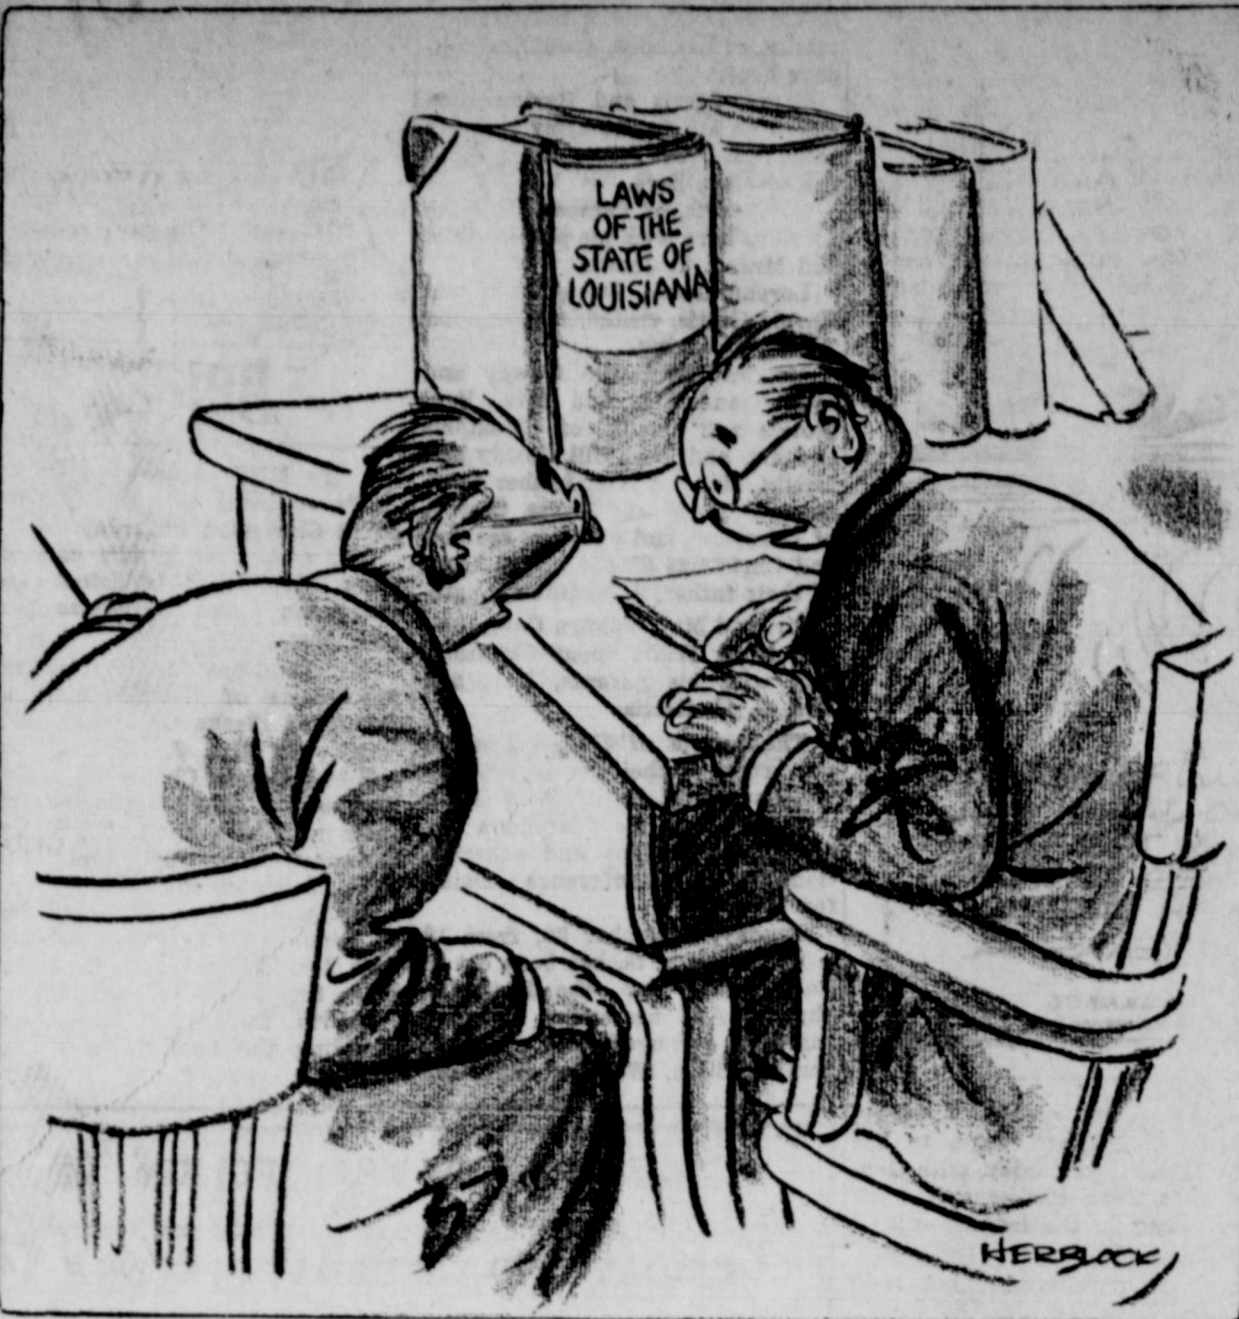

Everything affecting a river, from construction of big hydro-electric plants to prevention of pollution that kills fish, would be directed from Washington.

The items mentioned here constitute but a small part of the stupendous program which has been suggested. They constitute an official recognition of the fact that the good old days—the days when mines and forests and streams and farmlands were held the natural prize of those who could get there first—are over and done with.

We have grown up, apparently. We can no longer afford the carefree spirit of the pioneer.

That, whether the program be adopted or not, is the significant thing about the report.

HEALTH

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN

Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

If anyone tells you he can cure cancer, shun him as a charlatan and a swindler.

There is no scientific evidence to show that any serum, drug or combination of drugs will cure cancer. Today we still say that the great hope in cancer is early diagnosis and surgical treatment, carefully associated with judicious use of radium X-ray.

Nevertheless, various drugs have been injected, caustic pastes have been applied, and similar methods, avoiding the use of the knife, have been widely exploited by cancer cure promoters and swindlers for many years.

When the American Association for the Control of Cancer tried some years ago to obtain applicants for a prize, which is to be given to the one who first develops a cure for cancer, 2500 persons applied. But not one of the cures offered was worth the paper on which the description of the technique was printed.

There is, after all, a simple way to find out whether a product offered as a cure for cancer is worth while. We know today the average duration of life of the person with a cancer when the cancer is not treated, and we know also the average duration of life following the application of surgery, or use of radium and the X-ray.

We know enough to be certain that treatment of any considerable number of people with any special cure for cancer should show within a period of five years whether the product is worth while.

It is safe to say at this time that not one of the widely promoted cancer cures that has been offered to the public during the last 20 years even slightly resembles an actual cure.

The American Medical Association has assembled, in a pamphlet called "Cancer Cures and Treatments," the records of some 35 cancer Charlatans who have offered their methods to the American people since 1900 and who attained sufficient notoriety to bring them prominence in the public press or to cause a considerable number of inquiries to be sent to the headquarters office.

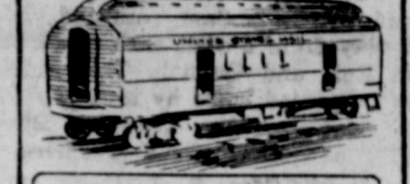

These cancer cures include, for the most part, cancer pastes which

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

Sweet Nazi Agent Almost Puts Fast One Over at White House... Stock Joke of Plum Hunters Isn't So Hot... Doherty's Fancy Vehicle Startles Camera Brigade... Senators Back for Reunion. BY RODNEY DUTCHER The Memphis Democrat Washington Correspondent

Washington, Dec. 27.—Did a fair Nazi agent worm her way into White House favor under the guise of an uplift worker?

There isn't any flat answer to be given to that one, but it's inspired by an interesting sequence of circumstances.

A bright, attractive young woman, brimming with sex appeal, did arrive here a few weeks ago. She did interest the Mrs. Roosevelt circle in a certain movement of the type which always appeals to the First Lady's warm enthusiastic heart.

She was sent to certain government officials with whom she tried to promote her program.

Then a certain radical group got onto the young woman's trail and began to ask a lot of embarrassing questions about a visit to Germany and her friendship with high Nazi officials and pro-Nazis in the United States.

Recent reports say the questions are now being asked out loud at public meeting at which she speaks.

So there's some quiet chuckling here and the program, if it ever had a chance of official support, has gone blooey. Mrs. Roosevelt and her friends, obviously, would as soon sit on a red hot stove as sponsor anyone who was working for Herr Hitler.

Not So Hot, This Joke

The patronage-seeking element has a propaganda joke which it tells on any New Deal agency where political backing isn't always considered the chief essential for employment.

"What are you doing here?" asks a visitor who finds an old friend on the job. "I thought you were a Republican."

"I was, but I saw the light."

"How do you like the people you work with?"

"They're all swell except the section chief. He's terrible."

"What's the matter with him?"

"Oh, he's a Democrat!"

(I don't think it's such a hot joke, either.)

Sandies and Bucs Ready for Title Grid Battle

AMARILLO TEAM STOPPING AT GREENVILLE

Corpus Christi in Workout at Houston; to Dallas

By Associated Press
GREENVILLE, Dec. 28.—Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm moved in on Greenville Thursday and will stay at a local hotel until Saturday morning when they go to Dallas for their state championship schoolboy grid clash with Corpus Christi Buccaneers.

Twenty-eight players and Coaches Blair Cherry and Howard Lynch and Dr. Guy Owens, team physician, arrived Thursday.

Long Workout

The Sandies went through a long workout at Phillips Field, home of the Greenville Lions, 1933 champions, Thursday. Much of the session was devoted to perfecting a defense against Buccaneer plays, with special attention to stopping the brilliant Charlie Haas, triple threat star of the Pirates.

Coach Cherry reported all of his men in condition except Sullivan, regular center, who is nursing an injured leg. He said, however, that Sullivan probably would start Saturday.

Lineup to Average 170

Coach Cherry said Amarillo's starting lineup would average about 170 pounds. Local fans, accustomed to fancy high school football, were impressed with the apparent wealth of reserve strength the Sandstorm showed.

The Sandie coach seemed optimistic over the chances of his club to win, pointing to the fact that it is the first time since the close of the district season that his 11 starters have been ready to go. Cripples have been huddled on the sidelines during the march of the Sandstorm to the finals.

HOUSTON, Dec. 28.—Corpus Christi's Buccaneers, carrying the hopes of all South Texas into the State Interscholastic League football finals, stopped here Thursday en route to Dallas for their titular clash with the Amarillo Golden Sandies Saturday.

Twenty-three football players, Coaches Bobby Cannon, Raymond Berry and Roy Knip, student manager, Calvin Coch; Sports Editor and Vic Cook of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times, and two mascots make up the official party.

Snappy Workout

The team went through a light, snappy workout at Rice Field, the scene of their 34 to 14 triumph over the Greenville Lions last week, and spent the night here.

Coach Bobby Cannon announced the team would depart Friday morning and likely would spend the night in Corsicana.

Bill Lawrence, 200-pound end and brilliant place kicker, and W. D. Nolte, end, did not work out because of injuries. Lawrence suffered an ankle injury in the Greenville game, but Cannon stated that he would start Saturday's game.

Lawrence Great End

"Lawrence is better injured than most ends with two good ankles," Cannon stated.

Nolte, however, is definitely out of the game. A broken collarbone in the Greenville game has placed him on the sideline.

Coach Cannon lauded the spirit of his players. "They're a great bunch of kids and a touchdown by opponents or a penalty against them only seems to spur them on to better efforts," he said.

HARRY GRAYSON

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—New England and New York is stirred up over the eastern racing situation, now that Massachusetts is in the legalized mutuels field.

The Bay State's entry is mighty significant. The nation's bank-tail bonanzas of 1934—Narragansett in Rhode Island and Rockingham in New Hampshire—were fed by Massachusetts money.

The New England galloping gold strike, productive of the nation's richest turf yields for two years, will produce little more than a trickle of profit henceforth, authorities are saying.

The belief is that the entry of Massachusetts not only will stem the flow to Narragansett and Rockingham, but will cut these tracks with their amazing mutuel figures to the size of pony plants which are showing only a normal pulse elsewhere.

Where the beagle business will pitch its tent in the old Bay State isn't important to the multiple Midases of New England racing, Lou Smith, of Rockingham and Houston, Tex., and Walter E. O'Hara, of Narragansett. Neither needs any great amount of intuition to realize that their record handles, speers of betting, and wild crashes at mutuel windows are dizzy days to look back upon with sizable sighs.

For Massachusetts went for the thoroughbred—and the dogs—at the polls a few weeks ago like it went for Alfred Emanuel Smith.

Turf's Best Friends Are Dogs

The Massachusetts Racing Commission has before it the applications of nearly a dozen turf interests and thrice that number of dog racing profit seekers, including Judge Emil Fuchs, owner of the Boston Nationals, who precipitated a baseball row by suggesting that the bowwows be permitted to bark at Braves' Field, Rockingham, some 20 miles from Boston, capital of a state which never before had known horse racing, depended upon Massachusetts for nearly 70 percent of its patronage.

Narragansett, 40 or more miles distant to the south, found that Massachusetts contributed an attendance that equaled that of Connecticut and Rhode Island combined.

Now, with Massachusetts in the field, its oval, which assuredly will be in the eastern section, is in the most advantageous spot—between the other two.

Oddly enough, the salvation of Narragansett and Rockingham may be the sport that she's nuff hossmen despise most—dog racing. Neither Rhody nor New Hampshire laws provide for operation if or betting on canine competition.

Three New Champions Fail To Revive Bo

BAER AND OLIN CROWNED; ROSS MAKES RECORD

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the seventh and last of a series of reviews.

BY HARRY GRAYSON (Sports Editor NEA SERVICE)

Three world champions were crowned during 1934. They are Maxie Adelbert Baer, heavy; Bob Olin, light-heavy; and Teddy Yarrow, middle weight.

Barney Ross became the first lightweight ever to win the welter weight, but could not hold it the length of the outdoor season, Jimmy McLarnin giving another striking illustration of the fallacy of the old saying, "They never come back."

Baby Arizmendi took a 15-round decision from Mike Belloise to gain world feather championship recognition in New York, but this title generally is conceded to Freddie Miller, the Cincinnati south-paw.

With all this activity the beak busting business failed to regain much, if any, of the ground it has lost since the dear old dizzy and daffy days of the late Tex Rickard.

Outside of the Baer-Primo Carnera party and the two meetings of McLarnin and Ross, no show drew anything of consequence.

Baer knocked Carnera down 11 times in 11 rounds to gate receipts of $418,653.60. This engagement and the two McLarnin-Ross battles together brought receipts of $900,000, making it plain that one appearance of Jack Dempsey during the gold rush was worth three of the best shots of today.

The McLarnin-Ross rematch was hurt due to its having to be postponed several times because of unfavorable weather.

Ross' Victory Over McLarnin Outstanding

While Baer punched his way to the most coveted crown, Ross conceding weight to and taking a 15-round decision from McLarnin perhaps was the outstanding feat of the year.

Baer, whose slogan is "Good Fights and Good Times," quickly discovered that he could floor Carnera nearly every time he struck him squarely.

Without Bill Duffy, who was the guest of the government due to income tax difficulty, Carnera their presence will affect horse racing to a considerable extent. If the allegiance of the wagering public is wheeled over to the pups, it is only reasonable to assume that the Massachusetts horse track, or tracks, will be unable to cope with their contemporaries—will hardly measure up to

The rapid rise of Joe Louis, young Detroit negro who has flattened 10 of 12 professional opponents, including Charley Massera and Lee Ramage, may solve the Baer unemployment problem.

Many Believe Decisions Should Have Been Reversed

Ross took his decision from McLarnin in a rather uninteresting bout, and the Irishman regained the throne in a gripping encounter in which the lightweight ruler slugged it out with his hard-hitting adversary. Oddly enough, many believed that the decision in the the Rhode Island and New Hampshire wheels, where lucre and interest are concentrated on nags in exclusive locations.

Coin remained in sugar jars in New England—of all places, as its 1630 A. D. Puritan forbears would say—until it went crazy about horses. In 59 days at Narragansett, $23,196,362 passed through the windows. Rockingham's summer and fall meetings enjoyed mutuel handles exceeding $20,000,000. Each establishment showed a net profit of more than $1,000,000.

first meeting was unfair to McLarnin, while an equal number had an idea that Ross did not run second in the second trip.

Olin, Brooklyn lad who formerly sold bonds, was awarded a verdict over Maxie Rosenbloom. It was one of the world's worst fights, with the majority declaring that the decision matched the contest.

Gun? She Runs 'Em Down!

When Stella Walsh, Olympic and world record holder in the 100 meters, gets tired of shooting jack rabbits, she discards her gun and runs the beaties down. Here she is, during a recent visit to Lancaster, Calif., with a bag of the big jacks, three of which she outran and captured with her hands.

FLEET'S PRIDE

Bring on Those Big Bears

With Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, and Orange Bowl football games scheduled for New Year's Day, another standout gridiron contest has been arranged which appropriately can be named the "Shimmy" Bowl game. It is the engagement between the Bears of the University of California and the huskies of the University of Hawaii at Honolulu. Here are Capt. Jack Johnson, left, and Coach Otto Klum, of the Hawaiian team, planning their attack.

REMEMBER

One Year Ago Today—Almost to a man, football coaches at Chicago for their annual convention picked Stanford to defeat Columbia in the Rose Bowl game.

Five Years Ago Today—William Walker, southpaw of the Giants, was the National League's leading pitcher with an earned run average of 3.08.

Ten Years Ago Today—Willie Smith, billiard expert, made 25 runs ranging from 503 to 1173.

WHEN EASY FAILS TO LOCATE THE ROPE THAT ALWAYS DANGLES FROM PIPPY'S BOAT, HE THINKS HE'S LOST.

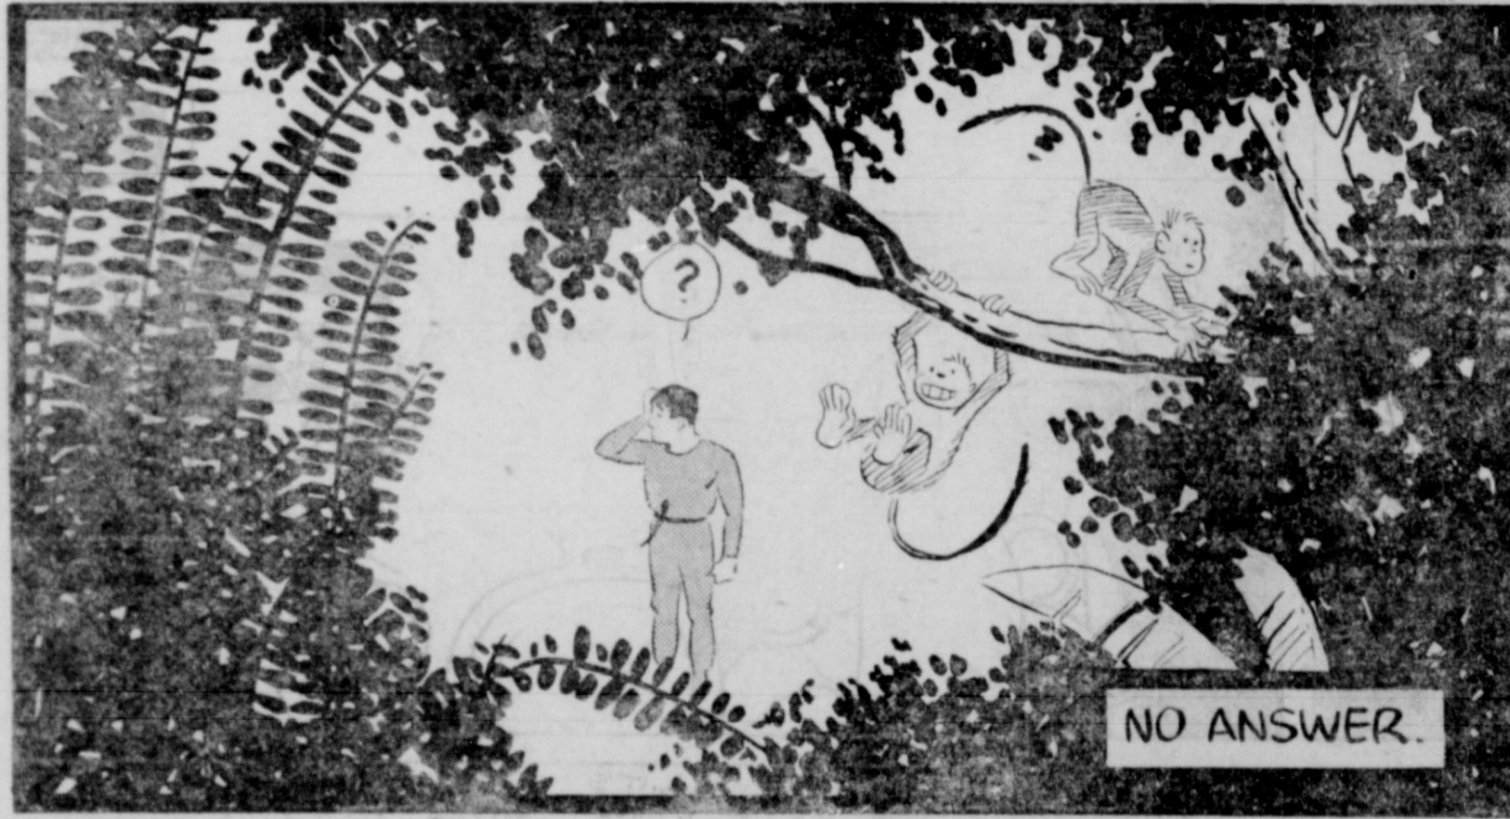

BUT AFTER A 15-MINUTE SEARCH, HE'S CONVINCED THAT IT'S PIPPY WHO'S LOST.

THERE'S ONLY ONE THING TO DO. EASY STRUGGLES TO SHORE, THRU DENSE MASSES OF CORAL AND THE SUBMURGED RUINS OF ANCIENT TEMPLES. WITH A HUNDRED-POUND BURDEN, IT'S NO EASY TASK, EITHER.

HEY, PIPPY!

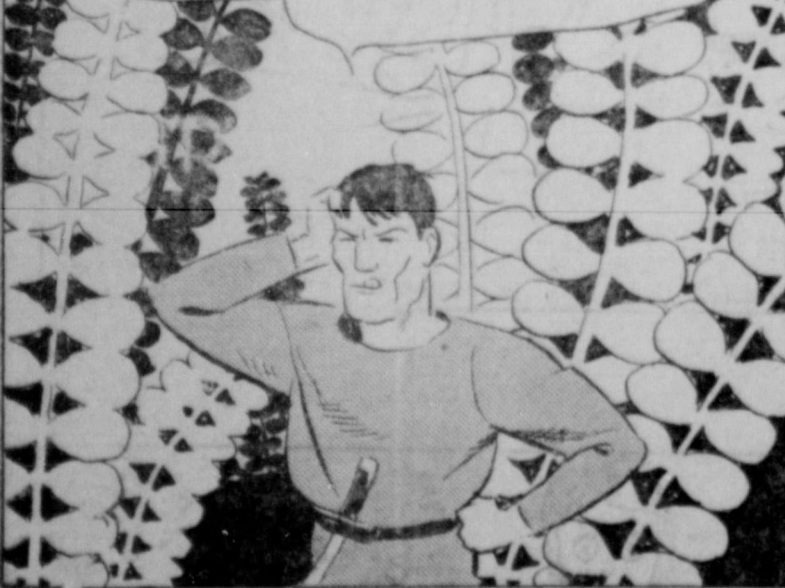

PUZZLED, EASY WALKS ALONG THE SHORE CALLING PIPPY'S NAME.

HEY PIP-PEE! LOOK! IDOL HEAD!

STILL NO ANSWER. EASY IS MORE PUZZLED THAN EVER. HE WAS TOO SCARED O' CROCODILES TO GO VERY FAR. STILL, I LEFT THAT GOLD IDOL'S TAIL WITH HIM - AND IT'S WORTH 5000 BUCKS. MAYBE HE DOUBLE-CROSSED ME, TOOK THE TAIL, AND SAILED AWAY.

OR MAYBE A SHARK GOT 'IM.

NO, I RECKON THAT'S OUT. THE DONKEY'S ARE GONE, TOO.

SO'S MY JACKET! SO'S THE FOOD! HEY, JUMPIN' BLUE BLAZES! EVERYTHING'S GONE!

A little old lady tied up at the New York city sanatorium for hours one day when searched in the trash cankerchief with something tied up in it. 14 firemen at $7 a day, firemen at $9.50 a day and others at $5.95 a day had been for three hours, they gave up. The superintendent of the old lady: "What did you say was in the cankerchief, ma'am?" "A bit embarrassed and a key."

Father's Part

A newly married woman was off to a friend the treasurer home, including a neat car. "Suppose your father got you a car," said the visitor. "Likely," was the indignant answer. "George wouldn't accept anything. All that father pays for rent and the housekeeping." "Till-Bits Magazine."
