Earlier than usual, the cotton gathering season has opened in Hall and surrounding counties. Due to the drought during the summer months and the unusually hot weather, there will be about a half yield this year, stated various cotton growers of the county. As shown by the advertising in this issue of the paper, the gins over the county are ready to run. Many have already ginned several bales of cotton. Several rural schools have closed for a few weeks and reports indicate that others will close soon, so that the school children may work in the fields. In comparison, the feed crop over the county generally, promises to be better than the cotton crop; however, farmers need help in harvesting their feed. The acute shortage of labor prompted the Chamber of Commerce to contact the United States Employment Service in Amarillo for aid in securing help in pulling bolls and harvesting the feed. Indications are that there will be a heavy migration from Waco into West Texas during the coming week end, according to W. B. Hooser, county agent, in a letter to him from C. Hohn, State Labor director for the Extension Service. The Extension Service was given the job of assisting farmers in obtaining the necessary labor to grow and harvest the crops needed in the war effort. It has not been possible this year to obtain out-of-state workers, either Mexican or others; this has meant that the E S has had to solve the labor problem within the state. The Extension Service has had the job of moving workers from areas and counties where they were not absolutely needed to acute shortage areas. Over twelve hundred applications for cotton pickers are now in the county agent's office and when these workers arrive here, they will be recruited out to each farmer as they are needed. About two hundred and fifty pickers have already been placed with farmers in the county.

Members Of Texas State Guard Attend Maneuvers Sunday

Approximately 300 members of the Texas State Guard from the 41st and 25th battalions participated in field maneuvers at the Seymour City Park Saturday night and Sunday. With company E of Seymour as the "enemy" other units of the two battalions took part in several problems assigned them, including patrol work. CAP planes served as the supporting air forces and strafed and bombed ground troops and "attacked" moving troops and motor transport. The 41st battalion, composed of Memphis, Childress, Turkey and Quanah, set up task force headquarters to direct the operation, which was capture or destruction of 100 "paratroopers" on the maneuver grounds, and dislodging an enemy force at the Seymour airport. Attending from the Memphis unit were: Lt. Robert Devin, Sgt. George Thompson Jr., Sgt. J. B. Blocker, Cpl. J. J. Bice, Cpl. Homer Tucker, Louis Wheat, Ed Hutcherson, Larry Grundy.

"Jug", Mrs. Milam's Horse, Drops Dead

"Jug", black horse belonging to Mrs. Clyde F. Milam, dropped dead Tuesday at the Stokes ranch 14 miles east of Memphis. The cow-horse was owned by Mrs. Milam's father, J. W. Stokes, until his death when Mrs. Milam became the owner. She was the first woman to ever ride "Jug" and has not ridden another horse to any extent during the last remaining years of the horse's life. Mrs. Milam stated that she had been told that she was making a "sissy" of "Jug" by bringing him to parades and rodeos. He has made many trips to surrounding towns with the horseback square dancers, his last trip being to Tucumcari, N. M., in July. Mrs. Milam does not recall the age of "Jug" but presumes he was approximately 27 years old, since he has been in her family for over 20 years.

Renewal Period For Driver's License Begins October 1

Attention of all drivers is called to the fact that the renewal period for new type operator's license is beginning. After October 1, some of these licenses will expire every day. It is the duty and responsibility of each driver to see that his license does not expire. For your assistance in this matter, look at your driver's license; on the left hand side of the colored section of the license is a date. For the expiration date of an operator's license, add two years to this date, on a commercial operator and chauffeur license, add one year. Any person who permits his license to expire, regardless of the type of license, or the circumstances, will be required to pass the standard examination in order to renew, stated local officers. The driver's license examiner will be in the justice court room at the Hall County courthouse each Monday and Saturday between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. and will gladly furnish any information desired in connection with renewal of your license. For the benefit of people in the Turkey area, there will be an examiner in Turkey on the second Friday of each month between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Rev. T. T. Posey Chosen Pastor Of Christian Church

Rev. T. T. Posey of Anadarko, Okla., has been chosen pastor of the First Christian Church and will preach his first sermon here Sunday, September 9. Rev. and Mrs. Posey are moving to Memphis this week. He received his education at Phillips University and comes here highly recommended. "All members are urged to be present at the Sunday services. We have been without a pastor for some time and we need to build our church back up. Let's cooperate with our new pastor," stated officials of the church.

Lakeview and Rural Schools Are Closed

Lakeview and several of the rural schools closed this week on account of a case of infantile paralysis in that community. The daughter of F. O. Hodge, Lakeview school bus driver, is ill with polio. Since the cotton is ready to gather at this time, school will be dismissed for six or eight weeks to allow school children to help in the fields. Schools closing this week were: Lakeview, Lesley, Brice, Deep Lake and Pleasant Valley. The Parnell school was supposed to have started Monday, September 13, but was postponed until around October 11. The Republic P-47 Thunderbolt is the heaviest of the United States Army Air Forces single-handed fighters.

Over one-third of the Hall County quota for the Third War Loan has been purchased in bonds announced Judge M. O. Goodpasture, chairman, today. A total of $258,474.50 were the bond sales at the close of business Wednesday. "The Hall County quota is $675,300 and this figure represents more than one-third and shows what can be done in one week's time if we apply ourselves. Do not wait for workers to solicit you, go now to any of the places selling War Bonds and make your purchase. A small bond will help but dig deeper and buy a large one," urged leaders of the drive. Though the quota assigned to Hall County is larger than most of the surrounding counties, citizens here are doing their share as is shown by reports from other places. The United States Treasury reported Wednesday that more than one-third of the fifteen billion dollar goal had been reached in the nation.

September 16, 1943
To All Hall County Folks:
A full week of our campaign which ends Sept. 30, is history. Considerable work has been done in Hall County but not enough to meet our goal. All workers are busy people; as much so as any of us. Therefore, VOLUNTEERS ARE CALLED FOR. Volunteer to buy every bond and stamp you can. Don't wait. Then sell every bond you can by a friendly word to neighbors.

Americans like to work in their trades as well as fight their wars on a volunteer basis. Jump in and help! You'll like it and everybody will be grateful! Back our boys at Salerno 100 per cent. Yours very truly, M. O. Goodpasture, Chairman Hall County War Finance Com. P. S.—A neighbor has just asked me this one: "Can our boys on Salerno Beach today stop to worry about short crops?" We know the answer. MOG.

Lakeview and Rural Schools Are Closed

Last week this paper ran a short article from Deck's Didactics in the Wellington Leader about postwar planning. The road from Wellington to Memphis was one of the projects listed. This week the Canyon News suggests that a scenic highway from Canyon to Memphis will provide work for hundreds of men for many months. The two roads mentioned would be something for Memphis and Hall County to plan for as an after-the-war goal. That after-the-war business may be further off than many have been thinking up until this week. With the reverses and hard fighting of the 36th Division, which is a part of the Fifth Army having such a hard time in Italy. The 36th is composed of many Texans, as was the 36th of the First World War which wrote its deeds in rivers of blood. If anyone feels like slowing up on buying war bonds and doing other war work, let him stop for a minute and try to visualize what the Americans are up against in that hell of fire and brimstone being dished out by the Axis under Rommel in Italy. Just double that amount of bonds you have figured on buying. It's no sacrifice. (Continued on back page)

SCHOLARSHIPS ANNOUNCED BY TEXAS A. & M. COLLEGE

A score of undergraduate scholarships for Texas boys, and seven for Latin-Americans at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas were announced this week by F. M. Law, president of the board of directors. All of the announced scholarships are for study in the A. & M. School of Agriculture, E. J. Kyle, dean.

Anderson, Clayton & Company is donor of the largest number of scholarships. This cotton firm for several years has offered scholarships to six 4-H club boys and five Future Farmers of America who have made outstanding records in the production of cotton in Texas. These boys have the privilege of attending one of several Texas agricultural colleges.

Anderson, Clayton & Co. have set up two scholarships for students from Brazil, one for Argentina and one from Peru, the students to be selected as soon as war conditions permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Fleming have set up two scholarships for young men from Mexico to come to Texas A. & M. to study agriculture. Mr. Fleming is president of Anderson, Clayton & Co.

Mrs. Fred W. Mally of San Antonio has set up a memorial scholarship for her late husband, the first entomologist at A. & M. and later a county agent in the extension service. This scholarship is for a Bexar county boy to come to Texas A. & M. and study agriculture.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has granted a scholarship for a selected student from Venezuela to study agriculture. The Luling Foundation annually grants scholarships to boys who have spent as long as one year at the Foundation farm at Luling and who makes a good record. In normal times this arrangement allows up to ten youths to study agriculture at A. & M.

A number of other scholarships are pending at this time, Mr. Law announced.

POINTERS GIVEN ON SPINACH AND CARROTS

Interest in fall gardens being keen, W. B. Hooser, county agent, puts forward some suggestions for fall gardens commercial for successful growing of spinach and carrots.

Spinach is enjoying a popularity never reached in the past—and many persons use it as a substitute for lettuce in salads. But to grow good spinach you should know its likes and dislikes and cater to them. First among its likes are a limy soil and firm seed bed. Accordingly, in the eastern part of Texas where soils are acid the grower should put into the earth five to ten pounds of wood ashes per hundred feet—Or he can chop into the soil three to four pounds of hydrated lime to improve plant growth.

After planting the spinach seed walk on top of the row for its full length to press it into a firm seed bed, or tamp with a hoe to firm the earth. Bloomsdale Savoy is a good variety for Hall County.

If you want a fall crop of carrots, plant at once. That excellent vegetable will not stand hard freezes. That is, when the tops are less than four inches high. Carrots also need special soil preparation. When they come into contact with hard layers of subsoil they become misshapen or divided. To avoid unshapely growth, spade the seed bed to a depth of eight or ten inches and six in well rotted manure or compost. This will prevent the soil from packing and when the carrots are pulled they will be smooth and well shaped.

Insect damage to stored grain is preventable. A large part of the heavy loss in stored grain which Hall County farmers suffer yearly from insect damage could be eliminated at small expense.

W. B. Hooser, county agent, estimates that the insect could be destroyed at the cost of a fraction of a cent a bushel.

Weather conditions are ideal for maximum development of insects which damage stored grain. Hence control should begin in the field. Grain should be thoroughly dry when harvested. Grain stored with a high moisture content is the best brooder for destructive insects.

When grain is mature and thoroughly dry it is wise to harvest it quickly and put it into storage because many of the pests attack in the field.

Before putting the newly harvested grain into storage all carry over grain should either be disposed of or fumigated. If disposed of, the bin or granary should be cleaned and then sprayed with a mixture of one gallon dormant tree oil emulsion and three ounces of lye in nine gallons of water. This will kill insects concealed in cracks or corners.

To obtain successful fumigation, the bin or granary should be as nearly airtight as possible. For this purpose, Hooser recommends a mixture of one part ethylene dichloride and one part carbon tetrachloride as an inexpensive, non-inflammable and effective fumigant. It does not harm germination regardless of quantity applied, exposure or moisture content of the grain. The mixture should be applied to the surface of the grain at the rate of six gallons per thousand bushel. The grain should be inspected once monthly for signs of reinfestation.

Summarizing, Hooser says that fumigation is successful only when (1) the bin or granary is tight, (2) the temperature is above 65 degrees, and (3) sufficient and effective fumigants are used.

FEED DRY MATTER WITH GREEN PASTURE

Green pastures are going to be more necessary to the successful wintering of dairy and beef cattle this year than ever before, says W. B. Hooser, county agent.

Wheat, oats and barley pastures being high in protein are the best means available for stretching the limited supplies of protein-rich meal and cake which cattlemen feed normally.

For best results these pastures should be planted in September on a firm seed bed. But if circumstances prevent getting the seed into the ground this month the county agent advises planting as late as October. He recommends cotton fields as the most suitable planting ground, and suggests that if the weather is too dry for germination to dust in the seed and await rain.

Along with green grazing cattle should be fed some high carbonaceous roughage such as Johnson grass hay, sudan hay, cane hay or grain sorghum bundles. Green pasture at its peak is about 80 per cent water and deficient in carbohydrates. Cattle must have more than 40 per cent carbohydrates and tender green pastures have only 30, Hooser says. As a consequence, cows on pasture alone sometimes become ill. An average size Jersey needs about five pounds of additional dry matter and larger animals require the equivalent of about one half pound per hundred of their weight in order to maintain good health and prevent scours.

A simple method of providing the extra dry feed is to place it in a handy rack at the watering place. Cows are good judges of the quantity they need, but in case they should not eat it, holding them overnight in the watering lot will restore their appetites.

CONTROL BLACK SPOTS ON ROSE BUSHES SAY HATFIELD

Blackspot is one of the important causes of "dieback" of rose bushes. Sadie Hatfield of the A. & M. college extension service attributes to this disease responsibility for the destruction of more roses in Texas than any other.

It is active in spring and fall, and dew and rain encourage its development. Hot, dry weather checks, but does not destroy the disease, which takes the form of black or dark brown spots on leaves, stems and sometimes, on the shoots of rose bushes. As a spot increases in size the leaf turns yellow, then falls off. Leaves of some rose bushes turn yellow and fall when only a small part of the surface has darkened. Others remain green although heavily covered by blackspot. It attacks top and bottom of leaves, sometimes both, and grows on all ages of leaves. But it spreads faster on young leaves.

Roses badly infested look as though most of the leaves had been shed. When a large portion of the leaves have gone some of the canes or shoots begin drying from the top downward. Entire plants are destroyed in this way. As first steps in control Miss Hatfield, who is specialist in landscape gardening, suggests burning all fallen leaves and not permitting water to touch the leaves of rose bushes during irrigation. Control may be obtained by dusting leaves weekly with finely ground sulphur containing from five to ten per cent insoluble copper, or sulphur such as is used for cotton flea hopper. Plants should have a coating of dust between rains, but it should be omitted during dry, hot weather to avoid burning leaves.

Although the disease affects all varieties of roses, polyanthas, teas and hybrid teas are especially susceptible. Those originating from wichuriana and rugosa types are resistant. Circular 87, "Rose diseases" may be obtained free at the office of the county home demonstration agent.

GRUBS WASTE MEAT AND LEATHER

Enough meat to feed 46,000 soldiers is lost in Texas each year because of cattle grubs, according to livestock specialists of the Texas A. & M. college extension service. In addition, hides sufficient to provide shoes for a million soldiers for one year are lost because of holes punched by the pests.

Figures compiled recently for a series of bi-district conferences of extension service workers revealed that every year about 42 per cent of Texas beef cattle—or 840,000 head—go to market in a grubby condition. This results in the trimming of about two pounds per animal from the loin and ribs.

Extension entomologists predict 63,000 pounds of cube will be needed in the state in 1944 for an effective grub control program, and prospects are favorable for adequate supplies since one dealer already has been allotted 20,000 pounds.

Dipping cattle for grubs and lice has been practiced in Hemp-hill County at a cost of about one and one-fourth to two cents a head, and the program has been so successful over a six-year period that about 15,000 head in the county will be treated this winter.

4-H club boys over the state will help demonstrate the control of cattle grubs by hand treatment in months to come.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing, or reputation of any person, firm, or corporation...

ARE YOU REALLY AT WAR?

What does being at war mean to you? Less gasoline for your auto? Less sugar in your coffee? Higher prices for your food and clothes? Separation from your husband?

Sure, it has meant all those things, some serious and some really trivial for a period when your actual safety is at stake.

But has the war meant BLOOD SWEAT AND TEARS to you? In many instances YES. The first stage of invasion has already pushed our casualties over the 100,000 mark.

The gold stars which decorate thousands of our homes today are a challenge to the vast majority of us to do our best in the Third War Loan. No good American wants to see one more gold star added to the firmament of glory.

ooOoo

The personal objective of every American in the Third War Loan is to "back the attack" by buying at least one $100 War Bond over and above his or her regular War Bond buying.

ooOoo

Buying War Bonds is in itself an expression of that basic loyalty.

ooOoo

The Third War Loan is a swift, sure test of your common sense, your ability to take it, and a true measure of your own flesh and blood, the men you have sent off to do the fighting for you.

ooOoo

Every War Bond you buy is dedicated to the memory of the boys who won't come back. Don't let their buddies think these men have died in vain.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

Time has left its playthings scattered along the path of years that lead from the door of my mother's friendly kitchen.

There are all kinds of guesses now as to the amount of cotton and feed stuff this county will produce this year.

The county is spotted. Some sections are burned badly while others have held up during the extreme heat wave.

Reports that have gone in to the government on cotton estimation range from eight to twenty thousand bales.

After all, this county has had two unusual crops in succession and five fair and better; so we should take with good grace a little bitter with the sweets we have had in the past.

Now we admit a grievous oversight, probably one of the many, of which we were guilty in the last issue in August.

A prominent Perryton citizen said the other day that the OPA was making so many people disgusted with the various commissions and bureaus that public opinion would force Congress to do away with most of them.

Besides the fact that our boys are proving more mentally alert than our enemies, so far they have been backed by millions of willing American dollars, that have purchased them the finest equipment on earth.

With a ban on pleasure driving in some states, hinted for others, rationing boards clamping down on vacationists everywhere, it seems that the American people who have loved to travel are going to have to learn to love to stay home.

Get a STEP ahead of WINTER

Some day soon, when we least expect it, cold weather will send us hurrying for our gas heaters, to keep us warm and healthy.

Now, before the first cold spell blows in, is the time to step out ahead of winter and have your gas heating equipment checked and put in tiptop working order.

This year, more than ever, it's necessary to keep your gas heating appliances in good working order, because shortages of materials and manpower have made it difficult to replace them.

Call your Dealer today—have his serviceman check your gas heating equipment thoroughly and make the necessary repairs. It's patriotic to take care of the things we have and make them last as long as possible.

TO BE READY FOR WINTER YOU SHOULD

Take care of the gas heating equipment you have... it's difficult to replace.

Seasonal customers who use gas in the winter only should have their gas turned on now due to the short-equipment you now have... it's difficult to replace.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT STOVE RATIONING

If you have any gas heating equipment you do not need, sell it to someone who does need it.

Gas heaters and gas ranges are on the ration list now. If you need any equipment of this kind, ask your dealer how you may purchase it.

...remember THEIR fight for democracy!

World War I has come to us in the light of NOW! Because brothers, sons, fathers—men that we knew in every day life—are fighting at this moment, we are better able to appreciate the sacrifices which other men, equally alive and strong, laid at Freedom's feet a quarter of a century ago. Let's help the men we know now, so that their sacrifice will not be in vain.

Cotton is being gathered now and we all know the value of cotton, especially in wartime...and cotton must be transported to manufacturing centers...that's where we come in. We are glad that we can help the nation at this time as well as the farmer.

It's an investment. The boys are giving their lives. We should be willing to back their bullets with bonds.

I have been taking a list of guesses by different individuals as to the amount of cotton that will be ginned in Hall County this fall. The guesses range from 17,000 to 25,000 bales. My guess is 24,575 bales. Keep that figure somewhere and see how far I missed it when the final report is published.

FAN MAIL

The following anonymous letter was received this week:
Mr. Wells:
I am writing this Mr. Editor, to see if you will explain to the readers of The Democrat why you make the difference in news about our boys who are prisoners. In this week's issue there was front page item of one Hall County boy who has been heard from for the first time. In last week's issue there was news about two more boys. One was on the front page. The other was in the middle of the paper in such small type it could hardly be seen. Why is it one rates front page and the other don't? After all they are all our boys and we are all proud of what they have done for our country, so why not treat them all the same.

(Signed) An Annoyed Reader.

MY REPLY

Since you didn't sign your name the readers do not know who asked for an explanation, but they do know who is answering it. I'd say it is a one-sided proposition. Ordinarily I ignore anonymous letters. In this case, I believe that others may have wondered why different articles are run on different pages. So am taking the trouble to explain for their benefit, not necessarily yours.

As there are never less than eight pages to The Democrat, we try to run reading matter of interest on each and every page, during a period of about 5 days, and as the news is gathered and set it is placed in page forms, locked up and put on the press ready for printing.

The answer to the above question as to an item about a soldier being placed on the inside is first that it was set in the same type that every line in news in the paper is set; second, it came after the front page was already made up for the press; third, it was placed in the "Boys in Service" column which hundreds of our readers declare is the most interesting part of the paper, and to which they turn first before reading any other page; fourth, The Democrat is published as much for the Boys in Service as it is for the folks at home and the boys, scores of them have written me personally expressing appreciation for the paper, and especially the Boys in Service section; fifth, each and every soldier rates high with us, and each is given the best that we can do; sixth, the front page doesn't always carry the most interesting and most important items; seventh, no slight was intended or given; eighth, in The Democrat office one man has two sons in service, another has one son in service, one woman has a husband and a brother in service, another woman has a husband who will be called into service in a few days and a brother already in service, I have no son in service, but I do have several nephews several employees and scores of dear friends among the young men who are in service and some right now are facing flame and sword in Italy, and I take my hat off to no man in being loyal to Hall County boys in service, and you, Anonymous, are no prouder of them than I am, and no more thankful for what they are doing for me and my beloved country.

Come around some time and spend a while watching how each line of news is handled, and then you will wonder how we manage to get out a paper at all. At least you will find that we are human and will greet you with a smile and handshake, and give you a courteous reply to any question you might ask.

Hoarding Coal Is Patriotic

There is one commodity which the Government wants the people to hoard—coal. Every home owner who uses coal is urged to buy next winter's supply immediately. That advice, according to the office of price administration, may develop into a now or never appeal to coal users. Transportation facilities are already taxed to capacity, it will be much worse later on. May we suggest you see us for that good Gordon Colorado fancy lump coal that burns to a clean red ash.
