Red Cross Roll Call Drive Will Close Next Saturday

Carl Periman, County
Chairman, Calls for
All Community Reports

The annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive, which opened officially on Armistice Day, will close finally on Saturday, December 10, Carl Periman, county roll call chairman, announced Tuesday afternoon. All reports should be placed in the hands of the county chairman by that time.

The annual drive is already far past its scheduled closing date, which was originally set for Thanksgiving Day, but has been continued in an effort to complete the quota of 500 members set for this county by the National Red Cross.

Reports from the rural communities have been exceptionally good this year, Periman stated. Ell community, with Mrs. G. T. Moss and Mrs. J. T. Nelson as co-chairmen for the community, was the first to report with eight members over their assigned quota which was set at fifteen.

Brice was second, Mrs. W. H. Youngblood reported a quota membership of ten shortly after the Thanksgiving closing date. Byron F. Todd, community chairman for Parnell, reported eleven members, one over the quota of ten for his community; and C. T. Howell, chairman for the Plaska community, has turned in his report, which is incomplete due to the illness of his co-chairman, Edgar Foster.

Nearly 300 members have been enrolled in Memphis, Periman said, and local workers hope to

Hall County REA Application Gets Preliminary Approval at Washington

Information was received the forepart of this week from Washington that the application for the Rural Electrification project in Hall County has been given preliminary approval by REA officials. According to J. O. Fitzjarrald, attorney and legal consultant for the Hall County Electric Co-operative, sponsors of the REA movement in this locality, final approval will not be made on the project until it has received the attention of all departments of the Washington office of the REA.

The application, maps, schedules and specifications were sent to Washington December 1 by the co-operative's executive board. The proposed project includes subscriptions of 300 applicants for electric service in 112 miles of electric wiring. Mr. Fitzjarrald stated that the letter from Washington announcing the preliminary approval was mailed from Washington December 2, immediately following the receipt of the prospectus by federal authorities. The executive board of the Hall County Electric Co-operative is made up of Doyle Hall, Plaska, president; Jake Lamb, Plaska, vice president; T. E. Lenoir, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. C. A. Williams, Mrs. N. A. Hightower, Edgar Foster, H. A. Hodges, H. C. Fowler, C. M. Hawkins, Ben Gresham and W. H. Youngblood.

A campaign has been carried on for the past few weeks by the sponsors of the movement in the county to secure subscribers to the rural electric lines. The officials of the executive board, in carrying on their campaign for signers to the original petition, made an extensive campaign of the county, and set their goal for 400 applicants for electric service. It was pointed out that although the project has already been sent to Washington for approval, applications for electric service will still be accepted.

A fixed fee of $5 for membership was charged to all signers for

Joe J. Mickle Dies At Eastland Home Last Saturday

Pioneer West Texan and Former Memphian Victim
Of Heart Attack

Joe J. Mickle, 75-year-old pioneer merchant and rancher in West Texas and one of Memphis' most prominent early-day business men and civic leaders, died of a heart attack at Eastland Saturday.

Mr. Mickle came to Memphis in 1902 opening a dry goods and hardware business here at the same corner location now occupied by Harrison Hardware Co. Later he sold the hardware and continued in the dry goods business here for a number of years, making Memphis headquarters for his extensive business operations until 1917 when he moved to Fort Worth.

Mr. Mickle returned to West Texas in 1919, moving to Amarillo where he continued his mercantile, farming and ranching businesses. He had retired from active business after 53 years about a year ago. He had been owner of the Mickle Hardware and Furniture Company in Eastland and had made his home there for the past ten years.

Mr. Mickle was an outstanding church and civic leader in Memphis, and to him belongs the credit for a number of the buildings now making up Memphis' business section. He was a member of the building committees which erected the First Methodist Church and the old high school building; and was a prominent member of the local Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by three children, Joe J. Mickle Jr., missionary in Japan; Mrs. W. A. Russell of Amarillo, and Mrs. J. W. McKee of Pleasant Valley.

Mr. Mickle entered business at an early age in Fort Smith, Ark., moving to Honey Grove, Texas, several years later, then going to Fort Worth in 1900 at which time he became president and general manager of the Mickle-Burgher Hardware Company.

Funeral services were held at Eastland Sunday.

Seven Hundred Thousand Trees Are Transferred Here For Shelterbelt

Seven hundred thousand trees have been transferred to Memphis and temporarily set out in the hill-in beds located in the northwest part of the city for use in planting the shelterbelts in Hall County during the next few months, according to Jack Bert, United States Forestry Service engineer. Mr. Bert, who is a resident of Childress, is in charge of the shelterbelt projects in this vicinity.

The project has opened an office in Memphis this week occupying room one on the second floor of the First National Bank building here. D. E. Leyson, formerly associated with shelterbelt projects at Huron, S. Dak., has been transferred to Memphis to assist Mr. Bert and I. Frank Pierce in carrying on the projects in this locality.

Mr. Bert, who was in Memphis Wednesday looking after the projects, stated that 25 to 30 men under the WPA are now working on the Hall County shelterbelts and that he expects to employ at least 65 men as soon as the planting gets under way.

Mr. Bert pointed out that 65 miles of shelter-belt were already under contract in the county and the actual work of planting would begin in the near future. He stated that he would like to increase the mileage to at least 150 before the present project is finished.

Mr. Bert states that both he and Mr. Pierce will move to Memphis within the next few weeks to make their home in order to be near their work. Mr. Leyson is already a resident of Memphis, residing at 1221 1-2 Montgomery street.

Another forest service employee will be added to the Prairie States Reforestation Project, official name given to the Hall County project, according to Mr. Bert to look after the office opened here this week. Mr. Wood of Childress has been designated to fill this post and will also move to Memphis to make his home for the duration of the project.

Amish Children Go Back to School; Fight Is Won

Amish children go back to the one-room school.

LANCASTER, Pa.—In wagons and horse-drawn sleds the children of Pennsylvania's Amish sect have gone back to Little Horseshoe Pike School, a one-room country building, thus marking the end of the religious sect's two-year fight against sending their children to a large, modern, consolidated school built by PWA.

Some 30 Amish children took up their classes again in the reopened school, one of 10 abandoned by the East Lampeter Township School Board on completion of the new building at Smoketown, a crossroads settlement.

A special act of the state legislature set up an independent school district for the Amish after the quaintly-garbed, simple folk fought bitterly in the courts efforts to make them send their children to the new school. They hired a teacher sympathetic to the Amish religion, leased the old school and installed desks and other equipment.

Stubborn loyalty to the social and religious traditions of their sect kept the Amish community leaders steadily after government officials and the courts to permit them to educate their children as they saw fit.

Devoted to the soil, the Amish depend on the children to help them with the farming, and the youngsters are withdrawn from school as soon as they reach the legal age for work. While the men cultivate the fields, the women raise chickens and tend gardens.

As soon as weather permits, shoes and stockings are discarded and many men work barefooted in the fields. Modern farm machinery is scorned, as are all other modern devices and luxuries. Opposed to automobiles, they travel in "Amish wagons."

Men wear drab gray garments and wide-brimmed, flat-crowned hats. Women's clothing is dull and dark, and large, black sunbonnets are the headress.

Until their wedding day the men are clean shaven, then they let their whiskers grow, married men being distinguished by luxuriant beards.

Key voiced the opinion that his boys, after a little more than a week of training, had made an excellent showing at Estelline Tuesday night. He plans to arrange a number of bouts with teams from other schools to feature the mid-winter athletic program.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
The pastor's message Sunday morning will be on the subject, "The Invigoration of Faith," with Psalms 27:13 as the text. Sunday evening the message will be on "Bringing the Bible Back" with Nehemiah 8:1-6 as the scriptural foundation. These are timely subjects, and we trust that all will profit from a consideration of them.

The choir is doing excellent work. The music will be attractive for these services and we hope that you will come to enjoy it with us. Music is a very vital part of the worship program. Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, our choir director, and Miss Mary Helen Lindsey, our organist, are leading us in a splendid musical worship program. There were 437 in attendance in Sunday school last Sunday with 156 in the B. T. U. The workers in these organizations are wide awake and are putting some wonderful work into these services. There is a place reserved for all who are not enlisted. Come study and train for the Master's work. Our church is planning a Christmas tree program to be given just before Christmas.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Always a pleasure to have visitors in our church service. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tucker and family of Plainview and other good friends were present last Sunday. Special music is being prepared by our choir for next Sunday. Mr.

Tanner also will bring us delightful numbers. There are many ways of increasing Sunday school and church attendance. Use your cars and also your telephones in inviting and in assisting others in attendance. Unusually fine spirit of worship these Sundays, for which we are very grateful. Your presence helps to build character and to promote the Kingdom of God. Our sympathy goes to all who are sick. We look forward to next Sunday with fond anticipation.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
W. M. Davis, Minister
The subject of the sermon at the morning service next Sunday will be, "Jesus Christ the Same, Yesterday, Today and Forever." In a world subject to extreme transition, it is comforting to know that we have a Saviour who never changes. Christians Are New Creatures in Christ" will be the theme of the evening sermon. The Sunday morning Bible classes meet at 9:45 o'clock. The women's Bible class meets Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. The prayer meeting service is Wednesday evening at 7:45.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their words of sympathy and kindness shown us in the tragic death of our dear father. Especially do we wish to thank Rev. Orion W. Carter and Murray Dial for their kindness, and our friends for their beautiful floral offering. May God bless each of you is our prayer.
The Stephens Children.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Webster spent several days at Littlefield last week.

R. L. Madden, Mr. Mitchell and Mrs. C. B. Harrison visited at Spade and Littlefield last Sunday.

owners before hunting or setting traps on any property.

The contest and reward was decided upon last week by directors of the chamber of commerce and members of the commissioners court. It is estimated that between $1,500 and $2,000 is lost annually by Hall County farmers in poultry and stock due to depredations of the coyotes in this area.

No closing date has been set for the contest. It will be sometime next spring, however, Snyers announced.

The contest is now open to all Hall County citizens, and the sponsors hope to have a good response immediately. Snyers pointed out that contestants can not only profit by reducing the number of coyotes, thereby saving poultry losses, but can also have a chance at prize bounty and have a good market, at the same time, for the pelts.

One purpose of the contest was to bring in as much money as possible to local farmers, and it was for this reason that the sponsors selected this method of ridding this area of the coyote pests rather than hiring a professional trapper to do the work.

The 1939 cotton allotment for Hall County has been set at 90,922 acres, representing a reduction of 2,000 acres from the 1938 allotment. Few changes are listed in the 1939 set-up. Rental payments on cotton acreage will be matched by a "parity payment" instead of a subsidy, and payments will be 1.2 cents higher than in 1938 on the total amount.

Jim Londos Would Educate American Wrestling Public

BY IRVING DIX

JIM LONDOS, who of all the claimants of the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, probably has the most legitimate one, has started a campaign to take the vaudeville out of the sport and restore the mat game to its former level where the best wrestler could win without a vaudeville act thrown in for good measure.

Londos believes public confidence would be restored in the sport if the fans were encouraged to learn the tricks that go with the trade. Not that they should take up wrestling themselves, but Londos believes a better understanding of hammer locks and other legitimate wrestling holds would enable the fan to better appreciate the sport.

Only then, he says, would it be possible to eliminate the grandstand stuff and put scientific wrestling on a paying basis.

TRYING to find a busier man in college athletics than C. C. Poindexter of North Carolina Teachers College would be a difficult task. . . . Poindexter is coach of the varsity football, basketball, track, baseball, wrestling, and tennis teams, and also serves as director of intramural athletics.

Latest rumor from the south-west is that Texas Tech, undefeated in 10 games this past season, and nominated for the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas, will be the newest addition to the Southwest Conference. . . . the Red Raiders were refused admission last year, but they've convinced most people that they're good enough.

We are urging every farmer in the county eligible to vote to cast a ballot in the election Saturday, Curtis said, emphasizing the fact that the outcome of this election will vitally affect every cotton producer in this area.

reach the city's quota of 350 paid memberships before the Saturday closing date.
 No reports have been received to date from other communities in the county. The membership drive was halted temporarily, Periman said, when workers ran out of material, but more is now on hand and ready for distribution if needed.
 Zeb A. Moore and Lee Rushing were outstanding in enrolling members in Memphis, according to the county chairman, while Gayle Greene and C. T. Johnson were also credited with good work in the city.
 Several Memphis business firms purchased 100 per cent membership for their employees, and a number of others are listed in the 100 per cent ranks through membership purchases by individual employees.
 Reports from all outstanding districts in the county are requested by the county roll call chairman before next Saturday. The membership drive must be closed by that time, Periman said, in order that reports may be sent to National Red Cross headquarters.
 The 1937 roll call netted 421 members in Hall County, records show. The quota of 500 set for the county this year is based on population figures.

chief examiner for the division, all of Austin.
 At the conclusion of the hearing, which is expected to come Saturday, the City Council will pass an ordinance setting the gas rate for the city. Officials of the gas company, if not satisfied with the rate, may then appeal to the Texas Railroad Commission, Fitzgerald said.
 G. L. Taylor, district manager for the United Gas Corporation, of Childress and G. G. Gannon, company lawyer from Houston, are assisting Strange in representing the corporation at the hearing.
 T. R. Easterling is taking the hearing, originally scheduled to open November 28, was postponed at the request of the railroad commission until Monday, December 5, when it was again set over to Wednesday.
 The hearing is open to the public, and all interested parties may attend.
 Members of the city council are: J. C. Wells, mayor, D. L. C. Kinard, secretary, and O. V. Alexander, Dean Morgensen, Frank Foxhall, Barney Wattenbarger, W. J. Bragg, G. T. Hattenbach, N. E. Burk, and G. L. Watson.

Supt. Williams said. Premium lists are being made up by local merchants and business men. Premiums will be paid on ten birds, seven of which must not be disqualified, one male bird being included in the ten.
 A special class for club entries has been arranged, and premiums will be paid on five birds, including one male bird, three of which must not be disqualified.
 Judging from early entries, Key said, this year's show promises to be a great success. A number of fine quality birds are being exhibited.
 Several leading feed interests have placed exhibits at the show. Space has been provided for these exhibits, and pen space is available for more than 350 birds, according to Supt. Williams.

of the year, according to highway department officials here.
 The work under contract will extend from highway 83 north of Childress and a short distance north of highway 138 which runs east into Hollis, Okla., across Childress County to a point near the Browder Ranch headquarters, a short distance from the Hall County line.
 Plans call for the highway to be extended into Memphis completing another lap of a proposed route connecting the federal highway system leading into Hollis from the east with a through highway which will extend west through Silverton and across the plains into New Mexico and Southern California.
 Immediate funds for the work, however, have been obtained by the highway commission from the federal government under a farm-to-market road allotment for improvement of roads which will be designated later as state and federal highways.
 Twelve miles of the right-of-way in Childress County for the new route were completed last week, and contracts were let immediately by the Highway Commission.

 The remaining eight miles of the road are expected to be placed under contract for grading and drainage as soon as the right-of-way negotiations are completed.
 An appropriation of $124,000 was made in September last year for the new highway route. Commissioners courts of both Childress and Hall counties were asked at that time to furnish a 120-foot right-of-way.

It was pointed out that this was the only cost that would be assessed from those desiring electric service with the exception of paying for the electricity in the regular manner as it is consumed. In the event that the project does not receive final approval by the REA authorities in Washington, or in the event that the lines are routed through the county so service will not be available to any of the petitioners, the initial fee of $5 will be returned after a pro rata share for administrative costs have been deducted.

High School Glee Club to Present Christmas Cantata

"The Wondrous Story" Is Yuletide Musical Contribution of Group

The Memphis High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Hardin, will present "The Wondrous Story" by Richard Rountz as a musical contribution to the Yuletide season.

"The Wondrous Story" of the birth of Christ has been told and retold in prose and verse. Each generation of people recounts the tale in the language of its own making.

In "The Wondrous Story" the author has attempted to re-create the atmosphere of simplicity, nobility, and purity that characterize the traditional Christmas carols without recourse to the carols themselves.

The cantata is in six parts. The Shepherds, surprised and somewhat troubled by the sight of the star of Bethlehem, are pictured by a gentle pastoral movement. The second episode depicts the Angel Choirs coming to herald the birth of the infant Jesus. The Three Wise Men who followed the guiding star are the subject of the third part. The ensuing scene shows the coming of people, shepherds and kings to the town of Bethlehem, in fitting reverent style, marks the awakening of the Child Jesus. In Christmas Dawn the strains swell to one of jubilation and brings the cantata to a brilliant and joyful close.

The cantata will be presented at 7:30, December 19, at the high school. Admittance will be by invitation and card only.

Yuletide Spirit Is Good in West Ward

Making decorations, posters, etc., is a work in which all the children become interested and can be given opportunities to help.

We have found that this work is looked forward to each month by both teachers and pupils as an expression of correlated cooperative work. The season's greetings are realized by the child like interpretations in songs, poems, and dramatizations.

IF YOU DON'T KNOW ALL Intelligence Quiz!

THE ANSWERS TRY THESE

To get a high rating on this quiz you need not be an Einstein you simply have to know a few facts of life. After you have taken this simple test read the direction at the end of the questions and average your score.

1. What young society girl and her dowager aunt moved to Windy Willows, Iowa.
  2. What inventor and what city slicker involve their hearts in a battle over the above mentioned maiden?
  3. What man wins the hand of the debutante?
  4. What constable comically makes love to what haughty dowager?
  5. What detective thrills the soul and what country girl?
  6. What prominent banker scandalizes himself?
  7. What dish washing machine saves million of housewives hours of labor each day?
- Total your score giving yourself ten points for each question answered. If your total sum is seventy points you are a well-read above the average American citizen. If your total is below fifty you are not the man I thought you were. All the answers to this quiz may be found in "Windy Willows," the senior play, so don't miss it. It will be December 16 at the high school auditorium.

Baseball Is Boys' Program Highlight

The boys athletic program, directed by the men teachers of the high school, has been sponsoring baseball for about two weeks. Playing in a double round robin between the teams sponsored by Mr. Devin, Mr. Dees, and Mr. Key, the winner was none other than Mr. Key's team. Mr. Dees' team was in second place and Mr. Devin's team has the cellar.

The larger boys sponsored by Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Cox, Mr. Cowan, and Mr. Johnson are still in the first round. So far it appears as if the big boys sponsored by the principal, Mr. Cunningham, will cinch the cellar position.

Swiss Entertainers Are Presented

The Studer Brothers entertained with a varied program of their native Swiss music, yodeling and dancing in assembly.

Each brother played two of the three instruments consisting of a clarinet, accordion, and bass viol.

Dressed in native costume and using a backdrop featuring a Swiss landscape these talented young men sang and played Swiss songs and popular American songs.

The announcer told of the farming, woodcarving, watch making, and cheese making carried on in the peaceful little country. An interesting discussion of the origin of the yodel was an outstanding feature of the talk.

The program was finished with an exhibition of a Swiss dance and a lively Fox Swiss Waltz.

High School Queen Contest Supports "The Sandstorm"

Annual Staff Stages Contests and Lays Plans For Pie Supper Dec. 9

The students of Memphis High School have taken a great deal of interest in the preliminaries of the queen contest which started this week. The contest is for the purpose of raising funds for the "Sandstorm," the year book, which has been published by the students of the local school for the past several years.

The contest will reach a climax on Friday night, December 9, at a pie supper held at the High School auditorium. At this time the voters will be counted and the queen of the High School for 1939 will be crowned.

The yearbook for which the funds are being raised has as its theme this year "know your school better." The purpose of the book is to bring about a better understanding between the community and the school. The staff has been very fortunate in securing the support of the student body and the faculty, and we feel confident the community as a whole will render every service possible in helping to make this project a success.

Cyclone Cagers Open Season on December 20th

No Home Games Are on Basketball Schedule For This Season

The Cyclone basketball season will not officially start until December 20th. Coaches Hubbard and Dees are working both the senior and junior basketball teams. The junior team will play a regular scheduled season.

The Senior Cyclone schedule so far is as follows:

- Dec. 6-7, Kirkland tournament.
- Jan. 10, Hedley at Hedley.
- Jan. 13-14, Lakeview tournament.
- Jan. 20, Estelline at Estelline.
- Jan. 24, Open.
- Jan. 27-28, Carey tournament.
- Feb. 1-7, open.
- Feb. 10, Quail at Quail.

The coaches would like to have an all star game the 13th and 16th of December. The three open dates in February will be filled, as soon as possible.

Garner Moore an all around athlete is the only letterman out. Moore is one of the few boys in high school who has lettered in three major sports.

The boys and coaches are counting every brick placed and ditch dug on the new gymnasium.

Students Receive Highest Praise

To the student body of Memphis High School, we personally and publicly wish to express our appreciation. It is indeed an outstanding pleasure to the faculty and administrative council to be complimented for the splendid courtesy shown visiting speakers while with us. We pass that on to you students, with our sincere appreciation of you.

We know that ours is one of the very best student bodies and we make this statement with substantial proof. One should view only the records to be convinced of the outstanding scholastic work being done by the majority of our students to say that Memphis is the best school they have ever attended.

The care of your building, your books, and your personal appearance is to be commended. Again, with each of the speakers who have spoken before our assembly this year, we compliment the student body of Memphis High school.

F.F.A. Team Seventh In Poultry Judging

The Memphis FFA poultry judging team composed of Charles Williams, Coy Yarbrough, Dewey Melton, and Bill Browning, alternate, took seventh place in the poultry judging contest held at Clarendon Saturday, Dec. 3.

The teams competing ranked in the following order: Byers 1176 points, Tulla 1127, Silverton 1103, Friona 1058, Pampa 1049, Claude 1039, Memphis 1015, Miquita 969, Lakeview 950, Miami 928.

The local chapter will compete against Lakeview and Estelline on Saturday, Dec. 10 in Memphis.

Two Boys Eligible For Hall of Fame

Boys who become seniors and who have lettered in three of the four major sports (football, basketball, track, and tennis) will have their pictures placed in the "Hall of Fame." The hall of fame will be a special trophy case in honor of our all-around athletes.

High school boys who are eligible for the hall of fame are: Garner Moore, track, football, and basketball in spring and fall of 1938; Linley Billington, track and basketball in spring and football in the fall of 1938.

Home Ec Girls Get New Furniture

The Home Economics girls have converted their dining room into a living-dining room. The regular dining room suite was removed and a new, modern two-piece living room suite and a gate-leg table with four chairs for dining service were put in its place.

Other bits of furniture added to the room were: A floor lamp, and a rug which harmonizes with the living room suite and table. Pictures and vases will be added to the room later on to make it more home-like. A living-dining room is better for the Home Economics laboratory, so the work of the girls may be carried out more fully.

PROMISES DON'T PAY PENSIONS

THOUSANDS of letters have been sent out recently by an organization with headquarters in Austin urging old age pensioners to contribute a dollar on the promise of a $30 monthly pension. The organization, bearing the title of a "pension union," after being denied a charter by the state of Texas, established headquarters at Austin and mailed letters with the return address of "Capitol Station" to an undetermined number of Texas' 114,044 old age pensioners.

There is no way of estimating how many old people,
failing to realize that the letter was not from the Texas Old-Age Assistance Bureau, which is paying their pensions, mailed dollars from which they can hope to receive no return.

The situation was so serious that Governor-elect
W. Lee O'Daniel, who has pledged his aid to the old people of the state, devoted a part of his Sunday broadcast to warning pensioners against "falling for"
the promises made by the alleged union.

No such unofficial organization or outside agency can help any aged person in any way, either in getting on or staying on the pension rolls or in increasing the amount of the monthly payment.

One dollar from each of more than 100,000 pensioners is not an inconsiderable sum. The State of Texas, which is paying the pension, asks for no donations
from its old people, and it is the only organization which can pay, or increase, the monthly pension.

Every old person in the state should take warning and refuse to contribute their badly-needed dollars to the "union." The pension cannot be paid with golden promises.

COUNT YOUR CHICKENS

EVERY PERSON who is interested in the future of Memphis and Hall County should take time off
this week-end to visit the annual Hall County Poultry Show. This county depends for its business essentially on farm income and poultry raising is rapidly coming to the fore as an important phase of the farming industry in this section.

A number of the county's most progressive farmers are exhibiting prize birds at the annual show this year. Here is evidence of real progress, results of scientific breeding and feeding used to a good advantage in increasing the farm income.

Even more important are the exhibits entered by the FFA boys. These young farmers, boys to-day, are Hall County's producers of tomorrow, and the start they are making to-day will assume imposing proportions ten years from now.

The poultry show is an exhibit of progress on Hall County farms, and as such should be of interest to every progressive citizen. It offers an opportunity, in a sense, to count your chickens before they are full grown.

Bowen Cox Turns
In Resignation

"The school board regrets to announce the resignation of Mr.
Bowen Cox as commercial teacher in high school. He has accepted a position with the Production
Credit Association in Coleman.
Mr. Cox made the following statement in his resignation:

"May I take this means to express my profound gratefulness
to the School Board, administrative staff, faculty, student body,
and the entire citizenry of Memphis for their loyalty and cooperative spirit that has been mine. I feel that my successor, who ever he may be, would be indeed fortunate to be associated with such a considerate group. If I have achieved any success, it has been due largely to the encouragement and assistance the school board, superintendent, faculty, and student body have given me."

Response to Mr. Cox's statement by the superintendent, faculty, and students:

"We would like to take this opportunity to say we sincerely regret losing you, Mr. Cox, as a teacher, fellow worker, and a friend. Your willingness to cooperate, your quiet friendly criticism and advice, your cheerful disposition, and your ability as a teacher have made you an outstanding member of the high abundance of success and happi-

Visitors in Memphis Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
Francis from Prairie Grove, Arkansas, who stopped here briefly en route to California.

Mrs. Francis was formerly Miss Mabel Fern Mitchell, and was a teacher in the Memphis schools in 1917-18. She was making her first visit to the city since leaving here twenty years ago, and expressed surprise at the extent of change and growth made since that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis planned to stop for a visit in Yuma, Ariz., then continue to California, and plan to make a trip to Alaska in the spring. Mrs. Francis visited old friends here Wednesday.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

Recasting the Farm
By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Breeder-Feeder Association

Lost motion is costly whether it is in the factory or on the farm.
There are times when an hour means more than a day at some other time. Good farm management, like good factory management, implies getting the greatest results from the time and energy expended. This in turn calls for the elimination of unnecessary motions. It all adds up to the mathematical axiom that a straight line is the shortest distance between two points and arranging the set-up to use all the practical "short cuts."

Factory managers employ the best engineering talent to lay out the plant for efficient operation and then follow each operation with a keen eye to learn how to perform it with the fewest possible motions. The workman, by reducing the essential motions to the minimum, not only gets more work done, but is less fatigued at the end of the day. All of us have known people who always seemed to be in a hurry and yet got less work done than others who appear to go about the job in a leisurely manner. The difference is simply that the hurrier is probably making a lot of ineffective motions, wasting both physical and nervous energy,
while the other sort of worker makes every motion count toward getting the job done.

Women, by reorganizing their kitchens, have progressed more rapidly in the saving of steps and time than men have done in the barnyard and on the farm. The home, and especially the kitchen,
is as much a part of the productive farm equipment as the plow and the barnyard, so perhaps that is the best place to start in streamlining the farm for more efficient operation. When it has running water, convenient fuel, and its stove, sink, work-tables, etc., are compactly arranged the housewife not only gets her work done more quickly,
but does not wear herself out in the process.

WASHINGTON LETTER
Switching of Funds Assures
Money for Irrigation Pro-

WASHINGTON.—By expert
juggling of funds Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has made it possible for the long contemplated water facilities program to get under way. The President's Great Plains Committee reported in 1936 that while the water supply of the Great Plains area cannot be increased, something can be done to regulate the varying supply.

The committee added: "It is not to be expected that more than three per cent of the total acreage of the Great Plains can ever be irrigated."

In 1937 the Pope-Jones act was passed to make loans to individual farmers and organized groups for development of small scale irrigation in the arid and semi-arid states. Later Congress appropriated $500,000 for the job, an amount the secretary of agriculture considered inadequate. It was discovered that the Farm Security Administration could spare $5,000,000,000
so that sum has been added for a water conservation program.

The department's bureau of agricultural economics will do the broad planning, that is select the areas where there is the greatest need, and it will be the job of the Soil Conservation Service to help farmers install water facilities.

Long term loans, limited to 10
or 20 years, will be made to

Careful Driving Is Urged This Month

With the most dangerous traffic month of the year facing motorists and pedestrians state safety department officials plead for close observance of traffic rules in December.

Homer Garrison Jr., safety director, recounting that 230 people died in traffic crashes in December last year, pointed to the Christmas holidays as the heaviest traffic period of the year during which the death rate leaps upward.

Texas highway patrolmen, a force limited to 300 men, are working double shifts during most of the month to deter reckless drivers in a strict enforcement drive. Referring to the 20 per cent decrease in fatalities in Texas since the beginning of the year, Garrison pleaded for drivers and pedestrians to be alert to the hazards that will confront them with shortened daylight periods, murky and cold weather, heavier traffic and wet pavement to combat.

He was joined in the plea by Chairman W. H. Richardson Jr. of the safety commission.

"Texas, like other states, is faced with a possibly heavier death and destruction month in December," chairman Richardson said. "Motorists must cut their speeds appreciably and be alert to impending traffic disasters. Pedestrians should walk with heads up, eyes toward approaching vehicles, cross only at proper places and be careful in darkness."

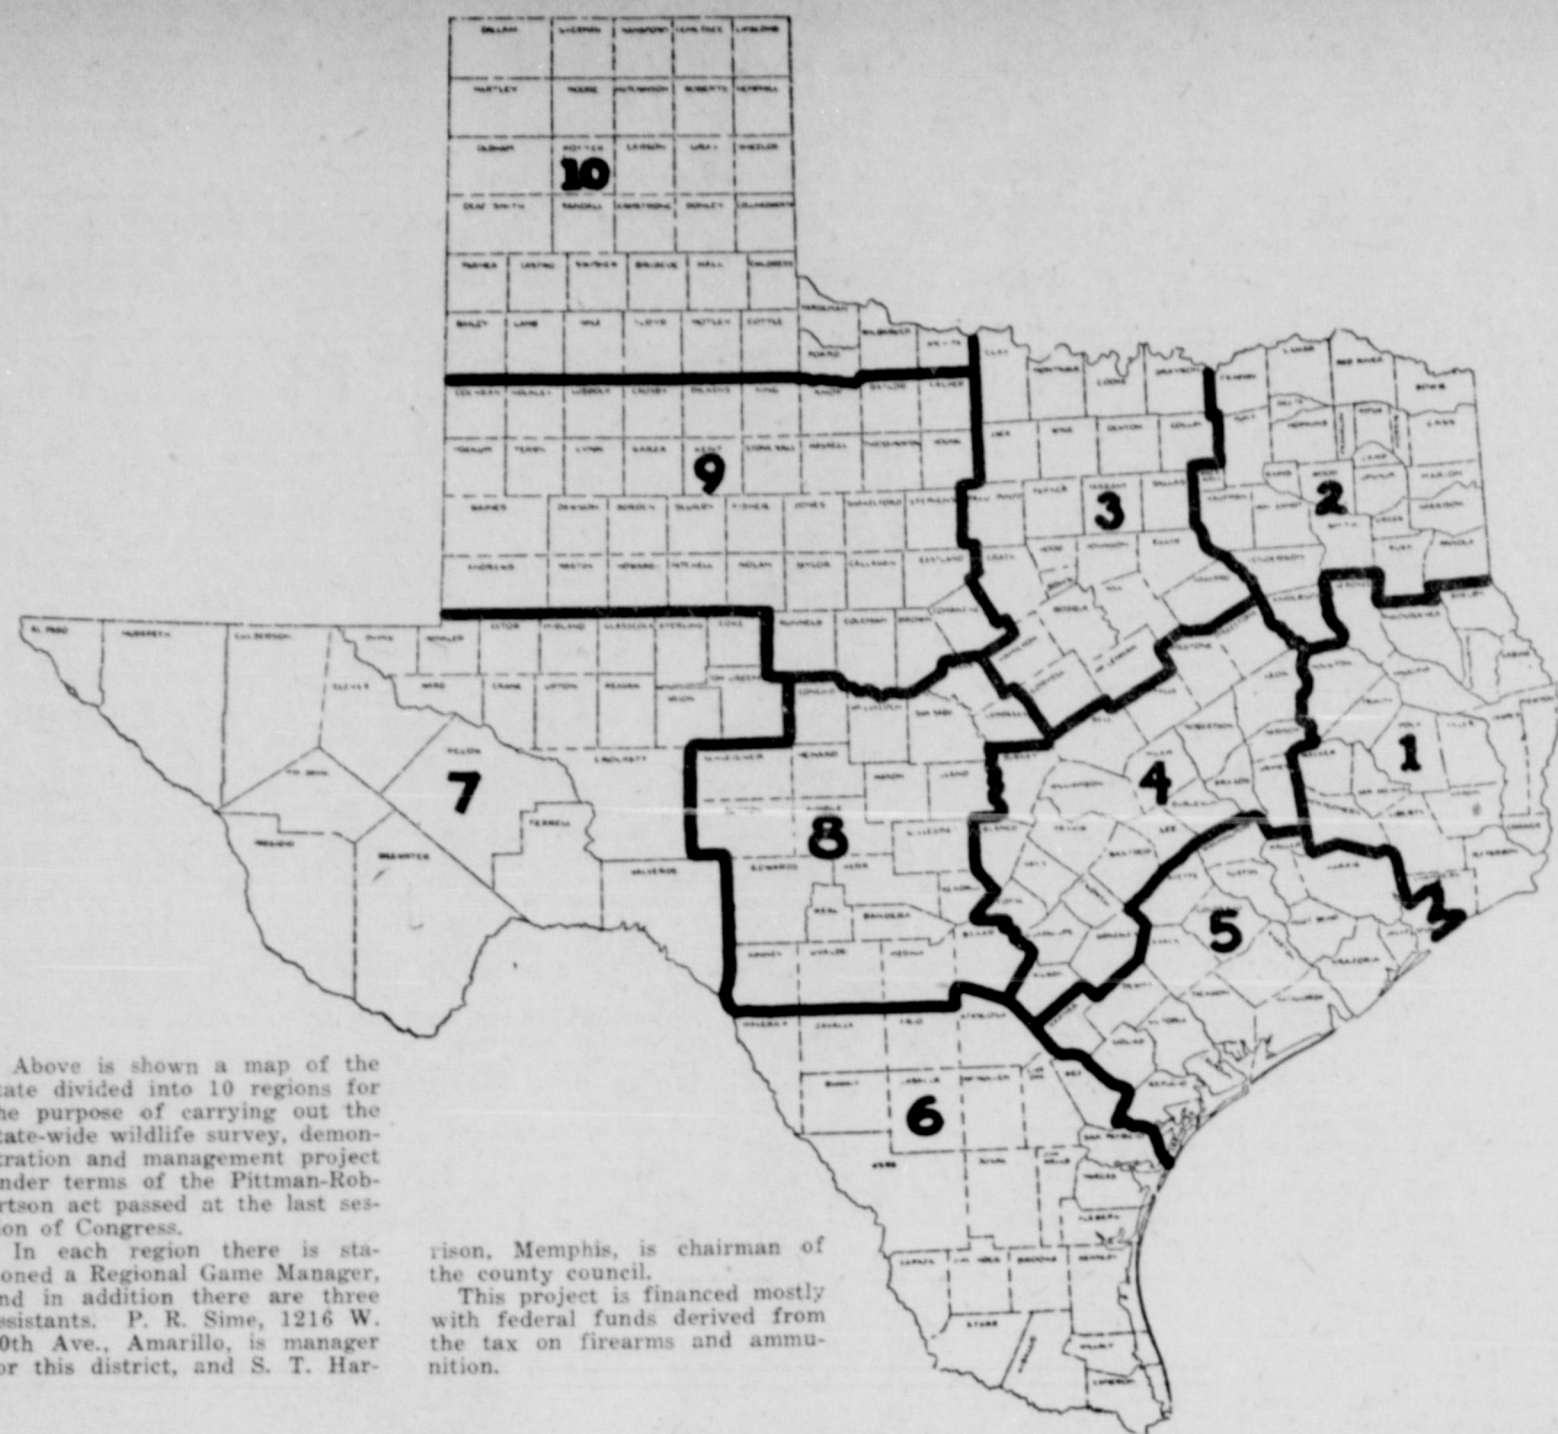

Garrison added that a sharp death reduction in December should bring to Texas a fatality drop of more than 400 persons for the year, "a great saving in human lives."

Miss Byrd Presler Has Operation

Miss Byrd Presler, who has been librarian for many years at the Carnegie Library here, is reported recovering nicely after an operation at a Chicago hospital.

Miss Presler was taken to Chicago two weeks ago and was in a serious condition. An operation performed Wednesday of last week was believed by doctors in charge to have been successful, and the patient is much better. Word was received here this week from Miss Presler's sister, Miss Frankie Presler, who is a teacher in Chicago.

REGIONS OUTLINED FOR STATE-FEDERAL GAME PROJECT

Above is shown a map of the state divided into 10 regions for the purpose of carrying out the state-wide wildlife survey, demonstration and management project under terms of the Pittman-Robertson act passed at the last session of Congress.

In each region there is stationed a Regional Game Manager, and in addition there are three assistants. P. R. Sime, 1216 W. 10th Ave., Amarillo, is manager for this district, and S. T. Harrison, Memphis, is chairman of the county council.

This project is financed mostly with federal funds derived from the tax on firearms and ammunition.

Rapid Progress Is Reported on New School Gymnasium

Concrete Work Starts This Week as Materials Arrive on Grounds

Work on the new $28,000 high school gymnasium which was started last week is progressing rapidly, R. C. Cato, construction foreman for M. W. Hibbs, contractor, said Wednesday morning.

Concrete work is underway as excavation for the building foundation nears completion, Cato said. The building site has been cleared, warehouses and temporary offices completed, and all equipment placed on the grounds.

Four carloads of brick and one car of lumber was unloaded this week, and re-inforcing steel for the construction work arrived Wednesday.

Workers were engaged Wednesday in removing the steel window frames from the present gymnasium and filling the openings with masonry in preparation for construction of the adjoining walls of the new building.

Contracts call for completion of the structure within 150 calendar days, but the contractors state that, weather permitting, the work will be completed in much shorter time.

Dirt was broken for the structure Wednesday of last week at ceremonies attended by members of the school board, high school faculty and students. Work orders were received from PWA officials on Monday, November 28, and work was started immediately. Public Works Administration is paying approximately 55 per cent of the cost of the structure, the remainder being provided through a local bond issue. Hibbs bid for the work was $28,148.35. The new building joins the present high school and West Ward buildings.
