Typhoon Interferes With Preparations

"Pennsy's" Luck Runs Out In War's Last Days

Sneak Attack By Jap Plane Kills Twenty Men

By ROBERT MYERS
GUAM, Aug. 24 (AP)—The luck of the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, which carried through a 20-year career encompassing two world wars, ran out in the final hours of the present conflict as a Japanese torpedo bomber pressed home a sneak attack, blasting a gaping hole in the ship's side and leaving 20 men killed or missing.

Attlee Concerned Over Lend-Lease

By W. W. HERCHER
LONDON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee told commons today the sudden end of lend-lease put Britain "in a very serious financial position," and former Prime Minister Churchill said he could not believe that "this was the last word of the United States."

Japs Fear Red Landings In Hokkaido

MANILA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Japan complained to General MacArthur today that Russia intended to land airborne troops in the northern-most home island of Hokkaido as a typhoon threatened to disrupt the supreme commander's own scheduled arrival near Tokyo Tuesday.

Agriculturists May Be Faced With Surpluses

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Like industry, agriculture faces a difficult reconversion job. But that job is far different from the one facing industry. The latter must find ways of expanding quickly the output of peace-time goods so greatly in demand.

Community Fights Polio Epidemic

A community aroused to action was set Friday to answer a flurry of poliomyelitis cases with a cleaner city even as the first polio (infantile paralysis) death was reported.

Robert Lee Mize, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Mize, 816 W. 8th, died at a local hospital at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. He had been admitted earlier in the day.

There were seven other local and three out-of-county cases reported in civilian hospitals and one possible case was under observation at the post hospital. Two cases from Odessa were hospitalized here and a lad from Fort Worth, stricken while enroute home, was under treatment for polio.

Officials from the Big Spring-Howard county division of the Midland-Ector-Howard county health unit, city and medical authorities were in conference Thursday evening and Friday concerning steps to reduce possible sources of contagion.

C. S. Blomshield, chairman, convoked the Howard county infantile paralysis council for a special session Thursday to make its assistance available.

Dr. J. E. Olean, director of the tri-county health unit, was here to map plans for a campaign to rid the city of fly-breeding places. Joe Smoot of the department of interior also was assisting.

The city announced that the swimming pool, closed Aug. 20 due to labor shortage, would remain closed as a precautionary measure although there is little to indicate any connection between properly operated matatoriums and polio.

A spot check of the business and residential district Thursday evening revealed the shocking total of 82 per cent of 100 garbage containers were either improperly covered or had no cover.

Since garbage cans were not available, at least in sufficient numbers, city authorities insisted that residents and business operators make sure that some sort of a tightly fitting lid be provided. The city was making downtown routes to spray all garbage cans. Material going into the city dump is, as has been the case, being burned and treated against flies and rats, said City Manager B. J. McDaniel.

Truman Promises Job Guarantees To All Veterans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Veterans needn't worry that a technically may leave them without any legal right to their former jobs.

That's a promise, and it comes from President Truman. The chief executive told a news conference yesterday that he intends to see that veterans who want and are entitled to their old jobs get them back.

Originally a section of the selective service law carried a guarantee that a service man who had a job could go back to it if he applied for it within 90 days. It also carried a provision that if the other parts of the selective service law were dropped, the job guarantees would continue.

The present law has the same guarantee, unchanged. But it does not contain the provision that these job rights go on no matter what happens to the rest of the act.

As it now stands, the announcement of the end of hostilities would end the entire act, including job guarantees.

But Mr. Truman said not to worry, that there isn't likely to be any sudden announcement of the end of hostilities. He added that after the last war it took quite a while to declare the war formally ended.

Polio Control Points Listed

Dr. J. E. Hogan, city health officer, Friday made statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of polio, which is assuming epidemic proportions in Big Spring. His statement:

Until recently it was generally believed that this infection is transmitted mostly by means of discharges from the nose and throat. It is now believed that polio is primarily another intestinal infection contracted by eating contaminated food. The germ is present in the bowel movements of patients and carriers. Flies pick up and carry the germs to exposed food, fruits and vegetables.

Therefore, control measures must emphasize a clean-up campaign and improvements in sanitation. Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate the house-fly and to destroy its breeding places. It is vitally important to maintain SANITARY septic tanks, cess pools and outdoor privies.

In the home all fruits and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from flies, filth and insects. Only approved milk should be used in the home. All eating and food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the state law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. All food in these places must be protected from flies. In the present emergency, those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitary standards.

People who work in food establishments should be particularly careful about personal hygiene and toilet habits. Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is a sick child. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear a physician should be called immediately.

DeGaulle Schedules Progress Report On Talk With Truman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle scheduled a progress report today on results of his first meeting with President Truman.

The president of the provisional French government arranged to meet reporters at an 10 a. m. (CWT) news conference. Bluntly, the president said he had only one thing to say to the writers—that he hoped they would begin to give his country a square deal in the French press.

That was all. There were no questions. However, only a few minutes before the visitors heard Mr. Truman tell his regular news conference that he had a very pleasant visit with De Gaulle.

Soviets Continue Drives In Korea

LONDON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Soviet troops continued their drive in Korea today, following the conquest of Manchuria, and occupied two ports half way down the Korean peninsula, the Soviet communique announced.

The communique said Allied prisoners in a camp at Mukden, where 1,670 men and 25 generals were confined, had been liberated by the Red army. Airborne troops occupied the ports of Shinsho and nearby Hango, 200 miles southwest of the northern Korean port of Rashin, the communique said. The railroad town of Kishsu to the north also was reported taken.

OPA Price Policy Geared For Speed Of Little Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—OPA says its price policy for new peacetime goods is keyed to give small business a running start.

The policy is this: In general hold prices to 1942 levels. But give the little fellow all the "breaks" possible—even if it means slightly higher prices.

The policy is this too: Where manufacturer's costs have increased significantly, give them some increase, but require dealers to absorb the boost so the public will not have to pay more than three years ago.

Ration Stamps

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—These Red stamps will become good Saturday, Sept. 1 for meats and fats: L1, M1, N1, P1, and Q1. They are being validated for the usual period of four months—Sept. 1 through Dec. 31. Each stamp is worth 10 points; making a total of 50.

Invalid after Aug. 31 will be stamps Q2, R2, S2, T2 and U2. What the OPA didn't tell—and won't until next week—how much meat Red stamps will buy in September. All indications, however, point to substantial reductions in point values.

Hurricane Heads North Over Gulf

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24 (AP)—The U.S. weather bureau announced at 1 p. m. (Central War Time) that a hurricane had developed in the southwest Gulf of Mexico. It was centered about 200 miles east-southeast of Tampico, Mexico and was attended by winds of 90 miles per hour over a small area near the center.

The weather bureau said winds up to 75 miles per hour extended outward about 50 miles from the center of the storm.

"This dangerous storm is expected to move northward 8 to 10 miles per hour during the next 24 hours," the advisory said. "Vessels in path are urged to proceed with caution." The position of the storm center given in the 1 p. m. advisory was near latitude 21.5 degrees and longitude 95 degrees. The bureau said its next advisory would be issued between 3 and 4 p. m.

Rites Set For Robert Mize

Funeral will be held at 4 p. m. Sunday at the Eberley-Curry chapel for Robert Lee Mize, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Mize, 916 W. 8th, who died Thursday evening at a local hospital from poliomyelitis.

He is survived by his parents; four brothers, Herman and Alvin Mize, who are in the army air corps; Kelly Mize, Jr., and Joe Mize, Big Spring; and three sisters, Jane and Shirley Mize and Mrs. Zennia Mize Thomas, Big Spring. He also is survived by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Mize, Colorado City; three nephews and nieces and uncles and aunts.

The rites will be in charge of the Rev. Ivy Bohannon, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

Chinese Factions' Claims Conflict

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, Aug. 24 (AP)—Conflicting claims to the capture of Kweisui, capital of the Inner Mongolian province of Suiyuan, were made by the Chinese high command and Chinese communists today.

Official communist sources said Mao Tse-tung, communist leader, had accepted Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's invitation to send a representative to Chungking to seek a peaceful settlement of China's internal political situation.

Amendment Vote Due Saturday

Howard county voters will pass judgment upon four proposed amendments to the state constitution in balloting in 15 boxes Saturday.

Polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Those with poll tax receipts or exemption certificates are eligible to cast ballots. The proposed amendments are:

To permit those who will have been in the armed forces 18 months prior to given elections (and for a period of approximately 18 months from date of passage) free voting privileges. To increase the membership of the state supreme court from three to nine members. To permit appropriations up to $35,000,000 per annum (ceiling) for old age assistance, aid to needy blind and dependent children.

Hall-Hays Vows Said Saturday

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 24 — The marriage of Alice Louise Hays and Everett L. Hall of Colorado City took place in a ceremony performed by L. R. Costin, justice of the peace, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hays, former residents of Santa Anna and Colorado City and now of San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Hall is a 1939 graduate of Santa Anna high school. She attended Southwestern, Texas State Teachers college, San Marcos, and received nurses' training at Shannon hospital, San Angelo, and at Kings' Daughters hospital, Temple. She is now laboratory technician at the Logsdon clinic in Colorado City. The bridegroom, honorably discharged from the army after three years duty overseas as a sergeant with the 49th hospital corps serving in the European theater, is the son of Mrs. William H. Zillfro, Colorado City. He is a former resident of Oklahoma City and of California and at present is employed by Col-Tex company in the Westbrook oil fields.

For her wedding the bride wore a powder blue sabbardine two-piece tailored dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. The couple was unattended. They will live here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ashley and daughters have been transferred to Big Spring from Eastland. Ashley is an employee of the Texas Electric Service company.

State Capitol Thrown Into Semi-Darkness

AUSTIN, Aug. 24 (AP)—A breakdown in the city electric system today threw the capitol into semi-darkness for two hours.

The capitol's auxiliary power plant was not ready to function immediately and lack of illumination, made worse by low hanging clouds, slowed work in many departments until current was restored.

Elevator service was at a standstill and employees on upper floors labored up flights of stairs to report for work.

Polio Precautions: Wash Hands Well Before Each Meal

By ROLAND H. BERG Written Exclusively for AP News-features

"Pay careful attention to personal cleanliness such as thorough hand washing before eating," warns the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in its lists of precautions against serious attacks of the disease.

Research indicates the organism can enter the body through the mouth. Previous research disclosed infantile paralysis virus could be found in the bowel eliminations of many patients. What was not known was how long the virus could be excreted from the human body and whether there might be chronic carriers of the disease similar to "Typhoid Mary" who innocently spread typhoid to hundreds of victims.

Three scientists from Yale University, Doctors Robert Ward, Joseph L. Melnick and Dorothy M. Horstmann, tackled this problem. Stool specimens from 61 patients were prepared and inoculated into monkeys. If the monkeys developed infantile paralysis after injection it meant that the virus was still present in the patient's body. After six months of experiments made possible by the financial support of the National Foundation, the scientists reported that many patients continued to excrete virus from their bodies as long as two months.

Other scientists demonstrated that virus was excreted in the stools of persons who had merely been in contact with patients and had no symptoms themselves. They estimated that for every person actually ill with the disease there might be ten or more healthy contacts who, despite the lack of symptoms, had the infantile paralysis virus in their bodies and were capable of spreading infection.

At the Poliomyelitis Research Center established by The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at Johns Hopkins University, investigators determined that the virus was frequently present in the throat discharges of patients. Doctors Kenneth F. Maxcy, Howard A. Howe, Herbert A. Wenner and David Bodian rubbed cotton swabs against tonsillar areas of polio patients. The material from these swabs produced infantile paralysis in monkeys.

The virus may pass from one person to another in droplets of throat secretions loosed in the air by coughing, sneezing and spitting of polio victims. Contamination of food, drink, objects and hands with the intestinal eliminations not only from those frankly sick with infantile paralysis but also from the many persons without signs of illness may be the means of spreading infection.

BOOK LEARNING

In homespun language, our elders used to refer to formal education as "book learning," for indeed, study of books is one of the best means of acquiring knowledge.

Although today we know that not all education is based upon "book learning," this process is still a foundation stone of growing in knowledge. The greater the books, the greater the chance to learn something enduring and valuable.

The greatest of all books is the Bible. No education can be really complete without it. That is why we are anxious to provide a full time Bible course in the high school to make this study available to our young minds. The teaching avoids all doctrinal matters and conforms with state requirements in that the Bible is taught in school for its great moral, historical and literary values. If the student learns these in school—his church, regardless of denomination or creed—will find a fertile field for ministering to spiritual needs.

Under state law tax funds cannot be used to finance Bible instruction. That is why we urge you, if you are able, to contribute to a Bible course fund by mailing your contribution to Joe Pickle, treasurer.

BIG SPRING PASTORS ASSOCIATION

GI's With 55 Points Will Remain In US

FORT WORTH, Aug. 24 (AP)—The army air forces training command announced here that enlisted men in the command who had an adjusted service rating score of 55 or more points would not be sent overseas unless they volunteered.

Lowest score yet announced by the war department for exemption from overseas duty for enlisted men was 75.

The command's public relations office said yesterday that the command had been directed to send enlisted men with 85 points or more who desired discharge to separation centers as quickly as processing at those centers would permit.

The command stated that four categories of highly skilled specialists involving "a negligible number of men," are exempted from the order concerning men with 85 or more points.

INVESTIGATIONS

Police were investigating the reported theft of a radio from a house at 203 S. Gregg street Friday. They also were on the look-out for a 1939 Ford convertible coupe reported taken from its parking place at the BOQ buildings at the post Thursday evening.

Chaplain Points Out Vet's Need Of Church

HOUSTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Lt. Col. Gordon Reese, executive secretary for the army and navy commission of the Episcopal church, charged here that American churches are occupied mainly with building programs instead of rehabilitation programs for service men.

"Where are their rehabilitation programs for service men," he asked in an interview last night. "I don't hear of any."

"I do see a wonderful lot of back-patting over the fact the church debt has been paid during the war; that a Sunday school building is to be added to the main church; that elevators to the Sunday school rooms are going to be installed; that everything is going to be air conditioned."

The 53-year-old chaplain who served in the Hawaiian group in the Pacific has just concluded a trip to a number of points in the United States, including places in New York, Connecticut and Texas. What he saw and heard, he said, "burned me up."

"We blessed the war and soldiers killing our enemies," the chaplain said. "Are we going to bless what comes after the war?"

"Is the church going to do anything for the rehabilitation of veterans? For the blind boy? For the boy with a hook where he once had an arm? For his wife, who has been deprived of the earning power and protection of a whole man? For his children?"

"In the Pacific, the boys are worried about their jobs back home," Colonel Reese declared.

"They worry about their wives. I know of two wives who wrote their husbands they were pregnant though the husbands had been away two years the wives said for them not to get excited."

"I remember the words of one of them very well—'Honey, now don't worry. I wouldn't have you worry. Everything will be all right.'"

The clergyman stated that men subjected to the pressures of fighting and anxiety will need more than the rehabilitation programs set up for them by the army and navy.

"The churches have their greatest opportunity. Will they miss it? If they do, you can blame some of it with their pre-occupation in seeing that every church is air-conditioned, so that worshippers will have a cool place in which to thank God for a bloody victory."

Hill Elected City Manager At Lamesa

LAMESA, Aug. 24—G. T. Hill has been elected to serve as the first city manager of Lamesa.

He comes here from College Station where, for the past two years, he has been on the instructional staff of Texas A. & M. College.

Hill is a graduate of civil engineering from that institution. He has done work in the office of the R. B. Hill Construction Co., the state office of the WPA and at the office of the post engineer at Camp Swift, Tex.

This city replaced its commission form of government with the managerial form on May 1 when a home rule charter and city manager type was given decided approval by the voters.

First round of the Women's Bowling association league will be rolled at 8 p. m. Sept. 5, members of the organization voted at a meeting Thursday evening at the Settles.

There will be six teams in the league and each team will have four members.

Competition will start from scratch with averages being established on the strength of first night performances. Thereafter, the handicap system will be employed to equalize the race.

Only one sponsor—Seven-Up—has been announced. There was a good response at the meeting, according to Olive Cagle, president. She anticipated that team organization would be completed well in advance of the league opening.

SMALL FIRE DAMAGE

Little damage occurred at Casa Grande in the northwest quarter of the city Thursday afternoon. Fire Chief H. V. Crocker said that the electric fuses had been bridged.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sheif of San Antonio visited this week with Mrs. Andrew Merrick. They are enroute from Colorado to their home in San Antonio.

Reconversion Rolls Both Ways At Once

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Americans sighted more butter, cheese and canned milk today—but they were jolted by strong action on the labor front.

The government seized a railroad—just as in wartime. President Truman ordered government operation of the Illinois Central in order to prevent a strike.

Thus the tides of reconversion rolled in both directions at the same time.

But normal living rolled closer—in several days. It appeared as though the average American soon would:

Mr. Truman gave the word on possible return to standard time. He said he will ask congress early in September to abolish "war time" and let the states again have exclusive control over the watches and clocks within their borders.

Mr. Truman also ordered all federal workers back on the pre-war 40-hour week. This will happen before September 9 unless an agency finds it will seriously hamper essential work.

Britain To Join United Nations

LONDON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Ratification of the United Nations charter by Great Britain raised the possibility today that the first plenary session of the World Security League would be called by late October.

Members of the executive committee of the United Nations preparatory commission, now sitting in London to prepare for the birth of the new organization, believe enough nations will have approved the charter by that time to permit the calling of the session.

Britain last night became the last of the big five powers to ratify. Neither in the house of commons nor in the house of lords was it necessary to take a vote, despite blunt statements in parliament that the charter was not strong enough to maintain peace so long as the atomic bomb remained a British-American secret.

Livestock Commission Reports Good Sales

The Big Spring Livestock Commission Company reported a good sale Wednesday with a run of 350 head of cattle. The sale totaled $25,000 in proceeds for the consigners.

The market was steady this week and somewhat higher than the week before. The buyers were active and there was good attendance.

BEHIND A SUCCESSFUL CANNING SEASON

CAN ALL YOU CAN—BUT USE SUGAR WISELY

By observing the requirements of sterile jars, properly cooked fruit and by using IMPERIAL PURE CANE SUGAR you can insure a successful canning season. IMPERIAL SUGAR makes a smooth, rich syrup that protects and enhances the delicate flavor of sun-ripened fruits. Quick-dissolving IMPERIAL helps eliminate waste. Rely on IMPERIAL PURE CANE SUGAR and surprise the family with shelves of mouth-watering preserves.

Ask for IMPERIAL... the sugar Texans like best.

In cloth or paper packages, it's the same, IMPERIAL PURE CANE SUGAR.

Let's Modernize Our State Supreme Court

Texas' phenomenal growth during recent years has brought a heavy demand upon the state's highest court. The last legislature proposed an amendment to the state constitution which would make our court comparable to that of other states in the population bracket of the great Lone Star.

Vote for a NINE-MAN SUPREME COURT

August 25
(S.J.R. No. 8—Third Amendment on the Ballot)

because . . .

It will give a voice to all nine judges who now hear arguments and write opinions, but upon which only three are empowered to rule.

It will require a majority of five judges for court rulings, instead of two as at present. It will require five for a quorum, instead of the present two.

It will prevent the possibility of two judges handing down an opinion which might be entirely different to that held by one of the present three judges and all six of the court-appointed appeals commissioners.

It will enable the people of Texas to choose all of the men who serve on this court, with election of three each two years for six-year terms. Today one judge is elected each two years, with two Commissioners being appointed at the same time for six-year terms.

Lawyers are urging their clients and friends to vote for this amendment. Because we believe the people should have the added efficiency which the action would provide for the court, we, the undersigned recommend the adoption of this nine-man supreme court amendment.

Discharges Loom For Big Spring Combat Officers

Discharges for veteran combat officers loomed as likely in the next week to ten days, with the Big Spring post ordering all qualified officers to report for interviews Friday and Saturday.

Officers in Big Spring Thursday night revealed that those qualified for these interviews are only those who had previously stated they did not desire to remain on active duty for the duration.

In addition, the following combat point minimums were listed: captains, 70; first lieutenants, 58; second lieutenants, 42; and flight officers, 36.

Local railway authorities said they had no information on prospective travel of officers and their wives to separation centers, but assumed the policy would be continued under which officers and their wives are allowed to travel together.

Normally, the railroads are requested to supply specified accommodations to military personnel being transferred, and it was assumed this would be continued.

Meanwhile, a report published in the San Angelo Standard-Times stated that pilots with one year or more of commissioned service would soon be eligible for dismissal.

Ex-GI Star Needs Only Shave, Haircut To Play

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Feller returns to the baseball world tonight after a four-year hitch in Uncle Sam's Navy and the odds are all in favor of his picking up where he left off in 1941.

Razor Robert may not be as razor sharp against the league-leading Detroit Tigers under the Cleveland ace as he was when he won 25 for the Tribe in his last full season, but he has been managing and throwing for a top flight Great Lakes Navy team this season.

Al Benton, Red Ruffing, Hank Greenberg, Buddy Lewis, Dave Ferris and Charley Keller are proving every day that a returning serviceman ball player needs little more than a shave and a haircut to step right back into his big league berth.

Ferris is the outstanding example of a successful ex-GI with his brilliant 19-6 win record for the Boston Red Sox although he was just a minor league performer before Pearl Harbor. Ruffing has topped four of five for the Yankees and Benton's 11-4 performance is a big reason for the Tigers' success.

Jim Tobin assured Feller of a first place target to shoot at when he hurled the Bengals to a 4-3 verdict over Philadelphia yesterday, upping their margin over idle Washington to one full game.

Although the A's banged Tobe's "nothin' ball" for eight hits including two doubles, 10 blows off Don Black enabled Detroit to close a 21-game home stand with its 14th decision over the eastern invaders.

Washington opens a vital four-game set in the Yankee Stadium today while the Tigers joust with the Indians. All other clubs in the American league were idle yesterday.

Brooklyn staved off New York's threat to the Dodgers' third place berth on a four-hit, 4-1 night.

game triumph by Rookie Ralph Branca. Despite threatening weather, the final after dark contest at the Polo Grounds drew 34,415 paid, boosting the season total to well over 900,000. Fourteen "owl" tilts drew 328,931 customers.

Sal Maglie, who had won his first two starts since coming up from the Jersey City farm, was banged out early as the Brooks stretched their third place margin over the Giants to a game and a half.

Pittsburgh handed Cincinnati its sixth straight setback and its 19th in the last 21 starts, with Walter Beck scattering nine safeties for a 6-2 edge. Earl Harist, making his first start since his return to the Reds, was charged with the defeat, cemented by Bilal Salkeld's three-run homer in the fifth. Beck has won four in a row for the Pirates since he was acquired from Cincy.

All other National league teams were unscheduled.

Nelson Recognizes New Trend In Golf: No Longer A One Man Show

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 24 (AP)—The man who has dominated play during the past two years recognized today a new trend in big time golf:

It's no longer a one-man show. Byron Nelson fired a five-under-par 67 to take the first round lead yesterday in the $13,333

Knoxville Open. Yet when he reached the scoreboard he found two old professional rivals and a young amateur breathing hot on his neck.

Just a stroke behind with 68's were Lt. Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who is making a comeback after army service; Little Toney Penna of Dayton, Ohio, and the new amateur threat, Freddie Haas, Jr., of New Orleans.

"It was one of the best rounds of golf I ever had," commented Nelson. "But I only have a one stroke lead. This thing is getting tougher."

The Toledo mashie master finished spectacularly. Coming to the long, par-five 18th green, needing a birdie to take the lead, Nelson poked his second wood into a deep rough on the left.

Then, thrilling the gallery, he laid an iron dead to the pin and puffed out easily for the birdie four that put him out in front.

17-Year-Old Upsetter To Play Semi-Finals

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24 (AP)—Sylvia Knowles, 17-year-old Philadelphia who has gained the semi-final round of the National girls' lawn tennis tournament by a series of impressive upset wins, meets top-seeded Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, in today's feature match.

Nancy Chafee, 16-year-old miss from Ventura, Calif., making her first tour of the east, opposes second ranked Jean Doyle of San Diego in the opening match.

Washington opens a vital four-game set in the Yankee Stadium today while the Tigers joust with the Indians. All other clubs in the American league were idle yesterday.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—That racket you must hear isn't another atomic bombing — just Jimmy Johnston, the atom with the iron 'at, explaining how Archie Moore really won that fight in Cleveland Wednesday even though he was counted out . . . The affair proves the wisdom of the rule requiring a fighter to go to a neutral corner after scoring a knockdown . . . You may be able to see the difference tonight when Welterweight Champ Red Cochrane takes on Rocky Graziano, who tagged him decisively the last time out . . . Cochrane owns a beverage parlor but never has been behind the counter—which distinguishes him from some fighters who have been known to own bars and work them from either side . . . Some sort of a long distance prize ought to be awarded in next week's national tennis championships to Sgt. Frankie Parker, who flew in from Guam to defend his title, and Navy Lt. Ed Moyan, who won the championship of Ireland a few weeks ago.

A State of Mind

When the Army Air Transport Command footballers staged a scrimmage at Berry Field, Nashville, Tenn., recently Coach Dick Ermerson split his squad into "Yankees" and Rebels . . . Someone asked Pvt. Louis (Snort) Toliver, who formerly performed for the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, St. Mary's Rattlers and Pittsburgh Steelers, which side he'd be on . . . "Neither," snorted Snort. "You Rebels and Yankees play this thing off, then us guys from Texas will beat the winner for the camp championship."

Lt. (jg) Hal Hammack, new officer in charge of the naval combat demolition unit at Fort Pierce, Fla., was a three-letter halfback at Southern California in 1929-31. And Sgt. Ernie Pinckert, who took care of most of the demolition accomplished by Howard Jones' teams in those days, is coaching the backs for the Air Transport Command team. Patty Rockford, who was a German war prisoner for six months, is slated to play for the New York Americans when the American Soccer league season opens Sunday . . . When Seaman Jim Thorpe, the old Carlisle star, visited Calcutta recently he was persuaded to appear before the G.I.'s and visit hospitals and it's hard to tell who got the bigger kick out of his visit.

Coachless Bears To Start Fall Training

HERSHEY, Pa. Aug. 24 (AP)—The coachless Hershey Bears announced today they will start training for the American league hockey season Sept. 29.

General Manager John S. Solenberger said no selection of a successor to Cooney Welland, Bears' mentor for the past four years, has been made. The Bears have purchased four new members from the Boston Bruins. Thirty-four players are under contract.

SHIPS WON'T COLLIDE PLANES WON'T CRASH

... into unseen hazards when warned by RADAR

SAFE? OR COLLISION IN FOG? No longer need unseen dangers, lurking in fog or darkness, be the cause of a disaster at sea. Today radar sees through the fog, locates other ships, buoys, icebergs, derelicts, shorelines.

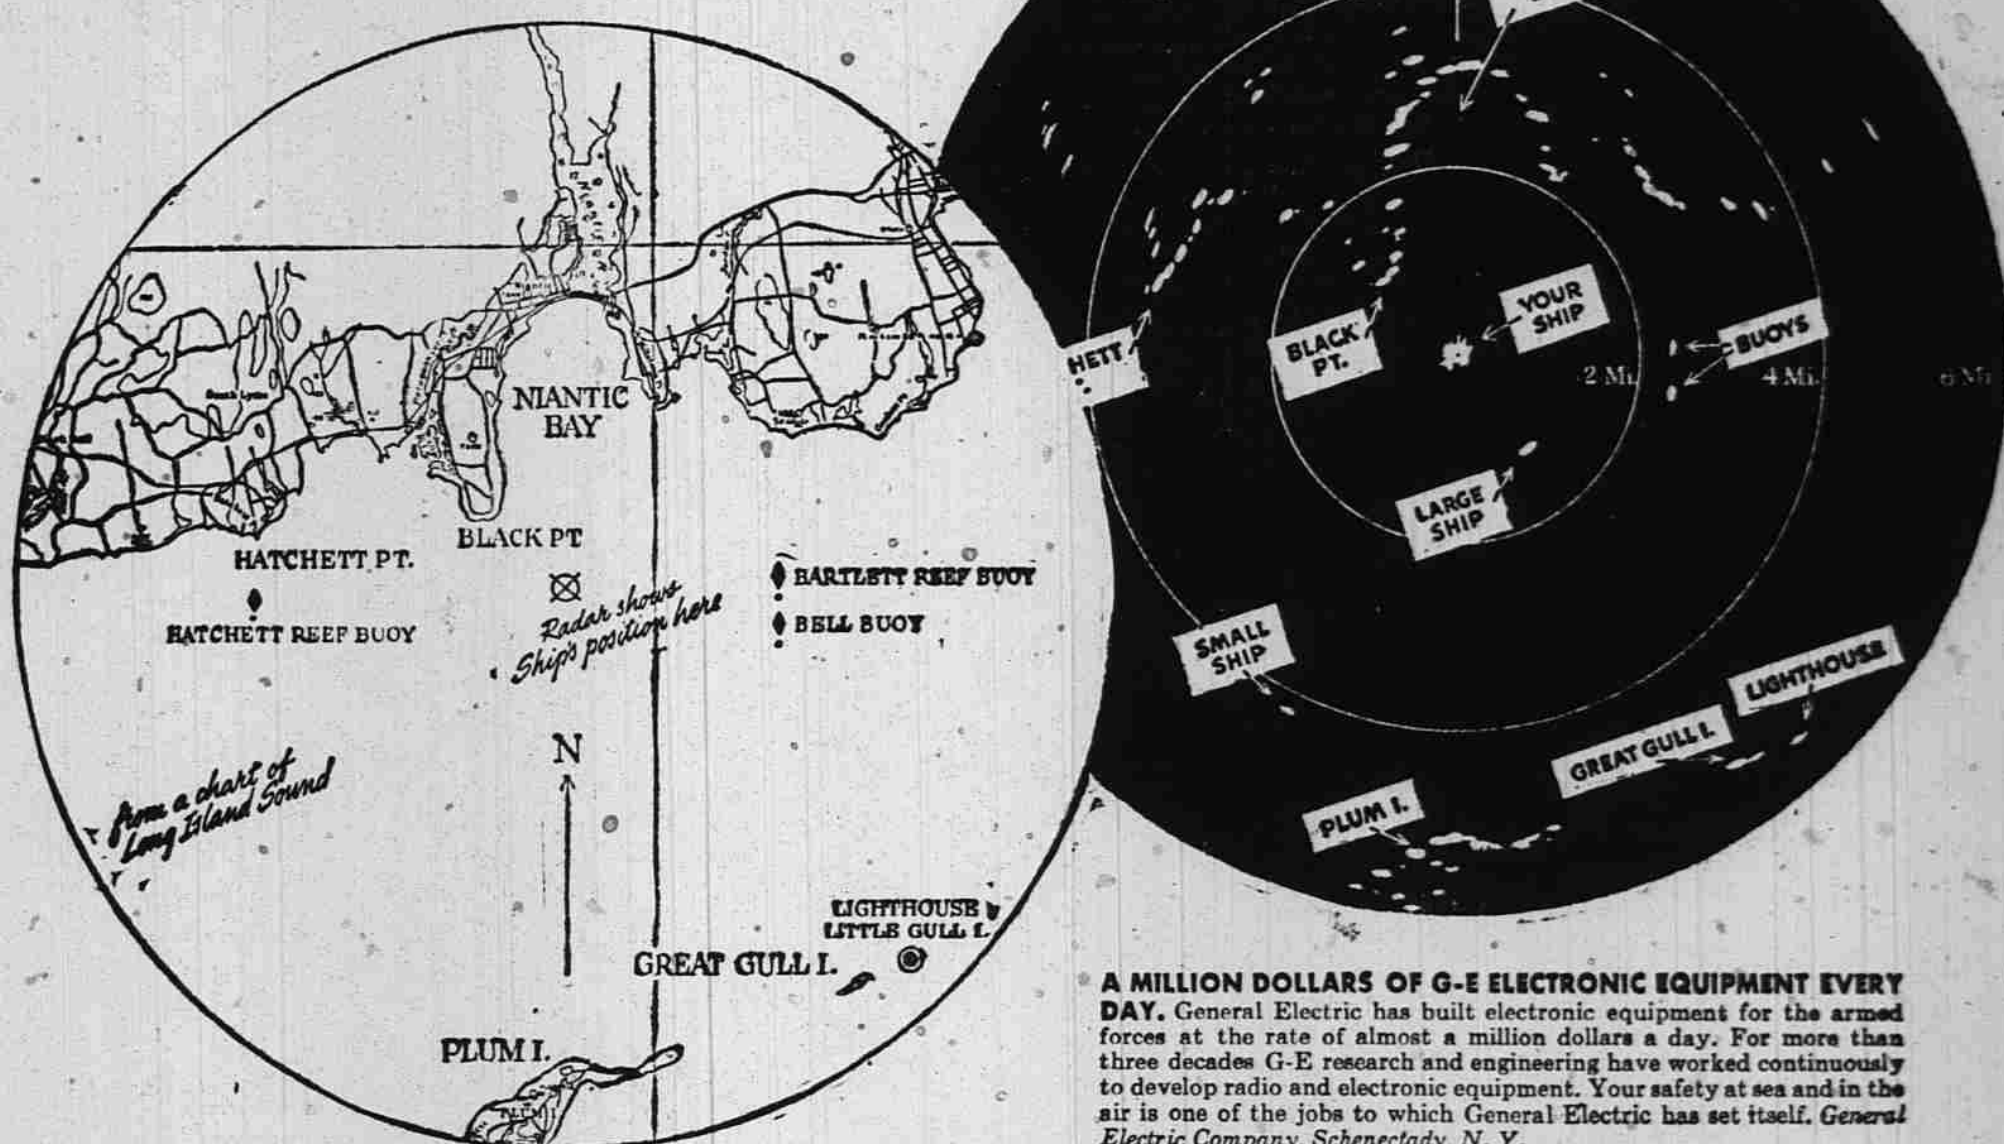

MOUNTAINS OR BUILDINGS AHEAD! Fog and bad weather will lose much of their terror with radar-equipped planes. Radar will warn the pilot of mountains, other planes and city skylines, help him to fly a safe course.

NOW, RADAR FOR COMMERCIAL SHIPS: On the bridge of "American Mariner," U. S. Maritime Service training ship, General Electric's new Electronic Navigator shows how radar can be used to help plot a safe course. This, we believe, is the first peacetime application of radar, demonstrated in the photo below.

Safe courses can be charted through fog and night in congested, ship-filled harbors.

Preserve Through Use

We have just come through a bloody struggle, and for our part, one of the chief things at stake was democratic processes.

One of the keystones of democratic functions is popular voting.

Saturday the citizens of Texas are called upon to pass judgment upon four amendments to the state constitution. One of these extends the privilege of free voting to those who will have been in armed services 18 months prior to an election and approximately 18 months from this date.

There can be no valid excuse for failing to vote. It is a precious privilege and we should all protect it by using it.

A Perennial Duty

Conservation of soil is an ever-recurring necessity. Unless the upper structure of the land is kept healthy, all the forces of decay rot the roots of society.

These thoughts are brought us rather vividly in the most detailed study of farm resources ever made. The Soil Conservation Service, after a three-year survey, declares that nearly a billion acres of farm land — need soil conservation practices to maintain their fertility.

Now that we are entering an era of peace, the production and adequate distribution of food become paramount problems throughout the world.

Here at home we cannot ignore the consequences. We are now a nation 80 per cent urban.

Short History Of The Japanese War--

Winning Island B-29 Bases

(Eighth in a Series)

The Second and Fourth Marine and 27th Infantry divisions were supported by a spectacular rocket barrage and a huge array of air and sea power, but the Japanese, fighting to maintain their lifeline to the South Pacific, displayed a new high in suicidal resistance.

They fell back upon the jumbled ravines of Mount Tapotchau, a maze of caves hundreds of feet deep which they had been building throughout their League of Nations mandate over the island.

At last venturing out to challenge the American advances, the Japanese fleet intervened. In the first battle of the Philippine Sea, a series of engagements extending from June 10 to 23, the enemy lost 743 planes, 28 ships sunk and 51 ships damaged.

Toward the end Japanese civilians took to mass suicide. Hundreds leaped from cliffs into the sea. Mothers stabbed their children, fathers led their families into the sea, soldiers jugged grenades to their breasts.

The Americans returned to Guam on July 20, 11 days after the capture of Saipan, and cleaned it in three weeks. The smaller island of Tinian was captured on Aug. 1.

The Marianas campaign cost the Japanese 45,000 dead. In exterminating the Japanese—scattered survivors were being killed many months after resistance formally ended—4,470 Yanks died and more than 20,000 suffered wounds.

But on Nov. 24, a little over three months after resistance on Saipan ended, American B-29 Superfortresses from the island made the first of their deadly and devastating attacks on industrial Japan.

Saipan, Guam and Tinian became a busy triple springboard for hundreds of Superfortresses which had made the first land-based attack on Japan from their Chinese bases on June 16.

Within a year Guam, once again under the Stars and Stripes, had been turned into one of the most formidable bases on the globe, its complex camps, depots and airfields surrounding the headquarters of Adm. Nimitz.

As a sequel to the body blow suffered in the Marianas, Premier General Hideki Tojo, the grim instigator of the attack on Pearl Harbor, fell from power on July 18 and was succeeded by General Kuniaki Koiso.

A death struggle similar to that on Saipan was waged by the Japanese for Peleliu, main island of the Palaus, 1,200 miles west of Truk and 800 miles southwest of Guam.

More than 12,000 Japanese were killed in the multi-level caverns of Bloody Nose Ridge and the tangled mangrove swamps of rocky Peleliu in 29 days. Americans suffered their second highest percentage of losses of the Pacific campaign—8,172 killed and wounded.

After breaking the screen, he discovered that the window led to an elevator shaft. Next step was to leap for the elevator cables and while swinging on them, kick open the "lift" door. Then he made a hole in the third floor of the building, with the intention of jumping to the second floor.

But at that point the prowling Tom grew discouraged and presumably went home to get some much-needed rest.

With The AEF: GI's Aboard The "Green Project" Near Home

By ELTON C. FAY (Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NATAL, Brazil, (AP)—More than 32,000 GI's, homeward bound from Europe, have gone through this United States airbase on the eastern hump of South America.

They come through in a steady stream. More than 700 men a day climb down from planes, 17 hours out of Casablanca, North Africa. Only a couple of days more and they will be home.

These boys had luck. They beat priority, in general they are men destined for discharge. Under normal circumstances, they might have been among the last to leave Europe by ocean ships, months hence.

The army air forces' Air Transport Command, however, had planes—hundreds of them—on hand, ready for use. The world's greatest airline was set up, the "Green Project" for flying soldiers home.

Paranirum Field and its huge military encampment is the transfer point for the soldier-traveler. He lands here at the halfway mark home in a C-54, four engine transport; perhaps a little weary of hearing the roar of airplane engines for 17 hours and little more fed up with K rations—but with the United States only two days away.

The aim is to make life as pleasant as possible. (No place is better than home for a soldier headed that way.) Natal, by a freak of weather, is a cool, breeze-swept, dry spot in a region of tropical jungle. To conform with passport and health regulations of the Brazilian government, the transient GI isn't allowed off the post, even to the nearby city of Natal. But he finds here a better-than-average entertainment setup and a chance to exercise, eat and sleep.

He's going to find, however, some annoyances before he gets that slip of paper releasing him from rules, regulations and the army. The briefing officer who met him aboard the plane has said, with a wry grin:

"You're going to find that the closer you get to home the tougher the war will get. Keep your shirt buttons and your pants legs rolled down."

Government Orders To Lift Bans May Not Take Effect Right Now

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—

You'll save yourself from confusion if—in the rushing change-over from war to peace—you remember this:

The change can't happen in a day, week or month.

The government announces it is removing some wartime control on this or that. But when?

It's important, for a war understanding of what is happening, that you repeatedly ask yourself about the relaxation of some control:

When does it go into effect? If you're not careful you're apt to think—every time you hear of a control being lifted—that it takes effect immediately.

Those trips in wartime—in order

O'Daniel Claims He Has Been Asked To Run For Governor

DALLAS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Tex) says he has been urged to run for governor of Texas next year.

"I will say this," the senator added in an interview yesterday,—"the living conditions would be better in Austin than in Washington."

Suggestions that he make the race were contained in letters expressing indignation over the proposed constitutional amendment, that would set a ceiling on money that could be spent in Texas on old age pensions, O'Daniel said. He stated that he had already cast an absentee ballot against the amendment.

The senator, whose present term does not expire until the end of 1948, said he had made no political plans for the future.

McGory, This Stuff Is Getting Tiresome

DETROIT, Aug. 24 (AP)—Patrolman Edward Zadroski rescued Joe M. McGory from drowning six months ago.

Thursday night, Zadroski was summoned from his beat to aid in recovering a drowning victim from the Detroit river. It was McGory.

Washington Merry-Go-Round--

States To Share In Reconstruction

(Ed. Note: Drew Pearson is on vacation. Ellis Arnall, famous governor of Georgia who recently led the fight abolishing the poll tax, contributes today's column as Pearson's guest writer.)

By ELLIS ARNALL Governor, State of Georgia ATLANTA, Ga.—The reconversion period will place exceptional strains upon state governments. It will test the efficiency and foresight with which state agencies have prepared for peace. It will determine whether political decentralization, which is almost essential to domestic security as economic decentralization, is to be retained or abandoned.

The magnitude of the problems facing the federal government will be increased enormously unless state agencies are alert and effective. In the next three or four years there will be the eventual test of whether "states rights" mean anything at all except a phrase to be tossed out by stump speakers. Unless "states rights" are coupled with the assumption of responsibilities, they will be about as useful as an archæus in this day of atomic bombs.

During the past four years, public services have been limited to minimum needs for education, public health and public assistance. The physical plants of all units of government—highways, public buildings, sanitary facilities, hospitals—are in poor condition throughout the nation.

This presents a challenge to state governments to meet needs within their spheres promptly. If they do not do so, they will create a vacuum into which the federal government must inevitably move in response to urgent public demand. Decentralization is not an excuse for a static inaction. It will not be accepted as an excuse by the people of the various states. The public has strong objections to centralization, but it has an even stronger antipathy for slythful neglect of vital services.

POT O'LUCK TO RACE

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Chicagoan Warren Wright's Pot O'Luck, will be back at his favorite route—a mile and a quarter—in tomorrow's $85,000 American Derby at Washington Park. The race stacks up as one of the nation's foremost tests for three-year olds.

Grid for crossword puzzle with numbers 1-67 indicating starting positions for words.

Georgia's R.R. Battle There has been determined propaganda in America for 30 years to the effect that state governments were important. As a southern governor, I was supposed to be righteously indignant on all public occasions about the freight rate discrimination that is one of the main causes of that poverty which is the root of all the south's economic and social ills. But it was presumed, likewise, that attention about the matter would be limited to the filing of polite complaints with the drowsy Interstate Commerce Commission and to the assumption in public of a suitable lachrymose attitude. The state of Georgia, it was assumed, could do nothing about the matter.

Reports from the Tennessee Valley Authority, the president's committee, the southeastern regional planning board and scores of other agencies disclosed the acute need for smashing the transportation cartel. That industrialization, to balance agriculture, was a prime need for the southern and western states was strikingly obvious. That delay until the termination of the war, permitting the junking of every newly developed industrial facility in these sections, would be suicidal was clearly apparent.

So Georgia sued in the United States supreme court, seeking to break up the intricate unofficial bureaucracy that was imposing outrageous transportation rates on the section. It could not be done, it was insisted. The supreme court would never entertain such an action. Georgia would be the laughing-stock of the country. The preliminary opinion of the supreme court, accepting jurisdiction in the case in one of the most far-reaching decisions ever handed down by that tribunal, gave Georgia the last laugh.

Lazy State Governments This illustrates the fact that state governments are not ineffective instruments of the public—if they are put to use. They possess enormous powers. They can protect the interests of their citizens, if they set out to do so. Laziness has been their curse, and the American public does not like lazy government.

State governments can exercise a wholesome influence in safeguarding against monopolies, in encouraging decentralization of industry, and in protecting the natural resources of America from exploitation.

As this country endeavors to organize for reconversion, it is becoming evident that two bad tangles in our domestic affairs must be straightened. Prosperity must be better distributed through decentralization of industry. Cartels and monopolies must be eliminated, unless we are ready to send free enterprise to the junkpile for good.

The various documents of the special senate committee investigating centralization of heavy industry (McCarran committee) are impressive evidence that the cycles of inflation and boom, deflation and depression, cannot be broken until every section of the United States is enabled to utilize its full potential of human and natural resources.

Only the striking of a balance between the production of raw materials and their manufacture can enable any section to maintain a permanent and balanced prosperity. The wastes inherent in prodigal transportation of raw materials half-way across a continent to be processed would have demolished an economy more mature and static than that of America; but it has inflicted a tremendous and ever-mounting toll upon producers and consumers.

Monopoly vs. Democracy Monopolies have no place with in a democracy. They are the implements of the ideologies that have just cost America a million casualties and three hundred billion dollars of national wealth to suppress. No program of decentralization of industry, with the wisdom of a uniformly prosperous nation, can be realized unless conspiracies in restraint of trade are ruthlessly suppressed. Full employment will be just another ringing phrase to go along with states rights if the cartel-makers are allowed free rein during the reconversion era.

In combatting centralization and monopoly, the states have a part to play. They can do much to insure that the highly efficient industrial establishments created in the southern and western states to meet war needs, are continued in operation. They can act effectively to see that they are not permitted to fall into the hands of interests that plan to junk them to remove their productive capacity.

America needs all of its productive capacity for peace, which, in many ways will be a more severe test of national purpose than was the war.

Attention Ladies: Nylon World On Way

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 23 (AP)—E. I. DuPont de Nemours Company, swinging into large scale peacetime production, promises nylon—starved American women 11 pairs a year. It won't be long, Dupont said, until we have what amounts to a nylon world. Through years of experience in putting the strong yarn to military uses, the textile industry has learned many new ways of handling the yarn. Dupont said it can produce enough yarn to make 360,000,000 pairs of hosiery a year.

Barnes Favors Passage Of All Four Amendments

Two of the four proposed amendments to the state constitution have excellent chances of passage, according to the opinion of Rep. Cecil Barnes, San Angelo, here on a brief visit Thursday.

These are the soldier vote and the increasing of the supreme court amendments. More controversial and thus more uncertain are amendments which would put a $35,000,000 ceiling on welfare funds and which would pay legislators $3,650 per year instead of $600 as is now the case.

Barnes said he believed that the merits of the soldier vote and larger court amendments is such that they would be passed without great opposition.

The representative of the 91st district, of which Howard county is a part, observed that "advances have been made in living costs in the last few years." Yet the pension payments to oldsters is the same. Existing payments for dependent children, he pointed out, are insufficient for proper care and nourishment, and the dependent blind have greater needs because of advanced living costs.

While the amendment does impose a ceiling, Barnes said that it also would be the means of permitting the appropriation of enough funds to add some $6,000,000 to the available funds.

Making it plain that he did not wish to be considered in the position of arguing for a personal salary increase but that he was looking at the matter from a state point of view, Barnes said that were he not a member of the legislature, he would support the salary vote amendment.

"I believe it would open the way for better state government and help remove certain pitfalls and temptations that long have been inherent in the office because of underpaid officials," he said.

"The amendment is more far-reaching and significant than seems on the surface as it discards

MR. TRUMAN GOES TO POTSDAM

(Last of Three Stories)
By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 (AP)—Four months in the White House have not changed Harry S. Truman's attitude toward himself or toward people.

Even his participation at Berlin as a central figure in another drama of the "Big Three" did not crase the easy affability ingrained in his personality.

He finds it difficult to understand, he confided to reporters on the historic voyage of the cruiser Augusta, why folks who took him calmly enough as a Missouri neighbor, as a senator and as a vice president should make such a fuss over him because he happens to be president.

When his voice got husky during his strenuous vice presidential speaking campaign he simply took a lozenge, but it seemed that every time he cleared his throat aboard the Augusta, a naval doctor popped into his cabin to swab it.

Occasionally he would humor the doctor and let him swab away, joking with friends and reminding them he could outwalk any man aboard the ship.

This was not an idle boast, as those who followed him on an inspection of the vessel learned. From the boiler room level to the highest control towers, the 61-year-old Missourian led his party on a tour which left all but him puffing and exhausted.

"I'll make men out of you yet," he laughingly told reporters.

He climbed the ladders with an agility which left correspondents pop-eyed, as did his knowledge of the machinery of the ship.

He chatted with sailors, ate with them and autographed anything they handed him for those in sick bay. He brought cheering wishes for recovery.

The president always finds some time to spend at his piano. During the round trip to the conference, he would be heard at the piano in the admiral's cabin.

At other times Mr. Truman would read for hours. His knowledge of history is prodigious. It would be difficult to name a famous general with whose career and tactics he is not familiar.

Hardly a day passed that did not find the president strolling about the ship before 7 a. m., an ordinary seaman's cap cocked jauntily on his head. Members of his party knew they would have to be at the table by seven if they wanted to breakfast with him.

Immediately after the dishes were cleared away, the president went to work on whatever dispatches required his personal attention. Press Secretary Charles G. Ross once remarked that "the president had a day's work done by 9 o'clock."

Perhaps Bossy Needs A Peacetime Vacation

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Vacations are no longer un-patriotic.

So if you plan to take that long-deferred trip, you might take a tip from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Keilers of Sealy, Tex.

They took their cow along.

The Keilers, complete with children Sidney, Fred and Ruth, carried their Jersey cow named Gal along in a trailer. Mr. Keilers said the plan had obvious advantages such as (1) no safer milk could be found anywhere (2) it kept Gal contented and (3) if their car broke down along the highway the cow could eat grass and furnish his family with food daily.

Gal must have enjoyed the trip, for she kept up her average milk production throughout the trip.

And if you run into a rattlesnake or two along the way, why worry?

Just think of Sam Scott of Shamrock. A snake bit Scott and Scott's dog. He very calmly killed the snake; treated his dog; made a tourniquet on his leg; cut off the snake's rattles for a souvenir; climbed on a tractor and drove to a neighbor's home.

He's getting along okay now.

But when you leave, be sure your lease is air-tight. You don't want to lose your home while gone.

In Dallas even such experts as FBI agents have trouble finding homes. Percy Wily II, a brassy G-man, took over as FBI head last week and then opened what he called one of the most intensive hunts of his career—a search for living quarters.

At last reports he was still living in a hotel room.

Bond Sale Moral Is Quite Obvious

If anybody celebrated Victory with bond purchases, county bond leaders have been scooped.

At least the total sales for the month do not indicate anyone felt happy enough about the end of the war to rush down and invest some of their earnings or savings.

Against a quota of over $90,000 for E, F and G bonds, sales through Thursday amounted to $45,109.75.

County Bond Chairman Ira Thurman pointed out that just because firing has ceased that wartime expenses have not. Indeed, he said, the outlay for getting them home is alone a terrific financial obligation, let alone maintaining armies for enforcement of peace.

The moral, he said, is quite obvious.
