Bank Deposits Show Increase At Start Of Harvest Season

Bank deposits in Hall County have been steadily climbing back toward the top reached last December, bank statements reveal this week.

The December financial reports of the three banks, the First National of Memphis, the First State of Memphis and the First National of Lakeview, showed a total deposit of $3,333,689.50.

The statements of October 18, 1943, deposits show a total of $3,106,648.00 in the same three banks on that date, about $227,000 less than that of December 1942. And the returns from the 1943 crops have just started, it is noted.

It is believed the total deposits in banks of Hall County will far surpass that of 1942 before the year is out, for the money to come in from both cotton and feed crops will swell the total greatly.

In addition to deposits, Hall County people have invested in War Bonds to the extent of over a million dollars since January 1. While no deposits they are es-sets that serve as money on hand, making the Hall County people's cashable assets at more than four million dollars at the present time.

The new bank at Turkey, which opened for business a week or two ago, will help swell the total deposits in the county in the next financial report of banks. Many of the people in that section of the county have heretofore been doing a lot of their banking at Matador and Quitaque, in other counties.

4-H Achievement Week Set For National 4-H Week

4-H Boys and Girls Work Will Be Recognized During National 4-H Week

National 4-H Achievement Week is set for November 6-14, announced County Agent W. B. Hooser, today. All possible opportunities to recognize 4-H boys and girls work during the week will be given.

The 4-H expansion program in Texas has made a sizeable contribution to the achievement of 1943 goals. One hundred and three boys and girls enrolled in 4-H clubs this year and the production reports so far received show wonderful results, stated G. E. Adams, acting director.

The garden reports of boys and girls both for production and conservation are an all time record and the meat production reports received from many agents in all parts of the State and from all agricultural agents of one district indicate a phenomenal record of (Continued on back page)

Losing Teams CYCLONE-EAGLES WILL TANGLE

Tomorrow night the Memphis Cyclone travels out to Lakeview to meet the Lakeview Eagles in Eagle Stadium for a gridiron struggle to prove which is the best team. Both teams are sitting on the back seat of the conference championship and the game will not mean much in the conference.

If Lakeview wins the tilt it will be the first win of the season for them. If Memphis wins, it will be the second game they have won this year.

Lakeview has been the underdog in all her struggles with scores piled against her. In their first game Wheeler overpowered them and then in the next game McLean stopped them with a score of 6-0. Lakeview went to Wellington and came back loser of the tilt by a heavy margin of 50-0. The Eagles went to Perryton and came back loser again and then they met the powerful Shamrock Irishmen which ended in a

VOLUNTEERS AT WORK IN WAR CHEST DRIVE

Following the workers meeting Monday night of the United War Chest of Texas, which opened in Hall County October 25, volunteers have turned in $509.12 during the first two days of the drive.

Quota for this county is $5,374, stated Carl Harrison chairman, and George Thompson, Jr., treasurer.

"We are certainly well pleased with the way people are responding to this call. Many have promised donations and we are asking that everybody see the chairman of their districts and give them their donations. Don't wait until they call on you. This is for a worthy cause; the money will be used for three purposes—the military front, the home front and in aiding the Allied countries who are harder hit than we," stated Harrison.

Roy Russell and J. W. Hardcastle are sub-chairmen in Turkey and Mrs. S. T. Hutchins is acting in that capacity in Estelline.

At this time, no rural communities have been heard from, but W. B. Hooser is working with his Victory Council, the Human Chain of Communication which has proved successful in past campaigns, and leaders have been appointed in all sections.

The United War Chest of Texas continues through November 5 and it is hoped that the county will be well over the quota before then, said Harrison.

NEGRO KILLED IN CAR WRECK

Jesse Finch, 67, negro, was killed in a car wreck early Wednesday evening a few miles west of town on the Lakeview highway. Another negro was seriously injured.

Full details of the wreck were not available, but it was reported that Mr. Hartsell, driver of the car, was bringing the negroes, three men, Finch's wife and small daughter, back to Memphis from his farm where they had been pulling bolls. A car in front turned in a side road and Hartsell did not see the car in time to avoid it. The Hartsell car turned over, killing Finch, and seriously injuring one of the other men. Hartsell suffered minor cuts and bruises.

Womack Funeral Home reported that funeral arrangements have not been made for Finch.

Ration Book Four Registration Greater Than Those Before

Exceeding previous ration book registrations by several hundred, the registration in Hall County last week for War Ration Book 4 reached 12,000, with something like 1,000 more to register during the next few days. About 12,000 books were issued during the previous registration time.

In Memphis 4996 books were issued, and it is expected that at least 400 more will be registered during the first part of November.

The expected 1,000 more to be registered in the county is due to the fact that the people were out of town or county during the past week-end, it was stated.

Teachers in all schools of the county acted as volunteer registrars, and due to previous experience were able to turn out the large number with ease and dispatch. The Memphis schools were closed Thursday and Friday in order for the teachers to conduct the registration.

The new book No. 4, will be good November 1 when green stamps will be used for purchase of canned fruits and vegetables, and stamp No. 29 in the new book will be good for the purchase of sugar. The green stamps will be valid from November 1 to December 20 for-canned foods.

The last blue stamps in Book No. 2, X, Y and Z, will be good through November 20 for canned foods.

Saturday the OPA announced that the sale of jams, jellies and preserves were frozen until October 31, when rationing on these items will start. After October 31 2 and green stamps A, B and C from ration book 4 will be good for these items.

MRS. JOHNSEY IS APPOINTED COUNTY CLERK

Resignation Of Murray Dial Accepted

At a called meeting of the Commissioner's Court Saturday, Mrs. Gladys Johnsey was appointed as county clerk to fill the unexpired term of Murray Dial, whose resignation was accepted at that meeting.

Dial resigned to move to Burnett County where he has accepted the management of a ranch belonging to Judge A. S. Moss, it was reported. He has served as county clerk of Hall County since January, 1939.

Mrs. Johnsey has been deputy clerk for several years. Many people have expressed approval of the appointment by the Commissioners Court because of her previous experience, and believe she will be able to carry on the work in an efficient manner.

Rural Schools Of County Resuming Regular Schedules

Lakeview Started Monday And Others Will Be In Full Attendance Monday

All rural schools of the county have resumed their regular schedules or will do so Monday.

Friendship, Buffalo Flat and Plaskr will start Monday. Brice Deep Lake and Pleasant Valley started Monday, October 25 and Turkey will also start Monday. Parnell did not begin their term until October 11, so they have not dismissed for crop gathering as the others have. Estelline and Newlin are the only rural schools that have not dismissed during the past few weeks.

LAKEVIEW SCHOOLS

The Lakeview public schools resumed their schedules Monday with a low attendance the first of the week, but a steady increase was noted Thursday.

SKYROCKETS HIT CYCLONE HARD WITH 27-0 VICTORY FRIDAY

By GENE ROBERTSON

After downing the McLean Tigers with a score of 13-7 the Memphis Cyclone suffered an upset with the powerful Wellington Skyrockets last Friday night in a game that ended with a score of 27-0. Melton, the Rockets star quarterback, made all 27 points of the game by running four touchdowns and converting three extra points.

Because of wet weather, the highly praised Shirley to Robertson passing combination failed to click for the Cyclone and then again, the Skyrockets covered all pass receivers excellently. Miller's yard gaining off-tackle plays that brought the Cyclone tremendous gains against McLean, were smothered at the line of scrimmage. In all, the Cyclone didn't have the right breaks against the Skyrockets, who chalked up another victory in their battle for conference champions.

First quarter: Wellington kicked off to the 15 yard line and the Cyclone ran the ball back to their 24 yard line before they were smothered under a wave of red linemen. On the first play Memphis fumbled and the ball went to Wellington. The Skyrockets picked up two first downs before they were held on the Memphis 12 yard line and the ball went over. The Cyclone tried for three downs, then Ed Shirley got off a beautiful spiral which carried to the Skyrocket 45 and the safety ran it back to the Cyclone 41 before he was downed. The Skyrockets tried to bring another first down but lost yardage and punted past the Cyclone goal line and it was the Cyclone's ball on their own 20. After the first three downs proved unsuccessful the Cyclone punted again to the Skyrocket 40. Wellington tried a scoring punch with passes toward the black and gold's zero line but failed and the quarter ended with the ball resting on the Skyrocket's 46 yard stripe, third down and four yards to go for a first down. No score was made in the first period of play.

Second quarter: In the second period the Rockets made two (Continued on page eight)

Mrs. Bessie Blair, 39, of this city, mother of four children, died in a local hospital Wednesday morning from injuries said to have been received at the hands of her divorced husband, Barney Blair, Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Blair, about 41 years old, is in jail charged with murder and bound over to await the action of the Grand jury which reconvenes tomorrow.

Following the attack with a hammer which crushed the back of Mrs. Blair's skull, Blair was placed in jail Saturday evening charged with attempt to murder, and Monday was released on a $10,000 bond. Upon the death of Mrs. Blair Wednesday, he returned to Memphis and the charge of murder was imposed.

According to officers, the trouble arose when Blair, who was divorced from his wife some time last year after he left Memphis, returned Saturday and went to Mrs. Blair's home, presumably to get her to return to him. The outcome of the visit was the hammer-slaying of his ex-mate.

The two little daughters, 8 and 11 years old, were at a picture show at the time. Fern Blair, oldest daughter, was in Amarillo where she works in a drug store and attends business school. A son about 17 years old has been living with his father in Carthage, Texas.

The Blairs are well known here, having been residents of Memphis for some 25 years. He was a mule buyer and trader while here until last year when he went to Carthage. Mrs. Blair was employed at a local cafe at the time of her slaying.

Funeral services for Mrs. Blair will be conducted at the Methodist church Friday, October 29, at 3:30 by Rev. E. L. Yeats, pastor. Interment by King's Mortuary at Fairview cemetery.

Last Rites Held For Carey Woman

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Mary Caroline Thompson, 84, of Carey who died in a Childress hospital October 23.

Mrs. Thompson was married to N. F. Thompson March 20, 1871. To this union 13 children were born, seven sons and six daughters. Eight of the children have preceded her in death. Three sons and two daughters survive: A. J. Thompson, Zuni, N. M.; W. E. Thompson, Amarillo; Bert Thompson, Franklin, Pa.; Mrs. R. J. Connerton, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. M. M. Long, Carey. Other than her children there are 26 (Continued on page eight)

Sodolitan Sunday School Class Meets In Gilmore Home

Mrs. H. B. Gilmore was hostess Friday evening for the Sodolitan Sunday School class of the First Baptist church. Mrs. George Cullin and Mrs. W. T. Hightower were co-hostesses.

The entertaining rooms were decorated throughout with autumn flowers. The dining table decorations carried out the Halloween idea. Lighted candles predominated in the rooms.

The meeting opened with the class singing, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds." Mrs. W. C. Anderson led in prayer. Mrs. Oattie Jones, president, presided during the business session. Mrs. A. J. Cottle brought the devotional.

Mrs. Emma Baskerville was in charge of the program, consisting of several Halloween stories and contests. In the last contest, Mrs. George Cullin acted as a ghost as Mrs. Oattie Jones and Mrs. Bud Godfrey presented Mrs. Bill Hood, winner of the contest, with gifts from the class. Mrs. Hood is leaving soon to make her home in Brady.

Pumpkin pie and coffee were served to Mrs. Mary Bownds, Mrs. Jack Boone, Mrs. H. H. Lindsey, Mrs. J. S. McMurry, Mrs. L. O. Dennis, Mrs. W. C. Smith, Mrs. A. J. Cottle, Mrs. J. R. Saunders, Mrs. D. Outline of Changes Made in Old Age Assistance Rules

On October 20 the Old Age Assistance program in Texas began operation under a new set of rules. A reexamination of the department's definition of need has been made and policies have been changed in an effort to adjust the program to the limitations imposed by the current appropriation. We expect the net result of these changes to be a shifting of money from the least needy to the most needy persons.

The law states that a person must be in need in order to receive Old Age Assistance. Need is not defined except that the law states that the amount of assistance given shall provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health, subject to the $30 limitation, and prohibits consideration of:

- (1) A resident homestead;
- (2) The ability of applicant's child or children or other relative, except husband or wife, to support;
- (3) Income and resources which are not actually known to exist and which are not actually available to the applicant.

On the other hand, the law requires that consideration must be given to income and other resources actually available to an applicant, including contributions from relatives where there is reasonable certainty that these contributions will continue. In those instances where relatives have made the statement that contributions would not be made in the future but such contributions have continued, the law requires full weight be given to this increase in determining the extent of an applicant's unmet needs.

It is necessary for the Department of Public Welfare to define need in specific terms, itemizing the necessities to be provided and setting out what resources a person may have and still be considered in such needy circumstances as to require assistance from the state.

In October, 182,305 persons received Old Age Assistance checks in Texas. These persons were certified by individual investigation of their circumstances to need a total of $4,258,093. There was only $3,776,807.80 available for payment. Since the Old Age Assistance Fund lacked $481,285.20 to pay full grants, $2.64 had to be deducted from the certified amount of each grant in writing checks.

All persons on the rolls are not in the same condition of need. Circumstances range from those who have qualified under the maximum provisions of the law to the opposite extreme of complete destitution. A flat cut takes from those in extreme need the same as from those who could secure equivalent support if the program were discontinued. While it is necessary for this department to scrupulously follow the law and leave both extremes on the rolls as the law requires, the law gives us the duty of defining the standard of need. It therefore is possible by policy to include or exclude what might be termed semi-essentials and to limit the standard of living which can be provided.

With this in mind we have just issued a new rule book for the three programs, Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, and Aid to Dependent Children, which covers 65 pages, succeeding a manual that covered 377 pages. In the future, grants will be made on the basis of what is needed by an individual for the purchase of essentials only. By eliminating from the budget's allowances for purchase of semi-essentials, we hope to get rid of the cut and the nearly half a million dollars per month now being taken from total grants by proration will be absorbed by taking the semi-essentials out of budgets, limiting standards of living which assistance money can provide, and requiring fuller use of private sources. In this way we hope to insure the absolute necessities to those solely dependent upon Old Age Assistance.

For instance, the average budget allowance for incidentals is now about $2.64. This covers such items as bus fare, small church contributions, tobacco, stamps and stationery, newspaper, etc. In the future, allowance for this expense cannot exceed $2 for an individual living alone and $1.25 if living in a family group. Formerly, the department permitted a maximum payment of $4 for life insurance. In the future this will be limited to $2. Formerly the department allowed health care, subject only to the $30 limitation. In the future, this will be limited to $6 per month except in cases of chronic illness. Formerly glasses, where necessary, could be allowed for in the verified amount of their cost. In the future, the department will limit allowances for purchase of glasses to $15. In the past, dentures have been allowed for according to their cost. In the future, allowances for teeth will be limited to $40.

The welfare department has been following the practice of providing money to enable aged persons to pay a prorated share of such common household expenses as shelter and utilities when living in the home of a son or daughter or other non-dependent relative. In the future, no money will be granted for such purposes unless the aged person's presence in the home increases common household expenses or such necessities cannot be secured without cash outlay by the aged person.

Heretofore the department had fairly liberal exemptions on personal property, insurance, and property in excess of a homestead. The new policies will exempt a burial reserve of $150 either in cash, liquidable property or insurance. An insurance policy that has a cash, or paid up value, in excess of this amount must be considered as a resource. Non-income bearing property which can be sold for sufficient money to meet the needs of the applicant and his dependents for a period of three months or more renders such applicant ineligible for Old Age Assistance. Income bearing property (that is, property bringing a 5% return or more) which can be sold for sufficient money to meet the needs of the applicant and his dependents for a period of two years renders such applicant ineligible for assistance. Of course, under the law contributions being made by relatives which have continued (even though relatives formerly said this income would be discontinued) must be considered in the future.

Rev. M. O. Evans will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday, October 31.

A CARD MOTORIST

A tire run too long to recap is a dead tire! Let your Phillips 66 Service Warden help you meet and beat today's rubber crisis.

Washington rubber authorities warn us that "the tire situation is getting worse, not better, and non-essential drivers cannot expect to get any new tires for at least the next 12 months."

To help the home-front back up the war-front to the limit, you must get every last fraction of a mile out of your present tires. You must Save the Carcass and Recap to Keep 'em Rolling, or your dead tire will become a net loss to the nation's transportation resources.

In our country's interest and in your own, be frugal with your dwindling stock of tire miles... be watchful and intelligent about tire care. At least once a week, have your Phillips Service Warden check air pressure... inspect for nail holes, cuts, and bruises... examine tire carcass to warn you when recapping is advisable.

This is only a part of the tire-saving and car-saving service pledged to you at every Phillips 66 Service Station, to help you "care for your car for your country."

Don't delay. Before it is too late, before your tires are worn beyond the possibility of recapping, drive to your nearest Phillips 66 Station for inspection, advice, and action. Just look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield, the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

Make Shoes Last Another Season

Do you have some good wearable shoes in the clothes closet left over from last season? Then, you had better dig them out, give them a good polishing and let the shoe man make a few minor repairs. Many civilians are beginning to realize that shoes can be made to last another season when necessary.

Production of shoes continues high as you can imagine with men in the armed forces coming close to eleven and one-half million, their requirements for shoes are heavy. Lend-lease takes shoes too, and the War Production Board, which allocates the number of shoes for civilians and others, has said that in the next six months we can have only 25 million pairs of shoes a month instead of the 75 million pairs a month we have had in the past six months.

Your shoe stamp No. 18 instead of expiring October 31 will last indefinitely and will overlap Stamp No. 1 on the airplane page in Book III, which will last until May 1, 1944. This means that approximately two pairs of shoes a year will be allotted to civilians unless requirements of WPB for the army changes. Office of Price Administration is making no basic change in shoe rationing except to eliminate stamp expiration dates. This should ease the drain on the present working inventories and do away with the stampede in buying just before expiration dates.

That the shoe rationing plan is flexible has been pointed out by the provision that shoe stamps are interchangeable among members of a family living within the family group. The normal ration of shoe consumption is about two pairs of men's shoes for each three pairs of women's shoes and four pairs of children's shoes. With stamps interchangeable within the family, the stamps of adults can be used to offset the heavier needs of growing children. Similarly, special needs of one family member whose occupation subjects his shoes to unusual wear can be budgeted against the less urgent needs of other members of the family. In cases of hardship, individuals may apply to their local war price and ration board.

The new longer ration period

Mrs. Fred Berry's Father Buried At Bowie October 20

Funeral services for Alonzo Wilf Chandler, 77, were held Wednesday afternoon, October 13 at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. S. P. Warren of Megargal officiating. Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery under the direction of Burgess Funeral Home.

Mr. Chandler was one of the pioneers of Montague County, having lived in the county for 68 years. He was a retired ranchman and farmer and for the past several years had made his home in Bowie where he died October 11. He was born near Wolfe City, Texas.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Chandler, two sons Grover of San Diego, Calif., and Granvil of Hartzhorn, Okla.; three daughters, Mrs. Pete Caid of Tucson, Ariz., Mrs. Fred Berry, of Estelline, and Mrs. J. H. Myers of Sacramento, Calif., and a foster daughter, Mrs. Rosa Bell Turner of Lubbock, also 18 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. — Bowie Blade.

In a letter renewing his subscription to The Democrat, Tom A. Ballew of Los Angeles, Calif., a former resident of Memphis, took occasion to compliment The Home Paper:

"I want to congratulate you on the splendid paper you are publishing, for I realize that with the scarcity of help you are lucky to get out a paper at all. The space given to the boys in service is very good and greatly appreciated," he wrote.

The Tyrants

Mrs. Barton Durrett left Wednesday for Lawton, Okla., where she will make her home with her husband, who is stationed at Fort Sill.

will mean that average consumption for the first time, will be below normal prewar rates. Individual shoe wardrobe, regular shoe stamps and special stamps in hard ship cases will provide for necessary wartime uses. Adjustments in the rationing system to provide equity and workability for consumers and the trade will be made if necessary, as they have been made in the past.

Former Highway Engineer Returns To This District

J. B. Nabers, who served as highway engineer of this district several years up to three years ago, will return to Childress to become district engineer again.

P. S. Bailey, who has served as engineer of the district for the past three years, has been transferred to the El Paso district, and will leave shortly for the new assignment.

Nabers came to the district as district engineer when the highway department first established the district headquarters at Childress more than ten years ago, and was then transferred to a district lower down in the state.

Father, Daughter Both Are Marines

(From Chattanooga Press) There have been stories about father and son, mother and daughter—but it took a second world war to produce this story about father and daughter.

Sgt. W. B. Baldwin is a marine and his daughter, Pfc. Billie Baldwin Holcomb, wears the marine uniform, too. Baldwin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Baldwin of Memphis.

Sgt. Baldwin saw his daughter in the feminine counterpart of his own uniform for the first time yesterday when she arrived from her station at the New River, N. C., marine base on a 24-hour surprise visit.

Father and daughter both enlisted in April—he for the second time, she as a member of the newly-formed women's reserve. He was on duty at Tyler, Texas, while she was in "boot camp" at Hunter College, N. Y., and he was transferred to the Chattanooga recruiting station last month—shortly after she was assigned to post troops in maintenance at New River.

This is Sgt. Baldwin's second world war in the marine corps. He served overseas with the 5th Marines during the first war, and today he wears ribbons for the Victory Medal, the German Army of Occupation, Marine Good Conduct medal, and the coveted Croix de Guerre.

An only child, Pfc. Holcomb and the women marines are too young for campaign ribbons—but she wears her uniform just as proudly. Her husband, Cpl. E. E. Holcomb, wears the army's khaki, and is on duty in the Aleutian Islands, where he has been stationed for the last 16 months.

"Draft Dodgers" To Be Inducted Or Prosecuted

Delinquents After Nov. 1 Will Be Inducted Or Prosecuted By S S

Moving to close in on "draft dodgers" Selective Service regulations have been amended to provide for the immediate induction or prosecution of men 18 through 44 who become or remain delinquent on or after November 1. It was announced today by State Director, General J. Watt Page.

"The continuing manpower demands of the armed forces and the manpower needs of war production and agriculture, plus fairness to men already in the armed forces and to men, including fathers, who will soon be inducted, make it imperative that every man acceptable to the armed forces, who knowingly becomes delinquent, should be promptly made available for service or prosecuted under the terms of the law," General Page said.

General Page pointed out that no man is relieved from complying with the Selective Service law during the time he is in custody, confinement or imprisonment, and that immediately upon his release from such confinement he must advise his local board of the fact and perform the duties, and be accorded the rights of all registrants. This obligation, he said, applies equally to a man confined for a violation of the Selective Service law and to a man confined for any other cause.

In a great many instances, General Page said, cases of delinquency investigated by the Department of Justice have been due to carelessness of registrants concerning their duty to keep their local boards advised of changes of address. If a registrant has failed in this obligation, then he is suspected of delinquency and has been or will be classified as a delinquent. He warned that any registrant who is not absolutely certain that his current address is on record with his local board, or that his whereabouts are known to the "person who will always know," as shown on his registration card, should immediately communicate with his own local board and keep that board advised of all future changes of address.

General Page also cautioned every person required to register under the Selective Service Act to have in his personal possession at all times both his registration card and his current notice of Classification. If a registrant has lost his classification notice, he should immediately make application to his local board for the issuance of a duplicate.

Tomorrow's Highways

(By Texas Safety Association)

It is gratifying to learn that the Texas Highway Department, in planning Texas thoroughfares after the war, is putting into these highways every possible safety device—plus a good many that heretofore have been just a gleam in an engineer's eye.

Like most other civilian activities, highway and road work in Texas since December 7 have come to a standstill. This means that Texas is nearly two years behind in its highway building, not to mention maintenance of present roads.

Construction of new highway, and rebuilding of outmoded and worn out routes, will be one of the big post-war projects. At the meeting of the administrative committee of the Texas Safety Association in Austin, DeWitt Greer, Texas highway engineer, revealed that Texas is planning on a hundred million dollars worth of road building directly after the war.

A great deal of this construction has already cleared the planning stage, and some $80,000,000 worth of work will be ready to let out the first year after the war is over.

Much of the money for this project will, and should come from the federal government, since the federal aid to state highway work has been inoperative since the war began. To this end the Texas Safety Association in its Austin meeting joined the Texas Good Roads Association in backing the post-war planning program for Texas highways.

Unless every possible safety precaution is taken, the toll on the nation's highways after the war will reach and likely exceed the casualties of our men in the war. The returning soldier is accustomed to speed. The first thing he will want to do is buy a fast automobile. The citizen who stayed at home and drove 35 miles an hour will feel that the lid is off. Every one will be in a hurry. Texas highways must be fast highways—and in order to be fast they must be safe.

Careful planning for these highways to be built after the war is essential and no cost should be spared to make them the safest highways in the world.

Post-war highway building, of course, will not be restricted to Texas. It will be nation-wide, for all the states are in the same position as Texas on their highways. It is hoped that the American Association of State Highway Officials, chief sponsor of the post-war movement, will also adopt a policy of uniform traffic signs and signals for the national highway system.

A beautiful radio cabinet was totally destroyed Monday afternoon at the home of Cecil Cayton. (Weekly News Digest prepared by the Rural Press Section, OWI News Bureau)

Can Still Send Some Gifts

Christmas packages for soldiers overseas which have been returned to the sender because of an improper address still may be mailed, according to the War Department. The original wrapper, bearing the endorsement, 'Return to Sender, Insufficient Address,' must be submitted with the correctly addressed package to prove that it originally was mailed before the October 15 deadline. Christmas packages also may be mailed to soldiers going overseas between now and Christmas. When the sender presents his package to the post office for mailing he must bring the Change of Address form containing the APO address to which the package is sent.

Get Points to Send Food Overseas

Persons who wish to send a package of rationed food overseas may get the necessary points by applying to OPA. Those who wish to have the dealer from whom the food is bought arrange for shipment, may make the purchase without giving up ration stamps, since OPA will replace the point value of the foods the dealer exports. When extra ration points are issued, a copy of the Export Declaration or a Certificate of Mailing must be turned over to the OPA office which granted the points.

56 Prisoners of War Camps. More than 140,000 prisoners of war are now held in 56 permanent camps in the U. S., the War Department has reported. The ratio of Germans to Italians is approximately three to one. In addition to the permanent camps, there are many temporary ones set up to house prisoners in areas with labor shortages. Agricultural work done by prisoners include harvesting fruit, tomatoes, potatoes, peanuts, cotton, sugar beets and corn. Only a few prisoners have escaped and every one of them has been recaptured in a few hours.

Will Have Enough Cigarettes

Supplies of cigarettes will continue to be sufficient in volume and quality to meet the demands of U. S. civilians, according to a recent report by the War Food Administration.

Lawyers Aid Soldiers Recovery

Army and civilian lawyers are aiding Army Medical officers in bringing about the speedy recovery of wounded troops by providing free legal advice which clears up perplexing financial problems and other difficulties which may confront the soldier. This service, provided overseas as well as at home, gives the soldier the peace of mind which is necessary for proper response to medical treatment, the War Department reports.

You: What are your wages, Reddy?
Reddy: Your electric bill, the small sum you pay me for the jobs I do for you daily.
You: But just how do you convert them into forts to send over Berlin and Tokyo?
Reddy: Like this: Fifteen cents out of every dollar you turn over to me my company turns over to the federal government as taxes—which in terms of the entire industry means over 400 million dollars. And that's ENOUGH TO BUY MORE THAN 1,500 GIANT BOMBERS—at a quarter-million each!

Keep your car up to par with Studebaker service. Drive in frequently and have your car inspected, no matter what make it is. If adjustments or repairs seem necessary, you'll be given a check list of what needs to be done. Efficient mechanics will do the work quickly and at moderate cost.

USED Studebakers are getting scarce in the markets because more and more essential transportation users recognize there's no substitute for Studebaker economy and stamina. Top quality materials and craftsmanship keep Studebaker repair costs down. Advanced engineering principles keep needless bulk out of Studebaker construction—this means no overload on tires. Come in for a used Studebaker now.

Truck Deliveries Sharply Curtailed

A sharp curtailment of all retail and wholesale truck deliveries throughout the nation became effective at 12:01 o'clock Monday morning, October 11, under order of Joseph B. Eastman, director of the Office of Defense Transportation.

Retail delivery of any package weighing less than five pounds or measuring sixty inches or less in length and girth combined, is banned. Except for ice, milk or cream, retail deliveries on Sunday, also are prohibited.

A maximum of three deliveries a week is permitted for fresh or frozen meats, poultry, eggs, fruit, vegetables, fish and shell fish, but five wholesale deliveries of these products may be made.

Retail deliveries of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, confectioneries, soft drinks and other non-alcoholic beverages are cut to once a week. The same limitation is placed on ice cream, sherbets or soft drinks, and cut flowers.

Three deliveries are the retail maximum for bread and perishable bakery products, but six wholesale deliveries are permitted. Two deliveries a week may be made by laundries, dry cleaners and tailors, while the wholesale limit on such service is five deliveries.

Mr. Eastman's order requires all delivery truck operators to establish and map delivery areas or delivery routes that are neither duplicating nor overlapping. However, this does not mean that one operator may not duplicate the routes of another; it requires merely that no carrier operate over a delivery route which overlaps another of his own routes.

One exception to the regulations is in connection with telephone orders. The size and weight provisions do not apply to anything ordered through the switchboard, but the frequency of delivery limitations will apply. This is, primarily, for the convenience of persons who are ill, handicapped and otherwise unable to do their shopping.

It was pointed out that, despite all efforts to replenish the nation's rubber supply by the manufacture of synthetic rubber, the rubber situation still is acute. Paramount among the reasons for this is the fact that such synthetic tires are being turned out, to a large extent, going for military purposes. In addition to the rubber shortage, there is the increasing problem of replacement parts for motor trucks and other vehicles, as well as the vehicles themselves.

With the manufacture of commercial vehicles at a standstill, those now operating must be made to last for two, three or maybe four years. The big problem is to keep the nation's equipment in running order for the duration.

first downs and then fumbled to Memphis on the Cyclone 25. The Cyclone tried again, but failed, and had to punt out of their end of the field to the 28 yard line. The Skyrockets tried and made two short gains, but was thrown for a loss of about four yards. On the fourth down, the Cyclone went into a 5-4-2 defense and let Mark Lamkin through a hole to block Melton's punt as Robertson fell on it, making it Memphis' ball on the 28 yard stripe. Memphis tried very desperately but lost yardage and Wellington took over. The Skyrockets started up the field with renewed strength, a mixture of single wings and double wings, then a long pass from Melton down to the Memphis 8 yard line. The 'Rockets tried to score with another pass, but failed, and Melton scooted through end and tackle for the first touchdown of the game, and also kicked the point, making the score 7-0 in favor of Wellington. Wellington kicked out of bounds on the 35 and on the first play the aerial attack between Sheeley and Robertson clicked off fifteen yards for the Cyclone, and the half ended.

Third quarter: The Cyclone kicked off with a low one by Robertson along the ground to bounce over the safety's head and across the goal. With the ball in their possession on the 20, the Skyrockets didn't let up for the 80 yard length to the Cyclone goal line, only losing 2 yards in the tumble. Melton again ran the ball over for the second tally from the Cyclone 14 yard line, making the score 14-0 for the Skyrockets. Wellington then kicked off to Memphis who made nine yards in four plays and the ball went over. Wellington made four yards and lost eight, then punted out to the 20. Memphis passed and Melton intercepted but was stopped in his tracks by Miller, who the pass was intended for. On the second play for the 'Rockets Melton went over for another touchdown from the Cyclone 20. Score: Wellington, 20; Memphis 0.

Fourth quarter: The final period found the Skyrockets again on their way toward the Cyclone goal line. They paused on the Cyclone 23 yard line to toss a touchdown pass but Smith intercepted it on his own 2 yard line, crossed his own goal and was thrown out of bounds on his 2 yard line. Memphis kicked out of the hole and within three plays Melton again crossed the black and gold stripe for the final score of the game, and kicked the extra point. The remainder of the last period was staged with an exchange of kicks and the game ended with the Skyrockets in midfield with a first down. Score at the end of the game: Wellington, 27; Memphis 0.

The Tyrants
Neighbors' chickens running loose and playing havoc with their gardens and flowers and otherwise making nuisances of themselves. Chickens are good enough to eat but certainly are not good enough to be allowed to bother the other fellow. Why is it that some people don't care what their chickens, dogs, etc., do to the neighbor's property? Put yourself in the other fellow's place and act accordingly. It is a good rule to follow. Eat the chickens or else pen them up so they will not bother the neighbors, if you want to do as you would have others do to you.

JUST about every thinking person today realizes that transportation—passenger, mail, freight—by air will be a much bigger and faster growing business in the post-war era, many times larger than we have known it.

The NATS—Navy Air Transport Service—is helping vastly to make the road smoother for this new baby of commerce, blazing trails, finding out what sort of job the air industry is in for. Ordinarily, when you think of aircraft in wartime you think of bombers, fighters, observation planes, torpedo planes. But behind the fighting Air Force, in fact, behind all our fighting fronts, the NATS performs a vital job by keeping things moving in emergencies.

Founded five days after Pearl Harbor the service today links five continents, spans many seas with its 60,000 miles of routes dotted by every type of stop from jungle landing strips to metropolitan airports.

Flying giant R4D's, it is NATS' job to get vital supplies and men from place to place when there isn't time to wait for slower ships and trains. If a particular technical expert is needed at Guadalcanal, say, and a military or naval operation is waiting on his arrival, then NATS enters the picture.

The service is operated in business-like fashion, on minute-timed schedules. More than 2500 pilots and groundmen keep it that way. When peace comes, its work will prove of inestimable value in arranging schedules, fixing charges, laying other groundwork for the big air boom that will come.
