Medalist Wins Over Theron Hicks, 1 Up

Jake Morgan, medalist, Gene Gardner and M. K. House joined in the semifinals of the Fall golf tournament at the Municipal course in Sunday matches.

Morgan edged out Theron Hicks, inconsistent left hander, on the 10th hole, one up. The two agreed to play only nine holes and were even at the turn.

Gardner exhibited a rare game in throwing aside the challenge of Bob Satterwhite, 3 and 1, while House was advancing at the expense of Charles Watson, 4 and 3.

In duels this week Morgan will oppose Gardner and House will battle Coffey for finalist berths.

Other matches during the day saw E. D. McDowell oust Ray Mahen, 5 and 4, in a first flight match. He will meet Hiram Brinberry in a semifinal encounter this week while the other semigo will pit W. A. Brinberry against L. D. Barber.

V. V. Strahan, in defeating George Hill Saturday, moved into the finals of the second flight where he will meet the winner of the Homer McCarty-Neil Barnaby match to be played this week.

In championship consolation, Harry Stalup will meet Glen Hancock and Neil Hillard will oppose Horace Wallin. Hillard downed Leonard Morgan Sunday, 3 and 1.

In first flight consolation W. G. Hamsden and Sam McCombs will play as will Seamon Smith and Murlan Smith. Murlan Smith defeated Ben Cole, one up, Sunday.

There are now 14,000,000 horses and mules in harness on American farms in addition to about 8,500 race horses, 7,500 trotting horses and 500,000 riding horses.

New Spirit Is Apparent In Steer Camp

Bovines Go To Work In Earnest For Eagle Go

The Big Spring high school football record for 1933 remained as low as a barometer in a typhoon as the Longhorns prepared to go out and begin their week's work for the Abilene fracas but prospects were considerably better than they were a fortnight ago and indications were that the Bovines would never threaten Siwash's record of reversals.

There appears to be a new spirit in the camp of the gridlers. The boys are confident that they're going to hand someone a trimming in scores as well as statistics this season and intend to start with Abilene's Eagles here Friday night.

Coach Pat Murphy was hopeful that the injured members of the Steer brigade would come around in time for the game. Durwood Dearing, big tackle, joined Clyde Smith, Ross Callahan and Lem Nations as the injured parties Friday but was expected to be back.

The Abilene tilt will be the last Steer home game until November when they return to wind up the conference year with Sweetwater.

DALLAS, Oct. 10 (AP)—David and his slingshot, still a fatal combination, move on to the Brazos river banks next Saturday for a face-to-face meeting with one of the burliest gridiron Goliaths they could duel.

Tiny David O'Brien, Texas Christian's quarter-back with the six-point arm, takes an undefeatable College Station, nevertheless, was expected to be the stopping point for some 20,000 to 25,000 fans for the "natural" of the year.

O'Brien will be matching his throws against the dancing feet of Dandy Dick Todd, leader of one of the finest Farmer teams of a decade. Deep in rural territory, College Station, nevertheless, was expected to be the stopping point for some 20,000 to 25,000 fans for the "natural" of the year.

Started Drive It was O'Brien and his passing darts that tripped up Pop Warner's Temple Owls, 28-6, at Philadelphia Friday night, the wee one getting the Frogs off to a 21-0 start before he trotted to the sidelines and began worrying about the Aggies. Wisconsin To Oppose Pitt Saturday

Michigan-Minnesota, TCU-Texas A&M In Standout Games

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Free (finally) of potent competition from baseball, the 1933 football season takes full charge of the sports scene this week.

Three weeks of preliminary firing, marked on the whole by surprising adherence to form charts, simply have whetted the appetites of football fans for major tests to come. Thus far it's been largely batting practice but from now on exceptional championship hopes will be on the line week after week.

This week's program lines up as follows:

East: Two undefeated New York state rivals, Cornell and Syracuse, collide at Syracuse in the main domestic battle. Cornell, in triumph over Colgate and Harvard, the latter by Sid Luckman and Art Radavilas to a sensational 20-18 victory over Army, tangles with Colgate whose sturdy defense held Duke to a 7-0 count.

Penn, whose potent attack built around Francis Reagan and Jim Connel, crushed Yale 21-0, meets Princeton next, Harvard and Army square off at Cambridge. Yale may take its third straight beating in a game with Navy which rolled up a 33-0 score on Virginia.

The intercollegiate program is headed by the annual duel between untested Fordham and Purdue's Boilermakers who surprised by holding Minnesota to a 7-0 decision. New York university, meanwhile, entertains North Carolina, Boston college plays Detroit, West Virginia, shocked by a 6-6 draw with Washington and Lee, faces Michigan State, and Villanova plays host to Centre college.

Pitt In Tough One Middle West intercollegiate battle between Pitt and Wisconsin and a perhaps crucial Big Ten match between Minnesota and Michigan share top billing. Pitt and Wisconsin both are unbeaten, the former routing Duquesne, 27-0, and Wisconsin rolling over Iowa, 31-13, last week. Michigan, under Fritz Crisler, seems to have come a long way, as a 45-7 decision over Chicago testifies but the Wolverines probably will be underdogs against powerhouse Minnesota.

Ohio State, beaten 14-7 by Southern California's passes, digs in against formidable Northwestern which routed Drake, 33-0. Chicago and Iowa get together in another Big Ten conference game. Illinois, which surprised Indiana, 12-0, will attempt to halt Elmer Layden's Notre Dame outfit which had to overcome stout resistance before topping Georgia Tech 14-6. Indiana tackles Nebraska's Cornhuskers who celebrated head Coach Biff Jones' birthday by dropping an all but unbeatable 8-7 decision to Iowa State's Cyclones.

Big Six interest will center on the meeting of Oklahoma, which halted Texas, 13-0, and Kansas, and the clash at Columbia between Iowa State and Missouri, beaten 21-13 by Kansas State. The latter plays Friday night against Marquette whose 7-0 conquest of Southern Methodist upset one of last week's prime upsets.

Tide Meets Vols South: The pivotal clash is between undefeated Alabama and Tennessee. Alabama was unimpressive in a 14-0 setback of North Carolina State while Tennessee was winning a Southeastern conference fray from powerful Auburn 7-0, Mississippi, which engineered a major surprise in beating Louisiana State two weeks ago, will try for another against Vanderbilt, hard pressed to stop Kentucky, 14-7. Auburn and Mississippi State pair off in the only other Southeastern conference game. Tulane's Green Wave which halted North Carolina, 17-14, now meets Rice, beaten 3-0 by Louisiana State on Guy Milner's field goal from the 25-yard line in the closing minutes of play. Georgia Tech plays Duke.

With Duke and North Carolina engaged against non-conference rivals, the Southern conference race is temporarily becalmed. Richmond, with one conference triumph to its credit, may conceivably drop against Virginia Military which held against Clemson to a 7-7 draw. Wake Forest, which eked out a 20-19 decision over South Carolina, meets North Carolina State. Furman and Citadel, Davidson and South Carolina, are the other conference pairings.

Ag Battle Frogs Southwest: Texas Christian, co-leader with Baylor, returns to conference competition after routing Temple, 28-6. The Horned Frogs meet Texas A. and M., which held Santa Clara to a 7-0 score. Texas apparently has small hope against Arkansas which dropped a heart-breaking 9-6 verdict to Baylor. Baylor's non-conference foe is Centenary.

Far West: Full Pacific Coast conference slate finds U.C.L.A., paced to a 13-0 upset over Washington by Kenny Washington, arrayed against California's defending champions in the outstanding engagement, Oregon, the current leader with two victories and no defeats, draws as its rival Stanford which won a disappointing, in barely winning 8-0, over Washington State. Southern California returns to its own base to play Washington State, already beaten in three conference tests, Washington

Cubs Manage To Escape Series Without Injuries

GORDON CLOUTS HOMER

Yankee Second Baseman Joe Gordon crosses the plate on his home run in the fifth inning of the third world series battle, in New York. It was a high pitch from Clay Bryant and Joe drove it into the leftfield stands. That's Gabby Hartnett, Cub manager-catcher, at the left, looking downhearted. Tim Sullivan, Yankee mascot, is shaking Gordon's hand. The other lad is a ball boy.

Route Of Gabby's Men Sets New Standard

By GAYLE TALBOT NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)

The 1938 world series of baseball passed away quietly last evening at the Yankee stadium before 60,000 bored relations, with Rufus Ruffing pitching and Bill Dickey catching. Please do not send flowers.

The fact that the New York Yankees, in beating the Chicago Cubs four straight, established a record of three consecutive world series triumphs over the struggling National league does not somehow seem exciting. The only happy feature of the series lay in the fact that none of the Cubs was seriously hurt by an infield ground-out.

It never was a contest from the time the Cubs' infield blew up in the opening game at Chicago until the Yankees scored four runs off four count "em" pitchers in the eighth inning yesterday to make the final result 8 to 3.

The Cubs, facing a team that now has won 24 of its last 27 world series games, were a lightweight trying to stand up to a heavy-weight. They could only take a few quick kicks at the Giants' shins before they got wallowed.

Couldn't Go Route

They got stretches of magnificent pitching from Bill Lee, Dizzy Dean and Clay Bryant, and they banged out a lot of good hits, first and last. But their pitchers invariably were knocked for a loop before the end of the game, and their hits for the most part were futile, pecking blows that only annoyed the Yankee moundsmen.

There are many today, including eight National league managers, who are viewing with alarm the strange hold the Yankees have taken on baseball. When the Yanks beat the Giants, 4 games to 1. Still, there seems a ray of hope in the fact that the players will divvy up a purse of $434,094.66, which is a record for a four-game affair.

No Sign Of Crackup

Off their play against the hapless Cubs, there is no sign of the long-heralded crack-up of Joe McCarthy's great team. Most of it will go on forever, like a cricket game. Lou Gehrig, the old "Iron Man" first-baseman, is supposed to be on his last legs, but you couldn't detect it by his play the past week. One of his final acts in the ninth inning yesterday was to nearly break his neck diving into the stands after a foul ball.

There was a sort of unofficial contest last night, trying to pick the individual Yankee hero of the massacre. It was called off because it threatened to wind up in a fist-fight between the supporters of Charley Ruffing, who pitched two victories, Joe Gordon, the rookie whose home-run upset Bryant in the third game, and Frankie Crosetti, whose fielding at shortstop cracked the Cubs' spirit in the first game and whose home run wrecked Dizzy Dean's fine effort in the second.

Belt Five Honors

Never did a club more vividly demonstrate the value of power hitting than did the Yanks this time. They belted five home-runs, and three of them virtually were game winners. Tommy Henrich's four-master off Charlie Fout in the sixth inning was the winning run of yesterday's game, notwithstanding the Cubs' blow-up in the eighth.

The blow-up, incidentally, came just when it looked like the Cubs might get into the ball game. Ken O'Dea, substitute Chicago catcher, had smacked a home run in the first of the eighth with Phil Cavarretta on base, reducing the Yankees' lead to 4 to 3, and the crowd was rooting the visitors on, hoping for at least one thrill in the series.

Forsan Is Favored In Thurs. Game

PSAA Battle Is First Local Go On Schedule

The six-man grid teams of Gardner and Forsan high schools tuned up for their all-important battle in Big Spring Thursday night, turning in decisive victories last weekend over PSAA opponents.

The two teams are now leading the association standings with three victories each and the tilt under the lights at Steer stadium should go a long way in deciding the champion of the first year league.

Gardner started slow, defeating Courtney in a close battle, since have developed power and speed and Coach Floyd Burnett is confident the team will make a good showing against the Buffs.

Mentor Brady Nix has plenty of material with which to work and evidently has been able to get the most out of his men. His Buffs have rolled over Garden City twice and Courtney once and give all indications that they are about the "roughest" outfit in the loop.

33 Conference Games Carded

Hi-Feature Is Childress-Wichita Falls Encounter

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Staff

Texas schoolboy football teams dug in for the stretch drive today, facing a week's schedule including 33 conference games which bring the championship campaign to every district.

It is the first week when conference play dominates the race and the results will go a long way toward determining favorites in the respective areas.

A battle at Wichita Falls between undefeated, untied Childress and the state runner-up Coyotes, headlines the schedule. Wichita Falls has one tie on its record—that with Masonic Home, the surprising Fort Worth team—but has run up an excellent record.

The outstanding interdistrict tilt matches teams with unblemished records—Livingston and Goose Creek.

Cisco Plays Lions Cisco plays Brownwood in a crucial Oil Belt conference struggle. Cisco, unbeaten and untied and apparently beating back toward lost gridiron glories in the battle-scarred West Texas sector, tangles with a Brownwood club that has been undefeated but tied.

The week's play is likely to trim the list of teams with unblemished records to fewer than ten. The list now reads: Childress, Graham, Cisco, Gainesville, Tyler, Livingston, Lufkin, Corsicana, Waco, Sam Houston (Houston), Austin (Houston), Goose Creek. Last week's play swept 10 from the ranks.

Districts 5, 6, 14 and 15 have conference games this week. They are the last sectors to open the championship drive. Paris and Denison blast off the lid in District 5. Denison meets Highland Park (Dallas) in district 6. Orange meets Galveston in district 14 and Corpus Christi plays Kingsville in district 15.

All told there are 57 games on the week's card, 11 of them being interdistrict battles and three intercollegiate with Plainview meeting Clovis, N. M., Amarillo engaged Norman, Okla., and Jeff Davis (Houston) tackling Byrd High of Shreveport.

Highland Park Impressive The fall of Longview's state champion Lobos before Highland Park and defeat of North Side (Fort Worth) by Masonic Home were probably the outstanding features of last week's play. But, while Highland Park was impressive, the game was not a real test inasmuch as Longview was badly crippled.

Masonic Home practically clinched the Fort Worth district championship by taking out North Side. Austin of Houston became one of the outstanding South Texas threats with its 21-6 victory over Conroe and Corpus Christi continued to show to advantage by smashing Breckenridge, the San Antonio favorite, 25-7.

$5,815 To Each Member Of New York Champs

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—While it doesn't entirely make up for losing the world series in four straight games, the Chicago Cubs had some consolation today in knowing they would collect $4,874.87 apiece for taking a beating.

The four games of the world series produced a total "gate" of $851,166.00 from 200,833 paying customers. Of this $434,094.66 went into the players' pool to be split up among the world series rivals and the other first division clubs of the two leagues.

The total was a record for a series decided in four games although in a six-game series, drawing larger crowds to the first four games from which the players' "cut" comes, the Yankees and Giants cut up a $460,002.66 melon in 1936.

The shares of the two clubs also were records for four-game affairs, in which interest generally becomes less as they turn out to be lopsided. They split up 70 per cent of the pool on a 60-40 basis.

The Yanks, who gave out $3,500 in cash gifts and split the remainder into 30 3-4 shares, will get $5,815.28 apiece, while the Cubs will draw down $4,874.87 on each of 25 full shares. The all-time records are $8,544.00 collected by the Detroit Tigers in 1935 when they beat the Cubs, and $4,656.40 which the giants got for losing to the Yanks in 1936.

The cuts of the various other clubs are $32,577.10 each to the second-place Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates, $21,704.73 to the third-place Cleveland Indians and New York Giants, and $10,852.37 which the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds got for finishing fourth.

and Oregon State collide in the fourth conference game. Santa Clara, unbeaten Far West independent, eases off against Arizona.

CARL REYNOLDS SETS SERIES STANDARD

By SID FEDER.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—They'll be remembering Carl Reynolds as the "all-American out" for this world series.

The ex-American leaguer, who returned to the big show this year with the Chicago Cubs and batted a neat .300 in the National League's regular season, was officially at bat 12 times in the four games of the just concluded fall classic with the Yankees—and he failed, completely and entirely, to make a single safe hit.

The last time a player went for a line of "gooseegs" in the composite box score for a series was in 1911, when John Murray of the New York Giants did it. Only four others did it before Murray.

In a lot of ways, Reynolds work at the plate was for more unique in the 1938 championship set than Lefty Gomez's six-game undefeated winning streak for his series career, or Bill Dickey's four singles in the first game, or Stan Hack's seven singles to equal a mark for a four-game series, or the new York Yankees' unprecedented feat of winning three world championships in a row.

For instance, Reynolds hit exactly one ball out of the infield in his string of hard luck. He fanned three times, hit into a double play twice. His predecessors in the record stunt could hardly boast such a slump as that.

Generally speaking, however, the 1938 series, short and sweet and completely one-sided, showed few important changes in the record books.

A pound of soap dissolved in a gallon of hot water and added to five gallons of whitewash will give the whitewash a glossy appearance.

 BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 10 (AP) J. Donald Budge, the world's No. 1 singles champion who says he will turn pro when someone comes along with a contract "that looks good to me," won't win the Pacific Coast tennis championship this year.

The international champion, playing listless and erratic tennis, was beaten by Australia's non-playing Davis Cup captain, Harry Hopman, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1, yesterday. It was the second time in two weeks that a tennis player from down under eliminated J. Donald from a coast tournament.

Last week Adrian Quist of the Anzacs dumped Budge in the Pacific Southwest tournament at Los Angeles.

NEW ENDURANCE FLIGHT RECORD

TYLER, Oct. 10 (AP)—Russ Finerock, flying instructor and W. B. McCulloch laid claim to a new endurance flight record for planes of less than 1,000 pounds at the end of 45 hours 17 minutes of continuous flying today.

They brought their ship down at 8:07 a. m. when covering was tipped from the fuselage. Finerock and McCulloch said the previous record, set by them, was 36 hours and 46 minutes. They were in the air from 8:50 a. m. Saturday and refused frequently through a line from an automobile. Their ship was a 50-horsepower monoplane.

because Americans had requested it. "Availing himself of this permission, Lindbergh attended Aviation Day (demonstration Aug. 28 during the American aviator's visit to Moscow) and now that he has returned to London he has used his sojourn in the Soviet Union as the basis of calumnies and insinuations on the Soviet Union—which were the dishes served up to guests of Lady Astor."

The statement, replying to alleged assertions in London by the American aviator to the effect that the Soviet air fleet was weak and disorganized, said that Lindbergh told guests of Lady Astor that "Germany possesses such a strong air force it is capable of defeating the combined air fleets of England, France, the U.S.S.R. and Czechoslovakia."

"Having uttered such a colossal lie, Lindbergh was inwardly amazed at himself and decided to try another."

"His second declaration exceeded his first. He said that during his stay in Moscow he was offered the job of chief of Soviet civil aviation."

"Lindbergh in the role of 'chief of aviation'! Among us pilots such a wild lie could only cause laughter! Such so-called pilots, and even former pilots, will not be permitted to come within cannon shot of our leadership!"

"Another unbridled lie followed. Lindbergh declared the Soviet air fleet is without leadership and is in a chaotic condition."

"Soviet aviation holds a majority of world records. The Soviet Union has hundreds and thousands of perfect pilots who not only know how to fly but at any time could be perfect organizers and leaders."

"Lindbergh, the statement said, 'plays the role of stupid liar, lackey and flatterer of German fascists and their English, aristocratic protectors. x x x He had an order from English reactionary circles to prove the weakness of Soviet aviation and give Chamberlain an argument for capitulation at Munich in connection with Czechoslovakia.'"

"The method Har. Lindbergh, fulfilled the order of his masters. That explains everything."
