By LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, July 6 (AP)—A Japanese hospital ship evacuated 974 wounded and sick Japanese soldiers and sailors from Wake island with the permission of the United States navy, Pacific fleet headquarters announced today.

The incident was unprecedented in the Pacific war. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported that the enemy ship was stopped and searched Tuesday by an American destroyer as it approached and gain as it left Wake Island, where U. S. marines held out gallantly early in the war until overrun by overwhelming numbers of Japanese assault troops.

American boarding parties found that the bulk of the 974 taken off Wake were suffering from malnutrition, testifying to the effectiveness of the long American air and sea blockade of the island 1,985 miles southeast of Tokyo. Nipponese medical officers estimated 15 per cent of these wouldn't survive the voyage to Tokyo. Fifteen per cent of the rescued enemy garrison taken off were suffering from tuberculosis. Fourteen were wounded.

The evacuation presumably removed most of the Japanese garrison and was a virtual admission that American forces could take Wake any time they wish.

New Shift Adds To Power Blows

MANILA, July 6 (AP)—U. S. Fifth Air Force planes newly moved from the Philippines to Okinawa are striking Japan, it was disclosed today, adding their weight to the army Superfortresses, medium bombers, fighterbombers and marine and navy aircraft already hitting the enemy home islands.

As Gen. Douglas MacArthur and his air chief, Gen. George C. Kenney, announced this new power shift in the air war against the Japanese, dispatches from Guam and Iwo Jima recorded a series of blows by assorted army, navy and marine planes against the main islands of Honshu and Kyushu, the Ryukyus and vital rail transport in Korea. Forty-eight Mustangs of the 35th Fighter group hit six places on Kyushu on Tuesday, within 36 hours of arriving at their new Fifth Air Force bases on Okinawa.

Slam-bang entry of the Fifth Air Force found these air units already engaged in the same campaign: 20th Air force, Superfortresses, based in the Marianas; the tactical air force based on Okinawa; fleet air wings one and 13, based in the Okinawa area; and army Seventh Fighter Command Mustangs based on Iwo Jima.

To this lineup soon is to be added the army eighth air force of European fame. Without waiting for additions, or for completion of the planned 25 miles of runways on Okinawa, the air forces already within reach of Japan were pounding away steadily in a war of attrition.

The Fifth air force fighters hit the Kyushu cities of Tojima, Byu, Izumi, Chiran and Omura, and sank three enemy float planes in the northern Ryukyu harbor of Fukuoka. Those were the only enemy planes they sighted in a two-hour sweep over Japan, although anti-aircraft fire was moderate to heavy.

Thursday nearly 100 Mustangs of the Seventh fighter command from Iwo Jima raided airfields in the Tokyo area for the second consecutive day without air opposition and strafed docks and warehouses in Tokyo Bay.

They destroyed five Japanese planes on the ground and damaged 10 at Shimoda and Yatabe airfields northeast of Tokyo, and also sank one small boat, damaged 13 and shot up hangars and shops.

Navy sea planes and marine fighters and torpedo-carriers sank six small Japanese vessels near southern Korea and in the East China Sea Wednesday and Thursday, and the marines also raided Okinawa and Kikai Islands north of Okinawa.

New Pole Chiefs Start Action To Take Over Assets

Questions Still To Be Settled Include Army, Gold, War Status

By DON DOANE

LONDON, July 6 (AP)—The newly-formed Polish provisional Government of National Unity, recognized by the United States and Great Britain, started action today to take over assets of the repudiated exiled administration of Prime Minister Tomaz Arciszewski.

Polpress, news agency for the Warsaw administration, announced the appointment of a three-member Polish commission "authorized to take over and secure all property of the Polish state in Great Britain."

A number of questions remained to be settled. Among these were:

1. Disposition of the armed forces.
2. Control of the bank of Poland's gold reserve.
3. Determination of whether the new Polish government is at war with Japan.

4. The question of whether 26 Polish newspapers printed in London will be allowed to continue.

What to do with the Exile government's army of 250,000 was about the only remnant of the "Polish problem" left to "plague the Allies."

The British foreign office announced creation of an "interim treasury committee for Polish questions" to supervise the task of liquidation. Polish forces which have been serving with the Allies, receiving supplies from the British government and pay from military credits provided the London Polish government, will have arrangements for supplies and pay "safeguarded pending further decisions," the announcement added.

With establishment of the international status of the Warsaw regime, clearing the way for admission to the United Nations Security League, the London government headed by premier Tomaz Arciszewski legally passed out of existence.

Churchill Said To Be Re-elected

LONDON, July 6 (AP)—The conservative press maintained today that yesterday's general elections had "almost certainly" resulted in a victory for Prime Minister Churchill's government but labor party organs held the conservatives had lost their absolute majority in parliament.

Results will not be known until July 26, after the absentee soldier vote is counted.

Observers agreed there was a near record turnout estimated at almost 24,000,000 voters—80 per cent of the eligible electorate of 30,000,000—lured by good weather and a hectic campaign battle between the conservative program of free enterprise and the labor platform of partial nationalization of industry.

The Daily Herald, labor newspaper, claimed "the least optimistic forecast" gave labor 266 seats in the new house of commons as against the 163 members it had in the dissolved parliament.

The conservative Daily Express gave "most cautious" estimates gave a majority of 40 to 60 seats "for the government."

Churchill spent election day touring his constituency by car, shouting "have you all voted?"

The Express predicted Churchill would win by 20 to one over his independent opponent and called Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden a "certainty." It conceded the likely reelection of labor leader Clement Attlee and possibly of his lieutenant Ernest Bevin and Herbert Morrison, all members of the former coalition cabinet.

The parliament army officer, said his father, George R. Stevens, Jr., arrived last night and called him from a Virginia army post.

The elder Stevens, former first selectman and police commissioner of New Canaan where Albert Kovics, 19-year-old submarine veteran of the Pacific, was shot to death June 23, said he did not know specifically from what Virginia post his son called.

The 24-year-old Mrs. Stevens, held in the county jail at Bridgeport in lieu of $50,000 bond since the shooting, asked her husband to "come home at once" in a cablegram last week.

County commissioners court, sitting as a board of equalization, concluded the task of checking renditions on the 1945 roll Friday and recessed until July 18.

At that time, the court convenes again as a board to interview taxpayers concerning valuations on property.

Morganthau Gives Up Cabinet Post

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—Henry Morganthau, Jr., will step down as secretary of the treasury when President Truman returns from the Big Three meeting in Berlin.

At that time, several weeks hence, Mr. Truman will name a successor to the Dutchess county, N. Y., apple grower who has held the office 11 1/2 years.

The chief executive told reporters yesterday he has a man in mind for his sixth cabinet appointment, but he wouldn't say who he is. War Mobilizer Fred Vinson topped a long list of names heard in speculation today.

Mr. Truman announced acceptance of Morganthau's long-rumored resignation at another headline-catching news conference at which he also disclosed that Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts will retire July 31.

He does not expect to accept the resignation of Secretary of the Interior Ickes who, in fact, is going to Ireland soon to renegotiate an oil treaty with the British.

He gave Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York permission to visit France on a personal mission, not as an agent of the government.

He appointed Edward C. Moran, Jr., of Maine as assistant secretary of labor, and elevated Jesse M. Donaldson to first assistant postmaster general.

The Big Three meeting will take place in about three weeks.

Return now until Mr. Truman's return, Morganthau will hover in a strange position, barring quick passage of house-approved legislation changing the order of presidential succession. For, although his resignation has been accepted, the treasury chief continues first in line for the presidency first in line for the presidency.

James F. Byrnes. Rumors have come up with amazing persistence for months—even years—that Morganthau would leave the cabinet. Yesterday he went to see Mr. Truman. Then he wrote out his resignation, mentioning his association with the late President Roosevelt, his desire to go back to Dutchess county where they were neighbors, and his wish to leave Mr. Truman's hands "untied."

Newcomb Nearly Destroyed By Seven Enemy Kamikaze Pilots Near Japan WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—Attacked by seven Japanese suicide pilots, the destroyer Newcomb bagged three but was turned into a scene of wreckage by the others.

The Newcomb suffered 91 casualties while another warship, the destroyer Luetze, counted 84 as the last Japanese fanatic skidded across the Newcomb and into the stern of the Luetze which had pulled alongside to give aid. Both survived.

The navy, recounting another tale of American heroism at sea, said the battle lasted two hours late on April 6 when the Newcomb was supporting heavy fleet units near Ie Shima in the Ryukyus off southern Japan. The suicide planes trickled through a screen of intercepting U. S. fighters which had blocked a very large formation of enemy flyers.

Virtually disemboweled, the navy said the Newcomb, "seasoned veteran of Pacific warfare from the Marshalls through Iwo, is afloat today because her heroic crew, many with hair afloat and clothes burned off, refused to give her up even when all power and communication was lost and more than half of the ship was enveloped in flames."

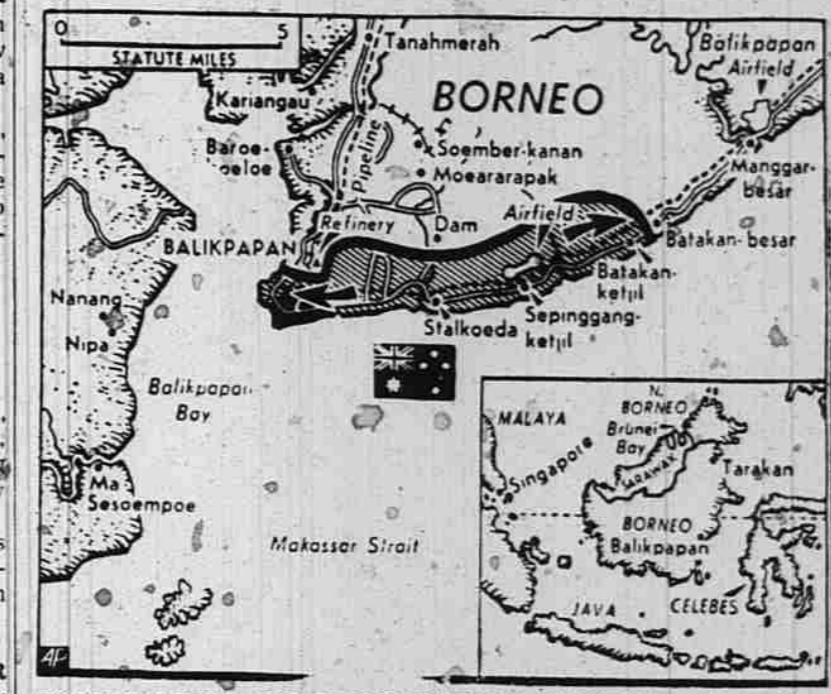

The first kamikaze pilot was cut down 20 feet from the Newcomb. At once, a second tried his luck but was hit and, as the commanding officer, Comdr. Ira E. McMillan, Fort Worth, Tex., turned the destroyer sharply, the Japanese plopped harmlessly into its wake.

The third Japanese struck amidships, although hit. The plane sprayed gasoline, steam shot from a boiler and the amidship section became an inferno.

The fourth Japanese was cut down far off by the Newcomb gunners many of whom had been thrown bodily from their stations by the hit. Then two more planes took up the attack at the same moment. One slammed into the Newcomb amidships with a terrific blast.

All power was lost, the engine rooms were wrecked, ammunition

War Committee Demands Return Of Lend-Lease

By NORMAN WALKER WASHINGTON, July 6 (AP)—The senate war investigating committee today demanded prompt recovery of lend-lease arms from European allies for use in the Pacific war.

A report based on an overseas investigation by a subcommittee headed by Senator Kilgore (D-W. Va.) said "nothing has been done" along this line nor toward concentrating captured German arms against the Japanese.

"The committee believes that all the sources of supply for the Pacific war should be exploited to the maximum," the report stated, "and that existing stocks of armaments and supplies should be drawn upon first where possible, and certainly they should include captured enemy materiel."

Also, the committee said, there always is the possibility that allies under lend-lease to fight Germany might use them later in fighting among themselves.

The committee sharply criticized "a tendency of many to treat lend-lease accounting as a matter of little consequence on the theory that lend-lease accounts would never be settled."

It said the state department had "anything but a championing of United States interests" in mind in instructing Great Britain "not to give itemized invoices of reverse lend-lease charges."

As a result, it said, Britain has refused to itemize supplies it furnishes to American troops, except by quarterly lump totals.

They destroyed five Japanese planes on the ground and damaged 10 at Shimoda and Yatabe airfields northeast of Tokyo, and also sank one small boat, damaged 13 and shot up hangars and shops.

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

No other institution on earth could logically come under the title of this weekly advertisement but the church. The church was here yesterday, is here today and will be here tomorrow ministering to the social, moral and spiritual needs of humanity. Other institutions and organizations come and go but the church remains. It has been more severely criticized and more bitterly opposed than any other institution in the history of the world, and yet it stands today the only abiding force offering the same service to a bewildered and suffering world it has always given.

The intellectual and moral light of the critics and opposers of the church have gone out one by one like the flickering flame of a tallow candle in a wind storm, while the light of the church emerges through the broken clouds of war and other evils, to shine with the brilliance of the noonday sun.

When a nation or an individual turns from the church in neglect, or against the church in opposition, invariably that nation or that individual goes upon the rocks. You can do nothing AGAINST the church but you can do something FOR the church and in so doing you do yourself the greatest favor imaginable. You can help the church but you cannot permanently hinder the church. When Jesus, the head of the church said, "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." He could have used no more positive nor understandable language. To properly relate oneself to the church is like the mariner who takes advantage of the favorable currents and winds that he may reach his desired port. "IF YOU ARE TOO BUSY TO GO TO CHURCH, YOU ARE TOO BUSY."

A Toast TO AMERICA!

These gentlemen of Japan are drinking to us. They are raising their cups in the hope that Americans will get "tired" carrying on a bitter war thousands of miles from home. The Japanese high command is counting on us to help her hold her stolen empire.

The only way we will upset this Jap strategy is to become acutely aware of certain jolting facts:

Do you know that Japan, the "master-race" of 70,000,000, now controls nearly a half-billion people—nearly a quarter of the world's population?

Do you know that Japan right now has sufficient materials and food to carry on for many years at the present rate of attrition?

Do you know that the Japs are making planes as fast as we can knock them down? One of our returned Navy fliers just recently said he chased a "Judy" (they're not fighting the old type Zeros any more!) for forty miles... and the Jap simply pulled away from one of our fastest planes!

Do you realize that it's 14,000 miles from France to Tokyo... that we can't wait for the leftover arms from Europe to beat Japan... that the Jap Military is counting on this very barrier of distance to cool our ardor for war?

Do you realize that we have never taken one of her stolen islands without having to account for every last man on it—that our first two years of fighting yielded tens of thousands dead Japs but only a few thousand prisoners?

These are cold facts. Let's look at them coldly, honestly.

If we haven't enough ships, we must build them. But a citizenry complacent in the idea that one of the world's strongest empires is a pushover doesn't build them fast enough.

If we haven't enough guns, planes and tanks, we must make them. But that means staying on our war jobs until our war jobs are finished.

The question is not "Can we beat Japan?" It's "When?" "How?" And at what cost in lives?

The answer is up to every last one of us.

It will end as soon as 130,000,000 Americans and their allies, fighting and working together, make it end.

Plenty Of Money On Hand

If anyone has had a moment's concern about the financial status of Howard county residents, their questions should be answered by the statement of condition of local banks as of June 30.

These showed deposits to be well past $15,000,000, some $670,000 more than the previous record in March and over three and a half millions more than the same time a year ago.

And this is in the face of the fact that purchases of E bonds during the Seventh War Loan here probably will exceed $700,000 by the time all reports are in. Moreover, the mid-year report usually catches bank figures at their lowest ebb for it is a season when normally the individual and particularly the farmer has drained his cash resources in preparation for a crop.

Outside of seeing that the problem is not money to spend, but of keeping from spending too much money, we don't know what to make of it. It is interesting to note that our bank deposits today are almost as much as our declared real and personal property tax valuations. And we don't know what to make of that.

Doing A Good Job

A word of praise for the extra service this area is receiving from the Big Spring postoffice, we think, is timely.

The postoffice, like all other institutions, and concerns, has experienced personnel turn-over due to war conditions. Yet, take it all in all, we believe the Big Spring postoffice today is giving some of the best service in its entire history.

It has been our experience that any reasonable request is treated with utmost earnestness and in many instances the personnel, from the postmaster down, has gone out of its way to give attention to these requests. Some requests are in conflict with regulations and therefore cannot be served.

There are many extra services to this community and those in surrounding areas which we have taken for granted which ordinarily are not performed. Here airplane is placed frequently on emergency plane stops, giving Big Spring one of the best airmail outlets of any community in the nation. All in all, it seems to us that the postoffice is due a pat on the back, for in addition to bucking turn-over, it also has to contend with a short-tempered public and irregular train schedules.

Faye Finds Movie Making Just Play Too Many Have Not Bought Car Stamps

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—As usual, Alice Faye was not in her dressing room, but out on the set.

"Some people just come to work in the morning and stay in their dressing room except when they are in front of the camera," she said.

"But not me. I like to be out with the people. After all, if you're not going to have fun while you're working, why work?"

A good question. And Alice is a gal who sticks to her theory. During her two-year absence from the studio she turned down unpteen movie scripts. Her idea of fun is to play in a picture with a good story.

That's why she's so happy about "Fallen Angel." "It is such a wonderful story," she said. "It's something I can really get my teeth into. And Otto Preminger is a wonderful director." Those who have seen his "Laura" will doubtless agree.

"After two years it wasn't easy to get back to work again," she continued. "At first I couldn't get out of my own way. But Otto and Dana Andrews are so much fun that I was soon at ease."

Alice's return to 20th Century-Fox is a signal for an outbreak of practical jokes. For instance, one day Preminger was pleading, "Make this a good scene, for my birthday." When he returned to the set in the afternoon he could find no one.

Finally he opened the door of the Faye dressing room, in which all of the set workers were packed. They started singing "Happy Birthday to You," and presented him with a fancy cake. The director, whose birthday is in December, was greatly embarrassed.

"Making movies is just play," Alice told me. "I'm finished with the picture next Monday and then I have to go back to work. Taking care of a house and two children is the real job."

What about the future? "I'll wait for another good story. I wouldn't mind doing a musical—provided it has a good story."

"Do you think you'll wait another two years?" "Honey, I hope not. After all you can stay away just so long in this business and get away with it. I'd like to accomplish something so my kids will know about it."

"I think I'd like to do about two pictures a year. That should be about right to give the proper balance between the job and the family. After all, it's important to keep everything in the proper proportion."

And Alice is pretty good at keeping things in the proper proportion.

The War Today

Russia's request for participation with Britain, France and America in the proposed conference regarding Tangier's international status is one of the important (and highly significant) developments of the day.

In thus reaching the length of the Mediterranean to its western gateway, Moscow has staked its claim of influence right in the heart of preserves long dominated by Britain, France, Spain and Italy.

Tangier is a chronic boil on one of the world's tender spots. It's the southern gate-post of the Strait of Gibraltar, which obviously places it among the globe's most highly strategic positions. This "neutral" zone occupies about 225 square miles on the northwestern bulge of Africa.

Because of its dominating position, this zone was detached from Morocco in 1906 and placed under international guardianship.

Came the fateful month of June, 1940, when France was tottering and Britain was fighting with back to wall—and at this critical juncture Spain's Generalissimo Franco was moved to occupy Tangier "to guarantee its neutrality."

International law was displaced by Spanish law. Franco fortified the port of Tangier, despite Allied protests. Throughout the rest of the war there were charges by the Allies that axis ships were being serviced at Tangier; that axis submarines were operating out of there; and that German and Italian agents swarmed the zone like ants.

Russia's desire to participate in the proposed conference may be disconcerting to the western European powers, but it can hardly be surprising. She is pressing Turkey for new arrangements which would give the Soviet free access to the Mediterranean through the Dardanelles. The Muscovites certainly intend to operate in that strategic sea, and so it isn't strange to find them interested in its western outlet.

Bridge

With The AEF: Red Army Singing On

By A. I. GOLDBERG
(Subbing For Hal Boyle)

VIENNA (AP)—Here are some impressions of central Europe after a ten-day trip over an area of 15,000 square miles:

The only thing that approaches the Russian army singing on the march is a Scottish bagpipe band. But the rolling bass voices marking step for the Russian soldiers marching through a Bohemian village is a stirring experience. Women soldiers march and sing with their men.

The Nazi swastika still is worn by the Germans—but it's a badge of disgrace now. German enemies and collaborators arrested by the occupation troops in northern Czechoslovakia have been formed into labor battalions to help mend the roads and repair buildings. To distinguish them, each wears a swastika band.

The Russians in Bratislava have a loudspeaker system hitched up throughout the city, and news and music from the Bratislava and Moscow radios blare out at intervals, day and night. Then you walk around the corner in a twisty 14th century street and hear Bing Crosby's throaty singing clear as a bell.

Budapest girls are chic, trim, smart and beautiful. They wear wedgies. But don't get ideas—the clothes they are wearing may be the only garments they have in the world. Most of their clothes were lost in the siege when Budapest took to the cellars.

In a shop window, a pair of used men's oxfords are priced at $15 at current exchange rates. Children's used shoes cost $6. But Budapest shops display candy and cakes which are difficult to find in many parts of Europe.

Every Russian army vehicle files a red flag and no matter how decrepit or shabby the vehicle may be, the bumping is always fresh and gay.

Where American vehicle drivers have pinup girls, the Russian drivers pin up pictures of Stalin, Lenin or Molotov in the cabs of trucks or on posters stuck to the car sides.

Thomas Dewey In The Crystal Ball

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—A few political observers are pondering what may well become a phenomenon without precedent in national politics.

If Gov. Thomas E. Dewey is reelected governor of New York by a decent majority in 1946 then two years before convention time there should be little doubt as to who the 1948 nominee for the presidency will be.

All President Truman has to do to clinch the 1948 Democratic nomination is give the party a reasonably good administration.

It may be too early to judge, but the way he has taken hold in one of the most critical periods in history—and most important of all the way he has given some semblance of unity to the Democratic party—is certainly an indication that he is just the kind of leader the Democrats felt they so sorely needed.

According to observers here, the New York situation isn't that clear. If Governor Dewey has to cross swords in 1946 with Sen. James M. Mead, who is believed to be eager for the governorship, he might very well get beaten.

Some of Dewey's friends here concede that. But those same friends think the New York governor has a big ace in the hole. If Sen. Mead elects to run for governor, Dewey can switch to the Republican race for senator.

With Mead out of it, the Democrats would be hard put to find a strong senatorial candidate. At least one strong enough to defeat Dewey. The New York observers say flatly there's none such in sight.

There is, of course, the unbroken tradition that the G.O.P. never renominates a defeated presidential candidate, but it is hardly likely it would stand on precedent if it could see its way clear to pitting a winner in New York state with its huge electoral vote, as well as an easterner with a midwest background, against a man for whom the heavily populated east would feel no sectional loyalty.

The whole situation arises, of course, out of the death of President Roosevelt. Democratic politicians here are positive that if he had lived the 1948 convention would have been a dog-fight, with the party split into practically all of those cliques and factions of which it is composed.

Any effort on the President's part to name his successor would have been fought fist and foot. That's all changed now. In the

Washington Merry-Go-Round--

UNRRA Wants Surplus Army Trucks

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—A significant, off-the-record meeting took place between Secretary of War Stimson, one-time republican candidate for governor of New York, and democratic Governor Herbert Lehman, five times governor of New York, now head of UNRRA.

Lehman has been greatly troubled about the danger of acute starvation in Europe next winter, and fears the United States will get the blame. Actually, there is food in Europe; but it is unevenly distributed and difficult to transport to cities. Meanwhile, European railroads are overburdened.

Ex-Governor Lehman, therefore, went to see Stimson to point out that the U. S. army had 800,000 trucks in Europe, and he wanted to borrow 50,000 of them for food distribution.

Stimson listened briefly, but turned the subject to the political situation in Europe. He seemed much more interested in whether Europe could keep the peace, apparently forgetting that people with full stomachs are more peaceful than those half-starved. Lehman got no definite answer, and still has been unable to get an answer, from Stimson's generals. They keep saying they need trucks for "deployment."

Brass Hats In Hot Water
The same subject, plus other important matters, was debated in a secret session of the Mead committee last week.

Present were representatives of UNRRA, the state department, war department, foreign economic administration, treasury and maritime commission. All got in hot water during the three-hour closed-door meeting except the maritime commission and UNRRA.

Unpopular brass hat General Blyden Somervell, who showed up with a small army of 60 aides, took the worst thumping of all.

Somervell admitted under questioning that the army has, at least 50,000 surplus trucks in Europe. New York's hard-working Senator Mead then asked Governor Lehman if he had been able to pick up any of these trucks for relief work.

"Do you want any of these trucks?" asked Mead. "Do we want them?" replied Lehman. "The trouble is we can't get them. We can't seem to get them released. I've got a telegram from Yugoslavia here telling that one hungry Yugoslav city, Sarajevo, has only three trucks to feed thousands of people. Why, some towns are starving, while they're burning the food just a few miles away in the same country because they can't move it. A year from now the army will be begging us to take trucks. Then we won't need them. We want them now when they can save lives."

Several senators quizzed Somervell as to why UNRRA hadn't received the trucks yet. All the general could reply was, "the war department's working on it."

After more discussion, Lehman, whose anger was rising, stood up from the back of the room, looked straight at Somervell, and said: "There's all that surplus army stuff, especially in Italy. Why can't we get it?" Somervell hesitated. "We want to cooperate," he said lamely, "and we're going to."

German Equipment for Chinese? Ohio's Bob Taft then took over the questioning. "General, you're planning to arm thousands of Chinese troops. They've been trained by German officers. Why don't we use captured German equipment to arm them? You must have a lot of it by now."

"I felt the same way about it at first, senator," Somervell replied. "But it would only ball up our transport and create a lot of time-wasting headaches if we tried to send all that German stuff to China. In the long run it will be cheaper and faster to send new supplies from here. Besides, we'd have to retrain those Chinese who've already been taught to use our equipment, and teach them to use German weapons."

Taft then moved in on Admiral Land of the maritime commission, asked him how the Russians were able to transport war material on American Liberty ships flying the Soviet flag without being attacked by Jap subs and aircraft.

"Senator," replied Land, "I'll be damned if I'm going to let the Japs find out the inside story on that one."

Several senators then asked why our G. I. Joes were taking such a beating in France because of the unfavorable exchange rate.

"Since when does the G.I. have to carry the burden of inflation in France?" asked Michigan's shrewd republican Senator Ferguson.

"They don't have to spend their money in France, you know," replied one of Somervell's aides. "They can ship it home."

This burned the senators up. One demanded why the men who fought in Europe shouldn't have a chance to spend their money and enjoy life now that the shooting had stopped. Ferguson asked what the army was doing to improve the situation.

Brig. Gen. Kenneth Royall replied that the army was expanding the post exchanges in France so that men could buy everything, including gifts, at reasonable prices.

Several senators quizzed Dean Acheson and Will Clayton of the state department as to who had fixed the unfavorable rate of exchange with the French. Both replied they didn't know. Actually, President Roosevelt had done it personally during the Casablanca conference.

Senator Tunnell of Delaware then asked Governor Lehman how much farm machinery UNRRA was shipping overseas.

"I don't want to mislead this committee," Lehman replied. "Percentage wise it's practically nothing, perhaps two or three per cent of our total production. However, we asked for 171,000 tons of food to feed Europe's starving people. We're getting less than 80,000. Now some people are complaining because we've given them machinery to grow their own food."

Lehman also pointed out to the senators that UNRRA is now forced to buy considerable machinery in Canada. The Dominion is eager to move in on the post-war European market.

Lehman said, but he also cautioned that Canadian tractors require Canadian repairmen and that the Canadians are delighted with the chance to move in on our export trade.

The committee tried to find out just what the government can expect to get back out of the lend-lease we have shipped to Europe.

Neither Acheson, Clayton, Somervell, nor the FEAC could answer. Admiral Land said the maritime commission would lose nothing, since the U. S. kept title to all ships on lend-lease.

Finally, one senator asked if there wasn't some overall body which knows all about American property abroad and whether it's surplus or not. But no one was able to answer.

Murphy Given Croix De Guerre Decoration

SALZBURG, July 6 (AP)—Lt. Audie Murphy has been awarded the Croix de Guerre with silver star and now appears to have the undisputed title of the most decorated soldier in the United States Army.

The young Texan now tops another U. S. Third infantry division hero, Capt. Maurice Britt, with whom he had been tied.

Each had every United States individual award for bravery, including the Congressional Medal of Honor.

And now Murphy, of Farmersville, Tex., has the Croix de Guerre. Murphy is home on furlough.

A total of 622 sewer connections for sanitary toilets have been made in Big Spring during the four and a half year period since 1940. Of that number 29 per cent of the overall total was made on the north side of town.

Mrs. Sawtelle stated that if the yarn for the fey remaining sweaters is taken, women who handle that part of the work can have a short vacation after six years work.

The Red Cross worker urged that women who have wool out now, complete their sweaters as quickly as possible so that the garments can be put into immediate use.

Four More Suits On File Against Editor By Rotary Members

LAREDO, July 6 (AP)—Four more civil suits were filed yesterday to bring to 20 the number of suits charging libel against William Prescott Allen, publisher of the Laredo Times, in connection with his published statements concerning the Laredo Rotary club.

In addition there are three criminal libel charges against him, one on which he has been convicted but to which now is an appeal in the court of criminal appeals.

The four suits filed yesterday asked damages totaling $40,000 and were brought against Allen and the Times by S. N. Johnson, Jr., president of the Laredo Rotary club, and G. Cullie Mann, immediate past president of the club.

Allen was quoted in a news story in his paper yesterday as saying the spokesman for the Laredo Rotary club had told him, when he "suggested that the whole matter be settled peaceably and amicably" that "they would use the Webb county courts with the prestige of the Rotary club until they had filed so many suits against me that they would break me."

Johnson told the Associated Press by telephone that the Rotary club, as an organization, was not filing suit against Allen. "We are not using the prestige of Rotary, as charged by Allen," he said. "The suits have been filed individually."

Van Acker Confers With Belgian King

BRUSSELS, July 6 (AP)—Former Premier Achille Van Acker flew to St. Wolfgang, Austria, today with a group of government officials for his fourth series of conferences with King Leopold III.

Van Acker resigned recently in protest to Leopold's intention to return to the throne. It was believed that Van Acker had gone to the king's Bavarian villa to renew pressure for the monarch's abdication.

Confusion and contradiction mounted here following an attack by the pro-Leopold newspaper La Libre Belgique on supreme Allied headquarters and the Belgian government, charging Leopold was being held prisoner.

The SHEAF mission in Brussels denied the allegation but acknowledged there may have been an order for Leopold's detention issued by some American subordinate but that this was unauthorized and in error.

This is the Jap we haven't yet tackled

PLANE FACTORIES
MUNITION PLANTS
TANK FACTORIES

He's big—The Jap now controls one of the largest empires in the world. He has 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 war-hardened soldiers—twice as many as the Germans had to defend the Reich in the West. He is entrenched in China, Korea, Manchuria and the homeland—we have yet to meet these major forces.

He's strong—for 20 years the Jap has feverishly worked to make Manchuria an immense war arsenal. Here, out of bombing range, he has huge war plants. He has ample resources—in many cases greater than ours. He can build ships, tanks, guns in great numbers. And thousands of swift planes.

He's hard to hit—Every punch at the Jap has to travel thousands of miles. It takes three times as long to carry men and guns and food to our rear bases in the Pacific as it did to our front lines in Europe. It takes three times as many ships for the same amount of material—and more men in our supply lines.

He's a hustler—The Jap war worker works like a beaver—he is 35,000,000 strong, working 12 to 16 hours a day, 7 days a week, taking only 2 days off per month. He isn't quitting. He isn't willing. He isn't easing up—he's hustling every muscle he's got—building ships, planes, guns to beat us.

Says Lieutenant General Holland M. Smith, U.S. Marine Corps:

"The Japanese fighting man may sometimes fight foolishly but he always fights furiously, savagely, ruthlessly. Any notion that such a people will wilt morally, psychologically or economically is quite certainly wrong. Our battles with the Jap will go into Marine Corps history as the toughest of all our time. Beating him will take the best we've got."
