That disease dangers may be lessened and the appearance of our City may be improved I hereby ask for the co-operation of each and every individual together with all civic organizations that Memphis may be made a clean town.

Witness my hand this the 21st day of April, A. D. 1927.
F. N. FOXHALL, Mayor City of Memphis, Texas.

MISS TRAVIS IS MADE SPONSOR OF C. C. MEETING

Lula Travis is to represent Memphis in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Wichita Falls as sponsor. She was elected at a meeting of the board of directors of the Memphis chamber of commerce Monday night.

Miss Travis has accepted the nomination and will participate in all functions accorded the sponsors during the convention, which will include parties, teas, dances, and colorful parade and introduction of the sponsors at the fair grounds at night, when the whole sky is ablaze with fire works.

YEGGS ENTER THREE HOUSES

Burglars entered the business houses of Clark Drug company, M-System grocery and the Chas. Oren jewelry store Monday night, taking between $250 and $300 in cash and merchandise.

The Clark Drug company was the heaviest loser, the loss being about $200 in diamond rings, wrist watches, $5 in cash, etc. Evidence was gained through the room by way of a small upstairs room. The safe of the company was badly battered but not entered, and the cash register was damaged and robbed of about five dollars. The maneuvers of the burglars indicate the work of amateurs.

At the M-System grocery entrance was gained by a back door, and the cash register was entered and the lock box pried open, taking $27.50 in gold, the savings of the son of Mr. John Vallance, and also about $200 worth of hot checks.

Chas. Oren's jewelry store was entered by the back door, and in checking up on his loss finds a $35 strand of pearls missing so far, his check of stock being incomplete.

The same night the residence of R. L. Guthrie, assistant cashier of the First National bank, was entered and his watch taken.

FORMER MEMPHIS MAN FOUND DEAD

L. S. Maloney, 49, insurance man of Waxahachie, was found dead at his home in that city Tuesday night, and doctors pronounced the cause as acid poisoning. A note was found giving instructions concerning personal effects. Mr. Maloney was manager of the Mickle store here in Memphis, and he and his family were favorably known to many in this community.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

LOCAL BAND TO PLAY NATIONAL ANTHEMS C. C. C.

The Memphis Gold Medal Band received an invitation Monday from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to play for the Congress of Nations to be held at Wichita Falls on the night of May 16, when each sponsor will be introduced as she appears wearing the costume of the nation she represents.

This will mean that the band will have to play more than thirty national airs during the congress. It also means a signal honor that the band has been chosen from among the many bands of West Texas for this particular work. The band is rapidly getting in shape also for the contest in the six year class, the big parade and the many concerts during the convention, and as usual will make the visitors—fifty thousand in number—sit up and take notice.

MEMPHIS-AMARILLO BALL GAME SUNDAY AT WAYSIDE PARK

The newly organized Memphis baseball club will play the Amarillo Metros at Wayside Park next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 if the plans arranged already do not fall down. This is the first matched game of the season for Memphis, while the Metros have played several games and have a fast aggregation. The Memphis team has some real good material and being re-inforced by other good players, and will make a good showing against the semi-pros of Amarillo in the game Sunday.

B. J. Woodington, present promoter of the club, says that Memphis plans to soon have one of the strongest ball clubs in the Panhandle, and will put Memphis on the map for baseball as well as football. He also states that prospects for the Memphis club for 1927 are very bright. Mr. Woodington has had several years experience in promoting and managing ball clubs and he is very optimistic over the Memphis club, for there is plenty of good material to make good.

BUSINESS GIRLS CLUB HELPING IMPROVE CITY

The street signs are here ready to be placed on the street corners over the city. The contractor is expected and will get to work in the next few days putting up these signs. Then the citizens can get busy putting up their house numbers. This movement was started by the Business Girls Club, and later they secured the support of the City Council.

The Railroad Park, near the station, has been fenced with a nice fence by the railroad company, and the girls have had the park cleaned off and prepared for flowers. These flowers are now coming up and this will be one of the beauty spots of Memphis before long. The railroad company, at the request of the club, furnished and put up the fence around the park.

ROTARY CLUB TO MEET WITH LIONS

The Memphis Rotary Club will pay the Clarendon Lions a visit next Tuesday and put on the program for the Lions. Practically every member of the Memphis club has signified his intention to attend the Clarendon luncheon, and take a part.

The Lions visited the Memphis club about a month ago, and put on the program, which was highly enjoyed. The visit next Tuesday is in return for that visit and at the same time to further cement friendship and goodwill between the two service clubs as well as the two towns.

WEST TEXAS C C PRESIDENT IS TO VISIT MEMPHIS

Mr. Duggan and Homer D. Wade, president and manager respectively of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will visit Memphis May 4, and will speak to the public while here. The local chamber of commerce is arranging a meeting for that date so that all who desire may hear these men. Further particulars as to hour and place will be announced later.

These men are to be at the district meeting of the W. T. C. C. at Childress May 5, and desire to visit Memphis the day before.

MEMPHIS ARTISTS PRESENT SPLENDID EASTER SERVICE

Jr., Trumpet and banjo; Allen Dunbar, Saxophone and clarinet; Colby Delaney, Trombone; Herbert Sisk, Trumpet and drums; Miss Shirley Greene, piano and violin.

Memphis is proud of her musicians, singers and readers, and boasts justly that no other city her size can put on a program like that of Sunday afternoon with none but real home talent artists.

STONE & LANG MGR. GOING TO CANADIAN

H. L. Fry, who has been manager for Stone & Lang store in this city for several months, has purchased an interest in a tailoring business in Canadian with his brother, Charles E. Fry, and will leave for that city May 1. Mr. Fry is well and favorably known in this community and his departure will be regretted by his many friends.

MASONS HOLD EASTER SERVICE

The Knights Templar Commandery Easter Service was well attended last Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church, and a number of out of town visitors and Knights were present. The church was crowded to capacity.

The Knights, accompanied by the Rainbow Girls and DeMolay Boys, marched into the church while the choir sang "Onward Christian Soldiers." A splendid Organ Voluntary by Mrs. L. B. Madden was played next, then the Knights went through an interesting ceremony. A Violin Solo was then beautifully played by Miss Shirley Greene. The choir sang the anthem, "Glory to God," very impressively, after which Rev. Sir Charles E. Jameson delivered a splendid Easter sermon.

It was certainly an Easter service worth attending and one that will long be remembered by those who attended.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

Burton Miles and Noye Crabb were injured when the delivery trucks they were driving collided at Tenth and Bradford streets last Saturday night. Miles was more seriously injured, and is recovering nicely now. Crabb had a bad cut on his arm, and is all right now.

Both cars were badly damaged in the crash. Burton is the son of Supt. S. C. Miles, and is president of the Junior class in high school. Crabb is a lineman for the telephone company.

Congressman Marvin Jones spent Monday night in this city, and visited the Memphis schools Tuesday. He spoke to the student body in the auditorium, and his talk was highly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Jones is making a tour of the congressional district, as he wants to get in touch with the whole district and its needs.

TEXAS & TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES
Increasing Use of Figs

The United States Department of Agriculture says that it is estimated that 9,955,000 pounds of figs were preserved in Texas in 1926 as compared with 4,481,000 pounds in 1925 and 2,360,000 pounds in 1924. In 1926, 18 fig preserving plants were in operation in the State compared with 12 in 1925, and 6 in 1924. It is estimated that the total acreage of figs in the Gulf Coast country of Texas in 1926 was 16,200 acres. For No. 1 figs the growers received an average of 6 cents a pound in 1924, 5 cents in 1925, and 4 cents in 1926, the price dropping along with the increase in production. If Texans want to help a growing Texas industry they should buy Texas-made fig preserves, and there is nothing better that can be eaten. They are not in the same class with the almost tasteless jams and preserves of the Northern variety.

Help the Cotton Mill Industry

The Texas Legislature let die on the calendar, along with a lot of bills that should have died, a measure exempting cotton mills from taxation for a period of years. Right now, many Eastern cotton mills are looking for new locations where inducement are offered. Texas needs 2,500 cotton mills where it now has only 25. Other Southern states have been exempting these industries

SERVICE MAN FOR

Beware of the "Just as good"

WHEN you want Conoco Motor Oil for motor lubrication be sure that you get it. Beware of the unnamed, unbranded "just-as-good" which is a good profit-maker for the seller but which is apt to prove most costly to the unsuspecting motorist who buys it.

Let a reliable Conoco dealer or Conoco service station attendant drain your crankcase. Then you will be sure of getting genuine Conoco—the tested motor oil.

Conoco protects every moving part with its fine lubricating film. It is clean—full bodied—thoroughly tested. There's a grade for your type of motor.

To cut down repair bills, ask for Conoco and get it.

from taxation for a number of years to compensate them in part for moving. The Texas legislature should busy itself in offering every inducement possible to build up the cotton manufacturing industry. This should be a special work for the special session.

Another Growing Town

Pecos has raised $13,000 with which it has bought a site for a $150,000 hotel to be built right away by an El Paso man. The site was given as a bonus to secure the hotel. A splendid investment this is for Pecos, and it shows that Pecos is the fine town—the prosperous town, growing town, the Pecos Enterprise has been picturing it.

Seeing Texas First

It is said that out Marfa way, the tourist parks are even this early in the season hardly able to take care of the tourist business coming that way, but that, foreseeing the influx of summer tourists, provision is being made to make all who come comfortable. Unless all signs fail the Davis mountain section of Texas is going to attract more tourists this year than have gone out that way in any previous five years. Texans are beginning to find that they should "see Texas first," and they are going in great numbers to those places that show a real interest in having them come.

Cotton Dress Movement

The Dallas County Federation of Women's Clubs is going to put on a cotton style show. Prizes are to be given for the most attractive cotton dresses costing not more than $150, and it is said that all the clubs in the county will be represented in the show. This is a good idea that might well be extended to every county in the State. Dallas has no copyright on the movement.

Little Theatre Movement

The Little Theatre or Community Theatre movement, which has been growing in popularity so rapidly in Texas is on the way to end as speedily as it grew popular unless something is done to check the advancing prices charged patrons. When first organized these home talent companies charged a small admission fee, never more than $1 and often as low as 25 cents, but there is a growing tendency to charge as much for these amateur plays as the professional companies charge for copyrighted productions. The high prices tend to make the audiences exclusive, and not the popular community gatherings of the early days of the Little Theatre movement.

Coolidge to be Invited

President Coolidge is to be invited to attend the Austin State Exposition to be held some time in the early fall to meet the Governors of all the other Southern States or as many of them as accept the invitation of the Exposition to be its guests. Along with these, Governors of all the states of Northern Mexico are to be invited. It is an ambitious program that is being planned and one that will draw large crowds if it is fully worked out and thoroughly advertised.

Big Bridge Celebration

It is announced that the Trinity river bridge connecting Freestone and Anderson counties will be completed in July and arrangements are already being planned for a monster celebration. The need for this bridge has been felt not only by the people of these counties, but by thousands of other people who have had occasion to try to get across the Trinity anywhere in that section of the State after a rain. Texas is badly in need of a road and bridge program adapted to the daily needs of the people.

Organization Worth While

South Texas onion growers have learned some costly lessons. Like people in some other lines of business they have learned that it does not pay for every onion grower to do his own marketing in his own way. The growers in Webb, LaSalle, Frio, Dimmitt, Maverick, Zavalla and McMullin counties, where most of the Texas onion are grown will unite this season to control the sale of the 3,000 cars to be shipped from that section, restricting the shipments to meet the demand. If Texas producers would handle all their products in this sensible way, there would be less complaint about prices.

East and West

Although Berger continues to get the most "notoriety," Cherokee county in East Texas and Brown county in Central West Texas appears to be attracting the most attention just now from the real oil operators. The oil development in both these counties is just now so inviting that the operators are kept in a quandary as to where to spend most of their time and are keeping the roads hot. There is a rumor that a regular air travel route is to be established between the two fields to speed up the travel. Don't conclude, however, that the oil interest is dying in other parts of the State. These counties are just the present centers of interest.

Another Trinity Project

Permission has been granted T. H. Harbin, of Waxahachie, to make a survey to determine the feasibility of diverting sufficient water from the Trinity to irrigate 90,000 acres of land. Of this, 50,000 acres are near the crossing of the Texas-Midland Railway at Lock and Dam No. 7; 30,000 acres are adjacent to the lands of the Trinity Farm Company between the East main forks of the river; and 10,000 acres are between Elm and West Forks. Watching Texas development is easy, but one has to hustle to keep up with it.

5000 Miles Made In 4909 Minutes By Studebaker

In one of the most remarkable and gruelling tests ever made with an automobile, a Studebaker Commander has just established six new speed and endurance records for fully equipped American made stock cars. The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association, whose representatives checked and observed the entire test, today announced the result of the run which was completed April 5, at Culver City, Calif.

The Studebaker Commander covered 5,000 miles in 4,909 minutes, maintaining an average speed of 61.12 miles per hour. In establishing this record, the Commander also set four other records for American stock cars. A record for 2,500 miles was set by the elapsed time of 40 hours, 12 minutes and 54 seconds, an average speed of 62.16 miles per hour. In 50 elapsed hours, the car had covered 3,102 1-2 miles, setting an average of 62.05 miles per hour. At 3,500 miles, the elapsed time equalled 56 hours, 47 minutes, 32 1-2 seconds, an average speed of 61.62 miles per hour. At the end of 72 hours elapsed time, the car had traveled 4,414 miles at an average of 61.3 miles per hour. The completion of the run, 5,000 miles, was made at 3:03 a. m., April 5. The elapsed time for this distance was 81 hours, 48 minutes, 22 seconds; the average speed, 61.12 miles per hour. No automobile or other vehicle in America has ever traveled so far, at such a terrific speed. The total elapsed time included time for stopping for fuel, relief of drivers, etc. In view of this, the average speed of the car under actual running was far greater than a mile a minute. Except for one punctured tire, the replacement of a grease cup and two chassis lubrication cups damaged in quick greasing operations, no repairs were made on the car during the entire run.

Harry Hartz, champion race driver, started and finished the run. He was relieved by Eddie Hearn, also one of America's great speed kings, Louis Wilson, another race driver, and Ab Jenkins, who smashed all previous records last June when he drove a Studebaker Sheriff from New York to San Francisco in 86 hours, 20 minutes.

According to observers, 5,000 miles at more than a mile a minute clip is equivalent in strain and stress to 25,000 miles of ordinary driving. To demonstrate the splendid running condition of the Studebaker car, Hartz drove it around the mile and a quarter Culver City track several times at 70 miles an hour after the completion of the five thousandth mile.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH MEMPHIS

Nothing's wrong with Memphis except that entirely too many of us get up in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a pair of Chicago trousers to Ohio suspenders, put on a pair of shoes made in Massachusetts, wash in a Pittsburg tin basin, using Cincinnati soap and a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat Alton or Jacksonville bread spread with Vermont syrup, and Kansas City bacon fried on a St. Louis stove, eat fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices and sweetened with Colorado sugar, put on a hat made in Philadelphia, hitch a Detroit mule fed on Texas gasoline to an Illinois plow and work all day on a Texas farm with New England mortgages, send our money to Ohio for auto tires, wondering why Memphis taxes are so high, and at night crawl under a New Jersey blanket to be kept awake

MEMPHIS YOUTHS HELD IN AMARILLO FOR PARENTS

Willie and Hilton Allen, 10 and 8 years old, respectively, who claimed their home to be at Memphis, Texas, were brought to the police station Sunday after being picked up and cared for during the night by an Amarillo citizen.

The older of the boys said that their father bought them tickets to Amarillo last Sunday, and that they had spent the week with a former friend of the family who lives near this city. Willie said that he had caddied on a golf course north of the city part of the week.

The boys claimed that they formerly lived in Arkansas, but that their father and mother were both living on a farm about two miles from Memphis, moving there about a month ago. The boys were both bareheaded and wore denim jumpers and overalls.

Members of the police force took the boys into their homes yesterday and gave them food and contributed to a fund to buy them tickets back to Memphis last night.—Amarillo News.

5000 miles in 4909 minutes!

Studebaker Commander maintains mile-a-minute speed for 81 hours, 49 minutes

5 amazing records for speed and endurance established by Big Six

NEVER before has any automobile in America traversed 5,000 miles in less than 5,000 consecutive minutes.

A stock Studebaker did it—The Commander, a closed car fully equipped, including even spare tire.

In official tests under the sanction and observation of the American Automobile Association this stock Studebaker, identical with the car you can buy in any Studebaker sales room, not only established the amazing new record of 5,000 miles in 4909 minutes total elapsed time, but also set four other records.

2500 miles in 40 hours, 12 minutes, 54 seconds total elapsed time. An average speed of 62.16 miles per hour.

3102 1/2 miles in 50 hours total elapsed time. An average of 62.05 miles per hour.

3500 miles in 56 hours, 47 minutes, 32 1/2 seconds total elapsed time. An average speed of 61.62 miles per hour.

4414 miles in 72 hours total elapsed time. An average speed of 61.3 miles per hour.

5000 miles in 81 hours, 48 minutes, 22 seconds total elapsed time. An average speed of 61.12 miles per hour. No automobile or other vehicle in America has travelled so far so fast. No stock closed car has ever approached this record.

Here is what these records mean to you:

1 It is possible to purchase a truly great automobile at a moderate price. These records prove that the Commander has justly been called "the greatest post-war achievement of automotive engineering."

2 The Commander, because of the super-abundant power of its Big Six engine, will perform eagerly, easily, smoothly, with no labor or effort, any and all tasks placed upon it.

3 Studebaker has produced in these new models, cars which will excel even the staunch, dependable Studebakers of the past, in low repair and maintenance costs.

Any motor expert will tell you that 5,000 miles at more than a mile a minute is equivalent in strain and stress to 25,000 miles of ordinary driving. Yet in this terrific test the only replacements or repairs were three grease-cups, one spark-plug and one punctured tire. Only one pint of water was used.

NOW! Drive a Commander yourself. Know this great car through your own hands and feet. These shattered records merely dramatize the thrilling performance which Studebaker Commander owners everywhere are enjoying. They explain why the Studebaker Big Six is far out-selling the combined totals of all other cars in the world of equal or greater rated horsepower. The exact duplicate of this record-shattering car is waiting for you at Studebaker show-rooms.

Commander Models and their One-Price: Sedan, $1385; Victoria, $1575; (with broadcloth upholstery, $1765); Coupe, $1545; (with rumble seat, $1645). Other Studebaker and Eskine models range in price from $945 to $2245. All prices L. A. L. factory

"Excellent reasons for the belief that prosperity will attend trade throughout the year are found in every section of the country. Crop diversification has helped the south. Plenty of rain and snow in the Pacific Coast Region, the last part of the country to be visited, assures good irrigation for crops in that territory. Increased employment in the industrial sections of the middle west is giving those regions greatly increased buying power. Strides in the direction of further diversification in the Northwest should make the grain country a bigger factor in the buying market. The corn belt too is preparing for its biggest season. SINGING CONVENTION TO MEET AT LAKEVIEW

The Hall County Singing Convention meets at Lakeview the second Sunday in May at 10:30 a. m.

A special invitation is extended to all singers of the county.

All communities are asked to help Lakeview with the dinner. This has grown to be such a big affair that no one small community should be expected to take care of it alone. Come with well filled baskets and let's have a great day. 43-3c

BUSINESS CONCERNS THAT ARE TARGETS FOR THE MOOCHER

How could we live if we gave things away without charging for them? A business man asked that of a man in his store last evening and he was about right.

"You expect to come in my store and mooch apples and crackers and then ask for a drink of water," he finally said. "Then you have had your lunch and I've paid for it."

"People forget that business is run to sell these things you are taking. Your bill is eight cents."

The man paid and admitted the grocer was right.

A discussion then came up in the store in which it was finally agreed that the grocer, the theater manager and the newspaper man probably are the targets of more "gimme" artists than other classes of business.

For some unexplainable reason people seem to think if they know the average theater man he should let them see his show free. Yet they know that his bread and butter is gained from his theatre admissions paid. The same people think if they come to a newspaper office it should give them papers free for advertising. Why they should be free is as much a mystery to paper offices as the grocery moochers and the pass hounds are to the grocers and theatre men.

Insurance men, dry goods stores, and other business men don't give away their wares. Why should their fellow merchants?—Selected.

Business Good Over Country

Los Angeles, April 23.—Marked evidence of further prosperity that seems to be in store for the country generally throughout the current year was pointed out by R. H. Grant, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor company, who has just concluded a series of 21 nationwide sales meetings that brought him into close touch with business conditions from coast to coast. During the course of the meetings, which consumed three months, Mr. Grant addressed more than 15,000 people and enjoyed an excellent opportunity to survey trade conditions at first hand.

"Business conditions over the United States, as we saw them in the first three months of the year, more than justified the optimistic forecasts made last December," Mr. Grant declared. "Trade activity and soundness in the early months have demonstrated the accuracy of the opinion that the year should be an excellent one for American business."

"Every factor that should contribute to good business is at hand. Everywhere we found optimism and confidence amid unusual activity for the time of the year. Everywhere was reflected the financial stability of the country."

"The aggregate and individual wealth is the greatest ever; savings deposits and business done through checking accounts are

Suffered weak, nervous

"I WAS in a very weakened, run-down condition, surely in need of a tonic and builder," says Mrs. J. R. Wrenn, of Anna, Texas. "I was so weak I had to go to bed, and kept getting weaker."

"I suffered with my back so much. I was very nervous, couldn't rest good at night. I couldn't eat anything—I just wasn't hungry."

"I had read so much of Cardui, I thought best to use it. I took seven or eight bottles, and by the time I had taken them I was stronger than I had been in several years. I can highly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women have found that the tonic effects of the purely vegetable ingredients of Cardui were just what they needed to help restore their appetites, to help bring them easily and naturally back to normal health and strength. Its action has been found to be of great benefit in many common female ailments.

The Green Belt district meeting of the West Texas chamber of commerce will be held in Childress Thursday, May 5, at which time it is expected that two or more thousand people of the district will be in attendance. It is desired that a large delegation attend from Memphis.

Wellington plans to have her annual chamber of commerce banquet Friday night, April 29. Memphis has been invited to have good representation present on that occasion. President S. R. Pinkston and Secretary R. E. Gilmore at the head of the Wellington chamber of commerce, some good results may be expected there this year.

The Panhandle Press Association holds its annual meeting in Amarillo Friday and Saturday, and the editor and Mrs. leave Thursday in order to be there when the meeting starts, and will stay until the close, for the meetings of the Panhandle gang is always a source of pleasure and inspiration. A great meeting is expected.

A portion of Hall county received a good rain last Monday morning, while the section of country in and around Memphis did not receive any. The western portion of the county is reported as having plenty of moisture to bring crops up and keep them growing. A general rain, slow and sure, would be a welcome visitor all over this section of country.

The Seventh District Federated Women's Clubs meeting is in session in Quanaah this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and a number of club women of Memphis are in attendance. Every club and organization in Memphis will either have a representative at Quanaah or a message asking for the 1928 meeting to be held in Memphis.

The 1913 Study Club is doing good work in Memphis by beautifying the Carnegie Library Park. Not long ago the club had grass set over the park, and shrubs and flowers around the band stand. Last week they had concrete walks laid where the gravel walks were laid a year ago. Last year considerable equipment was installed, and the park has become the playground for children of the entire community. The club is to be commended for their work in making a beauty spot in the city.

Memphis has a photographer second to none in the state. He is no other than W. D. Orr. A look at the photographs displayed in his windows will convince any one that any photographer would have to go some to beat him. Mr. Orr took a display of photos to the Four-State convention of photographers at Dallas last week, and says he was not ashamed of the display. This same display is in his window and our people may judge for themselves. Orr is at the top in his line of work, and preserving for posterity the pictures of young and old, great and near great, beautiful and ordinary looking people. It is a calling worth while.

A certain tailor of this city received the shock or surprise of his life Wednesday when he was called to come to a certain number on a certain street and get some clothing to be cleaned and pressed. He went, expecting to have his trouble for nothing. He pictured in his mind just where such a number would be located if the town had houses numbered and streets with signs, and drove to the place pictured. Imagine his surprise when he found a house at that location with the number that had been telephoned. The moral of this is that some day Memphis will have houses numbered so one may go by directions to any part of the city and find the house they want to find.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

BY J. I. SMALL

British women are not permitted to vote until they are thirty. But so few of them having reached that age as to render their support in an election practically negligible. Premier Baldwin has announced his plans to let women vote at twenty-one.

Postmaster General New is said to have slightly jarred the curiosity of his office force by dictating a word that could not be found in the dictionary. But that's nothing. State Press of the Dallas News can step outside the boundary of the dictionary any day in the week and secure an acquittal for so doing without looking up precedents or submitting the question to a consulting staff.

A Texas man took a few drinks of high-powered wine and lost his eyesight. On the same date two California men drank freely of a consignment of freight-yard whiskey and died. Taking deadly poison into the human system without losing control of the physical machinery and plunging into the mighty depths of the beyond, or at least hubbing the outposts of eternity, always has been a difficult thing to do.

A few days ago the operator of a steam shovel, cutting the new railroad grade near Quitaque, dug up a scoop full of rattlesnakes and dumped them on a truck. The situation is said to have resembled a bad case of the "jimmies," and for a time some difficulty was experienced in convincing the truck driver that he was sober. It is reported that there is an aperture in the cap rock over in that section that is infested with an endless number of these reptiles. This, however, is hearsay and is not to be taken seriously.

It is natural, and, in fact, a long established custom for people to speak only of the advantages of the community, county or state in which they live, omitting those things that are not commendable. This is regarded as loyalty, notwithstanding that to conceal part of the facts in expatiating about anything is a sort of slight of hand way of falsifying. Therefore, under the circumstances, the writer feels justified in saying that while Texas is a great state, she certainly has smashed the record this spring in the number of cyclones. Some of them have been disastrous, leaving death and destruction in their wake. In fact, the smaller ones would make a Panhandle sand-storm look like an emission from a miniature exhaust pipe.

The utterances of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, a Roman Catholic and potential candidate for the presidency, are commanding first page space, with his picture, taken fifteen or twenty years ago, thrown in as a guarantee of good faith. Though not a lawyer, Governor Smith is a widely known politician and office-holder, well fitted for the official duties of the Nation's chief executive in so far as ability goes. But because of his church affiliation and the fact that, as governor, he not only sanctioned, but lent his aid in securing a modification of the prohibition law in his state, together with the further fact that he has always been in league with New York's powerful plutocratic clique, he is very unpopular in some parts of the country. Indeed, it is safe to say that long staple cotton will be growing in the vicinity of the north pole, and the bandit infested regions of Mexico will look like Paradise before Mr. Smith will be able to secure the Texas convention vote.

In practically all large cities a police school of instruction is maintained. The necessity of a course of training for men who wish to become officers of the law carries the implication that the country's vast element of crooks also pursue a course of training—secretly, of course—in order that they may be equipped for the many daring feats incident to their nefarious work. If violators of the law were not trained it would not be necessary that officers of the law be trained. And, come to think of it, this way of making a living by crooking the people is about the only sort of business that cannot afford to advertise. Nobody ever saw a bank robber's ad in the paper offering his services to his fellow robbers in the art of safe-blowing. Such publicity would, of course, put him out of business and clear the way to the penitentiary. Furthermore, no newspaper would care to carry such an ad, except possibly for the benefit of the sheriff's department. But the mere fact that a robber can't afford to advertise, proves the efficacy of advertising, and also proves its legitimacy. Now laugh, you hardboiled, non-advertiser.

Under the caption of "Pert Paragraphs" the writer has received quite a few compliments for the comments he has offered. Aside from full time in a kindred line of work, this column has been used as a kind of outlet for his reflections upon the issues, follies, foibles and peculiarities of the day. If in this limited space he has been able to interest a few, thereby placating in an infinitesimal degree the on-rushing tide of humanity, he feels amply rewarded for his efforts. But the chief purpose of this paragraph is to state that no more matter will appear under this heading, and to say good-bye, as the writer is leaving.

FIRE FIGHTERS ARE HEROES OF A NEW G-G-M PRODUCTION

"The Fire Brigade," to be presented by the Fire Department at the Palace Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, April 25 and 26, might easily be called a picture of highlights, so full of thrills it is.

This production does for the fireman what "The Big Parade" did for the American soldier, and brings before the public in an arresting manner the necessity of fire prevention without at any becoming a preaching on the subject. A gripping, dramatic story has been woven against a background of fire and fire-fighters that holds the spectator from beginning to end. The story tells of "Terry O'Neil," descended from a long line of fire-fighters, his initial enthusiasm, his love for the daughter of a wealthy man whom he later discovers to be the head of the whole city government, his disgust at this man's crooked methods, and the consequent quarrel with his sweetheart over her father, his heroism in a spectacular orphanage fire caused through the neglect of the politician, and the final reconciliation with the daughter and his later public recognition for his heroism.

The studio had the expert cooperation of the International Order of Fire Engineers in the making of the picture, and the fire scenes were all staged by the Los Angeles Fire Department under the supervision of Fire Chief Ralph Scott of that city.

MEMPHIS LADY IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Mrs. Charles E. Jameson, wife of the Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor of the First Methodist church of Memphis, and Mrs. J. W. Joyce and children, while enroute from Dodsonville in a funeral procession conveying the remains of Edwin Lee, five-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. Sam A. Thomas, pastor of the First Methodist church at Dodsonville, to the Kirkland cemetery for burial Sunday afternoon, were in a wreck which occurred within five miles of Kirkland, when the car in which they were riding was run into by a line car of Childress, both cars being turned over, and no one being seriously hurt.

Mrs. Jameson and Mrs. Joyce were in the car with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher White of Dodsonville, their car having a puncture between Childress and Kirkland, which was left when Mr. White picked them up. W. W. Carter of Dodsonville was also in the White car. The occupants of the wrecked car were picked up by Undertaker Ray Goodson of Wellington on his return from the Kirkland cemetery and brought to Childress.

MESDAMES BOWERMAN COMPTON ENTERTAIN
Bowerman and Mrs. Compton were joint hostesses to the U. D. C. members Tuesday, April 19, at the home of Mrs. Bowerman.

During a brief business meeting plans were perfected for the presentation of Gene Stratton Porter's "Magic Garden" to be put on the screen at the Gem Theatre May 5 and 6, under the auspices of the U. D. C. organization. Fifteen members answered roll call, the response being quotations from Sydney Lanier.

A reading, Lanier's "Song of the Chattahoochee" was given by Mrs. Joe DeBerry.

Mrs. C. W. Broome read a biography of Lanier's life which was very interesting. Mrs. Baskerville rendered several piano numbers which were enjoyed by all. Mrs. Jackson was welcomed as a new member.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MESDAMES CLOWER AND WOOD ENTERTAIN CLUB

The members of the 1913 Study Club gathered at the home of Mrs. W. W. Clower on April 19 when Mesdames John A. Wood and Clower acted as hostesses.

The home was very beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and other cut flowers. The tables were exquisite with all the new colors carried out in the table covers and the tiny May poles for center pieces around which all kinds of May flowers were entwined.

During the first course a very beautiful violin solo was played by Frank Fore accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Fore.

Five very delicious courses were served—the ice course carried out the color scheme of the May flowers, a unique contest of a "Story told in Flowers" was won by Mrs. Benge and she was crowned May Queen.

After the regular business meeting each member responded to roll call with Musical News. Mrs. Frank Fore was elected to represent the club in Quannah. Mrs. Dunbar gave a most interesting paper on "More and Better Music in our Homes." Mrs. R. C. Walker discussed the "Place of Jazz in Modern Music." Mrs. McNeely was the leader for the study on Music. She conducted the round table discussion and prepared a musical contest which was very instructive and entertaining.

Besides the members the guests included Mesdames Quigley, Dial, Ester, Pierce, Neely, Audrie of Andere, Ill, and Benge of Welington. Mesdames Clower and Wood proved themselves to be wonderful hostesses.

DAUGHTERS OF WESLEY MEET TUESDAY APRIL 12

The Daughters of Wesley Class of the Methodist church met Friday April 12, at the home of Mrs. John Lofland with Mrs. Lofland, Mrs. Lokey and Mrs. Brown hostesses for the afternoon.

After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. Easter lilies and other suggestions of the holiday made the rooms most attractive. About 25 members of the class were present.

BAPTIST W. M. S. REGULAR MEETING

The Baptist W. M. S. met in regular business session Monday afternoon in the auditorium of the Baptist Church with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Gier, conducted the scripture lesson, and after song and prayer the president opened the meeting for consideration of business.

Excellent reports were made from every department of the W. M. S. The chairman of the pipe organ committee reported each circle doing good work in raising its quota of $100. One circle having gone over the top. A splendid report was made by the chairman of Social Service committee showing the W. M. S. is not neglecting the sick and needy, also showing an increase in all lines in this work. The chairman of Education reported the committee making plans to entertain the Seniors before the close of school. The W. M. S. will also open its homes to the Simmons College Glee Club Thursday.

SURPRISED MOTHER WITH A PARTY

The daughters of Mrs. M. V. White surprised their mother by celebrating her eightieth birthday with a party at her home Saturday afternoon. Her friends were asked to call and when they began to come in the dear old lady couldn't imagine why so many were calling. Many lovely gifts of cut flowers, pot plants, birthday capes, handkerchiefs, and other things were presented by the young friends. Rev. Jameson read a very appropriate scripture. Miller led in prayer and a good time was had by all. Lovely refreshments were served.

Millionaire Who Did Not Forget

BY PHEBE K. WARNER

How many of us have made big, bold assertions as to what WE would do if WE were millionaires? But not many of us ever live to demonstrate our statements. But there is one millionaire in Texas that has done what he said he would do if he ever became a millionaire.

On December 17, 1841, a little boy was born on a small farm near Helsingborg, Sweden. This little boy's name was Peter Swenson. His father died when he was nine years old. After the death of his father his mother, with the help of the children, carried on the farming under the tenure system until 1863. When she passed away, the land then reverted to the fee holders, and Peter Swenson, then a young man 22 years of age determined to try his fortune in a big, free, new world.

In June, 1864, he landed in New York City to discover himself in the midst of the great Civil War, and for two years he remained in New York State. When the war clouds cleared away Peter Swenson started west in search of his elder brother whom he located at Redwood Falls, Minnesota, in 1867.

There the brothers spent ten years together, blazing new trails, developing a new community in the midst of their Indian neighbors, fighting prairie fires, pests, drought, and the rigorous winters of that northern region, with starvation often facing them. And one Indian massacre was experienced, near Swede's Forest, which was the name of the new post office that they had established.

But the pioneer life such as that was not without the beauty of love and romance, for it was during those ten years of pioneer hardships that Peter Swenson met and married Miss Christiana Finneven, whose birthplace had been near Lillehammer, Norway.

It was during these years of hardships that Mr. and Mrs. Swenson had heard of the great, broad prairies of the Lone Star State and in 1877, they decided to again set out for a newer and warmer country. One summer night, just fifty years ago, 1877, a covered wagon pulled up by the side of the road near Red river which marked the boundary between the

A Court Award

Walter Gehm, two-year-old San Francisco boy, was awarded to his father by a California court. But the courts of Vancouver, B. C., reversed this decision and gave the boy to Mrs. Marie Gatzens, mother of Walter's dead mother. Walter isn't sure just where he belongs, but doesn't seem to be worrying a great deal.

State of Texas and the Indian Territory. And in that wagon were Peter Swenson and his brave wife, their two little children and all their worldly possessions. After scouting about for a while the family drifted as far west as Bosque county, and two years later moved on to Stephens county where Mr. Swenson still resides with his four children, one son and three daughters, on their wonderful ranch near Caddo, Texas.

Little did Peter Swenson and his family dream during that long nine week's drive from Minnesota to Texas that they would ever be the possessors of 3,500 acres of Texas soil, 800 head of wild bred cattle, with sheep and hogs, wild flowers and oil wells scattered all over their fields.

But all through those years of toil and hardship and patient waiting for the country to grow into a safe civilization, Peter Swenson vowed if he ever did become a rich man he would do ONE THING. And that was—he would plan a way for the children of West Texas to have more fruit to eat. Through all those years of deprivation the one picture that hung in his memory more clearly than anything else was the picture of his father's orchards in Sweden and the big red apples that were the joy of his boyhood.

With such memories clutching his heart, Peter Swenson lived and toiled and struggled to give his children as good a home as he had known in his boyhood back across the seas. And one morning, a few years ago he awoke to the fact that he had become a millionaire because his ranch had become a great oil field.

Did he forget? Did he go wild with reckless enthusiasm? No. He simply said: "Now I can develop a nursery that will give to my State all the fruit its five million people can eat." What is the result? Today the Swenson Nursery at Siloam Springs, Arkansas, under the management of W. T. LaFollette is the realization of that dream.

In the pools of oil that poured out on Peter Swenson's ranch he did not think of himself as the chief benefactor of their possibilities, but instead, he saw mirrored in those glistening pools of liquid wealth, orchards of apples and row upon row of peach and plum and pear trees, acres of vineyards loaded with purple fruit and berries of every kind trailing over garden fences of the West that have not yet been built, and hundreds of thousands of happy children that have not yet been born feasting on the wholesome food that he had made possible for them, and he rejoiced in the possibilities of his dream.

But today his dream has changed. And like every mirage of the future when you reach one goal it brings into view another and a greater goal. So it is with Peter Swenson's dream of a wonderful nursery. And now his plan is not a nursery only to produce trees and plants for all the people but a SCHOOL.

A horticultural school right there in his nursery where young men may go and work for a few hours every day and go to school the rest of the day and study every branch of the nursery business. And not only the nursery business but landscaping for the home, the towns and cities and the whole community and county, and city parks and school grounds and every public place. And the farm itself. Can you think of a more useful and beautiful Forestry Week idea than the establishment of a real horticultural school that is to be made just as nearly free to worthy young men as it can be made? Where their practice work in the field will pay their way and at the same time be training them for a great service to their country. For what public servant do we need today more than a first class horticulturist and tree doctor and landscape engineer in every town and county to teach us all what to plant, how to plant it and how to care for. Think of the years of time and useless toil such a servant would save us and what a blessing he could be to the comfort and health and beauty of all our homes. To make such a service possible for his State is the next dream of Peter Swenson, 86 years young, the Texas millionaire who did not forget.

ONE-MAN ONE-MOTOR HARVESTER-THRESHER
Gleaner Combine Harvester Corporation
Kansas City, Mo.

Gleaner Headquarters
This sign will identify our store, the Sales and Service Headquarters for the Gleaner Combine Harvester, the Headquarters for money-making grain growers.

BECAUSE of the unusual interest that has been manifested in the Gleaner Combine Harvester, because this one-man, one-motor, self-propelled harvester-thresher is so well adapted to this territory, the week of April 24th has been set aside for a State-wide demonstration of the combine that costs less and saves more.
Because of the distinctive features embodied in the Gleaner, an inspection of the machine itself is essential.

For example, you will be interested in the scientific design which has reduced the weight thousands of pounds, simplified the construction and yet increased the separating capacity. You are vitally concerned in the almost unbelievably low operating cost, in the elimination of extra labor, in the saving in money, in grain, in time.
You cannot judge combine value until you have seen the Gleaner. It deserves your inspection! Come in—you will not be obligated in any way. We are mighty anxious to have you see this marvelous little machine! Remember, April 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th.

Be sure and see the Gleaner!

A 100 gallon still together with 13 barrels of mash and 2 1-2 gallons of finished whiskey, was captured by Sheriff Sid Christian and his deputies about five o'clock Friday afternoon on the Milliron ranch, about 35 miles southwest of Memphis, and after a three-mile chase a white man by the name of M. E. Burns was arrested. A negro was assisting with the operation of the still, it is said but he escaped from the officers. Mr. Burns is now in the county jail awaiting an examining trial, two charges having been filed with Justice of the Peace R. N. Gillis Saturday, one for manufacturing of intoxicating liquors and one for the possession of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale. This is one of the largest stills captured in Hall county, and it is said to be one of the best outfits. It required a large truck to bring the still and its accessories to town.
