CITY GRANTS WATER FRANCHISE

GENERAL SNOW BENEFITS PANHANDLE-PLAINS

EFFECTS FOR 1928 CROPS FLATTERING AS RESULT MOISTURE OF PAST TEN DAYS

Said to be General Over the Panhandle-Plains Country and In Western Oklahoma

...falling here early this Thursday morning and continuing steadily from the northeast all day, covering to a depth of two or three inches in spite of the fact that it has been melting all day. This snow, added to the inch rain of ten days ago and the shower last night and snow Monday, gives considerable promise for the prospects for 1928 very promising.

February is not usually considered a wet month, but this one is proving to be very acceptable to farmers and business men alike. Especially since last year's crop was made without very much winter season in the ground and without any rains until early summer. Farmers believe good crops are practically assured when plenty of moisture comes during the winter and early spring.

It is purely a matter of guesswork to try to figure how much a county will produce with plenty of moisture, when it produced last year 47,000 bales of cotton and other crops in proportion without any moisture to begin with and very little during the growing season. It makes good prospects for 1928 when early in the year good rains and snows come to saturate old Mother Earth.

Excellent conditions are prevailing at present, and it is predicted very freely that all of 1928 will be marked by healthy activity in all lines. Banks are in better shape than in many years; business conditions are good; the farmers generally are also in better condition financially, and are planning a more diversified program this year, all of which combine to make the outlook for prosperity much brighter.

According to information furnished by E. L. Curb, manager State Telephone Co., at noon today the snow extended as far west as Plainview, north to Amarillo and south to Vernon, but was melting fast at the Wilbarger city because of a much warmer temperature. To the east, it was snowing steadily at Altus today.

The Silverton, Turkey and Matador region received an exceptionally heavy snowfall, which began Wednesday night and was still falling at noon Thursday. Prospects for a good season in the plains section have been increased 100 per cent it is said.

District Judge Is Speaker At Rotary Luncheon

Judge C. C. Small, district judge and candidate for the State Senate, was the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Rotary club Tuesday.

Judge Small complimented Memphis and Hall county for the high type of citizenship and the regard for law. But, he said, many citizens, who are counted as good and law-abiding citizens, do not realize the necessity and obligation of serving on the jury when called upon for this patriotic service. Some men, when summoned to serve on the jury, begin to try to make excuses. If one is to be a true citizen in every sense of the word he must do jury duty as he would any other patriotic duty for his country.

The pay for jury service is not much, but it is sometimes more than the service rendered. Men should not ask, "What am I to get as juror?" but should ask, "Am I giving value received?" His talk gave plenty of food for thought, and was enjoyed by all present. The club observes Rotary Ann night Friday at the Masonic Temple dining room.

99-YEAR PENALTY GIVEN GREEN IN MURDER CASE

HIGHWAY PLANS TO COMPLETE PAVING

Plans have been completed for the new Colorado-to-Gulf highway route across Red river to Estelline and are now with highway engineers for approval, Judge A. C. Hoffman announced today. Specifications call for a concrete overpass across the Denver & South Plains railroad on the outskirts of Estelline.

Paving construction will be resumed on the highway between Memphis and Red river about March 1, according to the V. P. Strange Construction company, contractors. The road will be complete in 60 to 90 days thereafter, it is estimated.

A number of workmen are now busy with fresnos and graders shouldering the paving from Memphis south.

DISTRICT COURT

The grand jury is still in session returning indictments for cases during the present term of district court. Two murder cases are scheduled to be tried within the next week or two.

CHILDRESS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET IS WELL ATTENDED

Childress held the annual chamber of commerce banquet Wednesday night of last week, and from all accounts one of the best in the history of that organization. Much progress was noted during the past year and plans for greater activity for the coming year were introduced.

Memphis had an invitation to send representatives, but owing to the fact that the Memphis chamber was sponsoring Dr. Dean C. Dutton here in a series of lectures, had to forego the pleasure of meeting with the Childress chamber.

Penalty Assessed One of Heaviest In Hall County

Penalty of ninety-nine years in the penitentiary was assessed Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock by the jury in the Andy Green case, after deliberating about an hour.

Green, 47 years old, was tried for the murder of A. A. Moore, 72, in northeastern Childress county on January 30, last. Both were farmers living on adjoining farms. In his statement to the district attorney, Green said the killing was the culmination of an argument over privilege to use a certain gate on the Moore farm.

The defendant was calm when the jury rendered its verdict and showed no signs of emotion for the first few minutes. However, after a few friends gathered around him he burst into loud laughter tinged with hysteria.

Saturday morning Judge C. C. Small will hear a motion for a new trial presented by Green's attorney, Jack B. Deahl of Wellington. In the event the motion is overruled the court will pass sentence of ninety-nine years.

Possibly the most damaging testimony during the entire trial came from the defendant's 19-year-old son who said his father came home after the shooting and said he had shot "old man Moore" three times.

This is one of very few life or long-term penalties to be assessed in Hall county.

Following are the names of the jurors: H. T. McCraw, E. M. Dennis, W. B. Corgille, C. H. Brown, F. R. Springer, Bob McLoyle, H. D. Delaney, W. D. Tyler, Dade Hill, J. W. Slover, Byron Baldwin and Grover Moss.

SMALL BLAZE AT D & M CHEVROLET CO. WED.

Gasoline spilled on the wash rack at D & M Chevrolet Co. ignited when the steam boiler, used for washing cars, was fired Wednesday shortly after noon. A fire alarm was sounded but the flames were "mothered" with a small fire extinguisher before the truck arrived. No damage resulted.

PRESENTS HOME TALENT PLAY SATURDAY

The Harrell Chapel community club enjoyed a home talent play Saturday night, which proved a real treat for all attending. The characters made up like professional performers, and when they appeared on the stage created much amusement. Each character was well chosen for his part, and the play went over great.

The Harrell Chapel people are enjoying community life in a splendid way, and making life worth living. A splendid community band, fine young people who have plenty of talent, and a sympathetic citizenship, makes that community a desirable one in which to live.

BRICK WORK NEARLY COMPLETED ON THE McMURRY BUILDING

The brick work on the McMurry building, Eighth and Main, will soon be completed. With fair weather this part of the work will be finished in a few days, and then the roof, ceiling and flooring will receive attention. This will be one of the nice buildings of the city.

Major Wood will occupy part of the building with a drive-in station. The other part of the building will be used as an electric shop by the Veta Electric company.

COMMISSIONERS COURT

Hall County Commissioners Court met in regular session last Monday, B. T. Pruitt absent on account of a death in his family. No business was transacted other than the allowing of accounts.

A called meeting will be held tomorrow morning to pass an order authorizing the issuance of school bonds for the Harrell Chapel school, on the Hall-Childress county line in school district number 6.

COMPANY WILL AID MEMPHIS IN SECURING LOWER INSURANCE RATES AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE

Additional Mains and Fire Hydrants Will Be Added Within Twelve Months According to Plans

A new water franchise, submitted at the last meeting of the city council by James G. Hix, representing the Texas Water Co., was granted Friday upon recommendation by the water committee at a called meeting of the council.

Mr. Hix stated he would pay J. D. Browder, present owner of the water works, $25,000 to bind the deal until April 1, when the contract will be closed. The purchase price was $250,000.

Somewhat lower water rates will result in the change of ownership. The present domestic rate is $1.50 for the first thousand gallons and 50 cents for each additional thousand. The new rate will be $1.50 for the first thousand gallons, 50 cents for the next 20,000 and 35 cents for each additional thousand. Present industrial rate will be changed from a straight rate of 35 cents per thousand gallons to $1.50 for the first thousand and 25 cents for each additional thousand. These rates apply for a period of three years and it is possible they will be lowered at the close of that period.

Old litigation that has taken suits to the supreme court will be cleared up when the new owners take charge. There will be no additional flat rate for servants houses where a meter is installed and one flat rate is already being charged. The Texas Water company will discontinue the former practice.

The city will pay $25 yearly rental for each fire hydrant now in use and may demand additional ones at the same rate at any time. Necessary water for flushing city sewer mains must be furnished to the city without cost.

Within one year from the date of the franchise the Texas Water company must lay 10-inch mains from Browder Springs to the city, according to provisions in the instrument. The city also requires the company to "make such changes in the mains in the mercantile district, as required by the fire insurance department of the state of Texas, to eliminate the 10 cents penalty now applied to that district by reason of the small sized mains" within three years. Two inch mains now in use on the east side of the railroad must be replaced with four inch mains.

Regarding the lowering of Memphis' insurance key rate, the franchise says further: "Grantee further agrees to co-operate with the council of said city, so far as it is consistent with sound business practice, to secure further reductions in insurance rates from time to time."

Fain & Company Improving Local Department Store

Improvements costing over $1,000 are now under way at Fain & Company's department store on Sixth street. The old windows have been torn away and three new ones in place of the former two will be erected. The new arrangement will include two doors with windows on either side and a smaller window in the center. They will have mirrored backs. A new gold letter sign will be placed in front and on top of the awning.

Remodeling now in progress will also extend to the interior. Plans include a new lighting system, new show cases for the ready-to-wear department on the balcony, a new 10-foot candy case and repainting of all fixtures.

The Memphis store, first to be established, is the mother of a chain of four operated by J. A. Fain with headquarters at Childress. Other stores are at Wellington, Childress and Quansah. "A number of new locations

FIRE BOYS WILL HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

Fire Boys of Other Towns Have Been Invited

The Memphis Fire Department plans to hold its annual banquet next Tuesday night in the Memphis Hotel dining room. Invitations have been extended to six fire boys from each of the four towns—Wellington, Childress, Clarendon, and Turkey.

The members of the City Council will be entertained at this banquet also. Following the banquet an intermission will be given. After which a fireman's ball will take place, and only fire boys and ladies may attend this ball.

JOINT MEETING OF LEGION AND AUXILIARY

Tuesday evening, February 21, at 8 o'clock the American Legion Post and the Auxiliary will hold a joint meeting at the Legion hall. The Auxiliary will have the annual installation of their incoming officers, with Mrs. J. W. Sebastian of Amarillo serving as installation officer. Mrs. Sebastian comes recommended as a "live wire" in Auxiliary work, and her installation work will be as beautiful as her presence and talk later in the evening will be inspiring.

Mr. J. W. Sebastian will be at the meeting in behalf of the Legion workers and those who attended the recent membership drive banquet remember his enthusiasm and understanding of the American Legion.

Special musical numbers will intersperse the program. Mrs. Winifred Wilson will give her report from the district convention, if her throat permits.

MRS. J. S. SPENCER

Mrs. J. S. Spencer, 42, died Tuesday, February 14, at the family home 18 miles east of Memphis, on the S. M. Reed farm. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church at Lakeview, Rev. R. C. Baker conducting the services. Interment was made in the Lakeview cemetery.

Mrs. Spencer is survived by her husband and two daughters all present at the funeral. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother, and was loved and respected by all who knew her.

FILLING STATION

L. C. Laing, who has recently moved to Memphis from Tipton, Oklahoma, completed a deal with J. K. Gibson Monday whereby he becomes owner of the City Service Station, Tenth and Main. There will be no change in the name of the business.

are now under observation." Mr. Fain declared here Tuesday, "and we expect to more than double the chain by fall. The Memphis store will be one of the Panhandle's most modern department stores when improvements shall have been completed."

TEXAS POLITICS WARMING UP AT AUSTIN

(This begins a series of weekly letters from Austin by the United Press on the trend of Texas politics. Information of value to every voter will be found in these articles, and The Democrat presents this service 12 to 24 hours before any other United Press newspaper can reach you.—EDITOR.)

BY GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Feb. 16. (UP)—Individual candidacies are being shoved into the background as the fight for control of the Texas delegation at the national Democratic convention settles down into a battle of youth versus age.

C. C. Renfro, Dallas, secretary of the "Texas Uninstructed Delegation For President Club," admitted while here that the fight has boiled down to a question of whether the younger Democrats shall take charge or whether Marshall Hicks of San Antonio and Thomas B. Love of Dallas shall hold control.

Hicks is already an avowed worker for a delegation pledged to support Governor Dan Moody for president. Love urges precinct conventions on May 5 to adopt resolutions definitely against Smith, Reed, or Ritchie. He said they should be eliminated and the choice of the nominee left to the "forces of good government in the Democratic party." Hicks is also for prohibition, so the Hicks program and the Love program can easily run in harmony. Renfro makes no secret of his belief that they will.

But Renfro points out that the leaders of the uninstructed movement he points to Charles Francis of Wichita Falls, Dick Fleming of Houston, Frank Culver of Fort Worth, and other close friends and past supporters of Moody.

The battle will be fought on Cinco De Mayo. The precinct conventions on that day will meet, name and instruct delegates to the county conventions which will later name delegates to the state convention which, in turn, names the Texas delegation of 40 members to go to Houston.

During the height of the Klan and Anti-Klan battle in Dallas county, there was not a precinct meeting where 150 would not have been a majority. The strategy on both sides is to get their crowd out at the precinct meetings and with them a leader.

Here the young Democrats admit they face a handicap. At least they fear one. Some one has convinced Renfro that the historic "card index of Texas Democrats" is in the hands of Love.

This card index was compiled when W. P. Hobby, now of Houston, was running for governor. It has been reported that its domicile was in the Security bank building at Dallas. Love also had an office there at that time and supported Hobby. Whether the card index is in existence or not, the young Democrats think it is and fear it will be used to call out Love battlers at the precinct meetings.

Some of the older Democrats are lining up with the youngsters. Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald of the March-Fentress newspapers in Texas has come out editorially declaring the younger Democrats should take control of the party.

Former Postmaster General Burleson favors an uninstructed delegation.

Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham's preliminary platform excited little comment in Austin. "Any one of the candidates could sign it" was one of the few comments. Preliminary announcements are not expected to be more than general in text, however, the issues to be fought in the campaign will develop later.

One of these may be Mexican immigration. Representative John C. Box's bill for applying the quota rule to Mexico may become the big issue of the senatorial campaign. Another may be the proposal to limit senatorial terms to two.

What Former Governor Jim Ferguson's attitude will be on the senatorial race remains dubious. First he was reported for Blanton. Then it was stated he was going to support Connally. Ferguson when asked the question direct this week said he had "issued no interview on the senatorial race."

Alvin Owsley's recent visit to San Antonio is followed by the statement that Marshall Hicks is for Owsley. Owsley is among the "younger Democrats." Hicks may have struck a flank blow at the element avowedly out to depose him and Tom Love.

Entry of Wright Patman into the congressional race in northeast Texas caused much interest at the capitol where Patman gained a reputation as a fighter for east Texas in the house of representatives. It was first thought Senator Lloyd Price of Texarkana would make the race but he has entered a Fort Worth law firm instead.

Capital Singer

Adolph Turner, page boy in the House of Representatives, is ambitious to be a grand opera star. Staid Capitol walls, in quiet moments, often echo the sound of Adolph sounding his "ahs." He is a member of the Washington Opera Company and is shown practicing before the Capitol.

High though his titles, proud his name, Boundless his wealth as wish can claim,— Despite his titles, power, and pelf, The wretch, concentrated all in self, Living, shall forfeit fair renown, And, doubly dying, shall go down To the vile dust from which he sprang, Unwept, unhonored, and unsung."

REBEKAHS ASSIST CLARENDON LODGE The Memphis Flora Rebekah Lodge Team went to Clarendon Friday of last week and helped in the initiation of a member into the Clarendon Rebekah Lodge. About 25 members accompanied the team. Under the direction of the new captain, Mrs. M. P. Turner, the drill work was very beautifully put on and every one reported having a delightful time and returned declaring Clarendon Lodge a wonderful hostess.

CLUBS STUDY AMERICANIZATION

This department of our paper is devoted to Americanization and citizenship and is sponsored by the 1913 Study club and the Delphian club. These clubs are cooperating in every way possible with the schools and religious organizations of the town in promoting more real Americanization and better citizenship.

The birthdaf of one of "our greatest patriots, Abraham Lincoln, has just passed and we feel that it is onlf fitting that we pay his sacred memory a little tribute of love and appreciation.

"HOW GOD MADE ABRAHAM LINCOLN"

Seeking a deliverer and a Savior, the great God in His own purpose passed by the palace, and its silken delights. He took a little babe in His arms and called to his side His favorite angel, the angel of sorrow. Stopping he whispered, "O, Sorrow, thou well beloved teacher, take thou this child of mine and make him great."

Take him to yonder cabin in the wilderness; make his home a poor man's home; plant his narrow path thick with thorns; cut his little feet with sharp rocks as he climbs the hill of difficulty. Make each footprint red with his own life blood; load his little back with burdens; give to him days of toil and nights of study and sleeplessness.

"Wrest from his arms what- ever he loves, make his heart, through sorrow, as sensitive to the sigh of a slave as a thread of silk in a window is sensitive to the slightest wind that blows; and when you have digged lines of pain in his cheek and made his face more marred than the face of any man of his time, bring him back to me, and with him I will free 4,000,000 slaves!" That is how God made Abraham Lincoln.

PATRIOTISM "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said, This is my own, my native land? Whose heart hath ne'er within him burned, As home his footsteps he hath turned From wandering on a foreign strand? If such there breathe, go, mark him well; For him no minstrel raptures swell;

The Homan's Culture club met in regular session February 1, at the home of the president, Mrs. H. W. Kohn.

After the transaction of business, the lesson was omitted. Mrs. F. T. Collins of Amarillo, district president, visited the club and made a most interesting talk on library, tree planting and county federation. During the social hour the hostess served a nice plate lunch.

Mrs. D. A. Grundy was hostess to the Culture club Wednesday February 15. The president, Mrs. H. W. Kuhn, was too ill to attend this meeting. After the regular business session an interesting political program was carried out. Roll call—"Quotations from our Presidents." Simple Facts about our State Politics"—Mrs. W. B. Quigley. This was very instructive and many interesting and important facts were learned about the presidents. The hostess served refreshments after which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Horace Tarver, March 7.

PAGE, LINE AND PARAGRAPH

Self feeding sows and litters during the suckling period saves both labor and feed. A total of 441 pounds of feed was required for 100 pounds of gain in self-fed lots on test on the Government farm, while 603 pounds of feed for the same gain in hand-fed lots.

Cows of low or medium production are not thought to require so long a dry period as high producers. Such cows should be dry a month or six weeks, provided they are in a good state of flesh. Thin cows may need a somewhat longer period. High producers may require two months or more to permit them to get in proper condition for calving. A good homemade egg tester or candler can be made of a box which, set on end, is large enough to inclose the light or lamp. A ohle slightly smaller than an egg should be cut in the side of the box at the same level as the light.

An electric, gas, or kerosene lamp may be used. If a kerosene lamp or gas lamp is used, there should also be a good sized hole at the top of the box; otherwise the heat from the chimney may set the box on fire. All eggs in the incubator should be tested at least twice during the period of incubation, preferably on the seventh and fourteenth days.

The application of manure from the dairy herd improves the physical condition of the soil and also adds valuable chemical fertilizing constituents. If the herd is fed considerable quantities of purchased feeds, the manure produced, if all is properly applied to the fields, will improve the fertility of the soil faster than the feed crops remove the fertility.

Extending a personal invitation from the people of Fort Worth to the people of Memphis and Hall county to attend the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show March 10-17, Bob Sweeney, WBAP radio singer, and Lon Fishback gave a free entertainment on the court house lawn Tuesday morning.

Sweeney and Fishback are visiting 250 towns in Fort Worth's trade territory within a radius of about 200 miles for the purpose of extolling the 1928 Fat Stock Show. They stressed the fact that it is a Southwestern exposition rather than a Fort Worth exhibition and enumerated the many improvements and added entertainment features this year. Expenses of their tour are being borne by the Fort Worth Association of Commerce, the Stock Show and others.

The libretto of "Aida" was suggested to Verdi by the Khedive, and is by Antonio Ghislanzoni. Aida, daughter of Amonasro, King of the Ethiopians, has been captured by the Egyptians. She is loved by Radames, a young Egyptian warrior, who is sent by his king at the head of the army, to oppose Amonasro, who has made an incursion into Egypt in order to rescue his daughter. Radames returns victorious bringing back among his captives Amonasro, without knowing his identity. The king in gratitude names Radames as his successor, and offers him the hand of his daughter Amneris in marriage.

Amneris, suspecting that Radames is loved by Aida has her watched. Amonasro conspires to escape and draws Aida and Radames into the plot, which is overheard by Amneris, the high priest, and others. Radames, who marries with Amneris is about to take place, determines to flee with Amonasro and Aida, but is apprehended with his accomplices. Radames is condemned to death by being buried alive underneath the temple, despite the intercession of Amneris. The last act shows the ceremony of placing him in the vault while the high priest and assistant priests perform an impressive rite in the temple overhead. Aida has hidden in the tomb before Radames has been brought there. The entrance is sealed up and the lovers die together.

"Aida" lends itself to elaborate and impressive stage setting, while its music is richly melodious and elaborately orchestrated. The opera today is potent to attract and charm as when first produced. It

Greta Garbo Stars in Love

Greta Garbo had an experience not vouchsafed most actresses—for when she played the role of Anna Karenina in "Love" she was playing the role of her favorite heroine in her favorite novel. In the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "Love," adapted from the Tolstoy classic, John Gilbert and she head a notable cast in a vivid recreation of the celebrated Russian romance.

"It is a fad among literary people," says Miss Garbo, who plays "Anna" in the new picture at the Palace Theatre Thursday and Friday, February 23 and 24, "to name the ten books they would choose if they were to be marooned on a desert island. If I had to name such a list, I think 'Anna Karenina' would head it. I first read the book in Swedish, at home. It is not a book but an experience.

"I have found it in the libraries of the world—in French, in German, in English and Italian. My hope and prayer is that I have brought to the screen some of the real character of the heroine as Tolstoy envisioned her."

Edmund Goulding directed the new picture, with a remarkable cast that includes George Fawcett, Brandon Hurst, Philippe De Lacy, Emily Fitzroy and many others of note.

What is Christian Fellowship

(Talk by Mrs. W. B. Funk to Methodist Sunday school class, Mrs. H. F. Schoofield teacher, February 9.)

Christian fellowship is the association of kindred spirits, whose hearts throb with Christian purposes. We today miss much that the Father wants us to have in our Christian life because we do not see and have Christian fellowship—we are too busy about other things.

One way to promote Christian fellowship is to meet often with each other; talk about God; tell what he has done for you; always give him the glory. If your neighbor is bereaved, sympathize with him; if he is glad, rejoice with him; if he is in trouble, show him you are his friend.

As Christian workers let us be noted for full Christian fellowship, and we will draw men and women unto God. Show me a true Christian that is not respected. If we show true fellowship, others will want that kind of religion. It is beautiful.

Some people think their church, or their crowd, will be the only ones to be saved, but let us be broad, giving our brother or sister, the right to serve God as they see best, bidding them God speed, showing them true fellowship.

We all know a great war is on between good and evil; between the Christ and the anti-Christ.

Have you put God first in everything. Have we made our choice count for the Kingdom? As I look back over my past, when in youth I gave my life for service for the master, I have never regretted the choice I made. But in looking back, I see so much left undone; so many mistakes. We are made to cry out "Oh, God, give us true Christian fellowship, and the guiding of Thy spirit, in all we do or say. We pray that we may from this hour as a class, renew our purpose of serving Thee." God has left us free to choose. He made man in His own image. Let us consider the gift of choice which comes from the Father. It makes us responsible for our lives and those about us. Then it behooves us to choose the best, turning our back upon sin, at any cost. On what basis will you make your choice of life? For worldly wealth, or would you make your life count for service to your fellowman and to the kingdom of God.

Nineteen centuries have passed since the feet of Jesus pressed the paths of Judah; and climbed gloomy Golgotha, and its weight is there yet. Why does Judah languish? Lack of power, lack of Christian fellowship. In our Christian life we have come in contact with most all classes of people. We have met those who were striving to do the Father's will—beautiful characters—and we have seen the unsaved drifting down the stream of time, or floating in stagnant waters of indifference. It is time for us as Christians workers to band together.

In ever life there comes the time to make your choice, which shall it be? Earthly fame or the joy of working as co-laborers with God. For those who are determined to follow the Master, they should try to find their place or work in God's Harvest Field. There is so much to be done, such few workers, so many shirkers. God has no place for idlers. He has work for you. It may be leadership or the humblest work.

Give us true fellowship one with another. Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour, gave all to redeem a world. His early followers gave their all. What have we given? What are we doing?

Bollworm Fight Should Be Done By Federal Govt.

AUSTIN, Feb. 16. (UP)—The federal government should pay the expense of the fight against pink boll worms, State Agricultural Commissioner George B. Terrell declared today in outlining plans for the eradication conference to be held at Sweetwater, Feb. 25.

"If it were not for the large amount of money necessary to pay losses by establishing non-cotton zones," Terrell said, "the situation could be more easily and safely handled. The non-cotton zone is the only known means of stamping out this pest."

"This pest came from Mexico, and should be stamped out in west Texas, the area near the Rio Grande river would be reinfested as soon as we began planting cotton on this side. This makes the problem extremely difficult to handle. It might be economy for the federal government to pay Mexico for the small amount of cotton grown near the river on the Mexican side to prevent reinfestation from that source. It is very evident that some arrangements should be made between the two governments to eliminate this constant source of danger on our border."

Since the pink boll worm is a foreign pest, and reached this country through federal quarantine or in spite of them, Terrell said he believed it was just for the federal government to pay all costs of non-cotton zones, and quarantine regulations.

"This pest now threatens the entire cotton industry of the United States, and is therefore a national problem, as much so as the control of the flood waters of the Mississippi river," Terrell added.

The Casual Observer

CASUAL OBSERVER didn't exactly bring home the bacon the other day but he did "bring home the eggs." The very minute we shook hands with C. A. Williams, on his farm 7 miles south of Memphis, we singled him out as a scholar and a gentleman of the first water. And when he handed us two dozen white leghorn eggs we knew we had made no mistake. Much as we appreciate Mr. Williams' kind gift we were forced by our state of bachelorhood to pass it along to the boss. Apparently he is equally appreciative for just this morning we noticed on his tie unmistakable signs of a breakfast enjoyed to its fullest extent.

PRIZE WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN DEMOCRAT AD CONTEST

NEW ESTELLINE BANK BUILDING TO BE ERECTED

One Story Building For Bank and Offices

Special to The Democrat
ESTELLINE, Texas, Feb. 16.—Announcement has been made by the Estelline State bank that a one-story brick building to house the institution will be built at an early date on the southwest corner of the square.

The bank's new home will be 25x100 feet, modern in every respect and will cost $25,000. The latest type of office fixtures will grace the interior and the building will compare favorably with the larger banking institutions of this section.

Two office spaces will be provided in the rear of the bank. Vardy & Grundy, real estate dealers have leased one space and the chamber of commerce is making an effort to move the post-office in the other. The post-office, in its present quarters, is inconvenient to every business house in town and merchants are anxious to have it more centrally located.

Horse Flies

We suppose the originator of the old wheeze, "I've never seen a board walk, but I've seen a horse fly," has been properly disposed of long ago, but if not he should have been at Croydon airport, London, recently when Phantom—the first horse to fly the English Channel—landed after an air trip from Paris. In this picture, Miss Betty Rand, American motion picture actress, is getting Phantom accustomed to the noise of the airplane motor before hopping off. Phantom is not really a "plane" horse, but a trick performer with whom Miss Rand has been touring Europe.

'WHY I READ THE DEMOCRAT ADS' IS DISCUSSED

Writers Give Splendid Reasons in Their Articles

Forceful, common sense reasons for reading Democrat advertising were set forth in the letters received during the past two weeks competing for cash prizes offered by this paper.

Winners selected are:
MRS. R. L. SLATON, Memphis, first prize—$5.
MRS. SCOTT SIGLER, Memphis, second prize—$2.50.
MRS. ROY WEBSTER, Quail Route, third prize—$1.
Honorable mention—Mrs. C. S. Taylor, Mrs. Temple H. Deaver, and Bill Bragg, Jr., all of Memphis.

The winning letters appear on page 5 of this section.

Every reply received had merit and winners named above were selected only after careful consideration of points brought out in each letter. Some contestants laid stress on money-saving qualities of Democrat ads while others emphasized typographic and reader appeal. Letters that brought out every quality that makes The Democrat the leading result-getting medium in this section were considered for highest place in the list of winners.

The Democrat wishes to thank every person who participated in the contest. In reality there are prizes for all readers of Democrat advertising for those who watch these columns are those who make money by saving. If you are thrifty, if you want to get ahead—watch these columns and use them as a buying guide.

THE ESTELLINE BOOSTER BAND GIVES PLAY

Realizes Handsome Profits From Home Talent Play

Special to The Democrat
ESTELLINE, Texas, Feb. 16.—Estelline's Booster band is richer by $173.13 as the result of a benefit negro minstrel presented by local talent last Friday night at the Pastime Theatre. The money was raised to assist the band boys in buying uniforms and making other preparations to attend the annual West Texas chamber of commerce convention at Fort Worth in June.

Local people decided there is considerable dramatic and comic talent in their midst after viewing the minstrel. About fifty were forced to stand in the theatre and many were turned away for lack of standing room. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Faulkner, assisted by Paul James of Memphis directed the show.

NEWLIN LADIES AID SOCIETY HOLDS AUCTION

Special to The Democrat
NEWLIN, Texas, Feb. 16.—The Ladies Aid society of the First Baptist church raised $50 at an auction sale of handiwork held last Friday night at the school building. A play, "Sewing for the Heavens," presented by girls of the Baptist Sunday school preceded the auction.

BANKER CLAIMS AVERAGE MAN IS BREAKING EVEN THESE DAYS

DALLAS, Feb. 16. (UP)—The average man today is barely breaking even, State Banking Commissioner James G. Shaw told district bankers gathered here Monday. He added that many ordinarily good citizens are almost helplessly involved. Shaw attributed the condition to recent rapid changes. Men who in former years lived and saved for a rainy day but are not without assets today but are in debt. Shaw made a plea for conservatism in banking. "There is only one way to play safe," he said. "That is for banks and other business houses to withhold credit from those who are not entitled to it."

They Like UP Service

The Democrat has received a number of compliments on securing United Press state news service for its readers, as announced last week. The management appreciates these kind words for they thoroughly demonstrate that The Democrat's efforts to become an outstanding weekly newspaper are appreciated.

An even greater effort is being put forth to secure more local and county news. Correspondents in all surrounding towns and communities are being engaged and a number of farm feature stories will appear from time to time.

Texas Bankers Flying Squadron To Make Trip

DALLAS, Feb. 16. (UP)—The "flying squadron" of the Texas Banker's association started on its annual trip from Dallas Tuesday to visit every district meeting of the association. The trip will be the longest ever taken by the bankers. It will touch Wichita Falls on the north and Brownsville on the south. More than 100 bankers started the trip, which will cover 2,002 miles and will extend until Feb. 23. The following is the schedule for the tour: Beaumont, Wednesday; Houston, Thursday; Brownsville, Friday and Saturday; San Antonio, Feb. 19; Waco, Feb. 20; Coleman, Feb. 21; Fort Worth, Feb. 22, and Wichita Falls, Feb. 23.

PINK BOLL WORM INFESTATION HEARINGS

Will Determine Some Course to Pursue To Control Pest

AUSTIN, Feb. 16. (UP)—Hearings on pink boll worm infestation will begin at Lamesa on Feb. 27 and will be followed by similar meetings at Midland on Feb. 28 and Marfa on Feb. 29.

At the hearings the pink boll worm commission will determine the regulations to be enforced in areas. They will also determine the areas.

Counties which will be considered are: Crane, Upton, Loving, Winkler, Ector, Midland, Glasscock, Howard, Martin, Andrews, Borden, Dawson and Gaines. It is not contended that the infestation has reached all but the extent to which they are exposed will be discussed.

Pope, Brewster, Presidio and Ward will be taken up for reconsideration as to whether regulations shall be continued in force or cotton growing shall be prohibited.

Steel Magnate

Here is the latest picture of Charles M. Schwab, steel king and prominent American financier. It was taken on board the Aquitania, when Schwab recently sailed from New York for a European vacation.

Estelline Public Square Is Now Being Beautified

Special to The Democrat
ESTELLINE, Texas, Feb. 16.—Beautification of Estelline's public square, which has been an eyesore and a thriving place for weeds for many years, is under way in earnest, according to Fred Landers, secretary of the chamber of commerce, in charge of the work.

Grading has been completed and trees, grass and hedge have been planted. Ornamental street lights are erected and sidewalks are to be built with space in the center for a band stand.

E. J. Adams, landscape gardener of Plainview, has the contract for the work. He has completed his program for the present but will return in April to plant flowers.

Trinity University Debaters Chosen

WAXAHACHIE, Feb. 16. (UP)—Student debaters to represent Trinity University at the national convention of Pi Kappa Delta fraternity at Tiffin, Ohio, early in April have been chosen.

William Hogan, Eastland, and Paxton Smith, Waxahachie, will compose the boys' team and Misses Anna Marie Bennett, Waxahachie, and Doreen Barber, Washington, will make up the girls' team.

CRAWFORD TO ASSIST IN PLAINVIEW OPENING

O. B. Crawford, manager of C. E. Stone Co. of Wellington was in Memphis a short while Tuesday en route to Plainview where he will assist in opening a new Stone store next Friday.

RUMORS DENIED THAT COTTON IS BEING DUMPED

Says Farm Bureau Is Successfully Operating

J. M. Kayser, field man for the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association, was in Memphis last Saturday attending the regular meeting of the Hall County Farm Bureau. Mr. Kayser stated to the membership that he was in receipt of a letter from the Dallas office emphatically denying the recent rumors that the association had dumped one hundred thousand bales of spot cotton on the market.

Mr. Kayser also advised that up to the 8th of February the association had received 192,000 bales of cotton which was a gain of 3,000 bales over the same period last season. Mr. Kayser is working with the county agent in Wheeler county this week, helping to put on a "Better Seed" program up there.

Morgan Dennis and Nat Bradley, students at Tech college at Lubbock, spent last week end here with home folks.

CLAIMS COLORADO RIVER WATER SHOULD BE USED FOR IRRIGATION

FORT WORTH, Feb. 16. (UP)—The special committee named to advise the board of directors of the West Texas chamber of commerce in the "Colorado river water rights controversy" met here today to prepare its report. The recommendations contained in the report probably will form the basis of the chamber's decision on the compromise offer of the Insull hydroelectrical power interests in the water rights controversy.

The Insull interests have offered to use only 580,000 acre feet of water annually from the river instead of the 1,350,000 acre feet they now hold rights on.

The balance of the water would be used for irrigation and municipal requirements.

In the opinion of President R. W. Haynie of the chamber, none of the water of the Colorado should be used for power development. All of it should be reserved for future agriculture development, he believes.

Major John B. Hawley, prominent hydraulic engineer, heads the committee which met here today. Other members were Clifford B. Jones, Spur; W. P. Hallmark, Dublin; Dr. P. C. Coleman, Colorado, and J. A. Kemp, Wichita Falls.

Dallas Man Is Killed in Fall From Window

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 16.—Falling from the window of his room on the ninth floor of a hotel here Friday morning, M. C. Crawford, about 35, Dallas business man, plunged to his death on the roof of the hotel coffee shop.

Detectives could find no explanation for the accident. J. C. Stille, also of Dallas, and a business associate of Crawford, was sharing the room with him. He had stepped into the bathroom as Crawford dressed. A scream brought him dashing into the room to see only an open window. Looking out, he saw Crawford's body on the roof, eight floors below.

Occupants of rooms below Crawford's told officers they heard one brief scream of fright and anguish as the man hurtled by their window.

Crawford was head of the Crawford Crane Service, with offices in Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. His firm having recently put in the steel work of the new A. B. Frank building here.

He was a graduate of the engineering department of the University of Texas. A few years ago, while supervising construction work on a building at Orange, Crawford lost one arm in an accident.

The fact that having only one arm made him awkward in dressing himself was offered as a possible explanation of the accident.

Crawford was only partially dressed and it is thought he might have stumbled while trying to get into his trousers and plunged into the screen over the window.

Officers found the screen hanging loose and the curtains torn as if the falling man had become entangled in them.

Stille told officers that Crawford was married and that his wife is seriously ill in Dallas.

Deceased was a brother-in-law of J. R. Figh of this city who left Friday for San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mangum moved Saturday from 1415 Main street to the Raymond Ballew tenant house on West Montgomery street.

Bill McCraw Hijacked Germans --Now He's Hijacking Hijackers

Jess Daily will be free—in the year 2053. Zalie Tarver may leave jail by 2028.

In 2026, there'll be a flock of them—R. R. Carter, James W. Norton, Charles R. Bloomhuff, Charles P. Savage, J. C. Frazier, Hugh Griffin, Charles Savage, Jesse F. Carter, Henry Bell, Feister Fields, W. C. Harris and Frank Williams.

But 239 others are far luckier; they'll be out by 1930, or 1935, or 1950; Henry S. Crouch has only until 1951, and Carroll Baldwin and Willis A. Wilkinson until 1976.

One Attorney Did It
No, this isn't the entire Texas prison census. Only a count of the contribution supplied by a single prosecuting attorney in his freshman year!

Bill McCraw, district attorney at Dallas, took office last January. That was a bad day for the hijackers, et al. Also a hard turn for the state treasurer, because if all Bill's prisoners serve their allotted terms, the state is in for about 3,000,000 extra meal checks!

Bill is a freckled Irishman whose impassioned pleadings now snow down court defendants as his machine guns once spattered German infantry; a dashing legal sheik whose wooing has won 256 juries out of a possible 272 (but who in private life remains a bachelor!).

He took office last January.

and is believed to have set a world's record by getting 256 convictions, and sentences totaling 2,670 years in his initial year.

Handles All Brands
Nearly every brand of crime is represented among the sentences Bill has passed out. But most of his long-term customers are hijackers.

"Didn't you ever steal anything yourself?" he was asked. "Not even when you were a kid?" "Me steal something?" he replied incredulously. "Oh, boy, you just don't know my dad!"

Bill is a Baptist Sunday school teacher—and his dad, he says, is also religious. Bill, in his youth, took many trips to the woodshed. Most of his "lickings" the boy got, he says, were for fighting. So when the passing years brought the Big Fight, a few months more found Lieutenant Bill in France with the 132d machine gun battalion of the 36th division.

Bill hijacked plenty of Germans, relieving them of their trenches, their guns, their helmets, their mud, an deverything else that belonged to them except their language.

But peace divorced fighting and hijacking.

Enter District Attorney Bill McCraw—who fights the hijackers. And how he fights!

JOHNSONS AND JONES IN FRESHMAN SECTION AT BAYLOR COLLEGE

"Birds of a feather flock together," is certainly true at Baylor college, only it happens that these girls sit on the same row in chapel. Four Joneses are on one row in the freshman section. No other name is so popular. Even such a good, comfortable, well done one as Brown cannot match this record.

"We wouldn't have any other name," they insist, "unless—some day—"

"Never," adds Lucille Jones, from New Orleans, La., who is the most emphatic of the ten. The Johnsons are: Eloise, from Lufkin; Pontilla, from Canton; Clovis, from DeKalb; and Jewell, from Travis.

The Joneses are: Lucille; Frances and Glennie, Oglesby; Helen, from Hicks; Vernadine, from Memphis; and Ruby, from Broken Bow, Oklahoma.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to those that were so kind and thoughtful of us during the illness of our son Jerry. We certainly thank the Mother's club and children and fathers of our community for the nice gifts to the boy and ourselves during Christmas. We thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. Newbrough, And Family.

Miss Dorraice Powell spent last week end with relatives in Vernon.

Charles Oren was on the sick list first of the week and unable to be at his place of business.

CHANGES MADE IN AMARILLO BALL TEAM

The Amarillo entry in the Western League race for the 1928 season, will no doubt show quite a few changes by the time the bell rings on the 12th of April. Profiting by the experience of last season, the officials of the club will spare no effort to put a winner on the field.

At present Manager Allen will have the following men report to him on March 1. Catchers, the veteran Jack Adams, Mondino, who saw considerable service last year, and two youngsters in Wiley and Price. Pitchers, Morgan, Sanders, Lyon, Joe Newton and Storti who played 3rd when not taking his turn on the mound. Stockton, Fonken, Harwood and Whited, will also report for try-outs. The infielders will report about the 10th or 15th of March. Among the infield candidates, are: first base, Weber, a recruit, and the old reliable Swansboro. Harding, a sandlotter from Fort Worth, Tuck, from Sherman and Jarvis from the semipro ranks of Houston will give Nufer a tussle for the keystone cushion. At short stop, seeds, who needs no introduction around these parts, and Charlie (Chuck) Carroll who has had several years experience in professional ball, and who was mentioned as one of the outstanding players in the Denver Post tournament last fall, are the only players listed at present. Marty F. der and Jack Wright will battle it out for the hot corner, with the possibility of Storti again making a strong bid. Gunther, Connelly, and Don Anderson are the only outfielders on the roster, with Seeds also a possible starter.

Other deals and trades are pending, and as Manager Allen plays no favorites, the outlook for a hot battle for all positions is a certainty. The club has decided to train at home this year. Last year the club trained at El Paso, and after leaving the warm climate of that city they encountered a very cold opening. This spring they will be acclimated to the winds and colds if there be any. One of the best Almanacs that predicts a mild spring and very little chance of snow or tidal waves. Eleven spring exhibition games have been carded for the home park, at present writing. St. Paul will be here on the 26-27-28 and 29th of March. Wichita Falls, champions of the Texas League last year are also scheduled for games.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
C. E. Jameson, Pastor
I have been called to Matador on account of the serious illness of a sister-in-law, but will be back for services Sunday.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7 P. M. Everybody invited to attend each service.

Production At Greatest Clip Says Davenport

Production at the Chevrolet Motor company factories throughout the United States is running at the greatest clip on record according to B. E. Davenport local Chevrolet dealer who recently returned from Oklahoma City, where he attended the annual Texas-Oklahoma dealer meeting. More than 500 dealers and banker associates attended the meeting the meeting which took the form of the most comprehensive sales presentation ever staged in the automobile industry. All addresses were illustrated in the form of playlets, depicting the proper procedure to be followed in the successful operation of a retail automobile business.

The meeting was held under the direction of D. E. Ralston, assistant general sales manager, who declared in the course of the day that Chevrolet production for the first three months of the year would exceed 330,000 units if the present schedule is carried thru. Assisting Mr. Ralston in the conduct of the meeting were: Felix Duran, regional sales manager from Dallas; W. F. Doyle, Oklahoma City zone sales manager, and the following officials from the central office in Detroit; D. G. Fraser, service promotion manager; W. G. Lewellen, assistant sales promotion manager; Gustaf Ek, assistant commercial car manager; D. U. Bathrick of the used car division and J. E. Rogers of the dealer accounting and management division.

Following the afternoon meeting the dealers and bankers were guests of the Chevrolet Motor company at an elaborate banquet in the Huckins Hotel.

The meeting was the 11th, of a series of 43 similar sessions that are being held this winter and spring from coast to coast.

Miss Zula Wood of Abilene, arrived Saturday evening and visited her sister, Mrs. Olin V. Alexander, until Tuesday morning.

R. S. Greene returned Tuesday from St. Louis where he has been buying a more complete stock of spring merchandise.

The POLICY of PROGRESS

A STATEMENT by GENERAL MOTORS

It is the policy of General Motors to maintain continuous improvement in every one of its car divisions, with attention in production.

This means that you enjoy the latest new engineering developments promptly soon as they have been thoroughly tested 1245-acre Proving Ground.

It means that you can now order Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Oakland, LaSalle, Cadillac, or GMC Truck, with immediate delivery.

Behind this policy of continuous improvement is an organization so widespread and so efficient that it can make and sell quality automobiles more economically than any automobile manufacturer in the world.

In the north and south it logs and owns lumber. In the east it makes its bearings and radiators. In the middle produces its own plate glass. Its plants in 33 important American cities.

From almost 5,000 suppliers, its materials obtained—steel by the hundreds of thousands—wire by the tens of thousands upholstered by the acre—nuts, bolts and washers by the millions. Its sales and service through 33,000 dealers. More than 275,000 look directly to General Motors for their hood—almost a million and a half miles and children in every community in America.

Meaning so much to so many, General Motors has felt a supreme obligation to look for better methods by which General Motors cars can be better built to better service.

Are there new ideas which can increase utility and pleasure and safety of motor cars?

Are there new materials which can give owner satisfaction?

Such are the questions that all General Motors engineers have always asked. The answer made it possible, year after year, to create a measure of beauty in design, performance, riding comfort and durability. Thus in every price class, from Cadillac to Chevrolet, purchasers are constantly benefiting from General Motors policy of progress.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

A MAN AMONG MEN

IF WE WERE as learned as Dr. Dean C. Dutton we might adequately express our appreciation of what he has done for Memphis with his series of fifteen lectures during five days of last week. But all adjectives a newspaper editor is supposed to possess will not suffice at a time like this. Among the hundreds of recommendations he has received, Dr. Dutton declares the most powerful came from the Rev. Charles Richter, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, at the close of his series of addresses presented in Memphis two years ago. Rev. Richter's letter is reproduced below:

An Appreciation

Dr. Dean C. Dutton, of the University of Oklahoma, is a lecturer of rare power. He has the ability which few speakers possess of holding a large audience under a spell for an hour or more during which time he unfolds pulsing tremendous themes.

- For searching philosophical analysis;
  - For keen and merciless logic;
  - For dogmatic assertions of eternal truth in the august name of science and education, such as thrills the soul to its foundations.
  - For vivid and diversified and most apt illustrations drawn from a wide field of reading and observation;
  - For true poetic feeling;
  - For paths without mixture of sentimentality;
  - For candor;
  - For moral elevation and spiritual inspiration and for a loyalty to those great Christian verities, which he affirms and vindicates.
- I unhesitatingly assert, that to me these wonderful lectures stand forth as the greatest I have ever heard.

Dr. Dutton is a fluent and eloquent speaker, and beneath his eloquence is a force of logic, a breadth of intellectual culture and a mastery of all subjects handled.

There is nothing of the cheap clap-trap method to be found in his work.

It was a week of soul-filling and heart throbbing messages. The community will always be on a higher plane.

Sincerely,
REV. CHARLES RICHTER, Presbyterian Pastor of Memphis, Texas.

UNPOPULAR IN TEXAS

FROM ALL ACCOUNTS Al Smith, if nominated for president on the Democratic ticket, will receive very few Texas votes. Governor Dan Moody has refused to be his running mate, should the honor be tendered, and he is beyond doubt a favorite son with a large following. Dry forces in the state have asserted that the republican nominee will receive their votes in the event democrats select Smith.

The W. C. T. U. is enlisting the aid of churches in emphatically opposing the New York governor and Tammany Hall who, they claim, are backed by a large organization of wets conspiring to place in the White House a man unfriendly to the Eighteenth Amendment. It is seldom the chief issue is seen this far in advance of a political year, but the struggle in 1928 will in all certainty be a battle of the wets and dries.

Enthusiasm in the presidential election is already sweeping the entire country. More poll taxes have been paid in Texas than in many years and thousands of hotel reservations in Houston and Kansas City, the convention cities, have been placed months in advance. Many democrats say their party hasn't a chance this year regardless of the nominee, while others claim they are sure of victory if the right man is selected. At any rate voters are licking their chops in anticipation of the coming fracas and we are told that curb and whittling space has been spoken for in many of the smaller cities where political arguments are expected to wax enthusiastic beginning about the middle of April.

TOO WILLING TO SHOVE

THERE'S ALWAYS a kick waiting for the fellow who is down. Indeed there are many who are willing to help a luckless man but unfortunately there are also those who would seemingly delight in giving a final, unmerciful shove to the fellow standing despairingly on the brink of that immense bluff of discouragement and failure.

A mongrel dog, apparently the loser in a bitter, gnawing fight, was limping down an alley the other day, his broken body bleeding, his spirit crushed. Merely a dumb animal, to be certain, but a pitiful picture nevertheless. Town toughs, who might have befriended the poor creature, took greater pleasure in stoning the animal until his listless form dropped in a heap. Their unkindly instincts still unsatisfied they each gave him a resounding kick as they passed his still form. No, the dog wasn't killed, but if a dog can think he doubtless wished to die.

Broken men, spiritually and morally crushed, hopelessly discouraged and of necessity satisfied with failure often receive like treatment. It isn't right, it isn't just, it isn't intended as man's duty to man, but it happens. Lend a lifting hand, not a shoving hand. It is easier to help than to hinder and a clear conscience is of some value.

UNITY OF PURPOSE

"IN UNION there is strength." Churches of Memphis believe that, for the biggest, broadest religious gatherings held in this city are those in which each church has a part—where members of all denominations join forces for a common cause. This has been demonstrated many times, but forcibly so during last week while the illustrious Dr. Dutton expounded great truths. The purpose of the church—every church—is, or should be,

Time to Separate Chaff from the Wheat

to bring people to Jesus Christ. Not necessarily to make of them Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians or Christians but to teach them of the Savior whom they should know and honor. The church that believes its faith the only one will find its progress slow and its accomplishments few. Believers in the power of God are willing to lay aside personal beliefs for the advancement of His kingdom.

The Democrat is glad to learn that a movement is now on foot to hold a great co-operative revival meeting in Memphis about April or May. Local pastors believe untold good can be accomplished by uniting their forces to teach the word of God in this community.

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity."—Psalms 133:1.

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?

IF YOU ARE one of those seers and city building wizards spending your time in denouncing the chamber of commerce, wouldn't it be fair for you to first take an inventory of yourself? What have you done for the organization? Have you spent all the time you possibly could in helping the chamber of commerce to realize its ambitions for Memphis and Hall County? Are you entitled to criticize if you have not contributed?

Among a few there seems to be a pastime of censuring the chamber of commerce before it has had time to complete a program which reminds us that a famous evangelist once said: "Only a fool or a wise man will criticize an unfinished job." The chamber of commerce's program is never really completed. It is a continuous program. Year after year problems must be met and disposed of. Individually you may be a building factor or a detriment to your city. Take your choice.

DID YOU SAY CHARACTER?

From the selection of president to a traffic officer at a street crossing the process of selection must never overlook character. Character in the salesman in the mercantile establishment serves the business and the purchaser by having just that little quality—character is her most valuable asset on which to base wages. Character in a bank or insurance company is a synonym for millions of credit. Character in a president means stability for the nation.

WEEKLY BIBLE THOUGHT

Weekly bible thought selected by the Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor First Methodist church.
"For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same."
"For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil."
—Romans 13:3-4.

Texas and Texans

BY WILL H. MAYES

Working Toward One End

Some women's organizations could teach the men's clubs a good lesson if only the men were willing to profit by their observation as to how the women's clubs accomplish things. Usually it is by working at one thing at a time until it is accomplished. The men's clubs too often start numbers of worthy efforts only to drop them for something else, but women's clubs seldom drop a good work until it is finished. This statement is prompted by the appearance of a splendid edition of the Weatherford Democrat devoted to the Weatherford Public Library and edited by the Business and Professional Women's club of the city. Editor Phillips in that edition, after complimenting the club on what it has done for the library, says: "Having undertaken a definite task these ladies have whole heartedly applied themselves to it. Regardless of the future what they have done has been very much worth while. Having progressed thus far they are making a special effort to build up a larger and better library." It is a safe prediction that they will succeed beyond their present anticipations.

What Shall It Be?

Interest in many clubs, whether men's or women's organizations, is lost too often by lack of that "definite task," on which interest can be centered with sufficient force to succeed. Even one small thing well done in a year is far better than a dozen big efforts started and dropped. It is easy to get "too many irons in the fire" in civic and club work. Any one of a dozen or more things might be undertaken by any organization in any town that would be worthy of its efforts. For instance a number of Curo women have formed a "hospital auxiliary," the purpose of which is to beautify the hospital property, furnish the hospital with linens and supplies and make the stay of the patients there more bright and cheerful. Could any local work, if well done, be better than that proposed by these women? One needs only to look about to find useful and needed service.

Successful Farming

Starting there five years ago in a little one-room box shack and soon making a first payment on 160 acres of land, A. C. Woodward and wife, at Lamesa, now have a home valued at $34,000 and "have money and material possessions besides." They have done this by working together in intelligent farming and stock raising. Of course, the Lamesa country is a good country, but the Woodward's would likely have succeeded just as well in any other part of Texas. Farming, to be successful requires the same intelligence and effort necessary to build up any other successful business.

Join Your Town

The Wortham Journal asks its readers, "Have you 'joined' Wortham?" While urging its readers to patronize the home business whenever possible, the Journal rightly says, "No trade-at-home movement founded upon compulsion is sound. The trade-at-home movement that holds water is based on good business and civic loyalty. In this modern age of competition no alert business man thinks of depending upon trade-at-home propaganda as an excuse for his own non-progressiveness." Good roads have put country and town, town and city, very close together, and business goes where it is sought and where there is evidence that it is appreciated.

Shipping San Saba Turkeys

San Saba doesn't seem satisfied to be known as the leading pecan county of the country, but is trying to take the laurels for turkey raising from its neighboring counties of McCulloch, Burnett, Llano and Brown. One "turkey ranche" in that county is shipping breeding turkeys to California, to Vermont and to Saskatchewan, Canada. In past few weeks turkeys have gone from this ranche to Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada and Idaho.

Presidio County Mines

Texas metal mines last year produced 400 ounces of gold, 1,000,000 ounces of silver and 500,000 pounds of lead, the greater part of which came from one mine in presidio county, according to the United States bureau of mines. This mine has been a consistent producer since 1885 and since that time has produced 18,987,000 ounces of metal. Mining for metals is perhaps the most neglected Texas industry, the mining development having received comparatively little attention.

Beautifying Public Square

Many courthouse squares in Texas are neglected-looking, unattractive spots in the heart of the business districts. The commissioners of Kerr county have appropriated the funds to beautify the courthouse square at Kerrville and will spend about $5,500 for walks, parkways and other improvements.

WHY I READ Democrat Advertising

Here are the Winners in The Democrat's Cash Prize Competition for Best Letters on "Why I Read Democrat Advertising."

FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

By Mrs. R. L. Slaton, Box 867, Memphis, Texas

Why do I read the advertisements appearing in the Democrat?

Primarily, because I have learned that many bargains are offered therein and purchases may be made on the various commodities at great savings, as the progressive merchants of Memphis have been shown the value of using the columns of The Democrat in announcing arrivals of new merchandise, bargains and features of general interest concerning their business.

Each week when The Democrat arrives I turn to the advertisements, after scanning the news columns—for there appears much news of interest in the display advertisements—such as business changes, new establishments, 'what's what in fashion', illustrations of the newer modes in wearing apparel, latest types of automobiles, most modern radios and equipment and grocery bargains.

Though all the above news appears every week, I am sure I would not bother to read them were they not attractively arranged and neatly displayed in pleasing type faces by artistic printers. Then, too, the entire paper is printed so clearly and in a neat, large type face and not all blurred, smeared and dirty looking, neither is it too dim to be easily read.

Your advertising service to the local merchants has evidently enabled them to have better ads, as I am told you have expert ad writers who assist in planning campaigns, writing and laying out the ads, selecting proper type and illustrations and printing the finished advertisement after the merchant has merely told them what he wanted to let the readers know about his store.

The result of these efforts is a newspaper with messages from our stores and business men which are both interesting and serve as a shopping guide to thrifty and discriminating buyers.

I like to read the ads—they are interesting.

SECOND PRIZE — $2.50

By Mrs. Scott Sigler, Memphis, Texas

I always read the Democrat Ad, because it has become such a fad. To read good literature and meditate too, if the information is honest and true;

Like Democrat Advertisements.

Now, this paper advertises nothing bad, but things that make us happy and glad;

Tho we will have to hurry and do or we'll be with the crowd that's blue If it's Democrat Advertising.

As everyone knows, the Democrat Ad will enlighten Man, Woman or Lad;

On Real Estate and Merchandise too, and is for the individual as well as the crew.

The Democrat Advertisements.

You can read of everything that can be had, from Producer, Merchant or City Dad;

Or from the Farm where it grew (that is, everything but home brew.) In Democrat Advertisements.

If there is anything I need real bad, I grab the Democrat and look for an Ad.

If I can't find what I want new, I read the second-hand ad, too. In The Democrat Advertisements.

I pensively ponder o'er each Democrat Ad, their originality is always clad,

In expressions so attractive and true, I can learn much I never knew. From The Democrat Advertisements.

Last, but not least I read the Ads, of men who are the City's Construction Dads.

I think it is a better thing to do than to patronize the wrecking crew. Here's to Democrat Advertisements.

P. S. This week I read your ad, because I wanted that FIVE so bad. If you can award it to me, honest and true, from the depths of my heart, I thank you—
The Democrat Advertiser.

THIRD PRIZE — $1.00

By Mrs. Roy Webster, Quail Route, Memphis, Texas

Why do I read the Democrat Advertising? There is but one real reason. There are so many mothers and wives that the only way we have of making money is by saving it. So by watching the ads we can save a little here and a little there on this article and on that. We soon save dollars and in a year's time we have saved many dollars. Enough said.

HONORABLE MENTION

By Mrs. Temple H. Deaver, Memphis, Texas

Gather 'round and discover how I happen to know that Purina Chow is the best of feed for your old moo-cow: (Democrat said so!)

And if you are inclined to query. For jewelry, depend on R. H. Wherry. For sandwiches—the Annex Confectionery. (Ads in the Democrat!)

I know where to buy White Crest Flour. No need to wait for it by the hour Turning a sweet disposition sour. (Read the Democrat.)

Why am I so wondrous wise? I read the columns that advertise Dependable lines of merchandise! (In the Democrat!)

When in the Democrat ads I see An item that looks good to me It IS good or it wouldn't be In The Democrat!

By Bill Bragg, Jr., Memphis, Texas

Why I read the Democrat Advertising is very easily explained. I wish to profit by the legacy Benjamin Franklin gave to the world. He bought an un-Democratic advertised whistle and paid too dear a price for it. It cost him all of his money and his dinner. I prefer to be guided by the trustworthy, accurate and dependable advertisements of the Memphis Democrat and in seclusion and comfort select at leisure standardized merchandise from honest merchants at current prices. I never go shopping blindfolded; and am always sure of an appetizing dinner and of saving time, energy and money.

Through Memphis shops via the Democrat columns is an interesting, a profitable, an efficient and a satisfactory way to shop. It is a guide-book that gives you definite and explicit information. By it you can be prepared to cope with the clerks' impatient 'What is it fer ye?' I desire to have as skilful management of the strategy of shopping as I would of the tactics of war if I were a soldier.

The time of religious gatherings and public entertainments can easily be ascertained from this reliable source.

The selling side of this question is herein represented. An ex-merchant of Memphis came out of the mercantile pit shorn. "Were you a Democrat Advertiser?" asked a friend. "No." "What in thunder were you then?" "I was a jackass, my friend, that is what I was."

To enjoy my heritage, to be an intelligent man of this progressive age, and to live to be my age, I read the reliable and serviceable Democrat advertisements.

By Mrs. C. S. Taylor, Box 441, Memphis, Tex.

I read the Advertisements because Everything is on the Double-Quick.

What used to be a long ride in father's buggy is now just a dash for brother's roadster.

This is an age of Speed—and more speed. "I just can't find time" is universally accepted as an adequate explanation of why one doesn't do this or doesn't do that.

But by all means, take time to read the advertisements because they are time-savers for you. They tell you in crisp sentences and significant pictures about the latest inventions, the newest improvements, the most modern devices for conserving your time and energy.

And when you go shopping, the advertisements have already told you what to buy by telling you what you need before you enter the store.

Read the advertisements and keep up with the times—or even a jump or two ahead.

W. C. T. U LEADERS WANT DRY POLITICS

DALLAS, Feb. 16. (UP)—Prayers for a dry year politically were uttered in many cities Tuesday as regional leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance Union assembled here to discuss the prohibition question as it affects the present political campaign.

At the urge of Mrs. Claude de Van Watts, state president of the organization, chapters of the W. C. T. U. held prayer meetings today in the hope of continued enforcement laws.

The conference here will continue through Wednesday. Leaders of the W. C. T. U. from Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas were in attendance.

Among the prominent persons scheduled to speak at the conference were Governor Dan Moody, Mrs. Sara H. Hoge of Virginia and Mrs. Uelle Burger of Missouri, both prominent in the W. C. T. U. prohibition fight.

Candidates which the W. C. T. U. believes to be opposed to prohibition will be listed at the conference and plans to oppose them in the primaries and elections will be made.

"The keynote of this conference," said Mrs. Van de Watts, who presided, "is practical politics, based upon our long established principle of prohibition of the liquor traffic. To this end, we must make our declarations in party platforms and choose carefully the candidates we will support and the delegates we favor for the party conventions."

POULTRY SUPPLIES

We are this year handling a few first-class poultry supplies, and knowing the poultryman's needs as we do, we believe we've made a better selection than your merchant can make. We have what we believe to be the best brooder on the market; fill it up with oil and go to bed resting assured it will take care of your chicks, even if the weather changes 10 to 15 degrees. We also have feed troughs, roup remedies, etc. Let us show you.

White House Coach Passes

This dignified reminder of a more leisurely day in transportation recently was supplanted in the presidential household by a shiny, new automobile. The coach, driven by a high-batted and uniformed coachman formerly used to bring distinguished guests to the White House. More recently, Ellen Riley, White House house-keeper, used it for errands. Other work will be found for Tom, the negro coachman pictured, who has spent years in caring for the vehicle and its horses.

BARNES EXPLAINS GOV'T'S POLICY ON GRAZING

Does the Government charge the stockmen for grazing their cattle and sheep on the national forests? Explaining the Government policy of grazing, Will C. Barnes, assistant forester in charge of range management, United States department of agriculture, says that each settler or resident is entitled to graze ten head of his domestic stock, such as work or saddle horses, milk cows, and even hogs free of charge and without permit on national forest ranges. All other animals must be paid for at a rate which at present averages between ten and eleven cents per head per month for cattle and three cents per head per month for sheep. On January 1, 1928, these rates will be slightly increased. The stockmen are now paying into the United States treasury annually about two and one quarter million dollars in grazing fees.

Boss Meacham of Turkey attended court here this week.

SAYS GOVERNMENT SHOULD PLANT OWN FORESTS

The Government should plant its own denuded forest lands and restore them to productiveness, says Chief Forester Greely of the United States department of agriculture, and thus set a good example to state and private owners.

An area of more than 2,000,000 acres is in need of reforestation, but only 11,565 acres in the national forests was replanted to trees during the past year. Even this showing is a deception, according to Mr. Greely, since one year's fires, such as swept the West last summer, add denuded lands more extensive than the areas replanted in a series of years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mangum returned from Hope, Arkansas, last Thursday where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. Mangum's mother.

E. T. Rosamond of Levelland was a visitor here first of the week.

SURVEY SHOWS 21,000,000 AUTOS

This country has over 21,000,000 motor cars, enough to give everyone and his brother a ride at the same time, the public roads bureau made known recently.

In the first six months of this year 20,991,330 cars were registered, the census showed. This was an increase of 1,374,578 cars, or 7 per cent over the same period last year.

This is a car for every 5.4 persons in the country. In many states, however, this average is exceeded.

It cost the motorists $272,119,534 for their registrations, of this amount $188,525,679 was allocated for state highways and $47,927,641 for local roads.

Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Illinois, West Virginia, New Jersey and Massachusetts show the largest gains for the six months.

New York still leads the nation in owning most cars, with a total of 1,704,987. Other state registrations showed that California is second with 1,584,723 registrations. Illinois has 1,366,060; Indiana 745,000; Michigan 1,041,482; Missouri 609,725; Ohio 1,425,424, and Texas 950,110. Nevada had the lowest number of licenses, 22,547, of any state.

During the year 1928, coming up, I Mr. Every Motorist, do solemnly swear to the following resolutions:

I WILL NOT—
Exceed speed limits.
Loaf in traffic that is moving.
Honk my horn boisterously when a fellow motorist is tied up or stalled just ahead.
Drive with one head lamp as do the "Dead-Eye Dicks."
Allow the tail light to go on the bum.
Attempt to drive my car when intoxicated.
Be classed as a road-hog, either in city or country.
Race the "limited" for the railroad grade crossing.
Be careless when passing public school buildings.
Be other than courteous, cau-found any where, Louise and Clytie Cunningham, who had Gladys Scott to give them the tune of a harmonica.

Horace Duval was introduced as "the man who knows why it is that a man gets skinned more than once when no other animal is skinned the second time." He thought this most too dignified so he asked that his subject be changed to "why is it that man can be denuded of his cuticle more than once and no animal can?" He explained it.

The debate on, "Resolved that it is worse for a giraffe to have a sore throat than it is for a centipede to have corns," was a howling success. Sylvia Floyd undertook to prove the affirmative, while Fanie Ruth Lergett undertook to disprove that.

Miss Hutto discussed the subject "Why Bees Buzz." One could tell that she was thoroughly familiar with the zoological books in her place of abode. Miss Bray talked on "why do white peas have black eyes." She suggested that the many beans probably soaked the white peas in the eyes but she said that really it was because nature wanted neither blonde or brunette.

Louie Cunningham proceeded to give the attentive audience a most learned discussion on "Judgment," and proved conclusively that that particular characteristic might be missing in a later day. Wilma Loyd left her music at home and could not sing the solo for which she was scheduled.

After a few snappy games were played, fifteen rahs for Bray was finally given with difficulty after the finish of the evening meal, just before the cars loaded up and carried the seniors back home.

TENTH NATION'S CATTLE IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Feb. 16. (UP)—One tenth of the cattle in the United States are in Texas, according to a census of the federal statistical bureau, which shows 5,697,000 cattle in Texas. Iowa is second with 3,720,000 head and Wisconsin third with 2,960,000.

Missouri is no longer the "mule state." Texas leads in mules with 1,000,000 head. Georgia and Oklahoma are followers with about 350,000 head each. Texas also leads in the number of sheep. It was third in horses, milk cows and swine.

Was In Misery All Over

"I was in a dreadfully run-down condition," says Mrs. Chas. L. Lacroix, of Montgomery, La. "I suffered a great deal of pain. I was in misery all over. I could not sit up and I could not lie down. I couldn't sleep and at times I would have dreadful vomiting spells. The aches and pains seemed to cover my whole body."

"One night my husband brought me home six bottles of Cardui and I began to take it. I could tell that I was improving from the first bottle, but I kept on taking the medicine, for I knew that I needed a tonic that would build me up and strengthen me where I was weak and run-down. That is exactly what Cardui did for me. After I had finished the six bottles I felt fine."

"I feel truly thankful for what Cardui has done for me, for I could not have gone on living in the desperate condition I was in."

WHAT IS THE FEDERATION?

BY PHEBE K. WARNER

This may seem like a foolish question to many of you. But it is not. There are precious few people who really understand the mission of the General Federation of Women's clubs. And since this great organization of over three million women is to hold its Biennial Convention in our state this year I do not believe it will be wasted time or space for us all to learn a little more about the greatest organization of women in the world.

One reason we believe this self-made statement is because never again in the life of any Texas club woman of this day will the General Federation of Women's clubs ever meet in Texas. This is a chance of a life time for every club woman in the state. And the beauty of it all is that the entire state of Texas is to be hostess to this wonderful group of people.

There are exactly fifty state organizations of state Federations in the General Federation. These include the 48 state Federations, the District of Columbia and Alaska. There are some sixty foreign clubs that belong to the General Federation as individual clubs.

If the Biennial convention should be passed around to the different states in turn as it probably will be in time and really has been with few exceptions, the privilege of entertaining the Biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs would come to each state organization only once in a century. Therefore Texas is this year from May 28 to June 7, to enjoy a privilege that will probably not return to her women for another hundred years, May 2028. That is a long time to wait.

Is such a privilege worth knowing more about? Is such a privilege worth the very best support and the finest cooperation of every club woman in Texas?

Further more is such an inspiration gathering as the Nineteenth Biennial convention be worth as much space from time to time in the Texas press as another scandal or murder trial? If we will all get busy and boost this Biennial convention as we should, do you not believe the Texas press will be as liberal with its space to help advertise such an event as it has been to advertise some of the greatest crimes in history? I do believe the Texas press wants the best that is going on in the state and nation just as much as the worst. But it is up to the club women of Texas to make the best as attractive, as peppy, and as interesting to the public as the worst. The question is, first, can we do it? And the second question is, Will we do it? And the only decent answer is "Yes." we can and we will.

But first of all most of us would like to know a little more about the General Federation. What is it? Where did womanhood of that day, and as they neared their 21st birthday as a woman's club with Jennie June still a leader in their club, it was she who proposed they celebrate their 21st birthday by boosting a convention of all the women's clubs known to be in existence at that time. Her suggestion was unanimously accepted and the first call for a convention of all the clubs in the United States was sent to ninety-seven clubs that had been created from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

On March 18-19, 20, 1889, sixty-one of the ninety-seven clubs sent delegates to that birthday party. And six other clubs sent letters. What that first club convention meant to those women is beautifully expressed in an address by Miss Mary Eastman of the New England club. Remember folks that was only thirty-nine years ago.

I have rejoiced today in the manyness of us more than anything else. Today I felt the joy of the vast intellectual wealth in us, and it has been like a shock of electricity. I am glad so many could come; I am glad we clasp hands so widely, and now begin to understand each other. It seems to me that as I feel the great love that comes from so many, it is almost too great a joy, and some how we want to learn to bear it. We must learn sympathy, learn unity, learn the great lesson of organization. I am sure we never have begun to dream of what will yet appear. This club and other clubs it came from and how did it happen?

Just Sixty Years Ago: Just sixty years ago this year, 1868, a woman's club was organized in New York City, by Mrs. Jennie C. Croly who at that time was better known to the reading world as Jennie June. There had been other women's clubs organized before this time of various kinds; but it was the Sorosis of New York City that lived and grew to have a session for other women. Right there is a lesson for every woman's club.

If you want to live, if you want to grow, if you want to perpetuate your influence long after your present membership has passed and gone you must have a vision service to humanity that is worth recording and perpetuating.

Such was the spirit of the Sorosis club, the mother of the Woman's club movement in the world. Had it not been for the vision this club had for other women which its members gained by meeting and thinking and working together for twenty-one years Texas would not this year be entertaining the Nineteenth Biennial of the General Federation.

The Sorosis club was of such a nature that it attracted to its ranks the leading women thinkers of New York City. For twenty-one years those women worked together blazing new thought trails through the mental wilderness to reach into the new life for them. It is certainly a new life. These clubs have made a new world and we have got to adapt ourselves to it and to educate the world around us.

Such was the vision. Thirty-nine years ago, of the initial meeting of the first sixty-one clubs in America that paved the way for the Texas Biennial when 800 women representing over 16,000 clubs will meet in San Antonio, May 28 to June 7, 1928.

Gerlach Shop Improving Its Service to Customers

More than 100% business increase in 1927 over the preceding year is the record established by Alvis Gerlach, proprietor of the Exide Battery Service on Noel Street, also known as Gerlach Battery and Electric Service. Mr. Gerlach purchased the business from Ernest Franks two years ago.

Charging and servicing auto batteries is a big phase of the work in this establishment, though not the only service rendered. In addition to selling Exide batteries and charging all makes, the Exide Battery Service does electrical repairing of nearly every nature, including auto ignition. Repairing and rebuilding electric motors, rewinding armatures and charging radio batteries are a few of the other services available here. A bountiful stock of all necessary parts and supplies will be found at Gerlach's at all times. Three experienced men are employed.

It goes without saying that improvements to equipment must have been made for a business to enjoy such a growth as has been the good fortune of the Exide Battery Service. Generator and coil testing machines that make for accuracy in electrical work, and other equipment costing more than $400 have recently been installed.
