

Peace Treaties Lacking Only Minor Points

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—After more than a year of conference sharpened by many bitter disputes between Russia and the western powers, the Council of Foreign Ministers today counted the European satellite peace treaties virtually completed due mainly to sweeping last-minute concessions by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Final agreement on outstanding issues was not reached, however, until Secretary of State James F. Byrnes had reluctantly accepted a proposal that Italy pay a total of $360,000,000 in reparations — $35,000,000 more than the Paris peace conference had recommended.

Today in a session scheduled for 3 p. m. (CST) the Big Four was due to clean up a number of relatively minor unsettled points and to act on a report from their naval committee presumably concerning the distribution of the Italian fleet among Italy and the victorious allied powers.

Disposition Of Inch Pipelines Up To Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—The War Assets Administration checked to congress today the question of eventual disposition of the "inch" pipelines, now beginning to carry natural gas for coal strike emergency relief.

Caught in a conflict between gas and oil interests, War Assets Administrator Robert M. Littlejohn told the house surplus property investigating committee, "I intend to refer the matter back to congress."

Economic interests of coal and oil—and the railroads which carry those products—are deeply involved in the wrangle over ultimate disposal of the $145,000,000 Big Inch and Little Inch pipelines running from Texas 1,500 miles to New Jersey.

Natural gas began flowing through the system yesterday at a rate of 50,000,000 cubic feet a day, under an emergency lease as the government sought to relieve the fuel shortage resulting from the coal strike.

However, five days to two weeks will be required for delivery to the first consumers 850 miles away in the Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia area.

The government hopes to step-up the load to 155,000,000 cubic feet daily, but at that rate the gas would substitute for only about 5,000 tons of coal a day, while the normal daily coal production is around 2,900,000 tons.

Sutton Infant Is Claimed By Death

Julie Elizabeth Sutton, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sutton, died Thursday in a local hospital.

Survivors include the parents, the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Sutton of Odessa, Ill., and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ellis of Odessa.

The body was taken to Abilene Thursday night for funeral services and burial. Nalley Funeral home had charge of local arrangements.

JURY SUMMONED

Sixty persons have been summoned to report to the district court room at 10 o'clock Monday morning for petit jury duty.

Want Coordinator For Vet Affairs

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—A federal czar of veterans affairs was proposed today in a war department report which said many former servicemen are bitter over net results of the G. I. Bill of Rights and other legislation for their benefit.

Lt. Col. Winthrop Rockefeller said a top level coordinator empowered to "cut red tape and act" is needed. He reported on a six months survey which he said showed both the federal government and local communities are "confused" for lack of a "master plan" for dealing with veterans' problems.

Rockefeller made no criticism of Gen. Omar N. Bradley, veterans administrator, or the veterans administration whose record of accomplishment he termed "spectacular."

The survey was undertaken at the request of Secretary of War Patterson who endorsed the report.

A single official is needed, Rockefeller advised, to coordinate the work of more than fifteen federal agencies, including the veterans administration, which deal directly or indirectly with the veterans.

Urging prompt "drastic action" Rockefeller reported that "in spite of the fact that an important majority of veterans have accom-

Wm. J. Murray Appointed To RR Commission

Will Succeed Jester On Board January 21

AUSTIN, Dec. 5. (AP)—William J. Murray, 32, of Houston, today was named by Gov-Elect Beauford H. Jester to succeed him on the railroad commission.

During the critical war period from Oct., 1941, to July, 1943, Murray was conservation engineer for the Petroleum Administration for War in the district comprising Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama.

He had previously served as chief enforcement officer for the oil and gas division of the railroad commission in charge of commission offices at Kilgore, Mobeet Pleasant, Palestine and Jefferson. He was deputy supervisor in charge of engineering and conservation for the commission's East Texas district and also served as senior petroleum engineer for the oil and gas division.

Murray was expected to take office Jan. 21, when Jester is inaugurated governor. His term would run until the next general election. His formal appointment will be subject to senate action.

He is widely known in oil circles as a technical expert on oil and gas and his function while serving with PAW during the war was to study reserves and availability of petroleum in the fields over his district.

Murray was born in Coleman and attended the public schools in Cisco before entering Hardin-Simmons university and then the University of Texas in 1933. He received the degrees of bachelor and master of science.

Jester said the biggest job facing the railroad commission during the next two years will be the prevention of waste of natural gas.

"I don't think a more ideal man could be found in all the state of Texas to help do that job," he commented.

The governor-elect said he would announce appointments of secretary of state and adjutant general within the next week or 10 days.

Jester indicated there is no conflict between Gov. Coke Stevenson and himself on appointments which Gov. Stevenson will make to vacancies occurring before Jester takes office. He said he had not conferred with Stevenson on any of them.

"Under the law they are his appointments to make, so they will be his appointments," Jester declared.

Tenth Air Force Taking Recruits

Lt. George Kesselring, the local US Army recruiting officer, announced that direct enlistment of former AAF personnel would be accepted for the Tenth Air Force.

The Tenth is currently engaged in the training of Air Reserve and has small detachments stationed at various fields in the southwest.

Among those needed, Kesselring said, are former airplane mechanics, clerks, radio mechanics and duty soldiers. Persons interested can contact the local recruiting station at once.

Response is increasing daily in the annual Christmas Seal sales campaign, Mrs. Louise Horton, secretary of the Howard County Tuberculosis association, announced today.

Another tabulation of receipts will be made tonight, Mrs. Horton said. A distinct increase in replies to seals distributed by mail already has become apparent, however.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is to speak on Tuberculosis in a broadcast at 8:15 p. m. Monday over KBST. The broadcast has been arranged in the interest of the seal sale drive.

Russia Agreeable To Atomic Plan

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Dec. 6. (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today accepted an American provision for early establishment of international control for atomic energy and "other modern technological discoveries" to ensure their use for peaceful purposes only.

The proposal, put forward as an amendment yesterday by Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.), in the United Nations drafting sub-committee debate on arms reduction was described by Molotov as meeting "the wishes of all of us."

It had been feared in some quarters that United States insistence on also establishing controls over the use of atomic energy for peaceful purposes would snag the discussions.

The Russian decision in effect represented an easing of its previous insistence that atomic weapons should be outlawed immediately in contrast to the American view that any such step should be part of a general atomic control plan.

The United States had made a direct appeal to Russia last night for support of the American plan to control the atomic bomb and urged, that the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission approve the plan before the end of the year.

Bernard M. Baruch, taking speedy advantage of a change in the Soviet attitude as set forth earlier this week by Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, looked straight at Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko in last night's commission session and declared:

"We seek especially the participation of the Soviet Union. We welcome the recent authoritative statements of its highest representatives. From these we are justified in concluding that it no longer regards the original American proposals unacceptable, as a whole or in their separate parts, as its member of this body stated at an earlier meeting."

Permanent Permit For Continental Is Recommended

Service of Continental Air Lines between Hobbs, N. M. and San Antonio, will be made permanent if the recommendation of an examiner is followed by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Continental has been operating on a temporary certificate since 1944 when service was first inaugurated. R. A. Law, Jr., CAB examiner, has recommended that the board grant CAL a permanent certificate.

Service would continue on the current plan with intermediate stops at San Angelo, Big Spring, Midland, and Odessa. Continental has one flight operating through here daily, a northbound flight in the morning and a southbound one in the afternoon.

Unemployment Total Climbs Up To 213,000

May Go To Five Million If Strike Continues

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6. (AP)—An embargo on railroad freight shipments today climaxed the snowballing effects of the soft coal strike with an avalanche of new unemployment that sent the idleness total above 213,000 in related industries.

Tens of thousands of American workers were handed pre-Christmas layoffs as the 16-day stoppage gradually choked off the economic, social and educational life of the nation.

Predictions from across the country indicated more than 5,000,000 workers would be idle by New Year's if the coal strike is still in progress.

Ford Motor Co. beginning layoffs that may spread to 500,000 automobile workers within a week or 10 days, idled 20,000 employees at midnight last night and said 20,000 more will be released tonight because of the coal shortage.

A Ford spokesman said all 90,000 Ford workers will be out of work within two weeks.

The Budd Company, which makes automobile bodies, announced that 12,000 to 14,000 employees of its Philadelphia and Detroit plants "might be laid off if the freight embargo continues long enough." The company, which has 21,000 on the payroll, reported that so far its operations are normal.

CAA Tower To Shorten Hours

Reduction of operations from a 24-hour basis to 16 hours a day is in early prospect for the CAA control tower at the muni airport.

This is in line with a Civil Aeronautics Administration announcement Friday that service was being curtailed in a number of communications stations and control towers. Because of insufficient funds, 57 communications stations and three airport towers must be discontinued.

In addition, six traffic control towers, Big Spring, included, must be placed on a 16-hour a day schedule. Other Texas stations are Abilene, Austin, Brownsville, and Corpus Christi. Communication stations at Clarendon, Sulphur Springs, Navasota, Alice, Yoakum and Palacios will be discontinued.

William Slaughter, in charge of the tower here, said that the change of the tower here, said that the change likely would be made within the next two weeks and that operation hours probably would be 6 a. m. to 10 a. m., covering the period in which most traffic occurs. Some reduction in staff will be necessary, but the amount is not yet determined.

Cash, Securities Put Up For Bonds

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—An hour-long presidential cabinet meeting on the coal crisis broke up today with one member declaring privately:

"There will be no turning back in this fight."

This sentiment was voiced as CIO President Philip Murray called on all organized labor to join the battle against government efforts to end the miners' walkout by injunction.

President Truman presumably obtained his cabinet's views on the approach he should take in his Sunday night broadcast to the nation. After the cabinet meeting the president also saw Rep. Randolph, democrat from a coal region of West Virginia.

With organized labor marshaling reinforcements for John L. Lewis' battle through the high courts, the United Mine Workers posted bond to cover the $3,510,000 fines imposed on them for ignoring a court order against striking.

The union put up US government bonds with a face value of $3,500,000 and Lewis posted a $10,000 cash bond to meet his personal fine. Both cash and bonds were sent to a US treasury vault for safekeeping.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters, as the weekly cabinet meeting, convened, that Mr. Truman was consulting with administration officials on the broadcast.

Cabinet members would not discuss details of the hour-long conference as they left the President, but Secretary of Commerce Harman told questioners:

"Yes, the coal situation was discussed. You'll hear about it from the President Sunday night."

Mr. Truman will speak over all major networks at 9:30 p. m. (EST) Sunday.

Other cabinet members told reporters that the coal crisis occupied virtually all of the discussion.

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal said the situation at naval coaling stations overseas is "critical."

Actual writing of the speech, Ross said, has not yet begun.

CIO President Philip Murray formally invited the rival AFL and the Independent Railway Brotherhoods to join the CIO in "unified action" to combat what he called a "deliberate and monstrous movement" to cripple labor.

In a letter directed to AFL President William Green and to leaders of the railway workers, the CIO chief declared the federal court injunction against John L. Lewis and the "vengeful fine" of $3,510,000 upon the mine workers is the first step in a campaign of "hysteria" against labor.

Murray said yesterday the CIO would join Lewis' AFL mine workers in appealing the contempt fines, levied against them for ignoring a federal court order to end the strike.

In his letter released today, Murray wrote:

"The stage is set for the 80th Congress to be met by national hysteria deliberately fomented and inspired."

"It is my sincere conviction that

More Toys Wanted For Fireman Repair

A shortage of toys has virtually halted repair work of the fire station, where used articles are being prepared for distribution to children of needy families, Chief H. V. Crocker reported this morning.

"There have been very few toys contributed," Crocker said. "However, we have received several lots of used clothing."

Both the toys and clothing are to be distributed by the Salvation Army. All types of clothing are desired, Crocker said, and a heavy demand is expected for mens coats.

BILBO BRUSHES OFF ONE INQUIRY, FEELS CONFIDENT ABOUT NEXT ONE

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 6. (AP)—Mississippi's uninhibited Senator Theo G. Bilbo, confident that "everything is lovely—righteousness will prevail," prepared today to leave for Washington and a second vote of Senate committee investigation.

To one committee which spent four days investigating assertions that his campaign speeches incited violence and disfranchisements of Negroes, Bilbo yesterday said he had "no apology" for his advocacy of white supremacy and control, but he denied counselling violence or illegal acts in last summer's democratic primary.

"The man's" new engagement is with another committee investigating his alleged relations with war contractors. Bilbo said he would be there when the hearings opened Dec. 12, and expected "fine sailing."

Senator Ellender (D-La), chairman of the committee which conducted the hearings here, said he expected a unanimous report from that group, commenting that "the record gives just about the line of testimony I anticipated."

He said a preliminary report would be ready Dec. 16 and the final version in time for the convening of Congress.

Taking the stand in his own behalf before the committee yesterday, Bilbo testified in an appropriation of his stump-speaking manner.

The Senator said that when he recommended visiting Negroes the night before an election, he was not suggesting intimidation, but merely that they should be reasoned with to avoid trouble.

Fuel-Saving Restrictions Are Widened

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—The Civilian Production Administration made ready to clamp a new series of drastic fuel conservation restrictions on the nation Monday unless a soft coal strike settlement is reached beforehand.

Edward Falck, chief of CPA's office of emergency controls, said the new order will:

1. Extend dimout restrictions to all utilities in the country which derive electricity from soft coal. Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi will be affected most.

2. Require that the more stringent "second phase" of the dimout restrictions, already announced for 21 North and Eastern states and the District of Columbia, be put into operation when coal stocks of utilities have dropped to a 20 instead of a 15-day supply.

3. Require utilities with more than a specified amount of coal—possibly a 60 day supply—to share the remainder with other utilities.

Falck said the new order, when issued, will become operative "as soon as the groups affected can be notified."

They may include the freezing of industrial and commercial coke supplies.

The coke, which heretofore has not come under federal restrictions, would be diverted to manufacturers of artificial gas whose deliveries of gas to non-essential users already have been ordered curtailed with their coal stocks drop to a three-week supply.

Another order under consideration would freeze coal supplies of industries forced to close by the strike, and supplies of other industries, including railroads, in excess of a specified amount.

Illness Fatal To Jas. H. Alexander

James H. Alexander, 81, died in a local hospital Thursday at 11:40 p. m. following an illness of about three months.

Born in Williamson county, Mr. Alexander came to Howard county 16-years ago and during that time was engaged in farming near here.

Survivors include six sons, Orville of Yuba City, Calif., Arthur, Walter, Jesse and Elton, all of Big Spring, and Willie of California; four daughters, Mrs. Viola Lewallen of Dallas, Mrs. Ida Mae Roberts of Knott, Mrs. Doria Miller of Big Spring and Mrs. Mattie Glasgow of Fort Worth.

Funeral services have been set for Saturday at 3 p. m. in the Church of Christ, to be conducted by Herbert Newman, minister. Burial will be in the local cemetery under direction of Nalley Funeral home.

Pallbearers will be Jerry Thornton, C. C. Harben, D. E. Heffington, W. H. Bagwell, L. O. Coats and Walter Havner.

More Stolen Cycles Held By Sheriff

An additional six or seven bicycles, bringing to eleven the number recovered by Juvenile Officer J. B. Bruton and Deputy Sheriff C. C. Arnold, have been put in storage at the courthouse and will be surrendered to owners if they can be identified, according to Sheriff Bob Wolf.

Most of the wheels were retrieved at Sand Springs. Others were found at Coahoma. Wolf said part of the cycles had been dismantled.

Five juveniles, all of them Latin-Americans, have been arrested on their charges in connection with the disappearance of the bicycles.

Third Resignation From Board Of Stephens College

DALLAS, Dec. 6 (AP) — Tom Leachman, Dallas laundry owner, has submitted to Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., his resignation as adviser to the college's board of trustees.
 "I am resigning because a dearly loved friend of mine is leaving the school," he said, explaining that he referred to Dr. J. M. Wood, outgoing president, who has been succeeded by Dr. Homer P. Rainey. Leachman said politics had no part in his decision.
 Leachman is the third Texan to resign his connection with the college since Dr. Rainey, former president of the University of Texas and unsuccessful candidate for governor of Texas, was appointed president.
 The other two are J. O. Boothe of Del Rio and J. Clyde Jones of Fort Worth.
 Representatives of Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, El Salvador, Guatemala, Panama, Paraguay and Uruguay have signed an agreement for joint action in control of locusts.

Cowboy Player Appearing On Ritz Stage

MONTE HALE

One of Hollywood's newest singing cowboy stars, a newcomer who has achieved starring roles in the space of a few short months, is Monte Hale.
 Now Hale is following the personal-appearance route to greater popularity, and is in Big Spring for stage appearances at the Ritz theatre today and Saturday.
 Hale's dates here coincide with the filming of his newest picture, "Out California Way," an action drama with music and filmed in color. In this picture, Monte appears as a young cowboy looking for a job in motion picture studios. With Hale in the stage feature is Rex Rosser, called a champion trick roper. He displays wizardry with the lariat.

School Revenues And Expenses Go Up, Auditor's Report Shows

The Big Spring Independent School district's system is an educational business with income of $291,840 and assets of $745,965. Such are the figures gleaned from the annual audit of the school by Merle J. Stewart.
 Local support of schools, heavier than the state's contribution for the previous year, took a backseat during the year ended Aug. 31, 1946. The district increased its share $19,000 to $137,000, but state support was up by $52,494 to a record of $150,712.
 While revenues showed a gain of $69,372, expenses were up too, increasing $41,579 to reach $246,595. Heavy end of this went to the teachers, instructional service being up by better than $23,000. There were increases of $6,000 plus for operation of plant and capital outlay.
 Chief reason for greater support within the district was current tax collections. With discounts taken into consideration collections represented 96.07 per cent of the potential, or a net of $128,958. This was a per centage point under the previous year but the collar figure was up by $20,000.
 The district had resources of $745,965, of which $89,272 was in cash and bonds, $33,574 in taxes receivable, $40,925 in land, $496,890 in buildings and $85,302 in equipment. Liabilities are $327,500 bonded debt, $545 mature interest, $280,827 reserve for depreciation and $137,092 surplus.
 Of the $246,595 expenses of operation last year, $231,183 was general and current, the remainder for debt service, including retirement of $11,600 in bonds.
 Under instructional service of $165,923, $100,535 went for elementary teachers, $61,514 for high school teachers and $3,874 for colored school teachers.
 An analysis of the tax roll for 1922 through 1945 shows that the district has only $33,574 outstanding, or which, surprisingly enough, only about $6,600 is for the depression years of 1929-32. Thus, all factors considered, the rolls are in good condition.
 Of $444,500 originally voted for issues now being repaid, $327,000 is outstanding. About two-thirds of this finds the district saddled with some lush five and six per cent interest obligations.

 In all types of insurance, exclusive of that on the school bus and in fidelity bonds, the district has $585,000 in force, costing $2,739 per year. On most buildings and contents, the district carries the 80 per cent co-insurance clause.
 The athletic fund showed receipts of $10,057 ($9,381 of that from football), and disbursements of $10,132, whittling the balance to $20.69 cents at the end of the fiscal year.
 All balances, Stewart reported, were reconciled with bank statements. He commended the handling of records and pointed out that receipts were traced properly into the depository.

DOCTOR'S DISCOVERY FOR BACKACHES DUE TO KIDNEYS

If excess acidity of your urine makes your back ache so you groan... so you get up 3 or 4 times a night to pass water, now be of good cheer.
 Three generations ago a famous doctor noticed that hundreds of his patients had this backache. He compounded a medicine made of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams—truly Nature's own way to relief. Millions have used it. The medicine is Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root. Instantly you take it, it starts to work flushing out those excess acids that may cause your backache... increasing the flow of urine to help ease that burning sensation when you pass water... and that bladder irritation that makes you get up nights. Caution: take as directed. You'll say it's marvelous.
 For free trial supply, send to Dept. V, Kilmor & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your druggist.

Baby's Funeral Held

Funeral for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hotie Rumlford of the Courtney community was conducted at the First Baptist church in Stanton Wednesday afternoon under direction of Rev. T. R. Hawkins and Rev. C. B. Hodges, Midland. The child, Gale Richard, died following an illness from pneumonia.

Store Set Up To Sell WAA Surplus

With an inventory drawn from seven surrounding states, a $3,000,000 veterans store has been opened to St. Louis to sell surplus consumer-type merchandise exclusively to veterans of World War II, the War Assets Administration has announced.
 Staffed completely with veterans, the store is offering everything that a veteran can use in his home, business, pleasure or recreation that has been declared surplus by the Army or Navy, WAA officials said.

 If the United States spent as much per capita on school lunches as England does the cost would be nearly one billion dollars a year.

More Than 100,000 Fans To See AA Grid Tussles

Largest Throngs Due To See Dallas And Houston Tilts

By The Associated Press
The pay-off rounds of Texas Schoolboy football get underway today with four games of the first round of the 1946 championship playoff on schedule.

Four other games will be played tomorrow afternoon, with the weekend's eight winners to be matched next week in the quarter-finals.

Capacity crowds that are expected to total well over the 100,000 mark will attend games today and tomorrow, with most tilts having posted standing-room-only signs early this week.

Largest crowds are indicated to-night at Dallas and Houston. Dallas expects 25,000 to witness the struggle between the Adairson Leopards and North Side, an undefeated, untied Fort Worth eleven.

At Houston, 22,000 will jam high school stadium to see two of the state's five undefeated teams of the regular season in a bi-district struggle. Lamar, the Houston and District 13 champion, tied once in ten games, will clash with Pasadena, District 14 titleholder.

Padena, playing its first year in Class AA competition, has won seven games and played three scoreless ties.

In another night game, Highland Park, co-defending state champion along with Waco's Tigers, will be at Denison.

The first game of bi-district competition will be unveiled this afternoon at Lufkin, where Lufkin's Panthers, back in the play-off after a series of ineffectual rulings, meet Tyler.

Of today's tilts, North Side is a favorite over Adairson, although the Dallas Leopards have improved vastly in recent weeks while the Fort Worth eleven has had several close calls. Lamar holds an edge over Pasadena, Highland Park over Denison and Lufkin, holder of the state's best defense record, over Tyler.

Tomorrow's schedule will find four afternoon games with Wichita Falls at Amarillo, Odessa playing Ysleta at El Paso, Waco at Mineral Wells and Edinburg at Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio. Odessa and Thomas Jefferson will be strong favorites over their opponents, as will Waco over Mineral Wells. Amarillo's record gives the Sandies a slight edge. Amarillo has lost only to Odessa, while the Coyotes have lost to Highland Park and been tied by Sweetwater and Denison.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Shorty Lawson, who annually trains and enters an Abilene high school boxing team in that district's Golden Gloves tournament, told interested parties here recently that his charges were very interested in making the Big Spring fist-cuffing show again.

Shorty's gang popped up here last January and made a great hit with local fans. They managed to sack up their share of high school championships and waltzed off with the team trophy. Shorty says they were tickled with the reception the boxing tribe here gave them and keep reminding him that they haven't forgotten that an automatic invitation to pay a 1947 visit went with the exchange of amenities.

Of that well-rounded Abilene squad which appeared here last February, Lawson has everybody back this season save Ted Hardin and Elbert McCranie, welterweights. Neither won the blue-ribbon this year. Both are in college at the present time. Among those Lawson expects to be back are David Bowers, light-heavy; Bennett Young, bantam; and Jack Turner, flyweight, all champions; and Bill Rogers, lightweight, and Howard McCranie, feather.

Captain Olvey Sheppard, the local Salvation Army director, says he'll have at least five boys who'll swing mittens in the bash convention.

The Gloves committee of the Big Spring Athletic association, sponsoring organization, is looking for an indoor spot on which to erect the training ring.

Lou Baker, one of the fellows who helps arrange the program, says he'd like to see the youngsters get started earlier this year in the hope of having them in top shape by the time the tournaments open.

The scraps will probably be held earlier than the Abilene bouts, which are booked for Jan. 30 and Feb. 1 and 2. Last year, BSAA officials waited until four or five days after the Abilene meeting to unveil their program.

Jack Harrison, the very capable training of the 1946 Big Spring squad, won't be around to lend a helping hand at getting the youngsters in condition but other local citizens who know something of the art will cooperate.

Odessa's football Broncos could very well have their hands full with the Amarillo Sandies in the state playoff, if both elevens advance that far.

The Hosses ran over the Amarilloans with astonishing ease last time out, 26-13, but the next collision could prove to be a sort of anti-climax to the Odessa season. The Sandies, on the other hand, will be waiting on that one.

Incidentally, Byron Townsend, the Odessa triathlete, will be back in 1947 to hunt SAA and sectional grid teams, if he keeps in good scholastic standing. He's only a junior, is but 17 years of age. Coach Joe Coleman loses his other three starting backs—Sonny Holderman, Hayden Fry and Pug Gabrel—but has good replacements coming up in Gerald and Gene Campbell and Jim Patterson.

Gabrel, Fry and the Moorman boys, Billy and Bobby, play out their string at mid-term and will not be eligible for the next semester's basketball wars. All are considered stand-out cagers.

Barnes Milam, Midland mentor, announced his grid lettermen—18 of them—recently. Among those who will return in '47 are Dunny Goode and Bill Little, both fair backs, R. A. Whitson and John Scrogin.

Sanders, Professional Standout, Is Former Understudy To Crain

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—The New York Yankees ran true to form in the new All-America Conference this fall in that they didn't outdraw the New York Giants in the rival National Football League but did win the eastern division crown in the conference.

However, on the playing field, the Dan Topping-owned eleven surprised everyone, including Ray Flaherty, former Washington Redskins coach.

Frankie Sinkwich, Georgia's All-America, and Ace Parker, Duke's All-America of a decade ago, were supposed to be the two best Yankee backs.

It was a tossup between Sinkwich and Parker until a comparative unknown, Orban (Speck) Sanders, stepped into the picture. This 26-year-old pro ball freshman is the greatest thing to come up the pro piskin pike in some time.

Sanders divided his pre-pro career among five different teams—Temple High, Temple, Okla., his home town; Cameron Junior College in his home state; Texas U.; Georgia Preflight, and North Carolina Preflight.

The new triple-threat was second top scorer in the Southwest Conference in his first year at Texas even though he was an understudy to Jack Crain. It was through Crain's ability and press clippings that Sanders made the pros.

Flaherty sent a scout to Texas to look over Crain and the scout came back with glowing reports about the unheard of Sanders. That was four years ago. Flaherty and Sanders remained in touch with each other during the war years and today the Yankee mentor thinks Speck will be as good, if not better, than any of the hard-running backs he coached in Washington.

To give you an idea of how valuable Sanders has been to the Yankees here are some cold but interesting facts:

In the first 12 games this fall he led the conference in rushing with 613 yards on 122 plays for a 5.02 average.

Ranked fifth on total offense with 1,024 yards on 196 efforts. Ninth in forward passing, completing 33 out of 74.

Tied for second in conference scoring with 54 points.

Returned 15 punts 205 yards for a 13.7 average.

Returned 13 kickoffs 495 yards for a 38.1 average.

Returned a kickoff 103 yards against the Los Angeles Dons for a conference record and went 75 yards from scrimmage a few plays later.

In August, when the Yankees reported for practice at Spokane, Wash., Speck, a nickname handed him as a freckle-faced kid, was just another rookie hoping to fit into a backfield that included such standouts as Sinkwich and Parker. Today he is the most-heralded new player in the All-American Conference.

A full program of entertainment was provided at the joint meeting of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary in the Settles ball room Thursday night.

In addition to the auxiliary members, all wives, mothers and sisters of legion members were invited to the special "ladies night" session. Approximately 150 legionnaires, auxiliary members and guests attended.

Harry Echols appeared first on the program, playing two piano numbers, "I'll Never Smile Again" and "Cow, Cow Boogie." Mary Whitaker presented vocal impersonations of Betty Hutton. She was accompanied by Ann Gibson Houser.

Pupils of Betty Farrar were featured in three costume dance numbers. The first was a black-face tap dance by Jan Tillinghast, Linda Mason and Julius Glickman, followed by a Scotch hornpipe dance by Nancy Smith and a Spanish dance by Shirley George Colium.

Mrs. Wanda McElhannon sang two numbers, "When Day Is Done" and "Begin the Beguine" and Charles Romine gave his impersonation of the old-time medicine show barker.

Five gifts were awarded to men and four to women by the auxiliary.

After a short legion ceremonial and business meeting, refreshments were served. Christmas decorations were used on the refreshment table. Serving the guests were Mrs. Bob Eubanks, Mrs. Bud Tucker, Mrs. Neal Barnaby, Mrs. T. J. Dunlap and Mrs. T. A. Thielen.

Coahoma Tourney Launches Section's Cage Campaign

Finals In Both Brackets Booked For Saturday Nite

Six of the eight first-round games in the Coahoma Invitational basketball tournament, which served to launch the 1946-47 cage season in this portion of West Texas, will be played in the Bulldog gymnasium this afternoon and tonight.

The other two will be unveiled Saturday morning before the way can be cleared for the semi-final round.

A girls' game between Westbrook and Stanton was to launch the show at 3 p.m. today. Other contests in the fens' bracket pitted Courtney and Forsan at 5 p.m. Coahoma and the Howard County Junior college sextet at 8 p.m. and Ira and Highland at 10 a.m. Saturday.

In boys' play, Forsan's Buffaloes were to meet at 4 p.m. today, Coahoma and Courtney at 7 p.m., Sterling City and Ira at 9 p.m. and Garden City and Highland at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Semi-final games in the girls' division are scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. and 3:20 p.m. Saturday. The finalists in the boys' play will be decided in battles at 2:10 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Finalists in the fens' bracket clash at 7:30 p.m. Saturday while the boys' title will be decided in an 8:30 o'clock go.

Stanton's Buffaloes, who cleaned up on everything in this area in their division last season, will have strong representation in both divisions of play. The Stanton fens recently swamped the Howard County Junior college team.

The Sterling City boys may prove tough to handle. The Eagle club is built around Jackie Tweedie, football star.

MAJORS ADOPT OLD SCHEDULE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6. (AP)—Minor leaguers' resentment against their big brothers disappeared today under the general influence of George Trautman, new boss of all baseball outside the National and American leagues.

Elected unanimously to succeed 72-year-old Judge W. G. Bramham as president of the National Association at $25,000 yearly, Trautman was described by President Frank Shaughnessy of the International League as "a man who has the confidence of independents and others."

Trautman, 55-year-old executive vice president of the Detroit Tigers, divided his attention between the separate major and minor meetings. Bramham remains as "consultant" at $10,000, yearly.

The majors, after announcing a general 1947 opening date of April 15, and a closing date of Sept. 28, thereby fixing the season again at 154 games, took up minor league proposals for revision of existing rules. The proposal for 168 games in 1947 had developed strong opposition, chiefly because it would upset all records.

The present major-minor working agreement expires Jan. 12, 1947, and unless a new one is adopted the old one will be automatically renewed. This agreement covers waivers, options, rights of players and clubs and the general legislative side of baseball.

Yesterday's session of the National association rejected a proposal for standard baseballs in all leagues. A resolution to dissolve the association and place all baseball under Commissioner A. B. Chandler was indefinitely and unanimously tabled.

Junior Awards Are Announced

Twenty-seven members of Jim McWhorter's Yearling (Junior high) football team won numerals for their work the past season. Of that number, eight were backs, three were centers, five guards, five tackles and six ends.

Those gaining numerals were Billy Carlisle, Arliss Davis, James Fannin, Eddie Hooper, Dickie Cloud, Bobby Hohertz, Virgil Roundtree and Billy Satterwhite, backs; Kimble Guthrie, Lawrence Kelly and Don Freeman, centers; Don Carter, Lual Mays, Carroll Cannon, Wendell Stassy and Earl Rusk, guards; Charles Rainwater, Bill Cunningham, Vic Woods, Wayne Burlison and Donald Barber, tackles; and James Pettigo, Howard Jones, Charles Wright, Billy Wheeler, Carl Eakin and Amos Jones, ends.

About half the squad will graduate to the Steer squad next fall. Last season the Yearlings defeated Odessa, Midland, Colorado City (twice) and tied Sweetwater while losing to Odessa and San Angelo.

When Marcel Cerdan, European middleweight champion (above), and George Abrams, of Washington, D. C., move out of their corners for a scheduled ten-round at Madison Square Garden tonight, it will be the first important international middleweight match since 1937.

Cerdan, a choice French stationer, has a brilliant record... 33 knockouts in 96 fights. The "Moroccan Bombardier," as he is called, has lost only twice—both times on fouls.

In his American debut, Cerdan comes up against a seasoned performer. Perhaps the most scientific boxer in the 160-lb. class, George has the knack of using up his man inside and scoring to the body. But he also packs plenty of punch in his dukes.

Li'l Rose Bowl Elevens Ready

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 6. (AP)—The mythical National Junior College Championship is at stake tomorrow as the Kilgore, Texas, Rangers, undefeated and untied in 10 games, meet once-beaten Compton, California's pride, in the first Little Rose Bowl game.

Advance sales indicate a crowd of nearly 50,000 for the inaugural vest-pocket edition of the famed New Year's Day classic.

The rugged Rangers, Texas champions for the fifth time in 11 years, arrived by train yesterday, 38 strong, and impressed observers with their speed, kicking and passing ability in a brick workout at the Rose Bowl. Coach Jimmie Parks' boys poured 204 points across the goal line to opponents' meager 19 this season.

A high-scoring game loomed, for Compton's Tartans rolled up 285 points to 94 for the opposition in winning nine and losing only two in a late season upset.

Quarterback Max Clark, a 149-pound whizzer who has scored eight touchdowns to pace the Rangers, and right half Ardan Burk, top passer and punter, are the spark-plugs of Kilgore's flashy single-wing attack.

Kilgore, from the heart of the East Texas oil lands, will field a 199-pound line headed by tackle Tom Collins, 235, and a backfield scaling 177 per man. Compton's starters average 195 in the line and 163 in the backfield. The overall average gives Compton a one-pound edge, 189 to 188.

Adding color to the Jaycee bowl event will be the Texans' 54-girl Rangerette Corps, a 65-piece band and some 2,000 strong-lunged, tall-hatted rooters.

Incidentally, Byron Townsend, the Odessa triathlete, will be back in 1947 to hunt SAA and sectional grid teams, if he keeps in good scholastic standing. He's only a junior, is but 17 years of age. Coach Joe Coleman loses his other three starting backs—Sonny Holderman, Hayden Fry and Pug Gabrel—but has good replacements coming up in Gerald and Gene Campbell and Jim Patterson.

Gabrel, Fry and the Moorman boys, Billy and Bobby, play out their string at mid-term and will not be eligible for the next semester's basketball wars. All are considered stand-out cagers.

Barnes Milam, Midland mentor, announced his grid lettermen—18 of them—recently. Among those who will return in '47 are Dunny Goode and Bill Little, both fair backs, R. A. Whitson and John Scrogin.

Only about 25 per cent of Mexican land is capable of being farmed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. (AP)—Despite an "abrupt and continuing" decline in the number of volunteers, the war department has announced it will draft no men in January 1947.

A statement yesterday said the draft holiday, inaugurated last mid-October, would be extended an additional month because the army is now temporarily over-strength.

The department reported that there are about 1,200,000 effectives on the rolls, plus about 250,000 "ineffectives"—men on terminal leave, in hospitals, or otherwise unavailable for duty. This number is to be reduced to approximately 1,110,000 by Dec. 31, and to 1,070,000 by mid-1947.

The announcement made no mention of a February draft call, but officials hinted a substantial one would be necessary if voluntary enlistments do not pick up. Present army requirements call for an average of 37,000 new men each month.

In the five weeks before the draft was suspended in mid-October, there were 90,053 voluntary enlistments, of which 87,390 were from civil life and 2,663 from prior service. In the five weeks immediately following draft suspension, the number of volunteers dropped to 27,384, of which 24,675 were from civil life and 2,710 from prior service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—The condition of Babe Ruth, famed "Sultan of Swat" who was admitted to French Hospital nine days ago for treatment of a sinus infection was reported today as "just fair, not much improvement."

Mobley Smallest On Little A-A

NEW YORK, Dec. 6. (AP)—There's nothing "little" physically about the eleven players named today to the Associated Press Little College All-America football team for 1946.

The line averages just a fraction under six feet in height and each man would push the scale needle to 194 pounds. Behind that forward wall would operate a quartet of backs, each of whom would stand five feet 10 inches high and who would throw their 170 pounds about with reckless fury.

Biggest man on the team is Robert Hawkins of Evansville, Ind., college, 6-foot 11-inch freshman tackle who weighs 230 pounds. Smallest player in the select group is Rudolph (Little Doc) Mobley of Hardin-Simmons, whose displacements are 5-7 and 155.

Coach D. A. Miller and his Central Ward football team, champion of the Grade School league for the second year in a row, will be honored at a banquet tonight in the high school cafeteria. The event gets started at 8 o'clock.

Members of the squad are C. J. Harris, Charles Bonner, Jimmy Stewart, Jimmy Wilkerson, Henry Castillo, Charles Rose, Randall Garner, Harley Long, Haley Hodnett, Clyde Hurt, Joe Parker, C. L. Girdner, Gary Grey, Jack Garner, Eugene Carpenter, Jimmy Conley, Donald Mack Richardson and Gerald Scott.

The Red Devils sailed through a five game schedule without a defeat or a tie marring their record. They turned back West Ward, second place team, by three touchdowns.

Central Ward teachers, parents of the players and the pep squad will assist in preparing the feast for the young athletes.

CINCY PLAYERS VOTE ON SUN BOWL OFFER
CINCINNATI, Dec. 6. (AP)—The University of Cincinnati Bearcats today considered an invitation to meet Virginia Polytechnic Institute's (VPI) Gobblers in the Sun Bowl football game at El Paso, New Year's Day.

Members of the squad, disbanded last week after a 13-7 Thanksgiving Day triumph over Miami, assembled at noon to vote on the bid, received yesterday from I. W. Gillette, chairman of the Sun Bowl committee.

LADIES NIGHT PROGRAM GIVEN BY LEGION
A full program of entertainment was provided at the joint meeting of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary in the Settles ball room Thursday night.

In addition to the auxiliary members, all wives, mothers and sisters of legion members were invited to the special "ladies night" session. Approximately 150 legionnaires, auxiliary members and guests attended.

Harry Echols appeared first on the program, playing two piano numbers, "I'll Never Smile Again" and "Cow, Cow Boogie." Mary Whitaker presented vocal impersonations of Betty Hutton. She was accompanied by Ann Gibson Houser.

Pupils of Betty Farrar were featured in three costume dance numbers. The first was a black-face tap dance by Jan Tillinghast, Linda Mason and Julius Glickman, followed by a Scotch hornpipe dance by Nancy Smith and a Spanish dance by Shirley George Colium.

Mrs. Wanda McElhannon sang two numbers, "When Day Is Done" and "Begin the Beguine" and Charles Romine gave his impersonation of the old-time medicine show barker.

Five gifts were awarded to men and four to women by the auxiliary.

After a short legion ceremonial and business meeting, refreshments were served. Christmas decorations were used on the refreshment table. Serving the guests were Mrs. Bob Eubanks, Mrs. Bud Tucker, Mrs. Neal Barnaby, Mrs. T. J. Dunlap and Mrs. T. A. Thielen.

MUSTY CLOTHES CLOSETS lose their odors within a few seconds after spraying with NIL. Use a light NIL mist on walls and clothes in closets.

WIPES OUT CLOTHES HAMPER ODORS. Just spray in hamper occasionally as dirty clothes accumulate.

ODORS IN UPHOLSTERY caused by pets, spilled drinks, tobacco smoke, or burns, will disappear instantly when areas are sprayed lightly with clean, safe, odorless NIL.

TOBACCO ODORS YIELD FAST to a NIL treatment. Spray air, curtains, draperies, etc. in smoky room.

"MORNING AFTER" ODORS from alcohol, smoke, etc. disappear rapidly after NIL is sprayed thoroughly in air.

DOG AND CAT OWNERS AMAZED WITH NIL'S fast, low-cost action in keeping homes free of animal odors. Spray NIL where dog or cat lies or sleeps. Safe to use direct on dog. If animal commits a nuisance, spray area to deodorize rug, floor, furniture, etc. Spray daily in cat's sand-box. ODOR OF DEAD MOUSE OR RAT GOES FAST with a quick NIL treatment. Spray animal, remove, and spray area and air.

KILLS EVEN SKUNK ODORS! Soak affected garments in NIL, and wash NIL on skin and hair until odor disappears.

A TRULY ODORLESS REST-ROOM in public places, stores, service stations, etc. is not only a blessing to patrons—it's a good-will money-maker for you. Where many products simply "mask" one odor with another, NIL completely destroys rest-room odors without leaving an odor of its own. Spray NIL on and in toilet bowl, on floor, in drains.

OFFICE AND WAITING ROOMS—especially doctors', dentists' and professional men's—can be kept free of all types of odors with an occasional spraying of NIL mist into the air, or directly on any affected area producing an odor.

HUNDREDS OF COMMERCIAL USES FOR NIL—wherever odors of any kind create a bad effect on either workers or patrons. For plant, home, office, or personal use, no other product can equal NIL's fast, simple action in destroying embarrassing odors! There's no true deodorant like it! Write Drug Dept., Skinner Mfg. Co., Omaha, Nebraska.

"Here's What You Ought to Say about NIL"

says Mrs. B., a NIL user

"Just tell folks they ought to forget everything they ever knew about deodorants, this one is so different. I threw out five deodorants, and use only NIL. You ought to say that NIL is free because it saves so much money."

"I tell my friends of course it is amazing that I can use NIL for personal daintiness, then turn right around and spray odors from my baby's diapers. I would like to thank personally the young ex-Navy lieutenant who invented NIL for what he has done to make my housekeeping easier."

We say, with Mrs. B., you just won't believe what NIL can do until you've used it. Think of it: after testing hundreds of odors scientists safely conclude NIL destroys more than 100,000 odors. Be dainty, be economical: "NIL that odor."

Keep A Bottle In the Kitchen—Keep A Bottle in the Bathroom—Available At Leading Grocery and Drug Stores Everywhere

NIL that Odor!

DRUG DIVISION, SKINNER MANUFACTURING COMPANY, OMAHA, NEBRASKA... COPYRIGHT, 1946. PATENT NO. 2,310,099

Why We Say NIL is the First True Deodorant:

1. It quickly destroys (oxidizes) all objectionable home odors.
2. It does not merely "mask" an odor with another odor.
3. It is completely odorless—has no odor, leaves no odor.

Can You Name Another Deodorant Like This?

Parley Called To Avert Threatened Motor Strike

DALLAS, Dec. 6. (AP)—Union and freight line representatives meet here today in an effort to avert a general strike of motor freight line employes in five Southwestern states Dec. 18.

Ted Morrow, US Department of Labor conciliator, said between 75 and 100 truck lines, principal motor freight movers in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri, are involved.

Negotiations between the lines and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (AFL) have been deadlocked since Nov. 26 by disagreement on over-the-road pay.

TO APPEAR HERE—Above is Rev. Oscar Stern, demonstrating the Jewish Passover, a spectacle he will present Sunday as part of special programs at the Church of the Nazarene. In the lower photo is Mrs. Helen Steiner, daughter of a Jewish rabbi, who has become a Christian and will give a lecture. The public is invited to attend the programs at 9:45 and 11 a. m.

Special Events Slated Sunday At Local Church

Two outstanding programs are scheduled for Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene, Fourth and Austin streets. Hours are at 9:45 and 11 a. m.

The first of these will be presented by Rev. Oscar Stern, a former Jew, and a refugee from Czechoslovakia. He will present a full pageant of the great traditional Jewish Passover feast as it was observed in the upper room in Jerusalem by the Lord and His disciples twenty centuries ago. Rev. Stern states that he will demonstrate how the ancient Passover feast was taken by Jesus and transformed into the institution which is now known as the "Lord's Supper."

The second event will present Mrs. Helen Steiner, the daughter of a Jewish Rabbi who has now become a Christian. This well-known Hebrew-Christian lecturer, was formerly an orthodox Jewess brought up under the strict tradition and rituals of her former religion. She is now a field representative of the First Hebrew Christian Synagogue of Los Angeles, California, Dr. Arthur U. Michelson, Founder and she will present fascinating details of her religious career, her miraculous conversion, and give authentic reasons why she believes that Jesus is the true Messiah of the Jews. 1Y-1 h

J & K Shoe Store Opens Saturday In Modern Runnels St. Home

Numerically speaking, more than half the population could obtain shoes at the J&K Shoe store, which will be opened officially Saturday.

In all of this area, it is conservative to say that there is no shoe store more modern in design or extensive in stocks than the new J&K at 215 Runnels.

Although there have been reports of shoe shortages, the stock of approximately 12,000 pair at J&K would not indicate that such is the case with the business, which can trace a continuous history in Big Spring of 15 years.

From the front to the rear of the display room, the store is designed along sweeping modernistic lines and is in a new building. The windows are recessed into the store proper so that display is equally effective from inside as outside.

The front show case, where women's handbags, hosiery, etc., are displayed, is of the bar-type with an overhanging case and recessed base. This lies under an overhanging sweep outlined by indirect neon lighting. On the left upon entering is the men's department with sleek cases flanking the shelving.

When complete, the lobby will be rubber tile and the shoe departments carpeted. Chairs will be modern design, leather-upholstered. At the rear of the store, the exit to the stockroom is obscured by a columnar design, which offers additional miscellaneous storage.

At the side, behind walls with curtained entrances, is the main stockroom with shelves handling 3,200 pair. At the present time, they have as much on top the shelves as is possible to get in them. The workroom, too, is piled with stocks of shoes. A space has been reserved in this area for the office.

In addition to all types of shoes—men's, women's, childrens, dress, work, sports, etc., the store will handle kindred lines such as bags, hosiery, anklets, etc.

The store was opened originally in Big Spring in 1931 by E. B. Kimberlin. He was joined in 1940 by C. C. (Choc) Jones, and it became J & K at that time. These two will be assisted in the operation by Mrs. Bob Wren, Mrs. Edith Prater, Mrs. Kenneth Click, Billy Clanton and Vernon Priddy.

Mrs. Steve Baker Entertains Club

Mrs. Steve Baker was hostess Thursday evening to members of guests of the Merry Wives Bridge club.

Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held on Dec. 20 in the home of Mrs. Perry Johnson. Names were drawn for the exchange of gifts.

Mrs. Joe Black made high score at bridge, Mrs. D. M. McKinney made second high and Mrs. Bill Dehlinger binged.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. McKinney and Mrs. Tommy Jordan and members attending included Mrs. Joe Black, Mrs. Steve Baker, Mrs. James C. Jones, Mrs. Perry Johnson, Mrs. Howard Stephens and Mrs. Dehlinger.

Minister Is New Grand Master Of Masonic Lodge

WACO, Dec. 6. (AP)—Bruce Brannon, Presbyterian minister, was installed as grand master of the Texas Masonic Grand Lodge at a public ceremony here yesterday ending the lodge's 111th communication.

Past Grand Master Sam Cantej Jr., of Fort Worth, presided at the installation. He was assisted by Past Grand Master Steve Cook, also of Fort Worth, and Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University and the retiring grand master.

Brannon, first clergyman ever to assume leadership of the Texas lodge, was a pastor at Hillsboro when he was elected grand junior warden Dec. 5, 1941. He was a Navy captain in the Pacific during the war. Upon his release from service he accepted a pastorate at Commerce.

A Solution Which Is All Too Easy

One of the easy instruments for dealing with the coal strike emergency seems to be use of the "inch" (big and little) for natural gas transport to the industrial sections of the North and East.

The supposition is that gas can be substituted for coal, and thus if this can be done on sufficient magnitude, a great deal of the paralyzing effects of the coal shortage will be overcome.

The idea, however, is too easy. In the first place, it is still to be demonstrated that the lines are suitable carriers for gas without a great deal of work. Assuming, however, that they are in shape to carry a maximum volume of gas, there is good reason to believe that this really will amount to no enduring solution.

In the first place, the coal producing areas have a reserve at normal withdrawal rates to suffice for a couple of hundred years or more. They are not inexhaustible, but they approach that degree in considerable excess to our gas reserves. Experts predict that drain on our gas would deplete the supplies within about 30 years.

Thus, from the state's point, it may not be wise to ship a basic fuel off to other areas when it will be needed in years to come in this area, which has no heavy coal reserves. Too, if industry is enticed this way as most of us hope, gas will be needed in increasing quantities at home.

It is open to debate if unrestrained exportation of gas from Texas would really make any difference in the industrial areas. In this section we really have no conception of the vast amount of power required to maintain the domestic and commercial requirements of the North and East. The best that we could do in the way of gas might fall far short.

There is this much more to the matter. Use of gas as a big stick to force a labor-management issue does not give proper weight to economic soundness. Those difficulties should be settled on an enduring basis, if possible, and not resolved by means of threats of substitute fuel.

THE SAME OL' DIZZY WHIRL

Broadway—Jack O'Brian

A New Note In Jazz

NEW YORK — Fifty-second Street got a much needed shot in its playing arm when Joe Mooney arrived on the scene with a style of music which has the most cynical, suspicious hot jazz critics describing it in joyous terms such as "evolving," "new," "the best thing since Ellington," "as new to jazz as the first Dixieland jazz band was when it first arrived."

All the descriptions are merited. The new jazz form presented with such explosiveness by Joe Mooney's Quartet, four fellows who approach their music with a distinctly different style and execution, has set that jaded swing Alley of 52nd Street on its well-worn ear.

The quartet is highly unusual for a swing combination. None of that orgiastic exhibitionistic screeching of the Dizzy Gillespie, the speecious dissonances of the Woody Herman, the precision-like perfection of Art Tatum, or the imprisoned jazz of John Kirby. Here is distinctly a new jazz form.

It smacks heavily of chamber music, although the instrumentation is widely different from the expected practitioners of the Mozart and Beethoven small musical form.

MOONEY himself plays accordion, occasionally piano. He performs on the accordion (an instrument which musicians play only slightly above the musical stature of a harmonica) in a highly amusing fashion. It is a known fact that the accordion can play some wheezy musical embarrassment, but not the way Joe Mooney plays. As he squeezes his stomach piano, it becomes important, played in virtuoso fashion by a fellow who knows not only his instrument, but jazz music, both to just about the ultimate degree. This accordionist has been an arranger for some of the biggest name bands in the country. His work is accepted as comparable to the finest.

Several years ago Joe started to concentrate on his small unit. He shopped around, finally heeded out of a good many applicants three fellows who now play with him in a style which can only be described as a classical approach to jazz.

ANDY FITZGERALD, a clarinetist of symphony capability, is a quiet, musically studious, Benny-Goodmanish instrumentalist. Jack Hotop, an ice-cool fellow whose outer appearance belies his inner adoration of his new style and boss, plays guitar. Gate Frey, who looks like a very good pharmacist, plays bass fiddle in classical fashion, not the open-palmed style of most jazz bassists.

They worked together for a long time, and about six months ago started to "latch on" to a new sound and found themselves with a fresh musical baby on their hands. They worked first in a small night club in Paterson, N.J., where they were discovered by Mike Levin, editor of Downbeat, a magazine devoted to hot jazz, and now are at Dixon's on 52nd Street, a sometime night club, sometime steak house, which had been having it a little rough until Joe Mooney's boys started their engagement. Freddy Lamb, the owner, who had finally refused an offer of $185,000 for his premises because the Mooney Quartet had turned business up to capacity and more.

Reports Say Stalin Is Sick Again

WASHINGTON. — Diplomatic dispatches from Moscow indicate definitely that Marshal Stalin's health has had another setback. He suffered a heart attack sometime in November and is now resting in the Crimea.

The fact has been made the subject of an official report to the state department.

This last heart attack is the second suffered by the man who has so long ruled Russia. Last winter he also had to go to the Crimea to recuperate from an illness. Stalin is now 67 years old, but has amassed more diversified life and hardship into those years than any other world leader.

Imprisoned and exiled to Siberia eight times, the years have taken their toll, and Stalin was not playing-acting when he held up Churchill and Truman by staying in bed one day at Potsdam.

It is generally expected that Foreign Minister Molotov will succeed Stalin.

Note — The experience of all American negotiators, from Roosevelt to Jimmy Byrnes, is that Stalin is much easier to do business with than Molotov. This may be because Stalin doesn't have to worry about the politburo as much as Molotov.

SEAGOING ADMIRAL MITSCHER

There are admirals — and admirals, in the Navy, there is Admiral Ernie King, recently retired commander of the fleet, who kept US Marines guarding his regularly assigned quarters at the Naval observatory (one of the safest places in Washington) and in addition collected seagoing pay because he also slept in his Naval yacht moored in the Potomac tidal basin.

There is also Admiral Randall Jacobs, recently transferred chief of Naval personnel, who had the use of a government-equipped house, plus a couple of Filipino servants at the old Naval hospital in Washington.

And there is also Commodore Jake Vardaman, Truman's former Naval aide, who requisitioned enlisted men to repair his Washington home (whether they liked it or not) and who also collected seagoing pay despite the fact that he was living in a comfortable home in a Washington suburb.

On the other hand, there is Admiral Marc Mitscher, a recent hero of the Pacific, now commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet. His permanent base is Norfolk. However, housing conditions are such that Mrs. Mitscher has not been able to rent a private home there. Mrs. Mitscher could secure Naval housing at the Norfolk Naval base, but her husband points out that since he is getting extra pay for sea duty, he has no right to sponge on the Navy for free rent ashore.

Note — The Mitschers celebrated Thanksgiving Day in some furnished rooms where cooking facilities were not good, and the admiral's galley crew wanted to surprise Mrs. Mitscher with a Turkey cooked aboard ship and brought ashore. The admiral, however, said that seagoing duty was seagoing duty for thousands of men who couldn't even be with their families on Thanksgiving Day and ruled out the seagoing, shore-delivered turkey.

STRIP-MINE COAL

"Old curmudgeon" Ickes, the man who used to battle it out with John L. Lewis in the Roosevelt administration, has now come out with the common-sense suggestion that the government speed up strip-mining. Ickes points out that strip mines produce 100,000,000 tons of coal annually, and that if the government got busy with bulldozers and steam shovels and enlisted a corps of Seabees, this could be increased enough to keep the railroads and public utilities going.

However, the Truman administration is much more skilled at cooling its heels than spark-plugging a big drive for more strip-mining.

For instance, here is the reception line one strip miner, W. J. Lyda of Black Lick, Pa., got when he tried to get two diesel shovels and two D-8 bulldozers. After getting the run-around in Pennsylvania, strip-miner Lyda finally appealed through friends to this columnist.

This office in turn contacted half a dozen people in solid fuels administration and the civilian production administration, all of whom were courteously anxious to be helpful, but could do little. In the end it was necessary to fill out CPA form 4425 showing the need of this coal machinery and send it to John E. Steinhauer, metals and minerals division of the civilian production administration. Upon a proper showing of urgency it was said that the CPA would issue a certificate which would then permit coal-stripper Lyda to get his shovels and bulldozers — if he can find them.

However, the War Assets Administration informed this columnist that despite a certificate from CPA it had no D-8 bulldozers, and no shovels. Furthermore, dealers state that they will not have this equipment for eight months to one year.

Meanwhile, however, both the Army and Navy have row upon row of bulldozers and steamshovels which are not too busy. Furthermore, under the President's war powers — which still are in force — he has the power to requisition equipment from private companies now used on projects which soon must come to a halt anyway if there is no coal.

While this is not wartime, it may be worse than wartime as far as creeping paralysis is concerned. It there isn't more esprit de corps and initiative on the part of certain bogged-down gentlemen in high government places.

NORTH CAROLINA YANKEE

When administration friends approached ex-governor Max Gardner about being US ambassador to his Britannic Majesty's Court of St. James, Max replied:

"I've been bowin' and scrapin' to North Carolinians all my life, and in my old age I'll be darned if I want to be bowin' to anyone else now."

However, at this difficult period, with British labor kicking over the traces against the British alliance with right-winging, Republican-USA, Max Gardner will make about the best possible choice for American ambassador — whether he puts on knee breeches or not.

State Department officials have already warned Max that he will have to hire a valet — which will go against the new ambassador's homespun humility. He will also live in Barbara Hutton's ornate former palace, surrounded by about 25 acres of park, featuring a swimming pool in the basement, gold bathroom fixtures, and iron bars, worked by pushbuttons, that slide over the windows at night. But, despite all the folders, if the British are wise, they will know that this astute but bumble North Carolina Yankee at the Court of St. James represents the backbone of the USA from the grass roots up, and can speak simply but wholeheartedly for it. (Copyright, 1946, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Private Negotiations Should Be Tried

Edward R. Burke quit recently as president of the Southern Coal Producers association when a section of his board of directors denounced his proposal that operators negotiate with John L. Lewis and the UMW for new contracts.

This action seems to have been lost in the uproar surrounding the injunction and contempt proceedings against Lewis and the UMW. It is a development of importance.

If it means, and there is reason to believe that it does, that the producers are adamant against any negotiations and in favor of letting the government carry on the deadlock in the hopes that miners will be forced to return to work, either by compulsion or to thwart starvation, then it is cold and shortsighted.

In the final analysis, the issue should be between the UMW and the operators. Government operation of the mines, however well intentioned, certainly is nothing better than mere expediency. The sooner negotiations are resumed on private levels, with machinery for effective arbitration, the better off we will be.

Mirrors Of Austin

New Political Party In The Making?

AUSTIN.—The nucleus of an organization which might well develop into a new party in Texas has been formed and an initial meeting open to the general public will be held in Austin Saturday, December 7.

Robert Eckhardt of Austin, the temporary secretary of the "interim" group—which calls itself temporary, the People's Legislative Committee, says that appearances are deceiving; that there is no intention of separation from the national or state Democratic groups in this new liberal organization.

"We are entirely at harmony with the national administration," he said, "but it is a fact that our organization might fill a need in Texas. We felt the liberal progressive program should be espoused in Texas."

The interim group, he explained would function to espouse those legislative objectives upon which the two run-off candidates for governor—Beauford Jester and Homer Rainey—were in agreement. "Presumably," he said, "we all agree on them. He listed, as examples, removal of the $35,000,000 annual ceiling on various forms of assistance; a $2,000 per year minimum salary for school teachers, and faster construction of farm to market roads.

Members of the interim committee—pending organization in all the senatorial districts next spring—are:

Chairman, Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, onetime candidate for governor; Secretary, Eckhardt; and members: Mrs. Jack Carter of Fort Worth; Tosca Damaronio of Dallas; Bernard Rapoport of Waco; Joe S. Dibrell of Coleman; D. C. Fisher of McCamey; John Granberry of San Antonio; T. K. Henderson of Yoakum; W. A. Hendricks of Hearne; Dallas Scarborough of Abilene; J. Edwin Smith of Houston; Kirke Steels of Corsicana; Marion Storm of Austin; Jackson Valtira of Dallas, and Mrs. A. L. Voigt of San Antonio.

It is contemplated that this committee will function during the legislature. Eventually, there will be named a committeeman and committeewoman from each of the 31 senatorial districts; and these appointed officers will have the duty of organizing their own districts. Once the districts are organized, each district will elect its committeeman and committeewoman. This organizational procedure exactly parallels the organization of the Democratic Executive Committee, except that sometimes, the chief executive vetoes the elections made to the party committee.

A prolix invitation has been sent out to several people over the state inviting them to attend the Dec. 7 meeting, but Eckhardt says it is not planned as any "pre-tentive" affair.

At a preliminary meeting in Waco, the committee adopted a "Statement of Policy" which said in part:

"Strong forces in Texas and the nation are endeavoring to turn the state and national governments to policies of conservation and reaction. These forces are meeting with success in many quarters of Texas and in the south. "... Believing that the interests of America require that the government continue liberal and progressive, this committee is organized to serve as one of the nuclei to work for liberal and progressive government. ... "It is our purpose to work for

Nazi Trial Problems

NEW YORK. (AP)—Will German courts carry out their assigned responsibility to de-Nazify the American zone in Germany?

History and human nature reply, "probably not."

I was convinced during my recent stay in Germany that German judges are reluctant to take the personal responsibility of trying Nazis. On the other hand, American military government is reluctant to invest the money, men and time to do the job itself. Here's the present status of the bogged down post-war anti-Nazi campaign:

Last spring the American military government turned over to the German provisional government the task of trying and sentencing Nazi suspects. Last month Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, deputy US Military Governor, angrily accused the German courts of "whitewashing" Nazi defendants on a large scale. He gave them sixty days to improve. He threatened that "if the German people are unwilling to do the job, the military government can and will do it."

Well, let's see what the Germans did to punish their guilty after the last war. In 1919 German representatives solemnly signed an agreement to turn over 900 of their war criminals to the victorious Allies.

But in 1920, after a storm of German protest, the victors agreed to permit the German Supreme Court at Leipzig to try the 900.

Of these suspects this high court subsequently refused to try 888. Of the dozen tried, only six were condemned. And of these six, said Emil Ludwig in 1943 in his book "How to Treat the Germans," three escaped prison within a few days and the last three "were confined to prison for some weeks."

Before criticizing the German judges themselves too strongly, consider their human predicament. There are more than 16,500,000 Germans in the American zone. Some 104,000 have been accused under the denazification laws, another 350,000 will be charged and the status of 5,000,000 more is still in doubt. These are official American military government figures as of a month ago.

That means one out of every three Germans in the American zone still doesn't know eighteen months after the war whether he will have to go before a German court. This court can acquit him completely, turn him loose with a stigma that will permit him to work only at common labor, or convict him and send him to prison.

Assume that the judges are all ardent anti-Nazis—and they certainly aren't. But in any case they are all Germans. They know this hatred will build up and cost them their political future when government which will tolerate no monopoly ... will not discriminate against any person because of race, creed or national origin ...

The Corporal And His Shower Bath

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

The saga of Johnny Brothers (Part One): Johnny W. Brothers of Panhandle, Texas, had been a corporal for over a year and decided he'd like to be a sergeant for a change.

In an article rivaling Private Hargrove's best, Brothers tells, in the Panhandle Herald, how he figured out a way to win friends and influence promotions: Build a shower for his headquarters personnel.

His outfit was in Tunisia, and the men were bathing out of their helmets.

Well, he built the shower. It was a major project, taking over a month. He had to erect a building, a tower, a rock-lined floor, find and fix a barrel and spray. All on his own time.

"Everything went fine," he says. "The men could bathe very easily now. That thing saved many man hours. The colonel himself was using it, and I knew that I would be recognized."

Then Major General Lewis H. Brereton, the Ninth Air Force Commander, visited the post unexpectedly—and decided to take a bath.

"I saw him and the colonel going to the shower with their towels. Oh, boy, the commanding general was to bathe in my shower. This will do it, I said. I was glowing all over."

But suddenly the colonel appeared.

"Corporal Brothers (the colonel had three ways of saying Corporal Brothers: one was to look up, one was to stand up, and one when he wanted my undivided attention.) The way he said it this time was definitely the latter type. So I jumped to my feet and froze."

"Why is there no water in the shower?" he said very loudly. I had forgotten to fill the barrel at noon, as I usually did.

"The commanding general would like to have a bath, and he is the type that we do not like to keep waiting," the colonel said. He said moreover that if I wanted to keep my corporal's stripes, I would not forget to fill it again."

He didn't get his sergeant's stripe. He was lucky to keep what he had.

"Did he ever win a promotion? What did he do next? And did peace give him a run-around, too? See Sunday's exciting episode.)

Groucho A New Man

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Groucho Marx is doing a single these days and looking much unlike Groucho Marx.

The comedian is appearing with Carmen Miranda and without his brothers in "CopaCabana," and has undergone a transformation from his usual screen self. He sports a smartly trimmed moustache and his own eyebrows in place of the grease variety, and his hair is combed as if he were a normal person. In fact, he appeared to be a different person—until he turned on the famed Marxian leer at the Brazilian bombshell.

Groucho rejected my suggestion that the new makeup was easier. "Nonsense," he said. "Before, I'd come in and paint a little grease on my face. Now they put me in a chair and work 30 minutes on me. I feel as though they should hang me on the wall afterwards."

Asked if he were lonely without his brothers, Groucho reported that both were on the set in costume the first day of shooting to bolster his morale. And they phone him each night "to see if the picture's lousy." They are busy, too. Harpo is still mulling a picture with Ben Hecht, and Chico, the ham of the outfit, plays piano all over the country. They all are thinking about a remake of "Animal Crackers."

Good Idea Dept.: Some local establishments are putting March of Dimes donation cartons near the cigarette machine to catch the extra pennies inside the packages of smokes. ... Burl Ives off for a minor operation in New York. ... Greer Garson is recording a Christmas greeting which will be broadcast over BBC. ... George Murphy got a pair of bronzed dancing shoes from his wife to celebrate his 10th year at MGM. They were the brogans that first brought him movie fame. ... Ida Lupino ill at home with bronchitis. ... Sir Cedric Hardwicke lost his toupee but not his dignity in a film struggle with George Zucco for "Personal Column." Carry on.

PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE

ASSURES YOU

TOP VALUE ALWAYS!

The value of worn-out cars continues to decline... dependable clean cars, regardless of model, are a satisfaction to their owners. Big Spring Motor's PM (Preventive Maintenance) system of service is based on thorough check and lubrication at regular intervals. This regular attention to your car is not expensive but substantially reduces repairs. Our service department will be most glad to explain in detail!

Cotton Insurance Program Talked By AAA Group

Ways and means of selling the growers on 1947 federal cotton crop insurance was discussed at the district meeting of county AAA administrators here Tuesday. The procedure to be used in obtaining grain sorghum loans was also presented to the officials on hand.

Among those who spoke during the session were Howard Kingsberry, state committeeman of Santa Ana; Fred Rennels, state administrative officer; Bryan P. C. Colgin, commodity loan specialist, College Station; and Victor Dierwas, field representative of this district.

Among counties represented at the meeting were Dawson, Scurry, Fisher, Gaines, Andrews, Midland, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Nolan, Glasscock, Tom Green, Concho, Coke and Sterling.

TEXAN CONVICTED

NEW YORK, Dec. 5. (AP)—A Federal Court jury yesterday convicted Arthur C. Zweler of El Paso, Texas, and two other defendants of conspiring to smuggle 32 pounds of marijuana into the United States from Mexico.

The people of China have been drinking tea for at least 1,600 years.

Turner May Fit Into Cage Plans At High School

John Malaise's high school basketball Steers, who open their home season against the strong San Angelo Bobcats Friday, Dec. 13, can field a veteran aggregation but may suffer from lack of height. Malaise can field a holdover quintet composed of Capt. Horace Rankin, Eddie Houser, Marvin Wright, Ike Robb and either Bobo Hardy or Jackie Barron. Of that group, Wright is the tallest. Rankin and Houser will measure something like six feet, something like an inch shorter than Marv.

Yankees Swap Three For Two

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6. (AP) — The New York Yankees today traded two pitchers and outfielder Hal Peck to the Cleveland Indians for Second Baseman Ray Mack and a catcher in the biggest deal so far of the winter baseball meetings. The Yanks gave up Peck, formerly of the Athletics and who batted 247 in 48 games this year, and Al Gettel, right-hander, and Gene Beardon. In exchange the Indians sent to New York Mack, who hit 205 in 61 games this year, and Catcher Sherman Lollar.

More than 400 manufacturing companies with capitalization of more than $80,000,000 have been organized in Mexico since 1939. $1.20 and 60 cents, is being pressed by students. The price range has been jacked up so that proceeds will help toward expenses of a proposed road trip around Christmas or New Year's Day. If the Bovines raise enough money from the game, no solicitation for funds will be made.
