

Eichelberger Adds To List Of Criminals

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 4 (AP)—Americans freed from the hellholes of Japan told their stories of starvation, brutality and torture directly today to Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, commanding Eighth army occupation forces, and names of Japanese responsible were added steadily to a growing war-criminals list.

The navy simultaneously sent a hospital ship, four transports, a cruiser and four rescue destroyers to Hamamatsu, 120 miles southwest of Tokyo, to evacuate other hundreds of Allied prisoners. These ships earlier had helped evacuate approximately 1,500 from the Tokyo area.

Due this afternoon were 462 others being brought to Yokohama from the Ashio prison camp, and plans were rushed for release of 3,000 more at Niigata, a west coast port. In northern Honshu and northernmost Hokkaido an estimated 11,500 await liberation.

Eighty per cent of the 2,000 already examined here are in "serious" condition, medical officers said.

Carrier planes of the U.S. Third Fleet searched Japan for others, and spotted 60 excited prisoners waving wildly from a camp at Hikone village, 50 miles west of Nagoya.

Virtually all the patients were suffering from extreme malnutrition and other complications—beriberi, dysentery, malaria, tuberculosis, and various fevers. All had been beaten, and many had been denied medical attention until now.

Eichelberger saw an old friend among the prisoners—Col. Stanley Livingston James, who had attended West Point two classes ahead of him, and exclaimed: "I wouldn't have known him!" James said he had been beaten into insensibility and, pointing to a missing front tooth, said: "It was knocked out by a fist."

He hastened to add that his treatment had been no worse than that of any other prisoner. "I saw generals knocked and kicked around," he said.

"They played no favorites. There was no such thing as rank. We were considered captives first. We were nothing but a number and we were treated as such."

"You had to stand rigidly at attention with your hands at your side while they beat you. But you must understand this: 'The Japs treated us like they treated their own people. These people don't talk our language and, when you fight people who are like wild animals, you must expect them to fight back their way, not ours.'"

Four Plead Guilty To Drunken Driving

Several cases were disposed of in county court over the holiday season.

Pleas of guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated were entered by J. W. Parker, O. G. Ehrhardt, T. H. Moore and Willie Tilley and fines of $50, costs and six months suspension of drivers licenses were imposed in each case by Judge James T. Brooks.

One liquor case, filed by liquor control board agents, was lodged against Leroy Modkins, charged with unlawfully selling liquor without a permit. A fine of $100 and costs was imposed.

Negress Stabbed, Taken To Hospital

Police took Annie Mae Lovelady, negro female, to a local hospital to receive treatment of a wound she received in the top of her head when she was stabbed.

She was found at 3 a. m. Sunday with her husband at the side entrance to the Petroleum building. The woman says she does not know who stabbed her.

Garzia Shot During Attempted Arrest

Yenicio Garzia was shot at 2 a. m. Tuesday when he reportedly assaulted Police Officers R. L. Thompson and Buddy B. Potts at a cafe on the north side of town. Officer Potts said he fired at the Latin-American in defense of Thompson.

Garzia was in a serious condition this afternoon.

The officers were arresting two other Latin-Americans for drunkenness when they said Garzia interfered and then assaulted them.

Lt. John P. Miller Told Of In Release

In a recent news account telling of Indians rushing between Japanese trucks and tanks and a U.S. Army plane the clipping listed Lt. John P. Miller of Big Spring as the co-pilot. The story should have listed Lt. John P. Miller, grandson of Mrs. J. B. Miller, 1400 Main, as pilot.

The plane landed at the Gal Lam airport, outside of Hanol. The news account was an AP release from Kunming, China.

Chinese Troops Fly To Nanking For Surrender

By SPENCER MOOSA CHUNGKING, Sept. 4 (AP)—Troops of the American-trained and American-equipped Chinese Sixth army, which helped drive the Japanese from north Burma, will fly to Nanking today for the formal surrender of Japanese forces in the China theater scheduled for Thursday, the high command announced.

The movement was scheduled to start several days ago, but was held up by bad weather.

The high command reported the junction of forces under Gen. Yen Hsi-shan from Shansi province and Gen. Fu Tso-yi from the Inner Mongolian province of Suiyuan at Tatung in northern Shanxi. The junction took place Saturday. A number of other towns were recovered peacefully, including Paoting in Hunan, once an American air base.

Gen. Ho Ying-chin, commander of Chinese field forces, who will accept the Japanese surrender, sent a memorandum to Japanese commander Yasuji Okamura, listing 15 representatives who will receive regional surrenders, and the points at which these will be received.

The list included Gen. Lu Han, commander of the First area forces, who will accept the surrender of the Japanese in northern Indo-China at Hanol.

No common general was included in the list.

Owner Pickets Firm—He Needs Money Too

DETROIT, Sept. 4 (AP)—There were five pickets in front of the Aero Pattern & Engineering Co. in Grand River avenue today and one of them was Charles Bueg, co-owner of the firm.

"I had to do it," he explained. "I'm a member of the Pattern Makers Association (AFL) and I received a card instructing me to report for picket duty."

"I would have started picketing the shop anyway; I want more money like my men; they get between $2.25 and $2.45 an hour while I'm getting $15 a week. That's because they get all our money."

Truman Drafting Message To Send To Peacetime Congress This Week

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—President Truman has drafted a comprehensive message for delivery to congress this week, the White House said today, and later will submit his views on disposition of the atomic bomb in a separate communication.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters he would announce final plans tomorrow after a conference between the president and congressional leaders.

Soon after the first peacetime congress in almost four years meets tomorrow it will receive what Ross described as "quite a comprehensive message" from Mr. Truman.

The reassembling legislators will form the "reconversion congress" as distinguished from the war congresses that have been in almost continuous session since late in 1941.

Facing the lawmakers returning from vacations cut short by war's end will be five administration-tagged "must" proposals dealing with:

1. Jobs for everyone willing and able to work. Congressional committees hope to work out a plan of cooperation between government, labor, industry, and agriculture to create work for the millions idle or facing idleness because of the shutdown of war industries.

2. Unemployment compensation. Senate and house committees are working on proposals to pay as much as $25 weekly for 26 weeks to workers unable to find jobs.

3. Surplus property disposal. A

Smith To Explain Truman's Desire For More Control

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Budget Director Harold D. Smith goes to Capitol Hill today to back up President Truman's request for more control over federal agencies.

Smith was asked to explain to the house expenditures committee why Mr. Truman thinks he should have more authority to reorganize the executive branch of the government.

The budget director faces a group unconvinced that any major change should be made, particularly if it involves taking away congressional powers.

Chairman Manasco (D-Ala), for instance, told a reporter it would be "futile" to try to pass a measure along the lines suggested by Mr. Truman in a message to congress last spring.

Instead, Manasco placed before his committee a bill exempting 21 agencies from any presidential re-empowering—unless both the house and senate agree.

Mr. Truman said in his message that many of the agencies should be reorganized in order to achieve more efficient and economical administration.

The late President Roosevelt made a similar request, but congress refused to go along.

HOUSE BURNS—An uncompleted three room house at 1304 Nolan belonging to Clyde Thomas caught fire at 11:40 p. m. Saturday and suffered 20 per cent loss. There was no insurance. Cause of fire was unknown.

Negro Shot To Death At Midland Rodeo

MIDLAND, Sept. 4 (AP)—Charlie Tolliver, about 40, a negro from Odessa, Texas, was shot to death in the crowded fairgrounds grandstand yesterday at the championship rodeo here.

Justice of the Peace V. C. Girdley said Tolliver was shot by one of three military policemen after the MP's had gone into the grandstand to quell a disturbance.

The other negro, also from Odessa, was jailed. Tolliver recently moved to Odessa from Waco.

Hiroshima--Smashed Pile Of Rubble

By VERN HAUGLAND HIROSHIMA, Japan, Sept. 4 (AP)—Street cars rattle along the streets where not a single building stands. A few deadpan civilians paddle slowly through the rubble.

Block after block contains only a thin covering of rusting tin, a few stones and some broken bricks. The twisted frames of less than a dozen buildings stand forlornly alone in the midst of ruins that was once touted as Japan's most modernized city.

That was the Hiroshima I saw today with the first American post-war visitors to the world's first target of the atomic bomb.

For its size, no city in the world was so completely wiped out by bombs as this war-worn metropolis of 400,000, whose heart was smashed completely by a single application of atomic power. The buildings, once the most mod-

British Warships In Singapore Bay

KANDY, Ceylon, Sept. 4 (AP)—British warships rode at anchor in the harbor of Singapore today for the first time in more than 3 1/2 years, and word was expected here momentarily that occupation forces had landed to take over the mighty naval base from the surrendering Japanese.

Triumphant entry of the British vessels was announced last night by the Southeast Asia command, which said that landing forces would go ashore as soon as preliminary arrangements had been completed.

Leading the squadron into the bay was the cruiser Cleopatra, flying the flag of Admiral Sir Arthur Power, commander of the East Indies station. She was accompanied by light fleet units, including a flotilla of minesweepers which had been engaged in clearing Malacca Strait and the approaches to Singapore.

Additional naval vessels are expected to arrive in Singapore today under Rear Adm. C. S. Holland, who has been named commander of the naval occupation force.

SEAC headquarters also disclosed that British marines were preparing to land on Penang Island, situated off the west coast of Malaya 375 miles northwest of Singapore.

Singapore, one of the great outlying bastions of the British empire, has been in Japanese hands since Feb. 15, 1942, when Gen. Sir Arthur Percival surrendered his garrison to the forces of Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita.

Col. James Stewart Home From England

INDIANA, Pa., Sept. 4 (AP)—Lanky Col. James Stewart is home from the war and eager to start work again in the role where he first gained fame—that of a motion picture actor.

A bit gray after four and a half years in the army, and thinner than when he won the academy award in 1940, "Jimmy" was positive about two things.

He has no plans for marriage. The colonel may be released from service at the end of his 30-day leave. He arrived in New York Friday from England, where since V-E day he's been commanding officer of the Second Wing of the Eighth Air Force.

PRODUCTION SLUMPS—TULSA, Okla., Sept. 4 (AP)—Daily average crude oil production for the week ending September 1 dropped 16,750 barrels from the total for the previous period to 4,872,050. The Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

C-C DIRECTORS TO MEET—Chamber of commerce directors will meet at 8 p. m. today at the Settles hotel for a regular session.

Occupation Of Tokyo Scheduled For Friday

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 4 (AP)—New landings today expanded the American occupation forces' powerful grip on the Tokyo area, and General MacArthur, in a general order, gave his armies authority to requisition anything they need in Japan.

First occupation of Tokyo itself, scheduled for Friday, is to be outlined in detail at a meeting of the Japanese First army command with Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, American Eighth army commander, at Yokohama Wednesday.

MacArthur instructed the Japanese to turn all existing prisoners of war camps over to the highest ranking officer interned in each, and gave him authority to demand of the Japanese whatever food and medical care is necessary for his camp.

The initial Tokyo occupation force will number only 3,350, said the Japanese government communique announcing that the entry was scheduled Friday, (Thursday night, U. S. time).

The communique said policemen would be detailed to maintain law and order in all areas of occupation; government organs and public organizations would continue to function as usual, and all negotiations between American forces and Japanese authorities would be conducted by liaison officials.

Preceding the occupation of Tokyo, General MacArthur's troops were to half-encircle the capital with new landings today, while 120 miles southwest naval forces landed at Hamamatsu and other landings were being made at Takusa, port city of Kyushu Island, 600 miles southwest of Tokyo, and at Kanoya airfield, also on Kyushu.

By nightfall, nearly 100,000 Americans were scheduled to be on Japanese soil—with four times that many due to be landed during the month for a total of a half-million.

The Japanese communique, which has been announcing occupation schedules ahead of MacArthur's headquarters (but presumably with his permission) reported entry a number of points in the Kanagawa and Shizuoka prefectures—west and south of Tokyo—preceding occupation of the capital.

It listed the cities to be occupied as Hiratsuka 225, Oiso, 6,500 troops; Odawara, 2,250; Gotemba, 720; Hatano, 1,020; Uendhara, 1,020; and 3,350 in Hachioji city, the metropolitan district of Tokyo.

Addressing over 300 peers attending the brief session, Wakatsuki declared at the outset of the war he "wanted to fight the United States."

"Everyone then believed in victory," he continued. "But now we have no guns, no aircraft, no men so we must accept the Potsdam declaration."

Tuberculosis continues to be the greatest single cause of death between the ages of 21 and 45. The number of cases recognized for the first time appears to be on the increase, the state morbidity report said.

Until the people of Texas realize the extent of the problem and the needs and demand adequate protection for their own health, Texas cannot be expected to show any marked reduction of morbidity from tuberculosis.

Health Unit Reports Three Typhus Cases

The City-County Health Unit included in its weekly communicable disease report only three additional typhus cases and six poliomyelitis.

Two persons were treated for trench mouth and eight for dysentery. Syphilis cases totaled five and gonorrhea three.

Seabees Welcome Marines To Rota

ROTA, The Marianas, Sept. 4 (AP)—The marines landed today on this island 32 miles north of Guam and found a large sign reading: "The 48th Seabees welcome the marines to Rota."

The Seabees had come ashore on this surrendered Japanese base three days earlier to examine the airstrip.

POW'S GOING HOME

PARIS, Sept. 4 (AP)—A total of 37,000 Italian prisoners of war who have been aiding American forces in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany will begin returning to their homes today.

Heartbreak Packages From US Stacked In Yokohama

By CHARLES BOATNER, Fort Worth Star-Telegram Correspondent In The Pacific YOKOHAMA, Sept. 1 (AP) (Delayed)—They were mailed in 1942 from anxious families in the states.

They contained vitamin pills, underclothing, soap, cigars, razor blades, shoes and the like, for prisoners of war sons. They were found today, in United States mail sacks. One end of a huge concrete and steel warehouse was full of them, walled off by iron grill work, the Yokohama dock area.

A yanked one of the rotted canvas bags from the heap and it ripped apart and packages tumbled out. Some packages were from Texas, bearing heartbreaking addresses such as "Formerly on Wake Island," or "... of Tientsin," or "... of Shanghai ... or Midway."

Similar packages came from other states, from cities large and small, from all over the nation.

On The Trail Of A Car Thief On Land, In Air

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff
Remember the hair-raising movie serials where the hero pursued the villain by horse, motorcycle, car and finally by airplane?
Elbert Franklin Allen of Greenville is a reasonably accurate facsimile of the hero: When his automobile was stolen in Greenville, he gave chase. He was soon outdistanced.
So he went to the airport, got an airplane and took out after the fleeing car thief. But he lost him.

Allen's car was abandoned in Terrell, intact. The thief, who must have been pretty rattled by being chased by airplane, even left two cartons of cigars in the car. Plus a valuable surveying instrument valued by Allen at $400.
But the thief was persistent. He took George L. Gray's car and tore out of that part of the country. Police, anyway, say it was the same man.
A prisoner fleeing from U. S. detention barracks at North Camp Hood was hoodooed from the beginning.
He fled from a work detachment with two other men. The army promptly broadcast descriptions.
The description of one man said that a tattoo on his right shoulder read "Born to Lose."

Texas Operating Under New Laws

AUSTIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—Texas business, political and personal life operated today under several new laws, products of the 49th legislature's general session which adjourned 90 days ago.
The laws emanate from bills which failed to receive two-thirds majority votes in house and senate, staying their effectiveness until 90 days after adjournment of the session.
They include measures:
Creating a three-member state aviation commission to assist in the development of airports and disburse federal funds for that purpose. Named to the commission were Henry Ayres of Paris, Al Buchanan of San Antonio, and Parker F. Prouty of Lubbock.
Increasing the maximum gross load for trucks from 38,000 pounds to 48,000 pounds.
Giving the good neighbor commission, originally created by resolution more than two years ago, statutory or legal status.
Generally tightening regulations on handling butane gas.
Giving the state health department authority to enforce state meat inspection regulations.
Generally raising the cost of court fees and other fees paid county officers.
Putting more teeth in the state sanitary code.
Requiring that the names of presidential and vice-presidential candidates—instead of the names of party electors—be printed on general election ballots.

Compelling persons exempt from payment of the poll tax because of age (60 or older) to obtain certificates of exemption.
Equalizing premium taxes as between domestic and out-of-state insurance companies.
Large kangaroos in Australia have been timed at about 40 miles an hour.
But one Brownwood native claims they did. He said he'd been paying 75 cents per coupon, complained to police when restrictions were lifted, said the last coupon he bought was from a man who claimed to be a preacher.

PRINTED WORD—Printing, from its inception, has been considered an art, and today it is more so than ever before. Nothing has ever taken the place of clean, well designed printed matter for letterheads, invitations, forms, messages, and a variety of other matter. And West Texas Stationers place emphasis on quality despite the present day press of business. Each job is given careful personal supervision although automatic presses could be depended upon for good work. (Southland Photo.)

B&E Shop Adds New Service

One of the newer concerns of Big Spring has added a new service.

It is the B. & E. Machine Shop, already a popular spot for welding and expert blacksmithing.

Now B. & E. has announced that J. G. Hull, a machinist with more than 15 years of experience, has been added to the staff to turn out precision work.

Hull is skilled in intricate work and B. & E. has the machines and tools required for doing work well and quickly.

Already many jobs have been received by the shops for machine work from concerns and individuals who are in need of quick replacement to keep vitally needed machinery going. Every consideration is given by the management for emergency work.

Blacksmithing and welding, the latter by Rex Edwards, manager of the shops, are well established at the shops. Edwards is widely known in this area as a master welder. He is associated in the business with Ross and Zollie Boykin, who purchased the best machine shop in San Angelo recently, to give the business the best in equipment.

COMPLETE SUPPLIES—Hester's is a focal point for shoppers these days, especially since the opening of school is just around the corner. However, the complete selection of office, sporting goods, novelty, gifts and other supplies does not restrict choices to school supplies for almost any need can be met by the assortment kept by M. B. (Boone) Horne, owner of the store. (Southland Photo.)

Draft Woodcutters

MUNICH, Sept. 4 (AP)—The American military government said today that "a certain percentage of laborers of every industry may be drafted to go into the woods" because too few Bavarians were cooperating in the wood cutting program to solve the winter fuel problem.

Extra food and clothing rations have failed to bring out sufficient wood cutters, American officers said. Equipment, including power saws, has been supplied by U. S. Third army engineers.

REPATRIATION

CAIRO, Sept. 4 (AP)—Three hundred and 58 Greek refugees were homeward bound from Ethiopia today under a repatriation program launched by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

Mattresses should be turned from top to bottom one week and from side to side the next to prevent them from sagging.

THOMPSON IS NEW MANAGER AT WEST TEXAS STATIONERS

Jack Thompson has taken over management of West Texas Stationers, 111 Main, as of August 1st and asks that all patrons continue to let the company do their printing.

He came here from Hobbs, N. M., where he was manager of a shop there. Thompson has been in the printing business for 23 years.

All types of printing service from a small calling card to a manifold are offered to persons in and around this community. Boone Horne and T. B. Atkins are the co-owners.

Thompson is ready to assist in helping persons choose neat attractive letterheads for any personal needs. The Stationers do a large amount of printing for birth announcements and sign printing is a specialty of theirs. They ask you to consider them when you need fine quality and quantity printing.

Thompson says at the present there is no shortage of employees and the shop supports a staff of four. Service should be speeded up since the staff is complete and three new presses are expected to arrive before the last of this year.

The West Texas Stationers was formerly Rice Printery. The owners wish to extend their thanks to customers who have been thoughtful and considerate during the shortage of equipment and workers. They say it will be a pleasure to do better and quicker work for both new and all customers.

Frankie Parker Does Not Think It's Luck

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4 (AP)—Sgt. Frankie Parker, the first two-time national tennis champion, since Don Budge turned professional, doesn't agree with the fans who consider him lucky to win.

Washington lost ground in its two-month chase of the leaders, by dropping the second of a holiday double to Boston, 8-4, under the spell of Vic Johnson after knocking out Dave (Boo) Ferriss in an 11-5 opening romp.

St. Louis whipped Cleveland twice, 6-3 and 5-4 in 10 frames to further complicate the Tribe's difficult uphill struggle. Heading east for 19 games they trail by seven. Bob Muncie, leading pitcher, earned his 11th in the first and rookie Al Lamacchia of Toledo took the nightcap on relief. The Browns are only 3 1-2 lengths back of Detroit.

Texas League Formally Reactivated For 1946

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Sept. 4 (AP)—The Texas league, declared by officials to be in its soundest condition in a decade, has been formally reactivated and will return to base in 1946 after three years of suspension.

A unanimous vote last week had put the league back into action but it wasn't until yesterday that Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, officially approved the application to return to active status.

The Toledo shotmaker, winner of 16 of 21 major events in 1945, finished wobbly to record a 268 that gave him a tie with Big Johnny Bulla of Atlanta for second money.

A Sure Sign Of 1946

With The News

by Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign News Analyst

There are some signs—which one notes with extreme caution—of progress in the Chungking peace-parley between the Chinese communists and the nationalist government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

A communist spokesman in Chungking said yesterday that the talks were still in a "preliminary stage" and that no agreement had yet been reached. However, any progress—no matter how small—is encouraging when we are dealing with the bloody quarrel which long has threatened to plunge China's millions into civil war.

The generalissimo, yielding somewhat to his opponents, has issued a striking V-J day message to the nation, declaring that now the Japanese war is over "we shall permit no further delay in the inauguration of constitutional democracy." He therefore proposes to summon the national assembly to get the reforms under way.

Chiang promises equal legal status to all political parties and says the government is prepared to consider an increase in the number of delegates to the assembly, thus apparently permitting inclusion of communist delegates for the first time.

To get the full significance of what is going on in this fateful Chungking conference, we should note that Chiang's one party government is a totalitarian dictatorship.

So it's of vast importance not only to Asia but to the world at large when Chiang says that the fundamental policy of the Chinese revolution (the 1911 revolt under Dr. Sun Yat Sen) and the war against Japan was not only to defeat the enemy but to establish a new China based on three principles—democracy, nationalism and livelihood. He adds:

We should recognize that this huge country is in the transitional period between the three centuries of corrupt Manchu rule and the democracy which was the goal of Sun Yat Sen's revolution. In the melting-pot still are war-lords who are relics of the Manchu regime besides the Kuomintang and communist political factions. It's one of history's great political problems, and therefore shouldn't be judged hastily.

However, it will be a disappointment if now,

Swelling buds, verdant tendrils, mild breezes and sunshine are sure signs of spring, and now that Boyce House has, in an open letter, called upon Governor Stevenson to convene a special session of the legislature to boost old age pensions, the sure signs that 1946 is a political year begin to manifest themselves.

House, who made a good race for a then unknown in politics for lieutenant governor a few seasons back, points out that in view of the passage of the amendment that the legislature should be convened to enact into law the new constitutional provision. "It is the constitution now; let's live up to it," he said in a thinly-veiled allusion to the governor's professed love for the constitution.

Frankly, we don't expect the governor to pay much attention to the request. We don't think House expects him to. Rather, it seems to us he is speaking to 1946. We'll hear more of this projected talk now that the signs are in the air.

The Time Is Coming

A lot of projects have been mapped up as "post-war" undertakings and to be utilized more specifically as employment slack absorbers.

This accounts for the fact that many of these will not become realities for quite some time, and why others will be necessarily slow. For quite a long time now we have always said when materials become available we will do this. Now we are being placed in a rather peculiar situation. Materials are becoming available for many projects, such as highways and streets. So now we have to recognize that there is a shortage of manpower that controls the matter. Now we say that until we get the workers we cannot effect certain programs.

All of this is well taken. To plunge into the labor market with public works projects at this time might result in certain displacements and would make for higher costs than are necessary. However, we need to recognize the danger in using these difficulties as excuses rather than reasons. There will come a day when the time is ripe for action, and to wait longer will merely be stalling. We need to be wise enough to tell that time.

With the Jap war out of the way, the Chungking government and the communists can't resolve their differences and get a stable government which will permit a terribly disorganized China to get on its feet.

With The AEF: Marines—Cockiest Of All Uncle Sam's Fighters

By HAL BOYLE

WITH U. S. MARINES ON JAPAN (AP)—The marines are one group of service men that will never need lessons in self confidence.

Coming to the Pacific from the European theater, I wondered how these jungle fighters and island hoppers would compare with the fighting men I had seen take the measure of the axis in Africa, Sicily, Italy, France and Germany.

They differ in several ways from the doughboys of Africa and Europe. They are harder to get acquainted with and they complain more and brag more.

One thing is certain—the marines are the cockiest of all the fighter's under Uncle Sam's flag.

Marines talk scrappy all the time. They think that the army thinks they say so at every opportunity. They dislike the sailors of the navy, too. About the only kind words I have heard them use in describing another outfit was reserved for the Seals.

Mentally, they are in this respect counterparts of the paratroopers and rangers who fought with such distinction in Africa and Europe. All such specially selected units are characterized by aggressive, superb self confidence.

And they grow up fast in the marines. The leader of the leather-necks aboard the transport on which I came to Japan was 24-year-old freckled face Maj. E. F. Carney of Churchland, Va.

"A lot of the men," he said, "even fought their way out of hospitals to get back with us for this trip."

Marines are all interested in hearing about European fighting and they admit they are impressed by heavy army casualties in Africa and Europe and such information that the first infantry division was only one of several divisions that spent more than 400 days in battle.

"I guess," said one respectfully, "they had it pretty rugged over there."

"Big, red-haired Lt. Bruce 'Pinky' Warren, former Purdue tackle who was wounded in the thigh on Sugar Loaf Hill in Okinawa, wished he had got in a few cracks at the Germans."

"I know what it was like here," he said, "I sure would have liked to have seen what it was like over there."

Hollywood— Breakfast In Hollywood -- At Noon

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — So you think "Breakfast in Hollywood" with Tom Breneman is a bowl, eh? Well, lunch in Hollywood with the same guy can be pretty amusing too.

I met this Breneman person on the set of "Breakfast in Hollywood," an epic which is being built around his radio program. I also met Robert S. Golden, producer, Harold Schuster, director, Edward A. Golden, angel, and others of the brain trust on the picture.

Breneman shouted the customary admonition "Keep the budget down" and we departed for lunch. We went to the eating place owned by Preston Sturges, rather than Breneman's own restaurant. "The prices are too high," he explained.

"Is this your first adventure in movies?" I asked.

"Yes," he said. But later he recalled that he had once before ventured before a camera.

"I came out here 18 years ago to visit a relative," he recounted, "I had been given the names of a couple of people in pictures, and naturally I wanted to see the movies. One of them told me the best way to see the studios was to get a job. So I went up to Central Casting, and they immediately gave me a call to work on "Ben Hur."

"There were 4,000 extras working that day and I was just one of the mob! But an assistant director happened to spot me—I was a good-looking man of 25 in those days—and offered me a bit part for $25 a day. I did the part that day. But the next day I sent a friend. Why should I work? I had just finished 105-weeks of vaudeville at $400 a week and my mother had a million dollars. Besides, those sandals I had to wear in the picture were killing my feet."

"So the great Breneman scene in "Ben Hur" was reshot at a cost of unpeeped thousand dollars the next day. Independent Tom then went into radio, which fascinated him. Many years later, he clicked with his "Breakfast in Hollywood," in which he milks laughs by wearing women's hats, exchanging banter with monogamians and dishes out his own charming brand of corn.

"Isn't it more satisfactory to be a radio celebrity than a movie celebrity?" I suggested.

"Being neither, I wouldn't know," he asserted modestly. "But we have played before 600,000 people and you'd be surprised how many people recognize me. Sometimes if I listen hard enough, I can hear them say, 'There goes Tom Breneman.' Of course that never happens when I am in my best department. But when I am feeling gay—they all know who I am."

INDO CHINA GUERRILLAS

PARIS, Sept. 4 (AP)—Dispatches published here said today that French and Indo China guerrillas on Aug. 20 had entered Louangprabang, capital of the native kingdom of Laos, whose royal house recently sent a message of loyalty to France. There has been no indication of hostilities in Indo China since V-J day.

Washington— Are Veterans Banking On Trouble?

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Banking, government and reputable loan company officials are waking up to the fact that there's a "sleeper" in the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1945.

It's in those sections of the bill, rushed through the House in closing days before recess, which would liberalize the loan provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The new measure, it is believed, would leave the door wide open to abuses which would take the veteran, the government and the taxpayer for an expensive joy-ride.

It was originally designed to cut red tape in the government's 50 per cent ($2,000 maximum) guarantee of loans to veterans—an objective which several groups, including the Veterans Administration and the American Bankers association, admit is a worthy one.

ABA is back of another bill with the same objective, which has been introduced, but not acted upon. VA has taken no official stand, but is expected to when the present House bill reaches hearings before the Senate Finance Committee early in October.

Specifically, the bill would permit banks, buildings and loan associations, other established lending agencies and even individuals to make 50-per cent government loans to veterans with out any federal check whatever on whether the investment is a sound one.

After listing established lending agencies groups, the act adds "any other lending institution or any person approved by the Administrator," but it doesn't define what shall constitute "approval."

The act provides for loans to be made for purchase, construction or repair of homes, purchase or improvement of farms and farm equipment, or purchase or improvement of business property.

The "sleeper" lies in the fact that the value of the property, the qualifications of the borrower, the soundness of investment or expansion are determined entirely "by the lender's appraisal." Thus the veteran is laid wide open to unscrupulous lenders who could lead him into unsound ventures. Under the existing G. I. Bill of Rights, the Veterans Administration itself is responsible for

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Hoffman Doesn't Like Mr. Pearson

(Note: Before leaving on his vacation, Drew Pearson wrote to several congressmen he had criticized, and offered them the courtesy of using his column to even up the score. He gave them the privilege of saying anything they pleased about him or on any other subject, provided it was about 1,000 words in length. Congressman Clare Hoffman of Michigan, accepting this invitation, has contributed the following guest column.)

By CLARE E. HOFFMAN
Republican Representative from Michigan.

ALLEGAN, Mich.—An editorial in the Saturday Evening Post of August 11 justly complains of the "reckless irresponsibility" of certain radio commentators; then refers to one it charges with having made a misstatement with reference to the Post.

Hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of patriotic Americans, who have no knowledge of the merits of the Post's controversy with the named radio commentator, who, in the opinion of many of us, expresses sound American views and is usually accurate in his news broadcasts, agree that radio commentators and columnists have exercised an influence (which they are rapidly losing) out of all proportion to the degree of authority they should assume.

A few columnists, several broadcasters who also write columns—and Mr. Pearson happens to be one of them—deceive the people, not only by pretending to give advance exclusive information news which has already appeared, or shortly will appear, in dispatches of the AP, UP, INS or some local publication, but also by deliberately and ignorantly misstating the facts—and are at times downright vicious in their unfair comment on the actions of public officials.

Depraved Columnists. Some people realize that this conduct may on occasion be due to personal animosity, a depraved nature, but more often the result of an overpowering greed, an unscrupulous desire and search for the almighty dollar, as well as for the publicity which may be turned into money.

Although assuming it, neither columnists nor news commentators have any authority from the people to speak as their representatives. Yet some, without any experience or background justifying their conduct, with an air of "I'm telling you," from day to day lay down a course of conduct for the people's chosen representatives, or unfairly and without suggesting a sound, feasible alternative, criticize their acts.

Seldom, if ever, do some of these appraisals. In view of the fact that farm and real estate prices are so high and that construction and repair materials and farm and business equipment have been virtually unobtainable, VA officials consider this a pretty heavy indication that veterans intend to avail themselves of their loan privileges.

VA, of course, would like to be relieved of the tremendous burden and responsibility of appraising properties, improving premises and the veterans themselves. Qualified and responsible lending agencies would be happier if they had more freedom in making the loans.

Many officials, however, are already expressing doubt that blowing the lid off loan restrictions is the way out. Those I have talked to in the VA, the treasury department, banking circles and on Capitol Hill are agreed that loan benefits should be extended to veterans, but without any invitation to the unscrupulous and with some protection to the taxpayers, a fair share of whom, after all, will be the veterans themselves and their families.

Work on paper as much as possible to save work time. Papers, pods and other refuse can be quickly disposed of.

The Nation Today—
New Army Discharge System For Enlisted Men Gives More Points

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Here is an illustration of how the army's new discharge system will work.

The army announced Sept. 2 it was lowering—from 85 to 80—the number of points necessary for an enlisted man's discharge.

Before going into the new system, here's how the points are counted:

- 1—One point for each month of service since Sept. 16, 1940, when the draft started.
- 2—An additional point for each month of service outside the United States.
- 3—12 points for each dependent child, up to a total of 3 children and 36 points.
- 4—Five points for each campaign served.
- 5—Five points for various awards, ranging from the Purple Heart for wounds to medals for valor.

They get point credits for service between Sept. 16, 1940, and Sept. 2, 1945.

Here's an example of how this would work out:

John Jones on May 12 had 72 points. Since that time he has been serving in Hawaii which is outside the continental limits of the United States.

From May 12 to Aug. 12 is three months. If a man has served within 15 days of another full month, he gets credit for a full month.

So Jones then will have 4 points for those four months service since May 12, plus another 4 points since those 4 months after May 12 were spent outside the United States.

That would give Jones 80 points, enough for a discharge. It would be the 80 new points added to his 72.

Only remember: the 80 points for discharge applies only to enlisted men. A similar system is being worked out for officers, but the total number of points they will need for discharge has not yet been made public. It may be announced this week.

Under the new system, too, any enlisted man who is 35 can be discharged upon request—no matter how far he falls short of having 80—if he has served at least two years in this country or abroad.

Three Appointed To Aviation Council

AUSTIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—Henry Ayres, Paris merchant, will serve a six-year term on the newly created state aviation commission. Gov. Coke R. Stevenson announced today.

Terms of Ayres and the two other members of the commission were determined by lot, the governor said. Al Buchanan, San Antonio oil man, drew a four year term and Parker F. Prouty, Lubbock newspaper manager, drew a two year term.

The commission will elect a chairman from its own membership at its first organization meeting, as yet unscheduled. The commission also will appoint an executive director and an engineer.

Appointment of commission members is subject to senate confirmation at the next session of the legislature, general or special.

The commission's chief function is to promote airport and aviation facilities in general. It has no regulatory powers. It will act as a state agency for receiving and disbursing federal and other funds becoming available for acquisition, development and maintenance of airports and other air facilities.
