

Dallas Lawyer Killed; Girl Under Arrest

Attorney Faced Charge In Previous Stabbing Of Banker's Daughter

DALLAS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Inspector of Detectives Will Fritz said Miss Corrine Maddox, 26, admitted killing Brooks C. Coffman, 40, Dallas attorney, who was shot to death as he walked toward his office early today.

Coffman was under a charge of assault on murder in connection with the ice-pick stabbing of Miss Maddox, daughter of a bank official here, last May 20. The alleged attack occurred at a gravel pit near here, she told officers, after she refused to accompany Coffman to California. Miss Maddox recovered after several weeks in a hospital.

Fritz said she related she had planned the shooting for a month. Armed with two pistols, a revolver and an automatic, she waited in a beauty parlor early today until Coffman went by, accompanied by another woman.

Eleven shots were fired, two of them taking effect. One cartridge remained unfired in one of the weapons.

"Well, it must have jammed on me," Fritz quoted Miss Maddox.

George Lawton, commercial representative for a telegraph company, told newspapermen he was sitting in a Main street office when he saw a woman shooting at Coffman. She had a revolver and an automatic pistol.

"She stood over him, about five feet away, firing into him," Lawton said. "He was trying to hold himself up with one hand and holler and pleading for mercy."

Assistant District Attorney James Martin said Miss Maddox replaced two pistols in her pockets, stopped to pick up some cosmetics she had purchased, and accompanied him down the street until they met a squad car. She had telephoned police immediately after the shooting.

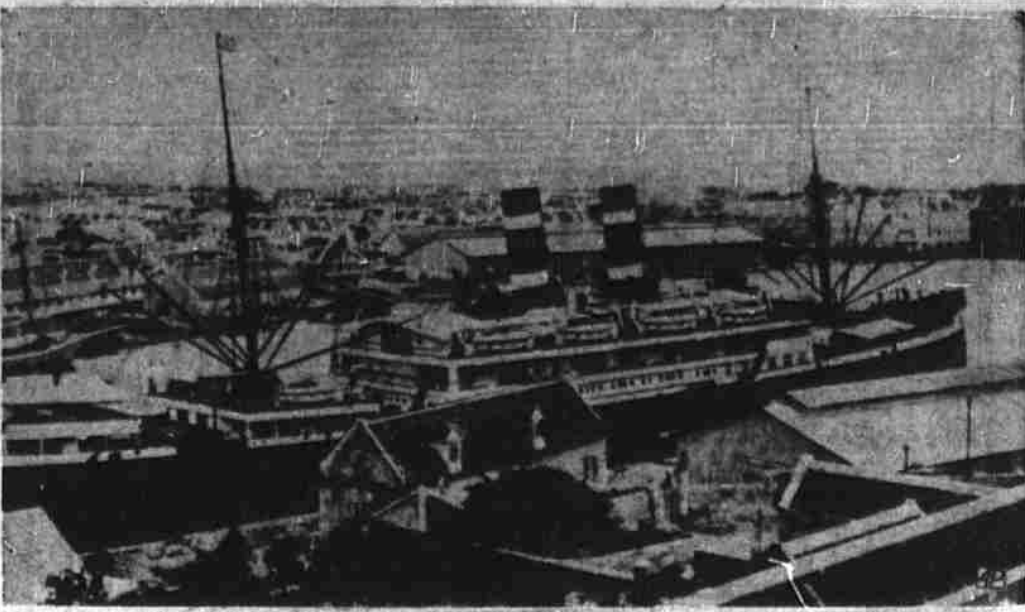

The suspect was taken to detective headquarters for questioning.

The assault to murder case against Coffman had been called for trial Oct. 9 before Judge Henry King, but was passed by the state because of the inability of Miss Maddox to come to court.

On that occasion the state sent Dr. Horace E. Duncan, county health officer, to examine Miss Maddox. He reported back the woman's condition would not permit her to come to court and the case was passed indefinitely.

After the stabbing, Coffman appeared at police headquarters and announced "I have killed a woman." Passerby had found Miss Maddox.

DUTCH SHIP IS SUNK; 140 REPORTED MISSING

A report received in London said the Netherlands liner Simon Bolivar (above) struck a mine in the North Sea and sank. It was believed that 140 of the 400 persons aboard, including women and children, were missing. This picture of the ship was made in Curacao.

FD Spurs New 3rd Term Talk

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—Another wave of speculation over President Roosevelt's political intentions rolled along today in the wake of a speech in which he expressed the hope his collections and papers would be ready for "public inspection and use" by the spring of 1941.

In a bantering mood yesterday at the site of the library that will house the private papers of his public life, the president said he hoped "my good friends of the press" would give "due interpretation" to the expression of my hope that when we open the building to the public it will be a fine day.

The remark was interpolated in his address at the laying of the library cornerstone on the Roosevelt estate and interpreted by most reporters as meaning the president actually is enjoying all the hullabaloo over whether he will aim for a third term.

The disclosure the president's correspondence would be available to students, historians and biographers by the middle of 1941 furnished no real clue to his intentions. I did see, however, to bring the third-term puzzle to the fore again by leading to conjecture whether Mr. Roosevelt would wish the public to have access to records of the new deal's intimate workings, if he intended to seek reelection next year.

"This is a peaceful countryside," the president said, "and it seems appropriate that in this time of strife we should dedicate this library to the spirit of peace—peace for the United States and soon, we hope, peace for the world."

Neutrals Lose Five Vessels; 177 Persons Dead

LONDON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Mines at least temporarily supplanted submarines as the leading sea menace off the British coast today as the floating explosives added still further to the war's greatest weekend toll for merchant shipping.

The sinking included the 345-ton British trawler Wigmore with a crew of 16 and the 1,267-ton British collier Torchbearer which were disclosed today. Four survivors of the Torchbearer's crew, reported to have numbered 13, were landed at an English port.

In addition the sinking of the 4,258-ton British freighter Peninsula "by enemy action" was disclosed today. It was not immediately clear whether the vessel was a mine victim. Her crew was landed safely.

A total of nine vessels were reported sunk in the North sea over the weekend, with 177 persons dead or missing. The total tonnage lost was 23,008. Neutrals lost five ships to British mines.

The sunken vessels were: Simon Bolivar, Netherlands, 8,309 tons. Grazia, Italian, 5,857 tons. Blackhill, British, 2,492 tons. B. O. Borjesson, Swedish, 1,586 tons. Carica Milica, Yugoslav, 6,371 tons. Kaunas, Lithuanian, 1,521 tons. Torchbearer, British, 1,267 tons. Wigmore, British, 345 tons. Peninsula, British, 4,258 tons.

Authorities had not computed the full loss of life in the sinking Saturday of the Netherlands liner Simon Bolivar, but the number was set tentatively at 140. Eleven were believed drowned or killed by explosions aboard the four other ships.

The admiralty accused Germany of laying the mines, and the British press stressed the presence of women and children aboard the Simon Bolivar, bound for the West Indies from Amsterdam.

(In Berlin German authorities declared "a German mine could not have been responsible" for the loss.)

Tax Remission Bill For Harris County Declared Invalid

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—Attorney General Gerald C. Mann today held invalid the Harris county tax remission bill enacted at the general session of the legislature.

The bill would donate to Harris county for flood control half of the ad valorem taxes for the state's general fund collected within its borders during the next ten years.

Several weeks ago, Mann ruled that a general tax remission bill applying to all counties was unconstitutional.

The legislature is without power, Mann stated today, to confer constitutional authority upon itself to make donations under the public calamity section of the constitution by reciting the existence of a public calamity which does not exist in fact.

Went To Trial On Wire Theft

B. B. Bishop, alias Buster Bishop went on trial in the 70th district court Monday on a charge of theft of several hundred feet of copper wire from the Continental Oil company lease in the Howard-Glascock field a month ago.

The trial was based on one of two indictments the state has against Bishop, who also stands charged with theft of riding saddles from the Hardy Morgan ranch headquarters southeast of Big Spring.

During the morning, Foster Harmon, chief clerk for Continental in this district, testified as to the loss and value of the wire, to the comparison of tracks made by trailer tires and shoes to those of the defendant's trailer and shoes, and to the comparison of markings on the wire where it was detached from poles in the field.

Most of the week was due to be given over to hearings on criminal cases, most of them originating this term of court.

FBI MAN IN CITY

O. H. Bartlett, member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation staff, was here Monday and conferred with police department heads concerning the system of operation now in effect. He told E. V. Spence, city manager, that he would relay a request for a FBI school for officers, to be held in Big Spring, to the divisional chief, R. E. Conroy, at Dallas.

Green Seeking Public Support

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Amid persistent talk of a new administration effort to bring the AFL and the CIO together, President William Green of the AFL has asked the neutral public to place the responsibility for labor's internal feud "where it belongs."

"We believe that an attitude of neutrality toward the disputants in this case who profess to be anxious for labor peace merely serves to shelter and protect the side which is to blame," Green said in a statement last night. "Therefore, such an attitude hinders the attainment of peace."

"We are convinced that the facts show the American Federation of Labor did its utmost to prevent the split in labor and has since done everything in its power to effect peace."

John L. Lewis, the CIO leader, is known to be opposed to any more conferences unless he can be convinced that a satisfactory settlement will result.

On another stage of the tangled labor drama, Thurman Arnold was expiating why the government felt called on to prosecute some unions under the anti-trust laws.

Arnold, assistant attorney general, said any labor union which used legal rights of association "in an illegal way" would face federal court action.

In a letter answering numerous inquiries arising from recent suits against some unions in the building trades, he declared the law "should not be used as an instrument to police strikes or adjudicate labor controversies."

However, Arnold listed five types of "unreasonable restraint" by unions:

1. Preventing use of cheaper materials, improved equipment or more efficient methods.
2. Compelling "the hiring of useless and unnecessary labor."
3. Enforcing "graft and extortion."
4. Enforcing "illegally fixed prices."
5. Destroying "an established and legitimate system of collective bargaining."

Extra Session Useless, Says Gov. O'Daniel

Political Talk In Wake Of Refusal To Call In Solons

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—Where do we go from here? This question was asked in capitol circles today when decision of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel not to call a special session of the legislature was discussed. It received a variety of answers.

Political Issue

Three points generally were agreed upon by observers and members of the legislature in Austin.

1. A bitter state political issue for 1940 apparently has been clearly established.

2. No additional financing for social security in Texas is probable for at least a year.

3. The taxpayer is not going to have his bill for taxes upped any time soon.

Efforts by some legislators to force the governor to call a session to provide more money for social security possibly but not certainly were ended for a time. Some suggested O'Daniel, if bombardment of critics should be renewed, might change his mind after the first of the new year.

Prognosticators commented an outstanding issue in next year's political wars unquestionably would be whether the state's social security program should be supported by a broad-based tax, such as a sales tax written into the constitution or by increasing existing taxes especially on natural resources.

Governor O'Daniel has declared repeatedly he believed a tax of broad base authorized by the constitution was the only permanent solution of the problem of social security financing.

Critics have asserted a state as rich in natural resources as Texas should not resort to any tax that smacks of a sales tax to help its needy.

Governor O'Daniel has not said whether he will run for a second term but capital speculation consistently has been that he will follow precedent and ask another two years to effect his program.

Unless revenue from existing taxes increases, presumably there will be no additional money available for old age pensions until next October, when repayment of money borrowed by the old age assistance fund will have been completed.

Governor O'Daniel said in his message to the legislature.

POSTOFFICE ALONE IN THANKSGIVING OBSERVANCE 23RD?

With the "federal" Thanksgiving slated for this week, some business men raised the question Monday as to which of the Thanksgiving dates Big Spring will observe.

It was generally agreed that Big Spring will almost universally observe November 30 as its Thanksgiving date. Only federal agencies will be affected by the November 23 proclamation issued by President Roosevelt.

November 30 the schools and public agencies will close as will the vast majority of private businesses. The ministerial association previously recognized November 30 as the local Thanksgiving date.

The Thanksgiving football game between Big Spring and Sweetwater also will be held here on that date.

Texas U. After Nobel Winner

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 20 (AP)—The University of Texas is bidding for the services of Dr. Ernest Orlando Lawrence, 38-year-old University of California scientist, who won the Nobel prize for physics this month for his work in devising and using an "atom smashing" machine known as a cyclotron.

"It is true," Doctor Lawrence said, "that the University of Texas has made me a most attractive offer."

The physicist disclosed that the Texas institution, fabulously rich because of its ownership of oil fields and other Texas lands, had offered him a large increase in salary, and proposed to build for him a cyclotron more than 18 times as large as the 225-ton one he now has.

He said the offer of a huge cyclotron had really interested him, although he personally preferred to remain here.

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—A non-committal statement, high in praise of Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence of the University of California, came today from Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of the University of Texas, in response to reports the Texas school had offered to employ the noted California atom-smasher.

Dr. Rainey said he had once visited the physicist, who recently won the Nobel prize in physics, and added:

"It goes without saying that my university would be honored to have Dr. Lawrence here."

L. A. Eubanks Is Found Dead, Victim Of An Accidental Gunshot

Funeral Service For Retail Merchants Assn. Manager Set Tuesday Afternoon

Funeral services will be held at the Eberley chapel at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Lee Anderson Eubanks, manager of the Big Spring Retail Merchants association who was fatally wounded by a rifle bullet Sunday afternoon as he made preparations to depart on a hunting expedition.

Mr. Eubanks, 54, was found in the garage at his residence, 1008 Nolan street, shortly after 1:30 p. m., a bullet from a rifle having entered the body just above the heart.

Justice of Peace J. H. Hefley returned an inquest verdict of accidental death, saying Mr. Eubanks "died of gun shot wound near the heart, which caused instant death. The shot was accidentally discharged from the rifle."

Max Westerman, who resides nearby, and Roy Pickering, negro, who lives in servants quarters next to the Eubanks garage, were first on the scene after a shot was heard. Hefley said the bullet entered over the heart and ranged upwards, lodging in a shoulder blade. He added that the car was packed, apparently for a deer hunting trip and that a ram-rod and can of oil were at hand, indicating the gun (a .350-3000 Savage) was being cleaned.

News of his death came as a shock to Big Spring, where Mr. Eubanks had been prominently identified in business circles for more than 13 years. In addition to operating the merchants' credit agency here, he had an insurance and loan business.

A native Texan, Mr. Eubanks was born in Rogers, Bell county, Sept. 10, 1885. He was married at Tyler in 1909 to Miss Ollie Bethell, who survives. Mrs. Eubanks was an active assistant to her husband in operating the credit office. Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. Tom Eubanks of Hico; a brother, Eric Eubanks of Hico; two sisters, Mrs. Shirley Campbell of Hico and Mrs. W. H. Page of Amarillo, and a niece, Mrs. L. J. Campbell of Amarillo.

Mr. Eubanks formerly taught in Tyler Commercial college, later was on the faculty of Brantley-Draughon's Business college in Fort Worth, and a member of the business office staff at Texas Christian university.

He was a member of the Christian church, and was a leading worker in the I.O.O.F. order.

Rev. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the First Christian church, will have charge of the funeral rites, assisted by Dr. F. D. McConnell of the First Presbyterian. The Christian church choir will have charge of the music.

Active pallbearers will be Omar Pitman, G. C. Dunham, Joe Faucett, Gene Crenshaw, Dr. Lee Rogers, and Marie J. Stewart.

L. P. McCasland, state highway patrolman, will be an honorary escort to the grave. Honorary pallbearers will be F. M. Pursert, Virgil Smith, George Tillinghast, Andy Brown of Ackerly, W. S. Pickett of San Angelo, Marley Stiner of Fort Worth, Albert Fisher, Jr., Charles Sullivan, Elmer Cravens, Dr. Amos R. Woods, Denver Pundt, Dr. R. C. Carter, Archie Kemp, R. P. Fisher, Hack Wright, Herschel Pett, Cecil Westerman, Carl Strom, T. S. Currie, Ben Miller, Vic Mellinger and Jim Allen of Fort Worth.

JONES LAMAR GETS DIST. 100F POST

Jones Lamar was appointed district deputy grand patriarch over Midland, Big Spring and Sweetwater encampments at a meeting held in Lubbock Saturday by the Odd-fellows.

Refreshments of cake and sandwiches were served to over forty-five persons. Attending from here were Lamar, N. Brenner, M. L. Hayworth, Ben Miller, Perry Holmes, W. A. Mayes, J. F. Henderson and W. S. Morrow.

Another initiation class is to be held soon.

Albino Deer Is Bagged By Big Spring Hunter

Gerald Liberty could wear some sort of a badge as deer hunter extraordinary today.

He had returned from a hunting trip in the Delaware mountains north of Kent with a rare specimen—an albino deer. He brought the animal down Thursday, a 175-pound, nine-pointer; it is all white, with a few markings.

The kill created a sensation among Kent hunting circles, Liberty said. The white animal had been sighted on occasion by hunters and ranchers, but none had ever got a shot at it. Few albino deer have been reported.

Liberty said he sighted the white buck running with ten others—the herd itself being an uncommon sight. He made an extra effort to bag the albino and was successful. "That white deer standing out against those dark mountains really made a sight," he said.

Liberty was in a party which included George Oldham, O. H. McAllister, Louie McAllister, Bob Ashby and Bobby Ashby. Bobby Ashby got a 18-pointer, Louie McAllister a five-pointer, and Oldham a four-pointer. But none of them were albino.

Output Fixed Below Market Demand Quota

Shutins Designated On Saturdays, Sundays, Dec. 1 And 15

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—The railroad commission today ordered Texas oil wells closed in 12 days during December in a statewide proration order setting a basic daily allowable of 2,140,489 barrels which with shutins makes an average daily output of 1,386,439 barrels daily.

Below Demand

The average daily permissible flow of oil is 51,661 barrels below the estimate of December market demand for Texas oil made by the United States bureau of mines.

The shutin of wells, save those exempted for special reasons, will occur each Saturday and Sunday in December and December 1 and 15.

Under the new order Texas average daily production will be approximately 39,000 barrels less than the estimated average production of 1,425,000 in November.

A 30-day order was authorized, Chairman Lon A. Smith said, for these reasons:

The commission desired to remain with the bureau of mines estimate.

In view of international conditions, there is a chance that demands beginning Jan. 1, 1940, may increase and the commission wanted to have production well in hand.

The commission also was determined to watch closely bottomhole pressure fluctuations in the big East Texas field.

Smith announced the next statewide proration hearing for December 15. On the same date the regulatory body will hear requests of operators in the west side of the East Texas pool who are seeking allowable increases.

The December schedule was approved unanimously. Member Ernest O. Thompson said he signed with an understanding East Texas production would be cut back if a decline in bottomhole pressure does not level out soon.

Commissioner Jerry Sadler said he had no comment.

Thompson added he had signed also to preserve the commission's appeal in a court case attacking East Texas proration methods and under which some operators obtained a court order increasing the permissible flow from their East Texas wells.

The field was assigned a basic allowable of 690,000 barrels daily for November. Thompson did not sign the current order which stipulated 11 shutdown days.

Because of the well closing feature of the current and November schedules a majority of the wells in Texas will not produce for four consecutive days, November 30 and December 1, 2 and 3.

Seek To Alter Fire Penalty

Weight of the League of Texas Municipalities has been formally thrown behind the move to have fire of government stored cotton disregarded by the state fire insurance commission in determining key rates for cities.

E. V. Spence, Big Spring city manager and who launched the move and who has taken a leading part in pushing it, was named with H. P. Marr, Lamesa mayor, and W. F. Kucera, Dallas city attorney, as a committee to "study this problem and cooperate with the league executive committee."

The resolution cited the storage of large amounts of cotton in Texas cities under the government loan program, "creating an abnormal and unusual condition," that such fire losses do not represent the normal fire record, and experience of affected cities, that the storage of cotton is by "nature extra hazardous risks," and that the insurance commission be urged to disregard such cotton fire losses in establishing key rates, and further that cotton stored by the government "should be given a premium rate sufficient to take care of its unusual particular hazard."

Big Spring is one of the Texas cities that have suffered disastrous cotton storage fires.

MISS LANEIOUS NOTES

By Mary Whaley

Did you ever notice the difference between Sundays and other days in the week? Seems like there is a quietness in the air that can't be found on just regular days.

The Sunday driver has been discussed and discussed but the truth is he just isn't in a hurry like he is the rest of the week.

Homes are havens of bedroom slippers, smoking jackets and funny papers strewn on the floor. Even the radio programs lean toward classical music, organ preludes and hour plays.

But as the sun sinks and night shadows cast long fingers over the town, things begin to move a little faster. Steps are quicker and laughs come a little louder.

Night comes swiftly and the weekly bustle and bustle of the world begins again. Drivers step down on the gas, the radio comedians spout brittle humor and every man knows he's got to put on his shoes and brush up when his wife starts gathering up the papers.

Sunday afternoon thoughts are put away and sadly enough, won't be taken out again until the next Sabbath. The brief respite is over.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—Relatives of William H. Brooks, 22, University of Texas student from El Dorado, Ark., whose death was ruled a suicide by Peace Justice Tom E. Johnson, were en route today to arrange his burial.

Brooks was found with a bullet wound in his left temple early this morning by Robert H. Heidrick, a roofer in the same apartment building. Police reported Heidrick heard a noise in Brooks' room and found the door locked when he attempted to investigate. He summoned the landlord after peering through a window and discovering the student's body slumped in a chair. A .32 caliber pistol was in Brooks' hand. A physician pronounced him dead upon examination.

WIDOWERS ARE IN DEMAND; TOO MANY WIDOWS

DALLAS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Shy widowers can stop blushing everytime a good looking widow smiles at them.

Widowers are in demand in this land of the free.

The paucity of widowers was described by Mrs. Nelle Brook Stull of Elyria, O., president of the National Widows and Widowers club, which claims a membership of 250,000 marriageable Americans.

In California there is an acute shortage of widowers, Mrs. Stull explained. Los Angeles has seven widows to one widower. Other states have a smaller ratio.

Texas is one of the few states where widows and widowers are about evenly divided.

"Of course," explained Mrs. Stull, "who is married to a steel executive, 'every woman wants to get married. I speak from my experience with them. They start by telling me what kind of husband they want, but wind up by taking what they can get, usually."

"Widowers seek interviews, but they are more shy than the widows. They get out of the room as soon as they can and try to avoid being seen."

Usually a widower expects a 50-50 proposition. He wants a woman with a little money.

"Since so many women want to marry and men are scarce and skeptical the men are pretty independent."

To the husband-seekers and wife-seekers abroad in this land, Mrs. Stull sent this message:

"It is usually more successful for a widower to marry a widow for his second wife. Persons who have been married before are not looking for so much romance."

Here is a romantic life. Since she started the club several years ago the woman magazine writer and radio commentator has received 32,000 marriage proposals.

GOP'S Outline Farm Policies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—News that three republican groups are conferring on farm and labor planks for their 1940 platform provided a diversion today for political forecasters, who for weeks have talked about little except the third term question.

Politicians generally agree the farm states will be one of the major battlegrounds in the 1940 campaign. Republicans made gains in the midwest state and congressional races last year. They are eager to follow up those victories.

It was learned that Senator McNary of Oregon, senate minority leader, has been conferring with other party chieftains on ideas for strong farm and labor planks.

McNary, one of the authors of the McNary-Haugen farm bill back in the Coolidge-Hoover days, believes the administration's reciprocal trade program is detrimental to western agriculture.

What his alternative plan will be remains to be seen.

A second republican group studying the farm question has just been created. Chairman Hope (R-Kan.) of the house republican agricultural study committee named a sub-committee headed by Rep. Horton (R-Wyo.), to hold hearings at Salt Lake City Dec. 1 and 2 on problems confronting producers in that area.

A third republican group giving attention to the farm problem is a sub-committee of the general program committee headed by Dr. Glenn Frank of Chicago. The sub-committee is in charge of W. J. Goodwin, Des Moines banker.

The executive committee of the republican national committee will meet here Dec. 7 to plan for the opening of the 1940 campaign.

Democratic leaders who have talked at length on the subject have expressed a belief the democratic platform would be largely an endorsement of the Roosevelt record.

However, the agriculture department has shown indications of at least revamping its 1940 program to shift emphasis from crop production control to measures providing greater protection to the soil.

SECURITY CARD GOES 'DOWN THE HATCH'

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20 (AP)—When Gregory Allen Giese was 11 days old he earned $95 as a motion picture actor. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Giese, felt properly proud.

So when friends dropped in Sunday to see Gregory, now eight weeks old, Mrs. Giese showed him his social security card. It interested Gregory, too. He took it in his hands. When his mother looked again, he was swallowing the last of the pieces.

Then he yawned, as if to suggest it was something for the government to worry about, not him.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD MUSIC APPRECIATION OFFER

Now Available BEETHOVEN'S MAGNIFICENT SYMPHONY NO. 5 IN C MINOR

Your Second of 10 Complete Symphonic Masterpieces

The second group of this great plan for musical appreciation is now available. You can come in at any time and add Beethoven's superb Symphony No. 5 to your library of recordings!

Readers who are aware of the "expensiveness" of fine symphonic recordings are truly amazed at the low price for which they may be secured in this offer! The world's greatest music—the PERFECT PROGRAM of 10 complete symphonies—76 recordings—can be yours at a hitherto unheard-of low price!

Think of being able to secure the greatest masterpieces of the greatest composers the world has ever known at a price that EVERYONE can afford! And remember—each symphonic gem is played by a top-ranking orchestra under the baton of a world-famous conductor!

Act promptly to bring this splendid treasure of symphonic recordings into your home. It isn't necessary for you to send any money. All you have to do—to make sure of your library of records—is to fill out and mail the Reservation Form below. Do it now while you have this announcement before you!

BEETHOVEN King of Composers

Ludwig van Beethoven, considered by many the greatest composer who ever lived, was anything but prepossessing in manner and appearance. He was ugly of face and thin—short, squat, lumpy and thick-fingered. He was careless, untidy and possessed of a particularly violent temper.

All of his life he was dogged by illness and in the midst of his greatest work Fate dealt him a blow which would have crushed an ordinary mortal—he became deaf!

Despite his physical handicaps and his constant poverty, he produced some of the most glorious musical works ever penned by mortal hand. His celebrated Fifth Symphony stands at the peak of man's attainments. No greater music has ever been written. Each time you hear it you will be delighted to find new rapture, new inspiration in its divine harmony.

RULES AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING THIS OFFER

To obtain the 10 symphonies and symphonic masterpieces and the electric Record Player is to be distributed in this Music Appreciation Plan, proceed as follows:

First, fill in and mail the Reservation Form printed in the lower right corner of this announcement. The purpose of this form is not to obligate you in any way, but to enable us to estimate the quantity of records and Record Players to have on hand to meet the demand.

Each day during this music appreciation offer, we will publish a random drawing for the date on which each symphony will be ready. You can get your first symphony (Franz Schubert's No. 9 in D minor) on or after November 4. Subsequent symphonies will be released one every two weeks thereafter. Watch the remainder coupon which will be published daily. It is not necessary for you to fill this coupon in order to get your records or Record Player.

You obtain each symphony, which consists of three or four double-faced 12-inch records, for a payment of $1.49. This payment is not for each record, but for all records in the series. Symphonies which consist of five or six double-faced 12-inch records require a payment of $1.99 for the entire series. Delivery is by registered mail.

First, mail the Reservation Form to us in our distribution office. Please check whether or not you want the Record Player reserved. We will substitute your reservation by mail. Filling in and mailing the reservation entails no obligation whatsoever on your part.

RESERVATION FORM Big Spring Daily Herald Music Appreciation Department, Big Spring, Texas. Please reserve for me the World's Greatest Music, consisting of 10 symphonies and symphonic masterpieces as described in your gift-offer. Send me by return mail the brochure which illustrates in full color and describes in detail both the symphonic recordings and the electric record player.

T. N. T. TWINS, CRAIN AND DAVIS, BAR THE GLORY PATH OF THE TEXAS AGGIES

MITES TO FACE GREATEST LINE IN THE NATION

By FELIX R. MORNIGHT
DALLAS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Only two small boys stand between iron-fisted Texas A. & M. and the glories of an unbeaten season.

One is a grand 145-pounder who doesn't even bother to wear shoulder pads. The other, a bow-legged cottontop, is just about the most dangerous runner in college football.

On Thanksgiving day—the old-fashioned November 30—one—the Aggies come face-to-face with the Cowhey-Jack Crain-Gilly-Davis problem. It's a slick "little brother act," two kids who are just as liable to come bolting out of a crack in the line and bound 65 yards for a touchdown as look you in the eye.

Backbone of the University of Texas rascals, most of them sophomores, is this breathless pair. Twelve touchdowns have been carried across by the Noonsa Cowhey and Davis. Eighty points is their total; the Texas team's is 105.

On Saturday last the Crain-Davis partnership clicked for the three touchdowns and three conversion points that buried Texas Christian in the most sensational Southwest conference battle of modern times. It went like this: Crain dodged 36 yards for a touchdown on the game's first scrimmage play; Davis passed to Crain for a touchdown; Davis, a muddy marvel, erased an 18-19 deficit in the shadowy finish with a 66-yard touchdown canter; Davis, on the last play of the game, stretched his five feet, five inches to haul down a T.C.U. pass on his own goal line and race 58 yards before being jockeyed out of bounds.

Coach D. X. Bible need a fullback who could kick when sophomore Pete Layden's leg went sour. Davis took his 145 pounds right into the vacancy. Only a jersey draped his shoulders—pads bother him—when he pounded smack into the middle of the 200-pound average Christian line and swept the ends.

And he made yardage. He booted every Texas kick for a fine average of 37.7 yards. Crain didn't shoot his bolt on that opening 66-yard thrust. He was good for many more yards—and many more scares. He was a football player Saturday.

Such is the setup for the big Aggies, probably the greatest defensive team in major college football. The agile Aggie line and the rather fleet backfield that has held enemy running gains to only 386 yards in nine games, or about 42.8 yards per game, must stop Crain and Davis if they want to spend New Year's day in the Rose or Sugar Bowl.

Too, the Aggies have a remark—

The Sports Parade

BY HANK HART

Already Homer Norton's Texas A&M football crew is being compared favorably with the great TCU eleven of 1938, an eleven at that time gained the reputation in many quarters as the greatest array of football talent ever assembled in conference circles.

Some who have seen both teams perform claim that the Cadets are superior to that truly great Christian team, say that the Aggies of '39, boasting of an unlimited number of reserves, could have tamed the Purple squadron of 1938, the Sugar Bowl champions.

Others are not so sure. The writer is hardly qualified to gauge the strength of the two elevens since he has not been privileged to witness the Cadets in action but the Christians will do until a new 'convincer' comes along.

The Farmers go in for straight power football. The '38 Frogs were versatile, mixed power with deception. The Aggies certainly boast a better back field than did the Purple but we doubt if Norton has as valuable a man as was Davey O'Brien.

Anchored by two great tackles the Aggie line may be as good as was the Frog forwards but we doubt it. Somehow, the combination of Kl Aldrich and I. B. Hale looks better to us than all the Boyds and Robnetts on the A&M team.

Firmly recognized throughout the entire nation by now should be the calibre of football as played in the Southwest conference. Last year the Texas Christian battalion was generally accepted to be the nation's No. 1 team. This year that honor may go to the Aggies, if Texas university can be hurled November 30.

Texas are proud of their football teams, would like to see the Aggies get the Rose Bowl bid but will settle for the Sugar Bowl.

The probable alignment New Year's day will be Tulane against the Aggies at New Orleans, Tennessee against Southern California in Pasadena.

J. Curtis Sanford, promoter of the Cotton Bowl, could do worse than bring Duquesne, the Pitts-burgh power, in as one of his attractions.

Tennessee merits the Rose Bowl bid, not because it is any more powerful than the Cadets but because it is completing its second perfect season.

Steadily climbing in the lightweight fight ranks is Lew Jenkins, the ex-Sweetwater boy, well known locally.

Lew, who whipped every thing in sight while campaigning in Dallas rings, then moved to New York where he changed managers and got on the high road, gets the biggest chance of his career against the veteran Mike Belliose, former feather champion, Tuesday evening in New York.

Belliose will form a rugged test for the Texas southpaw but Jenkins will probably win.

DiMaggio Breaks All Records With A New Teammate

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, the San Francisco fisherman's son who battled his way to baseball fame, was off on an automobile honeymoon tour today with his actress bride, the former Dorothy Arnoldine Olson.

One of the biggest crowds ever to attend a wedding here jammed St. Peter and Paul church and the street and park outside as the two were married yesterday by Father Osmanski at full.

Osmanski ran 65 yards for the first touchdown. Luckman's passing and kicking were outstanding.

Green Bay smashed Brooklyn, 28 to 0, and is favored to win the western division title.

In the eastern division Washington and New York maintained their stalemate for the top spot. The Glatts disposed of the Pittsburgh Pirates, 23 to 7. Washington breezed to a 28 to 7 decision over the Cardinals.

Hall accounted for both touchdowns with deft aerial pitching, and connected for 15 passes in 23 attempts.

But even this performance was below that of little Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian All-America of 1938, who completed passes all over the field, in vain, for the Philadelphia Eagles. O'Brien connected for 21 out of 36, but the Eagles lost to the Chicago Bears, 27 to 14.

Ten Pin Tales

By JAKE DOUGLASS

A new league record was set at the local bowling emporium the other night when the Pabst Beer boys came in with a beautiful 2,917 series. To make it even more of a record, they were bowling under a handicap as they were forced to use a dummy score when only four legs were present. Paced by Clyde West with 236—625, and Ben Daniels with 228—625, the team rolled games of 983-973-961. Ward Hall had a 216—600, and Red Meyers was low man with 209—657. However their lowest was high over the rest of the league. Their fifth man, Leo Hays, has been sick for several weeks.

We have a new manager in our midst as well as a new owner, Billy Simon of San Antonio bought out Floyd Bomar and is the new skipper. "Lefty" Earl Blakney, recently of Amarillo, is the new manager. Blakney is somewhat of a bowler himself. Last year he had a league average of 187 in Amarillo which was slightly lower than his 196 average that he came down from Oklahoma City. His high games are quite numerous in regular play as many of the local pin smashers can testify, and past records prove that he is equally as effective in league play. He has five or six 701 runs, three 705's, and a 714 to his credit under A.B.C. rules. His high single game in competitive play is 278.

Ben Daniels won the high score prize last week with a nice 296, J. C. Loper won the week before with 286. Stella Flynt paced the ladies with 214.

The last of the 190 averages took a beating and now the high five looks something like this: Ben Daniels 30 187 5624 H. Hoekendorf 30 185 5582 Theo Graalman 27 185 4991 Ward Hall 30 184 5514

RAFFLED RIFLE RETURNS TO RIP

AP Feature Service

TEMPER, Ariz., Nov. 20—Wayne (Rip) Pitts, Arizona State Teachers College fullback, whom Coach Dixie Howell calls one of the greatest ball carriers he has ever seen, is just as lucky as he is brilliant on the gridiron.

Pitts, who is working his way through school, came upon loan financial days recently and decided to raffie off a rifle to raise some money.

He displayed the gun at a campus hang-out and offered 100 chances at 50 cents each. In a short time 70 chances were taken, but that exhausted the fund.

Impatient for the drawing, fellow students agreed Pitts could take the unsold numbers in a gamble with ticket holders.

A pretty good draw the lucky number from a hat. It was 45, the number on the fullback's gridiron jersey—and it was one he had bought back.

Pitts still has his rifle and a replenished bank roll.

Clark Griffith Observes 70th Anniversary

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Clark Griffith—one of the grand old men of baseball—got a laugh on his 70th birthday anniversary today out of this question:

If you had the 70 years to live over again, what would it be?

"Baseball," he said, "would do." There's scarcely a man in any branch of American sports whose life has been more wrapped up in his game than that of the white-haired president of the Washington Senators. Until 1907, Griffith was one of the best hurlers in baseball.

In his early teens, Griffith and some other boys pooled their pennies to buy a dollar ball. The boy who went on horseback to make the purchase handed over the ball and galloped away. The first time one of the lads hit the ball, it broke wide open. The horseback rider had bought a 25-cent ball and pocketed the change.

Ever since then, Clark Griffith has realized that there are lots of tricks to baseball, and that they are not all on the diamond.

The game calls him "the old fox." At 70 he is feeling fine. His golf game is in the '80's.

"Pretty soon," he said, "my score is going to be lower than my age."

Early Hunting Success Tales Are Reported

Big Spring hunters streamed back into town over the weekend and tales of success in the search for deer were many.

Today in cold storage at the Southern Ice and Utilities plant were 17 deer, mementos of a dozen different parties which scattered for the kill as the season opened last Thursday morning.

Of the party that invaded the wilds of the White Rock ranch in Mason county, D. H. Petty, and N. R. and Virgil Smith each brought back an animal, while Ray Millon had two, the largest of which was 12 points.

The O. H. McAllister party, which campaigned in the Delaware mountains, had four deer.

Nolan Vonroller came home with two handsome animals, the spoils of a trip into South Texas.

Others who reported successes were Joe Flock, Pat Sullivan, R. H. Carter, J. J. Carnes, Morris Patterson, Otis Graf, Roland Hamilton and Fred McGowan.

Dozen Elevens Still Unbeaten

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Football's select circle of unbeaten and untied teams said goodbye to the Manchester (Ind.) eleven Saturday and that left an even dozen yet to be halted this season.

Mighty Tennessee, the nation's top ranking team, according to the Associated Press weekly polls, continued at the head of the list with its 13-0 win over Vanderbilt. It was the Vols' 21st game without defeat over a three-year span.

Longest winning streak this year is that of the San Jose State team of California which took its 11th victory over Loyola, 10-0.

SEVEN DISTRICT CHAMPIONS TO BE CROWNED THIS WEEK

MASONS, BUGS CAN CLINCH LAURELS

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

Seven of the district champions are expected to be known after this week in the Texas schoolboy football race.

Sulphur Springs and Waco already have clinched their titles and five others will be determined barring sensational upsets.

Austin (El Paso) and El Paso High meet for the District 4 crown Thursday.

Masonic Home (Fort Worth) plays Poly Saturday and a victory by the Masons would give them undisputed possession of District 7 laurels.

Breckenridge goes to Mineral Wells Friday. The Buckaroos need only a tie to clinch the District 9 crown.

Nacogdoches plays at Henderson Friday and can sew up the title of District 12 with a victory or finish in a tie for it with a loss.

South Park (Beaumont) goes to Livingston Friday and can win the District 14 title with a victory or tie for it with a loss.

Robstown already holds the upper bracket title of District 16. Brownsville meets Harlingen at Brownsville Friday and can clinch the lower bracket championship with a victory or be tied for it with a loss. The two division winners then meet for the district title.

There are but 33 games on this week's schedule, 26 of them counting in the conference race.

Mustangs Rest
Four of the state's undefeated, untied teams have conference games, El Paso High laying Austin (El Paso), Breckenridge meeting Mineral Wells, South Park clashing with Livingston and Austin tangling with San Antonio Tech. Sweetwater and Gainesville rest this week.

Play starts early this week with Athens meeting Texarkana at Texarkana tomorrow night in a District 11 conference tie. Wednesday finds Longview playing at Marshall in the same district and

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—State department officials disclosed today that 44 American flag ships had been detained by belligerent nations since the outbreak of the war but indicated they expected the number of such incidents to decrease sharply in the future.

They believe that operations of United States merchant vessels in the combat zone—will preclude virtually all such cases in the future.

Westbrook Is Grid Champ

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 20—Westbrook trampled Courtney, 29 to 13, to annex the 6-man football championship of District 13 here Saturday night.

With Buel Claxton, Red Davenport and Frank Oglesby leading the way, Westbrook had the situation well in hand throughout. Hines scored one touchdown, Claxton two and Bud Moore one. Oglesby kicked two extra points and Moore ran one across.

Westbrook led in first downs, 9 to 5.

and Better Taste because of its Right Combination of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

The real reason more and more smokers are asking for Chesterfield is because CHESTERFIELD'S RIGHT COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos gives them a better smoke... definitely milder, cooler and better-tasting. For real smoking pleasure . . . you can't buy a better cigarette.

FRANK FULLER, winner of the 1929 Bendix Race, holds the Bendix transcontinental race record. Another Vacancy

Associate Justice Pierce Butler had been long on the supreme bench when death called him. His opinions over 16 years of service had marked him in present-day thought as a conservative, an appellant that with most New Dealers covers a multitude of judicial sins.

It is true that Justice Butler has been unable to track in transition the thinking, for instance, Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, who, while a sound fundamental constitutionalist, has seen no upset to elemental rights in much legislation aimed at socializing what was never meant to be a socialist concept of life and government.

The vacancy, as the news dispatches note, will result in Franklin Roosevelt furnishing the court with a majority of its members. That, of course, is the will of Providence against which the president apparently inveighed when he complained that to effectuate his views he had not had the opportunity given other presidents of selecting members of the court.

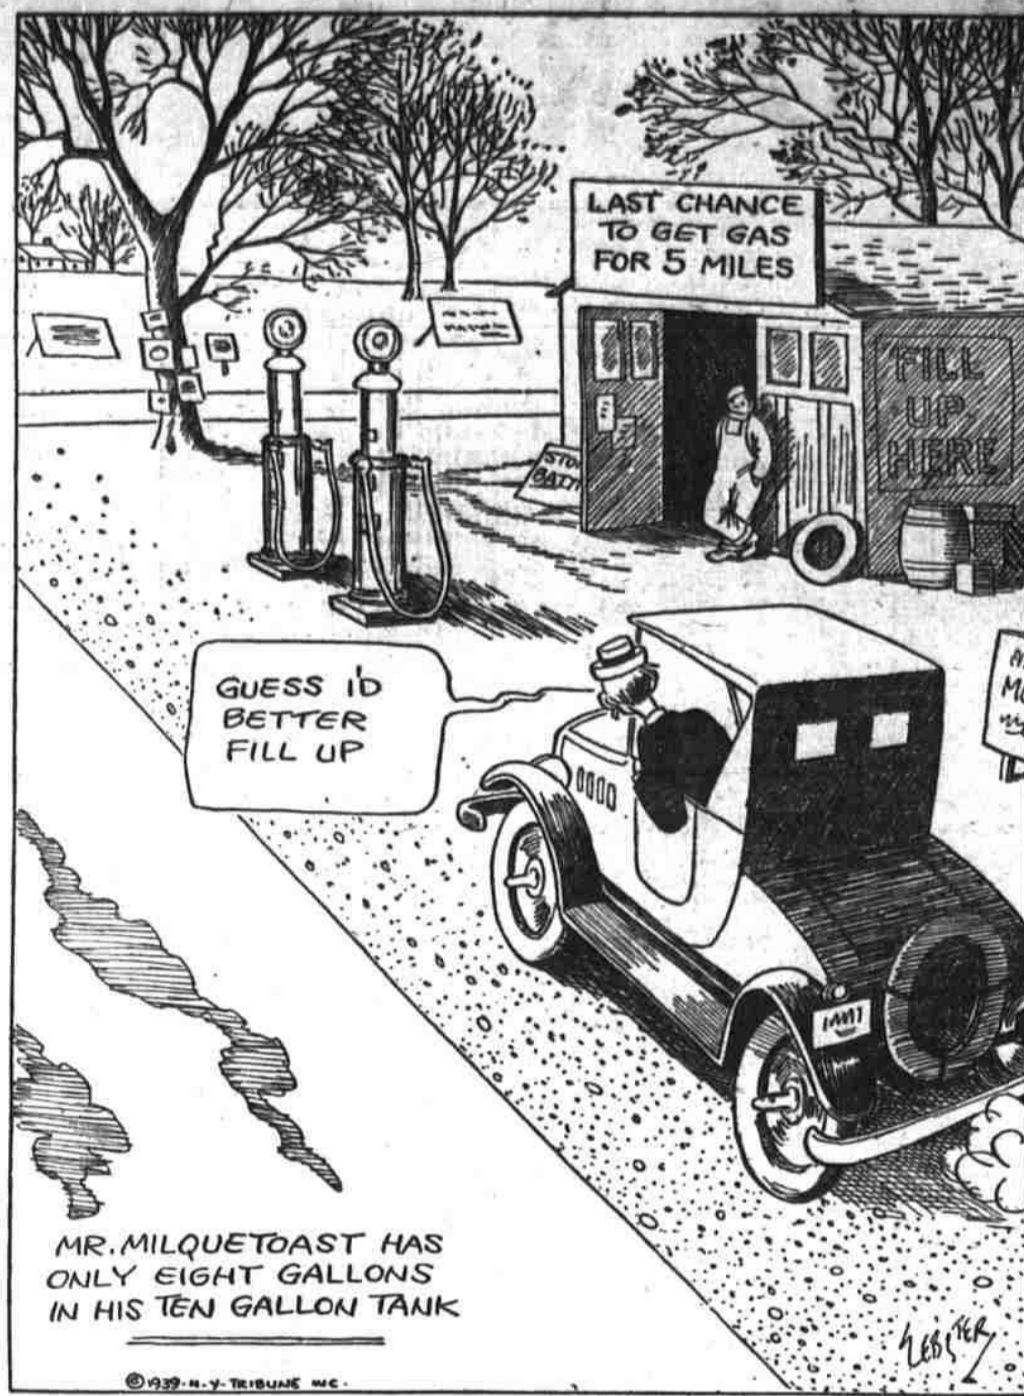

George Tucker Man About Manhattan: NEW YORK—It may be that the real missing link between ab-original African music and modern swing has been discovered. Louis Prima thinks so.

Prima wrote down all those tunes, and invited Gleeby to come to New York. He wanted to organize a 16-piece band to play current musical favorites in the Gleeby style. The main difference in old jazz, and new, is that the Gleeby exists in a clear, pure state.

The Horse Show at Madison Square Garden was lots of fun. If you've never seen one, you ought to mark it down on next year's "must." The horses themselves get the "oh's and ah's," and some of those riders, in their snappy uniforms, weren't far behind.

Chapter 36 THE INQUEST: If the tension at Tuck's garden party had been unbearable, that at the inquest was beyond words. The announcement that there would be an inquest on the body of Miss Lissey had thrown the campus into a turmoil, or, rather, those of the group who did not already expect it.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON—When Hendrik Hudson sailed up the Hudson river in 1609 he was too busy looking for Indians and aboals to notice it, but he passed right by a little oak that was earnestly growing into a big oak to shelter the Franklin D. Roosevelt library at Hyde Park.

The little tree, together with several companions, was growing on Indian public domain at the time. Now again it belongs to the public for President Roosevelt has donated the site to the federal government for permanent housing of the millions of papers and documents accumulated during his 30 years and more in and out of public service.

The historic Hudson, the nearby Albany Post road and the old Indian camp grounds under the oaks which now spread magnificently are frequently mentioned by the president as he takes part in the step-by-step building process, such as the laying of the cornerstone yesterday.

He has a keen historical sense of the enterprise, which pleases scholars even as it annoys certain critical politicians.

"Only an egomaniac megalomaniac would have the nerve to ask for this legislation," said Representative Dewey Short, Missouri republican, in opposing the bill by which the federal government agreed to accept and maintain the library now being built on the Hyde Park estate.

But the bill passed and the tons of letters, books, ship models, old sea-going ships' logs, and other items of the Roosevelt collection ultimately will rest in the U-shaped structure to be built within the shade of the great oak.

MATERIAL SPREAD OUT: The papers of other presidents have been handled in various ways. Some have been lost, burned or scattered among relatives. President Hoover housed many of his in a special library at his alma mater, Stanford university. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Coolidge each keep possession of their husband's papers, although Mrs. Coolidge has housed that collection in the library of congress.

President Roosevelt consulted scholars and librarians on his plan for a library on the Roosevelt estate. In announcing the plan, he said: "It has been the conclusion of the committee of scholars who have given me their advice on the whole project that in these modern days it is advisable for us not to put all of our historic eggs in one basket, and that there is, too much risk in having all our historic material in one place.

Therefore, they will welcome a partial distribution of such original material through the different parts of the nation. This spreads the risk and, incidentally, will probably result in an increased public interest in historic documents in every part of the country."

TWO TERMS—OR THREE? Since 1910—when he became a state senator—President Roosevelt has preserved all his papers, correspondence, both official and private business, books, pictures, pamphlets, literally wagon-loads of it. It covers his time as state senator, as wartime assistant secretary of the navy, his trips to Europe during his war, his campaign for the vice presidency, his political correspondence during the twenties when he regained his health and attained greater political prominence, his terms as governor, and the years of his vice presidency.

Mr. Roosevelt paints a quiet picture of himself, retired from the presidency, assisting the national archivist in cataloging and organizing the material. It will be open to all scholars. Due to the invention of microfilm, photographs of any or all documents can be sent to other libraries or colleges on request. Air-conditioning and fire-proofing will protect the originals.

We might just as well add that we couldn't learn whether the library was designed to house the papers of only two presidential terms, or is big enough for third term papers.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

HOLLYWOOD—The best-laid plans of mice and men (adv.) sometimes work out very nicely, too. Nothing can take the element of chance—the breaks—out of a movie career, but there are some front-line examples of carefully mapped campaigns that arrived on schedule at their goals.

To watch Sonja Henie and Robert Cummings on the ice together for their new picture, "Everything Happens at Night," is to see the protagonists of two such campaigns hard at work making the dreams come true.

Sonja's father never envisioned his little girl on the screen, but it was his goal to make her a champion on the ice, and he deliberately plotted her career that way by giving her dancing lessons when she was four—dancing as a prerequisite to skating ease and grace. He carried on the deliberate campaign through her years of training for the Olympics, saw her achieve first ranking there, and lived to see her become, in one picture, a top-notch movie star.

Stardom was, for Sonja, merely another bit of planning—but on Sonja's own part. It wasn't by accident that the girl staged sensational ice shows in the heart of Hollywood before she talked movie contracts. Her business acumen there could teach Europe a few tricks of propaganda.

Her partner Cummings probably never thought of Hollywood when he inaugurated his extraordinary series of trick plays to fame—but nobody ever planned more assiduously for square meals via the theatre than this lad did.

Going to England and setting himself up—in story and snapshot—as a British leading man in order to get work on his return to New York showed Cummings' imagination and daring.

State Road Work Covers 2,480 Miles

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 (AP)—The statistical picture of road building activity in Texas last fiscal year shows 2,480 miles of improvements added to the state's expanding network of arteries which stretched over the commonwealth for 22,278 miles on August 31.

Reconstruction and additions to the system cost $31,321,706 while total disbursements of the department, by far the state's biggest and one which operates on a cash basis, were $48,211,350. Moreover, the department ended the year with a cash balance of $4,733,733.

During the year 891 projects, including 70 large bridges and 10 grade crossing separations, were completed, adding to the system 753 miles of grading, 1,185 miles of gravel and caliche surfacing, 1,132 miles of asphalt surfacing, and 188 miles of concrete and brick surfacing. Highway protection devices and landscape projects added to the picture.

At the end of the year there were 514 projects, including 40 large bridges and 18 grade separations, totalling 1,682 miles under construction.

Highway department revenue is derived from two of the four cents state tax on each gallon of gasoline after deduction of collection costs and payment of refund claims—and from 60 per cent of motor vehicle plate fees. In addition, the federal government's state highway fund contributes to Texas road construction. Total receipts last year were $43,409,039.

The average cost per mile of maintenance of all state roads has steadily decreased, reaching a new low of $289.92 last year. In 1930 it was $413.89.

Father, Three Sons Students Together At Sul Ross

ALPINE, Nov. 20 (AP)—A father and his three sons are freshmen students in Sul Ross State college and the group plans to finish the four years of college together, receiving their degrees at the same time.

John Godsey, Sr., John, Jr., Joe and Eugene are the college-going Godseys. Back home in Wink, are the mother, a six-year-old sister and a 13-year-old brother who will be coming into college as the elder Godseys are going out. John, Sr., for a number of years worked with major oil companies in West Texas, but a recent accident injured him in such a way that he has had to give up active work in oil fields.

About the time of their father's injuries, the two elder Godseys boys came home from four-year service with the U. S. army in the Philippines and the Orient. Eugene, the youngest, was graduating from Wink high school. Godsey, Sr., decided on a belated college career to take the place of his active work in the oil fields.

The Godseys live in one of the student cottages on Sul Ross campus, do all of their own cooking and housecleaning, and find time for varied activities.

Recreation News

Boys at the Mexican Plaza have been making preparations for opening of the hunting season for more than a week.

They have been making "nigger shooters" in their crafts classes and practicing daily at tin cans and various other targets.

Friday afternoon they set out into the cedar brakes north of the city on their hunt. No reports of their kill has been made.

Basketball courts on all city playgrounds have been put in readiness for play, and the cage game will officially open its season of play just as soon as the overdue order of balls arrive.

A junior and a senior boys team will be organized and begin play about December first.

A commercial city basketball league is also expected to be organized and operated as in the past year. Four teams have already said that they would be ready.

The recreation department assisted with planning and directing a church party at 1400 Scurry street, Wednesday evening. A group of 20 young people enjoyed the hour of social entertainment.

Plans have been revived for completing a community center building at ABC park. Work is to begin Monday morning. The city plans to build a caretaker's apartment, install lights and gas, rest rooms and shower facilities and a store room. The American Business Men's club will assist with installing partitions forming a stage and clubroom, a small library room and toy loan shop, the latter two also to be used for dressing rooms, and various other needed accessories.

The Hyperion club of 1939 will assist with furnishing and equipping the library and reading room.

We hope in the near future to have a modern community center building for the ABC park area.

In-training programs were conducted Tuesday and Thursday mornings of the past week for members of the recreation staff.

Techniques and skills in teaching and directing volleyball, ball and basketball, and a demonstration in boxing were given. One hour was devoted to activities of other lands.

An imaginary trip around the world was taken; every continent was visited and games peculiar to each continent were played. Program plans were formulated and ways and means of improving our services to the public were discussed.

Arrangements are underway to establish a training quarters for those interested in boxing. This is to be a purely recreational service and instructions and helps and a place to "work out" will be furnished to all those who wish to participate. Definite announcements will be made within a few days.

A meeting of recreation supervisors of this district will be held in Coleman Monday, Nov. 20. A number of city, district and state officials will appear on the program.

Plans are to be discussed for holding a three-day district-wide training course for recreation leaders at Abilene Christian college during the holidays.

The recreation staff will observe two Thanksgiving holidays, Nov. 23 and 30, and all playgrounds will be closed on those days.

NEW ARMY RIFLE IS GIVEN TEST

PEEKSHILL, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—In the first test by national guardsmen of the new Garand semi-automatic service rifle, 12 men scored 402 hits in 80 seconds on man-sized silhouette targets.

The test was made on a 200-yard range at Camp Smith yesterday by picked riflemen of the 107th infantry of the New York national guard.

Officers said the men averaged 34 shots a minute per man, compared with a possible maximum of only 20 shots a minute with the Springfield rifle, which the Garand is replacing as the U. S. army's basic infantry arm.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Bronchitis, acute or chronic, is an inflammatory condition of the mucous membranes lining the bronchial tubes. Even if other medicines have failed you may get relief now with Cromolumin.

Chronic bronchitis can develop if your chest cold is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Cromolumin which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Cromolumin blends beachwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Cromolumin with the understanding that you are to take it the way it quickly alleviates the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. See that the name Cromolumin is on the bottle and you will get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Duquesne And Cornell Are Active Sat.

Notre Dame Faces Southern Cal in Standout Game

By HUGH S. FULLEBERT, JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Any college football team that can get this far in the season and still hang onto its ideas about winning a championship, or taking a nice trip to some bowl, generally is very stubborn about giving up such thoughts.

Oklahoma's Sooners, intent upon showing Missouri's Paul Christman he couldn't pass sitting down, forgot Ronnie King could stand up and kick. As a result, they suffered their first defeat, 7-6 at Missouri's Fair Day Saturday.

A blocked kick, a hard-charging line and a superb pass defense, enabled one-beaten Duke to eliminate North Carolina from the unbeaten ranks, 13-3, and take the lead in the Southern conference race.

Much The Same

Otherwise, the national gridiron situation remains much the same as a week ago.

Cornell, Tennessee and Texas A. and M., held their places last week as national leaders among a dozen surviving unbeaten and untied teams.

The first of this year's two Thanksgiving days, Nov. 23, doesn't cut much ice in
