Memphis Cyclone Schedule Given

Workouts for football will start Tuesday, September 1, under the direction of Gene Barnett, coach.

The first game will be played here on September 17 against Wheeler and it is a conference game. There are two open dates, those of November 5 and November 11.

The Cyclone goes into the season with nine lettermen and a heavier team than Memphis has had for several seasons.

Barnett, who finished the season as coach last year, has the confidence of the boys and the Cyclone fans, and prospects indicate a winning team. The only obstacle now is gas rationing which will probably keep attendance at a record low.

The Cyclone schedule for 1943 is: Sept. 17, Wheeler, here, conference; Sept. 24, Childress there; Oct. 1, Quanah, there; Oct. 8, Shamrock, there, conference; Oct. 15, McLean, here, conference; Oct. 22, Wellington, here, conference; Oct. 29, Lakeview, there, conference; Nov. 5 open; Nov. 11 or 12 open; Nov. 19, Perryton, here (tentative).

Country Butter Reduced by OPA

Preventing spoilage or waste and protection of producers are objectives of a recent OPA order reducing the point value of country butter from eight to five points per pound in certain localities. Authority for this reduction in point value recently was granted district OPA directors in Texas and Louisiana.

Permission to reduce the point value is granted only where country butter is in danger of spoilage and the privilege is given only to producers who do not manufacture the product on a large scale.

Where farm families who make small amounts of butter for sale are in danger of losing some because of the high point value, they should consult their local war price and rationing board, the OPA has advised.

Asbestos, found in many parts of northern California, has jumped from $20 to $500 a ton.

Some Farmers In County Reporting Cotton Leaf Worm

Substitute Poisons Being Suggested Since Calcium Arsenate Is So Scarce

Some Hall County farms have reported a trace of leaf worms, according to the County Agent. Calcium arsenate is very scarce and substitute poisons are being suggested by the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service.

The substitutes, however, are very dangerous to use and the Extension Service assumes no responsibility in the use of them.

Calcium arsenate, as a dust, should be applied at the rate of five to seven pounds per acre, if this poison can be obtained.

Lead arsenate may also be used although it kills much slower. Lead arsenate is applied in the same manner as calcium arsenate, although the dusting qualities may be improved if lime or talc is added to the mixture.

Paris Green is the third of the poisons, but it should be mixed with flour to increase adherence, and with hydrated lime to offset danger of burning the plant foliage. The one part Paris Green, one part flour, five parts hydrated lime.

The best results may be obtained by applying the poison with suitable dusting or spraying machines, states Hooser.

In using as a spray, three pounds of calcium arsenate or two pounds of lead arsenate may be used to five gallons of water. If Paris Green is used as a spray, one-half pound should be mixed with two pounds of hydrated lime in every fifty gallons of water.

The application of white arsenic in dry form or mixed with water as a spray will seriously damage plants and is not to be recommended.

The experiment station recommends to control the cotton leaf worm a dust of calcium arsenate applied at an interval of seven to ten days or whenever raking of cotton is evident. No less than five pounds per acre per application should be used and, of course, depending upon the size of the cotton it may be necessary to apply a heavier pouce.

Sucking insects are killed only when hit with poison. Both sides of leaves must be covered thoroughly.

September 15 Deadline For 1941 Cotton

Status Of 1941 And 1942 Loan Cotton Given By Hooser, County Agent

W. B. Hooser, county agent, says that if you have cotton pledged under the 1941 loan program, you have until this coming September 15 to pay off your loan and redeem the cotton. If the cotton is not redeemed by this date, it will be placed in a pool and sold by Commodity Credit Corporation.

The net proceeds, if any, after deduction of all advances and costs (including storage, insurance and handling charges) will be distributed to cotton producers in proportion to their interests.

Loans on 1942 cotton have been extended for an indefinite period but they are subject to call by CCC. Maturity date had been set for July 31, 1943. This means you may repay your loan and obtain possession of the pledged cotton or sell your equity in the cotton after July 31, 1943, states Hooser.

Lending agencies and Cooperative Marketing Associations also will be permitted to carry producers' loans after July 31, at a rate of one percent per annum.

September 15 Deadline For 1941 Cotton

Status Of 1941 And 1942 Loan Cotton Given By Hooser, County Agent

W. B. Hooser, county agent, says that if you have cotton pledged under the 1941 loan program, you have until this coming September 15 to pay off your loan and redeem the cotton. If the cotton is not redeemed by this date, it will be placed in a pool and sold by Commodity Credit Corporation.

The net proceeds, if any, after deduction of all advances and costs (including storage, insurance and handling charges) will be distributed to cotton producers in proportion to their interests.

Loans on 1942 cotton have been extended for an indefinite period but they are subject to call by CCC. Maturity date had been set for July 31, 1943. This means you may repay your loan and obtain possession of the pledged cotton or sell your equity in the cotton after July 31, 1943, states Hooser.

Lending agencies and Cooperative Marketing Associations also will be permitted to carry producers' loans after July 31, at a rate of one percent per annum.

County Men in the Armed Forces

Lester S. Grimes, who is at the hospital at Madison, Wis., writes another letter to The Democrat.

August 3, 1943

Mr. Wells:
I write you again after all these weeks. I am still in the hospital. I have been here for eighty-ninth day in the hospital. I will be in here about more days.

I came to the hospital, and I would have to stay here for some days. I would have to stay here for some days. I would have to stay here for some days.

I started this morning let me sit up fifteen minutes in the morning and fifteen minutes in the afternoon. It perhaps won't be a week until I will be up an hour or two a day. I really help a lot.

I have a twin brother, Pvt. Jack D. Martin, in North Africa. Yours very truly,
Pfc. James M. Martin
The Texas

Dear Friends:
Thought I would drop a line to our home town paper. Guess some of you don't remember me. I have been gone from Memphis for some time. I was inducted into the army January 15, 1941 and am now at Fort Brown, Brownsville in the cavalry.

We do border part and do we have fun here on the border. I am proud of the way our country is buying war bonds and stamps, so keep up the good work and with God's help, it won't be long until we can come home again.

Yeoman, second class, and Mrs. Alvis Melton of Seaside, Ore., came Thursday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Melton and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Scott. They returned to Seaside Tuesday.

Pfc. Don H. Tyler, son of Mrs. Josephine Tyler, has finished his course at Toledo, Ohio, and has been transferred back to Ft. George Meade, Md.

Pvt. Herman M. Jones, who is in Alaska, has written this letter to the editor.

Dear Sir
I received the Memphis Democrat yesterday and surely was glad to get it. It was my first time to get it since I have been overseas. When I was back in the States, my mother would send it to me all the time. I wrote her and asked her to get you to send me the paper.

I would like to write you about where I am stationed, but they don't allow us to tell these things. I guess the people back home have good crops, and that the army has gotten nearly all of the Hall County boys by now. I noticed that the people there are still having something to do with the Old Settlers' Reunion. I sure would have liked to have been there for this one.

Well, there isn't anything else to write about so I will close.
A friend,
Pvt. Herman M. Jones.

Correction
Last week The Democrat published a letter from Pvt. Vedis Anderson to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Newby. The name was listed as Pvt. Vedis Newby, and it should have been Pvt. Vedis Anderson.

There'll always be a U.S.A. and places you long to drive to!

Just as sure as Victory comes you'll long to ease this war strain by going places... wondrous Yellowstone again... sea-swept Cape Cod... the vivid Southwest... even Alaska perhaps. Your boy... your hero out of Africa or Iceland—or cloudland—can take spells at the wheel with you. The mileage your car is kept from making now, it can make then—but not if today's restricted mileage and speed sacrifice your engine to acid!

Acid that's greedy for metal is left over after combustion ceases in any engine. When you used to start often, and make long runs, thoroughly heating the engine, the acid mostly took leave. It wasn't the steady danger that it is today, with car usage restricted. But you can tame rampant acid by OIL-PLATING your little-used engine with Conoco Nth motor oil. Patented Conoco Nth brings your engine this oil's "magnet-like" effect—created synthetically. And that's how OIL-PLATING is held close against steepest inner engine surfaces, much like any good anti-corrosive plating... not all promptly draining down to the crankcase... not leaving fine surfaces all unfortified... hence not allowing free play to acid.

New engine parts—new cars, too—would still be scarce if the Axis folded this minute. Do your best to assure today's vital trips as well as tomorrow's richly-earned hour, by OIL-PLATING your engine now. Get Conoco Nth at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

The Memphis Tri-Y club, composed of older girls in high school, having decided to disband for the duration of the war found they had $11.63 in their treasury, so they have given this amount to the Red Cross. The money has been placed in the local fund and a great deal can be accomplished with it. We are sure the girls got much pleasure out of giving this to the Red Cross and we can only hope that the time will come when this club will again be organized in our schools.

Ladies of the Salisbury community have given their time to the Red Cross this year and the result is many garments and articles for production. We asked that a list be furnished for this column but it seems the ladies were more concerned in results than publicity. Anyway they have done a fine thing and are to be commended.

If any want to knit, there is plenty of yarn for helmets, and Mrs. Webster is anxious that these be made as soon as possible.

Almost 31,000 American nurses are serving in military areas but twice that number will be needed by the middle of 1944 to ensure care for the millions of men who will be in training overseas by that time. To be eligible for military service, a nurse must be a high school graduate, a graduate of an approved school of nursing, a registered nurse, physically fit and of good character. For the Army, a nurse must be under 42 years of age, single or married, a citizen of the USA or of a co-belligerent country. For the Navy she must be under 40 years of age, single, a citizen of the USA for at least the last 10 years. "Their contribution to winning the war is definite, soul-satisfying, essential and irreplaceable." Professional Nursing.

These requirements are for those nurses who wish to enter immediately in the service of the Army or Navy. Student nurses may be serving their country while in training. Civilians need nursing care, but the wounded and sick in the armed forces have first claim on trained nurses.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

After being blown through a window by a bursting shell and stunned by a 14-foot fall during the bombardment of Sand Island, Marine Staff Sergeant Dale Lester Peters of Breckenridge, Michigan, struggled to remove large aerial bombs from nearby burning hangars.

He has been awarded the Navy Cross for exceptionally meritorious service and disregard of his own safety during this action. What hardships are you willing to disregard to invest in Payroll Savings?

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

The Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded Staff Sgt. Doyle Kimmery of Huntington, Texas, for manning a machine gun and returning the fire of low-flying enemy planes during the Jap attack on Hickam Field.

When his ammunition was gone he ran from the cover of his truck to get more, and kept firing until the truck was bombed. He showed bravery beyond the call of duty. Figure out for yourself how much you can invest in War Savings beyond what you are doing now.

Food Cost Rise Leaves Farmers Blameless

Recent rises in food costs are due largely to higher handling and market margins, and very little to increased prices to farmers.

According to a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture study summarized by C. E. Bowles, these marketing changes are now 12 percent above the pre-war period, 1935-1939, and in May, 1943, reached the highest level since 1931.

Bowles is the organization and marketing specialist for the A. and M. College extension Service.

In the period covered by this study (mid-April to mid-May, 1943), Bowles explains, retail food costs to consumers rose 3 percent. None of this was passed back to the farmers who produced the food.

Fresh fruits, vegetables and meats were among the foods showing retail advances.

In May, for example, sweet potatoes retailed at an average of 17.9 cents a pound. Of this price paid by consumers, farmers got 4.1 cents and marketing costs and profits took 13.8 cents.

The government supported price announced for the bumper 1943 sweet potato crop will pay growers about 1.5 cents a pound for number ones delivered at the sheds, Bowles observes.

Beef, pork and lamb prices as a group rose more than one percent at retail, but prices paid to farmers and ranchmen for their live animals actually declined.

Incomes of all groups in the nation, including salaries, dividends and wages, have risen more rapidly than food costs, Bowles continues. During the five years immediately preceding the war, 22 percent of the average income was spent for food.

But early in 1943, the bill for the same quantities of food could be paid with 16 percent of the average income.

Dairy Products To Be Divided

Here's the way the War Food Administration expects to divide dairy products for the next 12 months, says W. B. Hooser, county agent.

For civilians, a little less than most allocated dairy products than we've had on the average from 1936 through 1939. We'll have a little more condensed milk and milk powder, he says.

As to butter, civilians will get 8 pounds out of every 10 pounds produced. The armed forces will get 1-2 pounds out of every 10.

The Russian army 1-2 pound out of every 10.

Cheese... civilians will get about five and one-half pounds out of every ten. The remaining four and one-half pounds of each ten will be divided among the military forces, countries receiving aid, and other export groups such as Red Cross and United territorial possessions.

For evaporated milk, civilians will get about two and one-third out of every ten cases produced, while military and war services will get about three and one-half.

HOW MUCH BETTER . . .

A MIDWESTERN editor says he overheard a farmer talking the other day. A number of things he said were truly refreshing.

"I am farming 410 acres myself. My boys have been called to the army and I have no help. I have reached a point where I feel I would like to slow down a little but I don't feel that this is the time to do it. This food has to be produced and some one has to do it. I am not going to let my boys down. I am going to hold up my end here at home. After the war is won I will have plenty of time to rest but I have no time to rest now."

How much better that sounded than it would have sounded if this farmer had complained that the government had taken his boys and left him all the work to do at home. That man is doing more to help win the war than is being expressed in the production of food alone. He is helping build up morale at home. Everyone who hears him talk is going home with a determination to do more and complain less—to strive to be a little more helpful, and less critical of the war effort.—Brookfield (Ill.) Enterprise.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

I had been intending to buy a turkey this fall, but I read that the government wanted the first 10,000,000 pounds of turkey meat for the men in the armed services. That is o. k. with me. I can do without turkey for years if it means anything to the boys in the Aleutians, the Southern Pacific, North Africa or Sicily. —Wellington Leader.

If we were a preacher we would rather preach to ten people who came to church because they enjoyed being there and received help from the service, than to a hundred who came because they felt they had to, and who, when the service is half over, begin to grow restless and look at the clock.—Foard County News.

Although quite unusual for this time of the year, the lilacs and locust trees are blooming again! These plants ordinarily put forth their blooms only once a year, in early springtime. Some people think maybe the hail stripped the plants back and caused them to blossom again; others predict that this second bloom means they are going to die.—Tulia Herald.

Mrs. Don Grady lost a large diamond Easter Sunday. She thought possibly that the diamond had just dropped out of the ring somewhere between Clarendon and the Grady Bros. ranch in Briscoe County.

Tuesday, Mrs. Grady found the long-lost diamond in a chicken's gizzard as she prepared the dinner meat at the ranch headquarters. "How lucky I am," she exclaimed, "that the coyotes had not caught this chicken!" —Donley County Leader.

Small towns are having a hard time to enforce decent business hours. There is always the urge to stay open just as long as customers come in. Every business firm is greatly handicapped by the shortage of help, and the fact that merchandise has become so scarce. Shoppers should take all this into consideration. Don't rush to your shopping place a few minutes before, and after closing time, and thus force the merchants to observe longer hours. Business men need rest from their usual job, and need recreation. If shoppers will be more considerate business houses in Canyon, and every other small town, could close shop an hour or two every day from their usual store hours without impairing service to the customers.—Canyon News.

Fathers to be Drafted
Fathers 18 to 37 years old, with children born before September 15, 1942, will be reclassified to make them available for induction into the armed forces after October 1. Fathers will be drafted only when it is necessary to fill a local board's quota, they will be called without distinction regarding number or ages of their dependent children. Those who are "key men" in agriculture or essential industry will be deferred, and those whose induction would cause "extreme hardship" and privation to their families will be deferred.

Rationing of Home-Canned Foods
Each person in your family may give away as much as 50 quarts of home-canned food during any calendar year without collecting ration stamps. Any food which is sold does not qualify as a gift, however, and points must be collected for all sales at the rate of eight points per quart (4 points per pound). Home-canned food contributed to school lunch programs and similar services is included in the 50 quarts. More than 50 quarts may be given away provided ration stamps are collected for all gifts exceeding that number. The stamps should be turned in to your local ration boards.

Wool Supplies
The supply of wool for civilian wearing apparel is approximately the same as last season. To meet military demands and equip civilians, existing wool facilities will be operated to the limit of capacity. Manufacturers are reducing the variety of colors and counts of their yarns; weavers are dropping some of the non-essential numbers from their lines. Materials produced will be familiar.

popular and practical colors are prohibited. Discharge Buttons. An honorable discharge from the army during the war will be significant by a Department of War announcement. Both men and women, whether officers or enlisted personnel, will be eligible for the button if they hold an honorable discharge.

Need Big Peanut Crop
Large increases in the production of peanut butter and oil from the 1943 crop of stock peanuts, expected to approximate 1,455,000 tons, are urgently needed to meet time requirements, says the War Relocation Authority.

To Save Paper
Between 250,000 and 300,000 tons of paper will be conserved by the War Relocation Authority's M-24 A which affords a saving of paper and is far more efficient in its scope than any other order. The paper saved, in addition to the WPB pulp and paper, will be utilized in meeting requirements and certain needs.

I write letters in the nearly-dark

This is part of an actual letter from a soldier overseas:
"It's not the big things that you miss out here. It's the little things. Like street noises. Or an electric lamp. Where we are there ain't no such. Since I'm on duty all day, I write letters in the nearly-dark. Funny, how you can miss a common, ordinary light bulb."

Here in West Texas, folks take electric service for granted. We take for granted that, when our fingers flip the switch, the lights will blaze—instantly!

The fact that we do take electricity for granted is a tribute to the men and women who supply it. They've made it dependable—and they've made it cheap. Today the average West Texas family gets twice or three times as much electricity for its money as just fifteen years ago. We're sorry, soldier, we can't do much about sending you electricity over there. But our power is helping train more men . . . helping build the weapons of war with which you will win the victory.

This we are doing the American way . . . under business management and free enterprise. We're in the war, as you are, fighting to dispel the darkness of state slavery—the Nazified system of centralized bureaucratic socialism that threatens all free people.

DON'T WASTE ELECTRICITY JUST BECAUSE IT'S CHEAP—and isn't rationed! Don't waste anything. Get thrifty again! Insist that the money you pay in taxes not be wasted on unnecessary bureaucratic agencies.

Cornfield Chorines Rattle Tassels

Heeding the call of pioneer hybrid seed corn grower Lester Pfister, several hundred school girls from Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Indiana are working at El Paso, Ill., on the "de-tasseling front," helping to save seed corn from inter-pollination, which would destroy years of cross-breeding. Upper picture shows a crew on a de-tasseling platform, where the girls pull tassels from seed corn, leaving two rows of pollinator corn between eight rows of de-tasseled seed corn. Lower left, Catherine Koch learns de-tasseling technique from expert Pfister. Lower right, after a tough day, the lights-out-at-10:30 rule leaves the weary cornfield chorines as they sleep soundly in the emergency quarters in El Paso's high school gym.

Before leaving for Hollywood and a probable movie career, pretty Elsie Roberts, National Bond Queen and University of Houston coed, did her part for the Texas Deposit Bottle Round-Up. Dressed in typical Texas costume, Elsie gathered together all the milk, carbonated beverage, and beer bottles in her home, loaded them into the conveyance labeled "official bottle buggy" and drove to her beverage dealer. "Keeping deposit bottles working is not only a patriotic duty," Miss Roberts said, "but I'll get my deposits back which can be invested in War Stamps."

Bond Dollars Are Fighting Dollars

More than $240,000,000 daily is being spent upon our war machines today, a rise of $100,000,000 over a year ago. That is why President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a message to American workers, told them "we need considerably more than 10 percent of income in War Bonds now." The Treasury Department is conducting a national campaign under the slogan, "Figure It Out Yourself," asking every worker to balance family income with family cost of necessities and put the extra money into more bonds every payday through the payroll savings plan.

Family With Four Wage Earners Instead of One, Figure It Out Themselves

...re typifies millions of American... have been the sole support of... This worker in recent... received the highest wages in... and is investing 10% of his... War Bonds.

For several months now, however, his wife, who also represents some 16 million women in war work, has been employed in a well paid job greatly increasing the family income, while the overhead cost of living has remained almost static.

To add to this family income another member of the family, a sister and aunt, has also obtained employment in a war industry which manufactures parachutes. Her addition to the family income more than doubles the original one-man income.

The daughter now gives the family 4 wage earners instead of one. She is employed regularly as an elevator operator, her wage adding to the family income where only 10% of the 200% total increase goes into War Bonds.

Here the family group is shown figuring out themselves how much more of their increased family income they can put into War Bonds. It can now easily be 25 to 50% of the total income. Typical American families everywhere are figuring it out for themselves.
